THE MOST COMPLETE COLLEGE FOOTBALL PREVIEW I KNOW YOU WILL AGREE!

Welcome to the 17th edition of my College Football Preview. In the back of the magazine (pg 326) I have always had a questionnaire and each year I read through EVERY one of the thousands that are sent back. I want to thank everyone who returned one and I really appreciate all of the very nice comments. Those comments keep me going during the long hours of "magazine season" from December through May. I keep adding features thanks, in part, to the questionnaires that YOU have filled out. This year to make things even easier for you (and so you don't have to tear a page out of the magazine) we have the questionnaire online at PhilSteele.com. New things are added every year to get as much information on these pages as possible. The magazine has come a long way from the black and white 1st edition (1995) with one paragraph per team!

PhilSteele.com keeps getting better each year. After I write the magazine in May there are always numerous players who are injured, suspended or quit over the summer. I have a complete list of those players online so you can update your magazine (I circle the players that are gone in mine). My magazine has limited pages but the website is unlimited and I want to make it your ultimate FBS college football source, PLUS it is loaded with information on the FCS (IAA) and the NFL! For years I have compiled thousands of pages of stats and data into numerous books to aide in my research. Now I just post everything on PhilSteele.com and use that as my personal library. On the website you have access to 80% of the stats and information that I use and it is updated DAILY during the college football season. We also have weekly contests and award prizes when you enter our contests or use our polls. I also give you my forecasts on each week's games involving Top 25 teams.

There are some fine preseason magazines out there, including The Sporting News, Athlon, Lindy's, Sports Illustrated, GamePlan and ESPN. Magazines in this class usually use numerous writers from around the country to analyze each school or conference. As always, I have written EVERY single team preview myself. I do not know of any other magazine that has as MUCH information as my College Football Preview. Please check out the two full pages crammed with information on each team and see if you agree.

I am very pleased to report that we are the most accurate magazine over the past 13 years (pg 306) and I take great pride in that. Last year we expanded our FCS or IAA information to a full page on each of those teams (over 150 pages). This year our new FCS preview will have closer to 200 pages devoted solely to the FCS. Keep in mind that UTSA and Texas St are joining the WAC and UMass is joining the MAC next season. You can get complete coverage on those 3 this year in my FCS Preview and it is just $8.95 plus shipping. It will be at a limited number of newsstands so go to PhilSteele.com to order yours.

Two years ago we put a full color NFL magazine onto the newsstands for the first time and it exceeded my expectations. Not only was it the most accurate magazine but it has more information per NFL team (6 pages) than the two full pages I put on FBS teams in here! This year we are expanding the Fantasy portion of the magazine and are bringing in a Fantasy football writer from a popular Emmy-Award winning web based show to author that section! Check out page 26.

You will notice there is a lot of small type and abbreviations in this magazine. This is done so I can put as much information in this magazine as possible. Refer to the glossary on page 3 if you need assistance with some of the abbreviations. We also have an index on page 3, so you can find your favorite team quickly. In each conference the teams are listed in my projected order of finish.

I would like to thank my dad, Hank, who passed away in 1989. He instilled in me a strong work ethic and a passion for football, which will always be my favorite sport. He is a true inspiration. Also I want to thank my mother, Mary, who STILL invests many hours and prayers into the business.

If you want the information to keep coming your way check out my Daily Blog exclusively available on PhilSteele.com. This year we will be emailing a weekly football information filled update for FREE. Make sure when you visit PhilSteele.com you register to become a "football expert" and get these free updates.

Thank you for purchasing Phil Steele's 2011 College Football Preview!!!

HEISMAN TROPHY

The Most Prestigious Award in College Football

The Heisman Trophy was named after former college football player and coach John Heisman, and is awarded annually by the Downtown Athletic Club to the most outstanding player in collegiate football. Although not the only award honoring the best player in college football, it is considered the most prestigious. It is awarded in early December before the bowl games begin.

The trophy does not serve as a representation of a collegiate player's chances in professional leagues, but is rather an accolade for their accomplishments in college.

The trophy itself is modeled after Ed Smith, a leading player in 1934 for the now defunct New York University football team.

The Heisman is frequently awarded to a running back or a quarterback and very few players have won the trophy playing at a different position. Charles Woodson is the only primarily defensive player to win the award, doing so as a defensive back for Michigan in 1997. No interior lineman on either side of the ball has ever won the award, although offensive guard Tom Brown of Minnesota and offensive tackle John Hicks of Ohio State placed second in 1960 and 1973, respectively. Defensive end Hugh Green of Pittsburgh finished second in 1980. In 2009, Nebraska's defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh was third.

PHIL STEELE IS PROUD TO BE ON THE VOTING COMMITTEE FOR THIS PRESTIGIOUS AWARD!

ROTARY LOMBARDI AWARD

The Rotary Lombardi Award is hosted by the Rotary Club of Houston and benefits the American Cancer Society. The Award was initiated by the Rotary Club in 1970 shortly after the death of Vince Lombardi to cancer. The Rotary Lombardi Award is a member of the National College Football Awards Association.

The Rotary Lombardi Award goes annually to the college football lineman -- offense or defense -- who, in addition to outstanding performance and ability, best exemplifies the discipline of Vince Lombardi.

All proceeds from the event benefit the American Cancer Society. To date the event has generated millions of dollars to fund cancer research, public education and direct services to cancer patients.

Phil Steele is proud to serve among the nearly 400 members of the Rotary Lombardi Award voting committee.

FCS (Division IAA) Guide

By Phil Steele

At the end of 2006 the NCAA changed its terminology and began referring to IAA as FCS, which stands for Football Championship Subdivision. They are now calling IA teams FBS teams, which stands for Football Bowl Subdivision. Now, I study college football 365 days a year and here it is early May more than five years later, and I still can't get those acronyms embedded into my head. I have a feeling you are in the same boat as we have referred to them as IA and IAA for so many years. There are some spots in the magazine where I call them IAA teams and other spots where I use the correct term of FCS. If you see FCS that of course refers to IAA. You can let me know how you feel about using these new acronyms when you fill in the questionnaire on page 326.

This article is about my ever-expanding FCS coverage. There are currently 126 teams in the FCS which is even more than the 120 currently in the FBS. While these teams have less scholarships to give out, the numbers vary. Some leagues do not offer football scholarships at all, while some have up to 60, while still others have a set number that may be divided between players as needed. The attendance of most programs pale in comparison to most of the FBS teams (avg attendance listed on the team's right-hand page), but a team like Appalachian St which averaged 25,715 would rank above 39 FBS teams. The bottom line is these schools do play solid football and I enjoy watching FCS games whenever they are on. Since FBS teams voted to expand their schedules to 12 games there have been many more matchups between these divisions and "upsets" have become more common like 4 years ago when Appalachian St beat Michigan. Last year James Madison upset AP #13 ACC Champ Virginia Tech in Lane Stadium.

If you are an FCS fan who is frustrated by the fact that no magazine really gives top-notch coverage on your school then I am willing to lend a hand. My National Magazine has ZERO coverage on FCS teams. Checking last year's National Magazines Athlon also had zero coverage and Lindy's National Magazine had 4 pages total of FCS coverage. Street and Smith was the only other National Magazine that gave at least a paragraph on each FCS team but they scaled back and have now merged with The Sporting News.

Since we concentrate on nothing but football year round, we continue to expand our FCS coverage. A lot of the information we add is a direct result of customer requests. We would like your input (page 326).

Let me give you a quick history on how my magazine has expanded its coverage of IA(FBS) teams through the years. I started the magazine in 1995 and it had 88 IA teams in it with no coverage of the MAC or the smaller southern independents (now the Sun Belt) at all! In the 4th year I gave three pages total to the 24 teams that played IA that were not in the main magazine. Those 3 pages were a sheet of schedules for the 24 teams, last year's results and one page of conference forecasts, so each of the 24 teams were allotted just one paragraph on that page! In 1999 I gave the 25 smaller IA teams their own page and the coverage on the MAC and Sun Belt teams increased to 28 pages for the 25 teams! I gave them the same amount of coverage in 2000. In 2001, I welcomed the MAC to the big leagues with TWO FULL PAGES on every team, the same amount of coverage the SEC, Big Ten and other BCS conferences received. Finally in 2002 I upgraded it to two full pages for EVERY IA team.

Now let's look at my FCS (IAA) coverage over the years. Naturally when the minor IA teams were getting very little coverage I had ZERO IAA information in the National Magazine. In 2003, I dipped my toe into the water and had a member of my staff who followed IAA closely write a 1 page article on IAA football with a Preseason Top 25. I did not get a lot of feedback on my questionnaires and I went back to zero coverage. In 2005, we put out three Regional Magazines for the Big Ten, SEC and Big 12. I wanted to put a couple of pages on regionally significant IAA teams in each magazine. For many years we kept track of all IAA statistics so we knew how good those teams were when they faced IA foes. Jim Seman, a longtime member of my staff, works until 6:00 AM on Sunday mornings during football season making sure all of the stats for both FBS and FCS are entered into our computer system and is our resident FCS expert. He wrote two pages with a Top 25 forecast in the 2005 Regionals. When I read through the questionnaires (yes, I read every one!) that summer there was growing interest in an expanded IAA coverage. In 2006, I went wild. I had Jim, with the help of Josh Buchanan, write up a full-length paragraph on each FCS team and we expanded to 27 pages in my Pac-10 Regional Magazine.

Four years ago I expanded it again to one quarter of a page on each team. In 2008, I DOUBLED IT TO ONE HALF PAGE PER TEAM!! I started using some of the same computer formulas and systems that I use for FBS forecasts for the FCS teams. These include my 9 sets of power ratings, applying those ratings to the upcoming schedule, Turnovers=Turnaround and all of the various forecast articles such as YPP, Lettermen Lost, Starts Lost to Injury, etc. My goal is to have it be BY FAR the most in-depth FCS preseason magazine equal to how the FBS version is the most accurate.

Last year I took the next step with a FULL PAGE on EVERY FCS team! It was in my SEC/ACC/Big East preview which was over 324 pages. This year I have taken yet another step and have decided to have my first ever FCS stand-alone preview with more than 175 pages devoted ONLY to FCS football! If you're an FCS fan I can promise you there is no other preview like it on the market today. You can order it through our offices by calling us at 1-866-918-7711 or by going to PhilSteele.com and it is just $8.95. You will become an instant expert on EVERY FCS team and remember every year there are more and more matchups between FCS and FBS schools (nearly 100). So get a leg up on one of your favorite team's possible FCS opponent this year by purchasing the Phil Steele 2011 FCS Preview today!

QUARTERBACKS 2011's Top QB Units

- 1. STANFORD - One of the biggest surprises of the off season was Andrew Luck turning down a sure #1 overall pick in the NFL draft to return for his junior season. Luck has everything you look for in a QB and was #3 in pass eff in the FBS LY and provided he stays healthy will be the #1 pick next year. The backup QB's are PS#14, #17, #18 & #25 so there is plenty of talent on "The Farm."
- 2. BOISE ST - Kellen Moore (PS#24) had a great rFr year in '08 throwing for 3,486 (69%, 25-10). He improved to 3,536 (64%) with a super 39-3 ratio in '09 and was #1 in the FBS in pass eff LY with 3,845 (71%, 35-6). He has a record of 38-2 and will become the FBS' career leader in wins by a starting QB. He was a Heisman finalist last year and could be again this year.
- 3. OKLAHOMA - Landry Jones was thrown into the fire in '09 when Sam Bradford got inj'd. Jones threw for 3,198 (58%, 26-14) and LY in full control of the offense he threw for 4,718 (66%, 38-12). With the top set of rec's returning should improve again. He could lead the FBS in passing this year while Drew Allen (PS#45) and Blake Bell (PS#3) provide depth.
- 4. HOUSTON - It was a no brainer last year that Case Keenum would become the FBS's all-time career leader in passing but then he was injured in gm 3. He was granted a 6th year and will break that record this season. In '09 Keenum threw for 5,671 yds (70%, 44-15)! David Piland threw for 2,641 (58% 24-14) and is now an exp'd bkp. Keenum could lead the nation in '11.
- 5. USC - Matt Barkley was a much improved QB LY but then got injured late in the season. He threw for 2,791 (63%, 26-12) and is considered by some the #2 QB for next year's draft. I look for him to have a big year in his third as a starter and he is backed by PS#8, #8 and #9 QB's.
- 6. BAYLOR - Robert Griffin III is an exceptional athlete that was an Olympic-caliber hurdler in HS and his arm gets stronger each year. He reads defenses well and LY threw for 3,501 (67%, 22-8) and also had 635 (4.3) rush. He is now another year removed from his '09 ACL.
- 7. OKLAHOMA ST - Brandon Weeden was replacing the school's all-time career passing leader. He not only had a year much better year than I expected but set a single season school record with 4,277 (67%, 34-13) and this 27 yr old (played baseball) knows this offense, perhaps even better than the new OC! His 155.9 career pass eff is #4 in the FBS.
- 8. MICHIGAN - Denard Robinson was the favorite to win the Heisman at midseason LY and is a threat to score any time he has the ball. LY he threw for 2,570 (62.5%, 18-11) and set the FBS record for rush yds by a QB in a season with 1,702 (6.6). I would have rated this group higher but they are changing the offense (taking some snaps under C) & won't match LY's numbers.
- 9. NORTHWESTERN - Dan Persa may be the most underrated QB in the FBS and LY completed 73.5% (2581, 15-4) and was the team's #1 rusher when he suffered an Achilles injury celebrating his game winning td pass vs Iowa. His bkps gained exp while he missed the final 3 of '10.
- 10. TULSA - GJ Kinne (PS#24) transferred from Texas and with an inexperienced offense his first year threw for 2,732 (61%, 22-10, 393 rush). LY with a veteran unit around him he improved to 3,650 (60%, 31-10) and led the tm in rushing again. He has 9 other ret str's on offense.
- 11. HAWAII - You know whatever QB you plug into the UH offense will put up big passing numbers, but I like Bryant Moniz. He was a 4th string walk-on in '09 but ended up starting 8 gms. He missed the summer LY but threw for 5,040 (65%, 39-15) and led the FBS in total offense.
- 12. OREGON - Nate Costa was #1 out of spring LY at QB for the Ducks and most mags listed him as the starter. I went out on a limb and projected Darron Thomas (PS#22) as the st'r and he won the job and threw for 2,881 (62%, 30-9) with 486 (5.2) rush and guided a UO offense that avg 47.0 ppg.

- 13. WEST VIRGINIA - Geno Smith (PS#4) threw for 2,763 (65%, 24-7) and now has super OC Dana Holgorsen at the controls. In Holgorsen's last 6 years 3 times his QB has topped 5,000+ yds. He should be in the top 10 in pass yds and is also mobile and will pilot an explosive offense.
- 14. GEORGIA - Aaron Murray (PS#6) was impressive as a rFr throwing for 3,049 (61%, 24-8) and showed good poise battling the SEC's tough defenses on a weekly basis. He was much more comfortable in the offense this spring and will be one of the SEC's top QB's as a soph.
- 15. ARIZONA - Nick Foles is a potential #1 DC for the 2012 draft and the 6'5" 245 lb QB threw for 3,191 (67%, 20-10) in his 2nd year as a starter. While they want to redshirt Matt Scott (PS#15) it is good to know that the bkp QB has 5 sts in his 3 yrs with over 1,000 yds passing and over 600 rush yds.

- 1. OREGON - LaMichael James rushed for 1,546 (6.7) setting the Pac-10 frosh rush record in '09. He topped that LY with 1,731 (5.9) and 21 td's and was a Heisman finalist. Now they add rFr Lache Seastrunk (PS#3) and true De'Anthony Thomas (PS#2). Speedy Kenjon Barner (366, 6.0 '09) added 551 (6.1) LY.
- 2. ALABAMA - There was talk in '09 that while Mark Ingram won the Heisman, the best RB in the UA backfield was Trent Richardson (PS#2). Trent played the good teammate and let Ingram have the spotlight but still managed to rush for 1,451 (5.6) as a bkp in 2Y. Spelling Richardson will be PS#10 true Fr Dee Hart who was impressive in the spg and Eddie Lacy (PS#27) who had 406 (7.2) as a rFr.
- 3. SOUTH CAROLINA - I caught a little grief putting a player that "had never played a college down" on my All-SEC preseason tm but Marcus Lattimore (PS#1) did not disappoint. He rushed for 1,197 (4.8) and added 412 (14.2) rec despite missing about 8Q's with injury. Kenny Miles and Eric Baker are vet bkps (982 comb rush yds) and they add in PS#23 and PS#53 true frosh.
- 4. AUBURN - Michael Dyer (PS#2) was overshadowed by Heisman winner QB Cam Newton and SCar's Lattimore but Dyer rushed for 1,093 (6.0) in just 8 sts. Onterio McCalebb has breakaway speed and has rushed for 1,375 (6.9) in 2 yrs and Tre Mason (PS#35) should play as a true.
- 5. ARKANSAS - The above 2 RB positions were both VHT RB's from the SEC but Knile Davis (PS#26) actually had better stats than both rushing for 1,322 (6.5) despite only starting 8 gms! His bkp is Ronnie Wingo (PS#12) who would st for many FBS tms and has rushed for 572 (6.4) in 2 yrs.
- 6. MICHIGAN ST - HC Mark Dantonio signed PS#10 Edwin Baker and PS#21 Larry Caper in '09. Caper led with 468 (3.9) in '09 and they took the RS off Baker mid-yr and he rushed for 427 (5.0). LY Baker rushed for 1,201 (5.8) and Caper was banged up in '10. True frosh Le'Veon Bell (6'2" 237) rushed for 605 (5.7) and all 3 return and they add in a PS#49 rFr and PS#57 true frosh.
- 7. WISCONSIN - When I think of Wisconsin I think of BIG rumbling RB's and they lived up to that LY. They were 4 yds away from having THREE RB's all top 1,000 and the two that had the best ypc are back. James White (PS#59) was #1 with 1,052 (6.7) as a true and Montee Ball (PS#64) was #3 with 996 (6.1). Zach Brown has 1,152 (4.8) and RS LY and they add a PS#26 true frosh.
- 8. FLORIDA ST - LY Chris Thompson (PS#29), Jermaine Thomas and Ty Jones combined for 1,862 rush (6.1) and all 3 return this year. They now add in PS#3 and PS#28 true frosh.
- 9. TEXAS A&M - Christine Michael (PS#6) led as a true frosh with 844 (5.1) in '09. Cyrus Gray (PS#13) was #2 with 757 (4.8) and added 868 rec and ret yds. LY Michael st'd the first 6 and had 631 (5.0) but was inj'd and Gray took charge and rushed for 1,133 (5.7) and the offense was at its best down the stretch. Third string is Ben Malena (PS#31).
- 10. STANFORD - LY I wondered how they would replace Toby Gerhardt (#1 DC, 1871, 5.5) but Stepfan Taylor (PS#36) had 1,137 (5.1), Anthony Wilkerson (PS#22) had 408 (4.6) and Tyler Gaffney (PS#13) added 255 (4.2). All 3 return this year and they add in PS#25 and PS#29 true frosh.
- 11. USC - The Trojans' fifth string RB is a PS#13 true frosh. Marc Tyler (PS#1) led LY with 913 (5.3) and true frosh Dillon Baxter (PS#4) had 252 (4.3). The 3rd string RB is rFr DJ Morgan (PS#6) and they also have Curtis McNeal ("only" PS#34) who missed LY.
- 12. GEORGIA - Caleb King (PS#7) has 1,271 (5.0) in 3 yrs. He missed 5 gms in '10. Carlton Thomas (PS#35) had 272 (4.2). This year they beat out Bama for PS#4 Isaiah Crowell who should beat out both! I did have this unit at #8 prior to the departure of Washaun Ealey.
- 13. WASHINGTON - Chris Polk (PS#18) had 1,113 (4.9) as a frosh and improved to 1,415 (5.4) LY as a soph. He keeps getting bigger and stronger and is up to 214 lbs. Jessie Callier had 433 (5.6) and they add in PS#26 and PS#38 frosh.

- 14. TCU - The Frogs' top 3 RB's in '10 were Ed Wesley, Matthew Tucker and Waymon James and those 3 comb'd for 2,300 yds rush (5.7) and not only do all 3 return this year but they add UCLA transfer Andre Dean (PS#6) who had 223 (7.0) LY.

- 15. OHIO STATE - Even though their top RB Dan Herron (1155, 5.3) will miss 5 with susp, the Buckeyes are loaded. Rod Smith (PS#9) is a rFr that was impressive in bowl practices, soph Jaamal Berry (PS#7) had a great spring and there is good depth behind them.

- 16. OKLAHOMA - Roy Finch (PS#16) was impressive as a true LY and is a home run threat. Brennan Clay (PS#7) also played as a true and Jermie Calhoun (PS#2) returns after missing most of '10. They add in true frosh PS#5 Brandon Williams who could take the feature back spot.

RUNNING BACKS 2011's Top RB Units

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 TOP INDIVIDUAL UNITS

RECEIVERS 2011's Top Receiving Units

- 1. OKLAHOMA - Ryan Broyles turned down the NFL and LY led the FBS in rec's with 131 and needs just 51 rec to set the NCAA record. Kenny Stills (PS#13) was a frosh AA with 4.4 spd. 6'4" DeJuan Miller (PS#21) missed half of '10 (inj) and is back as is Trey Franks. They add in true frosh Trey Metoyer (PS#4) and rFr Justin McCay (PS#7). TE James Hanna (PS#25) was HM Big 12 in his first year as a starter.
- 2. OKLAHOMA ST - Justin Blackmon emerged in '10 and led the FBS with 148.5 ypg. He is bigger, stronger and faster this year. Josh Cooper is an excellent route runner that was #2 with 736 (10.8). Hubert Anyiam had 515 (12.3) in '09 but was banged up in '10. Blackmon had just 260 yds in '09 and they need a #3 to emerge.
- 3. ARKANSAS - The Hogs have a reoccurring theme at WR and it is SPEED. Their top 3 WR's from '09 were all VHT's (soph's) and combined for 2,143 yds and 18.2 ypc. LY Greg Childs (PS#48) was the #1 rec but was lost after 7 sts. He and Joe Adams (PS#25), Jarius Wright (PS#36) and Cobi Hamilton comb'd for 2,890 (17.0) and all 4 return. They do need to replace John Mackey winner TE DJ Williams but remain among the best.
- 4. TEXAS A&M - A&M had never produced a 1,000 yd receiver but 6'4" Jeff Fuller (PS#14) accomplished that in '10 with 1,066 (14.8). Ryan Swope (PS#59) added 825 (11.5). Uzoma Nwachukwu had 708 (17.7) as a true frosh but was banged up LY and dropped to 407 (11.3). Their top 2 TE's are back and both are solid blockers that will be better rec threats this year.
- 5. ARIZONA - Juron Criner is one of the top WR's in the FBS and led Arizona with 1,233 (15.0) in '10. David Douglas and David Roberts have comb'd for 1,732 (10.2) the last 2 yrs. TE Jack Baucus is 6'6" 265. All return and they add in Texas transfer Dan Buckner (PS#11).
- 6. NOTRE DAME - Michael Floyd turned down the NFL and will be back after a susp in the spring. He led with 1,025 (13.0) while Theo Riddick (PS#24) was #2 with 414 (10.4) and TJ Jones (PS#20) had 306 (13.3) as a true fr. 6'6" 242 Tyler Eifert (PS#24) was thrown into the lineup when star TE Kyle Rudolph was inj'd LY and he was a valued contributor who had 352 (13.0) and should be ND's next great TE.
- 7. MICHIGAN - Roy Roundtree led in '10 with 935 (13.0) while deep threat Darryl Stonum (PS#12) was #2 with 633 (12.9). Junior Hemingway (PS#17) was #3 with 593 (18.5) and TE Kevin Koger (PS#15) is a 3 yr starter backed by 3 VHT's. Everyone is back and those numbers were produced in a run-based offense LY. The numbers will certainly increase with more of a pass friendly offense.
- 8. SOUTH CAROLINA - Alshon Jeffery (PS#10), who is 6'4", led LY with 1,517 and an outstanding 17.2 ypc. They need a #2 receiver to emerge with the next top WR back being 5'7" Ace Sanders (316, 12.6) and solid blk'r DL Moore (164, 9.6). DD Smith was the surprise of the spring and could be the guy. TE Justice Cunningham (PS#31) has good size at 6'3" 262.
- 9. USC - Robert Woods (PS#2) led with 792 (12.2) as a true frosh. TE Rhett Ellison returns but will have to hold off a rFr Xavier Grimble (PS#1) and soph Christian Thomas (PS#5). They return Kyle Prater (PS#1) and this year's PS#1 WR (along with PS#10 and #11 true).
- 10. GEORGIA - This unit loses star WR AJ Green and they did not fare well without him LY. This top 10 pick is based on potential and this unit is loaded with it. Tavarres King avg 18.7 LY and is very fast. 6'5" Marlon Brown (PS#3) should emerge from Green's shadow. TE Orson Charles (PS#2) has 796 yds (16.2) in 2 yrs. They have 9 VHT's in the 3 deep and their 3rd string consists of a PS#18 and PS#31 and a PS#4. Look for some receivers to step up this yr.

Arkansas
Joe Adams

Arkansas
Jarius Wright

Arkansas
Cobi Hamilton

- 11. BAYLOR - HC Art Briles feels this could be the best rec corps in the country. Kendall Wright is already the career rec leader for BU and along with Josh Gordon, Terrance Williams, Tevin Reese and Laneer Sampson they comb'd for 2,941 (11.8) in '10 and all 5 return. Speed is a reoccurring adjective describing this unit.
- 12. MISSOURI - This is a good steady productive set of rec's led by TE Michael Egnew who had 762 (8.5) and WR TJ Moe who had 1,045 (11.4). Their top 6 comb'd for 3,100 yds (11.0) and all 6 are back. The WR's do lack high end speed but this is a quality group.
- 13. WASHINGTON - Jermaine Kearse (PS#27) led with 1,005 (16.0) in '10 and Devin Aguilar has 1,191 yds in 3 yrs. They add in PS#8 WR Kasen Williams and PS#1 TE Austin Seferian-Jenkins who is 6'6" 250 and was in for the spring. James Johnson is on UW's indoor track tm.
- 14. PENN STATE - The Lions had to replace 3 of their top 4 career rec's in '09 but the young set of WR's had good size and put up similar numbers. LY the unit re'd intact but was a little banged up during the year. PSU has 3 of the top 4 back led by Derek Moye (885, 16.7) They are also much improved at TE and will have one of the more underrated units in the FBS.
- 15. LSU - Rueben Randle (PS#1) and Russell Shepard (PS#1 QB) are two good starting points and they have 9 VHT's in the three deep. With stronger QB play this year this unit will be much more productive.

- 1. ALABAMA - This O-line has had some major shoes to fill the last 2 yrs but only loses 2 st's this year. DJ Fluker (PS#2) started 9 as a rFr here (Fr AA) LY. RG Barrett Jones (PS#16) was 3rd Tm AA and enters his 3rd yr as starter and C William Vlachos was 2nd Tm SEC LY despite a nagging foot injury. True frosh Cyrus Kouandjio (PS#1) is 6'6" 322 and may take someone's job. The 3rd string consists of 5 VHT's. Even with the unfortunate tragedy this is still my #1 unit.
- 2. MISSISSIPPI - LY they had just 2 st's back and lost a st'r in wk 1 to injury. The unit still opened holes for 208 ypg rush (5.0) with just 14 sks allowed. Ten different OL's started in '10 and ALL TEN return! They also add Ark transfer 6'9" 340 Matt Hall (PS#45). LT Bradley Sowell was 2nd Tm SEC and is now a 3 yr starter and the starting line avg's 6'5" 331 lbs!
- 3. OKLAHOMA ST - The numbers surprised me quite a bit LY as OSU had just 12 car sts back and was shifting to a TT style offense. They actually improved their rush offense to 174 ypg (5.0) and allowed just 10 sacks (a paltry 1.9%). This year OSU loses a couple of bkps but all 5 st's are back and add PS#21JC Michael Bowie. They now have 76 car sts returning led by 1st Tm B12 Levy Adcock.
- 4. NORTHERN ILLINOIS - The Huskies have one of the best O-lines you have never heard of. LY their big front wall (6'4" 318 avg) opened holes for 260 ypg and a super 6.3 ypc while allowing just 13 sacks. This year all 5 starters are back and they have 116 career starts among the unit. The unit includes three 1st Tm MAC and a 4th Tm MAC OL while 6 have been full time st's.
- 5. MIAMI, FL - The Hurricanes had basically 1 starter back up front LY but still opened holes for 182 ypg and 4.8 ypc rush. Despite their QB's rushing for just 117 yds, UM allowed just 17 sks. This yr 4 st's return and they get back Joel Figueroa who had 9 sts in '09 and missed most of LY with injury. Miami has 5 OL who have been full time starters (74 car sts).
- 6. CLEMSON - The Tigers do lose a 1st Tm ACC OT but have 9 of the top 10 back with their 5 starters all ranking PS#54 or better. This unit underachieved LY with a veteran group that only had 139 ypg rush (4.0) but did allow just 18 sks. They have 118 car sts returning and will produce like I thought they could have LY and have their best stats since '06.
- 7. WISCONSIN - The Badgers always have one of the nation's strongest O-lines. LY they had 4 st's back and had great numbers with 246 ypg rush (5.5) and just 14 sks allowed. This year UW loses TWO All American OL's (3 NFL DC's) but this is Wisconsin and they will have another outstanding O-line with the unit avg 6'5" 324 and having 74 career starts returning.
- 8. OHIO STATE - The Buckeyes have the nation's top C in Mike Brewster and their 5 projected st's are PS#3, #6, #9, #23 and #29 with all 5 bkps being VHT's including PS#5 and #8. LY OSU rushed for 220 ypg (5.2) with just 22 sks allowed. They have 77 career sts back and would have been rated higher but 1st Tm B10 LT Mike Adams will miss 5 gms with a suspension.
- 9. BYU - LY BYU re'd 4 starters but the OL got off to a slow start incl 8 sks vs Fla St. They allowed just 13 sks in the other 12 and over the last 6 gms rushed for 210 ypg (4.5) with just 4 sks. LT Matt Reynolds turned down the NFL so 4 starters are back and they have 107 car sts.
- 10. TEXAS A&M - The Aggies' numbers were not great LY as they rushed for 165 ypg (4.1) with 37 sks but that unit had to replace 3 st's then lost a ret st'r after 5 sts. True frosh Jake Matthews (PS#4) started the last 7. This year they lose 1 starter but have 9 of the top 10 back with all 5 st's being VHT's. With 86 car sts back, this is their best O-line in at least 5 yrs.
- 11. NOTRE DAME - LY HC Brian Kelly had to replace 3 multi yr st's who combined for 105 car sts. ND had avg numbers with 127 ypg rush (4.0) but only 20 sks (4.2%) allowed despite young QB's. This year 9 of the top 10 are back and they are in the 2nd yr of Kelly's systems. ND has 63 car sts back and avg 6'4" 302. Eight of the top 10 are VHT's and the new st'r is soph G Chris Watt (PS#6).

- 12. BAYLOR - HC Art Briles is doing a good job developing this unit. LY BU only had 37 car sts but with QB Robert Griffin's mobility opened holes for 5.4 ypc with just 20 sks. They lose a #1DC but have 8 of the top 10 back (incl 6 VHT's) and now have 77 car sts returning.
- 13. OREGON - UO runs an option offense so you would expect big numbers and low sks. LY they rushed for 286 ypg (5.9) with just 10 sks. That unit did have the entire two deep bk (85 car sts). This year they lose 3 st's but have 3 bk who started 7+ gms LY and add in a PS#26JC who RS. Despite the losses, another fine unit.
- 14. MISSOURI - LY the Tigers had 4 st's back (80 car sts) and improved to 156 ypg rush (4.6) with just 22 sks. This year they return 4 st's again (105 car sts) and now put their OG's in a 3 pt stance which should improve the rush offense again. Three All Big 12 OL return.
- 15. USC - The Trojans had just 2 ret st's but improved to 189 ypg (5.2). They all'd just 18 sks and their QB's did not help (-7 net yds rush). This year USC loses 3 quality st's again but LT Matt Kalil was good enough to keep #1DC Tyron Smith at RT and their 5 st's are PS#7, 9, 12, 14 and 32 with 6 VHT's providing depth.

OFFENSIVE LINE 2011's Top OL Units

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 TOP INDIVIDUAL UNITS

- FLORIDA ST - The Seminole defense was abysmal in '09 allowing 205 ypg rush (5.4) with just 26 sk. LY this unit turned that around. 7 of the top 8 DL were Fr and So but they trimmed the rush total to 129 ypg (3.4) while the DL had 35 of the nation leading 46 sk. They lose 1 str (8 sk) but add PS#1 JC Tank Carradine who RS LY. This is the top DL in the country.
- NORTH CAROLINA - I had this unit rated as the #1 DL LY but they lost TWO 1st Tm AA's to suspension with neither playing a down and both being drafted (#1, #2 DC). After their losses they had 0 ret str's but still only allowed 126 ypg (3.7) with 29 sk by the D. This year the line goes from 0 ret str's to 4 and DE Quinton Coples and DT Tydreke Powell both turned down the NFL to return. The starting DT's avg 315 lbs and the top 2 DE's comb for 17 sk LY.
- SOUTH CAROLINA - The Gamecocks allowed just 112 ypg rush (3.4) their best #'s S/00 and the D-Line had 31 of the teams 41 sk. This year they lose 2 str's (comb 7.5 sk). Not only do 6'7" DE Devin Taylor (7.5 sk) and DT Travian Robertson (PS#26, 4 sk) return but they add PS#18 Kelcy Quarles and PS#1 Jadeveon Clowney.
- ALABAMA - Yes, I know the Tide loses the 2nd overall pick in the draft in DE Dareus and LY only had avg numbers (for Bama) with 110 ypg (3.3) rush allowed and 27 sk. LY's D had to replace all 3 str's and had little exp behind them. This year they have two str's back up front and add PS#9JC Quinton Dial and PS#6JC Jesse Williams. Remember the impact PS#2JC DT Cody had on the Tide D-line a few years ago?
- TEXAS - The Horns have had to replace quality NFL players from the D-line on a yearly basis. In '09 they lost 2 str's but allowed an FBS best 72 ypg rush (2.2). LY they had to replace two #2 DC's and surprisingly slipped to 139 ypg (3.5) the first time in 5 yrs they allowed over 93 ypg rush. This year they lose 2 str's (#4 DC) but their two deep includes PS#2, 4, 7, 11, 20 and 25. They will return to their usual form. DE Alex Okafor had 5 sks in the spring gm.
- BOISE ST - Boise ret'd their entire two deep on the D-line LY and allowed just 2.9 ypg rush and their 49 sks were the most since 1997. This year they lose a 1st Tm WAC DE (2.5 sks) but have 6 of the top 8 back incl 1st Tm WAC DT Winn and DE McClellin and 2nd Tm WAC NT Baker. The open DE slot is filled by PS#39JC Tyrone Crawford who had 7 sks here LY.
- MIAMI, FL - Just based on raw talent Miami has had a Top 5 DL each of the last 3 yrs including this season. I only rate them #7 because their numbers were disappointing LY yielding 173 ypg rush (4.1) their worst S/97 but with 37 sks. This year they lose 1 str but have 3 VHT str's back and Golden did a fine job molding top notch D-Lines at Temple.
- GEORGIA - Todd Grantham's D requires a large Nose (NT) and LY's was 290 lbs. UGA allowed 147 ypg rush (3.7) with the D having 24 sks. This year they lose 1 str but move NT DeAngelo Tyson (PS#3) to DE and bring in 340 lb PS#5JC Jonathan Jenkins who hopes to have an impact similar to Bama's NT Cody in '08 and '09.
- FLORIDA - The Gators had not allowed more than 105 ypg rush in the previous 5 yrs but LY yielded 131 ypg (3.5) having to replace a pair of #2 DC's. This year they lose 3 str's and 5 of their top 8 but the unit is loaded with VHT's (PS#'s 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8 & 23).
- LSU - LSU had to replace 3 str's from the D-line in both '09 and '10 and LY yielded 137 ypg rush (3.7) with 34 sks. This year they "only" lose 2 str's incl 2nd Tm AA NT Drake Nevis (#3 DC). They "only" have 6 VHT's in the two deep but their top returnee had just 2.5 sks in '10. With their most exp'd D-line in a few years, they will be near the top.

- NEBRASKA - LY they had to replace Ndamukong Suh (12 sks, 12 tfl, 10 pbu) who had a great rookie year with the Lions in the NFL. NU allowed just 93 ypg rush (2.8) and the D had 44 sks in '09. DT Jared Crick (9.5 sks '09) ret'd LY but they slipped to 153 ypg (3.9, 30 sk). This year they lose 1 str but Crick (9.5 sk again) and PS#1 Baker Steinkuhler form a super DT tandem.
- OHIO STATE - You had to expect weaker rush D #'s LY as OSU had to replace 2 str's and 3 bkps and lacked the depth they normally have. The numbers "plummeted" from 91 ypg rush allowed (2.9) to 97 ypg (3.1). Yes, still outstanding. This year they have 6 of the top 8 back and none of the DL are part of the susp Buckeye 5.
- USC - The Trojans had unusually poor numbers LY even with 2 str's back as their banged up D-Line allowed 140 ypg rush (4.4) with just 28 sks. This year they only lose 1 str and 6 in the two deep are PS#20 or better! This group will help fans remember that DC Monte Kiffin did NOT forget how to coach.
- PITTSBURGH - When I talked to coach Graham this year you could say he was VERY pleased with what he inherited up front on the defense. LY they lost their top DE to injury but still allowed just 120 rush (3.5) with 34 sks. This time they lose #2 DC DE Sheard but have 3 str's back incl DE Lindsey and DT Alecxih who comb for 17.5 sks in '10!
- NOTRE DAME - Two yrs ago the D was very poor but LY with a veteran D-line they improved to 142 ypg (4.0) with 27 sks. This year they lost one DL (9 sts) but have 5 of the top 6 back. They add two VHT's from '10 (PS#19, PS#17) and bring in two true VHT's this year (PS#6, PS#7 IFS).

- ALABAMA - The Tide has had inexp LB corps in each of the last 3 yrs. This year they have a veteran unit with the top 7 LB tkls all back. Dont'a Hightower (6'4" 260) turned down the NFL and they also return CJ Mosley (PS#15) who was #3 tkls and had 10 pbu, Nico Johnson (PS#5) and Courtney Upshaw who had 52 tkls, 7 sks and 7.5 tfl. Trey DePriest (PS#7) is a true who was in for the spring and the entire three deep consists of VHT's.
- OKLAHOMA - Travis Lewis was 1st Tm Big 12 and the #1 tackler in both '09 and '10. Austin Box (PS#6) missed the first 5 LY but st'd the last 5. Tom Wort (PS#11) was #6 tkls as a rFr. Corey Nelson (PS#6) had 21 tkls as a true and RS LY. Tony Jefferson (PS#6) had 9 sts and was the #7 tkls as a true. Joseph Ibiloye rounds out the 2 deep and is "only" PS#24.
- TEXAS - Keenan Robinson (PS#4) was the #3 tkls in '09 and coaches felt he could get 10 sks LY but he only got 2 and was #1 tkls. He could have his expected season this year. Emmanuel Acho (PS#46) was 2nd Tm Big 12 and the #2 tkls. Jordan Hicks (PS#1) steps into a starting spot after having 23 tkls as a true LY. The rest of the 3 deep consists of PS#'s 5, 7, 8, 19, 22 & 30.
- BOSTON COLLEGE - The Eagles had one of the top LB corps in the country LY as they had Luke Kuechly who was #2 in the NCAA in tkls as a frosh and #1 as a soph. True frosh Kevin Pierre-Louis lived up to his PS#25 and was the #2 tkls. Mark Herzlich made a great return from cancer and was #3. This year Herzlich is in the NFL and they have FIVE VHT's to fill in.
- NOTRE DAME - Manti Te'o was PS#1 and has shown what all the hype was about. As a true soph he made my 1st Tm AA list with 113 tkls and 9.5 tfl. They do lose their #7 and #10 tkls but return their #5 tkls (PS#27) and #9 tkls (PS#26) and the open spot could be filled by PS#1 Steve Filer. Eleven of the 12 LB's are VHT's and they bring in added speed to the unit.
- TCU - The Frogs return my 1st Tm AA LB Tank Carder and my 4th Tm AA Tanner Brock. Along with Bama, they are the only team with 2 AA LB's on my pressn AA team. Sam Carter (PS#69) figures to take the open spot. This unit is bereft of VHT's but Patterson turns non VHT's into NFL prospects.
- ARIZONA ST - Vontaze Burfict lived up to his PS#3 billing by being the Pac-10 FPOY in '09 and made my 1st Tm Pac 10 team in each of his first 2 yrs. He has improved his speed and could be the top LB in the 2012 draft. With his return they have the #1, 2, 5 and 7 tkls back and all 3 str's are VHT's.
- PENN STATE - Penn St is known as "Linebacker U". They had to replace a 1st Tm AA in both '08 and '09 and LY had to replace #2, #3 and #7 DC's. They allowed over 17.5 ppg for the first time since '03 (23.7). This year they lose their #1 and #7 tkls but the top 8 LB's are PS#5, 10, 11, 15, 16, 21, 23 and 37. This unit is drawing comparisons to the Posluszny, Lee and Connor unit of '06.
- NEBRASKA - Lavonte David (PS#6JC) lived up to his VHT billing in '10 by setting the Husker record for tkls in a season with 152, while adding 6 sks, 9 tfl and 10 pbu. They ret Will Compton (PS#32) and Sean Fisher (PS#47) who both missed most of LY with inj after being frosh AA's in '09.
- FLORIDA - The Gators LB's had to replace their #1, #4 and #5 tkls LY but this year they return their #2 tkls Jelani Jenkins (PS#2) and #4 tkls Jonathan Bostic (PS#14). Naturally the entire two deep consists of VHT's and they are much more experienced than '10.
- VIRGINIA TECH - In each of the last 3 yrs VT has had to replace their #1 tkls but this year he is back in Bruce Taylor (PS#28) who 6 sks and 9.5 tfl. Beamer (like TCU's Patterson) takes non VHT's and turns them into NFL prospects but 5 of the top 6 are actually VHT's this year! VT allowed 20.6 ppg which is horrible for them but good for most schools and will be back to their norm TY.
- SOUTH CAROLINA - Shaq Wilson was #1 tkls in '09 but RS (inj) in '10 and is back. Antonio Allen was #2 tkls in '10 and is back and they move in SS DeVonte Holloman (PS#21) who was #3 tkls. Rodney Paulk (PS#53) had 10 sts in '06 and is getting closer to full health after inj's.

Nebraska
Lavonte David

Arizona St
Vontaze Burfict

- ARKANSAS - The Hogs' D has improved each of the last 2 yrs and this unit returns their #1 tkls in Jerry Franklin (2nd Tm SEC), and #2 tkls Jerico Nelson (3rd Tm SEC). Terrell Williams had 1 start and 42 tkls and will battle PS#11JC Alonzo Highsmith for the open LB spot.
- NC STATE - Terrell Manning (PS#12) was the #4 tkls and had 5 sks in '10. Audie Cole was 2nd Tm ACC and #2 tkls. Dwayne Maddox (PS#41) had 11 sts in '09 but lost his spot LY. Sterling Lucas has 86 tkls in 3 yrs and provides solid depth.
- LSU - The Tigers only had 1 str back LY having to replace their #2, #3 and #4 tkls. They did return their star in Kelvin Sheppard and he led with 116 tkls and 11 tfl. TY they lose Sheppard (#3 DC) but have 5 of the top 6 back and the top 7 LB's are all VHT's as they move in Karnell Hatcher (#3 tkls) who started 11 at FS in '10.

DEFENSIVE BACKS 2011's Top DB Units

- 1. ALABAMA - With 7 of 8 back in '09 the Tide finished #2 (46.8%, 11-24). SS Mark Barron led the SEC with 7 int. LY they had to replace 3 st's (#1, #2, #7 DC) and fell "all the way" down to #3. FS Robert Lester (6'2") snagged 8 int! This year the unit returns intact and joining the two above as st's are Dre Kirkpatrick (PS#2, 2nd Tm SEC) and Dee Milliner (PS#4, 1st Tm Frosh AA) and battling them for time is PS#1 true Ha'Sean Clinton-Dix, DeQuan Menzie (PS#13JC, 6 st LY), Phelon Jones (PS#19, 4 car sts) and Jarrick Williams (PS#15). This is the biggest blurb on any of these individual units pages because this position has the biggest gap between #1 and #21.
- 2. VIRGINIA TECH - VT has finished #11, #2, #13, #2, #25, #9 and #9 in my PDR the last 7 years. CB Jayron Hosley should be a mid to upper hand #1DC next year. Last year they had 26 sts from '09 returning and this year they have 40 sts back so they are stronger and talented.
- 3. OKLAHOMA - The Sooners had to replace 2 DB st's in both '09 & '10 and finished #3 and #7 in my PDR. This year they lose 2 st's again incl 1st Tm AA Quinton Carter (#4 DC) and Jonathan Nelson (#7 DC). OU has 4 back with starting exp and plenty of VHT's and have proven that they will be near the top again.
- 4. LSU - The Tigers had the #13 pass D in '10 with the best combo of CB's in the country in Patrick Peterson (Thorpe Winner) and Morris Claiborne. This year they lose the top CB in the draft (#1 DC) but do have 8 of the top 12 returning including 7 VHT's. This year they have more overall exp which lands them here at #4.
- 5. FLORIDA ST - Even with the D-line leading the NCAA in sks the Florida St secondary that had to replace 3 starters only finished #32 in the PDR but that was a big jump from '09 (#102). This year they return all 4 starters and have 7 VHT's in the two deep. The Noles will have their best finish S/'04 (#22).
- 6. TEXAS A&M - The recent pedigree is not there as A&M was #104 ('05), #84 ('07) and #103 ('08) in my PDR prior to '10 but was much improved finishing #14 in 2010. This year the entire 2 deep returns incl 5 who had 7+ sts LY. Keeping them from ranking higher is there's just 1 VHT in their two deep.
- 7. OREGON - I would have the Ducks higher but the unit does have a weaker front 7 in front of them. The Ducks finished #6 in my PDR in 2010 and now return 3 st's including CB Cliff Harris and FS John Boyett who combined for 11 ints. They also add 4 solid rFr including Dior Mathis (PS#19).
- 8. NOTRE DAME - Like A&M 2 spots above, the Irish were only #81 in my PDR in '09 but last year only lost 1 st'r and moved up to #37. This year they lose just one st'r again and go from an 2009 weakness to a 2011 strength. The unit has 7 of their top 8 back, 7 VHT's and the 4 starters are all PS#22 or better.
- 9. TENNESSEE - Last year the Vols had to replace the Thorpe Award winner Eric Berry (#1DC), along with 1 other st'r and then lost a proj st'r for the year but still finished #19 in my PDR. All 4 st's were underclassmen LY and are a year older and all 4 are VHT's and they add in PS#8 and PS#14 JUCO's!
- 10. USC - The Trojans finished in the top 16 of my PDR 9 straight yrs but LY lost all 4 st's and dropped to #61. This year they have 7 of the top 8 back (5 VHT's) and

Mississippi St
Corey Broomfield

Nebraska
Alfonzo Dennard

- add in PS#10JC Isiah Wiley. While neither S was all P10 LY both could be on the All Pac-12 list after this ssn.
- 11. PENN ST - Penn St has 5 Top 10 finishes in my PDR over the last 14 yrs. LY they had a drop (#69) in the rankings but now have 7 of the top 8 back and the front 7 should get more pressure on the QB. They have 6 DB's back that started 6+ gms LY and they are an underrated group.
 - 12. GEORGIA - The Bulldogs had to replace 3 st's LY but still finished a solid #29 in my PDR and this year have 6 of their top 8 back with all 6 having started 3 or more LY. CB Brandon Boykin turned down the NFL and 3 VHT's are pushing those 6 for time.
 - 13. TEXAS - After a couple of off years the Horns have moved back to their normal spot in my PDR with finishes of #4 and #15 the last 2 yrs. They do lose 3 quality DB's who combined for 28 starts but return 3 who started 6+ and 14 of the top 15 are VHT's.
 - 14. MISS ST - Dan Mullen is doing a fine job building this unit as LY they moved up to #30 in my PDR and this year have 6 of the top 8 back incl all 4 st's and all 4 have either earned All SEC or frosh honors. They add in a VHT JUCO and this is one of the most exp'd units in the NCAA.
 - 15. NEBRASKA - Prince Amukamara is gone but they return one of the top CB's TY in Alfonzo Dennard who had 4 ints in '10. The Huskers have finished #1 in my pass D rankings TWO straight yrs but do lose 3 DB's who comb'd for 35 starts and will probably drop a few notches but remain among the elite.

- 1. GEORGIA - The Bulldogs were #6 in '09 and LY ret'd Ray Guy Winner P Drew Butler who had a super net of 41.9 (#1 NCAA) and was 1st Tm AA. K Blair Walsh (PS#5) hit 20 of 22 FG's including 4-5 from 50+. LY Butler had a net of 40.6 and Walsh hit 20-23 FG's (long 53). They are the best P/K combo in the country and KR Brandon Boykin (24.3) and PR Branden Smith (14.3) also return.
- 2. FLORIDA ST - In '09 K Dustin Hopkins (PS#1) hit 19 of 27 FG's (L52) as a true and has 60+ range. He was #5 in the FBS in TB's (24) on KO. Shawn Powell had a solid 36.1 net in his first year as P. Greg Reid (PS#9) avg 18.4 on PR's and 25.5 on KR's as a true. LY everyone was back and Powell improved to a 39.0 net and Hopkins hit 22-28 (L55) with 41 TB on KO (#2 FBS). Everyone returns for a 3rd straight ssn.
- 3. OREGON - Tom Osborne is one of the best ST cch's in the country and has made a major impact since returning here 5 yrs ago. LY his unit was #3. RM Cliff Harris and Kenjon Barner comb'd for FIVE return td's. P Jackson Rice had a 37.9 net and K's Rob Beard and Eric Solis comb'd to hit 13 of 17 FG's. The unit returns intact and they even return both their short and long snappers.
- 4. OHIO - Ohio has finishes of #19 and #15 in my ST rankings the last 2 yrs. K Matt Weller has hit 32-43 FG's incl 3-4 from 50+ in those 2Y. P Paul Hershey had a 39.6 net in '10. LaVon Brazill had THREE PR td's in '09, missed '10 with inj and is back in '11 as are the top RM from last year.
- 5. UTEP - Coach Price does an excellent job on this unit every year. LY they had to replace their super K Jose Martinez but still finished #12. Dakota Warren hit 12 of 20 FG's (3-5 50+, long 57). P Ian Campbell had a 37.0 net. Marlon McClure avg 31.0 on KR's (#4 NCAA) & 13.1 on PR's. They all return.
- 6. MICHIGAN ST - The Spartans have finished #17 & #14 the last 2 yrs. LY they had to replace a solid K but Dan Conroy set the schl rec with 14 st FG's made (long 50). While they lose P Aaron Bates (38.1 net), rFr Mike Sadler (PS#6) takes over and has a big leg. Keshawn Martin avg 28.9 on KR's in '09 and should return to that form this year and he avg 14.2 on PR's last year.
- 7. OKLAHOMA ST - Joe DeForest is the ST cch here and fields a top notch unit every year and LY finished #1! They have my 1st Tm AA P in Quinn Sharp who not only had a 40.7 net but had an amazing 53 TB's on 98 KO's. KR Justin Gilbert avg 26.8 with 2 TD's. They do lose a super K in Dan Bailey (27-31 FG) but Sharp has the leg and could take over those duties as well.
- 8. RICE - The Owls made big strides last year moving up to #21 and return P Kyle Martens who was #6 in the NCAA in net punting (39.9). Chris Boswell (PS#15) hit 11-17 FG's (long 50) as a true frosh. Top KR Shane Turner (23.9 '09) missed '10 and is back as are LY's top returnmen.
- 9. SOUTHERN MISS - SM was #18 in '09 and had most everyone back LY but disappointed (#62). This yr almost everyone is back again. P Peter Boehme has had nets of 36.4 & 36.2 L2Y. K Danny Hrapmann was a Groza finalist hitting 26-31 FG's (L54). All the top RM are back incl Reggie Hunt (26.1 KR).
- 10. UCLA - This is another team with a great ST cch (Frank Ganz Jr). LY returning Groza winner Kai Forbath "only" hit 13-18 FG's (banged up) but they finished #20. 2 VHT's are battling for the open K spot. P Jeff Locke had a 41.3 net! Josh Smith 25.5 on KR's at Colo in '08 and 22.6 here last year.
- 11. OKLAHOMA - The Sooners usually finish near the top of my ST rankings but had a "low" finish (for them) at #37 LY. P Tress Way had a 40.5 net (40.3 in '09) and TY is a Ray Guy candidate. Their K's hit 23-29 FG LY and all return. Stoops always produces top notch RM.
- 12. UCF - UCF set a school rec in '09 with 3 diff players with a KR of 70+ yds and all were back LY. Quincy McDuffie avg 32.2 on KR 2td LY and is back. Nick Cattoi hit 14-20 (long 50) in '09 and 11-19 (long 47) last year. UCF avg 27.8 KR (#1 FBS) and 13.1 PR (#12). They do lose their P (36.0 net) but add in a Navy transfer. I had UCF #12 LY in the magazine and they finished #9 (close).
- 13. VIRGINIA TECH - Frank Beamer coaches this unit himself and they are always at the top (#6 in '10). For the 4th straight year he loses his K but always does a solid job replacing them. They also lose their P but if Beamer had 11 walk-ons with no football exp, they would do well and he has a lot more talent than that to work with.

- 14. TCU - Gary Patterson is a top notch HC and always gets results from this unit. TCU has an amazing streak of 6 str yrs with a 1st Tm All Conf RM. I love watching Anson Keltan (280 lbs) punt (36.5 net) and K Ross Evans hit 11-13 (L43). They lose their super RM Jeremy Kerley (27.7 KR, 12.9 PR) but your only question should be, "What is the name of the NEXT TCU great returnman?"
- 15. OREGON ST - The Beavers have cracked the Top 10 just once recently (#4 in '06). In '09 they were just #32 but LY I picked them #15 and they only finished #38. Why are they back here again? James Rodgers is a threat to score on every return and got inj'd LY and RS. He avg 27.8 on KR and 18.3 on PR's in the 4 gms he played. P Johnny Hekker should have his best year (4th yr str) and true frosh K Trevor Romaine (GS LY) should help improve upon OSU's 8-12 FG's (long 41).

FOOTBALL 365 DAYS A YEAR

BY PHIL STEELE

What you see in the picture above is what I look at during football season for 12 hours on Saturday and from 1-7 pm EST on Sunday. I have a great satellite setup (DIRECTV) which allows me to watch almost every college and NFL game. I used to have just 9 TV's in front of my desk but added 3 more in 2004 and the picture above (from 10/25/08) is the actual setup at my office. At my home office I only have 6 TV's in front of my desk. Many people ask me how you can watch 12 games at one time? When the photographer was shooting the photo, it took him about 20 minutes to actually capture game footage on all 12 TV's with no commercials. As you can see, at this particular moment, there are 6 plays in progress and the rest are not. Keep in mind the average play takes 4 to 6 seconds and then there are usually 35 seconds between plays. Throughout the office one of my staff members is "charting" one of these games, or doing the play-by-play and taking notes on the game. We also utilize Sirius radio for the non-televised games so we can listen to them and write down the play-by-play. The person charting focuses on one game and if there is something they think I should know about in a particular game, they let me know afterwards. I usually focus on the 4 TV's directly in front of my desk. At the moment of this picture, the key games for me were Texas Tech-Kansas, Minnesota-Purdue, Baylor-Nebraska and Illinois-Wisconsin. The TV I look at the least is the one in the upper left-hand corner. That game at the time was Oklahoma-Kansas St.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, I go through the play-by-play of each game that took place the previous weekend to make sure I did not miss anything. My staff has interesting notes on each game, and of course, I watched the majority of them. I then write the Past Histories (which is my recap of the games) and those are the same Past Histories that you will find on PhilSteele.com. I refer to these often during the offseason to get the true feel of the game as final scores can sometimes be misleading.

I mentioned my staff "charting" the games. I have assigned different members of my staff to cover different conferences. During the week they get articles from the local papers and the Internet and underline all of the interesting information that could affect a team's performance, or have to do with injuries, etc. All the underlined information is then typed into a file for each team.

These team reports are anywhere from 35 to 200 pages by the end of the year (there are a lot more articles on Ohio St than Buffalo). I do not have time to read all the information during each week so I read through these reports every year during the months of December, January and February.

Football is what I do for a living seven days a week, 365 days a year. As you can tell by the sheer volume of information, I write each of the 120 team previews which basically puts me on the magazine "deadline" from the end of December through the middle of May.

During the months of January and February, I read through the mountains of information that was underlined and begin to write the teams for the magazine. I give myself about 4 hours to read just one team and that team is all I focus on. I find it interesting when a writer in the 2nd week is calling for a QB to be benched but then is talking about what a great QB he is at the end of the year after a big game. It really gives me a feel for what went on with the team last year. During the 4 hours I allot for each team, I read everything from the year and take notes. I also write the QB, RB, receivers and Special Teams portions for that team. I write these this early because they are the easiest to analyze and have the fewest position changes during the spring. Many times DB's move to LB's, LB's to DL or OL and DL's switch sides. For those positions I wait until spring starts before doing my writing.

During March, April and May it is time to get all the latest info on the teams and analyze the freshmen and JUCO signees. I also read through all of the information from the spring practices. At this time I double check what I wrote to make sure it all still applies after any spring changes. I then write the other 4 positions and go through my individual power ratings on each unit. I once again give myself 3 to 4 hours per team and try to do 3 per day. The next step is to go through what I wrote in the magazine and start cutting out some words because I usually have too much information to fit on the page. While I chop the text down I also go conference-by-conference, to review my power ratings and pick the All-Conference teams. This is another 3 week process. I finalize the 9 sets of power ratings and feed them into my computer which has all the schedules and let the computer play out the season.

WHICH IS THE TOUGHEST CONFERENCE?

BY PHIL STEELE

Let me help clarify the great debate on which conference is the toughest. One of the most exciting things about NCAA Football is that the toughest conference changes are on a yearly basis, but of course lately the SEC has dominated winning the last 5 National Titles and the top spot in my final Toughest Conference Ratings for the last 6 years. I remember back in the late 1960's, when it could have been argued that the SWC was the top conference in the country with powerhouse like Texas and Arkansas battling it out for #1. Joe Paterno is still not too pleased with President Nixon's proclamation that Texas was #1 after they beat Arkansas in 1969 when his undefeated Penn St team finished #2. In later years, it was the Big 8 with Nebraska and Oklahoma dominating the landscape. The SEC, of course, is usually at the top, as is the Big Ten. Both conferences have had their powerhouse years, with Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide and the rivalry between Woody Hayes (Ohio St) and Bo Schembechler (Michigan). They, of course, have also had some off-years. There have been a lot of conference changes in the last 11 years (a lot this year!). These realignments have created some major shifts of power.

Another interesting point is that there is not an exact science for picking the toughest conference. You cannot rely strictly on how many bowl wins a conference racks up during the postseason, or on its overall record in non-conference play. Let's face it, some leagues' non-conf slates are much tougher than others. Conferences can play non-conf games vs FCS or BCS opponents and if you go strictly on overall records, the wins and losses count the same.

Before I take a look at 2010's results, let's look at the results for the previous 8 years for a historical perspective. In 2002 the Big Ten made a big comeback and was the Top Conference. Not only did they produce the National Champion in Ohio St but they had the best bowl record of any conference (5-2). The Big Ten also had the best record vs other AQ conf's at 8-5 (ACC #2 at 10-7).

In 2003, I put together all the factors (non-conf record, record vs BCS conf, average power ratings and bowl records) and rated the conferences with the SEC narrowly earning the title of 2003's Toughest Conference with the Big Ten and Big 12 finishing very close behind.

For 2004, I eliminated wins vs FCS schools but did include losses vs them. USC had tremendous power rating numbers which are also a part of my equation. During the season the Big 12 had the best non-conf record and a slight lead but USC's demolition of Oklahoma in the Title game had me awarding the Pac-10 its first-ever Toughest Conference Title. The #2 conference was the Big 12, #3 SEC, #4 ACC and the Big Ten was #5.

In '05, the best non-conf record went to the Big 12 at 23-5 (82%), followed by the Big Ten at 26-6 (81%). Against AQ schools the Big Ten was #1 (6-4), with the Pac-10 & Big 12 each at 4-3 and the ACC at 9-7. The MWC (5-7) actually had a better record in this category than the Big East (4-9). Only 3 leagues had winning records in bowls (Big 12 5-3, Pac-10 3-2, ACC 5-3). Here is how I ranked the '05 conf's: #1 SEC, #2 ACC, #3 Big Ten, #4 Big 12, #5 Pac-10 and #6 Big East.

In 2006, it appeared late in the year that the Big Ten was the toughest league with Ohio St and Michigan #1 and #2 and Wisconsin not far behind. The Big Ten got blown up in the bowls (2-5) with #1 Ohio St, being dominated by Florida. That dropped the Big Ten to #3. The SEC was the CLEAR #1 with the best record during the regular season vs FBS teams at 32-8 (80%). The lowest mark among the BCS conferences was the ACC at 20-17 (54.1%). The best record for a conference vs BCS foes went to the Big East at 12-6, while the SEC was #2 at 9-6. The ACC was just 4-11 (27%) and the Big 12 was a lowly 3-8 (27.3%). Both the MAC and CUSA posted more wins (5) in non-conf BCS games than the Big 12 or ACC!! The SEC led with 41 players drafted followed by the Big Ten (32), then the ACC (31). The Big East only had 16, which was actually 1 behind the WAC! The SEC and Big Ten each had THREE Top 10 teams (Big East 2). The SEC was 6-3 in bowls with 4 wins over ranked teams. The Big East was 5-0 but had only ONE win over a ranked foe. All of the factors above were tossed into my computer and the result was #1 SEC, #2 Big East, #3 Big Ten, #4 Pac-10, #5 ACC, #6 Big 12.

In 2007, it was another finish at the wire with the Big 12 making a huge rebound to #2. The best non-conf record (reg season) vs FBS teams was the Big Ten at 29-7 (80.6%) followed by the Big 12 at 29-11 (72.5%) and then the MWC at 70.7%. The MWC posted more wins (7) in non-conf BCS games than the Big Ten, Pac-10 or Big 12!! The SEC led again with 35 players drafted, followed by the Pac-10 (34) and the ACC (33). The Big 12 led with FOUR Top 10 teams (SEC 2). The SEC and the Big 12 each had 5 Top 25 teams (Big Ten, Pac-10 4 each). The MWC (4-1) had the best bowl record! The SEC was 7-2 with 4 wins over ranked teams in bowls, which tied them with the Big 12 for the lead (MWC 0). All of the factors above were tossed into my computer and the result was a nail-biting close-win for the SEC. The Big 12 was a hair behind at #2.

In the 2008 regular season there was little doubt that the top 2 conf's were the SEC and the Big 12. The top 4 ranked teams heading into the bowls were all from those 2 conf's. They were the top two in terms of non-conf record vs FBS foes (Big 12 28-10, 73.7%, SEC 28-11, 71.8%). The SHOCKING winner of best record in non-conf games vs BCS schools was the Mountain West at 9-4 (6-1 vs Pac-10) with the ACC at 13-8 (61.9%), the only other conf topping .500 in that category. The Pac-10 was actually 12-17 in non-conf FBS games (8th best). The bowls saved the Pac-10 as they went a perfect 5-0 (4 wins vs rank bowl foes) and finished with 2 Top 10 teams. The SEC went 6-2 in bowls and won the title game while the Big 12 went 4-3 in bowls. Five conferences had TWO Top 10 teams at the end but one of them was the MWC while the Big East and ACC had NONE. The top 3 conf's in terms of players that were drafted were the SEC with 37, the ACC with 33 and the Pac-10 (32). The top 4 conf's of '08 were #1 SEC, #2 Big 12, #3 Pac-10 and for the first time the MWC cracked the top 4.

In '09 there was little doubt that once again the SEC was the king but at least the Big Ten made a comeback after their #6 finish in '08. The SEC had the best record in non-conf games vs FBS foes at 36-10 (78%) with the Big East #2 at 26-10 (72%) and the Big Ten #3 at 27-15 (64%). In games vs AQ conf's the SEC was tops at 15-8 (65.2%) and they were the only league above 50% in this category. The MWC was #2 at 7-9 (44%). The SEC led with 10 bowl teams (6-4). The Big 12 was 4-4 and the Big Ten was 4-3 but they usually face the toughest slate of bowl opp's (along with the SEC) each year. The Big Ten's 4 bowl wins were ALL vs ranked teams (SEC 3, Big 12 2). While the Big East was 4-2 in bowls they did not defeat a single ranked foe. The SEC once again led in draft picks with 49 (Big Ten 34, ACC 31). The Big Ten actually finished with the most AP Top 10 teams (3) while the SEC had two and those two leagues and the ACC each had 4 AP Top 25 teams at the end. The top 4 conf's of '09 were #1 SEC, #2 Big Ten, #3 Big 12 and #4 Big East.

Last year the SEC went 36-11 (76.9%) in non-conf games and went 15-10 (60%) vs other AQ conf's (no other conf above 50%). Their 10 bowl wins were the most as were their 38 draft picks. The Pac 10 (now Pac 12) had 31 draft picks and two Top 10 tms and might have been #2 but only had 4 bowl teams overall. The Big Ten had 8 bowl tms and despite just 29 players drafted finished a distant #2 to the SEC with a very slight edge over conferences #3, 4 and 5. The Big 12 had just 1 win over a ranked tm in the bowls but and 1 Top 10 tm but actually were #2 with 5 top 25 tms. Here are the rankings for 2010.

|------------|----------------|
| 1. SEC | 7. Big East |
| 2. Big Ten | 8. WAC |
| 3. Big 12 | 9. Independent |
| 4. Pac 10 | 10. CUSA |
| 5. ACC | 11. MAC |
| 6. MWC | 12. Sun Belt |

Now let's take a look at which conference will be the toughest in '11. First let me explain how I derive the results. I complete 9 primary sets of power ratings at the start of the year. First is a pure power rating. I rank the positions (QB, RB, WR, etc.) from 4 to 10 points with 10 points being the highest. I then add up all of the positions, factor in coaching and special teams, and derive my Power Rating for each team.

The second Power Rating is based on my Plus/

Minus Power Ratings (see page 305). These take into account the production of the team not only in terms of points, but yards gained and allowed. I compile a lengthy list of areas of improvement and spots that are weaker and either upgrade or downgrade each team's Power Plays numbers. I then add up all the different numbers and get my Preseason Plus/Minus Power Ratings number for each team.

Three other sets are based on last year's final numbers. I grade every position for each team (QB, RB, WR, OL, DL, LB, DB) on their scale of improvement from one year to the next. The scale ranges from +6 points to -6 points for each position. I take the total team number and factor it into last year's 3 final sets of Power Ratings. This gives me 3 very different ways of gauging the strength of the teams.

The question is, how do I add up the points? Conferences all have a different number of teams. If I ranked the teams by the average of the entire conference, that would give a good indication of the average rating of all the teams. But the bigger the conference the weaker the grade could possibly be. I did use that as one factor. I added a second factor and that was an average grade of just the Top 5 teams. This would give me an even comparison of all the conferences. The only thing this rating does not show, of course, is the depth of the conference. For example, let's say one conference had 9 bowl caliber teams and 1 non-bowl team and another conference had 5 bowl caliber teams and 5 non-bowl teams. The thinner conference would be rated higher if the Top 5 teams had a higher average, even though the deeper conference was probably tougher. I also rate leagues by the Top 3 and the Top 8. By merging the 4 ratings, I get a fairly accurate assessment of the strength of the conferences.

Basically, after all of that is done, I have 4 different sets of rankings. They break down the conferences based upon the strength of the Top 3 teams in each conf, the Top 5 teams, the Top 8 teams and then the overall strength of the whole conference. Two years ago the Big 12 was #1 in the Top 5 teams and that proved true at the end of the year with 4 in the Top 10!

Here are my preseason rankings for this year's Toughest Conferences and also 2010's final polls. This year, the SEC is at the top once again and just like the last 3 years the Big 12 is #2. The Pac 12 is at the #3 spot. The ACC and Big Ten tie for 4th best. Here is how my computer ranks the conferences for the 2011 season.

2011'S MOST IMPROVED TEAMS

BY PHIL STEELE

Making my Most Improved List has generally been a blessing for teams, as they usually make big turnarounds. In 1999, the #1 most improved team in my Preseason Rankings was Hawaii and they had the NCAA's largest turnaround on record, going from a winless season in 1998 (0-12) to 9-4 and a bowl victory one year later!!!

The year 2000 was a VERY successful season as well for my Most Improved Teams. Of the top 14 Most Improved Teams that year, TEN went from a losing season to being bowl eligible!!!! South Carolina was my #6 Most Improved Team and they went from 0-11 in 1999 to beating Ohio St in a Jan 1 bowl to finish 8-4. Northwestern was #4 and after a poor 3-8 season, they rolled to become Big Ten Co-Champions! My top two both went from losing seasons to bowl eligibility.

In 2001 and 2002, nine of the 20 teams on my Most Improved List each year went from having a non-winning season to making a bowl. Colorado went from 3-8 to just missing out on the National Title game in 2001. Wash St was picked last in the Pac-10 media poll (4-7 in '00), but made my Most Improved List and went 10-2 and just missed out on a Pac-10 title. In '02, USC went from 6-6 to 11-2 and #4 AP after an Orange Bowl win.

In 2003, 8 of the top 20 teams went from a .500 or losing seasons to being bowl eligible. Rutgers, which went from 1-11 to 5-7, just missed out. The biggest turnaround was the Memphis Tigers, my #8 Most Improved Team. The Tigers went from 3-9 to a super 9-4!!!!

There was a total of TEN teams that did not have winning records in 2003 who improved to a winning record in '04. NINE (90%) of them were on my list! My #1 Most Improved Team, Texas A&M, went from 4-8 to the Cotton Bowl. My #3 Most Improved Team, UTEP went from 2-11 to a super 8-4!! Iowa St made the list and went from 2-10 to 7-5 and tied for the Big 12 North Title!! Not only did 12 of the 21 go from a non-winning season to a bowl, but only TWO had more losses than the previous year.

In 2005, my top 16 Most Improved Teams made incredible strides. This was despite the fact that one of the 16 teams was Tulane, whose season was disrupted by Hurricane Katrina and played 11 games in 11 different venues. The top 16 Most Improved Teams on my list in 2005 had a combined record of 66-111 (37%) in 2004 and improved to 102-84 (55%) in 2005 and, if you take Tulane out of the equation, the record jumps to 100-75 (57%)!! Penn State went from 4-7 to the #3 team in the country and nearly played in the National Title game. Oregon went from 5-6 to #6 after the regular season, finishing at 10-2!! W Michigan went from 1-10 to 7-4, a huge turnaround. None of my top 16 teams in 2005 had winning records in 2004 but ELEVEN were bowl eligible in 2005.

2006 was another great year for this list. My #1 Most Improved Team in 2006 was Arkansas which went from 4-7 to SEC West Champs and rose as high as #5 in the polls!! Wake Forest went from 4-7 to 11-3 and ACC Champs. Houston went from 6-6 to CUSA Champs! Ohio went from 4-7 to MAC East Champs! Troy went from 4-7 to Sun Belt Champs! Kentucky went from 3-8 to 8-5, including their Music City Bowl win over Clemson. Hawaii went from 5-7 to a super 11-3. Tennessee went from 5-6 to 9-4 and could have been the SEC East Champs had they not let 4Q leads vs LSU and Florida slip away. Kent St went from 1-10 to a bowl eligible 6-6. The top 10 teams on 2006's MIT list were a combined 71-57 (55.5%) in 2006 after being 33-79 (29.5%) in 2005. Of the 22 teams, only 2 won less games than they did in 2005 (Mich St & San Diego St).

2007 was another terrific year! The 22 teams on my list had a combined record of 92-177 (34.2%)

in 2006 but were 145-134 (52%) in 2007. Of the 22 teams on the list only THREE had more losses than in 2006. Twenty of the 22 teams were coming off losing seasons and of those 20, THIRTEEN (10 of top 14) ended the regular season bowl eligible!! MY #2 SURPRISE TEAM IN 2007 WAS ILLINOIS AND THEY WENT FROM 2-10 TO THE ROSE BOWL!!! Memphis (#1 on list) went from 2-10 to a bowl and UCF went from a 4-8 season to CUSA Champs!

There were 58 teams in 2007 that did not have a winning record. Of those 58, 24 managed to improve their record AND be bowl eligible in 2008 or just 41%.

Of those 24, SIXTEEN were on my 2008 Most Improved List (67%)!!!! Twelve of my top 13 Most Improved Teams went from non-winning seasons to bowl eligibility or 92%!!!! Those 13 went from a combined 50-95 (34.5%) in 2007 to a 94-62 (60.3%) record in 2008!!! There were only 4 teams in the NCAA who did not make it to a bowl in 2007 that made it to Jan 1-2 bowls and they were South Carolina (6-6), Ole Miss (3-9 in '07), Nebraska (5-7) and Iowa (6-6). ALL FOUR also made my Most Improved List and 3 won their bowl games with the one loss being South Carolina to Iowa!!! Minnesota which was just 1-11 and Northern Illinois which was just 2-10 both made the list and both made it to a bowl!! Only 3 of the 23 teams actually had more losses than '07.

2009 was another successful season with 22 teams making my list and of the 22, 12 went from a losing record to bowl eligibility. Ohio won the MAC East after going 4-8 in '08 and SMU went from 1-11 to 8-5!!!! 15 of the 22 teams improved their record and two had the same record as 2008.

Last year my #1 Most improved team Tulsa went from 5-7 to 10-3 and #24 in the country! The 19 teams that made the list had a combined record of 82-149 35.5% in '09 and improved to a combined 132-109 54.8%!! None of the 19 went to a bowl in '09 but 13 of them were bowl eligible LY! San Diego St got to their first bowl since '98! Maryland went from 2-10 to 9-4 and Mich St went from 6-7 to 11-1 and #7 after the reg season! SEVENTEEN of the 19 teams on the 2010 Most Improved list improved their record!!

With this type of success through the years, you might think that it is very easy to pick teams that had losing records the previous year and have become bowl eligible the next season. I went back to 1992 and took a look at all of the teams that finished with losing records in a season. In that span, there have been 969 teams that finished with a record below .500. Of those 969 teams, only 279 of them managed to finish ABOVE .500 the next year which comes out to just 28.8%. Teams now play a 12 game regular season so a 6-6 record equals bowl eligibility. To be fair, out of the 969 teams an additional 51 earned a .500 mark the next year. So, of the 969 teams, 330 or 34% managed to go from a losing record to at least .500 the next year.

The combined record of all of the teams which had a losing record from 1992-2009 was 3044-5762 or 34.5%. The next year those same teams showed a slight overall improvement in their records to 3836-5236 or just 42.2%. So on the average, a team that had a losing season in that span improved by 7.7% over the previous year's record. Naturally, the teams I feel are the most improved are in my top 10. My top ten Most Improved Teams over the last 9 years had a combined record of 368-686 (34.9%) the previous year which improved to 583-523 (52.7%) the next year. That is 17.8% better than the previous year which is more than DOUBLE the normal improvement for teams with losing records. Last year the top ten Most Improved teams went from 46-76 37.7% to 74-53 58.2% for a 20.5% improvement!

In the last 9 years, I have had a total of 190 teams on my Most Improved List. LY I picked 19 that have had .500 or above records the previous year and of those 19, fourteen improved their record. Of the 190 teams that made my Most Improved List in the last 9 years, 162 (85.2%) have won at least the same amount of games as the previous year or have improved their win total (18 of 19, 95% in '10!).

In the last 9 years, I have listed 176 teams on my Most Improved Teams list that did not have a winning season the previous year. Of those 176 teams, almost all improved their record the next year, but even more impressively, 109 of the 176 teams were bowl eligible the next year which is 61.9% (44 of 63 70% in '08-'10)!

Taking a closer look at the last 9 years, I found that 475 teams had losing records from 2001-2009, and of those 475 teams, just 129 or 27.1% managed to have a winning record the next year. Of those 129 teams, 79 of them were on my Most Improved List or 61.2%!!!! Over 61% of the teams that have gone from a losing season to a winning season have been on my list!

Looking for some major turnaround teams this year that will surprise? Here is my much anticipated Most Improved Teams List. The team at the top is Houston who will be vastly improved and will contend for the CUSA Title. In '09 Washington was my computers Most Improved team but I did not put them on the list because I did not think they would get to a bowl. They went from 0-12 to 5-7. Last year my computer had Miami Ohio as its #1 Most Improved Team, but I did not expect them to be in a bowl so they did not make the list (ouch). They were the first team in NCAA history to go from double digit losses to double digit wins. This year San Jose St gets that billing. You can expect a high % of these teams to go from a losing record (or not going to a bowl) to bowl eligibility and over half will make the postseason!

WHO WILL BE THIS YEAR'S SURPRISE TEAM?

By Phil Steele

Let's pretend you were in Shreveport, Louisiana on December 31, 1999. You've just watched Oklahoma lose 27-25 to an avg Mississippi team to finish the season 7-5. Despite this bowl loss, it was a good year for the Sooners, especially after coming off of 5 consecutive non-winning years. Your friend says to you, "I guarantee you Oklahoma will win the National Championship next year." Your first thought is your friend has "over-celebrated" New Year's Eve. Next year Oklahoma would have just 13 returning st's and face a schedule that incl'd the 3 powerhouses of the Big 12 in Nebraska, Kansas St and Texas, with all 3 of those games away from home.

The Sooners entered the year as a 50-1 shot to win the National Title and were ranked #19. When the dust cleared they simply stood at the top of the heap over all of the other 115 Division IA teams and were the only undefeated team. Impressive indeed! They did have some solid factors going for them in 2000 like exceptionally good health (0 st's missed a gm due to inj), a solid QB and a super defense. Your first reaction was this Cinderella story is a one-time thing. However, teams have reached the top and have been big surprises almost every year, and yes, sometimes they bag the National Title despite not being one of the top-ranked teams coming into the season.

Oklahoma was not the only Surprise Team of 2000. Oregon St was unranked coming into the season, and much like the Sooners, stayed remarkably inj free. They also benefitted from +18 turnovers to finish #4 (AP) with a super 11-1 season incl a blowout win over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl. Health and turnovers had a big impact that year, but here are examples of other surprise teams through the years, incl last year when preseason #22 Auburn coming off an 8-5 season won the national title (my #5 surprise team last year).

In 2002, it was yet another Surprise Team taking home the National Title. Ohio St was not even ranked in the preseason Top 10. In fact, only three magazines even picked them to win the Big Ten, let alone contend for a National Title. I am pleased to report I had OSU at #7, which was higher than any other publication. I pointed out 3 sets of my Power Ratings called for Ohio St to have a perfect season. The Buckeyes were coming off a 7-5 season and had only 12 starters back. They had the NCAA's 4th highest losses to the NFL draft and did not even have a returning starter at QB. When the smoke cleared, they had beaten Miami, FL in the Fiesta Bowl and took home the National Title.

In 2003, there was another surprise champ and that was LSU. If you read my 2003 College Football Preview, you know I had LSU pegged as my #2 Surprise Team in the country saying they had a great shot at going undefeated and attaining the National Title. They were a 40-1 long shot in Las Vegas to win the title coming off an 8-5 season including a 35-20 Cotton Bowl loss to Texas. I pointed out they had a great schedule and would have finished stronger in 2002 had their QB not been injured. At the start of the year, not only did 8 of the Big 9 magazines NOT have LSU as a National Title contender, but NONE had LSU even winning the SEC WEST DIVISION. That year LSU simply won the SEC outright and shared the National Title!! The other half of the National Title went to USC who I had listed as my #5 Surprise Team despite the fact they had to replace their Heisman Trophy winning QB Carson Palmer.

In '04 almost everyone including myself pegged USC and Oklahoma to play in the Orange Bowl game so there was no Surprise Team in the title game BUT Auburn made no major publication's Top 10 and almost got to the big game with its unbeaten season. I had Auburn listed as my #7 Surprise Team in '04.

In '05 the #1 and #2 preseason teams met in the title game so there was no Surprise Team. Penn St was not ranked in the preseason and finished #3 in the final polls after having a losing season in '04. While they did not make my Surprise List, they were my #3 Most Improved Team (page 19).

The 2006 season was a VERY GOOD year for my Surprise Teams and almost a GREAT YEAR! In my round of summer radio shows I got a lot of chuckles with my pick of Boise St to get to a BCS bowl. Only one non-AQ team in history had done so and Boise St was not only unranked to start the year but NOT A SINGLE PUBLICATION IN THE COUNTRY HAD BOISE ST IN THE TOP 20! Well of course I had them in the Top 20, so I should say, not a single magazine other than mine. Boise St, as you all know, was a great story especially with their dramatic win in the Fiesta Bowl and they finished #5 in the polls. I say almost a GREAT year because my #1 Surprise Team was Louisville and they came within inches of playing for the National Title. When I wrote the magazine I had expected the "Derby City Duo" of RB Michael Bush and QB Brian Brohm to be one of the top QB/RB combos in the country. Bush was lost in the 3Q of the opening game and Brohm was injured a few games later. Brohm was only a few games back from injury when the #3 Cards blew a 25-7 3Q lead and lost to Rutgers on a FG on the last play (which was a 2nd chance FG after the first one was missed but the Cardinals were penalized for being offside). Had they held on and won they would have been #2 in the BCS poll and we would have had a pair of unbeaten teams for the title. As we saw, the Buckeyes were greatly affected by their 51 day layoff and were a vulnerable team. Louisville could have been the fourth team in FIVE YEARS to merit National Championship consideration that was one of my Top 10 Surprise Teams. That is a pretty good record considering I do not pick any of the projected preseason Top 10 teams. In 2006, National Champ, Florida, was in the AP Preseason Top 10 along with the other top teams in the mix (Ohio St, Michigan and USC).

Virginia Tech

In 2007, I had Ohio St listed as my #4 Surprise Team and they entered the season #11 but played in the National Title game. I had USF (unranked preseason) as my #5 Surprise Team and they climbed as high as #2 in the polls. I had Georgia (#13 AP) as my #6 Surprise Team and they finished #2 and almost played in the title game. I had Oregon my #10 Surprise Team and they were #2 when QB Dennis Dixon was injured. Had Dixon not been injured, they likely would have been in the title game. I had Missouri my #9 Surprise Team and despite being UNRANKED in the AP preseason poll, they were #1 when they faced Oklahoma in the Big 12 Title game and finished #4! I also had Hawaii going unbeaten in the regular season and playing in the Sugar Bowl which is exactly what happened!

In 2008, I had Texas Tech my #3 Surprise Team and they got to 10-0 (#2) and came very close (3-way B12 South Division tie) to playing for the Big 12 Championship and possibly the National Title game. Penn St opened the year #22 in the AP poll but was my #5 Surprise team and had they not given away a 9 point 4Q lead vs Iowa they would have been in the title game. Do you want to know the non-AQ school that will get to a BCS bowl? Read my magazine. After pegging Boise and Hawaii the previous two years I stuck my neck out with Utah in '08 as the top non-AQ school. According to preseason.stassen.com with the exception of my magazine there was not a SINGLE magazine or internet source that even had the Utes winning the MWC let alone contending for a BCS bowl!!

In 2009, the title game was Texas vs Alabama (both top 5 prior to year) so there were no surprise teams. In '09 I had Boise St as my #1 non-AQ team and they finished #4 at 14-0 once again getting to a BCS bowl.

Last year I had AUBURN my #5 surprise team and despite entering the year #22 in the AP poll they ran the table and won the national title!

Do you think it is easy picking a National Champ prior to the year? Since 1994, only 3 times has the preseason #1 team gone on to win the National Title. In 2007 NO Magazine had LSU or Ohio St #1 (USC was the consensus #1). In 2006, National Champ Florida was not picked #1 by ANY magazine and they were picked anywhere from #4 (Joe Del Popolo of GamePlan had them rated the highest of any magazine) down to #20. They were #7 in the preseason AP Poll and #8 in the Coaches' Poll. Only in 1999 and 2001 did any of the Big 9 preseason magazines correctly pick the National Champ before 2004 when almost everyone had USC. In 2005 everyone had USC again and no one had the actual Champ, Texas. The Big 9 magazines I am referring to are Athlon, Lindy's, The Sporting News, Street and Smith's, Sports Illustrated, GamePlan, Preview Sports, Jim Feist's and Phil Steele. In 2001, two magazines (Preview Sports and Street and Smith's) pegged Miami, FL as #1 and they were correct. It used to be the usual suspects like Florida St, Miami, FL and Nebraska that were pegged to win it almost every year. In 2008, Georgia was the preseason #1 team but I had FLORIDA to win the title and the Gators delivered for me!! Athlon was the only other source to have Florida #1.

All of this information I have provided for you was obtained from a great website, www.stassen.com, which has information on final polls, magazine rankings and some records that date back to 1989. So, what have we learned from all this information? Clearly, every year there has been an unexpected Top 10 team and some years there are big surprises like Oklahoma, Ohio St, LSU and Auburn who all took home the title after a 5-loss season (Auburn also had 5 losses in 2003 before going unbeaten in 2004). Now comes the question, "Who will be this year's Surprise Team?"

As I write this magazine, it is unknown where the other magazines will have the teams ranked or what the preseason polls will look like (but I have a very good idea of the top 10). I can definitely peg some teams that won't rank in the Preseason Top 10 (and some not even in the Top 20) that could turn out to be big surprise teams this year. Keep in mind no one can forecast injuries and turnovers and those have been important factors for teams who have climbed to the top in recent years.

In 2001's magazine I listed 9 teams. LSU was a team that was not ranked in the Preseason Top 10, but did earn its way into a BCS bowl by winning the SEC. I picked Colorado for this article, despite the fact that they were 3-8 the previous season!! They missed out on the National Title game by a couple of percentage points in the BCS rankings.

In 2002, my #1 Surprise Team in this article was OHIO ST and the Buckeyes shocked the nation by winning the National Title!! Some other teams mentioned in the article were Penn St, Kansas St, USC and Arkansas. Penn St ended up playing in a Jan 1 bowl game after two straight losing seasons. At the end of 2002 you could have made an argument that Kansas St and USC were the two hottest teams in the country. Kansas St outscored their opponents on the year by 33 ppg and USC crushed UCLA, ND and Iowa in their final 3 games by a 134-51 margin. Arkansas was the surprise winner of the SEC West.

In 2003, I had LSU listed as my #2 Surprise Team in the country and they split the National Title with USC. I had USC listed as my #5 Surprise Team as they were not highly ranked at the start of the year. They had to replace Heisman winner Carson Palmer but I noted that 2 of my sets of Power Ratings called them the BEST in the country prior to the season and they claimed the other half of the National Title!!!! My #1 Surprise Team in 2003 was Pitt and they had a shot at the Orange Bowl and a Big East Title but could not beat Miami in their season finale in chilly Heinz Field. In 2003, I listed a couple of non-AQ teams that could factor into the equation and my #1 team was TCU, a team that was ranked #6 in the BCS poll in Nov. and almost made a BCS bowl before a late loss.

In 2004 as usual, I eliminated what early polls showed would be Top 10 teams. As I mentioned I had Auburn as my #7 Surprise Team and they almost played in the National Title game. I had Cal as my #2 Surprise Team and they had a 424-205 yard edge vs USC and just missed winning that game. Had they won, they would have been in the National Title game! I listed Utah and Boise St among 5 non-AQ surprise teams and both went undefeated in the regular season (Boise lost bowl to finish 11-1).

In 2005, Oregon and Alabama (two teams that were not even ranked in the preseason) made my surprise list. The Tide was 9-0 and was #4 until injuries derailed them but they still finished #8. Oregon went 10-1 and was #6, almost making a BCS bowl. Georgia made my surprise list and while they were an almost unanimous preseason pick for third place in the SEC East, they were my pick for the SEC Title and they, of course, won it.

In 2006, only 4 teams who were not in the AP Top 10 at the start of the year finished in the Top 10 and those teams were Louisville, Boise St, Michigan and Wisconsin. As mentioned, Louisville was my #1 Surprise Team and Boise was my #1 non-AQ team and I projected them to get to a BCS bowl. I had Michigan on my anticipated Top 10 list so they were not an option. Wisconsin, meanwhile, surprised even me.

Something I have noticed the last couple of years is a REBOUND Surprise Team. In 2003, Auburn was thinking undefeated season and National Title. They were picked in the Top 10 by EVERY magazine (except mine, #15) including #1 by a major magazine. They were tremendously disappointing, finishing just 7-5 in the regular season. In 2004, the Tigers were no longer the popular pick and few had them in the Top 10 (they were my #7 Surprise Team). With lower expectations they rebounded to go 13-0 and almost played for the National Title. In that 2004 season West Virginia was a popular surprise pick as they had the schedule to run the table. I tabbed WV as my #1 Surprise Team and they did rise to #6 but injuries and some close losses saw them stumble to an 8-4 record. In 2005, the Mountaineer bandwagon emptied fast and no magazine (including mine) had them in the Top 25. WV rebounded with an almost perfect year going 11-1, beating Georgia in the Sugar Bowl and finishing #5. In 2006, Louisville fit that category after having high expectations in 2005 but came out of the season with 3 unexpected losses. I mentioned earlier how they were inches away from playing in the 2006 National Title game. In '08 USC (preseason #1 '07) was the best fit but I could not pick them because they were in the Top 5 in the preseason. This year Alabama (pres #1 in '10, 10-3) fits that category.

The last couple of February's on PhilSteele.com, I have posted my projected AP Top 10 for the upcoming year. I have hit 9 of 10 the last two years. The last 2 years ESPN has produced its preseason Top 25 and it comes out in April. Here is my expected list of the teams that will likely be ranked in this year's preseason AP Top 10 and I put them in order of how they will likely be ranked: Oklahoma, Alabama, Oregon, LSU, Stanford, Boise St, Oklahoma St, Florida St, South Carolina and Ohio St. It's likely these 10 teams will make up the Top 10 this year, so I will NOT use any of them. Now let's take a look at this year's potential surprise teams.

This year my #1 Surprise Team is the Virginia Tech Hokies! The ESPN April ranking has them at #19 but if you are looking for this year's Auburn it is Virginia Tech. They have two striking similarities to 2010 Auburn. The first is a QB that is 6'6" 245 lbs, is mobile and is a first year starter. Auburn had Cam Newton and VT has Logan Thomas. I am not projecting a similar season, but coach Beamer is very high on him. While he won't match Newton's numbers, VT's '11 defense is superior to Auburn's '10 D which allowed 24.1 ppg. Now let's look at the schedule. A big reason Auburn made my surprise list LY was that they had very winnable road games and all the tough games at home (with the exception of Alabama). VT's road schedule is EC, Marshall, WF, Duke, GT and Virginia. They get Clemson, Miami, BC and NC at home. They have 0 top ten teams on the schedule and have one of the nation's best head coaches. The ACC title game may be their toughest test of the year. I have them going 12-0 and getting there.

Since they won their last national title in 1988, my #2 Surprise Team the Notre Dame Fighting Irish have been the nation's biggest underachiever. Only four times in the last 21 years have they actually finished higher than their preseason ranking and 10 times finished unranked in that span many times after opening ranked. They do have a couple of Surprise team factors going for them. First of all 2nd year coaches have been pulling down some titles as of late. A first year HC has to learn the players strengths and weaknesses and the team must learn his new systems. Year two everyone is up to speed. In 2000 Bob Stoops was in his 2nd year shockingly winning the title (opening paragraph). 2002 was Jim Tressel's 2nd year at Ohio St and he was the surprise national title winner! Urban Meyer in his 2nd year at Florida took home a national title in 2006. Last year Gene Chizik (2nd year) took home the title after going 8-5 his first year at Auburn. Third yr HC's have won 4 in that span '09-Saban Alabama, '07-Miles LSU, '03-Carroll USC, '97-Carr Michigan. Brian Kelly took a moderately talented Cincy team to 12-0 and a Sugar Bowl berth in '09. ND won their last 4 last year and this year have 17 returning starters, are in the 2nd year of his systems and they have only 5 true road games (Mich, Pitt, Purdue, WF and Stanford). The only Top 10 team on their schedule is Stanford and ND could be favored in their first 11. All 9 of my sets of power ratings call for DD wins and Kelly had finished above my projection for 6 straight years until breaking that streak in 2010. Remember four Nat'l Champs the last 12 years have been off 5 loss seasons.

Mark Richt does well when expectations are low and my #3 Surprise team the Georgia Bulldogs don't even figure to be in the preseason top 25 this year! Now I will note that last year I had them in this same spot and they finished an ugly 6-7 with a poor bowl loss to a CUSA team. The Dogs do lose AJ Green (#1 DC) and 3 of their top 4 tacklers but clearly underachieved in '10 and have had some great recruiting classes the last couple of years with numerous impact players (some JC's) in this years class. The road slate is manageable with Ole Miss, Tennessee, Vandy and GT all finishing with losing records LY. They have two tough neutral site games but get a bye before Florida and Boise is in Atlanta, not exactly a neutral site. They avoid Alabama, LSU and Arkansas out of the West and get South Carolina at home. Their QB Aaron Murray showed good poise as a rFr and now has experience.

My #4 Surprise Team is the Texas A&M Aggies. Last year they were coming off of 4-8 and 6-7 seasons. TO's did them in at Okla St as they had a 535-351 yard edge and the ball at midfield at the end but another int turned that into a loss. They switched QB's and Tannehill cut down on the TO's and they went 6-1 down the stretch. This year they have one of the most exp'd teams in the country with 18 returning starters one year after ret 16 in '10. They have just 4 true AG's this year with Oklahoma the only ranked team among them. Remember Auburn had to go thru Alabama LY on their way to the National Title and the Aggies did beat OU last season. They get Okla St and Texas at home and Arkansas at a neutral site. RB Gray and WR Fuller are one of the best combos in the country and their ppg on defense has gone from 37.4 in '08, 33.5 in '09 to 21.9 last year and this years veteran unit may earn the "Wrecking Crew" nickname.

Last year in this spot I had a 2nd year coach in Gene Chizik who was not a popular hire (showing fans can actually be wrong) and was coming off an 8-5 season and My #5 Surprise Team, the USF Bulls, also feature a 2nd year HC that is coming off an 8-5 season. Unlike Chizik, Holtz was a popular hire and he got his East Carolina teams to overachieve on a yearly basis. The Big East champ gets an automatic BCS berth and the Big East is also the easiest of the BCS conferences to get thru unscathed. They do draw Notre Dame on the road and Miami, FI at home but are in the 2nd yr of Holtz's schemes and none of their 5 road games comes vs a team that finished ranked last year. This is a team that won't even make a lot of magazines' Top 40 and yet they make my surprise list. Can they capture the #5 surprise team magic that Auburn had last year?

Last year my #6 surprise team, the Nebraska Cornhuskers opened the season 5-0 and moved up to #5 with QB Taylor Martinez a Heisman candidate and many speculating they would run the table. Martinez was banged up in the 2nd half of the year, they had 3 close losses and then took UW lightly in the bowl (hammered earlier in yr) and finished 10-4 and off the radar in 2011 with ESPN ranking them #13. Mich St is the likely media favorite to win the new Legends Division of the Big Ten. NU now has better depth at QB should Martinez get injured again and they only have one road games vs a preseason ESPN ranked team in Wisconsin (#14). When they host Ohio St, the Buckeyes will have their 5 susp players back but none will have played a game which amplifies their home edge on homecoming. This is Pelini's best team yet and deserves to be tossed into the national title contenders category.

It seems like every year a team from the Big East ends up flirting with the top few spots in the AP poll. They of course do not have the type of schedule that SEC teams face on a weekly basis. My #7 Surprise team, the West Virginia Mountaineers are not even my pick to win the Big East but they could be the conference's surprise team this year. Last year I had them in this same spot with that same opening and despite being the best team in the Big East. Their offense LY avg 373 ypg but just 25.2 ppg and should be much improved under new OC Holgerson who did wonders in his first years at Houston and Okla St. They face just one team that will be ranked in the preseason and that is LSU who they almost upset LY in Death Valley. The defense is a question with just 4 starters back but this team will be favored in most of their games and if they upset LSU and LSU then goes onto win the SEC, they would have an argument that despite their weak schedule they would deserve a shot at the title.

Last year I projected that my #8 Surprise Team, the North Carolina Tar Heels, would have the most dominating defense in the country and have the most players selected off the defense in the 2011 draft. While NC did lead in players drafted (tie with Ohio St) the NCAA wiped out what I thought was a dominating unit as they devastated the D with suspensions. They lost two of my projected AA DL's for the season and all of their top notch DB's for part of the year. They still allowed just 23.2 ppg. This years team reminds me a little of Utah of 2008. The 2007 Utah team led the nation in starts lost to injury or susp and after going 9-4 in '07, I picked them to play in a BCS bowl in '08 and they beat Bama in the Sugar and even drew some #1 votes at the end of the year (13-0). Last year NC had 89 starts lost (highest yet!) and that means a lot of players were thrown into the lineup giving them more experience than their 13 ret st's indicates. They avoid Florida St out of the Atlantic and face just 1 top 25 team on the road and they won their last trip to Blacksburg. They will not be in most magazines top 40's.

When I talked to coach Dennis Erickson LY and we went thru each player on the tm I kept thinking what a great job he was doing building the team but also hoping he would survive the rebuilding year and tough sked to be around to see it. The school kept him as they did better than expected at 6-6 and he is back to guide my #9 Surprise Team the Arizona St Sun Devils. They were a dog in 8 games and could have won more than 6. They had a missed xp vs Wisconsin (Rose Bowl), outgained Oregon 597-385 (Nat'l Title gm), missed a 41 yd FG in a 1 pt loss to USC and led Stanford (Orange Bowl) in the 4Q. They have 15 ret st's (only 8 in '10) and get 7 HG's and play in the watered down Pac-12 South while avoiding Stanford. They do have to play Oregon on the rd but showed LY they could play with the Ducks and could surprise.

I'm down to the #10 spot on my Surprise Team list and I do not want to leave out a worthy candidate. In 2008, I left Alabama off the list because they had 4 tough road games but they went 12-0 that year. In 2009 I left Iowa off the list because they had 4 tough road games and had they not lost QB Stanzi to injury they might have gone 12-0. This year my power ratings say the #10 team Surprise team SHOULD be Penn St but they play Alabama at home, and must travel to Ohio St and Wisconsin on back to back weeks so I left them off. Mich St was also a possibility but has road trips to ND, OSU, Neb, Iowa and N'wstrn. My #10 Surprise team, the Wisconsin Badgers were in this spot LY and did upset #1 Ohio St and then won at Iowa the next week but lost 3 wks earlier to Mich St on the road and then TCU in the Rose Bowl. They still were #4 at the end of the regular season and if my plus one playoff format was in tact they would have been in the mix for the title game. While they do have some big personnel losses, the O-line and RB's will be a strength (like always). The schedule has just 2 ranked teams on the road in Mich St and Ohio St and who knows what kind of suspensions and penalties OSU will be under at that time (remember NC LY).

Roulette Chips. If you walk up to a roulette table and pick just one number you have a 38-1 shot (37-1 in the big money rooms with no 00) of having your number come in, so it is a long shot but still a possibility. Last year I listed two teams that had poor LOSING records from the previous year and said if the stars align correctly, no injuries happen, and every bounce goes their way, they could be the first team in recent history to go from a losing record to a National Title. You might argue that you could say that about any of the 120 FBS teams but that is not the case, as the odds of a Duke or Wash St walking away with the title are about the same as #78 coming up in roulette. One of two teams that I chose in 2005 was Alabama. They rose as high as #4 in polls at 9-0 and may just have gotten to the big game if not for key offensive injuries. Here are a couple of long shots that I felt compelled to include. Last year I had South Carolina and they got as high as #10 while Michigan off of B2B losing seasons got as high as #18.

The Texas Longhorns are off a 5-7 non bowl season but of course just played in the National Title game two years ago. Going from a losing season to a National Title would be the first time since 1962 (USC was 4-5-1 in '61 and won the title). The Horns got spotty QB play from a soph LY and last time that happened was Colt McCoy in '07 with 18 int's but the next year they just missed playing in the title gm with a much improved Jr QB McCoy.

Just like Texas above, in 2009 Cincinnati went 12-0 and played in the Sugar Bowl. They dropped to 4-8 LY but are in the 2nd year of HC Jones, have 15 ret st's, a veteran QB and my #75 rated schedule with just one preseason Top 25 team on it (WV at home Paul Brown Stadium). Butch Jones outdid what Brian Kelly achieved at Central Mich and to outdo Kelly here would have to play in the title game.

These are the 10 teams that have a legitimate shot at stunning the NCAA much like Oklahoma did in 2000, Ohio St did in 2002, LSU did in 2003, Auburn almost did in 2004, Louisville almost did in 2006, Ohio St almost did again in '07 and Auburn accomplished in 2010!

Also listed below are six more non-AQ teams who are long shots to make it to a BCS bowl, let alone a National Title game. In 2006, my top non-AQ team was Boise St and I PROJECTED THEM INTO A BCS BOWL and they went undefeated and got to the Fiesta Bowl where they beat Oklahoma. In 2007, I called for Hawaii to go 12-0 and grab a SUGAR BOWL BERTH and that is exactly what they did! In 2008 my top non-AQ team was Utah and while they were NOT RANKED in the preseason and no one picked them to even win the MWC at the start of the year except me, they finished unbeaten and #2 in the country! In 2009 my Top non-AQ team was Boise St and when they beat TCU in the Fiesta Bowl they finished #4 and the top non-AQ team in the country. Last year it was FIVE in a row. EVERYONE had Boise St as their top non AQ team but I went against the grain and picked TCU and coach Patterson and company did not disappoint as they knocked off Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl and finished #2 in the country, naturally the top rated non AQ team out there (Boise #9!)

That means in the 5 years I have posted my Top non-AQ team ALL FIVE have gone to BCS bowls and ALL FIVE have finished as the best non-AQ team! This year I'm going for SIX IN A ROW, my call is for the Boise St Broncos to go unbeaten and be the top non-AQ team in the country this year!

Two years ago the MWC was attempting to push Congress to pass legislation for them to get to the title game. There is now pressure being exerted by the Department of Justice on the BCS. It really bothers me that the government which cannot manage the budget and instead just keeps letting the deficit grow bigger and bigger and the amount we spend on interest to feed that each year just keeps becoming a higher % of the budget itself! Why don't they stick to trying to fix the country and quit wasting time sticking their noses into college football. The non AQ conference WOULD HAVE HAD a berth in the national title game just two short years ago if Texas had missed a last second FG (vs Neb) as TCU was #3 in the BCS and would have played Alabama. LY TCU came very close again and may have got there if they were one of two remaining undefeated teams. TY Boise is the best non AQ team and get a big game at Georgia to open the year, get to host TCU on the blue turf and are led by QB Kellen Moore. TCU has a team capable of getting there but have that aforementioned game on the road. Many of my sets of power ratings call for Southern Miss to run the table this year and Houston with Case Keenum at the controls is also a possibility. Can you imagine a 12-0 Houston vs a 12-0 Southern Miss in the CUSA title game? BYU has to play both Texas and TCU on the rd but deserves mention as they are vastly superior to last years squad and none of their games falls into the non winnable category plus have Ind status TY. Ohio U is only #90 in my Power Poll but has a schedule that could have them favored in all 12 games. How is this for a national title scenario for the little guys. Boise knocks off Georgia in Atlanta. The Bulldogs go on to win the SEC East and then knock off Bama in the SEC title game. Boise later beats an impressive undefeated TCU at home as well as MAC champ Toledo and WAC champ Fresno (I am being hypothetical here). Boise is one of two remaining unbeaten teams. Don't you think Boise would be in the title game then and do so without an act of Congress?

DETERMINING THE NATIONAL CHAMP - BOWLS OR PLAYOFFS?

by Phil Steele

For more than a decade now I have been calling for a system which pits the #1 vs #4 and #2 vs #3 teams in the Jan 1 bowls and the addition of a title game a week or two later which would give us a true National Champ every year. SEC Commissioner Mike Slive proposed this "plus one" format as it has come to be called to BCS officials in April of 2008. It seemed like support would be strong for this plan which would have started in 2010 but it was shot down by the BCS Commission. In '09 it seemed like 2014 would be the next shot but I still feel something can happen sooner. The main concern in '08 that still remains now is that a "plus one" would lead to an 8 or 16-team playoff, which I am also vehemently against. The only other concern was that the Rose Bowl wants a Big Ten and Pac-12 matchup every year and would have its tradition interrupted most years. The Pac-12 changed commissioners in 2009 and that door may begin to open as evidence by their expansion along with that of the Big 10. Personally I feel that the only way a "plus one" format will be approved is if they can sign a contract that it can not be extended to 8 or 16 teams for a significant 20 years period in the future.

Last year while many did not complain about Auburn playing Oregon for the title, my system would have also included undefeated #3 TCU which would have avoided two teams finishing the season unbeaten. In 2009, both TCU and Cincinnati would have been included and in 2008, my system would have allowed both Texas and Oklahoma into the final 4 but would not have been a cure-all (see next page). The 2007 season was really the FIRST year my system would not have worked out but no format could have produced a "true" champion in the bizarre season of 2007. I felt USC should have been in the mix but they were number SEVEN in the BCS rankings. To try and build a system around fixing the problems of 2007 would be ridiculous. Let's face it, if a team lost TWO games during the season they don't deserve to argue they belonged in the title game! Those years are rare. What is unjust is when you have 3 undefeated teams at the end of the year or 3 or 4 deserving teams and they are not able to compete for the title. This happened to Ohio St in 1998, Nebraska in 1999, Washington and Miami in 2000, Oregon and Colorado in 2001, USC and LSU (split title) in 2003, unbeaten SEC Champ Auburn in 2004 and Michigan fell to #3 without playing in both '03 and '06 and some could make a case for TCU last year.

I know in college basketball the NCAA tournament is a major success. TV ratings are high and almost everyone in the country participates in their office pools, predicting who will be the National Champ. Many have said they would like to see such a tournament for NCAA football as well. I definitely disagree. Here's the main reason why: If you take a look at the NCAA hoops tournament and who is crowned champion, I think you will find the most dominating team of the basketball season does not always win the championship. How can you say a team like the 1985 Villanova squad, which finished the regular season 16-10, was the best team in the country simply because they won their last 6 games in the NCAA tournament? There were 10 teams during the regular season who were stronger than they were! To say at the end of the year that a team that lost 10 games was the strongest team in the NCAA was a joke and meant the entire regular season was meaningless. This past year was a perfect example of the college basketball regular season meaning absolutely nothing. None of the Final Four teams were ranked in the top 14 of the final regular season AP poll as Kentucky was #15, UConn #21 while Butler and VCU weren't even in the top 35! Your Final Four teams consisted of a UConn team that finished 9th in the Big East Conference; Kentucky who did not even win their own conf DIVISION, Butler who tied for the Horizon League crown with two other teams and VCU who finished 4th in the Colonial Conference and many of the basketball experts were strongly against them being included in the 68-team tournament to begin with!

The current FCS 20-team playoff format which many people want the FBS to eventually go to has its flaws as well. In the last 4 years, the 3rd place finisher in the South division of the Colonial has played in the title game twice and LY's national champ Eastern Washington did not even win their own conference outright as they were hammered by Montana St 30-7 in the regular season. Does a team who did not even win their own conference or division really deserve a shot to play for the National Title?

Now let me go in depth on how my plan for a 4-team playoff would have worked in 11 out of 14 years, while the current system has worked in only 4 out of 14. In 2006, it was business as usual as Michigan was #2 in the BCS rankings after losing to #1 Ohio St but dropped to #3 without playing a game. Florida got to the National Title game while Michigan, like most disappointed teams have done lately, lost their bowl game. In my bowl system Michigan and Florida would have faced each other on the field for the right to play the winner of Ohio St vs LSU (who was #4 in the BCS rankings) and that would have been a pair of outstanding games.

In 2005, the BCS method worked out perfectly. In the old system, USC would have faced Penn St in the Rose Bowl and Texas would have played in the Orange Bowl and we would have had two undefeated teams at the end of the year. The 2003 and 2004 seasons would have worked out PERFECTLY for my method EXCEPT the NCAA did not allow the National Title Game I called for, which would have pitted LSU vs USC in a one-game title match after the bowls in 2003 and USC and Auburn in a one-game title match in 2004. This would have prevented the co-National Champs of '03 and Auburn going undefeated and winning the SEC but not playing for a Title in '04. The one-game playoff is the only plan to make the situation perfect, as an 8 or 16-team playoff would not solve anything. It would destroy the bowls and make the regular season meaningless. I am a traditionalist when it comes to college football. I love the rivalries and the tradition of the bowls. During the holidays, I am a bowl junkie and I find each bowl to be interesting. I feel bowls provide tons with a reward for a successful season, both financially and for recruitment purposes, and should be kept intact.

The one thing I love about college football is of all the other sports, college or pro, the REGULAR SEASON in college football is the one that MEANS THE MOST. You might be able to stay alive in the overall chase if you lose ONE regular season game, but two losses will most likely, and should, eliminate you. That means the games in September, October and November are just as critical as the bowl games if you want to have a shot at the National Title. No other sport with an expanded playoff system can say that. College basketball's regular season big games really mean ABSOLUTELY nothing, as it only matters what you do in the tournament. If the #1 team loses in college basketball it means nothing, as they will still be in the NCAA Tournament at the end of the year and it only matters what you do in those final 6 games.

The current BCS bowl method of determining the National Champion also has its flaws. In 1998 the best team in the country did not get to play for the title but my system would have had them in the title game. In 2000 Florida St faced Oklahoma but both Miami, FI and Washington fans said they should have been the challenger to undefeated Oklahoma. Miami beat Florida St straight up, while Washington beat Miami straight up. They each had legitimate claims, as both faced tough schedules and had just one loss. Two other teams that finished 10-1 did not have legitimate claims. Oregon St only had one win over a final Top 25 team all year (Oregon). The same can be said for Virginia Tech, who did not defeat a single team ranked in the Top 25 and lost to Miami by 20.

In 2001 Nebraska suffered its first loss of the year at Colorado by a 62-36 margin in their season finale. Miami, FI went undefeated and indisputably deserved the title game bid. After Florida, Tennessee and Texas all fell by the wayside, Nebraska (controversially, by the BCS formula) got the call to face Miami, while Oregon and Colorado complained loudly that they were the ones who deserved a shot. Had Nebraska defeated Miami, the AP voters would likely have voted the Oregon/Colorado Fiesta Bowl winner the National Champ, showing a great deal of sentiment that those two teams deserved a shot at the title. My proposed system would have allowed both Oregon and Colorado to play for the title, along with Nebraska and Miami.

In 2002 it was a dream come true for the BCS, as there were just two unbeaten teams at season's end and they met in the Fiesta Bowl to determine the true National Champion. Ohio St beat Miami in double overtime. There were no arguments from anybody for the first time in BCS history!!

The 2003 season would have been perfect for my system, but we ended up with a split National Title and the #1 team in both polls NOT playing in the National Title game. Three teams had legitimate claims to appear in the National Title game (once again showing that 8 or 16 teams is unnecessary) and Michigan made a nice pick for the #4 spot. Had my system been in place, the teams would have played just like they did in 2003, but one or two weeks later. LSU would have faced USC and it would have been a true National Title game with NO DISPUTES from anyone!!!!

Once again, in 2004, there were three teams that could have argued for a spot in the National Title game. Auburn plays in the rugged SEC, who not only went undefeated, but also won the SEC Title game and yet did not get a chance to play for the title. There were a couple of other unbeaten teams at the end of the year, but about 15 teams in the country would have had unbeaten records playing their schedules, so they had no real argument. All teams with one loss had no argument. The bottom line is, as long as the Top 3 got in, it did not matter who the #4 team would have been.

As you can tell, I feel the best team in the country did not win the National Title numerous times the last 14 years. The title game foes were controversial in 10 of the 14 years with two split National Titles. I really think a BCS conference team that suffers just one tough loss, but is dominating in every other game vs a decent schedule, deserves a shot at the National Title game (unless there are two unbeaten teams remaining). I see a lot of proposals for 8 and 16-team matchups but I feel that is going too far. As I previously pointed out, there is no reason to include teams with numerous losses as if they were true National Championship contenders, they would have taken care of business during the regular season. I also think by including teams with 2 or 3 losses in the National Championship picture you dilute the greatness of college football during the regular season. There ARE many games with National Championship implications during the regular season. As an example, when Alabama hosts LSU this year, one may be eliminated from the championship race while the other jumps to the forefront. Why not let those games keep their "playoff-like" atmosphere, thus preserving their importance? If you expand the field to 16, you allow teams to be able to lose those big games and still look forward to the postseason and a shot at winning the title. It would take a GREAT end of the season matchup like Ohio St and Michigan (#1 vs #2 in '06) and make it less relevant. Instead of it being an all-important, destiny-changing game if both teams are in the Top 10, they would probably make the 16-game playoff whether they win or lose to each other and may even rest players for the all-important playoffs. I do not want to dilute college football during the regular season and feel only a select few who meet the challenges of the regular season deserve to be in the title chase. I feel college football regular season games are the most important games of any sport due to their impact on the title chase.

Here is my plan to determine the National Champ, and actually it is very close to what we have now. It should be feasible in the foreseeable future and I feel it would establish a true National Champ every year. This is the TWELFTH straight year I have called for it in my magazine. To determine the National Champ, I feel they should continue with the BCS rankings and include the Top FOUR teams in the BCS chase. The two semifinal games would be played on Jan 1 and rotate as the bowls do now between the Rose, Orange, Sugar and Fiesta. The Top 4 teams in the country, according to the BCS, would be invited. If you look at the last 14 years, this would have included: No. 3 Ohio St in 1998, No. 3 Nebraska in 1999, BOTH Oregon and Colorado in 2001, #1 USC in 2003, undefeated SEC Champ Auburn in 2004, Michigan in 2006, Texas and USC in 2008, undefeated Cincinnati and TCU in 2009, and undefeated TCU last year. In this scenario, the teams decide who is the National Champ on the field. No. 1 would face No. 4 and No. 2 would face No. 3 in the January bowls. After the first round matchups, the Championship game could be played during the bye week before the Super Bowl. This would allow the teams plenty of time for preparation and for fans to make travel arrangements, given the three to four week span. It also gives football fans something to look forward to during the week the NFL is off. It would also prevent a team like Ohio St from playing in a National Title game after not having played for 50+ days which affected their performance in both 2006 and 2007.

In this format, there would be absolutely no question, it would be a true National Title game as the Top 4 teams would be involved. In past years I have gone year by year on how my system would have produced a clear National Title game in TEN of TEN years from 1997-2006 and I list them in the box below.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP MATCHUPS FROM 1997-2006 ACCORDING TO MY PLAYOFF SYSTEM:
1997	#1 Nebraska (12-0) vs #4 North Carolina (10-1) #2 Michigan (11-0) vs #3 Florida St (10-1) #5 UCLA (two losses during the regular season, did not deserve to be in).	1997
1998	#1 Tennessee (12-0) vs #4 Kansas St (11-1) #2 Florida St (11-1) vs #3 Ohio St (10-1) #5 Arizona (11-1) & #6 UCLA (10-1) had solid results but played in the weak Pac-10.	1998
1999	#1 Florida St (11-0) vs #4 Wisconsin (9-2) #2 Virginia Tech (11-0) vs #3 Nebraska (11-1) #5 Michigan (9-2) had two losses.	1999
2000	#1 Oklahoma (12-0) vs #4 Washington (10-1) #2 Florida St (11-1) vs #3 Miami, FL (10-1) While Oregon St and Virginia Tech each had just one loss they combined to beat ONE Top 25 team all year.	2000
2001	#1 Miami, FL (11-0) vs #4 Oregon (10-1) #2 Nebraska (11-1) vs #3 Colorado (10-2) #5 Texas lost to #4 Colorado in the Big XII Title game.	2001
2002	#1 Miami, FL (12-0) vs #4 Georgia (11-1) #2 Ohio St (13-0) vs #3 Iowa (11-1) #5 USC and #6 Kansas St both had two losses.	2002
2003	#1 USC (11-1) vs #4 Michigan (10-2) #2 Oklahoma (12-1) vs #3 LSU (12-1) The #5 and #8 seeds were not worthy - only Top 3 NEEDED to be in.	2003
2004	#1 USC (11-0) vs #4 Utah (11-0) #2 Oklahoma (11-0) vs #3 Auburn (11-0) The #5 and #6 seeds were not worthy - only Top 3 NEEDED to be in.	2004
2005	#1 USC vs #4 Ohio St #2 Texas vs #3 Penn St #5 Oregon with backup QB's was not worthy and only Top 2 really NEEDED to be in.	2005
2006	#1 Ohio St vs #4 LSU #2 Florida vs #3 Michigan #5 USC lost to UCLA in their final game or the Trojans would have been #2.	2006

I already talked about how 2003 and 2004 were PERFECT for my system. It would have produced National Title games between LSU vs USC in 2003 and USC vs Auburn in 2004 that no one could argue about. I will add one more note about the playoff formats that are being tossed around. I am hearing talk that some would like to pick the Top 2 teams AFTER the bowls are over and let them play in the National Title game. This method (which would not be #1 vs #4 and #2 vs #3) would lead to the same chaos that goes on at the end of the regular season. If the #1, #2 and #3 teams were all in different bowl games and #2 and #3 had impressive wins while #1 just barely won, then all 3 would be lobbying for a spot in the National Title game and someone would be left out again. You must play #1 vs #4 and #2 vs #3 or else the process will remain chaotic and controversial while possibly leaving some deserving teams out.

2008 would be a great example of why this would not work out. I feel after the bowls the best two teams in the country were Florida and USC and those two would have been favored over every other team. If this post bowl picking method was in place Utah would have played Florida in the "Title game" and not only would USC have been left out but Texas would have been pushed aside for a second time!

For those who complain about adding extra games, only 2 out of 120 teams would be "forced" to play in this big game and I'm sure those student-athletes would find a way to complete their studies. The 3 week layoff would probably allow enough time for any minor injuries from the January 1st bowl games to heal, yet not be as big of a layoff as the teams have now between the regular season and the bowls and it could lead to a more crisply played Title game. There would be plenty of interest in not just bowl games each year, but there would now be THREE games that would capture major ratings, as the two preliminary games would be rated higher than any current regular bowl. The other bowls would remain intact and would be a reward for teams after a solid season. We would crown a true National Champion every year and we would also insure that all of the major regular season games were played with the same importance as they are today, and the polls would stay a major interest all year.

As I mentioned in the two paragraphs above there would have been controversy after 2008 regardless of which method you used and I will add one tighter to the system to make it work out perfectly for 2008. When you look at the final BCS poll in '08 after the conference title games the first thing I thought was "What kind of strange computer ratings are they using in the BCS formula?" The 6 computer power ratings had USC at #3, #6, #6, #6, #7 and #8! My personal set had them #3 prior to the bowls but how could 5 of the 6 not have even had them in the top 5 let alone #8?? I would start with getting some solid power ratings! Using these wacky power ratings (remember USC waxed Penn St in the Rose Bowl) the top ten of the BCS formula was: 1. Oklahoma 2. Florida 3. Texas 4. Alabama 5. USC 6. Utah 7. Texas Tech 8. Penn State 9. Boise St 10. Ohio St. Using the method I proposed for 10 years it would have pitted #1 Oklahoma vs #4 Alabama and #2 Florida vs #3 Texas. That would have left my personal #3 rated team at the time USC out of the mix. Also with Alabama at #4, let's say they beat Oklahoma (a good possibility) and Florida beat Texas (a likely possibility). Who would want to see Florida, which just beat Bama at a neutral site by 10, take on the Tide AGAIN just two games later for the "National Title"? It would be anticlimactic. What if Florida was #1 and Bama was #4, my old system would have had the two playing AGAIN the next game. Didn't we just see that?

The tighter I added two years ago to ensure there are no rematches and also would have made sure a team as powerful as USC was not left out is this: If a Top 4 team loses a conference title game at a neutral site to another team that is in the Top 4 of the BCS final standings, that team is eliminated. I will call this the Immediate Rematch Clause. Let me clarify the Neutral Site aspect and immediate rematch aspect. In 2006 #2 Michigan travelled to #1 Ohio St for the regular season finale and it was a large home edge for the #1 Buckeyes. Ohio St escaped with a 3 point win. Had the game been at a neutral site perhaps Michigan would have won. They were clearly two of the top 3 teams that year and that loss would not have eliminated Michigan as it was not a conference title game and it was far from a neutral site. I know Texas beat Oklahoma on a neutral site back in October of 2008 but Oklahoma was up double digits when they lost their top LB to injury and ended up losing. Oklahoma was clearly one of the best teams in the country at the end of the year and if both teams had won their #1 vs #4 and #2 vs #3 match-ups, I think College Football fans would have been thrilled to see the rematch as there was a month of controversy about who deserved to be in the Big 12 Title game. I have some clear wording in my rematch clause which does not eliminate a team just because it lost its title game. I go way back to 1998. Kansas St was clearly the #2 team in the country but was upset in the Big 12 Title game. They only dropped to #4 and still deserved a shot at playing in the #1 vs #4 matchup. They would not have been eliminated as A&M (a 17 pt dog to KSt in that game) only rose to #8 and would not have been in the top 4 invoking the "rematch" part of the clause.

Using my new method in 2008 it would have been #1 Oklahoma vs #5 USC and #2 Florida vs #3 Texas and I feel USC and Florida would have met for the title game as they were the best two teams in the country.

Now let's take a look at '09 where my plan would have been controversial regardless of the outcome as there were 5 unbeaten at the end of the year and Boise St (which beat TCU in the Fiesta) would likely have been left out. My answer to that is that the BCS got it right in '09. Clearly Alabama and Texas, who both went unbeaten in the toughest conferences in football and survived a championship game in their conference deserved to be in the title game. An undefeated SEC champ has to play in the title game and the Tide defeated 5 ranked foes during the year including 3 away from home. They were coming in off a win over #1 ranked Florida which was the defending National Champ. Texas did have just 3 wins over ranked foes but all were away from home. TCU beat two ranked teams and also had a victory in their pocket over Clemson in Death Valley and CU was in the ACC Title game. Cincinnati beat 2 ranked teams and both were on the road but their overall schedule was weak. Boise St beat only 1 ranked foe all year, although it was an impressive win as they blew out eventual Pac-10 champ Oregon at home in the opener. Playing in the WAC vs teams like Utah St, New Mexico St and San Jose St pales in comparison to playing BCS foes on a weekly basis. The bottom line is whether you left Boise or Cincy out of the picture it did not matter as the two best teams (Alabama and Texas) had to be in the mix. My plan would have had Cincy vs Alabama (and we saw what happened when Cincy played Florida) and TCU vs Texas. That would have been a battle although the Frogs lost to Boise St in the bowl.

Last year you really only needed to include three teams. I believe the BCS did get the top two teams right, in undefeated Auburn and Oregon who played far tougher schedules than TCU, but remember in my format #3 TCU would have been included. The end result would have been only one undefeated team remaining at the end of the season.

In the last couple of years I also have taken on the whole non-BCS conference talk that went all the way to Congress. Naturally I do feel that the teams in BCS conf should get the nod over the non-BCS teams in most cases due to their superior strength of schedules. However, my format opens the door for teams like last year's TCU squad or the '04's Utah team to get a shot to play for the title which has not yet happened in the current BCS format thus making the "plus one" feasible not only to the BCS schools but the non-BCS teams as well in determining a true National Champion each and every year, while also preserving the greatest regular season in sports!

TWICE AS MUCH INFO PER TEAM AS THIS MAGAZINE!!! THE BEST NFL PREVIEW ON THE MARKET!!

OFFENSIVE LINE - GB's biggest weakness is the OL which the team addressed in the 1st round of this year's draft. The problem remains because Bryan Bulaga, the 23rd overall choice, won't start immediately. Injuries have decimated the Packers OL over the L2Y which has crippled the unit's ability to develop cohesion. In 2009 Green Bay allowed the most sacks in the league (51) but that stat is a little misleading. In the first 9 games they allowed 41 sacks or 1 for every 7.3 pass att's as LT Chad Clifton was beat up and Allen Barbre wasn't ready to take over as the starting RT. After Mark Tauscher was re-signed and back in game shape they allowed 10 sacks in the final 7 games or 1 for every 25.4 pass att's. Clifton was hurt early on, then returned, starting 12 of 16 games played. He's 34 now, but was re-signed in the offseason and is healthy, so he provides stability at the position. Bulaga won't start initially but the team has him practicing exclusively at LT. If Tauscher goes down Clifton will shift over and Bulaga will then take over at LT. Bulaga also has the advantage of being familiar with the line calls since Packers OC Joe Philbin was an OL coach at Iowa under Kirk Ferentz. The 6-5 314 Bulaga is technically sound and plays with a mean streak. A 10 year starter, Tauscher, didn't rejoin the team until just before their bye week as he was recovering from a serious knee injury. He started 8 games, but like Clifton, he's on the downside of his career. Still, Tauscher provided stability which helped save the season after the OL played poorly for half of 2009. Allen Barbre is the backup RT and can also play TE. He began LY in the starting unit but struggled mightily with pass rushers and was benched in favor of Tauscher. Daryn Colledge (2nd-rounder in 2006) & Breno Giacomini (5th round, 2008) are experienced reserves who haven't made an impact. Jason Spitz moved from C to LG LY and started 4 games before landing on IR due to a back injury. Spitz is expected to be 100% for camp with no ill effects. Josh Sitton (4th round, 2008), struggled in his rookie season but McCarthy was satisfied with his play at RG in 2009 liking his consistency. TJ Lang, a 2009 4th-rounder, can play G or T and is highly regarded but needs more time in the weight room. Scott Wells holds down the C position and McCarthy noted that he had a solid year in 2009 with the only issue being his availability. Marshall Newhouse, a 5th RD pick from TCU, can play T or G but he's likely going to spend 2010 on the practice squad. The Packers were 3rd in 3rd down offense (47%) which is up from 43% & 44% the previous two seasons. Consistency is the only concern with this unit as their finish in 2009 showed that they have the makings of a good unit and they are finally addressing the front wall's deficiencies.

As you know a few years back we reached the maximum amount of pages I could put into my College Preview magazine. If I had 800 pages to work with I could put 6 full pages on each of the 120 college teams and give even more complete writeups. The GREAT thing about my NFL magazine is that there are only 32 teams to work with so 6 full pages per team only takes up 192 pages. This allows us to be as in-depth as possible on each position. We have 6 statistical areas that we compare each unit to the rest of the NFL and rank them on each page. The example on the left shows the Green Bay Packers' offensive line. We grade each OL by rush yds, ypc rushing, sacks allowed, QB hurries, starts returning from the previous year, career starts, size (height and weight) and the quality of the draft picks at the position for the 2 deep. Please check out page 325 for a complete layout of the SIX NFL team pages that we had for the Packers last year.

You also get my NFL Fantasy Football Guide included in the magazine making it even more valuable. The Fantasy Football Top 100 & the Top Four Impact Players for each team are must-haves for anyone wanting to win their league.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 PRESEASON TOP 40

Here is my 2011 Preseason Top 40. Two quick notes: First of all, my preseason rankings are NOT my Power Ratings. As an example: I have Ohio 34th in my Preseason Top 40 ahead of some quality BCS contenders. However, in my Power Poll they are 90th but face my #120 schedule and could win 11 or 12 games. My Top 25 is based on where I project the tms to finish in the final rankings and these Top 25's have always done quite well. In 2002, I had Ohio St rated higher than any other preseason magazine coming into the year and they won the National Title. In 2003, my magazine (and Lindy's) had LSU rated higher than any other preseason magazine and they won the BCS Title. In 2004, I was the only major magazine to have Cal (#4 in the final regular season polls) in the Preseason Top 10! In 2006, I had the only magazine to pick Boise St in the Top 20 (I had them going to a BCS bowl) and I also had Arkansas at #13 (they finished the reg season #12) when they entered the year unranked. In 2007, I had Georgia (finished #2) rated higher than any other magazine and I also called for Hawaii (unranked) to play in the Sugar Bowl. In 2008, while Georgia was the AP preseason #1, I had them #9 and had Florida winning the title which they did. These rankings reflect not only talent, but the strength of schedule and how each team should finish the season. In 2007, 43 of my Top 46 were bowl eligible (93.5%) and in 2008, 46 of my Top 50 (92%)! In '09, 45 of my Top 50 (90%) were bowl eligible at the end of the season. LY I had Auburn rated higher than any other preseason magazine and 38 of my top preseason Top 40 (95%) and 48 of my Top 52 were bowl eligible at the end of the year (92.3%)!

1. Alabama - The Tide was the consensus #1 preseason team in 2010 (54 of 60 votes in AP poll) but I did not have them in the title game as they had only 2 starters back on D and a brutal schedule. This year they lose their QB, Heisman winning RB and #1 DC WR. Keep in mind in '09 when they won the title they had an inexp QB, lost a 1,000 yd rusher and had just 4 st's back on offense. This time 7 st's are back on offense and Bama has the best defense in the country with my #4 D-line, #1 LB's and by far the best secondary. The schedule is also much more manageable as they avoid SC and GA out of the East and get LSU and Arkansas at home. I will call for a 6th straight title for the SEC and Saban has stockpiled some great talent here. Defense wins championships.

2. Oklahoma - The Sooners were my surprise pick for #1 last year but had scoring problems inside the 10 on the road vs MO and A&M and finished #6 (still ahead of press'n #1 Alabama). This year they are the only team in the country to rank in my top 20 in all 8 of the position categories in the front of the magazine. QB Jones and WR Broyles headline a team with no real glaring weakness. Six of my 9 sets of PR's calls them the most talented team and if they win the Big 12 they won't have to play a title game. OU does face two teams that will be in the preseason AP Top 10 on the road in Florida St and Okla St and struggled on the road last year. I will call for an all Crimson Title game between two storied football programs.

3. Boise St - The Broncos move to a tougher conference in the MWC but Utah and BYU depart so their toughest conference test will be TCU and thanks to the MWC commissioners they get them at home. They do open with a trip to Atlanta and last time Boise opened the season with a trip to Georgia they were walloped by a hungry Georgia team. This time Boise brings a stronger team led by QB Kellen Moore. Remember last year when they traveled across the country and knocked off eventual ACC champ Virginia Tech? They rank in my top individual units in 7 of the 8 categories with the only ? being WR. Of all of the teams that are in the top ten of the Power Poll, Boise has the easiest path to an unbeaten season and might just break thru to the title game if things fall their way.

4. Oregon - The Ducks were #1 in the AP poll (1st time in 116 yr history) for 7 weeks last year and played in the National Title game but came up just 3 points short. This year they only have 11 returning starters but those coming back include QB Darron Thomas, RB LaMichael James and a top-notch secondary and special teams. The Ducks rank #3 in my Power Poll and are capable of returning to the Title game but do have to face two preseason AP Top 10 teams away from home in LSU and Stanford. They are capable of winning both but now would also have to play a Pac-12 Title game although that would likely be in Autzen Stadium.

5. Virginia Tech - The Hokies draw a lot of comparisons in my mind to LY's National Champ Auburn. They have a big mobile 1st year starting QB and have a schedule in which all of their tough games are at home and they could be favored in every road game. VT also has one of the top coaches in college football in Frank Beamer. DC Bud Foster must have been angry the entire offseason after 2010's weaker than expected D and should have them breathing fire. While they rank in 7 of the 8 position categories in my top units, they are not top 10 talent-wise, but when lined up with their schedule I give them a great shot at a 12-0 record and another trip to the ACC Title game.

6. Notre Dame - I KNOW the Irish underachieve EVERY year. Brian Kelly also has a streak of overachieving vs my predictions in 6 of 7 years. ND ranks in my top Individual units in all 8 positions and while their schedule is not easy, it is also not grueling. They do not face a single team in my Preseason Top 10 and only face one of my Top 20 teams on the road, Stanford in the season finale. Three of my 9 sets of power ratings call for double digit wins this season and in the last 12 years the National Champ has had a 2nd year head coach 4 times. In the same span the champ was coming off a 5 loss season 5 times.

7. LSU - The Tigers are a legitimate National Title contender and last year got to 11-2 and #8 despite spotty QB play. They figure to be much improved at QB and while they must face as many as 6 of this year's bowl teams on the road, they could be favored in 5 of them being an underdog only at Alabama. Auburn won the title LY and had to go thru Tuscaloosa. LSU has 15 returning starters and opens with Oregon in Arlington, TX and also plays Miss St and West Virginia on the road in 3 of the first 4 games.

8. Texas A&M - The Aggies fared better than I thought they would LY as they upset Oklahoma and Nebraska and won at Texas. They did lose to LSU in the bowl but take the next step this year. A&M won their last 6 of the regular season when Tannehill came in at QB and cut down on the turnovers. This year they have one of the most experienced teams in the country (page 319), have a super RB/WR combo of Gray and Fuller and their defense, after years of being below avg, may start to resemble the Wrecking Crew D's of old. A&M's toughest games are vs Arkansas and at Oklahoma but the Aggies are back to being a Top 10 powerhouse.

9. Georgia - Georgia definitely had a disappointing end to the season losing to UCF in the Liberty Bowl and dropping to 6-7. They will not be in anyone else's preseason Top 25 this year but I like their talent and schedule. They do open with Boise but it is in their backyard (Atlanta). Their 4 road games are vs teams that also finished with a losing record LY and most of the tough games are at home. I think UGA is the best team in the SEC East and they avoid the top 3 out of the West in Bama, LSU and Arkansas! They rank in my top units in all 8 position categories and in 6 of them are in the top 15!

10. Florida St - Jimbo Fisher stepped into a great situation as you could see FSU getting back to its powerhouse status. This is perhaps the most talented team in the ACC and all 8 positions rank in my Top Units with 7 of them in the top 20. I have them favored in 10 reg season gms, only being a dog to the AP preseason #1 tm (Okla) and when they face Florida they will have the ACC Title likely on deck while the Gators will likely not have the SEC Title ahead. They would also have to face a possible 12-0 VT in the ACC Title gm. My Power Poll calls them the #6 strongest team and the Sooners are beatable on the road.

11. TCU - Many will call for a big drop for the Frogs as they have just 8 returning starters and lose their fine QB Andy Dalton. Keep in mind though that Dalton replaced Jeff Ballard who won 90.5% of his starts. TCU keeps bringing in stronger and stronger recruiting classes and Patterson is one of the best at developing talent. The D has been #1 in the FBS for THREE straight years and even with just 5 st's back could make it 4 in a row. Even though they open with a couple of tough road tests, the only game in which I have the Frogs as an underdog this year is on the blue turf.

12. Nebraska - Can you believe that the Huskers are the top Big Ten team in my poll? Each top team in the Big Ten has a tough schedule and keep in mind they must now survive a Big Ten Title game as well. The Huskers now have better depth at QB in case Martinez gets banged up again and that is what sunk their season last year. This year the Big Ten schedule maker gave them road trips to Penn St, Wisky and Michigan as they draw the top 3 teams out of the Leaders division. I expect a couple of losses from each Big Ten team but pick the Huskers to win the title in their 1st year.

13. Arkansas - I don't care who you put at QB in the Hog offense, they will throw for a bunch of yards and even with the loss of Mallett they will be strong. Tyler Wilson did well at Auburn LY when thrown into the fire and overall this team is deeper than LY's version. They do have to play a pair of preseason Top 10 AP teams on the road (Ala and LSU) and also face my #8 team at a neutral site (#20 sked).

14. South Carolina - Marcus Lattimore and Alshon Jeffrey are the top RB/WR duo in the country and the defense adds PS#1 DE Clowney. Spurrier finally got the Gamecocks to the SEC Title game LY and they will be the favorites to get back again this year. Give this team Georgia's schedule and I would call for the SEC East Title. Instead they play Georgia, Arkansas and Miss St all on the road.

15. Ohio St. - Give me Ohio State's talent for a full season and I would probably project them into the National Title game. Unfortunately, they lose 5 key players and their coach for at LEAST 5 gms and now another incident comes to light as I write this. I had USC and North Carolina picked higher than most last year then was blindsided over the summer (as were both of those teams) by NCAA penalties which ravaged their seasons. The NCAA does not rule until August. If the Bucks are only dealt the self imposed penalties, this team could win the Big Ten but that is a big IF.

BRONKO NAGURSKI TROPHY

The Charlotte Touchdown Club is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization founded in 1990 for the purpose of promoting high school, collegiate and professional football in the Charlotte, North Carolina region. Since its inception, the club has grown as well as diversified, boasting a sponsor team of more than seventy companies.

The Club's activities and services focus community attention on the outstanding Citizenship, Scholarship, Sportsmanship and Leadership of area athletes and coaches. In recognition of superior achievement on the field, in the classroom and in the community, the Touchdown Club awards five annual scholarships to athletes from Catawba College, Davidson College, Gardner-Webb University, Johnson C. Smith University and Wingate University. The Club also provides financial support to more than 50 regional high school athletic programs annually.

The highlight of the club's year comes in December with the presentation of college football's most prestigious defensive award, The Bronko Nagurski Trophy. This award, created to honor the most outstanding defensive college football player in America, is voted on by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

The 2010 Bronko Nagurski Trophy was presented in Charlotte, North Carolina. The banquet presentation was held at The Westin Hotel and again honored the nation's best all-around defensive players.

16. Stanford

The Cardinal will be in the preseason Top 7 in the AP poll and have a very talented team led by QB Luck. They could be favored in all of their road games and get to host Oregon and ND. My concern is a rebuilt offensive line and the loss of their HC, but if that O-line comes together quickly SU is a legitimate National Title contender.

17. USC

The Trojans were hit hard by the NCAA LY with a loss of scholarships and no bowls for 2 yrs. I expected them to be thin but Kiffin found some loopholes and fields a very talented team that can win the Pac-12 South (just not play in the title gm). QB Barkley pilots a potent offense and Kiffin Sr will have a much improved D.

18. Texas

In '07 soph QB Colt McCoy threw 18 int's but he was much better as a Jr and Texas played in the National Title gm. They will get much better QB play after 17 int's LY by a soph QB and finally have a feature RB in true frosh Brown. UT plays A&M and OU away from home but will be favored in the rest.

19. Oklahoma St

The Cowboys surprised EVERYONE last year and not a single source documented by football.stassen.com had them even ranked in the preseason and they got as high as #10 AP. This year they lose OC Holgorsen and draw a killer schedule with Texas A&M, Texas and Missouri all on the road while hosting Okla (AP#1) at home.

20. Southern Miss

Take the most talented tm in CUSA and match it up vs the #117 sked in the country and you get a Top 20 team! There is a chance there could be a couple of 12-0 tms in the CUSA Title game. Four of my 9 sets of power ratings call for S Miss to go 12-0 and this is by far the best team HC Fedora has fielded in his 4 years.

21. Houston

A 5-7 CUSA team in my Top 25? Well, LY Tulsa did not disappoint and this Houston tm fell to 5-7 because QB Keenum was injured in the 3rd gm. He is back and will become the FBS's career passing leader. There is a solid shot for UH to run the table this year as they get some solid JUCO additions on defense as well.

22. Arizona St

When I talked to coach Erickson LY I knew '10 was a rebuilding yr and that in '11 they would be Pac-12 contenders. They did even better than expected LY almost beating Wisky on the road and Oregon at home. They have a top 20 defense and an improved offense and will likely be playing in the Pac-12 Title game.

23. Wisconsin

The Badgers got to the Rose Bowl LY and if more sanctions hit Ohio St they would be the favorite to get to the Big Ten Title game. They have a rebuilt O-line that will still be among the Big Ten's best. They do have to play Ohio St, Mich St and Illinois on the road and host Nebraska and Penn St.

24. Penn St

There are questions as I write this as to whether QB Bolden will transfer over the summer but Penn St still is a talented team and despite some very tough gms (Ala, Neb, at OSU, at Wisc) has a manageable #55 sked and could find themselves in the Big Ten Title gm. This is a veteran group compared to the '10 squad.

25. USF

The Big East does not have any teams in the Top 25 of my Power Poll but usually has a team emerge with enough wins to crack the AP Top 25 (except for LY). USF does not get my call for the Big East Title as they travel to Pitt but their other 3 BE road gms are winnable and their non-conf sked is easier than Pittsburgh's.

26. North Carolina

NC does have 4 winnable non-conf games and while they may be a dog in all 4 ACC road gms they are capable of winning all of them. They are one of my Surprise Teams this year (see page 22).

27. Pittsburgh

I have Pitt winning the Big East and playing in a BCS bowl. The Panthers have a very talented D-line and new HC Todd Graham steps into a good situation with plenty of talent on hand. Pitt does have to play at Iowa, at West Virginia and host Notre Dame and USF, so there are some roadblocks.

28. Michigan St

This is Dantonio's best team yet and one fully capable of winning the Big Ten title. They have a veteran Sr QB in Kirk Cousins and a top notch D-line. I have them rated #22 in my Power Poll but they didn't crack my Top 25 because they must face ND, Ohio St, Nebraska, Iowa and Northwestern all on the road.

29. BYU

The Cougars are vastly superior to the '10 team which avg just 26 ppg. LY their true frosh QB Heaps got better weekly and so did the offense with 52 pts in the bowl. They do face Ole Miss, Texas, TCU, Ore St and Hawaii all on the road but will win some of those and have a shot at DD wins in their 1st year as an Independent.

30. Air Force

This is Calhoun's best AF team yet and capable of reaching DD wins. They ret 14 st's which is high for a service academy. They do face Boise and ND on the road and TCU at home but should be favored in the other 9.

31. Miami, FL

If the Hurricanes get better QB play they could very well be playing for the ACC title. Six of their 8 units rank in my Top 25. They get Ohio St at home but do have to travel to VT, NC, Florida St and USF.

32. Florida

The Gators lose a phenomenal HC and are making a big switch of schemes on offense. While I rate them #19 in the Power Poll, they draw Bama and LSU from the West, face SC and GA on the road and also play FSU.

33. West Virginia

WV adds super OC Dana Holgorsen and will be the only Big East tm ranked in the AP preseason poll. The road schedule is manageable but they do draw LSU in the non-conf slate. Only 4 st's are back on D after 9 LY.

34. Ohio

The Bobcats are #90 in my Power Poll so how can I have them in the Top 40? They take on my #120 rated schedule and should have a DD win season. Ohio is my favorite to win the MAC East.

35. Tulsa

The Hurricane finished #24 in the AP poll LY and have one of the most exp'd teams in the country. They do play Okla, Okla St and Boise in the non-conf slate which may make it tough to top LY's 10 win total.

36. Miss St

The Bulldogs are #25 in my Power Poll but face a brutal schedule with Ala, LSU and SCar (all preseason AP Top 10) at home. That means they face most of the tms in their class on the road. Mullen is doing wonders here.

37. Clemson

Clemson had 4 net close losses LY or may have been playing in the ACC Title game. This year they should get stronger QB play and have 14 st's back and some nice additions. Despite facing the #12 toughest sked, they will improve.

38. Missouri

While the Tigers lose QB Blaine Gabbert, they have 15 ret st's and LY beat both A&M and Okla. They have a brutal sked facing 5 bowl tms on the road (3 preseason Top 15 AP TY) and Texas and Okla St at home.

39. Illinois

The Big Ten is a tougher conf with Neb but the Illini avoid the Huskers TY although they draw Ariz St in non-conf play. My main set of power ratings is calling for a 9-3 season with only 1 road game vs a '10 bowl team!

40. NC State

Coach Tom O'Brien is very high on new QB Mike Glennon and they have 8 starters back on defense. This is a team capable of topping LY's solid 9 win total and they only face my #65 schedule.

Here are some more teams that just missed the cut for the Top 40 but should be in the postseason in 2011! Last year 48 of my Top 52 were bowl eligible:

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 SEC FORECAST

SEC WEST 1. ALABAMA - Alabama fans were not too fond of my magazine LY as I went out on a limb and was the only one that did not have the defending National Champs playing in the National Title game. With a defense that had just 2 returning starters and facing a ridiculously tough schedule, the Tide would drop 3 games during the season and finish #10. In 2009 they won the National Championship despite having to replace their QB and top RB and that is the case again TY. They do have the best defense in the country with 10 ret st's and capable replacements on offense. Even though they have to travel to The Swamp, they avoid the top 2 out of the East and this year have most of the toughest games at home and I'll call for an undefeated season and a return to the National Championship game.

2. LSU - LSU figures to be in the preseason AP top 5 and deserves to be, as this is Les Miles' most exp'd team yet with 15 ret st's incl their QB and they should get improved QB play. LSU will be preseason AP Top 5 at the start of the year but have to play 2 others in that category (Oreg and Alab) both away from home. Those 2 games will determine if LSU is in the National Title mix and my main 2 sets of power ratings call for LSU to go 11-1 but that one loss (at Ala) would cost them a trip to the SEC Title game.

3. ARKANSAS - The Hogs continue to improve. LY of my 9 sets of power ratings called for them to go 12-0 and if not for a couple of int's in the 4Q and losing their starting QB in the 2Q and 2 more TO's in the 4Q vs eventual National Champ Auburn, they would have accomplished that. Despite losing their QB, having just 13 returning st's and drawing SC and A&M in the non-div schedule, this is Petrino's best Hog team yet. Unfortunately they play both div rivals (both top 5), Ala and LSU, on the road and that is why I am picking them 3rd.

4. MISSISSIPPI ST - Dan Mullen has done a great job at Miss St and LY I was very surprised that my power poll had them ranked in the Top 25 at the start of the year. In each of Mullen's first 2 seasons he has won at least 2 more games than my expectations. This year they have a schedule which will either produce greatness or disappointment. There are 3 Top 10 AP SEC teams this year and MSU hosts all 3. If they get magic from the Cowbells, this team could be the shocking winner of the SEC West but if they lose those games, that leaves most of the winnable ones on the road. All 9 sets of my power ratings have MSU in the Top 25 talent-wise but I cannot see them topping LY's 9 win total.

5. MISSISSIPPI - The Rebels were coming off finishes at #14 and #20 but LY did not go as expected for them as they finished last in the West at 1-7 and were -74.9 ypg. The Rebels' 4 SEC HG's this year are vs arguably the top 4 teams in the SEC meaning most of their winnable games are on the road. They have just 65.3% of their lettermen returning (#9 SEC) incl just 4 st's on D but Houston Nutt's teams do very well when I put them on my Most Improved List and they find themselves in that spot this year and will pull some upsets.

6. AUBURN - LY was a perfect situation for Auburn as they got most of their tough foes at home, won a lot of close games, had the best offensive and defensive player in the NCAA and took home the National Championship. I called for them to be 11-0 when they faced Ala in the season finale and while they could have easily lost that game, they didn't. This year they not only lose QB Newton and DT Fairley, but their 6 ret st's are fewest in the NCAA (only 5 FBS tms less than 10 st's back) and they lose an amazing 31 lettermen. Auburn also benefitted from an amazing 7 net close wins (pg 299) and draw Flor, Geo and SCar, the top 3 teams out of the East TY. Chizik is doing a great job recruiting and this team has talent but it is young and inexp'd vs a killer schedule and I'm actually calling for them to go from first to last in the extremely tough SEC West.

SEC NOTES: The SEC has dominated college football and is my automatic answer when anyone asks me what the best conference is. In 7 of the last 11 yrs a 1st or 2nd year coach has made it the SEC Title game. The SEC has now won FIVE straight National Titles and both Alabama and LSU will be in everyone's preseason Top 5. In 2009 it was not close as the SEC was 15-8 65% vs BCS conference and no other league topped 50%. It was the SEC EAST 1. GEORGIA - Last year was the Bulldogs' first losing season since 1996. The Bulldogs did have 4 net close losses (pg 299) and are hoping that JUCO NT Jenkins (340 lbs) will have the same impact that NT Terrence Cody had for Alabama and that RB Crowell (PS#4) will have the same impact that Lattimore had for SC. I like the talent of this year's squad and they have just 3 SEC road games which are vs the 3 SEC teams that finished with a losing records LY! They avoid LSU and Bama out of the West. This year they have a veteran QB, 14 ret st's and a much better schedule. LY they had close losses to SC and Fla but this time get SC at home and have a bye before the Gators. GA also has my #1 rated ST unit. Mark Richt is a coach on the hot seat but has a talented team with a great schedule and will be the upset winner of the SEC East.

2. SOUTH CAROLINA - Despite having just 13 returning st's and 20 lettermen lost, this is Spurrier's best squad yet and he finally broke through and got them to the SEC Title game last year. This team is very capable of repeating and will be the only SEC East ranked in the Top 10 at the start of the year. They have arguably the nation's best RB/WR combo in Marcus Lattimore and Alshon Jeffery and should get more stable play out of the QB (even if Garcia does not return) and have one of the top D's in the country. Sept 10th is the most important game on the schedule and could determine which East team lands in the SEC Title game.

3. FLORIDA - After winning the national championship in '08 and going 12-0 in '09, the Gators had a rough year in '10 slipping to 8-5. The Gators go from two time nat'l champ HC Meyer to Will Muschamp who is in his first HC job. They underperformed LY and actually finished unranked. Charlie Weis will look like a genius as UF only avg 351 ypg LY and has a lot of talented players to work with and his QB's are a better fit for the pro style attack. Both SC and GA avoid the two top 5 tms from the West but the Gators draw them both (in B2B wks!) so they have the toughest schedule of the East teams with just 3 SEC HG's and both SC and GA away from home. Muschamp inherits 10 ret st's (2nd fewest SEC). Despite their inexp, this team has talent comparable to both the top 2 in the East but with the toughest schedule, figure to finish outside the top 2 in the East for the first time since 2007.

4. TENNESSEE - I've had a pretty good pulse on Tenn and LY they did exactly as I expected opening 2-6 and winning their last 4 to get to a bowl. They actually had 2 games that were called over that they had won but the refs changed their minds and they ended up losing both (LSU, bowl). Since they are coming off a losing season they are eligible for my Most Improved List and things have been good whenever I've put them there. The Vols draw the toughest schedule of the SEC East as there are 3 top 15 teams in the West (Alabama, LSU, Ark) and Tenn is the only one who has to play all 3. Tenn used to be one of the top 3 in the East but due to the schedule and the fact they have just 13 returning starters, they are probably a year away from getting back to that distinction.

5. KENTUCKY - The Cats have done a great job getting to 5 straight bowl games after having been in 2 bowls the previous 10 years. After returning just 11, 10 and 11 starters the past 3 seasons, they are loaded with 16 returning starters this year and 72.7% of their lettermen return (#3 SEC). As usual, the Cats will probably be favored in 5, possibly 6 games, and will likely need an upset like in each of the past years to keep their bowl streak alive and have a good shot at doing so.

6. VANDERBILT - While Vandy overachieved in 2008 they are just 1-15 in the SEC the last 2 years and -152.4 ypg and -245.4 ypg. They have 19 returning starters and only lose 16 lettermen and will be much more competitive this year. Despite the fact that they host Kentucky and Mississippi, I think it will be tough for VU to escape the basement in new HC Franklin's first year.

most impressive display since I have been charting it. A 6-4 bowl season and 4 Top 25 teams cemented it as did 49 NFL draft picks (15 more than runner up Big Ten). LY the SEC was 15-8 65% vs AQ conf's, had 10 bowl teams and 38 draft picks which of course were all top marks. Miles, Meyer and Chizik all won national titles in their 2nd year. No question this is by far the best league. The big question is can the SEC make it 6 straight National Titles?

ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

SS Mark Barron

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - John Parker Wilson (PS#31) st'd from '06-'08 and became UA's all-time leader. JPW threw for 2,273 (58%, 10-8) in '08. Greg McElroy (PS#27) played in 6 (8-11 for 123). In '09 McElroy was the clear-cut starter and completed 66% with a 9-1 ratio in the first 5. He struggled midyear but vs Aub led the gm winning drive (7-8-63) and was a different QB vs UF earning SEC Title gm MVP. In the bowl vs Texas he hit just 6-11-58 but became the first Tide QB to comp over 60% (2508, 61%, 17-4) since Jay Barker ('94). Big things were expected for his senior ssn and he broke Tim Tebow's SEC record being int'd only 10x (3 by Ark) in 658 career att's (1 every 65.8 - Tebow 62.2). McElroy (#7DC NYJ) set the school rec for comp in a gm (92.3% vs GSU). He completed 70.9% throwing for 2,987 and a school record 20 td's (JPW '07, 18) with just 5 int. Rfr 6'4" AJ McCarron (PS#9) is best remembered for Saban chewing him out and spanking him after an ill-advised deep pass in the 4Q vs Miss St. He QB'd a good portion of the bowl and hit 30-48-389 (3-0) on the yr. McCarron will battle Phillip Sims (rFr, PS#1, IFS LY), rFr Blake Sims (PS#40) and Phillip Ely (PS#21, IFS). TY's group is very talented, but much less experienced.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 Glen Coffee (545, 4.2 in '07) led with 1,383 (5.9) and 215 lb true frosh Mark Ingram (PS#66) added 728 (5.1). In '09 they lost Coffee (#3DC) but added PS#2 true Fr Trent Richardson. Ingram became UA's 1st ever Heisman winner setting the school's single ssn rush record with 1,658 (6.1, 17 td) and was the #3 rec (334, 10.4). There was little dropoff when Richardson was inserted (751, 5.2). Ingram missed the first 2 of '10 (knee inj) and after rushing for 151 vs Duke and 157 vs Ark, he failed to top 100 in the L9. He finished with just 875 (5.5). Richardson became the first UA RB to reach 100 yds rec in a gm in 12Y. He benches 460 and is a powerful runner. Richardson had 144 rush vs PSU and added 119 vs Tenn (#1 rusher midssn). He missed 2.5 gms (knee) and had just 66 rush yds in the L2 and finished with 700 (6.2). Rfr Eddie Lacy (PS#27) had 2 fmb's inside the 5 early then was banged up and did not have an att in 4 str gms midssn. He was the top rusher in the bowl with 86 (406, 7.2). Demetrius Goode (5'9" 205 Sr, PS#79) added 140 (4.1) and true frosh Jalston Fowler (PS#39) had 111 (7.9). TY Ingram (#1DC NO) departs early for the NFL (#4 car rush, just 304 from #1) but Dee Hart (PS#10) was IFS. Not listed below are Corey Grant (5'9" 194 Jr, PS#30), Nick Tinker (5'10" 207 So) and Ben Howell (5'9" 202 Jr). Even with the loss of Ingram, this unit is one of the nation's best.

RECEIVERS - True frosh Julio Jones (PS#1) was by far the tm's go-to threat in '08 (924, 15.9) with over 4 times the yds as the #2 WR (191). In '09 Jones was inj'd early and in the first 7 had just 13 rec but over the L5 (reg ssn) had 27 to lead again (596, 13.9). Marquis Maze (PS#40) was #2 with 523 (16.9). LY those 2 ret'd but they did have to replace their TE (313, 12.0). Jones had a school record 221 vs Tenn (David Palmer 217 in '93) just 2 wks after breaking his hand. Jones set UA single season records for rec and rec yds with 78 and 1,133 (14.5) topping DJ Hall ('06-'07). Maze was #2 with 557 (14.7) and Darius Hanks (272, 16.0 '09) had 456 (14.2). TY Jones left early for the NFL (#1DC ATL) and also gone is TE/HB Preston Dial (8 st, 264). This unit is weaker with the loss of their #2 career rec but does add 6'5" Ohio St transfer Duron Carter (Cris' son).

OFFENSIVE LINE - This unit was a big ? in '09 as they had to replace 3 st's incl a 1st Tm AA C and 1st Tm AA LT. They surprisingly improved to 215 ypg rush (5.0, 20 sk). LY they had to replace a 1st Tm AA LG (#3DC) and 1 other st'r. Despite being more exp'd, they dropped to 183 ypg (5.1) with 32 sks (8.8%). TY they lose 1st Tm SEC LT James Carpenter (13 st, 2Y st'r, #1DC SEA), David Ross (6 gm) and Brian Motley (8 gm). UA has 4 st's back incl 3rd Tm AA RG Barrett Jones and 2nd Tm SEC C William Vlachos. JC trans Aaron Douglas was expected to fill the LT spot but he tragically died in May. This is the most exp'd OL in 3Y and should have much improved numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Tide switched from a 4-3 to a 3-4 in '07 (2 st's ret) and improved to 124 rush ypg all'd (3.4). In '08 they had to replace a 1st Tm SEC DE but also got the large (literally) addition of PS#2JC Terrence Cody (365 lb). UA all'd just 74 ypg (2.7), their best S'99. In '09 Cody turned down the NFL (1 st'r lost) and they all'd just 78 ypg (2.8) with 32 sks. LY they had to replace all 3 st's and the unit ret'd just 6 career sts (7 sk, 14 tfl). Expectations were high for DE Marcell Dareus but he was susp the first 2. UA dropped to 110 ypg rush all'd (3.3), 27 sks. TY they lose 3rd Tm AA DE Dareus (11 st, 34 tkl, 4.5 sk, #1DC BUF) and DE Luther Davis (4 st, 21 tkl, 3 tfl). They add some solid JUCOs (the remember Cody?) Jesse Williams (PS#6) and Quinton Dial (PS#9), both IFS. Not listed below are Glenn Harbin (6'5" 260 Jr, PS#68) and Undra Billingsley (6'2" 288 Jr, PS#61). Despite the loss of their top guy, this is a more veteran group and should resemble the DL's from '08 and '09.

LINEBACKERS - The Tide has had inexp'd LB units the L3Y. In '09 they lost 2 of their top LB's (one over summer, one after 4 sts). They still had Rolando McClain (SEC DPOY) who won the Butkus Award. LY they had to replace McClain (#1 tklr, #1 DC) and their #4 and #5 tkl's. They did get back Dont'a Hightower who was 1st Tm FWAA Fr AA in '08 (4 st '09) but the other 5 LB's in the 2 deep combined for 58 tkl's in '09 with 3 sts. TY they lose SLB Chavis Williams (8 st, 12 tkl) and Michael DeJohn (3 tkl). Hightower was UA's #2 tkl'r and turned down the NFL. They also return their #3 tkl'r CJ Mosley and sk leader Courtney Upshaw (7 sk, 7.5 tfl). I have high expectations for Nico Johnson (PS#5) who had 7 sts as a soph and 3 true frosh VHT's (2 IFS). This is UA's most exp'd LB corps in 4Y.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Saban's first DB unit at Bama only finished #40 in my PDR. He spends a lot of time coaching DB's and is normally harder on the secondary than any other unit. They had to replace 2 st's in '08 yet moved up to #17. In '09 they had to replace a #3DC but had 7 of the top 8 back and the Tide moved up to #2 (47%, 11-24) as SS Mark Barron led the SEC with 7 int's. LY they had to replace 3 st's (#1, #2, #7 DC's) and 5 bkps (comb 17 st, 112 tkl). They still finished #3 in my PDR (52.3%, 12-22) with FS Lester #1 in the SEC with 8 int. TY the unit returns intact with Barron turning down at shot at the NFL. This is the nation's best secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Saban's 1st yr everyone ret'd and they moved up to #17 (#34 '06) in my ST rankings. In '08 they finished #37 and in '09 #36. LY UA had to replace their career PR and KR leader Javier Arenas (15.4 PR, 29.0 KR '09) and Leigh Richardson (PS#2) avg 26.4 with 1 td. Tiffin set school records for FG's in a season (30) and car (83) and had 14 TB's on 94 KO's in '09. Replacing him was true frosh Cade Foster (7-9, L49) and soph Jeremy Shelley (12-16, L42). Foster had 10 TB's on 84 KO's. PR Julio Jones broke his hand and Marquis Maze avg a solid 12.7 on PR's with an 81 yd PR td called back vs Miss St. True frosh P Cody Mandell (PS#16) avg 39.2 (net 36.2). The Tide moved up to #26 and with all of their key players back, should have their best finish yet under Saban.

COACHES - Nick Saban took LSU to a National Title in '03 and spent 2005 and 2006 as HC of the Miami Dolphins. He guided the Tide to their 13th National Title in his 3rd year and is the highest paid college coach. In 15 years as a college HC, he's never had a losing season and has been named National COY 3 times. OC Jim McElwain (4th yr) was the NFL Raiders' QB cch in 2006 and the Fresno St OC in 2007. Kirby Smart was promoted to DC in 2008 and won the Broyles Award in 2009.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Nick Saban inherited a Tide squad that had 1 winning season the previous 4Y. In his first year they opened 6-2 but needed a bowl win over Colo to pull out a winning ssn at 7-6. In my Best/Worst Case Scenario (see PhilSteele.com) I said they could have been 13-0 as all 6 losses were by 7 or less. Heading into '08 Bama had B2B winning ssns just twice since Gene Stallings departed in '96. They had just 12 ret st's plus a tough schedule with road gms vs GA, Tenn, LSU, Ark and Clemson (†ATL). It looked like UA was a yr away with just 9 scholarship Sr's (tied fewest FBS). Surprisingly the Tide won the SEC West moving to #1 AP (1st time reg ssn S'80!). Saban was named the AP COY. At 12-0 they lost to UF in the SEC Title gm and then a disappointed Bama tm was a no-show in the Sugar Bowl vs Utah. In '09 UA had to replace their starting QB and top RB. Surprisingly the off went from 356 ypg to 403 ypg (best S'02). UA went 12-0 again and got their first EVER Heisman Trophy winner in Mark Ingram. They whipped UF 32-13 in the SEC Title game. Texas led 6-0 but then lost QB McCoy and Bama dominated UT after that in their 37-21 win capturing their first Nat'l Title S'92. LY Bama was the consensus pick for #1 but I pointed out that UA had just 2 ret st's on D and a killer sked in which their final 6 SEC foes all had a bye prior. My magazine was the only 1 that did not place them in the Nat'l Title game and Tide fans let me know that during my summer radio circuit. Bama also had 7 players drafted in '10 (most S'87). After opening up 3-0 they allowed 302 yds in the 1H and trailed Ark 17-7 but got a couple of 4Q int and a 24-20 win. In a rematch of the previous 2 SEC Title games, UA handed Urban Meyer the worst loss of his career, 31-6. Playing their 3rd straight tough game, they trailed Scar (off a bye) 21-3 late 2Q and lost 35-21. After whipping Miss and Tenn, Les Miles moved to 4-2 vs the Tide with a 24-21 upset in Death Valley (LSU 433-330 yd edge). Bama won their next 2 and Auburn had the SEC Title gm clinched and on deck. Bama looked like they would blow out the Tigers leading 24-0 and could have been up 38-0 at the half but blew a couple of opportunities and Aub came back for a 28-27 win. In the bowl, #15 Bama was favored by 8 vs #7 Mich St and showed why as they rolled to a 49-7 win (546-171 yd edge, MSU -48 rush yds was 2nd best ever by UA). TY Bama loses QB McElroy, RB Ingram and WR Jones which is similar to '09 when they had a veteran defense and inexperienced off. They do have to play UF, Penn St and Auburn on the road but the sked is much more favorable than LY. UA was +62 ypg in SEC play last year (3rd best). Led by the best D in the NCAA, I will call for the Tide to win their 2nd National Title in 3 years!

First meeting. Saban was a 1973 graduate of Kent St. Alabama is 18-2 in season openers w/ the 2 losses in 2000 & '01 (both vs UCLA). UA did lose their first game vs a MAC member, 19-16 vs ULM in '03. UA is 2-3 in true non-conf AG's S'00. UA is 9-5 vs PSU and has won 4 of the L/5 meetings incl LY. The Tides last trip to State College was in 1989, a 17-16 win (blk'd an 18-yd FG w/ 13 left). UA is 3-0 vs NT, avg score 41-11. In '09 (L/gm) UA won 53-7 w/a 523-187 yd & 28-7 FD edge. Tide enters '11 9-0 the L/3Y in non-conf HG's w/ the avg W is by 36 ppg, last loss vs SBC was ULM ('07). UA has won 19 str SEC openers. HT is 5-2. LY Bama was down 20-7 mid-3Q before 17 unanswered as the Tide D had 3 int's (1 in the EZ & 2 came in the 4Q on Ark's L/2 drives). The Crimson Tides last visit to the Swamp was in 2006 (lost 28-13). UA had a 10-0 lead early 2Q but had 5 of their next 7 pass end on a miss FG, punt from the UF35, int, int TD ret & sk/um. Tide has simply dominated this series going 43-2 S/'70 w/ 20 str wins by 17 ppg. In the last gm ('07) UA won 24-10 (in Nashville) w/a 371-232 yd & 22-13 FD edge (Saban's 1st yr at the helm). UA has won 7 str in this series w/ 4 of the 7 W's by 4 pts or less. UA is 7-2 in Oxford and LTH outgained Ole Miss by 157 yds as 12 of their 22 pts came off of 5 TO's & a blk'd punt. LTH UA had to blk 2 FG's to preserve a 12-10 win and LY only led by 3 at HT before a 2H surge. UA outgained UT 300-175 as the Vols 5 2H pass ended on a missed FG, 2 ints, punt & SOD.

Georgia Southern: First meeting. Eagles finished 10-5 LY (FCS quarterfinals) including a 13-7 loss vs Navy. GS held Navy scoreless in the 2H and allowed just 109 (2.5) rush yds. Saban went 48-16 as the LSU HC from 2000-'04. LY there were 5 lead changes as UA led 14-10 into the 4Q. Into 2011, under Saban UA is 13-3 hosting SEC opp's (Ls to UGA, LSU & Aub). UA has won 3 str over MSU incl LTH Bama outgained Miss St 444-213 in a 31-3 win. Loser in this matchup hasn't topped 17 pts the L/13 gms. Into 2011, UA is 12-4 L/4Y on the SEC road.

Bama is 37-0-1 vs current SoCon Tms and has outscored its last 4 FCS opp's by a combined 212-13.

Last year was the 1st time both were in Top 10 S/'94. UA led 24-0 mid-2Q completely dominating.

Aub but missed 2 key 1H scoring chances (fumble into EZ & at Aub12). UA had just 58 yds in the 2H.

Jersey #7 In 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Ryan Perrilloux (PS#1) was dismissed and rFr Jarrett Lee and Harvard trans Andrew Hatch battled for the job. They had planned to RS 6'5" Jordan Jefferson (PS#9, most mobile). When Hatch suffered a brkn leg vs UGA, they burned Jefferson's RS and he played in 7, starting the last 2 (bowl Off MVP) throwing for 419 (49%, 4-1). Lee threw for 1,873 (53%, 14-16) with 7 pick 6's. In '09 Jefferson added 17 lbs and got stronger and faster throwing for 2,166 (62%, 17-7). Lee, who was booed often in '08 threw for 197 (40%, 2-1) in limited action. LY Jefferson was LSU's most exp'd QB since '06 when they threw for 252 ypg (66.6%). Jefferson started all 13 but Miles went with a 2 QB system against Tenn. Lee passed for 185 incl 3&13 and 4&14 conv's on the GW drive. Against Florida Jefferson played 40 snaps and Lee 29 with Lee throwing the GW TD pass with :06 left. The QB rotation went away at the end with Lee taking just 8 snaps vs Ole Miss and 2 pass att's vs Ark. Jefferson was the SEC OPW vs Ole Miss. Jefferson threw for 1,411 (57%) with a poor 7-10 ratio but he did throw for a career high 3 TD's in the bowl and was the #2 rusher (450, 3.7). Lee threw for 573 (60.7%, 2-1) both return TY. PS#4 JC Zach Mettenberger (6'5" 250 So) joined LSU in spring but Miles said Jefferson is the clear starter going into August. At JC in '10 Mettenberger threw for 2,678 (59%) with a 32-4 ratio and has the strongest arm of the LSU QB's. This should be one of the most improved QB units in the country.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 Charles Scott (PS#7) led with 1,174 (5.4) and 18 TD's. In '09 Scott was lost after 9 sts (inj) but still led with 542 (4.7). Keiland Williams (417, 5.0, '08) was #2 with 368 (5.3). Stevan Ridley (PS#36) started the L2 with Scott and Williams inj'd and had 180 (4.0). LY they had to replace their top 2. Richard Murphy (PS#27) had 416 (5.3) in '07-'08 (inj '09). He battled true frosh Spencer Ware (PS#14), Alfred Blue (101, 5.1 PS#131) and rFr Michael Ford (PS#11, 4.4 spd) who almost took off his RS in '09 for the bkp spot. Ford (425 bench, 42" VL) had just 7 carries in the first 6 but finished with 244 (5.4). Ridley had 159 vs VU, the most by a Tiger in an SEC gm since Alley Broussard (250 vs Ole Miss '04). Ridley had a fine ssn with 1,147 (4.6, #3DC NE) and 15 TD's. Ford was the #2 RB and Ware had 102 of his 175 (7.3) in the bowl. TY Ridley opted to leave early for the NFL and they also lose Murphy (85 yds). Not listed below are Tabari Williams (5'10" 173 So), Cleveland Davis (6'0" 260 So) and BJ Wilson (5'9" 184 Jr). Five VHT's will battle it out to be the feature back.

RECEIVERS - The Tiger WR's have been loaded with size and speed in recent years but spotty QB play has kept down the stats. In '09 Brandon LaFell (6'3", PS#36) led with 792 (13.9) while 6'5" Terrance Toliver (PS#2) was #2 with 735 (13.9) and 6'4" Rueben Randle (PS#1) was #3 (173, 15.7). Surprisingly converted QB Russell Shepard had just 5 rec but did rush for 277 (6.2). Last year they had to replace LaFell (#3DC), their starting TE and had just 2 of their top 5 receivers back. Toliver (579, 14.1) finished #1 while Randle was #2 with 544 (16.5). Shepard was #3 with 254 (7.7) and TE Deangelo Peterson (PS#54) had 3 starts (16 rec). This year they lose Toliver (13 st) but everyone else is back. Not listed in the PSL below are TE's Nic Jacobs (6'5" 265 rFr, PS#20), Kendrick Smith (6'3" 218 rFr), Josh Gast (6'3" 211 Jr) and Jeremy Peoples (6'4" 240 So). With improved QB play and outstanding talent, I look for LSU's WR's to put up vastly improved numbers in 2011.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 LSU's O-line had 79 career sts back. Les Miles was high on the unit in August saying that it could be as good of an O-line as he has fielded here (5 yr). The unit did not live up to that billing, however, with the tm only avg 123 ypg rush (3.7), their lowest ypg S/'99 while all'g 37 sks (tied last SEC, 11%). LY they had to replace 2 st's incl 2nd Tm AALT Ciron Black (SEC Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner). I said that despite being less exp'd, they could actually improve and they did to 186 ypg (4.5) with just 24 sks (8.0%). TY they lose 2nd Tm SEC LT Joseph Barksdale (13 st, 3Y str, #3DC OAK) but have 9 of the top 10 back (78 car st, 8 with starting exp) and they should have their best numbers since at least '07.

DEFENSIVE LINE - LSU had to replace 3 NFL DC's in '06 but yielded just 97 ypg rush (3.2). Surprisingly the last FOUR years the rush D totals have gone up as they yielded 106 ypg (3.2) in '07, 110 (3.4) in '08, 133 (3.5) in '09 and 137 (3.7) in '10. At least one LSU DL has been picked in each of the last 8 drafts. LY they had to replace 3 st's for the 2nd straight yr. Drake Nevis was named SEC DL of Wk 4 times in '10. TY they lose 2nd Tm AA DT Nevis (13 st, 56 tkl, 6 sk, 7 tfl, #3DC IND) and DT Lazarus Levinston (12 st, 25 tkl, 2 tfl, #7DC SEA). True frosh Anthony Johnson (PS#2) was IFS. Despite the loss of 2 st's, incl their top guy, this is the most exp'd LSU front recently and should stop the trend of declining rush D numbers.

LINEBACKERS - In 2008 LSU pulled a LB on many passing plays, but new DC Chavis did not do that as much in '09. That 2009 group did have to replace a 2nd Tm SEC MLB (5'5" tkl'r) but they not only returned their #2 and #3 tkl'r's, they moved in SS Harry Coleman (#1 tkl'r) and he earned TM MVP honors. LY they had to replace Coleman (#3 tkl'r, 9 tfl), their #2 tkl'r (#4DC) and #4 tkl'r (1 st). Kelvin Sheppard was the #1 tkl'r in '09 and turned down the NFL but the other 2 starting LB's combined for just 25 tkl's in 2009. This year they lose their top guy in 1st Tm SEC MLB Sheppard (116 tkl, 11 tfl, #3DC BUF) but have 5 of the top 6 back (#2 and #8 tkl'r) and add #3 tkl'r Karnell Hatcher who moves over from FS.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Tigers finished #6, #1, #5, #5, #1 and #3 in my PDR from 2002-'07. They had a very inexp'd unit in '08 and dropped to #33. In '09 they ret'd 5 who combined for 40 sts in '08 and moved back up to #19 led by CB Patrick Peterson. LY they had to replace 2 st's (#3DC) but ret'd arguably the best CB combo in the country in Peterson and Morris Claiborne. Peterson earned SEC DPOY and won the prestigious Jim Thorpe and Bednarik Awards. LSU finished #13 in my PDR (57.0%, 15-19). TY they lose their star Peterson (13 st, 42 tkl, 4 int, 6 pbu, #1DC ARZ), FS Jai Eugene (1 st, 24 tkl) and S Daniel Graff (18 tkl) plus FS Hatcher moved to LB in spg. They ret 8 of the top 12 incl 7 VHT's. Not in the PSL are Tré Sullivan (5'9" 179 rFr), Dexter Alexander (5'9" 174 So), Chris Wells (5'11" 186 So), Taylor Debusk (5'11" 180 Jr) and David Detz (6'0" 177 Jr). They have more overall experience and will still be one of the top secondaries.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Miles' Okla St tms ('01-'04) finished #3, #18, #3 and #11 in my ST rankings. He inherited an LSU ST unit that was #23 in '04 and after a #10 finish in '05, with everyone back in '06, surprisingly dropped to #80 and #81 in '07. They were #13 in '08 and back to #7 in '09. Josh Jasper hit 17-20 FG's (L52) in '09. Last year Jasper was not one of the finalists for the Lou Groza Award but did win the FWAA AA Kicker Award (28-34 FG's, 3 50+). He had 14 of 21 punts I20 and was part of 3 key fake FG/punts. P Derek Helton improved to 45.7 (tm net 39.2). Patrick Peterson was named SEC STPOY with 932 KR yds (29.1) and 418 PR yds (16.1). Joe Robinson was one of 4 finalists for the ST Coor of the Year Award. LSU players consider it a privilege to play on ST and battle for the honor making the coverage units loaded with talent (4.9 PR, #11 in NCAA). As you would expect, LSU rose to #2, but this year with the loss of Peterson, Jasper and Helton and coach Robinson (to N Carolina), figure to drop in the rankings.

COACHES - Les Miles did a fine job at Okla St with his resume including 2 big upsets over rival OU and 3 bowls in 4 yrs. Miles owns a National Title at LSU, but since then has gone 3 seasons without an SEC West Title. Miles made a switch at OC bringing in Steve Kragthorpe to replace Gary Crowder ('07-'10). Kragthorpe has 7Y of HC exp (Tulsa '03-'06, L'ville '07-'09) and is the 3rd highest paid OC in the conf. SEC veteran John Chavis is in his 3rd season as DC here (DC Tenn 14 yrs).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Phil Steele's College Football Preview was the ONLY magazine to forecast LSU to win the SEC West in '03. I called the Tigers my #2 surprise team and they took home the BCS National Title when they upset Oklahoma. In Saban's last year ('04) they went 9-3 and after entering #4 AP, finished #16. In Les Miles' first 2 seasons they went 11-2 both yrs finishing #6 and #3. In '07 they lost 2 gms in OT and appeared out of the National Title picture but landed in the Title game and whipped Ohio St 38-24 for a 2nd Nat'l Title in 5 yrs. There were some negative factors heading into '08 as they had benefitted from +20 in TO's, had just 12 ret st's and lost 29 pts in my NFL Draft Day Party Hangover. LSU did become bowl eligible for a school record 9th straight year (pg 308) but it was an up and down 8-5 ssn (NRI). Miles has had quite a few fortunate wins in the last 2 yrs. In '09 the Tigers were actually outgained by 23 ypg (305-328) in SEC play but finished 9-4 and #17. LY I picked 4th in the SEC West despite Miles having the Tigers finish #1, #2, #1, #3 and #2 in his first 5 yrs. LSU got past a UNC team that was without 13 susp players (9 st's) when 2 passes into the EZ both fell incomplete at the end. They opened 4-0 and got a fortuitous win vs Tenn when it was ruled the game was over and UT had won but too many men on the field gave them another play and LSU got the 2 pt win. The next week vs Florida, they were down 29-26 with :35 left but they faked a 53 yd FG which bounced off the turf and K Jasper caught it for a FD (long review) which led to the gm winning TD in the 4 pt win. Their luck ran out at Auburn when they were outgained 526-243 but only lost by 7. They beat #5 Bama at home in their most impressive gm of the season (433-325 yds). Two wks later they trailed Ole Miss 36-35 in the 4Q but rallied for a TD with :44 left. They were outgained 464-294 by Ark and lost but beat A&M in the bowl. Despite Miles being under fire most of the yr from fans, LSU finished 11-2 and #8 (#21 pressn). The main problem the last 2 yrs has been QB play but that should improve. They benefitted from 5 net close wins (pg 299) and had an off ypp of 11.5. They do have to play 2 pressn TO 5 teams away from home (Oregon and Bama). With 15 ret st's incl their QB, this is Miles most exp'd tm yet and is a legitimate Nat'l Title contender (preseason Top 5 AP).

ARKANSAS RAZORBACKS

NG Byran Jones

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - The only ret QB with exp here in '09 was rF Tyler Wilson (PS#32) who hit 11-22-69 (2 gm) as a true but RS. Ryan Mallett (PS#1) has an arm that has been compared to John Elway's. As a true frosh at Michigan in '07, he was 3-0 as the starter (892, 43%, 7-5). He RS here in '08 and was the clear-cut st'r in '09. Mallett broke a lot of Clint Stoerner's (96-'99) records with 3,624 (55.8%, 30-7). Wilson played in 5 (218, 61.1%). Petrino said he wanted Mallett to break Kevin Scharf's (1979 comp) % record (64%). At home, Mallett threw 68.3% (327 ypg). On the road he hit just 42.9% (223 ypg) but faced four Top 20 pass D's. Mallett turned down the NFL in '10 and set the % mark throwing for 3,869 (64.7%, 32-12). Wilson did get to play 2.5Q's vs Auburn (Mallett inj) and at the end of the 3Q had a pass eff of 299.29 but two 4Q int's dropped him to 182.6 for the game. Wilson played in 6 (453, 66.7%, 4-3). 6'4" Brandon Mitchell is an athletic runner and hit 1-3-16 (2 rush att). Jacoby Walker (PS#36) was inj'd. Mallett had a school record 409 vs Vandy and leaves as the sch's career passing leader in just 2 yrs. Naturally going from an exp'd #3DC (NE) to a unit with just 12 career att, the numbers will drop but any QB in Petrino's system should produce quality numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - From 2005-'07 UA had an amazing trio of RB's in Darren McCadden, Felix Jones and Peyton Hillis (3,339 rush and 877 rec yds comb '07). In '08 they were all drafted by the NFL. HC Petrino favors a bigger back, so it was surprising that 5'7" Michael Smith won the starting job in '08. Smith (370 bench) rushed for 1,072 (5.2). True frosh Dennis Johnson (4.4 spd) was the #2 RB with 184 (5.1). In '09 they got the large additions of 244 lb Broderick Green (PS#9) who had 168 (5.2) at USC in '08, true frosh Ronnie Wingo (PS#12) and Knile Davis (PS#26). Smith only played in 8 (inj) and finished #2 (396, 5.6). Green set a school rec with a 99 yd td run vs EM and led with 442 (4.2). Johnson had 107 vs UF and was #3 (342, 6.0). Wingo added 319 (6.5) while Davis had 163 (4.9). LY they only had to replace Smith but then Dennis Johnson was lost after 2 gm. Davis has been timed as low as 4.29 in the 40 and benches 415 lbs. He piled up six 100+ yd gms with 176 vs Ole Miss, 110 vs SC, 182 vs UTEP, 187 vs MSU, 152 vs LSU and 139 vs OSU (26 of 27 RB carries). He finished with 1,322 (6.5) and 13 td's. Green was a distant #2 (365, 3.5) and Wingo had 253 (6.2). Not listed below are Ronald Watkins (5'9" 190 Jr) and FB's Morgan Linton (5'11" 240 rF), Brandon Pyle (6'2" 240 Jr), and Allen Whitlow (6'1" 249 So). Green tore his ACL in spg, but this unit will improve upon LY's 149 ypg rush.

RECEIVERS - In '08 TE DJ Williams (PS#18) led with 723 (11.9), true frosh Joe Adams (PS#25) had 377 (12.2) and Jarius Wright (PS#36) had 348 (18.3). In '09 Greg Childs led with 894 (18.6) while Wright added 681 (16.6). Adams suffered a mild stroke (out 3) but was #3 (568, 19.6). Mallett preferred throwing the ball deep to WR's so TE Williams only had 411 (12.8). Speedy true frosh Cobi Hamilton had 347 (18.3). LY Childs was leading the tm with 659 (14.3) but was lost after 8 (inj). Joe Adams (4 sts) led with 813 (16.3) while Wright was #2 (788, 18.8). DJ Williams won the John Mackey Award and had 627 (11.6). Hamilton had 630 (19.7). TY they lose Williams (#5DC GB) and TE Ben Cleveland (4 rec, 3 st). The proj'd st'r at TE is Chris Gragg and he has 7 sts and just 9 rec in his career which is a large drop off from Williams. As long as a new TE emerges, this will once again be one of the NCAA's top receiving corps.

OFFENSIVE LINE - The Hogs led the SEC in rushing in 5 of Houston Nutt's last 6 yrs. The one year they did not ('04) they had 0 ret OL st'r's and were still #2! In Bobby Petrino's first yr ('08) they had to replace 4 st'r's. As you would expect in a new system (run blk to pass blk), their rush numbers plummeted to just 114 ypg (3.6) while they allowed 46 sks (2nd most FBS). In '09 Ark had to replace 3 st'r's but improved to 132 ypg rush (4.3) with 24 sk (5.5%). LY they had to replace a 1st Tm SEC RG (#5DC) but had 4 st'r's back although C Seth Oxner lost his starting spot. The Hogs improved again to 149 ypg (4.6) with 28 sks (6.0%). This year they lose 1st Tm SEC LT DeMarcus Love (13 st, 3Y st'r, #6DC MIN), LG Wade Grayson (13 st, 3Y st'r), RT Ray Dominguez (13 st, 3Y st'r) and Zhamal Thomas (12 gm). UA has 2 st'r's back plus 4 others with starting exp incl Oxner. While less exp'd, this still looks like a quality O-line.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In Petrino's 1st yr Ark had a veteran DL but the rest of the D was inexp'd and they slipped allowing 171 ypg rush (4.4). In '09 UA had to replace 3 DL (comb 6 sts). Four of the tm's top 9 tk'l's in '08 were DL and all ret'd. They improved to 153 ypg (4.0) with 29 sks. LY Ark lost 2 st'r's but had 8 back who earned sts in '09. UA improved to 37 sks, but the rush D slipped to 163 ypg (4.0). Zach Stadther (8 st, 42 tk'l '09) DNP in the first 5 (1 st). DL coach Bobby Allen said he'd never been around a better group of DT's and NG's than Ark had LY. TY they lose DE Damarion Ambrose (13 st, 33 tk'l, 3.5 sk) and DT Patrick Jones (8 tk'l). Ark has 5 back who started 5+ and Stadther could climb out of Petrino's doghouse (17 car st). This is a much more exp'd group and should make solid strides.

LINEBACKERS - After having an inexp'd unit in '08, UA ret'd their top 3 LB's in '09. TE Williams said the LB's were bigger, faster and better students of the gm. In '09 the Hogs' D all'd 6.1 ppg less (25.1). LY they had to replace their #2 tk'l'r but had their #1, #3 and #7 back with all 3 having 7+ sts. I called for continued improvement and UA dropped the ppg to 23.4. TY they lose OLB Anthony Leon (12 st, #4 tk'l, 12.5 tfl), OLB Freddy Burton (8 st 70 tk'l 2LY) and Jermaine Love (13 tk'l, 1 sk). 2nd Tm SEC MLB Jerry Franklin (#1 tk'l'r, 13 tfl) and 3rd Tm SEC Jerico Nelson (PS#54, #2 tk'l'r) are back. They also bring in PS#11JC Alonzo Highsmith and true frosh Tyler Gilbert was IFS. Franklin is the 2nd Hog since '60 to lead the tm in tkls for 3 straight ssns and UA's LB corps looks stronger for the 3rd str yr.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Hogs finished #11 in my PDR in '06 and with a veteran unit in '07 were #1 (45.5%, 20 int). In '08 they had to replace all 4 st'r's and as you would expect, dropped to #59. The Hogs had to replace 4 DB (comb 17 st) in '09 then lost CB Isaac Madison (11 st '08) to a torn ACL and CB David Gordon after 3 sts. The Hogs slid to #80 (59.2%, 22-13). Last year they had to replace 2 DB (comb 12 st, 85 tk'l) but Madison ret'd. The Hogs rose to #31 (55%, 13-11). This year they lose CB Ramon Broadway (9 st, 38 tk'l), SS Rudell Crim (12 st, #5 tk'l'r, 3 int) and CB Andru Stewart (14 tk'l, 1 int). While a little less experienced, this unit should be just as good.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Bobby Petrino's ST's at L'ville finished #70, #41, #63 and #39 in my ST rankings ('03-'06). He inherited a ST unit that finished #94 in '07 and was #94 again in '08. Petrino hired John L. Smith (former HC at Mich St and L'ville) to oversee the unit. The '09 unit finished #79 and ret'd intact LY. K Alex Tejada improved to 15 TB on 86 KO but lost his K job to true frosh Zach Hocker (PS#20) who hit 16-19 (L51, longest for Ark '92) and has hit 60 yd FG's in practice. P Dylan Breeding (32.6 net '09) improved to 42.5 (37.5 net) LY. In '09 Dennis Johnson had 1,031 KR yds (25.8) but was inj'd after 3 ret (26.0) in '10. The Hogs struggled on KR's (19.4) and '10's top KR Lance Ray (22.5) transferred after spring. Joe Adams avg 15.6 on PR's including a school record 97 yd PR vs Ole Miss (Ken Hatfield 95 yd'r in '63) and also had a 62 yd PR td vs UGA called back. They finished #55 and with Johnson back at KR, figure to have another solid finish this year.

COACHES - HC Petrino had a great run guiding L'ville to 4 bowls and a pair of #6 AP finishes. He left for the ATL Falcons in '07 and was blasted by the media after quitting with 3 gms to go. In his 3rd yr here he led the Hogs to their first ever BCS bowl. OC Garrick McGee (2nd yr) spent 2Y as QB cch here ('08-'09) and 2Y as the NW OC ('06-'07). DC Willy Robinson (4th yr) was the STL Rams' DB cch ('06-'07) prior to coming to UA.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Prior to '04, Ark went to 6 consec bowls matching a school rec set by Lou Holtz ('77-'82) and Ken Hatfield ('84-'89). Unfortunately for just the third time in 61 yrs ('52-'53 and '96-'97), they suffered B2B losing seasons in '04 and '05. Despite their 2-6 record in SEC play in '05, they were +31.3 ypg! They outgained #4 UGA 332-217 (lost by 3 road) and thanks to a pair of missed FG's, lost to #3 LSU by 2 in Baton Rouge. Ark used the most true frosh (18) in the nation in '05. In '06 they had the most ret st'r's in the SEC (18) and that had me very high on the Hogs. I picked the Hogs #13 coming off a 4-7 season with the majority of the other magazines not having them ranked. Ark did not disappoint me, in fact they made it to the SEC Title gm and rose as high as #5. Their losses in '06 were to the #6, #9, #4 and #6 tms. In '07 the Hogs had just 12 ret st'r's and were preseason #21. They were a disappointing 7-4 when they stunned #1 LSU in Death Valley in 3OT. Surprisingly Nutt, who was 53-17 at home, stepped aside under strong fan pressure and with an interim HC they were whipped by Missouri 38-7 in the Cotton Bowl. In '08 with just 9 ret st'r's, I picked the tm that had been to 2 straight NY Day bowls and had 3 non-BCS foes on the sked to have a losing season. The Hogs finished just 5-7 and despite a 2-6 SEC record, were +0.1 ypg and -9 in TO's. In '09 they drew both Flor and GA from the East but still made my Most Improved List for the 2nd time in 4 yrs. The Hogs did not disappoint me (8-5). LY they had 17 ret st'r's incl QB Mallett and Vandy replaced Florida on the sked. Two of my 9 sets of power ratings actually called for the Hogs to go 12-0 and they nearly accomplished that. Against Bama, Ark led 20-14 in the 4Q before Mallett had two int's and Bama escaped. Versus eventual Nat'l Champ Auburn, Ark lost QB Mallett to inj in the 2Q. With bkp QB Wilson in, they still led 43-37 in the 4Q before TO's did them in. The Hogs were 10-2 and their +101.4 ypg led the SEC (National Champ Auburn #2 +91.7). In the Sugar Bowl vs Ohio St, they were int'd at the OSU 17 with :58 left and came up 5 pts short. The Hogs' #12 finish was their best S/'88 (also #12). TY they do face both LSU and Bama on the road (both Top 5). They have an inexp'd QB but 8 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for DD wins. This team is 2 upsets away from playing for the National Title this year.

The Bears went 5-6 LY incl a 48-24 loss to K-St but MSU had a 25-23 FD edge & were outgained by just 46 yds. UA is 6-0 vs MSU incl a 48-10 win in the '09 ssn opener (+13 FD's & +386 yds).

Arkansas is 2-0 vs New Mexico but the L/gm was in 1987, a 43-25 win in Little Rock. Into 2011, Ark has won 16 str non-conf HG's & under Petrino (9-0) has outscored opp's an avg 43-18.

The Razorbacks are 3-0 vs the Trojans outgaining them 408-324 with an avg score of 42-15. In the L/meeting '09 UA won 56-20 jumping out to a 28-7 lead. Ark is 27-0 vs current SBC Tms.

Ark is 1-5 S'99 in Tuscaloosa & in their L/trip lost 35-7 being outgained 425-254. Ark has dropped 4 str overall by 18 ppg vs Bama. Under Petrino Ark is 4-8 on the SEC road (3-1 LY).

Series started in 1903 & these former SWC rivals ply'd every yr from '34-'91 (Ark leads 40-24-3). In '09 Ark alum Dallas Cowboy owner Jerry Jones brought the gm to TX.

Petrino was the OC at Aub in '02 prior to taking the Louisville HC job. HT is 3-6 S'02 LY Ark led 43-37 w/14:09 left but imploded allowing 28 unanswered (L/3 TD's on a 47 yd FR & 2 int's).

South Carolina: Ark is 9-4 S'98 vs SC incl 4 wins the L5Y. Tennessee: In the last meeting ('07) Arkansas lost 34-13 (trailed 27-3 late 3Q) as 3 int's were costly (1 tossed in EZ & another for a TD).

Ark has won 7 of the L/10 but snapped a 2 gm losing streak LY. In the Razorbacks L/trip to Oxford they lost 30-17 (trailed 17-0 late 2Q). Ark cut it to 7 late 3Q but could only muster 19 yds in the 4Q.

This will be just the 9th overall meeting as Arkansas is 6-2 including 3-0 in Nashville. In the L/trip ('06) Ark escaped with a 21-19 win vs Vanderbilt missed a 48-yd FG w/55 left.

LY the gm was tied 7-7 into the 2Q but Ark exploded & led 41-10 before 2 late garbage scoring drives by SC.

The Razorbacks are just 3-13 vs the Vols but have won 2 of the last 3 at home incl 2006.

Arkansas has dominated this series (14-2 S'95) & has never dropped a gm hosting the Bulldogs (8-0-1).

This rivalry has been decided by a TD or less (five by 5 pts or less) L6Y. Ark has won 3 of L/4 but lost their L/visit to Baton Rouge as LSU kicked a 41-yd FG w/04 to force OT (Ark missed 35 yd FG in OT).

MISSISSIPPI ST BULLDOGS

C Quentin Saulsberry

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In 2008, 5'11" Tyson Lee (PS#31JC) started the last 8 and threw for 1,519 (59%, 7-5). Lee battled Chris Relf (6'4" 245) in '09 who was the best athlete of the QB's and has a strong arm (9 pass att '08). They also added VHT Tyler Russell (PS#7) but he RS. Relf was used mostly as a runner with Lee as a passer. Lee started all 12, throwing for 1,444 (58.8%) but with a poor 4-14 ratio. Relf threw for 283 (53.7%, 5-3) and was the #2 rusher (500, 6.6). LY they lost Lee. Relf who was impressive vs Ole Miss in '09, battled Russell who is more of a prototypical QB at 6'5" (40-5 ratio Sr HS). Those 2 alternated snaps early but Relf took control throwing for 1,789 (58.6%, 13-6) and was the #2 rusher with 713 (3.7). He hit 18 of 23 for 281 vs Michigan in the bowl. Russell played in 9 (635, 58.2%, 5-6, 62 rush). This year both QB's return and added to the mix are Dylan Favre (5'10" 190 rFr, PS#90) who was MS Off POY (Brett's nephew) and true frosh Dak Prescott (PS#47). I look for continued improvement from the MSU QB's.

RUNNING BACKS - In '06 the Bulldogs had to replace the school's all time leading rusher Jerious Norwood. Anthony Dixon found himself in ex-HC Croom's doghouse often but after rushing for 1,391 (5.4) in '09, he finished as MSU's new career leader. The most exp'd returnee LY was Robert Elliott (PS#19) who had 282 (4.5) in his first 2 yrs. I projected PS#16JC Vick Ballard as the starter. Despite missing a gm with an ankle inj, he led with 968 (5.2) including a school record 20 tll tds (Jackie Parker 16, '52). RFr LaDarius Perkins (PS#99) emerged and had 566 (5.6) including 131 vs UAB and 98 in the Egg Bowl. His 319 all-pur yds in that game were the 2nd most in school history. This year the only loss is FB Patrick Hanrahan (6 st, 20 yd). Not listed in the PSL are FB William Shumpert (6'0" 235 So, PS#109) and RB's James Baldwin (5'9" 190 Fr) and Darrell Williams (5'8" 185 Jr). This unit is a lot more exp'd in 2011.

RECEIVERS - MSU had an inexp'd group in '09. Chad Bumphis (PS#21) originally committed to Mullen at Florida and was compared to Percy Harvin. Bumphis led in '09 as a true frosh with 375 (11.7). TE Marcus Green (inj '08) had 6 sts finishing #2 with 306 (11.3). Leon Berry (PS#66JC) had 8 rec in the spring game and was a dangerous return specialist but only had 3 sts and 170 (12.1). They had 3 of their top 4 returning LY but Green was injured and RS after 2 gms. Bumphis improved his numbers to 634 (14.4) while soph Arceto Clark (PS#132) was #2 with 362 (14.5). Brandon Heavens (PS#107) was #3 with 316 (14.4) and 6'2" Chris Smith (PS#53) was #4 with 264 (11.0). Berry had 188 (23.5) playing in just 6 (inj). This year they lose Berry and Brandon Henderson (8 rec). Not listed in the PSL are Sheldon Evans (6'0" 180 So) and Dane Leake (6'4" 200 rFr). Overall the unit is more exp'd and continues to improve.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Sylvester Croom was a fan of large OL's while HC Mullen prefers lean, mobile OL so it was not a great fit when he took over in '09. They only had to replace 2 OL (comb 16 st) and all 5 st's started all 12. Quite frankly, they outperformed my expectations as the team avg 228 ypg rush (#9 FBS, 4.9) with just 20 sks allowed (7.5%). It was still a good sized group avg 305 lbs. LY they had 4 st's back (85 car st) including 5 VHT's in the 2 deep. Among those VHT's was 2nd Tm SEC LT Derek Sherrod (PS#11). I called it the Bulldogs' best OL in years but surprisingly the numbers slipped a little to 215 ypg (4.5) with 23 sks (8.0%). This year they lose C JC Brignone (11 st, 3Y st'r), 2nd Tm AA LT Sherrod (13 st, 3Y st'r, #1DC GB), Mark Melichar (1 st) and Phillip Freeman (13 gm). They add rFr Damien Robinson (PS#18) and move DL James Carmon (PS#10JC) in (3 starters back). While less experienced than 2010, MSU could have improved numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Sean Ferguson became just the 2nd MSU true frosh DL in 22 yrs to start his first career game. With 2 st's back MSU gave up 151 ypg (4.1). In '09 they had to replace 3 st's but added PS#6JC Pernel McPhee (IFS). I called the unit less exp'd but with added talent the numbers were about the same (146 ypg, 4.0, 18 sk). LY they had to replace 3 DL (comb 21 sts) but did have 9 of the top 12 back. The unit suffered the tragic loss of DE Nick Bell to cancer. DC Diaz projected that DE McPhee would struggle to learn the new def in the 1H of the year but should have a solid 2H and he earned 1st Tm SEC. Overall, MSU improved allowing 119 ypg (3.6), their best since '06, with 26 sks. This year they lose McPhee (13 st, #9 tklr, 10 tll, #5DC BAL) and DE Johnathan McKenzie (1 st, 4 tkl). This is the most exp'd D-line Mullen has fielded.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Bulldogs had to replace their #1 tklr (#7DC) but did return their #2 and #3 tkl's in KJ Wright and Chris White (fastest LB). With a veteran unit, MSU improved allowing 19.8 ppg, their best since 1999. This position is my biggest concern on MSU's 2011 squad. They lose 1st Tm SEC MLB White (#1 tklr, 6 sk, 9.5 tll, 2 int, #6DC BUF), 4th Tm SEC WLB Wright (13 st, #2 tklr, 8 tll, #4DC SEA), SLB Emmanuel Gatling (13 st, #7 tklr, 1 tll) and Michael Hunt (21 tkl). They return 2 backups (#10 and #18 tkl's) but will have rebuilding to do at LB. They did add Brandon Maye who started 33 games at Clemson with 233 tkl's and 5.5 sacks in 3 years.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - MSU had to replace 3 st's in '09. True frosh FS Johnthan Banks became the first MSU player ever to return 2 int for t'd's in the same game - both off of Tim Tebow. The inexp'd unit finished #49. Last year they only had to replace 1 st'r and had 8 back who earned starts in '09. Banks moved from FS to CB, his more natural position. CB Corey Broomfield already has 3 IR t'd's in his 2 years. As you would expect, the more experienced unit moved up to #30 (57.8%, 19-13). This year they only lose CB Maurice Langston (1 st, 19 tkl, 2 int) and S Zach Smith (21 tkl, 1 sk) but return 6 of the top 8 incl all 4 st's. I like the CB combo of Banks and Broomfield and the Saf combo of SS Charles Mitchell (PS#19, #3 tklr) and FS Nickoe Whitley (2nd Tm Fr AA) is also strong. This is actually one of the best secondaries in the SEC and the most exp'd in the country with 98% of the starts back from 2010.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Sylvester Croom did not have a lot of success in my ST rankings as MSU finished #81, #114, #100, #108 and #115 in his 5 yrs. Dan Mullen, following Urban Meyer's lead, overuses this unit personally. He signed a JC P and K and uses plenty of st's in the unit. In '09 they had to replace their P, K and top PR/KR but Mullen had an immediate impact. Leon Berry and Chad Bumphis were dangerous RM. Heath Hutchins (PS#23JC) who avg 46.1 at JC had a 39.7 avg (34.0 net). Sean Brauchle (PS#27JC) who hit a 57 yd FG in practice, hit 6-9 FG's (L49) but was inj'd. Derek DePasquale hit 10-12 FG's (L48, 1 miss 51). Miss St only had 3 TB's on KO's in 3Y ('07-'09). MSU improved to #54 and had all of the key players back LY. Surprisingly the Bulldogs fell to #71. Berry avg 26.8 but had 24 less KR's. Brauchle and DePasquale combined to hit 13-19 FG's (L47) and Heath Hutchins avg 41.5 with a solid 37.9 net. DePasquale had 3 TB on 15 KO but Brauchle had 1 on 57. This year they lose Brauchle, Hutchins and Berry, so they figure to take a step down again in my ST rankings.

COACHES - HC Dan Mullen was Urban Meyer's QB cch at both BG and Utah and was the OC/QB cch at Florida. LY Mullen led the Bulldogs to 9 wins, their most since 1999. OC Les Koenning (3rd yr here) was the OC at S Ala ('08), Tx A&M ('03-'07) and Alabama ('01-'02). Chris Wilson was a DL at Okla ('05-'09) and was co-DC LY with Manny Diaz who left for Texas. This year Wilson will be a co-DC with Geoff Collins who spent LY as the FIU DC and was the UCF LB coach in '08 and '09.

PHIL'S FORECAST

From 1997-2000 the Bulldogs actually had the best record of all of the SEC West schools. The last 3 yrs of Jackie Sherrill's tenure ('01-'03) did not go well with a 3-21 SEC record. Sylvester Croom won 3 games overall in each of his first 3 yrs (4-20 SEC). In '06 despite their 3-9 record, they did allow just 321 ypg on defense. I predicted MSU would be greatly improved in '07 with a shot at a bowl and they did not disappoint. The Bulldogs went 8-5. In '08 I pointed out that MSU, despite their 4-4 SEC record in '07, was -73.4 ypg in SEC play and they had benefitted from 4 net close wins. In '08 at SEC media days Croom said it was a realistic goal for the team to win the SEC Title (I had them 5th in the West) but they went just 4-8 and Croom resigned after a 45-0 loss to Miss. They brought in Dan Mullen from Florida who inherited a team that was an SEC worst -111.0 ypg. They had 10 ret st's (fewest SEC) and had to learn new schemes. MSU outperformed my expectations in Mullen's first year with a solid 5-7 season (3-5 SEC, -21.9 ypg). They beat #20 Ole Miss in the season finale 41-27 and in a 3 gm home stand vs LSU, GT and Houston, MSU lost by just a combined 22 pts and had 13 TO's. LY Mullen exceeded my expectations again as the Bulldogs went 4-4 in the SEC and 9-4 overall. They only lost to Auburn by 3, were done in by -4 in TO's at LSU (268-264 yd edge) and fumbled into the EZ for a TB and lost in 2OT vs Ark, despite a 100-61 play advantage. MSU finished #15 AP, the first time they finished ranked since 2000 (#24) and the highest since 1999 (#13). They did record their first Jan bowl win since 1941 in their 52-14 rout of Michigan. LY MSU had to play the last 3 Nat'l Champs (LSU, UF, Ala) all on the road. Mullen turned down some high profile coaching jobs to stay here. Mullen is 2-8 vs SEC West foes with his only 2 wins over Mississippi. This year they have a schedule tailor-made for either greatness or disappointment. They face the SEC's 3 preseason Top 10 AP teams (Ala, LSU, SCar) all at home. They have 16 ret st's (Mullen's most so far) and with 3 home upsets they could win the West. Unfortunately, if they lose those 3 that leaves most of the winnable gms on the road. I will call for a 2nd straight bowl, but I don't see them topping last year's 9 win total. Will Mullen surpass my expectations a 3rd time?

MISSISSIPPI REBELS

RB Jeff Scott

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Eli Manning (PS#12) set or tied 47 school records and departed after the '03 ssn (#1DC) and later guided the NYG to a Super Bowl win. The next 6Y Rebel QB's combined to hit 51, 53, 48, 51, 56, and 54%. In '09 Ole Miss had a ret st'r in Texas transfer Devan Sneed (PS#4) but he only threw for 2,632 (54%, 20-20). Sneed opted to leave early for the NFL but did not make a roster. Rfr Nathan Stanley (PS#36) got in 5 gms (11-23-163) and LY it was a battle between him and PS#1JC Randall Mackey who threw for 5,940 with 1,065 rush in 2 yrs at JC. Over the summer they added Jeremiah Masoli who threw for 2,147 (58%, 15-6) with 668 rush (5.5) at Oregon in '09. Houston Nutt opted to RS Mackey. Stanley st'd the opener (133 pass, 3 td) but alternated with Masoli (138 tll yd) in their devastating loss to Jax St. Masoli st'd gm 2 (308 tll yd) with Stanley only att 2 passes and from then on, the job was Masoli's. Masoli suffered a concussion vs ULL and had his worst game the next week vs Tenn (7-18, 3 int, 2 IR td). Masoli did break UM's single season QB rush record with 544 (Norris Weese 542 in '72) and threw for 2,039 (56.4%, 14-13). Stanley played in 4 (261, 53.1%, 3-1) and has transferred. Added to the mix this year are L'ville transfer Zach Stoudt (PS#38JC) and WV transfer Barry Brunetti (PS#9) who was cleared by the NCAA to play in 2011. Not listed below is Robert Ratliff (6'0" 215 So). Mackey is my pick to win the starting job and could actually produce the best stats by an UM QB since Manning departed.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 and '09 Dexter McCluster was the leading rusher, often operating out of "Wild Rebel" formation and in '09 he rushed for 1,169 (6.5). He became the first player in SEC history to top 1,000 rush & 500 rec (#2 rec 520 '09) in the same season. He also broke the UM record with 282 rush vs Tenn (Dou Innocent, 242, '95). Brandon Bolden (PS#147) was #3 in '08 (542, 5.5) and #2 in '09 (614, 4.8) with 209 (10.4) rec. Auburn transfer Enrique Davis (PS#4), who had 244 (3.8) in '08, had 110 (3.4) in '09. LY they had to replace McCluster (#2DC KC) and added Jeff Scott (fastest RB here). Scott missed 2 but was #3 (429, 6.5) as QB Masoli was #2. Bolden just missed out on posting the 7th 1,000 yd season (976, 6.0) in school history and tied the UM record with 14 rush td's (Kayo Dotley, Deuce McAllister and Archie Manning). Davis had 337 (4.1) and Nicholas Parker (5'11" 243 rFr, PS#43) RS. Not listed below are Parker, Tim Simon (6'0" 228 So, PS#71), Houston Keyes (5'7" 158 rFr) and FB's Brandon Keel (6'1" 235 rFr) and Justin Bigham (6'1" 234 So). This year the unit returns intact making it a much more exp'd and improved group.

RECEIVERS - In '09 the Rebels had to replace their top WR, Mike Wallace (#3DC PIT) who had 784 (20.1). Shay Hodge who had 725 (16.5) in '08 became the first WR in UM history to top 1,000 in a single ssn (1135, 16.2). Marketh Summers was the #2 WR (PS#37, 394, 23.2) and true frosh Pat Patterson (PS#5) had 180 (15.0). LY they had to replace Hodge and Patterson was dismissed (summer). Summers, who is 6'3" 205 and yet one of the fastest, led with 575 (20.5). 6'6" Melvin Harris who has struggled to add weight, had 408 (13.6) in 6 sts. Rfr Ja-Mes Logan had 387 (13.3). TY they lose Summers (10 st), Lionel Breaux (5 st, 67 yd) and Jesse Grandy (3 st, 224, 11.2, 88 rush). While this is not an overwhelming group and they do lose their top guy and have more exp than '10. Ole Miss also brings in 5 VHT's (3 Fr, 2 JC) incl PS#26JC TE Jamal Mosley who played at Oklahoma St as a true in '08 and gives UM a legitimate receiving threat at TE for the 1st time in years.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Nutt's offenses at Ark led the SEC in rushing 5 out of his last 6 years there. In '08 Nutt inherited 4 ret OL st'rs and as you would expect, UM improved to 186 ypg rush (4.7) which was the best since 1990 and they allowed just 20 sks (5.9%). In '09 they had to replace 3 st'rs incl #1DC Michael Oher but did get back a 2 year st'r who missed '09 so they had 3 st'r back. They equalled '08's numbers with 184 ypg (4.7) and 17 sk (4.5%). LY they had to replace 1st Tm SEC John Jerry (#3DC) and 2 other st'rs and had just 22 career sts back (7th lowest FBS). Rishaw Johnson (4 st '09) started the opener but was then dismissed. The lightly exp'd group still opened holes for 208 ypg (5.0) and only allowed 14 sk (4.2%). Having a mobile QB like Masoli helped. TY the entire 2 deep returns (10 who drew starts) with 77 car sts. They also add Ark transfer Matt Hall (PS#45) and have one of the SEC's top O-lines.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Ole Miss had 7 of their top 8 DL back in '07 but surprisingly allowed 199 ypg (4.7), their worst S/'01. In '08 they had to replace 5 DL (comb 21 st) but I graded them one of the top D-lines in the SEC and they did not disappoint. The Rebels trimmed their rush D to 86 ypg (2.7, 38 sks). In '09 they had to replace a #1 DC DT, Jerrell Powe (PS#2) earned 2nd Tm SEC but the Rebels slipped allowing 140 ypg (3.9, 36 sk). LY they had to replace 3 DE's (comb 16 sk, #6DC). The Rebels had one of the best DT combos in the country in Powe and Ted Laurent and Tenn OC Jim Chaney called them "big, fast, strong, mean, tough, aggressive, angry people." The Rebels did lose DE Kentrell Lockett after 3 sts (ACL) and DT Lawon Scott (13 st '09) had just 1 start (5 tkl), so LY's unit was less exp'd. They slipped allowing 153 ypg (4.4, 31 sk). This year they lose 2nd Tm SEC NT Powe (12 st, 27 tkl, 2.5 sk, #6DC KC), DT Laurent (11 st, 21 tkl, 2 sk), DT Scott and DE LaMark Armour (3 st, 19 tkl, 1.5 sk). They add two JUCO DT's and Lockett was granted a 6th year, but this unit is down a few notches.

LINEBACKERS - LY the Rebels ret'd an exp'd LB corps for the 3rd str yr having to replace their #4 tkl'r and one bkp (22 tkl). They ret'd their #3 and #6 tkl'rs but plunged from allowing 17.7 ppg in '09 to 35.2 ppg. TY they lose 2nd Tm SEC MLB Jonathan Cornell (10 st, #1 tkl'r, 14 tll) and SLB Allen Walker (12 st, #5 tkl'r). DT Shackelford (6 sts, 5 sk) was in'd in spring (likely OFY), so 3 of the top 6 LB's are back in '11. This group is less exp'd, returning just their #9 and #12 tkl'rs but LY's D was disappointing and they add THREE VHT frosh.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Ole Miss finished #2, #86, #87 and #54 in my PDR ('05-'08). In '09 they only had to replace 1 st'r and I called for them to have their best finish since at least '04 (#30). That they did moving all the way up to #13. LY they had to replace 3 st'rs (#5DC). Nutt said after spring that the secondary was much stronger than he had thought but the unit suffered inj's with only one DB starting all 12. PS#28JC

Damien Jackson was IFS and started 8 (#2 tkl'r). The Rebels plummeted to #104 (61.4%, 24-6). TY they lose CB Jeremy McGee (11 st, 33 tkl, 4 pd), SS Johnny Brown (10 st, 66 tkl, 5 pbu) and S Fon Ingram (7 st, 63 tkl, 2 int, 1 pbu). This is not an overwhelming unit but is more exp'd, adds 3 JC's (2 IFS) and should make a solid move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Everyone ret'd to the ST unit (#74 '07) in Nutt's first season and they moved up to #37. They had to replace their P (36.5 net) and top KR (24.6) in '09. True frosh Andrew Ritter (PS#21) had 12 TB's on 72 KO's and true frosh P Tyler Campbell (PS#24) avg 44.0 (tm net 36.7). Grandy was the top KR (25.7) and the unit finished #52. LY they did have to replace their K and top PR but I was surprised that they dropped to #64. Campbell led the NCAA in P avg at 46.4 (net 36.5). Ritter had 13 TB on 62 KO. Bryson Rose hit a solid 16-18 (L41) but had just 2 att's from 40+. Grandy avg'd 20.9 on KR (14.7 PR) and Jeff Scott avg 27.7 but JUCO Philander Moore should take over the return duties. I look for continued improvement.

COACHES - Ole Miss made a great hire in '08 bringing in Houston Nutt who resigned under pressure at Ark. Nutt, was the SEC COY in '01 and '06 and guided the Hogs to B2B Jan 1 bowls. In '08 Nutt was co-SEC COY guiding UM to their 1st bowl since '03. There will be a new OC for a 2nd str yr in David Lee who has 35 yrs of cch exp incl serving as the HC at UTEP ('89-'93) but he's spent 6 of the last 8 yrs in the NFL (MIA QB cch '08-'10 and Dal '03-'05). Tyrone Nix is the DC and held the same position at SC ('05-'07) and at S Miss ('01-'04).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Heading into '04, Ole Miss was the only team in the SEC West to be bowl eligible for 7 str yrs but ironically, they are still the only SEC West Tm without a trip to the SEC Title gm. Ole Miss' last SEC Title was in 1963. From 1954-1971, Ole Miss went to 17 bowls (12 NY's Day). Under David Cutcliffe, UM had 5 str winning yrs but he was stunningly fired after a 4-7 year ('04) and UM struggled to a 10-25 record incl 3-21 in the SEC in the next 3Y. Orgeron did have some great recruiting classes but Ole Miss was -92.3 ypg in '05 (#11), -107.3 ypg in '06 (#12) and -68.9 ypg in '07 (#11) in conf play. Nutt stepped into a tremendous situation in '08. He inherited a team with 10 of the top 12 tkl'rs back and UM was also -10 in TO's in '07. While they were coming off their first winless SEC season (0-8) S/'82, they made my Most Improved List meaning I thought they would get to a bowl. Ole Miss' strength was their OL and DL which both ranked in my Top 10 in the country. UM finished 9-4 but could have easily had a stronger record. They lost to VU despite a 385-202 yd edge, gave up a FG to WF with :03 left (2 pt loss) and only lost by 4 to #2 Bama on the road. In fact, all 4 of Ole Miss' losses were by 7 or less. They were also the only tm to defeat eventual National Champ UF winning in The Swamp. In '09 they entered the year #8 AP with high expectations but after beating Okla St 21-7 in the Cotton Bowl, Miss finished a disappointing 9-4 and #20. LY UM had just 10 ret st'rs but added Oregon transfer QB Masoli. UM was picked last in the West (pressn media) and Nutt talked about '10 being a rebuilding year. Miss led Jax St 31-10 at the half but in 2OT lost by 1. After getting past Tulane 27-13, they allowed VU to snap a 10 gm SEC losing streak (lost at home 28-14). After whipping Fresno they led UK 42-20 but only won by 7. They had expected losses on the road vs #8 Bama and #21 Ark and then at home vs eventual Nat'l Champ Auburn. After beating Louisiana they were 4-5 but surprisingly were -5 in TO's at Tenn and lost by 38. They led LSU 36-35 in the 4Q but LSU got a td with :44 left. In their FHG they were dominated by Miss St trailing 31-9 in the 3Q. Miss stumbled to 4-8 and was 1-7 in the SEC (-74.9 ypg). This year they have 13 ret st'rs and their def ypg was 11.4 (pg 299), their worst total by far in over 20 yrs. They could be a dog in as many as 8 games TY, but I still put them on my Most Improved List.

First meeting, Mississippi is 12-4 in home openers but are just 3-4 the L7Y incl LY when the Rebels lost to FCS Jacksonville St. Ole Miss is 7-0 S'96 in ssn openers following a non-bowl ssn.

Ole Miss' last & only meeting vs SIU was in '94, a 59-3 win. UM led 38-3 at HT & had a 539-139 yd edge (31-8 FD). The Salukis finished 5-6 LY including a 35-3 loss vs Illinois.

UM hasn't won a SEC opener S'03, a 24-21 win vs Vandy. UM has dropped 4 of the 6 meetings but won in their L trip to Nashville. UM led 17-0 & held VU w/o a comp in the 1H (238-79 yd edge).

Ole Miss hasn't beat UGA S'96 (5-23 since 1977). In their L meeting ('07) Ole Miss lost 45-17 to #15 UGA but the gm was tied 17-17 early 4Q prior to 28 unanswered by UGA.

LY was first and only meeting. RB Bolden ran for a career high 228 yds (12.0) helping UM build a 41-10 lead mid-3Q. Ole Miss rushed for 425 yds (most since 1977, 433).

LSU: LY's loss officially eliminated UM from postseason play. The lead changed 5 times in the 4Q and UM was up 36-35 but all'd a 51/8pl TD drive w/44 (int at LSU33 as time exp).

LY UM trailed 13-0 & 23-3 late 3Q before gaining 64% (156) of their yds & 9 of their 13 FD's. Rebels last beat the Tide in '03 and are just 9-47-2. Into 2011, UM is just 6-6 in SEC HG's under Nutt.

Mississippi did have the FD & yd edge LY but trailed 21-0 never recovering from a fum which led to a TD & 97-yd PR TD. Nutt is 2-1 vs his former tm (75-48 as Ark HC '98-'07).

In the Rebels L visit to Auburn they trailed just 10-7 at HT but allowed 23 pts in the 3Q. Overall Ole Miss is 2-12 in Auburn with the avg W by 6 ppg but the avg L is by 15 ppg.

The visitor is just 2-8 since 1987 in this series. Ole Miss lost their L visit to Lexington ('06) 31-14. The Rebels did have the yardage edge (395-380) but were -4 in TO's.

UM is 8-1 vs LT & the only loss in the series was in '46. In the last meeting ('07) UM pulled the shutout, 24-0.

UM is 2-5 their last 7 home finales not involving MSU with the L/4 have been vs LSU (1-3).

108th meeting (UM leads 60-41-6), played every yr S'44. Visitor is just 2-10 & UM has dropped 3 str in Starkville. In their L trip UM led 13-10 at HT but allowed 4 straight scores to start the 2H.

TE Philip Lutzenkirchen

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '09, despite being inexp'd at QB, I said Auburn could only improve upon '08's 54% and 7-13 ratio. OC Gus Malzahn, in his first yr, molded 6'4" Chris Todd into a solid player (2612, 60%, 22-6). LY I mentioned that despite the loss of their st'r, they could have improved numbers as Cam Newton was a better athlete. He is a rare player at 6'6" 250 and is mobile (4.5 spd) as well as physical with a powerful arm. Newton was by far the best player in college ball LY as he became the first AU QB to lead the tm in rushing since Phil Gargis in '76 (1473, 5.6) while also finishing #2 in the NCAA in pass eff (2854, 66.1%, 30-7). Newton accounted for 51 td's, breaking away Pat Sullivan's AU record (26 in '70). He broke the SEC QB single ssn rush mark (AU's Jimmy Sidle 1,006 in '63), and became the first SEC player to ever throw for 2,000 and rush for 1,000 in the same ssn. Newton (#1 overall pick CAR) also became the first Tiger football player to make the cover of SI since Bo Jackson in '85. Despite an NCAA cloud hanging over him, Newton became the 3rd Tiger Heisman Trophy winner (Sullivan '71, Jackson '85) and was #1 on 93% of the ballots. At one point Chizik said he had 4 quality QB's incl Jr Barrett Trotter (PS#44) who played in 6 (6-9) and soph Clint Moseley (PS#40). The new QB may be athletic true for Kiehl Frazier (PS#3) who is 6'3" 210 with 4.5 spd, and a powerful arm. Malzahn will mold another fine QB who will surpass Todd's '09 stats but will not come near the production of Supercam.

RUNNING BACKS - In '05, Kenny Irons had 1,293 (5.1) but AU did not have a 1,000 yd rusher for the next 3 yrs. In '09 RB coach Curtis Luper said that Ben Tate (PS#11) would top 1,000 and he did (1362, 5.2). True frosh Onterio McCalebb (PS#69, 1m's fastest) became the first Auburn frosh with 100 yds (148) rushing in the opener since Bo Jackson ('82). In game 2, McCalebb and Tate became the first Auburn duo to rush for B2B 100 yd gms. McCalebb was in/rd vs Ball St, and was not 100% afterwards (miss 2). He was #2 with 565 (5.4). Mario Fannin (PS#16) moved to HB and had 285 (8.4!). LY they had to replace Tate (#2DC) and Luper predicted Fannin would top 1,000. Fannin was banged up finishing just #4 (395, 6.5). True frosh Michael Dyer (PS#2) who is more of a bowling ball type runner but has more front end speed than SC's Marcus Lattimore had an under-the-radar yr rushing for 1,093 (6.0) eclipsing Jackson's frosh school rushing record (829 in '82). He had a highlight film 37 yd run vs Oregon as a key play in the Title game. McCalebb, while banged up at times, led the nation in ypc (8.5) rushing for 810. They do lose both blocking RB's Fannin and Eric Smith (comb 9 sts). While it will be tough to top their combined output of 1,903 (6.9), Bowl MVP Dyer (143 yards) and McCalebb are more experienced.

RECEIVERS - This unit was lightly exp'd in '09 as 6'3" soph Darvin Adams (PS#67, 3 rec true) led with 997 (16.6) and 10 td's. Terrell Zachery (24 yds '08) was #2 with 477 (18.3) and HB Eric Smith was #3 (226, 12.6). LY the top players ret'd and Adams had another fine year with 963 (18.5) while Zachery added 605 (14.1). Soph Emory Blake (PS#35, 9 rec '09) was #3 (554, 16.8). Soph TE Philip Lutzenkirchen (PS#10) had some big catches down the stretch and finished #4 (185, 12.3). TY Adams left early for the NFL (12 st, undrafted) and also gone are Zachery (11 st) and Kodi Burns (14 st, 177, 16.1). Naturally with the loss of their top 2, this unit is down a few notches.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Former HC Tommy Tuberville had the O-line slim down in his final few yrs and the rush totals went down accordingly with 157 ypg (3.8) in '07 and just 137 ypg (3.5) in '08. In '09 they bulked the OL up and despite having to replace 2 st's, improved to 212 ypg (5.0) with 21 sks. LY they had 4 st's back and of course a QB who rushed for 1,473 yds. As you would expect, the numbers improved to 285 ypg (6.1), the best since Bo Jackson led the tm in 1985 (312.5) but they all'd 23 sks (7.8%). This year they lose 3rd Tm AAC Ryan Pugh (14 st, 4y st'r), RG Byron Isom (14 st, 3Y st'r), LG Mike Berry (14 st, 2Y st'r), 1st Tm AA LT Lee Ziemba (14 st, 4Y st'r, #7DC CAR) and Bart Eddins (11 gm). LY they had 111 career sts ret'd and now have just 15 while also losing Newton's running ability, and I expect a dramatic dropoff in the rush numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Auburn had to replace 2.5 st's (#2 and #3DC's) and slipped allowing 139 ypg (4.1), the worst ypc since 1995 (21 sks). In '09 they lost 1.5 st's (#2DC) but Antonio Coleman turned down the NFL and was 1st Tm SEC (10 sks). Surprisingly, AU all'd 156 ypg rush (4.1). LY they had to replace 2 st's incl Coleman. Mike Blanc (11 st '09) lost his spot but the story of this unit was the emergence of DT Nick Fairley. Fairley had just 2 st (28 tkl, 3.5 tfl) in '09 but was the most dominating DL in college football LY taking home the Lombardi Award and the BCS Title game MVP, leading the SEC in sacks and tfl and was 1st Tm AA (#1DC DET). Auburn allowed just 109 ypg rush (3.4), their best S/O'4, with 35 sks. This year they lose DT Fairley (14 st, #5 tkl'r, 11.5 sk, 12.5 tfl), DT Zach Clayton (14 st, 28 tkl, 8 tfl, #7DC TEN), 2nd Tm SEC DE Antoine Carter (12 st, 33 tkl, 11 st), DT Blanc (26 tkl, 2.5 sk) and DE Michael Goggans (3 st, 22 tkl, 5 tfl). They do have 7 VHT's and are reasonably close to LY in terms of exp but lost super DL coach Tracy Rocker to the NFL and probably won't get the same production from a DL like they did with Fairley LY.

LINEBACKERS - Tuberville's LB units always emphasized speed over size. In 2009 Chizik inherited the #4 and #5 tk'lrs but then lost 5 bkps and had just one scholarship bkp LB in true frosh Jonathan Evans (PS#97). Last year they had all 3 starters back (#1, #2 and #11 tk'lrs), moved in S Daren Bates (#4 tk'l, 13 st) and added 4 true frosh (2 VHT's). This gave the unit much more depth and the Tigers improved allowing 24.1 ppg. This year they lose Craig Stevens (12 st, #4 tk'l, 3.5 tfl) and 2nd Tm SEC Josh Byrnes (14 st, #1 tk'l, 5.5 tfl). The top returnees were only the #8 and #10 tk'lrs and while this unit continues to improve the depth, they are less experienced than 2010.

DEFENSIVE RACKS - Auburn was #37 in my PDR in '08. They had to replace 2 st'sr's (#3DC) in '09 then lost a proj st'r in July and another after 9 sts. Auburn still finished #36. LY the Tigers only lost 1 st'r (#5DC) but did lose SS Airon Savage after 7 sts (inj). They burned the RS on true frosh Ryan White and only 4 CB's travelled to Ole Miss. It still surprised me that Auburn dropped to #84 in my PDR (63.1%, 25-12). This year the Tigers lose CB Demond Washington (13 st, #7 tk/r, 3 int, 3 pbu), SS Savage (7 st, 37 tk/l, 1 pbu) and 3rd Tm SEC FS Zac Etheridge (14 st, #2 tk/r, 3 int, 4 pbu). This unit is on par with last year in terms of experience but adds some VHT true frosh and can only improve upon 2010's poor PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Auburn had ST finishes of #3 ('06) and #11 ('08). In Chizlik's first year they surprisingly dropped to #83 (lack depth). LY they had to replace their P (35.7 net) but had better depth. Ryan Shoemaker avg 42.4 in '07 (7 punts in '08-'09) and beat out true frosh Steven Clark (good hang time) LY. Clark has the body of an NFL P at 6'5" 228 and got in 9 punts (34.9). The team had a net of 35.2. Wes Byrum hit 17-23 FG's (L49) as a true, 11-19 (L52) in '08 and 15-16 (L49) in '09. LY he set AU's career record for scoring and FG's made (John Vaughn '03-'06) and had game winning FG's vs UK and in the Title game (17-22, L48). KR Demond Washington (497, 31.1 '09) set an AU single season record for KR yards (1117, 24.3). AU has avg just 5.3 ypc on PR's the last 2 yrs. This year they lose their K, P and KR and figure to drop (#36 '10).

COACHES - Auburn fans were not thrilled when former DC (’02-’04) Gene Chizik was hired to replace Tommy Tuberville as he was 5-19 as Iowa St’s HC (’07-’08). However, Chizik delivered Auburn’s 2nd National Title (1957). Chizik is 8-0 in bowls as a grad asst cch/coor/HC. OC Gus Malzahn had a one year stint at Arkansas (OC ’06) and then directed Tulsa’s explosive offense for 2 years (’07-’08). Malzahn turned down an offer from Vandy last year and won the Broyles Award for ’10. Malzahn’s pay raise to $1.3 million is more than 50% of the FBS HC’s made last year. The DC is Ted Roof who is a former GT DC (’99-’01) and was the HC at Duke for 5 years.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Tommy Tuberville's teams won or shared the SEC West Title in 5 of his 10 yrs here ('99-'08). In '04, Auburn felt it was the best team in the country but was not allowed to play in the Nat'l Title game (#2, 13-0). In '05 after a bowl loss to Wisconsin, they finished #14. In '06 they entered #4 and finished 11-2 and #9. In '07 they were 9-4 (#15) and then a disappointing 5-7 in '08 and Tuberville was shown the door. Fans were not thrilled with the hiring of Gene Chizik (5-19 at Iowa St) but Auburn made my Most Improved List in '09 meaning I thought they would go from a losing record to a bowl. Auburn opened 5-0 and rose to #17 but finished 8-5 with an OT bowl win over NW. Despite their 3-5 SEC record, they were +6.9 ypg in SEC play and got 4 key SEC games at home LY. I mentioned in the magazine that my main set of power ratings called for Auburn to be 11-0 when they faced Bama in Wk 12 despite an inexp'd QB. The Tigers had a few close calls getting past Miss St by 3 on the road then trailing both Clemson and SC before rallying for wins. They needed a 24 yd FG on the last play to get past UK on the road but then improved as the season went on. They locked up the SEC West Title and as I expected were 11-0 when they faced Bama on the road. Bama could have been up by as much as 38-0 at half but Auburn "only" trailed 24-7 and rallied for a 28-27 win. The Tigers then won the most lopsided SEC Title game ever (56-17) and got a 19 yd FG as time expired to get past Oregon in the National Title game. It was Auburn's first National Title since 1957. This year there are some signs pointing downward. They lose the best off player in the NCAA in Heisman winner QB Cam Newton as well as arguably the best def player in DT Nick Fairley. Aub also benefitted from an amazing 7 net close wins (pg 299) and naturally the schedule gets tougher with road games vs Clemson, SC, Ark, LSU and Georgia. They will only have 74 scholarship players losing 34 from LY's squad (just 6 str's back and 55% lett ret). LY Texas went from the National Title gm to 5-7 and AU will have to have some talented youngsters grow up quickly to avoid a similar fate.

First meeting, AU is 29-3 in home openers S79, 5 str Ws by 24 ppg. Since '99 the National Champ from the previous yr is 12-0 w/a avg win 45-11 in the ssn opener (one TD allowed L4Y, none L2).

Tigers have won 9 of L10 vs the Bulldogs & have outgained them in each (+157 ypg). LY Aub led 17-7 at HT (held on for win) but was shutout in the 2H being held to 118 yds (3 punts & a blk'd FG).

Chizik earned his M.A. at Clem in '91 & was a grad asst/LB cch here from '88-'89. Aub has won 7 str road openers (L4 by a combined 11 pts). Aub has won 14 str vs Clem w/the last loss in 1951.

First meeting, Auburn is 17-0 vs Sun Belt Conference members with the avg win by 33 ppg. Coming into 2011, the Tigers have won 13 str non-conf HG's by an avg score 44-18.

Aub is 8-1-1 vs SC incl 2 wins LY. In the Tigers L trip to Columbia '06 they led wire to wire but needed a def stop. SC went 75/18p but threw inc of 4&1 from the A5 with :19 left.

Aub has won 3 of its L4 trips to Fayetteville but LTH lost 44-23. Aub trailed at one point 34-3 mid-3Q. LY's 108 total pts was the highest scoring non-OT SEC game ever.

Aub is just 5-11 S'90 vs Flor but has won 2 str & 3 of the L4. The L/gm was in '07 as unranked Aub stunned #4 Flor 20-17. Aub went on a 35/10p GW drive kicking a 43 yd FG as time exp.

Visitor is 1-10 since 2000 in this series. Aub has dropped 5 str trips in Death Valley by 13 ppg (L'win in '99). Aub was hammered in its L'visit trailing 24-0 early 3Q (just 193 yds).

Since the '71 Gator Bowl Aub is 24-4 vs Ole Miss. LY's gm was tied 14-14 into the 2Q before the Tigers scored 30 of the next 33 pts. Aub has won 9 str the gm following LSU (Ole Miss 5x).

Georgia: 115th meeting (Auburn 54-52-8). The Tigers have dropped B2B trips to Athens.

Samford: Aub is 25-0-1 vs Samford (shutouts in 7 of L/9, 18 tll), last game in '93.

In '09 tied 24-24 4Q Aub all'd a 39/4p TD drive & than was SOD at the UGA35 w/:59 left.

Bulldogs went 4-7 LY incl a 59-6 loss to Flor St. Aub has dropped 60+ pts the L2Y vs FCS opp's.

The HT has lost the L/2 Iron Bowls and the winner of each has gone on to win the National Title.

LY the Tigers trailed 24-0 & the 24 point comeback was the largest in Auburn football history.

GEORGIA BULLDOGS

OT Cordy Glenn

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Matthew Stafford threw for 3,459 (61%, 25-10) and was the #1 overall pick in the NFL draft. Joe Cox (PS#8) took over in '09 as a 5th yr Sr. He had 58 career passes (432 yds). He put up decent numbers throwing for 2,584 (24-15) but only comp 56%. Mobile Logan Gray (PS#19) hit 5-12 (2 int). UGA's 17 int's were their most S/B4. Two rFr in Aaron Murray (PS#6) and Zach Mettenberger (PS#24) battled for the QB job last spring. Mettenberger was dismissed leaving the job to Murray and Gray moved to WR. As a Fr, Murray actually had a higher pass eff rating (154.5) than Stafford did as a Jr and also higher than Stanford's Andrew Luck in his rFr ssn. Murray threw for 3,049 (61.1%, 24-8) which was the 2nd highest ever for a Fr in the SEC (UK's Jared Lorenzen 3,687 in '00) and showed mobility (358 gross rush). True frosh Hutson Mason (PS#43) played in 4 hitting 9-17-102 becoming the 2nd QB in NCAA history to throw a td on his 1st career pass. Added to the mix TY are Christian LeMay (PS#4) and Greg Bingham (6'4" 223 rFr). This unit goes from having zero career att's to one that returns a QB who finished #14 in the FBS in pass eff.

RUNNING BACKS - Surprisingly heading into '07 UGA had just one 1,000 yd back S/'92 In '07 rFr Knowshon Moreno (PS#14, 1334, 5.4) was the first 1st Tm SEC RB here since Garrison Hearst in '92. In '08 Moreno became the 2nd back in UGA history (Herschel Walker) to have B2B 1,000 yd efforts (#1 SEC, 1400, 5.6). RFr Caleb King (PS#7) rushed for 247 (4.0) but after missing a key blk had just 1 att over the L4 gm. Moreno left early (#1DC) and King was the frontrunner to start in '09 but missed the 1st 2 (inj). Richard Samuel led in each of the first 3 and finished with 395 (4.5). King was #2 with 594 (5.2) in 5 sts. They took the RS off Washaun Ealey (PS#3) in the 3Q of gm 5. Ealey led with 717 (5.7). LY the top 2 ret'd and they moved Samuel to LB. King was the best pass protecting RB. Ealey was susp'd the first gm and King missed 2 (inj) then 2 more (susp) midyear. Ealey had 2 crucial fmbles early and King got the unit's first 100 yd gm vs Colo but did fmbal at the end. Ealey rushed for 123 vs VU and had a school rec 5 rush td's vs UK. Ealey spr'd his MCL and had just 37 yds vs UF but 118 vs GT. Soph Carlton Thomas (PS#35) was #3 with 272 (4.2). King had 430 (5.4) and Ealey led with 811 (5.2). Not listed below are Wes Van Dyk (6'0" 204 Jr) and FB's Dustin Royston (5'11" 232 So) and Chris Young (6'1" 230 So). TY they lose both FB's in Shaun Chapas (9 st, 73 tll yds, #7DC DAL) and Fred Munzenmaier (3 st, 92 tll yds) and Ealey decided to transfer after spring. With Ealey's departure, true frosh Isaiah Crowell (PS#4) will be counted on heavily and could win the starting job!

RECEIVERS - In '08 the Bulldogs ret'd their #2 rec Mohamed Massaquoi (PS#5, 491, 15.3 in '07) and added exciting true frosh AJ Green (PS#3). They formed the best duo in the SEC with Green leading with 963 (17.2) and Massaquoi adding 920 (15.9). In '09 they had to replace Massaquoi (#2DC) and Green (miss 3) was inj'd (808, 15.2). RFr Tavarres King (PS#6) was a distant #2 with 377 (20.9). Richt has sent four TE's to the NFL since his arrival, but the '09 TE's comb for just 38 rec's. LY the receiving unit took a big hit with Green missing the first 4 (susp). Green still easily led with 848 (14.9). Kris Durham (PS#34) was #2 with 659 (#3 FBS 20.6 ypc). King only started 5 but had 504 (18.7). TE Orson Charles (PS#2) looks like he has an NFL future (422, 16.2). This year they lose Green (8 st, #1DC CIN), Durham (8 st, #4DC SEA) and Logan Gray (9 rec). This unit will be weaker in '11 with the loss of the #1 WR taken in the draft, but will not drop off as much as you might think.

OFFENSIVE LINE - UGA had a veteran OL in '09 but only improved to 161 ypg rush (4.4) though their 12 sks all'd were best in the SEC. They did avg 243 ypg (5.9) rush over the L5. LY they had an amazing 155 career sts ret so I expected big time improvement. Stuningly the rush ypg fell to 143 (4.1) and they all'd 25 sks (7.0%). They even burned the RS of true frosh Kenarious Gates (3 st, 7 gm). TY they lose RT Josh Davis (11 st, 2Y str), 1st Tm SEC Clint Boling (13 st, 4Y str, #4DC CIN), Chris Davis (3 st, 3Y str), Tanner Strickland (3 st) and Ben Harden (3 gm). Trinton Sturdivant (PS#4, 6'5" 312, 7 st) tore his ACL in spg (3rd tear) and his career may be over. While this unit is far less exp'd than LY, they still have 86 career sts and can only improve upon their unexpectedly poor '10 ssn.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 UGA had to replace 2 DL st's and all'd 126 rush ypg (3.4). LY they had to replace 3 plyrs (comb 26 sts) who were #4, #7 and #7 DC's. DC Grantham's system is similar to Bama's and requires a massive NT (called Nose). They basically had 1 st'r back and slipped allowing 147 ypg (3.7, 24 sk). This year the Bulldogs must replace DE Demarcus Dobbs (11 st, #13 tkl'r, 1 sk), DE Brandon Wood (1 st, 16 tkl, 1 sk) and DE Kianté Tripp (13 tkl, 1.5 sk). They landed a big Nose in 340 lb S#5JC Jonathan Jenkins and move PS#3 DeAngelo Tyson to DE and will be much stronger up front.

LINEBACKERS - LY UGA had to replace 1st Tm SEC Rennie Curran (#1 tkl'r, #3DC) and 2 bkp LB (6 st, 32 tkl combined). They shifted to a 3-4 and 2nd Tm SEC DE Justin Houston moved to LB and was the top returning sk man in the SEC. Houston impressed me as he was the #3 tkl'r but also had 10 sks, 8.5 tll and a mind-boggling 44 qbh (1st Tm AA). UGA's LB corps was banged up in both '08 and '09 and was healthier LY improving to 22.1 ppg. TY they lose Houston (13 st, #3DC KC), OLB Darryl Gamble (7 st, #7 tkl'r, 3.5 tll), 2nd Tm SEC ILB Akeem Dent (13 st, #1 tkl'r, #3DC ATL) and Marcus Dowlin (2 st, 44 tkl'r). They add in USC transfer Jarvis Jones (PS#23) and TJ Stripling (PS#9) who played in 5 as a true (inj). They also moved PS#10 RB Richard Samuel in (395, 4.8 '09, RS '10) and they add PS#5DB Alec Ogletree and true frosh PS#3 Ray Drew. UGA's D has underperformed recently and while this unit is less exp'd and loses two 3rd rd DC's, they could surprise.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UGA had a veteran secondary in '08 but after finishing #8 and #17 in my PDR, they surprisingly dropped to #57. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's (#3DC) and had a lower than expected finish at #74. LY they had to replace 3 st's (#5DC). The unit was my biggest concern but played better than I expected (#29, 54.9%, 15-16). After giving up 380 pass yds to Ark, they shook up the secondary with S Jamar Hamilton and CB Vance Cuff (4.24 spd) being replaced by Shawn Williams and Sanders Commings. TY they lose CB Cuff (5 st, 22 tkl) and Chad Gloer (9 tkl) but have 6 of the top 8 back with all 6 having 3+ sts LY.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In the last 10Y UGA has had 8 Top 24 finishes (5 top 7) in my ST rankings. In '09 P Drew Butler (PS#21), whose father Kevin is the only K in the CFB HOF, won the Ray Guy (net 41.9). Blair Walsh had 17 TB's on 75 KO's in '09 and almost set a UGA single ssn FG accuracy rec (missed 55 yd FG into the wind). He hit 20-22 FG's (L53, 49r 50+). Brandon Boykin became the 2nd SEC ply'r to have 3 KR td's in the same yr (Willie Gault, UT, '80). LY '09 Groza finalist Walsh broke the UGA rec for consec PAT's (Brandon Couto '07, 114) with 119 (ended vs UK). LS Ty Frix's father was a LS here in the magical '80 ssn. Butler was a Ray Guy finalist again LY (44.5, 40.6 net) and with Walsh forms the best K/P combo in the country. UGA has had 3 AA K's in Allan Leavitt ('76), Rex Robinson ('79-'80) and Kevin Butler ('83-'84). Brandon Boykin became the sch'l's career KR leader with 1,813 (Gene Washington 1637, '73-'76). Brandon Smith did well at PR (14.3). I had UGA #5 in my pressn ST rankings LY and they finished #7. With everyone back I feel the Dawgs have the best ST unit in the country.

COACHES - Richt is now in his 11th ssn here and earned SEC COY honors in '02 and '05. He was the OC at Flor St from '94-'00. Richt turned the playcalling over to Mike Bobo prior to the GT game in '06. Bobo was a QB here and the QB cch S/'01 and became the youngest coor in the SEC (32) in '07. DC Todd Grantham has 11 yrs of NFL coaching exp (DAL DL '08-'09, CLE '05-'07). LY he was the 3rd highest paid FBS asst.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In Richt's 2nd ssn ('02) he led UGA to their first SEC Title in 20 yrs and set a school record with 13 wins (#3 AP). In '03 they finished 11-3 and #7. In '04 they beat FL for 1st time S/'97 and finished 10-2, #7. In '05 they had to replace 6 NFL DC's and my publication was the only one to call for UGA to win the SEC East as everyone else had them finishing 3rd. They nearly went undefeated but QB DJ Shockley was inj'd and they lost to UF without him. Richt still won his 2nd SEC Title thrashing LSU 34-14 in the SEC Title game but after an upset loss to WV in the Sugar Bowl, they finished #10. Only UGA and USC finished in the Top 10 each year from '02-'05. UGA's D finished in the top 20 for 7 straight yrs ('01-'07). Richt became just the 5th SEC HC to win 10+ in 4 str yrs (Bryant, Dooley, Fulmer, Spurrier). In '06 they had just 9 ret st's and finished 9-4 (#23). In '07 they were picked #3 in the East by the media. I had the only magazine to pick them to win the SEC East and I had them tying for the Title. They tied for the SEC East Title and after beating Hawaii in the Sugar Bowl 41-10, finished #2 (AP). In '08 they were tagged #1 in the pressn AP poll. Of the 14 sources from football.stassen.com, 10 had UGA either #1 or #2 overall, but I had UGA 2nd in the East mostly due to a killer schedule. UGA finished 10-3 and ranked #13. In '09 they were #13 in the pressn AP but surprisingly slipped to 8-5 (-21.0 ypg SEC). Last year I did not put Richt on my "Coaches On The Hotseat" list as I figured he could survive a losing season and that proved accurate. Their best off player, WR Green, was susp'd the first 4 and the off struggled losing close ones to Ark, Miss St and Colo and they actually opened up 1-4. After topping 40 pts vs Tenn, VU and UK with Green back, UF had the advantage of a bye and UGA came up 3 pts short in OT. UGA led eventual Nat'l Champ Auburn 21-7 into the 2Q but lost 49-31 and needed a win over GT just to get to a bowl. It was a disappointing bowl as on their opening drive they opted to kick a FG on 4th & inches (from the UCF3) letting UCF know they'd be in it the entire way and UGA lost 10-6 for their first losing ssn S/'96! UGA finished 6-7 despite benefitting from +10 TO's but they did have 4 net close losses. UGA has 12 ret st's and signed some key newcomers who should have a huge impact. UGA is one of my Most Improved Teams and is my upset pick to win the SEC East.

The first & only meeting was in the '05 opener. UGA won 48-13 in Athens w/a 574-292 yd edge. Georgia Dome is home to the NFL Falcons. UGA was 1-5 LY in reg ssn neutral/AG's (worst mark 5'90).

The winner of this series has scored just 20 pts or less in 8 of the L10 meetings. UGA has won 7 of the L9 vs SC but LY were held to ssn lows in pts (6), FD's (11) & yds (253).

First meeting. Chanticleers went 6-6 LY (FCS playoffs) including a 31-0 loss vs WV. CCU first started playing football in '03, 4th str yr facing a BCS team losing the first 3, 146-13.

Bulldogs have won the L8 by 13 ppg. In the Ltrip to Oxford ('06) UGA struggled as they were down 3-0 at HT but pulled out a 14-9 win. Under Richt, UGA is 8-2 in true road openers (0-2 L2LY).

UGA had a series high 9-gm win streak snapped LY. UGA trailed 24-6 late 4Q before a garbage TD but did lum into EZ (1H) & had a PR lum. UGA hasn't dropped 2 str vs MSU since 1951 & '56.

Bulldogs have been hammered their L2 trips to Knoxville ('07 & '09). They have been outscored on avg 40-17 (outgained 442-242), in '09 UGA was held w/o an off TD & in '07 trailed 28-0.

Georgia has won 9 str trips to Nashville, eight by DD's (L/loss in '91, 16-1-1 since 1975). Coming into 2011 under Richt the Bulldogs are 27-8 in true SEC road gms (1-3 LY).

Auburn: LY UGA jumped out to a 21-7 lead after 1Q (162-93 yd edge).
Kentucky: Since '91 UGA is 17-3 vs the Wildcats with the avg W by 16 ppg & avg L by 6 ppg.

LY Georgia trailed 21-7 at HT & 21-10 into the 4Q. The Bulldogs forced OT (first time in series 88 meetings) with a 21 pt 4Q. In OT UGA was int at the UFT & lost on a 37 yd FG.

UGA is 3-0 vs NMST (L/gm in '02). The Bulldogs won 41-10 but had just 17-16 FD & 299-275 yd edges. Into 2011, UGA has won 32 str non-conf/non-GT HG's (last lost vs SMSS in '96).

LY UGA only trailed 35-31 but ran 11 plays (2.2 ypp) to the Tigers 20 (5.3 ypp, 14 pts) in the final Q.

The home team has dropped 3 str LY. Ealey set a UGA rec w/5 rush TD's (157 yds, 5.6 ypc).

This rivalry has been ply'd in the reg ssn finale 57 of the L58 yrs. UGA has beaten GT in 9 of the L10 yrs incl 5 str in Atlanta. LTH Georgia rushed for a Richt era high 339 yds (7.7).

SOUTH CAROLINA GAMECOCKS

RB Marcus Lattimore

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - The '08 debut of Fr Stephen Garcia (PS#10) was highly anticipated but he was susp in the spring and not reinstated until the fall, putting him #3. Tommy Beecher st'd the opener but then Chris Smelley took over. At the end of the yr Smelley and Garcia rotated snaps and Garcia st'd the bowl. For the season, SC's QB's threw for 222 ypg but had the lowest comp % of the Spurrier era (55%) with a 20-27 ratio. In '09 Smelley and Beecher transferred. Garcia tied the school's single season record for att's with 432 but had just the 8th most yds. Garcia is a mobile QB (453 gross rush) who threw for 2,862 (55%), 17-10 and was the first SC QB to start every game in a season for Spurrier. CB Stephon Gilmore (PS#6) was the "WildCock" QB in the final 2. LY true freshman Connor Shaw (PS#47) was #2. Garcia had a fine start to the year but in the reg ssn matchup vs Auburn, fumbled twice in the 4Q and was pulled for PS#47 Connor Shaw who threw two 4Q int's. Garcia was the Davey O'Brien National QB of the Week when he guided the upset of #1 Alabama (17 of 20 pass). Garcia inj'd his shoulder vs Clemson but started the SEC Title gm and bowl. At one point he was #5 in the FBS in pass eff but finished #22 (3059, 64%, 20-14) and had another rough bowl (0-3 ratio). Shaw threw for 223 (69.7%). Not listed below are Dylan Thompson (6'2" 208 rFr, PS#72), Andrew Clifford (6'2" 221 So, PS#201) and Seth Strickland (6'2" 193 Jr). Garcia was susp twice this spring and will have a tough road ahead of him to get out of Spurrier's doghouse and hold off Shaw in the fall.

RUNNING BACKS - In '09 speed back Kenny Miles (PS#98) led with 626 (5.4) while power back Brian Maddox (PS#23) added 307 (3.0). LY the top 3 RB's ret'd but I projected true frosh Marcus Lattimore (PS#1) as the starter and listed him on my Preseason All-SEC Tm. Lattimore did not disappoint as he became the first 1,000 yd rusher here since '00 with 1,197 (4.8) despite missing 1 full game and most of 2 others (incl bowl) with inj's. Lattimore broke 29 tkl's and had 127 yds after contact vs Georgia. Maddox filled in for Lattimore vs Vandy and rushed for 146 on 24 carries and finished with 391 (5.3) while Miles had 152 (3.8). This year they lose Maddox (1 st) but as long as Lattimore stays healthy, this is one of the premiere RB corps in the country and they add in a couple of solid true frosh.

RECEIVERS - In '06 Sidney Rice had 1,090 (15.1) and left early for the NFL (#2DC). The late Kenny McKinley was #2 with 880 (17.3). McKinley set a school record for rec with 77 in '07.

TE Jared Cook was #2 with 421 (14.0) and was one of the tm's fastest. In '08 McKinley became the school's career receiving leader. He missed 3 but was still #1 (642, 11.9). Cook was #2 (573, 15.5). In '09 they both departed (#5 and #3 DC's) and the top returnees were Moe Brown (391, 13.0) and 6'4" Jason Barnes (346, 12.8). Spurrier landed 6'4" true frosh Alshon Jeffery (PS#10) and 6'5" rFr Tori Gurley (4.5 spd) emerged. Jeffery led with 763 (16.6), Brown was #2 (491, 14.9), Gurley #3 (440, 14.2) and TE Weslye Saunders added 353 (11.0). LY they had to replace Brown but Jeffery had an AA ssn with an amazing 1,517 (17.2) resetting the school's single ssn rec records. Gurley was a distant #2 (465, 10.6). Saunders DNP (dismissed) and they moved in FB Patrick DiMarco (147, 9.8). TY they lose DiMarco (13 st) and Gurley (14 st). Not listed below are WR Bruce Ellington (5'9" 200 So) who is a standout on SC's basketball tm and TE's Mike Triglia (6'4" 240 Jr, PS#76) and converted QB Payton Brady (6'3" 225 Jr). DD Smith was the star WR of the spring. As long as Jeffery stays healthy, this is one of the taller rec corps in the FBS and it is also one of the best.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In each of Steve Spurrier's first five years, the injury prone OL was shuffled constantly. They had 4 st's back in '08 but 3 of them comb for just 12 sts and they opened holes for just 94 ypg rush (2.9) with 39 sks. SC has had only 2 OL ever earn 1st Tm SEC (last in '98). In '09 they had to replace 2 st's but lost another after 2 sts. They still improved to 121 ypg rush (3.6) with 37 sks. LY they had to replace 2 st's (72 car sts back). Two OL managed to start all 14 although just C TJ Johnson started all 14 at the same position. SC improved to 154 ypg (4.1) with 30 sk (7.7%) thanks in part to the addition of true frosh RB Lattimore. This year they lose 2nd Tm SEC LG Garrett Chisolm (12 st), RT Hutch Eckerson (12 st, 2Y st'r) and LT Jarriel King (7 st, 3Y st'r). They are as exp'd as '10 (70 car sts) and could improve again especially if they stay healthy.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In each of Steve Spurrier's first 5 yrs, the DL was banged up and in '09 no DL started more than 11. The injuries may have been the reason they put up similar stats (138 ypg, 3.7, 28 sks) to '08 despite having 3 st's back. LY they had to replace 2 players who comb for 18 st (5.5 sk) but Spurrier convinced DE Cliff Matthews to turn down the NFL. Matthews did wear a cumbersome shoulder brace which limited his mobility but still earned 2nd Tm SEC. Three DL's played with broken hands but the unit had just 1 start missed. SC trimmed the rush D numbers to 112 ypg (3.4), their best ypg since '00 and the D had 41 sk (DL 31) the most in 20+ yrs. This year they lose DT Ladi Ajiboye (13 st, #11 tkl'r, 2 sk) and Cliff Matthews (14 st, #9 tkl'r, 5.5 sk, #7DC ATL). Six of the top 8 are back incl 1st Tm SEC 67" Devin Taylor who had 7.5 sks. Despite the loss of 2 quality DL, the Gamecocks front could be just as strong and they add PS#1 Jadeveon Clowney!

LINEBACKERS - LY SC had to replace 1st Tm SEC Eric Norwood who departed as their career sack and tfl leader (#4DC). Returning st'r Shaq Wilson (11 st, #1 tkl'r '09) was inj'd and played in just 1 game (7 tkl vs Aub) so they basically had 1 starter back (ret'd #10, #11 tkl'r's '09). This year they lose WLB Tony Straughter (13 st, #13 tkl'r, 2 tfl) and MLB Josh Dickerson (14 st, #5 tkl'r, 6.5 tfl). With Wilson returning and SS Holloman moving to Spur in spring, it is like having 3 st's back, so the unit is clearly more exp'd despite the loss of 2 st's.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - SC finished #35 in my PDR in '07 and #30 with a veteran unit in '08. They had to replace 2 st's in '09 but Spurrier called CB Stephon Gilmore one of the best players ever to come to SC. Gilmore started all 13 as a true frosh and SC improved to #27. LY they had 7 of their top 8 back (1 st'r lost). They lost starting CB Chris Culliver to injury after 7 and were lit up by Ark the next week. Gilmore said that soph DJ Swearingen (PS#85) was the most gifted tkl'r on the team and he started 8 (4 SS, 4 FS) moving ahead of Akeem Auguste at FS. The secondary was certainly the defense's Achilles' heel as they ended up allowing 242 ypg, their highest in the modern era (#92 PDR, 62.8%, 23-10). This year they do lose CB Culliver (7 st, #13 tkl'r, 2 pbu, #3DC SF) and SS Holloman moved to Spur, but the Gamecocks should have one of the most improved secondaries in the country.

SPECIAL TEAMS - When Steve Spurrier took over he inherited a unit that finished #108 in my ST rankings. In his first 4 seasons they improved to #83, #50, #66 and #35. They had some problems in '09 (all'd 24.4 per KR, 3 td) and surprisingly slid to #103. Last year RM Chris Culliver (holds school rec KR's) was injured. The return game was below average (#90 FBS KR, #115 PR). Spencer Lanning hit 17-20 FG (L47) in '09 and was 17-24 (L51) LY. Lanning also punted (44.1, 37.1 net). Joey Scribner-Howard had the best leg of the K's and had 4 TB on 17 KO with Jay Wooten (PS#10) having 5 on 65. This year they lose Lanning and while not an overwhelming group, could improve upon last year's #72 finish.

COACHES - Steve Spurrier took Florida to 7 SEC Title games (and won 5 of them). Last year he led the Gamecocks to their first ever SEC Title game and to 9 wins for only the third time in school history and earned SEC COY. He is his own OC and his son Steve Jr is the passing game coordinator. DC Ellis Johnson enters his 4th year here after being the DC at Miss St ('04-'07). Johnson has spurned several offers the last few years earning an contract extension through 2013 and was the 3rd highest paid asst in the SEC last year.

PHIL'S FORECAST

South Carolina's last conf title came in the ACC in 1969. SC got to NY Day bowls vs Ohio St in both '00 and '01 but in Lou Holtz's final 3 yrs, did not catch a lot of breaks and went 16-19. Expectations were high when Steve Spurrier took over and I feel he's done a fine job with zero losing seasons in 6 yrs (5 bowls). SC had never been picked higher than #3 in the SEC East in the preseason media poll and in '10 was picked #3, just one vote behind UGA. Spurrier's high water mark in his first 5 yrs was a #6 ranking in '07 when the team began 6-1 but they finished that year just 6-6. In '09 they rose as high as #21 but lost 3 of their final 4 and finished unranked again. LY they had 14 ret st's, only 12 left lost and signed an excellent frosh class. They had 16 seniors which was twice as many as in '09. They opened 3-0 incl a win over UGA and led Auburn 27-21 after 3Q but had 4 TO's in the 4Q and lost by 8. SC, off a bye, caught Bama on their 3rd straight tough game and knocked off the #1 Tide 35-21 in a game they controlled. The next week in a letdown spot, they lost RB Lattimore at the half to injury and blew a 28-10 3Q lead losing by 3 with an int in the EZ at Kentucky (int came on FD at UK20 w/04 left). After a couple of wins, they had a meaningless gm vs Ark. A win the next week over Florida would give them the SEC East Title. SC mailed it in vs the Hogs (lost by 21) but got their first win in The Swamp in school history and dominated UF 36-14 taking home their first ever SEC SEC East Title. They dispatched Troy and Clemson in meaningless games while awaiting their SEC Title game. They trailed Aub 21-14 but gave up a deflating td with no time left in the 1H and suffered the biggest loss in SEC Title game history, 56-17. Spurrier has had trouble getting this team prepared for bowls as his record dropped to 1-4 with his 3rd straight bowl loss, this one to Flor St, 26-17. They did have a 414-308 yd edge and lost RB Lattimore on the first series. SC also had 34 sts lost to injury in '10 and 2 net close losses. SC has their most talented team yet under Spurrier and will be in the AP preseason Top 10. A trip Between the Hedges on Sept 10th may determine the SEC East Title and SC has a great shot at their first 10 win season since 1984 (10-2).

SC is 10-5 vs EC but is just 2-5 '91 including a loss in the L/meeting ('99). First meeting at neutral site. Gamecocks have won 11 consecutive ssn openers by 18 ppv (3 shutouts). SC is 5-11 in road openers. SC is 1-3 in Athens S/O's & in '09 lost 41-37. SC got a IR TD early 4Q to get within 1 but the XP was blk'd. After a UGA FG SC's 4&4 EZ pass from the UGA7 tell inc w/22. Gamecocks are 4-3 vs the Midshipmen but have won 4 of the L/5 including the L/meeting in '88 (19-8). HT is 6-1 in the series. Into 2011, Spurrier is 41-0 vs non-BCS schools. SC is 16-4 vs Vandy. LY the gm was tied 7-7 at HT but SC defense locked down in the 2H allowing just 70 yds as Vandy did not cross midfield until its last off play (SOD at SC48). LY in the SECT title gm, SC cut the deficit to 21-14 w/16 but gave up a 51 yd "Hail Mary" pass on the 1H final play (35-3 Aub run to end gm). In the reg ssn gm SC led 27-21 into the 4Q prior to Aub's 14 pt 4Q. SC has gone 5-0 hosting UK S/O's but lost LY snapping a 10 gm series winning streak. SC blew leads of 14-0 & 28-10 as UK went on a 68/12pl GW TD drive w/1:15 (SC was int in EZ w/04). SC has won their L/2 trips to Starkville incl the L/visit in '06, 15-0. It was win #150 for Spurrier as SC held MSU to just 161 yds & just 10 of 56 (18%) of the Bulldog plays were in SC territory. Arkansas: SC dropped its L/2 at Ark incl 33-16 in '09. Florida: LY's win secured SC's 1st trip to the SEC Title gm. SC was down 7-3 but scored 26 unanswered & finished w/a 24-11 FD edge. SC is 1-14 in Knoxville (1 pt in '05). In '09 SC lost 31-13 but had the FD (19-15) & yd edge (365-341). SC committed 4 TO's that resulted in 24 UT pnts incl 3 fums on their 1st 5 poss (down 21-0). LTH SC led 16-10 after opening the 3Q w/a 80 yd TD pass (Garcia-Jeffery) but all'd the gms final 23 pts. Spurrier was the Gator HC from 1990-'01 (122-27-1). He is 2-4 at SC vs his alma mater. SC is 39-73 vs The Citadel but lost the L/meeting ('90) at home 38-35. Bulldogs are 10-73-4 vs SEC opp's. 109th meeting & played every yr since 1909. The Gamecocks have won 2 str & their last 3 gm series win streak was from 1968-'70. LY's 22 pt MOV was SC's largest in the series since 1994.

FLORIDA GATORS

RB/Jeff Demps

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - It's never easy replacing a legend. Tim Tebow, after being used mostly on QB draws as a true frosh, became the first soph to win the Heisman (1st player in NCAA hist w/20 rush and 20 pass td). In '09 Tebow became the first player ever to be invited to the Heisman ceremony 3 times and he left with many school, SEC and NCAA records (#1DC DEN). John Brantley played in 10 gms in '08 (235, 64%, 3-1) but played in just 7 in '09 hitting 36-48 (75%) for 410 with a 7-0 ratio. Brantley saw most of his action vs CSU, Troy and FIU. There was a lot of buzz about how Brantley performed in practice in '08 and '09 but he did not have the type of ssn expected LY. Brantley threw for 2,061 (60.8%, 9-10) and at year's end they used a 3-headed QB system which included true frosh Trey Burton (PS#26) and rFr Jordan Reed (PS#25). Burton had a fantastic 6 td gm vs Kentucky and was used at many different positions. Reed opened the yr at TE but QB'd the 2H of the bowl win. TY they have a new offensive system. Reed and Burton will not play QB so added to the mix is Jeff Driskel (PS#11) who joined the tm in spg and has been compared to Tebow. Brantley may be a better fit for new OC Charlie Weis' pro-style off as he obviously struggled in former HC Urban Meyer's spread option LY. Weis has a great reputation for developing QB's, so I look for improved QB play from a much more exp'd unit.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 the top RB was only the team's #3 rusher with 580 (5.6). In '08 Meyer used 3 RB's in USC transfer Emmanuel Moody (PS#6), true frosh track champ Jeff Demps (PS#28) and rFr Chris Rainey (PS#15). While individually the stats were not overwhelming, the combination was outstanding (1674, 7.6) and all 3 ret'd in '09. Demps was the #1 RB rusher (745, 7.5) while Rainey added 575 (6.5) with the 3 combining for 1,698 (6.9). LY Demps was inj'd early and was never 100% (551, 6.0). Rainey only played in 8 (susp) and was #2 (366, 7.2). QB's Burton and Reed were #3 and #4. Soph Mike Gillislee (PS#46, 267, 8.6 in '09) had 325 (5.6) and Moody had 265 (4.0). At one point due to inj's, WR Omarius Hines moved to RB and was the leading rusher vs MSU. TY they lose Moody and should get a bigger contribution from Mack Brown (PS#8, 23 yds). They add true frosh Hunter Joyner (PS#62). With the top 3 back, plus Burton full-time and in a more RB friendly offense, I look for better health and much improved production.

RECEIVERS - LY UF had to replace 4 of their top 5 rec's with the top 2 comb for 1,811 (15.2). The top returnees were #3 Deonte Thompson (343, 14.3) and #6 Hines (172, 12.3). Thompson battled with dropped passes but still led with 570 (15.0). Carl Moore (PS#1JC) never lived up to his potential (injs) but was #2 (349, 12.9). Rainey played RB/WR and had 216 (8.6). Soph Frankie Hammond (PS#53) had 276 (12.5) and Hines was #3 (281, 14.1). TY they lose Moore (7 st) and Justin Williams (53, 10.6) but should have much improved production.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 with 3 starters back and Tebow at QB the Gators opened holes for 222 ypg rush (5.6) but all'd 30 sks (8.2%). LY they had to replace 1st Tm AA C Maurice Pouncey (#1DC PIT). His twin Mike Pouncey took over at C and struggled early in the year with 4 botched snaps in the opener. With a less mobile QB, I expected a drop in the numbers despite having 4 st's back. The Gators slipped to 167 (4.3) with 24 sk (6.3%). TY they lose 2nd Tm SEC C Mike Pouncey (13 st, 3Y st'r, #1DC MIA), 3rd Tm SEC LG Carl Johnson (11 st, 3Y st'r), Maurice Hurt (11 st, 2Y st'r, #7DC WAS) and 3rd Tm SEC LT Marcus Gilbert (13 st, 2Y st'r, #2DC PIT). They have just 26 career OL st's ret making it a much less exp'd group but may actually increase the rush production with healthier RB's in '11.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In UF's '06 National Title yr they had a veteran DL that yielded just 73 ypg rush (2.7), their best S/97 (71, 2.1). In '07 they had to replace 4 NFL DC's (#1, #3, #4 and #4) but still all'd just 103 (3.0). In '08 they were inexp and all'd 105 ypg (3.4) with 34 sks. In '09 the entire 2 deep ret'd but no DL had 13 sts (inj, susp) with only 3 having more than 8 sts. UF still improved slightly to 100 ypg (3.1) with 39 sks. If you take away the SEC Title gm debacle (251, 4.7), they all'd just 88 ypg (2.9). LY they had to replace a pair of 1st Tm SEC DE's (both #2DC). Just 1 player st'd all 13 on the DL. UF all'd 131 ypg (3.5), their worst S/O'4, with just 21 sks (flew S/O'2). TY they lose 3rd Tm SEC DE Justin Trattou (13 st, #3 tk'l, 12 tfl), DT Lawrence Marsh (5 st, 9 tk'l), DT Terron Sanders (8 st, 18 tk'l, 2 tfl), Duke Lemmens (9 st DE, 4 st LB, #8 tk'l, 4 sk) and DT Brandon Antwine (1 st, 9 tk'l, 1 sk). Naturally this unit is loaded with VHT's and I look for more production from Ronald Powell (PS#1) and William Green (PS#5). While equal to LY in terms of exp, UF should improve upon '10's weaker numbers.

LINERACKERS - In '07 and '08 UF LB's had 77 sts comb'd. All 77 sts ret'd in '09 and 10 of the top 11 LB's were VHT's. LY the unit was rocked by graduation as they lost their #1, #3 (#2DC) and #5 tk'l's. They still had 9 VHT and ret'd their #9 tk'l'r but as you would expect, the ppg went from 12.4 to 21.3. TY they lose AJ Jones (11 st, #5 tk'l, 6 tfl), Brandon Hicks (5 st, #9 tk'l, 3 sk) and Lorenzo Edwards (14 tk'l). They do ret their top 2 LB tk'l's in PS#2 Jelani Jenkins (#2 tk'l, fastest LB) and PS#14 Jonathan Bostic (6 st, tied #3 tk'l). Despite the losses, this group is more exp'd and should be one of the top units in the SEC.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07 UF had to replace 3 st's (1st and 2nd Tm AA) but still it was surprising that they plummeted to #72 in my PDR. In '08 when I picked the Gators #1, the most FAQ was "with that secondary?" I expected significant improvement and UF moved up to #5 (12-26 ratio). In '09 the unit ret'd intact incl the NCAA's top CB Joe Haden. UF finished #7 (10-20 ratio). LY they had to replace Haden (#1DC) and FS Major Wright (#3DC). The unit was still loaded with VHT's and finished #11 (53.8%, 17-22). TY they lose 1st Tm SEC SS Ahmad Black (13 st, #1 tk'l, 5 int, 5 pbu, #55 SDC TB), FS Will Hill (10 st, #5 tk'l, 2 int) and 1st Tm SEC CB Janoris Jenkins (11 st, #7 tk'l, 6 tfl, 3 int, 8 pbu, dismissed this spg). The '10 signees (PS#1, #7 and #11) will have a much bigger impact (comb 30 tk'l '10) but with just 1 st'r back they will be down a notch.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Meyer coached the ST unit himself. In his first 4Y they were #26, #55, #20 and #13 in my ST rankings. In '09 Brandon James got the first UF KR td S/99 (123 gm streak). James had 4 career PR td. K Caleb Sturgis (PS#6) hit 22-30 FG's (L56, 3 miss 50+). P Chas Henry improved to 43.4 with an amazing 41.0 net. UF finished #9. Last year they had to replace KR/PR James but Andre Debose avg 28.0 with 2 td (Demps 32.5) on KR's. Sturgis hit just 2 of his first 4 FG's and was inj'd and P Henry hit 7-11 but missed a 42 yd gm tying FG with :04 left vs MSU. Henry avg 45.1 (40.9 net) and won the Ray Guy Award. Chris Rainey blk'd 2 punts vs Vandy (schl rec 4 car blk). Solomon Patton's blk'd punt turned the bowl gm around and it was the 32nd blk'd kick in Meyer's 6 yrs. They lose their star Henry and while still solid, don't figure to finish #8 like '10.

COACHES - Urban Meyer certainly accomplished a great deal in his 6 seasons here incl 2 BCS Titles and a record of 65-15. They bring in Will Muschamp who was the NCAA's highest paid asst in '10. Muschamp was the DC and HC-in-waiting at Texas ('08-'10). He also was the DC at Auburn ('06-'07) and LSU ('02-'04). He spent '05 in the NFL (Miami asst HC D). The OC is Charlie Weis, the ND HC from '05-'09 and he has 9 yrs of exp as an NFL OC (KC '10, NE '00-'04 and NYJ '97-'99). DC Dan Quinn spent the last 10 yrs as an NFL DL cch (SEA '09-'10, NYJ '07-'08, MIA '05-'06 and SF '01-'04).

PHIL'S FORECAST

In '05 Meyer inherited 15 st's and finished 9-3 (#12). Everything went their way in the magical '06 Nat'l Title ssn with many close and fortuitous wins. They narrowly got to the Title gm in the BCS vote but dominated Ohio St allowing just 82 yds. In '07 UF was the favorite to win the SEC (#6 AP). I was beat up pretty good by Gator fans as I had UF tied for 3rd in the SEC East and #14 which was lower than any other source documented by slassen.com. UF finished just 9-4 and #13. In '08 Georgia was the AP #1 but numerous factors had me calling for the Gators to not only top them in the SEC East but to win the Nat'l Title. The Gators were a stronger team than their '06 Title ssn. In '06 they were +42.5 ypg in SEC play (#4) and in '08 they were #1 (+133.4 ypg). In '06 their avg win was only 29.7-13.5. In '08 it was a dominating 43.6-12.9. UF's only loss in '08 was a 1 pt loss to Ole Miss, a game in which UF had a 443-325 yd edge and was SOD (4th & 1) passing up a long FG. Unlike '06 which featured weekly escapes, '08 did not have a single win by less than 10. Everyone always asks me which tm is my favorite and I reply, "the team I pick #1" so I was clearly a Gator fan in the BCS Title game when they beat Okla 24-14 (480-363 yds). UF benefitted from +22 TO's in '08 and only had 3 SEC HG's in '09 but had all 11 st's back on D and 7 on off incl Tebow. All 9 sets of my power ratings called for Florida to go 12-0. UF rec'd 58 of 60 1st place votes in the press AP poll, the highest ever (USC 95.4% in '07). UF went 12-0 even surviving a Tebow concussion. They were favored in the SEC Title gm but Ala dominated them. Prior to the Sugar Bowl Meyer announced he was quitting but ret'd and UF, in Tebow's last gm, rolled over 12-0 Cincy, 51-24. LY UF had just 11 ret st's but was still the press favorite to win the East. They struggled on off. In the opener, vs Miami Oh, they had just 27 yds through 3Q. They still rolled to 4-0 but their 31-6 loss at #1 Bama was Meyer's worst loss as a HC. They were outgained by LSU 385-243 in The Swamp but LSU did need a fortuitous bounce on a fake FG to pull out the win. MSU then upset UF in The Swamp but with the advantage of a bye, they beat UGA 34-31 in OT. At 6-3 they had the SEC East Title in their grasp but were dominated at home by SC being outFD'd 24-11. They had the benefit of playing Fla St with the ACC Title game on deck but they were dominated again trailing 24-7 at half. They trailed Penn St into the 4Q and were clinging to a 6 pt lead with PSU deep in their terr when they got an 80 yd IR td :55 left for a misleading 13 pt bowl win. After an 8-5 ssn (NR), Meyer stepped down due to health concerns. UF's +42.2 ypg was the best mark of the SEC East schools. They do have just 3 SEC HG's, play SC and GA away from home and pull the top two tms (Bama & LSU) out of the West. With a new HC who has no previous HC exp and just 10 ret st's, UF may have a tough time topping last year's 8 wins.

Florida has won 21 consecutive ssn openers winning the last 13 by an avg of 38 ppg. Only one previous meeting in '07. UF won 59-20 w/a 501-384 yd & 28-19 FD edge at The Swamp.

These schools last and only meeting was in 2002. Florida won in Gainesville 51-3 to open the ssn. Gators had a 643-240 yd & 26-15 FD edge holding the Blazers to 7 punts on their 1st 7 poss.

The tm that has rushed for more yds has won 8 str & 20 of the L21. Florida has won a series high 6 str over Tennessee (L4 all by DD's). LY Fla went just 1-3 hosting SEC foes (worst mark S79).

UF has won 11 str in Lexington (last loss in '86). LTH the Gators outscored UK 31-0 & outgained them 233-(-16) in the 1Q to put the gm away early. UF has won 6 str road openers (all vs SEC).

UF has lost 2 str vs UA & 5 of the L7 meetings. LY the Gators trailed 24-0 late 2Q & could never recover from the Tide's fast start. They were held without a TD for the 1st time S'05.

Will Muschamp spent the 2001-'04 ssns as the DC/LB cch at LSU. Visitor has won B2B meetings (4 yrs prior HT was 4-0). UF held LSU to a SEC ssn low 162 yds their L/visit.

Muschamp earned his Masters at Aub in '96, grad asst in '95 & '96 and later was the DC ('06-'07) prior to Texas. UF last won in Auburn in '99 dropping the L2 visits ('06 & '01).

Muschamp is a '94 grad of UGA playing safety from 1991-'94. Since 1933 every gm in this series has been in Jacksonville except '94 & '95. UF has won 3 str & 18 of the L21 gms.

UF has won 20 str (last loss in '88) over VU w/ the avg score 37-15. LY UF jumped out to a 41-0 HT lead w/a 247-69 yd edge coasting in the 2H. UF is 65-15 '90 in Nov but LY dropped 2 gms (1st time S'89).

Florida hasn't dropped 2 str in this series since 1936 & '39. In the Gators last visit to Columbia they never trailed holding the Gamecocks to 0 pts, 5 FD's & 31 yds in the 2nd half.

UF is 6-2 vs Furman but they last played in '90 and the 2 losses were in 1922 & '30. The Paladins went 5-6 LY incl a 38-19 loss to SC. Three of their other 5 defeats were vs FCS playoff tms.

Series started in 1958 & have ply'd every yr since. LY's 31-7 loss snapped a 6 gm series winning streak & was the worst loss S'88 (52-17). The Gators have won 7 str home finales by 39 ppg.

TENNESSEE VOLUNTEERS

DT Malik Jackson

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In 2009 the much maligned Jonathan Crompton held on to his starting job and threw for 2,800 (58.3%, 27-13) and was a #5DC. LY the QB's had zero career pass att at UT and Matt Simms (PS#20, 10 att at L'ville '08) beat out true frosh Tyler Bray (PS#17). Simms was beat up starting the first 8 vs the brutal part of the schedule and threw for 1,460 (57.9%, 8-5). Bray got his first start vs Memphis and threw for 325 then threw for 323 vs Ole Miss. After throwing for 354 vs Kentucky, he had 312 in the bowl and could easily have been 5-0 as the st'r (lost bowl in OT). Bray threw for 1,849 (55.8%, 18-10). Nash Nance (6'3" 208 rFr, PS#96) was redshirted. Not listed below are PS#14 true frosh Justin Worley (IFS) and Myles McKee (6'1" 180 rFr). This year the unit returns intact making it much more experienced and Bray, at 6'6" 210 with a rocket for an arm, should be one of the top QB's in the SEC.

RUNNING BACKS - In '09 the Vols had to replace their top 2 rushers who had combined for just 958 (4.7). LY they had to replace their top 2 again but this time they had combined for 1,805 (4.7) with 16 l'd's. The leading returnees were soph David Oku (PS#9) who had 94 (4.1) and Tauren Poole (PS#51, 85, 8.5). Oku ran tentatively and finished with just 174 (4.1). Poole (1034, 5.1) became the workhorse and had six 100 yd gms despite running behind an inexp'd O-line. True frosh Rajion Neal (PS#45) finished #2 (197, 4.3) and Toney Williams (PS#43), one year after a torn ACL, played in just 3 (11 yds). Oku transferred this offseason and they also lose FB Kevin Cooper (5 st, 43 rec yd). With a much more exp'd O-line and RB's, I look for improved production from this unit.

RECEIVERS - The Vols had the reputation of being "WR U" as they've produced plenty of NFL WR's. In '09 they had an inexp'd group and Gerald Jones (PS#2) led with 680 (14.8). Denarius Moore (PS#53) was #2 (540, 13.5) and solid blocking TE Luke Stocker (260 lbs) was #3 (389, 13.4). Those three ret'd last year and were the top 3 again. Moore had 8 less rec's than Jones but almost 400 yds more (981, 20.9). Jones was #2 with 596 (10.8) while Stocker (conc, staph infection) was still one of the top TE's in college ball finishing #3 (417, 10.7). Moore's 228 vs SC was the 2nd highest single gm total in UT history. True frosh Justin Hunter (PS#14) is 6'4" with a 4.4 spd. He is also a jumper for the UT track tm (long, triple, high) and was very impressive setting UT's frosh record for rec td (7). He avg an amazing 25.9 on his 16 rec. True frosh Da'Rick Rogers (PS#4) was #7 (167, 15.2). This year they lose 2nd Tm SEC WR

Moore (13 st, #5DC OAK), Jones (10 st) and 2nd Tm SEC TE Stocker (13 st, #4DC TB). I like the talent and the production could actually increase, especially if QB Bray continues last season's torrid pace, but this unit is less exp'd.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 UT switched their OL blocking schemes and improved to 157 ypg rush (4.3) with 18 sks allowed (4.5%). LY they had to replace all 5 st's, had the 3rd fewest career sts returning (3) in the FBS and were learning their 3rd different blocking scheme in 3 yrs. They then lost C Cody Pope after 2 (stinger/conc). As you would expect, the numbers dropped to 109 ypg rush (3.5) and the sks rose to 41 (9.8%). This year UT loses G Jarrod Shaw (13 st) and C Pope. This unit is vastly more exp'd (50 car st) and adds Notre Dame transfer Alex Bullard (PS#28) who received a hardship waiver from the NCAA to play immediately. UT will have one of the most improved OL's in the country.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 the UT DL had 2 st's back but improved 10 allowing just 103 ypg rush (2.8). In '09 they had to replace 3 DL (comb 27 sts, #1 DC). Dan Williams became a dominant force (1st Tm SEC) but the rush D still struggled as they allowed 150 ypg (4.2). LY they had to replace Williams (#1DC) and one other starter. They then lost ret starting DE Ben Martin (PS#1, RS Achilles) and projected starting DT Marlon Walls (RS Achilles) plus bkp John Brown (PS#6, DNG) over the summer so they had just 1 st'r back. UT did add USC transfer Malik Jackson who started 12 and they got solid performances from a pair of true frosh in Jacques Smith (PS#16, nonstop motor) and Corey Miller (PS#12). DL cch Chuck Smith said that with those 2, they were going to bludgeon the conference. The inexp unit was decent allowing 153 ypg (4.2) and increasing the sk total to 26. This year they lose DE Chris Walker (13 st, #9 tklr, 3 sk), DE Gerald Williams (8 st, #10 tklr, 5.5 sk) and NT Victor Thomas (11 st, 20 tkl, 1 sk). They do have Jackson, Smith and Miller in their 2nd years here not to mention the return of Walls and possibly Martin (retore Achilles in Feb '11) the Vols also add PS#25JC, making the unit much more exp'd than you would expect with technically 1 starter back.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 UT had to replace 3 LB's (comb 23 st, #1, #4 tklr) and had the smallest unit in the SEC. Nick Reveiz tore his ACL after 4 sts and his replacement Savion Frazier tore his 4 gms later. At the end of '09 they were down to 7 LB's incl 2 walk-ons. LY UT had to replace 2nd Tm SEC Rico McCoy (#1 tklr) but had 5 back with starting exp. This year the Vols lose 3rd Tm SEC Reveiz (13 st, #10 tklr, 6 tfl), SLB LaMarcus Thompson (12 st, #4 tklr, 3.5 tfl) and Frazier (1 st, 14 tkl). Their only returning st'r, Herman Lathers, had shoulder surgery (not 100% spring). Not listed below are Gregory Grieco (5'10" 219 rFr) and LaDarius Denson (6'0" 241 Jr). UT allowed 25.1 ppg last year so while this year's unit is not as experienced, there will probably not be too much dropoff.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Tennessee had just one DB starter back in '07 and dropped to #78 in my PDR. They had 3 st's back in '08 (#23). SS Eric Berry (PS#1) amazingly broke the SEC career IR yd record (Bobby Wilson, Ole Miss 1946-'49) as a soph. He earned 1st Tm AA and was my '08 DPOY. In '09 UT had to replace 2 st's but Berry returned and they finished #28 allowing just 5 td (56%, 10 int). Last year they had to replace Berry (Thorpe Award, #1DC KC), their other starting CB plus my projected starting SS Darren Myles was dismissed over the summer. Surprisingly, the Vols moved up to #19 (57.4%, 14-18). This year they lose S Tyler Wolf (17 tkl) but have 7 of the top 8 back although Janzen Jackson left the team in February and they hope he will return for fall. I don't see them moving up too much in the PDR but this group is clearly more experienced than the 2010 version.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Phillip Fulmer's ST units were almost always in my top 50 including #19 in '07. In '08 they surprisingly dropped to #86. Daniel Lincoln, who was the FWAA 1st Tm K in '07, hit just 10 of 18 (L47, 3 miss 50+). In '09 they were #96. LY they hired a solid ST coach in Eric Russell who had been ST coach at T'ech (#39 in '09). They still only moved up to #75. P Cunningham had a 42.3 avg (net 36.4). True frosh Michael Palardy (PS#5) had 0 TB's on 45 KO's and when Lincoln was inj'd, hit 5-7 FG's (L39). Lincoln hit 10-11 FG's (L49). The team avg 4.1 on PR (#109 in the FBS) including 7 muffed punts using 5 different PR's. This year they lose Lincoln, Cunningham and KR Oku but add Matt Darr (PS#2, orig committed to USC) at P. I'll actually call for improved numbers, despite losing most of their key players.

COACHES - Heading into '08 Phillip Fulmer had a 147-45 (76.6%) record which was the best win % in the major college ranks for a HC coach of 10+ yrs. Fulmer was forced to resign, one year after getting to the SEC Title gm. Lane Kiffin took over and ruffled feathers all over the SEC while racking up numerous NCAA violations then skipped town after one year to become the HC of USC. Louisiana Tech HC Derek Dooley became the Vols' new HC. Dooley is the son of legendary UGA HC Vince and was 17-20 in 3 yrs at LT. Jim Chaney (former Purdue OC) was hired by Kiffin but stayed on as the Vols' OC when Dooley was hired and is in his 3rd season here. The DC is Justin Wilcox who was the DC at Boise St ('06-'09).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Phillip Fulmer was the HC here for 17 yrs and took home a National Title in '98 (13-0). Unfortunately in his final 10 yrs he had just 2 Top 10 finishes and 2 losing seasons. I had a very good pulse on Tenn throughout this past decade, often calling for them to finish either much higher or much lower than most folks' expectations and most times I have been right on the money. In '05 Tenn (ranked #3 AP) was the SEC media choice to win the SEC Title. I had them #3 in the SEC East and they finished just 5-6. The next year the Vols were on my Most Improved List and got as high as #7 going 9-4 despite playing 5 Top 13 tms. In '07 the Vols were fortunate to finish 10-4 and #12 AP. Despite their 6-2 reg season SEC record, they were -32.7 ypg in SEC play (3rd worst). Most Vol fans saw them as a darkhorse Nat'l Title contender and playing in a Jan bowl at worst in '08. I did not make a lot of friends in Knoxville again when I picked them 4th in the East. UT finished just 5-7 and Fulmer was let go. In '09 expectations were light for UT but I had them on my Most Improved List. New HC Lane Kiffin inherited 12 ret st's and UT went 7-5 getting to the Chick-fil-A Bowl. Kiffin used Tenn as a pit stop and headed off to USC. The Vols landed Derek Dooley who I felt did a good job at Louisiana Tech despite a 3 yr record of 17-20. Dooley had just 8 ret st's (fewest SEC) but I called for them to open 2-6, win their last 4 and get to a bowl. Due to having 3 HC's in 3 yrs, UT was short on scholarship players and lacked depth. They wore down in the 2H vs Oregon (13-13 half) and Florida (10-10 3Q). At 1-2 they got a lucky OT win over UAB (outgained 544-287, UAB missed 5 FG). Tenn almost upset LSU and in fact, officials announced the game was over with UT winning 14-10 but a penalty (too many men on field) gave LSU one more play and they got a td to win 16-14. After being buried by UGA and Bama by a combined 82-24, they were tied with SC 24-24 in the 4Q but lost by 14. UT then got to the weak part of the schedule and as I expected, won their last 4 by 25 ppg. Once again in the bowl the officials announced the game was over and Tenn had won, but .01 was put back on the clock and NC was able to kick a game tying FG and win in OT. This year Dooley has a much deeper team. They had 34 starts lost to injury in 2010. Tenn does draw THREE Top 15 teams out of the West (Bama, LSU, Ark). Despite the tough schedule, this team makes my Most Improved List again.

First meeting. UT has won 16 str home openers incl the L3Y by an avg score 49-3. Grizzlies went 7-4 LY ending a 17 yr streak of playing in the FCS playoffs. Last gm vs FBS ('06) was a 41-7 loss at Iowa.

UT has gone 4-1 vs Cincinnati (all gms in Knoxville) with the only loss in 1904. In the L/meeting ('92) UT pulled the shutout 40-0. L2Y UT has dropped its HG vs their non-conf BCS opp.

UT has dropped its L3 trips to Gainesville incl '09, 23-13. UT only trailed 13-6 at HT but came out flat in the 2H, outgained 116-(-6) in the 3Q. UT is 3-9 L3Y on the SEC road (2 W's at Vandy).

Arkansas: Vols won 4 of the L5 gms vs Ark but that one loss was their L/trip to Ark ('06).

Vanderbilt: Tennessee has won 5 straight in this series by an avg of 14 ppg.

First meeting. The Volunteers are a perfect 5-0 vs MAC members with the avg score 33-15. Into 2011, Tenn is 44-5 hosting non-conf opp's but 3 of the losses have come the L3Y.

Dooley was a grad asst at UGA in 1996. LY the Vols lost but WR Hunter (110 yds, 27.5 ypc) became the 1st UT Fr WR to surpass 100+ rec yds in a gm S'04 (R. Meachem).

LY UT led 14-10 w/5:41 left. LSU went 69/16pl converting a 4&14 w/1:22 at UT17 & on 3&gl from the UT1 were stopped as time exp. UT had 13 on field (pen), LSU was given one untimed play & scored.

UT LY was outscored 28-0 in the 2H (trailed by 3 at HT) being outgained 300-175. The Vols five 2H poss all ended in AL territory missing a FG, 2 int's in the EZ, punt from the A45 & SOD at A15.

UT has dominated this series (22-5-2) & has never dropped B2B gms. HT has won 4 str. LY's gm was tied 24-24 early 4Q before UT allowed a 70-yd TD pass & a 92/8pl TD drive.

These in-state opp's have met just once. UT won 26-3 in '02 w/a 400-209 yd edge. UT was up 17-0 in the 2Q but had an overall sloppy gm w/11 pen, 3 fum, a missed FG & a blk'd kick.

LTH both trms came in ranked but UT trailed 14-0 & 31-7 prior to a late garbage TD drive w/13 left.

LY UT led 14-0 but needed a late 28 yd TD run to seal it.

Vandy missed 2 FG's and tossed an int at the UT1.

UT has won 14 str trips to Lexington (last loss in '81) but the L2 have come by just 2 & 6 pts.

LTH UT trailed 21-14 at HT but limited UK to just 3 pts, 5 FD's & 89 yds (2.6 ypp) in the 2H & OT.

KENTUCKY WILDCATS

OG Stuart Hines

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - The Wildcats have a solid reputation for developing pro-style QB's in Jared Lorenzen and Tim Couch. André Woodson took over in '05 and left as UK's #2 career passer. He had a phenomenal senior season throwing for 3,709 (63%, 40-11). In '08, 6'6" Mike Hartline (PS#24, 6 att as rFr) threw for 1,666 (55%, 9-8) and Randall Cobb threw for 542 (53%, 2-5, 316 rush, #4 rec). In '09 Hartline started the first 5 games then suffered a knee injury but still led in passing with 802 (59%, 6-7). They took the RS off of Morgan Newton (PS#13) but Cobb was the most effective QB down the stretch (Wildcat). In the bowl Newton hit 13-23-98. LY the much maligned Hartline came in 8-6 as a starter and won the job. He had a much better season than anyone expected. Hartline had the best game of his career vs SCar hitting 32-42-349 with 4 td's including the crucial 4th down td pass that won it. He threw for 3,178 (66.2%, 23-9) but was suspended for the bowl and finished as UK's #4 career passer (2,755 yds behind of #3 Couch). Newton hit 21-36-211 in the bowl and will battle a couple of true frosh this year. It will be tough to match Hartline's 2010 numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Only 4 RB's in UK history have had 200+ rush att's in a single season with the last being Artose Pinner ('02). The Cats' leading rusher in '08 only had 430 (3.3). In '09 Derrick Locke bulked up to 191 lbs (4.3 spd). He nearly got to that 200 carry mark (195) while rushing for 907 (4.7) despite inj's. Moncell Allen added 228 (4.9). Locke turned down the NFL in '10 and had 574 (5.3) in the first 6 but was inj'd (miss 4.5 gm). True frosh Raymond Sanders rushed for 79 yds vs GA and 71 vs Miss St. With Locke and Sanders out vs CS, Donald Russell rushed for 110 and walk-on CoShik Williams (5'9" 182 Jr) had 95 (7.3). Locke ret'd for the final 3. True frosh Brandon Gainer (PS#32) was making a push to play but was slowed by an injury. He bulked up in the weight room while RS. This year they lose Locke (887, 5.3) and Russell (293, 4.6, transferred) as well as FB Allen (40, 3.3). HC Phillips stated he would not be surprised to see frosh crack the 2 deep at RB or WR. This unit less exp'd but they should have better health.

RECEIVERS - In '08 UK had to replace their top 2 WR's and TE with the trio combining for 2,401 yds. With a new QB and inexp'd receivers, the top 3 in '08 combined for just 665 yds! In '09 Randall Cobb was moved from QB and led with 447 (11.5). They added 6'5" JC Chris Matthews (4.4 spd) and he was #2 (354, 11.1). Those two returned last year. #3 WR Gene McCaskill (163, 9.6) tore his ACL in Aug and RS. Cobb improved greatly to 1,017 (12.1) while Matthews was #2 with 925 (15.2). 6'4" soph LaRod King (PS#138) emerged with 478 (13.3) and TE Jordan Aumiller (PS#138) had 193 (10.7). This year they lose Matthews (12 st) and Cobb (13 st, #2DC GB). Brian Adams is 6'4" 225 and the Cats' fastest WR but missed some of spring (baseball). He only had 3 rec as a rFr and I expect more output this year (7-121-2 spg gm '11). Not listed below are TE's Gabe Correll (6'5" 236 Jr, PS#135) and Kyle Budde (6'6" 225 rFr). Naturally with the loss of 2 NFL caliber receivers, this unit is down a few notches in '11 but has a lot of tall WR's (4 in the 2-deep 6'4" and over).

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 UK had to replace 2 starters but had 7 back with starting experience (86 career starts). The OL avg 191 ypg rush (4.5), their best since 1995 with 17 sks (5.2%). LY they lost 4 st's incl a pair of 2nd Tm SEC OL (31 career sts ret). The numbers did not drop as much as you would think (159 ypg) with the ypc improving to 4.6 despite their RB's being banged up and they allowed just 19 sks (4.1%). This year they lose RT Brad Durham (11 st) and Marcus Davis (6 games). Eight of the top 10 are back (77 career starts) making this a much more experienced and improved unit.

DEFENSIVE LINE - From 2004-'07 the Cats yielded 5.0, 4.9, 5.0 and 4.6 ypc rushing. In '08 I called for the Cats to have their best rush D in at least 4 yrs but they did even better allowing 139 ypg (3.8), the first time they allowed under 4.0 ypc since 1989 (3.7). In '09 the Cats had to replace 2 st's (#6DC) then lost DE Jeremy Jarmon (NFL supp #3DC). As expected UK had weaker numbers (1 st'r back) yielding 183 ypg (4.7) with just 16 sks. Last year they had to replace 1st Tm SEC DT Corey Peters (#3DC) but did have 7 of the top 8 back. DE DeQuin Evans (ankle/shoulder inj's) had just 7 sts and DT Mark Crawford (5 st) was susp the last 2. Only 2 DL started more than 7. RFr Mister Cobble won a starting DT spot in spg '10 but was ruled ineligible for the reg season (ret'd for bowl). UK allowed similar numbers (177, 4.6). This year they lose DE Evans (7 st, 16 tkl, 1.5 sk) DT Ricky Lumpkin (13 st, 21 tkl, 1 sk) and DT Shane McCord (3 st, 11 tkl, 1.5 tfl). Keep an eye on soph Nermin Delic who HC Phillips said is one of the strongest guys who has walked through the door here. The unit should maintain better health and have improved numbers.

LINEBACKERS - Last year for the 3rd straight season UK had to replace their #1 tkl'r as well as their #3 (both 2nd Tm SEC). Danny Trevathan (6 sts) was the #2 tkl'r in '09. RFr Qua Huzzie (PS#70) drew comparisons to UK greats Woodyard and Kelley but surprisingly he only had 1 start (miss 4 inj). Trevathan is not your typical SEC LB listed generously at 6'1" 230 but led the SEC in tkl's (144) and added 16 tfl. This year they lose SLB Jacob Dufrene (3 st, 12 tkl) but have 5 of the top 6 back including 1st Tm SEC Trevathan, Ronnie Sneed (#3 tkl'r) as well as Huzzie and #8 tkl'r Ridge Wilson who worked at the new hybrid DE/LB position in spring and will play with his hand on the ground half the time in '11. Not listed in the PSL below are Ben Wolfe (5'11" 202 rFr) and Michael Edwards (6'1" 236 Jr). This is the most exp'd the Cats' LB's have been in at least 4 yrs and should greatly improve upon the 28.4 ppg allowed.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Cats have fielded solid secondaries. In '07 they were #31 in my PDR then #46 in '08. With three outstanding CB's in Trevard Lindley, Paul Warford and Randall Burden, they were one of 6 teams in the FBS to allow under 50% in '09 and finished #18 despite Lindley and Warford missing 6 sts comb'd. LY they had to replace 2nd Tm SEC CB Lindley (#4DC) and their starting SS (#4 tkl'r). CB Warford was lost over the summer. The Cats ret 2 st's but dropped some to #52 (53.9%, 14-9). This year the entire 2 deep returns and Warford had previously said Burden had the potential to be as good as Lindley. Also SS Winston Guy turned down the NFL and is working at the hybrid LB/SAF position TY and FS Mychal Bailey has 4.37 speed. With exp alone you would think UK would move up in my PDR in '11.

SPECIAL TEAMS - When former HC Rich Brooks was hired, he brought in Steve Ortmyer, who had been an NFL ST coach for 17 yrs. They finished #22 in my ST rankings in '05, #37 in '06, #8 in '08 and #35 in '09. It surprised me that Phillips fired Ortmyer in July and replaced him with Greg Nord. The best leg on the team belonged to true frosh K Joe Mansour (PS#14) but he was not consistent enough to take over the FG duties yet. P Ryan Tydlacka hit 1-3 FG then soph walk-on Craig McIntosh hit a solid 11-15 (L50). Mansour had 15 TB on 48 KO. Tydlacka, who avg 40.0 (36.7 net in '09), improved to 43.8 (35.3 net). Randall Cobb went from avg 26.5 on KR and 12.8 on PR's in '09 to 23.7 and 7.8. They lose 4 year LS JJ Helton. The unit dropped dramatically to #81 and even with the loss of the dynamic Cobb, could improve in 2011.

COACHES - After leading UK to a school-record 4 consecutive bowls, Rich Brooks decided to retire. OC Joker Phillips took over. Randy Sanders was elevated to OC in '10 (QB cch S/'06 recruiting coor). Steve Brown (DB cch '03-'06) was promoted to DC in '07 and was the lone DC for 4 seasons. This year they bring in Rick Minter as co-DC. Minter was the HC at Cincinnati for 10 seasons (53-63-1, '94-'03) and most recently the interim HC at Marshall in the '09 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl (beat Ohio 21-17). He spent LY at Ind St (LB cch) and was the DC at Marshall ('08-'09), ND ('05-'07) and SC ('04). Minter is expected to call the defensive plays and the new defense is capable of lining up in a 4-3, 3-4 or 4-2-5.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Kentucky fans weren't too thrilled when Rich Brooks was hired in 2003 and he inherited a team that had just 68 scholarship players. Of the 40 signees from 2001-'02, 24 left the team. The Brooks era began with 3 losing seasons (9-25). In '06 with a more favorable schedule, 15 ret st's and a team that was -9 in TO's in '05, I said the Cats had a great shot at a bowl. UK had just 3 seasons of 8+ wins from 1952-2005 and had been to just 10 bowls (2nd lowest in SEC). UK has won 8 reg season games just ONCE in the last 30 yrs (1984). In '06 they recorded their first win over one of the Big 3 from the East (Tenn, GA, Fla) since 1996 when they upset Georgia which was the catalyst for their 8-5 season. Brooks' final 3 yrs saw 3 more bowls and 3 more winning seasons pulling 8 upsets in those 3 yrs. LY HC-in-waiting, Joker Phillips, took over and despite having just 11 ret st's and an SEC high 27 lettermen lost made a bowl. I mentioned they would be favored in 5, and they were only 1 upset away from a bowl. UK was blown out by Florida 48-14 and trailed Ole Miss 42-20 mid 4Q before a couple of late scores. Against Auburn they rallied from a 24-7 deficit to tie it but then gave up a FG on the last play to the eventual National Champs and lost by 3. They caught SCar the week after their upset of #1 Alabama. UK trailed 28-10 at the half but SC RB Lattimore missed the 2H and UK got a 4th down td then an int in the EZ to pull off the 31-28 upset (the one upset they needed for a bowl) and stood 4-3. UK trailed UGA 34-10 late 3Q but the next week, almost upset Miss St (17-17 in 4Q) when they were int'd in the EZ and lost by 7. After expected wins over CS and Vandy, they lost for the 26th straight time to Tenn. In the bowl, without QB Hartline, they lost to Pitt by 17 and their 6-7 record was their first losing season since '05. UK loses their QB, top 3 rushers and top 2 WR's returning just 35% of their off yds but the top 11 tkl's on D are back. After returning 11, 10 and 11 st's the last 3 years, they have 16 ret st's in '11 and 73% left returning (#3 SEC). UK has a great shot at a 6th straight bowl.

UK is 2-0 vs WKU (gms in '08 & 'LY) winning by an avg score of 52-16 w/a 440-221 yd edge. This gm will be played at LP Field, home to the NFL Titans (counts as a WKU home gm).

Wildcats are 5-0 (all gms in KY) vs the Chippewas with the L/meeting in '06. UK was +2 TO's and won 45-36 jumping out to a 21-0 lead (never trailed) but were outgained 558-373 yds (-9 FD).

UK has won 4 straight and the team with the most rushing yds has won 15 str in this in-state rivalry. LY UK led 20-3 late 2Q and hung on for Joker Phillips' 1st win as a HC.

Kentucky has lost 24 str vs Florida (last win in '86). In the L3Y UK has been outscored 152-26 as LY they trailed 21-0 with their first 6 drives ending in 4 punts & 2 int's (81 tll yds).

In UK's L2 trips to Death Valley they have been shutout in each ('00 & '06), avg score 42-0 (-131 ypg). The Wildcats are 8-24 since 2003 on the SEC road including 0-8 L2Y.

LY was the first time ever that a UK squad beat a Spurrier cch'd team (1-17). UK hasn't won in Columbia S'99 & LTH they scored a TD w/4:34 left but SC ran out clock.

Vanderbilt: Wildcats are 12-3 (6-1 in Nashville) S'96 vs the Commodores incl 2 str wins. Georgia: UK is just 12-50-2 vs UGA but won its L trip to Athens. It was the 1st win there S'77.

First meeting. Gamecocks finished 9-3 LY (FCS playoffs) including a stunning 2OT win vs Ole Miss 49-48. UK is 36-5-1 vs current members of the FCS (L/loss in '52 vs Villanova).

UK has dropped 2 straight vs MSU & the L3 have been decided by a TD or less. LY the Wildcats went 70/17p but tossed an int at the MSU1 w/3:1 left down by 7.

UK has gone just 2-7 vs Ole Miss S'90. LY UK led 14-7 early 2Q but all'd 35 of the next 41 pts. UK tacked on two late TD drives but three 1H TO's cost them 21 pts (11, 9 & 7 yd TD drives).

LTH UK trailed 13-10 at HT but held Vandy to just 1 FD & 31 yds in the 2H (all 5 poss ended in punts).

LTH UK trailed 20-6 at HT & was outgained by 227 yds but +4 in TO's resulted in 14 pts (UGA fmbt & int L2 poss of gm).

UK has lost 26 in a row to UT which is the longest series losing streak in the NCAA. LY UK tied the gm 14-14 early 3Q but could only muster 52 yds & 4 FD's being shutout the rest of the way.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Former HC Bobby Johnson ('02-'09) made Jay Cutler the first ever rFr to start an opener at VU and he had a record breaking career, even being voted AP SEC OPOY. Cutler departed after the '05 season as VU's career passing leader (8,697) and in '05 Vandy avg'd 281 pass ypg (59%). Since then the comp % has dropped 5 consecutive yrs with 56% in '06 to 47% last year. Larry Smith (PS#32) saw little action as a rFr (167 yds) but started the bowl. Smith was the clear-cut starter in '09 and threw for just 1,126 (46.7%, 4-7, 213 rush). LY it was a 4 man battle and Smith held off Sr Jared Funk (PS#67, 0 car att) and PS#58JC Jordan Rodgers (GB Packer Aaron's brother) as well as Charlie Goro (PS#38). Rodgers missed time in Aug (back, shoulder) and RS. Smith had an uneven year throwing for 1,262 (47.4%, 6-5). Funk started the final game (Smith inj). This year they lose Funk (1 st, 8 gm, 651 yds). New coaches like their own recruits and this year's true frosh have a shot and Rodgers could very well be the guy. New HC James Franklin has a great reputation for developing QB's incl helping Maryland QB Danny O'Brien earn the ACC Rookie of the Year LY as a rFr. Whoever wins the job will probably produce the best QB numbers in at least 4 yrs and stop the completion % downward spiral.

RUNNING BACKS - VU has not had a 1,000 yd rusher S/'95 with just 3 in school history. In '09 Zac Stacy (PS#155) and Warren Norman (PS#101) became the first VU frosh duo to each top 100 in a single gm. When Stacy suffered an ankle inj vs Miss St, Norman took over and led with 783 (5.4) breaking Herschel Walker's SEC Fr record for all-purp yds with 1,941 (SEC FPOY). Stacy was #2 with 478 (4.5). Kennard Reeves had 153 (6.1). All 3 ret'd LY and they added rFr Wesley Tate (PS#149). Stacy sprained his MCL and Norman was the only healthy scholarship RB for most of Aug. Norman had knee surgery (8/25) but rushed for 46 in the opener and then 2 wks later had 111 vs Miss including the 2nd longest run in VU history (80 yd). It was his first 100 yd rush gm vs an SEC opp. Norman was lost for the year vs Ark (wrist surgery) but still led with 459 (6.0). Stacy missed the L3 gms (head inj) but finished #2 (331, 5.0). Wesley Tate added 140 (3.5). They had 1 healthy scholarship RB vs UK and Kennard Reeves rushed for 105. TY they only lose Reeves (4 st, 306, 4.0). Micah Powell (PS#177) was the #1 RB in spg with Norman out (knee/wrist). Not in the PSL is FB Marc Panu (6'1" 250 So, 11 gm). They should have a vastly improved RB group if Norman and Stacy remain healthy.

RECEIVERS - In '09 VU had to replace their #1 WR and their #3 WR tore his ACL. Their WR cch said he's never had such a young, inexp'd corps in his 29 yrs of cching and dropped passes were the norm. They used Udom Umoh (PS#153) and John Cole (PS#63) for about 600 plays each and they wore down as they were both just 180 lbs. It was the first time in 11Y that no rec topped 400 yds and they had just 2 td rec by the WR's. LY the top 3 ret'd and they added some explosiveness. TE Brandon Barden (PS#25) led with 425 (12.5). Cole dropped to 317 (12.7) and Umoh fell to 194 (16.2). True Fr Jonathan Krause (PS#118) was #3 (243, 10.1). This year they lose Turner Wimberly (170, 17.0, 1 st) and Tray Herndon (122, 9.4, 1 st). Clearly VU has their most exp'd and best unit in 3Y and with the QB's posting better numbers, will reap the benefits.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Vandy's OL has gone against the grain of my expectations the last few years. They had 5 senior starters back in '07 but surprisingly saw their ypc rush drop to 3.7 but did allow just 17 sks. The entire unit was decimated in '08 with just 3 career sts back but they avg the same 3.7 ypc (27 sk). They had a veteran unit in '09 and improved to 160 ypg (4.3) with 24 sks (6.8%). Last year the unit was wiped out again with just 21 car sts returning but they only slipped slightly to 139 ypg (4.0) with 36 sks (10.0%). This year they lose C Joey Bailey (6 st). They do have to learn a new system but are a much more veteran unit (68 car sts) and all 5 starters are back.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 VU had a respectable rush D yielding just 128 ypg (3.7). They had to replace 3 st's and 2 bkps in '08 and slipped to 145 (3.8). They ret'd their entire 2 deep in '09 but surprisingly slipped to 198 ypg (4.4). LY they had to replace 2 st's and 1 bkp (4 st) and then '09 starting DT Adam Smotherman tore his ACL (2 tkl). Even with just 1 st' back, VU had similar numbers (193 ypg, 4.5). This year they lose DE Terrell Kadri (11 st, 27 tkl, 1.5 tfl), Smotherman (3 gm) and DE Terrell Brannon (1 st, 9 tkl, 1 sk). This is not an overwhelming unit, but it is a lot more exp'd than LY.

LINEBACKERS - LY Vandy had to replace 2 st's (#2 and #4 tkl'r) but ret'd their top guy in Chris Marve (#1 tkl'r, 121). Marve suffered a meniscus tear and missed EM and only had 3 tkls vs UGA and dropped to #2 (80 tkl, 8 tfl). This year they lose SLB John Stokes (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 6 tfl) and WLB Nate Campbell (7 st, 27 tkl, 4.5 tfl). While they do lose 2 st's they return their emotional leader Marve who I expect to be healthier. The 6 starting candidates other than Marve have 1 career start combined. Franklin may use nickel and dime formations to offset the lack of depth in this unit, but look for VU to improve upon its 31.2 ppg allowed.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07 Vandy had all 4 st's back led by 1st Tm SEC CB DJ Moore (6 int). Their 16 int's were their most since 1989 and they moved up to #41 in my PDR. VU had an exp secondary in '08 but the rest of the D was inexp'd. VU still improved to their best ever finish in my PDR at #13 (15-20 ret). In '09 they had to replace 2 st's (#4DC) then lost a starting S after 2 sts. They moved WR Jamie Graham (9 st off '08) to DB. As you would expect, VU dropped to #77. Last year they had to replace 2 st's (#3DC) then lost Graham after 4 gms. Casey Hayward emerged and led the SEC in passes defended (6 int, 11 pbu). Teams threw away from Hayward and targeted Eddie Foster (1 int, 3 pbu). Adding depth is Jarron Lewis (5'11" 165 So). Despite having 2 st's back, VU slipped to #97 (63.3%, 18-9). This year they only lose FS Jay Fullam (3 st, 30 tkl) and NB Jamie Graham (2 st, 9 tkl) and should be one of the biggest climbers in the PDR in '11.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Vandy finished just #108, #111, #109, #99, #109 and #99 from 2003-'08 in my ST rankings. Despite having a true frosh K and KR, they moved up to #58 in '09. K Ryan Fowler hit 16-21 FG's (L/47) and made the All-SEC Fr Tm. Warren Norman had an amazing 3 KR td's and set the SEC single season record for KR yards with 1,050 (26.2). LY Norman was limited due to injuries and Eric Samuels had 27 KR's (20.3) but Warren did have 22 (25.4, miss last 4 gm). Richard Kent who was a soccer player in HS took over at P and has a very strong leg landing 27 inside the 20! Former HC Robbie Caldwell said Kent can make it rain with his high kicks. He improved the team's net from 35.4 to 36.8 (did have 4 blk'd). They must replace their 4 year punt LB John Stokes and 3 year FG LS David Giller. Fowler only hit 8-13 FG's (L31). Carey Spear had 6 TB's on 40 KO. VU finished #91 but with all of their key players back, they should have their highest finish since 1996.

COACHES - Vandy now has its 3rd HC in 3 yrs. Bobby Johnson retired after 8 yrs unexpectedly last summer and Robbie Caldwell was promoted from asst HC/OL coach. Caldwell was forced to resign just prior to the finale. James Franklin spent 8 seasons at Maryland ('00-'04 WR's, '08-'10 OC), 2 at Kan St ('06-'07, OC) and one in the NFL (GB '05, WR's). The new OC is also from MD in John Donovan who was an asst there for 10 seasons (RB cch L3Y). DC Bob Shoop was the HC at Columbia ('03-'05, 7-23) and more recently the DC at William & Mary ('07-'10). Franklin has already started reshaping the program, holding the first competitive spring game here since 1997.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Going into '08, Vanderbilt had 25 consec losing seasons. They they had 5 wins in '05 and in '07 started 5-3 before losing their final 4. I've had a lot of success forecasting the ups and downs of SEC tms but in '08 I saw a VU tm with zero ret OL st's and 9 st's back overall and a tough SEC schedule. I called for a last place finish in the SEC East. VU caught a lot of breaks in '08. After 5 gms they were #12 in the SEC on off and #10 on D but somehow were 5-0 and got as high as #13 and ranked for the first time S/'84. VU finally broke a streak of 19 straight losses when trying to win their 6th gm when they beat UK 31-24. They finished tied for 3rd in the SEC East (4-4 SEC, -76.1 ypg) and knocked off BC in the Music City Bowl to get their first winning ssn S/'82! That was a young VU tm and with 19 Sr's and 32 Jr's, the '09 squad appeared stronger. Despite being more talented and exp'd (16 ret st's vs 9 in '08), the '09 squad crashed to 0-8 in the SEC (-152.4 ypg) finishing 2-10. LY they had just 10 ret st's and then suffered the unexpected loss of HC Bobby Johnson over the summer. Looking at VU's schedule, I expected a 2-10 season. They did play stronger than expected vs NW (432-365 yd edge) missing a 2 pt conv in the 4Q and lost by 2. They stunningly upset Miss 2 wks later on the road in a game they led 14-0. Ole Miss did miss a 32 yd FG, had 3 dropped td's and a 385-300 yd edge. They played better than the final score indicated vs Conn (40-21) and in fact led 21-14 on the road but lost by 19. After an expected rout of lowly EM (52-6) they were mostly noncompetitive the next 6 wks. They did lose their top 2 RB's to inj at the end of the yr but lost their L6 SEC gms by 28 ppg while avg just 231 ypg off. In Robbie Caldwell's final gm, they outgained WF 443-299 and had a 28-15 FD edge but lost by 21. TY they bring in James Franklin who was the HC in waiting at Maryland. VU is one of the toughest HC jobs in football with high academic standards in the best conf in the NCAA. Franklin does inherit a veteran team with 19 ret st's (tied for 1st FBS). While Vandy is the #12 team in the SEC and is going through a coaching change, the non-conf schedule is manageable and they could top LY's 2 win total.

First meeting. The Phoenix went 6-5 LY incl a 41-27 loss vs Duke. Elton won their L4 of the year & 3 of the other 4 Ls came vs FCS playoff tms. VU is 10-1 S'06 vs non-BCS tm (avg win 36-12). HT is 2-0 ('02 & LY). LY was tied 21-21 at HT but VU was shutout in the 2H being held to just 3 FD's, 67 yds (2.4 ypp) as no drive was over 6 plays (8 poss ended on 4 punts, 2 int, SOD & SAF). 1st yr Vandy HC's are 7-11 all-time vs Ole Miss. LY VU jumped out to 14-0 & scored the final 14 pts as Ole Miss' L6 drives ended in a missed 32-yd FG, punt, 2 SOD's & 2 TO's.

Commodores are 2-7 in Columbia. LTHVU only lost by 4 but was outgained 431-273 as their TD came on a 99 yd KR & their FG was set up by a short punt (9 of the other 10 drives ended on punt/SOD).

Tennessee: Commodores are 1-27 vs the Vols S'83 w/VU ending a 22 gm losing streak in '05. Bonus: New HC James Franklin was the Maryland QB/QC cch the L3Y.

The last time VU won at Alabama was in '84, since they have dropped 9 straight by 20 ppg but in the last gm ('06) only lost 13-10. VU was up 10-3 at HT but was held to 84 2H yds w/3 TO's.

LY's loss vs UGA was Vandy's worst since a 48-0 defeat by UT in '03. VU trailed 43-0 after 3Q's. Commodores have dropped 15 of L16 incl 4 str with the avg score 30-10.

Series is tied 4-4 but VU has dropped 3 of L4. In '09 (L/gm) VU trailed 3-0 at HT & 10-3 in the 4Q. They went 57/12pt to force OT w/52 (41-yd FG). In OT VU fun into the EZ (from A1) & Army nailed a 42-yd FG.

Vandy HC's are 1-4 in their debut vs Ark. LY VU built a 14-6 lead after 1Q w/7 of 8 FD's (88%) & 140 of their 153 yds (92%) gained. Ark scored 43 unanswered dominating the rest of the way.

Commodores last & only win in Gainesville was in 1945 (0-18-1 since). LTH VU lost 27-3 (closest margin L4Y). Into 2011, Vandy is just 7-33 on the SEC road S'01 (1-7 L2Y).

VU is 1-14 in home finales & lost 7 str by 14 ppg. LY Vandy led 13-10 at HT but UK scored 28 unanswered 2H pts. LY's gm also snapped a 14 gm VU win streak when they had a 100+ yd rusher.

In the U/rip to Knoxville Warren Norman surpassed Herschel Walker's SEC Fr rec for all-purpose yds w/1,941.

The Commodores have lost 3 straight in series (all by DD's), incl it's last trip to Winston-Salem ('08) 23-10. The visitor is 7-2 in the series since 1990. Has been season finale 4 of 5 years.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 BIG TEN FORECAST

LEADERS 1. OHIO ST - Ohio St is clearly the best team in the Big Ten and would have been the obvious choice to win the conference. The well publicized player suspensions and yet to come NCAA punishment of HC Tressell makes it a close race. Unfortunately they will be without those 5 players over the first 5 games and when they return in game 6 at Nebraska, they won't be 100% up to speed. LY I had both NC and USC rated higher than most then was blindsided over the summer when both were hit with severe NCAA penalties. Nonetheless, the Buckeyes are my pick to make the first ever Big Ten Title Game.

1. WISCONSIN - Last year the Badgers tied for the Big Ten Title but their +80 ypg less than half of Ohio St's. Wisconsin has just 12 ret st's which ties them for 2nd fewest in the league. They have some other factors pointing downward like the fact they were +14 in TO's, had an off ypg of 10.7 and lose both the Big Ten's pass eff leader (Tolzien) and #1DC Watt (#2 Big Ten tfl). The QB position is the team's biggest ? at the time of this writing with just 2 scholarship players and 10 career pass att's. Still, the Badgers will likely be favored in 10 of their games this season and will have another fine year. I would not be surprised to see UW when they end up in their 2nd straight 3 way tie at the top with OSU's off field problems.

1. PENN ST - LY Penn St may have had one of HC Paterno's youngest ever teams and this year they are a much more veteran unit with 14 ret st's and might be the most improved team in the Big Ten. There are still question marks at QB as I write this in May with the possibility of QB Rob Bolden transferring. If they get that situation worked out favorably, I look for PSU to open the Big Ten portion of their schedule at 6-0 but unfortunately their final 2 games are at Ohio St and at Wisconsin. A win at one of those 2 games would likely put Penn St into the first ever Big Ten Title game.

4. ILLINOIS - I've had a pretty good pulse on Illinois with the exception of '09 when they made my Most Improved List and disappointed me. I put them right back on the Most Improved List LY meaning I thought they would make it to the post season and they did, beating Baylor soundly in the Texas Bowl. This year's squad, despite having just 13 ret st's, has 72.4% of their lettermen returning from a unit that was #3 in the Big Ten at +48 ypg. They have not had B2B winning seasons S/'90 but will accomplish that this year. With some winnable road games, they could finish even higher in the Leaders Div if they take care of business at home.

5. PURDUE - Purdue has not caught a lot of breaks lately being a banged up football team and LY lost their QB, top RB and top WR by the 4th game of the season. This year they have 78.5% of their lettermen returning (#3 Big Ten) and should be much healthier on offense. I put PU on my Most Improved List which means I think they will get to bowl eligibility for the first time in HC Danny Hope's 3 seasons despite losing the Big Ten Def POY in DE Ryan Kerrigan.

6. INDIANA - The Hoosiers have actually gone from 3 to 4 to 5 wins in each of the last 3 seasons but figure to take a step back this year. They break in a 1st time HC and have just 12 returning st's (tied 2nd fewest Big Ten). They lose arguably their best offensive player in QB Ben Chappell and best defensive player in Tyler Replogle and it would surprise me if the Hoosiers escape the basement of the newly formed Leaders div this year.

LEGENDS 1. NEBRASKA - The Big Ten didn't do Nebraska any favors schedule-wise in their first year as they matched the Huskers up vs the top 3 teams out of the Leaders div (OSU, PSU, Wisc) giving them the toughest schedule of any Big Ten member. LY NU had a potent offense when QB Martinez was healthy (38.9 ppg) but they avg just 22.9 ppg over the final 7 when he was banged up. They should maintain better health at the QB position and despite having just 12 returning st's, 67.9% lettermen returning (#10) and the tough schedule, I see the Huskers taking care of business at home in key games vs OSU and Mich St which should be enough to put them into the first ever Big Ten Title game.

1. MICHIGAN ST - This is probably the Spartans' best edition yet under Dantonio. LY they finished as Big Ten co-champs for the 1st time S/'90. They have a veteran QB in Kirk Cousins, the Big Ten's top set of RB's, the #3 set of rec's and a top-notch D despite the loss of AA LB Greg Jones. They also have my #1 rated ST in the league. That makes them a clear threat for the Big Ten Title but keep in mind despite their 7-1 Big Ten record LY, they were only +39.9 ypg (4th best), have just 12 ret st's, benefitted from 3 net close wins, had 7 sts lost to injury and all 4 Big Ten road games are vs bowl teams. They do catch OSU at less than 100% and probably need to win either at OSU or Nebraska to get to the Title game.

3. IOWA - After going 11-5 in the Big Ten in '08 and '09, Iowa was considered a Big Ten Title contender LY thanks to a favorable schedule but they finished a disappointing 4-4. In '08 UI was 9-4 with all 4 losses by 5 pts or less and rebounded to go 11-2. LY their 5 losses were all by 7 or less. While that points to a resurgence, Iowa's schedule is tougher and they benefitted from +13 in TO's. They have the least exp'd squad in the Big Ten with just 9 ret st's and 57.5% of their lettermen returning.

4. NORTHWESTERN - LY HC Pat Fitzgerald had 55 lettermen returning which was a school record and this year they top that with 56. Their record probably would have been better had QB Dan Persa not inj'd his Achilles celebrating a td pass vs Iowa as they were 7-3 at that point and dropped their last 3. NW's win total has gone from 9 to 8 to 7 the last 3 years but this is probably Fitzgerald's best Cats squad yet and they should reverse that trend TY.

4. MICHIGAN - There is no doubt if you just based this year's squad on talent and experience (16 ret st's) UM would be one of the favorites to win the Legends div. UM is going through their 3rd HC in 5 years and a drastic shift back away from the spread to a pro-style attack. I don't think the offense will be as potent with Robinson taking snaps under C but the good news is the D will be much improved. In the old days, you either put Michigan #1 or #2 in the Big Ten each year in preseason projections but this is not your father's Michigan tm as they have gone just 6-18 in Big Ten play the last 3 years with the high water mark of 3 wins. UM probably will not top that 3 win total this year.

6. MINNESOTA - The Tim Brewster experiment is over and ended as soon as Minn clinched a losing season last year. HC Jerry Kill inherits a veteran squad with 14 returning starters and the Gophers could have the most improved D in the country this year after allowing 392 ypg LY. A couple of my sets of power ratings actually call for a winning season but with a tough Big Ten schedule, I'll call this a rebuilding year and even Coach Kill compared it to his first year at S Illinois (1-10).

Big Ten Notes: For only the second time in nearly 60 years, the Big Ten expands this year by one member as they welcome in Nebraska. They will hold the first Big Ten championship game on Dec 3 at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis and instead of going with the normal geographical names for its divisions came up with the controversial "Leaders" and "Legends". LY the Big Ten went 3-5 in bowl games but had an embarrassing NY's day as they went 0-5 including 52-14 and 49-7 defeats at the hands of SEC schools. The conf got another BCS bowl win (3-1 L/2 yrs) and had 29 draft picks excluding Nebraska (#4 overall). Overall the conf went 29-13 vs FBS schools LY and finished #2 in my toughest conference rankings last year (see pg 18).

OHIO ST BUCKEYES

QB Terrelle Pryor

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - The moment Terrelle Pryor signed with OSU he was anointed an instant savior by Buckeye fans (PS#1). As a true frosh in '08 he threw for 1,311 (61%, 12-4, 631 rush) while starting 10. In '09 he threw for 2,094 (57%, 18-11) and was the #1 rusher (779, 4.8) becoming the first QB to lead Ohio St in rushing since Les Horvath (Heisman winner) in 1944. Pryor had a great Rose Bowl hitting 23-37-266 (72 rush) winning MVP honors. Backup Joe Bauserman (PS#59) hit just 6-19 for 124 in '09. In '10 Pryor studied much more film and nearly topped (157.9) Bobby Hoving's school record in pass eff (163.4 in '95). He became the first primary starting QB since the end of WWII to lead his team to Big Ten Titles in his frosh, soph and junior years. Pryor threw for 2,772 (65%, 27-11) and was the #2 rusher (754, 5.6). Against Ohio U, Pryor completed a school record 16 straight passes (Jim Karsatos 12 in '85). He injured his leg vs Illinois and was not 100% the next few wks and vs Indiana did not have a designed run attempt (3 sk). Pryor will be susp'd for the first 5 of '11 but was allowed to play in the bowl where he hit 14-25-221-2-0 (rush 116) to earn his 2nd straight bowl MVP award. He returns along with 26 yr old Bauserman (16-22-174) and soph Kenny Gulton (6'2" 190, PS#116). Added in are PS#2 true frosh Braxton Miller (IFS) and rFr Taylor Graham (6'4" 225, PS#35). Pryor may be rusty when he returns midseason and this position will not match last year's numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Chris "Beanie" Wells (PS#1) set an OSU soph record with 1,609 (5.9) in '07. Despite missing 3 in '08, he rushed for 1,197 (5.8) and was the team's MVP. Dan "Boom" Herron (PS#44) was the #2 RB in '08 with 439 (4.9) and began '09 as the starter but only rushed for 600 (3.9). QB Pryor led in rushing in '09. Brandon Saine (PS#2) led the RB's with 739 (5.1) while true frosh Jordan Hall (PS#45) added 248 (5.2). LY they added rFr Jaamal Berry (PS#7). Saine struggled and was used mostly as a rec (#3) after Wk 3 and finished #2 RB (337, 4.8). Herron led with 1,155 (5.3) and 16 td's and now has 500 career touches without losing a fumble. FB Zach Boren is a solid blocker (OL of wk vs Ill) and had OSU's first FB carry since '07. Berry rushed for 266 with a team high 8.3 ypc while Hall added 161 (4.4). True frosh Carlos Hyde (6'0" 238 So, PS#29) had 141 (5.9). This year they lose Saine and Herron will be susp'd for the first 5. Rod Smith (PS#9) arrived late LY and RS but the 6'3" 220 lb power back was impressive in bowl practice. He has size, speed and has been compared to Wells. Not listed below are FB's James Georgiades (5'11" 240 Jr) & David Durham (6'1" 231 rFr, PS#69). Look for improved numbers from the Buckeye RB's despite Herron's susp.

RECEIVERS - Ohio St is quickly becoming another "WR U." They had three 1st round WR picks in '06 and '07 comb'd. In '09 they had to replace #2 and #4 DC's, Dane Sanzenbacher (PS#106) was the top returnee (272, 13.0 in '08). I expected big things out of DeVier Posey (PS#4). Posey (11 rec true) led with 828 (13.8) in '09 but finished #2 in '10 (848, 16.0) behind Sanzenbacher's 948 (17.2). TE Jake Stoneburner (PS#4) was on pace for the most rec's by a TE under Tressel until an injury and finished #3 (222, 10.6). This year they lose the clutch playmaker Sanzenbacher (13 sts) and Taurian Washington (1 st, 5 rec) while Posey is susp'd for the first 5. Stoneburner and RB Hall were used frequently in the slot in the spg as none of the young WR's had really stepped up. This unit is less exp'd and will be down a few notches.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 OSU had to replace 3 st's and had a poor 1H of the year but got a lot stronger in the 2H as they ran for 200+ yds in 5 of the last 6. With mobile QB Pryor (779 rush) the OL opened holes for 195 ypg rush (4.5) with 24 sks (7.6%). LY they had to replace 1 st'r (93 car sts back) and improved to 220 ypg rush with their 5.2 ypc being OSU's best in over 2 decades (22 sks, 6.3%). TY they lose 1st Tm B10 LG Justin Boren (13 st, 3Y st'r), RG Bryant Browning (13 st, 3Y st'r), Connor Smith (13 gm) and Andrew Miller (13 gm). With 77 career sts incl 1st Tm AAC Mike Brewster, they should come close to '10's production despite missing 1st Tm B10 LT Mike Adams for the first 5.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 the Buckeyes had a veteran D-line and their usually tough defense allowed just 91 ypg (2.9, 30 sk). LY they had to replace 2 st's (#4, #7 DC's) and 2 bkps (comb 8 st, 37 tkl). Cameron Heyward turned down the NFL so 1.5 st's ret. After playing an 8 DL rotation in the first 6, OSU played just 5 DL vs Wisc as the staff didn't trust the younger players and the Bucks allowed a season rush yd high 184 (4.3). The less exp'd line still fared well allowing just 97 ypg (3.1) but the 23 cars were their fewest in more than a decade. This year they lose DE Heyward (13 st, #6 tkl'r, 13 tfl) and DT Dexter Larimore (13 st, #11 tkl'r, 4 sk) but do have 6 of the top 8 back. Interestingly Heyward became the 3rd OSU DL in the L2Y to be drafted by the Steelers (#1DC) prompting PIT HC Tomlin to remark that OSU's D is the closest in the college gm to what the Steelers run. Despite the loss of their star, this is a deeper unit which should put more pressure on QB's.

LINEBACKERS - In 2008 James Laurinaitis won Big Ten DPOY while Marcus Freeman was 2nd Tm Big Ten. In 2009 those 2 departed (#2, #5DC's) and the top 2 returnees were only the #4 and #15 tkl'rs. They did add PS#4, PS#7 and PS#9 true frosh. Brian Rolle (#2 tkl'r '09) was given #36 which had been the # of AA LB's Spielman, Cousineau and Marek. He teamed with #1 tackler Ross Homan to put up comparable numbers to the Laurinaitis/Freeman duo (214 tkl '08 vs 203 '09). Last year they had to replace 1 starter but the top 2 returned. Rolle and Homan were the top 2 again but this time combined for just 148 tkl as Homan missed 2 (inj) and SLB Sweat (PS#13) missed one. This year they lose MLB Rolle (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 11.5 tfl, #6DC PHI) and WLB Homan (11 st, #2 tkl'r, 2 tfl, #6DC MIN). Sweat was the #9 tkl'r and they RS projected starter Etienne Sabino (PS#7). VHT's Storm Klein and Jordan Whiting combined for just 20 tkl's. I like this unit's potential but with the loss of their top 2, I'll call it down a few notches.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Since '97 OSU has had 7 #1DC DB's with 24 drafted overall. Even in a year like '06 when they had to replace all 4 st's (#1, #3, #4DC's), OSU still finished #12 in my PDR (10-21 ratio). They lost #1 and #4 DC's in '09 but finished #12 (10-24 ratio). LY they had to replace 2 st's only losing a #7DC and improved to #5 (53.8%, 9-19) despite season ending inj's to 4 S's by Halloween. This year they lose 1st Tm AA CB Chimdi Chekwa (13 st, #8 tkl'r, 3 int, 9 pbu, #4DC OAK), CB Devon Torrence (13 st, #4 tkl'r, 2 int, 8 pbu) and 1st Tm B10 FS Jermale Hines (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 5 pd, #5DC STL). This unit is less exp'd and weaker overall but history says they should still finish in the top 20.

SPECIAL TEAMS - OSU has recorded two #1 finishes in my ST rankings ('94 and '04). Jim Tressel has been quoted as saying the punt is the most important play in football and holds scrimmages in spring and Aug devoted exclusively to ST's. In '07 they only finished #41 but in '08, moved back to #5. OSU's ST play has been surprisingly inconsistent the last 2 yrs. They finished #41 in '09 and LY had to replace their K, P and top RM. OSU gave up a KR and a PR td (vs Mia) in the same gm and 2 KR td on the year both for the first time ever. RFr Jaamal Berry was a top-notch KR (25.4) while Jordan Hall was solid on PR's (9.9). Devin Barclay hit an outstanding 20-24 FG's (L48). Drew Basil (PS#4) had 9 TB's on 87 KO but had his 2 FG attempts (both 50+) blk'd. Ben Buchanan avg 41.0 (34.3 net) with 2 P's blk'd. The Buckeyes had their worst finish S/99 (#73) at #49. OSU spent a 2011 scholarship on LS Bryce Haynes and should move back up.

COACHES - In Jim Tressel's 2nd yr, he became the 1st cch to win an NCAA Title at both the IAA and IA levels. He was the COY in '02 and enters his 12th ssn with a record 6 straight Big Ten Titles and 6 straight BCS appearances. OC Jim Bollman also coaches the OL (12 yr). The last 6 yrs they have used co-DC's in Jim Heacock and Luke Fickell who will serve as the interim HC for the susp'd Tressel in the first 5 of '11. Heacock calls the def plays and won the Broyles Award (NCAA's top asst) in '07. Prior to Heacock's 15 yrs here he was the HC at Illinois St ('88-'95).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Ohio St actually finished outside of the AP Top 25 for 3 straight years prior to 2002. I rated Ohio St #7 in '02 which was far higher than almost every other source. I called them my #1 Surprise Team (darkhorse contender for the Nat'l Title) while only 2 other preseason magazines even picked OSU to win the Big Ten. OSU took home their first Nat'l Title since 1968 (Woody Hayes' 3rd) when they defeated Miami. Since that National Title, OSU has finished in the Top 5 in the AP poll 6 of 8 years with their other 2 seasons finishing #9 and #20. They played for the Nat'l championship in '06 and '07 but lost to a pair of SEC schools. They had lost 3 straight BCS games but defeated Oregon (Rose Bowl) in '09 finishing #5. LY the Buckeyes got to #1 but went into Wisc with ESPN Gameday on hand for a night game and lost to the Badgers 31-18. The Buckeyes ripped through the rest of their schedule including a key road win at Iowa and then beat Ark in the Sugar Bowl to finish 12-1 but just #5. OSU finished in a 3 way tie for tops in the Big Ten which was the 6th straight time they won at least a share of the Title. This year the Buckeyes move into the Leaders division of the Big Ten and will be without QB Pryor, RB Herron, WR Posey, DE Thomas, LT Adams and coach Tressel for the first 5 (maybe more for Tressel). Those susp plus the fact that OSU was +15 in TO's in '10, benefitted from 2 net close wins, only had 7 sts lost to injury and had an off ypp of 11.6, have them pointed down. On the positive side their +164 ypg was by far the league's best with their fellow co-champs Mich St at +39.9 ypg and Wisc +80.5 ypg. Also for the first time since 2003 no underclassmen declared for the draft. With everyone available, OSU is the best in the Big Ten and a National Title contender. It is early May when I am writing this and I am not sure what additional actions the NCAA will take (hearing in Aug). If the penalties are minimal for this season I feel they have a great shot at a 7th straight Big Ten Title.

OSU has won 32 str home openers by 21 ppg and the last loss was vs Penn St (78). The Buckeyes are 27-1 all-time vs the MAC and 6-1 vs Akron (lost in 1894).

Coming into 2011, OSU is 42-0-1 vs instate schools since 1922. OSU has shutout UT in both meetings including the L/gm in '09, 38-0 at Browns Stadium (23-9 FD & 522-210 yd edge).

LY vs UM for the 1st time since 1936, Ohio St all'd both a PR and KR TD in the same gm. This will mark the 4th different venue. OSU is 3-1 vs UM incl the 2002 Nat'l Championship.

OSU is 3-1 vs CU with the L/meeting a 13-10 win in Columbus in '86. The Buckeyes and Buffaloes agreed to this gm just about 1 yr ago. Under Tressel, OSU is 7-2 hosting non-conf/BCS tms.

In the L/meeting in '08 OSU won 45-7 as they led 28-0 at HT w/a 254-60 yd edge forcing 5 TD's. In '98 at home #1 OSU lost to a unranked MSU squad 28-24 costing them a National Title shot.

OSU is 2-0 vs NU but they last played in '56. This will be the first trip to Lincoln. Under Tressel the Buckeyes are 31-9 in Big 10 road gms including 21-3 the L6Y, avg win by 20 ppg.

The visitor is 14-5 S'90 & OSU has won its L/8 trips to Champaign including LY. The Buckeyes only led 14-10 into the 4Q & after QB Pryor was injured ran 24 of 28 plays.

Penn St: OSU was down 14-3 at HT LY but rallied in the 2H holding PSU to just 55 yds on 26 plays marking the biggest comeback under Tressel (OSU had TD's on 5 of 1st 6 2H drives).

OSU allowed 31 pts LY to UW which is the most S'08 (35 vs #1 USC). The L2Y OSU has been outgained and UW is the only tm to beat OSU 4x's the last decade (next closest was 2x).

OSU has beaten IU 16 str & outrushed them on avg the L/7 gms 228-33 (5.7-1.1). The Buckeyes are 30-1-1 hosting the Hoosiers S'52 (only loss in '87, Earl Bruce's last ssn at the helm).

OSU got revenge LY from '09 loss as they dominated PU holding them to under 100 yds till the final poss & the deepest penetration was the OSU39. Visitor is just 2-8 the L/10 yrs.

Buckeyes have had 6 IRTD's in the L/7 gms. Last OSU Big 10 home loss was vs PSU in '08.

LY OSU started off slow (outgained 118-13 after 2 poss each) but UM was SOD on the OSU28 & fgm on the OSU9. LTH OSU only led 14-10 3Q but held UM to a punt, 3 int's & a SOD on the L/5 drives.

WISCONSIN BADGERS

LB Chris Borland

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Dustin Sherer started the last 7 and threw for 1,389 (55%, 6-5) and was #1 out of spring '09. Athletic VHT r/r Curt Phillips (PS#18) moved in front in Aug and #3 Scott Tolzien (107 yds '08) moved to the bkp spot. Sherer dropped to #3 (only 1 gm). Phillips had 8 int's the first wk of Aug practice so Tolzien took over the top spot. Phillips became the first UW frosh QB to play in an opener since Brooks Bollinger in '99. He appeared in just 3 more however as Tolzien was named B10 POW vs Mich St (4 td). Tolzien had an 0-5 ratio vs Iowa and Ohio St (2 IR td's) but still led the league in pass eff with a strong finish (2,705, 64.3%, 16-11) posting a schl rec 211 comp. LY they added r/r Jon Budmayr (PS#39). Tolzien led the FBS in comp % during the reg ssn while setting a school record hitting 72.9% (Darrell Bevell 67.8% in '93) and also won the Johnny Unitas Award for best Sr QB. He threw for 2,459 (16-6). Phillips was inj'd and Budmayr played in 3 (8-10-134). Battling Budmayr are r/r Joe Brennan (PS#47), true frosh preferred walk-on Joel Stave (PS#122) who was IFS and Nate Tice (PS#145, Mike's son). Not in the PSL are Drew McAdams (6'0" 190 r/r) and frosh Lance Baretz (PS#178). Phillips is OFY after the 3rd ACL tear in his right knee. This unit goes from an exp'd veteran who led the Big Ten in pass eff to a unit which contains 2 scholarship QB's who have combined to throw 10 career passes.

RUNNING BACKS - UW had a streak of 10 straight yrs with a 1,000 yard rusher until inj's slowed the top back in '03 and '04. UW started a new streak in '05 (6 str). R/r John Clay (PS#3) was #2 in '08 with 884 (5.7). Clay rushed for 1,517 (5.3) in '09 with 18 td's. True frosh Montee Ball (PS#64) took off his RS in Wk 5 and rushed for 391 (4.0). Zach Brown (PS#151) added 279 (4.2). LY this unit nearly set an NCAA record, coming up just 4 yds short of having THREE 1,000 yd rushers. Despite being banged up and missing nearly 3 gms Clay earned 3rd TM AA AP. The top 3 all had 14+ td's (Big Ten rec). Clay rushed for 1,012 but his 5.4 ypc was the lowest of the 3. Bielema said the diff between the RB's was that Clay is 1st gear, Ball is 2nd gear and White 3rd. True frosh James White (PS#59) led with 1,052 and he teamed with Ball to become the 2nd duo in schl hist to top 150 in the same game (Mich). Ball had 132 in the bowl (996, 6.1, 18 td). Ryan Groy (PS#53OL, 315 lb) took snaps at FB. TY Clay left early for the NFL draft but White and Ball return as does Brown. Not listed below are Jeffrey Lewis (6'2" 210 r/r, PS#83), Kyle Zuleger (5'11" 183 So, 17 yd) and FB Jason Hengel (6'2" 234 r/r). It will be tough to top 2010's production but this unit looks just as strong.

RECEIVERS - The TE is a big part of the Badger offense and Garrett Graham led with 540 (13.5) in 2008. In 2009 Graham was #2 with 624 (12.2) and 6'3" WR Nick Toon (AI's son, PS#14) led with 805 (14.9). Isaac Anderson was #3 with 480 (16.0) and TE Lance Kendricks (9 st) had 356 (12.3). Kendricks, who is also an outstanding blocker, led UW with 663 (15.4) last year becoming the 5th UW TE to be drafted (#2DC STL) since 2006. Injury-riddled Toon was #2 with 459 (12.8) missing 4 and David Gilreath was #3 (370, 16.1). Walk-on former-QB Jared Abbrederis (6'2" 180 So) had 289 (14.4). This year they lose Kendricks (11 st), Anderson (6 st), Kyle Jefferson (4 rec) and Gilreath (7 st). Promising WR Marquis Mason (6'4" 231 r/r, PS#81) will miss '11 (ACL). It will be interesting to see who steps in at TE, but with 3 of the top 5 gone and Toon missed spring, this unit looks to be down a few notches.

OFFENSIVE LINE - When I think of Wisconsin, I think of big O-lines and power rush attacks so it was surprising to me in '08 (4 starters back) that they had their best rushing production of the decade at just 211 ypg (4.8). In '09 they had to replace a #3DC and 2 other 3 yr str's (121 car st lost) but nearly matched those numbers with 204 ypg rush (4.6, 23 sk). LY the unit had 9 of their top 10 back (107 career starts) and avg 320 lbs. I called them the Big Ten's best OL and my #2 OL in the country. As you would expect, the Badgers' huge O-line opened holes for 246 ypg rush (5.5) with just 14 sacks (5.1%), their lowest total in recent history. This year they lose 1st TM AA LT Gabe Carimi (13 st, 4Y str, B10 OLPOY, #1DC CHI), 1st TM AA LG John Moffitt (13 st, 4Y str, #3DC SEA) and Bill Nagy (8 st, #7DC DAL). LY's unit did lose RT Josh Oglesby (10 st '09) after 2 sts so they basically have 4 full-time starters back. With the loss of a couple of 1st TM AA's and last year's rushing production their best since 1999, I'll call them down a notch or two but still among the Big Ten's best.

DEFENSIVE LINE - UW had to replace 3 str's (120 car st) incl a #3DC in '09. The less exp'd group surprisingly improved allowing a Big Ten best 88 ypg (2.9) and did not allow 100 yds rushing in any conf game. LY they lost 1st TM B10 DE O'Brien Schofield (12 sk, 12.5, #4DC) and 2 other str's. They were equal to '09 in terms of exp and JJ Watt had a great year but the numbers slipped a little to 128 ypg rush allowed (3.9, 23 sk). This year they lose 1st TM B10 DE Watt (13 st, #2 tk/r, 7 sk, 14 tfl, #1DC HOU). Even with the loss of their top guy, they have 7 of the top 8 back making it their most exp'd unit in 3 yrs.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 r/r Mike Taylor (PS#66) was the #1 tk/r before he was OFY vs Iowa. True frosh Chris Borland took his place and was the Big Ten's FPOY (#5 tk/r). The Badgers allowed an impressive 306 ypg (#17 FBS). LY the Badgers had 2 ret str's at LB for the 3rd straight year. Five of the top 6 were back but Borland was OFY after 2 sts. Taylor missed most of Aug and was slowed by a knee brace most of the season. They had their top 4 LB's for just 6 plays vs Ariz St when Borland got inj'd in the 1Q but still all'd just 322 ypg (#20 FBS). This year they lose OLB Blake Sorensen (11 st, #1 tk/r), MLB Culmer St Jean (12 st, #2 tk/r, 3 tfl) and Kevin Rouse (15 tk/r, 2 sk). Not in the PSL are Josh Harrison (6'0" 221 r/r, PS#216), Greg Russo (6'3" 246 Sr) and Coddie Ring-Noonan (5'10" 220 Jr, 3 tk/r). The Taylor/Borland combo return making them close to last year in terms of experience and they should remain healthier.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UW usually fields a strong secondary. They finished #7 in my PDR in '04, #19 in '05 and #2 in '06. UW slipped to #57 in '07 but with 3 starters back, were #35 in '08. With 2 starters back they were #45 in '09. Last year the unit returned intact (Smith lost job to Brinkley) so it surprised me that they only finished #43. Adding depth are Jerry Ponio (6'1" 200 So) and Frank Tamakloe (6'3" 182 r/r, PS#112). This year they lose CB Niles Brinkley (13 st, #7 tk/r, 9 pbu) and SS Jay Valai (12 st, #9 tk/r, 1 int, 3 pbu). This unit is less experienced but could actually move up in the PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Bielema's first year UW finished #44 in my ST rankings and moved up to #13 in '07. In '08 Philip Welch hit 20-24 FG's (long 52) while Brad Nortman had a net of 35.3. Poor coverage units had them slip back to #93. In '09 Welch hit just 17-24 FG's (2 miss 50+) although he did nail a 57 yarder (2nd longest school hist. John Hall, 60 in '95, Metro-dome). Nortman avg 42.0 (35.7 net). LY Nortman improved to 42.7 (37.6 net) and Welch had 10 TB's on 92 KO's while hitting 17-22 FG (L49) with 1 miss from 67'. Coverage units again were a problem and they only moved up to #84. This year they lose solid RM David Gilreath (24.4 KR including 97 yd vs OSU) but with Welch and Nortman back, should improve.

COACHES - After 17 years Barry Alvarez stepped aside in '06 as UW's all-time leader in wins (118), although he remains the AD. He handpicked his successor, Bret Bielema, who was brought in from K-St as the DC in '04. When he first took over, Bielema was the NCAA's 2nd youngest HC. After a 12-1 debut in '06, Bielema was named the Big Ten COY and has had his contract extended through 2015. LY he led UW to a share of the Big Ten Title (1st S/'99). Paul Chryst, who was the OC at Oregon St in '03-'04, came in as the "co-OC" in '05 and took over as the primary OC in '06. Although Chryst has received overtures from the NFL and colleges for HC jobs he has stayed and also had his contract extended through 2015. Dave Doeren was a DC here for 5 yrs but departs for NIU. The new co-DC's are Chris Ash who spent 8 of the L10y as the Iowa ST DB cch (SDSt DB cch '07-'08) prior to arriving in Madison LY and Charlie Partridge who has been the DL cch here since 2008 after spending 5 seasons as a Pitt asst (DL 4 years).

PHIL'S FORECAST

The Badgers' 2005 offense set a school record with 34.3 ppg and in Barry Alvarez's last year they went 10-3 to finish #15. Bret Bielema has done a fine job taking over for the legend and is now 49-16 finishing #7, #24, NR, #16 and #7. Ironically, his weakest season came in '08 when they had 16 ret str's and entered the season #13 (finished 7-6). That put them well under the radar in '09 and they were not ranked after 5 wks despite opening 5-0. UW's '08 squad was -8 in TO's and had 48 sts lost to injury with a def ypg of 12.4, all signs which pointed towards '09 success. The Badgers went 10-3 including a win over Miami, FL in the chilly Champs Sports Bowl. That '09 squad had just 10 ret str's and LY they had 16 str's back from a team that was +81.3 ypg in Big Ten play. They opened 4-0 but then on the road at Mich St, lost 34-24 being outgained 444-292. After a win over Minny, ESPN Gameday was on hand for a night game in Madison and they upset the #1 ranked Buckeyes. In a letdown spot the next week, they used a fake punt in the 4Q from deep in their own territory to set up a td and Iowa mismanaged the clock and UW escaped with a 1 pt win. The Badgers then dominated their final 4 defenseless losses with 83 vs Ind and 70 vs NW (both tms used bkp QB's the majority of the game), rising to #4 in the AP Poll. The Badgers won a share of the Big Ten Title for the first time since 1999. Even with their big blowout wins, UW was +80.5 ypg in Big Ten play (83.6 weaker than #1 Ohio St). In the Rose Bowl they lost to #3 TCU 21-19 getting stopped on a 2 pt conversion with 2:00 left. UW did have 5 players earn AP AA honors, their most ever. This year UW has just 12 ret str's losing the B10's pass eff leader, #5 rusher and DE Watt who was #2 in tfl. The Badgers benefitted from +14 in TO's and an offensive ypg of 10.7 which was actually the best mark in the FBS (pg 299). All of those signs point to UW not matching LY's 11 win total even though they are likely to be favored in 10 of their 12 games this year. How they fare in B2B road games vs Mich St and Ohio St will be the key to their season.

UW is 7-2 vs UNLV & LY jumped out to a 14-0 lead but was only up by 3 at HT before a 24 pt 3Q outburst w/174 yds. The Badgers have won 15 str Camp Randall openers by an avg of 18 ppg.

The last/only prior meeting was in 1961, UW won 23-20 in Madison. The Badgers have won 9 str at home vs non-conf BCS tms by an avg 11 ppg (last loss in '95 vs #14 CU).

UW is 11-1 vs NIU but this gm is at Solider Field & considered a NIU HG (prior 12 in Madison). In '09 (L/meeting) UW won 28-20 but was up 28-10 into the 4Q holding NIU to 3 of 12 on 3D.

UW played SD in '75 (only meeting) and won 48-7. The Coyotes were 4-7 LY including a 38-7 loss vs UCF but beat Minn 41-38 the following wk. UW hasn't lost to a FCS school S'50.

Badgers are 2-3 vs the Huskers but they last played in '74, UW won 21-20 in Madison. Under Bielema UW is just 4-8 vs ranked opp's in the reg ssn w/ the avg score of 20-27.

Minnesota: UW has kept the Paul Bunyan's Axe for a series record 7 straight years. Illinois: Visitor is 0-3 the L/3 games but the Badgers are 10-3-1 vs the Illini since 1993.

LY's 83pts were the most for UW S'15 (85-0 win vs Marquette). RB Ball had 167 yds (7.6) w/3 TD's in his 1st career start (Clay inj). LY's gm was tied 10-10 early 2Q before 35 unanswered for UW.

LY UW led 10-3 early 2Q but trailed 27-24 late 4Q. MSU sealed the win with a 84/15pt TD drive scoring on 48 inches (drive took 7:57). Under Bielema UW is 10-10 on the B10 road (6-3 L/9).

LY UW led 21-0 but OSU cut it to 21-18 (4Q) before a 73/10pt clinching TD drive, 1st time S'81 UW beat a #1 ranked opp. LTH UW held OSU to a ssn low 184 yds (all'd 2 IR TD's & a KR TD).

Wisconsin has won 5 str & has outscored Purdue 89-6 in the final 3Q's the L/3 gms (no TD's all'd).

LY UW only led 14-9 at HT but the Badgers scored TD's on their 1st 4 2H poss outgaining Minn 331-193.

UW lost 31-26 in its L/visit to Champaign ('07) but trailed 17-0 & 31-19 late being outgained by 109 yds (-10 FD).

UW is 14-4-2 in Camp Randall finales S'91. HT is 4-1 & the winner in this series has won each by DD's.

PENN ST NITTANY LIONS

LB Michael Mauti

QUARTERBACKS - In just 2 yrs as a starter, Darryl Clark finished with 6 PSU records including passing yds (3,003) and tds (24). Kevin Newsome (PS#10) played in 10 (8-11-66) and had 95 rush (4.8) as a true as Clark's backup in '09. LY Newsome battled true frosh Paul Jones (PS#7, IFS), Rob Bolden (PS#5) and former walk-on Matt McGloin (PS#171). Bolden won the job and became the first true frosh QB to start here since '92 (Wally Richardson) and the first ever to start the opener. He was inconsistent at times but keep in mind he made his first 2 road starts at Alabama and Iowa, 2 tough venues vs top 25 D's. Bolden hit 11-13 vs Minn before being inj'd in the 2Q. Newsome had hit 6-13-78 (66 rush, best athlete of QB's) but they surprisingly went to McGloin who JoePa said "is a little bit more stable." McGloin's first pass was a 42 yd td vs Minn and he guided the road win. McGloin got his first start vs Mich engineering the home upset and becoming the first walk-on to start at QB in the Paterno era. Bolden ret'd from inj and st'd vs NW but was pulled after a fumble on the 2nd series. McGloin led 5 straight td drives matching the biggest comeback (trailing 21-0) in the Paterno era. The brash McGloin predicted a big game traveling into Ohio St. A PSU QB had not thrown a td pass in Columbus in the Big Ten era (8 gms S'93) but he had 2 in the 1H (but 4-17-43 2 IR tds 2H). He became the first PSU QB to have B2B 300 yd gms (Indy, Mich St). In the bowl McGloin hit 17-41 with 5 int's (13-4 ratio prior) but was not pulled. Bolden and Newsome considered transfers but both ret'd (either could still leave). McGloin and Bolden split the #1 snaps in the spring. PSU QB's combined for 55% with a 19-16 ratio LY. I look for much improved numbers no matter who wins the job as the group is vastly more experienced.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 Rodney Kinlaw became the 11th Lion to top 1,000 yds rushing with 1,329 (5.5). RFR Evan Royster (PS#18) was the power back (513, 6.3). In '08 they had to replace Kinlaw and Royster improved his speed. RFR Stephon Green (4.29 spd) rushed for 578 (5.5) while Royster rushed for 1,236 (6.6). In '09 Royster struggled with the flu early but got back into form (1169, 5.7). Green was inj'd early and #2 RB Brandon Beachum (PS#14) had just 113 (4.7) before an ACL inj. Green finished #2 with 319 (4.5). Last year Royster had his ypc drop to 4.9 but was #1 again with 1,014. Green rushed for 188 (3.9) and they added in true frosh Silas Redd (PS#10) who was #2 (437, 5.7). Royster (#6DC WAS) was not the fastest, the most powerful nor the most elusive RB to play for PSU but left as the school's career leading rusher (Royster says Redd will break his record). Even with the loss of their 3 time 1,000 yard rusher, this unit could be more productive.

RECEIVERS - In '05 Paterno brought in an excellent class of true frosh as those 3 WR's were the top 3 rec's in all 4 of their seasons. In '09 the unit was a major ? as they had to replace their #2 and #3 career rec's and the team's MVP in '08 (2 #3DC's). While the 3 that departed combined for 1,932 (14.6) in 2008, 2009's top 3 incl TE Andrew Quarless combined for 1,921 (14.2). Derek Moye is 6'5" (4.38 spd) and led with 785 (16.4) while Graham Zug had 600 (13.0). LY PSU was hit hard at TE as they had to replace #5 and #7DC's. Andrew Szczesba (PS#26), the only exp'd TE (2 rec), was lost in August and RFR Gary Gilliam (6'6" 275 So, PS#145) started 3 of the first 4 (1 rec) before an ACL. True frosh Kevin Haplea (PS#11) led the TE's with 3 rec's. WR Moye led with 885 (16.7) while HB/WR Brett Brackett (PS#37) had 525 (13.5). The 6'3" soph Justin Brown (PS#20) was #3 (452, 13.7) and diminutive 5'7" Devon Smith (4.19 spd) added 363 (13.4). Surprisingly, Zug had just 194 (11.4). This year they lose Zug (2 st) and Brackett (11 st) while Gilliam (knee) and versatile WR/Wildcat QB Curtis Drake (5'11" 173 Jr) may also miss the season. They have 3 of the top 4 WR's back, to form what should be an improved group.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 the Lions OL had 93.8% sts ret and they opened holes for 206 ypg rush (5.2) while allowing just 13 sks (3.4%). In '09 they had to replace 3 st's including the Rimington Award winner, a 3rd Tm AA OG and a 1st Tm B10 LT. They did shuffle the OL at times but the numbers only dropped to 170 ypg (4.7) with 17 sks (4.3%). LY they had to replace a 3rd Tm AA LT but had 3 st's back including Stefan Wisniewski who moved from C to RG. Surprisingly, the more veteran unit only opened holes for 143 ypg (4.1) but did allow a paltry 12 sks (2.8%). RT Lou Eliades (13 st '09) was lost after 4 st's (ACL) and DeOn'tae Pannell (7 st '09) only started 2 so they essentially had three 1st time st's with 4 playing different positions than what they played the year before. This year they lose 1st Tm B10 RG Wisniewski (13 st, 3Y st'r, #2DC OAK), C Doug Klopacz (13 st) and RT Eliades but with 3 starters back, should have improved production.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Penn St had not allowed over 94 ypg rush in the 5 yrs prior to '10 thanks in part to this unit. LY they had to replace Jared Odrick (#1DC) who became PSU's 4th Big Ten DPOY and the league's first interior DL to win the award S'93 (Dan Wilkinson, Ohio St). They had 31 sts and 18.5 sks back, and it surprised me that they "only" had 5 VHT's in the entire group. The unit was hit hard by inj's as through the first 6 the DL had just 5 st's. DE Jack Crawford (13 st '09) only st'd 7 (foot inj). Projected st'r DE Eric Latimore (5 st '09) only st'd 3 (6 tkl). PSU shockingly all'd 166 ypg (4.5, 17 sk), their worst numbers S'03. This year they lose DT Ollie Ogbu (12 st, #8 tkl'r, 8.5 tfl) and DE Pete Massaro (11 st, #11 tkl'r, ACL in spg) and after being unusually weak up front LY, should return to their previous standards.

LINEBACKERS - "Linebacker U" had a surprising streak of 6 straight yrs without a LB drafted ('01-'06). They now have had 6 in the last 4 years including 3 in 2010 (#2, #3, #7 DC's). LY the LB unit is inexperienced (7 st, 68 tkl ret) and inj's likely had something to do with the Lions' uncharacteristically porous rush D. True frosh Khairi Fortt (PS#5) was impressive despite stingers. The top 2, Mauti (ankle/shoulder) and Hodges (leg), battled injuries. Against Illinois, the unit was very banged up missing 2 starters and a couple of bkps. This year the Lions lose ILB Chris Colasanti (11 st, #1 tkl'r) and OLB Bani Gbadyu (10 st, #7 tkl'r). While 2 st's depart, they return their #3 and #5 tkl's. This unit is more experienced and has 8 VHT's in the 3 deep.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - PSU has had five Top 10 finishes in my PDR in the last 14 yrs. In '06 they had to replace all 4 st's and still finished #16. In '09 they again had to replace 4 st's and were #23. LY they only had to replace 2 (comb 12 st, 57 tkl). I was stunned to see that Penn St finished #69 (61%, 19-10). This year the only loss is Andrew Dailey (2 st, 16 tkl). WR Chaz Powell moved to CB and st'd the last 6 so they have 6 back who st'd 6+. One of the reasons for LY's drop was that the D went from 37 sacks to 17. With a stronger front 7, I expect PSU to have one of the most improved PDR's in the country.

SPECIAL TEAMS - PSU finished #17 in my ST rankings in '06, #36 in '07 and #4 in '08. In '09 I was shocked as it was probably Paterno's worst ST unit ever (#115) with major gaffes in their losses to Iowa and OSU. LY improvement had to be expected and the Lions rose to #34. In '09 Collin Wagner hit 15-22 FG's (L47) but was 1-5 from 40+. He improved greatly in '10 to 20-25 (L49) and 8-11 from 40+. VHT rFr P Anthony Fera (PS#3) avg 41.4 (tm net 36.8) and had 19 TB's on 49 KO's. Fera missed the L2 reg ssn gms after an appendectomy and true frosh Alex Butterworth (PS#27) avg 38.1 on 12 punts. KR Chaz Powell avg 23.2 in '09 and LY including a 100 yd vs YSU (Lions 1st S'75), he avg 24.0. Despite the loss of a quality K, this unit could improve once again.

COACHES - Joe Paterno is the NCAA's IA all-time career win leader and has been elected to the College Football Hall of Fame. Paterno has won 2 National Titles ('82 & '86) and four other times has finished undefeated. He has won more bowls than any other coach (24) and has moved past Amos Alonzo Stagg for the longest HC tenure at one school. To put Paterno's legendary numbers in perspective his 401 wins are 161 more than the #2 active coach (Beamer, VT). The OC since '04 is Galen Hall, who was the HC at Florida (1984-'89). The DC is Tom Bradley who is in his 33rd year at Penn St and 12th as DC. Since 1966 when Paterno took over, there have been 883 FBS coaching changes.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Joe Paterno has done remarkable things but PSU actually had 4 losing seasons out of 5 from 2000-'04. Paterno's squad rebounded with a vengeance in '05 going 11-1 and finishing #3. The next 2 yrs they finished #24 (9-4 '06) and unranked (9-4 '07). In '08, out of the 14 sources documented by stassen.com, five did not even have the Lions RANKED (#22 AP) and I had the only publication to put them in the Top 10. PSU rose as high as #3 at 9-0 when they suffered a tough loss at Iowa (led 23-14 4Q). After a rare bowl loss for Paterno (to USC) they finished #8 but were by far #1 in the Big Ten in ypg (+124.2) and had 38 sts lost due to injury. In '09 they were #5 when they lost to unranked Iowa at home, 21-10. Later they lost to #15 Ohio St at home 24-7 but after beating LSU in the Capital One Bowl, finished #9 in the AP Poll. LY it looked like a rebuilding year and they were the first team in NCAA history to face 3 teams that won BCS bowl gms the previous year. They had to face all 3 (Ala, Iowa, Ohio St) on the road with just 12 ret st's, 21 lett lost including 20 pts lost in the NFL draft (pg 308). The Lions lost 4 gms by 20+ pts for the first time since 1897. Penn St had 3 drives inside #1 Ala's 26 result in zero pts. After the expected loss to Iowa they were 3-2 and had a banged up defense and were dominated at home by Illinois. They beat Minn and then as a home dog, with QB McGloin getting his first start, they beat Mich (led 28-10). They trailed NW 21-0 but tied the largest home comeback in the Paterno era. The Lions actually led Ohio St 14-3 at half but lost with a pair of IR tds in the 2H. After whipping Indiana, they lost to Mich St at home (MSU's first win in Happy Valley S'65). In Urban Meyer's final game, Penn St was down 30-24 but driving for the winning score before giving up an 80 yd IR td. PSU was just 4-4 in the Big Ten (-14.1 ypg) but are a much more veteran unit (14 ret sts). This year they have a rematch with Ala and travel in their final 2 to Columbus (2nd st yr) and Madison. If they get their QB situation figured out and win one of those 2 tough conf road games, they could find themselves in the Big Ten Title game.

Sep. 10	Alabama	G			First meeting. The Sycamores finished 6-5 LY incl a 40-7 loss vs Cincinnati. ISU had gone just 2-54 from '05-'09. Penn St has won 9 straight home openers by an avg 28 ppg.
Sep. 17	at Temple	G			PSU is 2-2 vs the SEC the L5Y. QB Bolden made his 1st road start LY in Tuscaloosa going 13-29-141-0-2. PSU trailed 24-0 LY early 4Q as 30% of their tll yds came after.
Sep. 24	Eastern Michigan	G			PSU last lost to TU in 1941 & have won 28 str LY's gm was the closest S'85 as PSU trailed 13-6 after 1Q & 13-9 at HT. Nittany Lions allowed just 71 yds & no drive over 5 plays in the 2H.
Oct. 1	at Indiana	A			Just one prior meeting between these schools in '92, Penn St walloped EMU 52-7. Into 2011, the Nittany Lions have won 22 str vs non-BCS tms with the avg score 41-9.
Oct. 8	Iowa	G			PSU is 14-0 vs IU with the avg MOV by 17 ppg. In the last visit to Bloomington ('07) the yds & FD's were even but 4 IU TO's helped PSU including a FR on the I29 w/40 left.
Oct. 15	Purdue (HC)	G			PSU dropped 3 str and 8 of 9 vs IU & LY trailed 17-0 & was outgained 148-1 in the 1Q. The 21 pt loss was the worst ever in the series (23 gms). PSU is 18-6 hosting B10 opp's the L6Y.
Oct. 22	at Northwestern	G			PSU is 10-3-1 vs PU incl 4 str wins by 13 ppg. Last time here ('07) the Nittany Lions won 26-19 but trailed 16-13 into the 4Q. PSU has not allowed an offensive TD in the L11 Q's to Purdue.
Oct. 29	Illinois	G			LY marked career win 400 for Paterno and the 21 pt come-from-behind victory matched the largest under Joe Pa ('94 beat Illinois down 21). PSU is 11-3 vs NU with the 1st meeting in 1993.
Nov. 5					PSU is 14-4 vs UI and has never dropped B2B gms in the series, in fact they have won each by DD's after a defeat. Both starting QB's where Fr LY and figure to square off the next 3 ssns.
Nov. 12	Nebraska	G			The HT is 9-3 in this series (1 neutral gm). PSU is 10-1 L11Y in home finales (lost LY). Last time hosting the Huskers ('02) the Nittany Lions dominated #8 NU 40-7 (worst NU loss in 12 yrs).
Nov. 19	at Ohio St	A			PSU is just 2-7 S'02 vs OSU and hasn't scored more than 20 pts in any gm (avg 12 ppg). PSU is 1-8 in B10 gms in Columbus w/only win coming in '08. LY they led 14-3 at HT but all'd 2 IR TD's.
Nov. 26	at Wisconsin	A			PSU is 6-8 vs UW but has won the L2 meetings by a combined 86-14. In the last trip to Camp Randall ('08) PSU only outgained UW 377-313 in the 41 pt win taking advantage of 4 Badger TO's.

ILLINOIS FIGHTING ILLINI

DB Tavor Wilson

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - LY Illinois had to replace their career total off leader Juice Williams. Eddie McGee (PS#72, 6'4") had thrown for 806 yds (52%, 3-6) in 3 yrs (2 st) while also playing WR and they also welcomed back soph Jacob Charest (PS#23) who hit 28-56-382 in '09 (1 st). Rfr Nathan Scheelhaase (PS#19) beat them both out in the spring and Charest left over the summer so McGee continued to work at both WR and QB. True frosh Miles Osei was listed as the bkp each week, but played in just 3. OC Paul Petrino compared Scheelhaase to L'ville QB Stefan LeFors who led the NCAA in pass eff in '04. Scheelhaase is athletic, moves well in the pocket and is accurate on short to medium range passes but lacks an NFL-type arm. He had the fewest completions of any full-time Big Ten QB but had the 2nd most rush yds and was named Big Ten Fr of Wk six times. He threw for 1,825 (58.7%, 17-8) and was the #2 rusher (868, 4.7). McGee was 8-17 with 4 int's and now departs. I think true frosh Reilly O'Toole (PS#32), who has a powerful arm will be #2 and get some snaps. Despite a tired arm Scheelhaase took care of the ball down the stretch with a 13-1 ratio in the L7 games and I look for him to greatly improve upon LY's passing numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 Rashard Mendenhall (PS#8) added 200 lbs and became Illinois' 1st 1,000 yd rusher since '02 and first ever Big Ten Off MVP with 1,681 (6.4). He broke the school's single season record (Antoine Harris 1,330, '02). Mendenhall was the first IL #1DC RB since Jim Grabowski (1966). In '08 Daniel Dufrane was the top RB with just 663 (5.7) while true frosh Jason Ford (PS#32) and Mikel Leshoure (PS#63) had 294 (3.6) and 126 (3.6) respectively. In '09 all 3 ret'd and no RB topped 55 vs an FBS foe in the first 5. Leshoure then had three 100 yd efforts (Ford 1) and led with 734 (6.8). Ford was #2 with 588 (6.1). Dufrane had 277 (4.4) and Troy Pollard (PS#66) had 67 (6.1). LY they only lost Dufrane. Leshoure dropped 7 lbs and had 4.2% body fat to become the feature RB. He had nine 100 yd gms, the most in school history. Illinois has had just two 1st Tm All-Big Ten RB's the L25Y in Mendenhall and Leshoure. He was the #3 rec and his 281 carries was 2nd in school history (Robert Holcombe's 294 '97). Leshoure had a school rec 330 vs NW and with 184 yds in the bowl broke Mendenhall's season rush record with 1,697 (6.0) while Ford was the #2 RB (480, 4.8). Pollard added 109 (4.5). True frosh FB Jay Prosch had a solid season blocking. With Leshoure leaving early for the NFL (#2DC DET), I look for a drop in the rushing numbers although Ford has trimmed down and added speed (like Leshoure did LY).

RECEIVERS - The Illini had to replace 3 st's from this unit LY but despite having three '09 receivers make NFL rosters, their top 2 rec's had comb'd for just 851 (14.0) in '09. The leading returnees were Florida transfer Jarred Fayson (PS#9, 218, 13.6) and Jack Ramsey (182, 11.4). They expected QB McGee to be a full-time WR but he split time between the positions and had just 8 rec's. AJ Jenkins (PS#54), who had 410 (19.5) in '08 and '09 comb'd and nearly transferred prior to the hiring of OC Petrino, led with 746 (13.3). Fayson was #2 with 355 (9.3) and TE Evan Wilson was a distant #4 with 135 (13.5). This year they lose Fayson (4 st), McGee (8 st) and Chris James (2 rec, 1 st). Despite the losses, this unit is more exp'd than 2010.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Despite having to replace 2 st's and 3 bkps in '07 they had all five OL start all 13 and they avg 257 ypg rush (#1 in B10 2nd st yr) with 5.6 ypc while allowing 16 sks (4.9%). After an expected drop in '08, in '09 they had to replace 2 st's and improved to 200 ypg (4.8) with 29 sks (8.8%). LY they had to replace a 2nd Tm B10 G (#3DC) and one other starter. They improved to 246 ypg (5.2) with 25 sks (8.8%). This year the Illini lose RT Ryan Palmer (13 st), RG Randall Hunt (12 st, 2Y st'r) and Anterio Jackson (1 gm). They do return 4 who started 6+ LY with 69 career sts (40 in '10) in the unit and could match last year's fine numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 the Illini had to replace 3 st's and the numbers slipped to 154 ypg rush (4.2) with 19 sks, their worst totals in 5 yrs. LY they had to replace 4 DL (comb 38 sts). Their 2 most exp'd DL each had 6 career sts. Thanks to a rededication to conditioning Corey Lugo blossomed into perhaps the Big Ten's top DT. Illinois improved to allowing 131 ypg (3.9), their best ypg S/O6 with 23 sks. This year they lose 1st Tm Big Ten DT Lugo (13 st, #6 tkl'r, 4.5 sk, 8 tfl, #1DC SD) and DE Clay Nurse (13 st, 4 sk) but do return 4 who comb'd for 26 sts LY. While more experienced, with the loss of their top 2, it may be tough to match LY's solid numbers.

LINEBACKERS - From '06-'08 an Illinois MLB led the Big Ten in tkl's per gm. They had 1 st'r back in '09 and Zook said if Martez Wilson (#3 tkl'r '08) did not lead the Big Ten in tkl's their 1st start (9 tkl) so their st's consisted of a rFr, 2 soph (12 car tkl) and a conv S as six diff LB's st'd. LY the top 6 ret'd (incl #1, #4, #5 tkl'r's) along with Wilson. The exp'd LB corps spearheaded a much improved D that allowed 52 ypg and 6.7 ypg less than '09. DC Koenning said that Wilson and Ian Thomas may have worn down at the end of the season as they played almost every snap but he was high on LY's freshmen Jonathan Brown, Houston Bates and Ernest Thomas. This year they lose 1st Tm B10 MLB Wilson (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 11.5 tfl, #4 B10 tkl, #3DC NO), SLB Nate Bussey (13 st, #2 tkl'r, 8.5 tfl, #7DC NO), Dustin Jefferson (11 tkl) and Aaron Gress (18 tkl). The top returnees are Thomas (#4 tkl'r) and Brown (#11 tkl'r). This unit has potential but it is clearly less experienced and loses its top 2.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Illini finished just #85 in my PDR in '08 and dropped to #90 in '09. True frosh Terry Hawthorne (PS#4) got Illinois' first pick six since '06 but the unit's 5 tkl's tied for fewest in the NCAA. LY they had to replace 3 DB (comb 28 sts) then lost proj starting S Supo Sanni to an Achilles tear in Aug. With 2 st's back, they still improved to #53. Hawthorne suffered a stress fracture (foot) in Aug and only played in 8 (1 st). They moved RB Justin Green to CB 2 wks prior to the opener. This year they lose CB Travon Bellamy (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 6 pbu). They have 7 of their top 8 back and return Sanni along with a 100% healthy Hawthorne and should have their best finish in my PDR since '06 (#39).

SPECIAL TEAMS - Ron Zook used to be a ST coach in the NFL (PIT) so it is surprising that in his six years here the Illini have finished just #111, #116, #42, #95, #110 and #29 in my ST rankings. LY they ret'd P Anthony Santella (35.9 net in '09) and he had an outstanding year avg 44.8 (37.8 net). Matt Eller hit 15-20 FG's (L51) in '08 but only 4-11 (L38) in '09 before being replaced by Derek Dimke (5-5 L48). LY Dimke hit 24-29 (L52) and had 22 TB on 79 KO and was a Groza semi-finalist. Illinois blk'd 2 punts in a gm (vs Ind) for the first time S/O76. The return game was below avg (3.2 PR, 19.8 KR). This year they lose their top-notch P but return Dimke and I look for improved return numbers.

COACHES - Ron Zook had to replace the legendary Steve Spurrier at Fla and was under fire from day one. He was 23-14 in 3 yrs ('02-'04) before being shown the door. He's an excellent recruiter and gained a lot of respect in '06 when Florida, comprised mostly of Zook recruits, won the National Title. He enters his 7th season here. OC Paul Petrino is in his 2nd season here after serving under his brother Bobby at Ark (OC), Atlanta (WR) and L'ville (OC) S/O3. DC Vic Koenning (2nd yr) was the HC of Wyoming from '00-'02 and more recently the DC at Troy ('03-'04), Clemson ('05-'08) and the co-DC at K-St ('09).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Illinois has won 15 Big Ten Titles including 2001 (1st S/O9) when they went a stunning 10-1. They were ranked #7 before losing in the Sugar Bowl. Illinois was just 13-45 the next 5 yrs and finished above .500 in Big Ten play just once ('01) from 1995-2006. In '07 I called the Illini my #2 Most Improved Team. In '06 they were 2-10 but outgained foes by 56 ypg and were -15 in TO's and had 3 net close losses. The Illini did not disappoint me. They got their first win over a #1 team since 1956 when they upset Ohio St in Columbus. Illinois, which had a comb'd 8 wins the previous 4 yrs, won 9 and got to the Rose Bowl for the first time since 1983. Unfortunately, USC tied a Rose Bowl scoring record as the Illini lost 49-17. In '08 I did not have Illinois ranked in my preseason Top 50 even though the Illini were #20 AP. Illinois was picked 3rd by the Big Ten media. Illinois had not had B2B winning seasons since '89 & '90 and went just 5-7. In '09 many factors pointed towards improvement but the Illini lost their top Def player in Wk 2, suffered from inconsistent QB play and struggled through a 3-9 season (only -42.3 ypg Big Ten). LY they only had to replace 16 left (fewest B10) and avoided Iowa and Wisc and I put them on my Most Improved List at #19. They brought in new coor's in OC Paul Petrino and DC Vic Koenning. Petrino had an impact on the offense and at one point they had a 3 gm streak (longest S/O83) of scoring 40+. Illinois lived up to my expectations and in fact had a 4Q lead in 10 of their 13 gms including 9 in the final 2:00. They led Missouri 13-3 at the half in the opener but lost by 10. After beating Southern and Northern Illinois, they only trailed Ohio St 17-13 in the 4Q but lost by 11. They dominated banged up Penn St on the road with a 23-7 FD edge. Illinois led Mich St 6-3 at the half but came up short in a 2nd straight road game, 26-6. They buried Indiana and Purdue by 30 and 34 but then lost to Michigan in the conf's highest scoring game ever in 3OT, 67-65. It was tough to get over that 3OT loss and despite leading Minn 34-24 in the 4Q, they allowed the Gophers 2 td's, the last with :16 left and were upset at home, 38-34. In Wrigley Field, NW was starting a bkp QB and Ill won by 21. They went into Fresno and trailed 16-0 and missed a 2pt conv in the 4Q in a 2 point loss. In the bowl they dominated Baylor 38-14 to finish 7-6 for their 2nd winning record in 9 years. Illinois did have 2 net close losses and their +48.3 ypg in Big Ten play was 3rd best (even better than Michigan St which finished 7-1). They are even stronger this year and will top last year's 7 win total.

PURDUE BOILERMAKERS

QB Rob Henry

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Curtis Painter departed in '08 as the #2 career passer. In '08 rfr Justin Siller (PS#44) was forced into action due to injuries and threw for 496 (56%, 3-2). Siller was expected to start in '09 but was dismissed in the spring and long time bkp Joey Elliott became just the 7th QB in PU history joining Painter, Drew Brees, Jim Everett, Mark Herrmann, Billy Dicken and Kyle Orton in the 3,000 yd club (3,026, 62%, 22-13) as a Sr. 6'5" Caleb TerBush (PS#137) played in just 1 (4-10-22). LY Siller ret'd but moved to WR and they added in Miami, FL transfer Robert Marve (PS#12). Marve (4.65 spd, strong arm) threw for just 1,293 (55%, 9-13) in 11 sts at Miami in '08. They ended up starting 4 diff QB's due to inj's. Marve was lost vs Toledo (ACL). TerBush was lost in Aug (acad) so the mobile rfr Rob Henry (4.55 spd) took over. Henry, who was most effective running the zone read option, ran for 132 in his first start vs NW. He severely cut his finger vs Ohio St which made it tough to grip the ball so his passing was limited after that. Sean Robinson (PS#33) burned his RS vs OSU due to Henry's inj and then threw all 20 of the tm's passes vs Ill. Against Wisc, he was the first PU QB to make his starting debut vs a ranked tm since John Reeves in '95. Due to the inj's Siller became the 4th QB to st vs Mich but he was lost after 1 play. Henry st'd the final 2 and on the year threw for 996 (53.1%, 8-7) and was the #1 rusher while Marve threw for 512 (67.7%, 3-4) and Robinson for 301 (48.4%, 2-6). The tm's 150.8 ypg passing was their lowest S/'59. Not listed below are Spencer Dawson (6'2" 205 Sr) and Dolapo McCarthy (6'5" 220 Fr, PS#52). TY the unit returns intact, should remain healthier, is loaded with exp and should be one of the most improved QB positions in the country.

RUNNING BACKS - Heading into 2008 Purdue had just one 1,000 yd rusher since 1995 (Joey Harris '02). Kory Sheets became the 6th Boiler RB to top 1,000 with 1,131 (4.8) in '08 and departed as the #2 career rusher. Ralph Bolden took charge in '09 and just missed 1,000 (935, 4.7) with a hamstring inj in Wk 12. LY they had to replace #2 rush Jaycen Taylor (387, 5.5) and then lost the speedy Bolden in the spring (ACL). The unit was then hit hard by inj's. Early in the year, WR's made up the majority of the depth chart. Keith Carlos (PS#252JC), who had 242 rec yds (11.5) in 4 sts at WR in '09, was the #3 rusher (314, 5.6). Short yd specialist Dan Dierking (PS#45) led all RB's with 530 (4.5) while FB Jared Crank (6'2" 232 Sr) added 76 (3.5). Not listed below are FB's Derek Jackson (6'2" 223 Jr, PS#127), Devin Hill (5'10" 228 Fr), Sean Matti (6'0" 224 Sr) and Kurt Freytag (6'2" 237 So). This year they lose their top 2 RB's but should remain healthier and Bolden returns. The Boilers also add in 4 recruits including Akeem Shavers (PS#297JC) and should improve on last year's poor numbers.

RECEIVERS - In '09 Purdue had to replace their top 2 rec and their leading returnee was conv QB/DB Keith Smith (great hands) who was #3 in '08 (486, 9.9). HC Hope said after spring that half of his WR's were still in HS. Smith became just the 10th Boiler to top 1,000 yds (1100, 12.1). LY they had to replace their #2 rec but Keith Smith was back along with #4 TE Kyle Adams (249, 8.6) and Cortez Smith who had 177 (10.4). Hope did say PU had 4 good receivers for the first time in 10-15 years. That depth would be sorely tested. With the RB inj's, they moved Keith Carlos to RB. Keith Smith had 18 rec's before tearing his ACL in the 2nd game. Much was expected of converted QB Justin Siller (6'4" 215) but he played in just 5 (inj, 104, 8.7). Adams led in rec's with 36 but was just #3 (244, 6.8). Cortez Smith (early ankle inj) led in yds with 434 (13.2). Soph Antavian Edison, who was used at RB at times (130, 3.6 rush), was #2 with 316 (9.9). Speedy true frosh OJ Ross (PS#80) had 149 (13.5) despite missing 4. This year they lose Adams (11 st) Cortez Smith (12 st) and Keith Smith (2 st, denied a 6th yr). This unit is still more experienced than LY and should remain healthier.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Tiller called Dennis Kelly PU's best OT prospect since Matt Light and he burned his RS (play last 5) with an inexp'd group. Only 1 OL started more than 9 at the same spot. In '09 they had 3 st's back and had just 1 st lost to injury but surprisingly only improved to 136 ypg (4.2) with 20 stks (4.5%). LY they had to replace 3 st's but ret'd arguably their top 2 OL in Kelly and Ken Plue. With more of an emphasis on the run they improved to 161 ypg (4.4) and allowed just 18 stks (5.1%). This year they lose LG Justin Pierce (12 st) and Ryan Prater (3 gm). RT Nick Mondek was impressive going vs DE Kerrigan in practice. Four st's (8 of top 10) are back incl Kelly and Plue and this unit should have their best numbers in 5 yrs.

DEFENSIVE LINE - This unit was dubbed the "Den of DE's" under Tiller with 10 earning an NFL paycheck. In '08 Tiller said DE Ryan Kerrigan is "a player you can build your D around." Surprisingly a veteran D-line allowed 175 ypg rush (4.5) with just 24 stks. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's (#3DC) but Kerrigan earned the nickname "Superman" and Hope said Mike Neal was one of the best DT's he's been around. Surprisingly, PU allowed 173 ypg (4.4) with 32 stks. LY they had to replace Neal (#2DC) but had 3 st's back including Kerrigan. The Boilers improved to 138 ypg rush and their 3.6 ypc was their best in 5 years (33 sks best in 6 yrs). This year they lose their star DE Kerrigan (1st Tm AA, 12 st, #5 tk/r, 12.5 sk, 13.5 ft, #1DC WAS). They return 6 of the top 8 (DT Justin Kitchens to OL) incl 2nd Tm B10 DT Kawann Short (41 tk, 12.5 ft). Even with 3 st's back (same as '10) this unit will probably be down a notch or two with the loss of the B10 DPOY.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 Purdue had to replace its #1 tk/r but had 5 of the top 6 back. It was still a young unit with 2 soph st's and allowed 29.1 ppg (highest S/'96). LY the unit ret'd intact so it surprised me that they only improved to 28.8 ppg although the offense left them on the field a lot. This year they lose SLB Jason Werner (9 st, #7 tk/r, 9.5 ft) but have 5 of the top 6 back. They return their #2 and #3 tk/r's and Hope called top bkp Will Lucas one of their top 3 defensive players LY.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - PU was extremely inexp'd at DB in '06 but only dropped to #69 in my PDR. They improved to #42 and #31 the next 2 yrs and in '09 with 3.5 st's back they climbed to their best finish of the decade at #21. LY the losses were heavy (4 st's). Three of the 4 new starters had a combined

4 tkls in '09. Naturally, PU fell all the way down to #100 (65.8%, 23-10). This year 7 or the top 8 ret and all 7 have starting exp. This unit is the polar opposite of '10 in terms of exp and will make a dramatic climb in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Purdue finished #4 in my ST rankings in '07 but in '08 fell to #96. True frosh K Carson Wiggs hit a schl record 53 yd FG on his very first at (8-11, 2 miss 50+). In '09 they hired a new ST coor in J.B. Gibboney. Wiggs set a new schl record (59 yd) but surprisingly he had just 5 TB's and PU allowed a schl rec 1,407 (24.7) KR yds. The unit finished just #92. LY Wiggs had 22 punts but true frosh Cody Webster (PS#13) was 5th nationally among frosh punters (43.3). Wiggs hit 15-19 (L52) with 1 miss from 56 in '10. He would have had an at from 63 but they could not get a time-out called. Hope had planned on having Keith Smith be the key PR but he was lost early. After 7 gms, PU had just 15 PR yds total but had 119 over the last 5. Hope said he wants Wiggs to set the NCAA record for longest FG and he would have tied the mark with his 67 yd in the spg game. I look for continued improvement (#79 in '10).

COACHES - Danny Hope took over in '09 and he was previously ECU's HC from '03-'07 (35-22). Hope was PU's OL coach under Tiller from '97-'01 and signed an ext through '14 despite B2B losing seasons. OC Gary Nord was the HC at UTEP ('00-'03) and the OC at Fla A&M from '05-'08 (also OC L'ville & Okla). The DC is Gary Emanuel (PU asst '97-'04) who was most recently at Rutgers (DL cch '08-'09) and was a co-DC here LY. Donn Landholm shared DC duties LY and will again be the LB cch for the 6th year under Hope.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Purdue's last outright Big Ten Title came in 1929 although they've shared the crown 6 times since. Joe Tiller was the HC from 1997-'08 and guided the team to 10 bowls in 12 yrs. He announced that '08 would be his final year and that Danny Hope would be his successor. The Boilers had just 12 ret st's (2nd fewest B10) that yr. They lost to #16 Oregon in 2OT at home then outgained Ohio St 298-222 in Columbus but lost. PU was down to their 3rd string QB at one point and went from 8-5 in '07 to just 4-8. They did send Tiller out on a winning note destroying Indiana 62-10 in his FHG. Despite a 2-6 Big Ten record, Purdue was +42.1 ypg (#6) and they had 42 stks lost. PU's defense allowed just 317.5 ypg in Big Ten play (4th best) and had 8 of the top 10 tk/r's back. All of those signs pointed towards improvement and they came very close to a winning season in Hope's debut. They beat #7 Ohio St but had 5 losses by 7 or less and finished 5-7. That '09 team was +22.4 ypg in the Big Ten and had 4 net close losses. LY they avoided Iowa and Penn St but had just 11 ret st's. They lost their top RB Bolden in the spring, QB Marve (after 4 sts) and their top off player WR Keith Smith after 2 gm, leaving a patchwork offense. The defense actually slipped to allowing 379 ypg in Big Ten play. Despite the inj's and an unexpected home loss to Toledo, the Boilers opened 2-0 in the B10 for the first time since '04 when they bkd a 41 yard NW FG and then beat Minny. Ohio St was playing with legit revenge and destroyed them 49-0 injuring QB Henry in the process. With Henry unable to throw a pass and down to true frosh Robinson they lost to Illinois, 44-10. They actually led Wisc 10-6 at the half in Robinson's first start but lost by 21. Despite getting a 94 yd IR td vs Mich, they were outgained 395-256 and lost by 11. PU led Mich St 31-20 midQ but allowed a crucial bkd punt and lost by 4. In the season finale, they led 28-21 in the 4Q but Indy got a FG with :09 left to force OT where PU lost. The Boilers finished just 2-6 conf and 4-8 overall and their -98.5 ypg was worst in the Big Ten. They did have 32 sts lost (30 on off). They have 16 ret st's and should open 4-1. Despite the loss of Big Ten Def POY Kerrigan, the D will be stronger and the offense will be much improved. They make my coveted Most Improved List (pg 19).

First meeting vs a Sun Belt team. Purdue has won 7 straight home openers with the avg score 48-21. Under Hope the Boilermakers are 3-5 vs non-conf opp's (avg W by 14 ppg, L by 7 ppg).
PU hasn't traveled to Rice since '58 and in the L/meeting won 21-19 in '98 despite being outgained allowing a ssn high 319 rush yds (4.4). PU has dropped 3 str road openers by 10 ppg.
First meeting. The Redhaws went 9-3 LY (FCS playoffs) including a 27-10 loss to Ball St, a gm that was tied 7-7 at HT. Hope was the HC at ECU from '03-'07 and went 4-1 vs SEMO.
LY PU trailed 20-3 into the 4Q as ND fun into the EZ and could have put the gm out of reach, PU cut the deficit to 20-12 but had to punt from their own 4 and was SOD at their own 44.
Purdue has won 10 of the L/13 meetings vs Minnesota but has dropped 2 of last 3. LY PU was up 21-0 mid-3Q holding UM to just 39 yds as UM gained 240 yds in their final 4 drives.
PU is 2-10 in B10 matchups vs PSU including 4 str losses by 13 ppg. In '08 (L/meeting & Tiller's last sn at the helm) PU lost 20-6 being outgained 422-241 vs #6 Penn St.
PU's series high 5 gm win streak was snapped LY but they still have won 8 of the L/11 meetings vs the Illini. PU has outgained UI in 6 of the L/7 gms. PU is 11-5 on HC.
PU is 7-29 S'69 vs UM incl 1-17 in Ann Arbor but won their LTH ('09). PU trailed 30-17 mid-3Q but scored 21 str. Coming into 2011 the Boilermakers are 3-12 their L/15 B10 AG's.
PU has dropped 5 str gms vs UW by 19 ppg. In their last visit to Camp Randall ('09) they were held to a ssn low 141 yds in the shutout loss. PU is 1-22 vs ranked opp's.
PU beat #7 OSU the last time in West Lafayette ('09) as OSU had 177 (62%) of their 287 yds in the 4Q w/PU stopping the last drive w/2:16 left (at PU38). PU has outgained OSU in 7 of the L/10 gms.
Purdue has won 7 of 11 home finales. The HT has gone 9-1 S'97 in this series. In the L/meeting in '08 Purdue lost 22-17 despite a 24-14 FD edge as they allowed 248 (6.5) yds rushing.
Purdue is 11-3 vs IU S'97 & hasn't lost B2B games S'93-'94. LTH PU was outgained 462-329 but was +4 in TO's turned into 14 pts (also blk'd FG, IU missed FG & had 87-yd KR TD).

INDIANA HOOSIERS

DT Adam Replogle

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 Kellen Lewis set IU single-season records for yds and pass tds throwing for 3,043 (60%, 28-10). Lewis was susp'd in the spring of '08 and split the snaps during the season with Ben Chappell (PS#44) who had 3 sts. Chappell took over in '09 and threw for 2,941 (63%, 17-15) and did a good job getting rid of the ball (just 16 sk). He was the first IU QB to complete over 60%. His bkp was true frosh lefty Edward Wright-Baker (PS#63, 4.5 spd) who was a perfect fit for the pistol offense they had installed. LY Chappell set an IU record with 9 career 300+ gms. He was banged up at midseason (wore walking boot after NW). Chappell had a 13-0 ratio in four non-conf games but an 11-9 ratio in Big Ten play. When Chappell went down vs Wisc, the Hoosiers trailed 17-10 after missing a FG and Dusty Kiel and Wright-Baker combined for 3-10-86 as it turned into a rout. Chappell set new IU single season records throwing for 3,295 (62.5%, 24-9). Kiel hit 4-17-71 in 5 gms and Wright-Baker hit 5-12-80 and was used as the Wildcat QB. Heading into '09 Lynch said the QB unit went 7 deep and he'd line up his 7 vs any other 7 in the country so there has been quality depth here recently. Adding depth this year are Adam Follett (PS#103), Teddy Schell (PS#69), and true frosh Tre Roberson (Mr. Football, Indiana '10). Chappell was #1 in the Big Ten in passing last year and will be missed.

RUNNING BACKS - In '09 I projected rFr Darius Willis (PS#53, best combo spd & power) to be the starter but he was banged up in Aug. Willis had an inauspicious debut fumbling his first snap (3 att in 1st 2 gm) before leading vs Akron with 66 (4.4) followed up by 152 (9.5) vs Mich. He got dinged up again and missed a few games but still led with 607 (4.9) and Indy clearly had a stronger offense when he was on the field. LY he ret'd and I gave him a shot at being the Hoosiers' first 1,000 yard rusher since Levron Williams in 2001. Willis had a fine start with 278 (4.3) but was OFY in Wk 4. The Hoosiers' offense struggled without him. Of the 3 RB's replacing Willis, Tre Burgess (230 lbs) was exp'd and had short yardage power. Nick Turner had the 4.4 speed and true frosh Antonio Banks (5'10" 207 So, PS#136) was perhaps the best combination. Burgess led but with just 352 (3.4) and Turner was #4 with 157 (5.6). Banks tore his ACL vs Wisc finishing with 90 (3.5). Not in the PSL are Xavier Whitaker (6'2" 222 rFr, PS#137), David Blackwell (6'0" 209 So) and FB Leneil Himes (6'1" 271 rFr, PS#49). Provided Willis is healthy this will be a much improved unit.

RECEIVERS - In '09 IU had to replace their top 2 rec's as they moved their #2 to DB thinking they had great depth at WR. That turned out to be the case. 6'3" Tandon Doss led with 962 (12.5) and was 1st Tm Big Ten. 6'5" Damarlo Belcher (337, 13.5 in '08) was #2 with 770 (12.6) and Terrance Turner (289, 10.0 in '08) had 443 (9.6). LY they moved #4 WR Mitchell Evans (366, 11.1) to DB so 4 of the top 5 ret'd. Belcher led with 832 (10.7), Doss, who had 293 all-purp yds vs Penn St (7th highest IU hist) slipped to #2 with 706 (11.2) while Turner was #3 again improving to 681 (10.2). RFr Duwyce Wilson (PS#61) was labelled as a player to watch and had a team high 15.2 ypc with 488 yds. TE Ted Bolser enrolled at 225 lbs and spent his RS season bulking up and improving his blocking. He had 5 td's (4 in first 3) which topped Bob Stephenson's 1979 record for an IU TE. Doss opted to leave early for the NFL (11 st, 1st Tm Big Ten, #40C BAL). They also lose Turner (10 st). Not listed below is TE Paul Phillips (6'5" 238 rFr, PS#83). I like the talent of this group but it's not as deep and their stats will drop with a less experienced QB.

OFFENSIVE LINE - With a mobile QB in Antwaan Randlel in 2001, the Hoosiers avg 5.5 ypc rush but in the next 5 yrs they failed to top 3.5 ypc rush. In '06 then-HC Hoepfner recruited the "Seven Blocks of Limestone" OL class. They made improvement in '07 and '08 but without QB Kellen Lewis' mobility, even with 3 st's back in '09, IU only ran for 117 ypg (3.8) although they allowed just 16 sks (3.6%). LY they had to replace a 2nd Tm B10 LT (#2DC) along with one other st'r and only 2 of the "Blocks of Limestone" remained although 6 had starting exp. Even with 3 st's back, the #s dropped to 100 ypg (3.5) but with just 12 sks (2.3%). This year they lose RT James Brewer (9 st, 2Y st'r, #4DC NYG), LG Aaron Price (10 st) and RG Jordan Marquette (1 st). While they do have to learn a new system, with 3 st's (71 car sts, 54 LY) back, it is a little more exp'd.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 with a veteran unit, the Hoosiers allowed 159 ypg rush (4.0) and while those numbers seem weak by Big Ten standards, they were the best here since 2001. LY they had to replace DE's Greg Middleton and 2nd Tm B10 Jammie Kirew (#7DC). As you would expect with the loss of their 2 stars, the numbers dropped to yielding 172 ypg (5.1) while the D had just 15 sks. This year they lose DE Terrance Thomas (9 st, 32 tkl, 6.5 tfl) and DE Deonte Mack (4 tkl). Five rets with starting exp and this year they are not replacing their stars so I look for an improved D-line overall.

LINEBACKERS - For years the Hoosiers emphasized speed over size at LB but in '09 their starters were 231, 236 and 244 lbs. It's not by a coincidence they had their best rush D (159 ypg) S/O'1. Last year they had to replace 2 st's (#1, #3 tkl'r) and a bkp who was the #9 tkl'r. The unit still had decent size but their overall D numbers dropped. SLB Tyler Replogle, who was their top defensive player, missed 2 sts incl Wisc (tm all'd 83 pts). This year they lose the heart and soul of the defense in Replogle (10 st, #1 tkl'r, 6 tfl) but have everyone else back and this unit look stronger.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '08 Indiana had to replace their starting CB's (incl Super Bowl XLIV hero Tracy Porter) and then were hit hard by inj's. They were last in the Big Ten in pass D (only 6 int). In '09 they had 3 st's back and added WR Fisher who became their top CB. Fisher was lost after 6 sts but IU still moved up to #82 in my PDR. LY they had to replace 2 st's and 2 others who combined for 9 sts incl a #7DC. Trying to recapture the magic of the Ray Fisher move, they moved WR Mitchell Evans to SS and he was the only DB to start all 12 in an injury plagued season. As you would expect, IU dropped to #116 (65.5%, 27-8). This year they lose SS Evans (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 3 int, 2 pbu), CB Matt Ernest (9 st, 29 tkl, 1 int), CB Adrian Burks (5 st, 27 tkl) and CB Richard Council (6 st, 21 tkl). FS Chris Adkins was a 12 gm st'r in '08 who only played in 2 in '10. This is an underwhelming group who can only improve on last year's poor finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Indiana finished #38 in my ST rankings in '06 and in Lynch's first 3 yrs were #54, #76 and #91. In '09 Mitch Ewald had been expected to take over the K duties but was RS (inj). Nick Freeland hit 14-25 (L38) and had 7 TB on 58 KO. I projected Ewald as the st'r LY. Freeland hit both of his FG's (L36) but suffered a hip injury and Ewald lived up to his VHT billing hitting 16-19 FG's (L49, miss 52). The 2 comb for just 4 TB's on 66 KO. In '09 Chris Hagerup avg 40.5 (33.7 net). He suffered 3 blk's in '10 and avg just 39.4. Adam Pines avg 40.2 (tm 32.8 net) while splitting the job with Hagerup in the last 4. Tandon Doss was a solid KR (24.8) but IU had just 61 PR yds (6.8) all season. This year they lose their top RM but there is just one way to go in the rankings after LY's #100 finish.

COACHES - The IU program now has their 5th HC S/O'1 and Kevin Wilson is their 28th HC overall. Wilson was the Oklahoma OC since '02 and prior to that was the OC at NW ('99-'01) and Mia, Oh ('92-'98). He'll go with both co-OC's and DC's. Running the offense is Kevin Johns who has been on the NW staff 10 of the L12Y (WR cch S/O'6) and Rod Smith, Smith was the QB cch at Mich ('08-'10) and WV ('07) under Rich Rodriguez and also the OC at USF ('05-'06). The D will be run by Doug Mallory who was the DC at NM ('09-'10) and co-DC at LSU ('08) along with Mike Ekeler who had been the Neb LB cch the L3Y.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Indiana got to six bowls under the tutelage of Bill Mallory between 1986-1993 but entered '07 having gone through 12 straight losing yrs. In Terry Hoepfner's 2nd season he missed 2 early winnable games due to an illness and the team lost both. The Hoosiers got to 5-4 but lost their last 3 and narrowly missed out on a bowl. In '07 Hoepfner made the team's motto "Play 13" (# of gms if they made a bowl). Hoepfner passed away after courageously battling cancer but the Hoosier players delivered on his goal. They went 7-5 to earn a trip to the Insight Bowl and had 5 All-B10 players (most S/O'8). In '08 I had one of the few publications which pegged the Hoosiers for last place in the Big Ten. IU lost their last 3 by an avg of 50-12 and finished last in the Big Ten at 1-7 (-177.3 ypg, avg B10 loss 41-14.5). In '09 they had a more veteran squad. Bill Lynch suffered some tough losses as they outplayed Michigan (467-372 yd edge) but threw a controversial int at the end. They led Northwestern 28-3 but allowed NU's biggest comeback ever in a 29-28 loss. They led undefeated Iowa 21-7 at the half but had another controversial call go against them and wound up losing. The Hoosiers finished tied for last in the Big Ten at 1-7 but were "just" -44.6 ypg (3rd worst). LY they had just 13 ret st's. Lynch actually became the first Indy HC to open his career with 4 consec 2-0 starts as Indy feasted on a cupcake non-conf slate of Towson, WKU, Akron and Ark St. Indy has dropped 45 consec gms vs the B10 power trio of Mich, Ohio St and Penn St but nearly got past Michigan allowing a td with 17 left in a 7 pt loss. After a loss to Ohio St, they beat Ark St to climb to 4-2. IU had 388-289 yd and 21-14 FD edges vs Illinois but were -4 in TO's and lost by 30. They only lost to NU by 3 but did get a td pass with 44 left down by 10. The Hoosiers led Iowa 13-12 late in the 4Q with Iowa getting a 52 yd td pass with 2:50 left to retake the lead. On 4&10 at the Iowa 18, leading Hoosiers rec Belcher dropped the potential game winning td pass with 28 left. The next week they lost starting QB Chappell to injury early vs Wisc and were buried 83-20. They were tied with Penn St 24-24 but lost by 17 after the Lions blk'd a P which turned the tide. In what turned out to be Bill Lynch's 100th career win and final game with Indiana, IU got a FG with :09 left to force OT and pulled out a 34-31 OT win at Purdue to finish 1-7 in the Big Ten for a 3rd straight year. They were -83.4 ypg (2nd worst) but improved their record overall for the 3rd straight season to 5-7. Now they break in a first time HC and have just 12 st's and 67.6% lettermen returning. I will call for an end to that one game improvement winning trend with a weaker record in a rebuilding year.

IU is 4-1 vs BSU but lost last game 42-20 in '08. IU only trailed 21-20 mid-2Q but allowed the gms final 21 pts. Hoosiers are 6-1 in road openers (avg W by 10 ppg, only loss in '08 to Minnesota). Only one prior meeting in '09 and IU lost 47-7 in Charlottesville, IU was outgained 536-272 & avoided the shutout w/a 4Q TD w/8:18 left. IU has won 9 str home openers by 22 ppg. First meeting, Bulldogs went 9-31 but their losses were to GT, MEAC Co-Champ Bethune-Cookman & in the 1st rd of the FCS playoffs. IU has played an FCS tm each of the L6Y (5-1, avg win by 27 ppg). First meeting, IU is 3-0 vs SBC members w/the avg score 35-23. This will mark the 1st time that the Hoosiers will play 2 non-BCS teams away from home since 1933. LY in Landover, MD, IU battled back from 14 down to tie it at 24-24 late 3Q. PSU scored 17 unanswered as IU had a blk'd punt ret for a TD, an int (led to a FG) & SOD at P44 (led to another TD). IU has dropped 6 str vs UW allowing 31 pts or more in each gm (avg score 49-19). Hoosiers have dropped 14 of their L15 conf games away from here but did win LY in West Lafayette. Indiana has led Iowa in the 2H in each of the L2 yrs. In the Hoosiers last visit to Iowa City, IU was up 21-7 at the half but fell apart allowing 265 yds & 28 pts in the 4Q. IU 2 yrs ago led 28-3 before all g 26 unanswered as NU kicked a FG w/21 left for the win. LY the Hoosiers led 10-7 late 2Q before all g 13 str before a TD w/44 left (on-side kick went OOB). Indiana has been outgained by an avg 249 ypg the L10 meetings vs Ohio St including LY when OSU led 31-0 at HT (at the half: IU 68yds/29 pl & OSU: 295yds/38pl). Bonus: HC Wilson was the OC/QB coach at Northwestern from 1999-2001. Michigan St: Since 1994 the Hoosiers have dropped 11 of the 13 meetings. IU last won in East Lansing in '01 & dropped 3 str trips by an avg score of 43-15 being outgained by 230 ypg. IU has outgained PU in 4 of the L5Y incl LY when they forced OT w/a 71/14pl FG drive w/09 left. IU. OT IU int'd PU on the 7 and nailed a 31-yd FG for the Old Oaken Bucket (just 3rd time L14Y).

NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS

QB Taylor Martinez

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '09 PS#13JC Zac Lee started all 12 (2143, 58.6%, 14-10) while PS#21 true frosh Cody Green threw for 317 (53.2%, 2-2). Taylor Martinez (fastest QB) spent time at WR while RS. Lee missed the spg 10 (elbow surg) and Martinez took the lead. Martinez got into the Heisman race after running for a Huskers QB record 241 yd on national TV vs K-St but after a tremendous first 5 gms he was benched vs Texas. NU rec'd a tremendous 8 passes vs UT and Lee (who had not played since the opener) played most of the 2H. Martinez rebounded to set a frosh rec for pass yds in a gm (23-35-323, 5-0 vs Okla St), while becoming the 1st QB in NU hist with 300 pass and 100 rush in a gm. In the first 7 Martinez rushed for 870 (8.7). He was inj'd vs Missouri and in the final 7 had just 95 (1.5). He threw for 1,631 (59.2%, 10-7). Green hit 33-60-340 (86 rush, 2.6). After Pelini got in Martinez's face on national TV vs A&M, there were plenty of rumors that he would transfer, but he stuck it out. TY they add in MLB prospect Bubba Starling (PS#6) who is 6'5" with 4.36 spd. Adding depth are Kody Spano (6'2" 210 Jr, PS#38) and Brion Carnes (6'1" 200 Jr, PS#54). Now that Martinez has a year of experience under his belt, this unit is improved.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 Marlon Lucky (PS#3) led with 1,019 (4.9) and true frosh Roy Helu (PS#98) rushed for 209 (4.6). In '08 Lucky was #2 with 517 (4.1) while Helu led with 803 (6.4). In '09 Helu had a fine yr (1147, 5.2). True frosh Rex Burkhead (PS#39) missed 5 (inj) but rushed for 346 (4.3) incl 89 while running the Wildcat in the bowl (Helu 3 att, inj). LY Helu set a sch record with 307 yds (Calvin Jones 294, '91) vs MO. There have been some very fine RB's at NU but Helu was the first to post B2B 1,000 yd seasons since Jones ('92-'93) and was the Off MVP. Helu led with 1,245 (6.6). Burkhead had 951 (5.5) once again running the Wildcat down the stretch when Martinez was banged up. TY they lose Helu (#4DC WAS). True frosh Aaron Green (PS#8) could be the #2. Not listed below are IB TY Kildow (5'7" 180 So, PS#156) and FB's Colin McDermott (6'2" 255 Jr), Alabama trans Mike Marrow (6'2" 235 So, PS#90) and Tyson McGill (6'0" 225 Jr). This unit is not as deep as in '10 but I like the Burkhead/Green combo and keep in mind NU fell 84 yds short of having three 1,000 yd rushers last season.

RECEIVERS - In '09 NU had to replace their top 2 (comb 1,727, 13.8). Mike McNeill set the school record for rec by a TE (32, 13.8) in '08. The top ret WR was Menelik Holt (355, 11.8). Despite some inconsistent play, Niles Paul (PS#7) was far and away #1 with 796 (19.9) while McNeill had just 259 (9.3). Curenski Gilleylen had 302 (17.8). Those top 3 ret'd LY and despite inj's

Paul led with 516 (13.2). Brandon Kinnie, who had 141 (9.4) in '09, had 494 (11.2). TE Tyler Reed had 395 (18.0). McNeill, who moved from TE to WR, had just 346 (16.5). TY they lose McNeill (4 st) and Paul (11 st, #5DC WAS). Adding depth are Taylor Dixon (5'11" 195 Jr), Dillon Schrodtt (6'3" 185 Jr) and TE's Robert Barry (6'8" 245 So, PS#227) and Lester Ward (6'3" 230 Jr, PS#86). The Huskers could still easily top '10's production and true frosh Jamal Turner (PS#11) could be the star.

OFFENSIVE LINE - NU was famous for its "Pipeline" O-line but OL coach Milt Tenopir moved on after '02 and the Huskers did not have a 1st Tm B12 OL from '01-'09. In '09 they had to replace 2 NFL DC's and slipped a little to 147 rush ypg (4.0) with 19 sks (5.2%). LY they had to replace 1 st'r but two ret st's DNP (inj). With two st's back and having a mobile QB like Martinez they improved to 248 ypg (5.5) although they did allow 29 sks (10.3%). TY they lose RT DJ Jones (14 st), LG Keith Williams (14 st, 3Y st'r, #6DC PIT) and 1st Tm B12 RG Ricky Henry (14 st, 2Y st'r). Marcel Jones (11 st '09, 4 gm LY) returns so it is like having 3 st's back making them more exp'd and PS#3JC Jermarcus Hardrick should have a bigger impact.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 NU, with an inexp'd D-line, yielded 232 ypg (5.2) which was their worst total in modern history (just 13 sk). In Pelini's first 2 yrs, the unit made great strides yielding 116 ypg (3.6) in '08 and 93 ypg (2.8) in '09. A key to the improvement was the dominant play of 1st Tm AA Ndamukong Suh. LY they had to replace 2 sts incl Suh (NFL Def Rookie of Yr) but ret'd 1st Tm B12 DT Jared Crick (PS#109). DC Carl Pelini talked about the def being as good or better than the '09 version, but I was skeptical and the Huskers regressed to allowing 153 ypg rush (3.9) with 30 sks. Carl Pelini thought soph Eric Martin would emerge as a special player LY but his PT was limited at LB and he moved to DE late in the season. TY they lose DE Pierre Allen (14 st, 65 tkl, 11 tfl) but have 7 of the top 8 back incl Crick (#3 tkl'r, 9.5 sk) and Baker Steinkuhler (PS#1). Despite the loss of a quality DE, this is a stronger front.

LINEBACKERS - With Ndamukong Suh up front in '09, the Huskers all'd 10.4 ppg (best S/84). LY they had to replace their #2 tkl'r (#4DC) and then lost ret st'r Sean Fisher (#11 tkl'r) over the summer. Will Compton (8 st, #10 tkl'r) was the most exp'd LB and the Peso (SLB hybrid) ret'd in Eric Hagg (10 st, #10 tkl'r). Lavonte David lived up to his PS#6JC billing and set an NU record with 152 tkl (149 Barrett Ruud '03). TY they lose 1st Tm B12 Hagg (14 st, #7 tkl'r, #7DC CLE) but return David (#1 tkl'r) who bulked up (210 LY) to withstand the rigors of the new conf. With the move to the more physical Big Ten, they will use 3 LB's more this year. This is a more exp'd unit that also gets the return of Fisher and should be improved.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Huskers finished #58 in my PDR in '07 and #39 in '08. In '09 thanks in part to a dominating D-line, the Huskers climbed all the way up to #1 (47.8%, 7-20). LY they had to replace 2 st's (#5DC) but did ret 1st Tm B12 CB Prince Amukamara and I rated the secondary #2 overall. The CB duo of Amukamara and Alfonzo Dennard helped the Huskers finish #1 again (48.7%, 13-19). TY they lose 1st Tm AA CB Amukamara (66 tkl'r, 13 pbu, #1DC NYG), SS Rickey Theranese (7 st, 34 tkl), FS DeJon Gimes (14 st, #2 tkl'r, 1 int, 7 pbu, #5DC WAS) and CB Anthony West (13 tkl). Not in the PSL are Marcus Mendoza (5'10" 190 Sr, PS#41), Lazarri Middleton (6'1" 195 So, PS#207), Yusuf Wade (5'10" 175 Jr), Wil Richards (5'11" 195 So) and Austin Williams (6'0" 190 Jr). Dennard is one of the best CB's in the country, even though this is still a quality unit, NU will likely drop a few notches in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In the last 17 yrs, the Huskers have ranked in the top 10 of my ST rankings 8 times. In '08 they had their K and P back but were only #41. Adi Kunalic was #1 over the past 4 yrs in the FBS with 125 TB's. Alex Henery (#4DC PHI) took over the P duties in '09 (41.4 avg, 34.7 net) while hitting a school record 24-28 FG's (L52). Niles Paul was the top KR (27.9) and PR (10.7). NU finished #16 in '09 and with everyone back LY I had them as my #8 ST unit. The Huskers finished #4 as Henery hit an amazing 18-19 FG's (L53, school rec 18 straight). The NCAA record for FG % from 40+ was 72.1% set by Georgia's Billy Bennett and Henery hit 78.8%. Incl xp's, he hit 96.7% (#1 Missouri's Jeff Wolfert, 94.9%). He also avg 43.2 punting (37.7 net). LY Kunalic's 39 TB's (86 KO) ranked 3rd in the FBS. On a fluky rugby P vs Texas Eric Hagg went 95 yds for a TD topping Bobby Newcombe's school record (94 in '00). All of the key players now depart making this unit one of the bigger question marks on the team.

COACHES - Bo Pelini was the interim HC for NU's '03 bowl win (Mich St). He was the DC here in '03 and the DC at LSU from '05-'07. He ret'd as HC in '08. Pelini is the only cch in Big 12 history to win at least a share of a div title in his first 3Y. The new OC is Tim Beck who was the RB cch ('08-'10) and will also cch QB's. Carl Pelini (Bo's brother) served 3Y under Frank Solich at Ohio and became the DC here in '08. After allowing 37.9 ppg in '07 the D improved to an FBS best 10.4 ppg in '09.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Nebraska was 11-0 and headed for the Big 12 Title gm in '01 when they were upset at Colo, 62-36. From that point through the end of '04, the tm had 9 losses by 22+ pts. Frank Solich's last m earned an amazing 35th straight bowl in '03 but he was let go despite a record of 58-19. After interviewing DC Bo Pelini among others, NU chose ex-OAK Raiders HC Bill Callahan. In '04 they were making a dramatic switch going from the option to the West Coast off. That yr I called for Iowa St (2-10 in '03) to top NU in the Big 12 North. NU's loss to Colo in the finale gave them their 1st losing season S/61! Callahan's tms improved to 8-4 in '05 and 9-5 in '06 (Big 12 Title gm). I was one of the few NOT to pick NU to win the Big 12 North in '07. The '07 Huskers D set school records for most pts (455) and yds (5,722) all'd. Callahan was let go after a 5-7 season. In '08 Nebraska made my Most Improved List despite having just 10 ret st's and 5 opp's who were in Jan bowls in '07. The Huskers did not disappoint me (9-4) and were +112 ypg (best North). In '09 they had to replace twelve 5th year Sr's and I was in the minority calling for NU to win the Big 12 North (most had KU). They almost upset Texas in the Big 12 Title gm (46 yd FG snuck thru after :01 put on clock). The Huskers then routed Arizona (bowl), 33-0. Despite their 6-2 Big 12 record in '09, NU was just -12.3 ypg. The Huskers were the preseason favorite to win the North LY. In June NU accepted a bid to the Big Ten conf and their Big 12 foes hit them with their best parting shots. The Huskers were #8 (1st preseason Top 10 S/02). At 2-0 NU faced a big showdown at Wash but it turned out to be a smackdown 56-21. On ESPN on a Thurs night, 4-0 NU took on 4-0 K-St but Martinez and Co. ran for 451 yds. They were heavy favorites to gain revenge vs Texas but were upset 20-13. The Huskers beat unbeaten #17 Okla St on the road 51-41 (1st win over top 19 tm S/01) then beat MO 31-17 even though Martinez was inj'd. The Huskers were fortunate to get past Iowa St in OT as Martinez played just 1 series and was not 100% the rest of the yr. The off, which avg 38.9 ppg over the first 7, avg just 22.9 ppg the last 7. After a lackluster win vs Kan they lost to A&M by 3 as NU was called for 16 pen's (A&M just 2). They whipped Colo 45-17 tying for the Big 12 North Title. NU led Okla 17-0 but lost 23-20 (OU 454-293 yds) in the title gm. UW had a 340-189 yd edge and got revenge in the bowl, 19-7. NU finished a disappointing 10-4 (#20). NU had 2 net close losses and their +95.8 ypg was 2nd best in the Big 12. The Big Ten matched them up vs the top 3 of the Leaders division (OSU, UW & PSU) but despite just 12 ret st's, NU gets my call to get to the Big Ten Title game this year.

Last time NU lost a home opener was in '85, 17-13 loss to #17 FSU (25-0 since). First meeting. Mocs went 6-5 LY incl a 62-24 loss vs Aub. UTC has faced the Heisman Trophy winner each of the L3Y.

First meeting. For 6 str ssn's the Cornhuskers have started off 2-0. Into 2011 Nebraska is 48-7 in the regular ssn vs non-conf opponents since 1996 (6 of the losses vs BCS schools).

LY QB Martinez started his 1st road gm of career vs UW rushing for 139 yds (7.3) & passing for 150 w/4 TD's. Nebraska had won 3 straight prior to the bowl loss LY.

NU is a perfect 5-0 vs WY but this will be their 1st trip to Laramie. These schools last met in '94, a 42-32 NU win after the Huskers found themselves down 14-0 after 2 early TO's.

NU is 3-2 vs UW (last gm in 1974). This will mark Nebraska's first conf game as a Big 10 member. The Cornhuskers were 13-2 in conference openers as Big 12 members.

HC Pelini is a OSU alumni ('90) playing football from 1987-'90 as a FS earning 4 letters. Pelini was the DC at LSU in '07 when the Tigers beat the Buckeyes for the National Championship.

NW: The HT is 3-0 in this series. Mich: Into '11 NU has won 8 of 9 conf AG's by an avg 15 ppg. Bonus: It will be the 22nd str year NU has played the day after Thanksgiving.

Pelini is 5-0 vs Minn as a player (4-0) & asst cch (1-0). The Cornhuskers are 20-29-2 all-time vs the Gophers but have won the last 14 games ('63-'90) w/5 shutouts.

NU is 5-0 & Pelini is 1-0 vs MSU as he was the interim HC for the '03 Alamo Bowl beating the Spartans 17-3. In 1996 (last visit from MSU) NU won 55-14 rolling up 666 yds (331 yd edge).

The 66 pts NU scored in the '00 Alamo Bowl was the most pts scored in their 47 bowl gm history.

Nebraska is 6-7 vs Penn St (L/meeting '03). NU won 18-10 w/a 23-13 FD & 397-203 yd edge.

NU beat UM in the '05 Alamo Bowl. LTH was in 1962, a 25-13 win. As a player Pelini beat UM once in 4Y.

HC Pelini spent the '91 ssn as a grad asst at Iowa. The Cornhuskers are 19-4 in home finales incl 6 str wins by an avg 20 ppg. NU is 26-12-3 vs Iowa winning 3 straight by an avg 33 ppg.

MICHIGAN ST SPARTANS

RB Edwin Baker

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Drew Stanton left after '06 as MSU's #2 career passer (#2DC). Brian Hoyer (PS#23) took over in '07 and left as the #3 career passer. Despite being plagued by dropped passes, Hoyer threw for 2,404 (51%, 9-9) in '08. He did become the first QB to take the Spartans to B2B bowls S/'90 and is now Tom Brady's highly regarded bkp at NE. Kirk Cousins was Hoyer's backup and surprisingly beat out RFr VHT Oklahoma transfer Keith Nichol (PS#7) for the starting spot in '09. The 2 alternated snaps early but Cousins took command and threw for 2,680 (60%, 19-9). Nichol threw for 764 (54%, 7-3). Andrew Maxwell (PS#32) was impressive as a RS on the scout team. LY they moved Nichol to WR and Cousins guided the team to their most wins in a season in school history and became the first MSU QB to win 2 gms over Michigan since Jimmy Raye ('66 & '67). He tied Stanton's schl rec with a streak of 16 straight games with a td pass. He threw for 2,825 (66.9%, 20-10) despite missing a lot of practice time in the final month (inj). Maxwell played in just 5 hitting 11-25-123. Nichol att'd 7 passes with most of his action coming in mop up time in the bowl when Cousins and Maxwell were KO'd. This year everyone returns and added to the mix is Drake transfer Peter Badovinac (PS#99). Cousins should be one of the Big Ten's best QB's in his senior season.

RUNNING BACKS - In Dantonio's first year ('07) he nearly had a pair of 1,000 yard rushers. Javon Ringer finished with 1,447 (5.9) and Jehuu Caulcrick added 872 (3.9) with 21 rush tds. In '08 they had to replace Caulcrick and Ringer took 92% of the RB carries. While he avg a pedestrian 4.2 ypc, he was the key to their offense and rushed for 1,637 with 22 tds ('5DC). In '09 the big news was the signing of 2 VHT true frosh in Edwin Baker (PS#10) and Larry Caper (PS#21). Caper led with just 468 (3.9) while Baker burned his RS in Wk 7 and was #2 (427, 5.0). LY Caper was banged up and out the first 2 and Le'Veon Bell (PS#106) became the first Spartan true frosh RB to top 100 in his first game (141). Caper became more of a rec and blocker on 3rd down and finished just #4 (144, 3.8). Bell had 549 in the first 6 but hit the wall after an inj vs N Col with just 56 in the final 7. Baker became just the 6th MSU sgo to rush for 1,000 (1,201, 5.8, 13 td). His nickname is the "Rock" as he is a power back with a workmanlike attitude and outstanding lower body strength. Naturally all 3 are back and they add in VHT Nick Hill (5'7" 182 rFr, PS#49) and Jeremy Langford (5'11" 199 rFr, PS#149). Not listed below are FB's Niko Palazeti (6'1" 250 rFr), Fred Smith (6'2" 236 Jr, PS#33) and Adam Setterbo (6'3" 243 Sr). This is one of the deeper RB corps in the country.

RECEIVERS - In '08 Mark Dell (PS#22) missed 2 but still led with 679 (18.9). Blair White was #2 with 659 (15.3), BJ Cunningham was #3 (528, 12.9) and TE Charlie Gantt finished #4 (302, 15.9). Drops were such a problem that ESPN's Todd McShay claims it cost Hoyer from being selected in the NFL draft. In '09 White led with 990 (14.1), Cunningham was #2 (641, 13.4). Dell had 449 (17.3) and Gantt had 348 (15.8). Keshawn Martin was the only player in the FBS in '09 to have tds of 80+ yds 3 diff ways (run, rec, KR) and he was the #4 rec (411, 22.8) and the #3 rusher. Five WR's were susp'd for the bowl and QB Nichol moved in. Nichol has a 38" VL (4.5 spd) and Dantonio called him a "bigger, faster, stronger Blair White." White was the only loss LY and Dell led with 788 (15.5) while Cunningham was #2 (611, 12.2). Martin was the #3 rush (157) and rec (394, 12.3) while Nichol struggled with nagging inj's (262, 11.9). TY they lose 2nd Tm B10 TE Gantt (13 st, #4) who was given the team's Outstanding OL Award and Dell (8 st). They add in Tony Lippett (PS#78) who did a tremendous job on the scout tm LY mimicking Denard Robinson and will play both ways. Adding depth are Chris D Rucker (5'9" 175 Sr, PS#163), Kyle Nichol (5'9" 180 So, PS#196) along with TE's Andrew Gleichert (6'5" 243 rFr) and Derek Hoebing (6'7" 265 So). While Gantt and Dell will be tough to replace, this unit could match '10's numbers.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 MSU had to replace a pair of 3 yr st's and then were hit hard by inj's with 8 diff OL's starting in the first 3. Despite the inexp, MSU improved slightly to 137 ypg (4.2) with just 14 sks (3.3%). LY they had to replace 1st Tm B10 LT Joel Nitchman and 2 other st's (43 car sts ret). The rush totals improved to 152 ypg (4.5) but with 24 sks (6.4%). This year they lose C John Stipek (13 st), RT J'Michael Deane (13 st), 2nd Tm B10 LT DJ Young (12 st, 2Y st) and PS#14 David Barrent (7 gm, car end inj). They once again return 2 st's (57 car sts ret) but moved over 2 DL in Dan France and Blake Treadwell and also add in Fou Fonoti (PS#50JC). With a deeper overall unit MSU could top LY's production.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 MSU lost 2 st's and had just one senior but still improved to allowing 113 ypg rush (3.4) with 35 sks. LY they had to replace 2 st's plus 3 bkps (comb 10 tkl) and the unit slipped some (134, 3.9, 20 sk). NT's Kevin Pickelman and Blake Treadwell did miss a combined 6 gms and only 2 DL started 12. This year they lose DE Colin Nealy (12 st, 34 tkl, 10 tfl), Treadwell moved to the OL (5 st, 16 tkl) along with Dan France (3 tkl) but both could return to the unit if they don't secure starting jobs on the OL. Seven of the top 8 return and look for a much bigger impact from William Gholston (PS#3) who played in 10 (13 tkl) as a true frosh before shoulder surgery. This looks like the Spartans' deepest and most complete DL since at least '07!

LINEBACKERS - Seventeen MSU LB's have been drafted since '80 but none since '01 until Greg Jones was picked in the 6th Rd (NYG) in '11. The veteran duo of Jones and Eric Gordon combined for 796 career tkls, the most by any active LB duo in the FBS LY. This year both depart in 1st Tm AA MLB Jones (#1 tkl/r, 10 tfl, 4Y str) and 2nd Tm B10 SLB Gordon (26 tkl/r, 6.5 tfl). The lone returning starter is a VHT in Chris Norman (#6 tkl/r) and don't be surprised if another VHT Max Bullough (PS#17) comes close to matching Jones' performance. With the loss of the top 2 (95 car sts), however, this unit will be down a few notches.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - MSU had an exp'd secondary in '06 but surprisingly dropped to #102 in my PDR (32-8 ratio). They moved up to #64 and #28 the next 2 yrs. In '09 they had an exp'd unit, but much like in '06, plummeted to #103 (32-6 ratio). MSU shuffled the lineup often looking for the right combo. LY they had to replace 5 who comb'd for 26 sts (#7DC). They ret'd 3 who started 7+ and I said that while it was not an overwhelming unit and less exp'd, with the stronger front 7 they could only improve in my PDR. MSU did just that moving up to #36. This year they lose 2nd Tm B10 SS Marcus Hyde (13 st, #3 tkl/r, 3 int, 8 pbu) and 2nd Tm B10 CB Chris L Rucker (10 st, #5 tkl/r, 2 int, 7 pbu, #6DC IND). This group is equal to LY in terms of experience and 6'2" Tony Lippett could be a big upgrade at CB if he stays on D (also WR).

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Dantonio's first 3 yrs here, they finished #77, #58 and in '09 improved to #17 in my ST ratings. P Aaron Bates (36.8 net) and KR Keshawn Martin (28.9) were the keys. A week prior to '10 the K job was up for grabs between rFr Kevin Muma (PS#16) and soph Dan Conroy (PS#52). Conroy not only won the job but he set the MSU record for most consecutive FG's (Paul Edinger, '99) with 13. He hit 14-15 (L50) only getting 2 att's in the final 6 (13 first 7). Bates avg a super 45.0 (38.1 net) and hit perhaps the 2 biggest pass plays of the season on fakes: the game winning td pass in OT vs ND and a FD pass on 4&11 vs Northwestern. Muma handled the KO (13 TB, 74 KO). Martin avg just 17.8 on KR's but had the momentum changing 74 yd PR TD (1st here S/'02) vs Wisc. MSU moved up to #14 but this year lose Bates and 4 year LS Alex Shackleton and may drop a few notches.

COACHES - MSU wanted an old school disciplinarian so they brought in Mark Dantonio in '07. Dantonio served on Nick Saban's staff as the Spartans' DB coach from '95-'00. He moved on to become DC at Ohio St ('01-'03) including their Nat'l Title year in '02 before taking over at Cincy as HC in '04 (2 bowls, 3 yrs). He has guided the Spartans to 4 straight bowls (4 bowls previous 10Y) and the 11 wins LY was a MSU record which earned Dantonio Big Ten COY honors. Don Treadwell who was the OC under Dantonio for 7Y took the Miami, Oh HC job. The new OC is Dan Roushar (OL coach under Dantonio S/'05). He was the OC at Ill ('04) as well as N Cll ('98-'02). The DC is Pat Narduzzi who was Miami, OH's DC in '03 and Cincy's DC from '04-'06.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Mark Dantonio took over in '07 and inherited the Big Ten's biggest underachiever. In John L. Smith's debut season in '03 they opened up 7-1 but despite plenty of talent, went just 15-25 through '06. Dantonio immediately improved the team to 7-6 and then 9-4 (#24) in '08. In '09 they were actually picked 3rd in the Big Ten media poll (I had them tied for 4th) and the Spartans finished in a tie for 6th (-16.4 ypg). MSU had a bunch of players susp'd for the bowl, much like they did for Dantonio's first bowl in '07 and lost to TT by 10 to drop to 6-7. The Spartans made my Most Improved List last year and I called it Dantonio's best edition here. MSU lived up to my advance billing. They did use a fake FG in OT to get past ND 34-31 even though the play clock was at :00 when the play started. Unfortunately, Dantonio suffered a mild heart attack post-game and missed 2 gms. MSU continued to roll on and got off to their first 8-0 start since 1966. That start included a key 34-24 win over Big Ten co-champ Wisc and their 3rd straight win over "Big Brother" Michigan for the first time S/'65-'67. They were fortunate at times as NW led 17-0 and 24-14 in the 4Q when they sprang a fake punt pass on 4 & 11 which sparked the comeback. They moved up to #5 when they travelled to Iowa but were thrashed 37-6. The Spartans won each of their last 3 including a 4Q rally over Purdue (trailed 28-13) which was aided by a blk'd P and an impressive 28-22 win at Penn St to win a share of their first Big Ten Title S/'90. MSU was passed over for a BCS bowl despite finishing tied with Ohio St and Wisc with identical records. They got to their 4th straight bowl for the first time since 1990 and while they were ranked #7 and taking on a 3-loss Alabama team, they were not only the underdog, but were blown out 49-7. This year Mich St has just 12 ret st's and play 5 road games vs bowl teams. Despite their 7-1 mark in Big Ten play they were only +39.9 ypg (#4). MSU also benefitted from 3 net close wins and had just 7 sts lost to injury. This is probably the strongest team that Dantonio has fielded but the above factors will make it tough to match LY's 11 wins.

First Meeting: Dantonio was an asst coach at YSU from '86-'90 under Jim Tressel. MSU has won 12 str home openers by 23 ppg. The Penguins went 3-8 LY (7 str Ls) incl a 44-14 loss to Penn St.

MSU is 2-0 vs FAU and LY at Ford Field led 27-7 mid-3Q. FAU w/2:50 left had a chance to get within a TD/2pt conv but elected to kick a 24 yd FG. RB Baker had a career high 183 yds (12.2).

LY the Spartans stunned the Irish with a fake FG in OT. LY's game was tied at 7, 14, 21 & 28. Nine of the L/11 meetings have been decided by single digits (4 of 6 by a FG).

MSU is 4-3 vs CM and had their 4 gm series win streak snapped in '09, 29-27. MSU allowed a 11 yd TD pass (2ptng) w/3:2 left & CM recovered the onside kick nailing a 42 yd FG w/0:3.

Both HC's are very good friends as Dantonio also coached under Tressel at Ohio St from 2001-'03. MSU has dropped 7 str vs OSU by 18 ppg, only one game has been decided by single digits.

Indiana: In '08 (L/gm) MSU won 42-29 but late 3Q IU got an apparent 97 yd TD pass & the lead but holding was called in the EZ resulting in a MSU safety, 36-29.

LY MSU earned its most lopsided victory in this series since beating UM 34-0 in 1967. Spartans have won 3 str in this series for the 1st time S'1965-'67 & a 4 gm win streak is the high mark.

The HT has won 6 straight by 15 ppg. Dantonio did not coach LY's gm due to health issues. MSU is avg 319 ypg (56%) the L4Y vs the UW secondary.

MSU has lost all 5 meetings vs NU. Last gm was the '03 Alamo Bowl, 17-3. The gm was tied 3-3 after 10 but MSU was outgained 389-174 and their L/10 poss ended in 3 int's & 7 punts.

LY MSU snapped a 3 gm series losing skid & S'98 are 3-6 vs Minn. MSU led 24-0 into the 4Q as RB Baker had 179 (6.6) yds & 4 TD's but QB Cousins had his rec-tying streak of 16 str gms w/a TD pass come to an end.

Cousins had his worst gm of his career LY vs UI tossing 3 int's (2 in 1H resulted in 13 pts) as MSU trailed 37-0 into the 4Q. MSU hasn't won in Iowa City S'89, 7 str defeats by 15 ppg.

MSU has won the L3 at home vs IU by 28 ppg. Mich St is 11-4 in home finales.

MSU trailed 17-0 LY vs NU (outgained 208-89) w/6:07 left 2Q. The Spartans took a one pt lead w/2:00 left & tacked on another TD 53 sec later for the misleading final. Cousins threw for a ssn high 331 yds.

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Ricky Stanzi took the job away from the ret s'r and threw for 1,956 (59%, 14-9). Stanzi was the clear-cut s'r in '09 and proved to be a clutch performer in the 4Q (51% 1Q, 67% 4Q). He threw for 2,417 (56%, 17-13) but with 4 IR t'ds. Stanzi was inJ'd in the 2Q vs NW in Iowa's 1st loss of the yr when bkp James Vandenberg struggled in relief. Vandenberg got his first start vs an excellent Ohio St D on the road with the Big Ten Title on the line (233 yds, 2 t'ds but 3 int's). He finished with 470 (48%, 2-5). LY Stanzi set a school record for pass eff (157.6), just beating out Brad Banks (157.1 in '02). He threw for 3,004 (64.1%, 25-6) and became the first Iowa QB to win 3 bowls. Stanzi also became the first Hawkeye QB to be selected in the NFL draft (#5DC KC) since Matt Rodgers in '92. Vandenberg played in 3 (8 att) and will battle soph John Wienke (PS#26), rR AJ Derby (PS#10) and this year's true fresh. Naturally this unit is weaker with the loss of a 3 year starter off of a record setting year.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 this unit was a major ? with the top 2 RB's in spring having 0 career rush yds. Shonn Greene ret'd to the program in Aug and had a year well beyond expectations rushing for a UI record 1,850 (6.0, 20 td) winning the Doak Walker Award. True frosh Jewel Hampton had 463 (5.1). In '09 Hampton inj'd his knee so the unit was back in the same state (Greene #3DC). RFR Adam Robinson who was tried at S in the spring, emerged and rushed for 834 (4.6) despite missing 2. Brandon Wegher (PS#5) added 641 (4.0). Walk on Paki O'Meara had 35 (2.2). LY this position appeared loaded with Robinson, Wegher and Hampton. Hampton served a 1 gm susp but then after 2 gms was OFY (114, 4.2). Wegher surprisingly transferred. Robinson nearly became the 13th 1,000 yd rusher here but was inj'd vs Minn and susp for the bowl (941, 4.6). They burned the RS of true frosh 230 lb Marcus Coker (PS#41) vs Ball St and he rushed for 60. While playing in just 7, Coker was more impressive at times than Robinson when called upon. Coker rushed for a UI bowl record 219 (6.6, MVP). This year they lose Hampton (trans), O'Meara (56, 5.6), Robinson (9 st, 3Y str), FB Brett Morese (64 tld yd, 12 st, 3Y str). They add in 6'3" 238 lb true frosh Rodney Coe (PS#17). I feel this unit gets an upgrade with Coker as the full-time starter and there is an outside chance that Robinson (susp) could return.

RECEIVERS - In '09 the Hawkeyes had to replace 2 of their top 3 rec's but rel'd then #1 man in Derrell Johnson-Koulianos ("DJK") who had 639 (14.5) in '08. DJK was 2nd string in 5 but still led with 750 (16.7). Former QB Marvin McNutt (PS#43QB) was 62 (674, 19.8). Both rec'd LY but they lost their outstanding TE Tony Moeaki. DJK set several low records despite slipping to 745 (16.2) before being dismissed before the bowl. McNutt is 6'4" 215 and physical. He was #1 LY with 861 (16.2). Keanan Davis (PS#14) had a problem with drops in '09 (4 rec) but improved to 11 rec's LY. This year they lose DJK (10 st), TE Allen Reinsner (13 st, 460, 11.0) and 5's Colin Sandeman (3 st, 227, 10.8). Adding depth are Joe Audlehelm (5'8" 182 SR), Blake Haluska (6'4" 208 rFr) and John Chelf (5'11" 175 rFr). With the loss of 3 of their top 4 including their career leader, I'll call this unit down a few notches.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Kirk Ferentz was an NFL OL coach which means this unit is always one of his top priorities and he's had 11 OL drafted in his tenure. Surprisingly in '09 they had 99 career sts (#10 FBS) and only had to replace 2 st's but their numbers plummeted to 114 ypg rush (3.3) with 29 sks. LY Iowa had to replace 4 st's incl Big Ten OLPOY in Bryan Bulaga (#1DC) as well as a 2nd Tm Big Ten RT (#7DC). They had just 36 car sts back but I noted that while less talented, they could actually produce better numbers. That is what happened as Iowa improved to 148 ypg (4.3, 20 sk). LY Iowa had 4 OL start all 13 but also had a revolving door at RG where 3 different players started. This year they lose 2nd Tm Big Ten LG Julian Vandervelde (13 st, 3.5Y st'r, #5DC PHI), RG Josh Koeppel (L/5 st) and Kyle Haganman (5 gm). They are more experienced (59 career starts) and should improve their numbers once again.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Iowa had perhaps their best ever DT combo of Mitch King (Big Ten DLPOY) and Matt Kroul (50 consec sts). The D had allowed just 94 ypg rush (3.1) but with inexp DE's, had just 19 sks. In '09 they had to replace both DT's but returned exp'd DE's. As you would expect, their ypg rushing allowed increased to 124 ypg (3.5) and the sks increased to 31 (Adrian Clayborn, 11.5 sk). In '10 all 4 st's ret'd with Clayborn turning down the NFL although his sk total dropped to 3.5 (more double tms). Iowa improved its rush D to 102 ypg (3.2) but surprisingly the sk total dropped to 22. This year the Hawkeyes lose 1st Tm Big Ten DE Clayborn (13 st, 52 tkl, 5.5 sk, #1 DCB TEN), 2nd Tm Big Ten DT Karl Klug (13 st, 57 tkl, 5.5 sk, 7.5 tfl, #5DC TEN) and Christian Ballard (13 st, 43 tkl, 3 sk, #4DC MIN). While LY's line did not live up to expectations, they basically lose their top 3 DL's and are a lot less exp'd.

LINEBACKERS - The Hawks ret'd their top 6 LB's in '09 (#1, #2 and #6 tkf/r all VHT's) and had 1 of the best LB corps in the country. LY they had to replace 2 st/r's (#2 & #4DC). The LB's were also hit hard by inj's with Jeff Tarpinian starting just 5, Tyler Nielsen 8 and Bruce Davis 1. Perhaps the D did not improve overall because the LB's were less exp'd as true frosh. James Morris (PS#42) took over the MLB job. Iowa slipped to allowing 17.0 ppg (15.4 in '09). This year they lose 2nd Tm Big Ten WLB Jeremia Hunter (12 st, #1 tkf/r), Tarpinian (5 st, #10 tkf/r) and Troy Johnson (5 st, #7 tkf/r). They return 4 who comb for 17 st's incl their #4 and #12 tkf/r. LY was the 1st time S/O2 LB's did not finish #1 & #2 in tkls. This group actually has a little more experience than LY and should remain healthier.

DEFENSIVE BACKS-In '08 Iowa finished #7 in my PDR (9-23 ratio). In '09 the Hawks lost one str then lost a proj str in Aug. They were still one of only 6 tms to allow less than 50% (#6 PDR, 9-21). LY they had to replace 1 str (#3DC). They had just 1 VHT in the 3 deep but ret'd 1st Tm Big Ten SS Tyler Sash and FS Brett Greenwood (3Y str). Surprisingly the veteran unit slipped to #20. TY they lose 2nd Tm Big Ten Greenwood (13 str, #6 tkf/r, 5 int) and 1st Tm Big Ten Sash (13 str, #3 tkf/r, 2 int, #6DC NYG). They do return 1st Tm Big Ten CB Shaun Prater (#5 tkf/r) but have just 1 VHT and figure to drop in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Ferentz believes his ST unit should be the great equalizer allowing lowa to contend with teams with superior talent. Heading into '06, Iowa had finished #2, #2, #18 and #20 in my ST rankings. They surprisingly finished #76 in '06, #62 in '07 and #48 in '08. With a veteran group in '09 they moved up to #27 where they stayed again LY with everyone back. In '09 K Daniel Murray hit 19-26 (L48). Surprisingly true, from Mike Meyer (PS#134) took over and hit 14-17 FGs (L42) with 15 TB on 69 KO's. P Ryan Donahue avg 40.9 (37.1 net) in '09 and improved to an outstanding 44.6 (37.8 net) LY. This year they must replace Donahue, top KR DJK (29.3), top PR Sandeman (8.3) and may drop a few notes.

COACHES - Kirk Ferentz took over for legendary Hayden Fry in 1999. In '02 he led Iowa to its first Big Ten Title since '90 and also the most wins in school history (11) which he tied in '09. Ferentz was named the Big Ten COY in '02, '04 and '09. NFL scouts feel this coaching staff is one of the NCAA's best and there has been little staff turnover. Ferentz is among the highest paid coaches in the NCAA and was given a contract extension through 2020. Ken O'Keefe has been the OC for 13 yrs. He was the HC at Fordham in '98 and at Allegheny from '90-'97. DC Norm Parker also enters his 13th year. Parker was named the SEC DC of the Year in '97 while at Vandy. He was also a finalist in both '04 and '05 for the Broyles Award.

Kirk Ferentz was 2-18 in his first 20 games at Iowa but is 87-42 since. His best stretch came from '02-'04 when Iowa finished #8 AP each season winning a share of the Big Ten Title in both '02 and '04. Iowa went just 7-5, 6-7 and 6-6 only getting to 2 bowls in the next 3 yrs. In '08 they beat SCar in the Outback to finish 9-4. The '08 Iowa team had 4 losses but all were by 5 or less. In '09 they improved to 11-2 with a BCS bowl win over GTech and a #7 finish. They opened '09 at 9-0 but lost QB Stanzi vs NW and he was also out vs Ohio St. They lost both, costing them a shot at the Big Ten title. LY Iowa had 14 ret st's, a veteran senior QB and a great schedule as they did not have to face any of the other Big Ten contenders (PSU, UW, MSU, OSU) on the road. A couple of factors pointed downward last year in that they were just +27.8 ypg (4th best) in the Big Ten in '09 with 3 net close wins. They were picked to finish 2nd in the Big Ten, the highest ever for an Iowa team since media began voting a preseason Top 3. After opening 2-0 Iowa lost in the desert to Ariz, a game they trailed 27-7 at half but UA needed a td with 3:57 left for the win. After convincing wins vs Penn St and Mich, they caught Wisc the week after the Badgers upset Ohio St, a great situation for Iowa. UW got a fake punt from deep in their own terr for a FD and were able to take a late lead. Iowa then mismanaged the clock and did not get off a FG in a 1 pt loss. The next week they destroyed unbeaten Mich St 37-6 but in their letdown spot, struggled to get past Indiana, 18-13. Iowa led 17-7 at NW but gave up a td with 1:22 left and lost. They led Ohio St 17-10 in the 4Q but were outgained 353-276 and lost by 3. Stunningly they lost to Minny (outgained 382-218) to finish just 4-4 in the Big Ten. They did get past Missouri in the bowl thanks to a 72 yd IR td with 5:32 left for an 8-5 season which was well below expectations (NR). Iowa was -15.6 ypg in Big Ten (7th best), +13 in TO's, had a def ypg of 19.5 and now has just 9 ret st's - all of these factors point down. Iowa did have 3 net close losses, an indicator pointing up. The Hawks were either tied or ahead in the 4Q in all 5 of their losses. Much like heading into '09, Iowa is coming off a season in which their losses came by 7, 1, 4, 3 and 3. They also had the Rhabdo incident during winter conditioning and their 58% lettermen returning are fewest in the Big Ten. This year's tm is not as strong as 2010's but Ferentz has built a program which consistently overachieves where expectations are low. The Hawks should have better fortune in the close games and could match LY's 8 wins.

NORTHWESTERN WILDCATS

DE Vince Browne

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Brett Basanez (PS#26) left as the school's all-time leading passer and in '06 3 QB's battled to replace him. RFR Mike Kafka (PS#41) won the job due to CJ Bachér's (PS#35) inj. Bachér started the final 5 and became a 3 year str (#3 all-time passer). In '07 Bachér led the Big Ten in passing (305 ypg) but had a 19-19 ratio. Kafka played in 4 (3 att). In '08 Bachér (miss 2) threw for 2,432 (60%, 17-15). With Bachér injured, Kafka set a then Big Ten QB rush yd record with 217 vs Minny (since broken by UM's Robinson) and played in 8 throwing for 330 (70%, 2-3). Kafka took over in '09 and his mobile bkp Dan Persa (PS#53) saw limited duty (224, 58.8%, 2-2). In Kafka's final game he set bowl and schl records hitting 47-78 for 532 with 4 td's but also had 5 int's vs Auburn. LY they had to replace 2nd Tm Big Ten Kafka (#4DC) who also led in gross yds rush with 519 (295 net). Persa has twice been named NU's Top Cat (workout warrior) and Fitzgerald says he's lb-for-lb their strongest, best conditioned athlete. He can bench 385 (4.5 spd) and is a solid leader. Persa set the Big Ten record for season comp % (73.5%, #1 FBS '10) shattering UW's Darrell Bevell's record (67.8% '93). He hit the game winning td pass vs Iowa but injured his Achilles celebrating and missed the final 3. Persa threw for 2,581 (15-4) and was #2 rusher (519, 3.2). He was clearly the team's MVP accounting for an FBS best 75% of the offense. RFR Evan Watkins (PS#34) is 5' taller and 35 lbs heavier than Persa and started the final 3. He struggled throwing for 378 (51.4%, 2-5) with 61 (2.7) rush. He is not as mobile (4.9 spd) but has the biggest arm of any NU QB in yrs. They burned the RS of Kain Colter (PS#50) for the last 3 and he got half the snaps in the bowl (105 rush yd and 2 td) mostly running the Wildcat. Adding depth TY is Trevor Siemian (6'3" 200 rfr, PS#43). With Persa back, this unit is vastly more exp'd.

RUNNING BACKS - The Cats had an inexp'd RB corps in '09 and true frosh Arby Fields (PS#125) led with just 302 (3.7) while Stephen Simmons was #4 (233, 3.9). Jacob Schmidt had 217 (3.4). All 3 ret'd LY but the unit struggled again. Mike Trumpy began the season as the #4 RB. After the top 3 TB's comb for 32 yds on 15 carries vs CM, Trumpy rushed for 53 (13 att) and would go on to lead with 530 (4.6). Trumpy's idol is Mike Alstott as he loves to break tackles and he ended NU's 20 gm streak of not having a 100 yd rusher (110 vs Ind). Trumpy later had 129 vs Illinois (80 yd td run - longest S/'86) but DNP last 2 (wrist) and was the #6 rec. Fields, who began this yr as the starter had some fumble problems (178, 2.9). Fitzgerald was so unhappy with his RB's, he took the RS off true frosh Adonis Smith (PS#113) in Wk 5 and Smith finished #3 with 196 (4.8).

Schmidt was the team's Off MVP vs CM but the play he'll most be remembered for is the fumble on 1st & gl at the 1 vs Mich St in the 1Q. He inj'd his ankle on that play (161, 3.3) and didn't return until the bowl. This year they lose Simmons and Fields and adding depth are Tyrus Jones (6'0" 220 Jr), Tim Hanrahan (6'0" 190 rfr) and VHT newcomer Jordan Perkins (PS#50). The Cats figure to get a big boost in production from the RB's.

RECEIVERS - In '08 NU had 3 players finish in the Big Ten's top 10 in rec/gm but all 3 departed in '09. The 4 proj starting WR's comb for a total of 52 rec (454 yds) in '08. Fitzgerald said the unit was an unheralded no-name group and fittingly walk-on, Div III transfer Zeke Markshausen finished #2 in the Big Ten with 7.0 rec/gm (858, 9.4). Ex-QB Andrew Brewer led with 925 (16.2). SB Drake Dunsmore (PS#73) added 523 (11.1) and Sidney Stewart (PS#100) had 470 (11.2). They had to replace their top 2 LY but the top 4 returnees comb for 134 rec (1444 yds) so they were more exp'd. Jeremy Ebert added 15 lbs and was indisputably the team's #1 rec with 953 (15.4). Stewart was #2 with 454 (11.4) and a banged up Dunsmore had 381 (9.5). True frosh Tony Jones' (1 of tm's fastest) first college play was a 45 yd td rec vs Minn. This year they lose Stewart (13 st) and SB Josh Rooks (2 st, 5 rec). This is their most exp'd rec corps in 3 years by far and they add in some tall true frosh.

OFFENSIVE LINE - The Cats OL surprised me in both '08 and '09. In '08 with an inexp'd unit, they improved to 142 rush ypg (3.8) with just 22 sks (4.8%). In '09 with a veteran unit, they regressed to 118 ypg (3.0) with 32 sks (6.0%). LY they had 4 st's back (89 car st) and this time improved as expected to 156 ypg (3.6) although they did allow 40 sk (10.4%). This year they only lose RG Keegan Grant (10 st, 2Y st). The Cats have 9 of the top 10 back incl 5 who have started 13+ in a season (137 car sts-#2 FBS) and will have the best numbers of the Fitzgerald era.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 the top 4 DL tk'l's ret'd. NU actually allowed the lowest ypg rush in their history (previous low '95 Rose Bowl tm) at just 126 ypg (3.6) while increasing the sk total from 18 to a Big Ten leading 34. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's including DT John Gill, whose play often demanded double teams. The unit still managed to allow just 129 ypg (3.8) with 30 sks. LY they had to replace 3 DL (comb 24 sts, #4DC). They were on par experience-wise with the '09 group, unfortunately the Cats yielded 185 ypg rush (5.1) with just 17 sks, their worst totals S/'05. This year they lose DT Corbin Bryant (13 st, 25 tk'l, 8.5 tfl) but have 7 of the top 8 back incl 2nd Tm B10 DE Vince Browne. This unit is more experienced and should make good sized improvement over last year's poor numbers.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 NU had to replace 1.5 st's (#2, #8 tk'l's) and a productive bkp. The top ret tk'l's were #6 Quentin Davie and #5 Nate Williams who were #1 and #2 in '09 and LY the entire 2 deep ret'd. It surprised me that the Cats D slipped to all g 29.0 ppg (+4.5 ppg). Illinois OC Petrino noticed on tape that NU LB's flowed too quickly to the ball which opened up cutback lanes and Mikel Leshoure rushed for an FBS single gm high 330 vs them. This year they lose MLB Williams (13 st, #2 tk'l, 9.5 tfl) and OLB Davie (13 st, #3 tk'l, 6 tfl). This is a much less experienced group (ret #5, #13 tk'l's) but the overall def numbers could improve.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Wildcats had an exp'd secondary in '08 and '09 and improved from #106 in '07 to #44 and #52 in my PDR. LY they had to replace CB Sherrick McManis (2nd NU CB in 33 yrs to earn 1st Tm B10, #5 DC) and 1st Tm B10 FS Brad Phillips. They had just one st' back but due to inj's in '09, 6 ret'd with starting exp. I projected them to drop a few notches in my PDR and they did, down to #70. This year they lose CB Justan Vaughn (13 st, #7 tk'l, 1 int, 5 pbu) but do have 7 of the top 8 back making it a more exp'd and improved unit.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After finishing #90, #92, #95, #110, #106 in my ST rankings, the Cats improved to #79 in '07 and #65 in '08. In '09 Stefan Demos (PS#9) hit 18-25 FG's. His net punting fell from 34.1 to 31.7. Stephen Simmons did avg 25.3 on KR's but NU dropped to #104. LY they wanted to keep Demos' leg fresher so they inserted Brandon Williams at P (40.0, net 38.0). Demos hit 16-23 FG and had 12 TB on 70 KO. Vennic Mark was their most dynamic RM (12.9 on PR). Mark set a single game KR record with 273 yds (30.3) vs Wisc. His 58 yd PR vs Illinois was the Cats' longest S/'05. This year they lose Demos and KR Simmons (22.1) but could equal LY's #28 finish.

COACHES - Randy Walker did a great job here prior to his tragic death in 2006. Walker had actually handpicked his successor, Pat Fitzgerald, who became the youngest coach in the NCAA (by 5 years!) at 31. Fitzgerald was the Big Ten's Defensive MVP on the 1995 Rose Bowl team and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008. The Big Ten's new LB of the Year Award will be named the Butkus-Fitzgerald Award in his honor. He became the first NW HC to guide his team to 3 straight winning seasons since 1960 (Ara Parseghian) and the school extended his contract through 2020. In 2008 he brought in OC Mick McCall, who was BG's OC in '07 (QB ch '03-'06). Fourth year DC Mike Hankwitz was the DC at Wisconsin ('06-'07) and Colorado ('04-'05). Hankwitz was also A&M's DC from 1997-'02 and in his 41 years, his teams have had 35 winning seasons.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Northwestern had 59 years between Big Ten titles (1936-'95) but has won 3 Titles in the last 16 yrs although their last one came in 2000. They were 14-10 in Big Ten play from '03-'05 and in '06 they had 13 ret st's but then suffered the sudden loss of HC Randy Walker over the summer. Under the circumstances, Pat Fitzgerald did a fine job getting the team to 4-8. They did, however, blow a 38-3 lead vs Mich St. I called for the Cats to be bowl eligible in Fitzgerald's 2nd yr as they had 7 HG's (most in 61 yrs) and they did get to six wins but were home for the holidays. While the Cats only improved to 3-5 in Big 10 play in '07, their ypg went from -105.9 in '06 to -23.1 in '07. In '08 their 47 ret left were the most since '92. For the first time S/'63 they swept their non-conf gms and got their first win in the Big House since 1995 upsetting Mich 21-14. Despite going 9-3 the Cats were the biggest underdog of any bowl team yet outplayed Missouri barely losing in OT. NU was -8.1 ypg in Big Ten play, and benefitted from 3 net close wins. They had to replace 23 seniors in '09 and opened 5-4 before ending #8 Iowa's unbeaten season and upset both Illinois and Wisc to get to 8-4 and 5-3 in the Big Ten (+23.3 ypg, 5th best). In the bowl NU had a 621-425 yd edge vs Auburn but lost in OT, partially due to an injury to their K. NU did benefit from 4 net close wins in '09 but had 55 left ret LY and I mentioned they could open as strong as 6-0. NU almost got there opening 5-0 but was a banged up Purdue squad had a 41 yd 4Q FG blk'd and then missed a 45 yd FG with 1:01 left and lost by 3 at home. NU dominated Mich St (led 17-0 late 2Q) and were up 24-14 in the 4Q but lost. They got their 6th straight road win (best stk S/'29-'31), 20-17 vs Ind and led Penn St 21-0 but lost by 14 for Jose Paterno's 400th win. NU once again knocked off Iowa with a Persa td pass with 1:22 left to make it 21-17. Unfortunately, Persa was lost after the play to injury and the Cats were noncompetitive in losing by 21 to Ill and by 47 to Wisc. With extra time to prepare their QB's, they played a good bowl game vs TT but lost by 7, dropping to 7-6. NU did benefit from 2 net close wins and had just 7 sts lost due to injury. The Cats have now been bowl eligible in 7 of the last 8 yrs but have not won a bowl gm (0-8) since the 1948 Rose Bowl. They have 16 ret st's and 80% lettermen returning (#1 Big Ten) and may finally get that elusive bowl win.

QUARTERBACKS- The Wolverines have sent a lot of QB's to the NFL with their pro-style offense including Tom Brady, Brian Griese, Elvis Grbac and Chad Henne. In '07 Henne (4 yr str) left as UM's career leading passer and bkp Ryan Mallett (#3DC NE) transferred to Arkansas with the hiring of spread aficionado Rodriguez. After a tough transition year in '08 with a unit stocked with pocket passers, 2 mobile true frosh battled for the job in '09. Tate Forcier (PS#16, IFS) threw for 2,050 (59%, 13-10) while Denard Robinson (PS#35, 10.28/100M) threw for 188 (45%, 2-4) and was the #3 rusher (351, 5.1). LY Robinson won the job and was the frontrunner for the Heisman at midseason. After 5 gms, Robinson had the top 3 performances in program history becoming the first player to be named Walter Camp OPOW for 2 straight wks. He became the first FBS QB to run for 200 and pass for 200 in the same game twice in a season. In '09 six FBS QB's passed for 1,000 and ran for 900 and Robinson accomplished that in just 5 gms. Due to his slight frame and heavy workload it was perhaps inevitable that Robinson got banged up as he was forced to leave 10 games due to inj. Forcier played well in relief particularly vs BG (UM rec'd 12-12) and playing the 4Q and OT vs Illinois guiding the 3OT win. Robinson played sparingly vs Ohio St. He became the first UM player to lead the team in rushing and passing since Ted Kress in 1952. He broke the all-time NCAA ssn rush record by a QB ('96 Beau Morgan 1494) with 1,702 (6.6) and also threw for 2,570 (62.5%, 18-11). He was my 1st TM AA in a newly created Offensive Back category. True frosh Devin Gardner (PS#4) played in 4 and may be eligible for a RS (back inj). Forcier transferred and Robinson will take more snaps from under C (pass more, run less) and won't match last year's numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Mike Hart left as Mich's career rusher leader in '07. Brandon Minor (PS#25) started just 4 but still led in '08 with just 533 (5.2) which was the lowest total for a UM season since leader since Mel Anthony (394, '63). True fresh Michael Shaw (PS#26) was #3 with 215 (5.1). In '09 Minor was never 100% but led again with 502 (5.2). LY they had to replace their top 2 rushers and the leading returnees were Vincent Smith (PS#56, 276, 5.8) and Shaw (185, 4.4) and soph Michael Cox (PS#88, 113, 8.7). With Denard Robinson hogging 46% of the team's carries, the top RBB was Smith (601, 4.4) while Shaw added 402 (5.4). True fresh power was back Stephen Hopkins (PS#51) had 151 (4.1). Fitzgerald Toussaint (5'10" 200 So, PS#28) had just 87 (10.9). Not listed in the PSL are Teric Jones (5'9" 195 Jr, PS#49) and Jihad Rasheed (5'10" 180 So, JrFr). Hopkins, Toussaint and Cox were the most impressive backs in the spg and are well suited for the pro style offense (each 200+ lbs). Shaw was felled by inj in spg and could return to claim the RECEIVERS—Mario Manningham led with 1,174 (16.3) in '07 while Adrian Arrington (PS#10) was #2 with 882 (13.2). Brog left early for the NFL and the leading returnee in '08 was Greg Matthews (366, 9.4). True frosh Martavious Odoms (tm's fastest) led with 443 (9.0) while fellow true Darryl Stonum (PS#12) was #3 (176, 12.6). Matthews finished #2 (409, 11.7). In '09 Odoms was #1 until he missed 3 (not 100%). He finished #3 (272, 12.4). Matthews was #2 (352, 12.1). Soph Junior Hemingway (PS#17) had 268 (16.8) and TE Kevin Koger (PS#15) had 220 (13.8). RfR Roy Roundtree (PS#68) emerged in Nov when he had 26 rec (just 6 prior) and finished #1 (434, 13.6). LY they only had to replace Matthews. Despite issues with drops, Roundtree had their top total under Rich Rod with 935 (13.0) incl a UM record 246 vs Illinois (Jack Clancy 197, '66). Odoms missed 6 (241, 15.1) while Stonum was #2 (633, 12.9) and Hemingway #3 (593, 18.5). This year the only loss is TE Martell Webb (5 rec, 2 st). Not in the PSL are WR's Jerald Robinson (6'1" 195 rF, PS#41), DJ Williamson (6'11 170 rF, PS#76), Drew Dileo (5'10" 171 So, PS#77), Jeremy Gallon (5'8" 180 So, PS#25), Baquer Sayed (6'0" 196 rF) and TE's Mike Kwiatkowski (6'5" 250 Jr), Nate Allspach (6'6" 224 rF), Dylan Esterline (6'5" 245 rF) and Ricardo Miller (6'4" 215 rF, PS#27). This is UM's top rec corps since 2007.

DEFENSIVE LINE - in '06 UM allowed just 43 ypg rush (1.9), their best ypc since 1971. The results since then have been unexpectedly poor. Despite the presence of Brandon Graham in '09, the group yielded 172 ypg rush (4.4) with just 22 sks. LY they had to replace Graham (#1DC) but had 5 of the top 6 back. Mike Martin was called the most critical player on the D-line and he battled through ankle inj's all yr. The D shockingly allowed 189 ypg rush, their worst since 1968 (199.3) with just 18 sks. This year they lost DT Greg Banks (9r, 38 tk, 3 sk) and NT Adam Patterson (1 st, 16r, 1 tk, 1 sk). LY I said they could only get better and I was wrong as the 3-3-5 D proved to be a poor fit in the physical Big Ten. This should be a much improved group as they move back to a 4-3.

LINEBACKERS - The last 2 yrs UM has had a veteran LB corps. In '09 the top 3 LB's were #1, #3 and #4 tkrls. LY they had to replace their #1 tkrl (#7DC) but moved FS Mike Williams (9 st) to SPUR (only 2 gm, inj) and had 3 str's back. The Wolverines allowed an unthinkable 32.5 ppg, their worst in program history. This year they lose WLB Jonas Mouton (PS#11, 12 st, 1# tkrlr, 8.5 fl, #2DC SD), Obi Ezech (7 st, 58 tk, #6 tkrlr, 3.5 fl) and Mark Moundros (1 st, 17 tk). This unit is less exp'd but will be part of an improved D.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In Rodriguez's first year ('08), even with 2 str's back, UM dropped from #27 in my PDR to #68. In '09 they had just 1 ret str and finished #62. LY it appeared they only had to replace 1 str but then lost their top CB Troy Woolfolk and 21 bkp DB's prior to the ssn. They also lost CB TJ Floyd after 8 sts and moved FS Mike Williams to LB. The unit's most exp'd DB had just 8 sts in SS Jordan Kovacs. UM plummeted to their worst ever finish in my PDR at #106. This year they lose CB James Rogers (13 st, 40 tk, 3 int, 3 pbu), FS Ray Vinopal (6 st, 33 tk, 1 int, 3 pbu) and CB Cullen Chien (6 tk). Five of the top 8 are back plus they get the return of Woolfolk. Adding depth are Charlie Zeller (5'11" 185 So) and Zac Johnson (6'2" 204 Sr, 17 car tkls). The Wolverines will have one of the biggest rises in my PDR in '11.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Lloyd Carr's teams had some fine finishes in my ST rankings (#26 '04, #15 '05) but surprisingly they were just COACHES - Rich Rodriguez left WV after final AP rankings of #5, #10 and #6 and he was under scrutiny from the very beginning for not being a "Michigan Man". After 3 seasons and the worst bowl loss in school history, the switch was made. While not an alum Brady Hoke was an asst here for 8 yrs ('95-'02) before taking the Ball St HC job. Hoke compiled a 34-39 record at BSU but in '08 Ball St was ranked as high as #12 (highest ever). When Hoke took over SDSt he inherited a group that had not had a winning season S/'98. In his 2nd yr he left after earning MWC COY leading the Aztecs to their best record S/'77. Al Borges will continue to be his OC and prior to SDSt he was the OC at Auburn ('04-'07), Indiana ('02-'03), Cal ('01), UCLA ('96-'00), Oregon ('95) and Boise St ('93-'94). DC Greg Mattison returns to where he was the DC from 1995-'96. More recently he was an NFL DC for BAL ('08-'10) and a DC for Florida ('05-'07) and ND ('97-'01). Mattison is the Big Ten's highest paid asst with a base salary of $750,000.

Heading into '08 the Wolverines had 40 straight winning seasons and had gone to 33 consecutive bowls, both of which were the NCAA's longest streaks. In 12 of Lloyd Carr's 13 seasons, they finished ranked (5 times in Top 10). They had been to 3 of the last 5 Rose Bowls and nearly played in the Nat'l Title game in '06 (#2 into final gm). Carr's final game was a Capital One Bowl win over #9 Florida but in '08 I did not have Michigan ranked in my top 50! For the first time in 23 yrs UM was not in the top 3 of the Big Ten media poll or the AP Top 25. Rodriguez did not have a mobile OB to fit his system in '08 and stunningly went 3-9 and they were -112 ypg in Big Ten play (2nd worst). UM was -10 in TO's, had 3 net close losses and 15 ret sr's in '09 which pointed to an improved record. UM opened strong at 4-0 climbing to #22. The bottom dropped out again and they suffered their 6th straight loss to Ohio St and 7th straight Big Ten loss (-107.3 ypg was worst). They did have just 8 Sr's on the 2 deep so the Wolves made my Most Improved List LY (-12 in TO's '09). On my summer radio show circuit, I said the magic number for Rich Rod to keep his job at 8 figuring a 7-5 reg season and a bowl loss would not be good enough to keep his job. Once again, UM looked explosive early as Denard Robinson was the Heisman frontrunner with Mich 5-0 and avg 41.4 ypg (#18). UM lost to their "little brother" Mich St by 17 then by 10 to both Iowa and Penn St. UM did manage a 3OT win over Illinois at home and got past banged up Purdue. 27-16. The Wolves figured to be fired up as a home dog to #6 Wisc but were buried (48-28) then destroyed by Ohio St 37-7. They led the bowl 14-10 but were then embarrassed 52-14 and the Rich Rod era was terminated. UM did "improve" to just -1.9 ypg in Big Ten play (#5) and were -10 in TO's. They did benefit from 4 net close wins (pg 299). Brady Hoke would like to run a pro-style attack but inherits Rich Rod's spread personnel. The main problem with UM LY was their D (451 ypg, 35.2 ppg) but they will be vastly improved on that side of the ball under DC Mattison, their 4th DC in 5 yrs. They are not as exp'd as the 16 ret sr's would indicate as they are undergoing a big shift in schemes once again. It should be another fast start for UM but Nov is tough and they are at least a year away from being the Michigan of old.

MINNESOTA GOLDEN GOPHERS

QB MarQueis Gray

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 Bryan Caputo left as UM's then career passing leader and r/r Adam Weber (PS#47) won a tight battle for the starting job. Weber is a dual threat with a strong arm and set the school's single season passing (2,895) and td pass (24) records but also threw a Big Ten leading 19 int's. In '08 Weber was banged up but his numbers remained steady with a big drop in int (2761, 62%, 15-8). Unfortunately for Weber, they scrapped the spread in '09 and put him under center and he struggled. Weber threw for 2,582 (52%, 13-15). He went from 518 gross rush yds in '08 to just 141. True frosh VHT MarQueis Gray (PS#13) was often used in the Wildcat with 47 rush att's (265, 5.6) but hit just 6-15 for 62 yds. He also worked at WR and had a crucial fumble in FG range on UM's final play of '09 (bowl). LY they added pocket passer r/r Moses Alipate (PS#18) but he was a distant #3 (0 att) while ballooning to 271 lbs. Weber started all 50 gms in his career, becoming just the 5th Big Ten QB to reach 100,000 yds (Chuck Long, Drew Brees, Curtis Painter, Brett Basanez). He improved to 2,679 (55.7%, 20-9) and leaves UM with nearly every school passing mark. Fan favorite Gray played mostly WR throwing just 8 passes while rushing for 110 (4.8) out of the Wildcat. Then-OC Horton hoped the new staff would run a pistol offense to take advantage of Gray's ability. Kill had a mobile QB LY at NIU as Chandler Harnish rushed for 836 (6.1). Added to the mix are r/r Tom Parrish (PS#60), Kill recruit Max Shortell (PS#49) and holder Adam Lueck (6'0" 191 Jr). This unit is a lot less experienced but could come close to last year's numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - The Gophers had a tremendous tradition at RB under Glen Mason. They produced a 1,000 yd runner each season from '99-'06 and became the first school in NCAA history to have 2 backs each top 1,000 in 3 consec seasons ('03-'05). In Mason's final season Amir Pinnix rushed for 1,272 (5.0). In '07 under Brewster he led with just 563 (5.3). True frosh Duane Bennett added 442 (4.1). In '08 Bennett rushed for 92 in the opener but tore his ACL and true frosh DeLeon Eskridge (PS#163) topped 100 twice (678, 3.7). In '09 Bennett was not 100% and led with just 376 (3.8). Eskridge had 294 (4.0). In '10 Bennett had 187 vs MT, and his first carry (32 yds) was longer than any Gopher RB had in '09. He had 291 yds in the first 2 but sprained his ankle and topped 30 in only 2 others (529, 4.3). Eskridge led with 698 (3.6) incl 119 (5.4) vs NW and 111 (4.3) vs Penn St. True frosh Donnell Kirkwood (PS#111) played in just 4 (hammy, 107, 4.0) and RS. This year they lose FB Jon Hoese (7 st, 150 tll yds) and I look for r/r Lamonte Edwards (PS#35) to emerge. They also add Devon Wright (6'0" 190 r/r, PS#58), Div II University of Mary (ND) transfer Cameron Gatling (5'10" 198 Jr). After having avg just 112.3 ypg in Brewster's last 3 yrs, should get much better production out of this unit which has added speed.

RECEIVERS - Eric Decker became the feature WR in '07 with 909 (13.6). In '08 Decker led the Big Ten with 1,074 (12.8) but was inj'd (3 rec L3 gm) and UM's offense went south without him. In '09 Decker turned down the NFL and had 758 (15.2) in the first 8 but was OFY. He left as the school's all-time career rec (#3DC). They had to replace their top 2 rec's LY (1263 yds) and the leading returnees were Da'Jon McKnight (311, 18.3), Troy Stoudemire (306, 11.8) and Brandon Green (PS#22, 293, 14.0). They also started using QB MarQueis Gray at WR (#2, 587, 14.0) and TE Eric Lair (PS#47) was utilized more (#3, 526, 13.5). McKnight led with 750 (15.6) falling 1 short of tying the school's TD rec record (11). Stoudemire was susp'd early then moved to DB. This year Gray moves full-time to QB and they lose Bryant Allen (3 st, 202 yds) but add in former QB JD Pride (6'1" 230 r/r, PS#170). This is a more exp'd unit than '10.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 Brewster switched schemes trying to become more of a power running offense but in an injury plagued year and with 2 st's back the rushing dropped to 99 ypg (3.0). They also allowed a Big Ten high 41 sks (10.6%). LY all 5 st's ret'd (110 car sts #1 B10). They greatly reduced the sks to 17 (4.5%) and improved to 135 ypg rush (3.6). This year they lose RT Jeff Wills (12 st, 2Y st/r), C DJ Burris (12 st, 4Y st/r, HM B10), RG Matt Carufel (PS#5, 10 st, 2Y st/r) and LT Dominic Alford (9 st, 0Y, 2 st /10). They are less exp'd with just 2 st's back but Kill usually does a good job with the O-line and they have 4 with 8 or more car starts and add in a PS#28 r/r.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 the undersized Gophers were #114 in rush D (229, 5.7). They got bigger the next 2 yrs and allowed 143 ypg rush (4.1) in '08 and 152 ypg (3.8) in '09. LY they had to replace all 4 st's (3 car sts ret). With a D-line bereft of exp, you would expect poor numbers and that was exactly the outcome as the Gophers yielded 191 ypg rush (5.3) and the D had just 9 sks (tied for fewest in FBS). This year they lose DT Jewan Edwards (11 st, 29 tkl, 11 tll) but do have 7 of the top 8 back and should have one of the more improved DL's in the country.

LINEBACKERS - The Gophers had an inexperienced LB crew in '09 but they proved to be the strength of the D. LY they had to replace all 3 starters who were the #1 tkl'r (2nd Tm B10), #2 tkl'r (#5DC) and #4 tkl'r. Only 2 of the top 6 were back. As you would expect, UM went from allowing 23.8 ppg in '09 to 33.0 last year. This year the top 6 LB's all return and they add in Florida transfer Brendan Beal (PS#3). This could be the most improved LB corps in the country.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '09 they only had to replace 1 st'r but added Wisc transfer S Kim Royston (PS#67). As expected, the more exp'd DB's rose to #54 (from #81). LY they had to replace 2 st's then Royston RS (inj). The Gophers didn't blitz much as they were trying to protect their biggest weakness, the secondary and dropped back down to #112 (65% 21-11). They moved WR Stoudemire to CB and he started the last 6. This year they lose S Kyle Theret (10 st, #2 tkl'r, 1 int, 2 pbu) and Ryan Collado (12 st, #4 tkl'r, 2 int, 4 pbu). Despite technically having just 2 st's back, they return 7 who started LY and Royston. This is a much more experienced unit which will make a good sized climb in the PDR in Kill's first season.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Brewster's first 3 yrs UM finished #61, #51 and #43 in my ST rankings. LY they only had to replace their P but they surprisingly plummeted to #119. K Eric Ellestad (PS#16) almost lost his job hitting just 11-17 FG's. P Dan Orseske (PS#5) avg 36.1 with a 30.9 net (#120 FBS). Troy Stoudemire had 1,057 yds (24.6) on KR's in '09 and 789 (27.2) LY. He needs just 17 more KR's and 190 KR yds to break the NCAA career records. The Gophers ret'd just 13 punts all year (7.6). Kill's 3 units at NIU finished #77, #47 and #22. This year they lose Ellestad but should make a good sized improvement in my ST rankings.

COACHES - Jerry Kill was the HC at N Ill ('08-'10, 23-16), S Ill ('01-'07, 55-32), Emporia St ('99-'00, 11-11) and Saginaw Valley St ('94-'98, 38-14). OC Matt Limegrover was the OL cch at Emp St under Kill and has been the OC under Kill the L10Y. DC Tracy Claeys has been with Kill S/'95 (his DC the L12Y).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Minnesota had been to 3 bowls in the 20 yrs prior to Glen Mason's arrival. They went to 7 bowls in Mason's last 8 yrs but never to a Jan bowl. Their highest ranking under Mason came in 1999 (#12). In '06 it looked like a rebuilding year. They were -92.3 ypg in Big Ten play (2nd worst) but benefited from +18 in TO's and made a bowl. UM ran a power running game under Mason but switched to the spread under Brewster. I did not make Gopher fans happy in '07 when I pegged them for LAST in the Big Ten coming off 5 consec bowls. During the year on PhilSteele.com I predicted that ND St would "upset" Minny and the Bison won 27-21 with a 394-125 yd rush edge. The Gophers did indeed finish last in the Big Ten (1-11). In '08 I made a bold statement by placing the Gophers on my Most Improved List despite UM being 1 play away (miss Miami FG) from 0-12 in '07. They were -15 in TO's in Brewster's first season and had 5 net close losses. UM tied for the biggest turnaround in school history (Murray Warmath's 1960 tm 2-7 to 8-2). They were whipped in the Insight Bowl however by Kansas, 42-21. Interestingly with identical Big Ten records and an even worse Insight Bowl performance than Mason suffered in '06, Brewster was given a contract extension while Mason had been fired. Despite UM's 3-5 Big Ten record, they were -108.8 ypg (3rd worst) and +12 in TO's (pg 312). The Gophers were the most exp'd team in the country heading into '09 and opened up a brand-new TCF Bank Stadium. While the Gophers made it back to a bowl, they finished 6-7. Despite Minny's 3-5 Big Ten mark, they were -90.3 ypg (2nd worst). LY they had just 1 st r/r on D after Royston's preseason inj. With HG's vs USC, Penn St, Ohio St and Iowa, most of their winnable games were on the road and I called for them to miss a bowl for just the 2nd time in 9 yrs. The Gophers opened with a win at MT 24-17 but then as usual struggled at home vs an FCS team and lost to USD 41-38 (trailed 21-10 at half). They did lead USD 14-13 mid 3Q but then trailed 32-14 before scoring a td with :11 left. UM had a 470-378 yd edge vs NIU but lost to their future HC who later admitted one of the reasons he took the Minnesota job was because he was impressed with the facilities. They led NW 28-20 but lost 29-28 as NW hit a FG with 2:07 left. After losing by 18 vs Wisky and 11 vs PU, with a winning season out of reach, they fired Brewster. OC Jeff Horton was named interim HC and lost to Penn St before being mauled by conf co-champs Ohio St and Mich St. UM trailed Illinois 34-24 in the 4Q but a td with :16 left helped them pull out the win. They then stunned Iowa by 3 with a 382-218 yd edge. Minny finished 2-6 and -61.5 ypg (3rd worst) in Big Ten. New HC Jerry Kill won as many games in TCF Bank Stadium LY (1) as Brewster and Horton combined! He did compare the rebuilding job here to that of S Illinois where he opened 1-11 and 4-8 before going 50-14 over his last 5 years. Minny does have the smallest football budget in the Big Ten ($9.25 mil, #1 OSU $32.3 mil) but could have the most improved D in the country! Even though two of my 9 sets of power ratings call for a winning year, I will call for a 3rd straight losing season in a transition year.

UM is 1-5-1 vs USC with their last visit to LA in 1979, a 48-14 loss. LY UM led 14-13 mid-3Q but a 14-97 yd KR TD to spark 19 str USC pts before UM scored a garbage TD w/11.

First meeting and just the 4th gm vs a current member from the WAC. Gophers are 14-2 S'95 in home openers but did lose LY to FCS SD. HC Kill was 14-3 hosting foes at NIU.

The Gophers are 26-4-1 vs the MAC incl 2-0 vs MU. At NI HC Kill was 2-1 vs Miami but LY in his final game as HC at NI they lost 26-21 to the RedHawks in the MAC Championship game.

UM is 6-1 vs NDSU but lost 27-21 in '07 (L/meeting). UM led 21-17 after 3Q but ran only 6 plays being outgained 135-8 in the 4Q. With the SD loss LY UM is 3-2 L5Y vs FCS opp's incl 1 & 3 pt wins.

Gophers are just 2-20 S'64 in Ann Arbor and in their last visit ('07) lost being outgained 561-231 but did lead 10-0 early 2Q before allowing 34 unanswered. UM is 7-22 their L/29 B10 away gms.

After LY's loss to PU, Tim Brewster was fired (1-6 start). The last 4 gms vs PU have all been decided by 11+ pts. Golden Gophers are 5-19 in West Lafayette incl 1-8 since 1992.

Wisconsin: Dating back to 1890, this is the most played FBS rivalry (121st meeting). Northwestern: LTH UM was down 24-21 into the 4Q before 2 TD's & 119 yds of offense.

UM has lost 14 str gms vs NU (last win 1960) being shutout 5 of those games incl the L2 meetings in '89 (48-0) & '90 (56-0). Into '11 UM is 1-18 vs AP ranked opp (won '10 finale).

These tms have play'd every yr S'1931, winner is awarded the Floyd of Rosedale trophy. UM has not beat Iowa in B2B yrs S'99 & '00. UM is 2-8 L10Y vs UI (avg W by 7 ppg & avg L by 20 ppg).

Visitor has dropped 4 of the L5. The avg MOV the L5 gms in this series is by 20 ppg (closest gm 8 pts).

In the L11 yrs the UM def has allowed no less than 31 pts in any one game vs UW (39 ppg).

UM has dropped 3 of the L4 meetings with 2 losses by 1 pt. The visitor has won 3 straight years.

UM is 10-4 in home finales the L14Y. LY UM trailed 34-24 mid-4Q but held UI to just 3 yds on their final 3 drives. After a 90 yd KR set up a TD, two poss later they went 80/10pl for the GW TD w/16 left.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 BIG 12 FORECAST

1. Oklahoma - The Sooners have the most talent of any team in the country and while they struggled on the road LY (3-2), they beat Okla St in Stillwater. OU has more ret st's than OSU this year they should win their 5th straight in Stillwater TY. Their other road trips are to Baylor, Kansas St and Kansas and the Sooners will be #1 in the AP preseason poll and are my pick to win the Big 12 again.

2. Texas A&M - A&M was not in ESPN's early Top 10 poll which was released in April and may not be in the AP's Preseason Top 10. While LY's A&M squad caught some breaks (see Phil's Forecast on tm page) to get 9 wins, this year's squad is by far the best that HC Mike Sherman has fielded. Their 18 ret st's are the most in the Big 12 and their 80.3% lettermen returning is the highest. A&M loses just 6 of their top 50 players from LY and host both Texas and Oklahoma St in crucial B12 games and all 9 sets of my power ratings call for them to have a double digit win season.

3. Texas - Oklahoma took a step back in 2009 but rebounded to win the Big 12 in 2010. Texas took a major step back last year falling to a 5-7 record and naturally make my Most Improved List. While they have just 12 returning starters (tied fewest Big 12) they were -12 in TO's last year and despite finishing last in the Big 12 South, were +53 ypg in the B12 which was 5th best. Keep in mind Colt McCoy had 18 int's as a soph and rebounded for a big Jr year and whoever wins the Texas QB job should greatly cut down on the 17 int's from LY. My talent ratings say Texas has the best def in the Big 12 and if they get adequate QB play, could end the season as a surprise Title contender.

3. Oklahoma St - By putting the Cowboys here I know I will be a very popular guest on Oklahoma radio shows all summer long with Cowboys fans letting me know that I had them wrong last year. I do want to remind OSU fans that every other magazine had the Cowboys picked 5th or 6th in the Big 12 (and zero sources had them ranked) so I was not alone. OSU will be in the Top 10 of the AP at the start of the year. LY everyone else had Alabama #1 but I did not due to their tough slate of road games and the defending champs ended up losing 3. OSU has by far the most difficult schedule in the Big 12. Okla is regarded as the best team in the country and won at Stillwater LY and will be favored in this year's return trip. The Cowboys also have to play the other 2 major Big 12 contenders (A&M and TX) both on the road as well as Missouri and T Tech, none of which are an easy out. While my talent ratings have OSU among the top in the B12, the schedule has them tied for 3rd.

5. Missouri - The Big 12 has 4 powerhouse teams this year and Missouri is a clear #5 but figures to be ranked at the start of the season. Missouri also draws a tough schedule with their 1st 2 road trips to Arizona St and Oklahoma and must break in a new QB. Missouri was +11 in turnovers (pg 312) but their 22.17 def ypg was #1 in the FBS meaning they have an 79.3% chance of a weaker record TY. Their +20.1 ypg in B12 was just 7th best and while I like this Tigers team and you will see them in the post season, they will have a tough time breaking into the top 4 of the conf this year.

6. Kansas St - KSU does have to play TT, KSt and Texas on the road but just like the old days coach Snyder has brought in a lot of JUCO's as well as a couple of VHT transfers in RB Bryce Brown (PS#1) and MLB Arthur Brown (PS#5) who should make an immediate impact (see above). This year's squad is even more exp'd than last year's which made it to a bowl game and with the influx of talent, the Cats will be back in the postseason.

6. Texas Tech - Tommy Tuberville stepped into a tough situation as replacing Mike Leach and his different offense and coaching techniques was a tough fit for his run first coaching mentality. This year he has 14 returning starters and is in the 2nd year of the switch plus they have a manageable schedule in both the B12 and non-conf play. LY's squad did benefit from 4 net close wins (see pg 299) and only had 3 starts lost to injury and despite being stronger, they probably will not top last year's 8 win total.

8. Baylor - Baylor only beat one tm that had a winning record LY and that was KSU (7-6). They are a stronger tm with 14 returning starters incl QB Griffin and an excellent set of receivers. Defense is my major question mark as LY they all'd 469 ypg in the B12 and have just 5 st's back. LY I put BU on my Most Improved List despite the fact they had not been to a bowl since 1994 and they didn't disappoint. TY the Bears make it 2 str bowl appearance (see pg 16).

9. Iowa St - Paul Rhoads has outperformed my expectations in each of his 2 years at ISU. On paper, this looks like a clear rebuilding season as their 12 ret st's are tied for the fewest in the Big 12. LY's squad was 3-5 but was actually -86 ypg in B12 play (#10). The Cyclones have just 64.9% of the lettermen returning and 5 B12 AG's with 3 of their B12 HG's vs the league's top 4 teams. It will be interesting to see how the Cyclones do in what looks like a tough year.

9. Kansas - Kansas was last in the Big 12 at -219 ypg being outscored by 27.4 ppg so they have a huge amount of ground to make up on the rest of the conf. KU is in much better shape with 15 ret st's this year (only 11 LY) but do have just 63% of their lettermen returning which is #10 in the league and their 24 lettermen lost lead the conf. They do have some winnable games at home but also play Iowa St on the road.

Big 12 Notes: The future of the Big 12 conference was at stake last summer after Nebraska bolted for the Big Ten and Colorado for the new Pac-12. There were several rumors that Texas, Oklahoma and 3 others would be leaving as well but a last minute pitch by Big 12 Commissioner Dan Beebe saved the future of the conference. Now instead of playing a conference championship game they will play a round-robin schedule similar to what the Pac-10 has done for the past several years. Last year I wrote that it was sad to see OU and Nebraska not on the regular season schedule but I did call for them to meet up in the Big 12 Title game and that's exactly what happened as the Sooners overcame a 17-0 deficit to claim their 7th Big 12 title under Stoops. For the second straight season the conference had 30 players selected in the NFL draft if you include both Nebraska and Colorado (had 11 comb) which was 4th best and they had 8 players drafted in the first round alone including two a piece from Baylor and Colorado! Overall, they were 36-12 vs other FBS schools and even with Texas' 5-7 season they finished with 5 teams ranked in the Top 20 led by Oklahoma who rebounded from '09's disappointment to finish in the Top 10 (8th time under Stoops) and Oklahoma St who had the most wins in school history (11). The conference sent 8 teams to bowl games and went 3-5. They finished as my #3 rated league for a 2nd year in a row but this year even with the loss of two members TY improve to #2 (see pg 18) as Oklahoma is the favorite to win the National Title and I have Texas A&M projected to make just their 2nd BCS game ever (1998)!

OKLAHOMA SOONERS

DB Demontre Hurst

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Jason White became the first OU QB to win the Heisman in '03. In his final two years he threw for 7,051 (63%) with a 75-19 ratio. In '07 I projected rfr Sam Bradford (PS#20) to start (3-way battle) and he ended up #1 in the FBS in pass eff. At 6'4" he became the tallest QB to start at OU. In '08 he won the Heisman while setting an FBS pass eff record with a 50-8 ratio (180.8). In '09 Bradford opted to return but was inj'd early then OFY vs Texas. Rfr Landry Jones (PS#3), who barely won the #2 job and was expected to see spot duty, stepped in to throw for 3,198 (58%), 26-14. Jones had his ups and downs (5 int vs Neb) but threw for 418 in the bowl and eclipsed Bradford's OU Fr passing mark. LY the Sooners had to replace Bradford (#1 car pass, NFL Off Rookie Yr) but he had only played 8Q's in '09. Jones had a few uneven performances but did well throwing for 4,718 (65.6%, 38-12). Rfr Drew Allen (pocket passer) hit 9-14-89 playing in 5. Dangerous runner Blake Bell (6'6") bulked up to 241 lbs redshirted. In bowl practices Barry Switzer said Jones would be a 1st Rnd DC. His 405 comp's broke the OU single season record and he tied Bradford's sch record for pass yds in a critical gm with 468 vs Okla St. Jones should be one of the top QB's in the NCAA this year.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 rfr DeMarco Murray (PS#5) was the leading rusher (764, 6.0) when he was knocked OFY vs TT. Allen Patrick (#7 DC) finished with 1,009 (5.8). Murray was leading with 1,002 (5.6) and 14 TD's in '08 until he missed the last 2. Chris Brown (6'11, 3.9 in '07) finished #1 with 1,220 (5.6) and 20 TD's. Mossis Madu (232, 5.8 in '07) added 475 (4.1). All 3 ret'd in '09 but Murray (hamstring) finished with just 705 (4.1) in just 5 sts. Brown led but with just 749 (4.1) and rfr Jermie Calhoun (PS#2) added 220 (4.9). Madu played WR. LY they had to replace Brown but Murray set OU's career record with 63 (Steve Owens' 57, '67-'69). He also topped Joe Washington ('72-'75) for career all-purp yards (5,881, '72-'75). He led with 1,214 (4.3) in '10 but also led all RB's in the FBS with 71 rec (594, 8.4). Electric true froh Roy Finch (PS#16) missed the first 5 and the bowl due to injuries but still had 398 (4.7). Fellow true froh Brennan Clay (PS#7) added 127 (3.5) and Stoops said that Trey Millard (209 tti yds '10) could be OU's best FB in his tenure. This year Murray (14 st, #3DC DAL) and Madu (254, 4.3) depart. Adding depth are TB's Dominique Whaley (5'10" 197 Jr) and Jonathan Miller (5'11" 197 So, PS#58) and FB's David Driskill (6'1" 235 Fr) and David Welchert (6'1" 229 Fr). Despite the loss of their top guy, true froh Brandon Williams (PS#5) was dynamic in the spring and this unit could be more productive overall.

RECEIVERS - In '09 OU had an inexp'd and injury plagued rec corps. Despite a shoulder injury, Ryan Broyles (PS#41) led with 1,120 (12.6). Broyles tied an OU single season record with 15 TD's (Mark Clayton '03). The #2 rec was RB Murray. Brandon Caleb (PS#27) missed 2 and had 408 (15.7) while DeJuan Miller (PS#21), who was the only full-time player to play in all 13, was #3 (434, 12.1). LY 2 TE's were drafted but the top 3 WR's were back. Biletnikoff finalist Broyles had an amazing season with 1,622 (12.4) while leading the FBS with 131 rec. True froh Kenny Stills (PS#13) lived up to his spring hype with 786 (12.9). Cameron Kenney (PS#17JC) was #4 with 544 (16.5). True froh Trey Franks had 263 (9.1) and TE James Hanna (PS#25) added 292 (16.2). Miller played in just 6 gm (inj, 15 rec). Broyles is already OU's career receiving leader and turned down a shot at the NFL so the only losses are Kenney (4 st) and Caleb (4 rec). Clearly, this is one of the top rec corps in the country and they add in PS#7 rfr Justin McCay and true froh PS#4 Trey Metoyer.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 OU had 130 career st ret (#1 FBS) and all 5 st's were NFL prospects. They opened holes for 199 ypg rush (4.7) with 13 sks (2.5%). In '09 this unit was largely to blame for their 8-5 season as they had to replace 4 multiyear st's (#2 & #5 DC) and their numbers plummeted to 135 ypg rush (3.6) but with just 15 sks (2.9%). OU started 10 diff OL lineups due to inj's and ineffectiveness. LY they had to replace 2.5 st's (#1DC) and had 8 back with starting exp. Surprisingly, the numbers dropped to 3.3 ypg with 21 sks (3.3%). This year OU lose 1st Tm B12 RT Eric Mensik (14 st), C Brian Lepak (2 st, 13 gm) and Cory Brandon (8 st '09, 3 gm '10). They ret 4 st's and 8 of the top 10 (9 VHT) although RT Jones (4 st) may miss Sept (patella). After being a weakness the last 2 yrs, the Sooners O-line should be a strength.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Sooners always have an excellent D-line. In '09 DT Gerald McCoy turned down being a #1 DC and they had all 4 st's back. As you would expect, the rush D improved to 93 ypg (2.8). Jeremy Beal led with 11 sks. LY they had to replace 2 ret st's incl McCoy (#1DC TB). One ret st'r, DT Adrian Taylor (13 st '09), suffered a dislocated ankle in the '09 bowl and was never 100% then was OFY (Achilles) vs TT. Beal was named the B12 Def POY but overall it was an inexp'd group. The Sooners slipped to allowing 149 ypg rush (4.1), their weakest numbers S/'97. This year they lose DE Beal (14 st, #4 tkl'r, 8.5 sks, #7DC DEN), DT Taylor (6 st, 12 tkl) and Pryce Macon (2 st, 21 tkl, 6 sk). Six return with starting exp incl Ronnell Lewis (PS#6) who moved from LB to DE and started the final 4. This unit is a little more experienced and even with the loss of their top guy, should have improved numbers.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 the Sooners ret'd 5 of their top 6 LB's and got back Ryan Reynolds (PS#3, inj '08). Travis Lewis, who broke Brian Bosworth's OU froh record for tkl (144, Big 12 Fr Yr), earned 1st Tm B12 in '09 and the Sooners allowed just 14.5 ypg (best S/'01). LY they had to replace 2 st's (#3, #4 tkl'r). Of OU's top 7 LB's, 5 were soph or froh and the unit was hit hard by inj's. Austin Box missed the first 5 (back) and Ronnell Lewis (knee) was never 100% and moved to DE. TY they are a more veteran unit (5 ret w/5+ sts) and 2nd Tm B12 LB Travis Lewis (#1 tkl'r) turned down the NFL. Tony Jefferson was the B12's co-Def POY. I look for big improvement over LY's 21.8 ppg with spring star Corey Nelson (PS#6) playing a much larger role.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Sooners always fare well in my PDR and in '08 despite replacing 3 st's, still finished #11. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's (1st & 2nd Tm B12). It surprised me that 3 of the st's were not VHT's but the Sooners still finished #3. LY they had to replace 2 st's again (1st and 2nd Tm B12). One ret st'r, Sam Proctor, lost his job. Demontre Hurst had a fine year with 11 pbu but did drop 3 potential int vs A&M. CB Jamell Fleming led the Big 12 in pd (#2 FBS). The Sooners finished #7. This year they lose 2 st's again in 1st Tm AA FS Quinton Carter

(#3 tkl'r, 6 pbu, #4DC DEN) and SS Jonathan Nelson (14 st, #2 tkl'r, 7 pbu, #7DC STL). Fleming was OFS (acad) but is expected to return along with Hurst (comb 6 int, 25 pbu) as well as Proctor (10 st '09). I look for another top 10 PDR finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Stoops' first 9 yrs his ST units were a strength with 6 top 13 finishes. Surprisingly in '08 they plummeted to #101 (all'd 4 KR td's). In '09 I expected a move back to its usual spot and they did (#12) despite not settling on a FG K. Jimmy Stevens hit 11-13 FG's but then lost his job to P Tress Way (1-6). Walk-on Patrick O'Hara hit 6-9 (L47). Way was #5 in the FBS with a 40.3 net. They improved their KR all'd from 23.8 to 20.2 with just 1 td. Broyles and Dominique Franks helped combine for a Stoops era high of 16.3 per PPR. LY OU surprisingly dropped to #37, once again allowing 4 KR td's. O'Hara (best leg) won the K job but was inj'd. Stevens' numbers were respectable at 19-23 (L42) but Stoops sometimes bypassed FG's and said FG's were his main concern all year. He has 4 scholarship K's on the roster which hurts team depth but that shows what a priority it is to get the problem fixed. Way avg 44.0 (40.5 net). LS James Winchester (4.4 spd) is one of the first downfield on punt coverage (WR in HS) and rec'd 3 fmb's LY. After a surprisingly low finish last year, OU should move back up in my ST rankings.

COACHES - Prior to Bob Stoops' arrival, Oklahoma had 5 consec non-winning seasons. Stoops won a National Title in his 2nd season then played in the National Title game in '03, '04 and '08. OU's 122 wins the last 11 yrs are more than any other BCS team. The OC position has gone from Mike Leach to Mark Mangino to Chuck Long to Kevin Wilson and Stoops has never looked beyond his existing staff to fill it. They have new co-OC's in Josh Heupel (QB ch L6Y) who teams with Jay Norvell (co-OC L2Y). Co-DC's Brent Venables and Bobby Jack Wright (7th year as co-DC) enter their 13th year here.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 2000 Okla did not have a single starter miss a single game due to injury. They stunned the nation winning the Nat'l Title despite not being ranked in the preseason Top 20. In '02 OU won the Big 12 Title and the Rose Bowl. In '03 the Sooners lost the conf title game and the National Title game vs LSU. In '04 they were 12-0 but lost the title game vs USC, 55-19. In 2005 OU slumped to 8-4 but then won the Big 12 Title the next 3 years to get to #7, #3 and #2 at the end of the reg season but lost 3 straight BCS gms including 2 large upsets in the Fiesta Bowl and finished #11, #8 and #5. In '09 OU lost QB Bradford and TE Gresham to inj's early on and finished 8-5. Despite their 5-3 B12 record, they were +133 ypg (#1). LY I picked the Sooners as my #1 Surprise Team (they were #7 & #8 in the preseason polls). At the start of the season OU jumped out to big leads (led all by 15+) then let undermanned foes back into those games. They were very impressive vs Florida St leading 47-10 before allowing a 47 yd td pass on the last play. At 6-0 they became the third straight (AP) #1 team to go down with ESPN Gameday on hand as they lost to Missouri. In that game OU had 3 trips inside the MU15 result in zero pts (2 TO, miss FG). At the half, Okla had a 301-99 yd edge but trailed 17-14 as they allowed the opening KR td. After dispatching Colo the redzone difficulties cropped up again. Against A&M they were SOD on 1st gl 3 times, had a fake FG td pass dropped and missed a FG. The Sooners won their next 2 then knocked off #10 Okla St on the road, #13 Neb in the B12 Title game and destroyed #25 Conn in the Fiesta Bowl. They finished 12-2 and #6. The Sooners were +161.3 ypg (B12 by far #1, 65.5 more than #2). There are a couple of concerns as they were +14 in TO's, had 5 net close wins and only had 4 sts lost to injury. OU figures to enter the season #1 in the AP poll and since the standings were introduced in 1998, they have been ranked more weeks at #1 and in the Top 5 than any other program in college football. OU has 16 ret st's, have won seven B12 Titles since 2000 and is the most talented team in the country.

A blank sheet of graph paper with a red grid pattern. The grid consists of small squares formed by thin red lines. On the left side, there are two vertical red lines, one closer to the edge than the other, creating a margin. A faint, large watermark of the Chinese character '中' (Zhong) is visible in the background.

TEXAS A&M AGGIES

CB Coryell Judie

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In HC Mike Sherman's first yr in '08 Jerrod Johnson took over for incumbent senior starter Stephen McGee (shoulder) and in his first 7 sts threw for 263 ypg (64%, 15-4). In his last 3 he threw for 156 (47%, 3-6). McGee threw for just 586 (66%) and was a surprising #4DC. Ryan Tannehill was the team's #1 rec in '08 but also the Aggies' only exp'd bkp QB in '09 as he lobbied Sherman to battle for the QB job. Johnson, despite being under heavy pressure due to a leaky O-line, set several school records throwing for 3,579 (60%, 30-8) to go along with 506 rush (3.5). Tannehill hit just 4-8 (#2 rec). Last season Johnson was the preseason Big 12 OPOY but after shoulder surgery struggled at times to even throw spirals. Due to TO's (9 int, 2 fmb), he was pulled after 7 sts after he had become A&M's career leader in passing (8,011) and total offense (8,888). Tannehill took over in the 2Q vs Kansas and guided the tm to 6 straight wins while Johnson would not throw another pass and departs. Tannehill threw for 1,638 (65%, 13-6). Battling for the bkp spot are rFr Jameil Showers (PS#41 strongest arm), Matt Joeckel (PS#53), Luke Woodley (6'2" 192 rFr, PS#97), Patrick O'Quinn (6'2" 208 So) and athletic true frosh Johnny Manziel (PS#26 IFS). Tannehill should improve now that he has more reps but keep in mind the last 3 Aggie senior QB's (dating back to Reggie McNeal) have all struggled.

RUNNING BACKS - A&M had just one 1,000 yard rusher from 1999-'09 (Courtney Lewis 1,024 in '03). The top rusher in '08 had just 406 (4.3). The leading returning rusher in '09 was Cyrus Gray (PS#13) who had 363 (4.8) in '08. Gray started 9 and rushed for 757 (4.8) while explosive true frosh Christine Michael (PS#6) led with 844 (5.1) thanks in part to a school rec 97 yd TD run vs Baylor. Last year I said the Aggies should finally produce a 1,000 yd rusher, but didn't know if it would be Michael or Gray. Michael appeared to be on his way as after 8 he rushed for 631 (5.0) but he broke his tibia vs TT (OFY). Gray, who had 195 yds in the first 6, took the feature back role and ran with it. He became A&M's first RB since 1988 to top 100 in 7 consecutive games and the first since 1995 to have a 200 yard game when he had the most ever (223) by an Aggie vs Texas. He finished with 1,133 (5.7). Providing depth are Mister Jones (6'2" 210 rFr, PS#74), Jay Tolliver (5'10" 205 Jr), Byron Jones-Campbell (5'8" 191 Jr) and FB's Andrew Wolridge (6'1" 275 Jr, PS#85) and Garrett Graham (5'10" 208 rFr). Gray and Michael combined for 1,764 (5.4) last year so it will be tough to top those numbers but this is one of the nation's best RB corps.

RECEIVERS - In '08 A&M had to replace its top 3 receivers and the top two WR's turned out to be frosh. Jeff Fuller was #2 with 630 (12.6) setting the school record for rec td's (9) and bkp QB Tannehill (6'4") set the school frosh record for rec yd with 844 (15.3). In '09 Tannehill wasn't on the field full-time due to his bkp QB duties and finished #2 (609, 13.2). Fuller was dominant in the spring but cracked his fibula (miss 4). He still finished #3 (568, 13.9). True frosh Uzoma Nwachukwu led with 708 (17.7) and while only 6'0", catches passes at their highest point with his leaping ability. LY Tannehill played in 5 gms at WR (11 rec) before moving to QB. Fuller shattered Bob Long's (19 from '66-'68) school career td record with 28. Surprisingly, A&M had never produced a 1,000 yd receiver (Robert Ferguson's 885 in '00 was school rec) until Fuller led with 1,066 (14.8) and 12 td. Ryan Swope was #2 with 825 (11.6) with a banged up Nwachukwu having just 407 (11.3). This year they only lose Terrence McCoy (6 st, 9 rec) and not listed below are Taylor Randle (6'0" 190 Sr), Seth Gardner (6'4" 209 Jr) and TE's Connor Fields (6'3" 228 rFr), Tommy Dorman (6'2" 237 Jr, PS#19QB) and Matt Sherman (6'1" 209 Jr). Fuller turned down the NFL and they won't lose their #2 rec to QB this yr.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '07 A&M's OL had 4 Sr's and opened holes for 212 ypg rush (4.8) with just 16 sks (4.3%). Naturally, the losses were heavy in '08 (21 car sts, 4th fewest FBS) and they had to learn a new system. The numbers plummeted to 89 rush ypg (2.9) with 39 sks (9.5%). In '09 they had 4 Sr's ret and improved to 184 ypg (4.4) with 29 sks (5.7%) despite inj's as Sherman said he was constantly patching holes. LY they had to replace 3 Sr's. I mentioned that despite being less exp'd, they should remain healthier and 4 OL started all 13. Evan Eike had 26 car sts before missing the last 7 and he was replaced by PS#4 true frosh Jake Matthews (last 7 sts at RT, Brian Thomas moved to LG). A&M only slipped a little to 165 ypg (4.1) with 37 sks (7.2%). This year they lose 2nd Tm B12 C Matt Allen (13 st, 1.5Y str) but have 9 of the top 10 back with all 5 Sr's being VHT's. This is one of the B12's best O-line.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 A&M had to replace 3 DL Sr's and the unit was overrun yielding 219 ypg rush and 5.2 ypc (worst ypc in 20+ yrs). In '09 they had to replace 2 Sr's and 2 bkps. After a brief stint on the OL, Lucas Patterson (11 st DT '08) moved back to the DL in Aug (4 ret st exp). The D's sks jumped from 16 to 36, and they also improved their run D yielding "only" 172 ypg (4.6). LY they only had to replace one Sr and 3 DL ret'd who had 5+ sts as they officially switched to the 3-4 under new DC Tim DeRuyter. The more exp'd line helped A&M improve to allowing 130 ypg rush (3.5), their best since '01, with 30 sks. This year they lose DE Patterson (13 st, 50 tkl, 3 sk) but have 5 of the top 6 back. Adding depth is Michael Ebbitt (6'4" 275 Sr, PS#61). This DL was the most dominant unit in the spring and it should continue to improve in the 2nd yr of the system.

LINEBACKERS - With its "Wrecking Crew" defense, A&M used to be known as "Linebacker U" but they have had a dry spell at the position with no former Aggie playing the position in the NFL (in 2010). The '09 group had 10 career sts with 3 of the 4 Sr's being a true frosh, a rFr and a soph. Von Miller starred leading the FBS with 17 sks. LY A&M ret'd their #3, #4, #5, #7, #8 and #13 tkl's. Miller (1st Tm AA) led the B12 in sks again (10.5) and became A&M's first Butkus Award winner. This year they lose Miller (13 st, #4 tkl, #1DC DEN) and 2nd Tm B12 ILB Michael Hodges (41 tkl, 7.5 tkl). They return their #2 and #3 tkl's but are less exp'd, lose their star and LY trimmed their ppg allowed from 33.5 to 21.9. This is my only ? on the tm.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Aggies have had some poor finishes in my PDR like #104 in '05, #84 in '07 and #103 in '08. In '09 their 4 Sr's incl'd a true frosh and 2 soph (comb 14 st '08). In the magazine I said that while they were less exp'd but with a stronger front 7, I expected them to move up in my PDR and they did to #61. LY they only had to replace 1 Sr (#6DC) and A&M also got back

CB Coryell Judie (PS#10) who was a projected '09 starter but RS. I called for continued improvement and A&M moved up to #14. This year the entire 2 deep returns including 5 who had 7+ starts LY.

SPECIAL TEAMS - A&M is famous for their "12th Man" ST unit (4 top 10 finishes). In former HC Dennis Franchione's final 2 yrs ('06-'07) they were #27 and #31 in my ST rankings. In Sherman's first 2 yrs ('08-'09) they were #61 and just #98 after ST basically all'd 21 pts in the bowl gm vs Georgia and the ST cch was fired. LY they had everyone back so improvement was expected. Dustin Harris got the tm's first PR TD S'98 (Jason Webster). A&M has an excellent LS in Ben Bredthauer. Randy Bullock had mono in Aug and did not regain his leg strength until later in the yr. He hit 12-19 (L50) in '09 and improved to 16-21 (L50) in '10 with 13 TB on 77 KO. Coryell Judie (30.2) became the first Aggie to have a KR td in B2B wks. Ken Wood and Ryan Epperson split the P duties in '09. Epperson took command in '10 but missed 2 (Wood 14 punts). The team avg 35.7 ypg with a 34.0 net (both last in the B12). A&M improved some to #57. TY all of the key players ret and they will easily have the best finish in Sherman's 4 years.

COACHES - Mike Sherman took over in '08 and was previously the OL cch here from '89-'93 and '95-'96. He was an NFL HC at GB (57-39 with 4 playoff trips) from '00-'05 and the OC of the HOU Texans in '06 & '07. Sherman will serve as his own OC for a 2nd season and the QB coach is Tim Rossley who has been here S'08 (GB OC from '00-'06). The 2nd year DC is Tim DeRuyter who was the DC at AF ('07-'09) and Ohio ('95-'98, '02-'04) as well as co-DC at Nevada ('05-'06). After a successful debut season, he interviewed for the Tulsa HC job.

PHIL'S FORECAST

A&M took a streak of 20 consec non-losing yrs into Dennis Franchione's first season in '03. In his first 4 yrs he had Holiday and Cotton Bowl berths but also TWO losing seasons. In '07 they had a killer schedule and after opening up 6-2 they lost to the #9, #5 and #7 tms but then did knock off #11 Texas for a 2nd st year. Franchione stepped down and Gary Darnell was the interim HC for the bowl (7-6). In '08 A&M had just 10 rel Sr's and a new HC in Mike Sherman. They were upset by Ark St in the opener and then suffered their worst non-conf defeat at Kyle Field S'88 in a 41-23 loss to Miami, FL. Their 4 wins in '08 tied the '03 squad for fewest in a season since '72 (3-8). It was the first time A&M finished either tied or below Baylor in the Big 12 South. A&M was -147 ypg (2nd worst) in conf play and -10 in TO's. The '09 squad had 16 ret Sr's and had a better than expected season as they got to a bowl despite playing a schd record 18 true frosh (6-7). Interestingly, back in '90 they played 16 true frosh and in '91 followed that up with an SWC Title (10-1, only loss by 1 pt). LY coming off B2B losing seasons for the first time since 1972-1973, A&M made my Most Improved List and was picked 3rd in the South by the Big 12 media. The Aggies opened 3-0 but then QB Johnson's 5 TO's cost them vs Okla St and they lost by 3 despite a 535-351 yd edge. They lost to Ryan Mallett and Ark by 7 and then were stunned by MO 30-9. A&M rolled over KU on the road then TT fumbled into the EZ twice for TB's and A&M won by 18. They switched their QB to Tannehill who cut down on the TO's and threw for 449 yd and 4 td in his 1st start vs TT. The D stepped up in the RZ vs OU stopping the Sooners 3 times. All of OU's SOD's were inside the 2 (4 trips 120 for 0 pts). They trailed Baylor 30-14 but rallied for a 42-30 win. Nebraska was hit with 16 pen's for 145 yds while A&M had just 2 pen's for 10 yds. NU QB Martinez was also hobbled in the 2H and A&M escaped with a 3 pt win. Versus a desperate Texas team needing to win to qualify for a bowl, A&M won 24-17 on Thanksgiving night with UT getting int'd at the A&M 8 at the end. LSU throttled them 41-24 in the bowl. Of their top 50 players on the 2 deep, just 6 were seniors. A&M was +57.8 ypg in B12 (4th best) and TY gets 5 HG's in B12 play. They did have just 4 sts lost to inj all year. The Aggies get both Texas and Okla St at home and all NINE sets of my power ratings call for their first double digit win season since 1998.

Old SWC rivals last played in '05 and A&M hammered SMU 66-8 w/ a 714-348 yd edge (3rd best off in school history). A&M is 22-1 the L23Y in home openers (only loss in '08 vs Ark St).
Kansas: LY vs KU QB Johnson broke the A&M career rec for total offense but was replaced by Tannehill in the Q2. Texas: A&M is 10-2 vs UT on ESPN Thanksgiving Day Games.
First meeting, A&M is 1-5 after a bye under Sherman. Aggies are 17-2 their L19 non-conf home gms (avg win by 28 ppg). A&M is 14-0 vs current WAC foes (avg score 42-16).
LY in a wild Thurs Night gm A&M led 21-7 at HT but 5 costly TO's did them in incl a 63 yd FR TD early Q4. With :16 left A&M tossed an int at the Q32 that was ret 28 yds setting up OSU's 40 yd GW FG as time exp.
Third Southwest Classic. A&M has dropped 1st two. In '09 they raced out to a 10-0 lead but Arkansas scored 30 unanswered & LY down 7 w/1:18 left drove to the Ark39 only to be int at the Ark2 on the final play.
LTH A&M snapped a 7 gm road series losing streak. RB's Gray & Michael each topped 120+ rush yds (52 pts was a series high). LY QB Tannehill had a school-rec 449 pass yds. (1st career QB ST).
The last time that the Aggies lost hosting the Bears was in '84, 11-0-1 since. The HT has won 6 of the L8 meetings. Texas A&M opens the 2011 ssn with its 1st 6 gms in TX.
In the L/meeting ('09), A&M won 35-10 w/a 501-324 yd edge. The Aggies led 21-0 & 28-3 in the Q4. Under Sherman, the Aggies are 5-17 in Big 12 road gms & 6-10 since '07.
HT has won 3 of the L4 but LY in College Station A&M scored a Sherman era low 9 pts in the home loss. For the 1st time in the B12 existence (S'96) schools will play a round-robin schedule.
A&M has dropped 6 str trips to Norman by an avg of 39 ppg. In the last trip A&M was hammered 65-10 being outgained 640-226. The Aggies haven't beat the Sooners in B2B yrs S'97-'98.
The Aggies have never dropped 3 str to the Wildcats. Prior to 08's defeat Texas A&M won 5 str over KSU. In the L2 meetings A&M has surrendered 106 pts. 873 yds & 54 FD's losing by 31 ppg.
LY the Aggies led 31-10 at HT but were outgained as two KU int's (one in EZ) resulted in 10 pts.
LY A&M turned 3 Texas TO's into 17 pts and a 4th was an int of Gilbert on the A&M8 w/2:37 left. The Aggies gained a FD & sealed the win in Austin. A&M is 3-8 (1-4 vs UT) the L11Y in Kyle Field finales.

QUARTERBACKS - Vince Young became the first player in NCAA history to have 2,500 pass and 1,000 rush yds in a season ('05) and left Austin 30-2 as a starting QB. In '06 Jr Colt McCoy (PS#11) had a much better season than most expected setting the school record for td passes (29). In '07 nobody expected a soph slump. While he narrowly missed out on the schl rec for pass yds in a ssn (Major Applewhite 3,357 in '99), he also nearly set the rec for most int. McCoy dropped from 68% ('06-7) to 65% ('22-18). In '08 I expected McCoy to return to his '06 form and he did even better hitting an NCAA record 76.7% throwing for 3,859 (34-8). He was also the #1 rusher (561, 4.1) and the Heisman runner-up. McCoy threw for 3,521 (71%, 27-12) in '09 but was inj'd after the BCS Title game. True frosh bkp Garrett Gilbert (PS#2) struggled in the 1H (1-10, 2 int) vs Bama before leading a 2H comeback. Based on that performance 10 expectations were enormous for Gilbert who is blessed with NFL measurables but had only hit 30-66-310-2-4 coming into the season. LY he was the #2 rusher (380, 3.8) but struggled throwing for 2,744 (59%) with a poor 10-17 ratio leading the B12 in int. Battling for the starting job will be PS#51 Case McCoy (Colt's bro), Connor Wood (PS#6, IFS '10) and VHT David Ash (PS#16, IFS). Gilbert operated out of the shotgun in HS and took a good portion of the snaps from CLY which would account for some of his difficulties. I look for much improved numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Texas has had a terrific RB tradition including Heisman Trophy winners Earl Campbell and Ricky Williams. Cedric Benson became just the 5th ply'r in NCAA history to top 1,000 yds rushing for 4 straight yrs including 1,834 (5.6) '04. Jamaal Charles led the RB's for 3 consec yrs including 1,619 (6.3) '07. In '08 Vondrell McGee was the top RB with a paltry 376 (4.3). Cody Johnson had 338 (4.4) and Fozzy Whittaker (PS#18) had 284 (4.4). In '09 McGee dropped to 300 (5.4). Tre' Newton (PS#29) led with just 552 (4.8) and Johnson was the #2 RB (335, 3.9) while Whittaker added 212 (4.0). LY one of the reasons I had UT rated lower than most was their move away from the spread to a power run game as I failed to see a feature RB on the roster. After 10 wks their leading rusher in gross yds was QB Gilbert. Johnson had a pair of 100 yd efforts in the last 2 and led with 592 (4.4). TY he will be used in a true FB role. Whittaker had 351 (4.4) and DJ Monroe was their most electrifying RB at times and rushed for 195 (8.5). This year they lose McGee and Newton (3rd st, 229, 3.6). I expect PS#1 Malcolm Brown (probably UT's most talented RB recruit since Benson) to take over the featured spot and revive the Horns' tradition of 1,000 yard backs.

RECEIVERS - In '08 Jordan Shipley (PS#7) and Quan Cosby (PS#9) became UT's first duo to each top 1,000. In '09 they had to replace Cosby but Shipley was a Biletinikoff finalist (1485, 12.8).

Malcolm Williams (PS#11) was #2 with 550 (14.1). James Kirkendoll (PS#28) was #3 (461, 9.6) and conv QB John Chiles added 319 (9.4). Their TE's were wiped out prior to the yr as PS#36 Greg Smith (worked with the OL) became the st'r and DL Ahmad Howard was the bkp (PS#29) combining for just 6 rec. LY they had to replace Shipley (#3DC). Chiles was hobbled early but had 117 (23.4) vs Iowa St and finished #3 (418, 14.4). Mike Davis (PS#10) became the 2nd force in UT history to have over 100 yds rec in one of his first 2 gms with 104 vs WY. He had 183 in gm 2-4 but missed Okla and had 0 rec vs Neb (inj). Davis' 47 rec's set a sch'l Fr rec topping B.J. Johnson (41 in '00). DeSean Hales (PS#16) was Gilbert's favorite target in the spg but had just 75 (7.5). The TE's comb for only 121 (5.8). Kirkendoll led with 707 (13.6) while Williams was just #4 (334, 13.9). TY they lose Kirkendoll (11 st) and Chiles (8 st). With a more exp'd QB, I can see them topping LY's numbers.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 UT only had to replace 1 str (91 car str) but surprisingly their numbers dropped to 148 ypg rush (4.4) with 31 sks (5.7%), their weakest numbers since '02. LY they had to replace a 2nd Tm B12 C, a 2nd Tm AA LT, and an HM B12 LG (2 str's ret). I mentioned that despite being less exp'd, their numbers could improve and thanks to 259 yd rush/sk vs FAU they did slightly to 151 ypg (4.2) while allowing just 18 sks (4.0%). This year they lose LT Kyle Hix (11 st, 3Y str), LG Michael Huey (8 st, 2Y str), RT Britt Mitchell (12 st) and Steve Moore (9 gm). Just like LY they return 2 str's and with the entire 2 deep made up of VHT's, they could improve again.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '06 UT had 3 st/s back and had their best rush D S/42 all g 61 ypg (2.3). In '07 despite just 1 rt. DE, UT all'd just 93 ypg (2.9). In '08 they had to replace 2 1st DEs. Brian Orakpo earned Big 12 DPOY and won the Nagurski and Lombardi Awards. Texas all'd just 84 ypg (3.1) with an FB leading 474 sks. In '09 they had to replace 3 st/s (#1, #3, #4 DC's) but LB Sergio Kindle moved to DE and they all'd just 72 ypg rush (2.2) with 44 sks. LY they had to replace 2.5 st/s incl a pair of 2C DC's. Surprisingly, the Horns rush D allowed their highest ypg S/O3/03's (139, 3.5). This year they lose 1st Tm B12 DE Sam Acho (12 st, #4 tk'l, 9 sk, #4DC ARZ). DE Eddie Jones (8 st, 7 tk'l/g, 6 sk) and DT Tyrell Higgins (2 st, 12 tk'l). Three ret who started 5 w/ 10 of the DL ranking PS#25 or higher. DT Alex Okafor (PS#4) moves to DE (260 lbs) along with FB Chris Whaley (PS#14). Despite being just as exp'd as '10, UT's numbers should be stronger.

LINEBACKERS - Texas divides the playing time at their LB's by position and at times the bkps have more tkls than the s's. LY had 10 tkls in '09, but he was the only LB to have more than 10 tkls. They had to replace 2nd Trn B12 Roddrick Muckelroy (#1 str, LY's brother) who was only the 2nd Horns LB to be drafted in the last 15 yrs (#34DC). They did add PS#1 Jordan Hicks but he had little impact (#23KC) and their 2 other VHT signs sat out. They played 5 DB's (1 str, 4 tk'l'r) a lot in '09 so technically only 1 str ret'd in Keenan Robinson (#33KC, 1 tk'l'r) but they also ret'd #9 Emmanuel Acho. Acho moved back to DE and forth from OLB to MLB. UT allowed 23.7 ppg (7 ppg more than '09). This year they lose MLB Dustin Earnest (4 st, #9 tk'l'r) and Jared Norton (16 tk). Not only do their top 2 tk'l'rs return but those 3 VHT's should have a much bigger impact.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - After a #6 finish in my PDR in '05, the Horns yielded a school record 236 ypg passing in '06 (#63 PDR) and in '07 had to replace 3 st's incl a Thorpe Award winning CB and allowed a new record of 278 ypg (#109 FBS). They still finished #45 in my PDR due to facing a tough slate of opp QB's. In '08 UT had to replace 3 st's again but moved back up to #19. Texas climbed to #4 in '09 trimming the ypg to 180 (14-25 ratio). LY they had to replace 1 st'r in 1st Tm AA SS Earl Thomas (#1DC) but had a unit loaded with exp and NFL prospects. The Horns finished #15 trimming the ypg again to 162 despite an underachieving front seven. This year they lose 3 NFL DC's in CB Curtis Brown (10 st, 26 tkl, 7 pbu, #3DC PIT), DB Aaron Williams (9 st, 46 tkl, 13 pbu, #2DC BUF) and Chykie Brown (9 st, 19 tkl, 7 pbu, #5DC BAL). They return 3 who st'd & 6+ but are a little less experienced.

SPECIAL TEAMS - With Brown's great recruiting classes, most of the bks are VHT's and contribute here. Since '00 they have finished #18, #10, #16, #15, #36, #1 (in '05), #12, #26, #10 and #3 ('09) in my ST rankings. LY they had to replace their K (24-27) and top PR (13.0). P Justin Tucker had 43 punts (40.4) in '09 and John Gold had 15 (44.1). LY Tucker had 35 (41.2) and Gold 24 (43.6) as the tm had a net of 36.5 (34.1 '09). DJ Monroe was the top KR in '09 (33.6) but slipped to 20.5. Tucker hit 23-27 FG (L51) and had 15 TB's on 65 KO's. Curtis Brown was the main PR (14.9) but had some troubles handling punts and Aaron Williams had 11 PR's (7.8). With Tucker returning, I look for improvement on LY's 48th finish.

COACHES: Mack Brown took over a team that had 3 winning seasons the previous 7 yrs (4-7 prior yr) and has won or tied for six Big 12 South Titles. In '08 Mack Brown won the Bobby Dodd award as Nat'l COY. This year longtime OC Greg Davis is replaced by co-OC's Bryan Harsin and Major Applewhite (asst HC/BCh here L3Y). Harsin who piloted Boise St's offense the L5Y will be the play caller. Manny Diaz has the tough job of replacing 3 year DC Will Muschamp (Fla HC). Diaz was Miss St's DC LY after spending 4 yrs at Middle Tennessee in the same role.

Mack Brown came into '05 with just a 1-12 record vs Top 5 tms but things changed in a big way. UT defeated #4 Ohio St on the road and after having lost 5 straight to Okla. won 45-12. They beat defending National Champ #1 USC in the Rose Bowl winning their first National Title since 1970. In '06 they were #4 when QB McCoy was inj'd and they finished just 10-3. In '07 they fell as low as #23 but finished #10. In '08 they had just 11 st's ret and a tough schedule. The young team came together quickly and they knocked off #1 Okla 45-35 and moved to #1 appearing to have arrived a year early. They gave up a td with :01 left and lost to #6 TT on the road and with a 3-way tie were excluded from the B12 Title game. Denied a shot at the National Title a disappointed Longhorn team still beat #10 Ohio St in the Fiesta Bowl, 24-21. In '09 I projected the Horns to play in the National Title game and they got past Okla 16-13 and then in the B12 Title game needed a 46 yd FG with :01 left to get to the Championship game. Unfortunately they lost QB McCoy to injury while leading 6-0 and despite a 276-263 yd edge, were done in by 5 TO's and lost to Alabama 37-21. LY I mentioned that they had just 8 sts lost to injury in '09, were 9 in TO's, had an incredible off ypp of 10.7 (pg 299) and that their +94.3 ypg was only the 3rd best in the B12. UT made a crucial decision of going from the spread to more of a pro-style downhill run attack despite being unable to produce a feature back in the previous 4 yrs. With Garrett Gilbert's solid 2H in the Title game, many treated the Horns as if they had a ret st'r at QB however Gilbert's play reflected his inexp (10-17 ratio). I got beat up pretty good in the preseason by Texas fans as I did not have the Horns in my Preseason Top 10. They entered the season at #5 but dropped to #7 after an unimpressive 3-0 start. Against UCLA they had 4 TO's in the 1H and trailed 13-3 prior to UCLA establishing the run vs them in the 2H in a stunning 22 pt home loss. They trailed Okla 28-10 before losing by 8. Texas fell out of the AP Top 25 for the first time in 163 wks but coming off a bye, upset #5 Neb on the road and appeared to have turned their season around. Unfortunately, they trailed Iowa St 28-6 and lost by 7 at home. They led Baylor 19-10 in the 3Q but lost by 8. They had 412-270 yd and 23-13 FD edges but actually trailed Kan St 39-0 in the 4Q with 5 int's by Gilbert. They trailed Okla St 33-3 after the 3Q for their first 4 game home losing streak since 1956. After beating Fla A&M they needed a win over rival A&M at home to salvage a bowl. Trailing 24-17 they were int'd at the A&M 8 with 2:37 left for a stunning plummet to 5-7. Making it even more shocking was that they finished at the bottom of the div standings for the first time S'56. Brown had led UNC and UT to winning records for 20 st yrs, the longest active record of any FBS coach. He has made some great hires at coor (see Coaches) and keep in mind that UT was -12 in TO's LY. Texas now makes my Most Improved List and will have a much better year than most expect.

UT has beaten Rice 39 of L/40 gms including 11 str topping 50+ pts in 4 of L/5. LY the Longhorns trailed 3-0 into the 2Q before scoring 24 str to pull away. UT has won 11 str openers by 40 ppg.

Texas is 0-2 vs BYU with the last meeting in '88, a 47-6 defeat. The Longhorns were in the midst of a 4-7 ssn while the Cougars finished 10-3 under legendary HC Lavelle Edwards.

UT has dropped 3 str in this series (L/win in '71) including LY when they allowed 264 (4.7) rush yds after holding UCLA to -6 yds into the 2Q. UT has won 10 str road openers by 20 ppg.

Kansas: 5 LY Gilbert tossed 5 int's that resulted in 17 KSU pts. With the loss UT fell below .500 for the 1st time S'99 opener. A&M: LY's loss eliminated UT from a bowl (1st time under Brown & 1st time S'97).

UT is 3-0 in Ames incl their last trip ('07) when they won 56-3 w/a 28-14 FD & 51-228 yd edge. The Longhorns have won 7 of their L/8 B12 "true" road gms and since 1999 are 36-6.

In the L6Y UT has held OU to 124 rush yds or less in 5 gms all g just 88 ypg (2.5) and in '09 held OU to -16 on the ground, lowest ever in RRR history. Last time this gm wasn't in Dallas was in 1923.

LY marked the 1st time S'56 UT dropped 4 HG's in a row after the OSU loss. UT has won 13 str of the gm following the RRR. UT is 22-3 vs OSU & has never dropped B2B gms in the series.

Baylor: UT won 47-14 in their last trip to Waco holding Baylor to just 246 yds. The Longhorns led 47-0 mid-4Q as the Bear's last 2 drives netted 44% (109) of their yds.

In the eight B12 meetings Texas has outscored KU on avg 47-16. In 2009 Coll McCoy played his FHG & broke the NCAA record for most wins by a major CFB QB w/43.

In the L12Y Texas has won 10 gms by an avg of 21 ppg and the 2 losses have been by 4 & 6 pts. The 144 yds that Texas allowed LY was the fewest they have yielded in this series S'82.

Under Brown the Longhorns have won all 3 trips to Columbia (by 19, 31 & 34 pts). In the L/3 meetings overall UT has outgained MU on avg 525-284 & outscored them 49-19.

Texas is 16-2 in home finales (both losses were to A&M in 2006 by 5 pts & last year by 7 pts).

Visitor is 4-2. L/gm at Kyle Field UT sealed the win w/a 95 yd KR TD up just 3 with 6:57 left.

Despite LY's loss, UT has won 16 of the last 18 meetings (last lost B2B to BU in '91-'92)

OKLAHOMA STATE COWBOYS

RT Levy Adcock

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Unbelievably, since OSU joined the Big 8 in 1960, they had never had an all-conf QB heading into LY. After getting uneven QB play in '05 (49%, 11-17 ratio) and '06 (55%), Zac Robinson set an OSU season record for total offense (3,671) in '07. Robinson would top HC Mike Gundy's career passing mark throwing for 8,317 in his 4 yrs but did have a disappointing '09 season (2084, 15-12). He was in'd in '09 and OSU turned to Alex Cate as the starter vs Colo but he was 0-9 in the 1H. Former Yankees farmhand Brandon Weeden came off the bench and guided the comeback win and threw for 248 (62.5%, 4-1) on the yr. Weeden, who has the strongest arm that ex-OC Holgorsen had ever worked with, became a student of the game immersing himself in tape to prepare for the new off. The 27 yr old Weeden did not join his HS football team until his Jr yr and only started as a Sr in '01. Despite playing with a sprained thumb (opted against surgery) throughout most of '10 Weeden threw for a school record 4,277 (67%, 34-13) and became OSU's first 1st Tm all-conf QB since 1932 (Clarence Highfill). He set a school rec with 435 yds vs Baylor. Weeden returns and battling for the #2 spot are Clint Chelf (PS#97) who hit 14-19-213 and Johnny Deaton (PS#20). Adding depth is Ryan Howard (6'4" 212 Jr, PS#433JC). It will be tough for Weeden to top LY's stats especially with a new OC but he is much more exp'd and should remain a healthier.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 Dantrell Savage (PS#11JC) had 10 straight 100 yd gms finishing with 1,272 (5.7). True frosh Kendall Hunter had 696 (6.5). In '08 they lost Savage but got back Keith Toston (6'31, 6.0 in '06, ACL '07). Hunter was 1st Tm AA rushing for 1,555 (6.5) incl 161 at #1 Texas. Hunter suffered an ankle inj and played in just 8 in '09 (382, 4.3). Toston had 206 vs Iowa St and became the 3rd straight Cowboy to top 1,000 yds with 1,218 (5.4). True frosh Jeremy Smith (PS#22) played in just 1 (MedRS) but had 160 (15 att) vs Grambling. LY they had to replace Toston and I speculated the unit could be even stronger as Hunter was backed by 3 VHT's. Hunter adapted to new OC Holgorsen's off easily, rushing for 1,548 (5.7) with 16 TD's. In the opener Hunter was the first OSU RB to top 200 yds in a half since Barry Sanders ('88). Joseph Randle led Big 12 Fr in all-purp yds with 1,160 as he was the best receiver of the RB's (427, 11.5) and the #2 rusher (452, 5.5). Smith was the best downhill runner and had 262 (4.7) with most of his carries in the RZ (7 TD). They add PS#9 Herschel Sims. Not in the PSL are Grant Goodwin (5'8" 204 So), Michael Roberts (5'9" 194 Sr), Joe Aska (5'10" 199 Jr) along with FB's Zach Fullingim (6'0" 218 So) and Montra Nelson (6'2" 221 Jr). VHT Kye Staley (5'10" 213 Jr, PS#14) ret'd in the spg after leaving in Aug '10. TY they lose Hunter (12 st, #4DC SF) and solid blocking 1st Tm B12 FB Bryant Ward (1 st). I like the talent and there is a good chance they could keep their 1,000 yd streak alive but they are replacing a 2-time AA TB.

RECEIVERS - In '09 OSU had to replace 4 of their top 5 rec's so the unit was very young. Dez Bryant (1480, 17.0 in '08) was then susp'd after just 3 gms but he still finished #2 with 323 (19.0). Hubert Anyiam (PS#105) led with 515 (12.3) and rFr Justin Blackmon, in 4 sts, was #4 with 260 (13.0) while #5. Josh Cooper had 234 (11.7). At the end of Aug '10 Holgorsen wondered if a go-to WR would emerge. Blackmon became that guy and was the Big 12 OPOY, the Biletnikoff winner and led the nation with 1,782 (16.1) and 20 TD's despite missing 1 gm (susp). For the first time since '02 OSU had two 100+ rec's in the same gm when Blackmon and Cooper/Bowling did it 3 times. Blackmon had an NCAA rec 12 straight 100 yd rec gms (Aaron Turner of Pacific, 11). Anyiam was banged up and had just 135 (12.3). Cooper moved up to #2 with 736 (10.8). Mel Kiper had Blackmon #13 on his Big Board following the '10 ssn yet he turned down the NFL. Not in the PSL are Ryan Williams (5'11" 176 Jr), Justin Southwell (5'7" 162 Jr), Jeremie Gunnells (6'2" 232 Sr) and Patrick MacDonald (6'2" 206 So). The only loss is Bo Bowling (6 st, 437, 10.4). While it will be tough for Blackmon to improve upon '10's stats, this is a much more exp'd unit and hopefully a #3 WR will emerge.

OFFENSIVE LINE - LY OSU had to replace 1st Tm AA Russell Okung (#1DC), a pair of 3 yr str's and another str. The unit ret just 12 car sts (#117 FBS). With OSU moving to a TTeach style off, it was very surprising to see the ypc actually increase to 5.0 while all g just 10 sks (1.9%). RT Levy Adcock was the tm's top OL and did not allow a sk in 754 reg ssn snaps. This unit's performance was a key to OSU's surprising ssn. TY they lose bkps Jordan Taormina (8 gm) and Anthony Morgan (13 gm). While this unit is vastly more exp'd (5 st'r ret, all 65 '10 sts) than the '10 version and JC Michael Bowie (PS#21JC) may bump a ret str out of the lineup, it will be tough to improve much upon LY's fine stats.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 the Cowboys had to replace 2 DL (comb 14 sts) so they had their most exp'd unit in 3 yrs. As expected, they were much stronger, yielding a school record low 96 ypg rush (3.0) with 29 sks. LY they had to replace 2 st'r's but used a 10 man rotation and 7 of the top 10 ret'd. As expected, the numbers dropped but were still superior to the 9 yrs prior to '09. They allowed just 134 ypg rush (3.5) with 30 sks. DE Ugo Chinasa earned 2nd Tm B12 with DC Young saying his versatility allowed them to go from a 4-3 to a 3-4 without changing personnel. This year they lose their top guy, DE Chinasa (13 st, 38 tkl, 4 sk), DT Shane Jarka (10 st, 13 tkl, 2 tfl), DT Chris Donaldson (13 st, 25 tkl, 3 sk) and DE Darius Hart (24 tkl, 1 sk). No returning player had more than 7 st's LY making them a little less exp'd although they do add PS#36JC Ryan Robinson (IFS).

LINEBACKERS - In '09 OSU had an exp'd LB corps and trimmed their ppg all'd to 21.7 (best S/'97). LY they had to replace their #1, #2 and #3 tkl'rs. They did welcome back Eric Lemon (#2 tkl'r in '08) who missed '09. Lemon led with 133 tkl (9 tfl) although OSU slipped to all g 26.4 ppg. TY they lose 1st Tm B12 Lemon (13 st), WLB Justin Gent (13 st, #2 tkl'r, 3 tfl) and Tolu Moala (15 tkl). James Thomas (#4 tkl'r) started the first 7 at SLB but impressive true frosh Shaun Lewis (PS#14, #5 tkl'r) started the last 6 (FWAA Frosh AA). While they lose their top guy and another full time st'r, this unit has a little more exp overall.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - From '05-'08 OSU finished just #98, #80, #92 and #64 in my PDR. Led by star CB Perrish Cox, an inexp'd unit having to replace 3 st'r's surprisingly finished #8 in '09. LY they had to replace 3 st'r's again incl their star and I said they would definitely drop in my PDR. Despite inexp and inj's OSU still finished a solid #23. Markelle Martin and Johnny Thomas made a solid S combo and OSU added depth by playing 6 true frosh DB's. TY they lose CB Andrew McGee (12 st, #7 tkl'r, 5 int, 7 pbu) but 7 of the top 8 ret making it their most experienced unit in years.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Cowboys finished #3, #18, #3 and #11 in ST coor Joe DeForest's first 4 yrs. They added a #19 finish in '06 and a #14 in '08. In '09 Quinn Sharp (PS#11) avg 45.1 (36.0 net). His strong leg boomed an FBS best 35 TB's on 70 KO's. Dan Bailey hit 28-37 FG's (L51) in '08-'09 and Perrish Cox became the career KR leader. OSU finished a surprising #50 as ace PR Dez Bryant was susp'd. DeForest always develops solid RM and true frosh Justin Gilbert (4.35 spd) was the top KR (26.8) with Joseph Randle #2 (25.6) in '10. Sharp improved his average to 46.2 (#3 FBS net 41.0) and made my 1st Tm AA P because he also had an amazing 53 TB's on 98 KO's making him a true ST weapon. Bailey had a great year hitting 27-31 (L52) and was my 2nd Tm AA. Bailey made his first 182 PAT's before his first car miss vs Texas and became the first Cowboy to win the Groza Award. OSU used 10 frosh on KR coverage early (allow 41.7 after 3) but made some improvements (27.4, #119 FBS). OSU finished #1 in my ST rankings and though they lose their star Bailey, as long as DeForest is around, they will contend for top 20 honors.

COACHES - Mike Gundy was a star QB here and later was the QB coach and OC in the early '90's. He ret'd here in '01 as the asst HC and OC and took over as HC in '05. Gundy, at 38, was the youngest HC in the NCAA in '05 and LY was named B12 COY. Dana Holgorsen led OSU's #3 offense LY but departs to WV and the new OC will be Todd Monken. Monken coached WR's here from '02-'04 and was an NFL WR cch (JAX '07-'10) and WR cch/pass gm coor at LSU ('05-'06). DC Bill Young is in his 3rd stint at OSU (last here in '78). He was the DC at Miami, Fl in '08, Kansas from '02-'07 and also the DC at Ohio St, Okla and USC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In '06 and '07 they barely qualified for bowls at 6-6 but recorded B2B bowl wins for the first time S/'87 when the original "triplets" in QB Mike Gundy, RB Thurman Thomas and WR Hart Lee Dykes played together. In '08 with just 13 ret st'r's and despite having to face the #1, #2, #3 and #3 tms they finished 9-4 and #16, (best S/'03). In '09 they had another version of the "triplets" in QB Zac Robinson, RB Kendall Hunter (1st Tm AA) and WR Dez Bryant (1st Tm AA) and were #9 in the preseason. When they knocked off Georgia, the tm entered the Top 5 for the first time S/'85 and also made the cover of SI. In a letdown spot they were upset by Houston. Bryant was lost after 3 sts and the banged up Hunter had just 3 sts all yr. They still moved to 6-1 before losing to #3 Texas. With a Fiesta Bowl bid on the line vs rival OU the Cowboys were outgained 367-109 and finished 9-4 (NR). LY they were one of the most inexp'd tms in the country (8 ret st'r's), losing 24 of 57 lettermen (42%). Since I had Baylor, TT and A&M all as solid teams, I actually selected the Cowboys last in the Big 12 South. OSU was picked 5th or 6th by nearly every magazine (only Blue Ribbon had 4th) and was 5th in the B12 media poll. I started to worry about my forecast while when doing my summer radio circuit, as OSU sideline reporter Robert Allen said the off would be much better than I expected. They barely got past Troy 41-38 but opened 3-0. They trailed A&M 14-0 after 1Q but A&M QB Jerrod Johnson had 4 int's and a fumble. OSU trailed 21-7 at half and at the end was tied when Johnson turned it over (28 yd IR at OSU 32) and OSU got the winning last play FG, 38-35. OSU actually trailed Louisiana 21-17 at half but dominated the 2H in a 26 pt win. The Cowboys then dominated TT on the road for their first win in Lubbock S/'44 as OC Holgorsen ran the TT offense better than Tuberville's crew did. After a loss to Neb at home, they were without WR Blackmon at K-St but still won by 10. They dominated Baylor, Texas and Kansas. OSU rose to #10 when they hosted Okla but were outgained 588-379 and lost by 6. In the bowl they beat Ariz 36-10 (+4 TO, 370-312 yd edge for UA). TY 2 of their 3 "triplets" in Weeden and Blackmon ret (turned down NFL) but OSU loses OC Holgorsen and RB Hunter from an off avg 44.2 ppg which was their best S/'88 (48.7). OSU was also +12 in TO's, has five B12 AG's and only had 2 sts lost due to inj last year. OSU had their first 11 win ssn in program history and their first Top 15 finish (#11 S/'88) and OSU will be ranked in the Top 10 of the AP poll to start '11 in a top heavy Big 12 conference.

OSU has won 15 str home openers. OSU is 7-0 vs UL and LY led 10-0 early but trailed 21-17 at HT being outgained 254-161. In the 2H OSU scored on 7 of their 8 poss (last was a QB kneel).

In LY's Alamo Bowl OSU held UA to 10 pts (ssn best OSU/ssn worst UA). Since joining the B12 ('96) OSU is 3-1 hosting non-conf/BCS schools, only loss to #23 UCLA in '02.

OSU is 6-1 in road openers. LY OSU led 20-0 into the 2Q and scored on their 1st 10 poss never looking back. The Cowboys did win their last trip to Tulsa ('00) but are just 3-6 there since '82.

With LY's win over A&M, OSU has won a series high 3 str gms. In OSU's last trip to Kyle Field they led 29-25 early 4Q & put the gm away w/a 93/16pl TD drive that chewed up 7:41.

Kansas St: LY OSU was w/o WR Blackmon (Susp) & trailed 7-0 but scored 24 unanswered incl a 26 yd IR TD. Texas Tech: The Cowboys win last year was the 1st in Lubbock since '44 (1-10-2).

OSU is 6-1 vs KU S/'98. LY OSU trailed 14-10 into the 2Q but scored the gms final 38 pts holding KU to just 109 yds & 8 FD's. LTH ('07) OSU lost 43-28 vs a #5 ranked Jayhawks tm.

LY the Cowboys ended a 12 yr losing streak to the Longhorns, it also marked the 1st win in Austin S'44 (1-11). OSU dominated leading 33-3 into the 4Q before they allowed 2 garbage TD's.

OSU dropped 4 str from '96-'01 but won 3 of the L4 vs MU. Last gm ('09) was tied 17-17 until OSU went on a 54/9pl TD drive w/02 left until HT. OSU held MU to 80 yds & 3 FD's on just 28 plays in the 2H.

LY vs the Bears, Weeden threw for a school-rec 435 yds as OSU mounted a rec 725 yds. OSU has beat BU 5 str meetings scoring no less than 34 pts & giving up no more than 28 (avg score 47-16).

OSU has beaten KSU 3 of L4 gms & their last 3 game series win streak was from 1987-'89.

LY OSU outscored TT 21-0 w/a 215-38 yd edge after the 1Q. WR Blackmon had a career-high 207 yds (20.7).

The avg MOV the L5 meetings has been by 28 ppg. Cowboys are 10-2 the L12 yrs prior to Bedlam.

Gundy is now 0-10 vs OU as both a QB & HC (0-4 as OSU starting QB from 1986-'89). OSU has dropped 8 straight in series but 3 of 4 in Stillwater have been by 6 points or less.

MISSOURI TIGERS

TE Michael Egnew

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Since '02 Missouri has had just 3 starting QB's, which is the fewest in the Big 12. Brad Smith arrived in HC Gary Pinkel's first recruiting class and wound up setting 69 Big 12, school and NCAA records. He left (#4DC) as the career leader for yds passing (8,799), rushing (4,289) and total offense (13,088). In '05 true frosh Chase Daniel (PS#7) was Smith's bkp. Four yrs later he smashed Smith's career passing record (12,515) and in '08 threw for 4,335 (73%, 39-18, 281 rush). Blaine Gabbert (PS#10), who is 6'5" 235, played as Daniels' backup in 5 as a true frosh (13 att) and was groomed to take over in '09. After 4 gms as the str, Gabbert had thrown for 1,161 (66%, 11-0) before an injury (ankle) in the 1Q vs Neb. He played through it at less than 100% throwing 7 int in the next 4 gms (184 ypg) before rebounding in the last 4 (352, 64%, 8-0). He struggled in the bowl (291, 48%, 1-2) vs Navy. Gabbert threw for 3,593 (59%, 24-9), which was 83 fewer pass att than Daniel had in '08. LY 2 VHT's were IFS in James Franklin (PS#19) and Blaine's brother Tyler (PS#25). Blaine had his best success vs zone D's. In B2B wks vs tough man D's of Neb and TT, he hit just 30-72 (42%). Gabbert threw for 3,186 (63.4%) with just a 16-9 ratio and was the #1DC of JAX. Franklin got in 10 gms (11-14, 106, 1-1) as the Wildcat QB. He is strong armed and elusive. Ashton Glaser (PS#81) was 3rd string and they add in true frosh Corbin Berkstresser (PS#29). After Franklin finished spring as the #1 QB, Tyler Gabbert surprisingly transferred leaving the Tigers with just 3 scholarship QB's. The unit goes from a #1DC to a unit with 14 career pass att's but they have done well replacing their last 2 star QB's.

RUNNING BACKS - Tony Temple (PS#4) led MU in rushing for 3 straight yrs incl B2B 1,000 yd seasons ('06-'07). In '08 Derrick Washington (PS#26) became the 3rd straight 1,000 yd RB with 1,036 (5.9). Washington was back in '09 but with fewer weapons and a less exp'd QB, D's were able to key on him (865, 4.6). Washington was the clear-cut str heading into '10 but was susp'd and later dismissed. The top returnees were De'Von Moore (5'9") who had 258 (4.1) in '09 and Kendall Lawrence (5'9"), who had 219 (4.2). They added 3 true frosh in Greg White (6'1" 215, PS#87), Marcus Murphy (5'9" 185, PS#108) and Henry Josey (PS#113). Josey (spd) had the longest run (62 yd) by a Tiger RB in over 1,400 carries vs TT. He finished #2 with 437 (5.8). Moore led with 517 (5.2) while Lawrence was #3 with 422 (5.8) incl a 71 yd/rv TT. Murphy was the #4 RB (181, 8.2) while White RS. Adding depth are Jared Culver (5'11" 250 Jr) and Kellen Wright (5'9" 205 rFr). TY they all return making the unit much more exp'd.

RECEIVERS - Jeremy MacLin led in '08 with 1,260 (12.4) while TE Chase Coffman won the Mackey Award (987, 11.0). In '09 they had to replace MacLin (#1DC), Coffman (#3DC) and their

#3 rec (833, 11.6) so naturally this group looked weaker. Danario Alexander regained most of his spd following ACL surgery in '07 and had best yr of any WR in the country (#1 NCAA, 1781, 15.8). LY they had to replace their top 2 including Alexander with the leading returnees being Jerrell Jackson (458, 12.4) and Wes Kemp (418, 18.2). Missouri's WR and TE had a combined 997 yds ret (11th in Big 12). Ex-HS QB TJ Moe (PS#49) stepped into the "H" rec spot held by MacLin and Alexander and led with 1,045 (11.4). Moe set MU bowl and Insight Bowl records with 15 rec. TE Michael Egnew was the recipient of most of the tm's bubble screens and he finished with 90 rec (#2 yds 762, 8.5). He was MU's 3rd Mackey finalist in the last 4 yrs and led FBS TE's in rec's. At 240 lbs, Egnew is bigger than both Martin Rucker and Chase Coffman. Jackson finished #3 (656, 13.1) and Kemp had 420 (10.8). Something missing from the MU rec corps was the breakout threat that MacLin and Alexander had possessed. In '09 MU avg 13.5 ypc but in '10 it fell to 10.6. LY Pinkel said that frosh WR's Bud Sasser, Jimmie Hunt and Marcus Lucas were 3 of the best athletes they'd had there at WR. This year the unit returns intact. Adding depth are Terry Dennis (6'3" 200 Sr), Jaleel Clark (6'5" 210 So), Joe Plevel (6'0" 200 Jr), Hunt (6'1" 195 rFr, PS#68), Kyle Pease (6'4" 200 So) and TE's Beau Brinkley (6'5" 225 Sr) and Steven Drain (6'4" 255 Jr). This unit is deeper and more experienced.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 the Tigers had to replace Big 12 OL POY C Adam Spieker and a 2nd Tm B12 LT. Despite having to replace 2 critical positions (C & LT), the ypc rush improved to 5.2 and the sks dropped to 16 (2.8%). In '09 they only had to replace 2 str's so it was surprising the numbers dropped to 127 ypg (3.7) with 20 sks (4.3%). LY they had to replace a 2nd Tm Big 12 RG but had 4 str's back (80 car st) and as you would expect, improved to 156 ypg (4.6) with 22 sks (4.5%). This year they lose MU's 4th consecutive 1st Tm B12 C Tim Barnes (13 st, 3Y str) but have 9 of the top 10 back (105 car sts). They now will put their OG's in a three point stance for the first time S'05 to add more power to the run game and should improve once again.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 the Tigers had 3 str's back, but the 4 bkps were rFr. Missouri improved to allowing just 3.4 ypc (Pinkel era best). In '09 they had to replace 3 str's (#1 and #6 DC). I expected a big drop off but surprisingly they yielded just 119 ypg with a new Pinkel best 3.3 ypc (30 sk). Those numbers were just 2.9 ypc and 96.4 ypg prior to the bowl vs Navy (all'd 385, 5.7). LY they had to replace 2 str's (6 of top 8 back). Pinkel called it the best DE group in his 10 yrs here. Their top DL, Aldon Smith missed 3 sts (leg). DT Dominique Hamilton was lost after 7 st and MU allowed 3.6 ypc with him in the lineup and 4.6 ypc without him. Surprisingly MU's numbers declined to their weakest since '03 as they yielded 153 ypg rush (4.1) but their 38 sk were the most in at least 15 yrs. This year they lose 1st Tm B12 DE Smith (10 st, #5 tk/r, 5.5 sk #1DC SF). Adding depth are Bryson Cofield (6'0" 235 rFr), Lucas Vincent (6'3" 295 rFr, PS#67) and Derrion Thomas (6'4" 210 rFr). Not only do they have 7 of the top 8 back, but Sheldon Richardson (PS#1TE '09) will finally enroll here in the summer after a JC detour. DE's Jacques Smith and Brad Madison (dominant in spg) made 2nd Tm B12 in '10 and I look for much improved numbers.

LINEBACKERS - MU has not had a 1st Tm AA LB in 120 yrs of football but nearly got one in '08 when MLB Sean Weatherspoon earned my 2nd Tm AA. LY they had to replace Weatherspoon (#1 tk/r, #1DC) who was the 1st MU ply'r to be 1st Tm B12 3 straight yrs. They had 3 back who had 6+ sts incl their #2 and #3 tk/r's plus got the ret of Luke Lambert (9 st '08). MU, despite losing their star and having inj'd decimate the unit to a degree which Pinkel had never seen in his career, all'd just 16 ppg, their fewest S'81 (13.3). TY they lose SLB Andrew Gachkar (13 st, #2 tk/r, 8.5 tfl, #7DC SD) and Jeff Gettys (7 tk). They ret their #1, #7 and #10 tk/r's. Not in the PSL are Michael Brennan (6'2" 220 rFr) and Denzel Martin (5'11" 230 So). Even though they lost just their 3rd LB drafted S'68, their fastest LB Zavier Gooden (4.37, 405 bench, 40" VL) is ready for a breakout yr.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Missouri had made a steady climb in my PDR moving from #63 in '05 to #46 in '06 and #37 in '07. Surprisingly in '08 with 3 str's back, they slipped to #90 and losing 3 str's in '09, fell to #100. LY they had all 4 str's back and I said they should be one of the most improved pass D's in the country. Missouri finished an outstanding #10 (13-18, 56.5%) - a rise of 90 spots. They even managed to RS PS#62JC Kenronite Walker. This year they lose CB Kevin Rutland (13 st, #8 tk/r, 3 int, 7 pbu), CB Carl Gettis (13 st, 48 tk, 2 int, 3 pbu), FS Jarrell Harrison (12 st, 69 tk, 2 int, 3 pbu) and FS Jasper Simmons (2 st, #3 tk/r, 2 int). This group is a lot less exp'd and after their highest finish ever in my PDR, figure to drop back to the middle of the pack.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Pinkel's highest finish in my ST rankings was #17 in '02 but prior to '08 they had finished just #65, #104, #59, #79 and #73. In '08 they moved up to #39 and to #33 in '09. From '96-'07 the Tigers finished in the bottom 2 in the Big 12 in net punting 9 times. MU switched to more rugby-style punts in '08. In '09 Jake Harry had an amazing 40.5 net (#4 FBS). LY they had to replace Harry and Matt Grabner avg'd 42.6 (39.1 tm net). Trey Barrow is very athletic and had a fake punt FD run vs CU and avg 45.0 on 2 punts (both 120). Grant Ressel hit an amazing 26-27 FG's (L46) in '09 and 17-19 (L50) in '10. Ressel missed an xp vs Miami stopping the sch'l's streak at 252 which was just 10 short of tying Syr's '89 NCAA rec. MU's ret gm was below avg with the exception of the 86 yd KR td which opened the OU game. MU still moved up to #32 thanks to their solid specialists but do lose their super P this yr.

COACHES - Gary Pinkel came here from Toledo where he was highly successful (73-37-3 in 10 yrs). He has now taken the Tigers to 6 straight bowls and in '07 they finished #4 with a sch'l rec 12 wins. David Yost is in his 3rd yr as OC (QB cch prev 8Y). DC Dave Steckel is in his 3rd yr as DC (LB coach the previous 8).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Gary Pinkel opened his Missouri tenure with two losing seasons but has guided the team to bowls in 7 of the last 8. In '04 they had their highest preseason ranking (#18) since 1980. They had dreams of their first league crown since 1969 but stunningly went 5-6. In '05 they made my Most Improved List and went 7-5 (bowl win). They went 8-5 in '06 and I was one of the few to pick Missouri to win the Big 12 North in '07. Missouri had not compiled a better league record than 4-4 nor had they entered the final week with a chance to win the North since 1998. The Tigers rolled to 11-1 (only loss Okla). They rose to #1 after beating #2 Kansas to win the Big 12 North then lost to OU for a 2nd time in the Big 12 Title game. Missouri was not invited to a BCS bowl and steam rolled Ark 38-7 in the Cotton Bowl. That Missouri squad was +13 in TO's and had just 8 sts lost to injury. In '08 Missouri was the favorite to win the North and was ranked #6 in the preseason. They romped over their first 5 foes incl a 52-17 win at Neb but were upset by Okla St and then buried by Texas (trailing 35-0). They still won the North winning 4 of the last 5 but the Sooners rolled over them in the Big 12 Title game, 62-21. In the bowl they got past NW by 7 in OT despite being outgained 376-311. In '09 they opened up 4-0 and were leading Neb in the 2Q when QB Gabbert was inj'd. With Gabbert hobbled, NU was able to make a 2H comeback and MU then lost to Okla St and Texas. The Tigers still finished 8-5 despite losing their bowl to Navy 35-13. LY Missouri had 15 ret str's and were unranked in the preseason for a 2nd straight year. After opening 6-0 they were #18 when they hosted the BSC's #1 ranked team in Okla with ESPN Gameday on hand. The Sooners blew 3 poss inside the 14 yd line (0 pts) and Missouri pulled the upset, 36-27. #7 Missouri trailed Neb 24-0 and lost by 14 as the Huskers' Roy Helu ran for 307 yds. They still have not knocked off B2B ranked teams S'73. On the road for a 2nd straight week, they lost to TT, 24-17. The Tigers would win their last 3 and moved to #14 but lost to Iowa in the Insight Bowl and finished #18. Missouri was tied for 1st in the Big 12 North but was only +20.1 ypg (7th best). They have just 13 letterman lost (fewest B12) but do lose #1DC's QB Gabbert and LB Smith. Five of my 9 sets of power ratings rank them in the top 25 talent-wise but they play a killer schedule and won't match LY's 10 win reg season.

CB David Garrett

QUARTERBACKS - In Josh Freeman's 3rd year as a starter ('08), he threw for 2,945 (59%, 20-8) leaving as K-St's career passing leader with 8,078 (#1DC TB). Carson Coffman (PS#76) saw action in 10 games in '07 and '08 throwing for a comb 304 (61%, 1-2). In the spring of '09 he battled Collin Klein (PS#82). Over the summer Grant Gregory (538 tll yd in 3Y) transferred in from USF. Coffman started the first 4 (860, 61%, 2-4) but lost his job to Gregory. Gregory added a running threat to the position (441 gross) and threw for 1,096 (57%, 4-4). LY they had to replace Gregory but added RS JC Samuel Lamur. Coffman threw for 2,060 (65.0%, 14-7). Klein played in 10 and was the surprise starter vs Texas when he rushed for a KSU QB record 127 (only 4 pass att) and reset the record with 141 vs MO. His 100 yd streak was snapped when he was inj'd in the 2Q vs Colo. He threw for 138 (61.1%, 1-0) but was the #2 rusher (432, 5.7). Lamur played in just 4 (48 tll yd). TY they lose Coffman (11 st). JUCO Justin Tuggle (son of former Falcons LB Jesse) could come in and take the job. He draws comparisons to ex-Cats star Michael Bishop and was a Blinn JC QB (same as Cam Newton). He is the perfect fit for the Cats offense with solid mobility and size. Tuggle was orig at Boston Coll and hit 13-37-229 (4-3) in 3 sts there in '09. Not listed below is Sam Johnson (5'11" 215 rFr). I look for much improved play from the KSU QB's no matter who wins the job.

RUNNING BACKS - KSU had just one 1,000 yard rusher from '05-'08 and their leading rusher in '08 had just 412 (3.5). In '09 QB Daniel Thomas (PS#25JC) adapted well to his new position at RB becoming the first Wildcat to open his career with B2B 100 yd gms since Cornelius Davis in 1966. He recorded the 11th 1,000 yd season in school history with 1,265 (5.1). LY Thomas began the season with the best 3 gm stretch in school history rushing for 552 (6.7) but failed to top Darren Sproles' single season rushing record (1,986 in '03) finishing with 1,585 (5.3). William Powell, despite having 72 in the opener, finished with just 250 (10.9) after an inj ended his career after 9 gms. TY they lose Powell, Thomas (12 st, #2DC MIA) and FB Lucas Hamm (5 yds). Added to the mix this year are rFr DeMarcus Robinson (PS#55) and most importantly Bryce Brown (PS#1) who originally was at Tenn. They lose the team's MVP of both of the last 2 yrs but will come close to matching the rushing numbers.

RECEIVERS - KSU had one of the least exp'd receiving corps in the country LY. Their top returnee was TE Travis Tannahill (37 yds '09). Brodrick Smith was the #1 rec (191, 13.6) when he broke his leg vs Neb. Aubrey Quarles (PS#74JC), who had 407 (12.0) in '08 and RS in '09, led with 760 (14.9). Chris Harper (PS#17QB), who played in 12 gms as a true frosh QB at Oregon in '08, was #2 (330, 13.2). Tramaine Thompson (PS#154) missed 6 but was #4 (258, 13.6). This year they lose their top guy in Quarles (9 st) and Adrian Hilburn (3 st, 299, 10.7) who gained notoriety with his controversial penalty for saluting the crowd in the bowl. Adding depth are Zach McFall (6'0" 182 Jr, 2 gm LY) and Rodney Kenner (5'10" 214 Sr, 10 gm LY). This unit is more exp'd than the '10 version.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 K-St shuffled the O-line often and avg 133 ypg rush (3.9) but all'd just 16 sks (3.8%). They had to replace 3 st's in Snyder's first yr back ('09) but improved to 180 ypg (4.3) but with 26 sks (8.7%). LY they had to replace 1 st'r (63 car st ret). Ethan Douglas won the open spot but was inj (OFY) in the opener. They improved to 199 ypg (4.7) although the sks rose to 31 (10.6%). TY they lose 2nd Tm B12 LG Zach Kendall (13 st, 2.5Y st'r), 2nd Tm B12 C Wade Weibert (13 st, 2Y st'r), RG Kenneth Mayfield (13 st, 2Y st'r) and Trevor Viers (2 gm). While K-State has just 2 st's back, they ret 5 with starting exp (42 car sts). They also RS'd Nick Puetz (PS#155JC) and BJ Finney (PS#217) and you know Snyder will fashion a solid O-line.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 K-St only had 1 returning st'r and the unit all'd 218 ypg (5.2) which was its highest since '90. In '09 they had to replace 4 DL (2nd Tm B12 DE) who combined for 28 sts. They did add Jeffrey Fitzgerald who had 25 sts at Virginia so it was like having 2.5 st's back. The rush D all'd just 105 ypg (3.5). LY they had to replace Fitzgerald and a starting DT plus 3 others (comb 5 sts). Snyder always likes to bring in a lot of JUCO's on the DL and LY signed 3 VHT JUCO's. Due to a lack of scholarships and depth, FB Braden Wilson and OL Trevor Viers played on the DL vs Texas. PS#76JC DT Ray Kibble was named KSU's Def Front 7 POY. I thought Kansas St would slip but they plummeted to 231 ypg (5.9), their worst numbers since Snyder originally arrived ('89). TY they lose DE Antonio Felder (13 st, #13 tkrl, 3 tfl) and DL Prizell Brown (13 st, #10 tkrl, 5 sk). While they basically have 2 starters back, Kansas St can only improve upon '10's horrific numbers and they add in PS#17 and PS#11 JUCO's. Plus ex-OL Jordan Allred (PS#67) and Braden Wilson saw action there in the spring.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 K-St only had 2 st's back but they were their #2 and #4 tkrls and K-St improved from all'g 35.8 ppg in '08 to 23.2. LY they had to replace their #3 and #5 tkrls (ret #6 & #8). The D played a 4-2-5 most of the season and slipped to 29.1 ppg. This year's LB corps should spearhead a much more formidable D. Five different LB's started and they all ret plus there is the significant addition of Miami Fl trans Arthur Brown (PS#5) who was dominant on the scout tm here LY. True frosh TE Walker (2 st, 47 tk) was compared to Josh Buhl who set the KSU season record for tkls (184 in '03). Alex Hrebec was leading the tm in tkls when he suffered an elbow inj ('83 with 77). Not listed below are Jonathan Truman (5'11" 197 rFr), Nick Briney (6'0" 225 Jr) and David Smith (6'0" 218 rFr). The Cats moved from the 4-2-5 to a 4-3 in the spg based on this unit's increased athleticism and depth. This should be 1 of the Big 12's most improved LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Snyder has always used a deep rotation in the secondary which allows them to offset large graduation losses. The Cats had 4 consec finishes in the top 10 in my PDR but then slipped to #19, #61 and #55 (lost all 4 st's) in his last 3 yrs ('03-'05) in his first tenure here. Under former HC Ron Prince ('06-'08), K-St finished #54, #73 and #72. In '09 they ret'd 2.5 st's and I called for them to have their best finish since '03 and they moved up to #48. LY they had to replace 1 st'r (#5DC), David Garrett (#1 tkrl, 10 pd) had 16 tkls vs Colo, and he shared the team's co-Def MVP Award with S Ty Zimmerman (#4 tkrl, 6 pd). Even with a more exp'd secondary they slipped a little to #54. This year they lose CB Terrance Sweeney (13 st, #6 tkrl, 2 int, 9 pbu), CB Stephen Harrison (11 st, #12 tkrl, 2 int, 12 pbu) and Troy Butler (3 tkls, 18 tk, 10 st '09). They do have 3 DB who started 12 back and add in San Jose St transfer S Tanner Burns (96 tk '09) and 4 JUCO's. Once again I'll call for K-State to have their best finish in my PDR since '03.

SPECIAL TEAMS - While not a lot went right in the Ron Prince era, they finished #1 in my ST rankings in '06, #3 in '07 and #7 in '08 (4 blk punt t's). In '09 they had to replace their K and top PR but KR Brandon Banks had an amazing 4 t's (28.9) helping KSU finish #23. LY Josh Cherry ret'd at K but was banged up and Anthony Cantele was named the starting K about 2:00 prior to the KO of the opener. Cantele was the Big 12 co-STPOW with 4 of his 6 KO's through the EZ, 4 xp's and a 35 yd FG vs UCLA. Cantele had 15 TB on 72 KO. In Wk 2 Cantele missed a 26 yd FG and an xp and Cherry reclaimed those duties (7-9, L48) vs ISU. P Ryan Doerr helped to improve to a super 39.3 team net. William Powell was #2 KR FBS (34.6) and against Baylor had just the 2nd 100 yd KR td in KSU history (Mack Herron '68) before being KO'd vs MO. Four yr st'r 1st Tm AA LS Corey Adams did not have a bad snap in his career and will be missed. They also lose Powell and Cherry which means they will probably drop a few notches from LY's #16 ranking.

COACHES - Bill Snyder accomplished the greatest rebuilding job in college football history taking over a K-St team that had gone 0-21-1 comb'd in '87 & '88 (NCAA's worst comb'd rec in hist) and guided them to bowls in 11 st yrs ('93-'03). They were even a Nat'l Title contender in 5 diff sn's. When Snyder opted to step aside after '05, he had more than triple the wins of the #2 coach (Mike Faheam 39) and his then 136 wins were the same amount than all of the previous K-St coaches combined S/35! The stadium was renamed Bill Snyder Family Stadium. "The Legend" ret'd in '09 and will turn 72 in Oct. Dana Dimel and Del Miller are co-OC's for the 3rd year. Dimel was the HC at Wyoming ('97-'99) and Houston ('00-'02). Before returning to K-St he spent 3 yrs as an asst at Ariz ('06-'08). Miller was the OC at SDSU ('06-'08) and now enters his 15th year overall at K-St. Chris Cosh is in his 3rd ssn as DC. Cosh was here as the LB cch in '04-'05 and was also Maryland's DC ('06-'08).

From '97-'03 Bill Snyder had 11 wins in 6 out of 7 sn's but in his final 2 yrs ('04-'05) K-St slumped to 4-7 and 5-6 and he left to spend time with his family. Ron Prince was hired as HC in '06 and change was all around. Most of Snyder's asst's either left or were booted out and many of the old players were shown the door. They even shifted from the read option to a more pass-based attack. Prince managed a 7-6 record in his first year but the next 2 yrs opened 5-3 and 4-2 before the bottom fell out in a pair of 5-7 seasons. In '07 KSU all'd 401 ypg (30.8 ppg) and in '08, 479 ypg (35.8 ppg). That '08 squad was a Big 12 worst -151 ypg in conf play. Bill Snyder had just 12 ret st's in '09 but made my Most Improved List as K-St had the most manageable sked of the Big 12 North tms. I projected a tie for 2nd in the North (only magazine to have them ahead of rival Kansas) and they were the media's pick for 5th. K-St did not disappoint. In the ssn finale vs Neb, they were 6-5 and needed a win for the Big 12 North Title but lost and at 6-6 did not get a bowl bid. KSU was -52.8 ypg in '09 (3rd worst) and +7 in TO's and LY had just 11 ret st's. They trailed Iowa St and UCF in the 4Q but rallied to win both getting a td with :24 left to get past UCF and the Wildcats stood 4-0. K-State was throttled by Neb on a Thurs night matchup of undefeated tms, 48-13. They ret'd the favor vs rival Kansas, 59-7. Against Baylor they scored a td with :07 left for a misleading final. OSU was without star WR Justin Blackmon but KSU lost by 10. The Wildcats stunned Texas leading 39-0 into the 4Q. They were -3 in TO's and lost to Missouri by 10 then lost at CU by 8. KSU had already clinched a bowl when they beat NT on the road, 49-41. In the Pinstripe Bowl they lost to Syr by 2 to finish 7-6. KSU was -97.9 ypg (#11 B12) and 3-5 in B12 play. The Cats have 5 Big 12 HG's TY and are a stronger squad with a solid influx of talent, K-St should get back to their 13th bowl under Snyder (only 2 in KSU history without him).

First meeting. Colonels went 6-5 LY including a 23-13 loss (8 vs FCS) vs Louisville (EKKU trailed 23-0 at HT). The Wildcats have won 21 straight home openers by an avg 24 ppg.

Texas: LY KSU led 39-0 into the 4Q. Klein got the surprise start at QB rushing for 127 yds (5.1) & 2 TD's. A&M: LTH ('09) KSU was off a 66-14 loss vs TT but beat A&M 62-14 as they were +6 TO's.

First meeting. The Wildcats are 11-2 vs current MAC opp's (only losses in '89 & '90 vs NIU). Kansas St is 29-5 vs non-BCS schools since the Big 12 was formed in 1996.

First meeting. The Wildcats are 2-7 in true road openers but did win 59-7 LY (losses by 8 ppg). Kansas St is just 1-6 their last 7 vs non-conf BCS opp's (only W vs UCLA LY).

Last year's result was misleading as KSU never led & trailed 47-28 early 4Q scoring their final TD w/07 left. The home team has won the last 4 meetings by an avg 21 ppg.

KSU is 14-6 vs Missouri S'91, but has lost the L/5 (all by DD's, avg loss 18 ppg). LY KSU trailed 38-14 early 4Q before 2 late TD's but the Wildcats had 4 TO's incl a fum at the M1 & 53 yd FR TD.

KSU hasn't won in Lubbock S'97 as they have dropped 3 str visits by an avg 37 ppg. In '09 KSU fell behind 38-0 at HT & finished allowing 739 yds getting outgained by 455 yds.

109th meeting. KSU hammered KU LY but the visitor is 2-6 getting upset 3x's the L7. The Wildcats are just 5-22 S'04 in true B12 road gms (1-3 LY but did outscore foes on avg by 7 ppg).

The Wildcats have dropped 4 str to the Sooners, all by DD's (avg score 44-27). In the last meeting ('09) KSU fell behind 21-0 into the 2Q (outgained 156-9 in 1Q) but got as close as 35-30 (11:18 4Q).

KSU hasn't won in Stillwater S'99 dropping the L/2 trips. LTH ('07) lost on an OSU FG w/02 left.

In their last meeting KSU ('09) took adv of 6 A&M TO's that resulted in 28 pts and led 59-0 mid-3Q.

There have been 5 upsets in the L/6 meetings.

KSU has beat UT 3 straight (avg score 42-26).

Iowa St: KSU is 17-4 in Manhattan finales (avg win by 17 ppg). Under Snyder KSU is 15-4 vs ISU & the L2Y these trms played in KC. Last time KSU hosted ISU was in '08. KSU led 35-17 into the 4Q despite all'd 626 yds.

OL LaAdrian Waddle

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Mike Leach's first VHT QB was Graham Harrell (PS#16) and he left as the school's all-time leading passer (#2 FBS) after '08. Taylor Potts (PS#19) threw for 669 (5-2 ratio) in '07 and '08 combined and in his first yr as st'r threw for 3,440 (66%, 22-13) in '09. That year Steven Sheffield (PS#269) became the first bkp QB in the Leach era to start due to injury and had 7 td's vs K-St. Sheffield also led a road win vs Neb and quickly became the fan favorite. He threw for 1,219 (74%, 14-4) but started just 2 after a foot fracture. LY Potts had the strongest arm at the Manning Academy and held off Sheffield. Potts did well early breaking 2 stadium's records in B2B weeks for passing yds (Jack Trice Stadium Iowa St, Cotton Bowl vs Bay). Versus A&M Sheffield came off the bench with TT trailing 38-14 and led them to two 4Q td drives. In his only start the next wk vs MO the tm had 5 punts his first 7 drives. Potts led the comeback win with the Raiders scoring td's on his first 3 poss and he held onto the job after that. Potts threw for 3,726 (67.0%, 35-10). It's surprising that Seth Doege (PS#28) only got in 2 gms (4 att) and Jacob Karam (PS#33) just 1 (1 att). This year Potts and Sheffield (359, 56.9%, 3-1 LY) depart and it's a 3-way battle between Doege, Karam and Tuberville recruit Scotty Young (PS#11). Doege, however, took 50% of the snaps and was the clear front runner out of the spring. OC Neal Brown installed the pistol and wants their QB to run more zone-read option. Going from an exp'd QB and one more year removed from Leach's pass-happy system, I look for a good sized decrease in TT's passing numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 Baron Batch led with 758 (6.7) and added 449 rec (10.0) as he split carries with Shannon Woods. Batch was not 100% to start '09 (elbow) and did not have his first 100 yd game until Wk4 but still led with 884 (5.3) and added 395 (6.9) rec. Eric Stephens (PS#59) was the talk of August but finished with just 254 (5.2). Leach said Harrison Jeffers (5'7" 201, PS#47) was the most explosive back but had trouble with blitz pickups. They often lined him up in the slot and he took handoffs while in motion (217, 6.2). LY Batch remained healthy and rushed for 816 (4.6) while Stephens added 668 (5.3). True frosh Ben McRoy (5'9" 160), who is one of the team's fastest players, rushed for 149 (6.8). Aaron Crawford (PS#54) had 110 (5.8) and Jeffers added 99 (5.5). Now Tuberville adds PS#46 true frosh Ronnie Daniels who was impressive in the spring. Adding depth are Josh Talbott (6'0" 201 rFr) and Omar Ontiveros (6'1" 227 rFr). This year they lose Batch (#7DC PIT) but with an added emphasis on the running game, I look for improved numbers.

RECEIVERS - Tech produced eleven 1,000 yard rec's in Leach's pass-happy offense. In '09 the leading 5 rec's were Detron Lewis (844, 13.0), Alexander Torres (806, 12.0), Tramain Swindall (694, 12.6), Lyle Leong (571, 12.7) and Austin Zouzalik (469, 13.4). All 5 ret'd in '10. Torres was banged up (6 sts) and saw his numbers drop to 481 (12.3). Leong led with 926 (12.5) while Lewis added 852 (9.8). Zouzalik was #4 with 432 (13.9) and Swindall #5 (271, 8.2). This year they lose Leong (11 st) and Lewis (12 st) but should have a healthier year from Torres. Tuberville wanted a big rec and signed PS#13JC Marcus Kennard (6'4" 185, 38" VL). Adding depth are Brent Mitcham (5'9" 171 rFr), Jordan Davis (5'10" 185 So) and TE Tony Trahan (6'5" 225 So, PS#113, Rutgers trans). This is still a solid group but with the loss of their top 2 figures to be down a few notches.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 TT had one of the largest O-lines in the FBS with all 5 st's returning. Not surprisingly they had their best rush ypg (118, 4.8) since '99 allowing just 1.96% sks (#1 FBS). In '09 they had to replace 3 st's (1st Tm B12 LT, 2nd Tm B12 LG). OG Brandon Carter, who did an outstanding job vs Ndamukong Suh, returned. Their numbers dropped to just 84 ypg (3.4) with 31 sks (4.6%). LY they had to replace 3 st's again (29 car sts). The new staff emphasized quickness and conditioning so the unit lost weight. They also tightened their unique wide splits. The rush numbers improved to 141 ypg (4.2), their best total since 1999 and with just 21 sks allowed (3.4%, 1 sk L3 gm). This year they lose Chris Olson (9 st '09, 2 st RT/2 st TE '10) and Blake Emert (1 gm). Tuberville played the st's the majority of the time saying "We're about as thin as I've ever seen on the O-line" using mostly 7 players. This year they have all 5 st's back (3 VHT) and in the 2nd year of Tuberville's system, they are more experienced and should improve.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 they only had 2 st's back but improved to 127 rush ypg (3.4) with 41 sks. LY the losses were heavy losing 6 of the top 8. They switched from the 4-3 to a 3-4 so there were fewer spots to fill. TT used 11 DL vs Texas to maintain freshness. Tuberville burned true frosh Dartwan Bush's RS vs Colorado as he was a speed rusher, the type of guy they were lacking after DE's Scott Smith and Aundrey Barr were both OFY after 4 gms. The lone ret'sr, Colby Whitlock was frequently doubled but still earned 1st Tm B12. As you would expect, TT slipped to allowing 163 ypg (4.2, 25 sk). This year they lose Whitlock (13 st, 5 tkl'r, 8.5 tfl) and Brian Duncan (12 st, incl 4 at LB, 4 tkl'r, 7 sk) but ret 6 with starting exp. Even with the loss of their star, this unit is much more exp'd TY they move back to a 4 man front.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 Tech ret'd all 3 st's (#1, #3 and #4 tkl'rs) and the 2 deep included 3 VHT's. TT trimmed their ppg allowed to 22.5, their best since '05. LY they only had to replace their #3 tkl'r. Bront Bird gained weight and moved from OLB to MLB. Surprisingly, TT's ppg rose to 30.9 (highest S/'03). This year they lose Bird (13 st, 1 tkl'r, 5 tfl), and Julius Howard (5 st, 33 tkl). The top returning LB's were just #9, #10 and #12 in tkl's while they move #2 tkl'r Cody Davis to WS, which I include here, this unit is still less experienced.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07 TT only had to replace one st'r and allowed the fewest passing yds in the Big 12 (#33 PDR). With 2 st's back in '08 they slipped to #45. Leach noted that LaRon Moore had as much talent as his starting CB's but a concussion slowed him. In '09 they had to replace two 1st Tm B12 st's (#2DC) and 4 bkps (comb 88 tkl). Despite losing their top 4 S's, TT still climbed to #22. LY they had to replace 1 st'r (#6DC). I noted that TT was unlikely to duplicate the 41 sks they had in '09 and that despite being more exp'd and stronger, they could actually drop in my PDR. Both Moore and SS Franklin Mitchum were banged up and only started 6. Tuberville likes to play man-to-man while '09's DC McNeill played more of a mixture (zone & man) so the recruiting philosophy and schemes have been adjusted. TT allowing 294 ypg (most ever since keeping school records) but with the high quality of QB's they faced they only fell to #55 on my PDR. This year they lose S Mitchem (#8 tkl'r, 5 pbu) and CB Moore (6 st, 18 tkl, 5 pbu). They have 6 back who started LY and will have a new 4-2-5 D this year, which figures to be much improved.

SPECIAL TEAMS - TT finished #18 in my ST rankings in '07, #25 in '08 and #39 in '09. LY the unit ret'd intact. K Matt Williams hit 9-11 (L42), P Ryan Erxleben (35.0 net as true in '09) lost his job to Jonathan LaCour (PS#17) and RS. LaCour was the team's main P in '07 (35.6 net) and '08 (29.2 net) but was susp for '09. LaCour avg 39.3 but with a 38.3 tm net thanks to Donnie Carona's 10 punts (47.5 avg). Carona had 21 TB on 77 KO and 1-4 FG's (L52). Stephens saw his KR avg drop from 25.7 to 24.3 and the PR's (tm 6.3) were avg. The Raiders embarrassingly allowed 2 outside KR td's and despite their issues TT finished #35 last year. Even with the loss of Williams and LaCour, they should finish in the same area.

COACHES - The Mike Leach era came to an abrupt end as he was susp'd then subsequently fired prior to the 2009 bowl. DC Ruffin McNeill became the interim HC for the bowl and was the players' choice for HC but instead TT hired Tommy Tuberville. In 10 yrs as Auburn's HC, Tuberville was 85-40. He was also HC at Ole Miss from '95-'98 (25-20). He hired then 29 yr old Neal Brown as his OC after he served 2 yrs as Troy's OC. They have a new DC (3rd in 3Y) in 10 yr TCU S cch Chad Glasgow (1st DC job) who moved the defense from a 3-4 to a 4-2-5 in the spring.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Tech has now had 18 straight non-losing seasons. Even more impressive to me is that they are the ONLY member of the Big 12 with 16 straight winning seasons despite playing in the same division as Texas and Okla. Tech is 18 gms over .500 (69-51) all-time in Big 12 play. They outgained Big 12 foes by 134.9 ypg (3rd best) in '03, 103.7 in '04, 115 (2nd best) in '05, 95.3 (2nd best) in '06, 104.4 (2nd best) in '07, 133.5 (2nd best) in '08 and 106.8 (2nd best) in '09. In the 15 yrs of the Big 12 South, TT finished in a 3 way tie for 1st in '08 and finished 2nd four times. Heading into '08 the team had not won 10 reg ssn games since 1976. In my forecast in that year's magazine, I noted that all of my sets of power ratings called for TT to get the elusive 10 win season and most of them had the Raiders with a perfect 10-0 when they travelled to Okla. TT lived up to my power rating forecast and knocked off #1 Texas 39-33 then whipped #8 Okla St 56-20. TT was 10-0 and #2 but #5 Okla thrashed them 65-21 and the disappointed Raiders barely got past Baylor then lost to Ole Miss in the bowl. In '09 with just 33% of their off yds ret, they still went 9-4 and Leach was shockingly susp'd then let go prior to the bowl. I mentioned LY that Tommy Tuberville stepped into a tough situation as he had never been a big fan of the spread offense but had to keep it with everyone recruited for it. They also lost DC McNeill. In '09, Tech was 5-3 in B12 action and +106.8 ypg but in Tuberville's first year they were actually -46.5 and their 3-5 B12 record was their worst since 2000 (tied worst ever). They had just 144 yds (fewest S/'90) vs Texas to drop to 2-1 then allowed Iowa St their most ever pts in a Big 12 game losing, 52-38. After beating Baylor by 7, they trailed Okla St 21-0 in their 17 pt loss. They trailed Colo 24-14 going into the 4Q but CU missed a crucial FG (35 yds) which would have put them up by 10 and Tech prevailed with a 3 pt win. TT did fumble into the EZ twice for TB's vs A&M where they lost by 18 but then Potts came off the bench and led the Raiders to an upset over Missouri despite trailing 17-3 late 1H. They were whipped by Okla trailing 38-7 at half but rallied to beat Weber St and Houston. In the bowl, NW was led by a bkp QB, and TT won by 7 to finish 8-5. TT benefited from 4 net close wins last year and only had 3 starts lost to injury all season. The Raiders will be favored in 6 of their first 8 and while this year's team is stronger than '10, they may not top last year's 8 win total.

TT is 17-1 in home openers S'93, avg score 43-17. First meeting. The Bobcats went 4-7 LY including a 68-28 loss to Houston. In 2012 LSU will begin play at the FBS level as a WAC member.

Oklahoma St: TT dropped 2 str vs OSU & the last 3 gm series losing streak was from 1943-'45.

Missouri: LY TT trailed 17-3 late 2Q but outgained MU 353-45 scoring 21 unanswered for the win.

TT is 6-1 in road openers S'04 w/ avg score 37-23. TT is 12-1 vs NM S'85 but in the L2Y have outgained the Lobos by just 56 & 29 yds despite 20 & 35 pt wins. LY TT blk'd 2 punts, forced 3 TO's and had a 93 yd KR.

Just one prior meeting in '08. TT traveled to Reno and won 35-19 despite being outgained (488-421) & outF'd (28-20) as 4 of UN's 5 scoring drives ended in FG's (three from 31 yds or less).

TT has never lost in Lawrence (6-0) and in their L'visit ('08) won 63-21 vs a #19 KU squad (556-315 yd edge). Red Raiders have dropped 6 of L8 B12 true road gms (avg loss by 22 ppg).

Home team in this rivalry is 12-5 the last 17 years. LY TT led 7-0 but allowed 38 of the next 45 pts. TT has dropped 2 str to A&M but hasn't lost 3 in-a-row since 1992-'94.

Red Raiders are 8-3 vs the Wildcats incl 5 str wins. In the L3 gms TT has hung 58+ pts (61-21 avg score) outgaining KSU on avg 669-295. Coming into 2011, TT is 13-4 L17 B12 HG's.

TT is 1-8 in Norman dropping 7 str trips by 24 ppg (last & only win in '96; 1st yr of B12). Coming into 2011, the Red Raiders are 78-27 (74%) in the state of TX & 15-22 (41%) outside of TX S'99.

The HT is 7-2. TT is a perfect 5-0 hosting Iowa St with the avg score 40-11. ISU HC Rhoads was the DC at Auburn in '08 when Tuberville was the HC. TT has never dropped B2B gms in this series.

LY TT trailed 14-0 but tied the gm (87 yd IR TD) at HT. TT was shutout in the 2H gaining just 92 yds. TT hasn't won in Austin S'97 (6 str L's) & LTH led 3-0 but all'd 17 unanswered (cut deficit to 7-2's).

Texas Tech is 23-3 since 1985 in home finales.

The home team is 11-2 S'98 in this series.

Texas Tech has lost all 3 prior trips to Columbia.

Losing each by at least 27 pts incl LTH ('07) 41-10.

TT has won 15 str vs Baylor by avg 42-16. Third straight year playing at a neutral site & LTH

BAYLOR BEARS

C Philip Blake

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In Art Briles' first season (08) red shirt QB Blake Szymanski (2844, 57%, 22-18 in '07) had to battle Miami, FI transfer Kirby Freeman (PS#14) and true frosh Robert "RG3" Griffin (PS#34). Freeman won the job but was replaced in the opener by the exciting Griffin who set TX state HS hurdles records (AA on BU track tm). Griffin had a phenomenal yr despite being the youngest starting QB in the NCAA. He set a schl QB rush record (217) vs Wash St and another BU record by hitting 21 of 24 (87.5%) vs Iowa St. Griffin threw 209 straight passes without an int and tied BU's all-time mark with 13 rushing td's ('74 Steve Bearid). His teammates marvel at the amount of hits he takes and yet he gets back up. Griffin threw for 2,091 (60%, 15-3, 843 rush). In '09 Griffin added 10 lbs of muscle but tore his ACL in the 1Q of Wk 3 but still played until HT. Szymanski was inj'd in the 2H so GS frosh Nick Florence (PS#76) started 7. Florence set a schl rec with 427 vs Missouri (32-43-3-0) which broke Szymanski's '07 record of 412. Florence led with 1,786 (62%, 6-9) while Griffin threw for 481 (65%, 4-0). LY those 2 red'd and RG3 broke Don Trull's record for most career rush td's for a BU QB after finally regaining his vintage form midseason. He became BU's first 3,000 yd passer (3501, 67.0%, 22-8) and was the #2 rusher (635, 4.3). Not listed below is Bryce Petty (6'3" 220 rfr, PS#48). Griffin is another yr removed from his ACL and is already the #1 career passer here (6,073) going into just his Jr yr.

RUNNING BACKS - Heading into '08 Baylor had not avg'd over 3.2 ypc rush as a tm S/'97 (4.7) despite having had plenty of VHT RB's. In '06 BU rushed for just 40 ypg (2.1) and in '07 just 78 (3.1). In Briles' first yr ('08) the top returnee was Jay Finley (207, 3.8). Finley had three 100 yd gms (RG3 had 4) and led with 865 (5.8). In '09 they added in 6'0" 240 lb Terrance Ganaway (1 st, 550, 5.0 in '07 - Hou) and speedy rfr Jarred Salubi (PS#177). Finley got a 72 yd run in Wk 2 but had just 2 carries in the next 4 (inj). He had just 158 (2.8) in conf action but still led with 370 (4.7). Salubi was #2 (298, 6.0) and Ganaway had 200 (2.9). LY I called for significant improvement with Griffin back to full sp. Finley had a schl record 250 vs K-St (broke Griffin's rec of 217) and became the Bears' 7th 1,000 yd rusher (1st S/'03). He broke Walter Abercrombie's schl rec (1,187 in '80) with 1,218 (6.2) and 12 td's. Ganaway was the #2 RB rusher (295, 6.4) and Salubi was #3 (215, 8.3). Isaac Williams (6'0" 200 Sr, PS#274JC) added 93 (3.9). Adding depth are Jacob Bennett (5'6" 175 rfr, FB's Erik Wolfe (6'1" 250 So) and Brad Willard (6'0" 225 rfr). This year they lose Finley (#7DC CIN) and figure to be down a few notches.

RECEIVERS - In '08 the Bears rec corps red'd intact (4 WR's 400+ yds in '07). True Kendall Wright (PS#60) led with a BU frosh record 649 (13.0). Wright has a 40" VL and was on the basketball tm that yr. In '09 Wright led with 740 (11.2). LY they had to replace 2 of their top 5 rec's. In the first gm Wright had 3 catches for -1 yd. He had 128 yds in the 2nd gm and went on to lead with 952 (12.2) setting both ssn (78) and career rec (194) records. Josh Gordon took a short pass and went a schl rec 94 yds for a td vs Kan and was #2 (714, 17.0). 6'2" Terrance Williams (42" VL) was #3 (484, 11.3). Laneer Sampson (PS#65) was #5 with 390 (9.3) and true frosh Tevin Reese was #4 (401, 8.9). This year they lose TE Brad Taylor (4 st, 269, 13.4) and WR Kryst Buerck (2 st, 5 rec) but add Stanford transfer TE Jordan Najvar (PS#16). Also adding depth are WR's Terrance Nathan (5'11" 165 So), Cody Wetsel (5'11" 195 So), Connor Goode (6'0" 175 rfr), Christian Coggan (5'8" 155 rfr), Jeff LePak (6'6" 205 rfr) and TE Bryon Swindoll (6'2" 230 Sr). Briles feels this could be the best set of WR's in the country.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Led by 1st Tm AA LT Jason Smith and with mobile QB Griffin, the Bears avg 196 ypg rush with a schl record 4.9 ypc (4.75 ypc in '80) allowing 28 sks in '08. In '09 they had to replace 3 st's incl Smith who was BU's first #1 DC S/'96 and Griffin was inj'd. Their numbers dropped to 101 ypg (3.5) with 31 sks. LY they had to replace a 2nd Tm B12 C (#3DC) and a 3Y st'r. Despite having just 37 car sts (tied #104 FBS), I said they should improve. With 6 VHT's and Griffin's return, BU moved back to '08's level (195 ypg rush, 5.4, just 20 sks, 4.2%). This year they lose 2nd Tm B12 LT Danny Watkins (#1DC Phil, 13 st, 2Y st'r) but have 8 of the top 10 back (77 car st) and as long as RG3 stays healthy, will show continued improvement.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 the Bears only had to replace 1 st'r and had their best rush D S/'95 (3.1), yielding just 138 ypg (3.6). In '09 they had to replace 2 st's and Briles was extremely high on Penn St transfer Phil Taylor. He had a disappointing ssn as BU's numbers regressed to 179 ypg (4.5) with 18 sks. LY they once again had to replace 2 st's but had 3 back who started 7+ and I looked for improvement and more out of Taylor. Surprisingly BU only improved to 170 ypg (4.4) with 21 sks. This year they lose NT Taylor (13 st, #5 tk/r, 7 tfl, #1DC CLE). They have 8 with starting exp incl Zac Scottion who had 8 st in '09 but was banged up LY (1 st). Not in the PSL are Clarence Lee (6'3" 215 rfr, PS#221) and Josh Hall (6'5" 240 So). Even with the loss of Taylor, they should have improved numbers.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 the Bears had all 3 st's back incl 1st Tm B12 MLB Joe Pawelek. The unit was the strength of the D as all 3 started all 12 and BU allowed 27.3 ppg (best S/'05). LY they had to replace their #1 and #3 tk/r's. The unit was still exp'd returning their #4 tk/r as well as Earl Patin (PS#53, 119 car tk) and Chris Francis (PS#109, 87 car tk). As I expected, BU slipped a little allowing 30.5 ppg. This year they lose HM B12 Antonio Johnson (13 st, #4 tk/r, 4.5 tfl), Francis (11 st, #2 tk/r, 1.5 tfl, 1 int) and Patin (2 st, #10 tk/r). Not in the PSL is Charles Kelly (5'10" 215 rfr). They return their #6 and #14 tk/r's and are on par with '10 in terms of exp and the Bears switched to the 4-2-5 in the spg with VHT Ahmad Dixon (PS#8) filling the NB role.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Baylor finished #89 in my PDR in '07 and #82 in '08 having to replace their starting CB's both yrs. They red'd 6 with starting exp in '09 and moved all the way up to #37. LY they had to replace 2 st's (2nd Tm B12 FS). I said they were the most exp'd they'd been at CB in 4 yrs but with the loss of 2 top-notch S's, they may drop. They did add 3 VHT true frosh in Tyler Stephenson (PS#49, 4 st), Prince Kent (PS#46, 8 tk) and Dixon (16 tk). BU surprisingly dropped down to #91 all g 265 ypg (#114 FBS). This year they lose HRO Byron Landon (13 st, #1 tk/r, 1 int, 5 pbu) who earned B12 DPOW twice, CB Mikail Baker (9 st, #7 tk/r, 1 int, 3 pbu, #7DC STL), FS Tim Atchison (13 st, 2 tk/r, 1 int, 8 pbu), CB Antares Bryan (2 st, 14 tk, 4 pbu) and Clifton Odom (2 st, 10 tk). This unit is less exp'd but they could improve after their lowest finish in my PDR in 5 yrs.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Thanks to the presence of two-time Ray Guy Award winner Daniel Sepulveda, Baylor finished #28 in my ST rankings in '04, #14 in '05 and #32 in '06. BU dropped to #119 in '07 without him. Briles' last 4 teams at Houston only had ST rankings of #115, #106, #92 and #90 but I still expected improvement in '08. P Derek Epperson greatly improved his net (38.8) and Mikail Baker avg 25.3 on KR's. Baylor moved up to #42. In '09 Epperson avg 44.8 (tm net 35.9). Baker tore his ACL in Wk 3 (Terrance Williams, 24, 1) and the Bears finished #87. LY Aaron "The Stork" Jones (19-27) hit BU's first 50 yd FG (2 on ssn) S/'01 and it cleared the crossbar by 10 yds vs KU. Epperson improved to a 38.0 net and Ben Parks had 11 TB on 74 KO. The return game was avg and BU finished just #74. This year they lose their star, Epperson, but should still land near LY's finish.

COACHES - In '08 BU brought in a proven winner in Art Briles who guided Stephenville HS (TX) to 4 State Titles (90-2-1 in 6Y stretch). In his 5 yrs at Houston the Cougars went to 4 bowls. After a pair of 4-8 seasons Briles led the Bears to their first bowl S/'94. Co-OC's Randy Clements and Philip Montgomery followed him from Houston but Briles calls the plays himself. They add a veteran in new DC Phil Bennett who has 18 yrs of exp as a DC, most recently at Pitt ('08-'10). Bennett was the HC at SMU from '02-'07 and also the interim HC for Pitt's bowl win last year.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Baylor has been the worst team in Big 12 history with an 18-102 league record. Heading into '06, the Bears were outscored in B12 play by 35.8, 32.5, 27.5, 34.2, 30.7, 21.3 and 13.0 ppg. In '06 Baylor jumped out to 3-1 in the B12 but lost their final 4 (last 3 by 34, 42 and 26). Their 3 Big 12 wins were the most ever but they were still a Big 12 worst -134.2 ypg. They finished 4-8 after an ill-timed Q switch. BU only had 11 ret st's in '07 and finished 0-8 in the Big 12 (-181.4 ypg). In Art Briles' first year ('08) they had 15 st's back. True frosh QB Robert Griffin had them exceeding expectations. They snapped a 13 gm B12 losing streak (38-10 over Iowa St). BU also got their 2nd win vs A&M since 1985, 41-21 in their FHG. They led TT 28-14 in the 3Q but lost for a 13th straight losing yr. The Bears were -83.0 ypg in league play (8th best) but benefitted from +16 in TO's. In '09 they had just 3 B12 HG's and then lost QB Griffin to injury and finished just 4-8 with a league worst -125.3 LY. Baylor actually made my Most Improved List which meant that I was calling for them to get to their first bowl since 1994! The return of Griffin was huge. They were picked to finish last in the Big 12 South by the media but finished 4th, their highest finish ever in the Big 12 South! The Bears did lose to TCU 45-10 and then in an early showdown vs TT, lost by 7 in the Cotton Bowl and stood 4-2. They trailed Colo 15-7 but rallied for a 31-25 win (CU fumbled into the EZ for a TB 3Q). BU led Kan St 47-28 but allowed a td with :07 left to only win by 5 but the win still secured bowl eligibility for the first time S/'95. The Bears trailed Texas 19-10 but got the comeback win 30-22 for their 1st win in Austin S/'91. They moved to #22 for a showdown vs Okla St in which they were throttled. BU led A&M 30-21 at half but missed 27 and 39 yd FG's in the 2H and lost 42-30. They trailed Okla 53-10 after 3Q's. In the bowl the Bears were dominated by 6-6 Illinois 38-14. Overall BU beat one FBS team that finished with a winning record (K-St 7-6). They had over 40,000 avg att for first time since 1995. Their 6 losses were by an avg of 22 ppg but they were +39.3 ypg in B12 play benefiting from not playing Neb or Missouri out of the North. Baylor also benefitted from just 4 st's lost due to inj all year and now lose their 1st pair of #1 DC's since 1957 and scored their most pts ever in my Draft Day Hangover article (16, pg 308). The Bears set or tied 55 offensive school records in '10 and showed impressive balance with 471 pass att's and 468 rush. This yr they have 14 ret st's (only 12 LY) including Griffin and 3 of my 9 sets of power ratings (incl my main one) call for 6 wins.

LY BU was dominated by its old conf rival as #4 TCU scored TD's on their 1st 5 drives building a 35-3 lead & 335-72 yd edge at HT. BU is 0-3 vs TCU with an avg loss by 24 ppg since the SWC split.

Texas Tech: LY Griffin had career highs in att (42) and comp (31) vs Texas Tech. The game saw 4 lead changes & 3 ties. Baylor is 5-4 in home openers but 3 wins were vs FCS teams.

BU is 3-0 vs instate SFA w/3 shutouts but last played in '47. Lumberjacks went 9-3 LY (FCS playoffs) incl a 48-7 loss vs A&M in College Station. Bears are 10-0 S'01 vs FCS opp's (avg win by 32 ppg).

BU has won 5 str over Rice by an avg 19 ppg. LY on a rain soaked field the Bears trailed 3-0 but led 27-6 into the 4Q. The Bears have won 7 str at home vs non-conf/non-BCS opponents (avg score 42-12).

LY Finley rushed for a BU rec 250 yds & Griffin threw for a career high 404 yds as BU became bowl eligible for the 1st time S'94. BU is just 5-54 in B12 AG's but won 2 LY for the 1st time in the same ssn.

BU is 2-5 vs ISU S'97 and lost 24-10 in '09 (L/meeting). The Bears did lead 3-0 before 27 unanswered by the Cyclones. BU is 4-13 their L/17 gms at Floyd Casey Stadium vs the B12.

LY BU had leads of 10-0 & 30-14 in the 1H only to be shutout in the 2H. Bears all'd a 84 yd KR and were foiled by problems in the kicking gm missing 27 & 39 yd FG's, saw a 3rd blk'd & missed an XP.

Texas: Last year BU broke a 12 game series losing streak & hasn't beaten UT in B2B years since 1991 & 1992. Bonus: Baylor is just 3-12 in home finales since 1996.

The last time that BU won in Stillwater was in 1939! Including LY the Bears have dropped 9 str trips by 26 ppg (none closer than 13 pts). L2Y vs OSU BU has trailed 34-0 in each.

In the L/meeting ('09) BU snapped a 7 gm series losing streak. The Bears trailed 27-16 at HT but held the Tigers to just 3 FD's & 35 yds on their 1st 5 2H poss building a 40-29 lead.

The closest KU got LY was 17-7 mid-2Q before BU scored the gms final 38 pts. The Bears 48 pt MOV was the largest in conf play S'22 (SWC) and the 55 pts the most vs an current FBS tm S'83 (56 vs TCU).

OU is the only team (at least 5 gms played) that BU has never beaten in school history (0-20). LY BU trailed 53-10 into the 4Q as 131 yds (36%) & 8 FD's (40%) came in the final stanza.

Briles is a 1979 grad of TT & prior to his HC jobs at UH/BU was the RB coach there from '00-'02.

LY Bears trailed 19-10 early 3Q but scored 20 unanswered in the biggest win under HC Briles.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Austen Arnaud (PS#26) split time with Phillip Bates (PS#30) early while also battling a shoulder injury. Bates quit midseason. Arnaud did great in the final 2 with 326 vs Missouri (school rec 36 comp) and a school rec 440 vs K-St (Todd Bandhauer, 437 in '98 vs Texas). He threw for 2,792 (62%, 15-10) and was the #2 rusher (401, 3.7). In '09 Arnaud had to learn his 3rd offense in 3 yrs under new OC Tom Herman. Arnaud was banged up and rfr Jerome Tiller started 2 (incl upset Neb). Tiller threw for 376 (56%, 1-4) in 7 gms. Arnaud threw for 2,015 (59%, 14-13) and was the #2 rusher (561, 3.8). In '10 Arnaud threw for 1,703 (59%, 13-10) and was the #2 rusher (287, 2.8) before suffering a career ending knee inj vs Col. Tiller hit just 13-31 in his start in the finale vs Missouri (shutout loss) and played in 7 overall throwing for 363 (47.6%, 1-0). In the 4 Tiller has started or played most of the game, ISU has avg 11.5 ppg. Rfr James Capello did not throw a pass but had a 19 yd run vs Utah in his only real action. This year Arnaud departs (11 st) and battling Tiller will be Capello, rfr Jared Barnett, Brett Bueker (6'4" 237 Jr, PS#292), Ryan Gent (6'2" 193 So), Austin McBeth (6'0" 190 Jr) and Wes Steeper (6'3" 193 Fr). I expect PS#88JC Steele Jantz to win the job which the staff claimed was wide open following the spg. Naturally replacing their #2 career passer and a 3 year st'r, this unit figures to be down a few notches.

RUNNING BACKS - Former HC Dan McCarney did a great job developing RB's. They had a 1,000 yd rusher in each of his first 7 yrs. However, from '01-'08 the team had just one 1,000 yd rusher. Alexander Robinson (PS#113) led in '07 with 465 (3.9). He was plodding along with 230 in the 1st 6 of '08 but ended up with 703 (4.6). He was a workout warrior in the offseason and despite missing 12Q's in '09, Robinson still became ISU's 1st 1,000 yd rusher S/'04 (1195, 5.2). Robinson was bothered by a foot injury LY and saw his numbers drop to 946 (4.7). True frosh Shontrelle Johnson (PS#114) had 102 vs TT (218, 6.2) and rfr Jeff Woody was #4 (191, 4.1). Woody is more of a bruising runner than either Robinson or Johnson. They didn't have a 100 yd rusher in the first 4 but in their meeting with TT it marked the first time that they had a pair of 100 yd backs in the same gm since their '04 bowl. The Cyclones figure to be down a few notches losing Robinson (3,309 car rush yds).

RECEIVERS - In '08 the Cyclones had to replace their top WR, Darius Darks (PS#197) set a school frosh record with 477 (9.7). In '09 they had to replace their #1 rec (750) and #2 Darks was banged up early. Marquis Hamilton, who had a combined 835 (11.7) in '07 and '08, led with 606 (12.1). Former walk-on Jake Williams was #2 (403, 11.2) and Darks was #3 (303, 10.8) starting just 9. Darius Reynolds (PS#74JC) was their top rec when he was in'd in Wk 4 and OFY. LY they had to replace the #1 guy again. One of the focuses in the spring was to increase the team's 10.9 ypc and get the vertical passing game going. That did not happen as ISU dropped to 9.9 ypc. LY TE Collin Franklin (12 st), who has excellent size and speed, led with 530 (9.8). Williams was #2 (404, 11.5), Darks was #3 (8 st, 355, 12.2) and Reynolds #4 (283, 11.3, 6 st). This year they lose Franklin (12 st), Williams (11 st) and Sedrick Johnson (6 st, 16 rec). Not in the PSL are WR's Matt Van Dyke (5'9" 157 Jr), Ben Dinkins (6'0" 185 So) and TE's Vince Ewald (6'6" 237 Jr, 2 gm LY) and Patrick Mulcahy (6'5" 212 So). Despite not being as exp'd, they should improve the ypc this season.

OFFENSIVE LINE - After bottoming out in '06 with just 102 ypg rush (3.0) and allowing 38 sks, the Cyclones made improvement to this unit in both of Chizik's 2 seasons here. In Paul Rhoads' first season, OC Herman called the OL the strength of the offense and they improved to 180 ypg (4.5) with just 16 sks (4.2%). LY they lost a 1st Tm B12 C (#7DC) then lost starting RG Scott Haughton (13 sts '09) over the summer (3 sts ret). The Cyclones surprisingly slipped to 143 ypg (3.8) while allowing 33 sks (8.8%). This year they lose 2nd Tm B12 C Ben Lamaak (12 st), LG Alex Alvarez (12 st, 3Y st'r) and LG Sean Smith (1 st). With 3 st's back they are equal in exp to '10 but should produce better numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 ISU had to replace both starting DT's (#6DC) and they allowed 176 ypg (4.8) while the D had just 17 sks. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's and 3 bkps but ret'd DE Christopher Lyle who led the DL in both sks and tkls (38) as a bkp in '08. Their top DE Rashawn Parker was lost after 4 (inj) but surprisingly their numbers improved (166 ypg, 4.4, 16 sk). LY they had to replace 2 st's but got Parker back. Their numbers slipped to 186 ypg (4.4) with just 11 sks (fewest in over 10Y). This year they lose DE Parker (11 st, 30 tkl, 3 flt), DT Bailey Johnson (8 st, 20 tkl, 5 flt) and DT Taylor Mansfield (2 st, 9 tkl). They have 2 st's back again but have 5 who started LY and add JC Rony Nelson (16.5 sks at JC in '09, RS '10). Adding depth is Kody Sjoberg (6'1" 239 rfr). While this unit is on par with '10 in terms of exp, I look for improved numbers.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 ISU had an exp'd LB corps and all'd just 21.8 ppg. LY they had to replace 5 senior LB's incl all 3 st's (#1, #3, #10 tkl's). They ret'd 0 career sts (just 59 car tkl) and I called it my major ? on the tm. The Cyclones slipped to allowing 28.8 ppg. MLB Matt Tau'fo'u broke his leg in the 1Q vs Iowa and they had to go to a nickle D for the rest of that game. At the end of the year, soph's Jake Knott (PS#133) and AJ Klein (PS#141) were playing almost every snap (#1, #2 tkl's). This year they only lose Preston Kaufman (1 tkl) and have five of the top 6 back making them the polar opposite of '10 in terms of exp.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Cyclones finished #118 in my PDR in '06, #108 in '07 and dead last at #119 in '08 (67%, 31-11). In '09 they had to replace 2 st's but with only one way to go, they moved up to #86 (62%, 23-15). LY they had to replace 2 st's again and finished a respectable #80. This year they lose SS David Sims (11 st, #3 tkl's, 1 int, 4 pbu), FS Michael O'Connell (9 st, #6 tkl's, 1 int, 2 pbu) and FS Zac Sandvig (4 st, 45 tkl, 1 int). They have 33 sts from '10 back (35 LY). Not in the PSL is Jace Hawley (5'9" 194 So). With 3 upperclassmen st's including top cover CB Leonard Johnson, I will call for the Cyclones to have their best finish in my PDR since '05 (#32).

SPECIAL TEAMS - ISU was #40 in my ST rankings in '08. Everyone ret'd in '09 and they were #31. LY they had to replace their P (38.3 tm net). True frosh Kirby Van Der Kamp (PS#34) stepped in and avg 45.2 (38.2 tm net). Against TT, Jeremy Reeves scooped up an onside kick with 1:22 left and got ISU's first KR to S/'94 and only the 2nd KR to in Jack Trice Stadium history. Josh Lenz (10.4) also had ISU's first PR to S/'06 vs Kansas. In '09 Grant Mahoney became the first K in school history with 3 FG's of 50+ in one season (13-20, L52). LY his numbers dropped to 8-17 as he missed 8 of his LY9 although he did nail the 4th longest FG in school history (57 yd) vs Neb (Ty Stewart took 58 yd FG's in '93, Alex Giffords 58 in '79). Four of his misses were from 50+ and keep in mind he does play his home games in infamously windy conditions. Mahoney also had 16 TB on 52 KO. Shontrelle Johnson was the top KR (23.4). ISU dipped to #66 but with all of the top guys back, will make a move up in my rankings.

COACHES - It was a pretty surprising '09 offseason as Gene Chizik (5-19 in 2Y here) left for Auburn in what turned out to be a trade of sorts as Auburn's DC Paul Rhoads came to Iowa St as the new HC. Rhoads, who was the DC at Pitt from 2000-'07, led ISU to its first bowl since '05. OC Tom Herman is in his 3rd yr here after 2 very successful yrs as the OC at Rice and also was the OC at Texas St ('05-'06). The DC is Wally Burnham (3rd yr) who was USF's DC for 8 yrs. Burnham has a bend-but-don't-break philosophy and his '09 squad had the FBS's #2 RZ defense.

PHIL'S FORECAST

After going 13-42 in his first 5 yrs, Dan McCarney went on a streak of 25-15 including 2-0 to open '03. ISU was ranked as high as #9 in '02 but the '03 team was injury-plagued and dropped their last 10 finishing an amazing -261.7 ypg and -34 ppg (B12 worst). In '04 I picked them to finish ahead of Nebraska (10-3 in '03!) in the B12 North. ISU did not disappoint me. They very nearly took home the undisputed Big 12 North Title (missed FG vs MO in OT loss). In '05, they made it to their 5th bowl in 6 yrs despite suffering 3 net close losses. In '06 they had a young defense and despite a 4-8 finish, I was very surprised McCarney was let go. Gene Chizik, who in 2 yrs at Auburn already has a National Title, was just 5-19 here going 2-14 in conf play. In '09 Paul Rhoads inherited 15 ret st's, the most S/'99 and ISU had 3 net close losses in '08. ISU caught some breaks like Neb fumbling 4 times inside the 5, 2 into the EZ for TB's (+8 TO, 1st win at NU S/'77). Colo had just 3 pts on 4 RZ trips and in the bowl ISU got past Minny 14-13 for their first winning season since '05. They did benefit from a high def ypg of 19.0 (pg 299) and despite their 3-5 B12 record, were -94.0 ypg (2nd worst). LY they were the only team in the North to draw OU and Texas and I said while they were improved, they would drop below .500. I was surprised when ISU rolled up 52 pts vs TT to move to 3-2 and then led Utah 14-10 after 1Q but lost by 41. After losing to OU 52-0, they were a massive dog to #22 Texas but pulled the road upset and the Governor of Iowa called the win historic. They rallied from a halftime deficit to get past Kansas 28-16 and needed just one more win for a bowl. The Cyclones almost upset Neb as ISU missed a 55 yd FG with 3:19 left and in OT faked an xp in which the receiver was open but the pass got hung up in the wind and was int'd in a 1 pt loss. They trailed CU 34-7 early 4Q and lost by 20. With QB Arnaud out vs Missouri, they played well (332-306 yd) but lost 14-0. ISU was -85.6 ypg in B12 play (3rd worst) but finished 3-5 and in a tie for 3rd place in the North, which was higher than I'd expected. This year ISU has 5 of their 9 B12 games on the road and LY had just 7 sts lost to injury. They also have just 12 ret st's (tied fewest B12) along with just 64.9% lettermen returning. While Rhoads has surpassed my expectations both years, with Iowa and Conn on the non-conf slate, I will call for a 2nd straight losing year in what looks like a rebuilding season.

101 BIG 12 • BIG 12

KANSAS JAYHAWKS

DE Toben Oporum

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In former HC Mark Mangino's first 5 yrs he used 9 diff QB's and only once in that span did they top 55.9% for the season. In '06 three QB's started and then Mangino took the RS off true frosh Todd Reesing (PS#95) in the 9th gm and he finished with 204 (58%, 3-3). Despite being just 5'11" and not having a cannon for an arm, Reesing threw for 3,486 (62%) with a 33-7 ratio (2nd Tm B12) in '07. He began his career 11-0 as the starting QB and went on to become KU's career passing leader. Reesing's best season was his junior yr ('08) when he hit a schl rec 66.5% (3888, 32-13). In one gm as a Sr he was actually benched for rFr Kale Pick (PS#51) who played in 7 (167 rush, 5 passes) and had KU's 2 longest runs of the season (32 & 55). Pick started but struggled in the '10 opener and ended the season at WR. Jordan Webb (PS#40) came in off the bench in the opener and led the upset over GT. He and Pick were banged up and they burned the RS of JC Quinn Mecham who had 4 sts. Reesing had eighteen 300+ gms in his career but KU had zero LY. Webb threw for 1,195 (56.5%, 7-8) while Mecham threw for 554 (59.8%, 4-5). Webb and RB James Sims became the first frosh tandem to lead KU in pass and rush in the same season S/'80 (QB Frank Seurer, RB Kerwin Bell). Webb has the strongest arm of the QB's and is a fiery, emotional leader. Mecham is accurate and unflappable. They add in Brock Berglund, a dual threat true frosh who I project to become the st'r. No matter who wins the job, I look for improved QB play.

RUNNING BACKS - In '09 true frosh Toben Oporum (PS#74) led with 554 (4.2) despite missing the last gm. LY Oporum was moved to DE so the only RB with exp was Angus Quigley (309, 5.2 '08) who ply'd LB in '09. HC Gill did a great job at Buffalo producing top-notch RB's. In Aug Gill said he'd use a RB rotation of Quigley, diminutive rFr Deshaun Sands and Reil Lewis (72, 5.5 '09) but all 3 suffered inj's with Lewis OFY (knee). True frosh James Sims (PS#80) did not have a carry in the opener but became the first frosh in school history to rush for 100 in his first gm (101 vs GT). Sims also had 115 (7.2) vs NMSt and 123 (6.2) vs Colo, the only 3 gms they won! He was the first frosh RB to have multiple 100 yd gms since Clark Green in '02. Sims scored 3 td's (4 in gm) in the last 11:00 vs Colo and also operated as the Wildcat QB. He lost just 7 yds all year and led with 742 (4.4). Quigley finished with 262 (3.7) while Sands had 211 (3.8). They now add in Missouri's all-time leading HS rusher Darrian Miller. Not in the PSL are Lewis (5'9" 205 Jr, PS#179), Ryan Burton (5'9" 187 So) and FB Christian Lane (6'2" 232 rFr). This year they only loses Quigley (5 st) and FB Steven Foster (8 gm). The unit is vastly more exp'd and Sims is actually the slowest of the RB's as they added sp'd with 3 true frosh.

RECEIVERS - In '08 Dezmon Briscoe and conv QB Kerry Meier became the only WR combo in the country to each top 90 rec (both 1000+ yds). Johnathan Wilson finished #3 (573, 13.3)

as KU operated mostly in a 4-WR set (TE's 3 st, 8 rec). In '09 they were 1-2-3 again. Meier became the career leader in rec's and he led with 102 rec (9.7). Briscoe led with 1,337 yds (15.9) and the two comb for 17 td's. Wilson had 449 (12.8). LY they had to replace Meier (#5DC) and Briscoe (#6DC). 5'9" Daymond Patterson, the tm's fastest player, surprisingly led with just 487 (8.1) and 6'2" Wilson was #2 with 387 (10.2). Bradley McDougald (PS#52) was #3 (240, 12.6) before moving to S for the last 3. DJ Beshears (5'8") had his RS taken off to play CB for 4 gms in '09. He moved to WR and then ply'd RB due to inj's. He was the #3 rusher and their top KR, and had 3 td's vs NMSt (2 rush, 1 KR). TE Tim Bieri (PS#46) was #4 (228, 12.0). TY they lose Wilson (12 st) and McDougald (move DB). Not in the PSL are WR's Brian Maura (6'4" 190 rFr), Connor Embree (5'11" 175 rFr) and TE's Trent Smiley (6'4" 232 rFr), Chris McEnaney (6'3" 228 rFr) and Justin Puthoff (6'3" 252 So). This unit will have better stats after the top 4 comb'd for just 1,342 (9.9) LY compared to Briscoe's 1,337 (15.9) in '09.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Kansas had to replace 3 OL st'r's in both '08 and '09 and saw the numbers drop to 127 ypg rush (3.7) and 112 (3.5). LY the entire 2 deep ret'd but they lost RT Jeff Spikes in Aug (4 st'r back). The numbers did improve to 135 ypg (3.4) but the sks rose to 37 (10.5%), their highest since the B12 started ('96). This year they lose LG Sal Capra (12 st, 2Y st'r), RT Brad Thorson (12 st, 2Y st'r) and Alex Smith (9 gm). With Spikes' return, it's like having four full-time st'r's back. The unit has 97 career sts (62 in '10). They are also in the 2nd year of Gill's system and should be much stronger.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 KU had 6 of their top 8 DL's back and while they all'd just 123 ypg rush (3.9), it was their highest total since '03 (28 sks). They had 3 st'r's back in '09 but were inexp'd at LB. The numbers were similar (138, 4.0, 30 sk). LY they had to replace 3 DL (comb 24 sts). An opposing coach commented that KU did not have a single DT that would start for another B12 team. After 6 gms, the DL did not have a single sack and they moved Toben Oporum from RB to DE (L6 st) with Kevin Young (1st 6 st) moving to DT. KU was run over allowing 205 ypg rush (5.0), their worst S/'02 and the DL had just 8 sk (14 tfl). This year they lose DE Jake Laptad (12 st, 38 tkl, 4.5 sk) and DE Quintin Woods (13 tkl). They have 4 back who have started 6+ and should have greatly improved numbers.

LINERACKERS - In '08 KU's LB's ret'd intact and the st'r's finished #1, #3 and #4 tkl's but surprisingly the D allowed 397 ypg and 28.8 ppg, their highest in 5 yrs. In '09 they had just 6 career sts back and in Sept Mangino said the only guaranteed st'r was true frosh Hulton Tharp (PS#88). They used a 2 LB set 80% of the time and all'd 28.4 ppg. LY they had to replace 1 st'r (#6 tkl'r) and then lost Tharp (#5 tkl'r in '09) prior to the season so they had just 1 st'r back in Drew Dudley (#2 tkl'r). KU allowed 34.4 ppg (most S/'02). This year they lose MLB Justin Springer (12 st, #2 tkl'r, 8 tfl) and Dudley (3 st, #4 tkl'r, 5 tfl). They add in Buffalo transfer Darius Willis (PS#72), their #1 tkl'r Steven Johnson returns and they also welcomed back Tharp. Tyler Hunter (6'2" 240 Jr, 10 gm on ST LY) also moves over from FB. KU also adds some speedy recruits and despite losing 2 st'r's will be improved.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Led by its star CB Aqib Talib, KU finished #11 in the PDR in '07. In '08 they had 3 st'r's back but lost Talib (#1DC) and I called for a drop and they fell to #43. In '09 they had all 4 st'r's back but only finished #50. LY they lost 4 DB's (comb 30 sts, #4DC). Gill said in April that the secondary was one of the tm's strongest positions and they played a lot more man-to-man. Bradley McDougald signed with KU because Ohio St wanted him at S (he wanted WR), started 10 at WR but moved to SS (2 sts). Despite Gill's confidence, KU finished #109 in the PDR (65.7%, 18-7). TY they lose 3 tkl'r Chris Harris (12 st, 82 tkl, 1 pbu), SS Olaitan Ogundotun (7 st, #5 tkl'r, 2 pbu) and CB Calvin Rubles (1 st, 23 tkl). They do ret 5 who have started 5+. In the 2nd yr of the new D, this should be a much improved secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS - KU finished #38, #29 and #47 in my ST rankings from 2004-'06 but surprisingly dropped to #92 in '07 & #90 in '08. In '09 they only had to replace their KR (15.4). K Jacob Branstetter hit 13-19 (57 ydr, 4th longest KU hist). P Alonso Rojas (PS#43) improved to 41.4 ypp (34.7 tm net). The unit moved up to #65. Gill's 4 units at Buffalo ('06-'09) finished #94, #71, #109 and #117. LY they only had to replace their top KR and LS but surprisingly plummeted to #116. They had not all'd a blk'd punt since '06 but gave up 3 LY. Branstetter hit just 8-14 FG (L42, 2-8 40+). Their PR's were poor (3.8) but Beshears broke Marcus Herford's school record for KR yds (922, 25.6, 1 td). Although they now lose their K and P, KU should actually improve as the added sp'd of the '11 signees will help.

COACHES - The Mark Mangino era came to an ugly end but he left the program in much better shape than when he took over. Turner Gill is in his 2nd season after 4 yrs at Buffalo (20-30, MAC Title '08). Gill was a longtime off asst at Neb and a Heisman finalist as a QB there. Former SDSt HC Chuck Long (9-27 '06-'08) handled the OC duties LY. Long was the OC at Okla ('02-'05) and was a Heisman runner-up QB at Iowa. TY they add co-OC David Beatty who was the WR chl here ('08-'09) and spent LY as the Rice OC. The DC is Carl Torbush who also has HC exp (LA Tech '87 & NC '98-'00). More recently he was the DC at Miss St ('09), Tex A&M ('03-'05) and Alabama ('01-'02).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Prior to '07, KU had never finished in the upper half of the Big 12 North. Its best conf record since the B12's inception (1996) was 3-5 and they were 23-65 in 11 yrs. In '02 Mangino inherited just 8 ret st'r's (KU -219.5 ypg in '01). I called for a winless B12 season and KU went 0-8 in '02 (-31.9 ppg). Mangino weeded out a lot of bad apples (31 '02 underclassmen left by start of '03) and KU went to their first bowl S/'95 in '03 (6-7). They were 4-7 in '04. KU was picked 6th in the North (media) in '05 but made my Most Improved List and KU earned its first winning season (7-5) since 1995 and waxed Houston 42-13 in the bowl. In '06 they suffered 4 close losses (led in 2H of 5 losses) to finish just 6-6 (no bowl). In '07 KU avoided TX and OU and had a dream year. They went 7-0 at home and were a shocking #2 when they lost to #3 Missouri. They were picked for their first Orange Bowl S/'69 where they knocked off VT to finish #7 at 12-1. In '08 I pointed out that KU was +21 in TO's and had just 3 sts lost in '07 and got OU and Texas back on the slate. I didn't make KU fans happy when I was the only publication the only preseason source that did not have them in my Top 25 (3rd in North). KU opened #14 and even had some good fortune (see '10 mag) but finished 8-5 (unranked). Despite a 4-4 Big 12 record they were -36.7 ypg in conf play (6th worst). It did, however give them a 4th straight ssn with 6+ wins (last time 1903-1906). Their 20 wins in 2 yrs were a schl rec and they had their first ever B2B bowls. I didn't make many friends in Kansas again in '09. KU was picked first in the North by most magazines. I picked KU FOURTH in the North and things did not look good for my prediction early on. KU got a couple of fortuitous wins and opened 5-0 (#17) but went on to lose their final 7 and Mangino was shown the door. LY's squad was not as strong as the '09 version but they had a softer schedule so Turner Gill stepped into what appeared to be a good situation. After they stunningly lost to NDSt in the opener 6-3, they knocked off #15 GT. They were 2-2 when they lost their next 3 by a combined 159-24. After a QB change they led ISU (off big win over Texas) 9-7 at half. KU blew that lead in the 2H and lost by 12. When all appeared lost KU pulled off the greatest comeback in schl hist. Trailo Colo 45-17 in the 4Q they scored td's on their last 5 poss (plus a FR td) in a 52-45 win. They took on the #9, #12 and #15 tms in the final 3 and lost by 17, 34 and 28. KU finished 1-7 and their -219.4 ypg in conf play was 121.5 worse than the #11 tm. Although this is a much stronger KU team with 15 ret st'r's in Gill's 2nd season, the schedule does them no favors and they will struggle to top LY's 3 win total.

First meeting: KU is 17-3 in their home opener but lost 17 to N Dakota St in HC Gill's KU debut. The Cowboys last FBS win was in '07 (Louisiana) & went 6-5 LY incl Ls at Missouri (50-6) & LSU (32-10).

Just one prior meeting between these schools (1983), as NIU won 37-34 in Lawrence. KU is just 7-6 vs current MAC tms. Into 2011, KU is 22-1 in non-conf HG's (2-1 LY).

LY these tms combined for 4 lead changes & 2 ties as KU stopped GT on 4&8 from the KU40 w/1:00 left. It marked Gill's 1st win as KU's HC coming the wk after the NDSU loss.

Iowa St: LY in Ames, Quinn Mecham made his 1st career FBS start going 22-33-67%-149-1-1. Baylor: LY KU all'd 678 yds to BU (most S'88, 680 vs Auburn) incl 6 TD drives of 72+ yds each.

KU has dropped 4 str vs TT and is just 1-11 all-time. In the L/meeting ('09) KU lost by 21 pts but 4 TD's resulted in 28 TT pts as KU led 21-14 into the 4Q (2-1 2Q poss ended in fumbles).

KU has won 5 of 7 L/trips to Stillwater incl '07 when they had 529 yds pulling away w/10 unanswered late. Gill was 3-0 as Neb's starting QB vs OSU ('81-'83) & Gundy was 4-0 as OSU's QB vs KU ('86-'89).

Jayhawks have dropped 6 str to the Sooners by an avg 22 ppg (no gm closer than 14 pts). In the L/gm ('09) KU held OU to 100 yds below its ssn avg but had 3 costly int's (2 resulted in 14 pts).

KU has dropped 2 str Sunflower Showdowns and is just 4-14 S'93 vs in-state rival KSU. LY after holding KSU to a punt & FG on their 1st 2 poss, KU allowed 6 str TD drives & a 85 yd FR TD to trail 52-0.

The last time KU beat UT was in 1938 as they have dropped all eight conf meetings. KU has been outscored 176-34 their L/3 trips to Austin. In '09 (L/meeting) KU was outgained by 229 yds (-13 FO).

Prior to LY's loss KU had won 5 str vs ISU. KU is 14-6 vs ISU S'91 & hasn't dropped B2B gms S'01 & '02.

HT is 7-0 in B12 meetings & in Lawrence, KU has avg 44 ppg winning by an avg 30 ppg.

KU is 2-8 vs A&M but won their last trip to Kyle Field ('07) holding the Aggies to 318 yds w/a ssn high 4 sks.

Series began in 1891, 2nd longest nationally (longest west of Mississippi, 119 gms). This is the 5th str ssn played at Arrowhead (KU 1-3). Kansas hasn't dropped 3 straight in series since '86-'88.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 ACC FORECAST

ATLANTIC DIVISION 1. FLORIDA ST - Eight of my 9 sets of my power ratings call FSU the most talented team in the ACC and predict an 8-0 ACC record. The Seminoles rank #1 in 6 of the 9 units that I list on the next page. They also draw both Duke and Virginia out of the Coastal. FSU has not won an ACC Title in 5 years but deserves to be the preseason favorite this year and is a legitimate National Title contender.

2. CLEMSON - Clemson is off a rare 6-7 losing season (first since 1998) and draws both VT and UNC out of the Coastal. They lose their top 2 defensive players including Da'Quan Bowers who had 15.5 sacks but brought in a great recruiting class and were actually better than their final record in '10. They had 4 net close losses (pg 299) and could easily have won games LY vs Auburn, Miami, UNC and FSU. Clemson makes my Most Improved List (pg 19).

3. NC STATE - I have not had a good pulse on NCSt the last several years. Two years ago I called them one of my Most Improved Teams and I was very disappointed in their 5-7 finish vs a soft schedule. LY I was with the majority of preseason publications picking NCSt near the bottom of the ACC but HC Tom O'Brien had his best season as QB Russell Wilson opted to return and they finished tied for 2nd in the Atlantic. Wilson will not be returning this year but O'Brien has compared new QB Mike Glennon to Matt Ryan. The Wolfpack has a softer schedule than it did LY and will find itself back in the postseason.

4. BOSTON COLLEGE - BC has a tough schedule as they must play both Miami and VT on the road out of the Coastal and as you can see, I have them rated as the top 2 teams. BC does have my #4 rated defense in the league and will have an improved offense. LY they opened up 2-5 and won their last 5 to get to a bowl and this year figures to be the opposite as they could possibly open as strong as 5-0 but have a grueling schedule over the last 7 including 5 road trips. Despite the tough schedule, BC has an excellent shot at another bowl and will get much improved QB play.

5. MARYLAND - The middle of the ACC Atlantic is very close but I had to pick one of the teams for #5. HC Randy Edsall gets the most out of his teams each and every year. As an example, LY Connecticut was actually outgained by 86.1 ypg in Big East play (2nd worst mark in the league) but managed to win the title and appear in the Fiesta Bowl. Edsall takes over a Maryland team that perhaps also overachieved a little last year just missing out on an ACC Atlantic Title despite being +13.1 ypg (7th best). LY's team was +15 in TO's, had 3 net close wins and an offensive ypp of 10.95 (#2 NCAA).

6. WAKE FOREST - WF was outgained in ACC play by 166 ypg which is 71 ypg more than the 2nd worst team. That means they have a lot of ground to make up. This WF team is a much more veteran squad as they have 17 ret st's (#2 ACC) after having just 13 LY. They play in the tough Atlantic, draw VT and UNC out of the Coastal and also have non-conf games vs Notre Dame and at Syracuse. This is a much improved team but it may not show much in the record.

ACC Notes: FSU K Dustin Hopkins' 55 yd FG to beat Clemson was the longest FG as time expired in ACC history. This could be a special year for the ACC which has not really been a national player in recent seasons. There is a possibility that there could be a 12-0 Florida St vs a 12-0 Virginia Tech with a berth in the National Title game on the line when they play the ACC Title game. The ACC has actually had just ONE team win a BCS bowl game since 1999 and that was Virginia Tech in 2008. The last 2 years they have lost by 28 and 10 pts. The conf has had 0 teams finish in the Top Ten in '06, '08 and '10 but did have 2 in '07 (VT & BC) and one in '09 (VT). The ACC is just 13-21 in bowl games overall the last 4 years. Florida St had been the preseason favorite COASTAL DIVISION 1. VIRGINIA TECH - This may not be HC Frank Beamer's most talented squad but as you and I both know, each year he gets the most out of what he has on hand. Logan Thomas (6'6") is going to be a surprising QB and Bud Foster's defense, which allowed 362 ypg LY (#52 FBS), will regain its swagger (#1, #1, #4, #7 and #12 from '05-'09). The schedule sets up a lot like Auburn's did LY with all of the tough opponents at home and a manageable road slate and 8 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for VT to be 12-0 in the regular season.

2. MIAMI - HC Al Golden steps into a solid situation as Miami has underachieved each of the last 2 years. They've had arguably the most talent in the ACC but were just 28-23 overall the last 4 years. Last year Miami outgained ACC foes by 107 ypg which was the best mark in the conf but still finished 5-3. This is a team that needs to cut down on the int's and if they get improved QB play this year, they could make some noise despite drawing the toughest schedule of any ACC team. Miami has to play 3 potential top 25 ACC teams on the road in VT, NC and FSU and also plays Ohio St in non-conf action. Despite the schedule, I give Miami an excellent shot at a double digit win season for the first time S/'03.

3. NORTH CAROLINA - UNC had an amazing 89 starts lost to either injuries or susp's LY which sort of reminds me of Utah (see Surprise Team pg 20). Due to those inj's and susp, the Tar Heels have much more exp than just their 13 returning starters. NC gets a key game vs Miami at home and while they play VT on the road on a Thursday night, keep in mind they won in Blacksburg in 2009 and have a bye the week prior. I'll call for the Tar Heels to have at least 9 wins which will be the first time in 14 years.

4. GEORGIA TECH - This is a team where I have to throw the power ratings out. In HC Paul Johnson's first 2 years his GT squads finished higher than I expected including an ACC Title in 2009. After being +68.1 and +92.0 in ACC play his first 2 years, they were only +5.6 in 2010 and finished 4-4, tied for a 3rd. This year they have just 12 returning starters (tied fewest ACC) but have my #2 RB's and #5 O-line. GT must face 2 improved squads (Duke and Virginia) on the road but Johnson should have them playing beyond expectations again.

5. VIRGINIA - Head coaches make great strides in year 2 and Mike London has 18 returning st's, one of the top recruiting classes in the country and figures to be a much improved squad. They get both GT and Duke at home but draw FSU out of the Atlantic. The Cavs still rank in the bottom half of most ACC unit rankings but they have my #5 rated ST's and will top LY's 4 year win total as well as 2010's 1-7 ACC record.

6. DUKE - HC David Cutcliffe has his best squad in his 4 years here and this is a team that could easily get to a winning record and a bowl. I was impressed with their November last season as they played BC, GT and UNC all close and beat Virginia. The Blue Devils have my #5 rated offense in the ACC which makes them a threat but my questions are on the O-line and D-line and overall defense. Duke has finished 5th for 2 straight years. They could open the season 4-3 but have 3 road trips in the final 4 games with November the key for their bowl hopes. to win the league each year from its first year in 1992 to 2007 but they were not favored in any of the last 3 seasons. The Seminoles will be back in the favorites role this year. Since VT, BC and Miami joined the conf, VT has had by far the best record of any ACC team at 46-10 with BC at 30-18 and Miami at 30-26. After going 12-15 vs AQ schools in '09, the ACC dropped to 9-16 when taking on AQ ms LY. The ACC has fared well in the NFL draft as of late and last year their 35 (incl 9 from UNC and 8 from UM) selections were only 3 behind the #1 league (SEC). Their 9 bowl teams were also #2 among the conferences. While there are some QB's with experience taking over starting spots, the ACC loses 7 starting QB's, 4 of their top 5 rushers and 4 of their top 6 rec's.

FLORIDA ST SEMINOLES

LT Andrew Datko

QUARTERBACKS - RFR Christian Ponder (PS#22) only played in one gm (8-18-10, 2 int) in '07 but was the clear-cut str in '08. He was the Off MVP after throwing for 2,006 (56%, 14-13). In '09 he was having the best season here since 2000 (Chris Weinke) but was lost vs Clemson. For the season he threw for 2,717 (14-7) and his 68.8% was 2nd best in FSU history. RFR EJ Manuel (PS#4) got his first start vs WF (15-20-220) but struggled in his next 2 sts (1-5 ratio). He said he was not 100% healthy, but still earned the Bowl MVP. The '09 season was the first time FSU completed over 60% since Weinke's Heisman ssn in '00 (only 5th time S/93). Ponder battled through an elbow injury missing 2 gms in '10 and saw his stats drop dramatically (2044, 61.5%, 20-8). Manuel had 2 sts and threw for 861 (69.9%, 4-4) and went 7-7 in the bowl with the gm clinching 4Q drive after replacing the inj'd Ponder early 2Q. Even with the loss of Ponder (#1DC MIN) this unit will only be down a few notches.

RUNNING BACKS - With all of the VHT's and NFL caliber talent former HC Bobby Bowden compiled at the RB position, it's amazing that FSU has not had a 1,000 yard rusher since Warrick Dunn ('96). In '05, FSU had its worst ypg (94, 3.3) rushing S/47 and "improved" to just 97 ypg (3.5) in '06. In '07 Antone Smith (PS#4) rushed for 819 (4.3) and FSU jumped to 128 (3.7). In '08 Smith had just 792 (4.5). Jermaine Thomas (PS#81) was not cleared until late Aug but he had 91 in the opener, 130 vs GT, and 94 vs Clem where he suffered turf toe (49 over final four 482, 7.0). Thomas was the expected str in '09 but was banged up (77, 3.0 first 5). When healthy he became the first RB here S/02 to record 3 straight 100 yd gm incl 186 vs NCSt and led with 832 (5.1) the most since 2004. Ty Jones finished #2 with 251 (4.9). The unit got a boost late from true frosh Lonnie Pryor (156, 5.8) while another true frosh Chris Thompson (PS#29) added 120 (5.2). Despite the additions they still regressed to 150 (4.6). Those 4 RB's ret'd last year and each had their moments. Thompson had 3 long td runs (90, 83, 70 yds) and led with 845 (6.3). Jones was the #1 rusher after 4 games with 283 (7.9) and was the only FSU RB that had not been tk'd for a loss. Unfortunately, he was injured vs WF (miss 3) and finished #2 (527, 6.1). Thomas missed 3 (knee inj vs Clem) and had 490 (5.7) while Pryor added 112

(4.9). They bounced back to avg 171 (4.8) as a unit. This year the group returns intact (top 3 combined for 1862, 6.1), with 3 additional VHT's and it is one of the ACC's best.

RECEIVERS - In '09 FSU had to replace the top 2 as the top 3 returnees were Taiwan Easterling (PS#310, 322, 10.7), Bert Reed (PS#107, 295, 12.8) and Rod Owens (PS#68, 183, 12.2). In '09 Owens was #1 (729, 12.0) and Reed, who became more physical, was #2 (710, 11.8) despite just 3 sts. Soph Jarmon Fortson (PS#75) had 610 (13.6) and Easterling had 442 (12.6). LY Fortson was dismissed in Aug. Reed struggled with drops but led with 614 (10.6). Easterling struggled to get open but was #3 with 551 (12.8). A pair of soph's emerged in Willie Haulstead (PS#36) who was #2 (587, 15.4) while PS#47 Rodney Smith (6'6") was #4 with 448 (14.5). With everyone ret, this is a much more exp'd unit which should have better production in '11.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Florida St avg'd just 94 ypg (3.3) and allowed 32 sks in '05 then 97 ypg (3.5) with 26 sks allowed in '06. They brought in Rick Trickett as the OL coach and showed improvement in both '07 and '08. In '09, despite 89 career sts returning and only 3 starts lost to injury, they slipped to 150 ypg rush (4.6) with 20 sks. All 5 starters returned in '10 (146 car sts) and the unit improved to 171 (4.8) with 27 sks (6.8%). Rodney Hudson won his 2nd Jacobs Blocking Award. TY they lose 2nd Tm ACC C Ryan McMahon (14 st, 4Y str), 1st Tm AA LG Hudson (14 st, 4Y str, #2DCKC) and bkp Antwane Greenlee (3 gm). While they lose 2 quality starters, they have 112 career starts returning, add in a PS#2JC and could improve.

DEFENSIVE LINE - FSU almost always has a tough rush D and in '08 they had to replace 3 DL (19 st) and allowed 133 ypg (worst S/95, 3.8) but the D did have 39 sks. In '09 they had to replace 2 str's (#2 DC). FSU almost always had 1 or 2 super pass rushing DE's but has not had one recently as their DE's comb for 4 sks in '09 in a yr unit was hit hard by inj's (only 1 DL had 12 st). The numbers were amazing as they allowed an ACC high 205 ypg rush and 5.4 ypg (26 sks), their worst total S/76. LY they had to replace 2 DL (comb 15 sts) then lost Moses McCray (9 st '09) to an ACL prior to the season. I expected a much bigger impact from PS#1 Jacobbi McDaniel (2 st true) last year but an elbow injury limited him to 31 tkl (5.5 tfl). Seven of the 8 DL were frosh and soph but FSU tied for #1 in the nation in sks with 48 (35 by DL). DE Brandon Jenkins finished tied for #3 in FBS with 13.5 sks. They trimmed the rush defense to 129 ypg (3.4). This year they lose 4th Tm ACC DE Markus White (14 st, 5Y tkl'r, 8 sk, #7DC WAS). They add in PS#1JC Tank Carradine and should have their best rush D since '06 (93, 2.9) along with a great pass rush.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 the Seminoles had to replace their top 2 tkl'r's and a backup (4 sts). It was the first time in a few years they did not have to replace an NFL DC and they returned their #4, #7 and #13 tkl'r's. It was still surprising that FSU allowed 30.0 ppg, their worst since 1973. They had 7 VHT's incl #1 & #2 tkl'r's and the D improved to 19.6 ppg, the best since S/06. TY they lose SLB Mister Alexander (14 st, #8 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl) and MLB Kendall Smith (14 st, #2 tkl'r, 3.5 tfl). LY they signed PS#2 Christian Jones and PS#4 Jeff Luc at LB but they combined for just 26 tkl's and should have a much bigger impact this year. I like the talent level but they have just 1 upperclassmen in my 2 deep below and may be a notch weaker.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - From 1994-2000 FSU finished in the top 6 of 7 times of my PDR. In '05 they had their worst finish ever at #74 and the next 3 yrs were mediocre #43, #50 and #60. They had 1.5 str's back in '09 and set a new low (#102). LY they had to replace 3 str's again including a #1DC. The lone returning starter, Ochuko Jenije moved to S but lost his spot to Nick Moody. Despite the inexp, FSU managed to improve to #32 (58.3%, 17-15). This year they lose FS Jenije (2 st, 16 tkl), FS Jajuan Harley (5 tkl) but have all 4 str's back and 7 VHT's in the 2-deep (only non-VHT is PS#75). The Seminoles will have their best finish in my PDR since '04 (#22).

SPECIAL TEAMS - FSU normally ranks in the top 25 of my ST rankings. In '08 Graham Gano won the Lou Groza Award after hitting 24-26 FG (L53) and FSU finished #3. In '09 they had to replace Gano as well as their top PR and KR and dropped to #26. Exciting true frosh Greg Reid did lead the NCAA in PR (18.4) and was a solid KR (25.5). LY Reid's PR numbers dropped (10.1) but he set the KR record for a game (193 vs NCSt) and a season (724, 23.4). K Dustin Hopkins (PS#1) who had a 65 yd FG in practice in HS, improved from 19-27 (L52) on FG's with 24 TB's on KO's in '09 to 22-28 (L55 GW FG vs CU) with 41 TB's (#2 FBS) in '10. P Shawn Powell also improved from 41.6 to 44.3 with the net rising from 36.1 to 39.0. Of his 50 punts, only 21 were ret'd (for 143 yds!) TY the unit returns intact and should be one of the nation's best (#10 in '10).

COACHES - Hall of Famer Bobby Bowden reluctantly retired #2 in the FBS for career wins (389 in 44 yr HC career - NCAA recognizes 377) after 34 seasons at FSU. In '07 Jimbo Fisher came over as OC from LSU (OC L7Y). In '09 he was named as Bowden's successor and took on many duties, even some on game day. In Fisher's first season as HC ('10) FSU not only won the Atlantic, but totaled 10 wins here for the first time since 2003. In January Fisher signed a contract ext through 2015 at $2.75 mil annually. The OC is James Coley who is also the TE coach and was an assistant under Fisher at LSU. Before arriving here Coley was the OC/QB cch at FIU in '07 and was an off asst for 2 yrs with the Miami Dolphins prior. DC Mark Stoops (2nd yr) spent 6 yrs as the DC at Arizona under his brother Mike. Greg Hudson is also in his second season here as the asst def HCLB cch (EC, Minny, Cincy, Conn prior).

PHIL'S FORECAST

FSU had an amazing run of 14 straight years finishing in the Top 5 in the final polls but has not been back since 2000! FSU did finish #15, #21, #11, #15 and #23 in the AP poll from 2001-'05 but in Bowden's last 4 yrs finished ranked just once (9-4 in '08, #21). They went 7-6 in the other 3 yrs and needed a bowl win in each to achieve a winning season. In '09 they were the media's preseason favorite to win the Atlantic (I had Clemson) and they actually finished 3rd at 4-4 and -5.5 ypg (6th best ACC). Last year I mentioned that Jimbo Fisher stepped into a great situation as the team had not had double digit wins since '03 and 7 of my 9 sets of power ratings called for a double digit win season. They had 8 ret str's on offense and got to their 29th consecutive bowl. After they beat Samford 59-6 many were calling for them to upset Okla but they were actually throttled, getting a 47 yd td pass on the last play to "only" lose 47-17. They took care of business the next 5 weeks, including a key road win at #13 Miami and were 6-1 (#16) when they travelled to NCSt on a Thurs night. They led 21-7 at half but fumbled at the 4 on 2nd & gl with :49 left and lost. FSU missed a 40 yd FG "wide right" with :02 left and lost to NC by 2. Without Ponder, they were outFD'd 15-3 in the 1H by Clemson but nailed a walk off 55 yd FG for a 16-13 win. In a key game in the ACC Atlantic, they beat MD on the road 30-16 then beat Florida 31-7 and NCSt lost to MD giving them the Atlantic Title. They did lose to VT by 11 in the ACC Title game but then beat S Car in the bowl. They finished 10-4 and ranked #17. Florida St had a def ypg of 18.0 (pg 299) but this year have 16 ret str's (3rd most ACC). They get Oklahoma (likely ranked #1) at home, where they are beatable (all 9 of OU's losses the L3Y's have been away from home) but do have to play Florida in "The Swamp". Eight of my 9 sets of power ratings calls for an 8-0 ACC season so how they fare vs OU and UF will determine if they can get back into the Top 5 and be considered a National Title contender.

First meeting. Fisher went 10-4 LY as HC, best 1st yr record for a HC in FSU history (Bowden went 5-6 in '76). FSU is 20-1 S'90 in home openers (only loss was to Miami in '09, 38-34).

First meeting. The Buccaneers went 3-8 LY but 2 losses came vs Hawai'i (66-7) & Kentucky (49-21). CSU started FB in 1991 & is 0-15 overall vs FBS schools with an avg score of 51-12.

Seminoles are just 1-5 in this series (only win was in 1965). This will mark the 1st meeting in Tallahassee. FSU is 5-12 its L/17 gms vs Top 10 opp's incl B2B losses by 27 & 30 pts.

Visitor is 1-8 L9Y. FSU is 7-4 overall at Clemson but has dropped 4 str by 15 ppg. In '09 FSU led 24-21 into the 4Q but all'd 19-4Q pts (2 td's off int's). FSU has been outgained in 7 of the L39 gms.

Miami: LY FSU led 24-7 at HT but was outgained 207-202 as UM missed a 32 yd FG & fmb'd at its 1 setting up a short FSU TD. Virginia: LY FSU led 27-0 at HT w/a dominating 316-32 yd edge.

FSU is 16-3 in ACC meetings vs WF (S'92). L/gm in Winston-Salem QB Manuel (PS#4) made his 1st career start (265 tll yds) as FSU went up 31-7 late 2Q never relinquishing the lead.

FSU is 6-0 in Durham putting up 50+ in their L5 trips winning by 24+ each. In '06 (L/visit) FSU jumped out to a 21-0 L0 lead despite only 1 drive over 8 yds. Into 2011, FSU is 8-4 the L3Y on the ACC road.

FSU is 19-2 vs MD incl 4 str. LY FSU had to come-from-behind for the win & the ACC Atlantic crown. MD, down 7, was driving but threw an int at the FSU4 which was ret'd 96 yds for a TD w/36 left!

Seven of the L10 have been decided by a TD or less. LY FSU led 21-7 at HT & clinging to a 3 pt lead late 4Q gave up a 48g TD after a 70/13pl drive. FSU had a 18g at the NCS16 but fmb'd w/49 left.

LTH FSU trailed 21-3 but tied it at 21 in the 4Q. They got to the BC19 & BC27 their final 2 drives.

There have been 6 straight upsets in this series with the home team losing 5 straight.

FSU is 14-2 vs the Cavaliers (1st gm in '92). FSU has outgained UVA in every meeting (+192 ypg).

FSU is 2-6 its L8 trips to Gainesville including 3 straight series losses by 29 ppg. In their last visit FSU was hammered vs #1 Florida & trailed 30-0 late 3Q being outgained 392-109.

CLEMSON TIGERS

C Dalton Freeman

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In Cullen Harper's first year as a starter in '07 he threw for 2,991 (65%) with a 27-6 ratio. He was the 2008 preseason ACC OPOY but dealt with a sore shoulder. He had a big 2H of the year but on the season his numbers dropped to 2,601 (61%, 13-14). In '09 Harper departed and rfr Kyle Parker (PS#31), who has a cannon for an arm, broke Charlie Whitehurst's ('02) frosh passing records throwing for 2,526 (56%, 20-12) and was also the #4 rusher (135, 2.2). LY there was a big question if he would return (#1DC MLB Col Rockies). He didn't make a decision until July but Tajh Boyd (PS#8) benefitted from the extra work over the summer. Parker struggled to throw down field early, then was bothered by rib/back inj's. Much like Harper's 2nd year, Parker's stats dropped as he threw for just 2,213 (57.5%, 12-11, 28 rush). Boyd ply'd in just 7 (329, 52.4%, 4-3). Parker left to play baseball full-time and battling Boyd TY will be 2 HT true frosh that were both IFS. Will Boyd have the outstanding starting debut like Harper and Parker did?

RUNNING BACKS - CU had the "Thunder and Lightning" duo of James Davis (PS#21) and CJ Spiller (PS#10) from '06-'08. Davis finished as the #2 career rusher with 3,881 (#6DC) and was the first CU RB ever to lead in rushing each of his 4 yrs. When true frosh Jamie Harper was signed (PS#31) he was promised the first carry of the season (which he fmb'd) and he rushed for just 133 (3.9) in '08. Spiller entered '09 as CU's career leader in all-purp yds (4,908) and took home 31 CU records as well as many ACC and NCAA records. In '09 Spiller rushed for 1,212 (5.6) and was the #3 rec (503, 14.0). Spiller set an ACC record (#2 FBS) with 7,588 career all-purp yds. They managed to RS Roderick McDowell (PS#30). LY Andre Ellington (PS#37) was the most effective back but he started just 6 (inj) and had 686 (5.8). Harper (418, 5.2 '09) filled in and led with 760 (3.9) and was also #4 rec (328, 9.4). McDowell ply'd in just 7 (161, 5.0). TY they lose Harper (7 st, #4DC TEN), Daniel Barnes (91, 6.5) and FB Kasey Nobles (13 gm, 14 yd). Added to the mix is DJ Howard ('11) 190 rfr, PS#61 and true frosh Mike Bellamy (PS#6) and keep an eye on the FB in the new offense especially on the pass game. I look for good-sized improvement in the CU RB numbers.

RECEIVERS - In '09 CU had to replace its career leader Aaron Kelly and another starting WR (#4 rec). The WR unit was a ? coming into the year but they were high on TE's Michael Palmer and Dwayne Allen (PS#6). Those two comb to set a CU record for TE rec's in a season with 53 (old record 45 in 1970). Jacoby Ford was #2 in '08 with 710 (12.9) and was the NCAA indoor track champ in the 60M. Ford had 3 drops in the opener but led with 779 (13.9) while Palmer was #2 with 507 (11.8). LY they had to replace Ford (#4DC) and Palmer. They lacked a breakout threat at WR, allowing opposing defenses to shrink the field. DeAndre Hopkins (PS#23) is 6'1" with huge hands and catches everything thrown his way. He led with 637 (12.3) including a CU bowl record 9 rec's and became the 1st ever true frosh to lead CU in rec. TE Allen was #3 with 373 (11.3) and soph Jaron Brown (PS#99) was #2 with 405 (12.7). Rfr Bryce McNeal (PS#13) surprisingly only had 187 (9.8) and Xavier Dye, who was the leading returning receiver (236, 16.9 in '09) had just 4 rec. This year they lose Dye (4 st) and Terrance Ashe (1 rec). This group is vastly more exp'd, adds in some solid frosh including rfr Joe Craig whose speed was compared to Jacoby Ford (4.28) and should uncover some deep threats.

OFFENSIVE LINE - With all 5 st's back in '06, the Tigers paved the way for an outstanding 5.7 ypc (best prior was 5.3 in 1950) and allowed just 15 sks (4.6%). They had to replace 4 st's in each of the next 2 yrs and dropped to 161 ypg (4.1) and 112 ypg (3.4). Most tms were using smaller OL's in zone blocking schemes but Swinney wanted a large offensive front and in '09 they had the biggest OL in the ACC (avg'd 315 lb). It was a unit with 71 career st's (7 w/st exp) and CU improved to 170 ypg rush (4.8) with just 19 sks (4.9%). LY they had to replace a 2nd Tm ACC LG but had 4 ret st's. Surprisingly the numbers dropped to 139 ypg (4.0) and 18 sks (4.4%). Perhaps losing CJ Spiller had something to do with that. This year the Tigers lose 1st Tm ACC LT Chris Hairston (13 st, 3Y st'r, #4DC BUF) return 9 of the top 10 back and 118 career starts. All 5 starters are VHT's so they should have their best numbers since 2006.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Clemson had 2 st's back but it was still surprising that they yielded 3.7 ypc rush (127 ypg) and the D was last among BCS tms with just 14 sks. In '09 they had to replace 1 st'r (2 bkp) and ret'd the "Bamberg Bookends," DE Da'Quan Bowers (PS#1) and PS#5 Ricky Sapp plus DT's Jarvis Jenkins and Brandon Thompson (3 now in NFL). They allowed 3.5 ypc but it surprised me that the unit allowed 152 ypg rush, their highest 5/02. They did face GT's option offense twice and allowed just 124 ypg (3.0) in the other 12. LY they had to replace 2nd Tm ACC DE Sapp (#5DC) and then lost their #3 DT Jamie Cumbie (53 tkl, 4.5 tfl in '09) over the summer. Bowers was expected to have a breakout season and reminded DC Steele of a 19 yr old Reggie White (Steele coached him at Tenn). After having just 4 sks in 2 seasons, he exploded with 15.5 sks and 10.5 tfl. Bowers set a school rec with 9 straight gms that he was involved in a sk and CU improved to allowing 128 ypg rush (3.5). This year they lose 1st Tm AA Bowers (13 st, #2 tkl'r, #2DC TB), 1st Tm ACC DT Jenkins (12 st, #9 tkl'r, 9 tfl, #2DC WAS) and NG Miguel Chavis (2 st, 27 tkl, 1 tfl). They have just 2 st's ret and go from replacing a #5DC to losing two #2 DC's so they should be down a few notches. DT Jenkins weighed 315 and his replacement Rennie Moore is just 270 in the spg.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 CU ret'd their #1 & #4 tkl'r's and moved a starting DE to LB. Despite this, the D slipped to all g 20.4 ppg. LY they had to replace 2 st's in their #1 tkl'r (#7DC) and #10 tkl'r. The ret st'r was Brandon Maye who only st'd 8 (inj) and went from #3 tkl'r to #11. The less exp'd unit still improved to 18.8 ppg. TY they lose Maye (43 tkl) who transferred. Five of the top 6 are back but the ret st's were just the #3, #15 and #18 tkl'r's. They add the best set of true frosh LB's in the country in PS#2, PS#3 and PS#18 and will be an improved unit.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Heading into LY Clemson had finished #14, #25, #22, #24, #21 and #15 in my PDR. In '09 converted LB DeAndre McDaniel (PS#19) tied a schl rec with 8 int (Robert O'Neal '89, Justin Miller '02). All 4 st's managed to st all 14. LY they had to replace both CB's who st'd 40 consec gms together (4,018 plys 3Y). McDaniel turned down a shot at the NFL and they moved FS Marcus Gilchrist to CB. It was still surprising to see Clemson drop to #39 (53.7% 18-15 vs a light slate of opp QB's). TY they lose Gilchrist (13 st, #4 tkl'r, 1 int, 10 pbu, #2DC SD), CB Byron Maxwell (8 st, 48 tkl, 2 int, 7 pbu, #6DC SEA) and 1st Tm ACC SS McDaniel (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 4 int, 6 pbu). They once again return 2 st's and while they might be a little less talented, I expect them to move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - CU has finished #32, #7, #104, #31, #75, #45, #15 and #24 in my ST rankings the L8Y. In '09 they had their super return duo of CJ Spiller (32.8 KR, 4 td, 26.3 PR, 1 td) and Jacoby Ford (1 PR td). Spencer Benton (PS#14) looked to have the edge at K but was inj'd and Richard Jackson (PS#2) tied the school record with 6 FG's vs BC and hit 20-31 (L53). Benton had 7 TB on 87 KO's. P Dawson Zimmerman had an AA year in practice but only avg 39.1 (34.4 tm net). LY they had to replace Spiller and Ford. Jackson lost his job to rfr Chandler Catanzaro (PS#28) who struggled all year hitting 14-22 (L48). Benton had just 3 TB on 64 KO's. Zimmerman improved his avg to 42.7 (tm net 38.2) and Marcus Gilchrist handled the KR (23.7) and PR (10.1). TY they lose Gilchrist and Jackson (1 punt LY) but should uncover another fine RM and remain near the top.

COACHES - Tommy Bowden appeared to be on his way out on many occasions in his 10 years here as HC. In '08 the Tigers were the preseason ACC favorite and he was fired after a 3-3 start. Then WR cch Dabo Swinney surprisingly got the interim job and immediately fired the OC. The DC resigned one day after Swinney was named the permanent HC. Swinney is in his 9th year here overall. He played on Alabama's 1992 National Title team and was the WR/TE cch there from '96-'00. They bring in a new OC in Chad Morris who last year directed a Tulsa offense that avg 41.4 ppg. He also was a successful TX HS coach (82% win). DC Kevin Steele is in his 3rd season. He was Baylor's HC from 1999-2002 and after that was the LB coach at Fla St ('03-'06) and DC at Alabama ('07-'08).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Tommy Bowden was hired in 1999 (6-6 in his first year) and his 10 yrs went through many ebbs and flows. They were in the Top 15 six times, but finished ranked just 4 times. The Tigers have not won an ACC Title since 1991. After entering the season #9 in '08, Bowden was let go and Swinney led them to bowl eligibility with a 31-14 win over S Car and after a bowl loss they finished 7-6. In '09 they were unranked in the preseason but my magazine was the only major publication to call for CU to win the ACC Atlantic as they were picked as low as 4th by others. CU did just that getting to their first ACC Title game but lost to GT by 5. After beating Kentucky in the Music City Bowl, they finished #24. Last year they had to replace RB Spiller and WR Ford, their most dangerous weapons and while expectations were high for QB Parker, he had a disappointing season with a 12-11 ratio. Clemson did lead eventual National Champ Auburn 17-3 at half but lost by 3 in OT. They suffered close losses to both Miami and NC to drop to 2-3. Despite being outgained 350-213 by Maryland, they won by 24 and then facing GT's option offense for the 3rd time in 2 yrs, finally prevailed 27-13. Clemson was int'd twice in the 4Q at BC and lost by 6, then got past NCST by 1. They had a 15-3 FD edge at half vs Florida St (FSU without Ponder) but lost on a 55 yd walk off FG. After beating WF, they had a large situational edge vs rival South Carolina (SEC Title game on deck) but SC defeated Clemson 29-7. In the bowl, CU trailed 31-13 in the 4Q before scoring 2 late td's (behind bkp QB Boyd) and lost by 5 for their first losing season since 1998. CU was +20.3 ypg (6th best) in the ACC (4-4) and this year have 14 returning starters. CU also had 4 net close losses (pg 299) and are off a rare losing season which lands them on my 2011 Most Improved List.

First meeting. CU is 5-0 vs the SBC, avg score 42-14. Tigers are 20-1 when hosting non-conf/non-BCS schools S'00 (only loss was vs #15 TCU in '09). CU is 22-2 in home openers S'97 (7 str wins by 20 ppg).

CU is 10-3 vs Wofford but their L series loss was in 1933. In the L/gm ('01) CU won 38-14 w/a 483-312 yd edge. Terriers went 10-3 LY (FCS Quarterfinal) including a 33-10 loss to Ohio.

Swinney is a Bama alumni. He played FB from 1989-'92 & was an asst cch from 1993-'00 going 7-5 combined vs Aub. LY CU almost derailed AU's National Title but blew a 17-3 HT lead (lost in OT).

Clemson is just 7-17 vs FSU but has 3 str wins at home. LY CU led 10-3 at HT but needed a 68/9pl 29 yd FG drive to tie 13-13 w/53. FSU however went 34/7pl and got a 55 yd FG as time exp.

CU is 7-2 their L/9 visits to Blacksburg but dropping B2B gms by 20 & 17 pts. In '06 (L/trip) CU came in ranked #10 but after a 7-7 tie was held to zero pts & just 76 yds the final 3 quarters.

HT has won B2B gms. LY CU scored just 10, lowest in this series S'42. CU led 10-3 into the 2Q gaining only 193 yds after but only 1 of their L/8 poss ended in a punt (3 TO, 2 missed FG, SOD & end of gm).

In '09 CU blew an early 10-0 lead but got within a FG on a 92 yd KRTD w/4:11 Q3. In the 4Q CU missed 47 & 48 yd FG's but had a FD at the MD32 driving for a tie/win but 3pl later was sk'd & fmb'd.

CU is 18-7 S'81 vs NC but lost LY. CU never led but w/5:31 left went 86/5pl (2ptng) cutting the deficit to 5. CU's KO went deep but NC gained 3 FD's running out all but :13 (CU fired 3 str inc to end gm).

This will mark the 4th gm in just over 2 ssns. CU has lost 2 str trips to the ATL incl its last in '09. CU trailed 24-0 but led 27-24 early 4Q before all'g B2B 69 & 47 yd FG drives (last w/5:1 left).

Bonus: 3rd time CU will play 4 str HG's to open a ssn. Into 2011, CU is 8-1 their L/9 ACC HG's.

The HT is 7-2 the L/9Y. Clemson has won 5 straight at home vs WF, the last 2 by 35 ppg.

CU has won 7 str by 13 ppg. LTH CJ Spiller became the 1st CU player to throw, catch & run for a TD in a single gm.

CU is 9-2 in Columbia S'89 but lost the LTH. Tigers did lead 7-0 early but SC scored the next 24 (CU had the ACC Champ game on deck). L3Y have all been decided by 17+ each (3Y prior just 9 tti pts).

CLEMSON TIGERS - CLEMSON TIGERS

NC STATE WOLFPACK

TE George Bryan

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 true frosh Mike Glennon (PS#2) who is a Philip Rivers-type QB (6'6") battled the more mobile rFr Russell Wilson (5'11"). Glennon had not grasped the offense enough and O'Brien opted to RS him. The offense was dynamic with a healthy Wilson (11 st) as he was the first ever frosh to earn 1st Tm ACC QB honors throwing for 1,955 (55%, 17-1). His 2 bkps comb to hit 47-115 (41%, 3-12). In '09 expectations were huge for Wilson and he did manage to start all 12. He set the NCAA record for most passes without an int (379) but over the last 5, did toss 7 picks. He threw for 3,027 (59%, 31-11) and was the #3 rusher. They used Glennon in 7 (248, 62%, 1-2). Last year there were questions on whether Wilson would leave for baseball and those questions had him under the radar in the preseason. Wilson threw for 3,563 (58.4%, 28-14, 667 gross rush) and joined Johnny Evans as the only Wolfpack QB with 1,000 career yds rushing. Wilson moved into 2nd place in ACC history in tld tld with 93 trailing only Rivers. Glennon was in'd in the opener and only played in 3 (9-13-78). OC Bible said Glennon is "more mobile than you think" and he worked with the young WR's in the spring. There are no more distractions and the team is clearly Glennon's. Wilson was released from his scholarship and may transfer or concentrate solely on baseball.

RUNNING BACKS - NCST had not had a 1,000 yard rusher since 2002 (TA McLendon, 1101). LY the Wolfpack had to replace their top 2 RB's including Toney Baker whose 773 (4.8) was the top total for a leading rusher since that '02 season. Soph James Washington (PS#153) who had 76 (3.6) in '09 and Curtis Underwood (PS#292) who RS were expected to be the top backs. O'Brien was unhappy with the RB production at the start of Aug and moved rFr DB Dean Haynes to RB and named him the starter for the opener. Haynes had some fumble problems but finished with 320 (3.9). True frosh Mustafa Greene (PS#24) was #1 with 597 (4.5) and became the first Wolfpack player to score tds in his first 4 gms since QB Tol Avery in 1980. Washington was a distant #4 (215, 3.0) and Underwood added 62 (4.1). Not listed in the PSL are Travis Leggett (5'11" 217 Sr, PS#222), Ben Areno (5'9" 205 Sr) and FB's Tyler Purvis (6'3" 220 So), Rob Fronk (6'4" 220 So, PS#193) and Logan Winkles (6'1" 240 rFr, PS#148, out till mid-Oct). Brandon Barnes (PS#16) and rFr Anthony Creecy (PS#21) are two VHT additions and Haynes moved back to DB. Greene added speed and has a shot at that elusive 1,000 yd mark.

RECEIVERS - In 2008 the Pack had to replace its top 4 rec's. Owen Spencer (6'3") led in dropped passes but was also

#1 with 691 and an eye opening 22.3 ypc (ACC record) as the team's game-breaker. Jarvis Williams was #2 with 432 (16.6) and 3rd string TE George Bryan added 201 (11.2). True frosh track star WR TJ Graham (PS#105) had 251 (15.7). They had 3 of the top 5 back in '09. Spencer led again with 765 (25.5). Williams was #2 with 547 (12.2) and Bryan was #3 (422, 10.6). LY Spencer led a 3rd straight yr with 912 but his ypc dropped to 15.2. Graham, who is also an electrifying PR, started strong but finished #5 (316, 12.6). Williams was #2 for a 3rd consec yr (713, 13.7) and Bryan made the John Mackey Award final (369, 10.5). This year they lose 2nd Tm ACC Spencer (13 st), Williams (13 st) and Darrell Davis (6 st, 327, 12.6). Not listed in the PSL is TE Anthony Talbert (6'4" 246 So, PS#67, 13 gm). Although talented, this is a less exp'd group with the loss of its top two.

OFFENSIVE LINE - O'Brien was a known molder of NFL caliber OL's at BC but despite the presence of some fine RB's, it's been 12 seasons (1998) since NCST avg 4.0 ypc! Having to replace 3 st's in his first year ('07) they opened holes for just 89 ypg rush (3.0), their fewest S/86. With 2 st's back in '08 they made slight improvement (123 ypg, 3.6). In '09 they had 3 st's back but due to injuries only 2 started all 12. The numbers stayed flat at 121 ypg (3.5) with 32 sks (7.6%). LY they had to replace 3.5 st's and the group had just 30 career sts (#109 FBS). The numbers were almost identical (123 ypg, 3.5, 39 sks). This year they lose HM ACC LT Jake Vermiglio (12 st, 3Y st), RT Gary Gregory (1 st, 7 gm), OT Sam Jones (13 gm) and OG Henry Lawson (13 gm). They will also be without LG Andrew Wallace (12 st) until mid-Oct so they basically have 3.5 ret st's but this still looks like O'Brien's best OL since he's arrived and has a shot at that elusive 4.0 ypc.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 they had to replace 2 DL (comb 13 sts, 10.5 tfl). Surprisingly with 3 st's back they only improved to 139 ypg (3.9) with 24 sk. LY they had to replace all 4 st's incl a #7DC. They did get a Northeastern transfer in David Akinniyi. While the LB's were one of the better units in the ACC, it still surprised me that with an inexp'd DL, the Wolfpack was able to improve to 114 ypg rush (3.4), their best totals S/05. This year they lose DT Natanu Mageo (13 st, #10 tkl, 4 sk), DE Akinniyi (13 st, 20 tkl, 2.5 sk), DE Audi Augustin (20 tkl, 3 sk) and DE Michael Lemon (2 st, #9 tkl, 4 sk). While this unit is more exp'd, it will be tough to improve upon 2010's production.

LINEBACKERS - In '08 NCST had to replace 3 st's (#2, #3 and #5 tkl's). Nate Irving emerged and was #3 tkl (11 tfl) while setting a LB school record for int in a season (4). In '09 they had to replace 1 st'r then Irving was in a car accident and missed the year. The one ret st'r missed 3 and NCST allowed 31.2 ppg, their most since 1996 (36.5). LY they had to replace their #3 tkl'r but had 5 of the top 6 back incl the #1 tkl'r, Audie Cole. Irving was only on the field for 25 plays in the opener but then had a better than expected season as he was the #1 tkl'r, added 6.5 sk and had 14 tfl. The D allowed 21.3 ppg, their best S/06. This year they lose 1st Tm ACC MLB Irving (13 st, #3DC DEN) and Asante Cureton (18 tkl). Dwayne Maddox (7 tkl'r '09) lost his starting spot to Terrell Manning (PS#12) who earned 3rd Tm ACC and Cole (#2 tkl'r, 10.5 tfl) was 2nd Tm ACC. With 4 of the top 6 back, including a VHT st'r and a bkp who was a full-time starter in '09, this unit should be just as strong, even with the loss of its top player.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '09 due to 2 proj st's leaving over the summer and then a great deal of inj's, it seemed like every wk they shuffled the secondary trying to find a solution for the mental errors and missed tkl's (8 diff starting lineups). NCST dropped to #101 in my PDR (63%, 20-8). LY they had to replace 4 DB who comb for 22 sts (166 tkl's). Six ret'd who st'd in '09 so improvement was expected. They lost proj starting CB Rashard Smith in Aug and bkp Jarvis Byrd (3 st) '09 RS, so they were less exp'd than I anticipated. They only moved up to #96 (60.6%, 21-9). TY the unit returns intact and I will call for their best finish in my PDR since '07 (#38).

SPECIAL TEAMS - O'Brien's BC units were #6 in '04 and #18 in '06 in my ST rankings. In his first year here ('07), NCST finished #24 and in his 2nd they had to replace their outstanding K, top PR and KR and slipped to #54. Most coaches feel that DB depth is a key to the ST unit and NCST was depth shy at the position in '09. The unit dropped to #76. Jeff Ruiz (ACC worst 37.9, 34.7 net in '09) battled Andy Leffler (PS#88) LY but the 2 split the duties (37.8, 34.3 net). K Josh Czajkowski leaves some big shoes to fill as he hit 46-57 FG's (L48) and set the school record with 119 career PAT's (20 FG's LY tied Marc Primanti's '96 record). Czajkowski (4 TB, 60 FG's) was in'd vs Clemson and was orig ruled OFY but missed just 1 game (WF). NCST dropped to #96. Even with the loss of a top-notch K, this unit can only improve.

COACHES - While at BC, Tom O'Brien had losing seasons his first two yrs, but then guided the team to 8 straight bowls (won last 6). He was the first coach in BC history to have 8+ wins for 6 straight yrs. LY, in his 4th year here, the Wolfpack finished with 9 wins which ties as the second best total ever (11 wins '02). Dana Bible has been O'Brien's OC S/99. DC Mike Archer (5th yr) was previously the DC at Kentucky ('03-'06) and the LB coach for the Steelers from '96-'02. Archer was the HC at LSU from '87-'90. Jon Tenuta (16 yrs as a DC) joined the staff in 2010 as a LB coach.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In '06, NCST had 7 close losses and they gotten some breaks, they could have finished as high as 10-2 but stumbled to 9 losses, (most since 1959). NCST was also -11 in TO's ('06) and despite their 2-6 ACC record, I had high expectations for Tom O'Brien's first season here. Things did not look good as they were -17 in TO's in the first 6 gm and opened 0-5 vs FBS tms. O'Brien switched things up during the bye and they would go 4-1, but playing for a bowl berth they were thumped by MD 37-0, stopping the ACC's longest streak without being shutout at 150 gm ('95). They had to have 35 sts lost to injury. In '08 they had just 9 ret st's (fewest ACC) and lost 47% of their lettermen. They had just 76 scholarship players and of the '06 recruiting class, just 7 remained. They opened up 2-6 in what looked like a rebuilding season but made it to a bowl. NCST was -33.3 ypg in ACC play (2nd worst) but was +8 in TO's and finished in a 4-way tie for 3rd in the Atlantic (also tied for last). In '09 they had a soft schedule and I put them on my Most Improved List. They opened 3-1 but finished 5-7. With losses by 3, 4 and 6, going -11 in TO's and having a def ypg of 11.6 (pg 299). LY the schedule got tougher (9 bowl tms) and they lost 41% of their lettermen. I actually picked NCST last in the Atlantic Div and was not alone as 5 other sources documented by preseason.stassen.com also had them 6th. There were questions as to whether Russell Wilson would return when I wrote the magazine but he did and had a fantastic year with a 28-14 ratio. NCST opened a very impressive 4-0 and could have been 5-0 as they led eventual ACC Champ VT 17-0 in the 2Q and 30-28 in the 4Q but lost. At 5-2 they hosted Fla St and trailed 21-7 at half but rallied and FSU fumbled at the NCST4 at the end. After a 1 pt loss to Clemson, they beat WF then got another fortuitous win over NC. They trailed 19-10 3Q when they got a tipped pass for a td then added an 87 yd td PR. NC also missed the tying 2 pt conv with 1:05 left. NCST had the ACC Atlantic in their grasp but lost to Maryland on the road. In the bowl, they whipped WV 23-7 to finish 9-4 and #25, the first time they finished ranked since '02 (Philip Rivers). In O'Brien's first 3 seasons he had 89 sts lost to injury in 37 games but in 2010 had just 7. The schedule is manageable and 2 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for 10-2 but 2 also call for 6-6. I have not had a good pulse on NCST the last several years but I'll call for O'Brien to have another successful season with the possibility of a 5-1 start but I don't see them topping LY's 9 win total.

First meeting, NCST is 18-5 S'88 in home openers (5 Ls vs FBS tms). The Flames went 8-3 LY incl a 27-23 win vs Ball St. LU started its FB program in '73 & is 0-7 vs current BCS conf schools.

Visitor has dropped 4 str & 5 of L7 have been decided by 8 pts or less. LTH the Wolfpack had a FD at the WF29 down by just 6 but Wilson threw an int in the EZ w/2:02 left.

First meeting. The Jaguars started playing FB in '09 going 17-0 their first 2 seasons. USA will be in a transitional period the next 2Y & will be a Sun Belt member in 2013.

First trip to UC. NCST won the only previous meeting LY on a Thur Night. O'Brien lost 24-6 vs the Bearcats in '97 at BC (1st yr as a HC). LY NCST went 2-0 on Thur Nights (prior 2 yrs 0-3).

NCST hasn't won B2B gms in this series S'93 & '94, just 3-10 since. LY QB Wilson passed for a career high 368 yds (68%) & NCST led 10-0 late 2Q never relinquishing the lead.

First meeting. O'Brien was 2-0 vs CM while at BC (43-0 in '02 & 31-24 in '06). Into 2011, the Wolfpack are a solid 29-7 hosting non-conf opp's S'97 (4 of the losses vs BCS tms).

Bonus: Last year NC State scored at least 27 pts in each of its first 8 games (that's something no previous NC State team had ever accomplished in their 119 year history).

O'Brien was on the UVA staff from 1982-'96 (OC L3Y). 1994 was the last time NCST won in Charlottesville (L/visit in '06). Into 2011, the Wolfpack are just 5-15 the L5Y on the ACC road.

NCST is 2-8 at FSU and LTH trailed by DD's in the 4Q but took their 1st lead w/3:50 left 42-38. FSU went 66/8pt for a TD w/1:36 left & NCST was int'd in the EZ from the 50 on the final play.

101st meeting, played every yr S'53. L2Y's have been decided by a tlt of 5 pts. LY NCST trailed 19-10 late 3Q but took a 27-19 lead and then stopped a game tying 2pt conv w/1:05 left.

Prior to NCST, O'Brien was the HC at BC from 1997-'06 posting a 75-45 mark (1-3 vs former tm). The only time NCST won in Chestnut Hill was in '37, as they have dropped 3 str by 20+ ppg.

NCST has lost 7 str. LY NCST led 7-0 at HT. After a FD at the CU13 they settled for a 27 yd FG (led 13-7) but all'd a 39/8pt TD drive after punting from their 13 (L2 poss ended in a punt & SOD).

The home team is 5-1 L6Y including 3 str wins (all decided by a TD or less). LY, also in the season finale, MD wiped out NCST's ACC Title hopes. NCST led 14-0 into the 2Q but all'd 38 of the next 41 pts.

BOSTON COLLEGE EAGLES

LB Luke Kuechly

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '09 Dominique Davis (4 st '08) was ruled ineligible and transferred to East Carolina leaving the '09 unit with zero career att's. They added in 25 yr old Dave Shinskie (PS#53) who spent 6 yrs playing baseball. Shinskie, true frosh Mike Marscovetra (PS#207) and Justin Tuggle (PS#39) split the duties early. Shinskie started the final 10 and threw for 2,049 (52%, 15-14) while Marscovetra threw for 135 (59%, 2-1). Last year both ret'd so improvement was expected. Shinskie took most of the snaps in the first 3 but struggled vs VT throwing an int in the EZ, being tkl'd at the 1 as time ran out in the 1H and turning over the first 2 poss of the 2H. Spaziani elected to go with true frosh Chase Rettig (PS#39) and he made his first start vs ND but was inj'd in the 2Q. Marscovetra hit 22-37-193 with 2 int. Shinskie started the next week and hit just 7-24-89 and starting with Florida St, the job was Rettig's with the other 2 not having another att. Rettig threw for 1,238 (51.3%, 6-9). All 3 QB's pass eff ratings were close, ranging from 105.5-109.7. Not listed below are Marscovetra (6'4" 210 Jr, PS#207) and Shane Cranmore (6'4" 205 rFr). This should be one of the most improved QB positions in the country.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2003 Derrick Knight was 5 yds short of tying a school record with 1,721 (5.4) and was the 6th straight BC rusher to top 1,000. Over the next 4 yrs Andre Callender (PS#30) and LV Whitworth (PS#82) split the job and neither topped 1,000 with Callender's 969 (4.6) in '07 the closest either came. In '08 they had to replace their top 3 rushers. A pair of true frosh, Josh Haden (PS#21) and Montel Harris (PS#159) took over. Haden had 479 (4.0) and Harris broke the team's frosh rushing record (776, Shelby Gamble, '79) with 900 (5.0). In '09 Haden had just 58 att in 7 gms (21.3, 3-7) and transferred. Harris set the BC soph rushing record and his 264 vs NCSt broke Phil Bennett's overall single game mark (253, 1972). His 41 carries vs MD tied Fred Willis' 1970 record. Harris finished with 1,457 (4.7) and 14 td's. True frosh Rolandan Finch (PS#32) had 134 (4.8) despite missing 6. Last year Finch RS. Harris, the best RB you've never heard of, rushed for 1,243 (4.6) despite missing the last 2.5 gms. Andre Williams had 108 vs Virg and filling in for an inj'd Harris vs Syr, set the school record with 42 rush att (185 yd). Not listed below are Mike Javorski (5'7" 167 Jr), Tahj Kimble (5'11" 199 rFr, PS#128) and Paul Maglio (5'9" 190 rFr). The only losses are FB's James McCluskey (7 st, 25 yd, PS#27), Codi Boek (6 gm) and RB Sterlin Phifer (101 yd, 5.9). Harris has already surpassed Amos Lawrence (NC 3273 after 3Y, 4391 ttl yds) as the ACC's top career rusher thru his Jr yr while also setting a school record for most 100 yd gms (21) topping Derrick Knight and Mike Cloud (18). Harris, who is more of a "hockey puck" back and Williams who is a big back at 216 lbs form one of the ACC's top RB combos.

RECEIVERS - Last year BC had to replace its #1 and #4 rec then lost Colin Larmond (#2 '09) to inj in late Aug. TE Chris Pantale (#3 '09) was #2 in '10 with 338 (10.9). Their other TE, Lars Anderson added 10 rec. The inexp'd group was led by true frosh Bobby Swigert (504, 12.9). The 6'6" Ifeanyi Momah also worked as a pass rush DE and was #4 with 296 (15.6) and has the size to be a mismatch. True frosh Alex Amidon, who has breakaway ability, played in 10 and finished tied at #2 (338, 21.1). Shakim Phillips (PS#22) was banged up in fall camp and had only 1 rec but he's ready to shine. Not listed in the PSL are TE's Jarrett Darmstatter (6'4" 221 rFr, PS#39) and Alex Foxen (6'4" 245 Jr). The only losses are Billy Flutie (0 rec) and TE Jordon McMichael (3 rec, PS#24). This should be one of the most improved receiving corps in the country.

DEFENSIVE LINE - BC could be called "O-line U" as they have had 13 NFL DC's over the last 15 yrs. In 2007 then-BC Jagodzinski switched to a zone blocking scheme and their numbers plummeted to 99 ypg rush (3.4) although they did allow just 3.3% sks thanks in part to QB Matt Ryan's quick release. They got better the next 2 yrs and LY they had to replace a 1st Tm AA C (#5DC) but had 9 of the top 10 back (108 car sts). RG Thomas Claiborne missed 2 gms, RT Rich Lapham missed 5 (inj) and Nathan Richman missed 2 (inj). Surprisingly the numbers slipped to 128 ypg rush (3.6) while the sks climbed to 31 (8.8%) with a true frosh QB. This year they lose RG Claiborne (9 st, 3Y stR), RT Lapham (8 st, 3Y stR) and 3rd Tm AA LT Anthony Castonzo (13 st, 4Y stR, #1DC IND). They do return 3 stRs and while their career sts drop to 50, they should remain healthier and produce better numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Eagles always have a strong rush D. In '08, led by the outstanding DT combo of BJ Raji and Ron Brace (both 325 lbs), they yielded 91 ypg (2.8). In '09 the pair were #1 and #2 DC's but they did have 3 back who had been full-time starters at DE. They were much smaller in the middle (no stR over 295) but only slipped to 103 ypg (3.0) with their 18 sks being the lowest mark since the '98 season (16). That unit was hit by inj's with just one player starting all 13. LY they had to replace 2 stRs and then lost DE Alex Albright after 7 sts. BC still improved to allowing an NCAA best 83 ypg rush (2.7) but the DL was one of the best LB corps in the country. I expected a lot out of rFr Dillon Quinn (PS#35) but he was susp'd the first 3 and only started the last 2. This year they lose Albright (8 gm, #1 tklr, 9 flt, 1 int), DT Damik Scale (12 st, #10 tklr, 9 flt) and DE Brad Newman (10 st, 25 tkl, 5.5 flt). This group is near '10 in terms of exp but it will be tough to top LY's outstanding rush D numbers.

LINEBACKERS - This was probably the most underrated LB corps in the country last year. The Eagles ret'd Luke Kuechly who was #2 in the FBS in tkl's as a true in '09 and also got back Mark Herzlich (miss '09). Herzlich did not quite regain '08's form but still had a solid year. They also added VHT true frosh Kevin Pierre-Louis (PS#25) and he finished as the tm's #2 tklr (13 st). Kuechly led the NCAA in tkl's (183) including 102 solo stops en route to 1st Tm AA honors and a 2nd place finish for the Butkus Award (only player in the country with two 20+ tkl games). Despite technically returning just 1 stR the D allowed only 19.5 ppg. This year they have to replace Herzlich (13 st, #3 tklr, 3.5 tfl, 4 int) and Mike Morrissey (9 tkl's '10, 7 st OF). This is clearly one of Spaziani's recruiting priorities with 6 VHT's in the 3 deep. Despite the loss of an outstanding player like Herzlich, this unit is again one of the ACC's top LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07 BC had to replace 2 stRs and surprisingly all'd 252 ypg passing (58%) which was the most in BC history but had a solid 21-25 ratio (#44 PDR). In '08 they only had 1 stR ret but moved up to #29 (9-26). In '09 they lost 2 stRs and slipped to #38 (62%, 12-15). LY they had to replace 2 stRs again. They lost both ret stRs after 8 gms to inj but still finished #26 (14-20). TY they lose CB Chris Fox (6 st, 33 tkl, 1 int, 6 pbu), CB DeLeon Gause (7 st, 27 tkl, 1 int) and FS Wes Davis (7 st, 36 tkl, 1 int). They ret 3 who started the final 6 and are more exp'd and add true frosh Al Louis-Jean (PS#14, IFS).

SPECIAL TEAMS - Former HC Tom O'Brien's top finish in his first 7 yrs ('97-'03) in my ST rankings was just #48. They finished #6 in '04 (#97 in '05) and #18 in his final year. In '07 they had everyone back but dropped to #67 and in Jag's 2nd year fell to #110. In '09 everyone ret'd and BC moved all the way up to #42. LY they had to replace their K (13 of 14 FG's), top PR (13.7) and top KR (22.1). The return game was horrific (#118 KR, #104 PR) but P Ryan Quigley (36.9 tm net in '09) avg 41.5 (37.8 net) and had 3 TB's on 33 KO's. rFr Nate Freese hit 22-25 FG's (L49). BC dropped to #92 and this year with both the K and P back and a return game that has only one way to go, I'll call for a good sized jump in my ST rankings.

COACHES - Twice in the last 5 yrs this position has left me scratching my head. Tom O'Brien, who had the most wins in BC history (75), made what I thought was a lateral move to NCSt in '07, despite the fact that he had perhaps his most talented team returning. Jeff Jagodzinski, who was the OC here from '97-'98 and the GB Packers' OC in '06, took over. After 2 yrs he opted to interview for an NFL HC job knowing that BC would fire him if he did. One constant for BC has been Frank Spaziani (15th yr at BC, 3rd as HC) who was the DC and interim HC for the bowl in '06 (won). He stayed on the staff despite not getting the HC job in '07 and then took over in '09. Two year OC Gary Tranquill retired. New OC Kevin Rogers spent the LSY as an NFL QB cch (Vikings) and has had stints with VT ('02-'05), ND ('99-'01) and Syr ('91-'98). The DC is Bill McGovern (15Y overall, 3rd as DC) who was the LB coach under Spaziani from '00-'08.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Tom O'Brien opened with a pair of losing seasons in '97 and '98. He then got the Eagles to a bowl 8 straight years (had 8+ wins 7 times) and they finished ranked 4 times. O'Brien made a surprising lateral move to NCSt. Jeff Jagodzinski inherited a veteran squad incl QB Matt Ryan. They had a dream season in '07 entering the year unranked but finishing 10-3 and #10. Despite having just 9 ret stRs, they had another good year in '08 at 9-5. They did get to the ACC Title game a 2nd straight year and then had a streak of 8 consec bowl wins snapped by Vanderbilt and finished unranked. Frank Spaziani inherited 13 ret stRs in '09. They were picked last in the Atlantic in the preseason ACC poll (I had them 3rd). They did lose their star defensive player Mark Herzlich for the season but still rolled to an 8-4 record before dropping their 2nd straight bowl, this time to USC. Despite a 5-3 ACC record, BC was -82.5 ypg and had 3 net close wins, so signs were pointing downward for '10. They only took on my #47 rated schedule but struggled at QB and turned it over to true frosh Rettig giving him his first action and start vs ND. BC actually opened up 2-5 (shutout at home for the 1st time S/'98 vs VT) but Spaziani was confident they could turn it around and they won their final 5 by 6.8 ppg. They lost RB Harris to injury vs UVA and then lost their 3rd straight bowl, this time to a Nevada team that finished #11. There is no question the defense deserves the credit for last season. Eleven times they held their opp under their season avg by 87 ypg. BC finally has exp at the QB position and has 14 ret stRs incl 9 on offense. They draw a tough schedule with road trips to VT and Miami outside of their div as well as UCF and ND in non-conf play. They do have a Top 20 defense, an improved offense and could open 5-0 but might be an underdog in 6 of the last 7.

BC shutout NU 49-0 in '92 (last & only time hosting). The Eagles are 12-2 in home openers (losses to GT & WF). The last time BC hosted a non-conf BCS school (not incl ND) was in '04 (beat PSU 21-7).

Just one prior meeting in 2008. BC won hosting UCF 34-7 with 24-12 FD & 405-252 yd edges. Boston College is 6-2 in true road openers but has dropped B2B games by 18 & 27 pts.

Eagles have won 4 str in series (last 1st gm, 1927). LY in BC's 1st visit to Durham they led 21-6 but Duke got a 95 yd FR TD to cut it to 5. BC stopped Duke on 48ql from the BC4 w/46.

BC is 18-5 vs UMass riding a 6 gm win streak (Lloss in '78). The L gm was in '07, BC won 24-14 w/a 323-277 yd edge (+12 FD). Minutemen went 6-5 LY incl a 42-37 loss to Mich (led 17-7 mid-2Q).

BC is on a series long 4 gm winning streak. LY RB Harris accounted for 63% (188) of BC's yds & all 3 TD's. The Eagles forced 5 TO's, 2 of which led to 35/2pl & 33/3pl TD drives.

Schools play for the O'Rourke-McFadden Trophy (started in '06). BC is 6-2-1 vs CU S/'60 but lost 25-7 its LTH. Gm took nearly 5 hrs due to 2 lightning delays as BC ran just 49 plays for 54 tld yds!

Note Dame: In '09 BC had 5 TO's. After ND scored a TD w/8:12 left to take the lead, BC had to punt, then was int at the ND26 & then again at the ND22 on their L/3 poss.

The L2 times BC has been shutout was vs VT ('98 & LY). The Eagles were hammered 48-14 their L visit to Blacksburg as they trailed 31-0 not getting their initial FD until 12:00 left in the 3Q.

BC is 5-3 vs MD including 3-1 all-time in College Park. L4 have all been decided by a TD or less. In BC's L trip here they won by 2 but had a 353-277 yd edge settling for 3 FG's inside the 40.

HT is 2-4 in ACC games (2-0 run). LY BC was +4 in TO's and led 19-17 until a 42 yd TD (on reverse) by FSU w/10:50 left. BC punted w/8:04 and never got the ball back w/FSU conv on 4&1 from the BC34 w/2:11.

HC Spaziani has been on the BC staff the L14Y & was DC when NCST HC O'Brien was here ('99-'08). BC is 4-2 vs NCST S/'05. LY BC trailed 44-10 mid-4Q as 40% of their yds (110) came on its L/2 poss.

BC is 6-2 vs ND S/'01 & 3-1 its last 4 visits to South Bend but lost its last trip 20-16 ('09).

BC has never won 2 str in this series (27 gms). BC's last & only win in Miami was in 1984 (Doug Flutie miracle pass on gm's last play). In '06 (L trip) BC was edged 17-14. BC did lead 14-3 getting 3 int's (one for a TD).

MARYLAND TERRAPINS

OL Andrew Gonnella

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Chris Turner started 30 games from '07-'09 throwing for 6,543 and leaving as the #2 career passer. His bkp in '09 was the mobile Jamarr Robinson. True frosh Danny O'Brien (PS#67) moved ahead of CJ Brown (PS#42) for #3 and they nearly took off his RS late. With Turner inj'd late in '09, Robinson started vs VT and Fla St and threw for 459 (54%, 2-0) and was the #3 rusher (229, 2.3). He was the clear-cut st'r going into '10. O'Brien came in vs Navy (4Q) and on his first career snap and only snap of the gm, fumbled. In the next gm vs Morgan St, O'Brien had 3 of his first 4 passes go for td's, even though he only hit 5-10-79. He was banged up and took just 1 snap vs WV but with Robinson inj'd, O'Brien started vs FIU and threw for 250 taking control of the job but had the normal freshman ups and downs. Robinson was still brought in to run the option but would have just 6 more passes (comp 5). O'Brien threw for 2,438 (57.0%, 22-8) with his 22 td's the 2nd most in a single season at Maryland. Ty Robinson (349, 53.1%, 4-2) trans and added to the mix are rFr Tyler Smith (PS#36), Brown and true Troy Jones. O'Brien did have the school's first 400 yd gm S/'93, was the ACC Rookie of Year (1st ever for MD) and figures to be stronger in his 2nd full yr as a st'r.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 MD had to replace a pair of backs who comb'd for 1,573 (4-0). The leading returnee, Da'Rel Scott (PS#73, 4.29 spd), had 135 (9.6) as a rFr. Scott rushed for 407 (7.3) in the first 3 of '08 and despite being banged up still became the 7th Terp overall (first S/'02, Chris Downs) to top 1,000 with 1,133 (5.4). He was susp for the 1H of the bowl but still rushed for 174 (12.4)! Davin Meggett rushed for 457 (5.1). In '09 those 2 ret'd. Scott broke his wrist (miss 5) but still led with only 425 (5.0). Meggett (4 st) had 338 (3.4) while rFr Gary Douglas (PS#86) added 81 (5.1). While Scott started all 13 LY, the numbers were disappointing as 200 of his 708 (5.8) came in the bowl (MD bowl record). He was also the #6 rec (170, 12.1). Meggett led with 720 (5.7) while DJ Adams (PS#71) played in 9 and had 239 (3.6). TY they must replace Scott (#7DC NYG), Mike Salvatico (3 gm) and FB Taylor Watson (3 st). While at UC, new HC Edsall had a RB lead the FBS in rush in '08 and was #2 in '10 and also had the 1st RB duo each over 1,000 yds in UC history. His first group here should at least match last years numbers, especially with his history of productive RB's.

RECEIVERS - Darius Heyward-Bey was a #1DC in '08. In '09 Torrey Smith was by far the team's top WR with 824 (13.5). Adrian Cannon (PS#36) finally lived up to his VHT billing (6 rec '07-'08) and was #2 (468, 10.6). Soph Ronnie Tyler (PS#75) had 346 (12.4). Last year they only had to replace a TE (7 st). Smith led again with 1,055 (15.7) which was the 2nd highest single season tfl in MD history. Cannon was #2 with 324 (9.0) and #3 was Matt Furstenburg (206, 17.2) while Quintin McCree finished #4 (188, 11.8). Tyler dropped to 149 (11.5). TE Lansford Watson (PS#10) tore an ACL in Aug and Furstenburg (PS#98) started 11. This year they must replace Cannon (12 st), Smith (1st Tm ACC, 12 st, #2DC BAL), LaQuan Williams (3 st, 6 rec), Emani Lee-Odoi (1 st), TE Watson (trans) and TE Will Yeatman (4 st, 134, 10.3). This unit will be down a few notches with their top 2 gone but does have FIVE VHT's.

OFFENSIVE LINE - This unit was a major question mark in '09 as they had to replace 3 full time st'r's (1st Tm ACC C, #3DC LG, 2Y st'r RT) and 2 bkps (comb 8 sts). They had just 27 career sts and started their first true frosh on the O-line since '05. He was lost after 7 gms as they used 8 different starting O-lines in the first 9 gms. Not surprisingly the numbers dropped to 106 ypg rush (3.1, 36 sks), their worst since 1997. LY MD had to replace 2 st'r's (3Y st'r C, #4DC LT) and while they had just 39 career sts, Friedgen called the group "vastly improved" in the spg. The 3 ret st'r's managed to start all 13 so they improved to 138 ypg (4.1, 22 sk). TY MD loses C Paul Pinegar (13 st, 2Y st'r, HM ACC) but has 9 of the top 10 back (73 car sts) and despite the coaching change, should improve again.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Friedgen's first 4 D-lines all allowed under 3.5 ypc and the next 5 years allowed over 3.9 ypc every season. In '08 the unit was undersized with the DT's avg 278 lbs. In '09 MD had to replace 6 DL (comb 42 sts, 12 sks) and had just 7 sts ret but all'd a respectable 151 ypg with 27 sks. LY I pointed out that normally when a tm loses 3 st'r's, they are weaker but their 12 returning career sts were 5 more than in '09. The Terps' D-line did indeed improve to allowing 124 ypg (3.4) best S/'01. Soph Joe Vellano earned ACC DL POW in his first career st with 10 tkl vs Navy. This year they lose DE Drew Gloster (12 st, 33 tkl, 2.5 tfl) and DE Derek Drummons (8 gm). Not in the PSL are DT's Darius Kilgo (6'3" 290 rFr, PS#174) and Alex Walker (6'0" 280 rFr) but they have their most experienced D-line in 5 years and I look for even more improvement.

LINEBACKERS - Friedgen produced a star LB in each of his 10 yrs. EJ Henderson won the Butkus and Bednarik Awards and was ACC DPOY in '03. D'Quell Jackson was 1st Tm ACC in '04 and 1st Tm AA in '05 (ACC DPOY). Erin Henderson was 2nd Tm ACC in '06 and 1st Tm in '07. Alex Wujciak was 2nd Tm ACC in '08 taking over the fabled MLB spot and earned 1st Tm ACC in both '09 and '10. He was the lone returning st'r in '09 and the tm all'd 31.3 ppg. Part of the reason MD made my Most Improved List LY was that I was very high on their LB corps which ret'd their #1, #2 and #5 tkl's. As you would expect, the Terps improved to 22.2 ppg. TY they lose MLB 1st Tm ACC Wujciak (13 st, #1 tkl'r) and SLB Adrian Moten (13 st, #4 tkl'r, 6 tfl). They ret their #3 and #10 tkl's and move 1st Tm ACC FS Kenny Tate (#2 tkl'r) to Star LB. This looks to be a quality group even with the loss of Wujciak but has less overall exp.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Terps had to replace 2 st'r's (#3DC) in '09 then lost their starting CB to a brkn leg in Wk 2. They took the RS off true frosh Eric Franklin in Wk 8. The unit dropped to #98 in my VHT. LY they had to replace 3 st'r's but plugged in a couple of PDR's in USC trans Antwine Perez (PS#3) and Kenny Tate (PS#15) who both became full-time st'r's. Despite having just 1 st'r back, the Terps improved to #18 (54.1%, 17-19). TY MD loses both VHT's in 3rd Tm ACC SS Perez (13 st, #5 tkl'r, 3 int, 8 pbu) and Tate, who moves to LB, as well as 2 bkps (9 tkl). They do have 6 of the top 8 back but probably won't match last year's high finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Terps had some fine ST players under Friedgen including K Nick Novak (ACC's leading scorer), Steve Suter (NCAA most PR/KR ssn) and P Brooks Barnard (MD P avg leader). They finished #9 in my ST rankings in '02 and #28, #44, #42, #40, #58 and #44 the next 6 yrs. In '09 they had to replace their K. P Baltz was inj'd and true frosh Nick Ferrara had 35 punts (tm net 34.8). Ferrara, who has a strong leg, hit 18-25 FG (L50) but had just 4 TB on 55 KO. They were #45 in '09 and with everyone back last year, I projected them to be in the top 20 in my mag. Baltz was the P (net 35.5) and with Ferrara banged up in August, Baltz hit 14-18 FG (L52). Ferrara had 5 TB on 66 KO. KR Torrey Smith's avg dropped from 25.7 with 2 td to 19.5 LY, however, Tony Logan improved his PR numbers from 6.7 to 18.1 with 2 td's. MD also blk'd 4 punts and moved all the way up to #13. TY they lose P/K Baltz and KR Smith (ACC and MD record for career KR yds) but Ferrara (all 3 duties '09) is back. This is a solid ST unit but probably will not match LY's numbers.

COACHES - Ralph Friedgen took over a team that had 5 straight losing seasons and led them to a 31-8 record in his first 3 years (best ever ACC HC). He was the National COY in his 1st season (2001 ACC Title). After winning just 2 in '09 Friedgen rebounded and despite being named ACC COY LY, was relieved of his duties. Just days prior to the announcement, HC-in-waiting James Franklin left for Vandy. They brought in '10 BE COY Randy Edsall who is coming off a 12 year stint at Conn. Edsall took the Huskies to 4 straight bowls including their first ever BCS game LY. OC Gary Crowton was the HC at LA Tech ('96-'98) and BYU ('01-'04). Most recently he was the OC at LSU ('07-'10) and Oregon ('05-'06). The DC spot has already seen changes. DC Don Brown originally decided to stay but then left for Conn in Feb and they promoted newly hired LB coach Todd Bradford (S Miss DC '08-'10) for the job.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Ralph Friedgen began his time here with a bang. In his first year he not only delivered the Terps' first winning ssn S/'95, but they got their first ACC Title since 1985. In his first 3 seasons MD won 10, 11 and 10 gms finishing #11, #13 and #17. He had losing seasons in 4 of the next 6 yrs but made my Most Improved List twice in that span finishing 9-4 in '06 and 8-5 in '08. In '09 I picked them last in the Atlantic as many factors pointed downward. They knocked off eventual ACC Atlantic Champ Clemson, 24-21, but finished 2-10 and were -91.3 ypg in the ACC (2nd worst). Perhaps due to the economy the Fridge was granted another year and last year, for the 3rd time in 5 yrs, MD was back on my Most Improved List. They jumped out to a 14-0 lead vs Navy but the Mids were SOD inside the 5 three times with the last coming with :34 left as MD escaped with a 3 pt win. They opened the season 4-1 and outgained Clemson 350-213 in Death Valley but lost that gm by 24 due to -3 in TO's. They led BC 24-7 in a 3 pt win and destroyed WF 62-14 to rise to 6-2. Miami got a td with :37 left to pull out a 26-20 win. After MD beat UVA 42-23, they still controlled their own destiny for the ACC Atlantic Title. Trailing FSU 23-16, they were driving for the tying td when they were int'd and ret'd 96 yds for a td and a misleading final (432-354 yd edge). With NCST needing a win for the Atlantic Title, MD beat them 38-31 in a gm the Terps led 38-17. The Fridge was the ACC COY but was fired and the tm gave him an emotional send off in a 51-20 bowl rout of EC. The Terps had nine wins for the 2nd time since 2003 and finished #23. TY there are a lot of factors pointing downward. Maryland benefitted from +15 in turnovers, had 3 net close wins and their off ypp of 10.9 was the 2nd best in the FBS. Despite their 5-3 ACC record, they were +13.1 ypg (7th best). New HC Edsall always gets the most out of his teams and last year won the BE and was in the Fiesta Bowl with a team that was -86 ypg in conference play! He is a 1st year coach here and must learn the players strengths and weaknesses while most of his opposing coaches are all well established with their teams. Maryland is capable of getting back to the post season but won't match last year's 9 win total.

Third ACC meeting as the HT is 2-0. LY MD led 20-18 until UM went 82/7p scoring the GW TD w/37 left. MD did move the ball to the UM30 but stat wise they were dominated the entire gm.
Bonus: MD is 12-1 in Byrd Stadium openers incl 5 str wins (all vs FCS schools) by 20 ppg.
Wake Forest: MD is 9-3 the L12Y vs WF but has dropped B2B gms in Winston-Salem.
New HC Edsall spent the L12Y at Connecticut going 74-70 (school's all-time win leader) including 1-6 vs WV (win was LY). The Terrapins are 27-4 hosting non-conf foes since 1998.
MD is 6-0 vs Temple. The last meeting was in 2005, MD won 38-7 w/26-11 FD & 47-226 yd edges. Edsall is no stranger to Temple as he was 3-3 w/UC including a 30-16 loss LY.
First meeting, Tigers went 1-10 LY. This will mark just the 4th FBS opp for TU (0-3, avg L by 32 ppg) but 4th in L4Y. MD & TU are 33 miles apart (Towson in Baltimore area).
Edsall was the DC/DB coach at GT in '98. MD is just 1-8 in Atlanta incl B2B losses by a combined 8 pts. In '06 (L/trip) MD led 23-14 into the 4Q. Terps are just 4-12 the L4Y on the ACC road.
MD is just 7-17 vs Clemson S'87. LY was very misleading as MD had FD & yd edges (+137) but after a 7-3 lead all'd an 87 yd KR TD & a 61 yd IR TD while also missing a 33 yd FG, SOD at C29 & int at C21.
Terrapins have never won in Tallahassee going 0-10, avg score 45-19. MD almost ended the series road losing streak LTH but up 26-22 couldn't get a FD & all'd a 3 yd TD run (44/4p) w/32 left.
Edsall spent 1991-'93 as the DB coach at BC. MD is 3-5 vs BC & never has won B2B meetings. Last year MD led 24-7 into the 4Q as BC gained 142 (50%) of their yards in the 4Q.
LY MD snapped a 3 gm series losing streak. The Terrapins trailed 23-21 into the 4Q but exploded for 21 pts (103-31 yd edge w/2 int's). Into 2011, MD is 4-8 the L4Y vs Coastal Div tms.
MD was shutout 22-0 in '02, until meeting, FedEx Field in Landover is home to the NFL's Redskins. Edsall beat ND 33-30 in '09 in South Bend in 2OT (came back from an early 14-0 deficit).
In '09 MD was down 35-10 at HT & 42-17 as they gained 200 of their 369 yds (54%) in the 4Q.
LY QB O'Brien had career highs in att (47), comp (33), yds (417) & TD passes (4) vs NCST.
Maryland is 8-3 S'00 & LTH lost by a TD only amassing 91 2H yds after losing their starting QB.

WAKE FOREST DEMON DEACONS

LG Joe Looney

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Jim Grobe likes a QB that can run the option. In '06 rel starter Ben Mauk was lost in the opener and rFr Riley Skinner led WF to the ACC Title. Grobe changed to a short passing off to take advantage of Skinner, who is a high % QB. Skinner became the 2nd QB in ACC history to pass for more than 2,000 in 4 consec yrs and became the first WF QB to top 3,000 with 3,160 (66%, 26-12) in '09. He finished #4 all-time in the ACC with 9,762 yds and #2 in accuracy (66.9% missed #1 by .0005). Last year there was a 4-way QB battle and in the opener, all 4 played. Soph Ted Stachitas (PS#52) has had an injury riddled career (HS, coll) but won the starting job. He started the first 2, came back for GT and was injured again and OFY. True frosh Tanner Price (PS#136) took over but was inj'd vs Fla St. He returned vs WF and shot over the frosh records hitting 37-53-326 yds vs Navy. The next week vs VT he repeatedly threw passes into the ground or over the head of open rec's (3-16-92) and was even benched for PS#71 Skylar Jones (119 pass yds in 5 gms). Stachitas started 3 (131, 52.2%, 0-1) and was #4 in gross rush yds (216). RFr Brendan Cross (PS#87) played in 4 hitting 2-7. Price finished with 1,349 (56.8%, 7-8) and was #3 in gross rush yards (280). Due to inj's Grobe used less option as he was down to his 4th string QB at times. At the end of the season he said he would've liked to go back to more option once the QB's were healthy. This year they only lose Jones making the group vastly more experienced and they can only remain healthier. Not in the PSL are Patrick Thompson (6'2" 210 rFr) and Keenan Rush (6'0" 190 rFr). Turner Faulk (5'8" 170 Jr) moved to WR post-spring. True frosh Kevin Sousa (PS#33) picked WF over Michigan and Miami and will challenge for the #1 spot.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2007 Grobe started VHT rFr Josh Adams (PS#34) who delivered with 953 (4.4). In '08 Adams was banged up (402, 3.3). RFr Brandon Pendergrass (PS#115) led with 528 (3.5). Kevin Harris (PS#91) had 176 (5.3) with 136 of that coming in the bowl! In '09 all 3 ret'd but Harris missed 6 (156, 4.3). Pendergrass was #2 (399, 4.8). Adams did not recapture his rFr form and had just 541 (4.8) and was the #4 rec (307, 11.0). True frosh FB Tommy Bohanon (PS#140) earned PT (51, 3.2). Last year they had to replace Harris (3 st) and FB Mike Rinfrette (8 st, 261 tl yd). Adams started 8 but had just 316 (3.5). RFr Josh Harris (PS#296) caught the attention of many incl MD HC Friedgen who described him as "having great acceleration and speed" after an incredible game against VT's prolific D with 241 rush yds. It was the most rush yds ever all'd to one ply'r by VT. Harris finished with 720 (5.7). RFr Michael Campanaro moved in from WR late and had 123 (4.2). Pendergrass (shoulder) played in just 6 (115, 4.8). FB Bohanon (550 bench, 4.6 spd) added 77 (4.5) and 11 rec. Not in the PSL are Khiry Sutton (5'8" 180 rFr) and Tyler Jackson (6'0" 205 rFr). This year Adams is the only loss and Harris should top 1,000 if he stays healthy.

RECEIVERS - In '09 WF had to replace DJ Boldin (#1 ACC in rec's '08) and their #3 rec. Grobe said he wanted to get Devon Brown and Chris Givens more involved in the running game like he did with Kenneth Moore in '06. Grobe also said the team lacked a game breaker at WR and felt those two rFr provided that. Brown was #2 with 671 (11.0) and 150 (4.2) rush. Givens (10.44 in 100M) was #3 with 629 (14.0) and 98 (6.5) rush. Marshall Williams (390 in '08) led with 867 (14.4). LY everyone ret'd and Givens, despite just 8 sts (susp opener) led with 514 (14.7) while Brown dropped to 302 (7.7). This year they lose Brown (8 st) and Marshall Williams (272, 11.3, 12 st). Adding depth are TE's Neil Basford (6'4" 245 rFr, PS#60), Spencer Bishop (6'2" 240 So) and Jonathan Garcia (6'4" 210 rFr, PS#81). While not as exp'd this unit will have increased production with better stability at QB as it has 8 HT frosh and soph.

OFFENSIVE LINE - With Skinner at QB from '07-'09, WF operated in more of a traditional pro-style offense. They rushed for a Grobe era low 143 ypg rush (3.4) in '07 and dipped below that to 121 (3.1) and 132 (3.7) in '08 & '09. LY they had to replace two 3 yr st's (#5DC) and a 4 yr st'r. Despite returning just 2 st's, they moved back to more of an option attack and the rush totals improved to 159 ypg (4.1, 26 sks). This year they lose C Russell Nenon (12 st, 3Y st'r) but have 9 of the top 10 back including 4 st's who have added size. Look for WF's best rush numbers since '05.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In Grobe's first 3 yrs WF played a 3-3-5 due to a lack of depth on the D-line. The depth got better and they allowed just 3.1, 3.2 and 3.5 ypc from '06-'08 (4 man line). In '09 they had to replace 1.5 st's then a ret st'r only played 5 (inj). They were small and inexp'd at DE as LB Gelo Orange (then 225 lbs) started 5. WF allowed 164 ypg rush and their 4.6 ypc was a Grobe era high (only 24 sks). LY they had to replace 2 st's and this time the inexp was at DT (21 car tk). They also moved DE Tristan Dorty to LB so they had just 1 ret st'r. After a solid spg Grobe was very excited about rFr Nikita Whitlock and he did not disappoint (2nd Tm Fr AA) with 10.5 tfl in the middle and "by the end of the year he was nearly unblockable". DE Kyle Wilber should be considered the tm's MVP after leading the tm with 14.5 tfl. They shifted to a 3-4 at mid-season but the rush D still slipped to 193 ypg (4.7). DE Wilber started the last 4 at OLB and stays there this year. Seven return with starting exp and WF finally has an exp'd D-line and will be much tougher up front.

LINEBACKERS - From '06-'08 WF had an outstanding LB combo of Aaron Curry and Stanley Arnoux. It's not surprising in those years WF allowed just 15.4, 22.2 and 18.3 ppg. In '09 they had to replace Curry (#1DC), Arnoux (#4DC) and their #5 tk/r. The unit ret'd just 3 career sts and as you would expect allowed 26.3 ppg. LY they had to replace their #1 and #6 tk/ls but ret'd their #4 and #8. WF plummeted to 35.8 ppg (worst of any BCS tm). This year they lose MLB Hunter Haynes (12 st, #1 tk/r, 6.5 tfl), 3rd Tm ACC WLB Matt Woodlief (8 st, #4 tk/r, 11.5 tfl) and MLB Lee Malchow (1 st, 13 tk). Dorty moved over to DE for part of spring (Smith susp) and could line up at either spot TY. They return their #3, #7, #9, #10 and #15 tk/ls and I look for improvement from the WF LB's.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Led by outstanding CB Alphonso Smith WF had finishes of #41, #21 and #36 in my PDR from '06-'08. They had to replace 3 st's in '09 (#2, #4 DC's) and slid to #56. Last year they had to replace 1 starter (#3DC) but did have 6 of the top 8 back. FS Alex Frye only started 6 due to injury (still led tm with w/3 int). Surprisingly the more experienced unit plummeted to #108 (61.3%, 29-11). This year they lose FS Frye (#5 tk/r, 6 pd) but have 7 of the top 8 back and should make huge strides in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - WF was led by outstanding K Sam Swank for 4 yrs. They finished #16 in my ST rankings in '05, #7 in '06, #52 in '07 and in '08 Swank missed 6 gms and they finished #34 (thanks to 4 blk'd punts). In '09 they had to replace Swank and dropped to #82. Jimmy Newman (PS#26) hit 11-17 FG (L/44) as a true frosh and LY connected on his last 11 FG's (12-13, L/48) despite the fact that the K and P jobs were still open a week prior to the opener. He had 4 TB on 56 KO. Shane Popham avg 39.2 (37.5 tm net) in '08, 38.9 (35.0 net) in '09 but LY avg just 37.1 (31.5 tm net). Michael Campanaro (PS#42) was the top KR (24.2) and Devon Brown the top PR (11.7). I look for WF to improve upon '10's #102 finish.

COACHES - Jim Grobe is just the 5th coach in school history to lead the Demon Deacons to a bowl. After recording B2B winning seasons in his first 2 yrs ('01-'02), he led the team to their first ACC Title S/'70 (2nd ever) in his 5th year ('06). That year he was AP National COY. Wake is the smallest BCS school which affects the depth. OC Steed Lobotzke enters his 9th year as OC (11th overall). DC Brad Lambert left to become the HC at UNC-Charlotte leaving Tim Billings (6th yr WF) and Brian Knorr (4th yr WF) to serve as co-DC's in 2011.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Jim Grobe had veteran teams in each of his first 2 yrs and went 6-5 and 7-6 but then suffered through 3 straight losing seasons. In 2006, WF was picked last in the ACC preseason poll but won their first ACC Title since 1970 after not being over .500 in ACC play since 1988. Over the last 58 years of ACC play, WF has had 8 winless years compared to just 8 winning ACC records. WF was also the first team in ACC history to record 6 road wins including a 30-0 shutout of Fla St in Tallahassee. They accomplished all of that despite losing their starting QB in Wk 1 and starting RB in Wk 3! In '07 they had another solid season going 9-4 incl a win over Conn in the bowl. That '07 squad had 4,425 yds on offense and allowed 4,425 on defense. In '08 Grobe had 14 ret st's and WF was ranked in the preseason for the first time in school history (#23). WF needed a win in the season finale vs Vandy to wrap up a bowl then knocked off Navy in the EagleBank Bowl to finish 8-5. They benefitted from +17 in TO's and had to replace #1, #2, #4 and #4 NFL DC's on defense. With a much less exp'd D in '09, they allowed 86 ypg and 8 ppg more despite opening 4-2, fell to 5-7. LY they had to replace their career leading passer Riley Skinner and switched to more of an option offense and then suffered through a myriad of QB inj's. They opened up 2-0 but then dropped road games to Stanford and Florida St by a combined 99-24. They led GT 17-6 after 3Q's but all'd a 9 yd td pass with :15 left giving GT a 4 pt win. The next wk they led Navy 27-21 but the Middies got a td with :26 left to pull out a 1 pt win. After getting blown out by a combined 114-35 on the road the next 2, QB Price tossed 4 int's vs BC and they lost by 10. They lost to NCST and Clemson by a combined 68-13. Vandy's HC announced he was resigning and an emotional VU team had a 443-299 yd grade but WF, thanks to 2 blk'd punts, rolled to a 3-1-3 win. Grobe's 3-9 season was the worst of his tenure and WF was -165.8 ypg in conf action which was 71.2 ypg worse than the #11 team. WF has the 2nd most ret st's in the ACC (17 is most here S/'01). I think Grobe will get the most out of the talent on hand and WF could improve upon LY's 3 win total and are a few upsets away from a bowl.

VIRGINIA TECH HOKIES

TE Chris Drager (DE in '10)

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '06 Sean Glennon (PS#21) started 13 and threw for 2,191 (56%, 11-11). In '07 VT signed Tyrod Taylor (PS#3) who drew many comparisons to Michael Vick. The two split time but Glennon took control by year's end and threw for 1,796 (61%, 12-5). Taylor threw for 927 (54%, 5-3, 429 rush). In '08 HC Frank Beamer made a surprising announcement that Taylor would RS. After losing the opener to EC, he reversed his decision. Taylor started 10 and threw for 1,036 (57%) but with a poor 2-7 ratio (738 rush, 5.0). Glennon (4 st) threw for 743 (60%, 3-5). Taylor was the clear-cut starter in '09 and showed obvious improvement (2311, 56%, 13-5, 370 rush) as 32% of his comp's were for 20+ yds (11% in '08). Without an exp'd bkp Taylor ran less. Rfr Ju-Ju Clayton's (PS#185) first collegiate pass was an 80 yd td vs BC but that was his only completion on 5 att's (5 gm). Last year Logan Thomas (PS#3TE) battled Clayton in Aug but RS. Taylor had a fine senior season and tied the school record for 100 yd rush gms by a QB (Bob Schweickert 6, '62-'64). He was named ACC POY (27 of 57 votes) as he threw for 2,743 (59.7%, 24-5) and was the #2 rusher (594, 4.5). Thomas played in 7 (12-26-107). Taylor departs (#6DC BAL) as the career passing (7017) and total offense (9213) leader. Thomas is 6'6" 245 lb with a powerful arm and great mobility which sounds a little like Cam Newton. It did take Taylor a few years to hit his stride here so I look for a drop in their pass efficiency numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2008 Rfr Darren Evans (PS#16) set the ACC single season rushing record with 1,265 (4.4). Evans tore his ACL in Aug '09 so the top returnee was soph Josh Oglesby (PS#75, 88, 2.3 '08) and he battled Rfr Ryan Williams (PS#11) and true frosh David Wilson (PS#8). All 3 RB's were banged up in Aug. They opted to play true frosh Wilson more in Wk 2 and he along with Williams, became the first VT duo ever to top 160 each in the same game. Williams did have a costly fumble vs NC (4Q) but after that he played with a vengeance and broke Evans' frosh record with 1,655 (5.6) and an ACC record 22 total td's (1st Fr to lead ACC in rush and scoring). LY RB coach Billy Hite called it the strongest backfield he's had in 32 yrs at VT. Wilson wanted to RS unless he got meaningful PT but the coaches opted to play him. They regretted that decision after 2 weeks but it turned out to be valuable as Williams was in'd. Wilson finished #3 with 619 (5.5). Williams played in just 10 (5 st, 477, 4.3) and Evans led with 854 (5.7). Not in the PSL are James Hopper (5'9" 181 So, PS#217), Justin Ryals (5'4" 170 rFr), Greg Gaddell (5'10" 191 rFr) and Daniel Dyer (5'9" 201 rFr). With the early departure of both Evans and Williams (#2DC ARZ), this unit drops several notches as it would have been one on the nation's elite if they had returned.

RECEIVERS - In '08 VT had to replace THREE NFL DC's with their top returning WR having just 3 rec. The inexp showed as there were numerous games with key dropped passes. VT was one of just 2 teams left in the FBS that did not have a WR with a td catch when they finally got one in Wk11. True frosh Jarrett Boykin led with 441 (14.7) while Rfr Danny Coale was #2 with 408 (11.3). In '09 the top 4 ret'd and Boykin improved to 835 (20.9) while Coale was #2 with 614 (20.5) and Dyrell Roberts had 390 (17.7). Boykin led again LY with 847 (16.0) while Coale was #2 (732, 18.8) and Roberts was #3 (303, 14.4). The 6'4" Marcus Davis (PS#50) was #4 (239, 12.6). TY they lose TE Andre Smith (12 st, 195, 9.8) and Xavier Boyce is very questionable (off field incident). Not in the PSL are Mark Carter (6'0" 177 So), Willie Byrn (5'10" 176 rFr), Drew Turgyan (6'0" 209 rFr), Chris Caver (5'6" 171 rFr) and Corey Fuller (6'2" 188 Jr). They will likely use more TE sets and moved in Chris Drager (PS#21, 11 st DE) who played TE as a Rfr. They also add in VHT Rfr Jerome Lewis (PS#14). This is a unit with 5,362 career yds and I look for Davis to have a breakout year.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '06 VT had to replace 3 st's (all 1st or 2nd Tm ACC). They struggled with their lowest numbers since 1932 (107) with 113 ypg (3.2) while allowing 29 sks (9.0%). In '07 VT had to replace 2 st's and while they improved to 134 ypg (3.3), they allowed a mind-boggling 54 sks (14.2%). In '08 VT had to replace a #1DC but moved up to 174 ypg (3.8) while still all'g the highest sk % in the FBS (14.5%). In '09 they had to replace 2 multiyear st's and improved to 208 ypg (4.7) with 31 sks (12.4%). LY they had to replace 2nd Tm ACC OLs and put up similar numbers (199, 4.9, 34 sk, 9.9%). VT VT loses C Beau Warren (14 st, 2 yr st'r) but has 9 of their top 10 back and goes from 54 to 98 career sts ret'g. I'll call for them to have their lowest sk % since '03 and improve their rush numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - VT always has an exceptional run defense but in '09 with a veteran D-line (5 of top 6 back), they allowed 128 ypg rush and 3.6 ypc (worst S/'03). LY they had to replace 3 st's (#2DC) and a bkp (5 sts). With just 1 st'r back, the rush numbers got even weaker to 156 ypg (worst S/'92) and a remarkable 4.7 ypc, the worst in the Beamer era (4.6 in 1987). This year they lose 2nd Tm ACC DT John Graves (14 st, 37 tkl, 1.5 sk), 2nd Tm ACC DE Steven Friday (14 st, 54 tkl, 8.5 sk) and they also move DE Drager (11 sts, 34 tkl, 6 tfl) to TE. Despite having just 1 st'r back (same as LY), I look for an improved rush D after an extremely poor 2010.

LINEBACKERS - In both '08 & '09 VT had to replace their #1 and #2 tkl's. In '10 they had to replace their #1 tkl'r (#7DC) again along with their #6 tkl'r. The lone ret st'r, Barquell Rivers (PS#42), missed the year with injury and Lyndell Gibson was the only ret LB who had over 17 tkl's in (53) '09. The inexp'd LB corps was part of the reason VT allowed 20.6 ppg (worst S/'03). This year they lose Gibson (13 st, 4 tkl'r) and Zach Luckett (4 tkl). They have 2 st's back (#1 & #8 tkl's) and also get Rivers back making them vastly more experienced.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - VT always has a solid pass D and in the last 7 years they have finished #11, #2, #13, #2, #25, #9 and #9 in my PDR. LY they had to replace 3 DB's (comb 32 sts) but I listed them as having 2 st's back as ROV Davon Morgan started the last 4 and had more tackles than the departed ROV. First time starting CB Jayron Hosley snagged 9 int's, which tied the school record set in 1967 by Ron Davidson. VT had an AA DB every year from 1999 to 2008 and after not having one in '09, Hosley was named 1st Tm AA by Walter Camp. This year the Hokies lose CB Rashad Carmichael (12 st, 40 tkl, 4 int, 7 pbu, #4DC HOU) and 2nd Tm ACC ROV Morgan (14 st, 52 tkl'r, 5 int). LY they had a comb'd 26 career sts ret' to the unit and now have 40 incl their star and will once again finish near the top.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Beamer coaches this unit himself and VT almost always finishes near the top of my ST rankings (#1 in '07). In '08 they had to replace their K and top KR and it was shocking to me that VT finished a lowly #79. They gave up 3 PR td's for the first time in over 50 yrs and had 2 punts blk'd. VT did lose their 2 gunners unexpectedly. In '09 I called for them to be one of the most improved ST units in the country and VT did not disappoint (#13). For the 3rd straight yr they had a 1st time senior starter at K and Matt Waldron (PS#17) hit 20-23 (146). LY they had to replace both their K and P (#6DC, 37.6 net) but with Beamer as the head man, they improved to #6. Chris Hazley, a Sr walk-on, set a school record for consec FG's in a season with 21 after missing his first. New P Brian Saunders avg'd 44.0 (38.3 net) and Justin Myer had an outstanding 30 TB on 94 KO's (#4 FBS). David Wilson was a top-notch KR (26.5, 2 td) and Jayron Hosley led on PR's (12.6, 1 td). This year they lose their P and K but Beamer should fashion another fine unit.

COACHES - I think Frank Beamer is one of the most outstanding coaches in the NCAA. He was a DB at VT from '66-'68 and the Hokies were in just 6 bowls prior to his arrival ('87). Beamer had four losing seasons in his first six, including 2-8-1 in '92 but he's taken them to 18 bowls since '93 and has won the ACC Title 3 of the 4 LY. OC Bryan Stinespring is entering his 19th year here (OC S/'02). Bud Foster has been with VT S/'87 and the DC since 1995. He was a Broyles Award finalist in '99, '01 and '05 and won the Award in '06 (only 4x finalist in award's history). Foster's defense was #1 in the FBS in '05 and '06, #4 in '07, #7 in '08, #12 in 09 but fell off LY (#52) due to injuries and inexperience.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 1999, the Hokies played in the National Title game and went 22-2 in a two year stretch. They are one of just 3 teams in the NCAA that have been to 18 straight bowls (Fla, Fla St). VT made the move to the ACC in 2004 and has been the dominant team in the league going 49-11 and playing in 4 of the 6 ACC Championship games, while winning ACC Titles in 2004 (no title game), '07, '08 and '10. They have finished in the AP Top 10 four of the last 7 years. Last year they opened with a National Title elimination game vs Boise St and came up short, then with a disappointed team had to play on a short week, in the rain, vs an FCS squad. Despite a 362-235 yd edge, they were stunned by James Madison 21-16. The season appeared lost, especially when they trailed EC 24-21 at the half the following week, but they rallied to win. VT then got their first shutout since '06 downing BC 19-0 in their ACC opener. The following week they had their biggest rally ever under Beamer trailing 17-0 in the 2Q, before getting 2 late scores for a 41-30 win at NCST. After wiping out their next 3 foes by a combined 141-49, they trailed GT 14-7 when GT lost QB Joshua Nesbitt to injury and VT rallied for a 7 pt win. They were +11 in TO's at NC and Miami and in the ACC Title game, FSU played without QB Christian Ponder as VT won 44-33. VT was then whipped by Stanford in the bowl 40-12. VT was the first team to go unbeaten in ACC play since 2000 but benefitted from +19 in TO's and this year has just 12 ret st's. For most teams that would have me calling for a drop-off but with Beamer as the head man, this year's team has a great shot at its 5th ACC Title in 8 years and remember LY they only returned 11 starters and were +9 in TO's in '09. This team is not dominant but reminds me of the 2010 Auburn tm in terms of schedule. VT should be favored in all 6 road games and gets its toughest opp's at home (like eventual Nat'l Champ Auburn who had 4 of its 5 toughest at home). Despite only ranking #15 in my Power Poll, 8 of my 9 sets of power ratings calls for a 12-0 regular season!

VT's loss to FCS James Madison LY snapped a 32 gm win streak vs non-conf opp's at home. VT is 5-0 vs ASU (L/gm in '82). App St went 10-3 LY & have made the FCS playoffs the L6Y ('06, '07 & '08 FCS Titles).

With LY's win vs EC, VT avoided its worst start S/B7 (Beamer's 1st at the helm). VT has won 8 of 9 incl 3 str at EC. VT is 17-1 in true road openers (last loss in Greenville ironically was the '92 road opener).

Virginia Tech is 3-0 vs Arkansas St ('94, '97 & '02) with the avg score 49-5. VT has outgained ASU on avg 422-191 (22-11 avg FD edge) holding the Red Wolves to a combined 121 rush yds (1.2).

The Hokies haven't been to Huntington S'40 (last loss in series). VT won the 3 most recent gms ('02, '05 & '09) by an avg score of 47-15. Into 2011, VT is 3-1 in true non-conf AG's since joining the ACC ('04).

VT has won 5 str by 23 ppg. Last gm ('07) VT was outgained 380-219 (-12 FD's) as 29 of its 41 pts came on ST/def incl a 32 yd IR TD, 82 yd PR TD & 100 yd KR TD (VT led 24-3 mid-2Q with just 46 yds off).

Over the L12Y these schools have both come in ranked 9x's (higher ranking tm is 4-5). LY's gm was tied 17-17 into the 4Q but UM tossed 3 int's in VT territory on its L/3 poss.

VT has won its L7 trips to Winston-Salem (last loss in '70). Last trip ('06) VT only led 7-3 at HT but pulled away in the 3Q incl a 35 yd FR TD to seal it. VT is 23-5 on the ACC road (4 sweeps in 7Y).

From '91-'03 these tms were a part of the BE. VT has won 3 str by 18+ pts. LY VT got its 2nd series shutout & leading 7-0 just before HT, held BC out of the EZ as the QB just missed the pylon.

Virginia Tech has won 10 straight vs Duke with the last series loss in 1981 (in Durham). LTH VT led throughout the final 3Q's. Duke scored w/25 left but the onside K failed.

Bonus: Hokies are 7-0 in ACC openers. VT is 22-2 in Nov gms. Under Beamer when VT is ranked they are just 1-11 vs tms ranked in the Top 5 (only win vs #2 UM in '03, VT #10).

Winner of this gm has represented the Coastal in every ACC Title gm (L6Y). Visitor has dropped 3 str (avg MOV is 5 ppg). L/gm in ATL, VT got a TD w/1:48 left but trailed by DD most of the game.

VT is 6-1 vs NC. LY NC led 10-6 early 2Q & was driving but VT got an int in the EZ which started a streak of 20 unanswered pts (324-115 yd edge). NC had 6 TO's on its L/8 drives.

This series is played for the Commonwealth Cup (VT will have had it for 2,555 str days). VT has won 7 str which is the longest streak in this 92 gm series since UVA won the first 8 (1895-1904).

MIAMI HURRICANES

OL Olivier Vernon

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 true frosh Jacory Harris (PS#7) came off the bench vs Duke and led 4 td drives in the final 2.5 Q's. He started 2 gms and finished with 1,195 (61%, 12-7). In '09 all of Harris' competition transferred. That left his bkps as true frosh Alonzo Highsmith (PS#61) and UMass trans walk-on Spencer Whipple (OC's son). Despite inj his throwing hand Harris had a fine season passing for 3,352 (60%) with 24 td's but also tossed 17 int (#2 FBS). LY the problems of '09 cropped up again (inj & int). Harris inj'd his shoulder vs Pitt and was never 100% (1793, 54.8%, 14-15). He suffered a conc vs Virg and with bkp Highsmith (hand) inj'd, Whipple came in but he hit just 2-6 with 2 int's. They took the RS off true frosh Stephen Morris (PS#98) in the 2H. He also threw 2 int but nearly led the comeback. Morris would start the final 4 and tossed a last minute TD vs MD. He was pulled in the finale in the 2H and Harris saw his first action since UVA (12-18-110). Harris started the bowl but hit 4-7 with 3 int's and was pulled. Morris threw for 1,240 (53.6%, 7-9). This year Morris and Harris split #1 reps all spring and the battle will continue in August. This unit should have better luck with inj's and improve upon '10's weak numbers (54.2%, 21-27).

RUNNING BACKS - It surprises me that the U has had just six 1,000 yd rushers (Edgerrin James twice) in its history. Fr Graig Cooper (PS#62) led with 682 (5.5) in '07 and again in '08 with 841 (4.9). In '09 Cooper ret'd and they added Damien Berry (PS#37), true frosh Lamar Miller (PS#15) and Mike James (PS#58). Cooper led again with 695 (5.2) but tore his ACL in the bowl. Berry was #2 (616, 6.6). LY Berry was #3 in the ACC in rushing with 899 (4.7). RfR Miller (track tm) had 163 vs VT (646, 6.0). Mike James was #3 (398, 5.7). Storm Johnson (PS#20) had a 71 yd td run vs USF, the longest td run since Clinton Portis' (82) in '00 but had just 9 carries as a true frosh. Not in the PSL are Darion Hall (5'11" 195 rF, PS#74), RB/TE's John Calhoun (6'3" 250 Jr, PS#315) and David Thompson (5'10" 240 So). This year they lose Berry, Cooper (inj, 165) and FB Patrick Hill (7 st, 35 tll yd) but figure to be one of the deeper RB corps in the ACC. They could uncover their first 1,000 yd rusher S/O2.

RECEIVERS - In 2008 Miami had to replace 2 of their top 3 rec's. Three true frosh saw plenty of action in Aldarius Johnson (PS#9) who was #1 (332, 10.7), LaRon Byrd (228, 10.9) and Travis Benjamin (5 st, 293 yd). The unit ret'd intact in '09 and a new star emerged in 6'3" Leonard Hankerson. He had a problem with drops his first 2 yrs but led with 801 (17.8). Benjamin was #2 (501, 17.3) and 6'4" Byrd was #3 (460, 13.9). Johnson missed 3 (276, 17.2). LY they lost #3 and #7 DC's from the TE spot. Then-OC Mark Whipple counted 67 dropped passes in '10 (42 in '09). UM has had some great WR's like Michael Irvin, Santana Moss and Andre Johnson but Hankerson set the schl season record with 1,156 yds (Eddie Brown '84) and became just the 2nd ever 1,000 yd rec at Miami. Travis Benjamin, the team's fastest player, was #2 with 743 (17.3) but was called out numerous times by former HC Shannon for drops. Byrd chipped in 441 (10.8) while surprisingly Aldarius Johnson's numbers dropped to 157 (10.5). This year they lose their top man Hankerson (11 st, #3DC WAS) as well as TE Richard Gordon (10 st, 6 rec, #6DC OAK). Not listed in the PSL are Chad Barnes (5'8" 170 So), Shawn O'Dare (5'10" 190 So) and TE's Jordan Futch (6'3" 235 Sr, PS#22LB), Clive Walford (6'4" 245 rF, PS#78), Cory White (6'6" 275 So, PS#143) and Andrew Tallman (6'5" 260 rF, PS#43). I like the talent but it will be tough to replace Hankerson's production.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Despite having 3 st'r's back in '09 UM only avg 138 ypg (3.9) and all'd 35 sks. That was the 6th straight yr under 4.0 ypc rush and LY they had to replace 3 st'r's (#4DC). Joel Figueroa (9 st '09) had just 2 st (inj) so they basically had 1 ret st'r but still improved to 182 ypg (4.8) while all'g just 17 sks (3.8%). Over last summer they did get the large addition of Seantrel Henderson (6'8" 345, PS#1, orig USC) who st'd 9 and was 1st Tm Fr AA. This year UM loses 2nd Tm ACC LT Orlando Franklin (13 st, 3Y st, #2DC DEN) but has 9 of the top 10 back and Figueroa was granted a 6th yr. Even with the coaching change, this should be UM's best O-line in quite some time.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Miami basically had 1 ret st'r (due to inj) in '08 and allowed 152 ypg rush (4.0). They had 2.5 st'r's back in '09 but the unit was extremely banged up as 8 different players started (11 st were the most). They improved to 122 ypg rush (3.5). LY they had to replace 1 st'r and had 7 back with starting exp (all 4 proj st'r's were VHT's). It was shocking that Miami allowed 173 ypg rush and their 4.1 ypc was their worst since 1997. This year they lose DE Allen Bailey (13 st, #7 tkl'r, 7 sk, #3DC KC) and DT Josh Holmes (4 st, 10 tkl). Naturally this unit is loaded with VHT's and Golden did a good job developing DL's at Temple so they should have one of the most improved defensive fronts in the country.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 Miami's D was hit hard by injury and had just 3 healthy LB's who took meaningful snaps (5 played). LY for the 3rd straight season they also had to replace their #1 tkl'r (#4DC) but had 4 of the top 6 back. It was noted that the team was much better when Colin McCarthy was healthy and he finally was LY. Miami trimmed their ppg allowed to 20.7 (best S/O6). For the 4th year they lose their #1 tkl'r in McCarthy (11 st, 2nd Tm ACC, 10.5 tll, #4DC TEN) and Kylan Robinson (1 st, 11 tkl). They return their #2 and #5 tkl'r's but the bkps have seen little action. This unit is on par with the 2010 version.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UM opened the decade with finishes of #5, #2, #9, #13, #1 and #24 in its PDR. After dropping to #53 and #66 they had an inexp'd group in '09 but still rose to #39. LY they had to replace 3 DB (comb 19 st) but had 5 back who comb'd for 39 sts and also ret'd Ryan Hill (5 st '08, inj '09). CB Brandon Harris was the only ACC DB to be a Thorpe semifinalist. UM moved back to #8 (49.7%, 9-16). This year they lose 1st Tm AA CB Harris (13 st, 8 tkl'r, 11 pd, #2DC HOU), CB Ryan Hill (11 st, #6 tkl'r, 3 int, 8 pbu), CB DeMarcus Van Dyke (8 st '09, 4 st '10, 20 tkl, 7 pd, #3DC OAK) and FS Jared Campbell (5 tkl '10, 6 st '09). They do to return the #3 and #4 tkl'r's. Adding depth are Nathan Gholston (5'7" 185 Jr), Kenneth Jackson (5'10" 170 Fr), Jordan Tolson (6'1" 195 rF) and Curt Johnson (5'9" 160 Sr). They have 6 VHT's in the secondary but with the top 3 CB's gone they may drop a notch or two.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Miami has produced some excellent ST players including Devin Hester and has finished #1, #27, #50, #12, #5, #28 and #52 in my ST rankings from '00-'06. In '07 they slipped to #104. In '08 they improved to #33 as Matt Boshier (PS#4) had a 36.2 net and hit 18 of 20 FG's (L52). Speedy true frosh Travis Benjamin avg 11.3 on PR's and 22.5 on KR's. Boshier improved to 42.5 in '09 (net 35.7) while hitting 14-16 FG's (L51). The top PR was Thearon Collier (13.2) who had 2 td's and brought back memories of Hester. They did allow 3 blk'd punts and surprisingly slipped to #53. Last year Boshier avg 44.0 (38.8 net) and hit 13-17 FG (L51). Boshier had a streak of 105 PAT snapped by a blk vs Clemson (2nd place all-time, Carlos Huerta 157 consecutive '88-'91). This year they lose their best player in Boshier (#6DC ATL) and figure to take a step back from last year's #56 finish.

COACHES - Al Golden made his name by turning the Temple program around. Prior to his arrival the Owls were 0-11 and had just 2 winning seasons in 26 yrs and he left with a 17-8 record in his final 2 yrs. Before Temple, Golden was the DC at Virginia from '01-'05 (youngest DC in IA). The OC is Jedd Fisch who spent LY as the Seahawks QB cch and as the OC of Minn Gophers in '09. Fisch coached in the NFL for 8 years with stops at DEN, BAL and HOU. Long time Golden associate Mark D'Onofrio is the DC after playing with Golden at Penn St, coaching with him at UVA and being the DC at Temple for 5 years.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Howard Schnellenberger guided Miami to a National Title in 1983 and UM also won a National Title under Jimmy Johnson (1987) and two under Dennis Erickson (1989, 1991). They had a rare losing yr in 1997 due to scholarship reductions but Butch Davis had them pointed in the right direction and in 2000 they went 11-1 and finished #2. Larry Coker guided them to a National Title in his first ssn (2001) and almost repeated in '02 when they came up just short in the Fiesta Bowl vs Ohio St (2OT). After an 11-2 season in '03, they won 9 gms in each of the next 2 yrs but suffered a blowout loss to LSU in the '05 Peach Bowl. At 6-6 in '06 they needed a 1 pt win over Nevada just to have a winning season. The Randy Shannon era then began. Miami was unranked in the preseason for the first time since 1998. They had their ups and downs incl the lowest of lows when they were embarrassed in their final gm in the Orange Bowl, 48-0 by UVA. Their 5-7 record was the worst since 1977. They were 12-13 in '06-'07 and had another underachieving yr in '08 at 7-6 (bowl loss). In '09 they may have had the most talented team in the ACC but were the first team in ACC history that opened the year facing 4 ranked foes. When I did my preseason radio shows, many speculated an O-4 start. Instead they opened up 3-1 incl a win over #8 Okla. They rose to #8 when they lost to Clem in OT and finished a disappointing 9-4 incl a loss in the Champs Sports Bowl. LY they once again had one of the most talented tms in the ACC but played well below their talent level. They lost to #2 Ohio St on the road but turned around and whipped Big East favorite Pitt on a Thurs night, 31-3. After rising to 3-1 and #13, they lost to FSU by 28. After winning their next 2, QB Harris was KO'd and 3 QB's combined for 5 int's vs UVA. Despite a 24-18 FD edge, they lost by 5. After dispatching MD and GT, they were 7-3 but lost an ACC showdown with VT then lost to USF who was starting a frosh walk-on QB and Shannon was fired. Once again, bothered by the cold in a bowl, UM was a no show vs ND with an interim HC. Al Golden steps into a great situation as they are just 28-23 over the last 4 yrs and despite their 5-3 ACC record, they were +107.1 ypg which was the best mark in the league in '10. They were -8 in TO's. Despite the toughest sked inside the ACC they have an excellent shot at their first DD win season since '03.

UM is 0-2 in College Park. L'visit was a 1 pt loss in '06 to #23 MD. UM found themselves in a 14-0 hole early 2Q but limited the Terps to 0 pts & 61 yds (last 37:52). UM stopped MD w/1:14 to go but fmbld the PR.
Bonus: Miami is 1-5 in road openers the L6Y all vs BCS tms (only win in '09 at #18 FSU). Bonus: Miami is 23-2 in home openers S'86, incl 4 str by 34 ppg (6-3 vs BCS tms S'90).
LY marked the 1st gm S'02's National Title. UM opened the 2H trailing 26-17 getting a 1&g at the OSU6 but on 3D Harris tossed 1 of his 4 int's & OSU's IR went 80 yds setting up a short TD drive & the "14 pt swing".
First meeting. Into 2011, UM started play in the ACC in '04 & since is 15-1 hosting non-ACC tms (loss was LY in OT vs USF). UM is 26-10 vs current B12 tms (ISU is only other school they haven't faced).
First meeting. Daytona based Wildcats went 10-2 LY (FCS playoffs). BCU signed a deal to play UM the next 2Y & this is their first contest vs an FBS opp (played UCF, FAU & FIU when at FCS level).
Miami is just 2-6 the L8Y vs VT. In UM's last visit to Blacksburg they came in ranked #9 (VT #11) & had ssn lows in pts (7), FD (12) & yds (209). QB Harris DNP LY & in '09 was just 9-25-150-0-1 (-28 rush yds).
Hurricanes have never won in Chapel Hill (0-4). In '09 UM cut the deficit to 6 w/7:15 left but was unable to stop NC (33 yd FG on 60/11p:5:18 drive). Into 2011, UM is 8-11 L'19 ACC AG's (3-1 LY).
UM has won B2B meetings vs GT. LY the Canes had the series largest MOV S'67. GT was driving down 21-10 but fmbld on 1&g at the UM6. Miami went 86/11p for a TD to put the game away.
HC Golden was a GA at UVA from '94-'96 (received masters) & later the DC from '01-'05. LY QB Harris was injured & UM backup QB's tossed 4 int's (UM trailed 17-0 into 4Q).
UM's only loss in this series was in '76 (1st gm). In each of the L5Y UM has trailed but battled back for the win. LY UM forced 7 TO's incl an int at the UM4, 22 yd IR TD & fmbld that led to a short TD drive.
Visitor is 5-0 L5Y. Nine of L'10 have been decided by a TD or less. LTH the 4Q saw 4 lead changes as it was decided on the final play (FSU's EZ pass was inc on 3D from the UM2).
UM is 2-1 vs USF incl a win in their only trip to Raymond James ('09). UM jumped out to a 21-3 HT lead and held USF to 11 FD's & 220 yds. Into 2011, UM is 21-4 this decade vs in-state tms (9-2 away).
Golden served as the BC LB ch ('97-'99). UM has dominated BC going 23-4 but lost the L'gm ('07) costing them a bowl. It was 14-14 but UM's L3 drives ended in a punt, SOD at BC39 & SOD at UM3.
Bonus: UM is 15-2 all-time on ESPN Thur Night (5-2 on the road & a perfect 10-0 at home).

Just one prior gm in '07, NC won 37-14 (Davis' 1st win as HC at NC) w/ a 327-250 yd edge. Dukes went 6-5 LY incl their 21-16 upset of VT. In '09 JMU almost upset MD leading 35-28 4Q but lost in OT. NC has won B2B gms in this series but the HT is 0-3 in the modern era. LY NC trailed 10-0 into the 2Q & 10-7 at HT but held RU to just 98 2H yds. RU's L3 drives ended on a blk'd punt, int at NC7 & SOD at NC38. ACC's oldest rivalry played every yr 'S'19. NC hasn't won B2B meetings 'S'81 & '82. LY NC's 34 pt MOV was its best in the series 'S'59. NC WR Jones (PS#13) had a then-career high 198 rec yds (28.3 ypc, 119 in 1Q). NC hasn't won in Atlanta 'S'97 dropping 6 str trips (4 losses by a TD or less). LTH NC was down 17-0 into the 4Q gaining just 154 yds (ssn low). GT was 10 of 19 (53%) on 3D holding a 42:06-17:54 TOP edge. Tar Heels are 10-2-1 vs EC but did lose L trip to Greenville ('07) 34-31. It was tied 31-31 into the 4Q but NC missed 2 FG's, botched a 52 yd FG att w/ 49 left. EC kicked a GW 39 yd FG as time exp. NC is 2-3 vs UL w/ the last series win in '96. In the L/gm ('05) NC lost 69-14 but was only outgained 452-332 as NC was -4 in TO's. Into 2011, under Davis, NC is 9-1 hosting non-conf opps. Davis was a DL cch at UM from '84-'88 & later the HC from '95-'00. HT has won 10 of L/11 but 3 of the L/4 have been upsets. LY NC led 10-3 early 2Q but allowed 30 unanswered. LTH ('06) NC suffered its worst loss in the series' 54 gm history, 52-7. NC was outgained 432-150 (-22 FD's). Visitor has dropped 3 str. Into 2011, NC is 7-9 in ACC AG's under Davis (3-1 LY). NC has lost 2 str. Last met in '07 & NC lost 37-10 in Winston-Salem but had a 313-269 yd edge (+5 FD). WF scored 27 pts off of 55 yds (NC allowed 98 & 83 yd KR's & 3 TO's incl a 77 yd IR TD). NC has dropped 4 str incl 2 in Raleigh. LTH the Tar Heels led 24-14 at HT but early in the 4Q all'd a 90/6pl TD drive. NC's L3 poss ended on a SOD at NC5133, blk'd 38 yd FG & int at NC48. Virginia Tech: NC is 1-2 in recent trips to Blacksburg. In '09, on national TV, NC upset #14 VT 20-17. Down 3, NC went 78/16pl for a 19 yd FG w/2:52. VT then fmb'd at its 24 & NC kicked the GW 21 yd FG as time expired. NC has won 20 of L/21 incl 6 str (played every yr 'S'22). LY NC led 24-10 w/ 5:00 left but was stuffed for a safety & Duke got within 5 pts. NC did punt but Duke at their 24 w/43, went just 17 yds (gm ended on own 41).

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In former HC Chan Gailey's tenure this position was not a strength. They completed 55%, 53%, 49%, 47%, 47% and 49% from '02-'07. The '07 starter opted to transfer in '08, and the '07 bkp, true frosh PS#16 Joshua Nesbitt (13 att, 339 yd rush) was the perfect fit for the new offense. He was backed up by true frosh Jaybo Shaw (PS#57). Nesbitt threw for just 808 (44%, 2-5) with 693 rush (4.0). He missed all or parts of 4 with injury. Shaw threw for 321 (63%, 2-1, 200 rush). In '09 Shaw broke his collarbone in Aug (miss 1H yr). Nesbitt doubled his pass yds to 1,701 (46%, 10-5) and rushed for 1,037 (3.7). Shaw played in 6 (2 att, 51 rush yd). RFR Tevin Washington (PS#136) hit 1-1 but lost a fumble in his only game. LY Shaw transferred. GT launched a Heisman campaign for Nesbitt (trophy named after GT coach John Heisman) who became the leading rusher among QB's in ACC hist (Woodrow Dantzler, Clemson 2,761 from 1998-'01). Without WR Demaryius Thomas to wrestle the ball away from opp's, Nesbitt's passing numbers dropped to 37.1% as he threw for 674 (7-4) while rushing for 737 (4.4). He would have topped 1,000 but broke his right forearm vs VT and missed the final 4. Washington st'd those 4 and threw for 417 (41%, 2-3) while rushing for 514 (4.4). Both QB's could run but Nesbitt did so with more force while Washington seemed faster. TY Nesbitt departs and battling Washington will be Synjin Days, Darryl Dickey, QB/RB David Sims and this year's true frosh. Nesbitt was only around for 2/3 of the season so the unit could have better starts.

RUNNINGBACKS - Oklahoma transfer Tashard Choice (PS#59) rushed for 1,473 (5.0) in '06 and 1,379 (5.3) in '07. True frosh Jonathan Dwyer (PS#5) was #2 in '07 (436, 5.3) and in '08 led with 1,395 (7.0) while being named ACC OPOY. In '09 they added Anthony Allen, who rushed for 1,102 (4.6) in 9 sts at L'ville (2 yr). Dwyer led with 1,395 (5.9). Allen avg 9.7 ypc on his 64 att's (618) and 22.4 ypc on his 5 rec. Dwyer left early for the NFL LY (#6DC) and Allen stepped into the BB role and rushed for 1,316 (5.5) incl 195 vs Virginia. AB Orwin Smith had 516 (9.7) and Roddy Jones added 353 (6.8). Embry Peeples added 287 (6.2). TY they lose Allen (13 st, #7DC BAL) and Lucas Cox (1 st, 131, 6.0). Richard Watson will battle RB/QB David Sims (PS#42), Charles Perkins (PS#56) and true frosh Chris Milton for the BB job. Not listed below is Robert Godhigh (5'7" 187 So). This unit will be productive but is less exp'd.

RECEIVERS - In '03 under Gailey, Jonathan Smith (#7DC '04) set school season records with 78 rec and 1,138 yds. Calvin Johnson (#1DC '07) broke Smith's yardage record with 1,202 (15.8) in '06. In '07, Demaryius Thomas was #2 with 558 (15.9) and led in '08 with 627 (16.1) in the option offense. In '09 Thomas set a school record avg 25.1 ypc on his 46 rec (1154 yd). True frosh Stephen Hill added 137 on 6 rec. LY Thomas opted to leave early for the NFL (#1DC) and Hill, who is 6'5" with blazing speed, was expected to have a big year. Unfortunately he dropped about as many passes as he caught early on and finished with just 291 yds (19.4). AB Orwin Smith was #2 with 195 (16.2) and the other starting WR, Kevin Cone, was a distant #5 (6 rec). This year Hill returns with the only losses being Cone (10 st) and Correy Earls (9 rec, 2 st). This is a more exp'd group and Hill may blossom into one of the ACC's better WR's.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '07 Tech ret'd 113 career sts. I called it the top OL of Gailey's tenure and indeed it was. The OL paved the way for a Gailey-era high 199 ypg rushing (4.7), their best totals since 1999 despite QB Taylor Bennett rushing for -13 yds (22 sks). Naturally with the switch to the option the rush numbers have increased dramatically to 273 ypg (5.6) in '08 and 295 (5.2) in '09. That '09 version had 3 ret st's. LY they had to replace 3 st's but ret'd 1st Tm ACC C Sean Bedford and OT Austin Barrick. GT still improved to 323 ypg (5.6) with 16 sks (9.5%). TY they lose 2x 1st Tm ACC Bedford (13 st, 2Y str), RT Barrick (8 st, 2Y str), LT Nick Claytor (10 st) and Zach Krish (4 gm). With 3 st's back, Johnson should mold another fine unit.

DEFENSIVE LINE - GT had just 1 st'r back on the D-line in '09 and allowed 152 ypg rush (4.9) with the D having just 25 sks their worst total since 1999. Last year GT switched to a 3-4 but had to replace 1st Tm AA DE Derrick Morgan (#1DC). Still, with 3 ret st's to 3 spots, I expected improvement but the unit yielded 170 ypg rush (4.5) with just 17 sks. This year they only lose DE's Ben Anderson (6 tkl, 0 st '10, 12 st '09) and Robert Hall (8 tkl). In the 2nd season of the 3-4 with all 3 st's returning I'll call for much improved rush D numbers.

LINEBACKERS - Last year GT had to replace 1 st'r (#3 tkl'r) but not only ret'd their #1, #7 and #8 tkl's, they also got back '08's #3 tkl'r Kyle Jackson (inj '09). Surprisingly GT slipped to allowing 25.2 ppg and 372 ypg on D, their weakest numbers since 1999 as they struggled in the switch to Groh's 3-4. This year they lose OLB Anthony Egnibue (12 st, #5 tkl'r, 3 tfl), ILB Brad Jefferson (13 st, #2 tkl'r, 7.5 tfl), ILB Kyle Jackson (2 st, 13 tkl) and Anthony Barnes (8 tkl). They do return their #1 tkl'r in 3rd Tm ACC Julian Burnett as well as Steven Sylvester (#6, 10.5 tfl). They are now in the 2nd year of Groh's system so despite being slightly less exp'd, I'll call for improved production.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2009 this unit ret'd intact but surprisingly slipped from #58 in my PDR to #88 (66%, 23-12). LY they had to replace 1 st'r (#3DC, #2 tkl'r) but had 7 back with starting exp. CB Jerrard Tarrant and S Dominique Reese switched positions but true frosh Isaiah Johnson lost his spot after 3 sts. This year Tech loses CB Mario Butler (13 st, 48 tkl, 6 pbu), Reese (13 st, #4 tkl'r, 10 pbu), S Mario Edwards (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 1 pbu), Tarrant (9 st, 58 tkl) and S Cooper Taylor (1 st, 5 tkl). The veteran 2010 secondary only finished #79 (60.5%, 14-8). They have 0 ret st's this year but plug in 2 VHT CB's and could actually move up in the PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After finishing #81 in my ST rankings in '06, GT rose to #5 in '07 behind P Durant Brooks. In '08 they had to replace their K and P. Paul Johnson's ST units at Navy finished #78, #76, #113, #69, #107 but improved to #15 in '07. GT dropped all the way to #97 in his first year here. In '09 P

Chandler Anderson avg 42.3 (net 38.1). Soph Jerrard Tarrant had 2 PR td's (13.4) and true frosh Orwin Smith was the top KR (24.0). Scott Blair struggled at times on FG's but hit 14-20 (5-7 from 40+, L/49). Blair was 7-7 vs Clemson but 7-13 when not taking on the Tigers and had just 1 TB on 86 KO. GT moved up to #64 and had everyone back LY. Surprisingly GT dropped to #105. The return game was avg and Anderson lost his P job to Sean Poole. After ranking #17 in net punting in '09, GT fell to #114 LY. Blair had 5 TB's on 62 KO's and hit a solid 15-17 FG's (L/47). They should move up in the ST rankings despite the loss of their best player in K Blair.

COACHES - Paul Johnson was 62-10 at Georgia Southern and was IAA National COY for four straight seasons ('97-'00). In six years at Navy, he guided them to 5 bowls and won five straight Commander-in-Chief's Trophies. In 2004 he was named the Bobby Dodd National COY. In his first year here Johnson was named the ACC COY and GT knocked off rival Georgia for the 1st time since 2000. Johnson serves as his own OC as he did at Navy. The DC for a second straight season is former Virginia HC Al Groh, who was 59-53 in 9 yrs at UVA and won ACC COY in '02 and '07. Prior to UVA Groh was HC of the NY Jets in 2000 and also DC of the NE Patriots from 1993-'96. Groh said his defense has worked harder this offseason and was impressive in the spring gm forcing 5 TO's while allowing just 3.7 ypg in 10 possessions.

PHIL'S FORECAST

GT has now been to a school record 14 straight bowls. In five of Gailey's six seasons, they finished with exactly 7 wins and in '06 GT got to the ACC Title game (9-5). That '06 squad was led by AA WR Calvin Johnson and they landed their first Jan 1 bowl since 1999 getting as high as #13 AP. Gailey was let go after losing to UGA for a 7th straight time and going 7-5 in '07. DC Jon Tenuta was the interim HC for the bowl vs Fresno in '07. In Paul Johnson's first year they had 75 frosh and soph making them the youngest in the ACC. GT also had just 76 scholarship players. They exceeded my expectations by going 9-3 and ending their losing streak to Georgia. GT was a league best +68.1 ypg but in the bowl were thrashed by LSU 38-3. They had 17 ret st's in '09 and caught some breaks again (see '10 magazine forecast). GT got to the ACC Title game where they beat Clem 39-34 moving to #9 but then lost to Iowa in the Orange Bowl and finished #13. It was their first outright ACC Title since 1990 and their first major bowl since 1966-'67. LY they brought in Al Groh's 3-4 defense to team with Johnson's option offense. In Wk2 GT was upset at Kansas 28-25 as a large favorite but the next week took on a UNC team depleted by susp's and managed a 6 pt road win. They were dominated by NCSi at home 45-28. In that gm they all'd 527 yds and NCSi's 45 pts were the most in the 27 gm series. They got 3 expected wins over WF, Virg and MT to climb to 5-2. They lost to Clemson 27-13 but were leading VT 14-0 in the 2Q when QB Joshua Nesbitt was int'd at the 1 and inj'd making the tkl (OFY). They ended up losing by 7 on a 90 yd KR td, despite a 426-335 yd edge. After losing to Miami by 25, at 5-5 they needed 1 more win for a bowl and got it vs Duke (outgained 443-410). Against Georgia they missed a 2 pt conv which would have tied it and lost by 8. In a battle of option offenses in the bowl, they lost to AF 14-7 although they did have a 320-287 yd edge but were -4 in TO's. GT finished 6-7 which was their first losing season since 1996. GT has 438 wins in Bobby Dodd Stadium (most of any school at their current site). Their 12 returning st's are fewest in the ACC but it must be noted that Johnson only had 9 ret st's his first season here (9-4) and only had 5 ret st's his 4th year at Navy (8-4). A couple of sets of my power ratings have them finishing #10 in the league. A couple also have them at #7 and with Johnson's track record of outperforming my power ratings, they probably are headed for their 15th straight bowl.

Johnson is a '79 grad of WC & from '97-'01 was the HC at GA Southern going 62-10 and 5-0 vs his alma mater. GT is 4-0 vs WC (U/gm in '94). Catamounts went 2-9 LY incl a 48-7 loss to NCSU (just 10-46 LSY). LY was the schools only prior meeting. GT led 14-0 & 35-7 into the 4Q. GT is 9-4 in road openers but 0-2 the L2Y. GT hasn't faced a non-AQ school on the road S'03 (lost 24-13 at BYU).
GT is 1-1 vs Kansas with the W coming in the Orange Bowl after the '47 ssn. LY GT was ranked #15 coming in but was upset. Into 2011, GT has won 10 str non-conf HG's (not incl UGA), last loss in '06 vs #2 ND.
GT is 11-2 vs NC S'98 & the HT is 6-2 S'04. LY's gm had 6 lead changes. GT trailed 24-17 late 3Q but went on 3 str scoring drives (last off a NC fmb). NC was SOD at the GT39 & GT ran out the L1:16.
Johnson is 0-2 vs NCSU incl a 65-19 loss in '02 at Navy. Visitor is 4-0 S'04 and LTH ('06) GT won as they trailed 23-21 into the 4Q but outgained NCSU 130-34 in the 4Q (NCSU ran just 14 plays).
Georgia Tech is 7-3 vs Maryland S'97 but did lose the last gm in '07, 28-26. GT had a 3&10 at the MD25 (potential 42 yd FG) but holding was called & the 52 yd att sailed wide right w/54 left.
Yellow Jackets have won B2B gms in this series for the 1st time S'90 & '91 (L/3 gm series win streak was from '76-'83). Visitor is just 3-13 S'95 but GT won LTH, 34-9 w/a 447-198 yd edge.
GT has won 8 of L/12 in series but dropped the last 2. LTH GT was outgained 454-228 being held to a ssn low 2.4 ypc & 95 rush yds (lowest in Johnson era vs FBS team).
GT is 6-2 vs CU the L7Y (played 2x's in '09) but lost LY. GT trailed 17-0 late 2Q & never got within 11 pts. QB Nesbitt had just 2 yds rushing (combined 166 rush yds, 2.8 ypc, in his 4Y career vs CU).
Georgia: The GT/UGA rivalry has been played every season since 1925 (1st gm in 1893). Duke: GT has won 7 str. Johnson is 7-1 vs Duke (only loss was in '02, 1st yr as HC at Navy).
GT is 3-5 vs VT. LY GT led 14-0 & did not trail till 6:34 left. GT tied the gm at 21 but all'd a 90 yd KR TD. With bkp QB Washington (Nesbitt in'd), GT drove to the VT16 but was int'd in the EZ w/08.
LTH GT trailed 10-0 being outgained 98-9 late 1Q before an 83 yd KR sparked 49 unanswered.
LY UGA needed a win to become bowl eligible. GT scored a TD w/4:57 left but trailed by 1 (xpng). GT did get the ball back but was SOD at its own 18 & later, down 8, tossed an int at the UGA33 w/35 left.

VIRGINIA CAVALIERS

OT Morgan Moses

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Jameel Sewell (PS#68) was a 2Y st'r ('06-'07) but missed '08 (acad). Peter Lalich (PS#15) st'd the first 2 but was susp'd and later transferred. Marc Verica (PS#113) became UVA's only option at QB. He threw for 2,037 (64%) but with just an 8-16 ratio. In '09 they brought in a new OC who liked mobile QB's. Sewell was eligible and took control throwing for 1,848 (54%, 7-7) and was the #3 rusher (167, 7 tds). Verica got 1 st and struggled (156, 44%, 0-1, 6 gm). LY Verica was the clear-cut st'r and entered with 17 int in 17 career gms. New HC Mike London signed 3 QB's who had verbally committed to other schls in Michael Strauss (PS#93, Tulane), Miles Gooch (PS#250, Toledo) and Michael Rocco (PS#74, L'ville) who ply'd in 6 (143, 52%, 1-2). Verica st'd all 12 (2799, 58.8%, 14-14). Ross Metheny played in 5 (171, 76.5%, 3-1) while Strauss and Gooch RS. For the first time since before '50, 3 QB's threw a td pass in the same gm (vs VMI). Against NC those 3 all threw an int. After 9 gms, UVA had thrown as many tds (17) as they had the previous 2 yrs comb (9 in '08, 8 in '09). Verica had a schl rec 417 yds vs Duke (Matt Schaub 393 vs NCSt '03) and the tm's 3,186 pass yds were the 3rd most in schl hist, but were the most in 12 gms (13 gm in '03, 14 in '02). The only loss is Verica. While this unit has a lot less exp, it may have better numbers with QB's recruited specifically for the offense.

RUNNING BACKS - The Cavs have had just one 1,000 yard rusher the last 10 yrs (Alvin Pearson, 1037 in '04). Cedric Peerman (PS#29) led in both '07 (585, 5.2) and '08 (774, 5.1) and was a #6DC. The Cavs' top RB in '09 had just 461 (4.8). The top returning rusher in '10 was Torrey Mack (PS#24) who had just 73 (3.2). I projected 255 lb Keith Payne as the starting RB. At times he dragged tacklers through the pile and had to be gang tackled. He only started 1 game, splitting snaps with diminutive soph Perry Jones (5'8" 185, PS#52) who started 11. On the first carry of the season Jones had a 38 yd run, which was longer than any Cav had in '09. Jones finished #2 with 646 (4.7) and was the #4 rec. Payne led with 749 (4.7) and they were rarely in the game at the same time. TY they lose Payne, Mack (72, 3.8) and Raynard Horne (149, 4.4). Adding depth is Brendan Morgan (6'0" 180 rFr). While the group is more exp'd and is in the 2nd year of the new system, it will be tough to replace Payne's power as he had 14 of the team's 17 rushing tds.

RECEIVERS - The Cavs had to replace their top 4 rec's in '09 and last year had to replace 3 of the top 4. Projected st'r Quintin Hunter then left in June. Tim Smith (#5 '09, PS#80) was lost in Sept (ankle) and TE Joe Torchia (PS#25) had shld'r surgery and was OFY after 4. Kris Burd and Dontrelle Inman became the first tandem at UVA to post over 700 rec yds in a ssn and also the first duo to amass at least 40 rec each in a ssn. LY they comb for 109 rec's but both lacked breakaway speed. Inman, who had just 27 rec his first 3 yrs, led with 815 (16.0) and Burd added 799 (13.8). Matt Snyder (1 car rec) had just 3 grabs after the first 4 gms but finished #3 (393, 13.1). Not in the PSL are James Valeiras (5'11" 190 rFr), Jacob Hodges (5'11" 190 Sr), Johnny Pickett (5'11" 160 Jr) and TE's Zachary Swanson (6'6" 225 rFr), Andrew Cordasco (6'5" 220 rFr, PS#131), Jeremy Dollin (6'4" 210 rFr), Blake Blaze (6'4" 215 rFr), Ryan Shaw (6'4" 225 Jr) and Kyle McMartin (6'4" 210 Jr). TY they lose their top guy Inman, as well as Torchia but are actually more exp'd than '10. They are in the 2nd yr of the new system plus add in 2 VHT true frosh.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 UVA had to replace 3 st'rs (#1DC) and dropped to 97 ypg rush (3.4), its lowest S/59 (93 ypg) but all'd only 16 sks (3.6%). In '09 they had 4 st'rs back but had to replace #1DC Eugene Monroe (Jacobs Award winner). They expected true frosh Morgan Moses (PS#4) to start at LT but he went to Fork Union. They moved to wider splits, more like T Tech's O-line, but were slow to adapt and all'd 17 sks the first 4 gms. On the season they yielded 41 sks (11.3%) and had 99 ypg rush (2.9). London had to replace 2 st'rs (57 car sts ret) LY and the OL switched schemes again. They lost LT Landon Bradley after 6 st (inj). The Cavs still improved to 139 ypg (4.0) and trimmed the sks to 23 (5.2%). TY they lose RG BJ Cabbell (11 st, 3Y st'r) and LG Isaac Cain (12 gm). They ret 5 with 7 st's in a ssn (82 car sts) and should have their best rush numbers S/04.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 the Cavs had all 3 st'rs back including star DE Chris Long. UVA improved to allowing just 107 ypg rush (2.9), its best total since 1994 (64 ypg, 2.2) with 43 sks. In '08 they had to replace all 3 st'rs (Long #1DC). Predictably the Cavs slipped to 150 ypg (3.7, 29 sk). In '09 they only had to replace 1 st'r but shockingly allowed 174 ypg (4.2, 22 sk) their worst since '02. LY UVA switched to a 4-3 D and while they lost one st'r, they moved OLB Cam Johnson (10 st '09) to DE (3 st'rs back). The Cavs did not adjust well to the alignment change as they yielded 204 ypg rush and their 5.1 ypc was their worst since 1975 (5.8). This year they lose DE Zane Parr (11 st, 48 tkl, 8 tfl) and DT John-Kevin Dolce (1 st, 35 tkl). Not in the PSL are Connor McCartin (6'3" 230 Jr, PS#174) who worked out at LB and DE in spg, Greg Gallop (6'1" 295 rFr) and Tyler Smith (5'11" 280 rFr). In the 2nd year of the 4-3 with an exp'd gm, I look for much improved numbers.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 UVA had to replace its top 3 tkl'rs and was very inexp'd. The Cavs allowed 26.3 ppg, the highest since former HC Groh's first season in '01 (27.6). LY they switched to a 4-3 and had to replace 3 st'rs (#3, #6, #11 tkl'r) but ret'd ILB Steve Greer who had the most tkl's by a frosh (92) since Darryl Blackstock (108) in '02. For some strange reason Greer was not given a start all year, but still finished as the #2 tkl'r after missing all of spring. TY they lose MLB Darnell Carter (7 st, #6 tkl'r, 8 tfl) but have 5 of the top 6 back incl their #1 and #2 tkl'rs. This is the 2nd year in the 4-3 system and they have added talent (4 HT true frosh) and should improve on LY's 28.3ppg.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Cavs were just #83 in my PDR in '08. In '09's magazine I projected them to have their best pass D finish since '03 (#40) and the Cavs did not disappoint as they finished #30 (56%, 10-12). LY they had to replace 2 st'rs (#2DC) and their star Ras-D Dowling battled inj's all year (2 sts), so basically they had just 1 st'r back. CB Chase Minnifield (PS#38) became the first UVA DB to earn 1st Tm ACC since Anthony Poindexter in '98 and he had 6 int's while the rest of the team comb for 5. TY they lose CB Dowling (5 gm, 15 tkl, #2DC NE), SS Trey Womack (4 st, 28 tkl) and CB Mike Parker (4 st, 32 tkl). They have 4 back who started 7+ LY and add VHT PS#9 Demetrius Nicholson. This is a much more exp'd unit and should show solid improvement upon LY's #68 PDR finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Al Groh's 9 yrs, the ST units had an avg rank of #66 (did finish #7 in '05). In '09 Robert Randolph hit a strong 17-19 (L49). P Jimmy Howell, who avg'd 39.0 (35.6 net) in '08, lost his job at one point but reclaimed it (tm net 34.6). Chris Hinklebein (PS#29) had 7 TB's on 33 KO's. The team avg'd just 6.3 on PR's. They basically had everyone back LY and I called for improvement. Raynard Horne (spd) was the top KR (24.9). Randolph (Groza watch list) surprisingly missed on his first 3 FG's but hit 10 of his L/11 (L44). Hinklebein had 17 TB on 58 KO and was 1-4 on FG's (L52, 2 miss 50+). Howell improved to 42.2 (37.6 tm net). TY they lose 4 yr LS Danny Aiken, who made all but 1 of the punt, FG and xp snaps in his 4 yrs. They replace him with Matt Fortin (ranked in the top 12 twice at an invite only LS camp). Overall the Cavs moved up to #42 and have a shot at improving again provided a new KR emerges.

COACHES - Mike London is in his 3rd stint here (DC '06-'07 and DL/recruit coor '01-'04). He enters his 2nd season as HC. London was the HC of Richmond ('08-'09) leading the Spiders to a 24-5 record and an FCS Title in '08. The OC is Bill Lazor who spent '03-'09 in the NFL (SEA and WAS). Lazor's last college post was as OC at Buffalo ('01-'02). The DC is Jim Reid who also has HC exp (VMI '06-'07, Richmond '95-'03, UMass '86-'91) and London was his OLB cch in '95-'96.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Al Groh guided UVA to winning records in 5 of his 9 years here (5 bowls). They finished ranked twice (#22 in '02, #23 in '04). In '06 Groh called it a rebuilding year and in '07 had 19 st'rs back and made my Most Improved List. UVA won 9+ gms only 5 times in the 112 yrs prior but Groh thought he had a shot at it and he did not disappoint. They became the first team in NCAA history to have 5 wins by 2 pts or less in the same ssn. UVA climbed to #16 and hosted #8 VT with the ACC Coastal Title on the line. They lost that game and then blew a 28-14 4Q lead in the bowl vs TT to finish 9-4. In '08 they had just 11 ret st'rs and I termed it a rebuilding year. UVA did knock off #18 NC and #21 GT in B2B weeks but still finished 5-7. In '09 they had 11 ret st'rs, just 55% of their tkl's and 47% of their off yds back and had to replace four NFL DB's. UVA also played a tough sked, facing 9 bowl trms and slumped to 3-9. UVA did not gain 300 yds in an ACC gm all ssn (-141.5 ypg). LY the Cavs again had just 11 ret st'rs, plus installed new schemes on both offense and defense while drawing Fla St and BC in non-div play. It was the first time S/83 that UVA was picked last in the ACC by the media. I said they were capable of topping '09's 3 wins, but still called for a losing season. UVA tied for the basement in the ACC at 1-7 but was -55.6 ypg (only 3rd worst) but improved to 4-8 overall. They impressed me at USC only losing by 3, missing 2 FG's, being int'd in the EZ (from the 4), having a fake punt called back by a "penalty" and finishing with a 340-329 yd edge. They beat Richmond, VMI and EM as expected and then knocked Miami's QB Jacory Harris out of the game. Harris and his 2 bkps comb for 5 int's and UVA held on for a 24-19 win to actually move to 4-4. They took a 1 pt lead vs Duke with 2:26 left but lost by 7. They led MD 23-21 in the 3Q but lost by 19. They led BC 13-10 at half and had a 421-370 yd edge but lost by 4. VT had clinched the ACC Title game making the UVA game meaningless but the Cavs were dominated 37-7 to finish 4-8. UVA surprisingly landed one of the top recruiting classes in the ACC (6 VHT, 18 HT) and is a more veteran unit with 18 ret st'rs (most in ACC). The Cavs also had 34 sts lost to inj and 2 net close losses. This is a much stronger team and check page 19 to see if they make my Most Improved List.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In 2009 Thaddeus Lewis (PS#71) threw for 3,330 (61%, 20-8) and left as the school's career leading passer. Lewis was just the 2nd QB in ACC history to top 10,000 yds passing (Philip Rivers, NCST). Lewis was a UFA but made the STL roster. Sean Renfree (PS#16) led a comeback win vs Army as a rfr in '09 and took plenty of snaps early but was lost to a torn ACL vs GT. He threw for 330 (68%, 4-2) and missed the '10 spring. Renfree hit 13 of his 1st 14 passes in the opener but then struggled in the next 5 gms with three 3-int games, incl 5 vs Miami. He rebounded at the end of the year with 0 int in 4 of the L/5. Versus Navy he completed his first 16 throws (tying D. Bryant's school record, 2000) and set the school record by completing 93.3%. The NCAA record is held by Tee Martin (95.8% in '98) and HC David Cutcliffe was the OC and QB coach at Tenn that year. For the season Renfree threw for 3,131 (61.4%, 14-17). True frosh Brandon Connette (PS#69) usually replaced Renfree in goal line situations (more mobile) but vs Miami they recovered a fumble on the opening KO at the UM8 so he technically got the start. He also played a good portion of the 4Q in that game. On the year Connette hit 10-22 (0-2) but was the 2nd rusher (321, 4.1). Adding depth are Sean Schroeder (6'2" 190 So, PS#57) and Anthony Boone (6'0" 240 Jr, PS#66). This unit is much more exp'd and should greatly improve upon its 14-19 ratio of '10.

RUNNING BACKS - Chris Douglas departed after the 2003 season as the school's career leading rusher and in his final year Duke avg 172 ypg rushing. They have struggled to run the ball since with the team avg 95 ypg (2.8) the last 7 seasons comb. In '08 true frosh Jay Hollingsworth (PS#110) led with just 399 (3.7). In '09 Hollingsworth rushed for 179 (3.3) and rfr Patrick Kurunwune (PS#212) had 149 (4.4). VHT true frosh Desmond Scott (PS#191) DNP until gm 4 but rushed for 100 in his first start and led with just 262 (3.7). Last year all 3 ret'd and true frosh Josh Snead (PS#64) was impressive in the spring. In last year's magazine I called for Scott to have the highest single season RB total since 2003 (Douglas 1138) and he did just that with 530 (4.4). Snead had 83 yds on 14 att's vs Alabama and finished with 221 (4.9). Hollingsworth had 175 (3.9) and true frosh Juwan Thompson (PS#67) added 87 (3.5). This year the unit returns intact and will top LY's numbers.

RECEIVERS - In 2009 Duke had to replace Eron Riley who led them in rec for 3 straight years. Soph Donovan Varner, who had 164 (7.8) as a true in '08, led with 1,047 (16.1). True frosh Conner Vernon was #2 (746, 13.6) and Austin Kelly (142, 6 st, '08) was #3 (625, 11.6). LY the top 3 ret'd as did TE Brett Huffman (167, 9.3). Huffman only played in 4 due to inj and bkp Brandon King had 7 sts but just 7 rec. Vernon led this time with 973 (13.3) while Varner's numbers dropped to 736 (12.3) and Kelly had 486 (10.3). 6'4" TE Cooper Helfet was #4 with 380 (11.2) and was twice named as ACC POW. True frosh Brandon Braxton (PS#170) added 180 (12.9). It should be noted Varner could become the 1st player in ACC history with 3 seasons of 60+ catches. TY they lose Huffman (4 st), Kelly (6 st) and King but with a more exp'd QB, could put up stronger numbers.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Duke had a veteran line in '07 but actually dropped to 64 ypg rush (2.0), their lowest ypg of the modern era and they allowed 45 sks (11.7%). After expected improvement in '08 they had to replace 3 st's in '09 and slipped back to 64 ypg (2.2) but with only 28 sks (5.6%). LY they had to replace 2 st's but had 67 car sts returning and had their best ypc (3.4) since '03 with 110 ypg and 25 sks (5.1%). This year they lose C Bryan Morgan (12 st, 3Y st'r) and LG Brandon Harper (8 st, inj). During the final month LG Dave Harding, C Morgan and RG Brian Moore saw little practice time (inj) but were productive. They once again return 3 st's (77 car sts) and will continue to show improvement.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Duke had exp'd D-lines in '06, '07 and '08 and improved their rush D from 5.1 ypc in '05 to 4.6, 4.3 and 3.8 the next 3 yrs. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's but Vince Oghobaase (PS#18) turned down a shot at the NFL. Oghobaase missed 4 (inj) and the stats were similar as they allowed 153 ypg (4.0) but the D had just 19 sks (27 in '08). LY they had to replace 3rd Tm ACC DT Oghobaase, a DE st'r and 2 DT's (comb 5 sts, 49 tkl). Despite being equal in exp, I expected the stats to drop with the loss of their star and that they did as Duke yielded 208 ypg rush (4.8) with just 12 sks. This year they lose DE Patrick Egboh (12 st, 62 tkl, 4.5 sk), DE Wesley Oglesby (11 st, 42 tkl, 4.5 tfl) and NT Tevin Hood (4 tkl). While they once again only return 2 st's, they should improve upon 2010's poor numbers.

LINEBACKERS - Last year Duke had to replace 2nd Tm ACC Vincent Rey (#1 tkl'r) but did have 5 of their top 6 back. True frosh Kelly Brown was too good to keep off the field, starting 7 and finished as the #3 tkl'r despite missing 3. This unit struggled with inj's as only one player started all 12 and the ppg rose to 35.4. This year they lose HM ACC MLB Abraham Kromah (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 9.5 tfl), WLB Damian Thornton (7 st, #1 tkl'r, 1 sk), SLB Adam Banks (9 tkl) and Eriks Reks (3 tkl). A LB has led the team in tkl's 7 straight yrs. They were expected to have 3 back who had starting experience but Tyree Glover was dismissed in late April. After allowing the most ppg in 5 years they should improve even with a less experienced LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Prior to Cutcliffe's arrival (in '08), Duke finished #98, #102, #110 and #109 in my PDR. Their '08 secondary was hit hard by injuries and at times couldn't play 6 DB's if they wanted to but still managed to move up to #99. In '09 with 1.5 st's back, Duke improved to #85. LY they lost the unit's key player in 3rd Tm ACC CB Leon Wright (5 int) as well as a starting S. They did have 6 of the top 8 back and moved Johnny Williams (16 st WR) to CB. Duke's best cover corner was CB Chris Rwabukamba who teams avoided (just 1 int and 4 pbu). Rfr Ross Cockrell was just the 2nd frosh to lead the team in int's (Wyatt Smith '88). August Campbell who moved from LB to S at midseason, got a school record 95 yd FR td vs BC. Duke finished just #102 allowing a respectable 54.7% but with a 25-8 ratio vs a weak slate of opp QB's. Not in the PSL are Quan Stevenson (5'10" 195 rfr, PS#245), Brendan Fowler (6'0" 215 So), Jeffrey Faris (5'11" 185 Sr) and Anthony Pecoraro (5'11" 190 So). This year the Blue Devils lose their top CB Rwabukamba

(10 st, 51 tkl) but have 7 of the top 8 back and should have their best finish in my PDR since at least '03 (#75).

SPECIAL TEAMS - Cutcliffe's final 2 units at Mississippi finished #37 and #31 in my ST rankings. He inherited a group that was just #98 in '07 but his first 2 yrs here they finished #83 and #71. In '09 Kevin Jones avg'd 39.3 (32.9 tm net). Last year he dropped a snap vs WF and then failed to get on the ball and WF took it 18 yds for a td. Alex King then took over at P and avg'd 41.1 (33.6 tm net). Nick Maggio (PS#57) hit 11-14 FG's (L46) in '08 but broke his jaw and lost weight and strength in '09. He missed 2 FG's and Will Snyderwine took over, hitting an outstanding 17-20 FG's (L51) but had just 2 TB's on 47 KO's. At the end of August of last year, Snyderwine was inconsistent and Cutcliffe gave Maggio a shot at the job. A motivated Snyderwine was one of the Groza semi's hitting 21-24 FG's (L52, 1 miss 54) and Maggio got 0 att's. Snyderwine also improved with 11 TB's on 60 KO's. True frosh Snead (PS#64) was the top KR's (22.0), while Lee Butler avg'd 8.6 on PR's. The Devils should move up in my ST rankings for the 5th straight year (#70 in '10).

COACHES - From 2000-'07 Duke won 3 of 64 ACC games and in '08 they brought in veteran HC David Cutcliffe. It took Cutcliffe ELEVEN conf games to match those 3 wins. He was the HC at Mississippi from the '98 bowl through 2004 (44-29) guiding UM to 4 bowls (3 wins). He was the only coach at UM to have 7+ wins in each of his first 5 yrs. Amazingly, Ole Miss fired him after his first losing season and then suffered through a 10-25 record the next 3 yrs. Cutcliffe coached with Tenn for 17 yrs and ret'd there in '06 for a 2 year stint as the OC. He is known for working closely with QB's and some of his prized pupils include the Manning brothers and Heath Shuler. His co-OC's are Kurt Roper, who was the Tenn RB coach in '06-'07 and Matt Luke, who was the TE/OL coach/recruit coor at Tenn ('06-'07). DC Jim Knowles is in his second season here and was previously the HC at Cornell ('04-'09) and the DC at WM ('01-'02).

PHIL'S FORECAST

In the past 48 yrs Duke has had just three 7+ win seasons! They occurred in 1988 and '89 with Steve Spurrier at the helm and in '94 during Fred Goldsmith's first season. Since their Hall of Fame Bowl game in '94, Duke is just 34-149. That includes a 14-114 record in ACC play with EIGHT winless ACC seasons. In former HC Ted Roof's four seasons Duke went just 4-42 but prior to '07 Roof said that the '08 team would be bowl eligible. Cutcliffe inherited 16 ret st's with just 15 left lost and I called for Duke to have as many wins as they had the previous four years combined (4) and the Blue Devils did not disappoint. Duke opened 3-1 (best start S/'94) and even beat a bowl bound SEC team (Vandy) on the road to move to 4-3 but finished just 4-8, 1-7 in the ACC (-113.0 ypg). They had just 11 ret st's in '09 but their 3-5 ACC record was their best since '99 (just 4 ACC wins the previous decade) and they improved to -18.6 ypg. They got to 5-3 needing just 1 win for a bowl but dropped their last 4. LY Duke had to face 8 teams that had 8+ wins in '09 and did have a more veteran squad with 14 ret st's. Despite coming off a 5-7 season with a stronger team, they played a tougher schedule, and did not make my Most Improved List. Duke's record dropped to 1-7 in the ACC (-94.6 ypg) and 3-9 overall. Duke did outgain Army and MD but opened 1-6. They upset Navy and UVA, keeping their slim bowl hopes alive but those ended in a 5 pt loss to BC. They had a 443-410 yd edge vs GT but lost by 10 and moved to 1-12 in Nov under Cutcliffe with a 5 pt loss to rival NC. Duke was -11 in TO's and had 2 net close losses, both signs pointing to a better record. After 4 straight 6th place finishes Duke has finished 5th each of the last 2 yrs in the ACC. They have just 12 scholarship Sr's on the team. I look for improved numbers on both sides of the ball and a 4-3 start but they will need to pull off 2 upsets in their final 5 to get to a bowl. This is Cutcliffe's best edition in his 4 years here.

Duke is 9-3 vs UR but has dropped the 2 most recent meetings ('06 & '09). In '06 Duke was shutout & in '09 trailed 24-9 late Q4. Spiders went 6-5 LY (lost 34-13 to UVA) but in '08 were FCS National Champs.

Duke is 1-1 vs SU but the meetings took place in '71 & '72. Duke has dropped 11 str hosting current non-ACC/BCS schools w/an avg score of 38-15 (last win vs Rutgers in '95).

Third gm in the modern era ('S29). Duke's L/trip to Chestnut Hill was in '06, a 28-7 loss. They were outgained 501-301 (-13 FD) but only trailed 14-7 into the 3Q. Duke is 2-14 in road openers.

Blue Devils are 0-2 vs the Green Wave. They were shutout 17-0 at the Superdome in '64 & lost LTH (1973) 24-17. Cutcliffe was the Ole Miss HC from 1998-'04 (44-29 rec) going 2-0 vs Tulane.

First meeting. Since 1974 the Blue Devils are 1-15 in the state of Florida with the only win coming in 1976 vs Miami. Including FIU, 4 of the Duke 5 AG's TY are vs bowl squads from LY.

Bonus: Duke is 1-12 under Cutcliffe in November.

Georgia Tech: Duke has dropped 7 str home finales. Ironically their L/win was vs GT in '03.

Duke has never beaten FSU going 0-16 w/the avg score 51-16 (no gm closer than 19 pts!) That 19 pt loss was the last meeting ('07). Duke held FSU out of the EZ in the 1H but still was outgained 534-222.

Duke has lost 11 str but 4 of the L5 have been decided by a comb 15 pts. LY QB Renfree had career highs in yds (358) & TD passes (4) vs WF & the 48 pts were the most scored in a loss in school history.

Since these tms started playing as ACC members ('04) Duke has been outgained in all 7 gms by 235 ypg. LY Duke trailed 27-0 at HT. Duke has lost 42 str vs ranked opp's by 30 ppg (L/win vs #13 UVA in '94).

Duke's last & only W in this series was in Miami in '76. They've lost 7 str by 21 ppg. LTH Duke had a 16-13 lead into the 4Q but on their L/3 poss missed a 31 yd FG, gave up a 73 yd IR TD & were SOD.

These schools have played every yr S'63 & Duke last beat UVA 4 in a row from 1975-'78. In Duke's L/visit to Charlottesville they trailed 17-12 in the 4Q but scored 16 unanswered in the final 3:45!

Duke is 2-19 vs GT S'90. LY Duke had a 13-6 HT lead w/a 227-127 yd edge. The gm turned on a 14 pt swing in the 3Q when Duke was int'd & ret 85 yds for a TD (instead of a poss 20-9 lead, trailed 16-13).

Play for the "Victory Bell" as NC is Duke's most common FB opp (played every yr S'22, schools 8 miles apart). L/gm in Chapel Hill Duke was shutout in the 1H after a 6-6 HT tie (just 5 FD's & 86 yds, 3.3 ypp).

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 PAC-12 FORECAST

NORTH 1. OREGON - The Ducks do have to play Stanford on the road this year and had a tough time with the Cardinal at home last season. While they lose 3 starters on the O-line, keep in mind in '09 they had to replace 4 st's and only had a slight drop in production and they return QB Darron Thomas and Heisman finalist RB LaMichael James. The D is not as deep but this looks like the best team in the Pac-12 again and I'll call for them to win the inaugural conference title.

2. STANFORD - Stanford fans have to be excited about this yr as they finished #4 LY and QB Andrew Luck pulled the stunner and opted to return for his Jr season. Stanford has a road schedule with only one bowl team on it (7-6 AZ) and 2 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for an unbeaten season. This team deserves to be listed in the National Title contender slot but since they lose 5 of 8 starters along the lines and their HC, I'll peg them 2nd in the North but keep in mind they do get that big game vs the Ducks at home.

3. OREGON ST - Almost each and every yr Coach Mike Riley's team outperforms my expectations. LY I had them in a 3-way tie for 5th in the Pac-10 and that is exactly where they finished, stopping that recent trend. The Beavers did finish with a losing record and there are some signs pointing downward this year (5 Pac-12 AG's, lose their star offensive player in Quizz Rodgers, have to replace 6 of their top 8 tk's and have just 12 ret st's). On the positive side, Coach Riley is back and they have a 2nd yr starting QB (see QUARTERBACKS pg 136). The Beavers make my Most Improved List.

3. WASHINGTON - The Huskies were rather fortunate to make it to a bowl LY as they had 3 net close wins and had some key factors go in their favor down the stretch. When they caught a disinterested Nebraska in the Holiday bowl, they were able to pull the upset and finish with a winning rec. While LY's team needed a lot of luck to achieve that, this year's squad will not need as much. They have 15 ret st's (T-#3 most) making it Sarkisian's most talented tm in his 3 yrs and despite losing the 8th overall pick in the draft (QB Jake Locker) could actually put up improved passing numbers. They do have just 4 P12 AG's with WSU being a neutral site (UW likely having a slight crowd edge).

5. CALIFORNIA - It's tough for me to pick the Bears here but out of the team's in the North, they are the only one that does not play any true HG's as their HG's this year take place in San Francisco's AT&T park. Keep in mind LY was a great team in Memorial Stadium and a poor team away from home. Despite the fact they have just 12 ret st's, LY's squad was much better than their final record (2nd best D P10) and Cal makes my Most Improved List which means I think they will get to a bowl despite the home field disadvantage.

6. WASHINGTON ST - WSU has gone 2-25 in Pac-10 play the last 3 yrs. LY they showed improvement as they were -272.7 ypg ('08) and -260.4 ypg ('09) in Pac-10 play but improved to -140.1 in '10. I was very impressed with their road upset of Oregon St. (a game that they controlled) as well as under-rated QB Jeff Tuel and WR Marquess Wilson. This is by far the best team that Coach Paul Wulff has fielded but they do have just 3 Pac-12 games at their home stadium and are probably one more year away from moving up in the North standings.

SOUTH 1. USC - Even though I peg USC for 1st, the Trojans cannot play for the Pac-12 Title as they are in the 2nd year of their probation which also keeps them from a bowl. They can still win the Pac-12 South which should give them more motivation than they had LY. While this year's team is young and they draw both Oregon and Stanford from the North as well as having to face Pac-12 South favorite ASU on the road, the Trojans have plenty of talent and despite just 62.9% returning lettermen, should finish at the top of the South.

2. ARIZONA ST - ASU figures to be the only ranked Pac-12 South team at the start of the year. The Sun Devils will be the preseason favorite to win the Pac-12 South and deserve that level of favoritism. They have 15 ret st's (17 left lost, fewest P12), get USC at home and avoid having to play Stanford. I remember talking to Coach Erickson last summer going through the positions thinking "Boy this team is going to be good in 2011" but with the inexperience of 2010 and a tough schedule, I had hoped that he would be around. Erickson made it through the season at 6-6 and Sun Devil fans will enjoy their first winning season since 2007 which should put them in the inaugural Pac-12 Title game.

3. UCLA - The Bruins were just 4-8 LY and this year draw 5 Pac-12 road games and 2 potential Top 25 non-conference foes. They figure to be a dog in all 5 Pac-12 AG's including Utah which will be played in altitude and possible cold weather in November. I think this year's Bruins' squad will be much better than most folks anticipate (17 returning starters most in Pac-12) and if they receive better QB play (which I expect), it will make both their offense and defense stronger. The Bruins actually made my Most Improved List which means I expect to see them in the postseason.

3. UTAH - The Utes draw the most favorable Pac-12 schedule of any team. Not only do they benefit from getting 5 of their Pac-12 games at home, they also avoid Stanford and Oregon out of the North. This Utah team benefitted from 4 net close wins LY and has just 67% of their lettermen returning but Pac-12 teams are not used to battling the altitude. This is a good Utah team but has a big step up in strength of schedule and just 12 returning starters.

5. ARIZONA - In the South there are the 2 top teams and a middle of the pack. Of the 3 in the middle, Ariz (least amount of ret st's in P12) draws both Stanford and Oregon (both AP Top 7) out of the North while Utah avoids both. That is a key factor for me pegging the Cats down here at #5. Most of my sets of power ratings have them 5th or 6th best in the Pac-12 and they have one of the best sets of skill players in the league with QB Foles, RB Antolin and WR Criner. They are also the only one of the 3 that do not get to play WSU.

6. COLORADO - Under normal circumstances, I would expect CU to be improved as they could have easily been a bowl tm in each of the last 2 years. They would have had 6 wins LY but blew that 45-17 4Q lead vs Kansas. TY they have 16 ret st's (2nd most P12). Unfortunately, the Buffs draw a tough sked pulling both AP Top 7 preseason out of the North and they only have four Pac-12 HG's (keep in mind Cal is a "non-conf" game) and are away from home 8 of 13 weeks. I'll call for them to start the Pac-12 tenure in the South basement.

Pac-12 Notes: This is an ironic ssn for conf names. There were 5 conferences which changed their number of teams but the ONLY one whose name represents the actual number of schools is the Pac-12. They do still play 9 conf gms which means some teams have 5 home and others have 5 away. Last year it was surprising to see that just 4 tms made it to a bowl (USC ineligible and Utah in MWC) and Wash barely made one at that. They were 2-2 in those contests. They were a solid 12-7 in gms vs other AQ conf's and did have 31 players drafted this past year (3 in 1st rd). Oregon and Stanford will each be in the AP preseason Top 7 and will battle it out for the tough North title. The South, with USC on probation looks like the weaker of the two divisions this year.

OREGON DUCKS

RB Kenjon Barner

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 Dennis Dixon (PS#10) was having a Heisman-type season (68%, 20-4, 583 rush) until he suffered a torn ACL. Three QB's struggled to replace him. Nate Costa (PS#56, ACL '07) was the clear frontrunner in '08 but was lost in Aug (2nd ACL). JUCO signee Jeremiah Masoli beat out the other three returnees and started the last 10 (1744, 57%, 13-5) while rushing for a school QB record 718 (5.7, 10 td). Darron Thomas (PS#22) played in 5 as a true frosh (268, 49%, 3-1). In '09 Masoli led the Ducks to the Rose Bowl throwing for 2,147 (58%, 15-6, 668 rush) and earned 1st Tm P10. Costa started vs UCLA (Masoli inj) and they were able to RS Thomas. LY Masoli transferred after being susp and Costa was #1 into Aug but I proj'd Thomas as the starter. Thomas did win the job and even earned some mention in the Heisman race. Thomas had a better year passing than Masoli did, throwing for 2,881 (61.5%, 30-9) and was also the #3 rusher (486, 5.2). Costa played in 10 (25-33-286) before going down with his 3rd torn ACL. True frosh Bryan Bennett (PS#28) was the bkp QB late with Costa inj but was able to RS. Daryle Hawkins (PS#161) had 18 rushes for 93 yds (0 pass) and may also see sometime at WR if Thomas remains healthy. This year the only loss is Costa and added to the mix is Dustin Haines (6'3" 200 So) and true frosh Marcus Mariota (PS#31). Thomas is more seasoned and should put up even better numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Jonathan Stewart (PS#1) left as UO's #3 rusher after putting up 981 (5.4) in '06 and 1,722 (6.2) in '07 including a Sun Bowl record 253 (#1 DC). In '08 Jeremiah Johnson led with 1,201 (7.1) setting a Civil War record with 219 and PS#10JC LeGarrette Blount had 1,002 (7.3) and 17 td's (2nd UO duo to each top 1,000). In '09 they had to replace Johnson and Blount was susp. That opened the door for rFr LaMichael James (PS#41), who finished as the Pac-10's #2 rusher (P10 OPOY) with 1,546 (6.7). Kenjon Barner (PS#115) moved over from DB and rushed for 366 (6.0). Last year James was a Heisman finalist rushing for 1,731 (5.9) breaking Stewart's '07 single season record while adding 208 rec (12.2). Barner missed a few gms but was #2 (551, 6.1). This year they lose Remene Alston (#3 RB, 356, 5.7) and Andres Reed (125, 6.9). James (just 20 yds away from the school's career rush record) turned down the NFL and they add in rFr Lache Seastrunk (PS#3) and true frosh DeAnthony Thomas (PS#2) making this my #1 rated RB corps!

RECEIVERS - In '09 the Ducks had to replace their top 2 WR's (combined 1224, 14.2) but returned star TE Ed Dickson (#2 rec). They also ret'd WR Jeff Maehl (421, 10.8). Dickson broke the school record for TE career rec's topping Josh Wilcox ('93-'96) and was #2 again (551, 13.1). Maehl led with 696 (13.1). LY they had to replace Dickson (#3DC, 1st Tm P10) but had their top 3 WR's back. The Ducks did not have any true game breaking WR's and Maehl led again with 1,076 (14.0). DJ Davis (PS#21) was #2 with 470 (11.2) and Lavasier Tuinei (PS#128JC) added 396 (11.0) despite missing 2 with a shoulder injury. TE David Paulson had 418 (17.4). True frosh WR Josh Huff had a key 85 yd td run vs Ariz (#5 rush, 303 rec, 15.9). This year they lose Maehl (13 st) and Davis (13 st) and Malachi Lewis (2 rec). The Ducks made a concerted effort to improve their talent level at WR and brought in PS#5 and #7 frosh along with a PS#20JC. Despite the loss of their top 2 rec, this unit has added speed and could come close to matching LY's production.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Then-HC Mike Bellotti ('95-'08) called '07's O-line the best in school history and they paved the way for 252 ypg rush (5.3) while allowing 24 sks (5.8%). They had to replace 2 st's and 2 bkps in '08 but improved to 280 ypg rush with an FBS high 6.2 ypc (20 sks). In '09 they had to replace 4 st's (#2 and #5 DC's) and 2 bkps with just 20 career sts returning (#118 FBS). The unit outperformed my expectations with 232 ypg rush (5.5) and just 13 sks (3.8%). LY the entire 2 deep was back (85 car sts) so I said they should be one of the nation's top O-lines. The 2010 version bettered the '08 version as they opened holes for 286 ypg (5.9) while allowing just 10 sk (prev low L12Y was 24). TY they lose 1st Tm P10 C Jordan Holmes (13 st, 2Y str), 4th Tm P10 RG CE Kaiser (12 st, 3Y str), 2nd Tm P10 OL Bo Thran (12 st, 2Y str), bkp C Max Forer (4 gm) and LT Charlie Carmichael (3 gm). They add PS#26JC Ryan Clanton (RS '10) and have 8 VHT's on the unit if PS#53 Hamani Stevens returns from a mission (status unknown after spg). This will still be one of the top O-lines in the country (remember '09?) but it is less exp'd (56 car sts) and it will be tough to match LY's amazing numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 the Ducks had an exp'd D-line as DE Nick Reed earned 1st Tm AA and the unit improved to allowing 119 ypg rush (3.1). In '09 they had to replace 3 st's incl Reed. I called for Kenny Rowe (PS#19) to have improved production (18 tkl 1st 2Y) and he led the P10 with 11.5 sk. It was surprising to me that the #s only slipped to 129 ypg rush (3.4, 36 sk). LY they had to replace 2 st's and moved in TE Dion Jordan. They also added VHT frosh Ricky Heimuli (PS#21). DL coach Jerry Azziarino molded another solid unit but I was surprised that despite being more exp'd, the numbers were similar (128 ypg, 3.5, 33 sk). Giving up 254 rush yds to Auburn did not help (118, 3.3 without). This year they lose 2nd Tm P10 DE Rowe (13 st, #6 tkl/r, 7 sk, 9.5 tfl), 2nd Tm P10 DT Brandon Bair (13 st, #7 tkl/r, 16 tfl) and DE Zac Clark (12 st, #9 tkl/r, 9.5 tfl). This unit is less exp'd and loses its top 2 but will come close to last year's production.

LINEBACKER - Last year the Ducks missed LB Eddie Pleasant to ROV (12 st, #6 tkl/r) but still ret'd their #2, #3, #12 and #14 tkl/r's and added in a VHT rFr. I said they would be one of the P10's better LB corps and UO allowed just 18.7 ppg, their fewest since 1992. This year they lose 1st Tm P10 MLB Casey Matthews (13 st, #1 tkl/r, 9 tfl, #4DC PHI), WLB Spencer Paysinger (13 st, #3 tkl/r, 6.5 tfl) and Bryson Littlejohn (31 tkl, 2 tfl). This time they return just their #8, #10 and #13 tkl/r's and while still a solid unit, it is clearly less exp'd.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Ducks had 4 straight top 15 finishes in my PDR from 2004-'07. It was surprising that in '08 with 3 ret st's, they dropped to #47. In '09 they had an injury plagued group but still rose to #25. LY they had to replace 2 DB's (comb 10 sts) who were #2 and #4DC's. In '09 they started 5 DB's often so 4 were back with 10+ sts. CB Cliff Harris (PS#19) earned 1st Tm P10 while leading the nation in pd (23). As you would expect, the Ducks rose to #6 (53.8%, 15-21). This year they lose CB Talmadge Jackson (13 st, #4 tkl/r, 2 int, 6 pbu), FS James Lewis (1 st, 25 tkl, 1 int, left after for NFL, undrafted), S Marvin Johnson (26 tkl), S Brian Butterfield (10 tkl) and Chad Peppers (12 tkl). They have 4 back who had 6+ sts LY and add PS#19 Dior Mathis. This year's secondary is just as exp but with a weaker front 7, may not match LY's PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '07 UO had to replace its P and K but brought back their excellent ST coor Tom Osborne. In his previous 6 yrs here ('95-'00), they finished #30, #22, #4, #15, #13 and #47 in my ST rankings. So far in his first 4 years back the Ducks have been solid finishing #32, #27, #21 and #3 as Osborne (1 of 4 finalists ST COY) uses their abundance of team spd very well. LY Kenjon Barner and Cliff Harris combined for 5 PR td's (4 by Harris) as Harris was my 1st Tm AA PR. Josh Huff avg 24.7 on KR (Barner 18.2). Rob Beard hit his first 8 att's but then missed 2 vs Cal and Eric Solis hit 3 of 4 in the opener (13 KO, 1 TB) but still RS. Jackson Rice avg 42.3 on punts (37.9 tm net) but had just 3 TB. Beard had 11 TB on 95 KO. TY the unit ret intact and could again be the best in the country.

COACHES - Mike Bellotti had the most wins (116-55) of any Pac-10 HC when he stepped aside prior to spring practice in '09. He is the school's all-time career win leader (12 bowls in 14Y). HC Chip Kelly was the OC here since 2007 and was the OC at New Hampshire ('99-'06). Kelly was named the Pac-10 COY in B2B seasons after becoming the first in league history to win an outright conf title in his debut season and then took the Ducks to the National Title game last year. OC Mark Helfrich (3rd yr) was the OC/QB coach at Colorado ('06-'08). DC Nick Aliotti (13th yr) was the architect of the "Gang Green" D that started the UO revival and returned to the school in 1999 after being the DC at UCLA in 1998.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 2004 UO had a streak of 10 straight winning years snapped (5-6). In '05 they were my #4 Most Improved team and almost made it to a BCS bowl at 10-2 finishing #12. In 2007 UO was one of my Surprise Teams (non-Top 10 with chance at title) and they were headed for the BCS Title game but lost QB Dennis Dixon to injury when ranked #2 and lost their final 3 reg season gms to finish 9-4. In 2008 they finished #10 and in 2009 #11. Last year 8 of my 9 sets of power ratings called them the best team in the P10. They then benefitted from the numerous sanctions placed USC. UO's offense was explosive as they scored over a point a minute the first 3 winning by a combined 189-13. They "only" beat Ariz St 42-31 on the road and trailed Stanford the next week 21-3 but rolled to a 52-31 win with 626 yds. Their next test came at USC in what was basically USC's Super Bowl. They trailed 32-29 mid-3Q but scored the game's final 24 pts. Two weeks later the offense struggled vs Cal with just 317 yds and Cal missed a 4Q FG with UO holding on for a 15-13 win. After knocking off Ariz by 19 and Oregon St by 17, they won a berth in the National Championship game. They were #1 in the AP poll for the first time in their 115 year history and held that spot for 7 weeks (6 gms) but came up short to Auburn on a late FG. UO benefitted from +13 in turnovers and had just 6 sts lost to injury all year. They also had an offensive ypp of 11.3 which are all signs that usually point to a weaker year. LY DC Aliotti used a 25 man rotation on D and says that this year with less depth it may only be 18. I expect both LSU and Stanford to be ranked in the preseason AP Top SEVEN and they play both outside of Autzen. Despite those factors, this team has QB Thomas and RB James back and are my pick to win the inaugural Pac-12 Title and are a legitimate National Title contender.

The loser from the Nat'l Title gm has gone 10-2 (avg score 39-13) in the following ssn opener (Okla has dropped both, '05 & '09) S'98, UO has won 5 str vs non-conf BCS tms in reg ssn play (Loss in '04).
UO is 5-1 vs Nevada with the only loss in 1947 (5-0 S'96). In the L/meeting ('03) the Ducks won 31-23 w/a 399-301 yd edge. Ducks are on a 16-1 home opener run (loss in '04 vs Indiana).
First meeting. Bears went 5-6 LY. MSU has played at least one FBS opp every yr S'90 (0-22). Into 2011, UO is 32-2 in gms vs non-conf opp's in Eugene incl LY going 2-0 w/a combined 141-0 score!
UO is 14-3 S'94 vs UA. The Ducks won 44-41 (2OT) in their L/trip to Tucson. UO went 80/15pl scoring on an 8 yd TD pass w/06 to force OT winning on a 1 yd TD run on 3&gl.
LY: USC trailed 32-29 w/11-19 left 3Q but from that point outscored USC 24-0 w/a 277-154 yd edge (USC's L/4 drives ended in a punt. SOD at UO36, int in EZ & SOD at UO8).
UO has won the L2 vs Cal but LY was held to ssn lows in FD's (20) & yds (317, the next lowest was 447).
UO trailed 7-0 after 1Q but up 2 in the 4Q ran out the final 9:25 (6 FD's) ending the gm on Cal's 15.
UO is 15-7 S'89 vs ASU (started series out 0-9). LY UO was outgained by 212 yds (-9 FD) & trailed 24-14 late 2Q. ASU penetrated OU's territory 7 times without scoring thanks to 7 TO's.
The last regular season meeting was in 1987 but they have met 3 times in a bowl ('96, '98 & '02). Into 2011, UO has won 6 straight conf away gms going 8-1 under Kelly.
89th meeting. UO has won 10 of the L/13 in this series incl 4 str in dominating fashion w/an avg score of 53-13 (+262 avg yd edge). S'45 these tms have played every yr except '90 (UO has never won 5 in a row).
Ducks have won 7 str over the Huskies and every win has been by at least 20 pts (+208 avg ypg edge). LTH UO trailed 3-0 after 1Q being outgained 77-25 before a 36-3 explosion the next 2 Q's.
Visitor has dropped 3 str incl LTH. UO trailed 31-14 at HT & after a 21 yd TD pass w/2:38 got within 6 but SU rec the onside & kicked a FG w/11 ending UO's comeback hopes.
Both tms have been ranked the L7. The higher ranked tm has won 5 of the L6 (OU pulled upset '09).
115th Civil War (longest rivalry west of Rocky Mountains) as UO has won 3 str & the HT is 11-4 in the L15.
LY: UO was down 7-0 but after taking a 9-7 lead never trailed again turning 4 OSU int's into 17 pts.

STANFORD CARDINAL

QB Andrew Luck

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Since 1970 the Cardinal have had 13 QB's drafted into the NFL. The last was Jim Plunkett and John Elway. Trent Edwards (PS#5) was the last DC (#3DC BUF). After Edwards' departure in '07, Stanford got uneven QB play. In '08 they avg'd just 152 ypg pass (56%). Despite the st'r returning in '09, the job clearly belonged to rFr Andrew Luck (PS#8) who some NFL scouts were already calling him the best prospect QB in the NCAA. Luck's numbers were not overwhelming with Toby Gerhart in the backfield as he threw for 2,575 (56%, 13-4) although he led the P10 in pass eff. He did miss the Sun Bowl vs Oklahoma and Tavita Pritchard (20 carst) hit 8-19-117. Luck lived up to the hype in '10 throwing for 3,338 (P10 OPI, 2nd Tm AA) though he broke Elway's record for td passes in a season and his 453 net yds rush was the highest single ssn tll by an SU QB (Gene Washington, 362 in '66). Luck (P10 OPI, 2nd Tm AA) then surprised everyone and turned down being the #1 overall pick of the draft to return. His bkp was Sr Alex Loukas (PS#39) who had just 5 passes but rushed for 150 (8.3). RFr Josh Nunes (PS#17) ply'd in 4. Adding depth are Brett Nottingham (PS#14), Robbie Picazo (6'3" 202 So) and David Olson (6'3" 212 rFr, PS#171). Luck was the Heisman runner-up LY and is 2011's favorite.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 Toby Gerhart rushed for 140 (11.7) in just 1 gm but RS (inj) while the leading RB had just 509 (4.4). In my '08 magazine I called for Gerhart to jump to the forefront and have the highest rushing total for an SU RB since Tommy Vardell (1084, '91). Gerhart did not let me down, setting the SU rec with 1,136 (5.4). In '09 Gerhart finished #2 in the closest Heisman race in history, rushing for an FBS best 1,871 (5.5) and an amazing 28 td's. LY they had to replace Gerhart (#2DC) and the top ret RB was soph Stephan Taylor (PS#36) who had 303 (5.4) as a true. Harbaugh was going to go with a RB-by-committee but soph Tyler Gaffney (PS#13) and Jeremy Stewart (6'1" 218 Sr, 1 st) were both banged up early. Taylor had 5 straight 100+ efforts, the only P10 RB to do so and he became just the 6th SU RB to rush for 1,000 yds in a ssn (Darren Nelson, '77-'78, '81, Brad Muster '86, Jon Volpe '88, Tommy Vardell '91 and Gerhart '08-'09) with 1137 (5.1, SU's 2nd best total ever). Taylor was also the #5 rec (266, 9.5). Good sized true frosh Anthony Wilkerson (PS#22) rushed for 408 (4.6), Gaffney (87 as true) had 255 (4.2) and rFr Usua Amanam (PS#32) had 126 (4.5). Owen Marecic was one of the best blk'g FB's in the country rushing for 46 (2.0) getting double duty at LB. TY they lose Marecic (13 st, #4DC CLE) while Amanam was working at CB in spg. Not listed below are Ricky Seale (5'9" 200 rFr, PS#38), Andrew Stutz (6'1" 197 So), Michael Spanos (5'10" 178 So), Jackson Cummings (5'9" 192 rFr, Scout Tm POY) and Stewart (137, 7.6). This group is a lot more exp'd but it will be tough to improve much upon Taylor's fine '10 numbers.

RECEIVERS - In '09 this unit ret'd intact and got the added spd of soph Chris Owusu (10.4 100m) and 3 true frosh. Ryan Whalen led for a 2nd straight yr with 926 (16.2) while Owusu was #2 (682, 18.4). Coby Fleener was #3 (266, 12.7) and TE Konrad Reuland added 142 (23.7). LY the unit ret'd intact but Reuland lost his starting TE job to rFr Levine Toilolo (PS#5). Unfortunately, Toilolo was OFY in the opener (ACL). Whalen had just 10 st (inj) and dropped to #2 (439, 10.7). Doug Baldwin (10 st '08, inj '09) reestablished himself and led with 857 (14.8). Owusu missed 6 and was limited in a few others (inj) finishing #4 (396, 15.8). TE Fleener was #3 thanks to a monster bowl gm (173, 28.8, 3 td). TY they lose Whalen (10 st, #6DC CIN), TE Reuland (7 st, 209, 10.0) and Baldwin (12 st). Not in the PSL are Corey Gatewood (5'11" 181 Sr, PS#93), John Flacco (6'2" 187 rFr), Sam Knapp (6'3" 208 So), Brandon Gottfried (6'5" 227 rFr) and Jeff Trojan (6'3" 199 rFr). Despite the loss of their top 2, Luck's return will keep this unit productive.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '06, injuries decimated this unit as 9 diff players st'd (only 2 w/10+ st). SU avg'd just 65 ypg rushing (2.1), its worst S/'93 and yielded an FBS worst 50 sks (15.8%). They showed improvement in '07 to 111 ypg (3.0), SU's best total in 5 yrs but still allowed 48 sks (11.3%). In '08 they had to replace 2 st'rs but showed big time improvement in Harbaugh's 2nd yr with 200 ypg (4.9, 21 sk). In '09 they had to replace a 2nd Tm P10 C and 1st Tm P10 LT and their OL coach. Still the unit improved to 218 ypg (5.3) all'g the 2nd fewest sks in the FBS (7). LY they had to replace a 1st Tm P10 RT but had 4 st'rs back. Even losing star RB Gerhart, the unit paved the way for 214 ypg rush (5.2) and allowed just 6 sks (FBS best 1.6%). This year they lose 1st Tm AA C Chase Beeler (13 st, 3Y st'r), 2nd Tm P10 LG Andrew Phillips (13 st, 3Y st'r) and RT Derek Hall (13 st, HM P10). They do return two 1st Tm P10 (LT Jonathan Martin and RG David DeCastro). This will still be a quality unit but it is clearly less exp'd.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '06 SU had to replace 2 starters (#5 & #6 DC's) from its 3 man front and the 4.9 ypc all'd was their worst in over 2 decades. SU switched to a 4 man front in '07 and showed improvement in each of the next 3 yrs going from 169 ypg rush allowed to 153 and 138 in '09. Last year they had to replace 1 st'r and 2 bkps (#7DC) and moved starting DE Thomas Keiser to OLB in their new 3-4 D (basically 1 st'r back). DE Brian Bulcke was the 6th overall pick in the CFL draft despite only 9 st in 4 years. SU improved again to all'g 121 ypg with their 3.9 ypc the best S/'04 and the D talked 36 sks. This year they lose NG Sione Fua (13 st, 23 tkl, 4.5 sk, #3DC CAR) and DE Bulcke (10 st, 24 tkl). Much like LY, one starter returns so this unit should be on par with the '10 unit.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Cardinal had to replace 3 LB's who comb'd for 25 starts (#5, #8, #12 tkl's). They returned PS#11 Shayne Skov who was the #3 tkl'r as a true frosh as well as their #6, #7 and #10 tkl'rs from '09. They also had FB Owen Marecic play full-time and he started all 13. SU all'd just 17.4 ppg, their best S/'92. TY they lose OLB Keiser (13 st, #9 tkl'r, 9.5 tll, left early for NFL, UFA), Marecic (13 st, #5 tkl'r, 5.5 tll) and Chike Amajoyi (21 tkl). LY they ret 4 who had 6+ sts plus Marecic. This year their #1 and #2 tkl'rs are back but the rest of the LB's have a comb 2 career starts.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Despite failing to have a winning record from 2002-'06, Stanford performed well in my PDR finishing #37, #36, #20, #68 and #45. In Harbaugh's first 3 seasons, they dropped to #74, #88 and #97 (63%, 23-8) in '09. LY they only had to replace 1 st'r and I called for their best finish in my PDR in at least 4 yrs. As expected, the Cardinal rose up to #16 (56.8% 16-18, best finish S/'96). This year they lose CB Richard Sherman (12 st, #6 tkl'r, 4 int, 9 pbu, #5DC SEA), STaylorSkaufel (4 st, #7 tkl'r, 1 int) and S Austin Yancy (2 st, 19 tkl, 1 int). They do return 2nd Tm P10 SS Delano Howell (PS#27) and are equal to '10 in terms of exp but with the loss of their top cover CB, they probably will not match LY's unusually high PDR finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '06 SU finished just #111 in my ST rankings but in Harbaugh's first 2 yrs they improved to #27 and #19. In '09 I called for them to improve and they moved up to #2. Chris Owusu tied a P10 rec with 3 KR td's (1167, 31.5). LY everyone ret'd but Owusu (24.3) missed 6. Nate Whitaker hit 17-19 FG's (L46) and also led the P10 in TB's with 28. SU did allow 21.9 on KR (#73 FBS) and 13.0 on PR D (#109). Stanford finished #40. Daniel Zychlinski replaced David Green (37.7 net '08) as the P in the first 10 gms and it appears that they will battle for the #1 spot again in fall (36.8 tm net). This year they lose their top-notch K Whitaker but should get a full season out of Owusu and figure to have a much improved unit.

COACHES - Jim Harbaugh took over in '07 after a 1-11 season and improved SU's record in all 4 yrs. LY they finished 12-1 and won a BCS bowl (first major bowl win S/'72) but he departs for the NFL. David Shaw takes over after being the OC here S/'07. Shaw spent 9 yrs as an NFL off asst (PHI, OAK, BAL) and prior to SU he was at Univ of San Diego. The '94 grad (4Y left at rec) is this 5th alum to be HC here. OC Pep Hamilton was the WR ch here LY. He also comes from an NFL background as he was QB coach at CHI ('07-'09), SF ('06) and with the NYJ ('03-'05). The co-DC's are Derek Mason (DB ch LY) who was with the NFL prior (MIN '07-'09) as well as Jason Tarver who was with the 49ers from 2001-'10.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In the 7 yrs from '01-'07 the Cardinal had 4 different HC's. In '06 they were 1-11 and were dead last in the Pac-10 in conf ypg (-169, 90 yds worse than #9). Their 11 straight losses tied a SU rec (1959-'60). In Harbaugh's first ssn ('07) SU had 15 st'rs ret ('07). SU improved to 3-6 in the P10 and 4-8 overall but finished last in the P10 in conf ypg (-176, 109 worse than #9!) for the 5th straight yr. Stanford was picked #9 in the P10 media poll in '08 but had 15 ret st'rs and improved to 5-7. In '09 they had 16 ret st'rs and 7 HG's. RB Toby Gerhart rushed for 1,871 (5.5) with 28 td's and guided SU to an 8-4 reg ssn which got them as high as #14 before a loss to Cal. LY they had 15 ret st'rs incl QB Luck. Three of my 9 sets of power ratings called for an 11-1 ssn but Stanford exceeded my expectations. They went 6-0 at Stanford Stadium, their first undefeated home ssn S/'77. They won 8 of their first 9 for the first time since the 1970 tm (led by eventual Heisman winner Jim Plunkett). The Cardinal opened up 4-0 after demolishing ND in South Bend 37-14. They led Oregon 21-3 in the 1Q but lost by 21 as the Ducks ran for 388 yds. SU got a 30 yd FG on the last play to get past USC 37-35 and then won their next 3 easily. They trailed Ariz ST 13-10 late but Luck manufactured an 85yd/10pl td drive scoring the gm winning td with 5:14 left. SU routed rival Cal on the road and shutout Oreg ST, the 1st time they had 3 shutouts in a ssn S/'69. #5 Stanford then wallowed #12 Virg Tech 40-12 in the bowl with a 534-288 yd edge. Stanford finished #4 their 6th ever Top Ten finish (1940, '51, '70, '71 & '92) and 2nd highest in tm history (#2 in '40). SU was +13 in TO's LY, had 2 net close wins and an offensive ypg of 11.7. They also have just 11 ret st'rs this yr and go from the battle tested coaching legacy of Harbaugh to a 1st yr HC. Stanford will be in the AP preseason Top 7 as QB Luck would have been the #1 pick in TY's draft yet opted to return. Their road sked has just one bowl tm from '10 on it (7-6 Ariz). Two of my 9 sets of power ratings call for an unbeaten yr but with the loss of their HC, and just 11 st'rs back they will not match LY's 12 win total.

SU

65th meeting for these schools just 17 miles apart. HT has won the L7 gms (SU 6-1). In the last 3 games the Cardinal have dominated by a score of 102-27 w/an avg yardage edge of 417-203.

The visitor has won both meetings but they last played in 1972 in Durham (SU lost 10-6). SU did beat ND on the road LY but since 1996 are just 4-13 in AG's vs non-conf opp's.

SU is 4-1 in Tucson S'99 but did lose the last trip. They had a 15 pt 2Q lead but then allowed 80/6pl & 92/5pl drives in the 4Q. SU did drive to the A12 but their L/3 passes fell inc w/23.

Bonus: Last year was the first time since 1986 that SU had a 4-0 start to the season.

SU has won 2 str vs UCLA & LY shutout the Bruins for the 1st time S'41. SU's last 3 gm series win streak was from 1929-'31 (81 gms). The Cardinal are 11-2 the L3Y in conf HG's.

Series is tied 3-3 with the L/gm in '93 at Stanford Stadium. Cardinal won 41-37 pulling the upset over the #7 Buffaloes as SU was in the midst of a 4-7 ssn & CU finished 8-3-1 ranked #16.

SU has reeled off 3 str in this series including a 39-13 win their L/trip to Pullman. Cardinal led 22-3 at HT w/a 269-169 yd edge basically putting it on "cruise control" in the 2H.

LY's 41-0 hammering of Wash marked the biggest MOV for either team in this series (81 gms). SU allowed just 107 yds which was the 2nd fewest in school history (SJSt had 80 yds in 1971).

LY marked the 1st time S'86 & 5th time overall that SU was ranked higher than USC when they faced off. SU is 4-2 their L/6 visits to the Coliseum & in '09 (L/trip) handed USC its worst home loss S'66.

With the shutout of OSU LY, SU blanked 3 opp's in the same ssn for the 1st time S'69. SU had a +5 TO edge but all'd no OSU drive further than the SU32. SU hasn't won B2B gms in this series S'94 & '95.

Cardinal are just 1-8 vs the Ducks S'02. LY SU led 21-3 after 1Q thanks in part to 2 UO TO's (SU was outgained 131-126). After a 7 pt HT edge SU was shutout in the 2H all'g 264 yds w/3 TO's.

SU is 2-7 vs Cal S'02. LY SU handed Cal its worst loss in the "Big Game" S'30. SU scored on its 1st 8 poss (led 45-0 into 4Q) & didn't punt until 3:39 left as Cal went on 79 & 81 yd garbage TD drive's (47% of off in 4Q).

OREGON ST BEAVERS

LB Cameron Collins

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - A reoccurring theme under HC Mike Riley is that a QB struggles in his first yr then gets much better in his 2nd. As some examples, Derek Anderson had a 24-24 ratio in his 1st yr and improved to 29-17 as a senior. Matt Moore had an 11-19 ratio in '05 but improved to 18-7 in '06 (61%). The next 3 yrs the QB duties were split between Sean Canfield and Lyle Moevao and in '09 Canfield took the bulk of the snaps throwing for 3,271 (68%, 21-7). Ryan Katz (PS#33) played in just 4 gms hitting 14-27-232 (1-0 ratio). Katz had a decent year for a first time st'r in '10 throwing for 2,401 (60%, 18-11) but also had some uneven play at times. RFr Cody Vaz (PS#68) played in 5 (6-17-48). Battling Vaz for the bkp job will be Jack Lomax (PS#90, son of former 2x NFL Pro Bowl QB Neil) and Sean Mannion (PS#31). This year Katz returns for his 2nd year as a st'r so you know I expect significant improvement.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 the Beavers lost their then-#2 career rusher in Yvenson Bernard and the leading returnee was WR James Rodgers who had 586 (11.7) on fly sweeps. There was zero exp among the top 3 and true frosh Jacquizz Rodgers (PS#23) exploded with 186 vs USC (that's more than 5 tms had in TOTAL offense vs Trojans in '08). He rushed for 1,253 (4.8) despite missing the last 2, breaking the P10 frosh rushing record. In '09 I said it would be tough for Quizz to top his '08 stats but he rushed for 1,440 (5.3) with a school record 21 td's while adding 522 rec (6.7). They started to use the "Wild Beaver" offense and Quizz got a 61 yd run on the 2nd play vs Stanford in that formation. He was also #2 in the P10 in rec's (78). True frosh Jovan Stevenson (PS#109) added 137 (5.3). LY Quizz started all 12 but his numbers dropped to 1,184 (4.6) and 287 rec (6.5). Stevenson RS after shoulder surgery and Ryan McCants, who had 337 (4.0) in '08, had 4 att's as the bkp RB. Quizz moved into 1st place for OSU career rec's by a RB (142) topping Pat Chaffey ('86-'88-'89, 124). He also became the school's first ever 3x 1st Tm Pac-10 honoree. TY they lose FB Will Darkins (5 st) and Rodgers who left early for the NFL (#5DC ATL). With the loss of their main guy, this unit is clearly weaker, but OSU has produced a 1,000 yd rusher in 11 seasons since 1998 which is the most of any Pac-12 school.

RECEIVERS - In '09 OSU had to replace its top 2 with the leading returnee being James Rodgers who was #3 with 607 (11.9) while also finishing as the #2 rusher. Rodgers led with 1,034 (11.4) plus 303 rush (5.2) and JUCO Damola Adeniji emerged with 807 (14.2). TE Joe Halahuni had 35 rec which was 1 short of All Pac-10 Joe Newton's school TE record ('06). LY they lost Adeniji and then Rodgers was lost (ACL) after 4 sts (215, 13.4, RS). Soph Markus Wheaton (PS#84) led with 675 (12.3). Halahuni was #2 with 390 (13.0) and 6'3" soph Jordan Bishop (PS#121), who was an AA on the track tm LY, had 353 (16.0). This year they lose Aaron Nichols (10 st, 336, 10.8), TE Brady Camp (7 st, 2 rec) and HB John Reese (6 st, 4 rec). Not listed below are Garrett Hall ('59' 190 So), Danny Evans (6'3" 179 Jr), Micah Hatfield (6'0" 162 So, PS#144), Jeff Bedbury (5'10" 187 rFr) and Brett Ackerman (6'2" 195 So). Halahuni needed shldr surgery after spg and may miss the start of the ssn along with Rodgers, who is recovering slowly (2nd knee surg in Jan). This unit should be significantly improved if Rodgers and Halahuni are ready for the start of the 2011 season.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 OSU had to replace a #2DC LT and a 2nd Tm P10 LG plus a bkp w/6 st. They kept Mike Remmers at RT to protect Canfield's blindsides (lefty) and plugged in true frosh Michael Philipp (PS#13) who started all 13 at LT (1st true OL to start S/'97). OSU avg'd 140 ypg rush (4.1) but all'd 29 sks (6.1%) with a less mobile QB. LY they had to replace a 1st Tm P10 RG but with 4 st's back, I expected improvement. LT Philipp missed 3 (inj) but it was still surprising the numbers dropped to 120 ypg rush (3.7) with 35 sks (9.3%). TY they lose 2nd Tm P10 C Alex Linnekoil (12 st, 3Y st'r), LT Wilder McAndrews (3 st), G Ryan Pohl (2 gm) and Timi Oshinowo (1 gm). With 7 of the top 10 back incl 4 st's and hopefully a healthier Philipp, this unit should achieve the improvement I expected last season.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Mike Riley almost always has a top-notch D-line. In '07, despite having just 2 st's back, they led the FBS in rush D (71 ypg, 2.1) with 44 sks. In '08 they had to replace all 4 st's but ret'd a couple of bkps DE's in Slade Norris and Victor Butler who comb for 19.5 sks in '07. As expected, the numbers slipped some to 131 ypg (3.8, 39 sks). In '09 they had to replace 3 st's incl Norris and Butler (both #4DC's). I called for the Beavers to be tougher vs the run but have less QB pressures and that is exactly what happened. They allowed just 114 ypg rush (3.8) but their 17 sks were their lowest under Riley. LY they basically had 3 ret's including their tremendous DT Stephen Paea, who drew constant double teams. Paea was named the P10 DPOY but surprisingly OSU allowed 180 rush ypg (4.3), its worst since '96. TY they lose DT Paea (12 st, 45 tkl, 6 sk, #2DC CHI), DE Gabe Miller (12 st, 44 tkl, 5 sk, #5DC KC), DT Brennan Olander (9 st, 25 tkl, 11.5 tfl) and DT Evan Hull (4 tkl). They do ret 2 w/6+ carsts but just 6.5 of the D-line's 20.5 sks. With the loss of one of the best DT's in the NCAA and 2 other solid DL, this group looks weaker TY.

LINEBACKERS - OSU has had some excellent LB's with six being drafted since 2002. Riley takes a lot of pride in this group calling it the West Coast version of "Linebacker U" and saying his LB's all have the ability to rush the passer and drop into coverage. Last year they had to replace their #1 (1st Tm P10) and #2 tkl'rs with the lone returning starter being Dwight Roberson (#5 tkl'r) although Keith Pankey had 87 tkl's in '08-'09 as a backup. Pankey tore his Achilles over the winter but started 11 (#5 tkl'r). They moved starting SS Cameron Collins (11 st, 70 tkl '09) to OLB but he had just 2 starts (39 tkl). OSU allowed 26.8 ppg, their worst in 5 years. This year they lose 2nd Tm P10 WLB Roberson (11 st, #1 tkl'r, 4 sk), Pankey (62 tkl), Keo Camat (9 tkl) and Devin Unga (14 tkl). Collins returns along with the two players that split starts at MLB (both finished #11 in tkl's, 35). This unit is on par with last year in terms of experience but actually has a couple of VHT's and can only improve after not performing to their usual level.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2008, OSU had 3 DB st's back and finished #12 in my PDR (#7 '06, #10 '07). In '09 they had to replace all 4 st's (2 DC's) losing 139 career st's (7 car st ret). Naturally OSU dropped down to #68 (23-8 ratio). OSU CB's are generally left out on an island by themselves as their scheme calls for heavy blitzing. LY they only had to replace 1 st'r. Surprisingly OSU finished #88 (62.4%, 23-10). TY they lose S Suaesi Tuimaunui (12 st, #2 tkl'r, 1 int, 1 pbu) and 1st Tm P10 CB James Dockery (12 st, #6 tkl'r, 4 int). While this unit has a little less exp, they can only improve upon LY's PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2006, OSU was #4 in my ST rankings. They lost their P, KR & PR in '07 and dropped to #83. In '08 they had to replace their K & P but moved back up to #49. In '09 Johnny Hekker was 1 of 10 semi's for the Ray Guy Award (35.7 net) while Justin Kahut was #2 in the P10 in FG's made 22-27 (L50). As you would expect, the unit improved to #32 and LY had everyone back. Kahut had a slump and hit just 8-12 FG (L41) with 2 TB on 56 KO's and Hekker avg'd 41.7 (35.6 net). James Rodgers was lost after 4 sts (28.7 KR, 18.3 PR) but Jordan Poyer had solid numbers in his place (27.8 KR, 9.5 PR). OSU still dipped slightly to #38. Despite the loss of Kahut, with James Rodgers, Poyer and Hekker all back, the Beavers' ST should be near the top again.

COACHES - Mike Riley began the turnaround at OSU in '97 as he inherited a team filled with ply'rs recruited for the wishbone. In his 2nd yr he guided OSU to its first 5 win ssn in 27 yrs. Riley left in '99 to be an NFL HC (SD) but ret'd to Corvallis in '03. Riley reportedly turned down a chance to ret to USC as the HC in '10 and signed a contract ext through '19. He also calls the plays on game day. Danny Langsdorf is the OC (7th yr) and was previously an off asst with NO ('02-'04) and a CFL OC for the Eskimos ('00-'01). DC Mark Banker was the co-DC at Stanford in '02 and Riley's DB cch from '97-'01 (Oregon St/SD).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Oregon St snapped a TWENTY-EIGHT yr streak of losing seasons in '99 and finished #4 AP in 2000. OSU was 51-166 (23.5%) in the 80's & 90's but 85-52 (62%) since. Reser Stadium has turned into a pit for opposing tms as OSU is 51-16 at home since 2000. Mike Riley ret'd in '03 and has had six out of 8 winning yrs and in almost every year, finished higher than my expectations. From 2001-'05 OSU finished unranked but then in 2006 finished #21 in the AP, #25 in '07 and #18 in '08. In that '08 season they stunned #1 ranked USC at home, the 3rd straight yr they had knocked off a Top 10 tm (and the 2nd time it was USC), despite the fact they had only 10 ret st's. They had 10 ret st's again in '09 and while they went 8-5, they finished unranked after a loss to BYU in the bowl (#16 prior). Despite that fact, OSU was +78.7 ypg in P10 play in '09 and had 15 ret st's in '10. They played 2 Top 10 non-conf gms on the road (TCU, Boise) as well as their nine P10 gms. The season did not go as expected for OSU, in fact they were -45.9 ypg in P10 play which was the first time since 1998 that they did not outgain their P10 foes. OSU opened the season with a loss to #6 TCU in Arlington. September has not been a good month for OSU on the road as they fell to 1-14 after a loss to Boise. They were fortunate to get past L'ville at home (outgained 453-319) and despite losing WR James Rodgers to inj for the rest of the yr, they knocked off Ariz St by 3 and Ariz on the road by 2 for a 2-0 league start. They lost in 2OT to UW but went on the road and pummeled Cal 35-7 (Cal lost QB 1Q). OSU was upset by UCLA and then stunned by WSU snapping the Cougars' streak of 16 straight P10 losses. They rebounded to pound USC 36-7 but then taking on the top 2 in the P10 and needing 1 win to get to a bowl, they lost by a comb'd 75-20 to Stanford and Oregon and were home for the post season for the first time since 2005. Despite just 12 ret starters and losing Quizz, with a 2nd year starting QB the Beavers make my Most Improved List!

One previous meeting in '03's opener, OSU won 40-7 w/a 27-16 FD & 527-254 yd edge. OSU has won 9 str home openers. Hornets went 6-1 LY including a 52-17 loss to Stanford.

The last & only meeting took place at Camp Randall in 1961, OSU lost 23-20. OSU is 2-8 in road openers. The Beavers are just 2-8 S'90 when facing a non-conference BCS school.

Washington: LY both trms blew plenty of chances for a win in regulation (0 pts in 4Q). OSU elected to go for the win in the 2nd OT after the TD but Katz's 2 pt conv pass fell inc.

OSU is 6-18 vs UCLA S'80. LY OSU held a 14-7 2H lead but all'd a 20pl drive (9:28 TOP) late 3Q to tie it. UCLA went 49/8pl nailing a GW 51 yd FG as time exp'd. OSU's L4 poss ended on 3&outs (9 th yds).

The last time OSU visited Tempe they snapped a 16 gm series road losing streak (1st win in Tempe S'69). OSU led 21-3 at HT & 28-10 before a 94/22pl garbage TD drive by ASU.

After starting off this series 2-19-1, OSU is 10-2 the L12Y vs Arizona. LY Despite just a 2 pt win OSU never trailed. Into 2011, the Beavers are 16-5 in conf games at Reser Stadium.

OSU is 5-4 vs BYU with the L/rg ssn meeting in '86 but they played in the '09 LV Bowl. OSU jumped out to a 7-0 lead but allowed 37 str into the 4Q. Into 2011, OSU is 27-1 in non-conf HG's.

First time this gm will be played off campus (Qwest Field is home to the NFL Seahawks). LY OSU trailed 14-0 at HT as 3 of their 5 1H poss ended in a SOD, missed 35 yd FG & an int at WSU12.

OSU has not won in Salt Lake City S'68 dropping their L/2 trips ('92 & '08). In '08 OSU had a 28-20 lead w/2:18 left but UT went 60/4pl for a 25 yd TD (2pt), forced a 3&out & kicked a 37 yd GW FG as time exp.

The HT has won 4 str in this series. LY OSU was shutout for the 1st time S'02 (22-0 vs USC).

OSU has won 5 str visits to Cal. LTH OSU led 31-7 late 4Q before a Cal 66 yd garbage TD drive (28% of offense).

Oregon St was 2-25 in this series from '75-'03 then won 6 straight from 2004-'09 (lost LY).

LY's loss eliminated OSU from a bowl. Last time in Eugene, OSU's Rose Bowl dreams were crushed.

They led 33-28 late 3Q but ran just 10 more plays (3.7 ypp) & allowed UO to run out the L/6:09.

WASHINGTON HUSKIES

MLB Cort Dennison

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 rFr Jake Locker (PS#8) became the first UW QB to start the 1st game of his career since Sonny Sixkiller in 1970. While Locker is a dangerous runner (set Pac-10 rec for rush yds at QB 986, 5.7 in '07), he wasn't a polished passer early on (47%, 14-15 in '07). Locker was OFY in the 4th gm vs Stanford (thumb) in '08 and rFr Ronnie Fouch struggled hitting just 45% (4-13) in relief. Their 6 comb'd td passes were tied for the school's fewest since 1968. In the summer of '09 Locker signed a 6 yr deal with the LA Angels who continue to hold his rights should he ever wish to pursue a baseball career. HC Steve Sarkisian brought in a pro-style pass attack that yr and Locker went from running once every 1.7 passes in '08 to once for every 3.5 passes in '09. Locker has an Elway-type of arm (95 mph fastball). His goal was 60% for the first season in the new offense and he threw for 2,800 (58%, 21-11). He turned down a possible Top 10 NFL DC to return in '10. Sarkisian's goals were 62% and to improve Locker's ratio to a 3-1 avg. Locker was banged up for most of the year, not practicing midweek during some early games then missing the Oregon gm altogether (ribs). Locker threw for 2,265 (55.4%, 17-9) while rushing for 385 (3.4). rFr Keith Price started vs UO and threw for 164 (51.4%) on the yr while they were able to RS Nick Montana (PS#15). Price was the star of the spg allowing Sarkisian to name him the starter less than a wk after its conclusion. This year they lose Locker (#1DC TEN) and the unit returns 37 career att's but there may not be as significant of a drop in the QB stats as you might expect.

RUNNING BACKS - UW had seven 1,000 yard rushing seasons (4 diff players) from 1989-97 and after a 9 yr drought, Louis Rankin had 1,294 (5.6) in '07. In '08 true frosh Chris Polk (PS#18) was moved from WR but RS (inj). UW's RB's were banged up (no RB ply'd more than 9). Terrance Dailey led with 338 (4.5), the lowest total for a leading rusher here S'58 (292) and only 1 FBS tm (SMU) had a leading rusher with fewer yds. In '09 the top returnee was Willie Griffin (219, 3.5 '08). Polk became the first ever UW frosh to top 1,000 yds with 1,113 (4.9) despite playing the 2H of the yr with a shoulder injury. They moved S Johri Fogerson (6'11" 207 Jr) to RB (237 tl yds). LY Polk had the 2nd best game in school history with 284 vs WSU (Hugh McElhenney 296 vs WSU in '50). He had 177 in the bowl to finish with 1,415 (5.4) and was the #4 recr. True frosh Jesse Callier (PS#93) had 433 (5.6) while Locker was the only other player with more than 15 net yds. TY the only loss is FB Austin Sylvester (6 st) but Johri Fogerson is susp and will need to meet specific guidelines to get back onto the field. Not listed below are Willis Wilson (5'9" 178 rFr, PS#213), Cole Sager (5'10" 196 So) and FB Kimo Makula (6'2" 229 So, PS#63). I look for Polk to snag his 3rd straight 1,000 yd ssn.

RECEIVERS - The Huskies had to replace 8 of their top 9 rec's in '08. The tm's deep threat was true frosh Jermaine Kearse (PS#27), who had 301 (15.1). Fellow true frosh Devin Aguilar (PS#47) was #3 (246, 12.3). D'Andre "The Flea" Goodwin (4.4 spd) led with 692 (11.5). Those 3 ret'd in '09. Kearse led with 866 (17.3, 8 td) while Aguilar was #2 (593, 14.1). Goodwin (conc vs ND) dropped to 227 (16.2). TE Kavario Middleton (PS#3) was #4 (257, 9.9). Everyone ret'd LY but Middleton was dismissed in July and Johnson ply'd in just 6 (1 rec, injury). Kearse led with 1,005 (16.0) while Goodwin was #2 (530, 12.0). Aguilar dropped to 352 (12.6) as he was banged up. True frosh James Johnson (PS#58) finished #3 with 422 (10.8). TY they only lose Goodwin (8 st) and TE Chris Izicki (1 st, 2 rec). They should remain healthier and the staff is excited about the unit's potential which adds a PS#11TE (IFS) and PS#8WR true frosh.

OFFENSIVE LINE - UW has not produced a 1st Tm Pac-10 OL since '01. In '07 thanks to QB Locker's 986 rush yds (5.7) they had their best ypg rush (203) since 2000 and their best ypc (4.9) S'90. They only lost 1 st'r in '08 but 2 ret st's comb for just 12 sts and with the loss of Locker's mobility UW plummeted to 99 ypg rush (2.8) with 31 sks (8.5%). In '09 they had to replace 2 st's and only 1 OL started all 12. UW still improved to 139 ypg (4.3) while allowing 28 sks (7.1%). LY they had to replace 1 st'r (88 car sts ret). As you would expect, they improved again to 172 ypg (4.7) trimming the sks to 24 (6.4%) and that was with an OL that saw 7 diff starting lineups as coaches tinkered with the unit throughout the ssn. TY they lose OG Ryan Tolar (11 st, 4Y st'r), RT Cody Habben (10 st, 3Y st'r) and OG Gregory Christine (7 st, 13 car). They basically have 3 starters returning, 6 VHT in the 2 deep and 7 with starting experience (65 career starts). The Huskies could match LY's improved totals.

DEFENSIVE LINE - UW has produced a lot of top-notch DL's incl Steve Emtman, Jason Chorak and Larry Tripplett. In '08 they lost 5 of their top 6 and were undersized with 4 true frosh. They were overmatched at times as UW yielded a ghastly 241 ypg (worst S'75) and a schl rec 5.7 ypc. They had 5 back with starting exp in '09 and naturally improved to 149 ypg (4.5) with 30 sks. LY UW lost 2 st's incl their career sk leader in DT Daniel Te'o-Nesheim (30.5sk, #3DC) then lost Cameron Elisara (8 st '09) after 6 sts. The #s dropped to 190 ypg (4.7) with 28 sks. TY they lose Elisara (9 tkl) and DE De'Shon Matthews (2 st, 8 tkl). The def st's from the 2H of '10 all return as they have 6 with starting exp and add in UCLA transfer Josh Shirley (PS#16) who flourished in spg as an outside spd rusher. UW should have its best def rush ypc since at least '06.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 UW was in their best shape at LB in quite some time as EJ Savannah (#1 tkl'r '07, miss '08) was back and they ret'd their #1, #3 and #4 tkl'r's from '08. UW trimmed their ppg all'd from 38.6 to 26.7. LY they had to replace their #1 tkl'r (#3DC) and Savannah (#6tkl'r) but did return their #2 and #4 tkl'r's. They slipped to 29.3 ppg. TY they lose 1st Tm P10 OLB Mason Foster (#3DC TB) who was #2 in the nation in tkl's (161) along with 12.5 tfl. Also gone are UW's all-time single season tfl leader, Victor Aiyewa (12 st, #4 tkl'r, 16.5 tfl) and Matt Houston (5 tkl). They return their #3 tkl'r but the rest of the LB's had a combined 20 tkl's so this unit is less exp'd.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '05 the Huskies allowed 24 td passes (most school hist) and in '07 re-broke the record allowing a 27-11 ratio (#93 PDR). In '08 a banged up UW secondary finished #113 (24-7 ratio). UW was banged up again in '09 (#92, 16-8). LY they ret'd 8 of the 9 players who started in '09 and added true frosh Sean Parker (PS#14). I called for UW to have their best finish in my PDR in yrs and they rose to #46 (194 ypg, 60.2%, 15-12). This year they lose 2nd Tm P10 SS Nate Williams (105 tkl, 7 tfl, 4 pbu) but return 7 of the top 8 making them an even more exp'd group.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Former HC Ty Willingham inherited a group that was just #105 in my ST rankings in 2004 and his four units finished #102, #95, #91 and #113. In '09 they had to replace their P and K. Soph Erik Folk had 5 TB's on 63 KO's but hit an outstanding 18-21 FG's (long 48). Will Mahan (PS#112JC) avg 40.6 on punts (36.5 net) and they moved up to #84. LY they lost P Mahan to a torn ACL and ST were a problem, especially early on in the season. P Kiel Rasp (PS#34) avg a solid 43.8 (36.5 tm net). Folk had 2 TB on 57 KO and 13-20 FG (L54, 2-5 from 50+). The team avg 20.9 on KR and 4.9 on PR and finished #101. With all of the key players back (both P's), I look for improvement in 2011.

COACHES - Steve Sarkisian took over here in 2009 after 7 yrs at USC with a 1 yr stint in the middle with OAK as the QB coach in 2004. He spent '07 and '08 as asst HC and OC with the Trojans (QB chg 1st 5Y). After a 3-6 start LY Sarkisian led UW to 4 straight wins and the school's first winning season S'02 (first bowl win S'00). The OC for a 3rd season is Doug Nussmeier (3rd yr), who was the OC at Fresno St ('08) and an NFL QB chg (STL '06-'07). Nick Holt also came over from USC (DC '06-08, LB chg '01-'03) and adds HC experience to the staff (5-18 at Idaho '04-'05).

PHIL'S FORECAST

The Huskies, thanks in part to probation (low scholarships), had a streak of TWENTY-SEVEN non-losing seasons snapped in 2004. The Huskies then made it 6 straight losing seasons when they went 5-7 in '09 although they did upend #3 USC and #19 Cal that season. I mentioned in the '09 magazine that coming off an 0-12 season in '08, UW was probably the most improved team in the NCAA but due to facing my #16 toughest schedule, I did not put them on my Most Improved List (I expect those teams to be in bowls). Their jump from 0-12 to 5-7 was the biggest jump since 1970 when Sonny Sixkiller led the team from 1-9 to 6-4. UW did make my Most Improved List LY so I was calling for them to end their streak of losing seasons at 6. Of the BCS conf teams, only Duke and Baylor had longer droughts without a bowl. Things did not start out well as they lost to BYU on the road by 6 and after an expected win over Syr, were absolutely throttled by Neb (56-21). USC missed a FG with 2:34 left which would have put them up by 4 and UW got a 32 yd FG on the last play to pull out the win. In heavy rain UW lost to Ariz St at home but then upset #24 Oregon St by 1 in 2OT. They took on the P10's top 3 teams (Oregon, Stanford, Arizona) and came up woefully short being outscored 138-30. UW needed to win their last 3 to get to a bowl. UCLA's bkp QB got inj'd and the 3rd and 4th stringers comb'd to hit 1-11-13 with 2 int as the Huskies beat them 24-7 at home. UW then got a td on the last play to get past Cal by 3. Against Wash St they got a 27 yd td pass with :44 left to win the Apple Cup. It was NOT a highly anticipated rematch for fans when they played Nebraska in the Holiday Bowl but a motivated UW team knocked out NU's QB and shut down the Huskers. UW was outgained 533-246 during the regular season but outgained NU 340-189 in their 19-7 bowl win giving them a winning season. The Huskies did have 3 net close wins last year. UW has 15 returning starters and while they lose the #8 overall pick in the draft in QB Locker, they could have improved passing numbers. Despite a tough road schedule this is a veteran squad that has shown it can win big games and they won't need as much luck to make the post season this year.

1st meeting: UW is 20-5 '86 in home openers (dropped 2 of L/3). Eagles went 13-2 LY as one loss came vs New 49-24 but they beat Delaware 20-19 to take home the schools 1st FCS National Championship.

UW hasn't beat UH since the 1938 Poi Bowl, 53-13. They have dropped the 2 most recent games (73 in Seattle & '07 on the island). Into 2011, the Huskies are just 2-6 L/8 at home vs non-conf opp's.

This will be the 3rd meeting in the past yr. LY UW was hammered during the reg ssn but got revenge in the bowl (held NU to a ssn low 189 yds, 209 yds below ssn avg). UW is just 1-8 L/9Y in road openers.

HT is 4-1 L5Y. LY's gm was tied 10-10 into the 4Q w/ the Bears going ahead on a FG w/10:53. UW took over w/4:39 & on 4> from the C1 w/02 elected to go for the win w/ a 1 yd Polk TD run.

Sarkisian was a '96 BYU grad & went 1-1 vs Utah as a starting QB. UW was in the midst of a 10-2 ssn in their last meeting vs Utah ('79). UW is 4-13 the L4Y in conf AG's (3-2 LY).

Oregon St: LTH OSU jumped on UW 20-0 & led 41-7 into the 4Q. UW got 49% (133) of its yds in 4Q garbage time. USC: Into 2011, UW is 5-5 L/10 gms vs ranked foes (1-21 run prior).

Huskies have won the L/2 ('99 & '00). In '00 UW trailed 7-3 into the 4Q (CU's only score on a 28 yd IR) w/B2B TD drives putting them ahead but needed a FR inside a min to go to secure the win.

Huskies have dropped 3 str & 5 of the L/6 vs the Cardinal. LTH UW came in ranked #24. Down 10 at HT UW was shutout the 2H (just 104 tti yds) as SU ran out the final 8:09.

HT was 0-4 from 2004-'07 but has won 3 str by 22 ppg. LY UW led 7-0 off a TD drive set up by a UA fum. From that point on it was all Wildcats as UW was outscored 44-7 & outgained 426-228.

UW has dropped 7 str & last won at UO in '03. "In the first half, when we were fresh and they were fresh, we outplayed them. But they wore us down" Sarkisian after LY's gm (UW trailed 18-6 at HT).

Sarkisian was on the USC coach's staff ('01-'03 & '05-'08). L2Y the game has been decided on the final play.

Washington has dropped B2B gms at OSU and LTH was their worst ever loss in Corvallis.

UW has won the L/2 Apple Cups. RB Polk has combined to rush for 414 yds (7.8) & 3 TD's in his 2 sts vs WSU. LY he had a career high 284 (9.8) & was just 12 yds short of the Wash single gm rec.

CALIFORNIA GOLDEN BEARS

WR Keenan Allen

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - During his coaching career (HC & OC), Jeff Tedford has had 7 QB's go on to start an NFL game including six #1 DC's. Kevin Riley (PS#33) played as a rF then alternated with returning starter Nate Longshore in '08. They put up the weakest stats of the Tedford era combining for just 2,411 (53%, 24-10). In '09 Riley's main competition was Brock Mansion (PS#27) who hit 3-6 as a rF. Riley improved his mechanics and threw for 2,850 (55%, 18-8). He performed well in Cal wins (62%, 15-4) but in his 5 losses hit just 46% (3-4). Beau Sweeney (6'2" 221 Jr, PS#24) took Mansion's backup QB spot in Wk 4 (two comb for 10 passes). LY Riley threw for 1,409 (60%, 13-6) but Cal's bowl hopes went out the window when he inj'd his knee in the 1H vs Oregon St and was OFY. Mansion threw for 646 (48.9%, 2-5) while Sweeney hit 6-8-29. The comb'd 2,101 (56%, 16-11) were a new passing low in the Tedford era. Tedford said the QB slate has been wiped clean so, Mason, Sweeney and Allan Bridgford are competing with Zach Maynard (PS#253) who threw for 2,694 (58%, 18-15) and rushed for 300 (3.4) in 11 sts at Buffalo in '09. Also in the mix are rF Austin Hinder (6'4" 191 rF, PS#13), Ryan Wertenberger (6'2" 215 Jr) and true frosh Kyle Boehm (PS#17). Despite the inexp, this unit can only have improved QB play and Maynard's mobility gives the offense a new dimension.

RUNNING BACKS - Cal did not have a 1,000 yard rusher the previous 8 seasons prior to Tedford's arrival, but he quickly changed that with one in each of his first 7 years (7 on NFL rosters) including JJ Arrington's record setting 2,018 (7.0) in '04. He was followed by Marshawn Lynch (#1DC in '07), Justin Forsett (#7DC SEA '08) and Jahvid Best (#1DC DET '09). Best only had 867 in an inj plagued '09 season and Shane Vereen (PS#25) led with 952 (5.2). RfR Covaughn DeBoskie-Johnson (PS#17) rushed for 211 (6.8). Vereen was Cal's offense LY rushing for 1,167 (5.1) while finishing #3 in rec's. Isi Sofole (PS#116) was #2 with 338. They add in 2 VHT true frosh and a JUCO. Not listed below is spring standout Mike Manuel (5'10" 195 Jr) along with Mitchell Bartolo (5'8" 183 rF), David Aknin (6'0" 221 Jr, PS#317JC) and FB Nico Dumont (6'0" 231 So). With Vereen leaving early for the NFL (#2DC NE), this is the first time since '03 that Cal heads into the season without an exp'd, accomplished backup ready to fill some big shoes.

RECEIVERS - In '09 Marvin Jones (PS#20, inj '08) emerged as Cal's #1 rec with 651 (15.1). LY he returned as did #3 rec TE Anthony Miller (357, 13.7) and #4 Jeremy Ross (4.39 speed, 344, 15.6). Jones led with 765 (15.3) but didn't catch any more than 3 in any of the final 3 games with a couple of key drops. True frosh Keenan Allen (PS#3, dangerous RM) was #2 with 490 (10.7) incl a 120 yard performance in his first career game against UC Davis. Not listed in the PSL are Ross Bostock (6'2" 197 Jr), Jackson Bouza (6'0" 181 So), Quinn Tedford (6'0" 168 Jr) along with TE's Jacob Wark (6'5" 240 rF, PS#48) and Anthony Ferrario (6'2" 190 So). This year they only lose #3 Ross (2 st, 210). This should be a much improved receiving corps and one of the Pac-12's better units, especially if there is some consistency at the QB position.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 the Bears had to replace a #1DC C and 2nd Tm P10 RG. They had 3 back who started the last 6 together and added back '07 starting LT Mike Tepper. Surprisingly their numbers dropped to 169 ypg rush (4.7) with 31 sks (7.9%). LY they had to replace 2 st's incl 1st Tm P10 LT Tepper but had 70 career sts returning. LT Matt Summers-Gavin (8 st '09) inj'd his knee and had just 4 sts. Cal's numbers dropped again to 159 ypg rush (4.4) although they did trim the sk total to 23 (6.9%). This year they lose C Chris Guarniero (11 st, 2Y st), RT Donovan Edwards (12 st) and bkp Richard Fisher (12 gm). They now return 3 st's plus Summers-Gavin is back to full-time status so it's almost like having 4 st's back vs basically 3 from LY. Add in a PS#48JC and I look for improved numbers as they also have 8 VHT's in the 2 deep.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Cal's defensive strength this past decade has been their DL play. In '09 they had 3 ret st's but had to break in a new LB corps. The numbers were still solid as they allowed 112 ypg rush (3.3) while the D had 31 sks. Last year they had to replace DE Tyson Alualu (#1DC JAX) but had 2 starters back to the 3 man front including Cameron Jordan who turned down the NFL. Cal held Oregon to a reg season low of 2.9 ypg rush but surprisingly the numbers slipped a little to 132 ypg rush (3.6) with 34 sks. This year Cal loses 1st Tm P10 DE Jordan (12 st, #5 tk/r, 5.5 sk, #1DC NO) and DT Derrick Hill (9 st, 16 tk, 2.5 fl). They do have 3 back with 4+ career sts and add in PS#10, #16, #23, #25 and #98 true frosh and this will be a solid unit but appears down a few notches in '11.

LINEBACKERS - Cal had an exp'd LB corps in '08 and allowed just 19.9 ppg. In '09 they had to replace their #1, #2 and #6 tk/r's (742 comb car tkls and #7DC) and as expected the D slipped to allowing 25.5 ppg. LY Cal had to replace their #4 and #5 tk/r's but did add 5 super VHT true frosh. Surprisingly, those 5 had very little impact (3 tkls). Mike Mohamed, who was #1 tk/r in '09 (112), played the final 5 with a cast on his hand but led again (95). The defense as a whole was a lot weaker without him however as in the game at Nevada, the unit was gutted up the middle allowing season highs in points (52) and rush yds (316.4). Cal did improve to allowing 22.6 ppg. This year they lose 1st Tm P10 LB Mohamed (10 st, #4 car tk/r, #6DC DEN) as well as Keith Browner (9 st, 28 tk) and Jarred Price (9 tk, 2 sk). Despite the loss of their top guy, this unit is on par with '10 in terms of exp. They return 2nd Tm P10 Mychal Kendrick (#4 tk/r) who moves inside along with DJ Holt (#2 tk/r) and those frosh from '10 should have a much bigger impact.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Cal has had some excellent finishes in my PDR like #10 in '04, #11 in '05, #26 in '06 and #3 in '08. In '09 they had 9 of their 10 back (all 4 st's). Shockingly Cal slipped to #94 (lowest since '01, #96). Last year they had to replace 3 st's incl 2-time 1st Tm P10 CB Syd'Quan Thompson (#7DC). Despite the losses, I said Cal could only improve in my PDR. Helped in part by a solid pass rush, Cal rose back to their accustomed PDR (#17). This year they lose S Chris Conte (12 st, #3 tk/r, 1 int, 2 pbu, #3DC CHI), CB Darian Hagan (9 st, 9 tk/r, 1 int, 5 pbu) and CB Bryant Nnabuife (1 st, 24 tk, 1 int). They do return 3 who combined for 26 sts (30 starts overall). Josh Hill (9 st '09) was at JC in spring to regain eligibility and is expected to return in fall. Cal may not move up in my PDR but this year's secondary is more experienced.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Tedford's first 7 years they were #33, #47, #69, #34, #2, #49 and #71 in my ST rankings. I expected significant improvement in '09 but Cal only moved up to #56 despite P Bryan Anger (37.3 tm net). LY they brought in ex-EM HC Jeff Genyk as the ST coach and I said they had Top 25 potential. Cal inched up to #50. Anger avg 45.6 (38.5 net). Giorgio Tavecchio missed crucial FG's vs AZ and UO but his 53 yd'r vs Wash was the 3rd longest in school history. Vince D'Amato, who was 7-12 FG's (L47) in '09, was beat out by Tavecchio, who went 11-16 FG's (L53). True frosh Keenan Allen (PS#3) was the top KR (22.6) and Jeremy Ross was the top PR (12.7, 21.3 in '09). With Anger as one of the preseason favorites for the Ray Guy Award, I look for continued improvement this year with Ross being the only loss.

COACHES - Jeff Tedford was the Pac-10 COY in his first season and again in '04. Tedford took over in '02 after a 1-10 season and led the Bears to 8 straight winning seasons before a 5-7 finish in 2010. He previously was the OC at both Oregon and Fresno and has produced many fine NFL QB's. The new OC is Jim Michalczyk, who was the OL coach here from '02-'08 before spending the last 2 seasons as OL coach for the Oakland Raiders. Tedford will however be the primary play-caller for the upcoming season, a duty that he has taken upon himself during several occasions in his tenure with the Golden Bears. DC Clancy Pendergast is in his 2nd season after spending 15Y in the NFL (incl DC at ARZ '04-'08 and KC '09).

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 2004, I called Cal my #2 Surprise Team in the country and forecasted that they would go from 8-6 to a potential 10 or 11 win season. In a road trip to USC, Cal had 28-12 FD and 424-205 yard edges but came up short failing to score on 1 & gl from the 9 and losing by 6. Those 6 points cost them the P10 Title and a trip to the '04 National Title game. The Bears were +158.5 ypg (+23 ppg!) in P10 play, which were even better numbers than USC! Cal has failed to get back to that level in the past 6 yrs. They were in their Top 10 of the polls in each of the next 3 yrs at times with a high ranking of #2 in '07 when they were 5-0 but went just 1-6 down the stretch. After mediocre 9-4 and 8-5 seasons, Cal was picked 7th in the preseason P10 media poll in '10. Last year they had 5 P10 home games and played WSU on the road and I thought they would top their 8 wins of 2009. After a #14 finish in 2006, Cal has now finished 4 straight years outside of the Top 25 and last year suffered their first losing season since 2001. The Bears were very good at home but poor on the road. At 2-0, they trailed Nevada by 3 but gave up a 65 yd IR td and lost by 21. Cal led almost the entire game at Arizona but ended up losing by 1. After 8 games they were 4-0 at home and 0-4 on the road when they finally beat WSU on the road (trailed by 3 at HT) to move to 5-4. The Bears nearly upset #1 ranked Oregon at home holding the Ducks to a season low 317 yards but missed a 29 yd FG and lost by 2. They were buried by Rival Stanford at home then in the season finale, also at home in a downpour, gave up a td with no time left to lose 16-13 to Washington. Cal did have 2 net close losses and actually had the best defense in the Pac-10 in conf play (334 ypg). They also had the weakest offense in the league at just 292 ypg. This year all of Cal's home games will be played at AT&T Park in San Francisco as Memorial Stadium undergoes renovation. For a team that only played well at home, that could be trouble. They did not catch any breaks last year and with another top-notch defense, will be stronger in '11. This is a very talented team that makes my Most Improved List.

Cal dropped both meetings vs in-state FSU (FSU's home opener & '00). Cal is 12-3 in ssn openers incl 4 str wins by 27 ppg. Tedford was an '83 FSU grad (AA@QB) and the OC from 1993-'97.

Second of home and home not a conference game. LY was the 1st meeting since 1982 and Cal had 2 def TD's plus TD drives of 19/3, 31/6 & 7/4pl in the 52-7 win.

First meeting. The Blue Hose went 2-9 LY incl losses to Wake Forest 53-13 & Clemson 58-21. PC was a DI school until FCS status in '08. Cal is 24-0 all-time vs FCS programs w/a 36-5 avg score.

Cal dropped 3 of 4 vs UW including B2B trips to Seattle by 14 & 32 pts. In '09 Cal was hammered being outgained by 167 yds (-11 FD's). Cal is 6-14 in conf AG's w/a avg loss by 17 ppg.

Stanford: In 2009 California overcame a 14-0 deficit & scored 24 straight. After taking a 34-28 lead they int'd a Luck pass at their 3 w/1:36 left on Stanford's final drive.

Visitor is 2-6. Last time here the Golden Bears lost 42-3 vs the #6 ranked Ducks. Cal did lead 3-0 before 42 unanswered by UO. Tedford was the OC at Oregon from 1998-'01.

Cal has dropped 7 str vs USC (L3 by DD's). LY's 42 pt HT deficit was the largest Cal has taken to a locker room in school history. Cal had just 3 FD's & 65 yds on 25 plays (2.6 ypp) at HT.

Cal is 4-3 vs Utah but has dropped B2B meetings incl the last in the '09 Poinsettia Bowl. California jumped out to a 14-0 lead but allowed 27 unanswered never recovering.

Golden Bears have won 3 str over the Bruins with the avg score 40-18. In Cal's visit to Pasadena they led 14-0 early & never trailed. The win marked the 1st in 9 gms at the Rose Bowl.

Cal hasn't lost to WSU since riding a 6 game winning streak. LY QB Brock Mansion made his 1st career start (171, 58%, 0-2). Cal did trail at HT but held WSU to 30 2H yds.

Cal has dropped 4 straight vs OSU and 10 of the last 12. Last year starting QB Riley was hurt in the 1Q as Cal's 7 1H poss ended in 5 punts, fum & half (trailed 28-0).

Cal has won 3 of its last 4 trips to Stanford including their last visit in 2009 (avg win 30-16).

Visitor is just 1-5 but Cal won their L visit to Tempe as bkup K Tavecchio nailed a 24-yd FG.

w/21 left after a 74/11 pl drive. Cal is 0-2 LY after the "Big Game" w/LY's loss costing them a bowl.

WASHINGTON ST COUGARS

DE Travis Long

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - The Cougars have had a storied history of QB's including 1st round DC's like Drew Bledsoe, Ryan Leaf and Jack Thompson and other stars like Timm Rosenbach and Mark Rypien. In '04 Alex Brink started the final 5 and over the next 3 yrs became the career passing leader (#3 Pac-10). The Cougars struggled to replace him the next 2 years. With Brink they avg 320 ypg passing in '07 but in '08, using 4 different QB's, just 146 ypg (53%) with a 6-21 ratio, their lowest ypg in over 2 decades. In '09 they opted to take the RS off Jeff Tuel (PS#77) and he became just the 2nd true frosh to start here (Bledsoe). Tuel started 5 and threw for 789 (59%, 6-5). He threw for 354 vs Cal which was 2nd most for a frosh ever at WSU. Marshall Lobbestael (PS#124) had 3 sts in '08 (571, 52%, 4-4) and 3 sts in '09 (655, 47%, 3-8). Tuel had a fine year as a soph in '10 throwing for 2,780 (59.8%, 18-12) and was the #3 rusher with 204. He threw at least 1 td pass in 10 gms incl the first 8 (zero vs Ariz St and Cal). Tuel also had multiple tds in 5 and totaled 245 or more pass yds 6 times. He threw 10 of his 12 int in a 6 gm stretch (wks 4-9) but closed out the season with a 4-1 ratio over the last 2. Lobbestael played in just 6 (7-15-61). Not listed below are David Gilbertson (6'1" 207 So, PS#343) and Gordy Anderson (6'3" 215 rFr). Tuel's numbers compare favorably to both Leaf and Bledsoe's soph numbers. He should continue to show improvement and could be one of the more underrated QB's in the NCAA.

RUNNING BACKS - Dwight Tardy became the first Cougar RB to lead the team in rushing 4 straight yrs ('06-'09) but his totals were just 667 (4.6), 676 (4.7), 481 (3.6) and 417 (3.9). In '09 Cal transfer James Montgomery (PS#21) appeared to be the leader, becoming the first Coug in 15 gms to top 100 (vs Hawaii) but was lost in Wk 3. Logwone Miltz (PS#136) had 160 (3.0) and true frosh Carl Winston (PS#299) added 142 (3.9). LY they only had to replace Tardy. Montgomery (missed 1) led with 478 (3.9) while Miltz added 263 (3.6) and Winston had just 90 (3.2). This year they lose Montgomery (10 st), Marcus Richmond (2 st, 83 tl yd) and Chantz Staden (90, 3.9). I look for big things from diminutive rFr Rickey Galvin (PS#120) who broke his arm on his first career carry in the opener LY and RS.

Not in the PSL are Leon Brooks (5'7" 170 So), Manuel Lamson (5'11" 186 Fr) and Michael Fields (5'8" 182 So). Despite losing their top rusher, who was a VHT, they can only improve upon LY's poor numbers (91 ypg rush, 2.6).

RECEIVERS - In 2009 WSU had to replace its top 4 rec's including career receiving leader, Brandon Gibson. The unit was led by Jared Karstetter (PS#123, 540, 14.2), Gino Simone (PS#66, 330, 9.2) and Jeffrey Solomon (PS#83, 298, 11.9). All 3 red'd last year and they got the huge addition of 6'3" Marquess Wilson (PS#111) who became the team's best offensive player. While Karstetter led in rec's (62) he was #2 with 658 (10.6). Wilson led (#2 P10 rec ypg) with 1,006 (18.3!). He was the first frosh and 9th WSU WR to hit 1,000. His five gms of 100+ yd surpassed Phillip Bobo's school record (3) for 100+ yd gms by a frosh. Daniel Blackledge (212, 9.2 in '09) was #3 with 456 (15.2). This year they lose Blackledge (6 st), Solomon (3 st, 236, 13.9) and TE Skylar Stormo (3 sts) moves to DL. Adding depth is Justin Amundsen (5'10" 178 Jr). I look for continued improvement from the Cougar receiving corps and folks around the country will start to learn Marquess Wilson's name.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2009 WSU's OL was hit hard by injuries and even after poor numbers in '07 and '08, they slipped to 71 ypg rush (2.4) with 53 sk (#119 FBS, 14.2%). In '10 they had to replace a 2nd Tm P10 C and 3 others (comb 10 sts). They returned 1 full-time st'r and 2 OL who each had 7 st plus Andrew Roxas (9 st '07-'08) was back after an illness sidelined him in '09. WSU improved very slightly to 91 ypg rush (2.6) with their 51 sks (13.3%) once again #119 in the FBS. This year they lose C Zack Williams (12 st, HM P10, 2Y st'r, #6 DC CAR), RT Micah Hannam (11 st, 4Y st'r, 3rd Tm P10) and Chris Prummer (7 gm). Roxas started just 1 gm LY as he entered camp overweight and out of shape. He should be closer to 100% and was in the best shape of his career in spg, WSU returns 2 full-time st'r's and 2 who combined to start 13. I'm not really going out on a limb here, but with an exp'd O-line, the Cougs will have their best numbers since at least '06.

DEFENSIVE LINE - When I think of Wash St, I think of fierce pass rushing D-lines and the Cougars always had a top-notch unit under former HC Bill Doba. Even in '07 when the unit was hit hard by inj's, they yielded just 163 ypg (3.9) which was their "worst" since 2000. In Wulf's first season they had to replace 3 DL (comb 20 st). The unit was again hit hard by inj but it was surprising that they dropped all the way to 248 ypg and 5.8 ypc (4.5 prev high 1991!). In '09 they had to replace 3 st'r's, yet again were hit hard by inj's, this time allowing 236 ypg with a ghastly 5.9 ypc. Despite returning all 4 st'r's to the unit LY, they surprisingly only improved to 220 ypg (5.6) although the sks rose to 23. This year they lose DE Kevin Kooymann (11 st, 30 tkl, 6.5 tfl), DT Bernard Wolfram (9 st, 17 tkl, 2.5 tfl) and DE Casey Hamlett (1 st, 10 tkl, 2 sk). While the unit is less exp'd, they do have 3 back with 8+ career sts incl 2x HM P10 DE Travis Long and should show continued improvement up front after 3 poor seasons.

LINERBACKERS - Last year the Cougars had to replace their #3 and #5 tkl'r's and then projected starter Louis Bland (3rd Tm Fr AA true, #8 tkl'r '09) RS (inj). Myron Beck had 9 sts in '08 (inj) but just 2 in '09 (#9 tkl'r) and took over one spot along with Alex Hoffman-Ellis (#1 tkl'r '09). I rarely talk about VHT's with WSU but true frosh CJ Mizell (PS#23) lived up to his billing starting 6 of the last 7 (#4 tkl'r) LY. The Cougars improved to allowing "just" 35.8 ppg, their best in 3 yrs. This year they lose SLB Beck (11 st, #5 tkl'r, 6.5 tfl) and Hallston Higgins (1 st, 13 tkl) but not only do they have 4 of the top 6 back. They get the return of Bland and Mizell, who is now an experienced soph. The Cougars should allow the fewest ppg in the Wulf era.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '09 the unit was hit hard by inj's and finished #108 (67%, 21-10) in my PDR. LY they had to replace 2 st'r's incl their #2 tkl'r but did have 6 back with starting exp. Their st'r's at the end of the year were a Jr, a soph, a rFr and a true frosh as their lone senior st'r, Chima Nwachukwu missed 5 (inj). The Cougars finished #105. This year they lose S Nwachukwu (4 st, 23 tkl) and S Jamal Atofau (1 st, 8 tkl) but actually ret 7 of the top 8 and 5 frosh that played are now soph. I will call for WSU to have its best PDR finish since '06 (#31).

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Cougars were #100 in my ST rankings in '07 and in Wulf's 1st yr, they had to replace their K, top KR and PR and Wulf was amazed at how many kids didn't know how to get into the proper stance on ST. WSU finished #106. In '09 they were down to 50 healthy scholarship players at times. You would expect the ST to struggle and they did (#116). K Nico Grasu hit 6-10 FG's (L44) in '09 and hit 4-6 (L56) in '10 with true frosh Andrew Furney hitting 3-5 (L51). Isiah Barton was the top KR (22.1). Grasu had 11 TB on 48 KO and WSU led the nation with the best KR D (17.0). TY they lose Grasu and P Reid Forrest, WSU's all-time career record holder for punts (275). They probably will not match last year's #51 finish.

COACHES - Paul Wulf was the HC at Eastern Washington for 8 years earning Big Sky COY on three different occasions. Wulf played OL here from 1986-'89 under Jim Walden, Dennis Erickson and Mike Price. His OC is Todd Sturdy, who also came over from EW in 2008 where they ran the no-huddle spread offense. Prior to EW ('07), he was the HC at St Ambrose Univ (Iowa) for 12 years. The co-DC's are Chris Ball and Jody Sears. This is Ball's 3rd stint at WSU and he was most recently the secondary coach at Pitt ('07) and Alabama ('03-'06) while Sears served as DC at EW for 5 years under Wulf.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Younger readers will find this hard to believe but WSU had the 2nd best record among Pac-10 schools from 2001-2004 at 35-14 and actually finished #10 in the final AP poll in 2001, #10 in '02 and #9 in '03! The Cougars have not had a winning season over the last 7 years with a 6-6 record in '06 being their only non-losing season. In fact, in the last 3 yrs, they are 2-25 in P10 play. In Paul Wulf's first year (2008) they went 2-11 overall and were 1-8 in the P10 being outgained by an amazing 273 ypg with an upset of UW (20T) keeping them out of the cellar. In '09 they dropped to 1-11 overall and 0-9 in the P10 and were -260 ypg which was actually 217 ypg worse than the #9 team! Last year the Cougars showed some improvement moving to 1-8 in the conf and 2-10 overall and this time were "only" -140 ypg in the P10. Wulf noted that in "every game right now we're 3 or 4 plays away. We're that close. It wasn't long ago that it was 20 or 30 plays that were difference makers in the game." After an expected loss to OKSt, the Cougars did trail Mont St 22-7 but rallied for a 23-22 win over the FCS foe. They lost their next 7 by double digits although they did lead Oregon 14-8 in the 1Q before losing 43-23. Cal did not have QB Kevin Riley and the Cougars only lost by 7. The next week they stunned Oregon St on the road ending a 16 game P10 losing streak. They were tied with Wash but gave up a td with :44 left. This year the Cougars only play three P12 games in Martin Stadium with four P12 road games and 2 at Qwest Field. The Cougars are a veteran team with 15 returning starters which ties for 3rd most in the P12. They return underrated QB Jeff Tuel, WR Marquess Wilson and 3 OL starters so they will have their best off ypg since at least 2007 and maybe 2010. The D returns 6 of its top 7 tkl'r's. They made strides in 2010 "only" being -140 ypg in Pac-10 play after being -260 and -273 the previous 2 years. They will continue to close the gap this year. While they do not make my Most Improved List (teams I expect to be bowl eligible after a losing season), they should have the most wins here since 2007 making it Wulf's most successful season.

First meeting, Wulff was the HC at EW from 2000-'07 (53-40 rec) & went 5-3 (2-0 L2Y) vs ISU. The Bengals went just 1-10 LY (3-31 L3Y) incl a 55-7 loss to UGA (ended ssn on a 10 gm slide). WSU is 4-0 vs UNLV with the avg score 37-16 but the L/meeting was in 1991 (in NV, '86 L/gm at WA). Into 2011, the Cougars are 13-1 in Pullman vs non-conf opp's since 2001. Just one prior meeting at Qwest Field in '07. WSU won 45-17 w/a 36-21 FD & 654-399 yd edge. The gm was tied 10-10 into the 2Q before 28 str. WSU has dropped 5 str road openers by 29 ppg. Arizona St: WSU has been shutout 2 of L3Y & LY's 42 pt margin was the largest in this series. Utah: WSU is 5-5 vs Utah (L/win in Pullman '84). HT dropped the 2 most recent meetings ('99 & '00). WSU is 2-4 vs CU with both wins in Boulder incl their L/trip in '03. WSU led #17 CU 23-13 at HT & scored 24 str pts in the first 6:39 of the 3Q to build a 47-13 advantage (2 scores off TO's). Cougars have lost L/2 trips to the Rose Bowl. LY WSU was leading 28-20 3Q but a/lfd 22 unanswered. WSU's L/3 poss ended on SOD at UCLA1, missed 45 yd FG & fmbal at UCLA38. LY's 10 pt loss was misleading as WSU trailed 31-7 into the 4Q. The Cougars amassed 9 FD's (47%) & 245 yds (63%) in the final quarter. Into 2011, WSU has dropped 14 str gms vs ranked opp's by 30 ppg. Cougars are just 2-5 S'04 vs the Beavers. WSU's win LY over OSU snapped a 16 gm conf losing streak. WSU also shutout an opp in the 1H for the first time since a 10-0 HT lead vs SU in '07. In the last trip to Eugene, WSU was hammered 52-6 being out FD'd 31-4 & outgained 514-158. Jeff Tuel became WSU's first true Fr QB to start a gm since Drew Bledsoe in 1990. LY marked Wulff's 1st ever HT lead over an FBS opp as a HC. WSU had a ssn high 440 yds. WSU hasn't had a rushing TD vs ASU S'05. Combined the L5Y WSU has rushed for 70 yds on 133 att (0.5 ypc)! The Cougars have dropped 4 of 5 home finales by 16 ppg (beat Washington in '08). LY WSU battled back from a 14 pt 4Q deficit to tie the gm 28-28 w/4:26 left. UW went 88/9pl & got a 27 yd GW TD pass w/44. WSU was int'd on a deep pass at the UW5 as time expired.

USC TROJANS

QB Matt Barkley

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Over the last decade 5 Trojan QB's had been drafted with Carson Palmer and Matt Leinart taking home Heisman Trophies. In '08 Mark Sanchez (PS#2) threw for 3,207 (66%), 34-10, #1 P10 pass eff) and Carroll was not happy when he opted to leave early for the NFL (#1 DC NYJ). Mitch Mustain who was 8-0 as a starter for Arkansas in '06 battled true frosh Matt Barkley (PS#5) and Jr Aaron Corp (PS#9). Corp was the starter out of the spg but suffered a cracked fibula and Barkley took most of the snaps in Aug. Barkley had a good season throwing for 2,735 (60%), 15-14 missing 1 start with inj but the Trojans avg'd just 222 ypg passing (lowest under Carroll). Corp threw for 155 (65%) and trans after the ssn. LY Barkley was noticeably quicker after dropping 10 lbs and had some outstanding gms, twice tying a school record with 5 td passes vs Hawaii and Cal. Barkley threw for 2,791 (62.6%, 26-12). He suffered an ankle inj which forced him to leave the gm in the 2Q vs Oregon St and missed ND. Mustain threw for 348 (56.2%, 1-1). Battling for the #2 spot will be rfr Jesse Scroggins (PS#8), true frosh Cody Kessler (PS#9), Max Wittek (PS#8) and Princeton transfer Brett Kan. John Manogian (6'0" 215 Jr), Emon Saee (6'2" 200 Jr) and Anthony Neyer (6'2" 200 rfr) add depth. Barkley (2 time O'Brien semifinalist) is one of the top QB's in college football.

RUNNING BACKS - USC is known for it's fine TB tradition and LY had to replace a 1,000 yard rusher in Joe McKnight (#4DC). The top returnee was Allen Bradford (PS#3) who had 668 (5.8). Bradford was #1 after spring but Marc Tyler (PS#1) won the job in August. Tyler rushed for 913 (5.3) while Bradford was #2 with 794 and an impressive 7.2 ypc. Exciting true frosh Dillon Baxter (PS#4) was susp'd for 2 and had just 253 (4.8) often working out of the Wildcat. This year they lose Bradford (#6DC TB, 4 st), CJ Gable (253, 4.8, PS#9) and FB Stanley Havili (PS#39, #7DC PHI, 32 rec, 13 st). Despite the losses, with the top guy back and some solid additions, this is once again one of the elite RB corps in the country which is likely to use the FB less.

RECEIVERS - Last year the Trojans had to replace their top two rec's (#3DC WR, #6DC TE). The top returnee was Ronald Johnson who had 378 (11.1) despite missing the 1st 5 with inj in '09. Johnson was very impressive in spring and August but surprisingly was only #2 with 692 (10.8) and a team high 8 td's. True frosh Robert Woods lived up to his PS#2 billing and led with 792 (12.2). TE Rhett Ellison (PS#42) was #5 (239, 11.4) and David Ausberry (PS#2) was #4 (252, 12.6). This year they lose Johnson (12 st, #6DC SF), Ausberry (1 st, #7DC OAK) and TE Jordan Cameron (16 rec, #4DC CLE). They have added 3 PS#1's from each of the last two classes in rfr WR Prater, rfr TE Xavier Grimble and true WR George Farmer. Not in the PSL below are WR's Cody Skene (5'9" 165 So), Walter Calistro (5'9" 170 So), Reed Semcken (6'2" 180 rfr) and TE's Kevin Downey (6'3" 210 So) and Michael Cox (6'4" 230 rfr). This unit is actually a little more exp'd than the '10 version and of course, is loaded with talent.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 USC had to replace their 20th 1st Rnd OL DC since 1968 and had just 1 st'r returning. Surprisingly the inexp'd O-line matched '07's #s with 195 ypg rush (5.0, 18 sk). In '09 the entire 2 deep ret'd and former SJST HC Dick Tomey said that USC's O-line was the best he'd seen in his long career. The numbers slipped a little to 167 ypg (4.9, 18 sk). LY they had to replace 3 st's incl a pair of 1st Tm P10 OL's (#2DC). I noted that while the unit was less exp'd, the numbers could actually improve and they did (189 ypg, 5.2) allowing 18 sk (4.0%) for the 3rd st year. TY they lose C Kristofer O'Dowd (13 st, 3Y st'r), RT Tyron Smith (12 st, 1st Tm P10, #1DC DAL), LG Butch Lewis (9 st, 3Y st'r), LG Michael Reardon (5 st) and bkp Zack Heberer (13 gm on ST's). TY they add in PS#10, PS#17 and 2 JC VHT's who were IFS and equal 2010's exp.

DEFENSIVE LINE - For most of this past decade, the Trojans fielded a premiere D-line. In '03 they allowed just 1.8 ypc rush with 55 sks. Their "worst" year came in '05 when they yielded 3.8 ypc. In '09 they had to replace 3 st's (#1, #2 and #4 DC's). After gm 6, they led the nation in sks per gm and were 2nd in tfl. Shockingly they had some poor gms and for the season all'd 128 ypg (3.7). LY they had to replace 1 st'r (#4DC) then lost DT Christian Tupou (11 st) to an ACL (spg). DE Nick Perry, who led with 8 sks in '09 only started 9 (ankle). Returning starting DT Jurrell Casey was dominant in the spg and earned 1st Tm P10. Even with 2 st's back, the Trojans slipped to allowing 140 ypg (4.4) with just 28 sks, their worst ypc allowed since 1991. TY Casey (13 st, #5 tkl'r, 11 tfl) left early for the NFL draft (#3DC TEN) and also gone is DT Hebron Fangupo (4 tkl, trans to BYU) and DT Derek Simmons (9 tkl). Even with the loss of their top guy, this unit will resemble more of what you would expect from a Trojan D-line.

LINERACKERS - In '08 the Trojans led the FBS in ppg allowed (9.0) with the best set of LB's in the country. While that '08 unit had to replace #1 and #5 DC's, they produced the Bednarik Award winner, a 1st Tm AA and #1, #2 and #4 NFL DC's. Then DC Rocky Seto said the '09 version was faster and while they played well early, they had 4 poor games and allowed 19.8 ppg (worst S'05). LY the unit ret'd intact but USC shockingly allowed 26.7 ppg and their 400 ypg allowed was the worst since the school began keeping track in 1955. This year they lose WLB Malcolm Smith (11 st, #2 tkl'r, 8 tfl, #7DC SEA) and SLB Michael Morgan (13 st, #6 tkl'r, 3 tfl). They do return 2 who split the LB spot LY in Chris Galippo (PS#2, 29 tkl, 70 tkl '09) and Devon Kennard (#4 tkl'r) but Kiffin was disappointed with the play at that position putting the job up for grabs after the Oregon gm. The Trojans introduced a new S/LB hybrid position in the spg to help combat the spread. The LB corps is less exp'd but with two back who have been full time st's and a unit loaded with VHT's, the ppg allowed will improve.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Under Carroll, the Trojans finished #16, #12, #7, #1, #9, #10, #6, #1 and #14 in my PDR from '01-'09. LY the unit was wiped out, losing all 4 st's (#2, #3 DC) and they had just 4 car st's ret. As you would expect, USC had its lowest finish ever in my PDR since I began keeping track in '94 at #61 (59.9%, 30-15). Not in the PSL are CB's Boomer Roepke (5'8" 185 Sr), Taylor Ashton (5'8" 175 Sr) and S's John Auran (5'11" 190 So), Chidozie Uche (5'10" 180 Jr) and Samuel Sulam (5'10" 185 rfr). TY they lose 2nd Tm P10 CB Shareece Wright (13 st, #3 tkl'r, 10 pbu, #3DC SD) but have 7 of the top 8 back making the unit vastly more exp'd than '10 and allowing them to make a big jump in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Carroll's final 3 yrs ('07-'09) USC was surprisingly #101, #50 and #59 in my ST rankings. Kiffin hired ST cch John Baxter whose '09 Fresno St unit finished #20. The Trojans had to replace their K and top PR. The K became the major problem as Joe Houston struggled early hitting 2 of his first 6 FG's incl a crucial 40 yd 4Q miss vs Wash which left the Huskies within 3. He finished strong however hitting his final 5 FG's (10-16, L45). P Jacob Harfman (37.0 tm net '09) improved to 41.1 (37.2 tm net) with 14 TB on 76 KO. Robert Woods had a KR id (25.6) and Ronald Johnson a PR td (14.2). USC moved all the way up to #23 but lose Houston, Harfman and Johnson. While you would expect a drop, if a solid K emerges (add PS#2) they could have a shot at improvement.

COACHES - Pete Carroll led USC to a 97-19 record with two National Titles and an unprecedented 7 consec P10 Titles ('02-'08) in 10 yrs. Lane Kiffin was an asst at USC under Carroll for 6 yrs (OC L2) before becoming the youngest HC in modern NFL history at 31 in '07. He was fired by the Raiders 4 gms into '08 (5-15 2Y) and then was the HC at Tenn in '09 (7-6). The OC for a 2nd season is Kennedy Pola (asst here '00-'03). Pola previously was an NFL RB cch (JAX '05-'09). Ed Orgeron is the DC and was also at Tenn in '09 (asst HC) and his resume includes his HC stint at Ole Miss ('05-'07). Lane's father is the legendary Monte Kiffin who is the asst HC and was the DC at Tenn in '09 and has 26 yrs of NFL exp (TB DC 13 yrs).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Pete Carroll had inherited a tm that had only topped 6 wins in a season once ('98) in the 5 yrs before he arrived. Not too many fans were excited about Carroll's hiring but his Trojans became the only tm in the country to finish in the AP Top 4 in each of the 7 yrs from 2002-'08. They won a National Title in '04 and nearly again in '05. 2009 was an unusual yr for Carroll as they plummeted to 9-4. The defense had all'd 8.6 ppg in the first 5 but it jumped to 26.9 ppg over the last 8. The Trojans fell to 5-4 in the Pac-10 and were actually -19.4 ypg (4th worst). This came just one year after they were +232.7 ypg, 131.7 ypg better than the #2 team. LY as I was writing my magazine in April USC was my favorite to win the P10 before being hit hard by NCAA probation incl a postseason ban for both 2010 and '11 and a reduction in scholarships. USC was so thin prior to the season that they adjusted practices to cut back on contact. It seemed to have an effect in the opener as Hawaii gained 588 yds. USC was unimpressive the next 2 wks in wins vs Virg and Minn before beating Wash St 50-16. Against Washington USC missed a 40 yd FG with 2:34 left which would have put them up by 4 and UW got a 32 yd FG with no time left for the upset, 32-31. The next wk vs Stanford, USC got a td with 1:08 left for a 35-34 lead but SU would hit a 30 yd FG on the final play. USC destroyed Cal (48-14) then basically had their Super Bowl vs #1 Oregon. USC led 32-29 in the 3Q but lost 53-32. They narrowly got past Ariz St as they blk'd an xp and ret'd it for 2 and got a 29 yd FG for a 1 pt lead. ASU missed a 42 yd FG with 1:34 left for the win. After Ariz pulled within 3 with 1:01 left USC rec'd an onside kick and held on for a win. Without QB Barkley they were beaten by both Oregon St (hurt in 1H) and ND. With Barkley back, the Trojans rebounded to beat UCLA 28-14. USC's 5 losses were the most since '01. The Trojans tied for 3rd in the P10 at 5-4 and were +46.4 ypg. USC does draw both Oregon and Stanford from the North (both Top 7 AP) and has to face Ariz St on the road (South fav). While this yr's tm is young (just 12 scholarship Sr's) they are capable of winning the Pac-12 South (but cannot play in the Title gm).

USC has won 4 straight over Minn. LY USC trailed 19-13 late 3Q but then had 3 straight TD drives. The Trojans have won 13 straight home openers (avg score of 35-11).

USC is 6-3 vs Utah but dropped the L/meeting (2001 Las Vegas Bowl). USC trailed 10-0 at HT & could only muster 1 rush yd as 80 (53%) of their 151 yds came on one drive.

The Trojans are 2-0 vs the Orange with a 16-0 shutout in 1924 (in LA) & a 34-16 KO Classic opener (in NJ) in 1990. Into 2011, USC is 15-1 hosting non-conf opp's S'02.

USC has won 5 str trips to Tempe. LTH USC escaped w/ a 14-9 win being outFD'd 23-12 & outgained 347-258 as the gm featured 18 pen (173 yds). USC int ASU on the gm's final play from their 45.

LY RB Marc Tyler (PS#1) had career highs in rushing (160) & att (31) as USC jumped out to a 14-0 lead & never trailed. USC was 28-1 hosting conf opp's from 2002-'08 but just 5-4 L2Y.

Washington: USC has dropped B2B gms vs UW (last series 3 gm losing streak was from 1990-'92).

Oregon: The Trojans are 2-5 the last 7 trips to Eugene including B2B defeats.

USC has won 8 of L/9 at Cal incl 3 str by 20 ppg. In their last trip USC led 23-0 into the 4Q. USC int'd Cal in the EZ on the opening drive and later Cal was SOD at the SC38 & SC18.

LY's loss to ND snapped a series high 8 gm win streak. USC has won 4 str trips to South Bend. LTH USC never trailed & after ND had a 18gl at the SC4, stopped 3 str EZ passes (last inc was gm's final play).

Trojans have dropped B2B gms vs the Cardinal. LY USC went 51/10pl w/ 1:08 left scoring on a 3 yd TD run to take a 1-pt lead but SU went 62/7pl nailing a 30-yd GW FG as time exp (overall 7 lead changes).

First meeting S'02: HC Kiffin has faced CU once in his career, in '99 as the Colo St OL cch (won 41-14).

LY's gm had 8 lead changes. After USC missed a 40 yd FG, UW went 61/10pl nailing a GW 32 yd FG as time exp.

LTH the gm was tied 17-17 late 2Q but USC was outscored 30-3 & outgained 416-134 (59 yds on their final drive).

USC has beat cross-city rival UCLA 4 str yrs (all by 14+ pts). LY the Trojans admitted this was their "bowl".

as UCLA gained 53% of their FD's (9) & 39% of its yds (141) on the L/2 pass after the gm had been decided.

ARIZONA ST SUN DEVILS

RB Cameron Marshall

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Brock Osweller (6'8") orig committed to play basketball at Gonzaga and was IFS for '09. When the starters struggled, the crowd began to chant "we want Brock." Osweller finally came off the bench in Wk 8 vs USC to guide a 3Q td drive. His first start was in Autzen Stadium but he was banged up in the 2Q and Samson Szakacsy (PS#31) guided two 2H drives. Szakacsy started the final 2 but was pulled in the finale. Their starter, Danny Sullivan threw for 1,939 (54%, 10-9) while Szakacsy (5 gm) threw for 362 (64%, 4-1) and Osweller 249 (44%, 2-2). LY they had to replace Sullivan and were one of only 2 Pac-10 teams that did not have a clear-cut starter going into the fall (3 man battle). Erickson went with the experience of transfer Steven Threet (PS#26) who started 8 at Michigan in '08 (1105, 51%, 9-7). ASU had its best ypg passing since '05 throwing for 286 ypg. Threet put up some big numbers but was also tied for 3rd most int in the NCAA with 16. He threw for 2,534 (61.9%, 18-16). Szakacsy played in just 1 (8-17-52). Osweller entered the UCLA game mid-1Q when Threet was inj'd and the team trailing 10-0 and guided the comeback victory (380, 4 td, P10 OPOW). He then started vs AZ guiding another win in 2OT. Osweller threw for 797 (56.9%, 5-0) and was the #3 rusher (124, 3.3). This year Osweller opted not to join the basketball team to concentrate on football while Threet retired (conc) and Szakacsy left the program. Erickson was also high on r/r Taylor Kelly (PS#185) and they add in 2 true frosh (1 IFS). Osweller could top LY's QB production if he stays healthy.

RUNNING BACKS - In '09 ASU had a 6-headed RB battle and Dimitri Nance led with 795 (4.2). True frosh Cameron Marshall (PS#93) was #2 with 280 (4.4). LY they had to replace 4 of the top 5 and the battle between workout beast Marshall (whose father is professional trainer) and true frosh Deantre Lewis. Lewis rarely had to worry about pass protection in high school but worked on it hard when he arrived here. As the third down back in the opener, he had 100 rec yds (2 td). Marshall led with 787 (5.2) while Lewis added 539 (5.9) and was the #5 rec with 370 (16.1). True frosh 5'8" Kyle Middlebrooks (PS#166) who was the #3 RB (82, 4.8) also lined up in the slot (13 rec) and is expected to be a hybrid RB/WR in '11. This year the unit returns intact and not listed below are Marcus Washington (5'11" 212 r/r, PS#136), DJ Bush (5'11" 202 r/r), RJ Robinson (5'8" 184 Jr) and Brock Goroubec (6'2" 210 So). This is a much more experienced group and could deliver Erickson his first 1,000 yard rusher here (had 2 P10 rushing champs while at Oregon St).

RECEIVERS - LY ASU had to replace its top 2 rec's who combined for 1,488 (13.2) and the leading returnees were Kerry Taylor (PS#34, 276, 12.0) and Gerrell Robinson (PS#11, 261, 10.0). Taylor led with 699 (12.9) and surprisingly Robinson was just #4 with 387 (13.3). Mike Willie (PS#64JC) brought some physicality to the group as ASU WR's in the Mazzzone offense need to be solid blockers. He had 442 (12.3). TJ Simpson (PS#102) was #2 with 481 (16.6) and Oregon trans Aaron Pflugrad was #6 (329, 11.3). This year they lose their top guy Taylor, as well as Brandon Smith (1 st), TE Steven Figueroa (5 gm) and possibly Simpson, who tore his ACL in late March. Not listed below are Randy Knust (6'2" 194 r/r, PS#229), Brent Scott (6'0" 177 Fr), Kevin Ozier (6'0" 201 So), Angelo Magee (6'2" 195 Sr) and Chike Mbanefo (5'9" 175 r/r). Despite the loss of their top guy (potentially top 2), this unit has more overall exp.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Erickson had a banged up O-line in each of his first 3 years and after allowing 55 sks in '07, they did trim that to 34 and 27. They still only opened holes for 119 ypg (3.7) in '09. LY they lost a 2nd Tm P10 LT (#3DC) and 2 other starters then lost LT Jon Hargis (2Y starter) to a torn ACL in spg. The inexp'd line (7 '09 sts ret) actually improved. In '09 they used 6 different combinations on the OL but LY the same unit started consecutive gms six times. This year they lose Hargis (4 gm, 0 st) but basically return the entire 2 deep (8 w/ st exp). This unit has been a weakness in each of Erickson's first 4 yrs, but this season turns it into a strength.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Arizona St usually has a solid rush D and in '09 with 2 st's back they yielded 109 ypg (3.4). LY they ret'd 6 of their top 8 but did lose a 1st Tm P10 DE (#7DC). I thought it would be one of the P10's best D-lines and ASU delivered as they had the #1 def in the P10 vs the rush and overall allowed 120 ypc (3.2). True frosh Junior Onyeali (PS#55) was the P10 Frosh DPOY starting 5 (6.5 sk). This year they lose DT Lawrence Guy (12 st, 41 tk, 6 fl, #7DC GB), DT Saia Falahola (9 st, 13 tk, 2.5 fl), DE Jamarr Robinson (4 st, 15 tk, 3 fl) and DE Dean DeLeone (1 st, 3 tk). Erickson says that DT Bo Moos is not flashy but he is a "tough son of a gun." I also expect a bigger year from DT Corey Adams (PS#13) who has been hampered by inj's his 2Y here (just 14 tk). Overall the group is a little less exp'd compared to '10's solid unit.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Sun Devils had to replace 2nd Tm P10 Mike Nixon (#1 tk/r '08 and '09) and their #3 tk/r (#6DC). They did return Vontaze Burfict who lived up to his PS#3 billing and was a P10 Frosh DPOY as a true in '09 (69 tk, 7 fl). With just 1 starter back to this unit, the D allowed 25.0 ppg, their most in 4 yrs. They lost Shelly Lyons to a broken foot (4 st). Burfict was called for a couple of key pers fouls, one vs USC and one vs Stanford which changed the momentum of both games. This year they lose MLB Gerald Munns (1 st, 24 tk) and Mike Callaghan (11 tk). They have 5 back who started 3+ gms including their #1, #2, #5 and #7 tk/r's. This is one of the P10's best LB corps and Burfict is a contender for P12 DPOY.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Sun Devils finished #34 in my PDR in '06, #5 in '07, #20 in '08 and despite having an injury plagued group in '09, were #16. Last year they had to replace 4 DB (combined 38 sts) but thanks to '09's injuries, returned 4 with starting exp incl Omar Bolden (21 st '07-'08, 2 in '09). The less experienced secondary finished just #74. This year they lose S Max Tabach (6 st, 64 tk, 2 int) and CB LeQuan Lewis (23 tk). Bolden (12 st, 1st Tm P10) tore his ACL in April and will miss anywhere from 5 to 8 months. They have 5 back (not incl Bolden) with starting exp and will be improved.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2007 K Thomas Weber had a phenomenal season hitting 24-25 FG (two 50+) and winning the Lou Groza Award! ASU finished #44 in my ST rankings. In '08 Weber hit 19-25 (3-7 from 40+) and avg'd 41.4 (tm net 33.8) on punts with 8 TB on 60 KO. Surprisingly ASU dropped to #70 and in '09 Weber suffered a groin injury (missed 4 and was never really 100%). He hit 8-13 FG's (0-5 30+). They wanted to RS Bobby Wenzig but he hit 3-4 FG (L43). Trevor Hankins took over at P (44.2, 36.2 net) and ASU finished #57. LY Weber returned and hit 17-24 FG (-2 from 50+) and had 12 TB on 75 KO. Hankins avg'd 44.6 (tm net dropped to 33.9). Kyle Middlebrooks, LeQuan Lewis and Omar Bolden spearheaded an ASU KR unit that avg'd 27.5. This year they lose Weber, Hankins and KR Lewis. Erickson signed a JC P but it will be tough to improve upon their #11 ST finish.

COACHES - Dennis Erickson took over in '07. He was the HC at Idaho (twice), Wyoming, Wash St, Miami, FI and Oregon St. He is 173-89-1 as a college HC and spent 7 yrs in the NFL (HC SEA and SF). He won National Titles with Miami in '89 and '91 and his 2000 OSU squad finished 11-1 and ranked #4. Erickson became the first ASU HC to have his team ranked in his first year and became the 2nd P10 coach to start 5-0 in the conf tying Cal's Steve Mariucci ('96). Erickson is 3-15 S/O1 vs ranked tms. He was the first coach to win P10 COY at 3 diff schools. OC Noel Mazzzone (2nd yr) spent the previous 3 yrs with the NY Jets (WR cc). Mazzzone was the OC under Tuberville at Ole Miss and Auburn from '94-'01. The DC is Craig Bray, who was the DC under Erickson at OSU from 2000-'02 and his DB coach at WSU from '87-'88.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 2006, despite having just 12 st's back, ASU made it to their 3rd straight bowl (7-6) for the first time since 1985-'87. Dirk Koetter, who moved his record to 4-2 vs Arizona, was fired prior to the bowl. Dennis Erickson inherited 9 ret st's on offense including QB Rudy Carpenter. Despite ASU coming off a 4-5 year in P10 play, I looked at their schedule and said in my forecast that they had a great shot at opening the year 8-0! The Sun Devils did not disappoint. Five times ASU overcame double digit deficits to come away with victories and when they knocked off #18 Cal at home, they moved to 8-0 (#6) and finished 10-2 but were blown out by Texas in the Holiday Bowl (finished #16). In '08 the Sun Devils had Georgia on their non-conf slate and five Pac-10 road games. While they were Pac-10 co-champs in '07 at 7-2, they were only +10.1 ypg (5th best). They had 13 ret st's and lost 24 lett (38%). While I did not have the Sun Devils in my preseason Top 25, they were #15 AP. At the end of the year they were just 5-7. It looked like a rebuilding season in '09 with just 13 st's back but they still opened 4-2. At that point I forecasted on PhilSteele.com that ASU would drop their final 6 and that they did finishing the year 4-8. They had 3 net close losses and despite their 2-7 P10 record, actually outgained conf foes by 15.2 ypg. ASU also had my #3 rated D in the P10 but in '10 they played the toughest conf schedule (5 AG's, host P10 champ Oregon). Because ASU played two FCS foes, they were not eligible for a bowl but managed to improve to 6-6 and nearly pulled some big upsets. Against Wisc, they scored an apparent tying td but missed the xp. They had a 597-385 yd edge vs Oregon but were done in by 7 TO's and lost by 11. They lost to Oregon St by 3 and then missed a 41 yd FG with 1:34 left and lost to USC by 1. They led Stanford 13-10 in the 4Q but lost by 4. In the season finale they blocked an Ariz xp at the end of reg and then won in 2OT on another blk'd xp. ASU once again had 3 net close losses and this year have 15 ret st's, which ties for third most in the P12. They have 5 P12 HG's. One of their AG's is WSU and they avoid Stanford out of the North. ASU will have its first winning record since 2007 and will be the preseason favorite to win the new Pac-12 South.

Just one prior gm in 1940, ASU won 21-13. Aggies finished 6-5 LY incl a 52-3 loss to Cal but beat SUJ 14-13. After being down 13-0 at HT, UCD scored 14 3Q pts and ran out the L/3:31 after a missed FG.

The home team is 3-1 in this series but they last played in 1990. Into 2011, ASU is 4-0 vs non-conf tms but last hosted a non-conf BCS school in '08 (lost to #3 Georgia 27-10).

ASU has won the only 2 meetings ('87 & '88). Arizona St has dropped 3 str road openers but the L/2 have come by a tll of 4 pts. Overall Erickson is 12-10 in road openers (1-3 w/ASU).

LY ASU scored a TD w/6:59 left but had the XP blk'd & ret for 2 (up 2 instead of 5). USC went on to kick the GW FG as ASU's L2Y drives ended on a missed 42 yd FG & int.

Erickson was the HC at OSU from '99-'02 posting a 31-17 rec (0-2 vs ASU). The last & only time ASU dropped 4 str in this series was from 1967-'71. LY ASU's final poss ended on an int w/17 at the OSU47.

Sun Devils last visit to Salt Lake City was in '77, a 47-19 win. Overall ASU has won 7 str over Utah (last gm '93 & last loss in '76). Arizona St is just 4-10 the L3Y in conference road gms.

ASU has dropped 6 str to UO by 22 ppg. In the Sun Devils last visit to Eugene they mounted just 211 yds as Brock Osweiler became the 1st True Fr Sun Devil to start at QB S'93 (Jake Plummer).

USC: ASU has dropped 11 str to USC (L/win '99) by 17 ppg but only by 1 pt LY.

UC Davis: ASU has won 12 straight home openers & the 6 vs FCS tms were by 31 ppg.

The last meeting was in '07 as ASU won 33-14 in Tempe. ASU had a 407-204 yd edge. Into 2011, ASU is just 3-6 hosting conference opp's the L2Y (W's vs UW, WSU & UCLA).

Visitor has dropped 3 str. ASU has lost 4 of its L5 trips to Pasadena incl '09, 23-13. ASU had FD & yd edges but TO's set up 17 UCLA pts including both TD's (68 yd IR & 9 yd FR).

Erickson was the HC at Wash St for 2 sns in '87 & '88 (12-10-1) going 0-2 vs ASU. ASU has won 7 str vs WSU. In the L/visit to Pullman ASU had 12 sks (school rec) holding WSU to -54 rush yds.

LY UA went 57/10pt to tie w/27 left but the XP was blk'd.

In the 2nd OT UA got a TD but ASU blk'd the XP.

ASU has dropped 3 str & 7 of the last 8 vs Cal.

LY ASU led 3-0 but Cal scored the next 40 pts as

ASU's 2 TD's came on a 1 yard blk'd PR & 25 yd FR. ASU is 3-1 the last 4 yrs in home finales.

UCLA BRUINS

RB Derrick Coleman

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - With inj's to their top 2 QB's heading into '08, JC trans Kevin Craft struggled throwing for 56% and a terrible 7-20 ratio. In '09 rFr Kevin Prince (PS#49) became just the 2nd UCLA frosh to start a season opener. He started 11 and threw for 2,050 (56%, 8-8) missing 2 sts (inj). Craft got those 2 sts and for the ssn threw for 722 (56%, 2-3). Richard Brehaut (PS#14) played in 6 (124, 65%, 0-1). LY they moved to the pistol offense but Prince missed the end of Aug (back) then was unable to practice a full week prior to any of his 5 sts (knee). It clearly effected his play as he threw for just 384 (44.7%, 3-5) and looked out of sync. Brehaut took over and threw for 1,296 (56%, 6-7). He broke Troy Aikman's single gm records for pass att's and comp hitting 33-56 in the loss to Ariz St. When Brehaut was inj'd vs Wash after hitting 5-14, walk-on Clayton Tunney and Darius Bell (PS#117JC) combined to hit just 1-11-13 yds and 2 int. This year the main group returns and added to the mix are Nick Crissman (PS#12, inj LY) and perhaps the best fit for the pistol in true frosh Brett Hundley (PS#5 IFS). Not in the PSL are Maxwell Schuh (6'4" 202 rFr), Justin Posthuma (6'1" 182 rFr) and Bell. I would expect significant improvement no matter who wins the QB job.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 UCLA's top RB had just 397 (2.8). In '09 rFr Johnathan Franklin (PS#46) led with 566 (4.5) giving them added spd at RB. Derrick Coleman (284, 5.4 as true) had a 29 yd td run vs SDSU (UCLA's longest TD '08) and was #2 (244, 4.5). Damien Thigpen (PS#50) was one of the tm's fastest (62, 2.4). LY all 3 ret'd and the offense moved to the pistol formation. For the first time in school history (vs Wash St) UCLA had 2 RB's top 180 in the same gm (Franklin 216, Coleman 185). Franklin (10 st) became the Bruins' first 1,000 yd rusher since '06 with 1,127 (5.3). Coleman was #2 with 487 (5.9). True frosh Malcolm Jones (6'0" 222 So, PS#5) had 200 (3.6) while FB Anthony Barr (PS#12) had 4 sts (29, 4.8). The only departures from the unit are FB's Morrell Presley (6 st, 5 rec), Christian Ramirez (9 gm, 3 rec) and Tobu Umodu (12 gm on ST's). This is one of the top RB corps in the Pac-12.

RECEIVERS - In '08 Neuheisel had an inexp'd group and true frosh Taylor Embree led with a UCLA frosh record 531 (13.3). Terrence Austin (PS#9) led in rec with 53 (460, 8.7). Both returned in '09. Soph Nelson Rosario (PS#38, 364, 9.6 in '08) led with 723 (17.2). Embree improved to 608 (13.5) and Austin added 455 (12.3). LY they only had to replace Austin (#7DC) and their starting TE (13 st, #4 rec), Embree led with just 409

(12.8) while Rosario was #2 (309, 10.7). Soph Randall Carroll (PS#7) was #3 (242, 16.1) and rFr Ricky Marvray (PS#76) was #4 (188, 9.4). Notre Dame transfer TE Joseph Fauria (PS#10) was never 100% (groin) opening the door for TE Cory Harkey to start all 12 (140, 10.0). Colo transfer Josh Smith had 127 (11.5). Added to the mix this year is another ND transfer WR Shaquell Evans (PS#9) who had 7 rec in 6 gms as a true frosh at ND in '09. Adding depth are Kyle Slowey (6'4" 200 rFr), Jerry Rice (5'11" 186 So, PS#299, son of HOF legend), Jerry Johnson (6'4" 213 Jr, PS#46, 1 st), Andrew Roth (6'0" 174 rFr), Ryan Sublett (6'3" 196 Jr), Alex Levy (6'1" 167 So) and TE's Luke Gane (6'1" 246 rFr), Austin Hill (6'5" 252 Jr) and Andrew Yelich (6'3" 230 So). The unit returns intact but with better QB play, they will have vastly improved numbers.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 the Bruins had to replace 4 st's. UCLA's new OL coach Bob Palcic summed it up by saying, "We're thin, we're young, we're inexperienced." The Bruins used 9 diff starting OL combos and had their lowest ypg rush (83, 2.6) since 1985 while allowing 35 sks (8.1%). In '09 they had 3 st's back and added Colo transfer Kai Maiva (1st Tm Fr AA '07). They improved slightly to 115 (3.5) with 29 sks (6.7%). LY it looked like 4 st's were back but Maiva (12 st '09, ankle), G Jeff Baca (13 st '09, incl) and LT Xavier Su'a-Filo (PS#8, 13 st, mission) were all lost over the summer. LT Micah Kia missed 3 due to injury. UCLA still improved to 176 ypg rush (4.4, 28 sk) after installing the pistol offense. This year they lose RG Eddie Williams (12 st, 1.5Y st'r), LG Darius Savage (12 st), C Ryan Taylor (12 st) and Kia (5 st). Maiva and Baca both return although Baca is expected to miss the start of the season with ankle surgery. They return 4, who have been full-time st's. I list the unit with 3 ret's despite losing 3 splitting the difference and the unit as a whole should retain better health after 25 sts lost to injury this past season.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In Karl Dorrell's last season ('07), UCLA's D allowed just 109 ypg rush (3.0) and in Neuheisel's first 2 yrs they were respectable yielding 4.4 and 4.0 ypc. LY the losses were heavy as they had to replace the P10 DPOY (#2DC) and 2 other st's. They then lost the lone ret st'r Datone Jones (foot) in Aug. As you would expect, the Bruins had their worst rush D in 5 yrs yielding 206 ypg (5.2). This year they lose DT David Carter (12 st, #6 tkl'r, 3.5 sk, #6DC ARZ), DE Reggie Stokes (1 st, 11 tkl) and DT Andy Keane (1 sk). Not only do they return 6 who had 33 sts LY, they get Jones (13 st in '08) back as well. There are 8 VHT's in the unit and this should be one of the most improved D-line's in the country.

LINERBACKERS - LY UCLA had to replace their #1 and #2 tkl'r's but ret'd their top LB Akeem Ayers (PS#20, #3 tkl'r, 6 sk, 8.5 tfl, 4 int). Ayers had another fine ssn earning 1st Tm P10 but UCLA all'd 30.3 ppg (worst in 5 yrs). TY they lose SLB Ayers (12 st, #4 tkl'r, 10 tfl, #2DC TEN). MLB Patrick Larimore (#5 tkl'r) st'r'd the F7 before being OFY (shldr) and Jordan Zumwalt (#7 tkl'r) took over while Sean Westgate was the #2 tkl'r. Despite losing their star, this unit is more exp'd and will be stronger.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - I mentioned LY that since I started publishing this magazine ('95) UCLA had never finished outside the top half of my PDR. Even in '08, with 4 of their 11 DB's in the spg being walk-ons (13 car st's ret), they finished #18. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's and were #32. LY UCLA only had to replace 1 st'r (#4DC) and ret'd 1st Tm AA Rahim Moore (PS#4). Nearly all 4 st's were VHT's (Sheldon Price PS#61). Due to an inexp'd front 7, they shockingly plummeted to #71 (62.5%, 19-7). TY they lose 1st Tm P10 FS Moore (#3 tkl'r, 1 int, 4 pbu, #2DC DEN) and Courtney Viney (1 st, 13 tkl) but return 6 of the top 8. Despite losing their top guy, expect the Bruins to get back to their accustomed spot in my PDR rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Bruins were the only tm to finish in the top 10 of my ST rankings in each yr from 2004-'07. In '08 K Kai Forbath hit 19-22 (L53) and P Aaron Perez had a 36.2 net (37.6 '07). Terrence Austin (top KR/PR) set a school record for all-purp yds but they still dropped to #23 despite the addition of ST cch extraordinaire Frank Gansz Jr. In '09 rFr P Jeff Locke avg 43.6 (38.0 net). Forbath won the Lou Groza Award (28-31 FG) making 37 consec FG's from under 50 yds into '10. The Bruins improved to #10. LY they had to replace Austin (schl rec KR yd) but added Josh Smith who was a super RM at Colo. Forbath (groin inj) actually missed 5 FG (13-18, L51) with his streak snapped at the 40 in Wk 2. What seemed like a slam dunk to surpass heading into the season, Forbath tied John Lee's school record (2 shy of NCAA rec) of 85 car FG (1982-'85). Locke (#1 FBS, 41.3 netl, 14 TB KO) was their key to their #20 finish. TY they lose Forbath and LS Christian Yount (Playboy pressn AA) plus cch Gansz but could still finish near the top again.

COACHES - Rick Neuheisel was a HC at Colorado ('95-'98) and Washington ('99-'02) and enters his 4th yr here. Norm Chow was here for 3 seasons as OC but departed for new Pac-12 rival Utah. Neuheisel coached with his new OC Mike Johnson on the Ravens' staff in '06-'07 and Johnson spent the L2Y with the 49ers (OC LY). Joe Tresey takes over as DC (DB cch UFL '10). He was previously the DC for USC ('09) and Cincy ('07-'08) where his '07 UC defense finished #1 in the FBS in turnovers gained and interceptions.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In Karl Dorrell's 5th and final season ('07) the Bruins had an injury plagued season and with a 28 yd FG blk'd on the final play of the bowl finished just 6-7. In '08 Neuheisel took over in a definite rebuilding year (6 ret st's). His top 2 QB's were inj'd prior to '08 and Kevin Craft had a 7-20 ratio. Neuheisel's first game was a 27-24 OT upset of Tenn but they went just 3-8 after that. That team had 44 sts lost (6th highest) to inj. In '09 they were a much more veteran unit (13 ret st's) and were -10 in TO's in '08 (Turnovers=Turnaround). UCLA made my Most Improved List. As you would expect, the Bruins had a better season. When they beat Temple in the EagleBank Bowl 30-21, they finished 7-6. Despite their 3-6 P10 record they were only -15 ypg (6th best). LY UCLA had 5 P10 HG's but lost 6 of their top 10 tkl'r's and once again were never really 100% healthy at QB. They switched to the pistol offense but did not have a QB like Colin Kaepernick (Nevada) to run it. In the first 2 gms, QB Prince barely practiced and it showed. With 1:19 left vs K-St they missed the tying 2 pt conv. They trailed Stanford just 13-0 in the 3Q but lost by 35. Houston QB Keenum was? coming in and then later inj'd and they upset #23 Houston, 31-13. UCLA went to #7 Texas and benefitted from 4 TO's in the 1H to lead 13-3 at halftime then used their run game to wear the Horns down in the 34-12 upset. In a letdown spot, they actually trailed WSU 28-20 in the 3Q but won by 14. UCLA was destroyed on the road at Cal 35-7 then were demolished on a Thurs night at Oregon 60-13. Ariz had 583-299 yd and 32-15 FD edges and the Bruins were fortunate to only lose by 8. UCLA got a 51 yd FG on the last play to upset Oregon St at home. In another Thurs night road game, they were close with UW in the 4Q but lost by 17. They actually led ASU 17-0 in the 1Q before losing by 21. With a losing season clinched, the Bruins lost to rival USC 28-14 even getting a td with :23 left. UCLA has now had 3 consec losing seasons in conf play for the first time since '43-'45 and were -124.9 ypg (2nd worst). The Bruins do have a couple factors pointing upwards in that they were -11 in TO's and also had 58 sts lost to injury (3rd most, pg 314). They also have 17 ret st's and should get much improved QB play which will make both the offense and defense better. It is UCLA's time to close the gap versus their crosstown rival and make my Most Improved List.

UTAH UTES

LT John Cullen
#77 in 2011

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Utah produced the #1 overall pick in the '05 NFL Draft in Alex Smith and Brian Johnson and Brett Ratliff held down the spot the next 4 yrs. In '08 Johnson led Utah to an undefeated yr throwing for 2,972 (68%, 27-9) in his final season. Terrance Cain led the NJCAA in passing yds (3138, 68%) in '08 and eventually beat out true frosh Jordan Wynn (PS#52, IFS) in Aug. After 5 gms Cain's stats were similar to Johnson's (now QB cch) except he added more of a run threat. Cain's arm strength limited the offense but he still threw for 1,624 (64%, 11-5) and was the #3 rusher (318). In the 2H vs Wyo (gm 8) they took the RS off of Wynn and he sparked the tm to a victory. Wynn started the final 5 and the off avg'd 34.2 ppg (27.1 ppg prior). Wynn was the clear-cut st'r into '10 but sprained his thumb during the 2nd series vs Pitt (still played). Cain started vs UNLV and NM and threw for 455 yds (77%) with a 5-0 ratio in those 2. At one point there were calls for Cain to take over the starting job and HC Whittingham did admit that he considered pulling Wynn at times later in the season. Although he threw for a career high 362 vs SDSt, Wynn was in'd in the finale vs BYU and Cain started and played the entire bowl. Wynn threw for a career high 362 vs SDSt and finished with 2,334 (62.2%, 17-10). TY they lose Cain (703, 63.5%, 6-2) and the bkp figures to be either Griff Robles (PS#39) who played in 4 (0-1 pass, 124 yd rush) or Tyler Shreve (PS#58, IFS) who GS LY. This unit has less depth but as long as Wynn stays healthy (missed spg, shoulder), he should improve upon '10's numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 Matt Asiata (PS#17JC) led with 707 (4.8) splitting the carries with Darrell Mack who rushed for 1,204 (4.8) in '07. Elusive Eddie Wide managed 183 (6.1) in '08. In '09 they had to replace Mack and then Asiata was OFY in WK 4. Wide set a school rec with 6 consec 100 yd gms becoming just the 11th RB in school history to top 1,000 (1069, 5.3). LY Asiata (granted 6th yr) was a powerback while Wide provided the speed. Wide led with 717 (4.8) while Asiata had 695 (4.5) and Sausan Shakerin played in just 6 (conc) and had 105 (8.8). Wide and Asiata comb'd for 466 yds rec. TY all 3 depart as well as Beau Burton (59, 6.6 as rFr) who retired (inj). Utah is the only FBS tm with zero returning rush yds from the RB unit. They did get a boost in the spg as they added PS#84JC John White, PS#24 true frosh Harvey Langi and former rugby standout Thretton Palamo who had a great spg. Adding depth are Jake Cook (5'10" 192 So) and Mychal Robinson (5'8" 197 Sr). Despite an entirely new group they could match '10's production.

RECEIVERS - In '09 Utah had to replace its top 3 rec's and the top returnees were David Reed (427, 17.1) and Jerome Brooks (331, 11.0). Reed was by far the top guy setting school records for rec (81) and yds (1188, 14.7). Brooks got off to a slow start but was one of Wynn's favorite targets and finished with 696 (12.4). LY they had to replace 2 st'rs incl Reed (#5DC). DeVonte Christopher (PS#27) led with 660 (16.9) while Shaky Smithson was #3 (383, 15.3). TY they lose Brooks (6 st), TE Brad Clifford (2 st, 6 rec), Smithson (4 st) and Fatu Moala (2 st). Not listed in the PSL are David Carter (Sr trans from West Liberty St) and TE Westlee Tonga (6'4" 243 So, 10 gm LY). Luke Matthews (#4 rec) began spg at RB but has moved back to WR and the Utes are on par with '10 in terms of exp.

OFFENSIVE LINE - LY the Utes had to replace 1st Tm AA LT Zane Beadles (#2DC) but had 4 st'rs back incl 1st Tm MWC LG Caleb Schlauderaff, 2nd Tm MWC C Zane Taylor and they added in PS#18JC John Cullen. The unit paved the way for 4.6 ypc, their best ypc rushing since '04 as they had 153 ypg rush and all'd just 12 sks (3.0%). Cullen lived up to his billing in the opener when he held Pitt's Greg Romeus sackless. TY they lose 1st Tm MWC LG Schlauderaff (13 st, 4 yr, #6DC GB), 1st Tm MWC C Taylor (12 st, 3 yr st'r) and RG Walter Watts (1 st). RT Tony Bergstrom earned 2nd Tm MWC while Cullen and C Tevita Stevens also rec. While a little less exp'd this unit should still come close to '10's production.

DEFENSIVE LINE - This is Utah's primary recruiting emphasis annually and they have sent many DL's to the NFL. In 2008's magical season they had to replace 1st and 2nd Tm MWC DL's for the 2nd straight year but led by DE Koa Misi and Paul Kruger, allowed just 99 ypg rush (3.1) with 29 sks. In '09 they had to replace 2 starters (#2DC). The unit was hit hard by injuries as only 1 DL started 10+ and the numbers slipped to 138 ypg (3.7). LY they had to replace a #2DC but had 3 st'rs back and improved to 112 ypg (3.2). Utah was able to rotate 9 DL's keeping them fresh in the 4Q. This year they must replace DE Christian Cox (12 st, 1st Tm MWC, #6 tk/r, 8.5 tfl), DT Sealver Siliga (12 st, #9 tk/r, 4 tfl, 2nd Tm MWC, left early for NFL but undrafted), DE Junior Tu'one (6 st, 16 tk, 2 tfl) and DT Neli A'asa (8 tk, 1.5 sk). They return 5 with starting experience and add in Michigan St trans David Rolf, but with the loss of their top 2, figure to be down a few notches.

LINEBACKERS - Utah had an experienced LB corps in '09 and their top LB, Stevenson Sylvester (#1 tk/r) earned 1st Tm MWC. LY they had to replace Sylvester (13 st, #5DC PIT) as well as 2 other starters (#2, #11 tk/r's). The unit was my biggest ? on the team with the 3 projected starters comb for 24 tkls in '09. Despite the inexp, the numbers stayed about the same as they all'd 20.3 ppg (20.2 in '09). TY they lose SLB Chad Manis (8 st, #7 tk/r, 2.5 tfl) but do return their #1 and #2 tk/r's plus incl in rFr JV Fehoko (PS#24) and S Brian Blechen (13 st, PS#92) making the unit much more exp'd. Not in the PSL are Kalen Adams (6'0" 220 So), Dave Fagergren (6'0" 219 Jr, 7 tk) and Jacoby Hale (6'0" 219 Fr, PS#152).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Utes had a young secondary but still finished #4 in my PDR in '07. They had 9 of their top 10 back in '08 and finished #22. In '09 they had to replace 2 st'rs (#2, #6DC's) but returned a pair of CB's in RJ Stanford and Brandon Burton (both sub-4.40's). The Utes finished #10. LY they had to replace a 1st Tm MWC FS (#5DC), Stanford (#7DC) and their SS. This time Utah performed as expected with just 1 st'r back finishing #86 (61.3%, 20-12). Starting CB Lamar Chapman was just 5'8" but productive, as teams generally avoided throwing at Burton. This year they lose 2nd Tm MWC CB Burton (13 st, #7 tk/r, 2 int, 8 pbu, #5DC MIN), CB Chapman (13 st, #3 tk/r, 3 pbu), FS Justin Taplin-Ross (13 st, #5 tk/r, 2 int, 1 pbu) and S Blechen who moves to LB. Not in the PSL are Devin Mickles (5'9" 170 rFr) and Chandler Johnson (5'11" 174 rFr). This unit has 3 career starts returning but Whittingham usually does a solid job with inexperienced DB's and they could actually move up in my PDR after a low finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Whittingham generally produces a fine ST unit (#16 '06, #23 in '07 and #20 in '08). In '09 they had to replace their outstanding K/P Louie Sakoda. Joe Phillips hit 20-22 FG's (L48) and was a Groza semifinalist. Ben Vroman had 32 TB on 75 KO's. Sean Sellwood took over at P and the South African native avg'd 42.9 (net 37.0). LY they only had to replace Vroman and I called for improvement (#38 '09). Smithson was phenomenal, making my 1st Tm Midseason AA but was hurt by teams kicking away from him later in the season. He still topped Steve Smith's school record for PR yds (495) with 572 leading the FBS with an amazing 19.1 avg on PR (24.1 KR). Phillips set a school record making 18 straight FG's (2 yrs) and hit 13-17 (L48). Sellwood had 3 punts blk'd (41.0, 33.8 tm net) and that's the reason that Utah finished "only" #5. TY they lose Smithson and Phillips so they figure to drop a few notches.

COACHES - Kyle Whittingham replaced Urban Meyer in '05 after a perfect 12-0 season and 4 yrs later topped that with his own 13-0 record. Whittingham spent 11 seasons here as an asst incl 10 as the DC. Norm Chow comes over as the OC bringing Pac-10 knowledge after being the OC at UCLA ('08-'10) and USC ('01-'04) with 3 yrs as an NFL OC (TEN '05-'07) sandwiched in between. Kalani-Fifita Sitake has been on the staff as a LB coach since '05 and is in his 3rd season as DC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 2004 I mentioned that 4 of my then-7 sets of power ratings called for the Utes to have an unbeaten season and they achieved that AND became the first BCS buster. They dominated 19 Pitt 35-7 in the Fiesta Bowl while outscoring foes by an average of 45.2-19.5 (+132 ypg). Their closest game was a 14 point win. The Utes #4 finish was their highest ever at that time and Urban Meyer left for Fla. It took Kyle Whittingham 4 years to get back to that level. In 2008 BYU was pretty much a consensus pick to win the MWC and of all of the sources documented by football.stassen.com, my magazine was the only one to pick Utah to win the MWC outright (many had the Utes picked 3rd). I mentioned that 4 of my then-8 sets of power ratings called for Utah to go unbeaten and I picked the Utes as my top non-BCS team. I never really knew how passionate football fans are in Utah until my mag hit the newsstands and BYU fans bombarded PhilSteele.com questioning my overall football IQ (to put it nicely). Utah had some close calls but went unbeaten and landed a Sugar Bowl berth vs Alabama. After beating the Tide 31-17 (349-208 yd edge), they received 16 AP 1st place votes finishing #2 and were the nation's only undefeated FBS team. After a solid 10-3 season in '09 (#18) the Utes rolled to an 8-0 start and climbed to #6 for their showdown with #4 TCU. With a 2nd BCS bowl within reach, they were thrashed at home by the Frogs. At one point, they trailed 40-0 and many of the fans headed for the exits. In a letdown spot the next week vs a Notre Dame team off a bye, they had a 265-256 yd edge but gave up a blk'd punt for a td, fmb'd the 2H KO and lost 28-3. They got a Hail Mary pass on the last play of the 1H and rallied to beat SDSt and rallied again to get past BYU blocking a 42 yd FG on the final play. At 10-2 they drew fellow BCS buster Boise St in the Las Vegas Bowl but were without QB Wynn. Utah dominated early but ended up being outgained 543-200 and got crushed 26-3 in a gm that was more lopsided than the final score. TY the Utes make their long awaited jump to the P12. Utah actually benefitted from 4 net close wins LY (pg 299). They do catch a break in avoiding BOTH Oregon and Stanford out of the North! While the Pac-12 slate is very favorable, their 3 yr streak of double digit wins will end.

Utah is 9-0 vs MSU w/ an avg score of 51-3 but the L/meeeting was in 1982. Utes are 17-5 in home openers. Bobcats finished 9-3 L/FCS (FCS playoffs) including a tough 23-22 loss to Wash St. This is the Utes 1st conf gm as a Pac-12 member & as a BCS school. Utah's last visit to the Coliseum was in '48 (lost 27-0). The Utes have won 3 str road openers incl a trip to the 'Big House' in 2008. This rivalry has been decided by TD or less in 12 of 14 gms. 'Holy War' has been played every yr S'46 (87th meeting). LY Utah trailed 13-0 into the 4Q but blk'd a 42 yd FG as time exp to secure the comeback. BYU: The Cougars were the Utes final reg ssn gm for 20 of the L21Y (not in '01 because of 9/11). Bonus: Whittingham is a 1984 graduate of BYU. Into 2011, the Utes have won 11 str hosting BCS tms. Utah is 0-6 vs Washington but each gm has been in Seattle w/ the last in 1979. The Utes went 14-2 the L/4 ssn's hosting conf foes. Whittingham is 11-1 the wk following a bye. The Utes L/meeting vs the Sun Devils was in '93, a 38-0 shutout loss. Along with Arizona St & Utah, Arizona, Colorado, UCLA & USC make up the new Pac-12 South Division. Third meeting vs Pitt (3rd different venue). In the '04 Fiesta Bowl Utah hammered Pitt 35-7 & LY in Salt Lake City Pitt hit a 30 yd FG to force OT but Utah int'd Pitt's 1st play in OT & nailed a 21 yd FG. Utah is 1-3 at Cal incl a loss in their L/trip '00, 24-21. The Utes trailed 24-7 into the 4Q & the comeback fell short missing a 55 yd FG as time exp (85 yd PR called back on a pen in the 3Q). HT has won the 2 recent gms ('07 & '08) & Utah is 3-1 vs OSU S'91. Utah finished 13-0 and ranked #2 in '08 (L/ssn playing OSU) which marked the most wins in one ssn & their highest ranking ever. Utes are 1-7 in Tucson S'69 but won their L/trip in '04, 23-6. Score was very misleading as UA fmbld the opening KO, fmbld at U2, an int set up 11 yd Utah TD drive, fmbld at U8 & missed 35 yd FG. The HT has won the L2 ('06 & '07) by 30 ppg. Into 2011, Utah is just 52-90-3 (37%) vs the former Pac-10 but have beat every tm at least twice except UCLA (1) & UW (0). LTH ('99) Utah pulled a small upset 27-7. The Utes led 27-0 in the 4Q as they took adv of 5 WSU TO's. It's been 49 years since these schools have played with Utah trailing in the series 24-30-3. Utah is 8-2 in Rice-Eccles finales with 4 straight wins by 19 ppg. 20 of L21 ssn finales vs BYU.

ARIZONA WILDCATS

WR Juron Criner

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - UA has not had a QB drafted or make 1st Tm P10 since joining the conf in '78. In '07 Willie Tuitama set single ssn records for yds (3683), att (524), comp (327) and td's (28-12 ratio). In '08 Tuitama (bowl MVP) threw for 3,088 (65%, 23-8). True Fr Matt Scott (PS#15) was the bkp and plyd in 6 (7-11-84) finishing as the #3 rusher (188, 8.2). Tuitama departed as the career pass leader and Scott battled Mich St transfer Nick Foles. Scott has a cannon for an arm but needed to work on his accuracy, while Foles is a pure pocket passer. Scott started the 1st 3 of '09 but surprisingly Foles st'd at Oreg St and threw for 254 (31d). Foles later hit 78% vs Stanford (40-51) topping Tuitama's '07 record. He had the flu vs UCLA (3 int, 2 fmb) and was called for a double pass at the end of the Cal gm which took them out of FG range. He suffered a brkn finger on his non-throwing hand vs ASU but guided UA to a 2nd place tie in the P10 throwing for 2,486 (63%, 19-9). Scott threw for 441 (57%, 1-3, #3 rusher), LY Foles, despite missing UW and UCLA (knee), threw for 3,191 (67.1%, 20-10). Scott moved the tm well in his 2 sts adding mobility to the position and was the #4 rusher (135, 3.9) while improving his accuracy (71%) throwing for 776 (4-2). Bryson Beirne (6'3" 225 Sr, PS#109) plyd in 3 and hit all 5 of his passes. All 3 ret but Scott may RS if Foles stays healthy. Adding depth to the unit are Daxx Garman (PS#71, IFS) and John Cardona (6'3" 185 Jr).

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 true frosh Nic Grigsby was the top rusher of a young unit with 704 (4.4) in 8 sts and had 200 rec (5.7). In '08 they added true frosh Keola Antolin (PS#39). Grigsby became the Cats' first 1,000 yd rusher (1153, 5.4) since Clarence Farmer in '01. Antolin only had 66 yds in the 1st 6 but rushed for 149 (7.1) vs Cal and had 4 td's vs Oreg. Both ret'd in '09 but the unit was hit hard by inj. Grigsby missed 3 and parts of others (shldr) finishing #2 (567, 7.2). Antolin was also banged up but still led (637, 5.6). LY both ret'd and Grigsby led in rushing in each of the 1st 4 (252 yd) but Antolin led over the next 6 incl B2B 100 yd gm. Antolin finished #1 with 668 (4.7) and 204 rec (7.3). Grigsby was #2 with 533 (4.5) and had 189 rec (7.6). Greg Nwoko (6'2" 228 Jr, PS#204) was #3 with 270 (4.7). TY they lose Grigsby and possibly Nwoko (tore ACL spg) but Antolin is back and adding depth are Terris Jones (5'9" 180 So) and HB's David Hill (5'9" 250 Sr) and Ross Oltorik (6'2" 225 Jr, PS#214, Ohio St trans). With the addition of PS#32 Ka'Deem Carey and Daniel Jenkins, who had a phenomenal spg, I can see this unit being stronger, even with the loss of Grigsby.

RECEIVERS - In '09 Arizona had to replace their #3 career rec Mike Thomas. Terrell Turner (PS#66) had 575 in '07 and 580 in '08 and was #2 in '09 with 458 (9.5). Juron Criner (88, 12.6 as true) led in '09 with 582 (12.9). David Roberts was #3 with 410 (9.5) and David Douglas (4 sts, PS#176) had 320 (10.3). LY they only had to replace Turner. Criner emerged as the P10's top WR as his 1,233 yds (15.0) were the best here since 2002 (Bobby Wade). Douglas was #2 with 515 (9.9) and Roberts was #3 with 487 (11.1). TY they lose TE AJ Simmons (9 st, 92), William "Bug" Wright (2 st, 294) and Travis Cobb (1 st, 290). Criner turned down the NFL and figures to be one of the nation's best and teams with Texas transfer Dan Buckner (PS#11) to form the Pac-12's best WR duo.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 the Cats had to replace two 3 yr st's (#2DC) and another with 8 sts. The st's avg'd 6'5" 313 and their OL cch said it was the first time he wasn't overly concerned if a player went down (deepest unit). UA improved to 159 ypg (4.8) while allowing just 13 sks (2.7%). LY they had to replace 2 st's but ret'd 1st Tm P10 C Colin Baxter and 2nd Tm P10 LT Adam Grant. It was surprising that after 6 gms, Arizona had all'd 17 sk (already 4 more than '09) but Stoops said the QB's were holding on to the ball too long. I expected improvement but surprisingly the numbers slipped to 132 ypg rush (3.9) and their 32 sk (6.1%) were the most since '02. Baxter did prove his toughness at the end of the season however playing the final month with a knee injury. TY the losses are heavy as 1st Tm P10 LT Grant (13 st, 2.5Y st'r), RT Phillip Garcia (13 st), LG Conan Amutanai (13 st), 1st Tm P10 C Baxter (12 st, 4Y st'r), RG Jovon Hayes (11 st), Vaughn Dotsy (2 st) and bkp Jack Julsing (5 gm) all depart. This unit is clearly my biggest concern on the '11 squad as their 1 ret st is last in the FBS.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Only twice this past decade did the Cats allow over 3.9 ypc rush. Once was in '05 (4.6) and the 2nd came in '08 when they had to replace all 4 st's. That '08 D allowed 131 ypg rush (4.1) with 24 sks. In '09 they had 7 of the top 8 back but didn't meet my expectations only improving to 120 ypg (3.9) with 34 sks. LY they had to replace 2 st's (#3DC). They did have one of the best DE combos in the country in Ricky Elmore (10.5 sk '09) and Brooks Reed. I wondered who would replace Mitchell's 6.5 sks and rFr Justin Washington, in his first 6 sts had 4 (9 flt) but suffered an ankle inj (did play 12 gms). Ohio St transfer Willie Mobley (PS#12) only had 7 tk in 10 gms. Elmore led the P10 in sks (11) while Brooks Reed added 6.5. This year they lose 2nd Tm P10 DE Elmore (12 st, 49 tk, #6DC GB), 1st Tm P10 DE Brooks Reed (47 tk, 10 flt, #2DC HOU), DT Lolomana Mikaele (13 st, 34 tk, 8.5 flt) and DE D'Aundre Reed (1 st, 40 tk, 6 flt, #7DC MIN). LY they actually slipped allowing 132 ypg rush (3.6) and with the loss of their 2 DE studs, I'll call this unit down a few notches in '11.

LINERACKERS - UA did have to replace their #1 and #8 tk's in '09 but ret'd their #5 and #6 tk's and all'd a respectable 23.9 ppg. LY the unit was wiped out losing all 3 st's (#2, #4, #9 tk'l'r) and ret'd just 16 car tk's. Stoops signed PS#15 and PS#111 JC's who were IFS and 2 both started. UA all'd 27 ppg despite the LB unit's inexp. TY they lose RJ Young (1 st, 19 tk) and Trevor Erno (1 tk) taking away some of the depth and forcing them to lean more on their incoming frosh for the upcoming season. They do have 3 of the top 6 back (#1, #4 and #11 tk'l'r) making them more exp'd than '10 although Jake Fischer (8 st, 7.5 flt, #4 tk'l'r) tore his ACL in the spg and may RS.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07 UA had 7 of their top 8 back incl Antoine Cason (Thorpe Awd winner) and the Cats finished #23 (#35 '06, #21 '05) in the PDR. In '08 they had to replace Cason (#1DC) and a 3 yr starting CB (#7DC). Surprisingly UA finished #15. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's and dropped to #34. LY they again had to replace 2 st's (2nd & 3rd Tm P10). They got the late addition of Shaquille Richardson (PS#78) who originally signed with UCLA. UA is known for its top cover corners like Chuck Cecil, Darryll Lewis, Chris McAlister and Trevin Wade (1st Tm P10 '09). In Richardson's first start (Wash St) he had 2 int's and 7 tkl's earning P10 DPW. The secondary dropped 6 int's vs Ariz St or they could have won. The Cats only finished #38. TY they lose S Joe Perkins (13 st, #2 tk'l'r, 10 pbu, 2 int), SS Anthony Wilcox (9 st, 46 tk, 9 pbu), CB Mike Turner (17 tk) and 2 others (5 tk). FS Adam Hall (8 st) tore his ACL in the spg so CB Robert Golden (PS#21) will move to S.

SPECIAL TEAMS - HC Mike Stoops inherited a unit that finished #106 in my ST rankings in '03. They improved to #78 and #52 in '04 & '05 and with super K/P Nick Folk, rose to #10 in '06. 2007 was the first time S/'97 that UA simultaneously debuted a new K, P and RM but they still finished #22. RFr P Keenyn Crier avg 43.7 (net 38.1) and KR Mike Thomas avg 23.7. In '08 a more veteran unit finished #9. In '09 they had to replace their K as well as KR Thomas. UA had another strong finish (#22). Alex Zendejas (PS#8) nearly lost his spot in Aug but hit 17-22 (L47). He was replaced on KO's midssn by John Bonano (7 TB). Crier had a 41.5 avg (35.1 net). LY the unit ret'd intact and I thought it would be one of the top units in the country but they finished #58. Zendejas hit 14-19 FG's (L47) but missed 2 crucial xp's vs Ariz St. Bonano had 12 TB on 69 KO and Crier regressed for a 3rd consecutive year (40.3 avg, 34.1 net). TY they lose P Crier, top KR Travis Cobb (26.1) and PR William Wright (5.7). As long as a solid new P emerges, they have a shot at topping last year's lower than expected finish.

COACHES - Mike Stoops was K-St's DC from '96-'98 then was DC at Okla from '99-'03. He is now in his 8th yr here. OC Sonny Dykes and DC Mark Stoops both left in '10. They used co-OC's for '10 in RB/TE cch Seth Littrell and OL coach Bill Bedenbaugh who now leaves after 1 season. LB coach Tim Kish and former Colorado DB coach Greg Brown were co-DC's in '10. Brown ret'd to Colorado in the offseason. Kish and Littrell both assume solo duties but they did bring in former BYU OC Robert Anae to handle the OL and the run gm.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Arizona joined the P10 in '78 and, of the '10 P10 members, are the only tm that has not been to the Rose Bowl. UA was ranked #4 in the '99 press polls but stumbled to a 6-6 record that yr and went through 9 str yrs without a winning ssn (39-65) incl a surprising 9-28 at home in P10 play. In Mike Stoops' fifth year they finally broke through as they made my Most Improved List and went from 5-7 to 8-5 landing their first bowl bid since the '98 Holiday Bowl and defeated #17 BYU 31-21. Their 5 losses were by an avg of 5.6 ppg and they were +57.8 ypg in P10 play (5th best). In '09 they improved to 8-4 in the reg ssn but lost their bowl 33-0 to Nebraska. LY they had 5 P10 HG's and expectations were high. For the first time S/'98 they were ranked in the AP poll for 5 consec wks and got off to a 7-1 start (also best S/'98) rising as high as #9. The season drastically changed as they were pummeled by Stanford 42-17 then lost at home to USC by 3. They led #1 Oregon 19-14 at the half but came up 19 pts short then stunningly had an xp blk'd at the end of regulation which would have given them the win over Ariz St and then had another xp blk'd in the 2OT! UA had a 370-312 yd edge over Okla St in the bowl but was -4 in TO's and got smashed by 26. They saw their record slip to 7-6. UA was +56.6 ypg in P10 play, the 3rd best despite their 4-5 P10 record. They did have just 5 sts lost to inj. TY they have QB Foles, RB Antolin and super WR Criner all back but lose all 5 starting OL's and have just 5 st's back on D. They draw both Oregon and Stanford out of the North and Okla St on the non-conf slate (3 consec wks in Sept). They were better than their final 7-6 record LY and despite the tough schedule, should get to a 4th straight bowl.

Sep. 8	at Oklahoma St (Thur)	A					UA is 10-1 vs NA (loss in 1932). In the L/meeting '09 UA had a 559-226 yd edge in a 17 pt win. Lumberjacks went 6-5 LY incl a 41-20 loss at Arizona St. UA's won L3 openers by 41 ppg.
Sep. 17	Stanford	G					LY UA snapped a 8Y road opener losing streak. LY's bowl match up was the schools 1st meeting S'42. UA had 6 poss inside OSU territory in the 1H but could only come away w/a TD.
Sep. 24	Oregon	G					The HT has won 3 str but UA is just 3-7 S'99 vs SU. LY in the 1st meeting with both tms ranked UA trailed 14-0 early & could never get within 11 pts the rest of the way in the one-sided affair.
Oct. 1	at USC	G					Wildcats have lost 3 str to the Ducks incl LY. UA had a 19-14 HT lead but allowed 34 2H pts (362 yds). Nick Foles passed for a career high 448 yds (29-54-54% w/a 3-1 ratio).
Oct. 8	at Oregon St	A					UA is just 1-8 L/9 gms vs USC but won its L/trip to the Coliseum. Down 17-14 UA went 80/10pl conv 3 FD's w/a 36 yd TD pass w/3:14 left (USC was SOD at its 15 & UA ran out the clock).
Oct. 15							Visitor is 6-1 & the last 3 gms have been decided by a total of 9 pts. UA won 37-32 in their L/visit to Corvallis despite being outgained. Foles passed for 254 yds & 3 TD's in his 1st career start.
Oct. 20	UCLA (Thur)	G					Arizona St: The game has been decided on the final play each of the L2Y. In UA's last trip to Tempe, they recovered a muffed punt & nailed the GW FG as time exp'd.
Oct. 29	at Washington	A					UA has won a series high 4 str over the Bruins. LY bkup QB Matt Scott passed for a career high 319 yds but despite a ssn high in FD (32) & yds (583) UA DN close the gm out till the final min.
Nov. 5	Utah (HC)						UA has won 3 of the L4Y but dropped the L/visit in Seattle. Despite a 26-14 FD & 461-256 yd edge, UA suffered a last second defeat as UW ret a fluke int for a TD w/2:37 left.
Nov. 12	at Colorado	G					UA has won 8 of the L11 but has dropped the L/2 ('04 & '05). In '05 UA had a 25-19 FD edge (outgained 446-391) but were -3 in TD's, UA scored 21 2H pts but couldn't overcome a 17 pt deficit.
Nov. 19	at Arizona St	G					Arizona is 1-12 vs Colo but did win the L/meeting in '86 (in CO), 24-21. Along with Colorado & Arizona the new Pac-12 South Division schools are Arizona St, UCLA, USC & Utah.
Nov. 26	Louisiana	G					This rivalry (ply'd every yr S'46) is for the Territorial Cup & the L3 gms in Tempe have been decided by a FG.
Dec. 3							First meeting but UA is 3-0 vs the SBC. Wildcats are 3-9 since 1999 in home finales including B2B losses in 2OT. Arizona has won 6 straight at home vs non-conf opponents by 28 ppg.

COLORADO BUFFALOES

RB Rodney Stewart

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Cody Hawkins' (PS#38) stay at CU was quite an adventure. He followed his father from Boise to Boulder and was the starter in '07 and '08. HC Dan Hawkins pulled the RS off of mobile Tyler Hansen vs K-St in '08. Hansen's running ability took K-St by surprise and he led CU to 2 TDs on his first 3 poss, the only 2 TDs CU scored. Hansen started 2 but threw for just 280 (52%, 1-4, 261 rush). In '09 Hansen had thumb surgery (not 100% Aug). They had planned to RS him but Hawkins struggled. In Wk 5 vs Texas, Hansen burned his RS again and took over the starters job (1,440, 56%, 8-7, 339 rush). Both returned in '10 and Hansen started the first 7 (1,102, 68.3%, 6-6) before he ruptured his spleen and was OFY. Hawkins took over and had some of the best games in his career becoming the first Buff to throw for 3 TDs in 3 consecutive games. He threw for 1,547 (53.7%, 14-5) and became CU's career leader in yds (7,731) and TD passes (63). He also opted to stick around even after his father was fired as HC. Hawkins now moves on and with a new coaching staff, it might be tough for Hansen to hang on to his job. CU has not had an all-conf QB S/96 and battling Hansen is rFr Nick Hirschman (PS#38). Keep in mind coaches like their own recruits and they add Brent Burnette (PS#222JC). Hawkins and Hansen combined to throw for 221 ypg (66%, 20-11) and this unit could be just as good despite the loss of their career passing leader.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 Rodney Stewart led with 622 (4.7) in just 5 starts but was lost for the year. Stewart returned in '09 but was not 100% and led with 804 (4.1). CU avg a paltry 88 ypg (2.8), its worst numbers since 1984. LY they had to replace their #2 and #3 rushers but Stewart returned vs Hawaii. Brian Lockridge and Stewart became the first CU duo to each have 100 yds in the same game since '02 (Chris Brown and Bobby Purify). Stewart became the school's first 1,000 yard rusher since '04 (Purify). Lockridge was OFY vs Missouri (146, 4.2) and WR Will Jefferson was moved to RB but had a crucial fumble vs Baylor going into the EZ. He was also used out of the Wild Buff formation and finished #3 (137, 6.0). Stewart finished 3rd in the B12 with 1,318 (4.5) including 175 vs Kansas and 195 vs K-St and was #4 rec. Stewart returns for his 3rd year and not listed below are Cordary Allen (6'1" 225 rFr), Josh Ford (5'9" 195 So) and FB's Evan Harrington (5'11" 220 Sr, PS#157JC), Scott Fernandez (6'3" 265 Sr, 1 st LY) and Gage Greer (6'1" 225 rFr). RFr Tony Jones (PS#71) earned Off Scout Tm POY. If Stewart remains healthy he could top LY's numbers.

RECEIVERS - As a rFr in '07 Scotty McKnight became the 2nd frosh in CU history to lead in rec with 555 (11.8) and he again led in '08 but with just 519 (11.3). McKnight finished #1 once again with 893 (11.8) in '09. LY they had just 1 of their top 4 rec's back. They received a significant upgrade with a couple of transfers in Travon Patterson (PS#58, USC) and Toney Clemons (PS#16, Mich) who was the Preseason B12 Newcomer of the year. McKnight (rec in all 49 car gms, 10th player NCAA hist) led with 621 (12.4). True frosh Paul Richardson (PS#28, orig UCLA) had just 7 rec's when Hawkins took over as the QB but became his favorite target finishing #2 (514, 15.1) and a frosh schl rec 6 TDs. Due to injuries, Will Jefferson (6 st, 177, 12.6) became the bkp RB. Clemons was #3 with 482 (11.2) and TE Ryan Deehan (PS#19) was #5 (249, 10.0). Not in the PSL are Alex Turbow (6'1" 195 So) and TE's Kyle Slavin (6'4" 235 rFr, PS#40), Alex Wood (6'2" 255 So) and Matt Allen (6'0" 245 So). This year they lose their all-time career reception leader McKnight (8 st, #7DC NYJ), TE Luke Walters (4 st, 10 rec), Patterson (4 st, 127 yd), and Jefferson (314 tll yd) but are more exp'd overall and add in Georgia transfer Logan Gray (PS#19QB).

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2009 the Buffs had 4 starters back but one returnee lost his spot and only 1st Tm B12 LT Nate Solder started all 12 at the same spot. Still it was surprising to see the numbers drop to 88 ypg rush (2.8) while the sks rose to 44 (most S/98). LY the entire 2 deep returned and they improved to 137 ypg rush (3.7) trimming their sks to 21 (5.3%). This year they lose 1st Tm AA LT Solder (12 st, 3Y starter, #1DC NE), Keenan Stevens (2 st, 6 gm) and Bryce Givens (1 st, PS#17). Seven of the top 10 are back and despite switching offenses and losing a #1DC, this is a talented group which should post their best rush numbers since at least '06.

DEFENSIVE LINE - CU had an inexp'd DL in '09 but actually improved a little allowing 161 ypg rush (4.1) with 27 sks. CU listed themselves as a 4-3 D but only started 4 DL's once in all of '09. LY the unit returned intact but only improved to 140 ypg rush (4.0) with 30 sk. One returning starter, Marquez Herrod, had just 2 tkl so they basically had just 2 starters back. TY they return all 3 starters and their only losses are Herrod and DE Forrest West (1 st, 19 tkl, 5.5 sk) but have one spot to fill as they legitimately move to a 4-3. I look for continued improvement from a very experienced D-line.

LINEBACKERS - Seven different LB's started in '09. LY they had to replace their #2, #7 and #8 tkl'rs. Despite having 5 back with starting experience, the top returnees were just #11 and #14. CU allowed 30.8 ppg, their most since '03. Jon Major (PS#2) was the #1 tkl'r when he was lost after 7 sts (huge blow to D). This year they lose HM B12 MLB Michael Sipili (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 10.5 tll) and HM B12 SLB BJ Beatty (10 st, #11 tkl'r, 9 tll). Five return who have started incl Major (#5 despite miss L/5). They also return their #7 and #12 tkl'rs making them more experienced despite losing 2 starters from the 3 man group.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - CU finished just #63 in my PDR in '08 and #53 in '09 despite the presence of good sized CB Jimmy Smith (6'2"). LY they had to replace 2 sFr's (#1, #4 tkl'rs) but welcomed back 3 who had 9+ sts. The unit suffered a rash of inj's with 5 DB's down by mid Oct. SS Anthony Perkins (9 st '09) was lost after 5 st (ACL) and was #1 tkl'r at the time. They took the RS off true frosh Terrell Smith vs TT and he tied a schl rec for tkl's (15) in 1 gm by a true frosh which he later broke (17) vs Neb. It surprised me that the Buffs plummeted to #113 (68%, 27-10). TY they lose their star CB Smith (1st Tm B12, #3 tkl'r, 5 pbu, #1DC BAL) and CB Jalil Brown (12 st, #6 tkl'r, 3 int, 5 pbu, #4DC KC). They do return 8 who st'd, so they are on par with '10 in terms of exp. Even though they lose a #1 and #4DC and may not be as talented, they can only improve in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '07 CU finished #25 in my ST rankings but in '08, having to replace their K, KR and PR, they dropped to #105 and then #101 in '09. Eric Goodman hit just 10-18 FG (L54) in '09 (2 misses 50+). Last year he nearly lost his spot prior to Baylor (16-36 career at that point) but he hit 9 of his last 11 (2 miss 50+). Hawkins burned Justin Castor's (PS#19) RS vs MO but his 40 yd FG attempts was blocked. Their new P, Zach Grossnickle, avg 39.5 (net 34.8). Toney Clemons was the top KR (25.5) and Travon Patterson the top PR (8.3). The Buffs moved up to #83 despite their rash of injuries that caused depth issues on the coverage units. I'll call for CU to continue to move up in my ST rankings.

COACHES - Dan Hawkins led Boise St to 4 straight WAC Titles but couldn't produce the same success in Boulder. After barely surviving a 3-9 season in '09, Hawkins was replaced after a 3-6 start in '10. Brian Cabral served as interim HC (2-1) and has been retained as a LB cch and run gm coor. HC Jon Embree was a CU asst for 10 seasons ('93-'02) under Bill McCartney, Rick Neuheisel and Gary Barnett. Most recently he was an NFL TE cch for KC ('06-'08) and WAS ('09). Eric Bieniemy also returns to his alma mater and will handle the OC duties after being a RB cch in both the NFL (MIN, '06-'10) and college (UCLA, '03-'05). JD Brookhart begins his 1st year as offensive pass game coor/TE/ST coor and has 14 years college experience including 6 as HC at Akron ('04-'09) and was the OC at Pitt ('00-'03). DC Greg Brown spent last year as a co-DC at Arizona and was the DB cch here from 2006-'09.

PHIL'S FORECAST

After a stunning 3-8 season in 2000 (4 losses by 4 or less), I called Colorado a surprise National Title contender in my 2001 magazine. The Buffs finished the regular season 10-2 (#3) narrowly missing out on playing in the National Title game. They won the Big 12 North again in '02, '04 & '05. In '05 CU was 7-2 with their only losses coming to #12 Miami and #2 Texas but then gave up two 66 yd TD ret's (int & fmb) vs Iowa St and lost. Embarrassing blowouts followed to both Neb and Texas (Big 12 Title game) and HC Barnett was let go before the bowl loss to #23 Clemson. Coach Dan Hawkins was here for 5 seasons getting the Buffs to one bowl (lost) while going just 19-39 (5 losing years). CU had 4 losses by 8 or less in '09 and finished just 3-9 but Hawkins was kept around reportedly for financial reasons. Last year they made my Most Improved List meaning I thought they would become bowl eligible. The Buffs opened a solid 3-1 beating a Hawaii team that finished #24 (reg ssn) and upsetting Georgia 29-27. The Buffs had 3 agonizing losses which kept them from a bowl. They led Baylor 15-10 at half but lost by 6. They led TT 24-14 in the 3Q but lost on a 36 yd FG with 2:08 left. The most excruciating loss came vs Kansas. They led 35-10 at half and 45-17 with just over 11:00 left. KU scored the 2nd most points in the 4Q (35) to win a game in NCAA history pulling out a 52-45 win (BYU 36 vs WSU '90). Hawkins was fired and interim HC Brian Cabral guided them to wins over Iowa St and K-St but they lost at Nebraska and finishing 5-7. The Buffaloes have now lost 16 straight true road games (last win Oct '07 vs TT). Alum Jon Embree is now Colorado's 24th full-time HC. The Buffs do have 16 ret sFr's and join a new league in the Pac-12. CU had 2 net close losses last year but draw both Stanford and Oregon from the North and have five Pac-12 away games. With a new HC and a tough Pac-12 schedule not to mention difficult non-conf games vs Cal (previously scheduled and will not count in conf standings), Ohio St and Hawaii, the Buffs will not match 2010's five win total and this looks like a rebuilding year.

CU is 1-1 vs UH winning LY and losing 13-0 in their only trip to the islands but that was in 1925. CU has dropped 6 str "true" road openers by 20 ppg. CU is 0-2 S'97 when not opening the ssn vs CSU.

This is second of a home & home series previously scheduled so it is not a conference game. LY the Buffaloes imploded with 5 TO's all g 2 defensive TD's & TD drives of 19 & 31 yds.

HC Jon Embree was a '86 grad of CU & as a player went 2-1 vs rival CSU. CU has won the L3 gms at Invesco Field by an avg 15 ppg. LY CU took a 24-0 lead into the 4Q & DN allow CSU to penetrate the "redzone".

CU is 0-6 S'05 when on the road vs a non-conf/BCS school, avg score 33-14. CU's only win in this series came here in '71 (1st meeting, 1-3 overall). CU is 1-5 S'97 after CSU when on the road.

CU's 1st ever Pac-12 conf gm (CU went 12-28 L5Y in Big 12 play). CU was outFD'd 20-7 & outgained 402-125 in the L/gm ('04) but won 20-12 as they had 8 sks, a 51 yd IR TD & a blk'd punt for a TD.

Visitor has dropped 5 str in this series & CU has lost their only 2 trips to Stanford ('91 & '93). Both schools came in ranked in '93 (L/meeting). Buffs have dropped 13 str conf AG's by 18 ppg.

CU's last trip to Seattle was in '99, a 31-24 loss. CU was outgained 415-289 as they scored TD's on a 98 yd KR, 38 yd FR & 34 yd drive after int. CU was seeking revenge after HC Neuheisel left for UW after the '98 ssn.

The L3 meetings have all come in bowls including the most recent in the '01 Fiesta Bowl as #3 CU lost 38-16 to #2 UO. CU was outgained 500-328. Buffaloes are 61-30-5 on HC.

Colorado has dropped their only 2 previous meetings vs Arizona St ('06 & '07). CU had early leads in both games (3-0 & 14-0) before all g ASU to close the gm out on 21 & 33 unanswered.

USC is the only school with at least 4 all-time meetings Colorado has never beaten (0-5). In the L/gm ('02) CU was hammered 40-3 (in Boulder) being outFD'd 22-4 & outgained 425-61!

Buffs are 16-7 in Folsom Field finales since '87. CU is 12-1 in this series but the last win hosting UA was in 1960, 35-16. Into 2011, CU has won 2 str conf HG's but their last 3 gm streak was in '05.

CU is 2-4 vs UCLA (won last 2 meetings, '02 & '03). The L2 CU had an avg 24-17 FD & 358-264 yd edges.

This will mark the 58th meeting with Utah (CU 30-24-3) but the 1st since 1962. CU lost 37-21 in Salt Lake City. From 1902-'47 these schools played in the same conf (CO FB Assoc, RMAC & MSAC).

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 BIG EAST FORECAST

1. PITTSBURGH - HC Todd Graham steps into a great situation. Pitt has my #1 rated defense in the league and Graham will get the most out of an offense that has talent. Pitt was +94.9 ypg in conf play (2nd best) has one of the top 3 offenses in the Big East. Pitt has 4 BE HG's including a Thursday night in Sept when they host USF. I am forecasting a tie for the BE Title but Pitt will hold the tie-breaker and that would put them into a BCS bowl.

1. USF - USF does return just 11 starters which is the 2nd fewest in the league and has gone just 8-13 in BE play the last 3 years. They also only have 3 BE HG's (4 AG's) but there are a lot of factors pointing upward this season. USF is among the most talented teams athletically in the conf and they only lose 15 lettermen which is the fewest in the league. Holtz always gets the most out of the talent on hand and this is arguably the most talent he's had to work with as a HC. USF has never had less than 3 losses in BE play since joining in 2005, but I will call for that to happen this year.

3. WEST VIRGINIA - WV was the best team in the Big East LY as proven by their +116.7 ypg in league play and finished as the Big East co-Champs. They fumbled at the 1 in OT vs Conn losing by 3 and that game would have given them the outright title. They figure to have their most explosive offense S/07 with Dana Holgorsen and QB Geno Smith at the controls. The D will be good but is a ? with just 4 st's back (ret 9 st's LY). WV will be the only BE team that will be ranked in the preseason and while this pick might appear low. WV has to face 2 of the top 3 BE teams on the road including USF on a short week after the Backyard Brawl. This team is very capable of winning the Big East Title but the schedule and my main set of power ratings has me picking them here. I still respect them enough to make them one of my Surprise Teams (page 20).

3. CINCINNATI - For a good portion of April I thought I was going to pick the Bearcats #1 in the Big East. They have a lot of factors pointing to improvement as they are in the 2nd yr under HC Butch Jones and teams show great improvement in year 2. They were -15 in TO's last year (see pg 312). They went from a record of 23-4 in '08 and '09 to just 4-8 LY and despite their 2-5 Big East record LY were actually +36.4 ypg in conf play and that includes the final game of the season which they mailed in and were outgained by 165 yards (+70 ypg prior). They have 15 returning st's which is 2nd most in the BE and make my Most Improved List but they must travel to both Pitt and USF. The top 4 BE tms are all legitimate conf title contenders.

Big East Notes: Since the ACC raided the Big East of 3 of its best teams the league has performed better than my expectations in most years. In '06 they actually had the best record vs other AQ conf's at 12-6 and then went 5-0 in the bowls. In '07, six of the 8 tms were ranked at some point. In '08, 6 of their 8 teams made it to a bowl game and those teams went 4-2. In '09 they had the 2nd best record vs other AQ confs at 7-7 and after going 4-2 (no wins vs rank tms) in the bowls had a 4 year bowl record of 16-6 which was the best. They did go from 27 draft picks down to 18. Last year they had 3 new HC's and surprisingly only rookie HC Charlie Strong improved his teams record taking the Cards from 4-8 to a bowl gm despite just 12 ret starters. This year there are 2 new HC's at Pittsburgh (Graham) and Connecticut (Pasqualoni). Last year they once again had the 2nd

5. CONNECTICUT - Randy Edsall knew when to step out. In '07 Conn won a share of the Big East Title despite being -83.2 (2nd worst) ypg in conf action. LY they were the luckiest team in the country and rolled that fortune to a BCS bowl. In BE play, Conn was -86.1 ypg but finished 5-2. This BCS bowl team returns 16 st's and gets 4 BE HG's, but I will call for a drop in the standings as they were +12 in turnovers, had 2 net close wins, were 2nd worst in the Big East ypg and go through a coaching change. Check out the unit rankings on the right hand page and you'll see that the Huskies have my #8 rank on 3 of the 4 offensive positions. Obviously, this will be a defense-oriented team. This still should be a successful season for Conn but I predict a lower half finish in the Big East standings despite the 4 HG's.

6. RUTGERS - Thanks to a late season collapse, Rutgers finished last at -131.6 ypg in BE play and in '09 was -82.7 ypg which was the 2nd worst. While RU has 4 BE HG's, unfortunately they are vs the top 4 teams in the league meaning their 3 winnable games vs the lower half of the conf are all on the road. I like this Rutgers team and their talent and my main set of power ratings calls them the 5th best team in the league. The schedule has me calling them 6th but this is a team clearly capable of surprising and has added a lot of talent this year.

6. LOUISVILLE - LY Louisville had 27 seniors and this year that total drops to 12. Charlie Strong did a phenomenal job in his first season guiding the team to a bowl and a victory. This year they have just 10 ret st's which is the fewest in the league and lose 22 lettermen (39.3%). They do have an excellent ST unit and one of the top back 7's on defense and get to host both Syr and Rutgers. This clearly looks like a rebuilding year but Strong is one upset away from getting them back to the post season.

8. SYRACUSE - It's very tough for me to put Syr here. HC Doug Marrone has overachieved my expectations in each of his first 2 years. I don't think anyone saw 8 wins coming from LY's squad which had a record of 14-45 over the previous 5 years and had not won 8 games since 2001. LY's Syr squad was still short on scholarships but this year Marrone has 82 scholarship players but unfortunately my defense ratings have them #8 in all 3 categories. With a manageable non-conf slate, Syr could open 5-1 but most of their winnable Big East games are on the road which has me calling for them to finish here.

best record vs AQ conf's at 9-9 and went 4-2 in the bowls. No bowl wins came vs ranked tms but 3 of the bowl wins were vs AQ Conf schools. The best team LY in conf ypg was West Virginia at +117 with Pitt #2 at +95 ypg. Connecticut got to a BCS bowl game despite being -86 ypg benefitting from good fortune. The Big East did not have any ranked teams at season's end with WV having the best overall record at 9-4. The league had four 1,000 yd rushers LY and while they lose 4 they have all of the top 6 QB's back. They avg 44.2 ppg in league games. Cincy, Pitt and WV all tie for the best record over the past 3 yrs at 15-6. WV has ten 1st Tm All Big East players on my preseason team, but I pick them tied for 3rd due to their tough schedule. They add TCU to the mix in 2012 which will just add credibility to the league.

PITTSBURGH PANTHERS

WR Devin Street

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In mid-Aug '09, Wannstedt said the QB job was a 3-way battle between returnees PS#25 Bill Stull (2356, 57%, 9-10 in '08), Pat Bostick (PS#9) who started 8 in '07 (1,500, 62%, 8-13) with 1 st in '08, and Tino Sunseri (PS#29). Stull won the job and had a much better year than expected (2,633, 65%, 21-8). Bostick RS and Sunseri played in 5 (114, 59%, 2-0). Sunseri was the clear-cut st'r in '10 and while he struggled early, he improved midseason incl 272 vs ND, 281 with 4 td's vs Syr and 307 vs Rutgers. He threw for 2,572 (64.5%, 16-9). Bostick played in 4 (44 yds). This year Sunseri must learn a new offense and added to the mix are frosh Anthony Gonzalez (PS#28) and Mark Myers (PS#125). This unit is much more exp'd and even with the coaching change, they will put up much bigger numbers in the new QB friendly system.

RUNNING BACKS - LeSean McCoy (PS#8, 210 lbs) had B2B 1,000 yd seasons in '07 & '08. In '09 the top 3 departed and the ret RB's had a comb'd 49 yds on 17 att's. Wannstedt again turned it over to a freshman. True frosh Dion Lewis had a phenomenal ssn and was 2nd Tm AA. He rushed for 1,799 (5.5) eclipsing McCoy's BE frosh record. True frosh Ray Graham (PS#31) rushed for just 349 but 5.7 ypc in '09, and Wannstedt called him the star of the spg in '10. FB Henry Hynoski (PS#31) was a solid blk'r who rushed for 107 (4.5) with 109 (7.3) rec yds in '09. All 3 ret'd in '10 and while Lewis was a hard-nosed inside runner, Graham was fast and shifty. Graham led in rushing the majority of the yr and finished with 922 (6.2) including 277 vs FIU which was the 2nd highest total in Pitt history (Tony Dorsett 303 vs ND '75). Lewis seemed to get better the more carries he received and had a career high 261 yds on 42 carries vs Cincy and finished #1 with 1,061 (4.8). Lewis (#5DC PHI) and Hynoski left early leaving Graham as the only scholarship RB this spg. While Graham will have a fine year, I don't think the top 2 RB's will combine for 1,983 (5.4) like they did LY.

RECEIVERS - Under former HC Walt Harris, Pitt was gaining the reputation of "WR U" as they had a WR lead the BE in receiving 7 times in 8 yrs (1997-'04). In '08 Derek Kinder led Pitt with just 422 (11.7) and had to be replaced in '09 (#7DC) as did their #3 rec. The leading returnee was 6'5" Jon Baldwin (PS#15, 4.37 spd). Baldwin only finished #2 with 404 but had an impressive 22.4 ypc as a true in '08. As expected, Baldwin had a much bigger year in '09 (#3 BE) with 1,111 (19.5). Dorin Dickerson (PS#8) had played RB, WR and LB before moving to TE. Dickerson earned 1st Tm AA with 529 (10.8) and 10 td's. Solid blocking TE Nate Byham (PS#2) had 108 (10.8). Oderick Turner (6'3", PS#97) was #3 (227, 10.8) and 6'5" rfr Mike Shanahan was #4 (211, 14.1). LY they lost Byham (12 st, #6DC), Dickerson (8 st, #7DC) and Turner (10 st). The unit struggled early with a young QB and improved some when 6'4" Devin Street was used more in the Dickerson-type role (although still WR). Baldwin led with 822 (15.5). Shanahan emerged with some great catches and was #2 with 589 (13.7). Street finished #3 with 318 (12.7). This year Baldwin left early for the NFL (#1DC KC) while TE Mike Cruz (213, 11.2) left the team in spring. WR Brendon Felder (PS#96) is transferring from UNC and is applying for immediate eligibility. Even with the loss of their top guy, this unit could come close to last year's production.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 Pitt had a veteran O-line with 4 st's back and as you would expect, improved to 180 ypg rush (4.9) while trimming the sk total to 15 (4.4%). LY they had to replace 3 multi-yr st's, but returned two 1st Tm BE caliber OT's. The numbers dipped a little to 166 ypg rush (4.6) with 23 sks (6.4%). This year they lose C Alex Karabin (13 st) and 1st Tm BE LT Jason Pinkston (13 st, 3Y st'r, #5DC CLE). Lucas Nix started 13 at RT in '09 and moved to RG after 3 sts LY so they have 3 full-time st's back. Even though they are learning a new system and losing their top guy, this is a more exp'd group.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 Pitt had 4 back who had been full-time st's (lost 1 st'r) and I called it the best DL in Wannstedt's 5Y. They did not disappoint allowing 106 ypg rush (3.3) with an FBS high 47 sks (36 by DL). LY they had to replace 2 st's then star DE Greg Romeus played in just 2 (in, 8 sks '09, 0 '10). Surprisingly Pitt dropped to 120 ypg rush (3.5) with 34 sks. Wannstedt was high on his 4 frosh signees in TJ Clemmings, Bryan Murphy, Aaron Donald and Khaynin Mosley-Smith calling them the DL of the future. Jabaal Sheard earned BE DPOY and DE Lindsey led the BE in tfl (17.5). DE Justin Hargrove was the surprise of Aug but only had 1 sk. TY they lose DE Sheard (12 st, #6 tkl'r, 9 sk, #2DC CLE), DE Romeus (2 st, 7 tkl, #7DC NO), DE Nate Nix (12 tkl) and NT Tyler Tkach (1 st, 5 tkl). Three st's return to the new 3 man front and despite the loss of 2 stars, the unit could be stronger as it is more experienced.

LINEBACKERS - Pitt actually has had two FWAA AA LB's in the last 5 yrs in HB Blades ('06) and Scott McKillop ('08). In '09 they had to replace 2 st's (#1 and #2 tkl'r). They ret'd 1 st'r and an '07 st'r who missed '08. True frosh Dan Mason earned BE DPOY in his first start and Pitt allowed just 19.8 ppg. LY they had to replace 1st Tm BE MLB Adam Gunn (#3 tkl'r) but ret'd their #1 and #2 tkl'r's as well as Mason. The unit had produced a 1st Tm BE MLB 5 straight yrs heading into '10 but MLB Mason dislocated his kneecap in Sept. Max Gruder shifted to MLB (#2 tkl'r) and Pitt allowed just 19.0 ppg. This year the top 7 LB's return incl their #2, #3 and #9 tkl'r's as well as Mason. This should be one of the BE's best LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Pitt ranked in the top 3 of the NCAA in ypg pass D twice in Wannstedt's 6 yrs. In '09 Pitt had 7 of the top 8 back (4 VHT). Surprisingly, they only finished #43 in my PDR (light side opp) but did snag 15 int's. LY they had to replace a 1st Tm BE CB Aaron Berry, their other starting CB and a S (6 st). I thought that despite the losses they would move up in my PDR and that they did to #28 despite SS Dom DeCicco having to start 4 at LB due to attrition. This year the Panthers lose CB Ricky Gary (13 st, 34 tkl, 6 pd) and 1st Tm BE DeCicco (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 5 int) but return 6 of the top 8 incl 2nd Tm BE FS Jarred Holley (PS#31). They have 41 starts returning (44 in '10), so they are nearly as experienced as last year.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Pitt was #13 in my ST rankings in '06 then #55, #29 and #66 the next 3Y. The unit ret'd intact LY and Dan Hutchins was 1 of 10 semi's for the Ray Guy Award. After punts of 50 and 56, he shanked punts of 15 and 29 vs Conn. Hutchins hit 18-25 FG's but was 2-6 from 40+ (6-13 career) although he made 60 yd FG's in practice. He improved from a 41.1 punt avg to 44.8 and his net from 34.5 to an outstanding 39.8 (#6 FBS). Kevin Harper (PS#17) had 11 TB on 70 KO. Cameron Saddler (20.9 KR & 10.5 PR) shared duties with Ray Graham (21.8 KR). They moved up to #52 in '10 but with the loss of Hutchins' punting ability they figure to drop some this year.

COACHES - Dave Wannstedt was the HC here for 6 seasons and despite 3 straight bowls and 26 wins in his final 3Y (most here S#1-83) he was forced out. Mike Haywood was hired but fired 16 days later after legal troubles. Pitt turned to Todd Graham who was 36-17 as Tulsa's HC the L4Y. Graham spent 1 yr as Rice's HC ('06, 7-6) and was the Tulsa DC ('03-'05). The co-OC's are Calvin Magee who was the OC at Mich ('07-'10) and WV ('05-'07) and Mike Norvell (Tulsa '07-'10) who served as the pass gm coor for Graham the L2Y. DC Keith Patterson has been at Tulsa the last 8 ssns and was the co-DC the last 5 years. He will share duties with co-DC Paul Randolph (L4Y Tulsa).

PHIL'S FORECAST

The Pittsburgh coaching changes have been unusual. Walt Harris went to bowls in each of his final 5 yrs and in his final ssn, they won the Big East Title (Fiesta Bowl) despite having just 9 ret st's. He was forced out and Dave Wannstedt took over. In Wannstedt's 2nd season they avg'd 31.8 ppg, their best since 1981 but still finished just 6-6. Wannstedt was on his way out in his 3rd yr but upset #2 WV knocking them out of the National Title game and they finished 5-7 securing him another yr. In '08 the Panthers made my Most Improved List and had their first winning season under Wannstedt going 9-4. In '09 six of my sets of power ratings called for them to have a DD win ssn and that they did at 10-3 (1st 10 win yr S#81) and it could have been even better. The WV game was meaningless as a BCS bowl berth relied on what they did vs Cincy. In that UC gm they led 31-10 but lost by 1. LY they were the preseason Big East favorites (22 of 24 votes) and were ranked #15. I did not have them in my Top 25 as they had benefitted from +10 in TO's in '09, had just 11 ret st's (last in BE) and only had 7 sts lost to inj in '09, plus just 3 BE HG's. Wannstedt called it the youngest tm in his 6 yrs. Pitt opened with a very good Utah team on the road and lost by a FG in OT, making it their 6th straight time they lost by a td or less. After beating NH they were manhandled by Miami on a Thurs night. They only led FIU 23-17 in the 4Q before getting 3 late td's to win 44-17. They did have 3 drives inside the ND20 result in 3 pts (miss FG, bad snap on FG) and lost despite a 382-329 yd edge. They throttled Syr on the road. After pummeling Rutgers (513-203 yd edge), they appeared on their way to an outright BE Title with a 20-3 win over L'ville. They were 3-0 and the two BE lms with 1 loss were tms that Pitt had beaten. They led Conn 21-13 in the 3Q but UC scored 10 pts in :48 and ended up losing by 2. After beating USF on the road, they were done in by -4 in TO's vs WV and even with a 20-13 FD edge, lost by 25. They beat Cincy in the snow 28-10 gaining a share of the BE Title then surprisingly Wannstedt was let go. In the bowl the players dedicated the game to Wannstedt and they dominated Kentucky 27-10 to finish 8-5 and their +94.9 ypg in Big East play was 2nd best. They have the best mark in ypg over the last 2 yrs. Pitt did have 2 net close losses and has 4 Big East home games (8 HG's overall) and Todd Graham steps into a great situation with 13 ret st's. Graham piloted my Most Improved Team in the country last year (Tulsa) and they went from 5-7 to 10-3. Pitt has my #1 rated D in the Big East and their offense will be much more potent in Graham's system. I pick Pitt for the Big East Title and a BCS bowl berth.

Pitt is 2-0 vs UB incl a 54-27 win in their last game '09). It was a misleading final as Pitt took advantage of 4 TO's getting a total of just 39/5pl for 28 pts. Panthers are 12-2 in home openers.

First meeting, Black Bears went 4-7 LY including a 38-14 win at Syracuse getting outgained 338-195. Pitt is 10-0 vs FCS teams since 1988 winning by an avg of 43-13.

Pitt is 3-1 vs Iowa but only recent game was a 21-20 win in '08. Pitt is 5-12 their L17 road openers & have lost 3 str non-conf regn sgm games away by 7, 3 & 6 pts.

LY down 6 Pitt had the ball w/3:15 left & again w/1:37 but their 4th & pass was inc ending any chance at the comeback. In the 1H Pitt had 3 drives reach the ND9, 10 & 19 but came away w/3 tll pts.

Pitt has won 3 str in this series incl LY when they broke a 10-10 tie w/a 22 yd TD run on the 1st play of the 4Q. They held USF to 2 punts and then got an int at their own 20 as time exp.

Pitt has won 82B gms vs RU after dropping a series high 4 str. In the L/gm in New Brunswick Pitt erased an early 7-0 RU lead (off TO) to score 24 of the gms next 27 pts. Pitt is 9-3 (L12) in BE AG's.

Pitt has dropped both prior gms vs Utah. LY Pitt came back 2 separate times down DD's in the 2H to force OT. Incl LY's loss vs Miami into 2011 Pitt is 3-6 when hosting a non-conf/BCS opp.

LY: Grahnam led a Tulsa squad that beat ND 28-27 (ND was in'd in the EZ from the T36 w/36 left). Bonus: Pitt will play a record 8 HG's TY at Heinz Field. Into 2011, Pitt has won 7 of their L9 BE HG's.

HT is 5-2. LY Pitt led 21-20 w/just over 7 min left but allowed 10 pts in 48 sec (fum KR). Pitt still had a chance as UC was facing 4&1 from their 19 (2:30 to go) but converted on a 4-yd run.

Panthers are 8-2 vs the Bearcats. LY Pitt snapped a 2 gm series losing streak. They led 14-0 (never trailed) pulling the 2H shutout in the snow holding UC to just 75 yds (3.3 ypp) and 5 FD's.

Pitt has won 3 str vs UL after opening 0-3 as conf members. In the Panthers last visit to Louisville they trailed 10-7 at HT but outscored the Cardinals 28-0 in the 2H holding them to 96 yds.

West Virginia: Pittsburgh is 3-6 vs West Virginia & 1-3 in Morgantown since 2002 but they have split their L2. HC Grahnam was on the WV coaching staff in '01 & '02 (co-DC/S/LB).

In '2009 Pitt lost as WV kicked a 43 yd FG as time expired (Pitt was BE "Title game" on deck).

Pitt won 6 str vs Syr by 16 ppg. LY Pitt led 35-7 into the 4Q as SU gained 31% (96) of their yds in the 4Q.

USF BULLS

LB Sam Barrington

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Matt Grothe (PS#55) started as a rF and finished as the #2 career passer here. He would have been #1 but after breaking the BE career record for tll off (Pat White WV 10,875) he tore his ACL in gm 3 of '09. Rf BJ Daniels (PS#76) took over and had a roller coaster yr at QB. In Daniels' first start he threw for 215 (126 rush) and led the upset of Fla St. He alternated good and bad gms and in USF's losses hit 48% (126 ypg, 2-7 ratio) with 262 rush. Daniels finished with 1,983 (54%, 14-9) and accounted for 58% of USF's off despite not starting until Wk 4 and was the #1 rusher (772, 4.4). LY the bkp was walk-on Bobby Eveld (PS#200). Daniels once again had his moments with his worst being key int's just before the half vs Fla and WV which set up td's, that changed the momentum of each gm. Daniels threw for 1,685 (58.4%). He started the yr with a 4-10 ratio but rebounded with a 7-3 ratio after that and was bowl MVP. He rushed for 259 (2.3) despite a lingering quad inj. Daniels was inj'd in the 2H vs Miami and Eveld guided the victory. Holtz said Eveld did a great job running the scout tm vs the #1's in practice and was not surprised. Eveld made his first career st vs Conn and hit 22-41-195 (1-3). In 7 gms he completed 56% (2 rush yds). Not in the PSL are Ryan Eppes (6'1" 210 So) and Brandon Smith (6'0" 195 rF). I look for much improved QB play in the 2nd yr of Holtz's system.

RUNNING BACKS - From '06-'09 this unit was hit by inj's and lacked production. The leading RB rusher in '06 had 436 (3.6), '07 645 (4.7), '08 407 (4.0) and '09 581 (4.5). Moise Plancher was the top rusher in '09 and was awarded a 6th yr and he managed to play in all 13. In '09 Plancher snapped a 16 gm USF streak without a 100 yd rusher (vs WKU). LY 2 bkps quit and Demetris Murray (PS#90) who had 77 (5.5) in '09 emerged and had 115 vs WKU and 106 (8.2) vs L'ville and finished #2 with 542 (4.5). True frosh Marcus Shaw (PS#69) had 105 (8.8) and rF Bradley Battles (5'8" 203 So, PS#66) had 52 (4.3). TY they add Dontae Aycock (PS#51) who signed at Auburn in '09 and VHT Darrell Scott (PS#1) who had 438 yds (4.0) in 2 yrs at Colo. Not in the PSL are JJ Peterson (5'10" 191 Sr) and Willie Davis (5'9" 195 Fr, PS#70). TY they lose their top guy, Plancher (793, 4.5) and FB Richard Kelly (7 st, 38 yds rush) but have only had 3 RB's surpass 700 yds (Plancher, Andre Hall 2Y '04-'05 and Rafael Williams '00). I predict USF will have their most productive leading rusher since Andre Hall's 1,374 in '05.

RECEIVERS - Jim Leavitt's receiving corps were usually filled with size and spd. Carlton Mitchell who is 6'4" and set a school record in the 400M (47.28) led in rec in '07 and '09 (706, 17.7). LY they had to replace Mitchell (#6DC) as well as their #5, #6 and #7 rec's but appeared to be in good shape. Unfortunately their #2 rec, AJ Love (489, 18.8) tore his ACL in April. Sterling Griffin (#4, 265, 18.9 '09) dislocated his ankle and also RS. That meant just 1 of the top 6 was back and that was Dontavia Bogan. He suffered an ankle injury missing some time but still led with 685 (14.6). Holtz called the unit "the land of the misfit toys" as 3 of the top guys were moved from other positions. Former QB Evan Landi who Daniels calls "Sure Hands Landi" was #2 with 390 (13.9). Lindsey Lamar who was one of the Top 5 HS sprinters in the country was #3 (161, 6.4) and 5'6" Faron Hornes was #5 with (135, 12.3). This year they lose Bogan and TE Kevin Gidrey (11 st, 8 rec). Not listed in the PSL are Victor Marc (5'10" 208 Jr, PS#59, 1 rec last year), Jordan Duval (6'3" 213 rF), TE Jake Carlton (6'3" 220 rF) and Derrick Hopkins (5'5" 155 So). Despite the loss of the top guy, this is a much more exp'd unit with the ret of Love and Griffin.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 this unit was a major question mark as they went from having 87 car sts in '08 to just 32 (#106 FBS in '09). Three JC OT's DNQ which set the unit back. Thanks to mobile QB BJ Daniels (772 rush) they still avg 171 ypg rush (4.4) but all'd 38 sks (12.8%). LY 4 st's were back. The unit maintained good health with 4 OL starting all 13 but with Daniels' rush yds down to 259 (2.3), USF avg just 145 ypg (3.9) but did trim the sks to 26. TY they lose 1st Tm BE C Sampson Genus (13 st, 2Y st'r), 2nd Tm BE RT Jake Sims (13 st, 3Y st'r) and LT Jamar Bass (9 st, 2Y st'r). New LT Mark Popek has 9 career sts and while less exp'd with just 2 st's back, they are in the 2nd yr of Holtz's offense and could be more productive.

DEFENSIVE LINE - USF is always tough vs the rush with their 'worst' showings in FBS ball being 3.9 ypc which they all'd in both '05 and '09. In '08 a George Selvie-led DL all'd just 95 ypg rush (2.8). In '09 they had 3 st's back incl Selvie and added PS#3JC Jason Pierre-Paul. Surprisingly the rush D slipped to 135 ypg (3.9) and the D had just 25 sks. LY they had to replace 1st Tm BE DE Selvie (#7DC), Pierre-Paul (#1DC) and a DT (6 st). Despite being less exp'd, the unit improved to 126 ypg (3.5) with 30 sks. TY they lose DE Craig Marshall (8 st, #10 tkl'r, 9 fl, 1 int), 1st Tm BE DT Terrell McClain (13 st, 24 tkl, 3 sk, #3DC CAR) and DE David Bedford (13 st, 38 tkl, 1 sk, 1 int). I look for a bigger impact from DE Ryne Giddins (PS#7) who had 2 sts as a rF after rec from ankle surj in '09. This group is just as exp'd as '10 and is now in the 2nd yr of Holtz's system.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 USF had to replace their #1 tkl'r (#3DC) and had just 1 st'r back PS#22JC Kion Wilson. Wilson was outstanding (1st Tm BE, #1 tkl'r) and USF all'd just 19.8 ppg. LY they had to replace 2 st's in Wilson and their #4 tkl'r. Former HC Leavitt said that Sam Barrington was the best true frosh LB in USF history (1 st, 41 tkl) and that incl players like Ben Moffitt, Kawika Mitchell and Stephen Nicholas. Sabbath Joseph (5'11" 191 So) was the lone ret st'r. Perhaps the most physically gifted LB was PS#14JC Jacquian Williams (28 tkl '09). Barrington had a couple of shoulder inj's and then a couple of off field incidents. He became the st'r in Wk 2 and finished as the #3 tkl'r. TY they lose 2nd Tm BE SLB Williams (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 11 fl, #6DC NYG), Joseph (1 st, #6 tkl'r, 6 fl) and Donte Spires (9 tkl). DeDe Lattimore beat out Joseph for one LB spot and finished as the #2 tkl'r. They basically had zero st's back LY and this year return 2 plus add JUCO Mike Jeune and should be stronger.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '06 and '07 USF had the best CB combo in the NCAA and their 2 shutdown corners all'd USF to blitz often. USF was #21 and #7 in my PDR with an amazing 23 int in '07. In '08 those 2 departed (#1, #5DC) and USF dropped to #49. In '09 they had to replace two st's and were #41. LY they had to replace 2 st's (#2, #3 DC's). Mistral Raymond (2nd Tm BE) emerged as their top DB but did miss 2 sts. Early in the yr, Holtz was reluctant to pull starting FS Jerrell Young and SS Jon Lejiste off the field as he was worried that bkp frosh Mark Joyce and JaQuez Jenkins were not ready. True Fr Joyce st'd vs L'ville when Young was inj'd and finished with 33 tkl and 1 int on the yr. The less exp'd unit dropped to #56, their lowest finish S/'04. TY they lose CB Raymond (11 st, 56 tkl, 8 pd #6DC MIN) but this time have 7 of their top 8 back incl 3rd Tm BE SS Lejiste, and the Bulls should make significant strides.

SPECIAL TEAMS - USF has had some top-notch ST finishes like #17 in my ST rankings in '01, #14 in '02 and #9 in '03. Surprisingly they dropped to #58, #55, #97, #78, #56 and in '09 plummeted to #102. They lost starting K Bonani (inj) prior to '09 and the tm had just 4 TB on 67 KO and Delbert Alvarado's net punting dropped to 34.6. KR Dontavia Bogan also saw his avg drop (26.6 to 21.4). LY almost everyone ret'd. K Schwartz hit 11-16 FG (L50) in '09 but missed from 26 and 46 yds vs WKU and hit 1-5. Bonani ret'd and hit an outstanding 17-21 FG's (2 misses 52 yd). He had 6 TB's on 48 KO's. P Justin Brockhaus-Kann started off the ssn so well that Holtz jokingly referred to him as "Gus the kicking mule". He cooled off incl 26 and 18 yd punts in windy conditions vs L'ville but was Big East STPW vs Mia (10, 41.0). He only avg 37.6 (34.2 net). KR Lindsey Lamar (26.6, 2 td) was BE STPOY and tms kicked away from him. USF avg'd 11.5 on PR's. USF was only #67 but this yr with everyone back this should be one of the BE's top ST units.

COACHES - Skip Holtz was very successful at EC (38-27) incl B2B CUSA Titles finishing 9-5 in '08 and '09. He faces his former tm Connecticut (HC '94-'98) yearly now. Todd Fitch followed Holtz from EC and has now been his OC for 7 seasons (EC '07-'09, Conn '96-'98). The DC is Mark Snyder who was the HC of Marshall for 5 yrs (23-37 record). He was also Ohio St's LB cch from '01-'03 and their DC in '04.

PHIL'S FORECAST

USF didn't play their first football gm until '97 and was guided by Jim Leavitt throughout their history. They joined the Big East in '05 and did not have a losing ssn in that span although in Leavitt's final 2Y they were just 5-9 in Big East play. In '07 they rose as high as #2 at 6-0 but finished 9-4. The next yr they rose to #10 at 5-0 but finished 8-5 (-8 in TO's). In '09 they lost star QB Grothe to inj and BJ Daniels' first start was a 17-7 upset of Fla St but they ran hot and cold and USF finished just 8-5. I was high on USF LY as Holtz gets the most out of his talent having bagged B2B CUSA Titles despite not having the most gifted players and he inherited a USF squad that had underachieved. Holtz guided the tm to their 6th str bowl and ended 4 gm losing streaks to Cincy and Rutgers. They led Florida 7-0 late in the 1H when BJ Daniels threw a crucial int that turned the gm around. At 3-1 they were upset at home by Syr. The next wk Daniels threw another int just before the half putting WV up 17-3, a key play in the loss which dropped them to 3-3. After beating UC, Rut and L'ville to move to 6-3 they lost to Pitt at home by a td. The next wk they upset Miami on the road but with Daniels inj'd and out, they had a 333-232 yd edge vs Conn but lost on a 52 yd FG with 17 left. They had their 3rd str conf losing ssn at 3-4 and their -43.3 ypg was the 3rd worst mark. They beat Clem 31-26 in the bowl to finish at 8 wins for the 3rd str yr. Holtz is now in his 2nd ssn but has just 11 ret st's and only 3 BE HG's. This is still a very talented tm and they only lose 15 lettermen (fewest BE). Two of my 9 sets of power ratings call for 11 wins, and I will call for them to top last year's 8 win total.

WEST VIRGINIA MOUNTAINEERS

DE Bruce Irvin

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Pat White was arguably the most exciting player in college football from 2005-'08. He became the first QB in NCAA history to win 4 bowls as a starter and set the NCAA record for career QB rush yds (4,480). In '09 they had to replace White (#2DC MIA) who set 25 WV or NCAA records. Jarrett Brown suffered a concussion midseason and was not the same after that and threw for 2,144 (63%, 11-9, 466 rush). Geno Smith (PS#4) had a huge 4th & 10 conv vs Marshall guiding WV to the win and in 5 gms threw for 309 (65%, 1-1). He also played the 2H of the bowl. LY the job was Smith's in spring. Coley White (PS#116) wanted to move to WR but when Smith broke his foot, White had to take every QB snap for the 1st, 2nd and 3rd team during live team drills as both bkps were true frosh and not IFS. Smith ret'd in fall and had a fine year statistically throwing for 2,763 (64.8%, 24-7) which was WV's 2nd highest single season passing tll behind Mark Bulger (3,607 in '98) but was only the #4 rusher, the lowest for a WV QB since 2000. It was revealed after the season that Smith played all yr with a broken foot. He had 3 of his 7 int's vs Syr costing them the game. The new bkps are true frosh Brian Athey (PS#107) and Paul Millard (PS#130). Smith is in line for a big year in new OC Dana Holgorsen's offense (3 of last 6 QB's had 5,000 tll yds).

RUNNING BACKS - In 2006 Steve Slaton broke WV's single season rushing record (Avon Cobourne, 1,710 in '02) with 1,744 (7.0). In '07 Slaton shared carries with Noel Devine and his numbers dropped to 1,051 (5.0). Devine avg 8.6 ypc ('02). Slaton moved on to the NFL (#3DC) and Devine led in '08 with 1,289 (6.3). Devine has a 41" VL (435 lb bench, 4.3 spd). In '09 they needed a powerback and added Ryan Clarke who had 250 (4.2). Devine had an injury plagued season but still rushed for 1,465 (6.1). True frosh Tavon Austin (PS#15) only had 47 (7.8) and Shawne Alston (PS#141) added 18. Devine ret'd in '10 and was on his way to a big season but suffered a bruised right toe vs LSU and was not the same afterwards. He only had 934 (4.5) and was the #5 rec and departs as WV's career all-purp yd leader (5,761). Clarke had 291 (3.6) and Alston 248 (4.4). Austin moved to WR and had 161 (10.1). Not in the PSL are Nate Majnaric (5'11" 220 Jr) and BB's (blk back) Ricky Kovatch (6'1" 234 Sr) and Eric Rollman (6'2" 250 So). This year Devine departs. While they lose an outstanding RB and switch to a more pass-happy offense, this year's group could come close to Devine's injury-plagued numbers and true frosh Andrew Buie (PS#34) could win the job.

RECEIVERS - In 2009 the explosive 5'7" Jock Sanders led with 688 (9.6) while converted QB 6'3" Brad Starks was #3 with 405 (14.0). They had to replace their #2 and #4 rec last year but moved in RB Tavon Austin (PS#15). Austin led with 787 (13.6) and Sanders added 728 (10.6). Sanders tied the school record (Khorl Ivy 1997-'00) with a rec in 41 straight games and departs as the school's career rec's leader (206). Starks tied a school record with 3 td rec vs UNLV but was just #3 with 317 (16.7). This year they lose Sanders (11 st) and TE Will Johnson (9 rec). With Austin staying at WR and the new offense, I expect vastly improved numbers as Holgorsen always has a receiver with 100+ rec's.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Having a mobile QB always helps the OL stats but WV outdid themselves in '06 with 303 ypg rush & 6.7 ypc! In '07 they lost longtime OL coach Rick Trickett to Fla St as well as a 1st Tm AA C and a 1st Tm BE OG. WV still avg'd 297 ypg (6.2) with 13 sks (4.9%). In '08 the line ret'd intact. Partly due to Stewart wanting to get more passing into the offense, the rushing numbers dropped to 210 ypg (5.3) with 18 sks (5.9%). In '09 they had to replace 4 multi-yr st's (1st and 2nd Tm BE). As you would expect they dropped even further to 186 ypg (4.8) with 24 sks (6.9%), the most allowed since '01. LY they had to replace a #7DC but had 9 of the top 10 back. Surprisingly the unit only opened holes for 160 ypg (3.9, 27 sks). This year they must shift schemes in the new offense but do have a veteran unit (82% of snaps return). The only losses are 3rd Tm BE RG Eric Jobe (13 st, 2Y st'r) and OT Matt Timmerman (1st, 13 gm, 114 snaps). This unit should stop 4 yrs of declining numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - WV usually has a tough run D and their worst season in the previous 6 yrs was '08 when they allowed 132 ypg rush (3.6). The DL was banged up in '09 and they yielded 127 ypg (3.7). Scooter Berry played the '09 season despite needing shoulder surgery (had it after the ssn). He missed the spring so he was finally 100% in fall '10. LY the unit ret'd intact and they added PS#5JC Bruce Irvin (16 sk at JC in '09). WV had zero sks the first 2 gms but then Irvin caught fire and finished with 14 (#3 best WV) despite sharing time at DE with Julian Miller (9 sk). WV allowed just 86 ypg rush (2.7) which was their best since 1996 and their 45 sks (#3 FBS LY) were the highest in my records. This year WV loses 1st Tm BE NT Chris Neild (13 st, 35 tkl, 3 sk, #7DC WAS), 2nd Tm BE DT Scooter Berry (13 st, 35 tkl, 4 sk) and DL Larry Ford (1 tkl). Miller and Irvin combined for 23 of the DL's 30 sks and while this unit is clearly less exp'd and loses a couple of quality players, it should still be one of the best in the Big East.

LINERACKERS - WV plays a 3-3 stack D but I limit the secondary outlook to 4 positions and include the Bandit with the LB's. The starting BS in '06 moved to LB in '07. LY they had to replace 2 st's but moved SS Sidney Glover to Bandit so it was like having 3 st's back. Pat Lazear was injured and started just 2 gms (13 st '09) and Anthony Leonard filled in and earned my 2nd Tm Big East honors. This year the losses are heavy as Leonard (13 sts, #3 tkl'r), 1st Tm BE JT Thomas (13 st, #2 tkl'r, #6DC CHI), 2nd Tm BE Glover (12 st, #4 tkl'r) and Lazear (2 st, 25 tkl) all depart. They do add PS#35JC Josh Francis (IFS) but are clearly less experienced.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '08 despite having to replace all 4 st's plus 3 bkps WV only fell from #19 in my PDR (15-16 ratio in '06) to #34 (11-17 ratio). They only had to replace 1 st'r in '09 and had 8 back with starting exp and moved up to #26. Last year they ret'd 3 st'r's incl FS Robert Sands who is 6'5" 221 with 4.4 spd. Their shutdown CB Brandon Hogan missed 2 sts. Keith Tandy led the BE with 6 int as teams threw away from Hogan. This year they lose 2nd Tm BE CB Hogan (11 st, 37 tkl, 3 int, 6 pbu, #4DC CAR) and 1st Tm BE FS Sands (13 st, 53 tkl, 1 int, #5DC CIN). It was surprising that WV only finished #33 in my PDR. The unit is less exp'd (1 less ret st'r) this year and has to replace the top 2 DB's.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Rich Rodriguez's final 4 yrs, they were #35, #32, #8 and #37 in my ST rankings. In Stewart's first 2 yrs they were #43 and #55. LY they had to replace their P (38.4 net, 1st Tm BE) and top KR (22.9). They brought in Alabama transfer Corey Smith (PS#9) to compete at both P and K but Tyler Bitancourt (PS#7) held on to his K job and after hitting 13-15 FG's (L45) in '09, he missed his final 4 K's and finished 10-17 (L43). Gregg Pugnetti backed up AA P's Pat McAfee and Scott Kozlowski the previous 2 yrs but won the starting job LY and earned a scholarship. He avg'd 41.8 with a solid 37.7 net. Smith had 8 TB on 64 KO and the return game was below average. WV's #87 finish was their lowest since '02. Even with the loss of the unit's top player, they should move up some in my ST rankings.

COACHES - After Rich Rodriguez left for Michigan in '07, Bill Stewart was the interim HC for the bowl and was given the job after the upset of Oklahoma. Stewart was the Assoc HC prior and is in his 12th year here overall. The new OC is Dana Holgorsen who will become WV's 33rd HC in 2012 forcing Stewart to retire. Holgorsen was previously the OC at Ok St ('10 Broyles finalist), Hou ('08-'09) and Tx Tech ('05-'07). Jeff Casteel is in his 11th ssn here and 10th as DC. They also have an Asst HC in Steve Dunlap (DC at NCSt, Marshall and WV) who has been here 25 seasons altogether incl 1991-'00 as the DC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Rich Rodriguez had his team finish in the top 10 in each of his last 3 yrs winning 11 gms each time. An upset loss to 29 pt underdog Pitt kept them from playing in the National Title game. Rodriguez left for Michigan and Bill Stewart engineered a 20 pt Fiesta Bowl win over #3 Okla and was given the HC job. While WV has tied for the best record in the Big East over the last 3 yrs, they have probably not played up to their potential finishing 9-4 in each of Stewart's 3 yrs. LY I called them the best D in the Big East in my magazine and they allowed a paltry 261 ypg and 13.5 ppg (best S/96). WV opened 3-0 surviving a scare at Marshall but dispatched MD in a game they led 28-0. They played a great game at Death Valley and had a 14-12 FD edge but came up 6 points short thanks to 7 and 9 yd scoring drives by LSU plus WV missed a 48 yd FG and had a 28 yd FG blocked. When they beat USF 20-6 at home they moved to 5-1 but then had a 12 game home win streak snapped by Syr as Geno Smith had his worst game of the year. The next week vs Conn they were -4 in TO's and despite a dominating 414-278 yd edge and 24-16 FD edge, they fumbled at the UC1 in OT and lost by 3. It was the first time they had suffered 2B Big East losses S/O4 and that also put them last in the conf. WV showed their talent in the final 4 beating 4 BE teams by a combined 124-44 and was selected over ND for the Champs Bowl. They lost to NCSt, then hired Okla St OC Dana Holgorsen to be their HC in waiting with Bill Stewart having one final year (2011) and Holgorsen having control of the offense. WV does have just 3 Big East home games this year and their 19.3 def ypg last year was 6th best in the NCAA giving them a 76% chance of a weaker record (see pg 299). WV also goes from 9 ret starters on defense to just 4, losing 7 players from the D that were either 1st or 2nd Tm Big East. WV's +116.7 ypg was best in the league and only that fumble at the 1 vs Conn kept them from being the outright Big East Champs. In the L9Y WV has finished either 1 or 2 in the Big East and this year they will be the only Big East team that will be ranked (AP) in the preseason and despite having 4 Big East road games, they have a shot at the Big East Title.

WV is 10-0 in this instate series (avg W by 30 ppg) played for the "Friends of the Coal Bowl" trophy. L2Y WV has trailed at HT. LY WV came back from a 21-6 4Q deficit (tying 2pt conv came w/12 left to force OT).

First meeting. The Spartans finished 6-5 LY incl a 31-0 loss at Rutgers. This will mark just the 4th meeting for Norfolk St vs a FBS member (0-3 being outscored by a combined 128-3).

WV has won 5 str over MD after the 2 losses in '03 incl Gator Bowl. LY WV led 28-0 mid-3Q but allowed MD back in w/3 redzone TO's. "I was not pleased with closing the door" Stewart after the game.

Both schools were ranked LY in their 1st meeting. "Tough one to lose, and it is going to stick with me for a long time" Stewart after LY's loss. Into 2011, WV has won 16 str non-conf HG's (L/loss vs #3 VT in '05).

The Mountaineers are 2-0 vs the Falcons with both games in Morgantown ('88 & '91). WV is 27-4-1 vs the MAC (excl Temple). WV is 14-0 at home vs non-BCS teams with the avg score being 40-12.

WV is 6-1 vs UC but lost LY. WV led 10-0 into the 2Q & never trailed until UC hit a 27 yd GW FG in OT that was set up by 1 of 4 fums. LTH there were 7 lead changes w/WV going 80/6pl for a TD w/2:03 left.

Pittsburgh: LY the yds were close & it was tied 7-7 but WV took advantage of 4 Pitt TO's (Pitt was inf'd on opening poss that setup 2 yd TD drive which set tone) resulting in 21 pts.

WV has won 4 str trips to the Carrier Dome, avg score 35-14. In the L/vist WV led 27-0 at HT and had a 286-62 yd edge in the 34-13 win. Series is played for the Schwartzwalder Trophy (S'93).

In WV's 16 gm series winning streak they avg'd 41 ppg (Into '11, WV is 68-2 when topping 30+ pts). LTH WV led by 18 in the 2H but up only 3 needed a int at their 35 w/1:59 left to seal it.

WV is 10-2 vs UL incl 4 str wins. LY the Cardinals led 10-7 briefly thanks to a sk/fum/TD w/10:26 left 20 from that point on were shutout gaining just 66 yds w/4 FD's (deepest drive to WV46).

Prior to its L/trip WV had won all 7 meetings in Cincinnati. WV kept #5 UC in check early (14-7 lead mid-2Q) but allowed 17 unanswered. Into 2011, WV is 15-6 S'05 in BE AG's.

USF: In '09 WV trailed 20-19 but all'd B2B scoring drives as L/3 poss ended in 2 punts & SOD.

104th "Backyard Brawl" (annually since '43). There have been upsets 6 of the last 9 gms.

The only time WV won in Tampa was the series 1st meeting in '05 (dropped B2B trips by 10 ppg).

CINCINNATI BEARCATS

DE/LB Walter Stewart

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Former HC Brian Kelly did a tremendous job with the QB's in his 3 yrs here. He had six different starting QB's and each won their first start. In '08 the unit was injured again and four different QB's started. Tony Pike broke his non-throwing arm in his 2nd start and when he ret'd he guided them to upsets of USF and WV and threw for 2,407 (61%, 19-11). Zach Collaros hit 1-4 passes. In '09 Pike became a Heisman candidate but was injured vs USF and Collaros got a 75 yard td run on 3rd & 11 and gave the QB position a running threat. Collaros was also deadly accurate as he threw for 1,434 with a school single season record 75% and a 10-2 ratio and 344 rush (6.0). Pike threw for 2,520 (62%, 29-6). Big things were expected of Collaros LY but he had little time to throw due to a shaky O-line. Collaros came into last season with a 34-0 record as a starting QB (HS & coll, now 38-7). He was injured in the 4Q vs USF and missed 5 games. When he ret'd he was wearing a knee brace and had -26 yds rush vs WV. He still led the BE in passing yds and total offense throwing for 2,902 (58.7%, 26-14) and was UC's #2 rusher with 202 (1.7). Chazz Anderson (PS#95) threw for 206 (51.1%, 1-1, 1 st) and Brendon Kay (6'4" 233 Jr, PS#42) who has the strongest arm of the bks hit 3-6. TY they lose Anderson (trans) but add GT transfer Jordan Lualaba (PS#28) and not listed below is Nick West (6'2" 203 Jr) and 3 true frosh. Collaros should live up to the promise he had heading into '10.

RUNNING BACKS - From 2006-'08 the Bearcats used a RB-by-committee approach. The top single season rusher in that span had 709 (4.4). True frosh Isaiah Peard (PS#52) only played in 7 games in '08 (194, 6.5). In '09 Jacob Ramsey (PS#106) became the first UC RB to top 100 in a game since '07 and finished with 439 (5.9). Peard had the best ypc of any RB in the Big East (6.7) and his 175 vs WV was the best single game tally for a UC player S/'04. He led with 806 (9 tds). LY they had to replace Ramsey and then Peard missed 2 w/in. Peard had 197 on 10 carries in the 1H vs Miami and finished with 1,029 (6.6). John Goebel (6'07 in '08) finished #3 with 196 (5.9). George Winn added 145 (4.4) and soph Darrin Williams (PS#121) who had 296 all-purpose yds as a FR started 2 and rushed for 144 (7.2) but missed the last 8 (ankle). TY they lose Goebel (0 st) but bring in 3 true frosh incl PS#20 Jameel Poteat. Peard should have the Bearcats' best single season rush tkl since DeMarco McCleskey's 1,361 in '02.

RECEIVERS - In 2009 UC had to replace their career leader Dominick Goodman but Mardy Gilyard led for a 2nd straight year, with 1,191 (13.7) and became the new career leader. Armon Binns was #2 with 888 (14.6) and soph DJ Woods (PS#55) added 640 (12.5). TE Ben Guidugli was #4 with 364 (13.5). LY they had to replace their star Gilyard (#4DC). 6'3" Binns whose specialty is outjumping defenders in the EZ (21 car tds) led with 1,101 (14.7). 6'1" Kenrell Thompsons (PS#20JC) who has 4.4 spd RS. USC transfer Vidal Hazelton (PS#6) had 6 rec's in the opener but tore his ACL. Another VHT, true frosh Dyjuan Lewis (PS#24) DNO but is expected to be in for the fall TY. Woods was #2 with 898 (15.8) but lost 4 fumbles (2 vs Okla). Marcus Barnett (862 yds '07, 372 '08-'09) had 10 sts and was #3 (333, 13.3). True frosh Anthony McClung was #4 with 217 (9.9). This year they lose 1st Tm BE Binns (12 st), 2nd Tm BE Guidugli (11 st), Barnett and Hazelton. Even with the loss of 3 of their 4 st's, as long as this unit remains healthy, they could match LY's stats.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 UC had to replace 2 multi yr st's (3 st's back) and improved to 139 rush ypg (5.0) allowing just 15 sks (3.2%). Having a mobile QB like Collaros helped. LY the Bearcats lost a 1st Tm BE C and 2nd Tm BE LT. Mark Dantonio favored a larger O-line, Brian Kelly wanted a slimmer down version and Jones had the OL's trim another 10 lbs per man. The OL struggled mightily allowing 18 sks in the first 4 games but improved allowing just 15 sks over the last 8. UC opened holes for 157 ypg (4.7). This year they lose 2nd Tm BE C Jason Kelce (12 st, 3Y st, #6DC PHI), RG CJ Cobb (12 st) and 2nd Tm BE LT Sam Griffin (12 st, 2Y st). While this unit is less exp'd (2 st's back), I like the strides they made in the 2H of LY, and they could put up improved numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In Brian Kelly's first 2 yrs he had exp'd D-lines and the team allowed just 114 ypg rush in both '07 and '08 (3.2, 3.3 ypc) while generating 42 and 39 sks. In '09 they shifted to a 4-4 and had to replace all 4 st's (#2DC). They brought in VHT Minn transfer Alex Daniels (8.5 sk) and surprisingly the numbers only dropped to 144 ypg (3.6) with the D still having 37 sks. LY they switched back to a 4-3 D and had just 1 st'r back but were more exp'd going from returning 68 tkl and 8 sks in '09 to 137 tkl and 12.5 sks LY. The coaches liked the top 4 DL's, Mills, Giordano, Wolfe and Hughes but said that depth was a major problem. With a more veteran unit, Cincy improved to 135 ypg (3.5) but with only 27 sks. This year OLB Walter Stewart moves to DE full-time (4 st DE LY) and the top 8 all return (two 300 lb Sr DT's) making it their most veteran unit in years.

LINEBACKERS - In '05 the Bearcats had to replace their entire 2 deep at LB and that defense allowed 31.4 ppg. The next 3 yrs, they had exp'd units and the D improved allowing 19.6, 18.8 and 20.1 ppg. In '09 they switched to a 4-3 D and lost all 3 st's (#1, #3, #4 tkl'r). Only one LB had 25+ tkl in a season and that was Andre Revels (66 in '07 and 59 in '08). Revels led with 109 tkl. They also moved in QB Demetrius Jones (PS#6) and he started 4 (36 tkl) while JK Schaffer emerged earning 2nd Tm BE (#2 tkl'r). LY they had to replace Revels, a 10 gm st'r plus 3 bkps (comb 6 st 62 tkl) but ret'd their #2 and #6 tkl'r's and moved back to a 4-3. The D went from allowing 23.1 ppg to 28.0. Schaffer finished #2 in the BE in tpg. Maalik Bomar was the #2 tkl'r and Walter Stewart #4. While all 3 are back Stewart moves to DE and the only losses are Obadiah Cheatham (26 tkl, 3 tfl) and Collin McCafferty (9 tkl). This is the Bearcats' most exp'd LB unit in yrs.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Cats finished in the top 43 of my PDR 6 of 7 yrs heading into '09. The '08 unit had to replace 3 NFL DC CB's (#1 and #2 at UC in career int). As you would expect, UC dropped to #75. LY they had to replace 2 st's (one 1st Tm BE). They then lost Dominique Battle after 3 sts so they had 1 st'r back. The FS position had produced 4 straight 1st Tm BE players but former walk-on Wesley Richardson (42 tkl) broke that streak. Speedy soph Camaron Cheatham (10.6 100M) took over for Battle. As you would expect, the inexp'd unit finished just #110 (64.9%, 25-8). This year the entire 2 deep returns with all 8 drawing sts LY and VHT PS#64JC Malcolm Murray may take over at FS. The Bearcats will likely have the largest jump in my PDR in the country this year.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In the 3 years prior to Brian Kelly's arrival, UC finished #106, #113 and #82 in my ST rankings. In Kelly's 3 seasons they finished #21, #1 and #8. A big part of their #8 finish in '09 was RM extraordinary Mardy Gilyard (30.5 KR, 2 td, 12.6 PR, 1 td). In Gilyard's 3 yrs he ended the school's droughts of KR tds (S/'97) and PR tds (126 gm). Butch Jones had finishes of #88, #55 and #46 in his 3 yrs at CM and without Gilyard LY UC dropped to #63. Punter Pat O'Donnell (PS#54) took over for Jacob Rogers (33.4 net '09) so he could concentrate on PK duties and improved the team net to 37.3. Rogers had 17 TB on 63 KO and also hit a solid 11-14 FG's (L/49). This year they lose Rogers but could still improve.

COACHES - Brian Kelly led UC to B2B Big East Titles and BCS bowls before moving on to ND. Butch Jones also replaced Kelly at CMich and led them to B2B MAC Titles and 3 straight bowls (27-13 3Y). Jones spent 2 yrs as WR coach at WV ('05-'06) but prior to that was an asst at CM ('98-'04). OC Mike Bajakian served as OC/QB coach for 3 yrs under Jones at CM helping develop QB Dan LeFevour. Tim Banks and John Jancek are co-DC's. Banks served as DC at CM for 3 yrs while Jancek spent 5 yrs at Georgia as the LB coach and served as co-DC there in '09.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Nippert Stadium is the 4th oldest playing site in college football. In Mark Dantonio's final year in '06 they reached 8 wins for the first time since 1997 but in Brian Kelly's 3 yrs they reached 10, 11 and 12 wins finishing #17, #17 and #8. Those finishes are remarkable since the team had not been ranked since 1976. The school record for pts in a season had been 409 and Kelly's '07 squad had 472 and his '09 squad had 502. The '09 season was remarkable as they had just 1 ret st'r on D and a 12-0 record and rose as high as #4. I pointed out LY there were many factors pointing towards a downturn as they had benefitted from 4 net close wins, were +9 in TO's and were breaking in a new HC. UC was still picked #2 in the preseason Big East media poll and ranked #26 (AP). Jones pointed out that they had only 12 players who played on offense or defense in the Sugar Bowl and that the majority of '09's team was gone. He noted that many players played way too many snaps as depth was lacking. In the opener they led Fresno 14-0 but wilted in the 94' heat and had their 18 gm reg ssn win streak snapped. After beating Ind St, their O-line was overwhelmed by NCSt and they were pounded on the road. They played a great game vs #8 Okla in Paul Brown Stadium only losing by 2 and then waxed rival Miami 45-3 and beat LVille on the road on a Friday night to move to 3-3. They had a 14 game Nippert Stadium win streak snapped vs USF despite a 590-378 yd edge. With QB Collaros injured and out, they lost 31-7 to Syr in a half empty Nippert Stadium as 3 TO's equalled 17 Orange pts. Collaros ret'd vs WV but they had 4 TO's and allowed 5 sks and lost by 27. After dominating Rutgers, they had a 399-357 yard edge vs Big East Champ Connecticut but were done in by 5 TO's and down 7 late 2Q, yielded a 79 yd IR to set up a Conn TD. They were non-competitive in a steady snow vs Pitt and after going 33-7 the previous 3 yrs, their 4-8 record was the worst S/'99 (first losing season S/'05). There are plenty of signs pointing upwards this year. It is Jones' 2nd year, making everyone more acclimated to his systems and they were 2nd worst in the NCAA with -15 in TO's LY (see pg 312). They were actually +36.4 ypg in the Big East (3rd best) despite their 2-5 record. The D returns 10 st's which is the most in 5 yrs and the offense has Collaros and Peard back. They do have 4 Big East road games (3 at home). There are just 12 players left from Kelly's '09 spring class (7 on 2 deep). Cincy makes my Most Improved List and is a legitimate contender for the Big East Title.

CONNECTICUT HUSKIES

DT Kendall Reyes

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Conn has struggled passing the football ever since school leader Dan Orlovsky (#5DC) departed after the '04 season (281 ypg, 63%). Since then they have avg'd just 149 ypg (51%), 141 (51%), 186 (56%), 140 (50%), 217 (57%) and 151 (53%). In '08 ND VHT transfer Zach Frazer (PS#7) took over for the inj'd starter and threw for just 536 (55%) while Cody Endres (PS#186) threw for 411 (46%). They brought in new OC Joe Moorhead in '09 who promised more passing. Frazer was the clear-cut st'r but struggled early then got inj'd. Endres took over and threw for 1,354 (64%, 6-4) but was lost vs Rut (gm 8) and Frazer had a 7-2 ratio the last 5 (1,461, 53%, 10-9). Michael Box (PS#101) has the strongest arm of the QB's and was #3 but still RS. LY all 3 ret'd and Frazer won the job (st'd first 4). Endres was susp'd then reinstated prior to Buffalo and with the score tied at 14 he came in and hit 7-11-139. Frazer was demoted to 3rd string and Endres started the next 2, then was susp'd again and dismissed. Box got his start 1st vs L'ville but hit 4-12-35 and was inj'd. Frazer guided them to 5 straight wins and a Fiesta Bowl berth but threw for just 1,425 (52.1%, 5-6) and his 99.69 pass eff rating didn't rank in the NCAA's top 100 among the starting QB's. New HC Pasqualoni is leaning towards a more mobile QB like rFr Scott McCummings (PS#100) or true frosh Michael Nebrich (PS#61). Johnny McEntee's trick passes were a YouTube sensation. Despite being less exp'd, this unit can only improve upon '10's numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Donald Brown was the BE OPOY in '08 (2nd Tm AA) finishing #1 in the NCAA with 2,083 (5.7, 18 td's) and 125 rec (6.0). True frosh Jordan Todman was #2 with 296 (6.3). In '09 Brown left early for the NFL (#1DC) but Andre Dixon (828, 5.0 '07, inj '08) was the bowl MVP and he and Todman became the first duo in UC history to rush for 1,000+ yds each in a single season. LY they had to replace Dixon and Jordan Todman finished with 1,695 (5.1, #2 FBS ypg). Robbie Frey (PS#150) was #2 with 389 (5.2). With Todman out (inj) vs Buffalo, Frey rushed for 112. They got the solid addition of USC transfer DJ Shoemate (PS#5), who is the first player to play with 2 different BCS bowl teams but he had a couple of costly fumbles early which limited his carries to 28 (115, 4.1). Todman left early for the NFL (#6DC SD) and also departing are FB Anthony Sherman (8 sts, #5DC ARZ) and Frey (trans). Edsall said that Shoemate was more of a FB-type but he will battle 2 frosh for the TB job this year. They go from having one of the top RB's in the NCAA to a question mark.

RECEIVERS - UC has not had a 1,000 yard receiver since Carl Bond and John Fitzsimmons in 1998. The unit was generally regarded as a weakness from 2005-'08. Their leading receiver in '08 was Kashif Moore with just 273 (10.1) while their FB was #2. In '09 the school paper said that the starting WR's (Michael Smith, Moore and Marcus Easley) were not Div IA rec's which they took exception to. True frosh Dwayne Difton (PS#64) played immediately but was slow to pick up the system (8 rec). Easley did not catch a pass in the first 3 but the 6'2" 219 WR with 4.4 speed finally lived up to his potential and became the first WR here to have B2B 100+ gms since 1999. Easley finished with 893 (18.6!) including some spectacular catches. Moore (PS#157) had 370 (16.8). Last year they had to replace their star Easley (#4DC, 7 st). Smith led with 615 (13.4), Moore was #2 with 452 (12.6) and TE Ryan Griffin was #3 with 245 (7.9). Difton had 9 of his 14 rec in Endres' 2 starts. This year Difton (3 st) transferred but the unit otherwise remains intact and should have increased production.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 UC had six OL back with 8+ career sts (3 st's back). With the emergence of RB Donald Brown, UC set a school FBS record with 216 ypg rush (5.1) while allowing just 15 sks (4.6%). In '09 they had to replace a #2DC LT and a 2 year starting C. The numbers dropped some to 171 ypg (4.2) with 21 sks (5.6%). Last year they only had to replace 1 st'r and had 5 back who started 5+ in '09 incl 1st Tm BE C Moe Petrus and 1st Tm BE G Zach Hurd. Surprisingly the numbers only improved slightly to 175 ypg (4.5) with 15 sks (4.2%). This year they lose 1st Tm BE RG Hurd (13 st, 3y st'r), LG Mathieu Olivier (11 st, 2Y st'r) and LG Erik Kuraczee (2 st). They do return 2nd Tm BE C Petrus and 1st Tm BE LT Mike Ryan and should be just as strong.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Huskies' D-line has performed as expected with veteran units in '05 and '08 allowing just 3.4 ypc rush and the less exp'd units in '06 and '07 allowing 4.5 and 4.4 ypc. In '09 UC had to replace 3 st's and they allowed 133 ypc rush (3.8). LY they had to replace 1st Tm BE DE Lindsey Witten (11.5 sk) but had 3 st's back. Surprisingly UC took a step back, allowing 143 ypc (3.9, 27 sks). This year the Huskies only lose DT Alex Polito (12 tkl) and have 5 back who started 7+ LY. First Tm BE DT Kendall Reyes turned down the NFL and they also return 1st Tm BE Jesse Joseph. This group is a bit more exp'd and should show the improvement I expected last year.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 UC had their most exp'd LB corps of the decade (all 3 st's back) but SLB Scott Lutrus, who was called the heart and soul of the D, missed 5 (shoulder inj). LY they ret'd all 3 st's again. Greg Lloyd was moved to DL then Edsall said he would RS him but he ret'd and started 4 (25 tkl) despite not being 100%. UC allowed just 22.0 ppg. This year they must replace 1st Tm BE MLB Lawrence Wilson (13 st, #1 tkl, 10 tkl, #6DC CAR), Lutrus (9 st, 59 tkl, 3.5 tfl) and Lloyd (#7DC PHI). UC does return their #2 tkl'r in Sio Moore (110 tkl, 11.5 tfl) and Jory Johnson who has 5 sts and 35 tkl's in 2 yrs. With the loss of 3 solid LB's, this unit is clearly less exp'd and talented. Look for true frosh Jefferson Ashiru and Marquise Vann to play right away.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - With 3 starters back in '07 UC finished #25 in my PDR and with 3 st's back again in '08, #16 with a 2 year ratio of 21-41. A less experienced secondary in '09 plummeted to #93. Last year UC had to replace a starting CB (#7DC) and FS (2nd Tm BE). They had 2 starters back but their 4 starters combined for 2 int's and 11 pbu in '09. With so much youth Edsall worked as the S coach and in 4 games, all 4 starters were soph. The inexperienced group still moved up to #40 (58.7%, 16-20). This year the only loss is FS Mike Lang (4 st, 41 tkl, 2 int). This is a much more experienced unit and should be a Top 20 contender.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Conn has been up and down in this area finishing #115 in my ST rankings in '03 then #70, #36, #96, #30 and #103. In '09 they moved up to #28 with P Desi Cullen having a 37.6 net. Dave Teggart (PS#46) hit 13-15 FG's (L47) in '08 but had 2 key misses vs WV and finished 14-23 (L47) in '09. LY Cole Wagner beat out Chad Christen in a battle of rFr at P. Wagner avg 41.3 (34.4 net). He had numerous shanks and while the punting job was up for grabs almost weekly, he held the spot. He also worked at WR in the spring. Teggart improved to 25-31 FG's, had two 50+ FG's vs USF (52 yd gm winner), and has connected on all 99 of his career PAT's. Christen had 9 TB on 72 KO. UC has had great KR's recently. In '09 Robbie Frey, Jordan Todman and Mike Lang each had a KR td and combined to avg 27.7 LY. Nick Williams' avg'd 46.0 with 2 td's on his first 9 KR. He finished #1 in the NCAA (35.3) and Robbie Frey avg'd 31.4 (1 td). Taylor Mack was the top PR (8.4) but when he was inj'd, Williams had 8 (11.6). UC rose to #17 and could be even better this year.

COACHES - Randy Edsall spent 12 seasons as the HC here and after sharing the BE Title in both '07 and LY decided to move on to Maryland. They bring in a Big East vet in Paul Pasqualoni who was the Syracuse HC for 14Y (91-'04) taking them to 9 bowls. He has spent the last 6 yrs in the NFL including the L/3 as a DC (MIA '08-'09, DAL '10). OC George DeLeone held the same position at Syr ('99-'04) then was the Temple OC ('06-'07) and the Dolphins' TE cch the L3Y. DC Don Brown was the Maryland DC the L2Y and also has 12 yrs of HC exp (UMass '04-'08, N'Eastern '00-'03 and Plymouth St '83-'95).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Paul Pasqualoni won 4 Big East Titles at Syracuse but steps into a tough situation here. UC has never beaten a team that has finished ranked (AP). In '07 UC earned their first ever AP ranking and were also ranked in '08 but did not finish ranked in any of Edsall's seasons. They were Big East co-Champs in '07 despite the fact that they were -83.2 ypg (2nd worst). The next 2 yrs they finished 3-4 in Big East play but 8-5 overall. LY UC did have 16 ret st's but they were coming off a season in which they were -35.9 ypg. UC was perhaps the most fortunate team in the country LY. UC was 2nd worst in the BE at -86.1 ypg in conf play but with smoke and mirrors, finished in a 3 way tie for 1st in the Big East at 5-2. Coming into the year they had been picked 4th in the BE which was actually their highest ranking since joining the conf in '04. UC was waxed by Mich 30-10, and then despite leading Temple 16-14 in the 4Q, lost by 2 td's. They had a couple of misleading wins over Buff and Vandy winning by 24 and 19 but only having 31 and 49 ypg edges. They lost to Rutgers, then were shutout by L'ville 26-0 and some fans were calling for Edsall to be fired. Edsall responded "I didn't get dumb overnight," WV fumbled 7 times and UC didn't get their first FD until 11:30 left in 2Q. At the end WV fumbled at the 1 in OT and UC got a lucky 16-13 win despite being outgained 414-278. The next week TO's did in Pitt and UC escaped with a 2 pt win. Syr trailed UC 10-6 and fumbled at their own 4 setting up a UC td and despite being outFD'd 17-14 UC won by 17. UC was +4 in TO's vs Cincy and despite being outgained 399-357, they won by 21. They got a 55 yd IR td vs USF and also had the good fortune of taking on USF with QB BJ Daniels inj'd. They got a 52 yd FG with :17 left and despite being outgained 333-232, won the Big East Title and the right to play Okla in the Fiesta Bowl, where as expected they were waxed 48-20. This year they do have 16 ret st's but were +12 in TO's last year (see pg 312). They were 6-0 at home LY and are 21-4 at Rentschler Field the last 4 yrs, and benefit from 4 Big East HG. TY UC faces my #90 rated schedule! Though they won't finish as high in the Big East standings, they have a shot at matching LY's win total even if they don't get the breaks they did LY.

RUTGERS SCARLET KNIGHTS

WR Mark Harrison

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Ryan Hart departed as the Knights' all-time career passing leader (32 straight sts). In his final year ('05) he threw for 2,135 (61%, 18-8). Mike Teel, who had a stronger arm than Hart, had 3 sts in '05 and finished his college career 29-13 as a starter. In '09 he departed as the new career leader. Domenic Natale (PS#29), who played in 5 in '08, started the first 2 in '09 but true frosh 6'5" Tom Savage (PS#9), who I projected as the st'r, took over and set Big East frosh records for pass yds and td's (2211, 52%, 14-7). Savage was the least exp'd QB in the Big East in '09 but one of the most exp' in '10 (preseason Maxwell and O'Brien watch lists). Surprisingly, Savage appeared nervous in the first few games and struggled with rib and hand injuries. He missed the Conn gm and had to feel like Wally Pipp as true frosh Chas Dodd started the rest of the year. Dodd is a different type of QB than Savage at 6'0" 197 but in HS he threw for over 10,000 yds in the same type of offense. He opened up the middle of the field. Savage played in just 6 (521, 51.8%, 2-3) and transferred to Arizona. Dodd threw for 1,637 (55.2%, 11-7) while Steve Shimko (PS#74) missed LY (inj). Gary Nova is PS#27 and Schiano has shown true frosh can play QB here. While not quite as exp'd as '10, I look for improved numbers from the RU QB's especially with a more stable O-line (61 sks, 18.8% in '10).

RUNNING BACKS - From 2002-'04 Rutgers avg just 91 ypg rush (2.5) but in '05 true frosh Ray Rice became the 2nd 1,000 yard rusher here in 30 yrs (Terrell Willis '93 & '94) with 1,120 (5.7). In '06 he set RU and Big East records with 1,794 (5.4) and reset those records a year later with 2,012 (5.3). Rutgers has slipped to just 122 ypg rush (3.4) in the 3 yrs since he left. Joe Martinek (PS#49) had 404 (5.3) in '08 and led with 967 (4.7) in '09. Schiano offered a scholarship to De'Antwan Williams (PS#35) over Pitt's Dion Lewis (was Fr AA). Williams showed potential but surprisingly played in just 6 (235, 5.3) in '09. LY Martinek was bothered by an ankle injury and his numbers plummeted to 276 (3.2). They converted true frosh WR Jordan Thomas to RB. Thomas was the fastest player in the state of NY in HS and after a slow start, he led with 183 (6.8) in the final 2 and finished #1 (417, 4.4) which was the lowest #1 total since Markis Facyson (398) in '02. Thomas was also the #4 rec (223, 13.9). Wildcat QB's Jeremy Deering and Mohamed Sanu (both WR's) were the #2 and #3 rushers. Williams played in just 6 (111, 5.8). This year Martinek moves to FB but they move Deering to RB and add PS#7 true frosh Savon Huggins and new OC Frank Cignetti had a lot of success with true frosh Lewis at Pitt. Not listed below are Travis Patterson (5'8" 220 Sr), Jawan Jamison (5'8" 200 rFr, PS#129) and FB's Robert Joseph (6'2" 216 So, PS#132) and Michael Burton (6'0" 220 rFr). With a stronger O-line, RU should have a huge increase in the RB rush numbers.

RECEIVERS - In '05 Tres Moses left as RU's #1 career receiver. It took Kenny Britt just 3 yrs to top his numbers and in '08 Britt led with a RU record 1,371 (15.8) while Tiquan Underwood added 494 (12.4) a yr after having 1,100 (16.9). They were #1 and #7 DC's in '09. Tim Brown (5'8") had 565 with a tm high 20.9 ypc in '08. In '09 Brown became just the 4th RU player with 1,000+ rec yd (1150, 20.9). True frosh Mohamed Sanu (PS#111, miss rFr HS or higher PS#) was #2 with 639 (12.5) and was also the #2 rusher (346, 5.6). No #3 WR emerged. LY they had to replace Brown and TE Graves (4 st, 159, 11.4). Mark Harrison is 6'3" 230 with 4.38 spd but only had 5 rec as a true and did little the first 4 gm (5 rec) LY. Versus Cincy he had 240 yds (2nd highest tll in RU hist) and 4 td's (tied RU rec). He finished with 829 (18.8). Sanu was Savage's favorite target and had 21 rec in the first 4 but had just 23 the final 8 (banged up). They compared true frosh Deering to Sanu and he operated the Wildcat while Sanu was inj'd. Deering was the #2 rusher and the #3 rec (21.1). TE DC Jefferson improved as a blocker and finished with 166 (16.6). Other than Deering's move to RB, the unit returns intact and they add a VHT making it one of the Big East's stronger receiving corps.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '07, the Knights had to replace 2 st's (#5DC and a Rimington finalist). True frosh Anthony Davis (PS#7) started the final 8 and they improved to a Schiano era high 198 ypg rush (4.8) with 11 sks allowed (2.9%). They had to replace 3 st's in '08 (2 car sts ret'd) and dropped to just 128 ypg rush (3.9) with 19 sks. True frosh Art Forst (PS#25) started 8. They had 86 car sts in '09. Their OL coach said it could be their best unit yet but I was surprised that they slipped to 3.6 ypc and 40 sks (12.2%). LY they had to replace three 3 yr st's (#1DC). The Knights slipped to just 101 ypg (2.7) and had an amazing 61 sks (18.8%) setting a modern day NCAA record! This year they lose C Howard Barbieri (12 st, 2Y st'r) and Mo Lange (12 gm). They not only return 4 st's (89 car st) but shuffled their positions through the spring. They added in JUCO Dallas Hendrikson (IFS) but he suffered an ACL inj while the surprise of the spring was David Osei who looks to fill the C spot. After '10's ridiculously poor numbers, RU should have one of the most improved O-lines in the country.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 RU had to replace 2 st's but did return rFr Scott Vallone (who is lightning quick for his size) and backup DE Jonathan Freeny led in sks (9.5). The Knights improved allowing 103 ypg (3.0) with 40 sks. LY they had to replace one starter (3rd Tm BE, 6.5 sk) and ret'd 6 of their top 8 DL's. They suffered a tragic loss vs Army when Eric LeGrand suffered a paralyzing neck injury (13 tkl, 2 tfl). The team had allowed 14.4 ppg and 270 ypg the first 5 but after his inj allowed 35.1 ppg and 448 ypg. This year they lose DE Freeny (12 st, 38 tkl, 7 tfl), DT Charlie Noonan (12 st, 38 tkl, 2.5 tfl, 1 int) and 3rd Tm BE DE Alex Silvestro (12 st, 56 tkl, 5.5 sk, 9 tfl). They add Michigan transfer Anthony La Lota (PS#18) and VHT LB Manny Abreu (PS#15) moved here in the spring. This group is less exp'd but 3 of the proj starters are VHT's and they could actually improve upon their poor '10 numbers.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 RU had to replace their #1 tkl'r but had 5 of the top 6 back. LY they had to replace their #1 and #3 tkl's. RU allowed 26.5 ppg, their highest total S/O'4. This year they lose Antonio Lowery (12 st, 1 tkl'r, 8.5 tfl) and Jim Dumont (2 tkl). Manny Abreu was the #7 tkl'r despite missing 2 with inj and moves to DE. Steve Beauharnais is back (#3 tkl'r). They move in FS Khaseem Greene (#4 tkl'r) and add VHT true frosh Quentin Gause (PS#44). Even with the loss of their #1 tkl'r, this unit is more exp'd.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Rutgers had inexp'd DB's in both '04 and '05 (#104 and #111 PDR). With exp'd units in '06 and '07 they moved up to #42 and #32. They only lost 1 st'r in '08 but dropped to #106. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's (#6 and #7DC) but climbed to #51 (56%, 13-15). LY they had to replace 2 st's. Joe Lefeged had an outstanding year, incl a game vs FIU in which he had 2 FF, 2 blk'd punts, an int, a pbu and 6 tkl's and became the 1st player in BE history to be named BE POW on def and ST. He earned my 1st Tm BE honors and was one of 10 semifinalists for the Thorpe Award. The Knights finished just #103 (61.6%, 19-8). This year they lose SS Lefeged (12 st, 84 tkl, 1 int, 6 pbu) as well as their top cover CB Brandon Bing (11 st, 65 tkl, 1 int) and FS Greene moves to LB. They add LY's top rusher Thomas and some others at CB for additional speed. This unit is on par with 2010 in terms of exp and even with the loss of their top 2 DB's, RU should climb in my PDR rankings in '11.

SPECIAL TEAMS - RU was #40 in my ST rankings in '04 then #21 in both '05 and '06. They finished #103 in '07, #57 in '08 and in '09, #25. K San San Te (18-28 FG's, L49 '09) hit 14-20 (L43, 1 miss 50+) LY. P Teddy Dellaganna handled the KO's (5 TB, 25 KO) early but suffered an inj and Te took them over late (0 TB, 30 KO). Dellaganna (36.9 net '09) avg 41.9 and while inj'd, rFr Kyle Sullivan (PS#49) avg 42.1 (tm net 35.2). KR Lefeged (32.4 in '09) had 948 yds (24.9) with 1 td called back. Mason Robinson had a 60 yd PR vs USF; the tm's first PR td S/O'5. They have had 50 blk'd kicks in 10 yrs under Schiano (blk'd 4 punts LY). This year they lose Dellaganna and Lefeged but should have another solid finish (#41 '10) and they add PS#8 P Anthony DiPaula (IFS).

COACHES - New Jersey native Greg Schiano enters his 11th yr as HC here (Miami, FL DC in 2000, NFL asst CHI '96-'98). RU earned their first ever Top 10 ranking in '06 and Schiano was named the FWA's COY and afterward turned down DC offers from Mia, Fla and Michigan. Schiano took over the DC duties himself in '05 but in 2010 he handed over the def play calling to co-DC's Bob Fraser (LB cch) and Ed Pinkham (DB cch) who departs after one season in that role. Schiano was very involved with the D again in the spring. Frank Cignetti is the 3rd OC in 3Y joining the staff after being the OC at Pitt ('09-'10) and Cal ('08).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Greg Schiano has had his moments in his tenure at Rutgers. Rutgers endured a 25 gm Big East losing streak (ended in Schiano's 3rd ssn '03) and coming into '06 Rutgers had just 5 winning seasons the previous 25 yrs. They got as high as #7 in '06, finished 11-2 at #12 and earned their first bowl win in their 137 year history. Their 11 wins tied the 1976 team record. The D allowed just 14.3 ppg (best since '80). In '07 they opened up #16 AP but finished just 8-5 becoming the first team in NCAA history to have a 3,000 yd passer, 2,000 yd rusher and two 1,000 yd rec's in the same season. In '08 they opened 1-5 but won their last 7 and were a Big East best +62.4 ypg. In '09 they had a great shot at the Big East Title due to their schedule. Even benefitting from +20 in TO's but they shockingly finished just 3-4 including a 7 pt loss to Pitt and a 3 pt loss to WV. LY they had just 12 ret st's and just 3 Big East HG's. Those factors had me calling for a down year and I pegged them 6th (5th BE media). RU did lose a pair of #1DC's but had an even worse year than I expected. They lost 11 players to season ending injuries (all bkps) but actually had only 6 sts lost all year. They were fortunate to get past FIU 19-14 (outgained 371-172) as Joe Lefeged single-handedly led them to the win. They played a good game vs NC at home but lost by 4 and despite a 353-245 yd edge, lost to Tulane at home by 3. After beating Conn and Army, they appeared in good shape at 4-2. Then a shell shocked tm lost to Pitt by 20 in the 1st gm after DL LeGrand's injury and then later suffered tough losses to USF (1 pt) and Syr at home (3 pts). In their final 3 they were basically non-competitive losing by an avg of 48-22 and not only finished 1-6 in the BE but were -131.6 ypg, by far the league's worst. My 2 year net wins indicator has RU pointed in an upwards direction as they avg 8.5 wins in '08 and '09 and only had 4 wins LY (-4.5 net). They also get the benefit of 4 BE HG's, they have 14 ret st's (3rd most in the league) and bring in a super class of true frosh that will contribute right away. This is a much improved team and has a solid shot of getting back to postseason play.

MLB Dexter Heyman

QUARTERBACKS - The Cardinals have had some excellent QB's in the last 15 yrs including Chris Redman, Davey Ragone, Stefan LeFors and Brian Brohm who all earned Conf/Off POY honors and were drafted by the NFL. In '09 they had to replace the starting QB and both of the projected replacements transferred after the spring (0 career att ret). Justin Burke suffered a bruised sternum and started the first 3 throwing for 654 (51%, 3-5). Adam Froman rushed 16 times in his first start vs Pitt and later hit 16 straight passes vs Conn (best S/Ragone's 18 in '02). Froman was inj'd in the 3Q vs Cincy and Burke also left with an injury so 5'10" walk-on Will Stein started games 8 and 9. Froman regained the job and threw for 1,354 (60%, 6-5). Stein (4 gm) threw for 450 (55%). Combined the QB's hit just 56% (9-11). LY all 3 ret'd and in the new spread offense, mobility was key so Froman won the job. Froman threw for 1,633 (60.6%, 11-4) with just 75 yds rushing. He missed 4 with inj and Burke threw for 790 (58.1%, 10-3). Stein played the 2H vs Rutgers (Burke inj) and was 9-14-72. In the new system the QB's improved the ratio to 22-8. This year they lose their top 2 in Froman and Burke and battling Stein will be VHT Teddy Bridgewater (PS#7) who was IFS and Dominique Brown (PS#64) who ran the wildcard offense. Overall the group as a whole should retain better health for the upcoming season.

RUNNING BACKS - Victor Anderson (PS#30) emerged in '08 and rushed for 1,047 (5.7) earning 2nd Tm BE. Bilal Powell was #3 with 354 (4.7). In '09 Anderson and Powell ret'd and Anderson was only 100% for a few games and rushed for 473 (5.3) in 8 gms. Powell was also banged up and was #3 (392, 3.6). Darius Ashley (PS#62) was #2 with 462 (4.4). Ashley moved to DB/Ly and Powell (lost 20 lbs in spg and gained spd) took command in the new offense rushing for 1,405 (6.1) missing out on breaking Howard Stevens' 1971 (10 gm) mark of 1,429 despite missing the Syr gm with inj and battled flu like illness vs WV (0 yd, 4 car). Powell had seven 100 yd rushing gms tying the schl record held by Frank Moreau ('99) and Walter Peacock ('73). RfR/KR Jeremy Wright (PS#194) was #2 with 327 (5.5). Anderson had shoulder surgery in the offseason and missed 3 full games finishing #3 with 286 (4.5). Walk-on Blayne Donnell had 104 (4.2). This year they lose 1st Tm BE Powell (10 st, #4DC NYJ) and Donnell (1 st). It will be tough to replace Powell's production, especially with a less exp'd O-line but Anderson appeared to be 100% in the spg.

RECEIVERS - In '08 UL's receiving corps was inexp'd losing 3 NFL DC's and they were also banged up. VHT Josh Doug Beaumont (PS#24) led with 750 (12.1) and VHT RfR Joseph Chichester (6'8") had 341 (11.4). The top four rec'd in '09 and Scott Long led with 727 (13.7) while Beaumont was #2 with 465 (12.2) and RM Trent Guy was #3 (329, 18.3). LY they had to replace Long and Guy. True frosh Michaellee Harris stood out in August but was lost to a PCL injury. Andreell Smith was projected for a breakout year and led the WR's with a 15.1 ypc but was the #4 rec (377). TE Cameron Graham emerged late and led with 470 (11.8) while Beaumont, who Strong called "Mr. Reliable" had 440 (10.7) despite missing 2. Josh Bellamy (PS#57JC) came in with a lot of swagger and while he had 112 yds vs Memphis, he was only #3 with 401 (13.8). Chichester slipped to #5 (317, 14.4). This year they lose 1st Tm BE Graham (12 st), and Beaumont (9 st) who had only 1 td in 141 career rec's. This unit is about as exp'd as it was heading into LY but with Smith, Bellamy and Harris now in their 2nd year, I look for improved production.

OFFENSIVE LINE - From '03-'06 the O-line paved the way for 5.7, 5.6, 4.8 and 5.0 ypc rushing. In Kragthorpe's 3 yrs they dropped to 4.2, 4.3 and 3.5 in '09 with just 125 ypc (lowest S'02) while allowing 37 sks (10.1%). That unit had to replace 2 st'sr's (#1, #5 DC) and LY they had 9 of the top 10 back. While they had 4 st'sr's back, Jeff Adams lost his job. The Cards still improved mightily to 175 ypc rush (4.8) and all'd just 17 sks (4.7%). This year they lose RG Josh Byrom (10 st) 1st Tm BE, LG Mark Wetterer (13 st, 2Y st'r), RT Greg Tomczyc (13 st, 24 car sts), 1st Tm BE LT Byron Stingily (13 st, 2Y st'r, #6DC TEN), RG Conrad Thomas (3 st) and OT Adams (8 st '09, 6 gm '10). This unit returns just 25 career starts (all at C) and is clearly less experienced and with Strong being a big proponent of a deep rotation on this unit, expect some of the true frosh to see action early on.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Bobby Petrino's final 3 D's allowed just 3.1, 3.0 and 3.4 ypc rush and generated 42 sks per year. In Kragthorpe's 3 yrs they yielded 4.4, 4.2 and 4.3 ypc and had just 18 sks per year. They only had 1 st'r back in '09 and LY re'd 2. Strong constantly referred to the DL as undersized as the avg weight of the starters was 258 lbs (prefers 280-300 lbs). DL coach Clint Hurt wanted to split the snaps between the st'rs and bkps 60/40 and 3 frosh were in the 2 deep (2 true Butler & Dunn comb 12 sts). Surprisingly the Cardinals improved allowing 144 ypg (4.0) with 39 sks. This year they lose DE Malcolm Tatum (13 st, 44 tkl, 4.5 sk), NT Tim High (4 st, 11 tkl) and 3rd Tm BE DE Rodney Gnat (1 st, 29 tkl, 9 sk). Eight return with starting experience, the group is a bit bigger than LY and they go from 2 returning st'rs to 3.

LINEBACKERS - In '08 the unit had 3 JUCO's, a true frosh and a converted RB as 5 of their top 7 LB's and the D allowed 29.8 ppg. In '09 they had to replace 2 players (comb 7 sts) but ret'd their #1 tk/r and improved to 26.3 ppg. LY they had to replace 2 st/s incl their #1 and #2 tk/r. They ret'd 2 (comb 15 sts) who were the #6 and #9 tk/r's. HC Strong said "It's a LB friendly defense" and the new starting LB's had better PS#'s than the previous ones. UL allowed just 19.4 ppg, their best since '06. This year they lose SLB Brandon Heath (11 st, #3 tk/r, 8.5 fti), MLB Antwon Canady (5 st, 27 tk) and Eugene Sowell (1 st, 5 tk). They return their #4 and #6 tk/r and should continue to improve.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Cards had inexp'd and injury plagued secondaries and finished #113 in my PDR rankings in '07, #102 in '08 and #106 in '09. LY they did have 5 back with starting exp but still had to replace 3 s'trs. The Cards avg'd just 18 sacks per year from '07 to '09 and with a stronger front 7 producing 39 sacks LY, Louisville managed to climb to #41 in my PDR (54.8%, 16-9). This year they lose 1st Tm BE CB Johnny Patrick (13 s, 5 int, 12 pbu, 49 tkl, #3DC NO) and CB Bobby Burns (13 st, 37 tkl). Not listed below are Jarel McGriff-Culver (6'0" 205 rFr) and Marcus Bentley (6'1" 195 Jr). Despite the loss of their starting CB's the Cards' secondary is more exp'd and could move up in my PDR again.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '08 UL plummeted to #102 in my ST rankings (#65 in '07). In '09 all of the key players ret'd and as expected they moved up to #60. LY they had to replace their outstanding RM Trent Guy as well as their K and P. Surprisingly the Cards improved to #18. Chris Philpott (PS#24) and Josh Bleser split the punting duties and they combined to average 40.1 with a net of 37.1. Philpott had 16 TB's on 69 KO and hit 14-18 FG's (L46) including a school-record 4 FG's vs Conn earning him BE ST POW. Victor Anderson avg'd 30.2 on KR while Jeremy Wright avg'd 30.6 and was named bowl MV with a 95 yd KR to tie the 4Q to tie the game. Doug Beaumont avg'd 15.2 on PR and had a 74 yd td PR vs Conn. This year they lose Beaumont but have everyone else back and should have one of the Big East's top ST units.

COACHES - Charlie Strong served as the Florida DC ('03-'09) under Ron Zook and Urban Meyer and as Scar's DC under Steve Spurrier and Lou Holtz. Strong led the Cardinals to their first winning season in 4 seasons while earning BE co-COY honors in his first year here. Former UNLV HC Mike Sanford ('05-'09) is the OC. He was also Urban Meyer's OC at Utah for 2 years. Strong brought Florida CB coach Vance Bedford along to take over as UL's DC. Bedford was the DB coach of the Chicago Bears from '99-'04 and LY became the Cardinals' 4th DC in 4 years.

When former HC Howard Schnellenberger got UL's program turned around, he said the Cardinals were on a collision course for the National Championship. The '06 season was probably that year. Despite losing star RB Michael Bush to injury and QB Brohm for 2 gms, had they held on to a 25-7 lead vs Rutgers, they would have played in the National Title game. Bobby Petrino left for the NFL and the next 3 yrs they failed to have a winning record under Steve Kragthorpe, despite entering '07 ranked #10. After being picked #1 or #2 in the Big East every yr since joining in '05, they were picked 7th in '08 and after a 5-2 start, finished just 5-7, which was their first losing season since 1997 (tied last BE 1-6). Kragthorpe was let go after a 4-8 record in '09 (-104 ypg BE). Charlie Strong had just 12 ret str's LY and was picked last in the Big East but guided the Cards to a winning record and their first bowl in 4 yrs. They tied TCU (2nd FBS) with 27 seniors but did play 9 true frosh. Attendance was up 33% over the first 3 gms, the largest jump in the NCAA. UL also added an upper deck and new suites to its stadium which increased capacity from 42,000 to 55,000. The Cats lost to rival UK in the opener by a td but caught my attention when they went into Corvallis and outgained Oregon St 453-319 in a 7 pt loss. After beating Ark St and blowing out Memphis, they had a showdown vs Cincy at home on a Friday night and came up 8 pts short but the next week destroyed 2010 BE Champ Conn, 26-0. Star RB Bilal Powell who rushed for 1,405 was injured in the 3Q vs Pitt and they allowed a 56 yd FR by a NT to set up a td and lost by 17. Without Powell and QB Froman they still beat Syr on the road, 28-20 but lost in OT to USF by 3. The next week Froman was still out and Powell had just 4 att's (illness) in the 7 pt loss to WV. Their first 4 poss vs Rutgers were td drives of 64+ yds and they routed the Knights 40-13 then upended SM in the bowl, 31-28. They actually had 3 net close losses which gives them an 81% chance of improvement but they do have 4 BE AG's this year and have just 10 ret str's, the fewest in the league. Despite their 3-4 Big East record, they were +27.7 ypg (4th best). LY UL had 27 Sr's and this year just 18. I will call for a rebuilding UL team to open 5-3 but then they will still need an upset in November to get back to a bowl.

SYRACUSE ORANGE

RB Antwon Bailey

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Since Donovan McNabb departed, this team has been plagued by erratic QB play. In former HC Greg Robinson's 4 yrs the team completed just 46, 52, 53 and 47%. R/R Ryan Nassib (PS#93) was the proj'd st'r in '09. After my magazine went to press, the Orange brought in Duke basketball player Greg Paulus. Paulus was PS#4 in '04 and had not played football in 4 yrs but started all 12. Paulus set the school record for comp % in a season with 67.7% (Bill Schar, 63.3 in 1989) and also comp's with 193 (RJ Anderson, 186 in '03). Paulus threw for 2,024 but did have a 13-14 ratio. Ryan Nassib, who is more mobile and has a stronger arm threw for 422 (53%, 3-1) in 10 gms and was used in the "Stallion" (Wildcat) formation as he runs the zone read option well. LY they had to replace Paulus and Nassib threw for 2,334 (56.4%, 19-8). Nassib is a decent runner (216 gross yds) who can throw all of the passes in the playbook and his lower comp% was due to throwing deeper passes. He had a school record 5 td passes vs Maine (8 QB's had 4) and set the school's comp record (202). R/R Charley Loeb (5 gm, 5 att, PS#135) throws a nice deep ball but had trouble going through progressions. Adding depth are John Kinder who was the scout tm QB LY (esp when preparing for a mobile QB), James Jarrett (6'2" 204 So) and Nick Raven (6'3" 218 So, PS#176). With a better rec corps and a full year of exp, Nassib should be one of the more improved QB's in the NCAA.

RUNNING BACKS - Delone Carter (PS#98) is powerful and explosive and led with 713 (4.6) in '06 as a true frosh. Curtis Brinkley (PS#42) added 571 (4.1). In '07 Carter RS after suffering a freak hip injury (Bo Jackson type) and was far from 100% in '08 (137, 6.0). Brinkley led in '07 with 371 (3.3) and again in '08 with 1,164 (4.9). In '09 Carter rel'd to form and rushed for 1,021 (4.3) despite the constant shuffling of the OL. Marrone liked the 2 back combo saying that Delone Carter hits the holes fast (powerback) and Antwon Bailey (quick, shifty) spills off tackles (great patience). LY Carter rushed for 1,233 (5.3) to finish #3 on SU's all-time career rushing list passing Larry Csonka while Bailey added 554 (4.9) and was #5 rec. True frosh Prince-Tyson Guiley was the #3 RB (74 yd, 5.7). Marrone had talked to him about being the first player to touch the ball during the '10 season and he was, ret the opening KO and nearly breaking free for a long return and finished as the top KR. This year they lose Carter (career high 198 in bowl, #4DC IND). Syr did not have a RB on the roster with the power of Carter so they signed 5'10" 215 lb Adonis Ameen-Moore

(6,075 rush yds and 83 td's in HS). Not listed below are Mario Tull (6'0" 206 So, PS#138) who moved from LB in spg '11, Steve Rene (5'7" 167 So, PS#132) and FB Clay Cleveland (6'0" 218 rFr). This has the makings of a decent group but with the loss of their top guy, figures to be down a few notches.

RECEIVERS - WR Mike Williams was dominant after 7 sts in '09 but was susp'd and later quit the tm. He still led, by far, with 746 (15.2). Marcus Sales was #2 with 324 (11.6) and Alec Lemon (PS#116) was #3 with 295 (10.2). They also had to replace their TE last year. In '10 Van Chew added 15 lbs to get stronger and after having 10 rec his first 2 yrs, he led with 611 (14.9). Lemon was #3 with 397 (12.4) and TE Nick Provo was #4 with 365 (11.1). Marcus Sales (PS#35) was a poor practice player but when Lemon was out vs Rutgers, they were forced to play him. He had 5 rec's in the first 9 but then led in rec each of the last 4 and finished #2 with 414 (15.9) incl 172 yds and 3 td's in the bowl. Hofstra transfer Aaron Weaver had 6 rec in the first 2 gms but suffered a torn ACL. Syr avg 226.5 pass ypg in the first 2 then 164 ypg the next 7 without him. Soph Dorian Graham, perhaps the best athlete of the WR's moved in from DB (0 rec). This year they lose TE Jose Cruz (13 st, 13 rec) and Weaver. Another TE, Beckett Wales, quit in spg but could ret. Nassib has the arm for deep throws but after Jarrod West and Weaver were lost to inj's, Syr lacked a deep threat. Marrone believes with West healthy and an influx of speedy recruits, there will be a lot more deep passes. This should be a much improved rec corps.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In Doug Marrone's first year they had to replace two 3 yr st'rs then shuffled the line to make it bigger for better run blocking. Only 1 OL started all 12 (started at 2 diff positions). They actually slipped to 127 ypg rush (3.6) with 27 sks (7.6%). LY they had to replace 5 OL (comb 39 sts) and had just 34 career sts ret. Adam Rosner (6 sts '09) was only a backup LY. With basically just 1 st'r back they actually improved to 140 ypg (4.1) with 33 sks (9.1%) in the 2nd year of Marrone's system. This year they lose 3rd Tm BE C Ryan Bartholomew (13 st, 3Y st'r) and G Rosner. With 4 st'rs back this is clearly Marrone's best O-line yet.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Despite having a veteran D-line in '07, SU yielded 208 ypg rush (4.8), their worst ypg S/'86 and the D had an FBS fewest 9 sks. In '08 SU "only" yielded 189 ypg (5.0) with 16 sks. In '09 they had to replace 2 st'rs but the 2 ret st'rs were inj'd (comb 13 sts). Marrone did a phenomenal job as they somehow led the Big East in rush D (102 ypg, 3.0, 35 sks). Syr had 9 sks vs Rutgers! LY they had 6 of their top 8 back but had to replace NT Arthur Jones (1st Tm BE, #5DC). The Orange slipped a little to 136 ypg (3.6) with 8 less sks. This year they lose DT Bud Tribbey (11 st, 18 tkl), DT Andrew Lewis (12 st, 28 tkl, 4.5 ft) and DT Anthony Perkins (3 st, 29 tkl, 2 sk). While a little less exp'd, they should at least match '10's production.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 the Orange had to replace their #1 tkl'r and then the #3 tkl'r quit after spring along with a proj st'r. It got so bad that Marrone lost a JC prospect and signed another to have him leave as well. The star LB Doug Hogue (#3 tkl'r, 9.5 sks) moved from RB in spring '09. LB coach Dan Conley compared Hogue to Keith Bulluck, only more aggressive. LY Hogue and their #1 tkl'r Derrell Smith ret'd and both made the preseason Bednarik List. They did lose their #9 tkl'r. True frosh Marquis Spruill was plugged into the open spot and finished #7. This year they lose 1st Tm BE WLH Hogue (13 st, #2 tkl'r, 10.5 ftl, #5DC DET), 1st Tm BE MLB Smith (13 st, 9 tkl), Malcolm Cater (13 tkl), Brice Hawkes (12 tkl) and Mario Tull who moves to RB. The other LB's besides Spruill have come for just 16 career tkls. With just 8 scholarship LB's (incl 3 true frosh), this unit is clearly less exp'd with its veteran being a true soph.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Orange finished just #90, #117, #107 and #111 in my PDR from '06-'09. LY they had 5 back who had 7+ sts in '09 giving them their most exp'd secondary in yrs. I called for SU to have the best finish in my PDR since '05 (#36). The Orange accomplished that, finishing #64 (56.5%, 15-9). Their top DB was Mike Holmes who DB cch John Anselmo said might be their best corner and S. This year they lose 3rd Tm BE CB Holmes (13 st, 65 tkl, 1 int, 5 pbu), CB Da'Mon Merkeron (12 st, 23 tkl, 2 int, 6 pbu) and SS Max Suter (5 st, 44 tkl, 1 pbu). This is a less exp'd group but probably won't drop much in my PDR as the team continues to improve.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Under Paul Pasqualoni, Syracuse had some fine finishes in my ST rankings including #2, #11, #8 (1995-'97) and #15 in '02. In Greg Robinson's 4 yrs they finished #80, #45, #51 and #46 showing that even in down years SU does well in the ST rankings. In '09 nobody wanted the PK job (3 quit). P Rob Long avg a solid 43.9 in '08 (37.4 net) and 43.8 in '09 but with depleted coverage units, the tm net dropped to 36.1. They only had 145 PR yds (6.9). Ryan Lichtenstein hit 13 '17 FG's (L/44) in '09 but he was inj'd and true frosh Ross Krautman (PS#15) took over LY. Krautman's 40 yard FG with 3:08 to play in the bowl was his 16th in a row tying former SU great Gary Anderson's mark. Long ('09 semi for Ray Guy) improved to 43.8 (38.5 tm net) but missed the bowl for cancer treatment. Both K's handled KO's and Syr was the only FBS team without a TB. After a #93 finish in '09 the Orange moved up to #44. This year Long graduates and they also lose their top PR Holmes (10.3) and may not match '10's finish.

COACHES - In 2009 Syr brought in just their 6th HC since 1949 in Doug Marrone. He was the OC with the NO Saints ('06-'08) and an OL coach with the NYJ ('02-'05). Marrone is a disciplinarian and he weeded out many players his first season. He improved by 4 wins (from '09-'10) and led SU to their first winning season and a bowl win since 2001. Marrone called his own plays in '10 but this year gives the OC title to Nathaniel Hackett (QB cch here LY) who was an NFL off control coach (TB '06-'07, BUF '08-'09). DC Scott Shafer (3rd yr) was the DC at Michigan in '08, Stanford in '07 and W Mich from '05-'06.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Paul Pasqualoni only had one losing season in his 14 yrs. In his final season ('04) they faced the toughest schedule of any Big East team. They still won a share of the Big East Title (4-way tie) and went to a bowl. They fired Pasqualoni and the next 4 yrs were disastrous for the Orange under Greg Robinson. Any time you switch from an option based attack to the West Coast option, you can expect a 3 to 4 year learning process (ask ND and Neb). They went just 10-37 in that 4 yr stretch (3-25 in BE) and were by far the worst in ypg each year (-142, -158, -187, -141 ypg). Doug Marrone came in and cleaned house. I circle players that are either injured or leave the program on my magazine pages and amazingly SU had 30 circles by the end of 2009. I thought Marrone did a great job in his first year with the fewest scholarship players in the FBS guiding the team to a 4-8 record and they were actually +4.9 in BE play (3rd best) despite a 1-6 mark. LY they had 14 ret st'rs and were coming off a year in which they had 41 sts lost, plus had a def ypg of 12.1 (pg 299). They were up to 75 scholarship players in 2010. The Orange were picked 7th by the BE media (1 pt ahead of L'ville) after having been picked last in each of the previous 5 yrs. Injuries did affect them again and by mid Oct they were down to 60 healthy scholarship players and just 55 by the start of Nov. Syr amazingly won all 4 BE road games for the first time since the conference began back in 1991 and got to their 1st bowl S/'04. After beating KSU in the Pinstripe Bowl, SU finished 8-5 for their best record S/'01. This year they have Marrone's deepest squad (approx 82 scholarship players for fall) and only have 3 BE AQ's (4 at home). They amazingly had just 8 sts lost to injury last year and were +4 in net close wins (see pg 299). Syr has overachieved in each of Marrone's 2 seasons but has a tough Big East schedule with the most winnable games on the road, and they will not match LY's 8 win total.

The only prior meeting was in '06 in Winston-Salem, NC. SU lost 20-10. The gm was tied at HT 10-10 but SU had just 2 FD's & 12 yds in the 2H w/their deepest penetration at the WF33 (off int, after that own 36). Just one prior gm in '02, SU won 63-17 w/ a 27-17 FD & 629-445 yd edge. Rams went 5-6 LY incl a 31-0 loss to Buffalo. SU hasn't started a ssn 2-0 S'99. Orange are 5-0 S'02 vs FCS opp's with the avg score 43-17.

First meeting S'90 & only trip to the Coliseum was in 1924 (lost 16-0). SU is 2-9 S'00 in road openers but won LY. Incl the '97 Fiesta Bowl, SU has made 3 trips out west the L18Y going 0-3 losing by 17 & 21 & 27.

Orange are 2-0 vs the Rockets and in the L/meeting ('03) won 34-7. SU rolled to a 27-0 lead late 3Q as UT gained 49% (163) of their yds after. Could apply, LY SU was 4-1 off a loss.

SU is 30-10 vs RU (ply'd every yr S'80). LY's win made SU bowl eligible for the 1st time S'04. SU trailed in the 2H but w/ the gm tied went 66/11p hitting a 24 yd FG w/1:03 left (RU was SOD at own 33 on L/poss).

Orange are 6-1 vs Tulane incl a perfect 3-0 in New Orleans. In the L/trip ('96) SU won 31-7. SU led just 10-7 in the 4Q as the gm opened up when they ret a fum 77 yds for a TD (14 pt swing).

Cincinnati: Syracuse snapped a 5 game series losing streak LY with a 31-7 win.

Pittsburgh: LTH SU led 3-0 but Pitt scored the gms next 37 pts (SU garbage TD on final drive).

LY's win over WV snapped a series high 8 gm losing streak. SU trailed 14-10 but w/ 37 left 1Q in/d WV in the EZ (prevented DD lead) & from that point held WV to just 118 yds & ZERO pts!

LTH it was tied at 3-3 into the 4Q. SU scored a TD but missed the XP and after UL got a 44 yd PR they went 45/4p for the game winning TD and XP with 1:50 left (SU int L32).

Orange are 2-5 vs the Huskies incl 0-3 in their trips to Storrs, losing by 19, 23 & 25 pts. In the last visit SU allowed 56 pts which was the most since 2001 (59-0 loss at #1 Miami, FL).

SU had dropped all 5 vs USF by 24 ppg. LY SU trailed 9-6 early 4Q but went 98/14p (6:34 TOP) for the GWTD (possibly biggest drive of ssn). SU held USF to a punt & SOD at own 40 in their L/2 drives.

LY SU jumped out to a 17-0 lead winning 31-7 despite being outgained as 17 pts came of TO's.

Syracuse last won in Pittsburgh in '01, since then they have dropped 4 straight trips by 17 ppg.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 MOUNTAIN WEST FORECAST

1. BOISE ST - When it was announced that Boise St was joining the MWC, it looked like a true powerhouse conference but since then, BYU and Utah have departed and TCU is leaving in 2012. When Boise joined the WAC they won the Title in their second year and went a remarkable 75-5 in WAC play (+161.2 ypg). They could be poised for a similar run in the MWC. With the conference moving the crucial TCU/Boise St game to the blue turf along with the fact that Boise has 14 returning starters and TCU just 8, Boise will be the prohibitive favorite to win the MWC this year. All 9 sets of my power ratings call for a perfect 7-0 MWC season and I agree with them. Boise is led by QB Kellen Moore and is my #1 non AQ surprise team and is a legit National Title contender.

2. TCU - In '09 TCU returned just 10 st's but HC Patterson got them to a perfect 12-0 regular season record and they were ranked #3 prior to the Fiesta Bowl. Although Patterson continues to upgrade the talent level each year, this year looks like a rebuilding season with just 8 returning starters. It still would not surprise me to see them a National Title player once again despite losing 26 lettermen (by far the most in MWC). Nov 12th will be the Frogs first trip to the blue turf and that's why I have them pegged for 2nd, but if you check my rankings on the right, TCU ranks #1 in the conf in five of the nine categories and are capable of winning another MWC Title before their exodus to the Big East.

3. AIR FORCE - Troy Calhoun has done a great job with the Falcons and in his first four years has had just 12, 8, 12 and 10 returning starters to work with. This is by far his most experienced team with just 17 lettermen lost and 14 starters returning. AF also has the advantage of catching a young TCU team in its 2nd game of the season that has to travel to Colorado Springs. If the Falcons win that, they would finish in the top 2 of the MWC for just the 3rd time ever.

4. COLORADO ST - The Rams are off a pair of 3-9 seasons and last year were -86.1 ypg in MWC play. This year I feel they are one of the most improved teams in the country and they make my Most Improved List. This is HC Fairchild's best team in his four years (including the '08 bowl team) as they have 14 returning starters and for the first time in his tenure return a starting QB. CSU gets a pivotal game vs SDSt at home which has me calling them for #4 in the MWC. They also get AF at home and could actually finish even higher.

MWC Notes: The MWC looked like it was ready to make a legitimate push for AQ status (evaluated every 4 yrs) with the addition of Boise St but then lost its 3 powerhouse teams in BYU, Utah and TCU shortly thereafter. The MWC schedule makers have given TCU a rough going away present as they were originally scheduled to host Boise but then switched them to playing on the blue turf the week after traveling to Wyoming. Also the Frogs did not get an early bye that they requested and have to play Air Force the week after Baylor and San Diego St gets a bye before playing them as well. Since 2001 every MWC Champ has finished unbeaten in conference play and this year that streak should continue as Boise plays my #2 and #3 conf teams at home! In fact since 2004 the MWC Champ has had an undefeated conf record. Last year TCU became the 2nd MWC team in the last 3 years to win a BCS bowl and finish #2 in the final AP poll (Utah '08). LY's MWC teams went 4-1 in the bowls and comb for an incredible 18-6 record the last 5 years in bowl games

5. SAN DIEGO ST - All of my sets of power ratings call SDSt the 4th best team in the league and they could easily finish in the upper half of the standings. The Aztecs do lose 2 NFL DC's at WR plus lost HC Hoke and OC Borges to Michigan. Rocky Long who did a great job at New Mexico is more familiar with the players than most 1st year HC's as he was the DC here the last two years. This is a team which lost just 4 games by a combined 15 points last year and has a great QB/RB combo with Lindley/Hillman. While not as strong as LY's squad, it should be a 2nd straight post season for the Aztecs.

6. WYOMING - The Cowboys got to a bowl in HC Christensen's first season but did not defeat an FBS team with a winning record in the regular season and their 6 losses were by an avg of 27 ppg. Last year, as expected, they dropped back to 3-9 but were probably better than their record. This year they have 14 returning starters and are in the 3rd year of Christensen's systems. The Cowboys will have an improved defense and I think their young QB's will play better than expected. They have a chance of opening as strong as 5-1 on the season and could flirt with their 2nd bowl berth in the last 7 years.

7. NEW MEXICO - This is by far the best team that HC Locksley has fielded and I'm amazed at some of the VHT transfers he has brought in including LB Johnson (PS#22, from MD), WR Long (PS#42, from WV), WR Thomas (PS#9, from Ohio St) and DT Ellis (PS#26, from IL). This year the Lobos have 15 returning starters (most in the MWC) but do face 7 bowl teams including 4 that finished in the final AP Top 12 LY. Locksley is on the hot seat but with the talent he has brought in the Lobos should win more games in 2011 than they did the previous 2 years combined and should escape the basement.

8. UNLV - Of the teams in the bottom of the MWC, the Rebels are the least exp'd with just 11 returning starters (2nd fewest) and have to play both Wyoming and New Mexico on the road. Last year they did beat both of those teams at home (convincingly) which does make them a threat to escape the basement this year. However, I think UNLV will hit its stride in Bobby Hauck's third season (next yr) as this is a young team with just 25 upperclassmen scholarship players and this looks like another rebuilding season.

and have finished with the highest win % among all conferences in 3 of the last 4 years! The conf did go a combined 17-21 vs FBS teams LY including a respectable 7-10 mark vs BCS teams. If you include Utah and BYU, the MWC had 10 players drafted led by TCU with 5 players. However if you just count this year's teams the number actually is higher (11) since Boise had more players drafted than Utah and BYU combined. Naturally my All-Conf team above is dominated by Boise and TCU as they have a combined 15 players on my first team! San Diego St is 3rd with 5 players named to the 1st Team.

BOISE ST BRONCOS

DE Shea McClellin

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Boise has had some fine QB's excel in their system in recent years. Bart Hendricks was the Big West OPOY twice ('99 & '00). Ryan Dinwiddie became the career leading passer (9,819) from '00-'03 breaking Danny Wuerffel's NCAA record for career pass eff (168.9) and Jared Zabransky (3 yr str) threw for 2,587 (66%, 23-8) in '06. Four QB's battled for the job in '07 and Taylor Tharp had a fine season throwing for 3,340 (68%, 30-11). In '08 I projected VHT rfr Kellen Moore (PS#24) to win the job even though he was not the starter out of spring. Moore became the first frosh to start the season opener here at QB and showed how much success a VHT could have in this system. He threw for 3,486 (69%, 25-10). He followed that up with a sensational '09 finishing #2 in the FBS in pass eff (161.5) throwing for 3,536 (64%) with an amazing 39-3 ratio. LY he was the FWAA's 1st Tm AA QB and finished 4th in the Heisman voting after throwing for 3,845 (71.3%, 35-6) and leading the NCAA in pass eff (182.6). He also passed Dinwiddie as the career pass leader. Although Mike Coughlin (4-9-36) was listed 2nd string all year, Joe Southwick had more att's (24, 70.8%). This year they lose Coughlin (8 gm) and added to the mix is rfr Grant Hedrick (PS#91). I look for Southwick to gain more PT to prep for next year and while Moore will not improve much upon LY's stats, he could be the best QB in the country. Moore ('08-2) needs just 8 wins to pass Colt McCoy (45-8) as the all-time winningest QB in NCAA history.

RUNNING BACKS - Ian Johnson wrapped up his 4 yr career as the school's #2 career rusher. He became the first Boise RB to have B2B 1,000 yd seasons ('06-'07) since '01-'02 but in his senior year, had just 766 (5.1) and was only 2nd Tm WAC. Spelling Johnson were Jeremy Avery (614, 5.5) and DJ Harper (265, 4.8). Harper (4.43 spd) stepped to the forefront in '09 and led with 284 (6.5) after 3 yr tore his ACL. Doug Martin the "Muscle Hamster" who had 107 (4.5) in '08 and moved to DB, ret'd to RB to split duties with Avery. Avery led with 1,151 (5.5) and Martin added 765 (5.9). LY 100% of their rushing yds ret'd. Harper appeared fully recovered but after 3 gms was OFY with another ACL injury (160, 8.9). Martin, now firmly back at RB led with 1,260 (6.3). He also showed his speed on his gm changing 84 yd rd run vs Utah. Avery was #2 with 495 (5.2). This year they lose Avery (0 st), Jarvis Hodge (305, 6.6) and Matt Kaiserman (140, 3.6). Not listed in the PSL are Carlo Audagnotti (5'7" 184 Jr) and Drew Wright (5'9" 198 Jr). Despite losing 3 of the top 5 RB's, this unit could put up even stronger numbers.

RECEIVERS - VHT Jeremy Childs (PS#39) set a school record with 82 grabs (12.7) in '07. True frosh Titus Young (PS#152) and Austin Pettis (PS#127) finished #2 and #3 with 639 (14.5) and 465 (10.1). All 3 ret'd in '08 but Young played in just 3 (susp). Childs and Vinny Perretta combined for 1,380 (12.8) and 9 td's. In '09 they had to replace 3 of their top 4 rec's with the top returnee being Pettis (567, 11.6). Pettis had 855 (13.6) despite missing 1 (inj). Young led with 1,041 (13.2) and TE Kyle Eflaw was #3 with 444 (14.3). Tyler Shoemaker (miss 2) had 345 (16.4). LY Young became Boise's all-time leader in rec yds and Pettis the all-time leader in rec's with Young having 1,215 (17.1) and Pettis 951 (13.4). Shoemaker finished a distant #3 at 582 (18.2) and Eflaw had 299 (12.5). This year they lose Young (11 st, #2DC DET), Pettis (11 st, #3DC STL), Tommy Gallarda (5 st) and Sean King (5 gm). Naturally with the loss of a pair of career leaders, this unit will be down a few notches.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Boise had their least exp'd O-line of the decade as only 1 of the top 6 ret'd (lost 101 car sts). They used 9 different OL combos and as expected, the numbers dropped to 152 ypg (4.4) but they did allow just 13 sks (3.0%). In '09 they had to replace 2 str's and had 40 career sts ret (#101 FBS). The more exp'd unit improved to 186 ypg (5.1) and allowed a paltry 5 sks (1.1%, #1 NCAA). LY they only had to replace 1 str (88 car sts ret). As you would expect, they improved again to 200 ypg rush (5.4) with just 8 sks (1.9%, #2 NCAA). This year they lose 2nd Tm WAC RG Will Lawrence (13 st, 2Y str), RT Matt Slater (11 st) and bkp Garrett Pendergast (retired, 6 st 3Y). They return 1st Tm WAC LT Nate Potter and 1st Tm WAC C Thomas Byrd. They have 8 of the top 10 back and the career sts are up to #13 (98). I look for continued improvement.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Boise had 7 of their top 8 DL's back for the 2nd straight year in '06 and allowed just 89 ypg rush (3.2), their best since joining IA. They slipped some the next 2 yrs but were still solid. In '09 they had to replace 4 DL (comb 34 sts) but ret'd star DE Ryan Winterswyk and allowed 120 ypg (3.8). LY the entire 2 deep ret'd and I said Boise could top 2006's dominant rush D totals. They allowed just 2.9 ypg (their best since joining FBS), while yielding 104 ypg rush and their 49 sks were best since 1997 (56). This year they lose 1st Tm WAC DE Winterswyk (13 st, 44 tkl, 9 ffl) and JP Nisby (16 tkl, 4.5 ffl) but have 6 of their top 8 back including 1st Tm WAC DT Billy Winn, DE Shea McClellin and also 2nd Tm WAC NT Chase Baker. Also returning is PS#39JC Tyrone Crawford, who they planned to RS LY, but he had 32 tkl and 7 sks as a bkp. Adding depth are Darren Kootz (6'3" 281 Jr, PS#279) and David Cushing (6'0" 267 Jr). Even with the loss of Winterswyk, this unit should be just as strong.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 Boise incorporated the NB into the D, which I include with the LB's. LY the entire 2 deep ret'd (8 with st exp) with 4 having been full-time str's incl 2nd Tm WAC Winston Venable. They even moved DE Byron Hout (PS#30) to LB and he started 9 until he broke his knee, but still earned 2nd Tm WAC. Boise allowed just 12.8 ppg (#2 NCAA). This year they lose 1st Tm WAC NB Venable (12 st, 44 tkl, 9.5 ffl), Derrell Acrey (4 st, 27 tkl) and Daron Mackey (25 tkl, 1.5 ffl). They return 2 str's along with bkp JC Percy (3 st) who was the #2 tkl'r and NB Hunter White (1 st, 38 tkl). Not in the PSL are Travis Saxton (6'1" 214 rfr), Billy Derome (5'11" 191 So) and Matt Wilson (6'1" 228 Sr). This unit looks just as strong.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Over the last 9 yrs Boise has been #8, #6, #15, #52, #15, #20, #4, #11 and LY #2 in my PDR. LY they did have to replace a #1DC but had 3 str's back incl Brandyn Thompson who was the Def MVP of the Fiesta Bowl who took over for Kyle Wilson as the boundary CB. This year they lose 2nd Tm WAC CB Thompson (13 st, 31 tkl, 3 int, 7 pbu, #7DC WAS), 1st Tm WAC S Jeron Johnson (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 7 pd) and S Jason Robinson (22 tkl, 1 int). They do return 1st Tm WAC S George Iloka, but their returning CB's combined for just 1 int and 3 pbu in '10. As usual, Boise will finish high in my PDR but figures to be down a few notches.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Boise has always had a top-notch ST unit and from '99-'08 they finished #32, #23, #28, #2, #4, #19, #59, #10 and #2. All of their key players were back in '09 and I had them rated as the #1 ST unit in my magazine and they did not disappoint, finishing #1. Kyle Brotzman had a net of 39.6 in '08 and 38.3 in '09 and hit 18-25 FG's (L52) in 2009 but had just 7 TB on 97 KO. LY almost everyone ret'd and it was surprising to me that Boise slid down to #31. Chris Potter was the top PR (13.3) but Titus Young saw his KR avg drop from 26.9 (2 td) to 23.5 (0 td). Brotzman avg 44.1 with a team net of 36.4. Trevor Harman avg 44.7 punting and had 9 TB on 82 KO. Brotzman was a Lou Groza semifinalist but missed 2 crucial FG's vs Nevada gaining him national attention. He leaves as the NCAA's all-time point leader by a kicker and hit 16-23 (L50). With Petersen's track record, they could actually improve in my ST rankings.

COACHES - When Dirk Koetter left for Ariz St (after '00), asst Dan Hawkins took over as HC and went 53-11. When Hawkins left for Colorado in '06, Chris Petersen (OC prev 5Y) took over. Petersen was a Broyles finalist (top asst) twice and his offenses, in a 3 year stretch from 2002-'04, avg'd 45.8 ppg. In his first year as HC Petersen achieved a 13-0 record and a #5 finish. He has a remarkable record of 61-5 with 3 undefeated regular seasons in his 5 yrs! Petersen became the first ever to win the Paul "Bear" Bryant COY Award twice. Bryan Harsin, who was the OC here for 10Y before leaving for Texas, will be replaced by Brent Pease (WR ch 5 yr). Pease initially accepted the OC job at Indiana but ret'd here after Harsin left (2 wks). DC Pete Kwiatkowski is in his second season as DC. He has also been the DL coach for 5 seasons.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Boise St joined the WAC in 2001 and despite coming from the lower level Big West conf, they thoroughly dominated the league for its entire 10 yr stay. While the Broncos didn't win EVERY championship, they went a remarkable 75-5 (94%) in WAC play (+161.2 ypg). In my 2006 magazine I projected Boise to earn a BCS bowl berth. I had to sweat out a couple of games (WY and SJS) but Boise ran the table then beat Okla in the Fiesta Bowl. They finished #5 in the AP (5th straight WAC Title). In '07 I projected Boise's run of conf champs to end and that's exactly what happened as they finished 10-3 and unranked. In '08 they went 12-1 with their lone loss to TCU in the bowl (by 1) and finished #11. In '09 I listed Boise as the #1 non-BCS team despite having to replace their top RB and WR and they did not disappoint. This time they went a perfect 14-0 and topped TCU in the Fiesta Bowl finishing #4. LY they had an amazing 19 ret str's after having the fewest scholarship seniors in the country in '09 (4). After Boise knocked off VT in the opener, not a day went by that Boise and the BCS National Title game were not brought up in the same sentence. Boise went on to win their next 9 by 40.1 ppg and were #3 when they travelled to #19 Nevada. They blew a 24-7 HT lead and missed 2 key FG's and lost in OT. They finished strong beating Utah St 50-14 then waxed #20 Utah in the bowl 26-3 and finished #9. This year Boise moves to the MWC so the competition gets tougher but the conf gave them the huge game vs TCU at home on the blue turf. They've won 8 conf titles the L10Y and will be favored for their 9th. Their early season test vs Georgia will determine whether or not this team will be a National Title contender again as they have 14 ret str's including Heisman candidate QB Kellen Moore. If the Broncos get past Georgia, their goal should not just be getting to a BCS bowl but capitalizing on their shot at a National Title berth.

Both schools came in ranked in the previous meeting ('05 ssn opener). BSU is 6-1 vs BCS schools L5Y (only loss in '07 at Wash). For the 3rd str ssn BSU's opener is a National Title elimination game.

Bonus: Under Petersen the Broncos are a perfect 32-0 at Bronco Stadium w/a avg score of 45-14. BSU is 77-2 '99 on the blue turf (lost in '05 vs BC in bowl & in '01 vs Wash St).

In first meeting LY, BSU forced 5 TO's leading 57-7 into the 4Q. All 5 of the Broncos 2011 non-conf foes went to a bowl LY. The last time BSU lost to a non-ranked opp was the '07 Hawaii Bowl (32 str).

The L/gm was in '09, BSU won 28-21 w/25-12 FD & 380-295 yd edges. TU, down just 7 in the 4Q, got the ball back twice but both drives stalled. Broncos have won 9 str home openers by 36 ppg.

BSU went 75-5 in WAC play ('10Y). Into '11, Petersen has just 5 losses as a HC (WA, HI, EC, TCU & NV). LY they missed a 26 yd FG as time exp in regulation & a 29 yd FG in OT costing them a BCS bowl.

Broncos have won 2 str trips to Fresno. LTHBSU never relinquished the lead as they jumped out 17-0 but were only up 41-34 when they got a 67 yd TD pass foll'd by a 70/7pl FG drive to put it away.

First meeting. Prior to Boise St, Chris Petersen was the WR chh at Oregon from 1995-'00. In '96 UO beat CSU 35-28. The Broncos are 12-4 all-time vs current MWC foes.

First meeting. Petersen was on the Oregon staff for the 97 Las Vegas Bowl when UO beat AF 41-13. The Broncos move into the MWC TY as BYU is now an IND & Utah moves to the Pac-12.

Bonus: Boise St has won 12 straight home finales by an average of 36 ppg.

Bonus: HC Petersen is the first & only 2x winner of the Paul "Bear" Bryant COY Award ('06 & '09).

BSU is 3-3 in this series but 0-3 at UNLV. Their last trip here was in 1976 (lost 31-26). BSU ended its 2010 ssn here in Sam Boyd Stadium beating Utah in the "disappointment" bowl.

First reg ssn gm in what could be a rivalry. The 3 bowls have been decided by 11 tfl pts. Both ranked (Top 6) in the L/gm ('09 Fiesta Bowl). BSU led 10-0 and held on w/int at its 14 w/18 left.

Into '11 Boise St is 5-3 at current MWC sites & last played at Qualcomm in the '08 Poinsettia Bowl.

BSU is 5-0 w/the avg score 32-12. LY BSU was off a bye after its VT win but led 34-0 at HT w/a 409-39 yd edge.

BSU is 2-0, L/gm in '00 (BSU's last yr in BWC). BSU had 16-15 FD & 307-278 yd edges in the 31-14 ssn opener.

TCU HORNE FROGS

DE Stansly Maponga

LB Tank Carder

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Jeff Ballard (PS#44) won 90.5% of his starts ('05-'06) while setting numerous school and MWC records. Marcus Jackson (PS#74) was his backup in '06 and threw for 386 (59%, 2-1). In '07 rfr Andy Dalton (PS#74) beat out Jackson. Dalton attempted 371 passes in '07, 307 in '08 and 323 in '09 when he set a new career high with 2,756 (62%, 23-8) and had 512 rush (4.4). At that point he had already become the school's career leader, the same school that had QB's like Sammy Baugh and Davey O'Brien. Dalton had a fine senior season setting records for yds (2857, reset his own), comp (66.1%, passed Ballard's 61.9% in '06) and td passes in a single season. He had a 27-6 ratio and added 435 (5.1) rush. Casey Pachall played in 8 but had just 9 att's (94 rush, 6.3). This unit goes from a QB who set the standard with 42 wins (Baugh #2 at 29-7-2 from 1934-'36) and 10,314 yds (#2 DC CIN) to 17 career yds and 0 victories.

RUNNING BACKS - TCU's most famous alum is LaDainian Tomlinson, who rushed for over 4,000 yards in his last 2 yrs here and went on to NFL stardom. Joseph Turner (PS#163) led in '07 (597, 5.2), '08 (577, 4.0) and in '09 (754, 5.1). Both Matthew Tucker (PS#96, 676, 6.4) and Ed Wesley (PS#183, 638, 6.3) topped LT's frosh numbers (538, 4.3). LY they lost Turner (12 st) but added UCLA transfer Andre Dean (PS#6). First Tm MWC Wesley became TCU's first 1,000 yd rusher S/'03 with 1,078 (6.5) while Tucker was named 3rd Tm MWC with 709 (4.8). Waymon James (5'8" 203 So, PS#80) had 513 (5.9) and Dean added 223 (7.0). This year the only loss is FB Ryan Hightower (16 yds). Not listed below are Dwight Smith (5'10" 218 rfr, PS#168) and FB Luke Shivers (6'0" 220 Sr). This is the deepest group of RB's in the MWC!

RECEIVERS - In '08 the top WR by far was Jimmy Young who had 988 (16.7) earning my 2nd Tm MWC honors. Young set a school record with 226 vs WY. He was basically the entire WR corps as the #2 rec was a TB. In '09 they had 2 st's ret but 1st Tm MWC KR/PR Jeremy Kerley led with 532 (12.1). Young was #2 with 517 (15.7) and Antoine Hicks, who orig signed with Texas (PS#38), was #3 (478, 20.8). All 3 ret'd LY and showing the talent this unit has, Young only had 6 rec in the first 5 and finished #3 (486, 15.2). Rfr Josh Boyce (PS#228) led with 646 (19.0) while Kerley was #2 (575, 10.3) and Hicks had 175 (13.5). Kerley tied Mike Renfro's 1977 school record of 10 td rec. This year they lose Kerley (11 st, #5DC NVJ), Young (10 st, HM MWC), TE Evan Frosch (6 st, 2 rec, 3rd Tm MWC), Bart Johnson, (6 st, 419, 13.5), Curtis Clay (1 st, 5 rec) and Alonzo Adams (1 rec). Not listed below are Garrett Winsett (5'9" 180 Sr) and TE's Robert Deck (6'4" 270 Sr) and Justin Rose (6'2" 230 Sr). With 3 of the top 4 rec's gone, this unit is less exp'd in '11 and hopefully Hicks returns to '09 form. They also add a great class of true frosh WR's (2 VHT's and 3 HT's).

OFFENSIVE LINE - HC Gary Patterson usually does well here, even with inexp'd O-lines. As an example, in '09 he had to replace 3 st's but the unit actually improved to 240 ypg (5.2) while allowing just 12 sks. LY they had to replace a 1st Tm MWC LT (#5DC) but had 4 st's back incl 1st Tm MWC players C Jake Kirkpatrick and LT Marcus Cannon (0 sk all'd '09). As you would expect, the outstanding O-line opened holes for a Patterson-era best 247 ypg rush (5.4) while allowing just 9 sks (2.7%). This year the losses are heavy. Gone are 1st Tm AA and Rimington winner Kirkpatrick (13 st, 2Y st'r), 1st Tm MWC Cannon (12 st, 3Y st'r, #5DC NE), RT Zach Roth (10 st) and RG Josh Vernon (13 st, 2Y st'r). They have just 36 career sts returning. In '06 TCU had to replace 4 st's but actually improved to 4.5 ypc. This year's unit will test Patterson's magic and I do not see any way they could come near 2010's production as that was clearly his best O-line yet.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Patterson who was the DC here prior to being named HC, always fields a top-notch D-line as they have yielded 2.9 or less ypc rush in 10 of the last 12 yrs. The only 2 years they did not was LY (3.3) and in '04 when they had to replace all 4 st's (still only 3.2). After all g just 47 ypg (#1 NCAA) and 1.7 ypc in '08, TCU had only 1 st'r back in '09 but it was star DE Jerry Hughes. While the numbers dropped, they were still outstanding at 80 ypg (#2 NCAA), 2.6 and 33 sks. LY TCU had to replace Hughes (#1DC) but had 7 of its top 8 back. While I expected the sack numbers to drop (did slide to 27), it was surprising to me that they slipped to 100 ypg (3.3) which was #5 in the NCAA. NT Kelly Griffin was lost after WK 8 and they were allowing just 89.2 ypg (3.1) prior to taking on Wisc's powerful rush attack in the bowl. This year the Frogs lose 1st Tm AA DE Wayne Daniels (13 st, 39 tkl, 6.5 sk, 7.5 tfl), 1st Tm MWC DT Cory Grant (13 st, 18 tkl, 3.5 sk) and Griffin (8 st, 5 tkl, 2.5 tfl). The breakout ply'r on the DL should be DE Stansly Maponga (2nd Tm MWC LY). This will be another solid group but with just 1 st'r back, TCU's rush D numbers could drop for a 4th straight yr.

LINEBACKERS - TCU runs a 4-2-5 and while all of their safeties are legitimate S's, I list the SS here as I limit the DB's to 4 positions. In '09 they had to replace their #1, #2 and #3 tkl's (all 3 NFL DC's) and did slip some to all g 12.8 ypg. LY they had to replace 3rd Tm AA SLB Daryl Washington (#2DC) but had 5 of the top 6 back. SS Tyler Luttrell started the first game but lost his job and had just 10 tkl's (9 gm) so it was like having 1 st'r back. They did improve to 12.0 ppg LY. This year they lose 2nd Tm MWC SS Colin Jones (12 st, #2 tkl'r, 11.5 tfl, #6DC SF) and Luttrell. TCU does return Tanner Brock (#1 tkl'r, 3rd Tm AA) and 1st Tm AA & MWC DPOY Carder (#4 tkl'r, 9.5 tfl). Adding depth are Marcus Mallet (6'1" 216 rfr, PS#134), Christopher Cisi (5'9" 195 So) and David Stoltzman (6'0" 212 Jr). This group has more exp and two of the top LB's in the country and are my #6 rated LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - TCU has recorded 5 straight Top 10 finishes in my PDR (#4 in '06 w/1 ret st'r, #9, #2, #5 and #4 LY). The Frogs had to replace their CB combo of Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders who had combined to start 42 consecutive gms together. This year they lose 2nd Tm MWC CB Jason Teague (13 st, 37 tkl, 2 int, 7 pbu), 1st Tm AA FS Tejay Johnson (13 st, 66 tkl, 3 int, 4 pbu), WS Alex Ibiyoye (7 st, 39 tkl, 4.5 tfl), SS Jurrell Thompson (22 tkl) and CB Malcolm Williams (12 tkl, #7DC NE). The Frogs had an interesting stretch from the end of '09 into early '10 where they had ret'd 5 of 8 int's for td's. Patterson will produce another solid secondary but this unit is clearly less exp'd and loses its star, Johnson who was a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award.

SPECIAL TEAMS - TCU almost always produces a top-notch ST unit under Patterson. In the last 10 yrs they finished in the Top 35 eight times (#2 in '07). They have had a 1st Tm MWC returnman for 6 straight yrs (3 diff ply'r's). In '08 Ross Evans was the only frosh Lou Groza semifinalist hitting 12 straight FG's (16-20, L50) but he missed 6 xp's. TCU finished #18 in '08 and despite losing their top KR, moved up to #11 in '09. Jeremy Kerley led the MWC in KR avg (26.6) and PR avg (14.4) and his 563 PR yds were a school rec (MWC STPOY). LY the unit ret'd intact. Kerley avg 27.7 on KR's and 12.9 on PR's and was again MWC STPOY. Anson Kelton improved his punting avg from 37.5 to 41.6 (tm net 34.8 to 36.5). Ross Evans hit 15-18 (L48) in '09 and 11-13 (L43) LY as TCU finished #19 (5 of L6Y in Top 25). Evans set the TCU record for xp's made (Chris Kaylakie 1998-'00) and att'd (Chris Manfredie '05-'07). This year they lose Kevin Sharples (14 TB, 97 KO) and Kerley. Patterson has shown he can produce a top-notch RM so the unit probably will not drop as much as expected.

COACHES - Gary Patterson replaced Dennis Franchione prior to the 2000 bowl and has never looked back. Patterson was named CUSA's COY in '02 and the MWC COY in '05 and in '09. He's led the Frogs to B2B 12-0 reg seasons and was the Walter Camp and FWAA Eddie Robinson COY in 2009 when he took home a total of ten COY honors. Jarrett Anderson (14Y here, WR cch '01-'08) and Justin Fuente (RB cch '07-'08, QB cch L2Y) are co-OC's for a 2nd season. Patterson had been an asst under DC Dick Bumpas at Navy and hired the solid DC away from WM. Bumpas (8th year) was a Broyles Award finalist the last 3 yrs (#1 D NCAA all 3 yrs!).

PHIL'S FORECAST

In the past TCU did not land the most highly touted HS recruits but built bigger, stronger and faster athletes with a great weight training program. Almost 75% of the roster can bench 400 lbs and each year many opposing HC's mention that TCU is the fastest team in the MWC, especially on defense. After being a member of the SWC, TCU has had some outstanding seasons incl 10-2 ('02 in CUSA) and even flirted with an '03 BCS bowl before losing a late game at SM. They have been to a bowl in 12 of the last 13 yrs. In '05 they moved into their 4th conf in 11 yrs and won the MWC Title finishing 11-1 (#11 AP). It was their 3rd diff conf title in 6 yrs. From '05-'07, they beat five B12 tms. In '08 TCU was arguably the best non-BCS team despite their 2 losses. Against eventual Nat'l Title participant Okla they were only outFD'd 17-16 and despite outgaining Utah on the road 416-275, they lost. They finished 11-2 (#7) beating an unbeaten Boise in the bowl. In '09 after being +211.4 ypg in MWC play in '08, they improved to +261.9. The Frogs were a missed FG in the Big 12 Title game away from the possibility of playing in the National Title game. In a rematch vs Boise, they played a "B" game effort and lost to the Broncos, 17-10 and finished #6. LY TCU ret'd 16 st's (incl 13 '09 All-MWC ply'r's), and was ranked in the preseason Top 10 (#6) for just the 4th time (#9 '52, '57 '56, '88 '58). Eight of my 9 sets of power ratings called for TCU to go 12-0 and mine was the ONLY magazine to have them ranked higher than Boise. TCU had the type of season I expected going a perfect 13-0. At the start of the year Patterson appeared reluctant to score late and that cost him a few spots in the polls but they rolled through the MWC (+313 ypg) beating the other MWC titans, BYU and Utah, by a comb'd score of 78-10! They beat Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl and finished #2 AP (three 1st place votes). The Frogs have finished #1 in the FBS in total D 5 of the last 11 years (just the 3rd team with 3 straight #1's). After the Frogs accepted a bid to go to the Big East next year, a HG vs Boise was switched to the blue turf (4 MWC AG's). TCU is 16-3 vs AQ conf's since '02 and the 13-0 record was their first perfect season since 1938 (Nat'l Champs). While this looks like a rebuilding year with just 8 ret st's (ties for fewest Patterson era), 6 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for an 11 win season.

AIR FORCE FALCONS

QB Tim Jefferson

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Shaun Carney became the first ever true frosh Falcon QB to start an opener and left after '07 as the school's career leader in passing (5391), total offense (7952) and comp % (61.9). In '08 AF went from a 4th year senior to a combined 7 career games. True frosh Tim Jefferson led an 84 yd td drive vs Navy and took over the starting job. He won his first 5 sts and threw for 655 (55%) with 387 rush (3.8) en route to being named the MWC FPOY. Despite missing time in spg (acad) Jefferson was named the starter but was inj'd vs NM and Connor Dietz started 3. Dietz is more of a runner who yells and screams to fire up his teammates while Jefferson is a quiet leader with a better arm. Jefferson threw for 848 (57%, 5-2, 254 rush) while Dietz threw for 197 (47%, 1-0, 369 rush). After the ssn Jefferson admitted to playing inj'd most of the yr (knee) and he missed part of spg '10. He still led with 1,459 (51.6%, 10-6) and was the #2 rusher (794, 5.2). Dietz played in 5 (124 tl yds). This year they both return and Jefferson is 2 wins away from setting the AF record for career wins. I look for continued improvement.

RUNNING BACKS - The FB was the main ball carrier in Fisher DeBerry's wishbone offense but in '06 Chad Hall became the first HB to be the #1 rusher since '94. Hall was moved to ZWR (basically a RB) in Calhoun's first yr. He was the MWC OPOY rushing for 1,478 (6.4) while also finishing #1 in rec (524, 10.5), tll tds (16) and ret yds (681). LY he made the roster for the PHI Eagles. AF had to replace its top 5 rushers in '08 and the top 4 TB were all frosh and soph. FB Todd Newell led with 594 (4.2) and converted QB Asher Clark rushed for 588 (4.5). WRZ Kyle Halderman had 350 (9.7) and FB Jared Tew added 328 (6.6). In '09 four of the top 6 ret'd (lost Newell). Clark worked at QB in spg which slowed his progress. In the final 5 he had 481 and finished #2 (865, 5.7). FB Tew led with 970 (4.1) but with 87 more rush than Clark. WRZ Jonathan Warzeka had 267 (5.6). LY

4 of the top 5 ret'd incl Tew who was the #2 rusher after 7 (540, 4.9) but missed 5 (inj). He did ret for the bowl and scored the game winning TD (OMVP). Asher Clark joined an exclusive club when he became the 3rd AF TB ever to crack 1,000 yds (1031, 5.7). Nathan Walker took over for Tew at FB and rushed for 470 (4.6) meaning the FB's as a whole also topped 1,000. Warzeka added 312 (7.6). TY they lose Tew (6 st), Walker (6 st), FB Ryan Southworth (PS#158, 48 yds) and WRZ Halderman (11 st, 530 tll yd). Despite the loss of their top 3 FB's (a frosh may win the job), this group could be just as good with Clark's return.

RECEIVERS - With the WRZ in the RB's this position includes just one WR and a TE. Kevin Fogler led with 567 (22.7) in '09 which was 49% of the team's rec yds. LY Fogler returned but was injured and made only 4 sts (67, 33.5). Zack Kauth (3 st, 274, 17.4) filled the void. Chaz Demerath (241, 14.2) gave the TE spot more production than in recent years. This year they lose Folger and Demerath (11 st) but filling the TE spot will be Joshua Freeman (1 st) who avg'd an impressive 30.5 on 4 rec. With both of LY st's gone the unit will be down a little but they have gained valuable experience.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In Calhoun's first year, AF had to replace 3 st's (comb 42 st) but still paved the way for 300 ypg rush (5.4) while allowing 13 sks. All 5 st's did play the majority of the snaps. They had to replace 3 st's in '08 and slipped to 267 ypg (4.5) but did allow just 5 sks. In '09 they had 3 st's back and Calhoun called it a team strength and they improved to 283 ypg (4.5, 11 sk). Last year they had to replace all 5 st's incl a pair of 1st Tm MWC's and their 1 career start was 2nd lowest in the FBS. I pointed out that service academies do a great job with inexp'd units but they surpassed my expectations paving the way for their best ypg rushing (307, 5.3) since '02 while allowing just 5 sks. All 5 started all 13 games. This year they lose LG Tyler Schonsheck (13 st), 2nd Tm MWC RT Chase Darden (13 st) and OT Alexander Arndt (11 gm). With 3 st's back and 7 of the top 10, this is a much more exp'd unit but it will be tough to improve upon '10's outstanding production.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 AF had to replace 2 starters but returned 6'5" 275 Ben Garland who earned 1st Tm MWC. Despite being less exp'd than '08, the unit allowed just 134 ypg rush (3.7), their ypg best since '99. LY they had to replace 2 st's including Garland and then lost proj'd starting DE Wylie Wikstrom in the opener. As you would expect, the numbers slipped to yielding 202 ypg (4.8) with the sks dropping from 24 to 14. The lone returning str DE Rick Ricketts earned 2nd Tm MWC and DE Zach Payne (3 tkl '09) was 3rd Tm MWC. This year they lose Ricketts (13 st, 71 tkl, 10 tll, Def MVP bowl), NG Bradley Connor (3 st, 23 tkl, 4 tll) and Wikstrom. They have 4 of the top 6 back incl 2 st's and while still on the smaller side, as is the norm here, should be a much improved group.

LINEBACKERS - Due to graduation and then inj's in '09, 2 true frosh combined for 8 sts with their top returning tackler, Ken Lamendola, being lost after 5 sts. LY they had to replace their #1 and #2 tkl's. The top returnees were Andre Morris (#3) and Wade Lawal (#12 tkl'r). This year they lose OLB Morris (#6 tkl'r, 13 st, 1 int), Chris Judge (7 gm) and Lawal will likely retire. They have their most veteran LB corps in yrs with 5 back who started LY (incl #1, #3, tkl'r) plus Lamendola returns.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Despite having to replace 3 st's, AF finished #48 in my PDR in '08. With an exp'd unit in '09 they moved up to #24 (10-20 ratio). Last year they ret'd 3 st's incl 1st Tm MWC Anthony Wright and 2nd Tm MWC CB Reggie Rembert. SS Brian Lindsay only made 6 sts (inj). Teams three away from Rembert but he still became the first 1st Tm AA here S/92. AF kept its #24 finish for a 2nd consecutive year (54.8%, 10-12). This year they have 7 of the top 8 back and despite the loss of their top guy (Rembert 13 st, 51 tkl, 3 int, 10 pbu), could have another Top 25 PDR finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - AF was #11 in my ST rankings in '07. They had to replace dangerous RM Chad Hall in '08 and dropped to #64. In '09 they lost outstanding K Ryan Harrison. P Brandon Geyer had an amazing net of 39.5 (18 t20) and just 3 TB's and Erik Soderberg made the 2nd most FG's in AF history (22-30, L50) and had 15 TB's on 71 KO's. Reggie Rembert (25.1) and Jonathan Warzeka (27.9) split KR duties and Warzeka had a KR td in the bowl (1st at AF S/85). Anthony Wright was the top PR (18.2) with an 88 yd td vs Army, the first PR td here S/98. AF made a remarkable climb up to #4. LY they had to replace Geyer and then Soderberg unexpectedly struggled with FG's (5-10, L30) and KO's (10 TB, 4 OOB on 46 KO). Zack Bell and Erik Schweiss handled 25 KO's (no TB's). New P Keil Bartholomew avg'd 40.4 while QB Tim Jefferson (out of shotgun) avg'd 45.2 on 12 punts (8 In20) and AF had a tm net of 38.7. Warzeka was solid on KR (28.7) with a 100 yd td vs CSU. KR D was #109 at midseason but improved to allowing 21.2 on the yr. TY they lose Bartholomew but could top LY's #47 finish.

COACHES - Troy Calhoun is a 1989 graduate of Air Force (1st alumns to be HC here) and is just the 6th coach in school history. In '06 he was the OC for the Houston Texans and an asst with Denver prior. He was also the OC at Ohio ('97-'00) and Wake Forest ('01-'02) where his '02 Demon Deacons led the ACC in total offense! AF has 3 OC's. QB cch Blane Morgan and OL cch Clay Hendrix have been co-OC's the last 4 yrs and WR cch Mike Thiessen has been co-OC the L2Y (5 as WR cch). Matt Wallerstedt coached the LB's while Charlton Warren coached the secondary and together they are in their 2nd season as co-DC's.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Troy Calhoun stepped into a great situation. In Fisher DeBerry's last yr ('06) AF suffered 5 close losses and despite a 4-8 record and having to face #11 Tenn and #9 ND, they were only outscored by 2 ppg. Calhoun's first team achieved AF's best ever MWC record (6-2). While they had 3 fortunate wins, in the bowl they led Cal 21-0 but QB Carney suffered a gruesome leg injury and they lost by 6. There were some factors pointing to a weaker record in '08. Despite their 6-2 MWC record, AF was -13.6 ypg in conf action. After going 4-11 the previous 3 yrs in games decided by 8 or less, things bounced their way in '07 (3-1). They benefitted from +10 in TO's, had just 8 ret st's and lost 25 lett while returning just 23 (48%). They were picked 6th in the MWC and had 15 soph and 16 seniors on the 2 deep. Calhoun did a great job getting AF to 8 wins. They did catch some breaks again (see my '09 magazine). The Falcons got to 8-2 before losing their last 3. The '08 squad benefitted from +13 in turnovers and only had 12 sts lost to injury. In '09 they had 44 lett ret and just 21 lost. AF went 5-3 in the MWC and for the first time under Calhoun, had a positive net ypg at +35.5 in MWC play. AF had 4 net close losses in '09 and teams in that category showed improvement 31 of 36 times (86.1%). AF managed to improve to 9-4 LY despite going from +22 in TO's to +5. AF's 4 losses were to teams with a combined record of 44-9 (#2 and #6 tms final AP poll) and 3 of the losses were by a combined 10 pts. AF did snap Navy's streak of 7 straight CIC Trophies and 15 straight wins vs service acad's. AF did have a missed 2 pt conv vs SDSU in a 2 pt loss and outgained Utah 411-327 in their 5 pt loss. AF was +61.6 ypg in MWC play, 3rd best and their best mark under Calhoun. They do benefit from 4 MWC HG's and are 21-11 in MWC play under Calhoun. Their 14 ret st's are the most Calhoun has had to work with and the 77% ret lettermen is the highest any service academy has had the L7Y. Expectations are high for the Falcons and they do catch a young TCU team in their 2nd game. If they win that game or their bowl this team has the potential for their first 10 win season since 1998.

First meeting. Coyotes went 4-7 LY incl a 38-7 loss vs UCF but beat Minn 41-38. After 3 yrs in a transition period USD is elig for the FCS playoffs. AF is 17-3 in home openers (6 str wins by 35 ppg).
AF has lost 3 str & has been held 97 ypg below its ssn rushing avg in MWC play vs TCU. LY's gm was tied 7-7 into the 2Q as AF had 47% (108) of its yds in the 1Q. AF is 13-3 L4Y in MWC HG's.

Army: Air Force has won 5 straight by 23 ppg and since 1989 is 20-2 vs Army.
Wyoming: 50th meeting (played every yr '80). AF is on a series high 5 gm win streak.

First meeting. Tigers went 3-8 LY.TSU last played an FBS opponent in '06, a 38-9 loss vs Vandy. Into 2011, AF has won 15 str over FCS opp's by an avg of 46-9 (last loss vs Yale 17-16 in 1980).

Falcons haven't won in Annapolis S'97. LTH AF was held w/o an offensive TD & missed a 31 yd FG to send in to OT. LY the Falcons won the CIC Trophy for the first time S'02 (Navy had it for last 7Y).

Last time AF won 2 str in this series was in '84 & '85. In the last gm ('07) the Falcons scored a series high 41 pts & the 17 pt MOV was an AF high. Not incl Army/Navy, AF has dropped its L4 non-conf AG's.

HT is 5-1 L6Y. LY AF came in #23 & despite only a 2 pt loss, never led (scored a TD w/18 left). They did get within 2 w/2:08 left (2ptng) but their onside kick failed & SDSi iced it w/a 56 yd TD run.

First meeting. The Falcons are 19-26 in MWC away games and have gone over .500 just twice in the 12 years of the conference's existence (2-1 in 2000 and 3-1 in 2008).

AF has won 3 str vs NM, each by DD's. LTH AF played mostly w/o QB Jefferson (inj'd) but the def held NM to just 10 FD, forced 4 TO's & blk'd a FG which resulted in 27 pts in the 37-13 win.

LY AF trailed 6-0 and only led 21-16 w/2:22 3Q but went on a 21-6 run (165-94 yd edge).

Last year AF trailed 14-7 into the 4Q but outgained Wyoming 129-20 (WY punt & fmb! on 4Q poss).

The Falcons are 8-1 vs the Rebels incl 4 str wins by 15 ppg. LY AF came back from a 17-7 1H deficit.

AF has won 5 str. LTH AF only led 17-10 at HT but scored the 1st 17 pts of the 2H outgaining CSU 185-93.

COLORADO ST RAMS

WR Lou Greenwood

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In HC Steve Fairchild's first 3 yrs, he had a 1st time starting QB each time. His first yr the unit completed 60% but the unit really struggled in '09 avg just 207 ypg. (55.7%, 14-15). LY I projected true frosh Pete Thomas (PS#21, IFS) as the starter and I also projected much improved QB play for the Rams. Thomas beat out Fr Nico Ranieri (PS#92) and Klay Kubiak (NFL HC Gary's son). Kubiak was the only QB with previous exp (252 yds in '08, inj'd '09). Thomas, in his first 3 yrs, had a 1-6 ratio but on the year hit 64.7% which is the best comp % ever for a frosh QB at the DI level (Peyton Manning 61.8% at Tenn in '94). He broke the MWC record for passing yds in a season by a frosh beating SDSU Ryan Lindley's '08 mark by 9 yds and broke the school's frosh passing record (Caleb Hanie 1204 in '04). Thomas threw all but 2 passes (trick plays) at the QB position and took all but 9 offensive snaps. He had a stretch of 137 passes with just 1 int (7 td) and was the only frosh to start every gm at QB in the NCAA. This year they add Kansas St transfer MJ McPeck, Garrett Grayson (GS LY) and 2 true frosh. Thomas should have a record breaking career at CSU and be one of the MWC's top QB's this yr.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 Gartrell Johnson rushed for 1,476 (5.3) and the team's 4.2 ypc was the best since '03. In '09 they had to replace Johnson (#4DC) and the leading returnee was John Mosure (122, 4.1) but he was inj'd early. Leonard Mason was the top rusher in 6 of the first 7 but was inj'd and later got in the coach's doghouse. He still led with 766 (4.9). Mosure had 130 vs SDSU and 177 vs NM and finished #2 with 650 (5.2). LY they added UCLA transfer Raymond Carter (PS#14). The running game struggled in the first 3 (42.7 ypg, 1.7). Carter became the 2nd CSU RB to top 100 yards rushing and rec in the same game (Lawrence McCutcheon 1970) vs Idaho but was inj'd and missed 4. Mason (hamstring Aug) had 139 vs AF, 121 vs UNLV and 124 vs NM. He played 1 snap vs Utah (late to team meeting) and had just 93 in the last 3. Chris Nwoke (PS#267) led with 63 vs WY. This year they lose their #1 rusher Mason (513, 5.6, 3 st), Mosure (104, 3.9) and FB Zac Panga (10 st, 53 yd) who played in every gm of his career (49). Adding depth are Mark Woodbury (6'11" 204 Jr) and FB's Jake Levin (6'2" 214 So, PS#338, 1 rec) and Joe McKay (5'10" 234 So, PS#392). They also moved Scott Carter (6'3" 279 Sr) from OL to FB. Despite the losses, this unit should be more productive.

RECEIVERS - LY the Rams had to replace their top 2 rec's who comb'd for 1,177 (15.9). Their top returnees were Tyson Liggett (253, 14.9) and Lou Greenwood (221, 17.0) who moved from RB. Greenwood adapted well and led with 474 (13.9) while Liggett was #2 with 380 (9.3). 6'3" soph Byron Steele had 14 rec (15.1) in the first 3 but had just 6 after being banged up and finished #3 (313, 15.6). Not in the PSL are Brett Eltherton (6'3" 207 rFr), TE Jameson Gann (6'5" 244 So) and Jarrod McKay (6'0" 190 Sr) who moved in from S.TY they lose Liggett (10 st) and TE's Eric Peitz (11 st, 187, 12.5) and Matt Weems (11 gm) but have everyone else back making it a more exp'd unit.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 Fairchild inherited 4 returning starters and as you would expect, CSU had its best numbers in 5 years with 148 ypg (4.2) and just 26 sks (6.1%). In '09 they only had to replace 1 starter and ret'd 129 career starts (#1 FBS!). Fairchild felt that all 5 starting OL's would make it to an NFL camp and 4 did. Surprisingly the numbers were similar (144 ypg, 4.2, 21 sks). Last year they had to replace three 3 yr st's and a 4 yr starter and had just 30 career starts back. As you would expect, the numbers dropped to 113 ypg (3.5) and the 44 sks (11.2%) allowed were the 3rd worst in the FBS in '10, although C Weston Richburg earned my 1st Tm Fr AA honors. This year they lose ST Mark Starr (11 st, 2Y st'r) and SG Ryan Griffith (1 st). The last time CSU had 4 st's back on the OL, all 4 signed NFL contracts the next year. This year only 2 of the 4 ret st's are Sr's but they anchor a much improved O-line (63 car sts) that Fairchild compares to the 2009 version.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 the Rams had to replace 4 DL that comb for 39 sts in '08 and had just 13 career sts ret. It was surprising that a team whose record dropped from 7-6 to 3-9 actually improved their key defensive numbers yielding 152 ypg rush (4.2). LY they only had to replace 1 st'r and I expected CJ James to have a big year after playing in 11 gms as a true frosh. They lost 2 ret st's over the summer in DE Zach Tiedgen (knee) and Cory Macon (left, CSU). That made the unit much less exp'd than projected and the numbers dropped to 198 ypg (5.0). This year they lose their top man in 1st Tm MWC NT Guy Miller (35 tkl, 9 tfl), DT Ty Whittier (12 st, 19 tkl) and DT Adam Seymore (14 tkl). James DNP the 1st 3 (surg) but took Davis Burl's starting spot over the last 5 and both return as does DE Broderick Sargent. With Tiedgen's return, this unit is much more experienced than the 2010 version.

LINEBACKERS - In '08 two st's were back (#1, #3 tkl's) plus they added Mychal Sisson, who became the first CSU player to earn consensus Frosh AA honors (#1 tkl'r, 8 tfl). In '09 due to the susp of Ricky Brewer (#2 tkl'r) they had just 1 st'r back and were hit hard by inj's. Sisson started all 12 (2nd Tm MWC) and was #1 again. LY the unit would return intact but they lost st'r Alex Williams to a knee inj vs SDSU (out L/2). Brewer was a tm leader and the first Ram LB to have multiple 100 tkl seasons since Eric Pauly ('02-'03). Brian Orakpo's (WAS) little brother Mike made quite an impact and if not for playing behind Brewer, would have been even more productive (37 tkl, 2 sk) as a true frosh. Sisson led the FBS in FF's and was again named 2nd Tm MWC. TY they lose MLB Williams (#4 tkl'r) and 1st Tm MWC WLB Brewer (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 8 tfl). Michael Kawulok, was the #1 MLB in spg but suffered a knee inj and will RS TY. New proj st'r James Skelton has plenty of exp with 4 st and 58 tkl the LY. Sisson was "only" the #2 tkl'r LY but did have 15 tfl and he along with Orakpo should form a top-notch group.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Rams have only finished #86, #66, #90, #101, #104 and #118 in my PDR the last 6 yrs. LY they returned 5 DB with starting exp but had to replace 2 st's. The unit also lost CB Momo Thomas (8 st '09) after 3 sts. This year they lose CB DeAngelo Wilkinson (12 st, 27 tkl, 2 pbu), FS Scott Zick (4 tkl) and SS Travis Ford (12 tkl). They have 3 st's back incl pt DB Elijah-Blu Smith who moves to CB from FS plus get the return of Thomas. I'll call for their best finish in my PDR since '06.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '09 CSU had to replace its K, P and KR but Fairchild brought in true frosh Pete Kontodiakos (PS#20) to be the punter the next 4 yrs. He booted every P and avg 40.9 (net 31.6), but that unit finished just #105 (#100 in '08). In '08 Ben DeLine hit 4-5 FG's (L36) as the bkp. After enrolling at 150 lbs he started bulking up and improved his leg strength. In '09 he hit 12-16 FG's (L47) and LY hit 16-22 (L43) with 1 miss from 51 and 2 of his 6 misses were blk'd. DeLine also had 16 TB's on 44 KO's (1 TB in '09). Tony Drake set a school and MWC record for KR yds in a gm with 242 vs Nevada and while Drake was serving a 1 gm susp Derek Good reset the records with 263 vs AF. Good then had a 74 yd KR vs UNLV becoming 1 of 5 in CSU history with multiple 70+ yd ret's in a career. Drake and Good comb'd for 1,322 KR yds (24.9) in neither reached the EZ. The Rams' 4 year LS Scott Albritton (NFL prospect) was lost vs TCU and rFr Tanner Hedstrom took over the rest of the yr. Kontodiakos improved to 43.7 (36.9 net). I had called for them to have their best ST finish in 5 yrs and they achieved that finishing at #46. This year with everyone back but Albritton, they will be one of the top ST units in the country.

COACHES - CSU had been to just 2 bowls prior to Sonny Lubick's arrival. Lubick guided them to 9 bowls in his 15 seasons along with 6 league titles. In '03 the home stadium was renamed Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium. Those were some large shoes for Steve Fairchild to fill. Fairchild, a CSU alum (QB '78-'80), was an OC in the NFL (BUF and STL) prior to arriving. He had previously been OC ch here ('93-'96), before being promoted to OC ('97-'00). Fairchild's 7 wins in his first season here were the most ever for a 1st year CSU HC (5 had 5 wins). Pat Meyer coaches the OL and is in his second season as OC, but Fairchild called the plays LY. However this spg Fairchild let Meyer practice some play-calling during live action and may hand the reins over. The first coach Fairchild hired was DC Larry Kerr who was the DC here for 10 years prior to leaving in 2002. In the time away from CSU, Kerr was at Duke (LB ch '06-'07) and at UCLA (DC '03-'05).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Sonny Lubick recorded 10 straight winning seasons including 6 conf titles from '94-'03. Unfortunately they did not have a winning season in any of Lubick's final 4 yrs and got to just 1 bowl ('05). In Lubick's final year they had 4 close losses and 31 sts lost to injury and those factors pointed to improvement for new HC Steve Fairchild despite the fact that he had just 12 ret st's. Fairchild caught some breaks in his first year. They had 3 net close wins (see pg 299) and in '09 had to replace their QB, RB and 5 of their def front 7. They had just 35% of their off yards returning (#107 FBS) and despite opening 3-0, they went on to lose their final 9. They actually became the first team to lose 8 MWC games and it was the first time they had zero conf wins since 1981. LY my biggest concern was the O-line which had just 1 ret st'r and they allowed 44 sks of their true frosh QB. CSU went from 21.7 ppg to 16.5, their lowest since 1981 (13.7). The D, with 6 st's back, allowed 34.7 ppg, their highest since 1981 (41.8). The Rams were non-competitive in their first 3 being outscored 106-19, but upset Idaho at home by 2. After expected losses to #5 TCU and #25 AF, they thrashed UNLV 43-10 but were then blown out by #9 Utah, 59-6. They were actually favored by over 2 td's vs NM and won 38-14. They were only outgained by 26 yds vs SDSU on the road and lost by 5. In the final 2, very surprisingly they were blown out by a combined 93-10 and finished with an identical 3-9 record. CSU's off ypg of 20.3 has them with an 82.4% chance of improvement (pg 299) and they figure to be vastly improved on offense with a more veteran line and exp'd QB. They do get the benefit of 4 MWC HG's (only 3 away) and make my Most Improved List, which means I am calling for them to be bowl eligible this year. This much improved team is the best in Fairchild's 4 years.

Fairchild was the OC/QB coach at NM from '87-'89. CSU is 3-3 S'05 vs NM but the wins are by 16 ppg w/the losses by just 2 ppg. LTH the gm had 4 2H lead changes as NM hit the GW 27 yd FG w/12 left.

CSU is 18-1-1 vs UNC (17 str wins, loss was in 1900). L/gm ('86) Rams won 46-14. Bears won 3-8 LY incl a 45-7 loss to Mich St. CSU is 15-2 in Fort Collins openers (3 str wins by just 6 til pts).

85th meeting. Rams are 6-17 S'83 vs the Buffaloes. Both HC's are alumni of their school. This marks the 11th meeting in Denver in the L14Y (last time in Ft Collins was 1996).

CSU has won B2B trips by an avg score of 47-21 and the last loss in Logan was in 1979 (24-0). Into 2011, the Rams are 3-14 on the road under Fairchild incl 11 str losses by an avg score of 40-15.

Rams have won 3 str over the Spartans incl the LTH ('96) 36-13. CSU had a 580-443 yd edge & led 19-7 at HT. Colorado St enters 2011 having won 6 str vs non-conf opp's at Hughes Stadium.

SDSt: Fairchild served 2 stints on the SDSU staff ('86 as the TE cch & '90-'92 w/the QB's).

TCU: CSU's only series win came in '98 (1st gm) & they've dropped 7 str incl 3 in Fort Worth by 26 ppg.

First meeting. Colorado St has dropped 12 str vs ranked opp's by 27 ppg (last win was in '02 vs #7 CU). Into 2011, the Rams are 6-14 the L5Y in MWC HG's (W's by 19 ppg & L's by 16 ppg).

Both were WAC members from 1968-'98. Every non-conf tm on CSU's sked TY had a losing rec LY (combined 19-42). Fairchild beat UTEP 37-7 as a Sr QB in '80 (6-0 as player/HC).

CSU is 13-2 S'96 but lost the LTH. CSU trailed 14-7 at HT but never got within DD's after UNLV took a early 21-7 2H lead. Into 2011, CSU is just 3-17 L5Y in MWC AG's (8 str losses).

Bonus: Fairchild was an '81 CSU grad (2nd Tm All-Conf QB behind BYU's Jim McMahon) who served on the Rams staff from 1993-'00 as a QB cch serving as the OC the L3Y.

HT is just 3-10 S'97. LY CSU was down just 5 at its own 20 w/1:42 left but went 4&out.

LTH CSU led 6-0 into the 2Q but allowed 44 unanswered in the blowout (just 129 yds L/3 Q).

50th gm (ply/dvtry yr S'78). LY CSU trailed 21-0, 35-7 then 49-13 into the 4Q before 150 yds (36% of HT).

HT is 7-2 S'02. LY CSU suffered its worst series loss & the 44 pt MOV was the biggest S'22 (CSU 60-0).

SAN DIEGO ST AZTECS

LB Miles Burris

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 Kevin O'Connell left as the school's then-#3 career passer (#3DC). He earned my award for MWC Most Important Off Player in '07 throwing for 3,063 (59%, 15-8). I expected Ryan Lindley (PS#74) to win the job in '08 and former HC Chuck Long said he'd never been around a frosh that was able to read D's like he did. Lindley set frosh records for att (427), comp (242), passing yds (2,653) and td's (16) despite missing 1 gm (inj). He had three 300 yd gms and one 400. In '09 Lindley ret'd but went from operating out of the shotgun to taking snaps under C and it took awhile to adjust. Lindley threw for 3,054 but completed just 55% (23-16). Lindley, who has a strong arm but dealt with some bouts of erraticism, finished throwing for 3,830 (57.7%) with a 28-14 ratio LY. He threw for 528 yds vs Utah (most S/'91) and his total on the year was the most here since 1990. He is not known as a runner but does have the ability to keep plays alive with his feet. RFR Jake Bernards (PS#182) played in 2 gm (1 pass). Not listed below is Ryne Clark (6'2" 205 So). Even with the staff changes they kept Lindley's QB cch (NFL MVP Brian Sipe) so as long as he stays healthy, he will have his best year yet and will easily finish as the career leader.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 the Aztecs leading RB had just 354 (4.0) and in '08 just 490 (4.1). In '09 converted FB Brandon Sullivan led with just 558 (3.6). Walter Kazee became the first true frosh in 6 yrs to top 100 in a game while finishing #2 with 371 (4.3). Hoke was high on Ronnie Hillman (PS#236) in '09 but he GS. Heading into 2010, one of the team's biggest goals was to improve the running game which ranked #116 in the FBS (78 ypg, 8 rush td's) after '09. LY Davon Brown started the first 2 but Hillman took over after having 150 vs NMSt (6.8) and 228 vs Mizz (9.9). Hillman had 7 rushing td's in the first 3 games and finished with 17 of the team's 29. Hillman became just the 3rd frosh here to top 1,000 as he broke Marshall Faulk's (1,429) frosh rushing record (1,532, 5.8) while setting a Poinsettia Bowl record with 228 yds rush. Hoke called Kazee (lb for lb) the team's toughest player but he missed 3 and had just 320 (4.8). This year they lose Brown (144, 4.8) and Sullivan (4 st, 124, 3.1) who was also the #3 rec (383, 14.7). While it will be tough for Hillman to top LY's stats, he could.

RECEIVERS - Leading WR Vincent Brown (6'31, 9.9 in '08) ret'd in Hoke's first year ('09). He emerged as a big-time threat and in the first 6 avg'd 130 ypg (#3 NCAA) but was inj (OFY) vs Colo St and finished #2 (778, 17.3). DeMarco Sampson, who was inj'd and in the coaches doghouse throughout his career (17 rec), emerged after Brown's inj. He had 15 for 257 vs CSU and led with 851 (13.7). TE Alston Umuolo was #5 with 243 (11.0) and earned a Mackey Watch list nomination in '10. LY Brown and Sampson formed the league's best WR combo with each topping 1,000 and avg over 18 ypc. Converted WR Gavin Escobar (6'6") added more than 30 lbs and filled in at TE for an injured Umuolo (2 gm apply MedRS) finishing #4 with 323 (11.1). This year they lose Brown (12 st, 1352, 19.6, #3DC SD) and Sampson (13 st, 1220, 18.2, #7DC ARZ). The leading returning WR is Dominique Sandifer (263, 11.4) who had 271 (11.8) in the last 6 gms of '09 when Brown was inj'd. Adding depth are TE's DJ Shields (6'4" 240 Jr, PS#129, 3 st), John Ghandour (6'4" 245 rFr, PS#133) and Hunter Hewitt (6'5" 245 Jr). Naturally this unit is weaker in 2011 but remains deep at TE.

OFFENSIVE LINE - This unit was hurt by injuries and defections during the Chuck Long era. All four OL that he recruited in '06 were no longer on the squad in '08 as they had just 26 career sts ret (#110 FBS). The unit then lost both projected starting OT's over the summer. They had their weakest totals since '02 with 73 ypg rush (3.1) but did allow just 21 sks (4.3%). In '09 SDSt had to replace 2 st's (#7DC) and the O-line trimmed off almost 19 lbs per man. They shifted from pass blocking to more power run blocking but surprisingly the numbers only improved to 78 ypg rush (2.9) with 16 sks (3.6%). LY the Aztecs had to replace 2 yr st's but had 8 back with starting exp incl 4 who started 7+. I said there should be significant improvement in the 2nd year of Hoke's schemes and the same 5 started at the same position for all 13 gms (last time that happened was in '01). As expected, they greatly improved to 161 ypg rush (4.8) allowing a minuscule 9 sks (2.1%). This year SDSt loses 2nd Tm MWC C Trask Josefa (13 st, 4Y st'r) and Kellen Farr (12 gm) but has 8 of the top 10 back. I look for continued improvement from the Aztecs' front.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 SDSt yielded 5.3 ypc rush, their worst since before 1961. In '08 they were decimated by injuries and yielded 248 ypg (5.1). Rocky Long's rush D's at New Mexico allowed under 3.8 ypc in 9 of his 11 yrs. SDSt switched to a 3-3-5 and as you would expect, the numbers improved greatly in '09 to 166 ypg rush (3.9). Last year all 3 st's ret'd but they did lose DE BJ Williams for the last 4 gms. The Aztecs improved to 149 ypg (3.7) while posting 28 sks (most S/'04). This year SDSt loses 3rd Tm MWC DE Ernie Lawson (13 st, 30 tkl, 9.5 fti), DE Jacob Tauanuu (8 st, 20 tkl, 4 fti) and DE BJ Williams (5 st, 19 tkl, 2 sk). They do return 3rd Tm MWC DT Jerome Long (10 st, 30 tkl, 6 fti). Not in the PSL are Gino Catugda (5'11" 265 So), Dontrell Onuahu (6'2" 285 rFr) and Kenneth Galea (6'1" 280 rFr). Long always fashions a solid unit but this group is less exp'd.

LINEBACKERS - At NM, Rocky Long's LOBO was technically a S but basically a LB type (remember Brian Urlacher?) so I list the AZTEC position in the LB write-up. In '09 SDSt had 3 st's back and while they had to replace their #1 tackler, Long said they were 14 deep in the unit. Naturally the Aztecs allowed 6.7 ppg less. LY they had to replace their #1, #3, #5 and #8 tk'l's. They did return their #2, #6 and #7 and I said they could be just as strong despite the losses. The Aztecs actually improved to allowing just 22.1 ppg (8.4 ppg less). This year they lose MLB Marcus Yarborough (10 st, #6 tk'l) and HM MWC AZTEC Andrew Preston (12 st, #2 tk'l, 3 int, 4 fti). The Aztecs return their #1, #4, #8 and #10 tk'l's making them more exp'd than LY.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Aztecs' Darkside Defense finished #26, #34 and #7 in my PDR from '03-'05 but slipped to #79, #96 and #116 from '06-'08. In '09 they not only had to replace 3 st's, but the lone returnee lost his job. Even with 4 new st's, they finished #65 (59%, 15-11) in then DC Long's new D. LY they had to replace 2 DB (comb 14 sts) then SS Dey Juan Hemmings (9 st '09) basically missed the year (1 tkl). WR's Brown and Sampson were so well prepared for the games because CB's Jose Perez and Leon McFadden tested them so well in practice as both were among the MWC leaders in pd. The Aztecs improved to #51 (51.8%, 18-10). This year they lose Perez (11 st, 29 tkl, 11 pbu) and SS Darryn Lewis (11 st, #5 tk'l, 2 int). Not in the PSL are Derek Mack (5'7" 160 Jr), Anthony Simmons (6'0" 185 So), Isaiah Williams (6'2" 190 So) and Kwasi Badu (6'1" 165 rFr). McFadden earned 1st Tm MWC and with Hemmings' return they actually have a little more exp and should continue to improve.

SPECIAL TEAMS - SDSt was #67, #108, #46 and #98 in my ST rankings from '05-'08. Hoke had basically everyone back in his first season and P Brian Stahovich improved from 39.5 (32.9 net) in '08 to 43.8 (38.0 net) in '09. Still the Aztecs only finished #94. LY Stahovich avg 45.4 (36.9 net). He set a school record with an incredible 89 yd punt vs Wyoming (Noel Prefontaine 82 yds in '96). The Aztecs had just 2 TB on KO's in all of '09. Abel Perez hit 17-22 FG's (L53) and had 28 TB on 86 KO's (tied #5 FBS) in '10. The return game was avg but they did allow 25.5 on KR's, a big reason why SDSt stayed put in the lower part of my rankings at #90. With almost everyone back, I would look for SDSt to have its top ST finish in the L7Y.

COACHES - Brady Hoke was here for 2 short yrs and led the Aztecs to their first bowl since '98 and only their second bowl win ever (1969). He hired Rocky Long as his DC and he now takes over as HC. Long is well versed in MWC football as he was previously the HC at New Mexico from 1998-'08 where he took the Lobos to bowls in 5 of his last 7 seasons. Long called his own defensive plays at NM but may groom a current coach for that role. One of his hires, DL cch Osia Lewis was his DC at NM for 5 yrs. The new OC is Andy Ludwig who has 16 years of exp in that role. He was most recently at Cal ('09-'10), Utah ('05-'08), Oregon ('02-'04) and Fresno St ('98-'01).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Amazingly SDSt did not have a winning season from '99-'09 and were just 27-48 in MWC play from '00-'09. Prior to last year they were coming off 3 seasons with a combined MWC record of 6-18 (outgained by 130 ypg). Despite all of those factors, SDSt made my Most Improved List (#6) in the front of the magazine. As you know any tm that lands on that list has a great shot at going from a losing season to bowl eligibility. All 9 sets of my power ratings called for them to be bowl eligible and the Aztecs did not disappoint getting their first winning season since 1998. They had a dream coaching staff with Brady Hoke as the HC, ex-New Mexico HC Rocky Long as the DC, former Aub OC Al Borges as the OC and former NFL MVP Brian Sipe as QB cch. They had 2 NFL caliber WR's in Vincent Brown and DeMarco Sampson, a super true frosh RB Ronnie Hillman and veteran QB Ryan Lindley. They suffered a tough loss vs Missouri when a key penalty was not called on Missouri's 68 yd td pass with :51 left. Against BYU they had "replay-gate" with a controversial fmbi not overturned by BYU replay officials in the booth. They gave TCU their closest reg ssn game only losing by 5. Against Utah they gave up a 47 yd Hal Mary before the half and a blk'd punt that resulted in a 3 yd td drive in a 4 pt loss. This year Hoke leaves for Michigan, they lost their 2 star WR's and have just 5 st's back on defense. The Aztecs did have the nation's 6th largest attendance increase LY and could have been 13-0 (4 losses by a comb 15 pts). While not as strong as LY's squad they do only have 3 MWC road games and I will call for a winning season and a 2nd straight bowl game.

WYOMING COWBOYS

RB Alvester Alexander

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In 2009, Robert Benjamin (PS#78JC) began the year as the starter and threw for 269 (46%, 1-1). Austyn Carta-Samuels (PS#85) became the first true frosh to start at QB since 1974 and threw for 1,953 (59%, 10-5) and was the #3 rusher with 366 (2.6). Carta-Samuels threw for a career high 319 in the '10 opener but missed the TCU gm (inj'd) and was pulled in parts of others. His numbers actually dropped to 1,702 (61.1%, 9-8) but he was the #2 rusher with 392 (3.4). Dax Crum (PS#91JC, 5 st '08) started vs TCU and played in 6 (187, 54.8%, 1-1). This year Carta-Samuels opted to transfer and Crum departs leaving the unit at ZERO career att's with 4 frosh battling for the job. There are some rumors that Carta-Samuels may come back (not known as of press time) but even if he did, he may not win his job back. True frosh Brett Smith (PS#57) ran a similar offense in HS and hit 73% in 3 spring scrimmages. Emory Miller (56% in spg) was 3rd string in '10 but RS. True frosh Adam Pittser (PS#86) was in a run based offense in HS but was the runner-up MVP of an Elite 11 camp. While much less exp'd, this unit could come close to matching 2010's mediocre numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Wyoming has had just one 1,000 yard rusher since '99 (Devin Moore 1301 in '08). In '09 they had to replace their "Thunder and Lightning" duo of Moore and Wynel Seldon. True frosh Alvester Alexander (PS#329) led with 640 (4.7). LY they had to replace their #2 rusher (4.0). Alexander improved to 792 (4.2) and had 14 of the tm's 17 rush td's (QB had other 3). True frosh Robert Herron, who was called one of the fastest in CA (10.5 100M), was the #2 RB rusher with 235 (5.9). James Davis left the tm after 2 gms and true frosh Nehemiah Kankolongo had 13 yds (1.0). At New Mexico, WY had three 100 yd rushers in a game, (Alexander, Herron and QB Carta-Samuels) for the first time since 1995. For the first 9 games of 2010 Alexander had just 402 (3.1) but over the last 3 had 390 (6.6) incl a schl rec 5 td's vs Colo St. Alexander has 1,432 career yards which is just under half way (with 2 years left) of Devin Moore's 2,963 career mark. KR/LB Ghaali Muhammad moves to RB and Herron to WR. If Alexander comes near his late season pace, he could top 1,000.

RECEIVERS - The Cowboys have had great success with their 3 career leaders all ranking among the top in the NCAA. In '08, they had to replace 3 of their top 4 and dropped passes plagued the unit as did an unstable QB position. Greg Bolling led with just 271 (10.4) while TE Jesson Salyards added 225 (10.7). In '09 Bolling's numbers dropped to 170 (9.4) while 6'4" David Leonard led with 705 (9.2) and walk-on Zach Bolger was #2 (314, 11.2). Travis Burkhalter added 213 (10.1). LY all 3 ret'd and Leonard led again but with only 452 (9.6). Bolger had 446 (15.9) and Chris McNeill was #3 with 257 (9.2). This year they lose Leonard (12 st), who caught a pass in each of his last 26 gms, Bolger (10 st) and Burkhalter (1 st, 6 rec). They move in speedy RB Herron and rFR QB Sam Stratton (PS#115). Despite the losses, this unit should have increased production.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08, the Cowboys' O-line, which had struggled the previous 8 yrs (never topped 132 ypg or 3.6 ypc), was much improved with 5 st's back (91 car sts). They paved the way for 178 ypg rush (4.3) while allowing just 18 sks (lowest S'97). In '09 they had to replace 2 st's but still had 4 back who were full-time starters (75 car sts). WY slipped to 136 ypg rush (3.6) and the sacks rose to 37 (9.0%). LY they had to replace 2 st's (70 car sts ret). Even in the 2nd year of Christensen's system the numbers slipped to 120 ypg (3.6) with 31 sks. This year they lose LG Sam Sterner (12 st, 4Y st'r) and RG Jack Tennant (5 st). They have 4 st's back (78 car sts), good size and should be a much improved group.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Cowboys' rush D numbers were atypical from '07-'09. They had 3 soph st's (1 car st) in '07 but only allowed just 123 ypg rush (3.0, 33 sks). In '08 the unit ret'd intact so it was surprising that they allowed 140 ypg (3.7, 17 sks). In '09 WY finished with a winning record and those 3 soph's were now seniors but they allowed 173 ypg rush (4.4), their weakest rush D since '04. LY they had to replace all 3 st's but changed to a 4-3 and moved in a pair of starting LB's. Then-DL Coach Montgomery said he wanted to use 8 players, but only felt comfortable with 5 or 6. Of the 10 DL that played, 9 were either in their first season or had switched positions. This time the numbers went as expected as the Cowboys slipped to 206 ypg rush (4.6, 20 sks), their weakest since '03. This year those converted LB's are bigger and more exp'd and all 4 st's return. Not listed below is Mark Willis (6'4" 225 So, inj spg) who coaches hope can make a difference on the edge. The Cowboys are vastly more exp'd on the def front in 2011.

LINEBACKERS - Wyoming's rush D has been driven by their LB's. In '07, they had a veteran group and allowed just 3.0 ypc. In '08, they had 1 st'r ret but former HC Glenn did say that rFR Gabe Knapton could be one of the best WY LB's ever. Due to turnovers (-22), the D was on the field in bad situations (27.8 ppg). In '09 they had to replace their #1, #6 and #12 tkl's but did return their #2, #4 and #13 tkl's. Brian Hendricks had a monster year incl the most tkl's in a gm in school history (23 vs AF). Hendricks finished #3 in tkl's (116), Knapton was #2 (128) and both ranked in the NCAA's Top 20. LY they only had to replace their #4 tkl'r but then moved Knapton and their #7 tkl'r to the D-line. That left the 5 LB's in the lineup (excluding Hendricks) with a combined 34 tkl's in '09. Hendricks (11 st) was #3 again but with only 80. Oliver Schober (who played club ball in Germany) was impressive in August and earned 3 sts (46 tkl). This year they lose Keith Lewis (4 st, 34 tkl, 4.5 tfl) and Alex Toney (2 st, 27 tkl). They once again move a productive starter, this time Ghaali Muhammad (8 st, 75 tkl) to a new spot (RB). This year's unit is more exp'd even if Muhammad stays at RB.

DEFENSE BACKS - Wyoming had an inexp'd secondary in '08 but still finished #55 in my PDR. In '09 they only had to replace 1 st'r and ret'd the Gipson brothers (Marcell & Tashaun) who both have NFL potential. True frosh Shamiel Gary started 12. The unit dropped a lot of int's but it was still surprising that WY slid to #73 (lowest S'03). The entire 2 deep ret'd LY so improvement was expected. FS Chris Proinski finished with 373 car tkl's (4th all-time at UW). He and the Gipson's started 37 straight gms together. Surprisingly WY slipped to #76 (inexp front 7). TY they lose CB Marcell Gipson (12 st, 53 tkl, 1 int, 1m DB POY), SS Gary (10 st, #2 tkl'r, 1 int, 4 pbu) and Proinski (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 2 int, 2nd Tm MWC) who was a #4DC Jax, the highest Cowboy in the draft since '97 (Steve Scifres). While this unit could indeed climb in my PDR, it is clearly less exp'd and talented with the loss of 3 of its top 4 players.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '08 they plummeted to #118 in my ST rankings. In '09 they only had to replace their KR and I said they should make a good sized climb but they overachieved my expectations (#30). Austin McCoy, who avg 37.9 (31.6 net) in '08 greatly improved to 43.3 (net 38.2). David Leonard ended the team's 30 gm drought without a PR of 20+ yds and avg'd 12.9. McCoy hit 4-6 FG's (L25) but lost that spot to true frosh Ian Watts (12-15, L43). LY the unit ret'd almost intact so it was surprising to see them drop to #80. McCoy avg'd 42.8 (35.4 net). Watts hit 8-10 FG's (L46). Bkp LB Oliver Schober had 8 TB's on 47 KO's and Christensen pointed out that as opposed to grabbing a tee and running off, he led the charge down field in coverage. The Cowboys' used a new KR in LB Muhammad (23.2). Marcell Gipson (22.6 '09) did have 7 KR's (27.1) late in the year. WY had the fewest PR's in the country (6). This year they have to replace K Watts but still should be able to move up in my rankings.

COACHES - Dave Christensen took over as HC in 2009 (OC for 12 yrs under Gary Pinkel at both Toledo and Missouri). LY's OC Marcus Arroyo (who brought QB Carta-Samuels with him when he was hired) left for Cal. The new OC is Gregg Brandon who at the college level was most recently the OC at Virginia ('09) and was also the HC at Bowling Green ('03-'08) leading them to 3 bowls. Marty English is in his 9th year (3rd as DC) here and was the lone holdover from Glenn's staff.

PHIL'S FORECAST

From '00-'02 Wyoming was just 5-29. Joe Glenn appeared to have them pointed in the right direction as in '04 they earned their first bowl berth since 1993 where they upset UCLA. They opened up '05 at 4-1 but Glenn's troops went just 15-27 in his final 3.5 yrs, catching a lot of tough breaks. In '08 they were -22 in TO's and had 4 diff QB's combine for a 7-17 ratio. Dave Christensen stepped into a great situation in '09 as he had 8 st's back from a defense that allowed just 330 ypg. He caught a lot of breaks in his first season getting the team to its first bowl in 5 yrs. I pointed out in LY's magazine that the Cowboys had an amazing 6 net close wins (pg 299), had just 6 sts lost to injury all year and had gone from -22 in TO's to +8. Despite being 4-4 in the MWC in '09 they were -108.3 ypg. They did not defeat any FBS team with a winning record in the reg season and their 6 losses were by an avg of 27 ppg. LY Wyoming had 15 ret st's and Christensen saying "every kid in the program is faster than they were 1.5 yrs ago." I felt the team was better than the season prior but I called for a weaker record. As expected, the bottom dropped out as they fell to 3-9 and finished last place in the MWC (picked 5th in preseason poll). They were -94.5 ypg (only the 3rd worst) in the MWC. They were outgained by S Utah in the opener but won by 8. They led Texas 7-6 late in the 2Q but lost by 27 then were pummeled by Boise 51-6 at home. Despite being outgained 445-240 by AF, they only lost by 6. They jumped out to a 20-0 lead and held on for a win on the road vs Toledo but then played the top 3 MWC tms in 3 consec weeks. They lost the first 2 by a combined 75-6 then vs BYU were outgained 298-173 but only lost by 5. After an expected loss to SDSU, they took on the league's cellar dweller (NM) and had a 536-430 yd edge but had 4 TO's, 3 inside the NM20 and one at their own 11. Christensen called the NM loss "the absolute most difficult loss of my career." They were stunningly pummeled by UNLV 42-16 then just as stunningly they routed CSU 44-0 in the season finale. This year WY has 14 ret st's but suffered the unexpected loss of QB Austyn Carta-Samuels who left for a JC. They have faced a tough schd the L2Y (8 ranked tms, 5 in the top 5) but could be favored in 5 of their first 6 TY. The Pokes have a shot at getting back to the post season but they will probably come just short of that goal.

Sep. 3	Weber St	A				WY is 3-0 vs WSU. In the L/meeting ('09 opener), WY was up 26-7 late 4Q forcing 5 TO's & a blk'd 25 yd FG (led to 13 pts in the 7 pt win). Wildcats went 6-5 LY incl losses to BC & TT by a combined 102-1
Sep. 10	Texas St	A				First meeting. Into 2011, the Cowboys have won 20 str vs FCS opp's. Bobcats went 4-7 LY incl a 68-28 loss to Houston. Starting in 2012 TSU will be a WAC member along w/UT-San Antonio.
Sep. 17	at Bowling Green	A				HC Christensen was the OL/OC at Toledo from 1992-'00 going 5-4 vs rival BG (5-6 in career vs BG). WY lost only meeting in '08, 45-16. WY has lost 9 str road openers by an avg score 33-9 (3 shutouts).
Sep. 24	Nebraska	A				Prior to WY, Christensen was the OC at Missouri from '01-'08 going 4-4 vs NU. Since '04 WY is 2-1 hosting BCS tms. WY is 0-5 vs NU (L/gm in '94). WY has lost 14 str vs ranked foes by 34 ppg.
Oct. 1						Bonus: The Neb gm is being hyped as one of the biggest non-conf HG's in school history. Bonus: WY is 16-1 S/'94 in home openers incl 8 straight wins. WY is 2-14 L4Y in MWC AG's.
Oct. 8	at Utah St	A				Cowboys won their L/2 trips to Logan ('01 & '03). LTH WY tied the most pts in the series' 62 gm history (48 in '68 as well). Cowboys had 22-16 FD & 434-357 yd edges & were +3 in TO's on the day.
Oct. 15	UNLV	A				Home team has won 4 str in this series. LY's 26 pt MOV was the largest in the series history. WY was up 13-7 into the 2Q but was outgained 312-134 the L3 Q's. Wyoming is 4-8 L3Y in MWC HG's.
Oct. 22						New Mexico: LY's gm had 3 ties & 3 lead changes. WY led 24-17 early 4Q but after tying the gm 31-31, never got the ball back as NM went 47-11pl (5:33 TOP) nailing a 38 yd FG as time exp.
Oct. 29	at San Diego St	G				WY is 4-8 vs SDSU in MWC play but won the LTH. The Cowboys trailed 27-6 into the 4Q but gained 173 yds & after tying the gm forced a fmbL on the KR which set up the 43 yd GW FG w/23 left.
Nov. 5	TCU	A				The HT is 4-1 the L5Y. LY WY was w/o its starting QB & ran just 8 (16%) of its 45 plays in TCU territory. HC Christensen said "they're a great FB team, and we're a rebuilding team. It showed today."
Nov. 12	at Air Force	A				WY is 3-8 at AFS'89 incl B2B losses. LTH the Cowboys were shutout, 10-0. The game was tied 0-0 at HT w/198 combined yds (no scoring till :37 left 3Q). Wyoming never got inside the redzone.

LB Carmen Messina

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Brad Gruner took over for an inj'd Donovan Porterie and started the final 8 (1037, 54%, 3-6, 331 rush). BR Holbrook beat him out for the bkp job in '09 and in 5 gms Holbrook threw for 170 (56%, 1-2). Last year they had to replace Porterie and it was a 4-man battle. Holbrook gained a foothold on the starting job when Gruner and Tate Smith each missed half the spring (only QB taking snaps). Holbrook was the str in the blowout loss to Oregon but true frosh Tarean Austin played the entire 4Q. Holbrook hit 30-50-323 vs TT but suffered a knee injury and missed the next 4. Gruner was named the str's Utah minutes before and hit 3-8-33 in the 1H but was inj'd and Austin hit 15-27-128 vs UNLV. Austin became NM's first true frosh starting QB since 1988 but was inj'd vs UTEP. Gruner got the start vs NMSt but they took the RS off of true frosh Stump Godfrey (PS#156) in the 3Q. Holbrook ret'd vs SDSU but left with 7:42 to go and Gruner hit an 18 yd ld pass with :14 left. Holbrook started his 4th and final gm vs Col St (inj'd 1Q) and Godfrey hit 8-16-82 and led with 72 yds rushing. Gruner sliced his pinkie finger just before CSU and was OFY and finished with 2 sts. Godfrey hit 16-20-211 and rushed for 69 in their upset of WY. He started vs AF but in the 1H engineered just 59 yds. Godfrey, who hadn't had a TO in more than 11Q's (CSU-AF), had 2 in the first 7:00 vs BYU and 3 in the game before being pulled (Holbrook hit 6-7-34). The top 3 QB's each played in 7 with Holbrook leading with 619 (52.9%, 2-6). This year the only loss is Gruner (grad) and add in Dustin Walton (PS#82, IFS). Godfrey's mobility has drawn comparisons to former Lobo Stoney Case, but it is possible that he could move to another position despite starting the final 4. This unit is much more exp'd and can only stay healthier.

RUNNING BACKS - Rocky Long had a TB run for 1,000 yds in 7 consec seasons. They had a 1st Tm MWC RB every year from 2002-'07. In Locksley's first year true frosh Demond Dennis (PS#118) led with just 427 (5.5). James Wright (power) who had 348 (6.1) in '08, added 291 (5.8) 7 sts in '09. True frosh Kasey Carrier (speed) pulled off his RS vs UNLV (Gm7) and rushed for 269 (4.4). The top 4 ret'd LY but after 3 the leading RB rusher was Dennis with just 55 (QB Austin was #1 with 64). Dennis had 88 vs UNLV but had just 5 carries the rest of the year (doghouse). Carrier suffered a high ankle sprain in Aug (DNP opener) and despite 58 vs UTEP had just 114 (2.2) after 8. He had the season's high with 97 vs WY then 79 vs AF but had just 83 (3.3) in the final 2. He led but his 373 (3.6) was the lowest total for a leading rusher at NM since 1991 (Marc Wilson, 245). Wright had 60 vs SDSU, 65 vs Wyoming and finished #2 (304, 3.4). The QB's were #3, #5 and #6. This year they lose Dennis (3 st) and FB Josh Fussell (7 sts) but they can only improve their production.

RECEIVERS - In 2008 NM had to replace a pair of 1,000 yard rec's (both 1st Tm MWC). The top 3 in '08 did not even combine for 1,000 as Chris Hernandez led with 428 (13.0) and Bryant Williams had 272 (7.6). Both ret'd in '09 but rfr Ty Kirk led with 427 (11.9) despite being susp 2 while Williams was #4 (283, 10.9) and Hernandez #7 (177, 12.6). LY they had to replace their #2 and #3 rec's and Kirk led again with 477 (12.6). TE Lucas Reed was #2 (459, 13.9) and made a lot of highlight worthy 1-handed grabs. This year they lose Williams (7 st, #3) and Hernandez (11 st, #4). Not only are the top 2 back but Reed was 1st Tm MWC plus they add Ohio St transfer Lamaar Thomas (PS#9) who has 4.38 spd and is nicknamed "The Flash." He had 4 rec in 23 minutes of action at OSU as a true. They also add W Virg trans Deon Long (PS#42). This is clearly the best rec corps here since at least '07.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Under Rocky Long the Lobos annually featured one of the biggest OL's in the NCAA and they nicknamed themselves "The Hiltmen." In Long's final season they ret'd just 14 career sts (2nd fewest FBS). Surprisingly the inexp'd group opened holes for 208 ypg rush (4.6, 18 sk). In '09 they only had to replace 2 str's (8 of top 10 ret). The Lobos took a drastic turn downward averaging just 100 ypg rush (3.3) with 41 sk (8.7%). LY they had to replace a 1st Tm MWC C (#7DC) and 2 other str's. I speculated that despite being less exp'd they could improve. Despite the loss of RT Maurice Mears after 6 sts they still improved the ypg rush to 108, trimmed the sks to 27 but the ypc slipped to 2.9. This year they lose 3rd Tm MWC LT Byron Bell (12 st, 3Y str), RG Mike Cannon (10 st), LG Karlin Givens (12 st, 2Y str), RT Mears and Zayn Bin-Bilal (6 gm). This unit is even less exp'd (14 car sts) but is now in the 3rd yr of Locksley's offense.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Rocky Long felt the team could not recruit top-notch, big DL's so his 3-3-5 defense was the perfect fit and NM was always tough vs the run. In his final season the Lobos allowed just 122 ypg (3.3). In '09 they switched to a 4-3 and had 4 new starters. While the numbers were the worst in 9 yrs, they were still respectable at 165 ypg rush (3.9, 23 sk). The star was 2nd Tm MWC DE Johnathan Rainey (9.5 sk). LY they only had to replace 1 str. Then-DC Mallory said that Rainey was the one guy that gave them some speed and athleticism off the edge but he was lost after 5 sts. NM's numbers shockingly slid to 250 ypg rush (5.3), their worst total since 1991 and they had just 11 sks (avg 33 sk prev 10 yrs). This year they lose DE Seth Johannemann (7 st, 4Y str, 5.5 tfl) who moved from LB when Rainey went down and DT Peter Gardner (11 st, 40 tkl, 6 tfl). Rainey is unlikely to play but will be reevaluated over the summer. Adding depth are Mark Hunter (6'1" 238 Jr, PS#192) and Doug Hitchens (5'11" 240 Jr). Two str's are back and after LY's poor numbers, should be much improved up front especially with PS#26, #42 and PS#68 DT's.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 with the departure of Long the LOBO position made famous by Brian Urlacher disappeared from the NM defense. The '09 group also had to replace 2 str's (#2, #5 tkl's). Carmen Messina led the FBS in tkl's (162) and earned 1st Tm MWC. LY they had to replace their #2 and #4 tkl's making them equal to '09 in exp. Messina hurt his ankle and after 3 gms had just 8 tkl's but became the first Lobo since Urlacher to have B2B 100+ tkl seasons and still led the MWC with 115 (#27 NCAA). This year they only lose SLB Terel Anyaibe (1 st, 16 tkl) and WLB Cody Neely (27 tkl). TY they bring the LOBO back to the D and bring in a PS#138JC to fill that spot. With Messina back to 100%, the #3 and #4 tkl's back, plus the addition of rfr Javarie Johnson (PS#22), this is by far the best LB corps that Locksley has fielded here.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07 with Rocky Long as HC, NM had 4 str's back and climbed to #22 in my PDR. With a veteran unit in '08 they dropped to #56. They not only changed schemes in '09 but they had to replace 3 str's (#4, #6 DC's) then Ian Clark (9 st '08) was lost after 3 gms. As expected, the unit dropped to #114. LY they had to replace 2.5 str's (#3, #5 tkl's). The Lobos were #107 in my PDR (60.4%) all g an awful 25-4 ratio. This year they should finally make strides and get their best finish (by far) in my PDR in Locksley's 3 yrs as all 4 str's and 7 of the top 8 return.

SPECIAL TEAMS - NM produced a 1st Tm All-MWC K in 2 of Long's final 3 yrs. They finished #14 in my ST rankings in '07. In '08 James Aho had the best season by any frosh K in NM history (18-24, L48). They had their best KR avg (24.9) 'S/95 and also avg 15.4 on PR's. With a net punt of 33.1 they slipped to #53. In '09 P Adam Miller earned 1st Tm MWC (36.5 net, 3 blk'd) and Aho dropped to 13-21 (L48). The unit finished a poor #107 in Locksley's 1st yr. LY in the first 2 gms, the unit allowed 2 PR td's, had a botched punt snap, all'd 2 blk'd punts and gave up a 93 yd KR for a td. Rfr P Ben Skaer avg 40.5 but had a net of 31.9 thanks to poor coverage. Aho hit 8-9 FG's (L51). The Lobos' 23 yds in PR were #119. TY Kirk had just 5 PR for -1 yds and fielded punts at the 5 and 1 vs UTEP. Versus NMSt Kirk muffed a punt and NMSt fell on it for a td. KR Emmanuel McPherson avg 24.3 and Myles Daughtry got a 100 KR td vs UTEP, the first KR td S/98. Garrett Hentrup had 4 TB on 30 KO. NM dropped even further to #118. This year with all of the key plyr's back, they can only improve.

COACHES - Rocky Long had a tremendous 11 yr tenure but resigned after '08. Mike Locksley spent the previous 4 yrs as the OC at Illinois and 2Y at Florida under Ron Zook. He is known as an outstanding coor and recruiter. In his third year Locksley changes coor's after a pair of one win seasons. New OC David Reeves was the QB cch here LY and at both Tenn ('09) and SC ('05-'08). The new DC is George Barlow who was the asst HC and DB coach here the L2Y after spending 10 seasons at James Madison incl the final 5 at DC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

New Mexico has not won a league title since 1964 and I was shocked after the '08 season when Rocky Long stepped down. Folks complained about Long's "boring" offenses but he got the team to 5 bowls in his last 7 yrs. They could easily have had a winning season in Long's last year ('08) but suffered some tough losses (+41.7 ypg MWC). In '09 fans were expecting a decent season under new HC Mike Locksley but I pegged them last in the MWC, although they had never finished lower than 6th. Despite that fact the Lobos plummeted to 1-11 and were -78.6 ypg in league play. Amazingly 3 players were voted 1st Tm MWC - more than any team except the Big 3. Last year I picked the Lobos last for a 2nd straight season and things actually got worse. They did match the previous year's 1-7 MWC record and 1-11 overall but dropped to a MWC worst -208.5 ypg. Long's teams were almost always among the most physical in the MWC but Locksley wanted speed-type training brought in. With the coaching change, they lost about 30 scholarship players who would have otherwise been Jr's or Sr's in '10. NM had losses by 72, 49, 42, 35, 35, 33, 25 and 24 and their lone win came by 3 vs WY, a game the Cowboys had a 536-430 yd edge. Even a previously winless UNLV beat them 45-10. This year the Lobos have 15 ret str's and were -12 in TO's LY (pg 312) and their 10.58 def ypg was 3rd worst (pg 299). They have 6 road games and face 7 bowl teams with 4 finishing AP Top 12 LY. While you would assume there is just one way to go with NM (a stronger record), it's a killer schedule and Locksley is on my Top 10 List for Coaches On The Hotseat (PhilSteele.com). Still they get some VHT transfers that will play this year and this is by far Locksley's best team. They should win more games in 2011 than they did in his first 2 years combined.

UNLV REBELS

TE Anthony Vidal

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 UNLV lost their VHT starting QB prior to the year. True frosh Omar Clayton, a 5th string walk-on in Aug, got his first start in 50 mph winds at midseason at Colo St and amazingly became the first player in UNLV history (40 yrs) to top 300 passing and 100 rushing in the same game. I say amazingly because Randall Cunningham played here. Clayton threw for 618 (61%, 4-5) with 179 (3.5) rush in 7 gm (3 sts). Clayton was having a fine year in '08 when he took a late hit vs Iowa St and was later inj'd and OFY vs TCU. He still threw for 1,894 (59%, 18-4). Mike Clausen (PS#311) started the last 3 (2 wins, 767, 56%, 5-2). In '09 Clayton was banged up but threw for 2,230 (60%, 13-12) and Clausen had 463 (59%, 4-2) in relief. True frosh Caleb Herring (PS#120) was impressive with the scout tm but RS. LY Clausen became the 6th QB to open the season as a starter for UNLV the last 7 yrs. He hit 4-10-23 (3 sk) and was pulled in the 3Q. Clausen would permanently move to DB just before the Idaho gm. Herring (strongest arm) saw his first action in the 2H vs Idaho. Three times Herring came off the bench to lead the team to its only td of the game, but those were all vs bkps. Clayton threw for 1,818 (55.8%, 13-9) while Herring threw for 365 (50%, 4-3). Clayton became the #2 career passer with 6,560 yds surpassing both Jon Denton ('96-'97) and Sam King ('53/93 from '79-'81) and played a school record 40 gms at QB. This year Herring will have to fend off Hauck recruits Taylor Barnhill (rFr, PS#232), Sean Reilly (JC, IFS) and 2 true frosh. Reilly drew interest from Kansas and Virginia and could win the job. I look for improved numbers despite the unit being less experienced.

RUNNING BACKS - UNLV has not had a 1,000 yard rusher since Dominique Dorsey in 2004 (1,261). In '09 they had to replace a #5DC and the top returning RB's were CJ Cox (191, 3.5) and Channing Trotter (110, 10.0). Cox was banged up in Aug. In the first 4, Trotter rushed for 295 (5.0) but had just 246 over the last 8 and still led with 541 (4.7). QB's were the #2 and #3 rushers as Cox only contributed 173 (3.5). They spoke highly of Bradley Randle (PS#146) in the offseason but he RS. LY the unit ret'd intact but Cox was inj'd and RS (3 gm, 56, 2.7) and Randle was inj'd in Aug but played all 13 (only 109, 4.4). Trotter was #2 with 236 (3.3) and due to inj's, they even moved DB Deante' Purvis in Wk 4 and he finished with 223 (3.9) on the yr. True frosh Tim Cornett (PS#340), a sprinter in HS, had only 107 over the first 5. He got his first start the next gm (vs WV) and finished the season as the first frosh ever to lead UNLV in rushing with 546 (3.8). He also tied a

UNLV frosh record with 8 tlt td's. This year they lose Trotter (4 st) but adding to the depth are Imari Thompson ('59' 205 So, PS#182) who RS LY due to inj, true frosh Dionza Bradford ('60' 210, PS#244) who GS, plus an HT true frosh in Elijah Penny (PS#65). UNLV has not had a 100 yd rusher vs an FBS team in 30 gms (Colo St '08) but Cornett should end that streak and has a shot at topping the elusive 1,000 yard barrier.

RECEIVERS - Last year the Rebels had to replace Ryan Wolfe who left as the school's career leading receiver. They returned 6'3" Phillip Payne (PS#114) who had 5 sts as a true frosh in '08 (436, 15.0) and was #2 in '09 (661, 11.4). They also had back Michael Johnson who was #3 (484, 11.3) in '09. Payne was having a decent year but then was susp'd for 2 after a Tweet comparing the old and new coaching staffs. Payne still led with 689 and an impressive 17.2 ypc while Johnson was #2 with 571 (11.2). New HC Hauck brought the TE back into the offense and Austin Harrington was #3 with 163 (10.2). Adding depth are Brandon Babineaux ('63' 205 So, susp spg '11) and TE Max Johnson ('61' 225 So). This year the top 3 return including Payne who has a new attitude and should be one of the top WR's in the MWC.

OFFENSIVE LINE - UNLV only had to replace 2 st's (incl the top OL) in '09 but had 4 back with 8+ career sts and opened holes for 127 ypg rush (3.9) with only 15 sks allowed (3.6%). LY they had to replace 1 st'r (#4DC) and had 86 career sts back. C Andrew Mack was lost after 7 sts (inj) forcing LG John Gianninoto to start the last 6 in his spot. With the switch in offense, they actually dropped to 103 ypg (3.0) with 35 sks (9.9%). This year they lose LT Matt Murphy (13 st, HM MWC, 4Y st'r), Evan Marchal (13 st, 3Y st'r) and Gianninoto (13 st, 2.5Y st'r). They add in a VHT in LT Allen Carroll (PS#35) who RS at Wash St in '08 before heading to JUCO. UNLV is in the 2nd year of the new offense and despite being less experienced (36 car sts), should produce better numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 UNLV had an exp'd D-line but surprisingly yielded 5.7 ypc (221 ypg) their worst ypc since '96 and had just 15 sks. LY they had to replace 2.5 st's. Isaako Aaitui (10 st '09) tore his ACL in the spring and played with a knee brace and my proj'd starting DT Ramsey Feagai tore his MCL (1 tkl) in the opener. The Rebels allowed 223 ypg (5.2) and the D had just 12 sks. This year they lose DT Aaitui (12 st, 27 tkl, 5 tfl), DE Preston Brooks (11 st, 38 tkl, 5.5 tfl), DE Daniel Mareko (26 tkl, 4 tfl) and DT Feagai (1 st). Despite having just 2 st's back, this figures to be a much improved group provided there are no more unexpected losses.

LINEBACKERS - UNLV had injury plagued LB corps in both '08 and '09. LY they had to replace their #1 tkl but had 5 of the top 6 back. The 3 st's last year were all seniors but the unit still slipped to allowing 39.7 ppg, the most since '96 (45.9). Gone this year are MLB Ronnie Pappo (13 st, #1 tkl, 2 tfl), WLB Starr Fuimaono (12 st, #3 tkl, 2.5 tfl) and SLB Calvin Randleman (13 st, #4 tkl, 3 tfl). Tani Maka (PS#145) did not meet acad requirements at UCLA in '09 but was eligible here in '10 as a true and played in all 13 (1 st, 34 tkl, 2 tfl). They did bring over RB Cox (PS#194) who turned down some BCS schools out of HS because he did not want to play defense, plus add VHT PS#19JC Princeton Jackson. While clearly a less exp'd unit, they could only improve upon LY's horrific numbers.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UNLV has struggled in Pass D as from '05-'09 they finished #115, #113, a surprising #51 then #110 and #109 in my PDR. LY they had 6 back with starting exp but CB Quinton Pointer (12 st '09) suffered a knee injury in the opener and FS Travis Dixon (7 st '09) had just 2 sts (4 gm). As you would expect with the coaching change and inexp, UNLV finished #114 (64%, 25-7) allowing 14.2 yds per completion.

This year they lose Tm Def MVP S Alex De Giacomo (13 st, #2 tkl, 4 pbu), FS Mike Grant (10 st, #8 tkl, 3 pbu) and FS Dixon (9 tkl, 2 pbu). They moved QB Mike Clausen to S after the second game LY and he started 4 (31 tkl, 1 int). He is now in his 2nd year at DB plus they get Pointer back and this should be a much improved secondary despite the loss of 2 st's.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Former HC Sanford's first 4 seasons this unit finished #78, #43, #102 and #62 in my ST rankings which is pretty decent considering the team was just 11-36. In '09 they had to replace their P, top PR and top KR but still only dropped to #61 in Sanford's final year. LY they had to replace their P/K Kyle Watson (9-14 FG's, 37.8 net). I called for them to drop a notch to two. True frosh Nolan Kohorst (PS#29) hit 8-11 FG's (L47) with two misses from 48 and one from 44. P Brendon Lamers avg 37.8 (33.4 net) and Ben Jaekle had 11 TB on 50 KO's (15 TB '09). Deante' Purvis was the top KR in '09 (23.3) but true frosh Marcus Sullivan avg 27.9 and was the MWC STPOW vs SDSt when he set the UNLV single-gm record for KR yds with 224. Sullivan led the MWC in KR yds but the Rebels still dropped to #85. This year they add in JUCO P/K Chase Lansford who avg 43.7 ypg and hit 8-11 FG's (L52). His father Mike was the barefooted K with the LA Rams from 1982-'90. With Jaekle and Lamers being the only losses, I look for a good sized move up my ST rankings.

COACHES - Bobby Hauck is in his 2nd season here as a HC coming from Montana where he guided the Grizzlies to an 80-17 record and 7 straight playoff appearances incl making it to 3 FCS Champ games in 7 yrs. Hauck is the winningest coach in Big Sky Conf history (47-6 conf record, Title all 7Y). Rob Phenice returns as OC (OC Mont 7 yrs). His '09 Montana offense was #2 in the FCS in scoring (35.8 ppg). Phenice's also had a stint here in '99 under John Robinson. The DC is Kraig Paulson (6 yrs DC Mont) and his '09 defense led the FCS in turnovers gained (37) with an amazing 26 int.

PHIL'S FORECAST

UNLV has had just 1 winning season in the last 16 yrs (8-5 in 2000). Mike Sanford took over in '05 and in his 5 yrs the team was a league worst 8-32 in MWC play with the next closest being Colo St (12-28). The Rebels did have some moments almost knocking off #5 Wisc in '07 and beating #15 Ariz St in '08. UNLV could have easily been bowl eligible in both '08 and '09 with some tough losses going 5-7 each year. LY they brought in a new HC in Bobby Hauck from Montana. Many called for immediate improvement but there were signs the record would get weaker from 2009's 5-7 season. The '09 squad remarkably only had 5 sts lost to injury and despite their 3-5 league mark they were -119.1 ypg (worst) in conf play. I called for a 7th straight losing season. Normally when a new HC comes in there is a large overhaul but only 2 scholarship lettermen left the program after Hauck's first spring. As expected, they did not catch the same luck with injuries and routinely had 20-25 players on the injury list. The Rebels did face 3 tough teams to open and were beat by a combined 109-38. They then walloped NM 45-10 and played decent vs Nevada in an 18 pt loss. Hauck began to look at younger players and they were rolled by 39 at WV and then surprisingly Colo St beat them 43-10. After expected losses to TCU and BYU by a 103-13 margin they beat WY 42-16. They held AF to 84 yds rushing in the 1H but wore down and lost by 15 then were hammered by SDSt and Hawaii on the road by a combined 107-35. For the first time in school history no UNLV players made 1st or 2nd Tm All-Conference as they've had at least one each year since they joined the Big West in 1982. UNLV was also -148.3 ypg in MWC play, the 2nd worst. UNLV did allow a def ypg of 11.3 (pg 299) but this year have just 11 ret st's. The young team has just 25 ret scholarship Jr's and Sr's on the squad overall. The Rebels are likely a year away from contending for a bowl. I will call for an 8th straight losing season.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 CUSA FORECAST

CUSA WEST 1. HOUSTON - As soon as I heard Case Keenum was returning for a 6th season, in my head I automatically marked Houston down for the CUSA Title. Houston does have just 12 ret st's (Tulsa has 18) and they get the showdown match vs Tulsa on the road which will be tough. Keep in mind, however, that LY Houston with a bkp QB had 5 turnovers and only lost to Tulsa by 3 and 2 years ago with Keenum, they won in places like Okla St and Miss St so they are very capable of winning that road game. UH not only makes my Most Improved List, they also make my list of Surprise Teams (pg 20).

2. TULSA - LY Tulsa made my Most Improved List and didn't disappoint tying for the CUSA West crown and finishing #24 in the final AP poll. This year they have 18 returning st's (tied most CUSA) and have the 2nd fewest lettermen lost at 13. They lose their HC and Bill Blankenship has no exp as either a HC or coor but they do get both Houston and SMU at home and the Hurricane were a perfect 6-0 at home LY (36-12 LBY). They have my #1 rated O-line and offense in CUSA and I had them #1 in the West but with the coaching change, I made the switch and placed them here.

3. SMU - LY SMU had just 13 ret st's but still won the CUSA West and while losses in both the CUSA Title game and the bowl had them finishing 7-7. This year SMU is a much stronger team with 18 ret st's (tied most CUSA) but they do have a brutal schedule. I mentioned the top 5 power teams in CUSA and SMU must face 3 of them on the road including div rivals Tulsa and Houston while they also draw Southern Miss and UCF from the East. The Mustangs are a stronger team TY but will need to garner some tough road wins to get back to the CUSA Title game.

4. RICE - Rice is one of the most exp'd teams in the league with 17 ret st's and they only lose 6 players off of their final week depth chart. They have one of the top ST units in the country and LY had 35 starts lost to injury and figure to maintain better health. This is Rice's best team since their 2008 squad which went 10-3 and they are probably an upset away from bowl eligibility.

5. TULANE - Tulane has 14 returning starters this year and avoid the top 2 teams out of the East (UCF and SMU). Last year they outgained Marshall 410-271 but lost, had a 28-17 FD edge vs SM, a 22-21 FD edge vs SMU and were only outgained 349-331 vs UH. They get both UTEP and Memphis at home and LY were +3.4 ypg in CUSA (98.2 yds better than UTEP) and figure to escape the basement for the first time in 3 years.

6. UTEP - UTEP did benefit from the extra bowl practices LY but do have just 11 ret st's which is the 3rd fewest in the league. Keep in mind, that the Miners were banged up at both QB and RB LY with those positions never 100% and they will have their best defense here in at least 5 years. The O-line loses all 5 st's and how quickly the JUCO's that HC Price brought in come together, will determine if they can finish higher. Price is always good for an upset or two but it still looks like a rebuilding year as they lose 35.3% of their lettermen.

CUSA Notes: Heading into LY there had been 40 games played between the West and East since they went to 2 divisions and it was split 20-20 in wins with the title games at 2-2. The East LY had the CUSA's best team in UCF but also the worst in Memphis. The East took the lead going 10-8 and winning the CUSA Title game. UCF then knocked off Georgia in the Liberty Bowl and finished #21 which is the first time one of the current CUSA members finished ranked since Marshall did in 2002 and the Herd was then a member of the MAC. SMISS finished ranked in 1999. Tulsa was my Most Improved team in my 2010 magazine and they finished 10-3 and ranked #24 giving the league TWO Top 25 tms after that drought! I got

CUSA EAST 1. SOUTHERN MISS - SM was the best team in the CUSA statistically LY at +94.1 ypg and they have 14 returning starters. Surprisingly none of my 9 sets of power ratings call them the #1 team in the league but all call them #2 and they have the perfect schedule. Houston and Tulsa drop off the schedule so they only have 2 games vs the top 5 of CUSA and get both (UCF and SMU) at home. Four of my 9 sets of power ratings call for SM to go 12-0.

2. UCF - LY I pegged the Knights to win the CUSA East and they did not disappoint as they had a dominating defense and not only beat SMU in the CUSA Title game, but also knocked off Georgia in the bowl and finished #21. UCF is still one of the premiere teams in CUSA this year despite having just 10 returning st's (2nd fewest), they have a more veteran QB, the top set of RB's in the league and one of the top defenses. The schedule is a lot tougher as they draw SMU and Tulsa out of the West and must face SM and EC on the road (B2B wks) and while they will not match LY's 11 win total, they will have their 3rd straight winning season.

3. EAST CAROLINA - The Pirates caught some breaks last year and managed to get to a bowl. This year they avoid SMU and Tulsa out of the CUSA West and are a stronger team in HC Ruffin McNeill's 2nd season. They have one of the top rated QB and WR units in the conf but defensively need major improvements after giving up 44 ppg LY. The Pirates do play a tough schedule (both conf and non) and despite being a stronger team, probably won't match LY's 5 CUSA wins.

4. UAB - UAB had their opportunities LY as they missed 5 FG's or would have knocked off Tenn and actually led #24 Miss St, 24-23 in the 4Q. This is HC Callaway's best team yet but they face one of the toughest schedules in CUSA as they draw Houston and Tulsa out of the West and must play 3 of their CUSA East rivals on the road. They have a decent shot at finishing in the upper half of the East for the first time ever, despite the tough schedule.

5. MARSHALL - I thought HC Doc Holliday did a fine job getting Marshall to 5-7 LY as they almost got to a bowl game despite having just 13 ret st's and going through a coaching change. This year's squad is stronger and has my #4 rated D in CUSA. They draw a tough schedule facing three of the league's top 5 (Houston, Tulsa, UCF) on the road and have just 5 home games this year overall. LY they were -58.6 ypg in CUSA play despite their 4-4 record and probably won't match that 4 win total with this schedule, despite being a stronger team.

6. MEMPHIS - Factored into my pick for Memphis for #6 in the East is the fact that last year they were by far the worst team in the league at -149.5 ypg (-22.8 ppg) and this year return the fewest amount of starters in the league (9) and lose the highest amount of lettermen (30, 43.5%). There is no doubt the athletic talent put on the field this year trumps last year's squad and I like the intensity of HC Porter and know he will get the most out of this group. They do host Marshall, UAB and East Carolina (three winnable games) and with a more talented team, could pull some surprises.

to attend CUSA media days LY and met with all the coaches and came out very impressed with the group and all but one returns this year (Tulsa HC Graham is off to Pitt). SMISS has the conf's most wins over 10 years, while UH and EC tie for best over 5 yrs and EC is #1 over L/3Y. CUSA was 22-32 in non-conf gms incl 6 wins vs BCS teams and while they were 2-4 in the bowls LY, the 6 bowl invites show the improved competitiveness of this conf. The league had 7 draft picks. I think of CUSA and the Big 12 as offensive leagues and the avg pts in a conf game LY was 60.6 so there is a point per minute in CUSA games! The fireworks should continue as the top 8 QB's in pass eff are back while Houston's Case Keenum was also granted a 6th year!

QUARTERBACKS - Kevin Kolb started as a true freshman and had a storied 4 yr career topping David Klingler as the school's all-time leading passer. In '07 r/r Case Keenum took over and in '08 had a streak of 13 straight 300 yd gms end in the bowl (1 shy FBS rec). He set an FBS record with 25 straight comp over a 2 game span (Tee Martin 24 at Tenn, '98). Keenum threw for 5,020 (67%, 44-11) while avg 386 ypg!! Keenum had another record setting year in '09 (#8 Heisman vote) throwing for 5,671 (70%, 44-15) but had a career high SIX int in the bowl. He came into last year 4,167 yds behind Timmy Chang (Hawaii) to become the NCAA's all-time leading passer and it looked like a foregone conclusion. Keenum was inj'd vs UTEP then OFY against UCLA with an ACL. Cotton Turner (PS#104) was the bkp but he broke his clavicle also vs UCLA and true frosh Terrance Broadway (PS#31) led them to 10 of their 13 pts. Broadway started vs Tulane but passed for just 174 with 3 TO's and 5 sks. David Piland (PS#152) started the rest of the year. He threw for 2,641 (58.3%, 24-14) while Keenum threw for 636 (65.6%, 5-5) in just over 2 gms. One year after seeing both their passing ypg (434 to 327) and comp % (70.3 to 61.6%) drop, they should return to '09's numbers. Keenum was granted a 6th year and will become the NCAA's all-time passer if he stays healthy. Not listed below are Drew Hollingshead (6'3" 210 So, PS#73) and Crawford Jones (6'1" 193 Jr, PS#325).

RUNNING BACKS - The Cougars have had some top-notch RB's in recent years including Joffrey Reynolds who set a CUSA single season rush record (1,545 in '02). They also produced 1,000+ yd rushers in '03 and '05. In '06 Anthony "Quick Six" Alridge rushed for 959 with an amazing 10.1 ypc! In '07 Alridge had 1,597 (6.2) while adding 42 rec (10.2). In '08 true frosh Bryce Beall, who is physical, strong and fast, took over. He had his first 100 yd game in Wk 5 and finished with 1,247 (6.3) along with 496 rec yds (14.6). In '09 Beall split carries with true frosh Charles Sims (PS#124). Sims finished with 698 (5.3) and 759 rec yds (10.8) while Beall had 670 (4.8) and 311 rec yds (9.7). I projected Sims as the starter LY but he was acad ineligible. Beall led with 870 (5.3) and Michael Hayes (PS#90JC, late signee) started 3 (629, 4.2). Soph Chris Wilson (5'11" 210 Jr, PS#180) added 122 (5.1). Not in the PSL are Xavier Brown (6'0" 197 r/r, PS#144), Kurtis Shaw (5'8" 193 Jr), Terrell Douglas (5'11" 207 Jr), Randall Hollimon (6'1" 200 r/r), Braxton Welford (6'0" 200 Jr) and Wilson. Everyone is back including Sims making this a very deep and improved RB corps.

RECEIVERS - In '08 Patrick Edwards had 634 (13.8) before a gruesome broken leg vs Marshall. He was the #2 returnee in '09 (lost top rec) and Iowa transfer James Cleveland (464, 12.9 in '07) led with 1,214 (11.7) despite missing 2 (inj). Tyrone Carrier (1026, 12.8 '08) was #2 in '09 with 1,029 (11.3) and Edwards, back from injury, had 1,021 (12.0). RB Sims was #4. LY everyone ret'd but with QB Keenum getting inj, they did not match '09's numbers. Edwards led with 1,100 (15.5), Cleveland was #2 with 800 (14.0) and Carrier had 480 (9.1). Kierrie Johnson was #3 with 572 (15.5). This year they lose Johnson (11 st) and Cleveland (9 st). Adding depth are Demetrius Woods (6'0" 195 Jr, PS#101), Gino Collins (5'11" 185 Jr), Marcus Williams (5'10" 175 Jr), Langston Williams (5'9" 160 r/r) and Desmond Bonds (6'0" 160 Fr). While this unit is less exp'd, they could put up better numbers.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '07's magazine I called this unit UH's most talented O-line in years and they opened holes for 224 ypg rush (4.9), their best since joining CUSA (34 sks, 7.8%). In '07 Briles' offense ran the ball 58% of the time vs 40% under HC Sumlin. In '08 despite having 8 of the top 10 back, UH saw their rush drop to 161 ypg but their ypc rose to 5.2 and the sks allowed dropped to 4.4% (27). In '09 they had to replace 2 multi-year st's (#2 DC) then lost starting LT Jacobly Ashworth after 4 sts. The numbers dropped to 130 ypg (4.5) but just 18 sks (2.4%). LY UH had to replace 2 st's but did move in Isaiah Thompson (24 st DL). The numbers improved to 153 ypg (4.5) with 12 sks. This year they lose C Jordan Shoemaker (12 st, 2.5Y st/r), RT Roy Watts (12 st, 2Y st/r), 2nd Tm CUSA LG Thompson (10 st, 3Y st/r) and Jaryd Anderson (3 st). Houston has just 2 ret st's but one is 1st Tm CUSA Chris Thompson. LY UH used the same starting lineup in 10 gms (good health) and with this year's group being less exp'd, I'll call it down a few notches.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Cougars' rush D improved in each of Briles' 5 yrs from allowing 209 ypg (5.1) in '03 to 140 (3.8) in '07 (see right). In '08 the unit ret'd 2 veteran senior st's and Sumlin switched them to a 4-3. DE Phillip Hunt became the CUSA DPOY (14 sks). Surprisingly UH allowed 175 ypg rush (4.2). They had to replace 3 st's incl Hunt in '09 and I wrote that the DL was the biggest concern on the '09 squad. They were undersized and inexp'd. Not unexpectedly, the Cougars allowed 227 ypg rush (highest S/94) and 5.1 ypc. LY they added BYU transfer Matangi Tonga (PS#44) and strength coach Larry Jackson called DE David Hunter "freakishly strong" (450+ bench). UH shifted back to a 3-4 and lost DT Zeke Riser (14 st '09) to an ACL in the spring so they had just 1 st'r bkp. Soph Kelvin King took DE Tyrone Campbell's (moved to NG) starting spot (last 7). This year they lose NT Tonga (9 st, 26 tkl, 5.5 tfl). Not in the PSL are Jeremiah Farley (6'1" 264 So, PS#294), Nathan Ramirez (6'1" 245 Jr) and Alex Ogbongbemiga (6'0" 250 Fr). While I list 2 st's they basically have 3 back with the return of Riser. Houston adds another JC and should improve upon the poor 209 ypg (4.8) of '10.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 UH had to replace their #3 tkl'r then lost 2 LB's to injury. True frosh Phillip Steward started 9 (#4 tkl'r). LY they had to replace their #2 tkl'r. Marcus McGraw (#1 tkl'r in '08) was #3 in the FBS with 156 tkl's in '09 and finished #1 on the squad again (110). Matt Nicholson (#7 '08, miss '09) ret'd LY to start 9 until an injury (#7 tkl'r). Steward finished #2 in tkl's. This year the only loss is Nicholson. Not listed below are Adrian Harris (6'0" 200 Jr) and David Mason (6'3" 217 Jr). With the return of their #1, #2, #3 & #5 tkl's, this is the best Cougar LB corps in quite some time and they add in PS#33JC Lloyd Allen.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - They only had to replace 2 st's in '08 and UH surprisingly slipped from #55 in my PDR to #94. In '09 they only had 1 st'r back then lost 2 projected S's over the summer. UH actually improved a little to #84. LY they had to replace 2 st's. SS Roisean Haynes started the first 6 but was inj'd and lost his spot to Jacky Candy. UH improved to #75. This year they lose CB Jamal Robinson (11 st, 47 tkl, 1 int, 7 pbu, 4th Tm CUSA), CB Devin Mays (11 st, 27 tkl, 3 pbu), S Candy (6 st, 60 tkl, 1 int), Haynes (6 st, 45 tkl) and CB Loyce Means (2 st, 38 tkl, 3 int, 6 pbu). Not in the PSL are Rodney Hopkins (5'8" 187 r/r) and Michael Owens (5'9" 172 Fr). I project two JC's as starting CB's and an A&M transfer at SS so they could be close to '10 despite having 1 st'r back.

SPECIAL TEAMS - UH's best finish in my ST rankings under Briles was his first season at #50. In his final 4 yrs they were #115, #106, #92 and #90. In Sumlin's first year they had to replace their top KR (28.3) and PR but still moved up to #59. In '09 I said they should be one of the top ST units in the CUSA. The ST units were a major part of the team's success as they blk'd 6 kicks, had 5 KR td's and finished #29. They used 3 diff K's but r/r Matt Hogan hit 12-12 FG's (51 yd gm winner vs Tulsa), although he missed 2 xp's and a 3rd was blk'd vs EC. Tyrone Carrier avg 29.0 on KR's with 4 td's and was also the top PR (10.4). LY they had to replace their P (34.4 tm net). Hogan hit 14-17 FG (4.9) and true frosh P Richie Leone avg 41.4 (35.5 tm net). Leone had 7 TB on 59 KO and the return game was solid. UH dropped to #60 but with all of the key players back they are one of the upper tier units in the country (pg 15).

COACHES - Art Briles did a great job here in his 5 years guiding the team to 4 bowls but left for Baylor after '07. Kevin Sumlin picked up right where Briles left off with bowls his first 2 seasons. Sumlin was Okla's ST's coach from '03-'05 before being elevated to co-OC ('06-'07). Jason Phillips is in his ninth season here and 4th as co-OC. Former TTech QB Kliff Kingsbury is in his 4th season here and 2nd as co-OC/QB cch. DC Brian Stewart begins his 2nd year here after a 9 yr NFL coaching career with stints at HOU (DB '02-'03), SD (DB '04-'06), DAL (DC '07-'08) and PHI (D spec asst '09).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Art Briles took a team that had won just 3, 0 and 5 the previous 3 seasons to one that had just 1 losing record in his 5 yrs with the high water mark being '06. They were my pick to win the CUSA West in '06 (media picked them #3) and they delivered, winning the CUSA Title going 10-4 with one of their losses coming on a last play Hail Mary. In Briles' last season, even after losing QB Kevin Kolb, UH still avg 34.5 ppg and finished 8-5. In Kevin Sumlin's first year the Cougars finished 8-5 again improving to 40.6 ppg. All they had to do was beat Rice in the "Bayou Bucket" game and they would have won the CUSA West but they lost by 14. They did win their first bowl game since 1980 when they knocked off AF 34-28. In '09 Case Keenum was in his 3rd year as a starter and piloted the team to 42.2 ppg including upsets of #5 Okla St, TTech and Miss St with 2 of those coming on the road. They won the CUSA West Title going 10-2 but in the CUSA Title game and the bowl (rematch vs AF), were -8 in turnovers and dropped both. After reaching #13 in Wk10 they finished unranked. LY UH was the preseason favorite to win CUSA led by Keenum. UH put up 122 pts in the first 2 but then Keenum was inj'd and OFY in their loss to UCLA. The Cougars dropped 2 of the next 3 including a tough loss to Rice where they had a 436-344 yd edge but lost by 3. After beating SMU and Memphis, Houston was 5-3 and in the CUSA chase but suffered a tough loss at home to UCF and QB Piland had 5 int's vs Tulsa in the 3 pt loss. They lost to SM by 18 and TT by 15 to finish 5-7 for their first losing season since '04. Keenum was granted a 6th year and college football will benefit from that. UH also had 3 net close losses but does have just 12 ret st's. Keenum's return has me very excited for this year's squad and 8 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for a double digit win season which will at least double LY's 5 win total. Three of the 9 call for them to be 11-0 when they travel to Tulsa! UH is also one of my Surprise Teams (pg 20).

The last time UH beat UCLA was in '79 (2-3 overall). LY UH came in ranked #23 but lost QB's Keenum and Turner for the season. UH is 7-1 S'03 in home openers including 5 straight wins by 38 ppg.

The last meeting was in '98, the Cougars won 31-9 w/a 356-268 yd edge. UH did trail 9-7 at HT being outgained 168-62. UH is 3-17 S'91 in road openers but 2 wins came vs non-BCS teams.

UH is 3-2 vs Louisiana Tech but their L-series win was in 1991. UH's L-visit to Ruston was in '94 losing 32-7 being outFD'd 20-14 & outgained 401-205. UH trailed 20-0 into the 4Q.

First meeting. Panthers went 6-5 LY incl a 63-7 loss vs AL. LY marked their inaugural FB season. Bill Curry is the 1st GSU HC. He was the HC at GT (1980-'86), Bama ('87-'89) & UK ('90-'96).

The Cougars are just 1-4 at the Sun Bowl. In the L-visit UH came in ranked #12 & despite Keenum's 536 pass yds lost. UH trailed 37-20 into the 4Q & never got closer than 10 pts.

Since '02 this series is even at 3 apiece. UH's 3 wins have been by 14 ppg & 3 losses by just 5 ppg. Last meeting was in the '09 CUSA Title game. UH led 19-14 at HT but EC pulled away w/a 17 pt run.

Bonus: Into 2011, Houston is 18-3 the L5Y hosting CUSA opp's but did drop their final 2 LY.

This will mark just the 3rd overall meeting as the HT is 2-0. UH dropped the L-meeting 37-23 in '08 despite FD & yd edges. UH trailed 30-3 late 3Q but 3 Houston TD's set up 21 MU points.

Played for the Bayou Bucket. At 6.1 miles apart they are the closest of any FBS colleges. HT has won 4 str. LY UH trailed 27-7 before 24 str (UH turn it's L/pos at the R41 down 3 w/1:37).

UH is 1-3 in Birmingham but did win their last visit ('07) 49-10. The Cougars led 35-10 at HT w/a 271-208 yd edge (four 1H int's). Into 2011, UH is just 2-5 their LY vs CUSA East Div foes.

UH has won 8 str overall & 3 str at the Superdome. LTH the Cougars only led 9-6 at HT before outscoring TU 20-0 in the 3Q. Into 2011, UH is just 6-7 under Sumlin on the CUSA road.

UH has won 5 str in this series by 15 ppg. LY the Cougars never trailed leading 24-10 at HT & 31-17 into the 4Q.

UH escaped their L-visit to Tulsa. UH down 8 went 61/13pt for a TD w/21 left but the 2 pt conv failed. UH recovered the onside, hit 13 & 14 yd passes & nailed a 51 yd FG as time expired in the miracle comeback!

TULSA GOLDEN HURRICANE

CB John Flanders

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In Paul Smith's first year as a starter ('05) he flourished in the new no-huddle offense. He threw for a CUSA & school record 5,065 (60%) with a 47-19 ratio. He left after '07 as TU's all-time passing leader. In his first year as a starter (22 att prior) David Johnson had a much better season than expected throwing for 4,059 (65%, 46-18) in '08. He was threatening to set the NCAA record for pass eff in a season, but had 5 int in the CUSA Title game. In '09 Texas transfer GJ Kinne (PS#24) won the job but unlike Johnson, who had a veteran supporting cast, Kinne had an inexp'd O-line and backfield. Kinne still had a solid year throwing for 2,732 (61%, 22-10), but threw 8 of his 10 int in the L/5 (tm went 1-4). They used true frosh Shavodrick Beaver (PS#23) in Wildcat packages (3 pass att, 63 rush yd). LY I called for Kinne to be one of CUSA's top QB's and he threw for 3,650 (59.8%, 31-10) and for a second consecutive yr was also the team's top rusher (561, 3.6). Beaver had 6 pass att and 20 rushes (164 tl yd). Not listed below are Stephen Rouse (6'0" 195 So) and Malachia Blankenship (6'1" 190 So). Kinne should top LY's solid numbers and may come close to leaving as Tulsa's career passing leader (see right pg).

RUNNING BACKS - Tarrion Adams rushed for 1,225 (5.6) in '07 and 1,523 (6.2) in '08 becoming the school's single season and career rushing leader. Powerful inside runner Jamad Williams rushed for 523 (6.1). HB Charles Clay had a combined 449 rush (5.6) and 1,488 yds rec (13.8) in his first 2Y. They had a tough time replacing Adams as GJ Kinne became the first QB to lead the team in rushing since 1968 (Mike Stripling). Kinne's 393 was the lowest total for a leading rusher here since 1971 (Mike Ridley, 311). Williams had 389 (3.9) while Clay added 236 (3.7) and also had 530 rec (13.6). LY 249 lb Alex Singleton (PS#112) led the team early with 74 vs BG and 93 vs C Ark but finished with just 391 (4.7). WR Damaris Johnson was #2 with 560 (10.2) and QB Kinne was again #1. True frosh Ja'Terian Douglas (PS#89) ply'd in 12 with 1 st and had 335 (7.8) while r/r Trey Watts (son of JC Watts) had 197 (3.2). Williams split time at RB & DB and had 173 (6.0) and Clay had 226 (6.6) with 526 (12.2) rec while fellow HB Willie Carter had 162 (8.1) rush and 299 (15.7) rec. Adding depth is Tony Peoples (PS#304) who had 3 tkl's in 8 gms LY at CB. This year they must replace Williams and Clay (#6DC MIA) but I look for more production from the Tulsa RB's.

RECEIVERS - In '07 the rec's were very inexp'd but true frosh Trae Johnson was a very productive #2 with 1,088 (15.5). In '08 true frosh Damaris Johnson was #2 with 743 (14.0) and Trae's numbers dropped to 475 but with a 23.8! Brennan Marion led in both '07 (1244, 31.9) and '08 (1112, 25.9). In '09 they had to replace Marion and Damaris Johnson led with 1,131 (14.5). Tenn transfer Slick Shelley added 511 (17.6) while AJ Whitmore had 238 (9.2) and Trae was #4 (311, 14.1). LY they only had to replace Shelley. Damaris led again but with just 872 (15.3) and Trae improved to 498 (16.6). RB Charles Clay finished #2 for a 2nd straight season. True frosh Thomas Roberson (PS#145, 4.4 spd) was #4 (367, 12.2) and soph Ricky Johnson (PS#91) had 351 (16.0). AJ Whitmore was susp for the season. Not listed in the PSL below are TE's Matt Hesterberg (6'2" 233 Jr) who moved from DL in '10, Michael Britton (5'10" 237 Sr, 10 gm LY), Nathan Largen (6'1" 231 Sr) and Garrett Klutts (6'5" 205 So). This year they lose Trae Johnson (1 st) but could get Whitmore (5'9" 176 Sr, 14 car st) back and I'll call for improved numbers from TU's WR's.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Tulsa had an inexp'd QB but avg 570 ypg and 47.2 ppg. In '09 TU again had an inexp'd QB but only avg 410 ypg and 29.3 ppg. Perhaps the key difference was the exp of the O-line. The '08 unit only had to replace one st'r (268 ypg rush, 5.6, 24 sks). In '09 they only had 2 ret st'r's and one, LT Tyler Holmes, missed 6. The O-line was retooled at midseason due to inconsistent play, inj, inexp and poor pass protection. The numbers dropped to 151 ypg (3.8) with 46 sks (11.8%). LY TU had to replace 1 st'r but had 9 of the top 10 back and the unit was a big factor in my calling Tulsa the Most Improved Team in the country. The numbers improved to 217 ypg rush (5.3 with 28 sk, 6.0%). This year all 5 st'r's return with the only losses being Nick Gates (7 gm) and RT Brandon Thomas (4 st). Not only do they have 113 career st'r's returning, they also add in Okla transfer Kody Cooke (PS#145), r/r Jake Alexander (PS#129) who turned down SEC offers, T-Tech transfer Joe King and ND transfer Matt Romine (PS#18, 3 car st!). This is the best O-line in CUSA.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Rush D had not been a strength at Tulsa. In '06 I called for their best numbers in 2 decades and they trimmed their ypc to 4.2 and their 138 ypg rush allowed was their best in 17 yrs. With 2 st'r's back in '07, TU slipped to 185 ypg (4.4). They had 3 st'r's back in '08 and allowed just 130 ypg (3.8). In '09 they had to replace 2 st'r's but HC Graham called the trio of DE Cory Dorris, DE Odrick Ray and NG Wilson Garrison probably the best group he'd had at Tulsa. The less exp'd unit did well allowing just 147 (3.9) but the sks dropped from 38 to 25. LY Tulsa only had to replace 1 st'r and a bkp but brought in JUCO Darrell Zellars at NG. Once again Graham said it could be his best DL. TU improved to allowing 132 ypg rush (3.9, 30 sk). This year they lose DE Ray (12 st, 14 tkl, 4.5 sk) but have 5 of the top 6 back incl their top DL sack man Tyrann Walker (PS#94JC). They switch to a 4-3 but this is the best D-line here in at least 5 years.

LINEBACKERS - Tulsa had all 4 starters back (#1, #2, #6, #8 tkl's) in '09 with all 4 starting all 12. Surprisingly Tulsa still allowed 27.3 ppg. LY they had to replace their #2, #5 and #10 tkl's plus 2 other LB's (comb 43 tkl). TU did return their #4 and #7 tacklers. 2009's #1 tkl'r DeAndre Brown ended up taking a RS (acad). The 4 man unit had just 1 st'r back and Tanner Antle missed 1 st (conc). This year they lose LB Antle (12 st, #4 tkl'r, 7.5 tfl, 1 int) but return their #1 and #2 tkl's in the new 3-man group, while also getting Brown back making the unit more experienced. Adding depth are Colbert Nelson (6'1" 195 So) and Zik Asiegbu (6'0" 190 Fr).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Tulsa had three top 30 finishes in my PDR from 2003-'06. In Graham's first 2 seasons, they were a disappointing #99 and #97 but only had to replace 1 st'r in '09 but then lost their FS after 3 sts. They still moved up to #60. LY TU had to replace 2 st'r's and Graham said FS Dexter McCoil reminded him of Bobby Blackshire ('04-'06) but 3" taller. Charles Davis was granted a 5th year and moved to CB and I mentioned the unit was not quite as exp'd but still solid. Tulsa finished #60 for a second straight season. This year they lose 3rd Tm CUSA Davis (10 st, #7 tkl'r, 2 int, 11 pbu) but have 7 of the top 8 back incl 1st Tm CUSA Marco Nelson (12 st, #3 tkl'r, 6 int). Not listed below is Zach Lathrop (6'1" 165 Fr) PS#241QB. Tulsa will have their best finish in my PDR since '06.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Graham's first year they had to replace their top KR, PR and P and as you would expect, fell to #96 in my ST rankings. In '08 the unit rel'd intact plus they added true frosh Damaris Johnson (school KR rec 1382, 25.6). Tulsa moved up to #66. In '09 they had to replace their career scoring leader K Jarod Tracy. Nebraska transfer P Michael Such avg 44.5 (tm net 37.1). New K Kevin Fitzpatrick (PS#74) hit 13-14 (long 51) and had 8 TB on 54 KO (Jeffers 1 TB, 13 KO, inj). Damaris Johnson avg 24.6 on KR and 14.2 on PR. The Hurricane moved up to #37. LY everyone rel'd and they finished #25. Damaris Johnson became the NCAA's career all-purp and KR leader. Such avg'd 43.1 and the team had an outstanding 39.5 net. Fitzpatrick had 8 TB on 98 KO while hitting 16-24 FG's but was just 3-9 from 40+ with a L/47 and 4 of his misses were blk'd. This year Tulsa loses their outstanding P but with Johnson back, should have a fine unit once again.

COACHES - Todd Graham had a very successful 4 year stint as HC here including B2B double digit winning seasons for the first time in school history. His 36-17, 68% is best here since Henry E Frnk (40-9, 82%, 1941-45). Graham led Tulsa to 3 bowl wins incl LY's Hawaii bowl but unexpectedly left on Jan 10th when the Pitt HC job came open suddenly (new HC fired). Bill Blankenship was named the HC 4 days later and less than 3 wks before signing day. He has never been a college HC or coor and after spending 22 yrs coaching in the Okla HS system, joined Tulsa in '07. He was the starting QB here in '77 and '79 and has coached the RB's, WR's and ST's in his 4 yrs here. The OC is Greg Peterson who held the same position at N Colo LY and at Colo St ('08-'09). He spent 2 yrs at Wash St ('06-'07) as the TE cch after spending 12 yrs at KSt incl 2 as a co-OC. The DC is Brent Guy who was the HC at Utah St ('05-'08, 9-38). He was the UNLV LB cch LY and was with L'ville in '09. His last role as DC was at Ariz St ('01-'04).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Tulsa is actually the smallest FBS school but after consecutive one win seasons, in Steve Kragthorpe's first year of '03, they had the largest turnaround in the country going from 1-11 to 8-5. Kragthorpe achieved 3 winning seasons and 3 bowls with the team going 29-22 in his 4 yrs and won the CUSA Title in '05. Todd Graham's first 2 years opened strong as they had their first 10 win season since 1991 in '07 and became the first school in NCAA history to have a 5,000 yard passer, three 1,000 yd rec's and a 1,000 yard rusher and won the bowl by 56 pts. In '08 they had to break in a new QB but still improved to 11-3 and again dominated in their bowl (won by 32 pts). In '09 Tulsa dropped to 5-7 but last year was my #1 Most Improved Team and managed to double their win total and it could have been even better. In the opening game vs EC, they led 49-45 and EC got a 33 yd Hail Mary pass on the final play. Tulsa had another tough loss vs SMU when they had 2 FG's blocked and missed an open td pass losing by 3. The only other loss came vs Okla St and after Tulsa beat Hawaii 62-35 in the bowl, they finished #24 in the final AP poll. During the year they even earned an upset of ND in South Bend 28-27 and beat preseason CUSA favorite Houston 28-25 on the road. This year Tulsa has 18 ret st'r's but loses HC Todd Graham, Tulsa was +77.6 ypg (3rd best) and tied for the CUSA West Title. They were +17 in TO's and had 2 net close wins. Tulsa's non-conf slate is brutal with 3 preseason Top TEN teams (Okla, Okla St and Boise). Even with the coaching change, the Golden Hurricane have just 13 lettermen lost and 3 of my 9 sets of power ratings calls them CUSA's best team.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Prior to '06, SMU's completion % for a season only topped 52.8% ONCE in the previous 10 yrs and that was in '04 (54.4%)! In '06, Justin Willis threw for 2,047 (67%, 26-6). In '07 Willis threw for 2,944 (59%, 25-18) and was the #1 rusher (699). Willis was susp for the '08 spring and true frosh Bo Levi Mitchell won the job. Mitchell threw for 2,865 (58%, 24 td) but also had 23 int (worst NCAA). In '09 Mitchell was banged up and threw for 1,725 (56%, 12-10). True frosh Kyle Padron (Southlake Carroll HS) which also produced Chase Daniel and Greg McElroy started vs Tulsa (354) but vs Rice held on to the ball too long (5 sks). Padron threw for 1,922 (67%, 10-4, #5 pass eff FBS) and had a school record 460 in the bowl. Mitchell transferred to EWash (won FCS Title IV) and they added NMSU transfer JJ McDermott. Padron had a good year but dropped to 59.4%. He still set an SMU tfl offense record while throwing for 3,828 (31-14, 244 rush). McDermott got in 4 gm (4 att). TY added to the mix are Stephen Kaiser (6'3" 217 rFr, PS#66), Bill Embody (6'0" 185 rFr), Ryan Foster (6'1" 187 rFr) and true frosh Connor Preston (PS#72, IFS). SMU should have their best ypg passing since the Death Penalty.

RUNNING BACKS - The key to this unit's '09 success happened the day before the opening KO when Miami, FL transfer Shawnbrey McNeal (PS#39) was ruled eligible. In '08 the top rusher had just 190 (4.1) and the top returnee was Chris Butler (174, 5.3). McNeal became the first ever 1,000 yd rusher (1188, 5.0) in June Jones' 11 yrs as a college HC. True frosh Zach Line (230 lbs) was #2 with 189 (3.9) and the #3 and #4 rushers were QB's. No other RB had a rush att. McNeal left early for the NFL (undrafted). Line was the frontrunner last year but they figured to have a more "explosive" RB emerge. Line had different intentions and grabbed hold of the job and never let go. He even topped McNeal's numbers, rushing for 1,494 and an impressive 6.1 ypc. True frosh Darryl Fields (fastest RB), who Jones compared to Eric Dickerson, had just 8 rush att's, 28 (3.5) as he failed to pick up blocking schemes. Jones compared true frosh Kevin Pope (225 lbs) to Earl Campbell but he was coming off a HS knee injury and RS. He now moves to LB. This year they only lose Butler (182, 5.5). Not listed below are Billy Dugal (6'2" 219 Jr) and Travis Carille (5'11" 220 So). While this unit is more exp'd, deeper and one of CUSA's best, it will be tough to improve much upon Line's fine numbers.

RECEIVERS - In '08 Jones said that Aldrick Robinson may be the best outside receiver he's ever coached and he had Andre Rison and Terance Mathis in Atlanta! Robinson led with 1,047 (17.7) while Emmanuel Sanders (#1 in '06 & '07) added 958 (14.3) despite both being susp the final 2. True frosh Cole Beasley had 366 (8.7) and rFr Terrance Wilkerson 233 (9.7). In '09 Sanders became SMU's all-time leader and was #1 with 1,339 (13.7) and a #3DC. Robinson was #2 (800, 17.0) and Wilkerson had 527 (12.5). LY Robinson finished #3 in rec (65) but he led in yds (1301, 20.0!). Robinson set SMU ssn rec's with 14 td rec and 7 gm with 100+ yds. Beasley was #2 (1060, 12.2) and it's the first time SMU has had a pair of 1000+ yd rec's. Jones was very high on soph Darius Johnson (11 rec, 5 gm inj true) who finished #3 with 845 (10.8) while Bradley Haynes had 326 (9.3). Once again they lose their top rec as well as Patrick Fleming (4 st, 8 rec). I do not see a Robinson-type (#6DC WASR) waiting in the wings but they do have 4 of the top 5 back.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In June Jones' first year they had to replace 3 multi-yr st's then suffered inj's and had to learn a new system. The numbers plummeted to 41 ypg rush (2.3) with a respectable 5.7% sks allowed (27), despite having 3 frosh st's. In '09 they had 3 st's back and improved to 110 ypg (3.8) but with 36 sks (7.6%). LY SMU had to replace 1 st'r then lost LG Josh LeRibeux (0 st) so they had 3 st's back. The Mustangs showed improvement again to 139 ypg (4.8) with 34 sks (6.6%). This year the entire 2 deep returns plus they get back LeRibeux so they actually have 9 who started and 6 who have been full-time st's (158 car sts, #1 FBS). Jones did a solid job developing OL's at Hawaii and this is one of CUSA's top O-lines.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '06 I said SMU had one of CUSA's strongest D-lines and the exp'd unit allowed their 2nd best rush D (3.2 ypc) since the Death Penalty. In '07 they had to replace 3 st's then lost their only ret st'r after 6. As expected, SMU's rush D numbers ballooned to a Phil Bennett era high 5.0 ypc (20 sk). In '08 (2 st'r ret) they yielded 226 ypg, the most S/'95 (4.9). In '09 they had to replace 4 DL (comb 31 sts) but did get back an '07 st'r and added PS#61JC Marcus Frazier (500 bench). SMU also got the unusual addition of Margus Hunt who is 6'8" 295 (SMU track tm) and '09 was his first yr in organized football. The lightly exp'd unit still improved to 167 ypg rush (4.4). LY they had to replace 1 st'r and I called it an underrated unit. The Mustangs allowed just 145 ypg (3.7) with 29 sks (most S/'06). This year the 2 deep returns incl Hunt (HM CUSA) and Taylor Thompson (1st Tm CUSA). Adding depth is Bardia Karimi (6'2" 292 rFr). The Mustangs have the best DL's in CUSA.

LINEBACKERS - SMU had to replace 1st Tm CUSA Chase Kennemer who was by far their #1 tk/r (135) in '09 but returned 6 with starting experience including 4 who were in the '09 two deep as Fr. The D went from all'g 27.6 ppg to 25.6. This year they lose 2nd Tm CUSA LB's Pete Fleps (14 st, #2 tk/r, 6.5 tfl), Youri Yenga (13 st, #5 tk/r) and Justin Smart (1 st, 22 tk). Not listed below are Will McDonald (6'2" 217 rFr) and Craig Jackson (6'0" 222 rFr). They return their #1 and #4 tk/r's and could improve the ppg allowed for a 4th straight year.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - SMU had just 1 st'r back in '08 and slipped to #117 in my PDR. In '09 they ret'd all 4 st's and FS Chris Banjo was chosen to wear Jerry LeVias' #23 jersey and was the #2 tk/r as a soph. SMU had just 8 int in '08 but had 9 in the first 2 gms of '09. As expected, the more exp'd unit moved up to #44. LY they had to replace 2 st's and CB Sterling Moore (11 st '09) missed 6 (knee). Despite being less exp'd, SMU only slipped to #47 (59.3%, 18-10). This year they lose Moore (8 st, 24 tk, 2 int, 8 pbu) and CB Bennie Thomas (6 st, 14 tk). They have 3 st's back incl 2nd Tm CUSA Banjo (#3 tk/r) and 1st Tm CUSA CB Richard Crawford. Not listed in the PSL are Terry Anderson (5'10" 170 So), Steven Steinmetz (5'10" 180 rFr), Robert Lloyd (6'0" 187 So) and Hayden Greenbauer (6'0" 225 rFr). This looks like Jones' best secondary yet.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '09 SMU had to replace the NCAA's all-time leader in KR yds Jessie Henderson (2,945) and P/K Thomas Morstead (#5DC, 37.2 net). They brought in Texas A&M transfer Matt Szymanski who hit 11-16 FG's (3 miss 50+ incl 58) and also hit the 3rd longest FG in sch hist (53). Szymanski avg 41.9 on punts (35.2 net). They allowed 3 return td's but led the nation with 9 blk'd kicks. SMU dropped to #88. LY they had to replace their top KR (24.2) and PR (13.8) but had Szymanski and Margus Hunt (7 blk) back. Szymanski avg 41.3 (35.0 tm net) and hit 7-12 FG's (0-2 bowl) incl a school record 61 yd'r (5 TB in 19 KO). Darryl Fields was the top KR (25.0) but the PR's struggled (tm 4.9). This year they lose Szymanski but after finishing #108 LY expect improvement. SMU ST's used to be under the direction of the late Frank Ganz Sr and now his son comes in to attempt to restore the unit. Frank Ganz Jr spent the L2Y coaching ST's at UCLA (#10 in '09, #20 in '10).

COACHES - June Jones took over an 0-12 Hawaii team and guided the '99 team to a bowl win while being named National COY. Jones was 76-41 at Hawaii and was his own OC. He was lured here in '08 with a salary of $2 million per year and enjoys better facilities and a bigger budget. Jones took a 1-11 SMU team to 8-5 including a bowl win in his 2nd year. He has now led 3 squads to the Most Improved Team in the NCAA. Jones calls his own plays but Dan Morrison is the offensive asst HC and was the QB coach at Hawaii (9 yrs). The DC is Tom Mason (LB cch Fresno St 7 yr). All 3 enter their 4th season here.

PHIL'S FORECAST

From 1981-1984 SMU was among the nation's best teams going 41-5-1 but the "Death Penalty" hit and since their return in 1989, they had one winning season from 1989-'08 (1997). Phil Bennett had them knocking on the door with 5 and 6 win seasons in '05 and '06 but in '07 had many close losses (3 in OT) and finished just 1-11. In June Jones' first season SMU susp QB Justin Willis and true frosh Bo Levi Mitchell started. The close losses continued and they finished 1-11 again (-122.7 ypg CUSA) giving them 17 straight conf losses and their 5 net close losses were #1 in the FBS. They were -13 in TO's but played league powers Tulsa and Houston tough leading both in the 4Q. In '09 they ret'd 16 st's and were #6 in my "Going Up" section due to their easier schedule (pg 318). SMU made my Most Improved List in '09 and went 8-5 including a 45-10 win in the Hawaii Bowl (1st bowl S/'84). They finished as CUSA West co-Champs and their 7 game jump was best in the country. Jones had the NCAA record at Hawaii as they went from 0-12 to 9-4. The season after that historic jump Hawaii went just 3-9. LY SMU had 13 ret st's but despite a 6-2 CUSA record in '09 they were -24.4 ypg and did benefit from 3 net close wins, signs pointing to a weaker record. SMU trailed TT 35-14 but had the ball at the end, down 8. After a couple of expected wins, they gave TCU one of their toughest gms (led 17-14 3Q) but lost by 17. Tulsa missed a pair of FG's and SMU escaped with a 3 pt win and at Navy, SMU led 14-0 in the 2H but came up 7 pts short. SMU had a chance to take control of the CUSA West but was whipped by UH 45-20. After beating Tulane, they once again had a shot at taking control but were stunned by UTEP 28-14. SMU led Marshall 24-0 at half and won by 14 then gave up a td with :12 left vs EC but still prevailed in OT winning the CUSA West Title. They did play solid in the CUSA Title game and outgained UCF but lost by 10. In the bowl, SMU had a 413-229 yd edge but was done in by -3 in TO's and some crucial missed FG's and lost by 2. SMU was actually the 2nd best tm in CUSA in ypg at +85.5 and also was -12 in TO's with 38 sts lost to injury. Those are all signs that point to improvement as does their 18 ret st's (most in the league). SMU faces Texas A&M, TCU, S Miss, Tulsa and Houston all on the road! Despite the brutal schedule, this is a stronger team and I will call for their 3rd winning season since 1984.

Old SWC rivals who played almost every yr from 1919-'95. SMU hasn't won at Kyle Field S'83, 6 str losses by 33 ppg. SMU is 1-13 S'97 in road openers (only W in '09 at UAB, 35-33).
The HT is 6-1 the L7Y. LY SMU trailed 14-0 into the 2Q but cut the deficit to a TD into the 4Q. SMU got inside UTEP territory on all 3 Q4 drives but had to punt & then was SOD at the UTEP7 & UTEP40.
First meeting. The Demons won 5-6 LY incl a 65-21 loss vs Air Force. NSU has faced 9 FBS schools the L5Y going 0-9 w/a avg score 53-13. SMU is 4-0 in recent gms vs FCS schools (avg win by 23 ppg).
SMU is 0-3 vs UTEP. LTH '07 SMU lost 55-52 in 3OT. There were 9 lead changes & no tm had more than a 7 pt lead. In the 3OT SMU was SOD on 4&g at the M2 & UM hit a GW FG 5 plays later.
Played for the Iron Skillet. SMU hasn't won in Fort Worth S'93 dropping 7 str (L5 by DD's). LTH SMU led 7-0 in the 2Q but allowed 25 unanswered & had a season low 224 yds.
Navy: LY SMU led 14-0 at HT. Navy opened the 2H w/3 str TD's & the GWTD (13/2pl) came after a SMU int. Houston: SMU is 1-6-1 in Houston S'89. LTH SMU lost 38-15 despite the yd edge (-4 TO's).
SMU is 0-3 vs UCF incl LY's CUSA Title gm. SMU trailed 17-0 into the 4Q as they were handcuffed on offense (just 187 yds). Into 2011, SMU went 3-9 vs CUSA East foes from '05-'08 but is 5-2 L2Y.
The last & only trip to Hattiesburg was in '07 (also 1st gm in series). The FD's & yds were close but SMU had 4 TO's incl an int in the EZ, fum on the SM2 & 2 missed FG's in the 28-7 loss.
SMU is 1-3 in their L4 trips to Tulsa but won in '09. QB Padron made his first career start going 20-30-67%-354-2-0. TU led 7-0 early but SMU scored 20 unanswered to put the gm away.
SMU has only won 3 of 10 but has B2B wins. LY SMU was down 17-3 before 28 unanswered.
Fourth str yr playing & SMU has dropped 7 of 8 to Navy incl 4 str overall and 4 straight at home.
In the L2Y SMU has outgained Houston in both (by 48 & 3 yds) but has lost by 25 & 23 pts.
SMU's last 3 gm series win streak was from 1984-'86. LY SMU led 28-10 into the 4Q & 42-17 before a couple of garbage TD's by Rice. Into 2011, the Mustangs are 7-1 L2Y hosting CUSA opp's.

RICE OWLS

DL Scott Solomon

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Chase Clement became the first player in Owl history to top 10,000 yds of total offense and the first in CUSA to top 1,500 rush and 8,000 pass. In '08 Clement threw for 4,119 (67%) with an amazing 44-7 ratio (693 rush). His backup John Thomas Shepherd played in 15 gms in 3 yrs (26-49-297) and ret'd in '09 along with rFr Ryan Lewis (PS#80). I expected Alabama transfer Nick Fenuzzi (PS#22) to win the job. Fenuzzi was inj'd in Wk3 and while he was out, Shepherd and Lewis combined to hit just 29-75 (2-5 ratio). Fenuzzi took most of the snaps afterwards and threw for 1,598 (60%, 11-8). LY Fenuzzi had to hold off Miami, FI transfer Taylor Cook (PS#47) as well as Taylor McHargue (PS#170) who almost burned his RS in '09. HC Bailiff liked McHargue's mobility and he was a surprise starter in Wk 1 vs a blitzing Texas D. McHargue was inj'd the next week vs NT and Fenuzzi retook control. Cook saw spot duty but vs Tulane took over down 38-21 at half (Fenuzzi 3 int's) and guided 4 td drives. Surprisingly the following week with McHargue finally healthy, Cook DNP and McHargue started vs EC and led the team to 639 yds. There were many plays where he escaped pressure with his mobility and led the tm to 2 late wins. McHargue threw for 491 (56.9%, 6-1) while Fenuzzi threw for 1,681 (62.7%, 11-9). All 3 return but Cook moves to TE/WR and adding depth are Michael Poynter and true frosh Drhipus Jackson (PS#110). I look for much improved QB stats this year.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 QB Clement was the team's leading rusher in 5 of the first 6 but CJ Ugokwe finally emerged and finished with 809 (4.8). In '09 the top ret rusher was Jeremy Goodson (69, 5.8). True frosh Charles Ross (6'1" 230) had 11 td's and took direct snaps in the "Jumbo" package. He had two 3 td gms and led with 491 (5.1). Tyler Smith had 428 (4.2). LY they only lost Goodson (223, 3.9). I projected Michigan transfer Sam McGuffie (PS#7) as my preseason CUSA 2nd Tm RB despite not playing a down for Rice and he did not disappoint as he led Rice in rushing with 883 (4.5) and also in rec's with 39 (384 yds, 9.8). True frosh Jeremy Eddington (PS#261), who Bailey hoped to RS, led in rushing for each of the last 3 with 103 (7.4) vs Tulane, 143 (8.9) vs EC and 66 (6.6) vs UAB running the wildcat offense. Smith added 279 (4.0) and Ross (6'1" 230 Jr, PS#194) dropped to 69 (3.5). Not listed below is FB Turner Petersen (6'2" 210 So, PS#153, 1 st, 153 tld yd LY) and Ross. The great news this year is that everyone returns.

RECEIVERS - In '08 Rice had the incredible tandem of Jarrett Dillard (1310, 15.1) and James Casey who broke the single season sch record for rec's (111) and led with 1,329 (12.0). Corbin Smiler was #4 with 487 (16.2). In '09 they had to replace both stars who were NFL DC's and Smiler RS (inj). Toren Dixon was #3 (598, 12.0) in '08 and led in '09 with 660 (11.0). Patrick Randolph was #2 with 356 (9.1). LY they had to replace 3 of their top 4. Their starting TE was Vance McDonald (6'5" 230) who had solid spd, good blk'g ability and reliable hands. McDonald draws comparisons to Casey. He missed 2 (inj) and his replacement, Luke Willson, emerged. Those 2 were the focal point of the group as Willson finished #1 with 425 (12.9) and McDonald #2 (396, 14.1). RB McGuffie was #3. This year they lose Randolph (9 st, #4), Smiler (2 st, 5 rec), Taylor Dupree (1 st, 5 rec, 12 gm) and Pierre Beasley (3 rec, 1 st, 6 gm). They also move in 6'7" QB Taylor Cook. Adding depth are TE Trevor Jones (6'3" 235 rFr) and WR's Andre Gaudreaux (5'11" 190 So, PS#229), Mario Hull (6'1" 190 rFr), Drew Travis (5'10" 165 rFr) and Christian Fletcher (6'1" 215 rFr). While not overwhelming, this unit is clearly more exp'd than the '10 version.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Rice had to replace 2 st's and improved to 144 ypg (4.2) with 29 sks (5.6%). In '09 they had to replace a pair of 4Y st's and with just 2 st's ret (31 car sts, #108 FBS), slipped to 109 ypg (3.2) with 30 sks. LY all 5 st's were back but both LT Scott Mitchell (brkn foot) and C Keshawn Carrington both were lost for 4 gms each. The unit had 91 career starts ret and as you would expect, improved to 159 ypg rush (3.9) with 27 sks. This year they lose LT Mitchell (3Y st'r) but return 8 of the top 10 with 109 career sts (#9 FBS). This is Bailiff's best O-line in his 5 years.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 Rice had two ret st's on the D-line and managed to improve their rush D ypc from 5.2 to 4.7 although they gave up more ypg (183 to 191). LY they appeared to have 9 back with starting exp but then lost DT Alex Lowry (9 st '09) and DE Scott Solomon (12 st '09, top DL) prior to the year. DE Cheta Ozougwu earned 1st Tm CUSA and despite the unexpected losses, they improved to allowing 145 ypg (4.1) but the sack total dropped to just 14. This year the Owls lose Ozougwu (12 st, 54 tkl, 3 sk, #7DC HOU) and DE Kramer Lucio (12 st, 21 tkl, 4 sk). With the return of Solomon (3Y st'r) it's like having 3 back and they will continue to make strides with this being Bailiff's best DL in his 5 yrs.

LINEBACKERS - While Rice plays a 4-2-5, I list the SS here as it is the closest of the 3 S's to a LB. In '09 they ret'd their #2, #3 and #5 tkl's. LY they had to replace their #5 tkl'r. They lost LB Willie Garley vs Houston (OFY) and starter Terry Briggs vs Tulsa (OFY). The unit had less exp than I anticipated but they still managed to improve from allowing 43.1 ppg to 38.5. This year they lose WLB Justin Hill (12 st, #7 tkl'r, 1 int), SS Chris Jones (11 st, #8 tkl'r), Garley (17 tkl) and Aaron Williams (3 tkl). They return their #4, #6, #9 and #10 tkl's. Not in the PSL are Michael Kutzler (6'0" 195 So, 6 gm LY) and Zach Patt (6'2" 215 rFr). While not an overwhelming group, it figures to be improved especially with the addition of LSU transfer Kyle Prater (PS#40) who was a terror on the scout tm LY.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Rice finished just #118 in my PDR in '09. LY they had to replace their #2 tkl'r but had 6 of their top 8 back as Jarrett Ben (4 st '09) RS. The more exp'd unit only moved up to #115 (62%, 34-6). Travis Bradshaw was 2nd Tm CUSA and the #2 tkl'r while KAT Corey Frazier was the #1 tkl'r with CB Phillip Gaines #3. Not only do the top 8 return TY but they add Ben and I look for a large jump up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Rice was #86, #116, #92 and #68 in my ST rankings prior to last season. They had to replace their K and top PR and I went out on a limb and called for Shane Turner to end the FBS's longest drought ('94) without a KR td (now 296). Rice also has the longest streak without a PR td (153, '97). Shane Turner had 881 (23.8) on KR in '09 but was inj'd in the opener and OFY. Andy Erickson (5'10" 175 So, PS#187) then took over but he too was lost for the season with a broken leg (20.9). Charles Ross showed flashes at 29.1 (20.3 in '09). RFR K Chris Boswell tied a school record with 4 FG's vs NT hitting 11-17 (L50). Brandon Yelovich had 6 TB's on 59 KO's. P Kyle Martens (PS#38) improved his average from 43.6 to 46.0 and the team net from 38.2 to 39.9 (#6 NCAA). Martens (excellent hangtime) was on the AFCA AA Tm, the first Owl to be honored by the AFCA since 1991. Overall, Rice moved all the way up to #21. This year almost everyone is back plus they get the return of Turner and Erickson and this looks like a top 10 ST unit (see pg 15).

COACHES - Rice was a pillar of stability with Ken Hatfield as the HC for 12 yrs ('94-'05). In '06, Todd Graham took over and did a great job taking a 1-10 tm to its first bowl in 45 yrs. Graham left for Tulsa and Rice got its 3rd HC in 3 yrs. David Bailiff, who spent the prior 3 seasons as the Texas St HC (21-15), came in and did a tremendous job and in '08 led Rice to 10 wins (most S/49 Cotton Bowl). Bailiff signed a 5 yr extension after '08. John Reagan becomes the 4th OC in the L4Y after being the run gm coor here LY (run gm coor Kan '05-'09). Bailiff's DC for a 5th season is Chuck Driesbach who had 23 yrs of prior exp (Cornell, Pitt, W Mich, TCU, Ole Miss, KSI, WF and E Car).

PHIL'S FORECAST

A 45 year drought ended in '06 as Rice had not been to a bowl since 1961. The Owls had just 6 winning seasons in that time frame with Ken Hatfield being responsible for 3 in his 12 yrs here. In Hatfield's final year they were -17 in turnovers and had 29 of their top 44 being either frosh or soph with just 10 seniors. Todd Graham stepped into a great situation and with Chase Clement at QB and Jarrett Dillard at WR they got to their first bowl going 7-5. Rice is the 2nd smallest FBS school with just 49,641 alumni and an enrollment of 5,556. They tried to fill a 70,000 seat home stadium but in '05 avg just 10,072. In '06 the Owls refurbished Rice Stadium and reduced the capacity to 47,000 adding a new $1.1 million FieldTurf surface which kept them healthier after playing on rock-hard artificial turf. In HC Bailiff's first year they slipped to 3-9 but in '08 with Clement and Dillard now both seniors, Rice had another magical year at 10-3. They were 7-1 in CUSA but just +21.3 ypg. That '08 squad had 22 seniors and benefitted from +15 in TO's and 3 net close wins. In '09 they lost Clement, Dillard and their top RB and as expected, Rice struggled, dropping to 2-10. LY they ret'd 24 of their top 26 tkl's, had 9 st's back on offense and added Michigan transfer Sam McGuffie at RB. As expected, the Owls improved, doubling their win total to 4-8 while going from -146.1 ypg in CUSA play to -53.6 tying for 4th in the West at 3-5. After an expected loss to #5 Texas (led 3-0 after 1Q), Rice was outgained 420-351 but won at N Texas by 1 overcoming a 4Q deficit. They lost their next 4 but then stunned Houston who was giving true frosh QB David Piliand his 2nd start (outgained 436-344). After expected losses to UCF and Tulsa by 27 and 37, they trailed Tulane 38-21 at the half but rallied for a 49-48 lead (2:02 4Q) with a 542-512 yd edge but lost (73 yd TD pass w/1:46). Rice at 2-8 finished the season strong with a 24 pt blowout of EC then got a td with :44 left to get past UAB. Rice only loses 6 players from their final week depth chart. They had 35 sts lost to injury last year and a def ypg of 11.7. The offense avg'd 46 ppg and 512 ypg the last 3 gms. Rice does face four AQ teams in the non-conf slate but this is one of the most exp'd teams in the country and capable of topping LY's 4 win total.

TULANE GREEN WAVE

DE DEZMAN MOSES jersey #6 in 2011

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Believe it or not, Tulane sent four consecutive QB's to the NFL in Shaun King, Patrick Ramsey, JP Losman and Lester Ricard who left after '06. In '07 Tulane used 3 QB's (195 ypg, 10-12) with their 51% being TU's lowest comp % since '96 (49%). Kevin Moore was one of those QB's and the 6'5" 239 rfr threw for 432 (56%, 2-0). There was talk of Moore splitting snaps with rfr Joe Kemp (PS#148) in '08 but Moore took almost every snap and hit 62% in his first 5. Kemp started seeing action at midseason (344, 57%, 2-1) before he broke his collarbone vs UH. Moore started all 12 and threw for 2,194 (56%, 8-13). Kemp, who has a powerful arm started the first 6 in '09 and threw for 1,038 (65%, 4-6). Rfr Ryan Griffin (PS#45) started the final 6 and threw for 1,382 (64%, 9-6). Moore appeared in 4 (27 yds). Last year all 3 ret'd and Griffin threw for 2,371 (59.9%, 14-8) despite missing 1(inj). Moore threw for 316 (45.2%, 2-3) and DJ Ponder hit 8-14 passes. Kemp moved to WR (8 att). Griffin had little arm strength at the end of last year due to injury (shoulder vs Rice & wrist vs UCF) and with his healthy return, TU should have its best passing numbers in the Toledo era.

RUNNING BACKS - Bob Toledo likes to have one feature RB and he inherited a great one in '04 in 225 lb Matt Forté (4.45 speed). Forté was the leading rusher for TU from '04-'06 but his highest total was 859 (5.3) in '06. Toledo saddled up and rode this workhorse in '07 as Forté rushed for 2,127 (5.9) with 23 td's (#2 DC CHI). André Anderson (PS#110) replaced Forté in '08 but after the first two had just 114 yds. He then rushed for 738 in his next 4 before being lost for the year or he would have easily topped 1,000 (864, 5.0). Big things were expected from true frosh Albert Williams but he missed the final 4 (109, 6.4). In '09 Anderson remained healthy and rushed for 1,016 (4.3, #3 rec). Showing Toledo's workhorse mentality, WR Jeremy Williams was the #2 rusher (38 att). Last year they had to replace Anderson but Orleans Darkwa had 3 td's in the opener which was the most for a TU frosh in a game since Forté. Darkwa runs in a lot of heavy package formations as he is physical at the point of attack and can run through arm tackles. He broke Mewelde Moore's frosh rush rec (890) with 925 (5.0) and had 5 consecutive 100+ games. Williams is more of a lightning bug type of RB and was used outside finishing #2 with 370 (4.3). Payten Jason was the #3 with 224 (3.5). This year the top 2 return and not in the PSL is Stephen Barnett (5'11" 209 Jr, PS#251). This unit is much more experienced and Darkwa should become the next 1,000 yard rusher here.

RECEIVERS - In '09 Jeremy Williams led with 1,113 (13.3) while Casey Robottom was #2 with 584 (11.7). The next highest from this unit was TE Cody Sparks (81 yd). Robottom at only 5'11" lacked blazing speed but was the go-to rec and led in '10 (663, 11.8) despite missing 2. DJ Banks (PS#93) had 419 (8.9) while Sparks had 427 (9.9) and set a Green Wave rec td rec by a TE with 6 (Rodney Holman 5 in '79). Ryan Grant had the best ypc of the rec's at 15.6 and finished #2 (515) while 6'2" Devin Figaro added 259 (13.6). This year they lose Robottom (10 st), Sparks (7 st), Banks, TE Burris (MedRS LY, gave up FB due to knee inj) and Figaro. QB Joe Kemp split time at WR and had 154 (11.0). Kemp is now in his 2nd year at WR (much improved) while they only return 1 of the top 4, this unit could exceed LY's numbers with a healthier and more exp'd QB.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In Bob Toledo's first year ('07) the O-line paved the way for 201 ypg (4.9) with 19 sks. The numbers slipped the next 2 yrs. In '09 they ret'd 3 st's but 4 of the starters jobs were playing in new positions (105 ypg, 3.2, 29 sks). Last year TU had 4 st's back (87 car st) and I called for their best numbers in 3 yrs which they achieved (barely) improving to 128 ypg (3.5) with 28 sks. This year they lose 2nd Tm CUSA LT Pete Hendrickson (12 st, 3Y st'r), C Andrew Nieman (12 st, 4Y st'r, HM CUSA) and LJ Abrams (8 gm). They drop down to 62 career starts and lose 2 long time starters but with 3 st's back and 6 players with starting exp, Tulane should show continued improvement helping post a 1,000 yard rusher.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Tulane had a veteran front in '07 and allowed (133 rush ypg), their lowest ypc (3.9) since 1997 (3.8) and by far the best number under Toledo. In '08 they had to replace 2 DT's (83 car st). The numbers still surprised me as they yielded 218 ypg and their 5.7 ypc were their worst in over 20 yrs. In '09 they only had to replace 1 st'r but only improved to 205 ypg (4.9, 15 sk). LY they had to replace 3 st's but had 5 of their top 8 back incl 6 with starting exp and added lowa transfer Dezman Moses (susp first 2). Despite having just 1 st'r back, TU improved to allowing 196 ypg (5.0, 25 sks). This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA DT Justin Adams (12 st, 45 tkl, 7.5 car), DT Oscar Ponce de Leon (3 st, 6 tkl) and Tony Bryant (5 tkl, 1 sk). With 3 st's back, this looks like the best DL since '07.

LINEBACKERS - Last year TU had to replace their #2 and #7 tkl's. They moved SLB Shakiel Smith to FS but added in Duke transfer Trent Mackey. Mackey lived up to his PS#60 VFL billing (#1 tkl'r) earning 1st Tm CUSA. Also back is Darryl Farley who had 11 sts and was the #6 tkl'r. They did start a NB 8 times so the 3rd starter, Dominique Robertson, had just 4 sts (#10 tkl'r). The unit returns intact, is much more exp'd and with a solid set of DL players in front should post its best numbers as a group since 2007.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - When Tulane had super CB Lynaris Elpheage they finished #11 in my PDR ('02) but from '03-'09 have finished #65, #96, #93, #106, #116, #84 and #116. TU played less man-to-man D in '09 as Toledo said it was hard to get int's in that coverage. Last year they had to replace 2 st's but moved #4 tkl'r Smith to FS so it was like having 3 st's back. Even with an exp'd unit, it surprised me that Tulane improved to its best finish since '02 at #48 in my PDR (53.9%, 21-10). CB Phillip Davis earned 1st Tm CUSA (15 pbu) and SS Alex Wacha sealed the upset over Rutgers with a key int. This year they lose Davis (12 st, 29 tkl, 3 int) and 3rd Tm CUSA Wacha (#2 tkl'r, 12 st, 2 int, 3 pbu) and probably will not match last year's high PDR finish especially if they are tested more with a better front 7.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '06 Tulane finished #110 in my ST rankings and in Toledo's 4 yrs have finished #114, #107, #118 and dead last in '10 at #120. Last year they had to replace their P, K and top KR. Cairo Santos broke his left wrist just 2 days after winning the job but still hit 13-16 FG's with just 2 att from 40+ (L39) and 1 TB on 57 KO's. True frosh Jonathan Ginsburgh (PS#17) avg 40.0 (33.8 net). The return game was below average (18.4 KR, 5.1 PR). This year their true frosh specialists are now soph's and let's face it, there's only one way to go for this unit. They bring in long time ST coor John Hendrick who has 29 yrs of coaching experience including ST coor at the BCS (Miss St and UCF) and NFL levels (PHI and GB).

COACHES - Tulane has had some pretty good coaches in Tommy Bowden, Buddy Teevens, Greg Davis and Mack Brown but they combined for just a 54-103 record here. In '07 they brought in Bob Toledo who was the HC at UCLA from '96-'02 and the OC at New Mex in '06. Dan Dodd is in his 5th season as the OC (OC at NM 6Y prior to Toledo's stint there). Steve Stanard is in his 3rd season as DC and was the DC at Colo St ('03-'07) and the DL coach at Ohio in '08. He was also the DC at New Mexico St from '99-'02 and the HC at Nebraska Wesleyan (NAIA) from '94-'95.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Only one coach since 1982 has had consecutive winning seasons here (Tommy Bowden '97-'98). Chris Scelfo led the team to winning records in 2 out of 3 yrs (2000-'02) but he had 4 losing seasons to end his tenure. In '05 the team was hurt by hurricane disruptions. In '06 they showed improvement but were still feeling the effects as some players were allowed to transfer without sitting out a year. Bob Toledo took on a tough schedule his first year and the team showed improvement on the field in a better situation but kept the same 4-8 record. They went from -117.9 ypg (CUSA in '06) to -14.0 ypg in '07 winning 1 more conf game. In '08 they had to replace their outstanding RB Matt Forté (2,127 in '07) and had their moments but then lost their top WR and RB midseason (inj) and plummeted to 2-10 with their 10 losses tying a school record. They had just 13 ret st's in '09 and drew BYU and LSU in non-conf play but still managed to improve to 3-9 going from -127.7 ypg in CUSA play to -92.3. Toledo spoke of the lack of home field advantage saying "it's like going to practice sometimes" referring to the small crowds that lack excitement. The Green Wave have not beat a ranked team since 1982. Last year Tulane had another tough schedule and just 11 ret st's but were -16 in TO's (pg 312) in '09. The Green Wave showed improvement again to 4-8 and were actually +3.4 ypg in CUSA play, their first positive yards since 2000! They were outgained and barely got past SEL in the opener, 27-21 and after a couple of expected losses, upset Rutgers on the road 17-14. They lost to Army at home and Tulsa on the road to drop to 2-4 but upset UTEP in El Paso (461-286 yd edge). TU outplayed SMU for 3Q's but lost by 14 and were tied with SMiss 30-30 in the 4Q in a game they had a 28-17 FD edge. SM made it a misleading final with a 41 yard FR td with :21 left. Tulane beat Rice and still had slim hopes for 6 wins but were pounced by UCF, 61-14. In the finale they outgained Marshall 410-271 but lost by 15. Tulane does not have to face UCF or SMiss out of the CUSA East and is looking to end a streak of 8 straight losing seasons (8-5 campaign & Hawaii Bowl invite in '02 under Scelfo). Tulane's 10.5 def ypg was the 2nd worst in the NCAA but they did benefit from 3 net close wins (pg 299). Tulane has a more veteran team TY with 14 ret st's and this is Toledo's best team yet as they have a solid shot at improving their record for a 3rd straight year.

NEWCOMERS 0 WHT 7 HT

TU is 5-0 vs SEL but the L/3 have been decided by a TD or less. LY TU never trailed & led by DD's in the 4Q. Lions went 2-9 LY incl a 1 pt loss to ULM. Green Wave are 3-7 in home openers.

The Green Wave's only series (7 gms) win was in the 1st meeting in 1968. LY QB Griffin had a career high 412 pass yds but TU trailed 24-7 at HT and then allowed TD's on the 1st 4 poss of the 2H.

TU has dropped 2 str incl its L/trip to UAB ('07). TU had a 504-372 yd edge but allowed a 92 yd KR TD. Down just 5 TU had 2 FD's on its U/drive but a 4D pass fell inc w/15 left at the UAB44.

The last gm in this series was in 1973. TU won 24-17 in Durham. The Green Wave are 3-14 on the road vs current BCS conf schools (won at Rutgers 2x's incl LY and at Miss St in '06).

Played every yr S'96 (except '05). "Turnovers were the name of the gm" Toledo after LY's Army loss. Green Wave had 3 2Q TO's in a 7 min span that broke the gm wide open (trailed 31-7 into 4Q).

Tulane has lost 4 str vs Syracuse by 22 ppg. In the last meeting ('99) TU was only outgained 507-467 in the 3Q pt loss but the key was 5 TO's. TU has lost 4 str hosting BCS tms (avg loss by 17 ppg).

HT is 4-1 (1st gm was in Ruston, LA in '05 due to Hurricane Katrina). Five lead changes LY tied 24-24 mid-4Q. TU went on B2B scoring drives as they int'd UTEP twice (one setting up GW TD & other in EZ w/1:15 left).

Green Wave are 3-11 vs the Tigers S'90 incl 5 str losses by 25 ppg. In the L/gm ('08) TU trailed 31-0 in the 3Q being outFD'd 32-10 & outgained 488-222. Into 2011, TU is 0-12 L4Y vs CUSA East tms.

First series gm was in '91 & TU is 0-6 in Greenville. In the L/vist ('07) TU trailed 28-6 in the 4Q being held out of the EZ till 3:47. The gm featured 275 combined rushing yds by NFLers Chris Johnson & Matt Forte.

TU is 5-1 in Dallas since 1992 but lost their L/vist. Tulane rallied from a 17-7 HT deficit to lead 21-20 in the 4Q but allowed a TD w/5:23 left (L/2 drives ended on a SOD & fumble).

Tulane has lost 8 str by avg score 39-16. LY TU trailed 21-0 but cut the deficit to 5 mid-4Q. After stopping UH, TU was int'd its next 2 drives (later ret for a TD) as UH went just 37 yds for 14 pts in a misleading final.

TU is 3-5 S'96 vs Rice (4 losses by TD or less). LHTU fired inc 8 str times on L/2 poss (both within a score).

Tulane's last trip to the islands was in '02, a 36-28 win over UH in the Hawai'i Bowl (that yr marked TU's last bowl & winning ssn). TU trailed 14-6 at HT before a 60 yd PR TD ignited a 20 pt 3Q.

UTEP MINERS

DT Germard Reed

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '07 five QB's battled to replace UTEP's career leading passer Jordan Palmer. Trevor Vittatoe (monster arm) played on a team in HS that ran the ball or he would have been higher in the recruiting rankings (PS#164). Vittatoe started all 12 setting a UTEP frosh record throwing for 3,101 (55%, 25-7). In '08 he threw for 3,274 (59%, 33-9) despite injuries. In 2009 Vittatoe became the first UTEP QB to top 3,000 in 3 consec seasons (3,308, 55%, 17-13) incl a school record 517 (507 Bob Craigio 1970) vs Marshall. LY Vittatoe suffered an ankle injury at midseason and was questionable for each of the last 6. He threw for 2,756 (54.1%, 22-13). James Thomas pld'd in 13 throwing for 135 (40%) while rushing for 211. Carson Meger (PS#187) who is a lefty, hit 1-3. This year battling Meger will be NM trans Tate Smith (82 yds, 33%, 0-2 '08) and Javia Hall (PS#95) who wasn't physically ready LY but is the QB of the future. All 3 may have to step aside for PS#155JC Nick Lamaison who earned JC OPOY, NJCAA and was IFS. Even though they lose a 4 yr str as well as Thomas, LY was the first year Vittatoe did not top 3,000 so the dropoff won't be as big as expected despite losing the school's leader in td throws (97), pass yds (12,439) and tll offense.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 I called for UTEP to have the most improved rush attack in the NCAA and they did, going from 58 ypg to 148. In '08 Donald Buckram was the #3 rusher (348, 4.6). In '09 he avg 75 ypg in the first 4. In the first 7 vs CUSA foes however Buckram avg an amazing 182 ypg (262 vs UH, #2 all-time at UTEP). Buckram broke the single season rushing record held by Fred Wendt (1,546 in 1948) with 1,594 (6.2) and 11 td's. He was also the #3 recr (453, 15.1). Jason Williams (PS#162) was the #2 RB with just 126 (3.2). LY Buckram missed the first 3 and was never 100% all year (8 gm). He only finished #2 (335, 4.1). Joe Banyard (PS#221), who transferred from TCU led with 623 (5.7) with 8 td's in 5 sts. Buckram led in rushing 6 times but his high total was only 81. Banyard had outputs of 94, 90 and 155 vs Tulsa. Also in the mix is Leilony Myers who is a change of pace back and led with 71 vs Ark and had 216 (4.2). Vernon Frazier (short ydg RB) was #3 with 231 (6.1). Not listed below are Nathan Jeffrey (5'11" 195 rFr, PS#246), Josh Bell (5'11" 210 rFr, PS#245) and Laquintus Dowell (5'9" 195 Fr). Despite the loss of their star RB as well as Jason Williams (61, 4.1), I look for improved rushing production.

RECEIVERS - In '09 UTEP had to replace a productive TE and struggled with dropped passes. Jeff Moturi led with 974

(18.4) and Kris Adams was #2 with 580 (13.8). LY they had to replace Moturi and another starting WR (#4 yds). Adams ret'd and led with 1,070 (FBS best 22.8 ypc). I expected a bigger output from RM Marlon McClure in 2009 but he had just 6 rec (7.2). In '10 with only 4 sts he was #2 with 343 (11.4) while Evan Davis was #3 with 292 (12.2). Donovan Kemp was #4 in '09 with 284 (23.7) but tore his ACL after 7 sts LY and finished #5 with 181 (10.1). This year they lose Adams (13 st), Davis (6 st), Pierce Hunter (5 st, 280, 14.0), TE Jonny Moore (7 st, 9 rec), QB/WR James Thomas (4 st, 12 rec), Corey Trisby (1 st, 13, 11.3) and TE Elijah Goldtrap (3 st, 3 rec). Not listed in the PSL below are Aaron Morris (6'2" 175 rFr), Jacob Garcia (5'10" 165 Fr), Mark Jackson (5'9" 190 Fr), Malcolm Blair (6'1" 190 Fr), Kyle Morin (6'0" 160 Fr) and Felix Neboh (5'8" 160 Fr). McClure was not with the tm in the spring (acad) and his return is ? while Kemp is coming off an ACL. This unit is less exp'd and loses its top guy.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 UTEP had 86 career sts ret (9 of top 10 OL) and for the 3rd straight year improved their numbers to 151 ypg (4.5) with 25 sks, the best numbers in Price's 6 yrs and their best ypc in over 20 yrs. LY they had to replace 2 str's (62 car sts ret). C Tanner Cullumber did miss 4 and LT Will Osolinsky missed 5. Injuries caused them to use a different OL each of the final 7 gms. UTEP slipped to 137 ypg rush (4.3) but trimmed the sks to 18. This year the losses are heavy. Gone are 1st TM CUSA RG Rod Huntley (11 st, 2.5Y str), RT Alex Solot (13 st, 2Y str, HM CUSA), LG Anthony McNac (13 st, HM CUSA), C Cullumber (8 st, 2Y str), LT Osolinsky (7 st, 19 car sts) and LT Lance Evbuomwan (7 st). They have 7 car sts returning incl ZERO from the OG/OT spot (#119 FBS) and while they do add in a couple of JUCO's who were IFS, this unit is my main concern on the 2011 squad.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In UTEP's first 2 yrs of the 3-3-5 D they all'd 199 ypg rush (5.1) in '08 and with a veteran unit, still all'd 201 ypg (5.0) in '09. LY only 2 of the top 7 ret'd (1 str) and they switched back to a 4-3. Isaac Taauefa won a starting DT spot but was lost after 5 (leg). The inexp'd front still improved to 184 ypg (4.9) but the D had just 14 sks, their lowest total S/O'1. This year they lose DE Robert Soleyjacks (13 st, 32 tkl, 3 sk, HM CUSA) but return 8 of the top 9 incl 8 DL with starting exp. Not listed in the PSL are Wayne Portolatin (6'8" 290 Sr), Jermaine Hicks (6'1" 270 rFr), Patrick Landry (6'1" 285 So), Chris Whately (6'0" 230 Jr), Joseph Williams (6'2" 290 Fr) and Justin Cordova (6'2" 275 Jr). They will easily produce their best numbers in at least 5 yrs this season.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 the unit was banged up and Jeremy Springer arrived as a QB but started all 12 at LB (#4 tkl'r). Due to inj's, there were just 4 exp'd LB's vs Tulane and they switched to a 4-2-5. Price said at the end of the year that he needed LB's who had played LB in Pop Warner, in HS and JUCO, not someone they had converted to a LB. LY they had to replace their #1 and #9 tkl'r's. They did return 2.5 str's (#3, #4, and 11 tkl'r's). Isaiah Carter had 42 tkl's combined in '07 and '08, missed '09 and ret'd. Their most athletic LB was Jamie Irving who had just 23 tkl's from '08-'09 but earned a str's job. UTEP allowed just 27.5 ppg, their best total in 5 yrs and a big reason was the improved LB corps. This year they lose WLB Anthony Morrow (5 st, #7 tkl'r) but return their #2, #4 and #5 tkl'r's to the 3 man unit and Springer is now a veteran reserve. They also add in L'ville transfer Horace Miller (PS#165) and Josh Fely (PS#61JC, IFS). Adding depth is Tommie Clardy (6'0" 205 Fr). I look for continued improvement from the Miners' LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UTEP's DB's have played to their expectations. With exp'd units in '04 and '06 they finished #36 and #58 in my PDR. With inexp'd units, they finished #90 in '05, #83 in '07 and #104 in '08. After a #87 finish in '09, UTEP had to replace 3 str's. They were expected to get back Braxton Amy but he was OFY in Wk 2 and UTEP finished #78. This year they lose Amy (2 st, 13 tkl), SS Wiston Jeune (7 st, 1 tkl'r), Brandon Miller (6 st, 29 tkl) and NB Austin Contreras (2 st, 20 tkl). They have 3 str's back and add in JC's Derrick Morgan and Darren Woodard (IFS). Not in the PSL is Monroe Ross (6'1" 175 Fr). With an exp'd secondary they will move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Price puts an emphasis on ST's. In his first 4 yrs UTEP finished #17, #48, #25 and #34 in my ST rankings. In '08 they surprisingly dropped to #80 and in '09 lost their star K Jose Martinez as well as their top KR/PR. The return game was avg until Marlon McClure got out of the doghouse (23.7). LY they had to replace their P/K and top PR but I said they could improve upon '09's #81 finish. UTEP had remarkable improvement up to #12. McClure (susp 1) was the top PR (13.1) and was #4 in the NCAA in KR with 930 yds (31.0) incl 2 td's. Coming out of spring it looked like Dakota Warren would handle all 3 kicking jobs. Warren hit 12-20 FG's incl 3-5 from 50+ (L57). They got a late transfer in JC P Ian Campbell who avg 45.1 (net 37.0, L72). McClure is questionable to return TY and if they are forced to go without him in the fall, it will be tough for this unit to top LY's numbers.

COACHES - Mike Price enters his 8th year here. He previously guided Wash St to a pair of Rose Bowls and three 10 win seasons in his 14 yrs there. Price was the Pac-10 COY in 1992, 1997 and 2001. They have co-OC's in Bob Connelly, who was an OL coach at UCLA ('07) and Alabama ('03-'06) and Aaron Price (Mike's son) who is in his 8th season here (3rd as OC). The DC is Andre Patterson who was UNLV's asst HC/DL cch ('08-'09) and worked under Price at Weber St and Wash St. Patterson was also the HC of Cal Poly ('94-'96).

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 2004 Mike Price stepped into a great situation as he took over a team with 17 ret str's that was -15 in TO's in '03. UTEP was coming off 3 consecutive 2 win seasons and the team had just 3 winning seasons since 1971 prior to his arrival. I called them the WAC's surprise team and my #3 Most Improved Team. UTEP finished 8-3 and lost the Houston Bowl to Colorado by 5. In '05, the Miners opened 8-1 and needed to win just 1 of their final 2 to get to the CUSA Title game. Price was 16-5 at this point and 11-3 in CUSA. They had 2 teams with losing records on the schedule but dropped those final 2 and the bowl to finish "just" 8-4 and have now had 5 consec losing seasons since. After that 11-3 start in CUSA play, they have gone 15-27 since. Price usually has his team well prepared for the big boys and in '09 knocked off both Houston and Tulsa. They were preseason CUSA West favorites but then lost winnable games in their 4-8 year. The best thing coming out of '09 was that they finally snapped their streak of having lost 20 straight reg season finales when they beat Marshall 52-21. They had 5 losses by a td or less, the best in school history but, despite their 4-8 overall record they were +77.3 ypg in CUSA play. Eight of my 9 sets of power ratings called for them to be bowl eligible last year. UTEP probably would have had a winning season in '09 but star RB Donald Buckram (#4 FBS ypg '08) was banged up all year and finished with just 335 (4.1). Trevor Vittatoe was far from 100% healthy and completed just 54%. UTEP opened 5-1 but lost to 3 teams that finished with losing records (UAB, Tulane, Marshall). As you would expect, with Price's MO, they knocked off eventual CUSA West Champ SMU which got them their 6th win but then lost to Ark by 37 and Tulsa by 3, both on the road. They were mauled by BYU in the bowl to finish 6-7. This year UTEP has just 11 ret str's, the 3rd fewest in CUSA but had 39 sts lost to injury in '10. They add in a lot of JUCO's so they are more exp'd than you would think. They figure to play with a healthier QB and RB which should help the offense while the key will be how quickly their O-line comes together. This looks like a rebuilding year.

First meeting. Seawolves went 6-5 LY incl a 59-14 loss vs USF (1st meeting vs a FBS school). UTEP is 8-4 in Sun Bowl openers & is 7-1 vs FCS teams (avg win 45-8) in the L10Y.
The Miners are 6-2 vs the Mustangs S'03. The last time in Dallas, UTEP was down 4 & had a FD at the S18 w/50 left but was sk'd on 4&6. UTEP has lost 11 str CUSA AG's by 14 ppg.
This is the Miners longest running series (89th meeting, 51-35-2). In the L'visit to Las Cruces, UTEP won 38-12. The Miners led 31-0 into the 4Q as the Aggies gained 41% (117) of their yds after.
First meeting. UTEP has lost 37 str when traveling to a current BCS conf school w/avg score of 45-11 (last win was at Arizona St in '74). UTEP is 1-4-1 vs current BE tms (only win in '50 vs WV).
UTEP is 2-4 vs UH S'05 & have surrendered no less than 34 pts in any one gm. LY UTEP did lead 7-0 but allowed a ssn high 656 yds as UH scored on 9 of 12 poss & did not punt.
SMU: UTEP is 3-18 in road openers & all 3 wins have come in the L6 seasons. Tulsa: HT is 9-1 S'01 incl 7 str wins (5 by 4 pts or less). Into '11, UTEP is 9-3 in CUSA HG's L/3 yrs.
UTEP has lost both gms at the Superdome ('07 & '09). LTH the Miners led w/11:13 left but allowed a 86/9pl drive & a TD with :01 left in regulation eventually losing in OT.
UTEP has dropped 8 str vs CSU & have gone 4-22 (last series win in '88) since 1971. The last meeting was in '98, UTEP lost 20-17. UTEP led 17-7 3Q but lost on a 39-yd FG w/1:02 left.
HT has dropped both CUSA meetings. In the L'gm ('08) UTEP won 40-37 in 2OT. The gm featured 8 lead changes as UTEP forced SM to kick a gm tying FG (last play) after a 1&gl at UTEP9.
UTEP has lost B2B gms at Rice by a combined 9 pts. In '09 UTEP blew leads of 13-0, 20-10 & 29-17 as 6 TO's proved costly including 2 fum's in the final 5:02 (1 on GL & another at R39).
UTEP has lost both meetings vs EC. In the last matchup ('08) UTEP trailed 24-0 late 2Q getting no closer than 17 down as they were outgained by 105 yds (-10 FD). The loss cost them a bowl invite.
LY it was tied at 7, 14 & 21 but after a 62 yd KR Tulsa scored a TD. UTEP was SOD at T36 on final drive.
Miners last & only trip to Orlando was in '07 (also marked the series 1st meeting). UTEP lost 36-20 but battled back from a 16-0 deficit to lead 17-16. Down 2 UTEP allowed B2B TD drives in the final 5:58.

SOUTHERN MISS GOLDEN EAGLES

QB Austin Davis

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Due to injuries, rFr Martevius Young got a start vs Rice in '07 but broke his leg on the 3rd play. Young, who had a powerful arm and is very mobile, had the 3 career snaps for SM QB's heading into '08 and he battled rFr Austin Davis. Davis started and broke numerous school single season records (like Brett Favre's 16 td passes by a frosh) throwing for 3,128 (58%, 23-8) and he was the #2 rusher (508, 3.3). He set school records with 461 vs Rice and 5 rush td's vs UAB. Davis was also the Bowl MVP. Young played in just 3 (2 att). Davis improved his arm strength in '09. He opened with 159 passes without an int but was lost in Wk 5 (foot). He threw for 1,165 (69%, 10-2). Young (8 sts), played well throwing for 1,861 (57%) with an outstanding 16-3 ratio (#3 rusher 294). Davis took almost all of the snaps LY and came close to his '08 numbers throwing for 3,103 (62.9%, 20-6) setting a schi rec with 278 comp's and was the #3 rusher. Young ply'd in 6 (12-23-132). TY they return Davis but lack depth as Young departs. Battling for the backup spot is Chris Campbell (PS#90) and Arsenio Favors (PS#163). Davis (#2 car passer, 299 yds away from #1) has already topped Favre and Lee Roberts as the career td pass leader (53) and should have his best season yet.

RUNNING BACKS - In '09 Damien Fletcher became the 9th RB in NCAA history to top 1,000 yds rushing for 4 straight yrs including '07 when he set a school rec with 1,586 (Sam DeJarnette 1,545 '82). Naturally LY they had to replace Fletcher as well as their #2 rusher Tony Harrison (647, 6.2). The leading returning RB was Tracy Lampley (PS#86), who had 122 (5.8), although they did also return Sr VJ Floyd who had 398 (4.0) in 3 yrs. I projected rFr Kendrick Hardy (PS#16) as the starter. Hardy did not get a rush att in the first 3 vs FBS foes (86 yds vs FCS Prairie View) and only had 4 vs Marshall and EC. Finally, with Floyd and Desmond Johnson banged up, Hardy got 101 (9.2) vs Memphis and 147 (8.6) vs UAB. He later exploded for 205 (7.9) vs Houston and 91 (5.7) vs Tulsa and led with 903 (6.5). Soph Johnson (PS#141) ply'd in just 10 (inj) and had 611 (5.3). Lampley started 6 but was never really 100% (384, 5.9) and he now moves to WR for 2011 (#6 rec LY, 203, 7.8). This year they lose Floyd (8 st, 228, 3.3) but add explosive frosh Jamal Woodyard (PS#162). Jeremy Hester (5'6" 172 So, PS#139) and Darrell Sanders (5'8" 182 rFr) add depth. This unit is much deeper and more experienced than '10 and I look for Hardy to top the 1,000 yd barrier.

RECEIVERS - In '08 SM had their top 2 rec back in TE Shawn Nelson and WR Torris Magee while adding the tremendous addition of 6'6" DeAndre Brown (PS#7). While Nelson had his best season (557, 10.5), Brown lived up to his VHT billing (1st Tm CUSA) with 1,117 (16.7) before a gruesome broken tibia in the bowl. He was not 100% to open '09 and never regained his speed but still led with 785 (16.7). LY they had to replace 3 of their top 4 rec's and Brown never rebounded playing in just 6 (305, 15.2). Taking Brown out of the equation, the top returnee was Quentin Pierce (PS#158) who had 247 (9.9) in '09. LY Pierce battled injuries over the first 7 (120 yds) but finished #3 (454, 11.9). Johndrick Morris (6'3") was #2 with 684 (13.7) while Kelvin "Peanut" Bolden (PS#29JC) led with 722 (15.7). William Spight added 219 (8.8). TY they lose Morris (11 st), Brown (1 st, left early for the NFL, undrafted), Deon Hodges (1 st, 151, 11.6) and TE Jonathan Massey (1 st, 5 rec). Adding depth is Justin Sims (5'7" 166 So, 10.4 100m on SM track tm). This unit still has more exp than '10 and will hopefully remain healthier.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 SM had 3 st's back but slipped to 181 ypg rush (4.6) although they trimmed their sack total to 16 (4.1%). LY they had to replace 4 st's with just 26 career sts back. RT Jason Weaver was lost after 2 sts to injury. Surprisingly the lightly experienced unit improved to 201 ypg (4.7) with 17 sks. This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA C Cameron Zipp (13 st, 3Y st'r) and RG Alex Michael (13 st). Not in the PSL is Chase Moore (6'2" 256 rFr). They have 3 st's back (39 career starts) making this unit more experienced.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In HC Bower's final season, SM had 6 seniors in the 2 deep incl all 4 st's and yielded 134 ypg (3.8). Naturally the losses were heavy in Fedora's first year and 9 different DL's started including 1 true, 2 rFr, 3 soph and a JC. It surprised me that they only allowed 140 ypg rush although their 4.2 ypc was the worst since '04 and the D had just 20 sks (lowest S'/'r). In '09 the top 7 DL tkl's were all back and they improved to 131 ypg (3.6) with 34 sks. LY SM only had to replace 2 DL's (comb 7 st, 56 tkl, 7 sk) and were clearly bigger, stronger and more exp'd. They trimmed their ypg allowed to 113 (3.6) which was their best since 2001 but the sacks dropped to 27. This year they lose 2nd Tm CUSA NT Anthony Gray (11 st, 44 tkl, 6 ffl), DT John Henderson (9 st, 33 tkl, 5 ffl), DE Roshad Byrd (11 tkl, 2.5 sk) and DE David Boyce (8 tkl, 1.5 sk). SM returns 2nd Tm CUSA DE Cordarro Law (#6 tkl, 6 sk) and move Jamie Collins (PS#31), who was #2 tkl'r, to the Bandit DE spot so they are equal to '10 in experience and could improve.

LINEBACKERS - SM LB's were named CUSA DPOY 4 out of 5 yrs from '03-'07. In '09 they had to replace 1st Tm CUSA Gerald McRath (#1 tkl'r, #4DC) and their #2 tkl'r. Fedora was impressed with how quickly true frosh Jamie Collins picked up the D (44 tkl's as DB) and moved him to LB. Last year they returned their #1 tkl'r in Corey Williams (121 tkl, 7.5 sk) and #2 tkl'r Ronnie Thornton (114 tkl, 10.5 ffl). Martez Smith, who was the #3 tackler, was lost after 5 sts to injury and was later tragically paralyzed in an off field incident. SM surprisingly yielded 29.5 ppg which was their worst since 1969 (30.7)! This year they lose Smith (27 tkl, 3 ffl), Kendrick Leverette (4 tkl) and move Collins to BAN. Williams (#1) and Thornton (#4) are both back and the Spur S is like a LB and they'll need to find a starter. The Golden Eagles are a little less experienced than '10 but still one of CUSA's best.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - From 1995-'08 SM had just 1 finish lower than #51 in my PDR and that was with an injury plagued group in '05 (#70). They had all 4 st's back in '09 and it was very surprising they dropped to #72. LY they had to replace 2 st's including a 1st Tm CUSA FS. DC Todd Bradford then mentioned that CB was the one position that was the biggest? coming into '10. With 2 st's back, SM improved to #59 (57.4%, 28-17). This year they lose 2nd Tm CUSA FS Justin Wilson (13 st, 41 tkl, 4 int), 4Y st'r CB CJ Bailey (11 st, 26 tkl, 3 pbu) and HM CUSA NB Chico Hunter (6 st, 54 tkl, 2 int). They do return 2nd Tm CUSA CB Deron Wilson, solid SS Kendrick Presley (PS#63) and add 2 JUCO's (IFS). Not listed in the PSL is Laurice Lawrence (5'7" 175 So). SM is on par with '10 in terms of experience and should improve again in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Larry Fedora inherited a group that finished #87 in my ST rankings and had to replace their P/K. In '09 Danny Hrapmann (PS#32) was inj'd early but took over at the end to hit 4-7 FG and had 6 TB on 80 KO. True frosh P Peter Boehme avg'd 38.5 (36.4 net) while fellow true Tracy Lampley was the top PR (14.5, 1 td) while also having 17 KR (27.6, 1 td). The unit finished #18 despite missing 10 xp's. Hrapmann improved dramatically and hit 26-31 (L54) including 2-3 from 50+. He hit a 59 yd'r vs Houston which was called back after a time-out and the ensuing 59 yd att was blk'd. Hrapmann had 8 TB on 93 KO. He made my AA Tm and became one of the 3 finalists for the Groza Award setting a school rec for pts for a K in a season. Boehme avg 39.2 (tm net 36.3). Lampley saw his PR numbers drop to 6.3. Despite the presence of Hrapmann the team dropped to #62. TY they return everyone except FG LS Ben Schoenberger (13 gm) and should actually have one of the most improved ST units in the country.

COACHES - Larry Fedora is in his 4th yr here and was the OC at Okla St ('05-'07) and Flor ('04). Blake Anderson is in his 2nd yr as OC and 4th as QB ch. He was OC/QB ch at Louisiana ('07) and co-OC at MTenn ('02-'04). Dan Disch is the new co-DC after spending the L7Y under Ron Zook (co-DC Illinois '07-'09). LB ch David Duggan was also promoted to co-DC in his 4th yr here and was previously an NFL Europe HC (Cologne '06-'07).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Jeff Bower had a very successful 17 years as a HC here (29 yrs overall). In Larry Fedora's first year ('08) it appeared they were headed for their first losing season in 15 yrs (1993). They opened up 2-6 but swept their final 4 and overcame a 10 pt bowl deficit to finish 7-6. Despite their 4-4 CUSA record, SM was +99.3 ypg (best East) and had a much more veteran team in '09. QB Austin Davis was injured midseason but SM got their first perfect home record (6-0) since 1999 as they beat Tulsa 44-34 in the FHG for 19 seniors. In the game to decide the CUSA East Title, SM got the apparent go-ahead td but their xp was blk'd and ret'd for 2. They trailed by 2 instead of leading by 1 and lost by 5. They then had a disappointing bowl loss to MT by 10 to finish 7-6 again. LY they did draw the top 2 teams out of the West in UH and Tulsa and played UCF on the road. After a loss to SC in the opener, SM won their next 4 and jumped out to a 20-0 lead vs EC but despite a 404-338 yd edge, suffered a 1 pt loss. After routing Memphis on the road, SM was stunned again, this time by UAB. SM actually trailed 35-21 in the 4Q and managed to tie it but lost in 2OT. After dispatching Tulane, they went into UCF and won 31-21 keeping alive hopes for the CUSA East Title but after blowing out UH by 18, they gave up 634 yds to Tulsa and lost by 6 on the road. They opened up a 14-0 lead vs L'ville in the bowl but lost by 3 for an 8-5 finish. After a surprising +2.5 ypg avg in conf play in '09, SM was back to +94.1 in '10 which was best in CUSA. SM was 8 pts away from a perfect 8-0 CUSA rec and an 11-1 reg ssn mark. They also had 3 net close losses which gives them an 81% chance at improving their record. They have now had 17 consecutive winning seasons (last losing in '93 at 3-7-1) tying the previous team mark set from '51-'67 which is the 4th longest active streak among FBS schools. None of my 9 sets of power ratings call them #1 in the CUSA but almost all have them #2 and they have a schedule that sets up perfect with winnable road games and all the toughest games are at "The Rock." Four of my 9 sets of power ratings call for a 12-0 record!

UCF KNIGHTS

RB Latavius Murray

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 UCF had to replace their QB. Due to inj's true frosh Rob Calabrese (PS#78) got 8 sts. He struggled at times throwing for just 664 (39%) with 108 rush. In '09 they added Wake Forest transfer Brett Hodges (PS#125, 402, 66%, 3Y). The talk over the summer was how improved Calabrese was and he started the first 2 but Hodges started 10 of the last 11. After the team threw for just 1,395 in '08, Hodges threw for 2,438 (60%, 17-13) in '09. Calabrese came in at one point in the 4Q vs Miami and was booed. He threw for 260 (54%, 3-0). Calabrese was called improved again LY and began as starter but true frosh Jeff Godfrey had an impressive Aug and earned some snaps. He directed 2 scoring drives in the opener then took over when they trailed NCSU 28-7 and started the last 12. Godfrey threw for 2,159 (66.8%, 13-8) and was the #3 rusher (566, 3.7, 10 td) en route to CUSA FOY honors. Calabrese threw for 316 (64%, 2-2) but tore his ACL vs Marshall on a td run. The bkp is rFr Blake Bortles (PS#142). Calabrese moves to WR but he'll be their #3 option if necessary. Godfrey was #1 in CUSA in pass eff and is an exciting runner who now has experience.

RUNNING BACKS - Kevin Smith became UCF's and the State of Florida's all-time leading rusher (Erriett Rhett, Florida 4,163, 1990-'93) finishing his 3yr career with 4,679 yds (left early #3DC). The team's leading RB's in '08 were 2 true frosh and rFr Ronnie Weaver. He started the first 6 (348, 3.4) but Brynn Harvey started the final 6 and led with 519 (4.2). Latavius Murray (PS#43) surprisingly only had 132 (2.9). In '09 Murray tore his ACL and Harvey had a fine year with 1,109 (4.2). VHT true frosh Jonathan Davis (PS#24) was #2 with 310 (4.8). Weaver had 86 (4.5) and Brandon Davis (59' 193, PS#71) added 44 (4.0). LY everyone ret'd and Murray moved to HB. Harvey suffered a knee inj in the spring and was expected back in Sept but RS. They added Iowa transfer Jeff Brinson (PS#120) who was expected to contend for a starting job but he tore his ACL (not in PSL). Jonathan Davis opened with 107 vs USD to lead the RB's in the opener but struggled in the next 2 and slipped down the depth chart finishing with 890 (4.8). Weaver would be the top RB rusher in 7 of the next 8 including 130 vs KSU, 150 vs MAR, 180 vs EC and 112 vs SMiss. Murray (637, 5.7) moved back to RB and led the unit in 5 of the L/6 incl 78, 146, 75 and 94 yd efforts before posting 104 in the bowl vs UGA. TY the unit is incredibly deep with all 2010's top rushers returning plus Harvey and Brinson are back from inj. This is the CUSA's best RB corps.

RECEIVERS - In '09 this unit ret'd intact and AJ Guyton (PS#46) became the first UCF player S/90 to catch and throw a td pass in the same game (Rice). He finished #2 with 572 (13.0). Kamar Aiken (PS#87), who makes a lot of acrobatic catches, led with 610 (16.9). Quincy McDuffie, who had the 2nd fastest 400M in the country in '09, had just 126 (15.8). LY they only had to replace their #3 WR. They also got back Brian Watters who had 12 sts in '08 (594, 14.1). WR was called the tms deepest position, but with a frosh QB who liked to run, the passing numbers dropped some. Watters was #1 with 651 (13.9) and Jamar Newsome (289, 12.0 '09) was #2 with 616 (16.6). Aiken's numbers dropped to 486 (15.2) and Guyton's to 353 (12.6). TY they lose Aiken (13 st), HB Ricky Kay (10 rec, 4 st) and their top 2 rec's in Watters (11 st) and Newsome (6 st). QB Calabrese is added in. This unit actually could improve on its numbers with a more exp'd QB but are not as exp'd or deep.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 UCF's O-line had 124 career starts ret and I called for significant improvement which they delivered. They went from 139 ypg rush (3.8) in '06 to 235 (4.9), their best in IA ball while allowing 20 sks (5.8%). Four players earned All CUSA accolades. In '08 they had to replace two 3 yr st's, a 4 yr st'r and 3 other OL's were gone after 4 gms. As you would expect, the numbers tumbled to a 4 year low of 113 ypg rush (3.0) with 32 sks (10.4%). In '09 they had to replace a 2-time 1st Tm CUSA LT but with 3 st's back improved slightly to 131 ypg rush (3.5, 33 sk). LY UCF had their most exp'd OL here since '07 (4 st's ret). The numbers improved to 188 (4.4) with 20 sks (6.8%). This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA RT Jah Reid (14 st, 3Y st'r, #3DC BAL), LT Abre Leggins (11 st, 1.5Y st'r) and C Zac Norris (1 st, 7 gm). They return 4 who have 12+ career sts incl 7+ LY. This year despite having 1 less st'r back and losing its top OL, this unit (87 car sts) could be just as strong.

DEFENSIVE LINE - UCF had a veteran D-line in '09 and allowed just 83 ypg (#4 FBS) rush (2.6) with 38 sks. LY DT Torrell Troup (314 lbs) was a #2DC BUF. The Knights also had to replace 1st Tm CUSA DE Jarvis Geathers (11 sk) and another starting DT. They did return CUSA DPOY DE Bruce Miller (13 sk '09). Despite the loss of 3 quality DL's, UCF still only allowed a solid 108 ypg rush (3.4) with 32 sk. This year UCF loses 1st Tm CUSA DE Miller (14 st, #5 tkl'r, 8.5 sk, 2 int, #7DC SF), DE David Williams (14 st, 36 tkl, 1 int, HM CUSA) and DT Wes Tunuif-Sauvao (11 st, 25 tkl, 2.5 tfl). They return 2nd Tm CUSA Darius Nall who tied with a team high 8.5 sks despite not starting and add a PS#22JC. Not in the PSL is Robert Pritchard (6'4" 299 Jr). O'Leary will fashion a solid D-line but with the loss of their top player, this unit will be down a few notches.

LINEBACKERS - UCF had a veteran LB corps in '09 and the D allowed just 22.5 ppg (best S/'01). LY they had to replace their #1 tkl'r (1st Tm CUSA) and 2 bkps (comb 5 st, 46 tkl). They did get back Chance Henderson (11 sts, #4 tkl'r '08, inj '09) and ret'd their #2 and #3 tkl'r. With a veteran unit, UCF allowed just 17.1 ppg, their best in over 20 yrs. This year they lose HM CUSA Derrick Hallman (14 st, #2 tkl'r, 8.5 tfl, 1 int), OLB Lawrence Young (12 st, #4 tkl'r, 9.5 tfl) and Henderson (2 st, #8 tkl'r, 3 tfl). They add a pair of HT JUCO's Terran Buck and Ray Cottman (both IFS), true frosh Leilon Willingham (PS#38), RB Jonathan Davis (PS#24) while also returning their #3 tackler, Josh Linam. Adding depth is Vinny Mazzurco (6'1" 233 Sr). UCF will field another solid LB corps but this year's group is less exp'd.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07 this unit ret'd intact and climbed all the way up to #14 in my PDR with 24 int's. In '08 they had the most exp'd secondary in the FBS and moved up to #8 (14-18 ratio). In '09 I called this unit BY FAR my biggest concern on the team. They had to replace 186 career sts (50 car int). O'Leary did say that Josh Robinson (PS#102), Kemal Ishmael, AJ Bouye and rFr Jarrett Swaby were further ahead than any frosh he'd coached at UCF before. Robinson started 11 (#5 tkl'r) and his 6 int's led all FBS frosh. As you would expect, UCF still plummeted to #83. LY they had 3 st's back and as expected, rose to #12. This year they lose CB

Justin Boddie (12 st, #7 tkl'r, 6 pbu), SS Reggie Weems (12 st, #9 tkl'r, 5 int), CB Emery Allen (1 st, 24 tkl) and SS Darin Baldwin (1 st, 19 tkl). They do return two 1st Tm CUSA DB's in Ishmael (#1 tkl'r) and Josh Robinson (conf high 13 pbu). This is a quality secondary that will contend for the top spot in the CUSA PDR but has 1 less st'r ret than LY.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '07 UCF was #8 in my ST rankings. In '08 Joe Burnett was the only person in the FBS Top 20 in both PR (#10) and KR (#7). Blake Clingan had a 35.9 net and UCF finished #24. In '09 they had to replace Burnett but did not miss a beat (#24). UCF set a school record with 3 diff players having a KR of 70+ yds. True frosh Jamie Boyle (PS#14) hit a 57 yd FG in Aug but missed his first 2 and Nick Cattoi hit 14-20 (L/50) with 11 TB's on 63 KO's. P Clingan avg 37.3 (net 35.5). LY Cattoi hit 11-19 (L/47) and had 3 TB on 78 KO. Clingan improved to 41.8 (36.0 t m net) and as usual, UCF had an explosive return game. They avg 27.8 on KR (#1 FBS) and 13.1 on PR (#12). UCF had another fine finish at #9. TY they lose their #2 KR Jamar Newsome (30.6) and P Clingan but can only improve on FG's and should have another fine finish in my ST rankings.

COACHES - George O'Leary led GT to a 52-33 record and five bowls in 7 yrs. He took the HC job at Notre Dame but a resume snafu knocked him out of that position and he was an NFL asst prior to UCF. In 7 yrs here he has 3 trips to the CUSA Title game (2 titles) and 4 bowls (only bowls in UCF history). O'Leary was the CUSA COY in '05, '07 and '10. Charlie Taaffe is in his 3rd season as OC and is a coaching veteran incl 29 yrs as a HC in both the CFL and NCAA (Hamilton '07-'08, Montreal '99-'00, The Citadel '87-'96 and Army '81-'86). DC Dave Huxtable left for Wisc and he'll be replaced by John Skladany who was the DC here in '07. Skladany has also been a DC at 4 other schools (Hou '08-'09, Iowa St '96-'06, Col St '93-'95 and Ohio '88-'89).

PHIL'S FORECAST

George O'Leary inherited a 3-9 team and a tough non-conf schedule (first 3 foes were BCS in '04). There was a large amount of attrition with the new HC (73 sch plyrs) and UCF finished 0-11. In '05 I picked the Knights higher than any other magazine (most had them last). Nine of their top 68 were walk-ons, but after UCF lost their first 2 and extended their losing sk to 17, they became the 7th team in NCAA history to go from being winless to bowl-eligible. They had the biggest turnaround in the NCAA in '05 (+8 wins) before dropping the CUSA Title game (51,978 crowd) and the first bowl in their 10 yr IA history. With an enrollment of 53,000+, they are the 3rd largest FBS university. In '05 they were only +2.9 ypg despite a 7-1 CUSA record and benefitted from +12 in TO's with 3 net close wins (pg 299). As expected, UCF's record dropped in '06 to 4-8. In '07 they made my Most Improved List again and opened Bright House Stadium which ignited the fan base. They nearly upset #6 Texas in the first ever sellout at UCF. UCF finished as CUSA Champs at 10-4 and were +139.1 ypg (CUSA best). In '08 O'Leary continued his up/down trend (4-8). In '09 they were back on my Most Improved List and back to the post season going 8-4 before losing to Rutgers in the bowl. LY I called for UCF to have their first B2B winning seasons S/'01-'02. I said they would top '09's 8 win total and they were my pick to win the CUSA East. UCF had a dominant D and the last time O'Leary had 18 Sr's they won the CUSA Title ('07). UCF outgained NCSU 308-239 but came up 7 pts short in 2 wks later (after Buff win) outplayed Kan St. (another bowl tm) on the road with a 344-272 yd edge but lost by 4. After winning their next 5, UCF was #25, their first ever ranking. They could not handle their success and lost to SMiss at home by 10. UCF dispatched their final 2 CUSA foes by 47 and 20 then beat SMU in the CUSA Title game. In the bowl they upset Georgia and finished #21! UCF did have an off ypg of 11.7 (pg 299) but surprisingly were only +63.9 ypg in CUSA (4th best). UCF has just 10 ret st's (#11 CUSA) and draw SMU and Tulsa out of the West and must face div rival SMiss on the road. They are still one of the elite teams of CUSA but won't match LY's 11 win total.

First meeting. The Buccaneers went 3-8 LY incl losses to Hawai'i (66-7) & Kentucky (49-21). CSU is 0-20 vs FBS schools w/ the avg loss by 39 ppg. UCF is 12-3 in home openers '91-96.

UCF lost the only meeting in '08, 34-7. UCF is 0-10 hosting current BCS tms since moving up to the FBS level. O'Leary was the HC at GT from 1994-'01 (52-33) going 1-1 vs BC.

First meeting. Knights are 3-13 in road openers but won LY. UCF is 1-8 the last 15 ssns vs in-state opp's (only win vs FAU in '03). UCF has gone to B2B bowls for the 1st time in school history.

First meeting. Along with BYU 5 of UCF's six 2011 road opp's made it to a bowl LY. The Knights have won 4 str non-Sat gms (3-0 LY). Into 2011, UCF is 3-15 since '02 in non-conf road gms.

Southern Miss: The Knights have dropped 3 str in this series incl its L visit to Hattiesburg ('09) 26-19. East Carolina: UCF is 1-5 in Greenville incl a 19-14 loss in their last visit in '09.

UCF lost the 1st 3 in this series but have won 6 str since. LY was a Wed Night "White Out" at MU but UCF controlled leading 28-7 early 3Q. The gm DN have a HT due to a 1 hr 8 min lighting delay w/ 12:20.

UCF won its only trip to Dallas in '07 (series 1st gm). UCF jumped out to a 21-10 lead after 1Q & 35-13 at HT. LY in the CUSA Championship UCF was outgained but was +2 in TO's.

Knights are 7-1 vs the Blazers incl 4-0 in Birmingham. In the L/trip UCF DN punt till the 4Q and held a DD lead most of the 2H. Into 2011, UCF is 16-8 in CUSA AG's incl 6 str wins by 24 ppg.

Knights are 6-0 vs the Tigers in CUSA action, avg score 36-19. Into LY's gm UCF had already locked up a spot in the CUSA Title gm but showed no letdown (led 37-10 before a UM TD w/ :37 left).

Series tied at two apiece incl 1-1 in CUSA Title gms. In the L/meeting in '08 UCF lost 49-19 to #22 Tulsa.

LTH UCF was outgained 384-194 (-12 FD's) as they trailed 14-0 into the 2Q never really threatening.

LTH UCF trailed 19-7 mid-4Q before a 80/6pl TD drive w/ 1:06. UCF rec the onside kick but was int at the EC47.

The HT is 2-0 in this series. In the L/meeting ('08) UCF lost 58-13 despite 2 more FD's & only being outgained by 67 yds. The Knights committed 6 TO's & all'd a bk'd punt that resulted in 34 UTEP pts.

EAST CAROLINA PIRATES

WR Michael Bowman

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - EC has had some fine QB's incl David Garrard, Jeff Blake and Marcus Crandell. James Pinkney left after '06 as the #2 career passer. Patrick Pinkney (not related) took over the starting job in '07 and '08. In '09 he threw for 2,947 (59%, 15-12, 81 rush). His bkps were rFr Josh Jordan (PS#105, 7 att) and true frosh Rio Johnson (PS#111). LY I projected BC transfer Dominique Davis (PS#68JC) as the starter. He joined in the fall and battled with walk-on soph Brad Wornick while Jordan moved to WR. Davis had 3 sts as a rFr at BC in '08 throwing for 741 (46%, 6-4, 48 rush) while Wornick threw for 226 and 2 td's in the spring game. Davis not only won the starting job, he set school records for passing yds and td's in a ssn. Of course, playing in the pass-happy Texas Tech spread offense helped as he threw for 3,967 (64.5%, 37-16) and was the #3 rusher (141, 1.8) finishing only behind Cam Newton in pts responsible for. Wornick played in 5 (13-19). Adding to this year's competition are rFr Shane Carden, who ran the TT offense in HS and is a Ruffin McNeill recruit and true frosh Cody Keith (IFS). This unit goes from zero exp to a record setting senior but it will be tough to improve much upon LY's fine numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Even if you are not familiar with EC, you likely are familiar with Chris Johnson who is one of the NFL's top RB's. Johnson rushed for 1,423 (6.0) in '07 here while also setting an NCAA bowl rec with 408 all-purp yds. In '08 it was an injured plagued unit and in '09 Dominique Lindsay led with 1,180 (4.9) incl 151 in the bowl. Jonathan Williams (PS#117) had 380 (5.1) in '08 but missed most of '09 (knee). Giovanni Ruffin (PS#163JC power back, 6'1" 215 lbs) was #3 (308, 3.7). LY they had to replace their top 2 rushers. In the first 3 gms, Williams rushed for 273 but had just 89 over the next 3. After rushing for 111 vs Marshall and only 10 vs UCF, he had 363 in the next 4 to finish #1 with 847 (5.5) and was #4 rec (431, 8.3) despite -7 tl yds in the bowl. Ruffin finished #2 with 384 (4.5). WR Dwayne Harris was #4 (104, 6.5) and rFr Michael Dobson (PS#141) had 62 (5.6). TY only Dobson returns but they add Reggie Bullock who was the #1 rusher in JUCO in '10, rFr Alex Owah (PS#76) and true frosh Chevelle Buie (PS#31). This group is a little less experienced (62 car rush yds) but could top LY's stats and not listed below are Damonte Terry (6'1" 201 So, PS#86) and John Barnes-Smith (5'11" 214 rFr).

RECEIVERS - EC's receivers were inexp'd in both '07 and '08. In '09 they had to replace TE Davon Drew (#1, 695) but ret'd their #2-6 rec's incl Dwayne Harris (654, 11.3) and Darryl Freney (352, 16.0). Harris was also used in the Wildcat formation and on returns but the unit was plagued by dropped passes. Harris (PS#60) led with 978 (11.8) while Freney was #2 (718, 15.0). LY they had to replace 2 s'trs (#3 & #4 rec, 572 comb yds) but then Freney (acad) missed the season. Harris led again, this time with 1,123 (11.1) while also finishing as the #4 rusher. JUCO Lance Lewis was #2 with 1,116 (12.5) and #3 was Michael Bowman (434, 9.2). TY they must replace Harris (all-time EC leader in rec and rec yds, #6DC DAL) but overall this group has more experience and is in the 2nd year of the new offense. Not listed below are Carter Gagnon (6'0" 218 Jr), Gray Mazzone (5'9" 187 So, WF transfer) and Brandon Weymann (6'2" 193 Jr).

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 EC had a very exp'd OL but opened holes for just 126 ypg (3.4) rush and allowed 28 sks. Due to inj's in '07 and '08 they ret'd 114 career sts in '09 and I called them to be one of the FBS's most improved O-lines. All 5 OL started all 14 and they improved to 152 ypg rush (4.0) with just 14 sks (3.1%). Last year they had to replace a 1st Tm CUSA C and 2nd Tm CUSA LG but did have 3 s'trs back (82 car st). In the new offense, the rush numbers dropped to 119 ypg but the ypc improved to 4.3 with just 15 sks (2.4). This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA LT Willie Smith (13 st, 2 Y st'r), 2nd Tm CUSA RG DJ Scott (13 st, 4 Y st'r) and G Cory Dowless (12 st, 4 Y st'r). They have just 27 career sts and while less exp'd, they are in the 2nd year of the new schemes.

DEFENSIVE LINE - EC had solid rush D's in Skip Holtz's last 3 yrs with the best numbers coming in '09 when they allowed 120 ypg rush (3.8). That unit had 78 car sts back. LY they had to replace all 4 s'trs (0 car st) incl a pair of 1st Tm CUSA DL (#2 and #7 DC). I called it my biggest concern on the team. Making matters worse, they lost DT Michael Brooks and DE Marke Powell at the start of Nov. As expected, the numbers plummeted with EC allowing 227 ypg and 5.3 ypc, their worst in over 20 yrs and just 15 sks. Naturally this year they are in much better shape but do lose DT Josh Smith (12 st, 69 tkl, 11 tfl) and DE AJ Johnson (7 tkl). Not listed below are Chishon Rose (6'4" 281 rFr, PS#242), Alex Leonard (6'0" 257 Sr), Laquan Barnes (6'5" 270 So), Josh Cunningham (6'4" 281 So) and Robert Huckabee (6'3" 247 rFr). They move to a 3 man front this year and have 5 back who started LY making them vastly more experienced up front.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 Holtz felt the starting LB's were the best in his tenure and they allowed just 21.9 ppg. LY they had to replace all 3 s'trs (#2, #3 and #4 tkl's) and the 3 who did start, only combined for 1 st and 39 tkl's in '09. EC had a drastic drop off allowing 44.0 ppg (#119 FBS) since 1990. This year they lose 1st Tm CUSA WLB Dustin Lineback (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 6 tfl), MLB Melvin Patterson (6'2" tkl'r, 12 st), SLB Wes Pittman (1 st, 9 tkl) and SLB Lamar McLendon (10 sts, 63 tkl, 7 tfl) who quit in April '11. They add PS#146JC Joseph Blanks and Justin Dixon (PS#30) who was lost due to inj after 4 gm in '10. Despite 0 ret s'trs they are a little more exp'd (7 sts, 79 tkl) than 2010. Not listed in the PSL are Greg Robinson (5'11" 190 Fr) and John Moody (6'0" 195 Fr).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - EC had a veteran secondary in '08 and moved up to #27 in my pass D rankings (#98 in '07). They ret'd 6 with 63 career sts in '09 (2 s'tr ret) and EC finished #55. LY they had to replace 2 s'trs incl 1st Tm CUSA FS (#1 tkl'r). With a much weaker defensive front, EC dropped to #101 (59.8%, 31-11). CB Emanuel Davis still earned 1st Tm CUSA again. This year they lose CB Travis Simmons (10 st, 37 tkl, 1 int, 4 pbu) but 7 of the top 8 are back (58 car sts) incl their #3 and #4 tkl'rs. Adding depth are DJ Graham (5'10" 194 rFr) and Desmond Lawrence (5'10" 173 rFr). EC should make a solid jump in my PDR, especially with a stronger front 7.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '07 EC finished just #106 in my ST rankings. In '08 Matt Dodge improved his net punting from 32.8 to 37.9 and they moved up to #32. In '09 Dodge was 1st Tm CUSA (39.1 net) and Ben Hartman hit 20-30 FG's (L/49). Dwayne Harris set a school rec with 3 KR td's (27.0) and EC finished #15. LY they had to replace Dodge and Hartman and as you would expect, even with Harris, the unit dropped to #53. Maryland transfer Mike Barbour hit 16-18 (L/52) incl 1 miss from 50 earning 2nd Tm CUSA honors. Ben Ryan, who was 0-2 FG's in '09, won the punting job and avg 39.4 (36.2 net). Ryan had 5 TB on 85 KO. Harris is a big loss TY, but he did not have the type of year I expected (KR 20.5, PR 11.7) and EC could improve in my ST rankings. Not listed below in the PSL are punters Philip Armendarez (5'11" 187 rFr) and Tim Mischovich (6'2" 237 So).

COACHES - Ruffin McNeill had spent the previous 10 years as an assistant at Texas Tech (L/2 as DC) but returned to his alma mater last year. He helped lead TT to the Alamo Bowl serving as the interim HC (41-31 win) and got EC to a bowl in his first year here. The OC is 28 year old Lincoln Riley who was the WR coach at TT for 3 years. The DC is Brian Mitchell (CB cch @TT, '06-'09). Prior to Texas Tech he spent 11 years as a defensive asst at his alma mater, BYU.

PHIL'S FORECAST

EC had a string of 4 straight non-losing seasons snapped in '02 and surprisingly fired the school's all-time winningest HC, Steve Logan (69-58 from '92-'02). EC brought in John Thompson and with the team going through the coaching change, they went just 1-11 and 2-9 (-128.8 ypg CUSA worst) and Thompson was let go. Skip Holtz had a 5-6 record his first year but then rattled off 4 straight winning seasons getting the most out of his team almost each year. In '07 they were picked 6th by the media but finished 2nd while setting a single season record for points with 403. In '08 they had 16 ret s'trs and I called for them to win the CUSA East. EC upset #17 VT and #8 WV and were mentioned as a possible BCS bowl team before losing 3 straight to drop to 3-3. They rebounded and not only got to the CUSA Title game but beat Tulsa despite being outgained 399-278 but were only +2.8 ypg in conf play (6th best). Holtz did it again in '09 guiding the team to a 2nd straight CUSA Title and this time they were +49.5 ypg (4th best). They did have a 24-10 FD edge in the bowl vs Ark but lost finishing 9-5 again. LY Holtz left for USF and they had to replace their entire defensive front 7. I called for a rebuilding year and a losing season. Ruffin McNeill did a fine job and caught some breaks. In the opener they got a 33 yd Hail Mary td pass on the last play to stun Tulsa 51-49. After an expected win vs Memphis and losses at VT and NC, they trailed SM 20-0 in the 1Q but rallied for a 44-43 win. They upset NCSU in perhaps their best game as they had a 496-476 yd edge and led 21-0 in the 1Q (won in OT). After an expected win over Marshall they lost to UCF in a game they trailed big mostly throughout. They had a disastrous 3Q vs Navy and lost 76-35. They got to bowl eligibility with a 54-42 win at UAB despite trailing 42-34 in the 4Q. They were pounded by Rice 62-38 on the road and then lost to SMU at home by 7 in OT. In the bowl they were waxed by Maryland 51-20 and finished with a losing 6-7 record. EC allowed an eye popping 44.0 ppg and 479 ypg on D and can only be better on that side of the ball. EC's def ypg was 10.9 (pg 299). They did have 2 net close wins but TY avoid SMU and Tulsa in conf play. The '11 Pirates mt is stronger than the '10 version but have a killer non-conf slate (SCar, VT, NCar and Navy). While 3 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for bowl eligibility, I will call for them to be home for the holidays.

UAB BLAZERS

QB Bryan Ellis

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In Joe Webb's senior season ('09) he started all 12 and led all FBS QB's in rush yards with 1,427 (6.3) and 11 TD's. Webb also threw for 2,299 (59.8%, 21-8). Many of the HC's I met at CUSA media days had their own Joe Webb story talking about how elusive he was. Webb was the #6DC of the Vikings and started their final 2. Probably one of the biggest questions heading into '10 was who would replace him as he was basically UAB's offense in '09. David Isabelle began as the starter and in his first game, set a CUSA record for QB rush yds (214) while accounting for 4 TD's vs FAU. Two weeks later, UAB trailed Troy 23-0 in the 2Q. Bryan Ellis came off the bench and hit 23-37-360 incl a 44 yd Hail Mary pass on the final play. Isabelle was still used as a running QB and led the team in rushing vs Tenn and UCF but att'd just 8 passes compared to 85 for Ellis. Isabelle suffered a hand injury vs UTEP and did not play in the next 5. Ellis threw for 2,940 (56.2%, 25-12). Joe Bento played in 1 vs Marshall (0-2). Isabelle transferred and now adding depth is Jonathan Perry (So, PS#288) and a true frosh incl Mike Miller (6'2" 195). This unit is much more exp'd.

RUNNING BACKS - The Blazers have operated a TB-by-committee approach that has not produced a 1,000 yard rushing season by a RB since 1996 (only time by a RB in school history). In '09 Rashaud Slaughter had an injury-plagued year but still led the RB's with a paltry 250 (5.7). Justin Brooks had 211 (4.7) while Daniel Borne had 188 (3.8). LY UAB went to an RB-by-committee vs UTEP and had 228 yds on 39 RB carries (Brooks led with 81). It was the first time UAB RB's had produced more than 100 yds during a game in 48 yrs (Oct '06)! My expectations were very high at the start of the year for Pat Shed and he set a UAB record for all-purp yds with 2,125 and led with 847 (5.4). Shed also led the team with 47 rec (#4 in yds). This year they lose Brooks (4 st, 169) and Borne (0 st, 321). Not listed below is Louisiana Tech transfer Collin Hughes (6'0" 230 So), Tamar Mickens (5'10" 190 rFr), David Calloway (5'8" 195 So), D'Andre Mostella (5'8" 180 Sr) and Rackayle Brown (5'8" 175 rFr). Shed is back and will battle Georgia trans Dontavious Jackson (PS#22). One of them could become the first 1,000 yd rusher here in 15 yrs.

RECEIVERS - Frantrell Forrest had been a fixture here as he led the team in rec in all 4 of his seasons with 563 (11.5) as a rFr in '07, 536 (12.8) in '08, 558 (16.4) in '09 and 558 (14.3) in '10. TE Jeffery Anderson was #2 in '09 with 398 (15.3) and #5 with 407 (12.7) LY. HC Neil Callaway said their best WR was Nick Adams (6'2", 4.5 spd, great hands, PS#199JC) who had 277 (18.5) in '09 but he RS LY with an injury. This year they lose Forrest (7 st), Anderson (12 st), Roddell Carter (5 st, 7 rec), Mario Wright (1 st, 1 rec) and HM CUSA Mike Jones (12 st, 531, 14.0). Adding depth at TE is Dustin Hallmark (6'2" 210 Fr). This unit is a lot less exp'd but could put up similar numbers.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Callaway was the OL coach at three SEC schools so you know this unit is a priority. In his first year ('07) the OL opened holes for 110 ypg (3.7) with just 16 sks (3.6%) and making improvements in each of the next 2 seasons. Having a QB like Webb helped, as in '09 they rushed for 230 ypg (6.0) with 24 sks. That unit had 78 career sts returning. LY they had to replace 1st Tm CUSA C Jake Seitz (4Y st'r) but did have 4 st's back (91 car st). With less mobility at QB, the numbers dropped to 156 ypg (4.5) but they did trim the sks to 12 (2.6%). TY they lose LG Greg Bulls (9 st, 3Y st'r) and Logan Creel (11 gm). They have 118 career sts and not only return 4 st's but also Caleb Thomas (9 st '09) who only started 4 LY (inj). This is the best O-line that Callaway has fielded in his 5 yrs.

DEFENSIVE LINE - UAB's D in 2001 was nicknamed "The Steel Shield" and allowed just 1.9 ypc rushing and incl #1 and #2 DC's. The rush D slipped the next six years never allowing less than 3.7 ypc. In '07 they had to replace 3 st's and the unit was run over allowing 257 ypg (5.7) with just 17 sks. In '08 they had all 4 st's back but three of them were soph's and the unit improved to 167 ypg (4.8). With 7 of the top 8 back in '09 they improved again to 144 (4.2). LY they had to replace 2 DL (comb 11 sts) but then lost 2 more (16 sts) after the spring. They moved LB Darrion Wilson to DE where he started 5. With 2 st's back, UAB posted similar numbers, allowing 151 ypg (4.2, 23 sk). This year they lose DE Bryant Turner (12 st, 23 tkl, 6.5 sk), DT DJ Reese (11 st, 29 tkl, 4.5 tfl), DE Wilson (15 tkl), DL David DeCordova (1 st, 18 tkl, 2.5 tfl) and DT Justin Wells (19 tkl, 2.5 sk). Adam Arthur who played the L2Y on OL, has moved to DL this season. They once again have 2 ret st's incl Elliott Henigan who earned 1st Tm CUSA in '10.

LINEDBACKERS - In '09 UAB had a lot of athletic talent at LB but it was young and inexp'd. The veteran of the group coming in was Keon Harris (47 tkl '08) but he had just 4 sts (33 tkl). LY the unit returned intact. They brought in PS#116JC DA Autry but he RS (inj). Harris left the team after 5 gm (10 tkl) and Lamanski Ware (11 st, 71 tkl in '09) was inj (3 st). Marvin Burdette, who had just 2 st (43 tkl in '09), came on strong in the 2H of the year and finished as the #1 tkl'r with 114 (8 tfl) earning 2nd Tm CUSA. This year they lose Caleb Dyck (12 tkl) but have the most veteran LB corps in CUSA with 5 LB's having 5+ career starts.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UAB finished #81 in my PDR in Callaway's first year and despite having a veteran unit, slipped to #100 in '08. In '09 they had to replace 3 st's and the unit was my biggest question mark on the team. They slipped down to #110 (65%, 27-11). LY they ret'd 3 st's. Hiram Atwater started 10 in '09, but lost his starting spot and was dismissed after 4 (3 tkl). Chase Daniel started 8 at SS before being inj'd (OFY). CB Terrell Springs (12 st '09) had just 4 sts (26 tkl) so 2 of the 3 returning st's comb'd for 4 sts in '10. UAB still managed to climb to #66 (58%, 24-9). This year they lose S Elliott McGaskin (4 st, 35 tkl) and Ferson Stafford (2 st, 16 tkl). Not in the PSL is Lamaricus Farmer (5'11" 170 Fr). They return 9 of the top 10, incl 7 with starting exp along with THREE JUCO's and should have their best PDR since 1999.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Despite the depth problems in '07 (only 63 schlp players), Swayze Waters almost single-footedly guided the team to a #29 finish in my ST rankings. Waters hit 22 of 28 FG (L/52), 19 TB on 57 KO and had a net punt of 35.6.

In '08 Waters hit 19-24 FG's (long 50) with a solid 37.8 net punt. The return game was very poor and they dropped to #47. In '09 they had to replace Waters and dropped down to #108. Josh Zahn, who hit 14-21 FG's in '09 (L/51), really struggled LY including missing 5 vs Tenn - any one of which could have won the game. At the end Callaway relegated him to kicking only short FG's (2-10 30+) and Zahn did not att a FG beyond 27 in the final 6. He hit 7-17 (L/35) and had 1 TB on 56 KO. P Trey Ragland avg 42.8 (36.0 net) in '09 and improved the net to 36.7. Pat Shed was the top PR and KR. UAB finished #98 and they only lose Zahn and should continue to improve.

COACHES - Neil Callaway played for Bear Bryant ('74-'77) and had asst coaching jobs at EC, Wyoming and Houston. He was also the OL coach at Auburn ('81-'92), the OC at Bama ('98-'00) and the OC at UGA ('01-'06). He became HC of UAB in '07. OC Kim Helton is also in his 5th season here. He was the HC at Houston from '93-'99 and also the OC at Miami, FL from '79-'82. Prior to UAB he was the Toronto RB coach in the CFL in '06. Eric Schumann was the DC here for 4Y but this year they bring in Tommy West who has 16Y of HC exp (Memphis '01-'09, Clemson '93-'98, Chattanooga '92).

PHIL'S FORECAST

UAB did not have a football team until 1991. When then HC Watson Brown showed up in Jan of '95, they had only filled half of their allotted scholarships and did not have a football office or locker room. They joined CUSA 5 yrs later and had an amazing record (for such a young program) of 30-29 in conf play under Brown. In '06 UAB had 5 close losses and could have finished as high as 8-4. Sixteen st's missed at least one game and by Wk 12, thirteen were OFY. It was UAB's worst season in their short history at 3-9. Callaway took over in '07 and they had to replace 27 scholarship seniors and with the coaching change, suffered a large amount of attrition over the summer. Not counting freshmen, only 40 players were on scholarship. They had just 8 ret st's (2nd fewest FBS) and had 6 frosh and only 6 Sr st's by yr end. As expected, they were on the short end of many blowouts going just 1-7 in CUSA play (-188.1 ypg, 109.6 ypg worse than #11). They finished a school record worst 2-10. In '08 they had 14 st's back, were up to 73 scholarship players and improved to 4-8. Their -60.5 ypg was 4th best in the East (7th overall). In '09 with dynamic QB Webb they were up to 79 scholarship players and improved again to 5-7 with a couple of tough losses causing them to just miss out on the postseason. LY UAB had 14 ret st's but did have to replace Webb. UAB led FAU 28-12 but lost by 1 as they had their GW 28 yd FG blocked as time expired. Versus SMU they blew a scoring opportunity at the end of the 1H AND at the start of the 3Q or could have led 21-14 but instead trailed 14-7 and lost 28-7. They got a 44 yd Hail Mary pass with no time left to beat Troy. They had an amazing 544-287 yd edge vs an SEC team (Tenn) on the road but missed FIVE FG's and lost by 3 in 2OT's. After being pummeled by UCF on the road, they beat UTEP at home to move to 2-4. They actually led #24 Miss St 24-23 in the 4Q but came up 5 pts short. They led SM by 14 in the 4Q but ended up needing 2OT's to win by 1. They stunningly lost to Marshall at home by 14 and then led EC 42-34 in the 4Q but lost by 12 which clinched a losing season. After beating Memphis they gave up a 22 yd td run with :44 left and lost to Rice by 5. Surprisingly even with Callaway on the hotseat heading into the year, they opted to retain him. Callaway is the lowest paid coach in CUSA, UAB also has the lowest recruiting budget and have arguably the worst facilities in the conf. UAB did have 2 net close losses and this year has 16 ret st's. This is by far Callaway's best team yet and they are capable of getting to their first bowl since 2004 (only bowl appearance) despite facing Houston and Tulsa in non-div play and Florida, Miss St and Troy in non-conf play.

Memphis: Series known as the "Battle of the Bones". UAB is 9-2 vs UM S'00 incl B2B wins by DD's.
Southern Miss: UAB dropped the first 9 games of this series but has won the last 2.

UAB was torched 51-3 in their only meeting vs #6 Florida in '02. Blazers are 1-19 in road openers w/7 str losses by 18 ppg. UAB started its FB program in '91 & is 3-31 vs BCS conf tms on the road.

The home team is 4-2 S'01 in series. L/gm was in '08, a 41-24 Blazers win. UAB never trailed & after a slight 24-21 2H lead outscored TU 17-3. The Blazers are 5-10 the LSY vs CUSA West teams.

Callaway's 1st coaching job was 78-79 at EC. UAB is just 1-4 at EC & has dropped 4 str in series by 17 ppg. LTH UAB had season bests holding EC to 14 FD & 325 yds but allowed a 99 yd KR TD & 89 yd IR.

UAB is 4-2 vs in-state Troy S'02 but lost the LTH, 27-14. UAB trailed 10-0 at HT being outgained 273-101 & 24-6 into the 4Q. Into 2011, UAB has dropped 13 str non-conf AG's by 20 ppg (L/win was at Troy in '05).

UAB has lost 3 str vs MSU. LY UAB took a 24-23 lead w/10:16 in the 4Q but were unable to stop MSU on B2B FG drives. Blazers are 1-4 hosting BCS conf schools (last gm was in '06, only win was in '04 vs Baylor).

UAB's last & only trip to Tulsa was in '07 (also marked 1st meeting). UAB lost 38-30 but were outFD'd 34-20 & outgained 695-403 as they trailed 38-16 w/12:01 left before scoring 2 garbage TD's.

Blazers have dropped B2B gms & LY suffered their worst loss in the series. UAB trailed 28-0 mid-3Q as they had 3 TD's costing them 21 pts (incl IR & FR TD's). Into 2011, UAB is 6-12 their L'18 CUSA HG's.

UAB has lost all 3 trips to Huntington ('05, '07 & '09). LTH UAB was only outgained by 18 yds in the 20 pt loss but were held to a ssn low 7 pts because of 15 pen (135 yds) incl a TD called back.

After opening up this series at 4-1, UAB has dropped B2B meetings. In the L/gm ('08) the Blazers led 20-3 at HT w/a 257-199 yd edge but were outscored 42-0 in the 2H mustering just 4 FD's & 70 yds.

LTH UAB led 31-7 into the 4Q. Into 2011, the Blazers are just 5-16 their L'21 CUSA road games.

LY UAB all'd an 83'10 pTD w/28 left to force OT. In the 2OT, UAB went for the 2 pt conv & the win.

In '08 (1st gm) UAB made their last & only trip to FAU. UAB trailed 14-0 but cut the deficit to 8 w/7:43 left.

After forcing a punt UAB was SOD at the FAU27 w/56 & on the next play allowed a 73 yd FAU TD run.

MARSHALL THUNDERING HERD

DB Donald Brown

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - The Thundering Herd have had a pair of #1 DC's at QB in Chad Pennington and Byron Leftwich. Since Leftwich departed after '02 this unit has struggled. Bernard Morris had a good year in '07 throwing for 3,149 (64%, 17-10) and became Marshall's only QB to top 1,000 career rushing yards. In '08 Brian Anderson (PS#105) hit 22-39 for 305 yds with 1 start. In '09 they added Florida's Mr Football AJ Graham (PS#100) who threw for 3,870 as a HS Sr (38 td, 564 rush, 4.65 speed). Anderson won the job and threw for 2,646 (58%, 14-13). LY they added Clemson transfer Willie Korn (PS#2) but he was moved to DB then quit in August. Anderson almost lost his job to Graham vs SMISS but Graham was inj'd and played in just 2 (10-12-95). Eddie Sullivan (PS#178) is a mobile QB who finished #6 in rushing (51, 4.2) but hit just 25% (6-24-134). Anderson threw for 2,358 (56.8%, 20-15). This year they lose Anderson but it wouldn't surprise me if Graham wins the job and puts up better numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Marshall has had only three 1,000 yard rushers since Doug Chapman in 1998. Ahmad Bradshaw (PS#34) was arguably the top RB the Herd has ever had. The Virginia transfer rushed for 1,523 (6.1) in '06 and later helped the Giants win the Super Bowl. In '07 true frosh Darius Marshall (PS#51) led with 631 (5.1) in 9 sts. In '08 Darius had 1,095 (4.9) and was the leading KR (26.3, #2 CUSA all-purp). In '09 RFR Martin Ward (PS#57) finished #2 with 393 (4.8) and was MVP of the bowl (2 td). Marshall led again in '09 with 1,131 (5.0) but left early for the NFL. Ward was the leading rusher in '10 but surprisingly with just 345 (3.6). Due to injuries to their top 3 backs, walk-on Essray Taliaferro (5'8" 178 So) had 12 att's vs Mem (66) and led by SMU (32). Andre Booker started 2 and was #2 (264, 3.9) while true frosh Tron Martinez (PS#193) had 116 vs UTEP and finished with 262 (3.4). Booker moves over to WR but the rest of the unit returns intact, and they add three solid true frosh including Travon Van (PS#73) who was a GS LY that impressed the coaching staff during practice. They can only improve upon 2010's paltry numbers.

RECEIVERS - LY Marshall ret'd their top receiver in RFR Antavious Wilson who led with 724 (12.1) in '09. They did, however, have to replace outstanding TE Cody Slate (Mackey finalist). Unfortunately Wilson suffered a knee injury and only started 8 (#3, 342). 6'3" Aaron Dobson was the team's fastest player and after finishing #3 in '09 with 362 (24.1) he led in '10 with 689 (15.7). NFL caliber TE Lee Smith (PS#9) was #2 with 358 (9.4) and interestingly enough when he caught a TD pass MU was 2-0 (16-154 vs UAB and Memphis). Courtney Edmonson took over for Wilson starting 7 and was #4 with 298 (11.9). This year they lose Smith (11 st, #5DC NE), Chuck Walker (7 st, #7 rec) and Edmonson. It will be interesting to see if they can uncover another outstanding TE but with the return of Wilson (top guy '09), the top producer from '10 and the addition of RB Booker, they have a little more exp than '10.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Despite having 3 st's back in '09 and RB Darius Marshall in the backfield, MU's rush numbers dropped from 157 ypg (4.5) with just 13 sks (3.7%) to 143 ypg (3.9) with 25 sks allowed (6.2%). Last year they had to replace 2 st's and RT Brandon Campbell was dismissed from the team with 2 games remaining. Marshall QB's were sacked just 2 times in the first 9 but 11 in the final 3! Surprisingly the Herd's numbers dropped to 97 ypg (3.4) but did allow just 13 sks (3.1%). This year they lose 2nd Tm CUSA C Chad Schofield (12 st, 3Y str), LG Landis Provancha (11 st), Campbell (10 st, 2Y str) and Erik Vint (8 gm). While this group is a little less exp'd with 2 st's back, they are in the 2nd year of the new system and I look for improved numbers. They add JC Colin Munro (PS#259JC) and 4 true frosh incl VHT Jamar Lewter (PS#55) and HT Sebastian Johansson (PS#234).

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 star DE Albert McClellan ('06 CUSA Def POY) suffered a torn ACL and the Herd slipped to allowing 191 ypg (4.8), their worst since '01. They made improvement the next 2 years with veteran D-line's and in 2009 allowed just 135 ypg (4.3) with 27 sks. Last year they had to replace 2 starters (4 of top 8) incl McClellan. DE Vinny Curry got off to a great start with 8 sks in the first 5 and finished with 12 (1st Tm CUSA). The Herd trimmed the rush D ypc to 3.9 (145 ypg). This year they lose DT Michael Janac (6 st, 36 tkl, 3 sk), DE DeMetrius Thompson (4 st, 16 tkl, 2 tfl) and DT Johnny Jones (3 st, 4 tkl). They add JC Terry Franklin (PS#133) who originally signed at Oklahoma in '09 (DNQ). With 3 starters back and 7 who started last year (51 car sts) incl their star, I look for continued improvement.

LINEBACKERS - Mario Harvey was one of the hardest hitters in CUSA. In '09 they returned Harvey (#1 tkl'r) and their #5 tkl'r and all'd 3.4 ppg less. Harvey was back again LY (#1 tkl'r) along with #4 tkl'r Kellen Harris and they only had to replace 1 st'r (#6 tkl'r) but they all'd 28.8 (4.5 more). This year they lose 2x 1st Tm CUSA Harvey (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 143 tkl, 17.5 tfl). While they return 5 of the top 6, it will be tough to improve much with the loss of their best player but the 3 I have projected to start have a combined 35 career sts and 285 career tkl's.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Heading into last year Marshall had finished #112, #61 and #71 in my PDR. They ret'd 3 starters but DeQuan Bemby was dismissed in the summer and Ahmed Shakoor was inj'd early (4 sts). Even with just 2 st's back, they managed to move up to #34 (56.8%, 18-11). This year they lose S Kevin Perry (1 st, 13 tkl), Shakoor (30 tkl, 2 pbu), CB DJ Wingate (7 tkl) and S Pete Culicerto (6 tkl). With all 4 st's back, this is MU's most exp'd secondary in over 5 years. They also add VHT DJ Hunter (PS#36) who orig signed with Tenn '08 and I project will steal a spot.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2009 the ST's had their good moments but also had some poor games (ST cost them SMISS gm). Craig Ratanamorn was 1 of 20 Lou Groza semifinalists hitting 15-17 FG's (L50) along with 11 TB on 60 KO. True frosh Andre Booker was dangerous on PR's (20.4!) but P Kase Whitehead avg'd 39.2 with a tm net of 33.4. Last year they had to replace Ratanamorn and Tyler Warner hit just 5-8 FG's (L41) while he and Drew Stewart combined for 2 TB on 48 KO. Whitehead improved his net to 34.2 and had 22 fair caught. Booker had just 2 PR's but avg 23.5 on KR. Troy Evans (PS#202JC) avg 7.5 on PR's and 22.9 on KR incl a 100 yd TD vs S Miss. Adding depth is Andy Allison (6'4" 185 Fr, LS). After a #78 finish in '09, Marshall was #95 in 2010 but with all of the key players back, should show improvement.

COACHES - The clock ran out on former HC Mark Snyder in '09 who despite finally getting the Herd back to a bowl was let go (22-37 '05-'09). Marshall lured longtime WV coach/alumnus Doc Holliday to Huntington. Holliday spent 2 yrs ('08-'09) as WV's Assoc HC (recruit coordinator). He was an asst at WV from '79-'99 and also spent 3 yrs as Assoc HC at Florida ('05-'07) under Urban Meyer. Holliday is widely considered one of the best recruiters in the nation. Co-OC Bill Legg was the OC at FIU ('08-'09) and spent 5 yrs ('03-'07) as the OL coach and then co-OC (L/2) at Purdue. Co-OC Tony Petersen was an Asst HC at South Dakota ('09) and QB cch at Iowa St ('07-'08). Petersen was a record-setting QB at Marshall in the late '80's. The DC is Chris Rippon who was Rutgers' ST coordinator in '09 and ST coordinator at Ole Miss under Ed Orgeron ('05-'08). He also served as DC and ST coordinator at Syr for 12 yrs under Paul Pasqualoni.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Marshall stepped right in from IAA in '97 and dominated the MAC winning the Conf Title 5 of their first 6 yrs. In '05 HC Mark Snyder inherited just 5 ret'd st's. He did not take over until AFTER spg practice and it was MU's first yr in CUSA. Marshall also removed their AstroTurf and reduced the huge crown (elevation at midfield) from 20 to 6 inches which had been a part of their home edge. I didn't make a lot of fans in Huntington happy when I called for MU to finish LAST in CUSA East, even below UCF (0-11 yr prior)! The Herd trailed in all 11 (incl 1AA W&M). They had 3 very fortunate wins and finished 4-7. Marshall had their opportunities in each of the next 3 yrs but finished with just 5, 3 and 4 wins giving Snyder 4 straight losing seasons. In '09 Marshall made my Most Improved List which meant I thought they would make it to a bowl. The Herd did not disappoint but landing a Little Caesar's Bowl berth, Snyder was fired and DC Rick Minter was the interim HC for the bowl. Marshall defeated Ohio 21-17 and finished 7-6 their first winning season in 6 yrs. They managed to lure Holliday away from WV and had 13 ret'd st's last year but lost some stars like RB Marshall, TE Slate and DE McClellan. I pegged them 4th in the CUSA East and that is where they finished at 4-4. Marshall was -58.6 ypg in CUSA play (3rd worst). Marshall opened with expected losses to Ohio St and WV (led 21-6 mid-4Q) but then lost to a weak BG team on the road by 16. In a rematch of the '09 bowl, OU got a td on the last play but opted to go for 2 and the win but was stopped so Marshall got their first win for Holliday. Marshall played the top CUSA East teams (SM & UCF) and lost by 25 and 21 and then were non-competitive at E Car to drop to 1-6. Marshall beat UTEP 16-12 at home getting a late score and pulled out a 31-17 win over UAB. After an expected 28-13 win over Memphis it gave the Herd their first 3 gm win streak S'06. They still had a shot at a bowl but lost at SMU by 14 (trailed 31-10) then in the season finale were actually outFD'd 24-11 and outgained 410-271 but thanks to a blk'd punt for a td and an 84 yd IR td, beat Tulane 38-23. This year Marshall returns 14 st's and has my #3 D-line and #1 DB's in CUSA. This year's team is stronger but LY went 4-4 in CUSA play despite being -58.6 ypg. They have a tough schedule as they draw Tulsa and Houston from the CUSA West (both on road) and WV, VT, L'ville and Ohio (all on the road) in non-conf play and probably won't match LY's 5 win total.

MEMPHIS TIGERS

NT Dontari Poe

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '09 three different QB's started including Tyler Bass (PS#135, 3 sts) who threw for 673 (65%, 6-4) before injury. Bass was the only one of the 3 to return last yr and there was a 5-man battle in the spring including Miami FI transfer Cannon Smith (PS#64), Andy Summerlin (PS#61JC, IFS), true Ryan Williams (IFS) and rfr Will Gilchrist (PS#72). Smith's father is the CEO of FedEx and a big Memphis booster. Summerlin inj'd his shoulder and RS and it became a 2-man battle between Williams (6'5" pocket passer) and Smith (more mobile) but with a stronger arm. Smith started the first 2 but suffered a concussion in Wk 2 and missed 2 allowing Williams to take control. Williams was the first true frosh QB to start for the Tigers in 24 yrs. He suffered a concussion in the 2Q vs Tulsa. Smith ret'd and saw action in the next 4 gms (2 td drives UH) but missed the last 3 with a rib injury. Williams started 10 and threw for 2,075 (56.9%, 13-10) while Smith played in 7 (246, 51%, 1-3). Bass played in just 1 (SM) and transferred. HC Larry Porter is looking for more mobility out of the QB position after the unit absorbed 37 sks (most S/97, 41). Williams transferred at the start of spring and Smith moved to S. Despite having 0 career pass att's they could at least match LY's avg numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Curtis Steele became Memphis' 4th 1,000 yard rusher gaining 1,223 (5.6) despite missing 1 start in '08. In '09 Steele rushed for 1,239 (6.3) with 15 tds despite missing 3 sts. LY they had to replace their top 3 RB rushers (Lance Smith dismissed). Gregory Ray (PS#313JC) had just 16 yds in '09. With the coaching change, Ray dedicated himself in the weight room and had some big games rushing for 121 vs MT and 176 vs UH. He finished with 676 (4.3). True frosh Jerrell Rhodes (PS#102) left camp for 2 days in early August (personal reasons) then missed a couple gms with a conc. He finished with 469 (4.0). When he was out, converted LB Jeremy Longstreet was the only bkp available and he rushed for 42 (2.8). This year they must replace Ray (10 st) and Longstreet (9 gm). Not listed below are Jarvis Grayson (5'10" 210 Jr) and FB Hunter Brooks (6'1" 240 rfr). Billy Foster (7 st at WR LY) is compared to Dexter McCluster and will help boost this unit. Despite losing their top guy, this unit is more exp'd than '10 and should put up improved numbers (92 ypg, 2.9 LY).

RECEIVERS - Memphis had one of the tallest receiving corps in the NCAA in '07, '08 and '09. While they had to replace

3 of their top 5 in '09, last year the losses were even larger as they had to replace not only their #1 career rec'r in Duke Calhoun (2,981) but also their #2 career rec'r Carlos Singleton (2,365). The most exp'd returnee was PS#201 Marcus Rucker who had 241 (13.4) as a rfr. He led in 2010 with 704 (17.2). Miami, FI transfer Jermaine McKenzie (PS#46) had 409 (16.4) and JC transfer Tannar Rehner added 284 (12.3). This year they lose TE Deven Onarheim (10 st, 16 rec) and McKenzie (8 st, #2 rec) but have everyone else back making it a more exp'd group.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2009 Memphis had to replace 4 starters and 3 backups and their 28 career starts were #111 in FBS. The numbers did not drop as far as you would think (158 ypg rush, 4.4) with just 17 sks (4.2%). Porter inherited all 5 starts. I understand that they were learning new schemes and did have 8 starts lost to injury, but the numbers shocked me as they dropped to just 92 ypg (2.9) allowing 37 sks (11.0%). This year they lose 2x 2nd Tm CUSA RG Dominik Riley (10 st, 4Y st'r), C Brad Paul (10 st, 2Y st'r), LG Joel McCleod (12 st, 2Y st'r) and RT Kindy Jacques (4 st). UM also moves Tommy Walker to DL so they have just 34 career starts returning. Despite being less experienced, the unit has good size and add DT D'Angelo McCray (PS#8), a couple of JUCO's and should produce improved numbers. The last time Memphis had a ypc lower than '10 was in 2000 (2.6) and the last time not rushing over 100 ypg was in 1995 (94 ypg). In both cases, the following year they improved greatly (+1.0 ypc and +9 ypg).

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 Memphis allowed 5.1 ypc rush, their highest in over 18 years. They improved in each of the next 2 years (4.7 and 4.4) although the rush D did go from allowing 153 ypg in '08 to 174 in '09. LY UM ret'd 6 with starting experience. Frank Trotter moved from DT to DE and won the DL of Yr Award. Surprisingly with 3 starters back, the Tigers did not improve, yielding 172 ypg (4.4) with just 14 sks. This year they lose DT Lester Lawson (4 st, 25 tkl, 2.5 sk), 6'8" NT Charlie Bryant (7 tkl '10, 6 st '09) and DT Justin Thompson (3 tkl, inj). They have 7 back with starting exp and basically all 4 starters not to mention the addition of Tommy Walker (20 car sts on OL). This should be a much improved D-line and looks to be the strength of the team in 2011.

LINEBACKERS - LY UM had to replace 2 LB's (#4 and #7 tkl'r, comb 13 st). They did return their top guy in MLB Jaron Hughes and he was clearly the team's MVP with 147 tkl's, nearly doubling up the #2 man. The Tigers also moved OLB Winston Bowers (#3 tkl'r '09) to DE and he started full camp there before moving back to LB (had just 1 start). DeRon Furr (PS#30) had 10 sts but missed the final 2 with injury. Fred Harvey (PS#96) was the Scout Tm Def MVP. This year they lose Hughes (11 st, 5 tkl, 1st Tm CUSA) and Bowers (35 tkl). They return their #4 and #7 tkl'r and add JC transfer Kenya Johnson (IFS) while Akeem Davis moves in from the secondary where he was listed first on the post-spring depth chart. I project Khiry Battle (1 st, 13 tkl) to make an impact (susp for '11 spring). Overall this unit is more exp'd, has solid PS#s and despite the loss of their top guy, the D should improve upon their 39.8 ppg (highest in school history). This group reminds me of L'ville's LB's in '10 where they had a lot of HT's but were inexp'd and coming off a poor year yet played beyond expectations.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Memphis had a banged up secondary in '09 so despite having 3 st's back they finished a poor #113 in my PDR. Injuries hit the unit hard again LY with only 1 DB having more than 9 sts and that was CB Mohammed Seisay (12 st, 39 tkl). S Darius Davis missed 3 and Bryan Wright (4 st '09) only had 1 tkl. Memphis finished dead last in my PDR (288.8 ypg, 65.6% 38-8). This year they lose NB DA Griffin (10 st, 34 tkl, 6 pbu), FS Marcus Ball (9 st, 66 tkl, 2 int,

2 pbu), Davis (9 st, 32 tkl), CB Todd Washington (6 st, 2 int), NB Torenzo Quinn (3 st, 27 tkl), SS Tremaine McKenzie (3 st, 28 tkl), CB Wright and Akeem Davis (1 st, 7 tkl), who moves to LB after starting the '11 spring as the #1 SS. While this unit is less exp'd, they do add in QB Smith. Porter likes the talent and athleticism (HC thinks one of top secondaries in CUSA) and there is only one way to go in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Tommy West's 9 years, Memphis finished above .669 in my ST rankings just once and that was in '05 (#12) thanks to K Stephen Gostkowski (#4DC NE). The Tigers were #85 in '08 and had to replace their P and KR and I said they should finish in the same area in '09. The Tigers did just that finishing #85 again. LY they had to replace their P/K Matt Reagan (38.8 tm net, 11-16 FG). Paulo Henriques (PS#25) had 4 TB on 54 KO in '09 and hit 14-18 FG (L/47) with 10 TB's on 43 KO's in '10. True frosh P Tm Hornsey avg'd 42.7 with a solid net of 37.0 (FWAA Frosh AA, first one ever here). Memphis finished last in the NCAA with 5 total yds on 11 PR's. With Henriques and Hornsey back and certainly improved returns, Memphis should make a big jump from their #106 finish of 2010.

COACHES - Larry Porter ret'd to his alma mater as HC after spending 5 yrs ('05-'09) as asst HC/RB coach at LSU where he was twice named Nat'l Recruiter of the Yr. Porter was also the RB coach at Okla St under Les Miles from '02-'04. The OC is Eric Price, who is the son of UTEP HC Mike Price. Price served as the WR coach of the KC Chiefs ('08) and prior to that was the OC at UTEP ('04-'07). The DC is Jay Hopson, who was Michigan's LB coach ('08-'09). Hopson had 2 stints at SMISS, serving as DC ('05-'07) and DB cch ('01-'03).

PHIL'S FORECAST

After finishing 3-9 with -14 turnovers in Tommy West's 2nd year (2002), Memphis was the typical Turnovers=Turnaround team in '03. They won more than 7 gms for the first time since 1973, with their first bowl since 1971. The Tigers were a CUSA best +151.3 ypg. In '03 & '04 they had B2B 8+ win seasons including being ranked for the first time ever in the AP poll in '04 (#25). In '06 they had 11 ret st's and I called for them to finish last in the CUSA East on these pages and Memphis did just that (2-10). The next year, Memphis made my Most Improved List and went 7-6 (6-2 CUSA) but lost their bowl to FAU. In '08 they got to the St Petersburg Bowl at 6-6 but after a 27 pt loss to USF, finished 6-7. In '09 nothing went right for West and it proved to be his 9th and final season here as the team plummeted to 2-10. They finished 2nd in the CUSA East in 3 of his last 5 yrs. Ex-HC Rip Scherer (fired in 2000) said that the facilities at James Madison (HC from '91-'94 prior to 1st yr at UM) and WM & Mary put Memphis to shame and West (after being let go) talked about the lack of support and those previously mentioned facilities. LY they had just 13 ret st's, coming off a year where they were -75.9 ypg in CUSA and drew both Tulsa and Houston out of the West with their 4 CUSA HG's against the top 4 teams. That had me picking them in the East basement again and the Tigers were the worst team in CUSA going 0-8 and were -149.5 ypg (54.7 ypg worst than #2 UTEP). Their lone win came vs Middle Tenn who was starting a 3rd string QB. UTEP did need an 18 yd FG with :00 left to get past Memphis by 3. Their avg loss in CUSA was by 22 ppg and the closest game besides UTEP was a 15 pt loss to Marshall. The Tiger offense only topped 20 pts twice and one came vs EC (CUSA worst unit in '10). The def only surrendered 27 pts or less twice with one coming vs UTEP (CUSA 10th worst unit in '10). Pointing to an improved season is the fact that Memphis was -13 in TO's in 2010 (3rd worst NCAA) and both their defensive and offensive ypp's make my improved charts on page 299. They actually return just 9 starters (fewest in CUSA) from the weakest team in the conference. Memphis will be much tougher this year but with 30 lettermen lost (43%) this will be another rebuilding year.

44th meeting & 14th time in the season opener. Memphis hasn't beat MSU's '93 when HC Larry Porter was a Sr RB. LY UM got 39% (92) of their yds after trailing 49-0 in the 4Q in Porter's debut as HC.

Porter was the RB cch at ASU from 1999-'01. Tigers are 11-2 vs the Red Wolves '91 but did lose the LTH ('07) as they blew a 31-6 HT lead. UM is 1-9 in road openers including 6 str losses by 20 ppg.

UM is 6-0 vs AP w/5 shutouts but the L/gm was in 1957. The Governors went 2-9 LY incl losses to Mid Tenn 56-33 & Wisconsin 70-3. AP will take on 2 FBS opp's for the 2nd str ssn (9/3 at Cincinnati).

UM has won both CUSA meetings but by a tll of just 8 pts. In the L/gm ('08) UM had a 436-349 yd edge & led 14-0 & then 31-20 before an SMU garbage TD w/38. UM outrushed SMU 306-38 (5.6-2.4).

The visitor is 1-6 (UM 4 straight losses here). LTH ('09) UM trailed 31-7 in the 4Q as 22% (48) of their yds came on a final garbage TD drive (UM had season lows in pts, yds & FDs).

UM's only prior visit to Rice was in '07 (series 1st gm). UM had two 10 pt leads incl one in the 4Q outgaining Rice 571-418 (+8 FD). Into 2011, UM is just 1-5 L2Y vs CUSA West foes (8-4 from '05-'08).

The home team is 7-3 in this series since 2000. Last time here Memphis was outgained 497-397 and had a 4-1 TO deficit that led to 21 pts by East Carolina in a 38-19 loss.

The Tigers are 5-2 at Tulane S/'92 including B2B winning trips. In '07 (LTH) UM down 6 went 80/9pl getting a GW 5-yd TD pass w/36 left (UM trailed on 4 different occasions).

Tigers only win in this series was in '90 (1st meeting). UM has dropped all 3 trips to Orlando by 18+ pts. LTH ('09) UM had a 14-9 lead late 3Q but UCF scored 23 unanswered (230-100 yd edge).

Bonus: Into 2011, UM is just 6-14 S/'06 (6 str losses by 25 ppg) at the Liberty Bowl vs CUSA foes.

LY UM trailed UAB 24-9 at HT but 14 pts came off of 2 TO's. The avg MOV in this series is 12 ppg.

The home team is 5-1. LTH Memphis lost 27-16 as they settled for short 20, 22 & 25 yd FG's.

The Tigers are 9-28 vs SM. LTH ('09) UM only trailed 10-6 at HT but allowed a 50 yd PR TD & 3 str SM TD drives in the 2H. Into 2011, UM has dropped 8 str CUSA AG's by an avg of 17 ppg.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 WAC FORECAST

1. NEVADA - I think the WAC will have a lot of parity this year as there is nowhere near the difference there has been in the past between the #1 and #8 team. Honestly, if Hawaii, Fresno, LT or Idaho had Nevada's schedule, I would probably call for them to win the WAC this year but Nevada has an unbelievably beneficial WAC schedule. They take on the 3 bottom teams in the conf on the road and not only benefit from 4 WAC HG's, but it's they are their 4 toughest foes and NV has a solid altitude advantage and will probably have a weather edge vs both warm-climate teams (Haw & LTech) on B2B Saturdays in Nov. This is a team that would be a good sized underdog to last year's squad but with the schedule, they are my prohibitive favorite to win the WAC.

2. FRESNO ST - This is the type of year HC Pat Hill does well in. Fresno has 4 WAC AG's and their 10 ret st's are the 2nd fewest in the league. While they have to replace their QB, I expect a big year out of Derek Carr and Fresno was -11 in turnovers (pg 312). They had 25 starts lost to injury and despite having to play both Nevada and Hawaii on the road, I've seen Fresno stand toe-to-toe with many superior foes on the road and this year they are equally talented to any of the other top 4 teams in the WAC. Will this be the year Hill finally breaks through and wins a conf title?

3. HAWAII - Hawaii returns QB Bryant Moniz and probably has the most explosive offense in the league. They have 6 returning starters on defense and I rate them #3 on that side. The top 4 teams in the WAC are all very equal and LY if you take out the Boise St game, UH was actually +266.3 ypg in league play. While they have the talent to win the WAC, a couple of factors have me calling for this 2nd place tie. They draw 4 AG's in the WAC this year (only 3 at home) and their 9 returning st's are fewest in the WAC as are their 62% lettermen returning. Last year they were +12 in turnovers (pg 312) and they had 2 net close wins.

4. LOUISIANA TECH - Of the teams in the upper half of the WAC, LT had the lowest conf ypg LY (-52.5 ypg). They also have the 3rd fewest lettermen returning (66.7%) but do have the fourth most starters returning at 13. QB play was a problem LY but this year they have my #3 rated O-line and #2 rated D-line along with my best set of RB's and WR's. If a QB emerges, this team could be dangerous and could contend for the WAC Title even though they have to play 4 WAC AG's.

5. IDAHO - Idaho fans were not thrilled LY when I called for their 8-5 team with 14 returning starters to finish with a losing record and I actually pegged them 7th in the WAC (they finished 6th). This year I am much more bullish on Idaho despite the fact that they lose their QB, top RB and 3 of their top 4 rec's. The Vandals have a veteran D and I like their replacements at QB (Brian Reader) and RB (Ryan Bass, Ariz St trans, PS#4). This is a team that should have the biggest improvement in conf ypg as they were -116 ypg LY and get 4 HG's while my main set of power ratings actually calls for them to go 5-2 and tie Nevada for the league crown. Most of the other sets of power ratings call for a middle-of-the-road finish but Idaho is a solid dark horse contender for the WAC Title.

6. SAN JOSE ST - I like what HC Mike MacIntyre is doing with the Spartans and they are in much better shape this year. LY they opened up vs Alabama, Wisconsin and Utah, 3 big, powerful teams that wore them down and helped cause them to have 78 starts lost to injury. They were still, however, very competitive in the 2H of the season and had losses in WAC play by 2, 4, 7 and 3 points and could have easily have won all 4 (4 net close losses, pg 299). My computer calls them the most improved team in the WAC and they have 18 returning starters (most in the WAC) and 4 WAC HG's. While most of my power ratings call for a losing season, my main set calls for them to go 4-3 in WAC play despite having a 1-15 record in the WAC the last 2 years. The unit ranking on the right has them as the WAC's top defense and they could have only their 3rd winning conference record since joining the WAC (1996).

7. UTAH ST - Now in his 3rd year, this is HC Gary Andersen's best team and despite losing QB Diondre Borel, they get back both RB Robert Turbin and WR Stanley Morrison, 2 of their top weapons that RS last year. This is a team that could easily surprise and flirt with a winning record as the WAC is very bland TY. The main factors that have me calling for the #7 spot are that they have to play 4 of their conf games on the road, were -135.5 ypg in the WAC LY and have just 65.7% of their lettermen returning (2nd fewest). I am optimistic about every team's chances in the WAC this year but I had to pick somebody #7.

8. NEW MEXICO ST - I like what HC DeWayne Walker is doing with the Aggies as he stepped into a tough situation taking over a team that was just 1-7 in the WAC (-65.3 ypg), had to switch systems from former HC Hal Mumme's pass happy offense and had just 8 ret st's. As you would expect, they were -230 ypg in his first year but improved to -144.3 last year and this is by far Walker's best team. They do get the benefit of 4 WAC HG's and have 16 returning st's (2nd most in the WAC), had extremely poor ypp's LY (see pg 299) and my computer calls them the #2 most improved team in the WAC. They do have a lot of ground to make up but after 4 straight 1 win WAC seasons, they could take a step up this year despite my 8th place projection.

WAC Notes: It was a tough summer last year for the WAC and I still wonder about the future of this conference. One day ESPN reports that BYU may leave the MWC for the WAC and team with Boise St, Nevada and Fresno it would have been a league moving up in the rankings. A little while later BYU is an independent. Boise St has left the league for the MWC and then Nevada, Fresno St and Hawaii all announced they'll follow the Broncos in 2012. Texas St and Texas San Antonio will join the WAC in 2012 and if you want to learn more about those two teams you can get my FCS (1AA) magazine which has a complete full page on each team (see page 11). I will keep you posted on PhilSteele.com about any other future additions to what is now a 7 team league in 2012. Looking at this year Nevada and Hawaii were both co-champs with Boise LY and figure to be the favorites in '11. The WAC was 2-2 in bowls LY and had 6 wins overall vs BCS schools with Nevada beating Cal and BC, Fresno over Illinois and Cincy and Boise over VT and Ore St. TWO WAC tms finished in the top 11 in '10 which tied them for 2nd best with the Big Ten and Pac 10!!

NEVADA WOLF PACK

WR Richard Matthews

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - It was a Sunday night game in '07, UN was a 4 td underdog to Boise as they were playing without starting QB Nick Graziano. That is how the Colin Kaepernick era began. Kaepernick, on the blue turf, guided UN into a 4OT game and a tight 2 pt loss. Naturally he claimed the job and threw for 2,175 (54%) with an amazing 19-3 ratio (593 rush) earning WAC FPOY. In '08 Kaepernick threw for 2,849 (54%, 22-7) with 1,130 rush (7.0). He was the WAC OPOY. Kaepernick improved his 40 to 4.58, his bench to 280 and his VL to 33" and in '09 rushed for 1,183 (7.3, 16 td) and threw for 2,052 (59%, 20-6) becoming the FIRST player to ever have B2B 2,000/1,000 yd seasons (Brad Smith, Missouri only other to do it twice, '02 & '05). Tyler Lantrip played in 7 (3-9-31, 8 rush att). LY Kaepernick became the 1st player in NCAA history to top 10,000 pass yds and 4,000 rush yds. I speculated that it would be tough for him to top '09 stats, but he did rushing for 1,206 (7.0, 20 td) while throwing for 3,022 (64.9%, 21-8, #2DC SF). Kaepernick tied an NCAA record for rush tds by a QB (Neb's Eric Crouch 59) and leaves as UN's #2 car passing leader. This position is arguably the biggest shoes to fill in the country. Lantrip had 7 series vs Utah St and Idaho comb'd where he guided 4 tds. He played in 6 throwing for 155 (61.5%, 46 rush). Lantrip (6'4") is not 6'6" like Kaepernick and does not have his speed. Battling Lantrip for the job will be rFr Cody Fajardo (PS#151) and So Mason Magley (PS#280).

RUNNING BACKS - It's not too hard for HC Chris Ault to recruit RB's here. In '05 BJ Mitchell led the WAC in rushing (1,399, 5.4). In '07 Luke Lippincott led the WAC (1,420, 5.3). Lippincott was lost in WK 2 of '08 and Vai Tava led the WAC (1,521, 6.4). In '09 Lippincott (1,034, 7.7) and Tava both topped 1,000 as Tava had 1,345 (7.8) but was "just" #2 in the WAC. Both RB's missed the bowl. Their fastest RB, Lamford Mark, had 182 (4.2) in '08 and 376 (6.4) in '09. Mike Ball (PS#90) was impressive as a rFr with 184 (12.3) and 5 tds vs UNLV but surprisingly had just 36 (5.1) the rest of the year. Courtney Randall had 589 in 3 yrs. LY they had to replace Lippincott. Tava led the WAC with 1,610 (5.7, 19 td). Mark rushed for 413 (7.5) and surprisingly Ball, who is the most athletically gifted RB here (dangerous RM), had just 259 (6.8). This year they lose Tava and Randall (234, 5.0). This could be the year for Ball to finally emerge. Providing depth are Nick Hale (5'11" 210 Jr, 23 yd LY), Nathan Lytle (5'9" 190 rFr) and Reid Adams (5'11" 175 rFr). Then RB cch Jim Mastro said "we got a gem" referring to Hale as he is the strongest RB. This unit will put up big numbers again but with the loss of their top guy, figures to be down a few notches.

RECEIVERS - In '09 true frosh Brandon Wimberly (GS at Oregon St), who was the Scout Tm POY here in '08, led with 733 (13.8). Tray Session (1 rec in '08) was #2 with 368 (12.3) and Chris Wellington (PS#133), who had 632 (15.0) in '08, finished #3 (327, 13.6). TE Virgil Green was #4 (260, 11.3). All 4 ret'd LY but Wellington tore his ACL (4 st). Richard Matthews (PS#160JC), who originally signed with Oregon out of HS, led with 879 (15.7). Surprisingly Wimberly's numbers dropped to 482 (11.8) while Green (515, 14.7) was #2. JC Malcolm Shepherd was #4 (399, 11.4) and Session dropped to #5 (313, 18.4). This year they lose TE Green (14 st, #7DC DEN), Wellington (147, 11.3), Shepherd (4 st) and Moe Patterson (1 st, 8 rec). Adding depth are Michael Wyman (6'2" 185 So) and TE Stephen Jeffers (6'3" 255 So). While a little less exp'd, they do have their top 2 WR's back and should be just as solid.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 Nevada had to replace a 1st Tm WAC C along with 4 bkps (comb 14 sts) and then lost 2nd Tm WAC OT Mike Gallett to susp (5 st). They still paved the way for an amazing 345 ypg rush and 7.4 ypc while allowing just 12 sks (4.1%). Of course Kaepernick's mobility had much to do with that. LY they had to replace a 1st Tm WAC OT and 2nd Tm WAC C and had just 46 career sts back. The "Union" (OL nickname) opened holes for 292 ypg rush (6.1, 12 sk, 3.2%). This year they lose OT Jose Acuna (14 st) and 1st Tm WAC OG John Bender (13 st, 3Y str). They now have 64 career sts returning and even with the loss of their top guy this unit is close to '10 in terms of talent and exp, but with the loss of QB Kaepernick will likely see the key statistics drop.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Wolf Pack had just 1 st'r back in '07 and switched to a 4-3 at midseason. They allowed 174 ypg rush (4.4). In '08 they had to replace 1.5 st'rs (2nd Tm WAC DE) but made tremendous improvements finishing #6 in the FBS in rush D (89, 3.1) with 36 sks. In '09 they were the only team in the country to return 2 DL who recorded double digit sks in '08 in DE's Dontay Moch (11.5) and Kevin Bapsed (10). Surprisingly the rush D slipped a little to 112 ypg (3.6) with 31 sks. LY they had to replace 2nd Tm WAC Bapsed (9.5 sk) and a DT st'r. They did add 4 JUCO's and I thought they would come close to '09's numbers. Nevada yielded 120 ypg (3.9) with 35 sks. This year they lose 1st Tm WAC Moch (14 st, #7 tkl'r, 8.5 sk, 13.5 tfl, #3DC CIN), DE Ryan Coulson (14 st, #4 tkl'r, 3.5 sk) and DE Mike Andrews (12 tkl, 1.5 sk). They return 2nd Tm WAC DT Brett Roy (50 tkl, 1Y). LY four DL started all 13 and with the loss of their star, figure to slip another notch or two.

LINEBACKERS - No LB managed to start all 13 due to inj's among the 3 man LB corps in '08. In '09 they had to replace 2 st'rs (#3 and #8 tkl'rs). The 3 st'rs were #6, #11 and #13 in tkl in '08 but all 3 started all 13 in '09 and the Wolf Pack improved to allowing 28.5 ppg on D (32.3 in '08). LY they had to replace 1 st'r (#2 tkl'r) but ret'd their #3 and #6 tkl'rs including 2nd Tm WAC James-Michael Johnson. DC Andy Buh called Johnson a more athletic Kirk Morrison (NFL st'r 6 yrs, cch him @ SDSU). Once again all 3 LB's started every game (14) with Johnson earning 1st Tm WAC (#1 tkl'r). This year they lose WOLF Kevin Grimes (14 st, #2 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl) and Adam Liranzo (8 tkl). Four of the top 6 are back including their top guy. UN improved to all'g 21.4 ppg and have their best LB corps in years.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Nevada has had an excellent run D but their pass D has struggled and in '08 they yielded 312 ypg (54%, 31-16, #62 PDR). In '09 they had 3 st'rs back but allowed 298 ypg (62%, 33-8). LY they had to replace 2.5 st'rs but added a couple of JUCO's and I said they could only improve (#117 '09). In the previous decade UN had a grand total of 1 DB named All-WAC (Joe Garcia in '05 and '06). Their most exp'd DB, Isaiah Frey (10 st '09) set a goal to make the All-WAC team and accomplished that (2nd Tm WAC). UN improved more than I expected moving all the way up to #21 allowing just 243 ypg (55.9%, 15-12). This year they lose CB Doyle Miller (14 st, #8 tkl'r, 2 int, 9 pbu) but have 7 of the top 8 back and add in Cincy transfer Malik "Fig" James (PS#180JC). FS Corbin Louks was originally a QB at Utah and is working at DB and WR. This is a more exp'd unit and the best secondary here in years.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Ault's first 5 yrs of his 3rd stint here as HC ('04-'08) they finished just #96, #99, #71, #99 and #112 in my ST rankings. They moved up to #49 in '09 as their P Brad Langley avg 41.1 (37.4 net). LY the unit ret'd intact. KR Mike Ball in just 2 yrs already holds the Pack's all-time record for career KR yds topping Paul Williams ('75-'77). Anthony Martinez handled short FG's hitting 11-15 (L36) while Ricky Drake hit 1-2. Drake (susp'd first 2) had 14 TB on 76 KO but they allowed 26.0 per KR (#113). Langley improved to 42.6 (38.5 net) but Nevada finished #99. Nevada improved their PR's from 3.1 (#118 in '09) to 9.8 (#35) thanks to their 1st PR td in 119 gms (3rd longest FBS). They have not had a KR td for 150 gms (8th longest). LY UN upped the time spent on ST from about 15:00 per practice to 40:00. This year they lose the strong legged Drake as well as P Langley so they may not move up much in my ST rankings.

COACHES - Chris Ault led Nevada to 7 conf titles and a 163-63-1 record from 1976-'92 and '94-'95 and is in the College Football Hall of Fame! He was the AD here from 1986-'03. Ault took over as HC in '04 for his 3rd tenure here (vacated AD duties). He has guided UN to 6 bowls in the 7 yrs of his latest stint and LY won the WAC COY. They had an OC until '09 but now Ault coor's the passing game and the run game coach is OL cch Cameron Norcross (on staff S/'01). The DC is Andy Buh who was the LB coach and co-DC at Stanford from '07-'09.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Chris Ault is doing a fine job here. In '05 Nevada had their first winning season since '98. They went 9-3 after beating UCF in the Hawaii Bowl and at 7-1 were WAC co-Champs. They got to bowls the next 4 yrs but in '07 lost their bowl to drop to 6-7 for the only losing season in that span. LY I pointed out that they had 15 ret st'rs and their +165.6 ypg in '09 was actually the best in the WAC (yes, better than Boise's +144). I pointed out that they got the WAC's biggest game of the year (Boise) at home on a Friday night making them a prime contender for the WAC Title and called for them to top '09's 8 win total. They replaced their old field turf with the newest version LY. When they beat Cal 52-31 in WK 3 it ended an 8 game losing streak to BCS teams (avg loss 21 ppg). After beating BYU they became ranked for the first time since 1948! Nevada got to 6-0 and #19 when they lost at Hawaii 27-21. They led Utah St 35-0 at the half and beat Idaho 63-17 with an amazing 844 yds of offense. They got a td with 4:51 left to get past Fresno 35-34, a game that had 6 lead changes. Two weeks later they hosted Boise and trailed 24-7 at the half but thanks to a couple of missed FG's by Boise in what Ault called "the greatest win this university has ever had" they upset #3 Boise 34-31 in OT. The next week they trailed LT early but won on the road 35-17. They finished in a 3 way tie for 1st in the WAC at 7-1 but their +155.6 ypg was just 3rd best. They beat BC in the bowl and actually finished #11 in the final AP poll. This year Nevada gets 4 HG's in WAC play but does lose QB Kaepernick, RB Tava (1836 tfl yds) and DE Moch (71 tfl in 44). Without Kaepernick I look for a large drop off from LY's 41.0 ppg. They open the year with 4 AG's and have just 12 ret st'rs overall but only lose 13 lettermen. This team would be a good sized underdog vs LY's version but has a WAC schedule tailor made for success with their toughest 4 opp's all having to travel to Reno and the trip to Boise is now a non-conf game.

Louisiana Tech: The key play happened w/UN for 21-17 early 4Q. UN faced a 48.9 at the LT28.8 the RB fell down on a screen but QB Kaepernick ran 28 yds for a TD (59th & last of career, tied NCAA mark). UN's last & only win in this series was in 1947 in Eugene. The series other gms have all come after '96 (UN is 0-5 w/a avg loss by 23 ppg). LY's win at BYU snapped a string of 14 str road opener losses.
Wolf Pack is 8-1 vs SJSU/S'02 riding a 3 gm series winning streak w/ the avg score 46-12. LTH UN led 55-0 in the 4Q as they never punted scoring TD's on 9 of 10 poss (missed 34 yd FG on only other drive).
Only prior meeting was in '08, UN lost to #12 TT. Into 2011, UN last won a road gm vs a BCS school in '03 (28-17 at Wash). They have dropped 5 str since with an avg score of 49-16.
This will mark the 1st non-conf meeting S'77. UN has lost 6 str on the "blue" (L'win in '97) by 30 ppg. LY UN snapped a series high 10 gm losing streak in what was arguably the biggest win in school history.
UN is 8-2 in home openers. Ault was an asst at UNLV (1973-'75). Wolf Pack have won a series high 6 str by 20 ppg. LY UN scored 2 TD's in the L'2:40 of the 1H to pull away after being tied at 14.
UN is 0-2-1. Last meeting was in the '07 New Mexico Bowl, UN was shutout 23-0 being outFD'd 26-12 & outgained 548-210. This series is now known as the "Battle of the Wolves".
The last & only time UN won 4 str was from '23-'26 (first 4 meetings). LY's gm had 7 lead changes as UN down 6 went 54/7pt for a TD w/4:51 left. FSU was SOD at their 45 & UN ran out the L'1:27.
Nevada has never lost in Las Cruces going 7-0. LTH UN hammered the Aggies 63-20 w/a 29-9 FD & 670-232 yd edge. It was 63-6 early 4Q as NMSU got 38% (88) of their yds on the gms final drive.
Utah St: UN's last lost in Logan was 1950, 7 str winning trips (L'4 by just 5, 6, 3 & 3 pts). Idaho: Wolf Pack has won 6 straight over the Vandals by an avg 54-20 (all by 16+ pts).
The home team is 11-1 since 1968. LY UN trailed 17-0 at HT being outgained 181-97 but after a TD w/3:06 left recovered an onside kick (down 6) but was int'd at the H12 w/1:30.
Nevada has won 6 straight vs Louisiana Tech scoring 35+ in each winning by an avg 23 ppg.
LTH UN battled back from DD deficits both in the 1st & 2H. Into 2011, UN is 11-5 L4Y in WAC AG's.
LY UN had ssn highs in pts, FD's, pass & rush yds & had a school rec 844 yds vs UI (794 vs UNLV in '93).

FRESNO ST BULLDOGS

RB Robbie Rouse

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - After playing in 4 (5 att) as a r/r in '07, Ryan Colburn surprisingly DNP in '08 as Tom Brandstater finished his 3rd year as the starter (#6DC). In '09 Colburn's main competition came from true frosh Derek Carr (PS#56). Ironically, the last time HC Pat Hill had a QB battle ('98) it was between David Carr (Derek's brother) and Billy Volek, who were both still in the NFL. LY. Colburn started all 13 despite a heated battle with Carr in Aug and had similar stats to Brandstater's final yr throwing for 2,459 (61%, 19-11). Carr appeared in 5 (10-14-12). LY Hill said that Colburn was way ahead of '09. The two QB's battled but Hill wanted to RS Carr as well as JUCO Kelly O'Brien (former NFL'r Ken's son). Colburn hit 32-42-390 with 4 td's vs Ole Miss and was much more confident and aggressive but the numbers only improved to 2,817 (63.1%, 23-9). Hill ran a conservative offense at times with games in hand to protect those RS's. The only other QB to take snaps was true frosh Isaiah Burse in the Wildcat (71 yd rush) who moved to WR in the spring. Mobile true frosh Greg Watson RS after suffering a dead arm during fall camp but had been listed as the bkp for the 2H of the year. This year despite the loss of a 2 yr st'r, they should come close to '10's numbers as Bulldog fans and Hill expect great things from Carr.

RUNNING BACKS - FSU has produced a 1,000 yd rusher in 13 of the last 16 yrs. In '09 Ryan Mathews led the NCAA in rushing ypg tying a WAC record with eleven 100 yd gms (LaDainian Tomlinson, TCU). Mathews finished with 19 td's and a school record 1,808 (6.6) topping Rodney Davis (1,586 in '02). True frosh Robbie Rouse led with 75 (3.6) vs LT and finished #2 (479, 5.8). LY they had to replace Mathews (#1DC). The fast and elusive Rouse gained speed (4.43) and is a small target to hit at 5'7" 185. He finished with 1,129 (5.5) despite missing 2 full gms. Rouse was the first player in FSU history to top 200 in B2B gms (LT and Nevada). After rushing for 769 in 4 gms, he broke his hand vs Boise but still played at Idaho then DNP vs Illinois. AJ Ellis had 165 in his start vs Utah St and finished #2 (281, 3.7, miss 5 inj). Those two return along with the large addition of transfer Milton Knox (PS#8) who had 159 tll yds at UCLA as a r/r. Not listed below are Michael Harris (5'10" 200 Jr, PS#158), Jerry Kelly (5'7" 170 So), Jonathan Norton (5'8" 185 Fr), Darryl Cash (5'11" 190 Fr) and FB Tim House (6'2" 240 r/r). This group is much more experienced and among the WAC's best.

RECEIVERS - LY the Bulldogs had to replace 3 of their top 4 rec's with the leading returnee being #2 Jamel Hamler (503, 13.6). Devon Wylie (259, 15.2 in '09), who is the fastest player in FSU history was in'd in Wk 1 and RS. Hamler lost 20 lbs in the offseason and cut his 40 time from 4.73 to 4.49 but only managed to start 9. He still led the lightly exp'd, injury plagued group with 812 (15.0) while Jalen Saunders (4.36 spd) who was originally expected to GS, was #2 (462, 15.4). Rashad Evans had 424 (10.9) and r/r AJ Johnson added 241 (12.1). This year they lose Hamler (left early NFL) and TE Vince Pascoe (12 st, 5 rec). r/r Victor Dean is the tallest rec (6'5") in schl history and will be used on EZ fade routes and Wylie also returns. Adding depth are David Crockett (5'11" 175 Fr), Riley Barnes (6'3" 220 r/r) and Mathew De Los Santos (5'11" 180 Jr). Even with the loss of their top guy, this unit has more exp.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Hill used to be an OL coach so this unit is always a priority for him. He also likes converting DL's to OL's because he feels they have quicker reaction speed. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's then their top 2 OL's missed a combined 7 st. FSU still improved to 229 ypg rush (5.4), their best output since 1992, but allowed 21 sks (6.5%), their most since '03. LY they had 9 of the top 10 back including all 5 st's (107 car sts, #9 FBS). RG Andrew Jackson started just 3 (inj) but it shocked me that the numbers plummeted to 151 ypg rush (4.0) with 36 sks (9.9%) as they should have been one of the best units in the country. This year they lose 1st Tm WAC RT Kenny Wiggins (13 st, 2Y st'r), 3rd Tm LG Devan Cunningham (13 st, 2.5Y st'r), 1st Tm WAC C Joe Bernardi (11 st, 4Y st'r) and RG Jackson (3Y st'r, #7DC ATL). They have 2 st's back (40 car sts, #99 FBS) and while clearly not as talented or exp'd, could actually put up improved numbers after their weakest output since '02.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Fresno had an inexp'd and injury plagued D-line and slipped to allowing 210 ypg rush and a ghastly 5.6 ypc (just 18 sk). In '09 they had just 1 st'r back and slipped again to 214 ypg rush and a horrific 6.0 ypc with just 11 sks. LY they only had to replace 1 st'r and had 5 back who started 6+. DE Chris Carter was the fastest DL in FSU history (4.58) while backup DT Anthony Williams benched a school record 470. DE Chris Lewis was OFY (inj) after 10 sts. I said they should be a vastly improved def front and they trimmed it to 158 ypg rush (best since '06) and 4.6 ypc with 37 sks with 33 by the DL! This year they lose the WAC DPOY Carter (13 st, #7 tkl'r, 11 sk, #5DC PIT), DT Cornell Banks (13 st, 24 tkl, 3.5 tll), DE Lewis (10 st, 14 tkl, 2 sk) and DT Mark Roberts (4 tkl, 1 sk). They return 1st Tm WAC DT Logan Harrell (10.5 sk) but with the loss of 3 st's including their star, figure to drop a few notches.

LINEBACKERS - Fresno had an inexp'd LB corps in '08 allowing 31.1 ppg. They had 2.5 st's back in '09 (#1, #4, #8 tkl's) and gave up 28.4 ppg. LY they lost their #7 tkl'r but ret'd 2 st's incl 1st Tm WAC MLB Ben Jacobs (#1 tkl'r) and Kyle Knox (#16 tkl'r). Despite the exp, they still allowed 30.0 ppg. This year they lose 2x 1st Tm WAC Jacobs (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 4 tll) who started 52 consec games. They do have 5 of the top 6 back including 2nd Tm WAC Travis Brown (13 st, #2 tkl'r, PS#45), Knox (11 st, #4 tkl'r) and their #10 tkl'r and will be stronger.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - After 6 seasons with an avg finish of #37 in my PDR, Fresno has been just #99, #61, #75, #66 and #62 the last 5 yrs. In that span, FSU has the fewest number of int in the FBS with just 5, 4, 5, 8 and 8 (DB's 20 int in 4 yrs). LY they had to replace their top cover CB and a 2nd Tm WAC SS. They did return 2nd Tm WAC FS Lorne Bell ("human missile") but lost CB Jermaine Thomas after 8 sts (inj). This year they lose Bell (13 st, #3 tkl'r, 1 int) and CB Desha Dunn (11 st, #5 tkl'r, 2 int, 5 pbu). They have 6 of the top 8 back and despite losing arguably their top 2 DB's, should move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Hill's lowest finish in my ST rankings in 8 of the first 9 yrs was #68. Since '02 FSU is #1 in the NCAA in blocked kicks (55). Former ST cch John Baxter had units finish #14 in '03, #24 in '04, #5 in '05 and #9 in '07. After Fresno slipped to #67 in '08, they improved to #20 in '09. K Kevin Goessling, who Hill said would be one of the best K's to pass through here, hit 15-16 FG's (LS2, school rec 15 straight), P Robert Malone improved his net to 38.7 and Andrew Shapiro had 8 TB on 70 KO. LY they lost Baxter (to USC) and their top P who's expected replacement, P Matt Darr (PS#2), then transferred (Tenn). Shapiro unexpectedly took over at P (37.4, 34.9 net). Goessling had 6 TB on 78 KO and hit 21-26 FG's (LS2). Frosh Jalen Saunders was the top KR (23.2) and soph Rashad Evans the top PR (8.6). This year the unit returns intact and they should improve upon LY's #68 finish.

COACHES - Anybody. Anytime. Anywhere is the mantra Pat Hill has lived by in now his 15th season here. The Bulldogs have faced at least 3 BCS teams in 10 of the last 11 seasons. After his team almost upset #1 ranked USC in '05 and was #16 in the polls, Hill interviewed with four different NFL teams and was a hot commodity. The offense will be run by co-OC's for a 3rd straight season. Jeff Grady (Pass Gm coo) is in his 5th season here and Derek Frazier (Run Gm coo) is in his sixth. Randy Stewart returns for his 10th season here and 3rd as DC while LB cch Tim Skipper serves as the def run game coo.

PHIL'S FORECAST

A very surprising stat to me is that Fresno has not finished higher than 2nd in the WAC since 1999 and its last outright conf title came in 1989 (Big West). This, despite the fact that FSU has pulled a lot of upsets, flirted with BCS bowl contention and has been one of the marquee teams in the WAC. Their high point came in '05 when they were 8-1 after destroying Boise 27-7 and then nearly upset #1 ranked USC the very next week. There was talk that it was the greatest team in school history. FSU accepted the bid to the Liberty Bowl after the USC game and would actually lose 10 of their next 11 stretching into '06 (7 straight losses were worst in 77 yrs). After that unusual 4-8 season in '06, they have rebounded with 4 straight bowls. In '08 it surprised me that Fresno was the preseason WAC favorite (I picked Boise). Fresno finished just 7-6 (Boise 12-0). They were better than their 8-5 record in '09 as I felt they outplayed both Wisc and Cincy (finished AP #16 and #8) on the road. LY Fresno had 7 HG's for the first time since 1994. Things started great when they ended Cincy's 18 gm reg sn win streak. They were tied with Utah St at 24 in the 4Q but won by 17. They then travelled to SEC country and lost at Ole Miss. After dispatching Cal Poly, they went from facing an option offense to a pass offense and struggled as Hawaii blew them out at home 49-27. Fresno got 2 easy wins and then got a comeback win at LT (trailing 14-0 1Q). They had a shot at WAC contention as the lead switched hands 6 times vs Nevada but they gave up a td with 4:51 left to trail by 1 and then were SOD with 1:27 left. The next week was probably the worst of the Pat Hill era as they were destroyed by Boise, 51-0. Then on a chilly, rainy night Fresno was fortunate to get past Idaho with a 1 yd td run with :14 left. They stopped an Illinois 2 pt conv and won by 2 and in another poor effort, NIU was without their HC and both coor but Pat Hill's squad looked disinterested in their 40-17 bowl loss to finish just 8-5. Hill, who signed a contract extension prior to '10 (with a pay cut), is clearly under fire. Fresno had 2 net close wins, has 4 WAC AG's and their 10 ret st's tie for fewest in the league. Expectations will be low for Fresno but I expect big things from QB Carr. Remember two years ago they could have upset Wisconsin and Cincy on the road so they are capable of winning those WAC road games. They were -11 in TO's LY (pg 312) which is a plus and while they will be a dog in 7 or 8 games TY, the Bulldogs could be a surprise contender in the WAC.

Fresno St is 19-29 vs the Pac-10 including 2-0 vs Cal (last game '00, FSU won 17-3).
The Bulldogs have won 7 straight season openers by 24 ppg incl 3 vs BCS schools.
First meeting. Into 2011, FSU is 4-9 S'04 in non-conf away gms. Under Pat Hill FSU enters 2011 w/a 17-26 mark vs BCS opp's. NU moved from the B12 to the B10 TY.
First meeting. Fighting Sioux finished 3-8 LY incl losses to Idaho (45-0) & NIU (23-17).
The Bulldogs are 8-0 vs FCS teams since 1997 winning by an avg score of 38-10.
FSU won 8 str over Idaho (avg score 35-18). FSU won all 4 gms at the Kibbie Dome. LTH FSU scored a TD just :19 in & led 24-0 at HT w/a 248-106 yd edge (UI scored w/25 left in the gm).
In their only meeting, LY FSU all'd ssn highs in pts & yds. Under Pat Hill the Bulldogs are 6-2 S'00 hosting BCS schools. FSU has never beat an SEC tm going 0-4 w/a avg loss by 32 ppg.
FSU has dropped 5 str vs the Broncos incl LY's 51-0 shutout. "They totally dominated us in every way" Hill LY after gm. The L3Y FSU on avg has been outscored 54-15 & outgained 497-309 vs BSU.
FSU is 7-1 S'93 vs USU including a series high 4 gm win streak. LY the Bulldogs trailed 24-17 w/6:09 3Q but went on a 24-0 run outgaining the Aggies 192-34 (USU had just 1 FD).
FSU is 8-4 S'99 vs UN but has dropped 3 str. LTH Fresno St had a 14-10 lead into the 2Q but 5 TO's hurt all'g 42 unanswered. Into 2011, the Bulldogs are 11-5 the L4Y on the WAC road.
San Jose St: FSU is 16-1 vs the in-state Spartans S'91. Into '11, FSU is 19-8 their L27 WAC HG's.
San Diego St: Next ssn both will be MWC members. FSU is 2-12 their L14 trips to San Diego.
FSU is 9-3 vs LT (1st meeting in '86). LY FSU trailed 14-0 & 21-17 into the 4Q. In a crazy 4Q that saw 36 combined pts FSU sealed it w/a int at its 20 (up just 5) w/2:28 left (next play was a 51 yd TD run).
This series started in 1972 and the Bulldogs are 17-0 vs the Aggies. LTH NMSU actually had a 3-0 lead into the 2Q & only trailed 13-3 at HT w/a 138-133 yd edge (FSU got a 17 yd IR TD in 1H).
Visitor is actually 5-1 the L6Y. FSU has won 2 of their L3 trips to the island. LTH FSU had leads of 21-0 & 42-3 before all'g UH to gain 41% (150) of their yds incl 2 garbage TD's in the L7:25.
LY FSU led 10-0 at HT & 27-3 into the 4Q as SJST had 45% (154) of their yds in the fourth quarter.
LTH ('98) FSU was shutout 10-0 (crossed midfield twice) being outFD'd 19-8 & outgained 338-136.

HAWAII WARRIORS

LB Aaron Brown

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '05, UH had to replace Timmy Chang who is still the only passer in NCAA history to top 17,000 yds. Colt Brennan took over and in 3 yrs threw for 14,193. Surprisingly the UH record for comp % in a season was just 60% (Chang) and in Brennan's best year of '06 he threw for 5,549 (73%) with a 58-12 ratio (#1 NCAA pass eff). After Brennan left in '07 they had 2 yrs of inexp'd and injury plagued units. Greg Alexander (PS#29JC) started the last 6 in '08 (1895, 63%, 14-5). In '09 his career ended with an ACL tear vs LT (gm 4). Walk-on Bryant Moniz was #4 in Aug but took over. Moniz suffered a conc and Shane Austin (PS#197) started vs SJSU (299 yds). In 4 gms Austin threw for 545 (62%, 2-3). Moniz threw for 2,396 (57%, 14-10). Moniz missed most of '10 spring on a personal leave but then being reinstated in May had to win the job back. Moniz had a phenomenal year tying a school record with 6 td passes in a half vs Charleston St. He had a school rec 560 yds passing (Brennan 559 in '06) vs SJSU in just over 3Q's. Moniz is already 3rd on UH's career passing list and led the nation LY in total offense (367.3), passing yds (5,040) and td's (39). Austin has 33 attempts. Not listed below are Corey Nielsen (5'11" 185 So, PS#96) and Cayman Shutter (6'1" 185 So, PS#124). It will be tough for Moniz to improve much upon '10's numbers, but in this offense anything is possible.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 the leading RB had just 443 (4.5). In '09 VHT Nebraska transfer Leon Wright-Jackson (PS#8) led with 554 (7.5) and Alex Green (PS#44JC) was #2 with 453 (5.3). Those 2 became the first UH RB tandem to crack 100 in the same game since 1993. LY they had to replace Wright-Jackson and Green was having a solid year incl 172 vs Utah St. He then exploded for a school record 327 vs NMST (Pete Wilson 270 vs BYU, '05) and 136 vs UNLV and became UH's 7th ever 1,000 yd rusher (1199, 8.2) and 1st since 1992. He finished with 19 td's and was the #5 rec'r. Chizzy Dimude was #2 with 258 (5.9). TY their top returning RB is Hogan Rosehill who was #4 with 24 (4.8). Sterling Jackson (PS#479JC) is big, strong and fast and is my favorite to win the job TY. Not listed below are Joey Cadiz (5'6" 190 Sr) and JR Abad (5'9" 195 Jr). This should be a good unit but their numbers will be down after having had their best output by a leading RB rusher in 18 yrs from VHT Green (#3DC GB).

RECEIVERS - The Warriors use 4 WR's, rarely using a FB or TE. In '08 they had to replace all 4 st's including three 1,000 yard rec's (#4 had 859). Walk-on Greg Salas fractured his finger vs Florida but played with a wrap and still led with 831 (14.6). Michael Washington (5'7") was #2 with 789 (12.7).

Malcolm Lane (4.45 spd) was the team's deep threat and had 613 (17.5). In '09 they had to replace their #2 and #3 rec's and the #2 leading returnee was converted RB Kealoha Pilaes (546 yds tfl off '08). Salas was #4 in the FBS in ypg but came up just 3 catches short of setting the sch record with 106 rec for 1,590 (15.0). Pilaes was #2 with 690 (10.5). LY those 2 ret'd as did #4 rec Rodney Bradley (575, 18.5). Salas (#4DC STL) finished #1 in the NCAA with 1,889 (15.9) while Pilaes (#5DC CAR) was #7 in rec yds with 1,306 (14.8). Salas set UH single season records in rec (119), rec yds and is their new car rec leader. Royce Pollard was #3 with 901 (14.1) while Bradley was #4 with 511 (10.6). This year they lose 3 of the top 4 and while they will put up good numbers, it is a much less exp'd group.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Former HC June Jones did an outstanding job developing the line and in his 9 yrs here had 7 OL's drafted. In '08 they had to replace 2 st's (1st Tm AA) and one returnee started just 6. UH allowed a near-NCAA record (58, ND in '07) 57 sks (11.6%) while the ypc dropped to 3.2. In '09 they had to replace 2.5 st's and began with 5 fifth yr seniors. As expected, the unit showed improvement with 4.5 ypc allowing "just" 36 sks. LY they had to replace 4 st's (24 car sts ret, #113 FBS) and once again went with a senior laden group. The less exp'd unit put up similar numbers (106 ypg, 4.8) with 40 sks, 6.5%. This year they lose 2nd Tm WAC RG Adrian Thomas (14 st), 2nd Tm WAC RT Laupepa Tetuli (12 st), C Bronson Tiwanak (14 st), LG Brysen Ginkak (13 st) and OT Kainoa LaCount (4 st). Despite having to replace 4 st's, this unit is on par with '10 with 21 career sts (20 from LT Austin Hansen).

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 UH had just 1 DL st'r back and was also inexp'd at LB and they allowed 202 ypg (4.9) rush their highest since '04. LY they had to replace 2 st's but added AZ trans Kaniela Tuipulotu, who earned 2nd Tm WAC and the tms Most Outstanding Def Player Award. As you would expect, they improved to 136 ypg (3.6). Paipai Falemalu moved from DE to LB but then back to DE and was called one of the team's best athletes and had 5 sks. DE Elliott Purcell missed the first 2 (ankle). This year they lose Purcell (12 st, 33 tkl, 3 sk) and DE Kamalu Umu (11 st, 48 tkl, 5 sk, 11.5 tfl, 1 int). Adding depth are Moses Samia (6'1" 280 rFr) and Port St transfer Siasau Matagiese (6'1" 290 So). Six of the top 8 are back (5 w/st exp), they add in 2 JC's, and I look for continued improvement.

LINEBACKERS - UH had the best LB corps in the WAC in '08 as they ret'd a pair of 1st Tm WAC LB's. Unfortunately they lost both those guys in '09 (#1, #2 tkl'r) then their lone ret starter missed the year. LY they had to replace their top 2 tkl'r's again and while they had 4 back with starting exp, the leading returnees were just the #5 and #12 tkl'r's. UH still improved to allowing 25.5 ppg. This year they lose LB Mana Lolotai (3 st, 22 tkl) and Po'okela Ahmad (1 st, 33 tkl, 1 int). They return 1st Tm WAC Corey Paredes (151 tkl) and 2nd Tm WAC Aaron Brown (#3 tkl'r). I look for PS#55JC Brenden Daley to fill the 3rd spot. Adding depth are Alema Tachibana (6'2" 210 rFr) and TJ Taimatuia (6'3" 225 rFr). This is their most exp'd LB corps in 3 yrs.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - UH had a veteran secondary in its magical '07 Sugar Bowl season and finished #28 in my PDR (#60 in '06). In '08 they had to replace 3 st's and dropped to #76. In '09 they had to replace 8 DB's (comb 58 sts). Of the 7 who started in '09, they had a comb 38 career tkl's (0 car sts). As you would expect, the Warriors dropped even further to #107. LY they were the polar opposite in terms of exp and as expected, made a huge jump to #44. This year they lose 1st Tm WAC FS Mana Silva (14 st, #2 tkl'r, 8 int) who set a UH career record with 14 int's in just 2 yrs. Also gone is CB Jeremy Bryant (14 st, #6 tkl'r, 4 int, 8 pbu), CB Lametrius Davis (12 st, #5 tkl'r, 5 pbu) and SS Spencer Smith (2 st, 13 tkl). They return 1 st'r and just 2 of their 14 int's but NB John Hardy-Tuliao (#7 tkl'r) moves to CB. Not in the PSL are Rykin Enos (5'11" 195 Jr) and Temple trans Mina Gould (5'9" 165 So). With basically 2 st's back this unit figures to drop some in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In HC Greg McMackin's first year ('08) everyone ret'd but surprisingly UH slipped to #116 in my ST rankings. In '09 they had to replace their K and I summed up by saying that despite being less exp'd they could only improve and they did (#67). They added Australian Alex Dunnachie who had booming punts (5 sec + hangtime) but he avg just 39.2 in his first year of American football (net 36.5). Scott Enos had 6 TB's on 57 KO's (12-19 FG's, L47). With almost everyone back LY they actually slipped to #82. Dunnachie, who at times outkicked his coverage, avg a super 43.0 (net 36.3). Enos had 5 TB on 101 KO and hit 17-21 FG's (L40) despite battling arthritis in his back. Enos said that LS Luke Ingram and holder Shane Austin "are like a machine" and he set a UH record for consecutive xp's made (71). Dustin Blount was a solid KR (24.7) but the PR's were below avg (3.8 tm, #111). This year they lose Enos but Dick Toney (HC here from '77-'86) returns as the ST coor.

COACHES - Former HC June Jones had a storied 9 yrs here taking over an 0-12 team and eventually guiding UH to a BCS bowl ('07 Sugar). HC Greg McMackin had some big shoes to fill. McMackin was the HC at Oregon Tech ('86-'89) and was named Div II COY twice. He was the DC at 5 schools and in the NFL (Seahawks '95-'98) before being named the assoc HC for the SF 49ers ('03-'05). He was the UH DC in '99 and ret'd to that role here during UH's Sugar Bowl season where his D improved from #93 to #34 and in '08 he became the HC. Both coor's are in their 2nd year here. The OC is Nick Rolovich who had been the QB ch ('08-'09) and is also a former QB here. The DC is Dave Aranda who had been the DL coach ('08-'09).

PHIL'S FORECAST

In the last 20 yrs, Hawaii has improved its record by at least 4 games 5 times including 1999 when I called for UH to be the Most Improved Team in the NCAA. They did not disappoint going from 0-12 in '98 to 9-4 in '99. That, at the time, was the biggest single season turnaround in NCAA history. In fact, my magazine was around for 4 of those 5 turnaround seasons and in each of those 4 yrs UH made my Most Improved List meaning I thought they would go from a losing record to a winning record and they did. In '07 they were coming off an 11-3 record and I actually projected them to play in the Sugar Bowl which was laughed at by many. UH gave me a couple of scares but went 12-0 and got to the Sugar Bowl where they were blown out by Georgia. The next 2 yrs, UH went a combined 13-14 (1 bowl). UH had a losing season in '09 at 6-7 but was -11 in TO's (pg 312) and last year was back on my Most Improved List. UH was picked just #5 in the WAC preseason poll but exceeded everyone's expectations including my own. The Warriors outgained #14 USC 588-524. They blew a 21-0 lead vs Army but rallied for a 31-28 win. The next week they led Colorado 10-0 at half but wilted in the altitude in the 2H and lost by 18. UH dominated CSU (FCS) and LT then stunningly beat Fresno by 22 on the road. They had a 346-293 yard edge vs #19 Nevada and upset them at home. They steamrolled Utah St and Idaho (comb 90-17) setting up a showdown at Boise on the blue turf. Unfortunately UH was manhandled, being outgained 737-196 and lost by 35. They won their final 3 by 34, 35 and 38 vs tms that combined for 5 wins on the season and finished as co-WAC Champs. Despite their Boise obliteration, they were +165.4 ypg in WAC play (2nd best). They won 10 gms for the 5th time since 1992 and for the 6th time in school history but were pounded by Tulsa by 27 at home in the bowl due to -4 in TO's. This year they return QB Moniz but have just 9 ret st's overall. They benefitted from +12 in TO's and 2 net close wins and also have 4 AG's in WAC play. UH is a legitimate WAC contender despite the tough schedule but probably won't match last years 10 win total.

HT is 2-0. LY UH only led 10-0 at HT as they came away w/0 pts inside the C32x's (232-59 yd edge). CU opened the 2H w/a 80 yd TD drive, a SAF and a 60 yd TD drive and never scored back. UH won their only trip to Seattle 10-7 '73). In the L/gm ('07) UH erased a 21 pt 1H deficit & locked the gm's final 28 pts to complete an undefeated regn. SS is 4-12 in road openers but won 3 of 4 L/4. UH is just 1-3 S/'97 in trips to LV. In '09 there were 8 lead changes (4 in 4Q). After UH took the lead by 5 they a/ld a 67/14pl GW TD drive w/36 left (15 yd TD pass) & UH's EZ pass fell as time exp from the H49. First meeting. The Aggies finished 6-5 LY including a 52-3 loss at Cal but UCD beat SJSU 14-13. UCD also beat Stanford 20-17 in '05. Warriors have won 9 str FCS schools (avg score of 48-15). LTH Hawai'i was not focused as a day prior a tsunami hit the Samoa Islands affecting 45 players & 6 coaches. UH was held out of the EZ for the 1st time in 62 gms (outgained 449-301). Into 2011: UH has won 6 straight WAC HG's by 21 ppg and are 13-6 the last 19 WAC AG's. Into 2011: Hawaii has won 11 straight non-BCS/non-conference home games. McMackin was the DB cch at SJSU from '79-'83. UH last lost in San Jose in '97 but in the L/4 trips have won by 7 pts or less. LTH UH missed a late 31 yd FG but won in OT. UH is 7-0 vs NMST with each decided by at least 12 pts (avg 42-22). LY UH scored TD's on 8 of 12 poss. RB Green set the school rec w/327 rush yds (17.2), amazingly doing it in less than 30 S's. McMackin was the DC/DB/LB cch at Idaho from 1976-'78. UH has gone 8-1 vs UI'S '77 but did lose their L/trip to the Kibbie Dome. UH never led as a point despite FD & yd edges. UH is 5-1 vs USU in WAC play (avg MOV is 27 ppg). LY the gm was tied 7-7 but from that point on UH scored 38 unanswered holding the Aggies to just 105 yds (deepest penetration was the H39f). Warriors are 4-1 vs the Wolf Pack S/'06 but last time here after leading 14-0 were outscored 31-7. UH is 7-3 vs FSS/'01. LY Hawai'i led just 14-0 at HT & 3 in's led to scoring TD's on 5 of 7 2H drives. Last met in '02 Hawaii Bowl (Hawaii lost 28-36). UH is 2-1 overall with all games on the Island. UH is just 4-18 vs BYU S/'78 incl a loss in the L/gm ('02). Warriors are 4-1 in ssn finales vs non-BCS trns S/'02.

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS

DE Matt Broha

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Ross Jenkins, who had 5 passes as a rFr, battled Auburn transfer Steven Ensminger (PS#50) and GTEch trans Taylor Bennett (PS#107). Bennett had 13 sts at GT in '07 and won the starting job but had a rough go (40%, 2-6). Jenkins started the final 8 (tm went 6-2) and threw for 1,155 (53%, 7-3). In '09 I called for them to significantly improve upon the combined 46%, 9-10 ratio of '08. RFr Colby Cameron won the #2 spot. Former HC Dooley called Jenkins (2095, 59%, 17-5) a game manager but he took a lot of criticism during the year. Cameron (PS#325) hit 54% for 142 yds in 5 gms. This unit improved to 58.9%. LY both ret'd but Ensminger was named the starter in Aug. Ensminger missed a week late in Aug and the team went through musical QB's. Jenkins started the opener but Cameron replaced him in the 2H and Jenkins DNP the following week. JC Tarik Hakmi split snaps with Cameron in Wk 2 and Cameron took all of the snaps vs Navy. Hakmi took almost all of the snaps vs SMiss but at Hawaii, with Hakmi hitting 4-11, Jenkins took over and guided the team on 5 solid drives (3 td's) and the job was his the rest of the year and LT's offense benefitted. Jenkins threw for 422 vs Idaho, the first LT QB to top 400 since '03. Jenkins threw for 1,760 (62.8%, 12-6) while Cameron in 3 sts threw for 461 (59.3%, 1-5) and Hakmi for 355 (59.3%, 2-4). Surprisingly Ensminger DNP. This year they lose Jenkins and Ensminger but added to the mix is Dykes' recruit Taylor Burch (PS#89), 2 JUCO's and Nick Isham (PS#96). Cameron was the clear #1 out of spring and Dykes said the offense is miles ahead of last year which means their stats should improve.

RUNNING BACKS - LT usually uncovers a solid RB each season. In '04 Ryan Moats broke the single-season school rushing record with 1,774 (6.2) and finished as the then-#2 all-time rusher (3,112). Daniel Porter became the 2nd player in LT history to have consec 1,000 yd seasons (Moats in '03 & '04) and left as the all-time leading rusher with 1,164 (5.2) in '08 and 1,132 (5.4) in '09. True frosh Tyrone Duplessis (PS#97) was #2 with 277 (4.0) and ST standout Myke Compton (PS#133) added 186 (3.9). Last year they had to replace Porter but I projected Tenn transfer Lennon Creer as the starter. Creer is a rare VHT for here (PS#6) and rushed for 602 (5.5) in 2 years at Tenn. Creer lived up to his advanced billing and had efforts like 179 vs Idaho and 252 vs SJST (five 100 yd gms). He finished with 1,181 (5.6) and tied for #3 in rec's (25). Ray Holley (PS#222JC) was #2 with 206 (4.2). This year they only lose FB Roosevelt Falls (3 yd) and Compton (6 st, 177, 3.7). Creer looks to be perhaps the WAC's best RB.

RECEIVERS - Heading into '10 Dykes thought the WR's were the deepest position on the team saying as many as 12 guys could contribute. Three WR's were then susp'd late Aug and 2 were dismissed. LSU transfer Tim Molton (PS#66) was reinstated but was inj and lost after 5 gms (83, 8.3). Tenn transfer Ahmad Paige (PS#9) was lost after 7 (217, 13.6) and the unit was depleted. Phillip Livas (led LT '07 w/504 18.0!) was the only one of the top 5 rec's that ret'd from '09. He was banged up in '09 having just 205 (10.2) and in the new offense finished #3 with 266 (12.1, #4 rush). Taulib Ikharo (PS#317JC) led with 530 (10.6) and soph Richie Casey (PS#184) was #2 with 432 (10.3). Lyle Fitte moved in from RB and had 219 (8.8). Adding depth are Chandler Spence (6'3" 240 Jr, PS#52) and Giles Menard (6'2" 240 Jr). This year they lose their oft-inj'd star in Livas (7 st) but are a much more exp'd group and add in PS#47JC Quinton Patton. If Paige and Molton live up to their advance billings, this could be a much improved group in the 2nd year of the offense.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 they had 91 career sts back (tied for #15 FBS) but in the final 3 games they had 3 frosh start in Jordan Mills (L/5), Kevin Saia and Stephen Warner. LT's O-line numbers slipped a bit to 184 ypg (4.4) with 27 sks (8.4%). LY they had 9 of the top 10 back and their 126 career sts were #3 in the FBS. They lost RT Cudahy Harmon after 8 sts and 3 yr starting senior C Lon Roberts (started 37 consec gm at C) lost his spot to soph Stephen Warner and were in the first year of Dykes' offense. The rushing ypg slipped to 171 (4.4) but they did trim the sks to 17 (4.0%). This year they lose 1st Tm WAC LT Rob McGill (11 st, 3Y st'r), RG Jared Miles (12 st, 4Y st'r), RT Harmon (3Y st'r) and Roberts. This group is less exp'd (46 car st) but is in the 2nd year of the new offense and add in VHT's PS#65, #69 and PS#71 JC's.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2006, LT had to replace five of their top 6 DL's and allowed a school record 2,930 rush yards (5.7 ypc!) while the D recorded an FBS low 9 sks. In '07 almost everyone returned and naturally they were much stronger allowing 137 ypg (3.9) with 22 sks. In '08 the unit had to replace 3 st'r's but I speculated they could improve due to some solid additions. LT did just that allowing 104 ypg (3.1) with 27 sacks. In '09 the unit figured to be one of the team's strengths with 3.5 st'r's back including '08's 1st Tm WAC DE D'Anthony Smith. Smith earned 1st Tm WAC again but surprisingly LT allowed 163 ypg rush (4.3) with 22 sks. LY they had to replace Smith (#3DC) and ret'd just 1.5 sts. My projected starting DT John White (PS#127JC) transferred. I summed up my forecast by saying that while the unit was less exp'd, they should only drop a few notches after '09's poor performance and they slipped only a little to 172 ypg (4.3) with 24 sks. This year they lose 3rd Tm WAC DT Mason Hitt (12 st, 44 tkl, 10.5 tfl), DL Randy Grigsby (10 st, 12 tkl), DT Ramone Randle (2 st, 16 tkl) and DE Jonathan Zeno (36 tkl, 6 tfl). While they lose 4 of the top 8 DL, they are a little more exp'd with 2 full-time starters back including 2nd Tm WAC DE Matt Broha (9 sk) and should be improved.

LINERBACKERS - LT had an inexperienced LB corps in '09 but LY ret'd 2 st'r's to the unit in Adrien Cole (#1 tkl'r, 93) and Jay Dudley (#3 tkl'r, 75). Surprisingly the more exp'd group all'd 4.9 ppg more (30.7). Last year LT listed a NB which was considered a glorified OLB, but this year they list a conventional 3 LB set. Cole started just 6 but was still the #2 tkl'r as this time Dudley led with 94. Solomon Randle in just 6 sts was #4, Dusty Rust (PS#87) was #7 and Ryan Williams was #10. All 5 return making this the best and most exp'd Bulldog LB corps in years.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Tech finished #89 in my PDR in '08 and in '09 had to replace 2 st'r's. Their top DB, 1st Tm WAC FS Antonio Baker, broke his leg after 9 sts in '09. LT took the RS off true frosh CJ Broades for just the final 4 (2 sts). I noted that despite being a little less exp'd than '08, they should improve and they did moving up to #57. LY they had to replace 2 st'r's again but Broades (35 tkl) quit after 4 sts. It was still surprising that LT dropped down to #95 (60.7%, 290 ypg, 27-12). This year they lose CB Josh Victorian (12 st, 36 tkl, 2 int, 14 pbu), CB Olajuwon Paige (10 st, #6 tkl'r, 1 int, 7 pbu) and NB Tank Calais (4 st, 41 tkl, 2 pbu). Tech does return their #2 and #5 tkl'r's while SS Chad Boyd also led with 4 int's. This unit is on par with '09 in terms of exp but should move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - LT was #102 in my ST rankings in '06 but moved up to #39 in '07 and #6 in '08. One of the keys was their outstanding RM Livas. Livas was banged up in '09 and the unit dropped to #75. Last year Livas was healthy and avg an outstanding 15.5 on PR's (24.6 KR). Livas tied an NCAA record with his 8th career combined KR/PR td and nearly had a 9th as he was pushed OOB after a 60 yd KR vs Nevada. P Cade Glasgow punted and they had a tm net of 32.9 in '09 and lost his job to Oregon St transfer Ryan Allen (PS#86) who avg'd just 40.8 but had a 37.0 net. Matt Nelson hit 12-16 FG's (L46) in '09 and improved to 14-18 (L47) in '10 and had 4 TB on 48 KO. I called for them to make a huge climb in my ST rankings in '10 and they did just that moving up to #30. This year they return both their K and P but with the loss of Livas, figure to drop a few spots.

COACHES - Derek Dooley left for Tenn after 3 years as HC (17-20). Sonny Dykes is in his second season and is the 2nd straight HC here that is the son of a coaching legend (Texas Tech's Spike Dykes). Dykes was the OC at Arizona from '07-09 and an asst at Texas Tech from '00-06 under Mike Leach making him a spread expert (co-OC L2Y). Dykes retained 4 coaches from Dooley's staff including DC Tommy Spangler who has been the DC here the last 4 years, improving the ypg allowed in each season prior to last year (see L7Y on right). The OC is Tony Franklin who was also the OC at Middle Tenn ('09), Auburn ('08) and Troy ('06-'07). He installed the spread offense here last season.

PHIL'S FORECAST

LT was just 3-10 in '06 and 5-7 in '07 but in '08 knocked off Miss St at home and rolled to an 8-5 record. They earned their first bowl bid since 2001 defeating NIU 17-10. Despite their 5-3 WAC record, LT was just +12.0 ypg in WAC play and benefitted from +9 in TO's. In '09 they had to play 7 road games with one of their HG's vs Boise. LT slumped to just 4-8 despite being +7 in TO's and having an offensive ypg of 12.8. LT did have 3 net close losses and despite their 3-5 WAC record, were +27.9 ypg (4th best). Derek Dooley left for the HC job at Tenn but new HC Sonny Dykes had a good crop of transfers coming in. Unfortunately, Dykes did not settle on a QB early which basically cost them a winning season. Playing musical QB's, LT opened up 1-4 with their only win vs FCS Grambling St. In their 4th loss they trailed Hawaii 24-0 when Jenkins came off the bench and ignited the offense. Jenkins would guide the team to home wins over Utah St and Idaho where they avg 555 ypg and gave a good effort at Boise St in a game closer than the 49-20 final. They led Fresno 14-0 and had a bowl within their reach but lost by 6. As expected, LT beat NMST and SJST on the road then got the fortune of playing Nevada the week after their upset of Boise and jumped out to an early lead. They ended up being outgained 519-292 with the Wolf Pack handing them their 7th loss and they missed out on a bowl. LT was -52.5 ypg in WAC play despite their 4-4 record and this year with the unbalanced conf schedule, have 4 WAC AG's with only 3 at home. They also have 3 non-conf road games incl 2 vs SEC teams. This is an improved team and could be heading towards a big year if they get good QB play. Check out page 19 to see if they made my Most Improved List.

LTH (92) LT lost 16-13 as they haven't won in Hattiesburg S'82. LY was the 1st meeting S'92. The Bulldogs are 1-13 in true road openers incl 7 consecutive losses by an avg score of 42-8 (all vs BCS tms). LT is 2-0 vs UCA. In the L'gm (07) LT won 28-7 but was outFD'd 28-13 & outgained 386-261 taking advantage of a +4 TD ratio. Bears went 7-4 LY (41-14 loss at Tulsa). LT is 19-4 in home openers. Louisiana Tech has won the two recent meetings ('94 & '95). In '95 LT had a 414-361 yd edge (266-74 on the ground) in the 19-7 win. Into 2011, LT is 8-2 in non-conf HG's since 2001. LT is 2-7 in Starkville but did win their L'trip in '96, 38-23. LT led 16-0 after a fake FG & 38-11 in the 4Q (+3 TO's). MSU tacked on 2 late garbage TD's but most of the crowd had left. The HT is 7-2 in this series (1st gm in '00). LY the Bulldogs trailed 24-0 late 2Q being outgained 273-14 (UH led by no less than DD's the rest of the way). LT gave up a ssn high 647 yds. Bulldogs are 4-2 but did lose their L'gm at the Kibbie Dome ('09). LT led by DD's on 3 different occasions incl the 4Q but all'd a 67/10pl GW TD drive w/ 52 left (LT missed a 56 yd FG as time exp). Mississippi: Into 2011, LT dropped 16 str away vs BCS teams by 33 ppg (L'win in '03 at Mich St). Nevada: LT's last win in Reno was in '03, since they have dropped 3 str trips by 24 ppg. LT is 5-1 vs USU S'05 but lost their L'trip to Logan. LT was down 23-7 into the 4Q (only score a 100-yd KR) but went on B2B TD drives. Down 2 LT was SOD at midfield w/ 1:26 left. HT is 7-3. LY LT jumped out to a 21-7 score 3 separate times JSU cut the lead to a TD but LT responded to each w/a scoring drive. JSU did get the ball w/ 27 left down 7 but was inf'd at the LT48. The L'GY have been decided by a tll of 11 pts. LTH the gm was tied 3 times. LT led 28-24 into the 4Q but up by just 1 punted w/ 2:21 left & FSU went 68/16pl nailing a GW 35 yd FG as time expired. 4th gm in the modern era. LT is 0-3 (only W over Ole Miss was in 1946 as every gm has been in Oxford). LTH LT led 7-0 but all'd 23 unanswered being outgained 511-256. Into 2011, LT is 16-24 in WAC AG's (2-6 L'Y). LT has won 4 str in this series the last 2 by 30 ppg. LY LT led 24-10 at HT w/a slight 236-225 yd edge. NMSU did cut the deficit to 7 mid-4Q but LT got B2B TD drives to seal it (the latter after a fum KR).

IDAHO VANDALS

DT Michael Cosgrove

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Idaho has had some outstanding QB's with Scott Linehan, John Friesz, Doug Nussmeier, Ken Hobart, Ryan Fien and John Welsh with the last 5 all producing 3,000+ yard seasons. In 2007, Nathan Enderle threw for 1,787 but completed just 44% (10-18 ratio). Enderle made significant improvements in '08 (2077, 54%, 20-17). In '09 he improved again to 2,906 (62%, 22-9). He missed 2 and Brian Reader threw for 801 (58%, 6-6). LY Enderle was rated one of the top 5 senior QB's for the NFL draft heading into the season. While his comp # (56.7) and ratio (22-16) both dropped, he became the first Vandal QB in 10 years to top 3,000 with 3,314. Reader played in 10 (568, 59%, 5-1). This year they lose their #3 career passer (just 740 away from #1, #5DC CHI) but Reader could actually improve upon Enderle's below average pass eff rating (123.4, #74 FBS).

RUNNING BACKS - Despite the top two RB's returning in '07, Deonte Jackson took command and rushed for 1,175 (4.9). In '08, HC Robb Akey lightened Jackson's workload (240 to 161 att) and he had just 696 (4.3) while battling a back injury. Princeton McCarty was the fastest of the backs and rushed for 160 vs NMST finishing with 480 (6.2). True frosh Troy Vital (6'0" 220, PS#257) was the power back (210, 3.9). In '09 those 3 ret'd and they added DeMaundray Woolridge who had 312 (6.0) as a true at Wash St ('05). I called the unit one of the WAC's best. Power back Woolridge led with 979 (5.7), McCarty had 680 (5.9), Jackson added 387 (4.4) and Vital RS. LY they lost Woolridge but the other 3 ret'd. Jackson led but with just 442 (3.9). McCarty was #2 with 380 (4.3) and RM Kama Bailey was #3 with 290 (7.2) and the #5 rec (326, 10.5). Vital chipped in with 163 (3.8). This year they lose Jackson and not listed below are Calvin Thompson (6'2" 220 rFr, PS#263) and Bryce Davis (5'9" 215 Jr). They add in DL Henry Asuega (279 lbs) at FB and the BIG news is that VHT Ryan Bass (PS#4), who is a powerful 207 lbs, transfers in from Ariz St making this a deep backfield and perhaps one of the WAC's best!

RECEIVERS - Eight different receivers started in '09 as Max Komar led with 1,052 (16.7). TE Daniel Hardy was #2 with 691 (17.7), 6'3" Maurice Shaw had 666 (20.8), 6'2" Preston Davis (PS#116) added 460 (13.9) and 6'6" Eric Greenwood (PS#196) had 401 (12.5). LY they had to replace Komar but had 5 of the top 6 back. After 8 gms, Hardy was #1 with 545 (17.0) and was one of the 8 semi-finalists for the John Mackey Award but unfortunately was injured (OFY). Idaho avg 30 ppg with him and just 21 ppg without. Greenwood ended up leading with 741 (16.1), Justin Veltung (PS#293) was #3 with 497 despite being #6 in rec's as he had a team high 19.9 ypc. Shaw had 410 (12.8) and 6'4" newcomer Armauni Johnson, who is probably the team's fastest player, was #6 with 319 (15.2). Davis caught 31 passes (8.6) despite a torn ACL in the spring. This year they lose 2nd Tm WAC Greenwood (13 st), 2nd Tm WAC Hardy (8 st, #7DC TB), Shaw (8 st), and John Roberson (2 st, 12 rec). Last year's rec's were not as productive as their '09 version but with the loss of 3 of the top 4, I'll call this unit down a notch despite the fact that I like the Davis/Johnson combo at WR.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 Idaho had an exp'd O-line (110 car st, 5th best FBS) but surprisingly their numbers dropped to 133 ypg rush (3.8) with 36 sks. In '09 they had to replace 3 st's and ret'd just 54 career sts but I mentioned they could improve upon '08's underachieving numbers. They did just that improving to 164 ypg rush, their best since 1998 (4.7) and just 25 sks. The unit was led by LG Mike Lupati who was a 1st Tm AA. LY they had to replace 4 st's incl lupati who was a #1DC (SF). As you would expect, the inexp'd unit (19 car st) slipped to just 88 ypg rush (3.1) while allowing 45 sks. This year they lose C Clell Hasenbank (13 st) and RG Tevita Halaholo (10 st). They have 8 of the top 10 back (61 career sts) and should put up significantly improved numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Vandals had an exp'd def front in '08 but surprisingly allowed 210 ypg rush while their 5.6 ypc was by far their worst in IA ball (S/97). In '09 they had to replace 2 st's but I said they could only improve on their poor '08 numbers. The Vandals trimmed it to 155 ypg rush (4.7). LY they had 7 of the top 8 back incl all 4 st's. A focus in Aug was generating a better pass rush (only 15 sk '09) and they improved to 31 sks. DE Andre Ferguson (13 st '09) lost his job to Benson Mayowa and it was surprising that they slipped to 189 ypg (5.0). This year they lose 2nd Tm WAC DE Aaron Lavarias (13 st, #7 tkLr, 10 sk, 7 tfl), NT Jonah Sataraka (12 st, 31 tkL, 4 tfl) and Fonomanu Sekona (19 tkL, 1.5 tfl). TY they only have 5 of the top 8 back and lose their top guy. They do return 3 who have been full-time st's while adding two JUCO's and a 306 lb true frosh who was IFS and should actually be stronger vs the run.

LINEBACKERS - The Vandals had inexp'd units in both '08 and '09 with zero st's back in '08 and 12 comb'd sts back in '09. LY the unit ret'd intact including 2nd Tm WAC JoJo Dickson and the top four were #2, #3, #7 and #8 tkL's in '09. They also added PS#143JC Homer Mauga who took over a starting spot. Dickson broke his leg vs NMST as did backup John McKinley. TreShawn Robinson (one of strongest on tm) replaced them. The Vandals improved to allowing 28.3 ppg. This year they lose Dickson (7 st, 34 tkL) and Paul Senescall (8 tkL '10, 11 sts '09). Dickson's injury gave them a jump start on '11 as basically all 3 st's will return and they add a PS#170JC Sua Tuala and I look for continued improvement from the Vandal LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Idaho finished #115 in my PDR in '08. In '09, despite the presence of def leader Shiloh Keo and making a bowl, they finished #119 (66%, 34-7). LY they ret'd 6 of the top 8 but did lose CB Isaac Butts after 5 sts. Even though the Vandals had a losing season, they improved to #72 in my PDR. This year they lose 2nd Tm WAC SS Keo (#5 tkLr, 3 int, 5 pbu, #5DC HOU), CB Butts (5 st, 18 tkL) and Brandon Artz (7 tkL). Six return who started in '10 and despite the loss of their star, the Vandals are even more experienced.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Idaho finished #40 in my ST rankings in '07 but slipped a little to #73 in '08 (RM Shiloh Keo missed most of yr). In '09 frosh Trey Farquhar (PS#74) hit 13-19 (L54) and rFr P Bobby Cowan (PS#86) had a net of 34.0 and they finished #99. LY all of the key players ret'd and they improved to #45. Kama Bailey became the school's career KR leader but had just 13 returns. Farquhar hit 18-25 FG's (L50) with 2 misses from 50+ and had an outstanding 21 TB on 67 KO. Cowan had a sensational net of 39.2. This year they lose Keo but should be able to improve once again in my ST rankings.

COACHES - Robb Akey, who was the DL coach at Wash St (99-'02) and the DC there from '03-'06, became the 3rd HC here in 3 seasons. In his 3rd season, Akey took his team from 2-10 to 8-5 with a bowl win (1st bowl S/98)! In '07 Akey brought in OC Steve Axman (QB cch Montana '06) who was Akey's boss at N Arizona from '96-'98. Axman's offenses at N Ariz ('90-'97) finished near the top of the IAA each year and Akey thinks his team has an advantage of playing in a dome. Axman also had stops at UCLA, Wash, Minn, MD, Stanford, Ariz and Illinois. DC Mark Criner who begins his 5th season in that role was previously the LB/ST coach at Minny ('06) and DC at MT ('05), Cincy ('03) and Portland St ('00-'01).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Idaho had just 1 losing year from 1982-'99 but then suffered 9 straight losing seasons heading into '09. Idaho plays its home games in the Kibbie Dome (117-64-1 there since 1975). Idaho has been in 3 different conferences since they last had a winning conf record which came in 2000 (Big West). They were in the Sun Belt from '01-'04 and have been WAC members since '05. Prior to '09 they were 6-26 in WAC play. Coaches are usually poised for success in their 3rd year and Robb Akey had a team in his 2nd year that was -14 in TO's and had an 11.0 def ypg. They also had a veteran QB, a 1,000 yd rusher and some solid skill players. Idaho caught some breaks in '09 and went from 2-10 up to 8-5, a remarkable turnaround and their first winning season since 1999. LY I pointed out that they had benefitted from 4 net close wins (pg 299) and only had 4 sts lost to injury in '09. They did have 14 ret st's and had the edge of extra bowl practices but none of my 9 sets of power ratings called for them to have a winning year. Idaho even had a stretch where they played 5 games in 5 different time zones. After beating N Dakota 45-0, they only lost to #6 Nebraska by 21 with 2 of the Huskers' td's being IFS's. They waxed UNLV at home 30-7 and led Colo St 13-0 and 34-33 but CSU got a 35 yd FG on the last play. They beat WM 33-13 on the road to move to 3-2 but gave up 683 yards at LT in a 13 pt loss. After dominating NMST, they faced the 3 best teams in the WAC in consec weeks and were pummeled by a combined score of 160-41. Despite being a dome team they handled rainy and cold conditions better than Utah St and won 28-6. In a game that could have gotten them to a bowl, FSU got a td with :14 left and Idaho lost by 3. UI did not have a lead until the 4Q vs SJST and won in OT. UI was -116.0 ypg in WAC play (+8.0) but is 8-4 in the Kibbie Dome the last 2 years. While they lose their QB, top RB and 3 of the top 4 rec's, it would not surprise me if the solid replacements did not put up better stats this year. HC Akey is teaching them how to take care of business as they faced 8 teams LY that did not go to bowls and won 6 by an avg score of 33-11 and the 2 losses were both on the road by an avg score of 42-35. Idaho gets 4 HG's in WAC play and their 75.8% letterman returning is the highest in the conference. They have 8 st's back on a veteran defense and have my #2 rated ST's. Idaho fans were not thrilled LY when I called for an 8-5 team with 14 ret st's to finish with a losing record. This year my main set of power ratings calls for 7 wins and if they take care of business in the Kibbie Dome, they are a dark horse WAC Title contender.

One prior gm ('09 bowl). UI all'd a 51 yd TD pass w/32 left but from their 34 got a 50 yd strike & 2 plays later a 16 yd TD pass w/04. Idaho went for 2 & the miracle finish was complete!
UI is 2-0 vs ND as both wins came by an identical 45-0 score. LY's shutout was the 1st for UI S'97 although ND ran 41% (28) of its plays in UI territory (5 TO's). Fighting Sioux went 6-5 LY incl a 23-17 loss at NIU.
First meeting. Vandals are 1-10 since 2000 in road openers (avg loss by 29 ppg). Could apply, Idaho is 0-17 vs ranked opp's. The Vandals are 0-5 vs current B12 members w/ a avg score of 33-5.
Last win vs FSU was in 1967. LY UI was officially eliminated from a bowl w/ the loss. UI trailed 13-0 but led 20-16 w/2:01 left. They all'd a 60/9pl drive (FS conv a 4&1 from own 49) and a GW 1 yd TD run.
First meeting. Into 2011, UI has dropped 21 str road gms vs BCS tms (L/win in '00 at WSU when Akey was a DL ocl for the Cougars). This will mark just the 1st ACC tm UI will face.
The HT has won 3 str after dropping the 1st 3. LY Idaho had a 14-10 lead but all'd a 75/8pl TD drive right before HT which sparked 21 unanswered. UI never got within DD's the rest of the game.
UI is 13-4 vs NMSU (3 of 4 losses in Las Cruces). These schools have been conf opp's in the BWC, SBC & now WAC. LTH UI led 21-0 at HT w/ a 106 yd edge & coasted in the 2H (just 4 poss w/79 yds).
Utah St: LY's game was played in a rain, sleet snow mix with gusting winds. Idaho led 14-6 at HT and shutout the Aggies in the 2H holding them to just 4 FD and 120 yds.
The home team is 8-3 and has won 3 straight. LY Idaho led 3-0 but all'd 45 unanswered on 4 TO's. LTH Idaho put the game away with 3 2H TD drives (all 10+pl & 60+ yds).
Vandals last won 3 str in series from 1963-'65. LTH UI trailed 14-12 at HT, then led 22-14 into the 4Q but down 3 needed a 67/9pl TD drive w/1:10 (came after SJSU was SOD at UI33).
Only 3 gms in series (IU 2-1) were from '53-'55. Vandals are 3-13 S'O1 in Nov road gms. BYU is an independent this ssn after being a MWC member from '99-'10 (former WAC tm).
LY's win over Utah St snapped a 3 game series losing streak. LTH UI trailed 31-7 in the 2Q.
Nevada: UI has lost its L/3 Reno trips by 30 ppg. L2Y UI has all'd ssn highs in yds to UN (avg 753 ypg).
LTH UI trailed 21-0. Into 2011, the Vandals are 6-18 in WAC AG's (avg W by 12 ppg & L by 27 ppg).

SAN JOSE ST SPARTANS

WR Noel Grigsby

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '09 Jordan La Secla (PS#235) battled Cal transfer Kyle Reed (PS#18) for the job. Reed started the first and last 2 while La Secla started 8 throwing for 1,926 (60%, 10-11). LY they had to replace Reed and La Secla battled Matt Faulkner for the #1 spot. La Secla was named the starter but HC Mike MacIntyre said Faulkner would play early. La Secla took charge (12 sts) and threw for 2,860 (59.1%, 16-16) with his best game being 496 yds vs LT. Faulkner played in 10 and threw for 206 (53.8%, 1-1) and rFr Damsen Stewart (PS#328) played in 2 hitting 1-2 passes. This year they lose La Secla and while Faulkner is the frontrunner, there is a good possibility that MacIntyre recruits Blake Jurich (6'4" 225) or true frosh Joe Gray (PS#116) could win the starting spot. Despite being less exp'd this unit could come close to last year's numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2009 the Spartans signed PS#8JC Lamon Muldrow. It surprised me that Muldrow saw little action in the first 3 but he then rushed for 184 (9.2) in his first start vs Cal Poly. He had 8 sts but led with just 592 (4.5). Brandon Rutley (PS#182), who is a speed back that had 356 (4.5) with 4 st as a true in '08, was banged up and had just 59 (2.0). Muldrow started slow in '10 and then tore his ACL after 7 games and finished #2 with 324 (4.6). Rutley led but with just 461 (3.6). David Freeman (PS#129), who is the fastest of the RB's, added 163 (4.2). This year they lose Muldrow (3 st) and Dominique Hunsucker (1 st, 60 yds, 5.5). Adding depth are Jason Simpson (6'0" 212 So), Marcos Garces (5'10" 173 Sr), Osa Aigbuza (5'11" 207 Jr) and Josh Brown (5'8" 190 Sr). I look for improved production from the Spartan RB corps.

RECEIVERS - Last year the Spartans had to replace their #1 rec from '09 (777, 12.9) and then #2 WR Marquis Avery (465, 11.1 in '09) was ruled ineligible. The leading returnees were Jalal Beauchman who had 378 (10.8) and Josh Harrison who had 296 (8.5). TE Ryan Otten, who had 7 sts as a rFr (10 rec), has drawn comparisons to former DAL star TE Doug Cosbie. Beauchman had a big game vs LT with 178 yds and that helped him lead with 835 (13.9). True frosh walk-on Chandler Jones was #3 with 474 (8.8) and his performance earned him a scholarship. Noel Grigsby had the 3rd most rec yards among frosh in the FBS with 822 (14.7) while Jones ranked 8th. Otten missed 7 with injury and finished #6 (201, 11.8). True frosh Kyle Nunn (PS#260) was #5 with 250 (10.4). Harrison was only #4 with 260 (13.7). Not in the PSL are TE's Keenan Brown (6'5" 245 Jr) and Sam Tomlitz (6'3" 247 rFr). This year they lose their top guy Beauchman (13 st) but have everyone else back and this unit is much more exp'd than last year's freshmen laden group.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Spartans' O-line struggled in each of former HC Dick Tomey's final 3 yrs ('07-'09). With 93 career sts back in '09, the unit surprisingly only opened holes for 77 ypg (2.6) while allowing 34 sks (8.4%). LY they had to replace 2 st's but had 95 career sts back. LT Fred Koloto (12 st '09) hurt his knee and only had 1 start and starting C Robbie Reed was lost after 2 weeks. The numbers were similar with just 79 ypg rush (2.9) and 32 sks (7.3%). This year they lose LG Isaac Leatiota (12 st, 4Y str), C/RG Ailao Eliapo (10 st, 2.5Y str) and Norman Romero (1 gm). With the return of Reed and Koloto, they have 5 back who have been full-time starters and 7 that made at least 5 sts in a season but I'm not exactly going out on a limb calling for their best rush numbers in 5 years.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Six times in the 10 yrs prior to Tomey's arrival ('05), SJSt allowed 5.0 ypc rushing or more. In Tomey's first 4 seasons they were much tougher allowing 3.5, 4.1, 4.5 and 4.0 ypc. They had an injury-plagued unit in '09 with no DL starting more than 8 but it was still surprising that they allowed 259 ypg and 6.1 ypc (worst ypc in over 20 yrs). LY they had to replace 2 st's incl a 2nd Tm WAC DE. They then lost proj'd starting DE Mohamed Marah after 2 sts. Despite the inexp'd line I said they can only improve and that they did yielding 203 ypg (5.1) with 24 sks. This year they return 9 with starting exp incl 5 who have started 9+ comb gms. Adding depth are Sean Bacon (6'3" 220 rFr, PS#227), Ja'Van Hall (6'2" 258 rFr) and Tracy Pugh (6'4" 255 Jr). This should be one of the most improved D-lines in the country.

LINEBACKERS - After having an inexp'd LB corps in '08 that allowed 21.6 ppg, it surprised me that in '09 with all 3 st's back and the unit missing 0 sts that the Spartans slipped to 34.5. MacIntyre uses a TCU philosophy on D (meaning RB & LB swap). Last year they had to replace their #4 and #5 tk's then lost their #3 tk'l Pompey Festejo prior to the season. They moved S Tiuke Tuipulotu (9 st '09, #6 tk'l) to LB. Ryno Gonzalez (7 car st) was lost after 3 games and only 1 LB started all 13. The Spartans allowed 34.7 ppg. This year they lose Braden Storaasli (10 tk) but return their #1 tk'l Keith Smith (Frosh AA) who had 89 the last 7 games, #2 Vince Buhagiar, #5 Tuipulotu and also get back Festejo (83 tk) '09. This should be a vastly improved LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Tomey always fielded a top-notch secondary and finished #52 in the PDR in '06, #39 in '07 and then with their super CB duo of Christopher Owens and Coye Francies the unit finished #6 in '08. In '09 they had to replace 3 st's (#3 and #6 DC's) and the one returning starter lost his job after 5 sts. As you would expect, they dropped to #78. At the end of the year the st's were 3 soph and a frosh. Last year it appeared the unit ret'd intact but their star player Duke Ihenacho (#2 tk'l '09) was lost after 2 sts and S Tanner Burns (#1 tk'l) transferred to Kansas St over the summer. The Spartans finished #77 (62.3%, 16-10). Not listed below are Cullen Newsome (5'10" 203 Jr, PS#673JC), Terrance Foster (6'1" 190 Jr) and Deven Hall (6'1" 190 rFr). This year the unit returns intact, gets the return of Ihenacho and should make significant strides in the PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - San Jose St has been short on depth the last 2 years and vs Idaho had just 47 scholarship players make the trip. That generally has a big impact on the ST unit and the Spartans finished just #112 in my ST rankings in '09 but actually improved to #77 last year despite having to replace their top P and PR. The return game was average again but rFr Harrison Waid (PS#81) hit 14-22 FG (L46) with 1 miss from 52, had 8 TB on 45 KO and avg'd a solid 43.8 on punts (tm net 35.6). JUCO Jens Alvernik, who has a big leg and grew up in Sweden, had 11 punts (35.1) and 1 KO. This year the unit returns intact and should have their best finish in my ST rankings since 2006 (#46).

COACHES - Dick Tomey retired with a 183-145-7 career record (25-35 in 5 yrs here). He did guide SJSt to its first bowl in 16 yrs in '06. Mike MacIntyre took over last year after spending the previous 2 yrs as the DC of Duke where he was named AFCA FBS Asst of the Year in '09. MacIntyre spent 5 yrs coaching DB's in the NFL for NYJ ('07) and Dallas ('03-'06). He also spent 4 yrs at Ole Miss ('99-'02) under David Cutcliffe coaching WR's ('01-'02) and DB's ('99-'00) there. The new OC is John DeFilippo who was the Spartans' QB cch in '10. He also coached QB's in the NFL for the NYJ ('09) and OAK ('07-'08). Kent Baer was the LB cch here for 2Y before becoming the DC LY. Baer has a wealth of DC exp incl Wash ('05-'07), ND ('02-'04), Stanford ('95-'01), ASU ('92-'94), Cal ('87-'91), Idaho ('86) and Utah St ('83-'85).

PHIL'S FORECAST

I thought Dick Tomey did a great job in his 5 years here from 2005-09. There were academic shortcomings prior to his arrival so the team was docked dozens of scholarships but he steadily increased the APR score and they no longer have scholarship restrictions. SJSt also played many "body bag" games (guaranteed paycheck for non-conf gms). He got them to a 9-4 record and a New Mexico Bowl victory in '06 and that was their first bowl since 1990. Last year Mike MacIntyre had to replace 27 lettermen and had many of the returnees switching positions. SJSt began last season with 3 physical road games in the first month (Ala, Wisc, Utah) and even started 6 true freshmen in Madison. By October, MacIntyre said he lost 7 senior starters who were out for the year and they faced ranked teams in 5 of the first 7 including WAC powers Nevada and Boise St. By the end of the season they had just 4 scholarship seniors available to play vs Idaho and only 47 schlp players made the trip. SJSt only beat Southern Utah, an FCS team, 16-11 and were actually outgained by 84 yds in that gm and then lost to FCS UC Davis. NMST got a td on the last play to beat them, Utah St got a td with :34 left and Idaho blocked a FG at the end of regulation and SJSt lost in OT. I give MacIntyre a lot of credit in the way the Spartans finished the season. Despite going 0-6 they had losses by only 2, 4, 7 and 3 pts and outgained their final 2 opponents (LT and Idaho). This year the Spartans have 4 HG's in the WAC and last year had 59 sts lost to injury. They also had 4 net close losses and their offensive ypp was 19.6. LY they barely came up with 80 players for the spring but this year have 101 (22 were 6'4" or taller). They have the full compliment of 85 scholarship players for the first time in schl history! They have 18 ret st's and while it may have seemed repetitive as I said each defensive position would improve they are the only FBS team to return all 11 st's on defense. They do have just 5 HG's and a tough non-conf slate but they will be a much improved team. The young team had a tough time preparing for games LY and struggled early as the offense was held to 13 or fewer 1H pts in 12 of their 13 games and was held to 3 pts or less in 6 of their first 9 games. Experience will certainly improve that this season. MacIntyre is patterning his defense after TCU and could have the WAC's best D! Despite the fact that this team could be a dog in as many as TEN games, 4 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for a 5 win season so they should win more games this year than the last 2 years combined.

SJS is 1-7 S'O1 vs SU (L/gm in '09). The win was by 1 pt in '06 & the avg loss has been by 29 ppg. The Spartans have dropped 8 str road openers by an avg score 46-9 (no TD's in 5 gms).

First meeting. Into 2011, SJS is 9-22 vs in-state programs S'O0 (8-9 S'O6). Into 2011, the Spartans have dropped 16 straight AG's vs BCS conf tms by an avg of 30 ppg.

HT is 4-1 LSY (10-5 S'92). For 3 str yrs SJS has yielded a ssn high in yds vs UN (525, 665 & 640). LY SJS trailed 14-10 after 1Q but had 3 costly TO's after (fum, int at N3 & int in EZ).

Spartans had a 6 gm series win streak snapped LY. SJS trailed 17-3 at HT. SJS took a 27-23 lead w/3:47 left only to allow a 79/8pl drive and GW 8 yd TD pass on 48gl on the final play.

SJS's last & only win in this series was in 1961 (1st meeting, 1-3 overall). The last gm was in '97 as SJS had 25-17 FD & 378-361 yd edges but lost 55-20 thanks to 7 TO's (SJS trailed 28-14 early 4Q).

The Spartans last win in Provo was in 1961 (1-5 since, 9-5 overall). This will be just the 2nd meeting S'69 (L/gm in '98). Into 2011, SJS has dropped 14 str road gms (L/win at the Kibbie Dome in '08).

Spartans are 1-9 S'O1 vs the Warriors. LY SJS trailed 17-0 early 2Q being outgained 146-20 as they allowed 8 sks. From '05-'07 SJS was 8-5 hosting WAC foes but the L3Y are just 2-10.

Navy: First meeting. The Spartans are actually 11-2 vs non-conf opp's at home since 2002. Bonus: The Spartans are 71-136-6 vs in-state current FBS opponents.

Spartans have dropped 4 str to the Bulldogs by 17 ppg. SJS hasn't won in Ruston S'94. LTH SJS led 14-7 early before LT's 31 2Q pts (171 yds). Into '11, SJS is 7-25 S'O3 in WAC AG's (9 str losses).

SJS is 6-3 S'78 but has lost B2B gms. LY SJS blew a 2H DD lead needing a 80/6pl TD drive w/4:35 left to tie it. They had a 26 yd FG bld'd as time exp eventually losing in OT after taking a 3 pt lead.

SJS is 11-3 S'86 vs USU but has lost B2B gms. LTH the gm time temp was 28° (snow flurries) & it marked the first time S'86 that SJS played in snow. Spartans only trailed 14-9 into the 4Q.

Just the 5th FBS non-conf opp to visit S'O6 (3-1, only loss to #17 Utah in '09 while beating SJS 2x's & SU).

SJS hasn't won in Fresno S'87 dropping 11 str trips by 22 ppg. LTH the Spartans led 14-7 into the 2Q with 123 yds of offense but in the 2Q all'd 24 unanswered points & gained just 51 yds.

UTAH ST AGGIES

RB Robert Turbin

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Diondre Borel, who played 6 games at WR & QB in '07, took over and started the last 9 in '08. He threw for 1,705 (56%, 11-10) and rushed for 632. In '09 Borel added 15 lbs of muscle and started all 12 and was #1 in the WAC in total offense (279 ypg) throwing for 2,885 (59%, 17-4) and rushing for 458 (2.6). He had a streak of 228 passes without an int. His mark of 3,343 yds of total offense set a school single season record (Anthony Calvillo, 3,260 in 1993). Last year Borel lost his top RB and WR and at times was plagued by poor O-line play. He threw for 2,108 (53.2%, 8-13) with just 298 rush (2.1). True frosh Jeremy Higgins got in 2 games (6 att) LY. Higgins was #3 after spring and transferred. Rfr Alex Hart (PS#117), JUCO Adam Kennedy and true frosh Chuckie Keeton (PS#123) will battle for the job. While Borel's stats were down last year, this unit is still less exp'd and less explosive.

RUNNING BACKS - Utah St had some excellent RB's from '99-'01 with Demario Brown breaking the Utah St single season rushing record (1,536) in '99. Emmett White led the NCAA in all-purp yds in 2000 (2,628) and twice topped 1,300 rushing ('00 & '01). The team had a 100 yard rusher in 51 of its previous 77 games heading into '02 but had just 9 in the next 7 yrs ('02-'08). In '07 Derrvin Speight led with 504 (3.9) and in '07 & '08 comb, the team had just one 100 yard effort. Robert Turbin was the top RB rusher in '08 with 485 (4.6) as Speight was in'd. The new coaching staff was very high on Turbin in '09, calling him a star in the making (NFL potential). They also added speedy and elusive JUCO Michael Smith (4.35 spd) who rushed for 1,002 at JC in '08. Turbin became the first Aggie 1,000 yd rusher S/O'01 with 1,296 (6.3) and was also the #2 rec'r (418, 13.9) with 18 total td's. He and Smith became the first tandem to rush for 100+ in a gm here since '89 (Turbin also 100 rec yds in that gm). Smith rushed for 290 (6.3) and Speight had 210 (5.0). LY Turbin tore his ACL in Feb and RS. Smith had the #1 spot starting the first 2 but played in just 3 (153, 6.4) after a foot injury and also RS. Speight had just 434 in the first 8 but 345 over the last 4 and led with 779 (4.1). Soph Kerwynn Williams was a dangerous RM and was #2 with 451 (5.6). Soph Joey DeMartino had 157 (5.4) and true frosh Robert Marshall (6'1" 231, PS#284) added 146. Not in the PSL are DeMartino (5'11" 201 Jr, 1 st), Paul Clark (5'8" 189 rFr) and Josh Flores (5'5" 165 Sr, 15 yds LY). Usually when a tm loses its leading rusher they are weaker, but in this case, with the return of Turbin and Smith the Aggies appear to be stronger.

RECEIVERS - In '08 their leading rec had just 455 (12.3) and 5'9" Stanley Morrison was #3 as a rFr (291, 11.2). In '09 they had to replace their #1 guy but Morrison led with 616 (18.7), was the #5 rusher and hit 4-6 passes. Air Force transfer Eric Moats was the #2 WR (400, 14.8). LY they had to replace their #3, #4 and #5 rec's (comb 25 sts). HC Gary Andersen expected Matt Austin, who had 1,134 (16.0) and 13 td's at JC in '08, to have an impact. The unit appeared in great shape but Morrison broke his foot while Austin inj'd his knee vs Okla (OFY) and they both RS. Dontel Watkins (PS#205JC) led with 492 (11.7), Xavier Martin (PS#208JC) was #2 with 253 (21.1), TE Kellen Bartlett (PS#78) was #3 with 222 (14.8) and Moats was #4 with 218 (10.9). Adding depth are Chase Christoffersen (5'8" 167 So), Lars Gunderson (5'10" 177 So), Cameron Webb (5'10" 194 Jr), Josh Johansen (6'1" 192 Sr) and TE's DJ Tialavea (6'4" 253 So, PS#260, 1 st DT LY), Jordan Mattinson (6'5" 259 Fr, PS#87) and Matt Cude (6'4" 250 rFr). This is the most exp'd the unit has been in several years and with the return of Morrison and Austin, they get a significant upgrade here feeling comfortable enough to move LY's #1 Watkins to CB.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In former HC Brent Guy's first year (2005), he said they would have liked to use zone blocking schemes, but since the OL was so light they were unable to. They had to use DL's and TE's to plug holes. His line showed improvement in each of his four years ('05-'08). In '09 under new HC Gary Andersen, despite replacing 2 st's, they opened holes for 193 ypg rush (4.7) with 32 sks (8.5%). Andersen did note that the big plays by Borel and Turbin accounted for the increased production, and not so much the offensive front opening holes for them. LY they only had to replace 1 st'r (91 car sts back) but Robert Hill (11 st '09) and Tariq Polley (8 st '09) both lost their spots so it was like having 3 new starters. The Aggies slipped to 169 ypg rush (3.8) with 25 sks (7.7%). This year they lose LT Spencer Johnson (8 st, 4Y st'r), RT Ty Rogers (3 st) and Polley (3 gm). This is a veteran unit with 90 car sts and clearly Andersen's top O-line in his 3 yrs here.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Utah St has produced some great DL's incl Rulon Jones and the late, great Merlin Olsen. In '05, DE John Chick led the WAC in sacks (12.5) and the Aggies allowed just 144 ypg rush (3.9), their best since 1998 (123). In Guy's final season ('08) they had to replace 2 st's but allowed just 162 ypg rush (4.5). In '09 Andersen said the lack of depth on the D-line hurt them late in games. The Aggies slipped to 206 ypg (5.3) with just 17 sks. LY they only lost 4 sts but moved starting DE Junior Keiaho to LB. I expected improved numbers and they allowed 179 ypg (4.9) with just 13 sks only showing mild improvement. This year they lose DT Sean Enesi (10 st, 26 tkl), DT Daniel Gurrola (5 st, 14 tkl, 2.5 tfl), DT Casey Davis (4 st, 13 tkl), DE Devin Johnson (9 tkl, 1 tfl), DT Kamalani Vainikolo (9 tkl, 1 tfl), DE Maxim Dinka-Mba (13 tkl) and DE Nathan Royster (11 tkl, 1.5 tfl). While 2 st's return, they lose 6 of the top 8 and switch to a 3-4. They add 3 JC's plus transfers from SMU and Idaho St and could improve upon LY's avg sts.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Aggies had to replace three LB's (comb 14 st, 65 tkl). They did return their #1 tackler in 1st Tm WAC Bobby Wagner and #4 tkl'r Kyle Gallagher. In an effort to add size they moved DE Keiaho to LB and he started 5 before being dismissed after 8. Utah St still allowed 33.8 ppg. This year they lose Keiaho (20 tkl, 1 sk) and Joey Schrader (23 tkl) but have 5 (all w/st exp) of the top 6 back including Wagner who was 1st Tm WAC again (#1 tkl'r, 133) and 2nd Tm WAC Gallagher (#2 tkl'r, 91). They move to a 3-4 and one of the two open spots will be filled by PS#29JC Bojay Filimoeatu giving them 3 possible All-WAC candidates and potentially one of the conference's best LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Aggies finished #48 in my PDR in '03 but were just #100, #103, #119, #101 and #91 the next 5 yrs. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's and 3 bkps (comb 7 sts) but moved up to #64. LY Utah St had to replace 2 st's. They moved RB Curtis Marsh to CB (4 st) and added PS#179JC Alfred Bowden who started 1 (29 tkl). Surprisingly the Aggies improved to #22 in my PDR (57.3%, 20-13) as they took on one of the toughest slates of opponent pass attacks. TY they lose CB Chris Randle (12 st, #5 tkl'r, 2 int, 8 pbu), 2nd Tm WAC Marsh (12 st, #6 tkl'r, 2 int, 13 pbu, #3DC PHI) and FS Rajric Coleman (11 st, #4 tkl'r, 3 int, 2 pbu). They do return 7 who started LY plus add WR Watkins (9 st) but go from 22 sts lost to 35 and won't match LY's finish in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Utah St finished #63 in my ST rankings in '09. LY K Peter Caldwell missed 2 gms and was not 100% in others hitting 10-15 (L50) and avg 41.7 on punts. Braeden Loveless hit 1-2 (L34) and avg 37.6 on 14 punts with 2 TB on 19 KO. True frosh Nick Diaz (PS#47) had 0 TB on 36 KO. In '09 Kerwynn Williams was the top frosh in the country for both total returns and total yds (1,131). LY Williams broke the NCAA record for KR yards in a season (1,444). I had him 1st Tm WAC but somehow the league did not even have him on the 2nd Tm! The PR's have been below avg and JUCO Reuben Thomas could fix that. They also signed P/Ty Bennett, who avg'd 43.7 at JC. Despite the loss of K/P Caldwell, the unit could improve on LY's #59 finish.

COACHES - Gary Andersen was the HC at S Utah in '03 and the asst HC/DC at Utah for 5 yrs prior to coming here. Andersen, who is the 7th HC here in 20 yrs, has produced 8 wins in 2 yrs which is actually the best here since '01-'02. OC Dave Baldwin was NM's OC from '07-'08 as well as the OC at Mich St from '03-'06. He was also the HC at SJSU from '97-'00 compiling an 18-27 record. Bill Busch was the DC in '09-'10 and while still on the staff, Andersen takes over as his own DC this season.

PHIL'S FORECAST

While Brent Guy was just 9-38 in his 4 yrs, he took over a team very low on scholarship players and built it the right way, recruiting frosh and RS most of them. In his final year they were finally up to 85 scholarship players and he left the team in much better shape than how he inherited it (56 players in first spring, 97 in '08). Gary Andersen inherited 15 ret st's in '09 and had exciting QB Borel, RB Turbin and WR Morrison. The Aggies drew Utah, Texas A&M and BYU on the non-conf slate but their 4-8 record was their most wins since '02 and they matched '08's WAC record of 3-5. LY the Aggies appeared to have 16 ret st's but Morrison and Turbin both RS. Utah St was picked 4th in the WAC coaches preseason poll and had never been picked higher than 5th before. In the opener, the Aggies trailed Okla 21-0 but Borel at times escaped pressure and hit some big 3rd down passes and they only lost by 7. After dispatching Idaho St they were tied with Fresno 24-24 4Q in one of the biggest HG's ever. Unfortunately they were outscored 17-0 in the 4Q then in a letdown spot, were throttled by SDSU, 41-7. They hosted BYU on a Friday night and won 31-16 as the fans stormed the field with the Aggies ending a 10 game losing streak to their rival. In a letdown spot they lost to LT by 18. At home it was cold and rainy for the UH game with players and coaches complaining about the conditions while warm-weather Hawaii adapted well and walloped them 45-7. They trailed Nevada 35-0 at half and did most of their damage vs the bkps "only" losing by 14. They got a late comeback to get past NMSI 27-22 then scored late to get past SJSU 38-34. A bowl was still possible when it was again cold and snowy vs a dome team (Idaho) and they lost by 22. They were then whacked 50-14 in Boise St's final WAC game. The Aggies dropped to 2-6 in WAC (-135.5 ypg, 3rd worst). This year they only have 3 WAC HG's. Utah St did have 36 sts lost to injury. They lose QB Borel but return Turbin and Morrison, and now in his 3rd year here, Andersen has his best team yet. My main set of power ratings calls for 5 wins which would be the most here since 2000 but most of the others call for 4 wins again.

First meeting, USU is 1-10 vs the SEC (only W in '70 vs UK). Aggies have dropped 13 str road openers by 19 ppg & 28 str vs ranked opp's by 28 ppg (L/win in '91 vs #25 Fresno St).

USU is 11-1 vs in-state WSU. L/gm was in '01. USU won 56-43. Wildcats went 6-5 LY (lost to BC & TT). WSU's HC is Ron McBride who was Utah's HC & Andersen served under him from '97-'02.

San Jose St: Aggies last 3 gm series win streak was from 1963-'66. Idaho: LTH USU led 31-7 mid-2Q but trailed 35-31. 4Q saw 3 lead changes incl USU having a 88/2pl TD & 1/1pl TD after a fumble.

Aggies have dropped 3 str vs the Rams. In last gm ('97) USU was down 28-24 & stopped CSU on 3D late 4Q but a celebration pen gave CSU a FD at the USU10 & 4 plays later iced it.

LY USU snapped a series high 10 gm losing streak. USU hasn't won in Provo S'78, 15 str losing trips. LTH USU was outgained 416-145 as the Aggies trailed 35-10 late 4Q before a garbage TD.

Aggies have dropped 4 str vs the Cowboys including the L/3 by 24 ppg. In '07 (L/gm) USU had a 18-14 lead w/3:15 3Q but from that point were outgained 164-80 being outscored 18-0.

USU has not won in Fresno S'80 (0-9-1 since avg loss by 23 ppg). LTH USU led 27-24 mid-4Q but allowed a 78/3pl TD drive & couldn't stop FSU from running out the final 3:13.

HT has won 3 str. LY USU trailed 14-0 as their off was mostly handcuffed, in fact they ran 19 plays in LT territory but 9 came on the 1st drive. Into '11, USU is 8-16 in WAC HG's but 6 wins have come in the L3Y.

Nevada: Last year the Aggies were dominated at HT 35-0 (outgained 359-104) but despite TD's on all 5 2H drives & a KR TD still never got any closer than 14 pts.

USU hasn't won on the island since 1966 dropping all 3 WAC visits by DD's. LTH USU led 7-0 but allowed 35 unanswered as the gm was out of reach by HT. Into '11, USU is just 5-19 in WAC AG's.

LY USU down 3 went 67/12pl for the GWTD w/34 left. SJSU got a FD at the USU22 but their EZ pass was int w/09.

Visitor is 4-1 S'06. USU's last gm at the Kibbie Dome was a shootout w/1,069 total yds & 101 pts.

Aggies have dropped all 6 WAC gms w/the Wolf Pack, avg score 40-24 getting outgained by 131 ypg.

USU is 28-7 in series but lost LTH USU all'd a 28yd GW GF as time exp despite being +8 in FD's & +199 in yds.

NEW MEXICO ST AGGIES

WR Taveon Rogers

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - NMST ran an option offense prior to former HC Hal Mumme's arrival in '05. In his final 3 yrs ('06-'08) with Chase Holbrook as the starter, NMST threw for 399 (69%), 332 (69%) and 301 ypg (67%). In HC DeWayne Walker's first year ('09) they converted back to the run and had to replace Holbrook. I called for JC trans Jeff Fleming to win the job as he was a mobile QB and fit Walker's system the best. Trevor Walls is a big QB (6'5" 221) with a strong arm (pocket passer). Those 2 battled all year but combined for a paltry 88 ypg passing (49%) with a 6-17 ratio. LY Fleming battled Matt Christian (PS#139JC). When the job was handed to Christian in August, Fleming transferred so the bkps were rfr Tanner Rust (PS#95) and true frosh Andrew Manley (PS#57) while Walls moved to TE. The 3 QB's had 0 career pass att's here. Christian started the first 4 but was injured and Rust started vs NM but hit just 5-10 for 6 yds with an int. The team had -13 yds in the 2H and brought in true frosh Manley as then OC Mike Dunbar opted to "put the puppy in." Manley guided the drive for the game winning FG but struggled in his start vs Fresno. The team lost yds on each of their first 3 poss and Christian came in to lead a 71 yard drive and retook the job. Christian started the next 3 but was inj'd again and Manley started the final 3. Christian threw for 1,372 (48.1%, 8-2, #4 rush), Manley had 604 (52.1%, 1-6) and Rust had 136 total yds. All 3 return and Manley is the QB of the future and had the edge out of spring. Whomever wins the job should guide the Aggies' to their best passing numbers in 3 years.

RUNNING BACKS - In Hal Mumme's pass-heavy offense, the RB's got very few rushing yds and in '08 Marquell Colston led with 384 (4.7) while Tony Glynn had 214 (3.2). You had to expect improved rushing numbers in '09. Colston and Glynn combined for 544 but throughout the year the only productive offensive player was Seth Smith. He did one of the better jobs of any RB in the country despite playing the 2H of the year with a slightly separated shoulder and defenses keying on him. Smith ran 246 times for 1,016 yds (4.1). Smith was not the perfect fit for Dunbar's new spread offense last year. They did add in 24 year old Kenny Turner who rushed for 1,513 (6.4) at JC in '09. Smith's numbers went down dramatically to just 385 (3.8). Turner rushed for 219 on 53 carries in a 3 gm stretch but was inj'd and missed 2. He led with 461 (4.3) and was the #5 rec (203, 8.1). When called upon, soph Robert Clay (PS#172) did well. He had 10 att's for 16 yds in '09 but vs NM had 44 yds and later with both Turner and Smith out vs LT, he rushed for 108 (4.9) and then led vs Nevada with 55 (4.2). This year they lose Smith and FB Brandon Perez (5 st, 10 yds). I look for improved numbers and Turner is a threat to top 1,000 yds.

RECEIVERS - In '09 with a run heavy offense and inexp'd QB's and rec's, Marcus Allen (PS#121JC) led with just 308 (11.8). The 5'9" Todd Lee was #2 with 280 (10.0). LY both ret'd as did TE Kyle Nelson (112, 9.3). Allen led again with 598 (14.2) while Nelson was #2 with 371 (9.0). Lee had the same 280 yds but improved his ypc to 11.7. After 7 gms, RM Taveon Rogers had just 2 rec's but Walker put an emphasis on getting him the ball and he finished #4 (278, 15.4) incl the game winning td on the final play vs San Jose St. This year they lose Allen (8 st), Nelson (11 st) and blocking TE Ronny Torres (2 st). Despite the loss of their top 2, this unit could put up improved numbers as they add in two more JUCO's incl Kemonte Bateman (6'1" 185 Jr) who was a PS#19 Ariz St signee in '08.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Naturally when you go from an option attack to a pass offense, the rushing numbers will greatly decrease and that was the case in Hal Mumme's four years here ('05-'08). In '06 they set a then school single season record for lowest ypg rush (76) and then avg'd just 55 ypg rush (2.1, 44 sks) two years later. They switched schemes in '09 and had to replace 3 st's. In more of a run based attack, they improved to 142 ypg (3.7) with just 23 sks (8.6%). The unit did maintain better health (4 OL started all 13). LY they had to replace 2 st's but added in a VHT RT in Andre McGaskey (PS#22). They lost starting RG Sioeli Fakalata (13 st '09) to a inj in the opener so basically had 2 st's back. NMST rushed for 129 ypg (3.4, 19 sk). This year they lose OG Robert Rodriguez (6 st), OT Dwayne Barton (1 st) and OG Matt Passwaters (1 st). They have 97 career st's ret, add a VHT JC, have 6 back who have been full-time st's and this is by far Walker's best O-line in his 3 yrs.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 the Aggies returned just 5 career st's to the unit. They were very inexp'd and learning a new system (3-3-5 to 4-3). As you would expect, the rush numbers were poor as they allowed 221 ypg (5.6), their worst ypc in over 15 yrs. The DE combo of Dante Savage and Pierre Fils combined for 13 sks (tm 21) with Fils' 7 sks being the most by an Aggie since '92. LY they had to replace 1 st'r. HC Walker called this unit the strength of the defense. Surprisingly they did not record a sk until Wk 5 (9 on yr) and the rush D, while improving to 207 ypg, allowed an even worse 5.8 ypc. Walker said that true frosh Augafa Vaaulu (6'3" 295) had the type of body they would recruit going forward and he started 6 of the last 8. Fils and Savage comb'd for just 5 sk. This year they lose NT John Finlu (12 st, 29 tkl, 1 sk), DT Kawika Shook (7 st, 24 tkl) and DL Brandon Warner (20 st, 1 tkl). They add a 300 lb VHT JUCO DT and 253 lb JC DE that was IFS. LY I expected a vastly improved D-line and it did not happen but I'll call for Fils and Savage to return to their '09 form and they can really only improve upon LY's extremely poor numbers.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 they had to replace their #2 and #4 tkl'rs. They had 5 seniors (comb 31 st) and those 5 made every LB start in '09. As you would expect, the unit was wiped out last year as they lost their #1, #2 and #10 tkl'rs and top 2 bkps. The unit returned 1 career start and that was BJ Adolpho who had 11 tkl's. As expected, the Aggies slipped to allowing 39.5 ppg. This year the only loss is SLB Frank Padilla (11 st, #7 tkl'r, 4.5 tfl) and they return their #2 and #3 LB tkl'rs making the unit vastly more experienced.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2008, NMST finished #53 in my PDR but that was mostly because opponents ran at will on their defense (only 300 pass att, for 159 ypg). In 2009 they had to replace 2 starters but moved up to #47 (54%, 18-7). LY it appeared all 4 starters returned but Stephon Hatchett (#3 tkl'r) RS (acad). They still retained 1st Tm WAC CB Davon House. Donyae Coleman moved from WR to CB in 2009 and found a home at FS last year (#1 tkl'r). House's 319 career IR yards set a sch record. The unit was still solid despite the drop to #87. This year they lose 1st Tm All-WAC CB House (#6 tkl'r, 2 int, 10 pbu, #4DC GB) and SS Alphonso Powell (11 st, #5 tkl'r, 1 int). They do have 6 of the top 8 back and could return Hatchett. They add 3 solid JUCO's including Lester White, who will fill the SS spot. Despite being a little less exp'd and losing their top player, the stronger front 7 will help NMST move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Hal Mumme's final unit finished #63 in my ST rankings. Walker's first unit finished #77. LY they had to replace their 2 yr K/P Kyle Hughes who was an unexpected loss in August as well as their top PR and KR. JC Tyler Stamper hit an outstanding 16-19 FG's (L48). Jordan Davenport (PS#100), Tanner Rust and Stamper combined for 1 TB on 47 KO's. Rust began as the P and avg'd 37.3 and true frosh Jake Capraro (36.9) took over (tm net 33.8). The star was Taveon Rogers who set a school record with 219 KR yds vs Kansas and finished with 1,410 (27.1) KR yds. The unit returns intact and should make solid improvement upon their #86 ranking LY.

COACHES - DeWayne Walker was UCLA's DC from '06-'08 and was the interim HC in the '07 Las Vegas Bowl, in which the Bruins nearly upset #19 BYU. Prior to UCLA, Walker was the DB coach for the NFL Redskins ('04-'05). Taking over OC duties is former Kent St HC Doug Martin (7 yrs with Flashes). HC Walker served as his own DC his first season but transferred those duties to vet Dale Lindsey. He's been the LB cch here the last two seasons and has 20 years of NFL coaching exp on his resume incl being the LB cch for the Redskins ('97-'98, '04-'06) and DC for the Chargers ('02-'03).

PHIL'S FORECAST

This team has had FOUR winning years since 1967 (43 yrs!). NMST has not played in the postseason since 1960, the longest run of futility in the country (over 50 yrs). In '05 Hal Mumme brought in the Kentucky pass offense as he shifted them from the option and they went 0-12. The next 3 yrs they were more competitive but managed just 4, 4 and 3 wins. In his final year ('08) the team was injury plagued and at one point had all 5 OL st's out. I mentioned in '09 that by switching the offense back to a run based attack, the Aggies would continue to struggle and they went just 3-10 in DeWayne Walker's first year. The offense avg'd just 11.5 ppg, their lowest total by far in over 20 yrs. Their 3 wins came over Prairie View, NMex and Utah St and in the latter 2, they were outgained by 138 and 199 yds. They kicked a FG with no time left to get past USU and got a td with :39 left to beat NM and could easily have had a weaker record. LY they ret'd 13 st's and were in the 2nd year of Walker's system. They had a bye in Wk 1 then played for 12 consec wks. NMST was destroyed in their first 4 by 34 ppg getting outgained by 265 ypg. Versus equally woeful NM, despite being outgained 274-206, they got a gm winning 22 yd FG with 1:56 left. Three games later, they got a td with :00 left to get past SJST 29-27 then actually led USU 14-0 before falling 27-22. They lost their final 3 by 34 ppg. Walker now has 5 wins and all 5 have been by 3 pts or less and the record of the 4 FBS teams he's beaten is a combined 7-42. NMST was -144.3 ypg in WAC play which was an improvement from 2009 (230.3 ypg). This year they have 4 WAC HG's and both their def (11.5) and off (18.9) ypg's qualify for improvement in the YPP article (pg 299). Walker has this team pointed in the right direction. I like the JUCO additions this year and this is BY FAR Walker's best team in his 3 years.

First meeting. The Aggies are 12-7 in home openers but have dropped 4 str vs FBS schools by 16 ppg. Since 1982 NMSt has won once in a ssn opener vs a FBS opp (beat UTEP 45-17 in '95).

First meeting. HC DeWayne Walker was a 2Y starter at DB for Minnesota from 1980-'81. NMSt is just 2-16 in road openers with both wins vs New Mexico (1999 & 2009).

The home team in this series is 11-3. LY in the "I-10 rivalry" NMSt trailed 21-0 being outgained 178-11 w/12:03 2Q (42-10 into 4Q). Into 2011, the Aggies are 8-4 the L5Y hosting non-conf opp's.

NMSt is 3-15 vs SJSt but won LY (has never won B2B in series). NMSt's Lwin in San Jose was in '94. LTH the Aggies trailed 10-0 but the gm was tied 10-10 into the 4Q as NMSt lost on a 19 yd FG w/34 left.

102nd Rio Grande Rivalry. Aggies have won 2 str but L/series 3 gm winning streak was '66-'68. LTH the gm saw 5 lead changes as NMSt went 59/17P (7:00 TOP) for the GW TD w/39 left.

Louisiana Tech: The Aggies have never won in Ruston (0-4). Utah St: LY NMSt led 14-0 early. After taking a 20-17 4Q lead allowed a 68 yd KR & a TD. Their 483 pass from the USU27 fell in w/52.

The Aggies have dropped 6 of L7 incl 3 str but the home team is 4-1. LY NMSt trailed 31-0 before a TD with :07 left in the 1H & 37-7 before a TD with :19 left in the game.

NMSt is 0-4 on the island. LTH NMSt trailed 17-0 at HT as their only TD came on a 58 yd IR in the 3Q. In WAC meetings NMSt is allowing 382 pass ypg (66%) w/a 25-3 ratio to UH.

NMSt has lost B2B meetings by a combined 115-26. HT is 2-7 S/97. LY the Aggies trailed 24-0 late 1H & never threatened. Into 2011, NMSt is just 4-20 hosting WAC opp's (L/2 wins by just 2 & 3 pts).

NMSt is 0-14 vs the SEC incl 0-3 vs UGA ('02 Lgm) losing by an avg of 36 ppg. Into 2011, the Aggies have dropped 18 str (5 shutouts) vs BCS conf tms on the road (Lwin at #22 Ariz St in '99).

NMSt is 0-17 vs Fresno St. LY NMSt trailed 16-0 early & 30-3 at HT being outgained 275-93.

First meeting. Into 2011, NMSt is 12-40-1 all-time in first time meetings vs current FBS schools.

LTH NMSt suffered their worst series loss S'67. NMSt trailed 45-0 as their only pts came on a 38 yd FR TD.

The home team has won 3 straight. Five of the L/6 here have been decided by a TD or less.

PHIL STEELE IS PROUD TO BE A PARTICIPANT ON THE VOTING COMMITTEE FOR THE LOTT IMPACT TROPHY

THE LOTT IMPACT TROPHY

The Lott Trophy was named in honor of Ronnie Lott - a two time All-American for USC and College Football Hall of Fame inductee. Ronnie Lott went on to win four Super Bowl rings with the San Francisco 49ers, made 10 trips to the Pro Bowl and earned a spot in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Always known as a fierce competitor, he was a leader who had an IMPACT both on the field and off.

The Lott Trophy was established by The Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation to honor college football's Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. The award is unique because it represents the first trophy to give equal weight to personal character as well as athletic performance.

If you want to make an IMPACT and help restore personal character to American sports, make a tax deductible contribution to The Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation today. Call Karen Ringer at 949-428-0042 or visit www.lottimpacttrophy.com. We thank you for your support.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 INDEPENDENT FORECAST

1. NOTRE DAME There are two ways to look at the end of last season for Notre Dame. The first, they caught some teams in great situations as Utah was in a massive letdown spot, USC was without their starting QB, they faced Army 2 weeks after having faced Navy's option and in the bowl, defeated Miami FL who always play poorly in cold weather. The second way to look at it is that Notre Dame was able to build a lot of momentum winning the final 4 and they are now in the 2nd year of Kelly's system and four of the recent National Champs (S/'00) reached that level in the 2nd year of their new HC. The Irish are loaded at every position (17 ret str's), could be favored in all 12 games this year and 3 of my 9 sets of power ratings call for them to go 12-0.

2. BYU The Independents welcome a brand-new school in BYU which has been partnered with the WAC or MWC since 1962. LY's BYU team hardly resembled the Cougar teams of year's past. BYU had double digit wins in '06, '07, '08 & '09 but struggled to get to 7-6 LY and their offense was inept at the start of the year but improved as the season went along. This year they have 15 ret str's, get some tremendous transfers and are a much stronger team than the 2010 version. While BYU has plenty of tough road games, they are capable of winning a number of them and they will be fun to watch in 2011. They've already committed to the Armed Forces Bowl if eligible.

3. NAVY Service academies rarely return a lot of starters and in Niumatalolo's first 3 years Navy has had just 12, 10 and 11 ret str's. This year they once again have 10 and must replace their QB and top 4 tk's on D. My biggest area of concern is the schedule as LY they faced my #82 and this year it has been upgraded to my #62. Navy should have another solid year but I do not see them matching last year's 9 win total.

4. ARMY LY I called for Army to get to the Armed Forces Bowl and they did not disappoint me. They even knocked off SMU for a solid 7-6 season, their first winning year since 1996. The Cadets continue to improve as they have moved back to the option and while they have just 11 ret str's this year, keep in mind the low amount of returnees is status quo for service academies. They return QB Steelman, RB Hassin and their top 3 rec's back on offense and should continue to show improvement after increasing their ypg from 275 to 330 LY. The schedule is difficult and Army benefitted from +16 in TO's last year so getting back to the post season will be tough.

Independent Notes: With the inclusion of BYU, the All-Independent team now becomes a bit more balanced and less ND dominated with the Cougars having several VHT and HT players of their own. Four years ago Navy beat ND for the first time in 44 years and now after LY's 35-17 win has taken 3 of 4 from the Irish. Last year ND, Army and Navy all played one another in the same season with the Middies winning both and taking home the true "Independent Championship." In fact, Navy has finished as the #1 Independent for 4 straight years with a 35-18 record in that span! BYU and Notre Dame have signed a 6-game series that will start in 2012.

NOTRE DAME FIGHTING IRISH

OL Zack Martin

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Brady Quinn left after '06 as ND's career passing leader (#1DC). With a veteran offense in '06 he threw for 3,426 (62%, 37-7). In '07 Jimmy Clausen (PS#5) became the 8th Irish frosh to start at QB S/51. He threw for just 1,254 (56%, 7-6) but improved each year and as a junior threw for 3,722 (68%, 28-4) before leaving for the NFL (#2DC) when HC Weis was fired (#2DC). Rfr Dayne Crist (PS#5) was Clausen's bkp in '09 before a torn ACL vs Wash St and his 20 att was the unit's only exp that Kelly had to work with coming into LY. Crist was inj'd on a td run on the game opening drive vs Mich and true frosh Tommy Rees was 0-2 with 1 int. Nate Montana hit 8-17-104 but the team scored 0 td's on 8 drives without Crist and was much more effective when he ret'd. Even though Crist's 4 rush td's were the most in a season by an Irish QB since Jarious Jackson (7 '99), Kelly was reluctant to call planned runs (a staple in the spread) due to the lack of exp behind Crist and his lack of mobility. Crist was having a fine season (2,033, 59.2%, 15-7) when he was OFY early 1Q vs Tulsa. Rees hit 33-54 and became the first ND frosh to have 4 td's in a game while in relief vs the Golden Hurricane. Rees would go a perfect 4-0 as a starting QB (1,106, 61%, 12-8). Two QB's topped 1,000 yards for the first time S/83 as Rees avg 205 ypg in the L/5 games while Crist had 254 ypg in his 1st 8 starts. TY added to the mix are Kelly recruits Andrew Hendrix (rfr, PS#12) who was impressive on the scout team and true frosh Everett Golson (PS#20). Kelly (great QB developer) won the Big East Title playing 4 diff QB's in '08 and it wouldn't surprise me to see a QB rotation here TY. This unit is vastly more exp'd and figures to put up great numbers in Kelly's 2nd year.

RUNNING BACKS - The top RB has not come close to reaching 1,000 in the last 4 yrs with the highest total in that span being PS#13 Armando Allen's 697 (4.9) in '09 (missed 3). Allen was the team's top rusher LY with 514 (4.8) when he was inj'd (missed L/5). Rfr Cierre Wood (PS#4) had 58 yds on 7 att in the opener but then just 47 yds (17 att) in the next 5. He led in 6 of the last 7 and finished #1 with 603 (5.1). Wood's 39 yd td run vs WM was the longest scoring run by an Irish player since '03. Jonas Gray (PS#5) is one of the team's fastest, but only had 100 (5.0). It was the first time since 1971 that ND failed to produce a 100 yd rusher in a single gm. This year they lose Allen (7 st), Robert Hughes (1 st, 300 yd, 4.4) and not listed below is Tyler Platz (5'10" 215 So). Despite the losses, I look for improved production from the RB's and their leading rusher should have their top total in the last 5 yrs.

RECEIVERS - In '07 ND had inexp'd WR's and were led by TE John Carlson (372, 9.3). In '08 WR Golden Tate (PS#27) led with 1,080 (18.6) and 6'3" true frosh Michael Floyd (PS#2) was #2 (719, 15.0). In '09 I called the Irish the #1 rec corps in the country. Tate became the first Irish WR to win the Biletnikoff Award (1496, 16.1). Floyd was inj'd and DNP in 5 (795, 18.1), while TE Kyle Rudolph added 364 (11.0) despite missing 2. LY they had to replace Tate (#2DC). Floyd led with 1,025 (13.0). Rudolph was clearly the nation's top TE but played in just 6 (328, 11.7) due to hamstring surgery and was replaced by Tyler Eifert (#3, 352, 13.0). Converted RB Theo Riddick (PS#24) was #2 (414, 10.4) despite missing 4 and true frosh TJ Jones (PS#20) was #5 (306, 13.3). This year they lose Rudolph (6 st, #2DC MIN) and Duval Kamara (4 st, 11 rec). Thanks to Floyd's return they are clearly one of the top units in the country.

OFFENSIVE LINE - The ND O-lines are usually loaded with VHT's but the OL stats the last few yrs haven't indicated it. In '07 they allowed an NCAA worst 58 sks (14.9%) and only avg 75 ypg (2.1 rush). In '08 they improved to 110 ypg (3.3) with 22 sks (4.9%) and in Weis' last year in '09 they ran for 128 ypg (3.8) with 25 sks (5.6%). LY they had to replace 3 multi year st's (105 sts lost) and had to learn new schemes. ND's numbers were similar (127 ypg, 4.0, 20 sks, 4.2%). This year they lose PS#14 LG Chris Stewart (13 st, 3Y st'r) and Alex Bullard (2 gm), but have 9 of the top 10 back (63 car sts), and are in the 2nd year of Kelly's system.

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Irish had to replace 3 st's in '07 (#2, #5 DC's). The less exp'd front allowed 195 ypg rush (4.3) which was the most here since '91 (just 19 sk). They made some improvement in '08 (134, 4.1, 26 sk) but moved to the 4-3 in '09. They had to replace 2 st's and the coaches compared rfr Kapron Lewis-Moore (PS#40) to former #1 overall NFL DC Steve Emtman. The D played well early but collapsed over the final 4 (263 ypg, 5.7). That dropped the season totals to 170 ypg (4.8). LY they switched back to the 3-4 and only lost 1 player (7 st, 20 tkl). As you would expect, they improved to allowing 142 ypg (4.0, 27 sk). Star NG Ian Williams did miss 4 sts and they played their best ball in the final 4 allowing just 92 ypg (2.9). This year they lose Williams (9 st, 38 tkl, 3.5 tfl) but have 5 of the top 6 back and should be stronger again. The Irish may also have signed the NCAA's best class of DE's with 3 super VHT signees including spring star Aaron Lynch (PS#7).

LINEBACKERS - In '09 the Irish had just 1 ret st'r ('08's #5 tkl'r) to a new 3 man LB unit. True frosh Manti Te'o lived up to his PS#1 billing starting 9 with 57 of his 63 tkls (#4 tkl'r) in the last 8. LY they had to replace 2 LB (comb 3 sts, 36 tkls) and ret'd their #2, #4 and #10 tkl's. They switched back to a 4 man group and Te'o led again with 133 tkls which was #12 FBS. The D improved to allowing 20.2 ppg (best S/'02). Brian Smith (12 st '09) lost his starting spot to rfr Carlo Calabrese (PS#27), however Calabrese got inj'd and Smith started the last 5. TY they lose Smith (5 st, #7 tkl'r) and OLB Kerry Neal (12 st, #10 tkl'r). They return their top 2 tkl's from this unit (#1 & #5) and should show continued improvement.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '07 ND had to replace 2 st's (#6 & #7 DC's) but moved up to #26 in my PDR allowing just 162 ypg (53%), their lowest total S/'96. In '08 they had to replace 2 st's (#3DC) and slipped to #32. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's (#4DC) but moved LB Harrison Smith back to FS and also faced 3 true frosh QB's. Unfortunately 2 of them (Tate Forcier and Matt Barkley) earned the Davey O'Brien QB of the Wk Award vs them. The veteran unit dropped to #81. LY they had to replace 1 st'r. As you would expect, they improved to #37 (62.3%, 11-18). This year they lose CB Darrin Walls (13 st, 41 tkl, 3 int) but have 7 of the top 8 back and this unit goes from a weakness in '10 to a strength in '11.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Charlie Weis' units finished #39, #64, #93, #30 and #74 in my ST rankings. True frosh Nick Tausch (PS#6) missed his first FG in '09 then hit 14 in a row (school rec) before missing the last 2 due to an injury. Walk-on David Ruffer hit 5-5 in Tausch's absence. Ruffer, who didn't even K for his HS team, walked on here in '08 while playing intramural football. Ruffer beat out Tausch in '10 and hit an amazing 18-19 FG's (L50) and also had 10 TB's on 65 KO's (ND had just 3 TB's prev 3 yrs, fewest in the NCAA). He hit his first 23 FG's of his career (new school rec) and was a Lou Groza finalist. In '09 Ben Turk avg 38.2 (33.6 tm net) and in '10, his net improved to 36.3. The unit went from #1 in the NCAA in PR defense to #43 the week they allowed a 59 yd PR td to Tulsa, but they gave up just 73 on the year. True frosh Bennett Jackson had 645 KR yds (22.2) and was solid in coverage. Brian Kelly's ST units at Cincy were #21, #1 and #8, but #33 here in '10. With most of the key components back, ND should have their highest finish in my ST rankings S/'00.

COACHES - Charlie Weis' 3 Super Bowl rings didn't spell success in the college game and he was ousted after a 16-21 record his last 3 yrs. Brian Kelly led Cincinnati to B2B BCS bowls incl a 12-0 reg season in '09 (named the BE COY all 3 seasons). He boasts a 179-62-2 record in 20 yrs as a HC (13Y Grand Valley St, 3Y C Mich and 3Y Cincy). The OC is Charlie Molnar who has coached with Kelly at Cincy (WR cch/pass gm coor) and at CM. DC Bob Diaco led a Cincy defense with 1 ret st'r in '09 to 110 tfl (#3 FBS). Prior to that he was the LB/ST cch at Virginia for 3 years and also co-DC of CM in '05.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In '05 Charlie Weis stepped into a great situation as he inherited 10 ret st's on offense and they rolled up 36.7 ppg. They upended #3 Mich on the road, the highest ranked team that ND had beaten since 1993, and got the Irish to a BCS bowl (Fiesta). Weis was named the FWAA COY. In '06 they had 16 ret st's and the Irish opened at #2 (AP). The Irish rolled to a 10-1 record (#6) but lost to #3 USC by 20 then were thrashed in the bowl by 27 vs LSU. They also had a 26 pt home loss to Mich. It was a rebuilding year in '07 with just 9 ret st's and a true frosh QB. It ended up being a record breaking year for all of the wrong reasons. ND opened the season 0-5 (all 5 by DD) and finished 3-9. Nine true frosh started at some point. It was their 4th losing season since 1999 (13th school hist). In '08 the Irish were my #1 Most Improved Team and went from a losing season to a bowl. Three times however, the Irish blew a DD lead. They did get their first bowl win since 1993. Heading into '09 their 15 losses the previous 2 yrs were the most in school history and ND had a manageable schedule. Unfortunately they went just 6-6 and got rid of Weis who actually had a weaker win percentage than his predecessors, Bob Davie and Tyrone Willingham. All 6 of the Irish losses were by 7 or less. In '09 at UC Brian Kelly became the first FBS HC to surpass my magazine forecast for 6 straight yrs. That streak stopped LY as I expected a DD win season here. ND opened with a 23-12 win over Purdue. Against Mich, QB Dayne Crist missed 8 series in the 1H (inj ND 0 pts) and ND ended up 4 pts short. Mich St, with the playclock expired, ran a fake FG for a td in OT and pulled out a 3 pt win. ND was dominated at the LOS by Stanford to drop to 1-3. After rebounding with 3 straight wins, they were missing their top 3 rec's vs Navy and surprisingly lost by 18 pts (outgained by 75 yds, most of ssn). The next week they beat a Utah tm that was coming off a devastating loss to TCU, a USC tm without their starting QB, and a Miami, Fl tm that never plays well in the cold (unseasonable cold 34" in El Paso). Still, their 8-5 finish was the best in 4 yrs and Kelly has a veteran squad with 17 ret st's that are now in the 2nd year of his schemes. They could be favored in their first 11 gms, are a much stronger team and all 9 sets of my power ratings call for double digit wins with 3 of them calling for a 12-0 season!

First meeting. Prior to ND Kelly was the HC at Cincinnati going 3-0 vs USF w/ the avg win by 12 ppg. ND is 12-3 '96 in home openers including 3 str wins by an avg score 26-8.

Visitor is 3-9 '97. ND has lost 4 of the last 5 vs UM the L2Y. ND has led in each w/less then :30 sec left but all'd a score w/27 LY & :11 in 2009 (L3 gm losing streak 1900-1908).

HT is just 3-7 the L10Y but has won 3 str. LY QB Crist set career highs in comp, att & yds (32-55, 369) & TD passes (4). No other ND QB has thrown for more TD passes in 1st start on the road.

ND is 13-4 vs Pitt S'88 but did drop their L/trip to Heinz Field '09. The Irish trailed the Panthers 27-9 in the 4Q before coming up 5 pts shy in the comeback attempt. LY ND led 20-3 late 3Q.

The Irish have won 5 of the last 6 with the only loss in West Lafayette in 2007. ND went 72/12pl & tossed a 2yd GW TD pass w/25 left in their L/trip to West Lafayette in '09.

ND is 22-6 vs AF but dropped the L/gm in '07, 41-24. ND was in the midst of their worst ssn S'63. HT has won just once in the L/6 meetings (S'95). LAY ND is just 4-4 hosting non-BCS schools.

USC: Notre Dame will host its first home night game in 21 years vs USC.

BC: ND is 3-7 S'99 vs BC but has won B2B gms. ND is 13-4 in home finales S'94.

ND is just 4-11 S'96. LY ND down 3 went 77/7pl for the GW TD w/23 left. The Irish had the "luck" on their side as USC dropped a sure TD pass at the ND15 & 4 plays later were int'd at the ND1 w/36.

Irish have dropped B2B gms hosting the Midshipmen incl the '07 loss in 3OT's which snapped a NCAA best 43 game series win streak. In '09 ND's L2 TD's came w/4:46 & :24 left.

First meeting. The Fighting Irish are 78-31-2 vs current ACC lms, Virginia Tech is the only other member ND hasn't played. Into 2011, Notre Dame is just 6-12 their L/18 true road gms.

Just one prior meeting in the '02 Kickoff Classic in East Rutherford. ND pulled the shutout 22-0. It was Ty Williams' 1st gm as HC & MD came in #21 but ND finished w/ a 15-8 FD & 356-133 yd edge.

LY ND led 21-0 early & never looked back as they shutout BC in the 2H (all'd just 116 yds, 93 on L/2 drives).

ND is 17-8 vs SU but lost 45-38 in their L/trip '09. ND blew an 8-pt 4Q lead as SU scored TD's on their L/2 drives (all'd w/59 left) & the Irish ended on the SU31.

Into 2011, ND is 1-11 their L/12 gms vs ranked opp's.

BYU COUGARS

C Terence Brown

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - When I think of BYU I think of great QB's like Ty Detmer, Steve Young and Jim McMahon. John Beck left here (#2DC) as the school's #2 all-time passer. Ariz St transfer Max Hall (PS#52) had not played in 4 yrs (RS, mission) but set the MWC single season soph record for total offense in '07. He threw for 3,848 (60%, 26-12) and then 3,957 (69%, 35-14) in '08. Hall got stronger and faster in the offseason and threw for 3,560 (67%, 33-14) in '09 and was the MWC OPW 5x. Hall left (NFL ARZ) as the MWC career passing leader and his 32 wins topped Detmer's mark. Riley Nelson (PS#65) is not your prototypical BYU QB as he is an undersized running QB who lacks a powerful arm. He started 7 at Utah St in '06 throwing for 925 (55%, 6-7) sparking what was then a moribund offense. After a mission Nelson hit 7-10 in '09 (122 rush) as Hall's bkp. Mendenhall opted to alternate Nelson and true frosh Jake Heaps (PS#2) in '10 and in Wk 1 each threw for 131 yds. Both struggled vs AF then Nelson, who started the other 3, was OFY vs Fla St. Heaps was not helped by dropped passes and after TCU had just a 1-6 ratio but showed great improvement with a 14-3 ratio over the final 6. His 2,316 yds passing (57.2%, 15-9) was the lowest for a BYU passing leader since Matt Berry in '03 but his 15 TD passes broke Ty Detmer's 22 yr old record for a BYU frosh. In fact, Heaps set every BYU frosh passing record. Not listed in the PSL are James Lark (6'2" 202 Jr, PS#58), Christian Stewart (6'2" 190 rFr) and Brad Heap (6'3" 215 rFr). This should be one of the most improved QB positions in the country and should get back to producing BYU-type numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - Harvey Unga (1227, 5.0) not only broke Ronney Jenkins' BYU 1996 frosh rushing record (733) but also the MWC frosh record in '07. In '08 Unga's stats dipped a bit to 1,132 (4.7). True frosh JJ Di Luigi (PS#94) was compared to LaDainian Tomlinson but had just 487 (3.7). In '09 Unga had the swine flu over the summer and was rarely 100% during the yr (injs) but still topped 1,000 for the 3rd straight season (1087, 5.2). Di Luigi had 248 (5.5) and Bryn Kariya, who started the opener (118 all-purp vs Okla), had 199 (3.6). LY Unga left BYU after spring and was taken in the supplemental draft (7th RD CHI). They still had 3 solid RB's especially in the 2H of the year. Di Luigi led with 917 (5.2) starting 10 and was also the team's reception leader with 45. Kariya had 537 (3.9) in 9 sts and Joshua "Juice" Quezada had 505 (5.1). This year the unit is in much better shape as all 3 return and not listed below is David Foote (5'11" 208 Jr).

RECEIVERS - In '09 BYU had to replace its career rec leader Austin Collie (#4DC). TE Dennis Pitta had 1,083 (13.0) in '08 and led BYU in '09 with 829 (13.4). McKay Jacobson (PS#38) had 547 (19.5) in '06 then went on a mission. Jacobson ret'd for the '09 season and was the team's deep threat avg 24.2 ypc but was just #2 (556) as he missed 4 (inj). LY they had to replace Pitta (#4DC, 33 BYU rec yds) and the unit was plagued by dropped passes, failure to separate and uneven blocking. A RB led the team in rec (but only had 1 rec TD) and the top WR was rFr Cody Hoffman who had 527 (12.5) incl having 137 and 3 TD's in the bowl. Surprisingly Jacobson was #3 (410, 11.1). Luke Ashworth emerged in the 2H of the year and had 368 (11.5). Nobody really replaced Pitta but Devin Mahina had 11 rec in 5 sts (TE's had 0 TD's). Not listed in the PSL are Rhen Brown (5'10" 180 Jr), Skyler Ridley (5'11" 168 So), Brady Hunt (6'2" 200 Fr), Andrew Cusick (6'5" 205 rFr), Matt Marshall (5'10" 172 Sr), Kaneakua Friel (6'5" 235 So) and Matthew Edwards (6'3" 225 Sr). This year they only lose Ashworth (1 st) and BJ Peterson (2 rec). O'Neill Chambers (6'2" 211) was susp in Oct (14 car sts) and HC Mendenhall has said he will not play TY but may be back in '12. Hoffman is 6'4" with speed and they add in 6'3" Ross Apo (orig committed to Texas, PS#30). After an incredibly poor year, I look for BYU to have a vastly improved rec corps.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 BYU had a veteran OL that avg 327 lbs but did not meet my expectations as they only opened holes for 134 ypg rush (4.1) with 19 sks. They only had 23 career sts back in '09 (#117 FBS) and the lone returning st'r, Matt Reynolds, fractured his hand in Aug. Surprisingly the young O-line opened holes for 146 ypg rush (4.0) and 23 sks (5.5%). LY they had 9 of the top 10 back (66 car sts). Surprisingly the unit struggled early allowing 8 sks to Fla St but yielded just 13 in the other 12. The numbers improved to 168 ypg rush (4.2) with 4.9% sks and they hit their stride in the last 6 (210 ypg, 4.5, 4 sks). This year they lose 2nd Tm MWC RG Jason Sperdon (13 st) and RG Nick Alletto (11 gm bkp '10, 11 st '09). Reynolds turned down the NFL which means 4 of 5 st's return (107 car sts) and I look for continued improvement.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 BYU ret'd the MWC career sk leader DE Jan Jorgensen along with almost the entire 2 deep and improved to 110 ypg rush (3.4). LY they had to replace 2 st's and then their lone returnee, Romney Fuga was lost vs Nevada (ACL). The less exp'd group didn't do bad allowing 139 ypg (3.9, 24 sks). This year they lose 1st Tm MWC DE Vic So'oto (13 st, 45 tkl, 5 sk, 6.5 tfl) but get back Fuga and Jordan Richardson (5 st, ACL). They also add in 310 lb PS#5JC Hebron Fanguo (USC transfer) and Ian Dulan (17 sts '06-'08) returns from a mission. Not in the PSL are Matt Peterson (6'5" 260 Jr, 2 tkl), Mike Muehlmann (6'4" 240 So, 3 st TE), Simote Vea (5'11" 243 Sr), Matthew Jensen (6'6" 231 rFr), Kalama Kaluihi Kalani (5'10" 266 Jr), Garrett Eskelsen (6'2" 233 Jr), Uani Unga (6'1" 219 Jr) and Josh Marquardt (6'1" 248 So). Despite the loss of the top guy, this unit is much more exp'd.

LINEBACKERS - BYU had a veteran, senior laden LB corps in '09 and LY they had to replace their #2, #5, #6 and #10 tkl's along with 2 others (3 st, 25 tkl). They had just 10 car sts (Jordan Pendleton). Mendenhall thought BYU was better vs mobile QB's due to the number of OLB's they had. Pendleton was OFY after 5 sts but surprisingly BYU went from allowing 21.5 ppg to just 21.6. This year they lose 3rd Tm MWC MLB Shane Hunter (13 st, #2 tkl, 3.5 tfl), Zeke Mendenhall (2 st, 15 tkl), AJ Van Valkenburg (2 tkl) and Jadon Wagner (9 st, 38 tkl) who made himself elig for the CFL draft. They return a healthy Pendleton and 6 who started LY plus add in VHT USC transfer Uona Kaveinga (PS#36). Not in the PSL are Connell Hess (6'0" 224 Jr), Tyler Beck (6'1" 210 So), Peter Welsh (5'11" 205 rFr) and Ezekel Ansah (6'6" 254 Jr). This should be a vastly improved unit.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - After finishing #19 and #15 in my PDR in '06 and '07 they ret'd 7 car sts in '08 and plummeted to #93. They had to replace 2 st's in '09 but still moved back up to #33. LY they only lost 1 st'r FS Scott Johnson (#3 tkl'r) but did lose FS Steven Thomas after 3 sts. BYU still moved up to #25 (53.4%, 20-16). This year they lose CB Brandon Bradley (13 st, 40 tkl, 1 int), 3rd Tm MWC CB Brian Logan (12 st, 51 tkl, 2 int, 7 pbu), 1st Tm MWC KAT Andrew Rich (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 7.5 tfl, 5 int) and Thomas (retired from football). This unit is my ONLY concern on the 2011 squad.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Mendenhall's first unit finished #100 in my ST rankings and I called for them to be one of the most improved ST units in '06 and they moved up to #20. They had to replace most of their key players in '07 and dropped to #60. In '08 everyone was back (#26). In '09 even with O'Neill Chambers they finished just #69. LY the unit ret'd intact and Chambers became BYU's all-time leader in KR yardage (1612) passing Mike Rigell ('98-'01) but was susp after 7 gms. K Mitch Payne set BYU's record for most career and most consec PAT's with 162 (Kurt Gunther 1980-'82). He also passed his brother Matt for first all-time on the MWC career K pts list. Payne hit 17-21 FG's (L48). Riley Stephenson (PS#14) avg 42.0 on punts (37.1 net) and had an outstanding 23 TB's on 64 KO's. The team struggled on KR D (23.1). This year they lose Payne but add in Justin Sorensen (PS#1) who returns from a mission and they could be just as good as LY's #43 finish.

COACHES - Bronco Mendenhall was the DC under Rocky Long at New Mexico for 5 yrs prior to coming here in '03 as the DC. The Cougars went 6-6 in his first year as HC ('05) but have gone 50-15 since incl three 11 win seasons. Robert Anae resigned as the OC and QB coach Brandon Doman (7th yr here) will fill that role. Mendenhall started as his own DC, but in '08 promoted Jaime Hill. Last season Hill was relieved after 5 (all'd 28.8 ppg) and Mendenhall again was his own DC. He brought a new energy to the D and they did not allow a 1H point in the final 4 reg season gms. BYU is one of only a handful of FBS programs that do not have a separate DC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

When Gary Crowton took over in '01, it was a dream season as they piled up 44.1 ppg, 524 ypg and at one point were 12-0 lobbying for a BCS bowl berth. After losing their bowl, BYU finished 12-2 and #25. BYU then had 3 consec losing seasons. Bronco Mendenhall took over in '05 and they went 6-6. The next 4 yrs BYU finished 11-2 (#16), 11-2 (#14), 10-3 (#25) and 11-2 (#12) and were 29-3 in the MWC including 8-0 in both '06 and '07. In '09 they knocked off #3 Okla (first win vs Top 10 S'90) and moved as high as #7 but lost to Fla St and landed in their 5th consec Las Vegas Bowl. Mendenhall is the only coach in BYU history to lead his team to bowl eligibility in each of his first 6 yrs. LY BYU lost RB Unga over the summer then announced that both QB's would rotate every other series. BYU did beat Washington but lost to AF by 21, FSU by 24 and then to Nevada at home by 14. Utah St ended a 10 game losing streak to the Cougars and BYU fell to 1-4 with the offense avg a dismal 15 ppg. The next week was "replay gate" where 3 replay booth officials were susp'd after they missed a fumble and BYU prevailed over SDSU 24-21. They trailed TCU just 3-0 with just over 2:00 left in the 1Q but lost 31-3. The Cougars rebounded to win their next 4 (+221 ypg, +31 ppg). They led Utah 13-0 in the 3Q but had a 42 yd FG blk'd at the end and lost. In the bowl they rolled over UTEP 52-24. This year BYU makes the big switch to being an independent and are coming off a year where they had 40 sts lost to injury and their first non double digit win season since '05. They did surprisingly have 2 net close wins last year. BYU returns 15 starters and would be a preseason favorite in the MWC if they still played there. I give them a great shot at double digit wins despite playing Ole Miss, Texas, Oregon St, TCU and Hawai'i all away from home. BYU is much improved over last year's version.

NAVY MIDSHIPMEN

LG Josh Cabral

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Ricky Dobbs was a power running QB (strong arm). He guided the miracle win over Temple (trailed by 20 in 4Q) and the comeback try vs ND (14 pts last 2:00) in '08. Dobbs had a fine '09 season (despite missing 2) breaking Tim Tebow's NCAA record for rushing TDs by a QB (27) and also setting the school record for TDs in a season (Bill Ingram 1917). He was their best option in short yardage. When Dobbs was in'd, Kriss Proctor had met (223 rush) although he did not att a pass in the win vs WF (4 att yr). Dobbs had 1,203 (3.8) on the ground while throwing for 1,031 (54%, 6-3). LY both QB's ret'd and Dobbs was considered a Heisman candidate. Running the option, Navy had not had a QB last the entire season since Lamar Owens did so in 2005. Dobbs missed 1 st but still rushed for 967 (3.6) with 14 TD's while throwing for 1,527 (54.7%, 13-6). His 41 rush TD's set an NCAA record for most by a QB in consec seasons (N Illinois Stacey Robinson, Neb's Eric Crouch) and he is just the 2nd Navy QB to rush for over 2,500 yds (Chris McCoy '95-'97). Dobbs also set the school single season record for TD passes. Proctor rushed for 201 yds (10.1) (only 5 pass att's) in his only start (CM) which was the 10th best total for a Navy QB. He is more of a finesse runner who uses quickness and makes defenders miss. This group is a lot less exp'd but should produce another solid QB.

RUNNING BACKS - Navy's triple option offense uses a FB and 2 slotbacks with the FB getting the bulk of the carries. Alexander Teich, who is smaller than a normal Navy FB but has 4.5 speed, started the first 5 in '09 but suffered a severe ankle injury and Vince Murray rushed for 589 in 4 straight games and remained the starter when Teich ret'd. Murray opened '10 as the starter but was in'd vs WF and Teich had 210 vs ND (1st FB here to top 200) and 157 vs EC, the game in which Murray ret'd. Teich finished #2 with 863 (5.9) while Murray was #4 (382, 5.5). Navy likes to use small, speedy SB's and they ran 8 deep with the top rusher being Gee Greene who was #3 with 492 (6.8) and was the #2 rec (286, 15.9). Aaron Santiago was #6 (201, 7.4) and the #3 rec (251, 19.3). This year they must replace Murray (6 st) and SB Andre Byrd (145, 6.3, 7 st). With the top 2 RB's back, as long as Teich stays healthy, this should be an improved group.

RECEIVERS - Navy's WR's do not get a lot of touches but are excellent blockers. They sometimes call themselves "wide tackles." Last year Navy had to replace their top 3 rec's and the leading returnee was Greg Jones (6 rec). Jones is one of the team's better athletes and led with 662 (20.1). His 33 rec's were the most at Navy since 1994 (Damon Dixon 51). The other starting WR, Mike Schupp was in'd in the first game (9 st, 6 rec '09). His replacement, Brandon Turner, had 4 rec (28.2). This year Jones departs along with Schupp (1 gm). Since LY's numbers were unusually high for the WR's and they now have a new QB, I'll call for a drop in production for '11.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2007 Paul Johnson had to replace 3 st's and 4 bkps but the O-line helped Navy break the school record with 349 ypg rush (5.6). In Niumatalolo's first year the OL had just 25 career sts ret (5th fewest FBS) and the numbers dropped to 292 ypg (5.3) with 10 sks (10.8%). In '09 they had to replace 2 st's (36 car st ret) and the numbers surprisingly slipped to 281 ypg (4.8 ypg-weakest S/O). They allowed a mind boggling 20% sks (22/110 pass att). LY they had 3 st's back (57 car st) but lost RT Matt Molloy after 4 gms (2 concussions in 2 sts) taking away his 19 career sts coming into LY. The numbers did improve to 285 ypg with a 5.3 ypg and they allowed just 10 sks (6.4%). This year they lose 1st Tm Ind LT Jeff Battipaglia (13 st, 3Y st'r) and RT Molloy (2 st). Eight of the top 10 return including 4 st's making it Niumatalolo's most veteran unit yet.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 it appeared the unit would return intact. Unfortunately they lost their top DL over the summer and their NG's were banged up with the top 3 NG's in'd vs AF. The veteran unit still improved to 122 ypg (3.9) with 22 sks. LY they had to replace 3 DL (comb 20 sts, 66 tkl's). I said the unit was slightly less exp'd but should maintain better health. Navy actually slipped allowing 166 ypg rush (4.6) and the sks dropped to 18 perhaps due to losing all 4 LB st's from '09. This year they lose NG Chase Burge (9 st, 40 tkl, 1.5 tfl), NG Shane Bothel (4 st, 14 tkl, 1 sk) and 2nd Tm Ind DE Billy Yarborough (13 st, 47 tkl, 6 sk). They return their top guy in DE Jabaree Tuani and despite being a little less exp'd up front, could at least equal '10's numbers.

LINEBACKERS - In '07 Navy had an extremely inexp'd LB corps and the D yielded 36.4 ppg. They had 3 st's back at LB in '08 and improved allowing 22.0 ppg. In '09 they had 7 of their top 8 back and improved again (19.4 ppg). LY they had to replace all 4 st's including their #1, #2, #5, #8 and #12 tkl's returning only their #3 tkl'r. Tyler Simmons was Navy's biggest and fastest LB in years and was by far the #1 tkl'r with 131. First year starting LB's Caleb King and Aaron McCauley struggled to get off blocks and repeatedly got caught out of position due to their inept. This year they lose 1st Tm Ind Simmons (13 st, 131 tkl, 2 tfl), 2nd Tm Ind OLB Jerry Hauburger (13 st, #4 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl), 2nd Tm Ind McCauley (11 st, #3 tkl'r) and Trey Grissom (11 tkl). They return 3 that comb'd for 11 sts which is 11 more than they had coming into last season.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2007 Navy's DB's were inexp'd and in'd plagued and finished dead last in my pass D rankings allowing a ghastly 70% with a 32-10 ratio. With a more exp'd unit, they only climbed to #108 in '08. In '09 they had to replace 3 st's but surprisingly rose to #59 (59%, 15-13). LY they returned ROV Wyatt Middleton, who was the top defensive player and CB Kevin Edwards who is 6'2" and a sprinter on the track team. They did, however, lose outstanding FS Emmett Merchant after 3 sts but surprisingly with their most star studded backfield in years, they slipped to #111 (68.4%, 22-7). This year they lose 1st Tm Ind ROV Middleton (13 st, 86 tkl, 5 pbu), 2nd Tm Ind CB Edwards (13 st, 54 tkl, 1 int, 4 pbu), FS Merchant (3 st, 7 tkl, 1 int) and FS DeVon Richardson (9 st, 51 tkl, 1 int, 4 pbu). Only 1 st'r returns as they lose their top 2, and it will be tough to move up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Heading into '07 Navy's last KR td was in '97 and their last PR td was in '96 (longest FBS drought) with their last punt block coming in '99. Navy finished #76, #113, #69 and #107 in my ST rankings from '03-'06. In '07 Reggie Campbell had 2 KR td's (27.5 KR, 14.3 PR avg). Navy also finally blk'd a punt and skyrocketed to #15. In '08, they only ret'd their K and I called for a drastic drop and they fell to #81. Matt Harmon did hit 19-22 FG's (long 49). In '09 they had to replace Harmon and their LS. While they ended their PR td streak, it wasn't a typical PR td as it was just 3 yds with Temple's P trying to avoid being tackled in the EZ. Navy had just 109 (6.8) total PR yds. P Kyle Delahooke improved to 43.1 (38.3 netl). In '10 Navy went from avg 18.5 on KR's to 22.5 (Teich 26.3) but avg just 5.4 on PR's. K Joe Buckley (10-13, L50 in '09) hit 7-10 (L42) and missed 3 gms. Jon Teague (PS#35) who handles the KO (7 TB on 71 KO) has hit 3-4 FG's (L38) in 2 yrs. Delahooke's net slipped to 33.5 and Navy dropped to #104 (#80 '09). This year they lose K Buckley and P Delahooke but can only improve.

COACHES - Ken Niumatalolo (1st Samoan HC in NCAA history) served as asst HC and OL coach under Paul Johnson. He was the OC at Navy from '97-'98 and the off play caller at UNLV ('99-'01). His first game as HC was the '07 bowl. Niumatalolo's 8 wins were the most by a Navy first year HC since 1934. Navy has 19 wins the last 2 yrs which is the highest ever total. Ivin Jasper is in his 4th year as OC (10Y Navy QB coh prior). The DC is Buddy Green who is in his 10th season here after leaving the same position at his alma mater, NCST.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Navy was just 11-45 from '98-'02 which includes Paul Johnson's first season. They got their first bowl bid since '96 in 2003. In their streak of 8 straight bowls, Navy has been ranked just once and that was after their bowl win of '04 when they were #24 finishing 10-2. Ken Niumatalolo has done a good job taking over for Johnson, with the team going 27-13 in his 3 yrs. Niumatalolo's '09 squad achieved 10 wins when they knocked off Missouri 35-13 in the Texas Bowl. Last year the Mids suffered a tough opening loss as they trailed 14-0 to Maryland but blew 4 opportunities inside the 7 yd line including at the end when they opted to go for the win and were stopped at the 1 in a 3 pt loss. When they lost to AF 14-6, it halted a streak of 7 straight Commander-in-Chief Trophies and 15 straight wins vs their military rivals. They needed a td with :26 left to get past WF by 1 and trailed SMU 14-0 but rallied for a 28-21 win. ND was missing their top 3 rec's and Navy controlled matters in a 35-17 win to move to 5-2. The next week, in a letdown spot, Navy trailed Duke 31-7 and lost by 3. They led EC 28-21 at half but EC lost 3 fumbles on the first 5 snaps of the 3Q and the Mids turned it into a blowout, 76-35. QB Dobbs was out vs CM and they did lead 35-24 but gave up a td with :04 left. CM went for the win but their 2 pt conv failed. After beating Ark St by 16, they continued their dominance over Army (9th win by 26 ppg). They took on DC Rocky Long who is very familiar defending the option and given extra time to prep for the bowl, Navy was outgained 555-382 by SDSt and lost by 21. While Navy benefitted from 2 net close wins, they did have 45 sts lost to injury. Navy has had just 12, 10 and 11 st's in Niumatalolo's first 3 years, so having just 10 back this year is no problem. The Mids actually face my #62 schedule TY (#82 LY) but I do not see them matching LY's 9 win total.

ARMY BLACK KNIGHTS

QB Trent Steelman

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Carson Williams had 14 sts comb in '06 and '07 but was a pro-style QB and was not a good fit for the option offense in '08. He still started 3 (273, 49%, 1-3) with just 12 yds rushing. Chip Bowden (PS#213, JV QB '07), started 9 and threw for 282 (43%, 2-3) while rushing for 572 (2.9). Bowden was #1 out of the spring in '09 but HC Ellerson was excited about "true frosh" Trent Steelman (Army prep tm '08). Ellerson called Steelman the best operator and threat as a triple option QB and he became the first Army frosh QB in the modern era to start an opener. Steelman suffered a cracked rib (not 100% all year) then had a hip injury in the 2Q vs Iowa St (miss 2H), a key to their loss. Williams was used at times as a passing QB (10-24, 118). Bowden played in 9 (9-26-106, 59 rush). Steelman became the first Army QB S/92 to top 600 (net) and led with 706 (3.5) while also throwing for 637 (49%, 3-2). LY Steelman hit the weight room hard (+18 lbs). He became the first Army ply'r to have rushing td's in 6 straight gms since Mike Mayweather ('88). He was also the last starting QB in the FBS to throw an int in '10 (gm 9). Steelman improved to 995 (53.4%, 7-3) and was the #2 rusher (721, 3.7, 11 td). Max Jenkins (PS#95) had 14 rush att's and 5 passes. Both return this year. As long as Steelman remains healthy, he should again put up improved numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - In the first year of the option offense ('08), FB Collin Mooney got 231 carries which was 188 more than the #2 RB. On the last play of the season, former HC Stan Brock called a time-out and Mooney's final rush gave him the single season rushing record with 1,339 (Mayweather 1338, '90). In '09 they had to replace Mooney and had a lightly exp'd group. Patrick Mealy (PS#154), who set a USMAPS rushing record in '06 had 208 on 15 carries in the first 2 but then was banged up. He was still the top RB (673, 6.1). The FB's were also banged up. CeDarius Williams (Scout Tm POY in '08) was lost after 2. Kingsley Ehie (inj early) finished #3 with 473 (4.1). The longest run by an Army FB in '09 was 26 yds (only 2 rush td by FB's, 4.2 ypc). LY I said the biggest addition on the team was Jared Hassin who would finally give Army the power FB needed and could be a potential 1,000 yd rusher. Hassin was bothered by a back injury early and did not have his first 100 yd gm until Wk 6 but would rattle off 4 straight becoming just the 6th Cadet in history to do so. Hassin (also #3 rec) led with 1,013 (5.3) while Mealy had 470 (4.7). Perhaps the team's best outside rushing threat was soph Brian Cobbs (blazing speed) as he led in ypc but had just 302 (6.0). TY they only lose Mealy (11 st) and Jacob Bohn (75, 5.0). This is the 4th yr of the new offense and as long as Hassin stays healthy, they should have their best set of RB's for it.

RECEIVERS - In the first year of the option offense ('08), with an inexp'd rec corps, the top receiver had just 157 yds (lowest of any FBS school). The top 2 ret'd in '09 and Ellerson made the unusual switch of starting LT Ali Villanueva (6'10" 283) to WR. Villanueva led with 522 (15.4) with all 5 of Army's rec td's. LY the top 3 departed and the leading returnee was Davyd Brooks who had just 2 rec (22.5). Brooks led with 238 (15.9) while Austin Barr (6'4") was #2 with 215 (15.4). This unit returns intact and should put up their best numbers in Ellerson's 3 yrs.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08, Army had 5 OL back with starting exp and usually they do not have a lot of returning starters. They also moved to the option so it was a no-brainer for me to call for vastly improved numbers and they went from 88 ypg rush (2.6) with 28 sks in '07 to 241 ypg rush (4.6) with just 12 sks in '08. The '09 season was your typical Army year as they lost 4 starters and 2 backups. The unit performed well (204 ypg, 4.1, 10 sks). LY they had an atypical veteran unit with 4 ret st's (72 car sts). Army made big strides to 252 ypg (4.5) while allowing just 8 sks. This year they lose LT Anees Merzi (13 st, 2Y st'r), RT Jason Johnson (13 st, 3.5Y st'r), C Zach Peterson (12 st, 2Y st'r), RG Seth Reed (13 st, 2Y st'r), C Thomas Hagan (1 st, 2 gm) and Mikel Weich (13 gm). This is more typical of what a service academy returns (21 car sts) so I don't expect a large dropoff in their numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09, Army had 2 DL st's back and allowed 152 ypg (3.9) with 23 sks. LY they had to replace 2 st's but they did ret DE Josh McNary (school rec 12.5 sk '09) however he missed spring (shoulder surg). Army installed a Bandit position (hybrid DE/LB). The Cadets improved to 139 ypg (ypc slipped to 4.2) with the D having 25 sks. TY they lose McNary who set the Army record for career tfl with 49 (13 st, 5 tkls, 10 sks), NG Mike Gann (13 st, 28 tkls, 2 sks) and DE Marcus Hilton (9 st, 7 tkls, 2 sks). Jarrett Mackey (13 st, 4 tkls, 6.5 tfl) is the lone returnee. The remainder of the unit had a comb'd 2 st, 22 tkls and 0 sk LY but do move LB Chad Littlejohn (7 st, 30 tkls) to BAN. This unit looks weaker especially with the loss of its top guy.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 Army had to replace 2 st's (#1 and #5 tkls) but ret'd Stephen Anderson (#2 tkls) who would have been #1 but missed the last 3 (ACL, still #2). Andrew Rodriguez finished #1 in his first year as a st'r. LY the unit ret'd intact (#1, #2 and #3 tkls) and they added FB Kingsley Ehie. Anderson missed spring and Army was hit hard by inj's. At the end of Sept they started 2 LB's and 5 DB's. Rodriguez suffered a back injury and DNP. Anderson was the #1 tkls with 108. This year they lose SLB Anderson (13 st, 12 tfl) and MLB Ehie (25 tkls). Despite the loss of their #1 tkls they return LY's #2 (Steve Erzinger) and there is also a shot Rodriguez could return.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Army had 3 st's back in '09 and yielded just 56% (13-13). That was #47 in the NCAA pass eff but they slipped from #92 to #99 in my PDR due to the light slate of opp QB's (3 options). LY they had 3 st's back and improved to #81 (57.2%, 22-14). This year they lose SS Donnie Dixon (12 st, #6 tkls, 1 int, 5 pbu), FS Donovan Travis (11 st, #3 tkls, 5 int, 6 pbu), Jordan Trimble (4 st, #7 tkls, 1 int, 2 pbu) and LB Brown (1 st, 16 tkls). They have 3 back who have started 9+ (in a ssn) and while slightly less exp'd, should be just as good as LY's improved secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In former HC Bobby Ross' final season, Army finished an outstanding #23 in my ST rankings. In '07 they dropped to #59 and having to replace all of their top players, fell to #111 in '08. Alex Carlton took over the FG duties in '09 (18-24) and P Jonathan Bulls used rugby-style line drive punts with little hang time. He avg'd 39.2 (34.2 net). Army all'd 3 ret td's giving them 5 over 2 yrs and finished #106. Ellerson coaches ST and with almost everyone back, they jumped up to #76 in '10. Bulls improved his net (36.4). Matt Campbell had 4 TB on 64 KO and Carlton hit 15-22 FG (8-11 from 40-49, 2 miss 50+). TY they only lose their P and LS and could show improvement once again.

COACHES - Rich Ellerson brought in the triple-option offense from Cal Poly where he had 3 Great West Titles in 8 years at CP. Ellerson learned the triple option from GT HC Paul Johnson when they coached together at Hawaii ('87-'91) with Navy HC Ken Niumatalolo (QB) and Navy OC Ivin Jasper (QB/SB) both lettering on those teams. In only his second season Ellerson led the Black Knights to their most wins and first bowl since '96. The OC is Ian Shields who was the OC at Cal Poly in '08. Ellerson has co-DC's in Payam Saadat (DC at CP for 3 yrs) and Chris Smeland who spent 15 yrs as the DC at Mich St, L'ville, Utah St and Hawaii.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Army used to be one of the NCAA's powerhouses winning three straight National Titles from 1944-46 while notching 14 Top 25 finishes in their history. Those years have long passed. They have not beaten a Top 20 team since 1972. From 1997-'08 Army was a poor 30-108 and had not won more than 4 gms in a season since 1996. In 2000 Army made the fatal mistake of shifting from the option to a passing offense and the next 4 yrs they were just 5-42 and became the first ever IA team to go 0-13 in '03. Bobby Ross took over in '04 and brought the team back to more of a rush offense and then Stan Brock took over in '07 and in '08 started the move back to the option. Rich Ellerson ran the triple option offense at Cal Poly and stepped into a good situation in '09 as Army had been softening their schedule and had already gone through the growing pains of changing schemes in '08. After being -14 in TO's in '08, they improved to +5 and the record improved from 3-9 to 5-7 and even knocked off an SEC team (Vandy). LY they had 14 ret st's which is unusually high for a service academy and I projected them to be in the Armed Forces Bowl. Army needed a td with :38 left to get past EM in the opener. After trailing Hawaii 21-0 in Wk 2, they were in great shape with the ball at UH's 28 with :24 left in a tie game but fumbled and UH got a FG with :07 left. After beating NT and Duke, they led Temple 28-13 in the 3Q but lost. They got a solid road win over Tulane 41-23 but then with a 404-250 yd edge blew a 17-3 lead and lost to Rutgers in OT. After beating VMI they lost to AF by 20. They took on the #1 rush D in the NCAA in Kent St and rushed for 233 yards in a 45-28 win wrapping up a bowl bid. ND had the benefit of playing Navy a few weeks prior and whipped Army 27-3. While they played a good game vs Navy (20-16 FD edge), they lost for the 9th straight time to their rival. In the bowl Army was outgained 413-229 but got a very fortunate 16-14 win. Army benefitted from +16 in TO's and this year has just 11 ret st's. While Army is assured a bowl if they get to 6 wins, they will have a tough time matching LY's success.

Just one prior meeting in '92, Army won 21-14. The Black Knights are 2-2 in ssn openers after a bowl ssn (2-0 if they won). After 12 straight losses in road openers Army has won B2B gms by 9 ppg.

First meeting. Prior to Army, Ellerson was the HC at Cal Poly from 2001-'08 (56-34) going 2-0 vs SDSU ('06 & '08, also lost by just 1 pt at Wisconsin). Army is 2-12 in home openers 'S97.

Home team in this series is 4-0. Last meeting was in '88 at West Point. Army is 1-6 at Michie Stadium 'S05 vs BCS schools w/ the avg loss by 24 ppg (only win was in '09 in OT vs Vandy).

Army has won both gms ('99 & '09 at West Point). In '09 QB Steelman tossed his 1st career TD pass & w/ the gm tied 17-17 Army got a huge 18 yd IR TD in the 4Q (Army outgained by 110 yds but +3 TO's).

Army has won 3 of 4 LAY vs TU but in their L'gm at West Point ('09) leading 16-7 early 4Q added 166 4Q pass yds & 10 pts. Army still had a shot for the W but missed a 37 yd FG w/ 12 left in the 1st loss.

Army has dropped 2 strvs MU ('97 & '98) but won their only trip to Oxford in '96. The gm was pld in the rain & Army dominated w/ a 200-63 yd edge leading 10-0 at HT (27-0 before a 75 yd MU TD drive w/ 39 left).

Rutgers: LY Army led 17-3 at HT but all'd 14 4Q pts to force OT. They had a ssn high 404 yds outgaining RU by 154 incl a 289-(-1) rush edge. Rutgers leads the all-time series 19-18.

Last played in '09. Army is 2-1 in Nashville incl a 42-38 win in '90 (L'visit). Army is 2-12 since becoming an Independent ('05) in BCS road/neutral gms (W's in '06 in OT at Baylor & LY at Duke).

Army is 2-0 vs Fordham but the only 2 prior meetings were in 1891 (just Army's 3rd gm ever) & '49 (finished 9-0). Rams went 5-6 LY. This will mark Fordham's 2nd yr awarding scholarships S'54.

Army has lost 13 of 14 meetings vs AF and is just 1-15 in Colorado Springs S'79. LTH it was tied 7-7 at HT. Army was outgained 252-108 & outscored 28-0 in the 2H (1st 5 poss all ended in punts).

This is the 4th different venue in the last 4 years. Army has dropped 7 straight by 22 ppg.

Army has lost 3 str yrs to the Owls incl their last visit to Philly in '09. The gm was tied 13-13 (4Q) but Army was SOD at their own 24 on 4th & inches & Temple scored twice in a 1:59 span.

Navy: Army has lost a series high 9 str (prior high was 5) vs Navy with the avg loss by 26 ppg.

Army has won 6 of 35 CIC trophy's w/ the last in '96. Into 2011, Army has lost 11 straight CIC series gms.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 MAC FORECAST

MAC WEST 1. TOLEDO - Only 2 of my 9 sets of power ratings call Toledo the best team in the MAC but they do have my #3 rated offense and #2 rated defense. The Rockets also host both NIU and WM on B2B Tuesday nights which could determine the MAC West Champion. They have 18 ret st's/r's which is the most in the league and their 9 lettermen lost are the fewest. This is HC Beckman's best team yet. While my 9 sets of power ratings are divided between NIU, Toledo and WM to be the best in the league, Toledo has the best schedule and that's why they get my call for #1.

1. WESTERN MICHIGAN - This was one of the tougher decisions. The MAC West has arguably the 3 top teams in the league this year and my main 2 sets of power ratings both call WM the top team in the league. Unfortunately the Broncos have to face both UT and NIU on the road. Last year they had a 24-11 FD edge vs Toledo and also had just 7 pts on four 2H drives inside the NIU15 giving the Huskies their closest conf gm of the season. WM is one of the most improved teams in the country and while they have to face both Toledo and NIU on the road, they are actually capable of winning both games and it wouldn't surprise me to see Cubit's Broncos playing in the MAC Championship game.

3. NORTHERN ILLINOIS - It is surprising even to me that I have last year's most dominant MAC team here at 3rd. The Huskies were the dominant team in the MAC LY outgaining MAC foes by 200.1 ypg and winning their MAC games by 31.9 ppg. The offense is loaded with the MAC's best O-line and QB but the defense is a ? as they return just 2 starters. They host WM and will likely only be a dog in one MAC game (at Toledo). Last year's squad did benefit from +11 in TO's, their 10 returning starters are the fewest in the league, their 24 lettermen lost are the most and they are going through a coaching change. Even so, 3 of my 9 sets of power ratings call them the most talented team in the MAC which once again, makes it very scary picking them here.

4. CENTRAL MICHIGAN - I didn't make a lot of friends in Mt Pleasant last year when I picked a CM team coming off a 12-2 season to finish 5th in the MAC West. The Chips not only finished 5th but were tied for last with EM at 2-6. I like the talent HC Enos is bringing in but they do play a brutal first half schedule and will likely open 1-5. I see more wins in the second half of the season and see CM moving up in the standings but they are a year away from being a contender in the West.

5. BALL ST - Surprisingly Ball St was -68.4 ypg in MAC play which tied with EM for 9th in the MAC. They were 3-5 and had a couple of tough losses and this year have 17 returning starters (tied 2nd most in the MAC). As a 1st year HC Lembo has to learn the player's strengths and weaknesses and the players must learn new schemes. This is a talented team but they draw a tough schedule pulling the top 2 teams out of the East (Temple and Ohio) and face 3 of the MAC West teams on the road including both Western Michigan and Northern Illinois.

5. EASTERN MICHIGAN - EM has not topped 4 wins in a season since 1995. In HC English's first 2 years, they were just 2-22. This year's squad is bigger, stronger, faster and more athletic, by far, than either of his first 2 versions. EM has allowed 38.3 and 43.9 ppg in his first 2 years and this year I'll call for that number to drop considerably. EM has an excellent shot at escaping the basement in the West and will be far more competitive in MAC play.

MAC Notes: There have been 4 upsets in the 7 years of the MAC Title game since it moved to Detroit including Miami's last minute win over NIU last year. The MAC has had 11 different bowl teams since 2004 with only Kent St (last bowl '72) and E Michigan ('87) not going to one in that span. Last year both division winners went on to win their bowl game as NIU throttled Fresno St 40-17 and Miami handled Middle Tenn St 35-21 but both Toledo and Ohio dropped their bowl games. Temple, despite 8 wins, and W Michigan were both eligible but were not invited to a bowl. The MAC was 9-37 vs non-conf FBS teams LY but did have 3 upsets vs BCS teams as Toledo beat Purdue, NIU beat Minnesota while Temple knocked off Conn. They finished 8-2 vs FCS teams but were upset twice as Akron lost to Garner Webb and Ball St to Liberty. The conf only had 3 players drafted which was the lowest S/'96 but Temple had both a #1 & #2 DC in Muhammad Wilkerson and Jaiquawn Jarrett while Buffalo had a #5DC in Josh Thomas.

TOLEDO ROCKETS

WR Eric Page

QUARTERBACKS - In '08, returning st'r Aaron Opelt threw for 2,176 (60%, 12-7) while #2 QB JUCO Alex Pettie (PS#180) had just 2 pass att. In '09 true frosh Austin Dantin (PS#118, Beckman recruit) jumped into the #2 spot. Opelt threw for 1,704 (61%, 14-5) in the first 5 before a partially torn rotator cuff vs WM. Dantin played decent vs WM after he fumbled his first snap. Dantin started vs NIU but inj'd his ankle. With the top 2 QB's out, Pettie started vs Temple (29-47-265, 1-2). Opelt ret'd vs Miami but was far from 100% (7-14-79) and all 3 played. Opelt and Dantin combined for 20-31-219 vs CM. Dantin hit 34-50 for 447 in the final 2. Overall, Dantin threw for 962 (66%, 4-4). LY they lost Opelt (8 st). Dantin had a fine first 4 gms hitting 61-87 (70%, 5-4). Versus WY Dantin was inj'd and Terrance Owens' first pass went 53 yds to set up a TD. Owens did lead 2 td drives. Dantin started vs Boise but later separated his shoulder vs E Mich and Owens started the last 4. The two comb'd to hit 63% throwing for 2,498 with a 20-13 ratio and both return. Adding depth are David Pasquale (6'2" 232 Jr, PS#201) and Michael Matthews (6'3" 185 So). Dantin is the stronger runner (442 gross in '10) and Owens the better passer and this should be a much improved group.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 Toledo had to replace Jalen Parmele who had B2B 1,000 yd seasons. DaJuane Collins a 211 lb power back rushed for 360 (8.2) in 3 gm, before an ankle injury. Collins rushed for just 340 (4.1) in his last 7 (miss 2). Morgan Williams (PS#32) set a school rec with 330 (11.8) vs Miami and set a Toledo frosh rushing record with 1,010 (6.0). In '09 Williams was susp'd the first 2. In the new offense, Collins ended a streak of 4 st 1,000 yd rushers (991, 5.6). Williams added 444 (6.0) and Adonis Thomas had 151 (5.6). LY they lost Collins and surprisingly Thomas took charge and rushed for 1,098 (6.3) with 150+ in 3 of the last 4. Williams had 287 (3.5) and true frosh David Fluellen (PS#185) added 224 (5.9). Not only do all 3 return but they add in Josh Haden (5'8" 195 Jr, PS#21) who had 692 (3.9) in 2 yrs at Boston College. Adding depth is Darius Reeves (6'1" 202 So). This is the best RB corps in the MAC (#1 in '08, 781).

RECEIVERS - Former HC Tom Amstutz produced the Rockets' top 2 career rec's in Lance Moore ('01-'04) and Steve Odom ('03-'06). In '09 they had to replace Nick Moore (#4 car rec). Stephen Williams had 1,065 (13.5) and Eric Page set Toledo true frosh records and was the #1 FBS frosh receiver with 1,159 (14.1). TE Danny Noble was #3 (257, 9.9) and Kenny Stafford was #4 (222, 15.9). Last year they had to replace the new career leader, Stephen Williams (10 st). They did add true frosh James Green (PS#52). Page was by far the go-to receiver with 1,105 (11.2) while RB Thomas was #2 with 372 and Stafford #3 (337, 18.7). Not listed in the PSL below are WR's Jeff Moore (6'0" 175 So) and Chase Swisher (5'10" 160 rFr). Not only does everyone return but they add in Illinois transfer Cordale Scott (PS#29) and a VHT JUCO TE. Clearly, this unit is among the best in the MAC.

OFFENSIVE LINE - The Rockets always had a quality O-line under Amstutz but in '08 they had to replace two 4 yr st's (#1DC) plus 2 bkps and only opened holes for 146 ypg rush (4.7). In '09 Tim Beckman inherited a veteran O-line with 97 career starts (#13 FBS) incl all 5 st's and they each started all 12 gms in his first year. They improved to 160 ypg rush (4.7) while allowing just 18 sks (4.0%). Last year they had to replace a 4Y starting LG but they had 100 career sts back. After the 1st three gms, the Rockets were last in the FBS in total offense and much of the blame was on the OL. They only improved slightly to 167 ypg rush (4.4, 22 sk), despite all 5 OL starting all 13. This year they lose the team's top OL in 3rd Tm MAC C Kevin Kowalski (13 st, 4Y st'r) and RG Nate Cole (13 st, 3Y st'r). They still return 85 career sts and could be just as productive especially with BOTH OT's in their 4th yr as a starter.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 Toledo had to replace 1 st'r but then lost 2 st's in their first 3 gms resulting in their worst numbers in recent history (216 ypg rush, 5.1) and had just 9 sks (tied for last in FBS). With 3 st's back in '08 they improved to 178 (4.4) but were last again in the MAC with just 10 sks. With 2 st's back in '09 they moved up to 166 (4.7) while increasing their sacks to 20 and LY again with 2 st's back improved to 133 ypg (4.0) and the DL accounted for 21.5 of the team's 29 sks. JUCO Johnnie Roberts started 12 and Malcolm Riley was their best DT (5.5 sk). This year they lose DE Alex Johnson (9 st, 23 tkl, 3 sk), DE Douglas Westbrook (1 st, 22 tkl, 5.5 sk) and DE Terrell Willis (6 tkl) but have 3 full-time starters back incl 3rd Tm MAC DE TJ Fatinikun (13 tkl) and should continue to show improvement for the 4th year in a row.

LINEBACKERS - The Rockets run a 4-2-5 but I list the STAR position at LB. The '09 LB corps had all 3 st's back but one of the 3 lost his spot. LY they had to replace their #2 tkl'r in Barry Church, who became just the 2nd UT player to be named All-MAC four straight yrs, as well as their #3 and #7 tkl'rs. They did return their #1, #6 and #12 tkl'rs and added a JUCO. Archie Donald led in tkl's a THIRD straight year (146), becoming the 1st player in UT history to do so, while Dan Molls was #2 as a soph with 143 and 10.5 tfl. Isaiah Ballard who was the 2nd fastest on the team (4.37) was the #3 tkl'. This year they lose 1st Tm MAC Donald (13 st) but do have 5 of the top 6 back making them more exp'd despite the loss of their top guy.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '09 Toledo had to replace 3 st's and 2 true frosh started. Surprisingly they climbed from #96 in my PDR in '08 to #67. Last year they had 3 st's back but then their best CB left over the summer. They added Iowa transfer Diaunta Morrow (PS#62) and he was the #9 tkl'r despite not starting. Through the first 3 gms, the Rockets intercepted 8 passes, but had just 12 more in the final 10 last year. The Rockets improved again to #49 (62.9%, 16-20). This year they lose CB Myshan Veasley-Pettis (1 st, 8 tkl) and S Drey/Lon Pree (18 tkl, 1 int). All 4 st's are back and Morrow could take Jermaine Robinson's spot (Achilles inj. ? for '11). This is one of the MAC's top secondaries.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Under Amstutz, Toledo had some fine finishes in my ST rankings including #37 in '02 and #8 in '03. In the next 6 yrs they were just #77, #61, #83, #69, #104 and dead last #120. In '09 they struggled in the return game shuffling players in and out until true frosh Eric Page took over (PR 10.8, KR 25.4). LY they had to replace their K. I said they could only finish higher LY but they were still a horrific #117 despite the presence of Page who had 3 KR td's (31.1). Toledo's 25.4 in KR was #11 in the FBS. Page did avg just 3.8 on PR's and they lost K Ryan Casano to an ACL (2-7 FG). P Bill Claus hit 4-7 FG (L38) and P Vince Penza avg 39.8. The tm's net was #117 in the FBS (31.7) as they had 4 punts blk'd. They also had just 1 TB on 66 KO. This year the unit returns intact and RM Page is one of the best in America. After being extremely poor in the kicking game LY, once again I'll say this unit can only improve in '11.

COACHES - It was surprising to me that Tom Amstutz, who spent 30 years on the staff (8Y as HC), opted to step aside after the '08 season. He guided the team to 3 MAC Title games in his first 4 yrs but unfortunately finished with 3 straight losing seasons. Tim Beckman had been Okla St's DC ('07-'08), Ohio St CB coach ('05-'06) and a DC/asst HC at BG from '98-'04. Beckman did a great job last year and got UT to a bowl in his 2nd season which snapped a 4 year drought. Toledo features two of the youngest coor's (30 & 31 yrs) in the country. The OC is Matt Campbell who is in his 3rd yr and was the BG run game coor in '08 and OL cch in '07. Beckman has co-DC's in Mike Ward who was at BG from '92-'08 (DC L2Y) and Paul Nichols who was the Marshall DB coach (2006-'08).

PHIL'S FORECAST

"Toledo Tom" Amstutz had a combined record of 45-18 his first 5 years and won 2 MAC Titles. It is very surprising to me that in his final 3 yrs they were all losing seasons even though they managed to knock off a BCS school in each of those seasons including Michigan in '08. In Tim Beckman's first year he inherited 15 ret st's and 89% of the lettermen. They had 82% of their tkl's ret (#8 FBS) and 82% of their off yards returning (#30 FBS). They opened 4-3 but lost a couple of close games and just missed out on a bowl at 5-7. Toledo was +44.6 ypg in MAC play (4th best) despite their 3-5 conf record. A couple of signs pointed towards a bowl in '10 as the '09 squad had a def ypg of 10.8 (pg 299) and they were -10 in turnovers. They also opened up a new $9 million indoor training facility and brought in the MAC's top recruiting class. Toledo was excited to host a Pac-10 team in the opener (AZ) but they were dominated 41-2. The next week at Ohio, turnovers set up 2 and 5 yd td "drives" and despite just 212 yards (did miss 4 FG) on offense they won 20-13 on the road. They travelled to WM and jumped out to a 21-0 lead and got a 73 yd td pass along with IR and KR td's. They won 37-24 despite being outFD'd 24-11 and outgained 416-268. Toledo then won their 3rd consec road game (1st time S/S) upsetting Big Ten member Purdue 31-20 but benefitted from PU not having their starting QB, RB or WR (out with inj). Toledo did become just the 4th non-BCS team to defeat at least 1 BCS program five years in a row, joining TCU, Navy, and BYU. After trailing Wyoming 20-0 they lost by 5 and then as expected were dominated by Boise on the road. Kent St led Toledo 21-7 at the half but the Rockets rallied for a 13 point win. Ball St led 17-0 in the 2Q but Toledo rallied again to win by 7. Toledo dominated EM 42-7 then was handled by NIU 65-30 (trailed 28-0 at half). At 6-4 the Rockets beat both BG and CM and had a narrow loss to FIU in the bowl for an outstanding 8-5 season, their first winning year in 5 seasons. The Rockets had an uneven season on defense as they allowed 500+ yd gms 3 times while also giving up a combined 122 pts to Boise and NIU. On the flip side, they held 3 tms to 275 yds or less and 6 tms to 17 FD's or less. This year Toledo is at the top of the MAC with 18 returning starters. On the negative side, they were +11 in TO's last year and only had 8 sts lost to injury. They do have just 9 lettermen lost and get their toughest MAC foes (WM and NIU) at home. Coach Beckman is doing a great job here and they have a great shot at making the MAC Title game.

UT is 3-0 vs NH but L/gm was in 1949. Wildcats went 8-5 LY (FCS playoffs) incl a 38-16 loss to Pitt. In '09 NH did beat Ball St. UT is 14-5 in Glass Bowl openers (7-0 vs FCS, avg score 45-14).
Tim Beckman was the CB ch at OSU from 2005-'06. UT has been shut-out in both prior meetings ('98 & '09). UT is 6-14 vs the B10 (4-5 S'00). Rockets are 8-8 all-time vs ranked foes.
First time hosting the Broncos after LY's inaugural meeting. All 4 of UT's non-conf opp's went to the postssn LY & not only did all 3 FBS tms win their bowl they finished a combined 32-7.
UT has dropped both meetings vs SU ('99 & '03) by 23 & 27 pts. The Rockets have beaten a BCS tm each of the L/5 ssns. Into 2011, Toledo is 3-7 since 2006 in non-conf road/neutral gms.
UT is 3-1 in Philadelphia w/ the only loss in '84. LTH ('05) the Rockets lead 28-0 (TD's on 1st 4 drives) & 42-10 late 4Q. Toledo is 6-14 the L/5 ssns on the MAC road but did go 3-1 LY.
UT has won 10 of 11 (L by 4 pts & W's by 28 ppg). LY QB Owens replaced the inj'd Dantino going 10-15-67%-234-40. Three of the TD passes were from 50+. Rockets are 54-26 all-time on HC.
Beckman spent 1998-'04 as the DC/Asst HC at BG. LTH in one of the MAC's biggest rivalries UT despite a 196 yd edge (+7 FD) lost due to -4 in TO's incl a fun w/3:00 left at the BG11 down 7.
HT is 5-1 S'97. In the L/gm ('09) UT was down 7 pts. They drove 99 yds & w/ a minor left a TD was signaled but after review it was determined UT fumbled the ball into the pylon (overturned to a TB).
HT has won 4 str by 29 ppg. LY was a national TV gm for 1st place in the MAC West. UT trailed 28-0 at LY being outgamed 330-111 and never got any closer than 19 pts in the 2H (only MAC loss of yr).
LY UT snapped a 4 gm series losing streak. Despite being outgained by 148 yds & w/13 less FD's UT took adv of 6 TO's (17 pts off), 7 sks & a 4Q 98 yd KR TD that sealed the win after WM got w/in a TD.
Central Michigan: UT has dropped 3 str at CM (L/2 all'd 50+ pts). LTH the Rockets jumped out to a 14-7 lead but allowed 49 unanswered as 32% (113) of their yds came on B2B late garbage TD drives.	1 VHT 8 HT	RB Josh Handen 5-8 195 Pts21 '08

QB Alex Carder

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

DEFENSE - Cubit has done a fine job molding NFL caliber WR's. In '06 WM had to replace #2 DC's WR Greg Jennings (GB) and TE Tony Scheffler (DEN). Jamarko Simmons led 3 straight yrs with 668 (11.0) in '06, 980 (11.7) in '07 and 1,276

RESERVE BACKS - In '06, WM led the NCAA in int (24) and rose to #6 in my PDR. That unit had 3 solid soph starters and surprisingly the next 2 yrs with a veteran group, they only finished #59 and #52. In '09 they had to replace 4 str's incl a 1st Tm MAC FS (#2DC) and 2nd Tm MAC CB as well as a #7DC CB. They had to replace 168 car sts (9 car sts ret). They added Miami, FL transfer Doug Wiggins (9 st). I mentioned on these pages that they may not drop as much as you would think after 2 disappointing finishes and they only fell to #70. LY they had 2 str's back. The top CB's were a true frosh, 2 rFr and a soph. CB Damond Smith and FS Wiggins had an on-field altercation (vs Idaho) and both missed the next game and Smith was later booted after 6 sts. True frosh Maurice Roberts missed the first 6 (knee) but was productive in the 2H. WM slipped a little to #83

COHEN - Bill Cubit is an outstanding HC and a fine recruiter who brings a great deal of discipline to the program. Prior to serving at WM, he was the HC at Dill Widener ('92-'96). He's been the OC at Stanford, Rutgers, Missouri and here ('97-'99). In 2007, Cubit took over the OC duties himself. Cubit hired former Hofstra HC Dave Cohen (18-27 4Y, dropped FB program) as the DC after being impressed when playing against him in 2009. Cohen was the DC at Delaware for 4 yrs prior to Hofstra.

PHM'S FORECAST

WM has had just 6 losing seasons since 1990 and was a MAC power from 1997 to 2000. WM finished 1-10 in 2004 and Bill Cubit took over in 2005 and they became the first MAC team to lose 8 conf games one year and win 5 the next (Cubit MAC COY). Despite a 7-4 record, they were not invited to a bowl. The next year they made their first bowl appearance since 1988 and were a MAC best +63.8 ypg. In '07, with a tough schedule which featured 4 BCS foes, they slipped to 5-7. In '08, I called for them to reach their 4th bowl gm in school history and they went 6-2 in the MAC and at 9-3 got to the Texas Bowl. There were signs pointing downward in '09 as they had just 10 ret str's and had benefitted from 4 net close wins in '08. WM slipped to a disappointing 5-7. LY they had just 13 ret str's and had to replace their star QB Tim Hiller but I still put them on my Most Improved List. While WM did not go to a bowl, they were bowl eligible (not invited) and were much better than their 6-6 record. They had a 24-11 FD edge vs Toledo but were done in by 6 TO's. They also lost to BCS powers Mich St and ND on the road and then suffered a tough loss to NIU. Twice they went for it on 4th down inside the NIU12 and came up short then 2 drives later turned it over again at the NIU12 on their last pass and lost by 7. The next week they suffered what Cubit said "It is the sickest I've ever felt as a coach". They led CM 22-13 in the 4Q and then trailing by 4 had a 2nd & gl at the CM 3 but fumbled. They won their last 3 by a combined 124-40 and their +78.8 ypg in MAC play was the 2nd best mark despite their 5-3 MAC record. WM joins NIU as the only 2 teams in the MAC that have been plus ypg in conference action each of the L3Y. Cubit continues to take Western Michigan to the next level with his aggressive scheduling and recruiting. Since 2006 the Broncos have faced 14 BCS teams in the regular season and have knocked off Virginia, Iowa and Illinois. Because of the schedule Cubit can convince players to come to Kalamazoo that would probably have not consider the MAC and this season 12 of his 24 recruits are from Florida. TY they have 15 ret str's including QB Carder and have my #1 set of rec's in the MAC. They also have one of the MAC's top defenses. While they play 3 BCS teams on their rd (Michigan, Illinois and Conn) plus have to travel to MAC West foes NIU and Toledo they could win a couple of those and will be one of the Most Improved Teams in the country.

WM is 0-5 vs UM losing the 3 recent meeting by 21 ppg (L/gm in '09). The Broncos have lost 16 str road openers by 24 ppg (all vs BCS schools). WM is 6-31 vs B10 opp's but S'00 has 3 wins.

LY's home opener was the school's 1st meeting. Gm was tied 14-14 but WM scored 35 unanswered limiting NSU to 44 yds the rest of the way. The Colonels went 4-7 LY incl a 47-0 loss vs SDSI.

HT has won 17 of 21 "Victory Cannon's". LY WM took a 22-13 lead into the 4Q but down 4 started a drive w/6:04 left at their 34. After a 18g from CM6, WM fumbled at the 5 w/1:37 ending the comeback.

WM is 0-2 in Champaign but won the last game (Detroit, '08). LTH ('04), WM led 27-23 late 4Q before allowing a 40 yd KR that set up UI for a 40/6pl GW TD w/1:02 left.

2nd meeting. WM lost 41-27 LTH in '03 blowing a 17 pt lead. Into 2011, the Broncos are 3-12 in road/neutral gms vs BCS foes. Six of WM's 7 AG's TY are vs bowl squads from LY.

LY was the 1st meeting S'05. WM led 27-0 at HT w/a 251-122 yd edge forcing 4 straight BG punts to open gm. Into 2011, under HC Cubit the Broncos are 16-8 in MAC HG's.

Broncos are 1-4 S'01 in DeKalb (win by 4 pts, avg loss by 26 ppg). LTH was NIU's HC & WM was mauled 38-3. The Broncos have won at least 2 MAC AG's every ssn under Cubit.

WM has reeled off 3 straight wins by DD's. LTH WM did trail early but scored 28 pts off of a ssn high 6 forced TO's. The Broncos last won the MI MAC Championship in '05.

HT is 1-5. WM hasn't won 2 in a row in this series S'99 & '00. LY WM jumped out to a 28-0 lead & by HT it was 31-6 (237-129 yd edge). Broncos took advantage of 5 TO's resulting in 24 pts.

Broncos have won 2 str trips to the Glass Bowl after dropping 9 in a row. LTH WM scored 58 pts which was a series high (65 gms) while the 32 pt MOV was the biggest S'50. WM led 41-12 at HT.

Miami OH: WM is 5-22-1 in Oxford. In '01 (LTH) MU QB Ben Roethlisberger was a Fr and WM trailed 16-0 at HT but cut the deficit to 16-11 mid-3Q. From that point WM's offense went into a "shell" gaining just 20 yds.

Bill Cubit was the RB coach at Akron from 1990-'91. The HT is 5-1 & has won 3 str. LY WM jumped out to 35-0 lead before HT w/a 360-144 yd edge. LY WM was 3-0 vs the MAC East Div. avg win by 38 ppg.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS HUSKIES

DE Sean Progar

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 returning starter Dan Nicholson's shoulder was not 100% and he played in just 5 (3 st, 447 pass yds). RFR Chandler Harnish (PS#98) was the top rushing QB here (539, 4.6) since Stacey Robinson (1990). He threw for 1,528 (56%, 8-9). Another RFR, DeMarcus Grady (PS#100) threw for 138 (58%, 2-0) while rushing for 188 (4.8). In '09 Harnish was the clear-cut st'r and Coach Kill even compared him to CM's Dan LeFevour. Harnish hurt his right knee vs Toledo and had minor surgery missing 3 before returning (not 100%). Harnish greatly improved to 64% throwing for 1,670 (11-6) and was the #4 rusher (229, 2.6). Grady was the #3 rusher with 330 (5.6) while throwing for 280 (58%, 3-2). Harnish missed the '10 spring and did not start the opener. Grady threw 3 int's and the job was Harnish's and he lived up to Kill's advance billing. He threw for 2,530 (64.7%) with a 21-5 ratio while also rushing for 836 (6.1) and earning MAC West OPW 3 times and 1st Tm MAC. Grady pld'd in 4 hitting 14-29-93 and 3rd string QB Jordan Lynch rushed for 362 (11.7) with 81 and 61 yd td runs vs EM. TY Grady moves to WR and while Harnish must learn a new offense, he looks like the MAC's best.

RUNNING BACKS - NIU has surprisingly had 3 players lead IA in rushing in Mark Kellar ('73), LeShon Johnson ('93) and Garrett Wolfe ('06). Heading into '08, NIU had 9 straight yrs with a 1,000 yard rusher as Justin Anderson (PS#54) rushed for 1,245 (4.5) in '07. In Jerry Kill's 1st season he rotated his RB's as Anderson was coming off of knee surgery. Five diff players led in rushing over the first 8 and Anderson finished with just 209 (3.9). Kill recruit Me'co Brown (PS#202) was the #1 RB with 510 (4.6) while Chad Spann led in the bowl with 79 (5.6) and finished with 429 (4.9). Ricky Crider added 208 (4.8). In '09 the top 4 all ret'd. Brown and Spann emerged at the end of Aug with Kill calling them "Bolt & Jolt". Brown rushed for 150 vs Purdue but was inj'd (30 yd last 4) and finished with 645 (4.4). Spann led with 1,038 (5.8, 1st Tm MAC) and an outstanding 19 rush td's. LY they lost Anderson (151, 6.6) and Brown (3rd Tm MAC) but Spann rushed for 1,388 (5.4) with 22 td's. The #2 RB, Jasmin Hopkins (PS#106JC) had 366 (9.6) while Iowa St transfer Cameron Bell (6'2" 248 Sr, PS#176) added 228 (5.8). TY they lose Crider (225, 6.1), FB Kyle Skarb (9 st, 6 rec) and most importantly Spann. Not in the PSL are Antoine Kirkland (5'11" 206 So, PS#297), James Spencer (5'11" 176 rFr), Devon Bailey (5'9" 195 rFr), Trevor Jacobs (6'1" 217 rFr) and FB's Bobby Winkel (6'2" 212 rFr), Ricky Connors (6'2" 257 rFr), Pat McAvo (6'1" 234 Sr) and Ross Elliot (6'1" 233 So). The unit figures to take a step back but does add Jamal Womble (PS#105JC) who was orig at N Carolina.

RECEIVERS - Former HC Joe Novak produced 4 NFLWR's and 3 NFL TE's during his 12 yrs. In '09 they had to replace their top 2 rec's (only 480 and 377 yds) and the unit was the biggest ? on the offense. Two true fresh WR's emerged in Perez Ashford and Martel Moore (six of NIU's top 7 WR's were fresh or soph). Landon Cox became the first rec to top 100 in a game with 132 vs Ohio and led with 535 (11.9). Marcus Lewis was #2 with 299 (10.3) and soph Willie Clark added 220 (11.6). LY they had to replace Lewis and Clark led with 602 (14.3). Moore had 525 (13.1) and Cox dropped to #4 at 429 (12.3). Nathan Palmer only had 5 rec in '09 after being the leading returning rec (278, 23.2, 3 st in '08) and he was #2 LY with 532 (18.3). TY year they lose Cox (12 st) and perhaps TE Jason Schepler (10 st, 8 rec) who was inj (knee) in the spg and may RS but they should still have improved production.

OFFENSIVE LINE - The Huskies had a veteran O-line in '09 with their best totals in 4 yrs opening holes for 195 ypg rush (4.8) and all'g just 15 sk. LY they had to replace a pair of 1st Tm MAC OL's (C 4Y str, LG 3Y str). The unit had its best production in over 20 yrs with 260 ypg rush (6.3, 13 sk). One of the 3 ret st's, RT Adam Kiel lost his spot. Harnish's scrambling ability did help those numbers (836 yds rush, 6.1). The great news for new HC Doeren is that the MAC's best O-line returns virtually intact (9 of top 10). The lone loss is LG Ed Jackson (4 st) so they have 6 who have been full-time st's, but it will be tough to improve too much upon LY's production. They have 116 car sts ret (#5 FBS) and add an OL that is 7'0" 376 in Kyle Getzelman!

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Huskies had an inexp'd and inj plagued D-line in '07 and star DE Larry English was coming off a torn ACL suffered in the bowl. NIU slipped to allowing 210 ypg rush and 4.7 ypc, their worst numbers since 1997. With everyone back in '08 they improved greatly to 137 ypg (4.1). In '09 they had to replace their highest DC in school history (English #1DC) and 2 other st's then lost their lone ret st'r prior to the season. Very surprisingly the D improved to 124 ypg (3.8). LY when I wrote the magazine 1st Tm MAC Jake Coffman had announced he was not returning and they also had to replace 2nd Tm MAC DE Bice (5 sk). Coffman changed his mind over the summer meaning 7 of the top 8 were back and Mike Krause (13 st '08, miss '09) also ret'd. Surprisingly the numbers slipped a little (127 ypg, 3.9). This year they lose Coffman (1st Tm MAC, 14 st, #6 tkf'r, 16.5 tfl), DT DJ Pirkle (14 st, 24 tkf, 5.5 tfl), NG Krause (14 st, 27 tkf, 5.5 tfl), DE Darnell Bolding (26 tkf, 2.5 tfl) and DT Brian Lawson (14 tkf, 3 tfl). While NIU's rush D numbers have been atypical of their exp level the last 2 yrs, this unit is clearly less exp'd and weaker than the '10 version.

LINEBACKERS - In '08 NIU ret'd their top 6 LB's and allowed just 18.0 ppg. Kill was very high on the LB corps in '09 despite having to replace 2 st's (#3, #5 tkf'r's) and they allowed 21.6 ppg. LY they only had to replace 1 st'r (#2 tkf'r). Pat Schiller (43 tkf'r) tore his ACL in the spring and his numbers dropped to 18 tkf (82 in '09) in 9 gms. Devon Butler became a force in the middle (3rd Tm MAC) and was the #2 tkf'r while Tyrone Clark was #3. This year they only lose 2nd Tm MAC SLB Alex Kube (14 st, #1 tkf'r) but it looks as though they won't return any st's. Clark will sit out the year and Butler who was shot in April, will RS. They do return Schiller (13 st '09). Not listed below is Dan Edem (6'2" 219 Jr, PS#131, 3 tkf). It'll be difficult to even approach the numbers of the last 3 years.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In Kill's first year ('08), NIU finished #80 in my PDR. LY they had 7 of the top 8 back incl #1 tkf'r SS Tracy Winston. I called for NIU to have their best finish in my PDR S/'05 (#34). They did indeed achieve that by finishing #57 (59%, 15-16). Mike Sobol (8 st '09) had a knee inj in the spring LY but still started 11. Wilson only played in 8 (inj). TY they lose 1st Tm

MAC CB Chris Smith (13 st, #5 tkf'r, 3 int, 12 pbu), SS Sobol (#7 tkf'r), CB Patrick George (12 st, #11 tkf'r, 6 pbu), Wilson (3 st, 35 tkf), CB Kiaree Daniels (2 st, 31 tkf) and SS Garrett Barnes (15 tkf). Tommy Davis was the #4 tkf'r and the other returning DB's did have 39, 21 and 20 tkf's as Kill rotated plyrs. This, however, is a less exp'd group that will drop in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Novak produced 4 plyr's who earned MAC ST POY in 4 consec yrs and his units finished as high as #8 (2000) in my ST rankings. With an injury plagued tm they dropped to #107 in '07. In Kill's 1st yr they only had to replace their K and improved to #77. They blk'd 5 punts and JC K Mike Salerno hit 18 of 24 FG's (tied schl rec 52 yd'r). In '09 they only had to replace their 4 yr P (33.6 net '08). NIU moved up to #47. Kill utilized rFr Tommy Davis as the KR (24.1) and PR (8.0). Salerno hit 19-25 FG's (3 miss 50+) and had 10 TB on 72 KO. He also att'd 5 outside kicks (NIU rec'd 4) in 2 yrs. Perez Ashford took his first ever PR 44 yds for a td. Salerno split the P duties with Josh Wilber (tm net 33.7). LY they had to replace Salerno. Jimmie Ward blk'd 3 punts and ret'd another for a td. NIU set a schl record with 6 blk'd punts and moved up to #22. Wilber avg 39.8 (33.7 net). Michael Cklamovski (Ill trans) missed his first 2 FG's and lost his job but regained it and hit 17-27 (L51 in bowl). Davis was once again the top RM. TY they return Davis and Ward but lose Wilber, Cklamovski and 4Y LS Nolan Owen and probably won't block as many punts with the new coaching staff.

COACHES - New HC Dave Doeren replaces Jerry Kill who left for Minn after 3 seasons (24-16). Doeren was the DC at Wisconsin the last 3 years (co-DC there two years prior). New OC Matt Canada had been Indiana's OC the last 4 yrs and takes over those duties here while the new DC is Jay Niemann who was the co-DC in Div III at Hardin-Simmons Univ in Texas.

PHIL'S FORECAST

NIU was -17 in TO's in '07, had 3 net close losses, had poor off and def ypg's and had 38 sts lost. They went from being an inexp'd team to one with 20 seniors who had starting exp in '08. Naturally, in HC Jerry Kill's first year, I made them one of my Most Improved Teams. NIU could have achieved more but lost 4 gms by a total of 14 pts and then lost in the bowl by 7. They also went through 3 different starting QB's due to inj's. In '09 I called for NIU to be bowl eligible again and they upset Purdue on the road 28-21 and got to the International Bowl vs USF. It was the first time they played in B2B bowl since joining the major ranks in 1969 and reached the 6 win mark for the 9th time in 10 yrs. LY they were a much more veteran unit going from 3 ret st's on D to 8. All 9 sets of my power ratings called them the most talented team in the MAC West and I called for them to knock off at least 1 BCS conf foe and finish with their most wins since '04. NIU surpassed even my expectations as they had their first undefeated MAC season and were +200.1 ypg (121 ypg better than #21). They had a close loss at Illinois but then knocked off Minn to open 2-2 before running the MAC table. They won their MAC games by 31.9 ppg! Their only 2 close MAC games came vs Temple (won by 14) and WM, who was SOD twice inside the 15 and NIU got a late int inside their 15 and held on for a 7 pt win. They appeared to have the MAC Title game wrapped up until Miami got a 4820 pass tipped for a FD then a 33 yd TD pass 2 pl later with :33 left. Coach Kill and both coor left for Minnesota prior to the bowl and LB coach TM Matukewicz did a tremendous job as the interim HC as NIU dominated Fresno St 40-17. This year they have a new HC and there are some signs pointing down as they were +11 in TO's LY (pg 312), had only 8 sts lost to injury and their off ypg was 11.8 (pg 299). They return perhaps the MAC's best QB in Chandler Harnish and their entire O-line. This was by far the best team in the MAC LY but go through a coaching change and have just 2 st's back on defense. They also play Kansas, Wisc and Toledo away from home and while it will be a good year, they will not match LY's 11 win total.

The last & only military school to visit DeKalb was Navy in '08. NIU lost 16-0. In only prior gm, NIU lost 21-14 at West Point in '92. Huskies are 9-2 the L11Y in home openers (Loss in '07 to S Illinois).

HC Doeren was on the KU staff from '02-'05 serving as the LB cch then being promoted to co-DC in '05. NIU beat KU in the only prior meeting, 37-34 ('83). NIU is 2-20 S'89 in road openers.

Doeren spent the L5Y w/UW (co or full DC L3). NIU also played at Soldier Field in '07 (16-3 loss vs Iowa). NIU's only series W was in '88, since they have lost 4 str (3 by a TD or less).

First meeting. Mustangs finished 7-4 LY incl a 38-17 loss vs Fresno. CP is 0-5 vs current MAC schools, avg loss by 25 ppg. The Huskies have won 9 of 11 vs FCS schools, w/ the avg score 38-15.

NIU is 10-3 S'98 but has dropped B2B trips to Mount Pleasant. LTH NIU trailed 38-10 into the 4Q but went on B2B TD drives & got the ball back. Any hopes of a comeback fell short losing a pick 6 w/3:58 left.

NIU is 15-3 S'71 including 3 str wins by 22 ppg. L/gm ('08) NIU led just 14-7 at HT but got 4 str TD's to open the 2H including a 60 yd FR. NIU is 11-1 L3Y in MAC HG's incl 8 str wins by 28 ppg.

NIU is 7-3 the L10Y incl B2B wins. LY NIU trailed 21-20 in a back-n-forth gm w/5:56 left. Huskies went 79/7pl for a TD w/3:42 but after a WM FD at NIU needed an int at their 12 to seal it w/39.

Third trip ever to Buffalo. NIU won 45-21 in '99 & 40-9 in '03 (LTH). NIU only led 10-9 late 2Q before a key int sparked 30 unanswered. Into 2011, NIU is 23-12 on the MAC road S'02 (4-0 LY).

NIU is 1-16 at the Glass Bowl S'74 (3-14 vs UT S'90). LTH NIU led by 5 in the 4Q but allowed a 90/10pl TD drive w/7:05 to trail by 1 (2 plng). NIU had a 42 yd FG b'kd on final drive (also XP b'kd earlier).

NIU has won B2B meetings but hasn't won in Bowling Green S'86. LTH ('03) marked the 1st time S'73 that 2 MAC schools came in ranked. NIU trailed 24-3 at HT being outgained 370-62.

Huskies have won B2B meetings but the HT is 2-5. LY NIU clinched the MAC West Div w/ the win. They led 35-7 at HT w/ a commanding 284-34 yd edge. In fact BSU's only TD was a 7/4pl drive after a fum.

Bonus: Northern Illinois is 2-14 since '04 vs BCS schools in road/neutral gms but beat Minnesota LY.

The L3Y NIU has dominated EM w/ a avg score 53-3 (21-13 FD & 507-200 yd avg ppgm). LY's 71 pts were the 5th most in NIU history & the 68pt MOV was a MAC high & NIU's biggest S'1921 (91-10 over Elmhurst).

CENTRAL MICHIGAN CHIPPEWAS

WR Cody Wilson

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Dan LeFevour had a phenomenal career here almost doubling the previous career passing leader in yards with 12,905 (see next pg). He became the first player in NCAA history to pass for 12,000 and rush for 2,500 and became the MAC's all-time career leader in passing yds and td passes (102) while finishing #2 in the FBS with 15,853 yds of total offense. In '09 LeFevour threw for 3,438 (70%) with an impressive 28-7 ratio while rushing for 713 (3.9) with 15 rush tds. Last year they had to replace their remarkable QB (#6DC CHI) and while it was a 4-man battle, I projected Soph Ryan Radcliff (10-21-115, 0-2 ratio in '09) as the starter. Radcliff threw the 2nd most passes (466) in a season in school history and finished with CM's 3rd most passing yards, throwing for 3,358 (60.5%) but with only a 17-17 ratio. However he does not have LeFevour's mobility (-99 rush, 1 rush td). He was pulled in the 4Q vs NIU for JUCO Brandon Fricke (3 gm, 4-8 pass). Derek Rifenbury played in 2 (2-2). Adding depth is HT newcomer Alex Niznak (PS#88, IFS). This unit is vastly more experienced than the 2010 version which returned a combined 21 career pass attempts (all by Radcliff). CM rec's dropped 51 passes LY so Radcliff could easily have topped 65% and with a more reliable set of receivers, look for his comp % to improve.

RUNNING BACKS - CM has not had an RB rush for 1,000 yds since Ontario Sneed in '05 (1065, 4.8). QB LeFevour was the team's leading rusher in '07 (1122, 6.0), '08 (592, 3.5) and '09 (713, 3.9). Their leading RB rusher in '09 was Bryan Schroeder (559, 5.6), who quit in July '10 making the leading returnee Carl Volny (390, 4.8 in '09). Last year Jr Paris Cotton emerged (321, 3.9 '08-'09) taking control early in a 209 yd effort vs EM (first 200 yd rush gm for CM plyr S/'04). By Wk 9 he had lost 4 fumbles and only finished with 651 (4.6). Volny was #2 with 402 (5.0) and rFr Zurlon Tipton (PS#388) added 203 (3.6) with 4 tds in the last 2 gms. This year they lose Volny (5 st) and FB Tyler Reed (2 st, 44 rec yds) but are more experienced.

RECEIVERS - Last year CM had to replace their #1 and #3 career leading rec's in Antonio Brown (3199, 10.5, #6DC PIT) and Bryan Anderson (3648, 12.6), who also holds the NCAA record with a reception in 54 consecutive games. Those two combined to lead CM in rec from '06-'09 and in fact were the top 2 receivers from '07-'09. In '09 Brown led with 1198 (10.9), while Anderson had 784 (12.3). The leading returning WR's were #3 Kito Poblach (681, 12.8) and #5 Cody Wilson (226, 9.0). Wilson led LY and became just the 6th CM WR to have 1,000 yds in a season (1137, 13.7, 3rd best CM ssn) and earned the team MVP Award. Poblach caught a pass in each of his last 36 gms and finished #2 with 558 (12.7). 6'3" Jerry Harris was #3 with 332 (11.1) and TE David Blackburn #4 with 285 (13.0). Not in the PSL are TE's Joe Sawicki (6'5" 243 rFr) and Bryan Erickson (6'5" 205 rFr). This year they lose Poblach (11 st, CM #9 all-time rec) and Matt Torres (2 st, 128, 11.6) while Valtorrey Showers (5 gm, 0 rec) moves to CB. They return 4 of their top 5 receivers and this unit is more experienced and do not have to replace 2 of their top rec's in school history.

OFFENSIVE LINE - CM had to replace 3 st's in '09 but despite being less exp'd than the '08 version (4 st's back), the unit improved from 134 ypg (3.6) while allowing 30 sks (6.3%) to 168 ypg rush (4.6) with just 17 sks (3.5%). Last year they only had to replace a 1st Tm MAC RG and had 4 st's back (104 car sts, #13 FBS). They lost LT Jake Olson after 3 sts and RT Rocky Weaver moved to LT and struggled in his place. Despite being more exp'd, they struggled in the new offense opening holes for just 106 ypg rush (3.3) while allowing 33 sks (6.9%). Of course losing LeFevour's 713 net yds rushing (Radcliff -99) was a big part of the drop. This year they lose 1st Tm MAC C Colin Miller (12 st, 4Y st'r) and LG Jeff Maddux (12 st, 4Y st'r). They do get Olson back to shore up one spot so they have 4 back that have been full-time st's while Mike Repovz started the last 5 at RT. Last year's numbers were weaker than expected so even losing a pair of 4 year st's, the Chippewas' OL (69 car sts) should produce better numbers in the 2nd year of the new offense.

DEFENSIVE LINE - CM showed improvement in each of Butch Jones' final 2 yrs allowing 123 ypg rush (3.7) in '09, their best numbers in 4 yrs. Last year they had to replace both starting DE's. CM led the MAC in rush D in 3 of the previous 5 seasons ('05, '07, '08) not finishing below #3 in that span. Despite having both DT's back, they switched to a 3-4 vs WM because they did not have the depth on the DL. CM slipped to allowing 172 ypg rush (4.5) with their sack total dipping to 21, their lowest since '04. This year they lose 2nd Tm MAC NT Sean Murnane (11 st, 36 tkl, 9 tfl) but have 3 st's returning pending DE Keshawn Fraser (8 st, 27 tkl, 2 tfl) who was indef susp in April. After LY's large drop in the numbers, there should still be good sized improvement in 2011 despite the loss of their top guy.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 CM ret'd all 3 st's (#1, #3 and #5 tkl's) and they allowed just 18.9 ppg, the fewest they've allowed since '92. Nick Bellore was the team's best def player each of the previous 3 yrs setting a CM record for tkl's in a season (148 in '08). Matt Berning was the #2 tkl'r (108) in '09. LY they had to replace 1 st'r but ret'd 6 of the top 8. CM may have allowed 26.0 ppg LY but still had one of the MAC's best LB corps. Bellore, who had a 51 gm starting streak end vs Navy (inj) became just the 6th CM player to be voted 1st Tm MAC in 3 different seasons while Berning also earned 1st Tm MAC. Bellore finished 3rd in career tkl (472) just 18 shy of #1. This year they lose their 2 leaders but return their #4 and #7 tkl's. Bellore (11 st, 7 tfl) and Berning (12 st, 13 tfl) leave some big shoes to fill.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '08 CM had a revolving door at DB incl 6 different lineups and finished #109 in my PDR. In '09 I called for a big jump in the rankings as they ret'd all 4 st's (8 w/st exp). CM's secondary did not disappoint as they finished #35 which was their highest finish ever. Last year they had to replace 3 st's incl a 1st Tm MAC CB and I called for a sizeable drop in my PDR. CM did just that finishing #99 (60.8%, 16-4). CB LaVarus Williams (12 tkl) was lost for the year (knee) after 3 sts and now departs TY along with CB Vince Agnew (12 st, #5 tkl'r, 1 int, 6 pbu) and FS Bobby Seay (7 st, 44 tkl, 1 int). QB Kyle Smith (PS#116) moved to S in the spring. They are a more veteran unit and return SS Jahleel Addae (#3tkl'r, 4 pbu) and should make a good sized improvement in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2008 CM finished #55 in my ST rankings almost topping the team's previous high (#53 in '95). They had all of their key players back in '09 and improved to a new high at #46. A couple of key losses last year were K Andrew Aguila who hit 17-23 (L/49, 7 TB KO) as well as their top KR (22.1) and PR (13.5) Antonio Brown, who left early for the NFL. LY FG's were a problem early on with Paul Mudgett and Richie Hogan combining to hit 1-8 FG's. David Harman took over the job and hit 9-12 (L/41). P Brett Hartmann had 14 TB on 54 KO and actually improved his P avg from 38.4 to 40.1 but CM's net dropped from 34.6 to 32.9 while the return game was average. Overall CM plummeted to #115. This year they lose their P but can only improve upon last year's poor finish.

COACHES - After CM's MAC Championship win in 2006, 3rd year HC Brian Kelly (19-16) left to become the HC at Cincy (now ND). Butch Jones (OC here '01-'03) became the first coach to win the MAC Title in his inaugural season S/'01. Jones led CM to another MAC Title in '09 before exiting prior to the bowl to become the HC of Cincy, again replacing Kelly. Dan Enos is in his second season as HC after serving as an asst coach at Mich St ('06-'09) and Cincy ('04-'05) and serving as OC at NDak St ('03). The OC is Mike Cummings who is in his 4th stint (11th season) with the Chippewas. Cummings was most recently the OC at Marshall ('05-'09). Joe Tumpkin is the DC after spending time at Pitt ('08-'09) and SMU ('05-'07), both as LB coach.

PHIL'S FORECAST

In 1994 CM won a MAC Title but for the next 10 years, only finished above 5th place once. In Brian Kelly's 3rd year ('06) he guided CM to a 9-4 record including the MAC Title where they dominated Ohio 31-10 in the Championship game. Jeff Quinn (now HC at Buffalo) was the interim HC for the Motor City Bowl. Butch Jones took over in 2007 and did a fine job in his 3 years with a combined 22-3 MAC record and two MAC Titles ('07 & '09) as CM finished ranked (#23) in the final poll of '09 for the first time ever. Last year I went out on a limb and called for CM to finish fifth in the MAC West, a drastic drop from their 12 win total. CM was changing schemes on both offense and defense, had just 5 HG's and had benefited from 3 net close wins in '09. CM was still picked 2nd in the MAC West in the MAC's preseason poll. Dan Enos became the first CM coach to win his debut since Herb Deromedi (1978) when they beat FCS Hamilton 33-0. An 18 game win streak vs MAC East teams ended with a 3 pt OT loss at Temple (went 0-3 vs MAC East). After dominating EM 52-14, they trailed NW 30-13 and got a couple of late scores to only lose by 5. They trailed Ball St 28-3 in the 4Q and lost by 14. After an expected loss to VT, they were upset as Miami got a 71 yd td pass with :19 left to pull out a 7 point win. They were pounded by 26 at NIU then BG, which came in just 1-7, dealt them their 3rd straight home loss 17-14. CM got a fortunate 4 pt win as WM fumbled at the 3 w/1:37 left. Navy was without starting QB Ricky Dobbs and CM got a td with :04 left but opted to go for 2 and the win but came up short. In the season finale they lost by 11 to Toledo and finished just 3-9, which was their 1st losing season since 2004 (Kelly's 1st season). CM was -11 in TO's (pg 312) and also had 4 net close losses (pg 299). In 2011, CM is one of only 4 tms to play 12 games without a bye and is also the only team to have TWO three game road trips. CM lost 4 of 5 players that made All-MAC in '10. Enos stepped into a tough situation last year and is now in his 2nd year with 14 ret st's. This is a young team and there will be a lot of frosh in the 2 deep. The early schedule is brutal (3 road gms vs BCS) and I will call for a 1-5 start but the 2H of the year will be much better as they play a 3 gm stretch vs teams that went a comb 7-29 in '10. This team is a year away from contending for the MAC West crown.

First meeting. Bulldogs went 9-3 L.Y. Their losses were to GT, MEAC Co-Champ B-CU & in the FCS playoffs. SCST is 0-7 vs FBS opps (avg loss by 32 ppg). CM has won 4 str home openers (avg score 41-11).

CM is 0-7 vs the SEC & 0-5 vs UK dropping the L/gm 45-36 in '06. Chippewas are 3-18-1 in road openers including 5 str losses by an avg score 36-11. LY CM was 0-3 after a win.

HC Dan Enos was the QB ocl at WM from '00-'02. CM has won 5 str (ties longest series streak '77-'81 & '83-'87). LTH gm was tied 13-13 until CM got B2B TD's in the final 1:20 of the 1H (never trailed in 2H).

HC Enos played QB at MSU from 1987-'90 later serving as a grad asst from 1991-'93 & QB/RB cch prior to CM from 2006-'09. CM pulled the upset LTH ('09) & since have won 5 str vs instate schools into 2011.

HT is 4-1. LY's loss snapped a CM 3 gm series win streak. CM only trailed 9-7 at the half despite 3 1HTO's incl a int at the NI26 right before HT. 2H was all NIU as CM was outgained 238-112 (2 more TO's).

First meeting. Into '11, CM is 2-28 S/'93 on the road vs BCS schools, avg score 44-17 (wins in '09 at MSU & '08 at IU). CM is 2-18 in first meetings vs current BCS tms (wins in '90 vs Cin & '91 at #18 MSU).

CM has won 2 str in dominating fashion, outscoring EM 108-22 with a 1044-613 yd edge (FD's 53-33). The 2009 win was the largest over a MAC opp S'81. CM has won the MI MAC Champ L2Y.

The Chippewas are 5-2 S/'04 vs the Cardinals including 3-0 in Muncie and the visitor has won 4 str. Last time here Central Michigan led 21-3 at HT with a 271-98 yd edge.

CM has won 4 str & their L/loss in Akron was in '97. LTH ('07) CM was down 32-20 mid-4Q but went 57/4pl (30 yd TD pass), forced a punt & went 53/5pl getting the GW TD w/1:31 (UA int'd on the next play).

Last met in '07. CM has won 2 str & their L/loss to KSU was in '00 (2-9 ssn). CM has gone 5-1 S/'90 at Dix Stadium. Into 2011, CM is 22-6 in MAC road/neutral gms S/'05.

CM is 21-4-2 vs OU incl 4 str wins by 15 ppg. Last meeting was for the '09 MAC Title in Detroit.

LY CM had their series high 5 gm win streak snapped. CM never led trailing 28-7 in 1H & 35-17 into the 4Q.

LY CM had their worst MAC home mark S/'03 but into 2011 are 20-8 S/'04 hosting conf foes.

Ohio: In '09, CM led 17-7 at HT & had a DD lead the entire 2H holding OU to a punt, missed 51 yd FG & SOD on L/3 drives.

BALL ST CARDINALS

LB Travis Freeman

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Nate Davis (PS#35) started as a rFr and left 3 yrs later as the school's career passing leader despite leaving early (#5DC SF). He was the MAC OPOY in '08 throwing for 3,591 (64%, 26-8). Former HC Stan Parrish was high on rFr Kelly Page (PS#82) who threw for 1,019 (53%, 7-9) in '09 but was lost in Wk 7 to injury. Tanner Justice replaced him and threw for just 594 (49%, 2-5). LY they had to replace Justice while Page and Aaron Mersham (PS#114) battled for the starting spot in the spring. In the fall Mersham moved to TE and true frosh Keith Wenning (PS#225), who Parrish compared to Davis, got plenty of reps. Page was pulled early in a few games and Wenning took over starting the last 10 throwing for 1,373 (54.5%, 14-14). Page threw for 470 (53.5%, 4-2). Those two return as does Brooks Medaris (6'0" 171 So). No matter who wins the job, BSU should have improved passing numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - MiQuale Lewis (5'6") finally stayed healthy in '08. He broke Marcus Merriweather's season school record (1,618 yds '02) with 1,736 (5.4) and broke Mark Bornholdt's 1979 school record of 19 rush tds (22). Lewis was also #3 w/35 rec. rFr Cory Sykes had 428 (5.5). In '09 all the top backs ret'd. Lewis (avg spd) was not a good fit with the young O-line. He had just 263 (3.3) after 6 gms. Speedy youngsters Eric Williams avg'd 4.7 ypc and Cory Sykes avg'd 4.6 in that span. I used Lewis as one of my RB's of the Week on PhilSteele.com vs BG despite his 44 ypg avg and he didn't disappoint with 115 (6.4) and Williams added 88 (9.8) out of the Wildcat. The next week Lewis (301, 11.6) and Sykes (203, 8.8) became the first duo ever to have 300 and 200 yds rushing in the same game. Sykes led in rushing each of the last 3 (75, 85 and 70). For the season Lewis had 871 (4.8), Sykes added 559 (6.2) and Williams tallied 362 (5.7). Lewis entered '10 needing 669 to become Ball St's all-time leading rusher but came up short (414, 3.5) while missing the finale. Sykes at 57" was still used as a powerback and is one of the strongest and fastest on the team, but he injured his knee and only played in 8 (260, 5.7). Williams led with 613 (4.8) and rFr David Brown (PS#265) was #3 with 348 (5.6). Not listed below are Nick Najem (5'11" 200rFr) and Dwayne Donigan (5'6" 171 Jr). Despite the loss of Lewis, this unit should have improved production TY.

RECEIVERS - In 2008 true frosh Briggs Orsborn led with 813 (12.0) while TE Darius Hill added 670 (16.8). In '09 they lost

Hill and with a much less experienced QB, Orsborn's numbers dropped to 461 (9.0) and 5'9" Torieal Gibson (337, 13.5) was #2. 6'3" Daniel Ifft (PS#104) had 6 sts (269, 13.4). The key loss was TE Madaris Grant (6'5" 235) who they built much of the offense around. He had 285 (11.0) in '08 but was inj'd in the '09 opener (OFY). LY Grant was denied a 6th year and his replacement, Zane Fakes tore his ACL after 4 sts. Orsborn dropped to #2 (295, 10.5) and true frosh Jack Tomlinson, who WR coach Joey Lynch compared to Dante Love (set MAC record for all-purp yds in '07), led with 484 (16.7). rFr Otis Brown (PS#214) was #3 with 247 (13.0) and Ifft added 149 (8.8). Converted QB Aaron Mersham had 125 (9.6). TY they lose Ifft (7 st) but have everyone else back and New HC Lembo likes tall rec's so keep an eye on some true frosh to emerge. Adding depth are TE's Derek Orr (6'6" 225 rFr, PS#117) and Ryan Huguenard (6'4" 215 rFr). This group should have improved production.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In former HC Brady Hoke's first year (2003) the O-line was small (268 lb avg). In 2005, they were plagued by susp and injuries and allowed a MAC high 43 sks and had just 2.9 ypc. With 4 st's back in '08 they paved the way for 185 ypg rush (5.0) with just 14 sks (3.5%). In '09 they had to replace three 1st Tm MAC OL. Given that data, you would have expected a sharp decline but they still opened holes for 159 ypg rush (4.4) with 30 sk (9.6%). LY they had 92 career sts ret (5 st's). The unit did lose LT Cameron Lowry after 3 st (ACL) and moved LG Michael Switzer to LT (43 consec st at LG). RT Austin Holtz (8 st '09) lost his job starting just 6. C Kreg Hunter had just 5 sts (susp, ankle). The revamped O-line still opened holes for 152 ypg (4.1) and trimmed the sack total to 16 (5.2%). TY they lose LT 3rd Tm MAC Switzer (12 st) but actually have 9 of the top 10 back (96 car sts) and 7 who have 5+ sts in a season. This is a veteran and much improved O-line but will have to learn new schemes.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Heading into '09 the Cards had not allowed less than 4.6 ypc rush since '01. Even in their undefeated regular season of '08, they yielded 163 ypg (4.6) which was best of the decade. In '09 the unit ret'd intact. In the new 4-3 D, 33-yr-old Brandon Crawford moved outside to DE and Ball St's exp'd front yielded just 152 ypg (4.0) but had just 15 sks. LY they had to replace 2 st's incl 2nd Tm MAC DE Crawford but ret'd 1st Tm MAC DE Robert Eddins. Their numbers dropped to 178 ypg rush (4.6, 14 sks). Eddins did have 4.5 sks vs CM. TY they must replace 2nd Tm MAC Eddins (12 st, #5 tkl'r, 6 sk) who often drew double teams, NT Rene Perry (10 st, 31 tkl, 2 tfl), DE Justin Woodard (12 tkl) and DE Kaylon Woods (9 tkl). TY they return 2 st's and a total of just 2.5 sks. While LY's numbers were down and this group is just as exp'd, with the loss of their top guy, they may drop a bit more.

LINEBACKERS - Ball St switched to a 4-3 D in 2008 and then HC Parrish was excited about the signing of true frosh Travis Freeman, who he said could have as great an impact on the D as QB Nate Davis did on the offense as a true frosh. They had to replace 2 starters (#3, #9 tkl'r's) but Freeman was #2 tkl'r as a true. LY they ret'd their top 3 LB tkl'r's incl Freeman and #1 tkl'r Davyd Jones. TY they lose Jones (12 st, #4 tkl'r) but have 5 of the top 6 back including #1 tkl'r Freeman and their #3 and #8 tkl'r's. While equal to LY in terms of returning st's, this unit is more experienced and can only improve upon their 30.4 ppg allowed which was their worst in 5 years.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Between '02 and '07, Ball St finished #106, #102, #119 (last), #109, #104 and #95 in my pass D rankings. In '08 they had 3 st's back and I called for their highest Hoke era finish and they moved up to #40. In '09 they had to replace 1st and 3rd Tm MAC CB's (lost 3 CB, comb 94 car sts). As you would expect, Ball St dropped significantly down to #112. LY they had to replace 1 st'r and CB Koren Burch (10 st '09) was beat out. Improvement was expected and BSU moved up, to #90. TY they lose CB's Charlie Todd (12 st, #6 tkl'r, 2 int, 6 pbu) and Burch (16 tkl). They do return their star 2nd Tm MAC FS Sean Baker (#2 tkl'r) and 3rd Tm MAC CB Jason Pinkston (4 int, 7 pbu). Five return who started 3+ last year and I look for continued improvement.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Ball St was a horrible #116 in my ST rankings in '04 but moved up to #65, #28, #50 and #16 from '05-'08. In '09 they had to replace Chris Miller who one source tabbed the "MAC Punter of the Decade" and the only returnee was K Ian McGarvey (16-21 FG's, 147). Surprisingly Ball St only dropped to #48. McGarvey hit an outstanding 18-21 FG's (L48) and rFr P Scott Kovanda (PS#51) avg 40.0 (net 35.9). Charlie Todd was the top PR (11.7). LY everyone ret'd. Eric Williams was the top KR (23.9) in '09 and improved to 25.5 (1 td) as a soph. He was averaging 31.7 per KR prior to an ankle inj in the 3Q vs EM. McGarvey missed 3 FG's and nearly lost his job but hit his final 9 (14-17, L44) and combined with Steven Schott (PS#27) for 3 TB's on 54 KO's. Kovanda's duplicated his avg but saw the net drop (33.9). TY they must replace 2nd Tm MAC McGarvey, but can only improve upon LY's poor finish (#88).

COACHES - The Cardinals have now had 3 HC's in the L4Y. Brady Hoke led them to a 12-0 regular season in '08 and left for SDSU (now at Mich). Stan Parrish was released after 2 years and Pete Lembo will take over the reins. Lembo had been a 1AA/FCS HC for the past 10 seasons at Elon (35-22, '06-'10) and Lehigh (44-14, '01-'05). OC Rich Skrosky was also at Elon all 5Y's under Lembo and after coaching the OL for 3Y was promoted to OC the final 2. DC Jay Bateman was at Lehigh in '05 and also moved to Elon the next 5 seasons as their DC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

The Cardinals have won 5 outright MAC Titles since joining the league in 1973 (last in '96). Brady Hoke actually had 4 straight losing seasons to open his tenure here but in '06 they had 5 MAC wins for the first time since 1996 and only lost to 3 Big Ten teams by a comb'd 19 pts. In '07 they went 5-2 in the MAC and had their first winning season and bowl since 1996. Ball St had 18 ret st's in '08 and were clearly the MAC's best team. Their previous best start in school history was 9-0 in 1965 but they ran the table with a perfect 12-0 regular season mark and were ranked for the first time ever moving as high as #12. In the MAC Title game Ball St had a 503-301 yd edge but Buffalo got 2 long FR td's (28 pt swing) which led to the loss. Hoke opted to leave for SDSU and they were crushed by Tulsa in the bowl to finish 12-2. Stan Parrish, who was the OC here the prior 3 yrs, stepped into a tough situation as Ball St had overachieved in '08 and they had to replace NFL QB Davis, 3 of their top 4 rec's and 4 OL st's. Ball St lost its first 7 but won 2 of their last 5 and had 4 net close losses or could have easily had a stronger record. LY they did have 19 ret st's so improvement was expected. After dispatching SEMO in the opener, the first sign of trouble hit when they were upset by FCS Liberty 27-23 (Ball St dropped a td pass with 1:48 left). They played Purdue tough but caught #18 Iowa off a loss and were whipped 45-0. They went into CM and came out with a 31-17 win. After an expected loss to WM, they led EM 28-7 late 2Q. EM rallied for a 41-38 OT win and the hope of a winning season started to dim. Against Toledo they once again blew a big lead (17-0) and lost by 7. They led Kent St 7-6 in the 2Q but lost 33-14 which clinched a losing season. They beat MAC East cellar dwellers Akron and Buffalo but then were pounded by NIU 59-21 in Parrish's final game. TY they bring in HC Pete Lembo who led Elon to their first ever FCS playoff berth in '09. They have 17 ret st's and had 2 net close losses LY. Ball St was better than their final record LY which means with just 16 left lost and 53 ret (77%), they should be stronger, however, with the coaching change and tough non-conf schedule (3 BCS & bowl winning Army), it may not show in the final record.

BSU lost 24-23 in '06 hosting IU. A record crowd of 23,813 saw BSU up 23-7 at HT before they all'd 17 unanswered in the 2H (IU hit 35 yd FG late 4Q). Lucas Oil Stadium is home to the NFL Colts (BSU HG).

First meeting, HC Lembo was the Elton HC the L/5 ssn's going 35-22 including a 28-13 loss at USF in '07. Cardinals are 3-17 'S91 in true road openers (0-14 vs BCS tms, avg loss by 24 ppg).

Lembo was Leigh's HC from '01-'05 & in '02 beat UB 37-26. BSU is 7-1 vs UB winning every reg ssn gm. LY BSU held UB to ssn lows in pts, FD's & yds and in the L/2 home gms won by 20 & 35 pts.

First time hosting Army as BSU has dropped prior 2 at West Point ('99 & '09). BSU beat Navy 35-23 in '08 (last/only military school to visit). Into 2011, BSU is 2-10 L2Y at Scheumann Stadium.

First meeting, Cardinals are 1-38 since 1990 on the road (incl '07 bowl) vs BCS schools, avg score 39-15. BSU is 1-13 L12Y vs ranked opp's w/10 str losses & 4 shutouts (beat #25 Toledo in 2001, 24-20).

Second meeting, BSU lost 24-19 in Philadelphia in '09. The Cardinals led 13-10 mid-3Q but didn't score again until the gms final play. Into 2011, BSU is 1-7 L2Y in MAC HG's (only W in 2OT).

Cardinals are 6-2 'S83 in Athens but lost the LTH ('05). BSU trailed 31-7 late 1H & never really threatened. Ball St is a solid 17-7 on the MAC road S'05 winning at least 2 every season.

HT has dropped 4 str by 18 ppg. LY Ball St took a 28-3 lead into the 4Q as CM gained 51% (190) of their yds (14 pts) in the last 15 min. BSU gained a ssn high in yds (47 more than 2nd best mark LY).

Cardinals are 7-3 vs the Broncos S'01 incl 3 str wins in Kalamazoo. LTH was misleading as BSU was outgained by 237 yds (-14 FD) but had a 5-1 TO edge winning the gm on a 4Q 87 yd PR TD.

BSU is 8-3 'S90 in Ypsilanti. LTH BSU trailed 27-13 in the 2H but scored the final 16 pts holding EM to just 22 4Q yds. RB Lewis had 301 rush yds which broke the school rec (Earl Taylor 260 in '76 vs EM).

BSU is 3-9 'S99 but won 2 of L/3 in DeKalb. Series played for Bronze Stalk Trophy (4th yr). LTH BSU led 7-0 but all'd 16 unanswered. They cut the deficit to 6, forced a punt w/2:06 left but went 4&out.

Bonus: Ball St is 51-31-2 on Homecoming. BSU has dropped B2B home finales by 30+ ppg.

Ball St has dropped B2B gms vs UT by 7 pts each.

LY the Cardinals led 17-0 into the 2Q (144-64 yd edge). BSU appeared to be in control but allowed 31 unanswered before scoring a TD with just :12 left.

QB Alex Gillett

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In 2009 EM went from running the spread offense to taking snaps from under center. They lost returning s't'r Andy Schmitt to injury in the 3rd game. Schmitt had 428 (63%, 2-5) and finished as EM's #3 career passer. They took the RS off Kyle McMahon who started the next 6 and threw for 634 (53%, 4-4). Alex Gillett, who was the HS Div III POY in Ohio as a Jr, started the final 3 and was the leading rusher in each and finished #2 with 484 (5.1). He threw for 763, but as you would expect from a true frosh, hit just 50% with a 3-7 ratio. LY Gillett battled 6'6" rFr Devontae Payne (PS#64). I called for a significant improvement in EM's passing numbers (tm 54% 9-16 in '09). Gillett started all 12 throwing for 1,633 (55.5%, 13-13) and was also the leading rusher with 766 (4.3). Gillett's 189 rush vs Ball St set an EM single game QB record. Payne played in 6 hitting 22-52-217 yds then left the team late in the year. Adding depth are Tyler Benz (better passer than Gillett), Defiance College transfer Austin Karcher (6'1" 183 Sr) and true frosh Mark Lannotti (PS#156). The team's ratio improved greatly last year and Gillett will improve once again in 2011.

RUNNING BACKS - EM has not produced a 1,000 yard rusher here since '03. In '08, Terrence Blevins (PS#106) led with 575 (4.3) while Dwayne Priest had 474 (4.8) and rFr Corey Welch added 154 (2.2). In '09 Priest avg 100 ypg the first 3 but finished with 633 (3.6). Welch had 81 vs CM but just 73 in his other 10. Blevins (12 gm, 1 st) had just 109 (2.8). LY they had to replace Blevins. Priest was susp for 2 gms and after getting 192 vs Buff finished with 716 (4.3). True frosh RB Javonti Greene became the first EM player in school history to have 2 td runs of 50+ yds in a gm vs UVA. He was #3 with 277 (5.5). Welch, who is a WR/RS, rushed for 195 (3.4). This year they lose their top RB rusher in 3rd Tm MAC Priest. True frosh Ryan Brumfield will battle Greene, Welch and Dominique Sherrer (87 yds rush, 3 yrs) who was #1 in spring. Adding depth will be Dominique White (5'8" 202 Jr, PS#302) and Joe Fleming (5'10" 220 So, 1 rush LY).

RECEIVERS - EM produced their career leading receiver in 1999 then again in '02 and once again in '06 (see next page). They have not had anyone come near those numbers since. Jacory Stone led in '08 with 943 (10.7) in the spread offense but saw his numbers drop drastically in English's first year. He still led but with just 347 (10.8). Kinsman Thomas was #2 with 275 (18.3), TE Ben Thayer #3 with 261 (9.0) and Tyrone Burke #4 with 253 (15.8). Last year they had to replace Stone. In Thomas' first 29 career rec's he had 7 td's (almost 25%) and he led LY with 473 (18.2) despite only starting 8 (inj). Thayer was #2 with 386 (12.9), soph TE Garrett Hoskins was #3 with 217 (27.1), true frosh Donald Scott was #4 with 199 (16.6) and Burke #5 (182, 9.6). This year they lose 1st Tm MAC Thayer (10 st), Burke (10 st), Chaz Mitchell (2 st, 29 yd) along with TE's Josh LeDuc (1 st, 155, 9.1) and Brian Moore (1 st, 0 rec). While they lose Thayer, with 3 of the top 4 returning, they should be at least equal to 2010.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2009 the Eagles had to learn new schemes. It was still surprising with 3 st's back that the numbers dropped to 126 ypg rush (3.6) with 27 sks. LY they had to replace a 4 year starting LG and 2 yr starting RT but got Buche back (12 st '08, inj '09) so it was like having 4 ret st's. As you would expect, they improved to 173 ypg rush (4.1), their best since 1987 and trimmed the sack total to 22. This year they lose a pair of long time starters again in C Eric Davis (38 car sts) and Dan DeMaster (33 car sts). They have 4 back who started 7+ LY (64 car sts ret) and could continue to show improvement in their 3rd yr in the system.

DEFENSIVE LINE - EM did not allow less than 191 ypg rush or 4.4 ypc from '02-'08. In '09 they had 5 back with starting exp but English said "Right now we're not very big, we're having problems getting off blocks and tackling." While the unit yielded 196 (5.2) in '08, the more veteran unit was downright horrible vs the rush (last FBS) allowing 277 ypg and 6.3 ypc. LY they lost their top player in 3rd Tm MAC DE Brandon Downs but did have 7 of the top 8 back and 3 soph st's were now all juniors. The DL was bigger and more physical and you figured they could only improve. Unfortunately the rush numbers were still bad (231 ypg, 6.1 ypc) and the DL accounted for 9 of the team's 10 sks. This year the only losses are DT Tyler Palsrok (1 st, 0 tkl) and DT Ryan Leonard (1 st, 18 tkl, 2 sk). They have 8 back with starting exp, are another year older and should make dramatic improvement in their rush D numbers.

LINEBACKERS - EM had to replace 2nd Tm MAC Daniel Holtzclaw, who was their #1 tackler in '06, '07 and '08, but did have 5 of their top 6 back in '09. EM still allowed 38.3 ppg, their most in 5 yrs. LY they had to replace their #1 tkl'r (3rd Tm MAC) but EM had 5 of their top 6 back for the 4th consec season. LB Tim Fort who was the team's #5 tkl'r in '09 was #1 in tkl's when he was susp'd and missed the final 4. He still finished #2 (68 tkl's). Surprisingly EM allowed 43.9 ppg, their most since '02. This year they lose WLB Neal Howey (11 st, #1 tkl, 7 tfl), SLB Fort (8 st, #2 tkl'r) and Darius Moffett (1 st, 17 tkl). They return their #7, #9 and #10 tkl'r's of which 2 were underclassmen LY as EM has played a lot of youngsters. They also add three JC's who were in for the spring. Despite losing their top 2 they will certainly improve on LY's #118 finish in ppg allowed and may have 3 JUCO st's which adds to their athleticism.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2008 EM had a veteran unit but surprisingly slipped from a #66 PDR ranking in '07 down to #114. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's and CB Johnny Sears (Mich trans, PS#54) took over a starting spot. Because teams ran the ball at will and led big, EM was actually #1 in the NCAA in ypg pass (D allowed 150.5 ypg). Teams only threw 225 times vs them (52.4 rush att) and that coupled with a 16-12 record, showed you the accuracy of my PDR as they finished #63. LY they had to replace 2 who combined for 17 sts incl Sears but had 7 (all w/st exp) of the top 9 back and added L'ville transfer Latarius Thomas (PS#84). I said that despite having 2 st's back, they probably wouldn't match '09's numbers and they actually dropped to #119 as teams threw more often and EM allowed a horrific 32-2 ratio. This year they lose S Ryan Downard (11 st, #3 tkl'r, 3 pbu), CB Arrington Hicks (12 st, #5 tkl'r, 5 pbu) and FS Brandon Pratt (1 st, 6 tkl). They do add UCLA transfer Marlon Pollard (PS#31) at CB along with 3 JC who were in for spring and despite the losses will make a large jump in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '07 EM finished a solid #45 in my ST rankings but with most everyone back in '08, actually slid all the way to #119. In English's first year they improved only slightly to #111. Last year they had to replace their P, K and top PR and KR and finished #113. They did bring in Australian true frosh P Jay Karutz who has a big leg and he set an EM game record avg of 49.5 vs Miami with 2 punts landing inside the 1 and was MAC STPOW. After 4 gms they led the MAC in net punting (39.5) but Karutz finished with a 38.7 avg (35.9 net). True frosh Kody Fulkerson had 2 TB on 47 KO (0-1 FG). Sean Graham hit 5-8 FG (L42). Everyone returns making them much more experienced. I look for good sized improvement in the net punting and return game and a large jump in my ST rankings.

COACHES - This program has struggled and in the last 2 decades there have been 7 HC's and just one winning season (6-5 in '95). Ron English was the DC at Louisville in '08 and prior to that spent 5Y as an asst at Michigan incl 2 as DC ('06-'07). The OC is Ken Karcher who was the QB coach at Toledo in '08. He was Pitt's OC from 1993-96 and spent 3 years as the OC of the Rhein Fire (NFL Europe) as well as the HC at Liberty (21-46) from 2000-05. The DC is Phil Snow who coached LB's with the Detroit Lions ('05-'08) and was a Pac-10 DC for 13 years (ASU '92-'00, UCLA '01-'02 & UW '03-'04).

PHIL'S FORECAST

EM has not had a winning record since 1995 (6-5) and has not won more than 4 games in a season since then. They are 43-129 (25%) in that 15 year span. EM has only had 6 winning seasons since 1974. The 2002 team set NCAA records for most points (566) and yds allowed (6,239). In Jeff Genyk's 5 seasons the team was 16-42 (28%) but actually won the Michigan MAC Championship (beat CM and WM) THREE times. EM was just -25.4 ypg in MAC play despite their 2-6 record in '08. Ron English took over in '09 and said the team did not have the speed he desired at the skill positions or the size on defense. He had 15 ret st's and started the 2nd most true frosh of any team in the country. EM did not adapt to the coaching change and went 0-12 and was a MAC worst-159.4 ypg (90.8 ypg worst than the #12 team). Last year EM again had 15 ret st's and naturally improvement was expected. They had 14 players graduate from '09 and 25 either quit or were asked to leave as English cut 13 players who he said were not willing to compete at a high level. At one point in his first season they drew only 2,401 for Kent St and 1,535 for Ball St but last year their lowest came in the season finale vs NIU (5,147). While EM finished just 2-10 in 2010, they clearly made some strides. In one of their wins they did have the biggest comeback in school history as they trailed Ball St by 21 and won in OT. They led eventual MAC champ Miami 21-14 in the 3Q and only trailed Virginia 24-21 in the 3Q. RB Priest rushed for 192 in their other win at Buffalo as at the end of the game, Buffalo's Hail Mary pass into the EZ from the 39 was incomplete. The season ended with a 71-3 rout by NIU where they were outgained by 486 yds despite NIU attempting just 1 pass in the 2H. Prior to that they were just -8.7 ypg in MAC play and finished -68.4 (only 5th worst, tied). EM's def ypg last year was 10.3 and kept in mind LY's MAC champ Miami was #1 in one of the ypg charts heading into LY. EM was also -11 in turnovers and had an offensive ypg of 17.5. If you compare the '09 team to the '11 squad, this year's team is bigger, stronger and faster with better athletes and are now in the 3rd year under English (team's usually do well in year 3). I will call for EM to at least double the total wins they had in English's first 2 years combined.

OHIO BOBCATS

LB Noah Keller

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In 2008 Theo Scott (3 st '07) beat out Boo Jackson (PS#63JC) for the starting job. Scott started the opener (26-35-224) but was inj the next week and OFY. Jackson threw for 2,355 (61%, 19-12) with 333 rush (19 pass td's - school rec). Ohio improved to a Frank Solich best 233 ypg passing (59%). That was their 3rd straight year of improvement (see next pg). In the second gm of '09 Jackson was inj'd in the 4Q and Scott had a fine year throwing for 2,369 (58%, 20-11, new pass td rec). True frosh Tyler Tettleton (PS#109) played in '10 (9-23-128). LY Jackson was the passing QB while Iowa St transfer Phil Bates (PS#30) was the running QB. Bates hit 11-24-137-2-1 (166 rush) in the 1st 4 of '08 for the Cyclones before transferring. The two alternated all year, sometimes on every other play with both being banged up at the end. Jackson threw for 1,897 (60.8%, 18-17) and was the #3 rusher. Bates hit just 9-23 passes but was the #2 rusher. Tettleton RS along with true frosh Kyle Snyder (PS#232) who impressed Solich. This year they lose Jackson and are less exp'd. Snyder (strong arm) and Tettleton (duel threat) both had great springs and the staff is excited. Bates returns but may move to RB or WR. I look for improved accuracy from the OU QB's.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08, OU had to replace their all-time career leading rusher Calvin McRae who had 1,434 (4.9) in '07. It was a 3-man battle in the spring between WR Chris Garrett, Donte Harden (PS#193) and Vince Davidson. Due to inj's and cch's decisions, they ran a TB by committee. All 3 were a leading rusher in a gm as Garrett led with 529 (4.5) while Harden had 454 (5.2) and Davidson added 170 (3.9). In '09 it was a TB by committee again. Garrett led with 621 (4.2), Davidson had 260 (3.9) and Harden had 237 (3.9). LY they had to replace Garrett and Harden was susp the first 6. Davidson had just 197 (2.9) in the first 6. Harden ret'd and rushed for 244 (4.8) in the final 7 while Davidson finished with 549 (4.0). QB Bates was #2 with 519 (6.7) while QB Jackson was #3 (345, 2.6). Powerful rF Ryan Boykin (218 lbs) rushed for 213 (5.2) and JUCO Dallas Brown added 126 (4.1). Not listed below are Devin Favors (5'11" 207 Sr) and Joey Inks (6'0" 214 Sr). This yr they lose Davidson (13 st) but add Iowa St transfer Beau Blankenship (PS#85), true frosh Kyle Hammonds (PS#116) and perhaps QB Bates and I look for improved RB rush numbers.

RECEIVERS - In '09 OU ret'd their top 2 rec's in Taylor Price (694, 13.6) and LaVon Brazill (384, 11.3). LY they lost their career rec leader in Price (#3DC, 149 rec) but OU was very high on their 7-11 combo of Brazil (#7, Hornung watchlist) and Terrence McCrae (#11). Brazil missed 2 of the first 5 then was OFY with just 78 yds (6.5). With D's keying on him, McCrae's #'s dropped to 505 (14.4) but with his 6'4" frame, had 9 td's for the 2nd straight yr. Steven Goulet was #2 with 388 (15.5) and Riley Dunlop #3 with 387 (14.3). TY they lose McCrae (13 st), Goulet (8 st) and bkp TE's Nathan Caldwell (1 st, 0 rec) and Jahan Olyai (1 st). Not listed below are WR's Chris Johann (6'0" 169 So), Jeff Pressdee (5'9" 169 So), Stephane N'goumou (6'3" 205 rF), Chase Cochran (6'2" 181 rF, PS#194), TE's Brian Albrecht (6'3" 236 Jr) and Nieco Teipel (6'1" 220 rF). Overall this unit is a little less exp'd but with a healthy Brazil, should at least match LY's #'s. I look for Brazil and Dunlop to each have 60+ rec's.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08, Ohio had an injury plagued group (9 diff st's) and saw its rush numbers drop to a four year low of 129 ypg rush (3.9, 23 sk). In '09 they had just 32 career sts ret. OL Coach Keven Lightner said the group was one of the most talented groups he'd coached and that they would play better at the end of the year. The young group struggled as the numbers dropped to 112 ypg (3.4) with 30 sks (7.5%). The OL did not allow a sack in 5 consec gms (longest streak in Solich era) then allowed 7 vs Kent St. LY they had to replace 2 st's and 2 bkp (comb 5 sts). They had 3 soph and 2 Jr starters and 3 of the bkp were frosh, but with 3 st's back improvement was expected. OU trimmed the sk total to 22 (8.1%) and opened holes for their best ypc rush (4-3, 164 yds) since '05. For the 2nd straight year they allowed 7 sks to Kent St. This year they lose bkp's George Batsakes and Alex Mitchell (8 gm). They return all 5 st's and 99 car sts plus FSU transfer John Prior (PS#117). This is Solich's best OL here (7 yrs).

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2007, Ohio had to replace 2 st's and slipped to allowing 186 ypg rush (4.5), its worst total since '01. They had 2 st's back in both '08 and '09 and improved their ypc rush to 4.1 and 3.9. LY the 4 who st'd the final 8 all ret'd so I expected them to be one of the MAC's top D-line's and OU improved to 123 ypg (3.5, 24 sks). This year they lose DE Dak Notehine (13 st, 38 tkl, 2.5 sk), DE Stafford Gatling (13 st, #6 tkl, 6.5 sk, 2nd Tm MAC), NG Marcellis Williamson (13 st, 37 tkl), DT Ernie Hodge (12 st, 36 tkl, 3.5 tfl) and DE Keenan Chapman (8 tkl). They return DE Curtis Meyers who had 9 sts in '08, tore his ACL in '09, and is another year removed from injury. They also add Indiana trans Kyle Kozak. This unit is much less exp'd (lose 120 car sts) and smaller. After having their best rush D numbers in 11 yrs, they will not be as formidable up front. This unit is my biggest ? on the team.

LINEBACKERS - Noah Keller was the #1 tkl'r and Lee Renfro #2 in both '08 and '09. LY they had to replace Renfro and their starting SLB (#13 tkl'r). They then lost Keller after 3 sts leaving them very in exp'd. This year they lose LB Chad Clemens, who despite just 2 sts, was the #1 tkl'r. They return their 3 st's from LY in Eric Benjamin (#5), Jay Edwards (#7) and Alphonso Lewis (#11 tkl'r), along with Jelani Woseley (1 st, 11 tkl) who was pushing for a starting role in spring. Adding depth are Brandon Weaver (6'2" 219 Jr) PS#368 and Storm Timson (5'10" 196 So). With Keller's return, there is a talent upgrade and the unit is vastly more exp'd than the '10 version despite the loss of its #1 tkl'r.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '09 the Bobcats had to replace 2 st's (#2 DC) and then 3rd Tm MAC FS Steven Jackson was lost after 4 sts. Despite being a less exp'd unit, they had their highest finish ever at #20 in the PDR (54%, 17-20). LY they had to replace 3 st's but got back Jackson (like 2 st's ret'd). It was surprising to see OU slip to #85, their worst since '05 (60.8%, 21-17). This year they lose FS Jackson (13 st, #3 tkl'r, 3 int, 3 pbu), CB Julian Posey (13 st, #8 tkl'r, 12 pbu), SS Donovan Fletcher (12 st, #2 tkl'r, 5 int, 4 pbu), CB Shannon Ballard (6 st, #4 tkl'r, 2 pbu), S Hilton Dawson (30 tkl) and S Kevin Culver (10 tkl). They return Gerald Moore, who was 3rd tm MAC in '09 but was lost in the opener LY. They lose 3 st's and while less exp'd, could actually improve upon '10's poor numbers.

SPECIAL TEAMS - This unit has been a Bobcat strength with 6 top 21 finishes S/2000. They were #4 in my ST rankings in 2000 and #21 in '02. In Solich's first year ('05), they were just #116 but made it to '05 in '06 and #12 in '07. They surprisingly slipped to #52 in '08. In '09 rF Matt Weller (PS#49) led all frosh K's with 29 FG att. He missed 3 FG's vs Cal Poly but finished 21-29 (2-3 50+). Weller had just 3 TB's on 71 KO's but OU blk'd 5 kicks and had 4 PR td's and finished #19. LY Brazil, who is already the team's career PR (school rec 4 PR td's), ply'd in just 3 and RS. They had to replace the school's #1 career KR Chris Garrett (27.0) and the numbers dropped off. Weller hit 11-14 FG (L51) and all 3 misses were blk'd. P Paul Hershey, who is very athletic and ran for a FD on a fake punt and 6 yd TD run on a fake FG, avg'd 41.0 with an outstanding net of 39.6 (#8 FBS). Surprisingly, even with the loss of their RM, OU finished a solid #15. This year their outstanding K/P combo return as does Brazil and this is the MAC's best ST unit.

COACHES - Frank Solich spent 6 years as HC at Nebraska compiling a record of 58-19. He was Big 12 COY in '99 and '01 and produced at least 9 wins in 5 of his 6 seasons. Solich ret'd to his home state (from Cleveland) in '05 and in his 2nd season was named MAC COY. In '09, I named Solich my MAC COY. The coor's also enter their 7th year here. The OC is Tim Albin, who was the OC at NDSt in '04 and was at Neb from '01-'03 (pass gm coor '03). The DC is Jimmy Burrow who was the DC at NDSt ('03-'04) and a Neb asst in '01 and '02.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Frank Solich took over in 2005 and it didn't take long for him to work his magic. In '06 he got them to their first bowl since 1968 as they were 9-4 before losing to S Miss in the GMAC Bowl. Coming off a 4-8 season in '08 where they were -12 in TO's, I called them my #2 Most Improved Team in the country in '09. While they were picked as low as 6th in some other preseason magazines, I pegged them to win the MAC East Title and Solich and company did not disappoint. Unfortunately, they got banged up in their win over Temple in their regular season finale and then lost to CM in the MAC Title game by 10 before losing to Marshall in the bowl. Despite their 7-1 record in the MAC in '09 they were actually -23.9 ypg and LY were coming off a season where they were -13 in TO's. After beating Wofford in the opener they were stunned by Toledo where the Rockets had 2 and 5 yd td drives after TO's and OU lost by 7. After an expected loss to Ohio St, they got a Hail Mary pass for a td but went for 2 and failed and lost by 1 at Marshall. OU then rattled off 7 straight wins and in that stretch won 5 MAC games by 21 ppg and then beat Temple by 8 despite being outgained 402-282 (did lead 31-10). A win over Kent St would have put them in the MAC Title game and they had a streak of 8 straight MAC road wins. They were done in by -4 in TO's and a couple of failed faked punts, OU was then thrashed in the bowl by Troy being outgained 602-308. OU did have 35 sts lost to injury LY (pg 314) and improved to +27.8 ypg in the MAC although that was still only 6th best despite a 6-2 record. This year Ohio has just 11 ret st's. They have a schedule tailor made for MAC success. Their 4 MAC AG's are vs teams that finished 1-7, 1-7, 1-7 and 2-6 and they are the only one of the top 4 MAC East teams that kept their HC. They avoid the big 3 out of the West and I will call for them to return to the MAC Title game. I also give them an excellent shot at their first double digit win season since 1968.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In 2006-'07 Vaughn Charlton (PS#142, 7 st) and Adam DiMichele (orig at Penn St) split the QB duties. The Owls were able to RS Charlton in '08. Chester Stewart (PS#134) started 3 and threw for 524 (50%, 4-7). In '09 Charlton was the starter but completed just 50% (1390, 10-11). After he hit just 5-17 vs Navy, Stewart surprisingly started the next 4. Stewart completed just 40% (514, 3-3) and the team had the weakest totals of the AI Golden era (146 ypg, 48%, 13-14) which was the 3rd straight year for a drop in the passing stats. LY they moved Charlton (6'4" 252) to TE and gave the job to Stewart. Stewart missed some open rec and Golden opened the job after he hit just 20-43-275 vs Army and NI. After Stewart threw an int for a td vs BG, Mike Gerardi (PS#173) started the rest of the year. Gerardi set a Temple rec for passing yds for a 1st yr starter throwing for 368 vs Kent St and had 311 vs OU but in the finale hit just 11-27-108 vs Miami. Gerardi threw for 1,290 (60%, 10-8) while Stewart threw for 842 (53%, 4-5). RfR Chris Coyer (PS#241) hit 2-2. All 3 return TY and added to the mix is Connor Reilly (6'2" 200 rF, PS#119) and PS#197JC Clinton Granger. I look for a 2nd straight year of improved numbers from the Temple QB's.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2008 converted DB Kee-ayre Griffin (PS#105) led with just 394 (4.1). He was the top rusher in the first 2 in 2009 but Bernard Pierce who was not cleared until 2 days before the opener rushed for 116 in Wk 3 (Buf). He had 180 vs EM then became the first Temple RB to have B2B 200+ gms (212 vs Tol, 267 vs Navy) since Paul Palmer ('86, #2 Heisman). He was inj on his first carry vs Kent St and missed the final 2 and had just 12 att in the bowl. He finished with 1,361 (5.8) and was a Fr AA. Matt "The Bug" Brown is 5'5" (170 lbs) and had 156 vs Kent and 172 vs Ohio, finishing #2 with 529 (5.9). Griffin added 335 (4.2). Griffin moved back to DB LY and Pierce was promoted for the Heisman on billboards around town and on the web. Unfortunately Pierce was banged up for most of the yr. He had a 67 yd run on the first play vs Ohio but it was called back and he was inj and OFY finishing with just 728 (4.7). "The Bug" had 226 vs Army and led with 830 (5.1). Not listed below is Ahkeem Smith (6'0" 215 Jr, PS#237, 26 LY). Brown was susp in the spring but if he returns and Pierce stays healthy they figure to be one of the MAC's top RB units.

RECEIVERS - In '09 Temple had to replace Bruce Francis who led in rec 4 st yrs. The only one of the top 5 rec returning was ex-RB Jason Harper (571, 17.3). He finished just #4 with 228 (19.0). James Nixon (PS#94) only had 12 rec but avg 27.2 and finished #3. Converted RB Joe Jones (PS#244) was #2 with 387 (13.8). The 6'2" Michael Campbell (5 st, 11 rec, 2'11") was #1 with 419 (15.5) in just 4 sts. LY they had to replace their outstanding blocking TE Steve Maneri and Harper (5 st), while Nixon moved to CB. QB Charlton moved to TE. Campbell led again with 724 (16.1) and Rod Streater was #2 with 481 (16.0). Jones was #4 (169, 15.4) but had most of his rec in 3 games and got into Golden's doghouse. This year they lose Campbell (10 st) and Charlton (2 st, 3 rec). Not listed below are Markeyse Carter (6'0" 173 rFr) and TE's Tyler Johnson (6'5" 237 rFr, PS#52, susp spg), Cody Booth (6'5" 255 So, PS#216) and Matt Brookhart (6'4" 240 So). I look for improved numbers from this unit.

OFFENSIVE LINE - When Golden took over in '06 he said the O-line had not had a full year in the weight room and would improve after that season. In his first year they had just 54 ypg rush (1.9) with 48 sks. As projected, they made improvement each year and in '09 rushed for 187 ypg (4.4, 21 sk). LY they lost a 2nd Tm MAC LT but had 107 career sts back incl 4 str's. The unit avg 324 lbs. Unfortunately, injuries hurt the unit with just 1 OL starting all 12 and star C John Palumbo (3rd Tm MAC '09) had just 9 sts. Ten different OL started and the numbers decreased to 150 ypg (4.2) with 24 sks (8.1%). This year they lose 1st Tm MAC RT Darius Morris (12 st, 2Y str'r) and 1st Tm MAC G Colin Madison (11 st, 2Y str'r). While the unit has 1 less ret str'r and loses its 2 top OL's, they should remain healthier.

DEFENSIVE LINE—Here's an interesting stat, Temple has actually had 3 Top 20 finishes in the NCAA rankings in rush D the last decade. Two were at the beginning of the decade and then they had some horrible years including 6.0 ypc in '06 (worst in 20 yrs). TU made strides under Golden, In '09 TU had to replace 2 s1rs (#3 DC). They ret'd NT Andre Neblett who drew constant double teams while Adrian Robinson earned MAC Def POY (13 sk). Temple went from allowing 166 ypg (4.1) with 18 sks in '08 to the #18 rush D in the FBS at 108 ypg (3.2) with 34 sks in '09. LY they had to replace 1st Tm MAC NT Neblett and moved De Amara Kamara (9 st) to LB. They did return a pair of 1st Tm MAC DL's in Robinson and DT Muhammad Wilkerson. As expected, the numbers slipped a little to 140 ypg rush (3.6) with 24 sks. This year they lose DT Wilkerson (12 st, #3 tk1r, 9.5 sk, 1st Tm MAC, #1DC NYJ) and NT Elisha Joseph (12 st, #8 tk1r, 1 tfl, 1st Tm MAC). Robinson did have his sacks drop from 13 to 3.5. Adding depth are Jaimen Newman (6'4" 275 rFr), Stephen Yuan (6'2" 309 Jr) and David Kim (6'1" 235 So). They do return 6 with starting exp but look another notch weaker in 2011.

LINEBACKERS - Temple had all 3 starting LB's back in both 2008 and 2009. LY they had to replace two starters (#6 tk/r) but moved starting DE Amara Kamara to LB (2 st/s back). They then lost their lone returning LB Elijah Joseph to a knee injury vs Ohio. Temple's D still improved to 19.1 ppg, their best since 1984 (16.4). Not listed below are Brandon Walker (6'1" 230 Jr, PS#388) and Tom Long (6'1" 235 Jr). TY they lose Kamara (12 st, #4 tk/r) and Elijah Joseph (8 st, #2 tk/r) and figure to be down a few notches.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '08, Temple had 3 starters and 9 with start exp back. They had their best finish in my PDR since 1996 at #69. In '09 they had just 2 st'sr back. Even though FS Jaquawn Jarrett was 1st Trn MAC, Temple dropped down to #96. Teams did have to throw more often with a tougher rush D. LY they had to replace 1.5 st'sr but had a talented group with FS Jarrett back and PS#26 Marquise Liverpool at CB. As you would expect, Temple improved to #58. TY they lose CB Liverpool (12 st, 37 tkl, 1 int, 6 pbu) and FS Jarrett (12 st, #1 tkl, 4 pd, #2DC PHI). They ret 5 who have 7+ career starts and despite the loss of their top 2, could come close to '10's finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In the 2 years prior to Golden's arrival Temple finished #112 and #119 in my ST rankings. In '06 and '07 they had freshmen-laden squads and finished #113 and #117. In '08 I called for a big upswing and they moved up to #38. The ST MVP was true frosh Kevin Krobeth (ply'd on 4 of 5 ST units). In '09 they had to replace both RM. True frosh K Brandon McManus (PS#45) connected on his first 6 FG but hit just 11-18 after that (2 miss 50+) and had 9 TB on 78 KO. He and RB Bernard Pierce tied the school rec for pts scored in a season (96). P Wathe saw the team net drop to 32.5. They finished #51. LY the unit returned intact but Temple dropped to #69. McManus hit 13-20 FG including a 53 yd'r (2nd longest school history, 56) but had key misses at the start of both CM and Miami when Temple could have taken control. He had 7 TB on 59 KO. James Nixon saw his KR avg drop from 29.2 to 23.4 LY. Temple was also -2 in the td/blk category. This year they lose Wathe (tm net 33.6) and PR Delano Green but could move up in my ST rankings.

COACHES - New HC Steve Addazio had been on the Florida staff for 6 seasons and the L2 as the OC. Previously he was an OL coach at Indiana ('02-'04, OC in '04), ND ('99-'01) and Syr ('95-'98). OC Scott Loeffler was a QB coach at Florida ('09-'10), for DET in the NFL ('08), Michigan ('02-'07) and C Mich ('00-'01). The DC is Chuck Heater who was also on Florida's staff for 6 seasons as a DB coach (co-DC LY). He's been a college coach S/76 at 9 different schools (predominately as a DB coach).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Coming into 2009, the Owls had not had a winning season in an amazing 18 straight years and in 2008 they topped 4 wins in a season for the first time since 1990. The Big East booted Temple out in 2004. Playing as an Independent without any chance of winning a conf title and taking on a killer schedule, they struggled. I called for them to join the MAC in 2005 and in 2006 and they finally did so in 2007 and it was a great move. In their first 2 years in MAC play they went 8-8 and in the last 2 yrs have gone 12-4. Temple was actually -70.7 ypg in MAC play in 2008 but in 2009 they were finally up to their full allotment of scholarship players. I pegged the Owls as one of my Most Improved Teams meaning I expected them to go from a losing season to a bowl. The Owls were 7-1 in MAC play but lost to Ohio (without Pierce) and surprisingly were only +4.8 ypg. They finished 9-4 but did lose to UCLA in their first bowl since 1979. Temple on paper appeared to be the best team in the MAC last year. Showing their depth, Temple played just 5 frosh after playing the most frosh in the nation in 2006 and 2007. An NFL scout called them "big, big, big and athletic" and Joe Paterno said "there weren't any fat kids out there, they were all really kids." Temple barely got past Villanova with a 43 yd FG with :03 left to take the lead then got a FR td on the KO. They jumped out to a 3-0 start including a win over eventual Big East champ Conn 30-16 (trailed 16-14 4Q). They led Penn St 13-12 in the 3Q but came up short. HC Golden was disappointed by a passionate effort at NIU. They steamrolled through the next 4 MAC opp's by a combined 128-37. On the first play vs Ohio, RB Pierce ripped off a 67 yd run but not only was it called back by a penalty, Pierce was inj'd and Temple lost. The next week (without Pierce) they lost to Miami 23-3 and despite an 8-4 record and a win over the Big East champ, Temple did not get invited to a bowl! Temple did benefit from 3 net close wins and only had 4 sts lost to injury. They lost Golden to Miami, FI and their 12 returning starters rank in the bottom 4 of the MAC. Addazio steps into a good situation as Temple could easily have been the MAC champs each of the last 2 years had Pierce not been injured and they are deeper at RB in 2011. They should have been in a bowl last year and will get back to the post season this year.

MIAMI REDHAWKS

QB Zac Dysert

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - From '97-'05 Mike Bath, Ben Roethlisberger and Josh Betts threw for a combined 24,832 yds and they comprise the top 3 career passers here. The next 3 yrs MU's starting QB did not top 2,500 in any season. In '08 Daniel Raudabaugh st'd 9 and threw for 1,960 (59%, 8-9). MU did not score in the first 10Q of '09 but then rfr Zac Dysert (PS#85) led them to 2 scores during garbage time vs WM and then CB Mike Haywood handed him the job. Dysert threw 16 int and was prone to taking sks but still put up #'s comparable to Roethlisberger's frosh yr (259 ypg, 63%). Dysert threw for 2,611 (237 ypg, 62%, 12-16). LY he was 10th in the NCAA with 222 comp when he stretched the ball in the EZ with 1:47 left in the 2Q vs BG and suffered a lacerated spleen (OFY). Dysert threw for 2,406 (64.7%, 13-12) and is already just the 6th MU ply'r to top 5,000. Earlier in the season when Dysert was lost in the 3Q vs Missouri with an inj, Haywood called Austin Boucher's performance "adequate." Boucher started the final 4 and threw for 1,120 (63.9%, 6-3). He is left-handed and does not have as much velocity but guided the RedHawks to wins in the MAC Title game and bowl. Both QB's return and the 3rd string is true frosh Drew Kummer (PS#106) giving them the best set of QB's in the MAC East.

RUNNING BACKS - Miami had a 1,000 yard rusher 8 times in 10 yrs from 1994-2003 but has had just one since (Brandon Murphy, 1070 in '05). Thomas Merriweather (PS#48) led with 547 (3.9) in '08. In '09 the unit was banged up and Merriweather led with just 291 (2.8). LY he was again #1 but there was a large drop off to #2. His 96 yd td run vs Temple was the 2nd longest in MU history (George Swann 98 yds vs WM in '84). Merriweather led with 921 (5.2) and true frosh Tracy Woods emerged with 376 (4.0). Danny Green (PS#129) was listed as 2nd string but was susp'd for the opener and only had 41 (4.1). TY they lose their top RB and not listed in the PSL are Willie Culppepper (5'9" 175 rfr, PS#292) and Tyrone Jones (5'7" 178 Sr) who moves over from CB. With the loss of their top guy, this unit figures to be down a notch or two.

RECEIVERS - Coming into '07, MU had a remarkable run as Michael Larkin became MU's career leading receiver in '04 (2,722). Martin Nance topped him in '05 (3,131) then Ryne Robinson topped him in '06 (3,697). MU had a very young group in '07 which Dustin Woods led with 603 (15.1). The 2 through #5 rec were all frosh including Armand Robinson (471, 14.3), Chris Givens (430, 17.2) and Jamal Rogers (173, 9.1). In '08 they still had problems with drops. Givens led with 513 (14.7) followed by Woods (377, 10.8) and Rogers (359, 8.5). In '09 they lost 2 TE's (#7DC's) and the group was hit hard by inj's. Rogers was the only WR to play all 12 (#2, 505, 9.4). Robinson led with 788 (11.8). LY Rogers missed 8 (brkn foot) and Givens (385, 14.8) missed 3. True frosh Nick Harwell (2 rec first 5) finished #2 (871, 13.6) with 62 rec in the final 9. Robinson had 176 rec yds in the MAC Title game and led with 1,062 (11.3) and a schl rec 94 rec. Haywood said DeMarco Paine (PS#69) hadn't shown it yet but that he would be a deep threat (270, 8.4) and I expect a bigger season from him. The 6'4" Andy Cruse was #4 with 342 (13.7). TY they lose Rogers (3 st, 178, 9.4) and 2nd Tm MAC Armand Robinson (14 st). Despite losing their top guy, this figures to be one of the MAC's best receiving corps.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In Haywood's first yr ('09) they had to replace a pair of 3 yr st's, a 2 yr st' and adapt to new schemes. The unit struggled opening holes for 70 ypg rush (2.4) allowing the most sks in the NCAA at 58 (10.9%). Basically they had the poorest numbers of any OL in the FBS despite the fact they had just 1 start missed all season. LY the unit ret'd intact and I called for significant improvement. Rfr Josh Harvey took over one spot and surprisingly MU only improved to 98 ypg rush (3.1) but did trim the sks to 35 (7.0%). Once they moved RT Matt Kennedy to LT, it was a much improved unit. In the final 5, they avg 162 ypg rush (4.6) after just 63 (2.1) the first 9. This year they lose RG Nate Williams (14 st, 2Y st'r) and LG Bob Guiley (7 st, 3Y st'r). With Kennedy firmly in place at LT and 4 ret st's, the RedHawks should have a much improved O-line.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '06, MU had to replace 3 st's and allowed 4.8 ypc (highest S/prior to 1949). The D had just 20 sks (lowest S/'98). In '07, they had to replace 3 st's but improved to 4.2 ypc (32 sks). In '08, 2.5 st's were back but surprisingly yielded new records of 208 ypg (5.4) with just 13 sks. In '09 they had 7 with starting exp (lost 2 st's). The numbers improved to 187 ypg (4.9) with 14 sks. Ten different DL started while 9 ret'd LY plus they added in Iowa transfer Jason Semmes. I will admit I missed the boat on this unit as I called for improved production but still ranked them the 11th best DL in the MAC. MU made dramatic strides improving to 128 ypg rush, their best in 6 yrs, and 4.0 ypc (best S/'04). The DL also accounted for 16 of the 35 sks (Semmes 6). The only loss is Morris Council (1 st, 1 sk). Only 1 DL made All-MAC in Austin Brown (2nd Tm). True frosh Mwanza Wamulumba had 4 sts (miss 5) and Haywood said he was the fastest of the front 7. While the unit is not loaded with stars, it is even more exp'd than '10's top-notch group.

LINEBACKERS - In '07, Miami had 5 of their top 6 LB's back and the unit spearheaded the MAC's #1 scoring D with Clayton Mullins earning MAC DPOY. The unit ret'd intact in '08 and it was very surprising Miami's D allowed 32.7 ppg. In '09 they had to replace all 3 st's (#1, #2 and #4 tkls). Soph Jerrell Wedge (6 tkls '08) was the #1 tkll'r with a MAC high 18.5 tkll. True frosh Evan Harris started 11 (#5 tkll'r). LY all 3 st's ret'd. Ryan Kennedy, who has had an injury-plagued career, was leading in tkls and tfl when he was hurt after 3 and played in just 3 more. Luke Kelly started just 4 due to inj's. Wedge was the #1 tkll'r again and Harris #2. Kelly and Kennedy were replaced by CJ Marck who started 7 (the 3 comb'd for 14 sts, 96 tkls, 8 sk and 9.5 tfl). DeAndre Gilmore (7 st '09) had just 1 start (11 tkll). This year they only lose Gilmore. Adding depth are Collin Boucher (6'2" 232 So, PS#299), Chris Wade (6'1" 226 So, PS#346), Erik Finklea (6'1" 196 So, PS#305) and Mitch Krotz (6'0" 219 So). This unit should remain healthier and is one of the MAC's top LB corps.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '08 MU had to replace 2 st's and shuffled the lineup (inj's). They plummeted to #111 in my PDR (21-6 ratio all'd). In '09 they had a veteran secondary and despite a 1-11 record, moved up to #58. LY MU only had to replace 1 st'r and both CB Brandon Stephens and FS Anthony Kokal earned 3rd Tm MAC in '09 and were back. Haywood called Jordan Gafford the QB of the secondary. MU improved to #35 (56.8%) with an excellent 14-21 ratio. TY they lose SS Gafford (12 st, 40 tkll, 1 int, 5 pbu), CB Stephens (10 st, 38 tkll, 1 int, 11 pbu) and Peris Edwards (14 tkll). They return 3 who started 11+ incl SS Anthony Kokal (12 sts) and 2nd Tm MAC CB DJ Brown (14 st, 2 int, 13 pbu). This unit is just as exp'd as LY and even with the loss of their top guy, could be just as strong.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Miami has had some fine finishes in my ST rankings this past decade including #16 in '03, #12 in '04 and #28 in '08. They had to replace their K and P in '09 but it was still surprising that they plummeted to #119 (tm net punt 29.3) in Haywood's first season. Trevor Cook hit just 7-12 FG's but set a school record (55 yd) vs Toledo while true frosh DL Austin Brown blk'd 2 FG's. LY almost everyone was back but MU still finished just #97. Cook missed 2 gms with inj. He hit 16-23 FG's (L48) and 4 were blk'd. Seth Philip had just 1 TB on 60 KO. Rfr P Zac Murphy avg 39.1 (tm net 34.5). TY they lose both Cook and Philip but can only improve upon LY's poor finish.

COACHES - Miami is known as the "Cradle of Coaches" with Sid Gillman, Woody Hayes, Ara Parseghian and Bo Schembechler having coached here. Randy Walker moved on to N'western in '99 and Terry Hoepfner left for Indiana in '05. Don Treadwell returns to his alma mater where he was captain of his FB team and coached RB's ('92) and WR's ('93). He has a lengthy resume with almost all his experience as an OC including Mich St ('07-'10), Cincy ('05-'06), Ball St ('03-'04) and his first 6 yrs of coaching were under Jim Tressel at Youngstown St ('86-'91). The new OC is John Klack, with 25 yrs of collegiate coaching exp. The new DC is Pete Rekestis who had stints at Kent St ('04-'10) and Youngstown St ('99-'03).

PHIL'S FORECAST

From 1995-2005 the RedHawks had 11 straight winning seasons but then suffered through 4 straight losing years. In Mike Haywood's first year of '09, they went just 1-11 (worst S/'88). MU was -24 in TO's in '09 putting them at the top of my Turnovers=Turnaround chart. On page 299 they also claimed the top spot of my Off YPP as they were at a horrible 22.04 so both charts called for major improvement. I thought Haywood had a much more disciplined approach in 2010. MU had a dream season as they became the first team in MAC history to go from 1-7 to 7-1 in MAC play and the first team in NCAA history to go from double digit losses to DD wins. Florida had just 25 yds in the middle of the 3Q in the opener. MU did trail EM 21-14 late 3Q but rallied for the 7 pt win then whipped Colo St 31-10. MU suffered a blowout loss at Missouri, 51-13, and trailed Kent St 14-3 but rallied for the win. They were pounced by Cincy (45-3 at half) but then again bounced back and got a 71 yd td pass with :19 left to upset CM. MU had a hyped battle for 1st place in the MAC East but lost it to Ohio by 21 which would be their last loss of the yr. They beat Buff on the road by 12 then got a 33 yd FG on the last play to get past BG. MU was forced to start a bkp QB and Akron got inside the MU20 late in the 4Q but fumbled at the 13. MU held on for a 5 pt win. In a key gm in the East, they beat Temple 23-3 then Kent St upset Ohio putting Miami in the MAC Title gm. MU got a tipped pass on 4th & 20 for 31 yds and got a late td to get past NIU 26-21. Under interim HC Lance Guidry, MU beat MT 35-21 in the bowl (+3 TO). MU went from -24 in TO's to +11 and benefitted from an amazing +6 net close wins. They make my 2 year net win difference chart going from 3-21 in '08/'09 to 10-4 and their +73.5 ypg in MAC play was only 3rd best. Miami has a new HC and 21 left lost. They have 17 ret st's (tied for 2nd most MAC) from the defending MAC Champ tm and will likely be the media preseason favorite to win the East. I do not think they will have as good of fortune as LY (pg 299 and 312). MU plays a tougher schedule (pg 246) and won't come close to LY's 10 win total.

KENT ST GOLDEN FLASHES

DL Roosevelt Nix
#5 in 2011

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS—Two of Kent St's recent QB's are now playing big roles in the NFL, but both at diff positions. Joshua Cribbs was the only QB in school history to have over 1,000 yds rushing and passing in the same season ('01 & '02) and finished as the school's career leading passer and is a WR/RS with the Cleveland Browns. In '06, mobile JUCO Julian Edelman won the starting job and in his 2nd yr as a st'r ('07) broke his arm (gm 8). Kent St played 4 others at QB which was a main reason they finished with 7 straight losses. They even took the RS off Giorgio Morgan (23-36-274) with 3 td's but he was inj'd after 2 gm. In '08, Edelman became the 2nd KSU QB to top 1,000 pass & rush with 1,820 (56%), 13-11 pass and 1,370 rush (6.4). He is now a WR for the NE Patriots. They managed to RS Morgan, he then began '09 as the starter but suffered an ankle injury in the opener. Spencer Keith (PS#153) took over and threw for 2,147 (57%, 14-11). Morgan threw for 279 (50%, 0-5) as Keith missed the final 2 (inj). Both ret'd LY and Keith had similar stats throwing for 2,212 (59.1%, 8-11). He injured his passing hand against Miami, had a sprained thumb vs Temple and was pulled vs Army. Morgan and Sal Battles ('11) 218 Jr. PS#167 both played vs Army and comb'd for 90 yds rushing. Morgan played in 4 gm finishing with 165 (57.9%, 2-2). This year the unit returns intact and adding depth is Jerrod Ronyak (6'3" 216 rfr PS#494). The QB's do have to learn a new system but are exp'd and should put up better numbers.

RUNNING BACKS—Eugene Jarvis is only 5'5" but in 2007 tied a school record with 5 straight 100 yd gms (Don Fitzgerald in '66). He went on to break Eric Wilkerson's 1988 single season rush record with 1,669 (6.0!) while also finishing #1 in rec yards (306, 13.3). Jarvis was the first Kent St RB to lead the MAC in rushing S/88. In 2008 he was the leading ret FBS rusher. He missed 3.5 gms but still rushed for 801 (4.9). Andre Flowers had 319 (4.0) while true frosh Jacquise Terry added 170 (5.0). In '09 Jarvis suffered a lacerated kidney vs BC and was OFFY. Terry had 3 gms of 100 yds and led with 649 (4.7) and was #5 rec (205, 12.1). Dri Archer had 93 vs Buffalo but only finished with 246 (4.2) and Flowers added 180 (3.1). Big things were expected from Jarvis LY but unfortunately he played in just 4 due to inj rushing for 294 and a tm best 5.1 ypc. Terry led with 542 (3.6) and Archer added 140 (3.5). TY they lose Jarvis (3 st) and Flowers (1 st, 180, 4.4). Not listed below is Lamar Washington (6'0" 215 Sr). Despite the loss of a record setting RB, they should get more production out of the unit as Jarvis made just 5 sts the last 2 years. Keep an eye on true frosh Trayvon Durham (PS#92).

RECEIVERS—In '09 Tyshon Goode started 9 and led with 755 (14.2). Soph Kendrick Pressley (9 rec '08) was #2 with 301 (14.3) as the rec's were inexp'd. LY they had to replace their #3 rec, HB Jameson Konz (#7DC) but I looked for improvement. Sam Kirkland, who had 3 car sts (246, 9.8 '08-'09) stepped up his game and led by example finishing #2 with 599 (10.7). Goode led again with 743 (12.6). Surprisingly Pressley had just 2 sts (95, 7.9). Anthony Bowman (PS#77) broke his leg vs Tol (4 rec). Not listed below are WR's Lynn Townsend (5'7" 178 So) and Markus Burton (6'2" 215 Sr), TE's Andrew Christopher (6'3" 240 So) and Xavier Douglas (6'2" 220 rfr). This year they lose Bowman (5 st) and Leneric Muldrov (3 st, 200, 14.3) but return the first pair of WR's in Kent St history to each top 40 rec in a yr and should show continued improvement.

OFFENSIVE LINE—In 2008 the OL had just 2 ret st's but opened holes for a Doug Martin era high 231 ypg (5.3). Of course having a mobile QB like Julian Edelman and an outstanding RB like Eugene Jarvis helped. In '09 the O-line ret'd 4 st's and true frosh Brian Winters (one of tms strongest) earned a starting spot. With the loss of Edelman (1,370 rush in '08 vs 85 yds comb from 3 QB's in '09) and Jarvis the numbers dropped to 115 ypg rush (3.5) but with just 19 sks (4.8%). The OL finished with 3 true frosh in the 2 deep. LY they had to replace 2 st's but with 3 st's back, the stats remained the same (114, 3.6, 22 sk). This year the unit returns 4 st's incl 4 year starting 3rd Tm MAC C Chris Anzevino. They do lose G Michael Fay (12 st, 3Y st'r). Naturally this is an improved group and should put up its best numbers since '08. Their new HC, OC and OL cch were very pleased with the athleticism of the O-line.

DEFENSIVE LINE—I list Kent St in the 4-3 classifying the LEO position (DE/LB) as a DE. In '08, for the 4th straight year, they lost a 1st Tm MAC DL (and 1 other st'r) and Kent St slipped to allowing 179 ypg rush with their 4.5 ypc being the highest and the 18 sks being the fewest since '03. In '09 they had 2 ret st's (lost 1st Tm MAC DL). Kent St's rush D improved to 137 ypg (3.6) with 33 sks. LY they had to replace 2 st's and one bkp (comb 12 sks). They ret'd 2nd Tm MAC BUCK Monte Simmons who in just 7 starts, led KSU with 16 tfl. LY I thought they would be on par with '09 and rated their DL #3 in the MAC. True frosh Roosevelt Nix led the FBS with 4 FF and led the MAC in sks (10) and tfl (20) despite starting just one game. Kent St led the nation most of the year in rush D finishing #4 (97 ypg, 2.7) and the D-line had 26 of the teams 35 sks. NT Quinton Rainey was undersized at 5'11" 235 but productive. This year they lose Rainey (12 st, 30 tfl, 7 tfl, 3rd Tm MAC), BUCK Simmons (8 st, 38 tkl, 10 tfl, 4th Tm MAC) and DE Zach Williams (5 st '09, 1 st '10, 6 gm inj, 4 tkl). Ishma'ily Kitchen (6'3" 304 lbs) replaces Rainey. While their top guy Nix returns, this group is not quite as exp'd and probably won't match 2010's outstanding numbers.

LINEBACKERS—In 2009 Kent St had to replace their #1, #9 and #12 tkl's (comb 22 sts). Michigan trans Cobrani Mixon (PS#25) lived up to his VHT billing (#1 tkl'r in '09). While having just one st'r back, they did have 4 with starting exp and improved the ppg allowed to 22.4 (31.7 '08). LY they had to replace 1 starter (#8 tkl'r) but had 5 of the top 6 back. They returned their #1, #5 and #14 tkl'r. LB Mixon probably would have led the team in tkl's again but missed 2 and was not 100% for others and finished #3. KSU had one of the nation's top rush D's and allowed just 22.9 ppg. This year the losses are heavy in 2x 1st Tm MAC MLB Mixon (11 st, 82 tkl, 6.5 sk), 3rd Tm MAC WLB Dorian Wood (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 11.5 tfl) and Howard Bowns (1 st, 19 tkl). Luke Batton was the #5 tkl'r and returns but the rest of the LB's combined for just 18 tackles last year. This unit is less exp'd and loses a rare VHT.

DEFENSIVE BACKS—In '06, the entire 2 deep ret'd including exceptional top cover CB Jack Williams. Kent St moved up to #25 in my PDR (53%, 8-16). With Williams banged up and 2 st's lost in '07, they collapsed down to #110. In '08, with a more exp'd unit, they only rose to #95. In '09 their star FS Brian Laihart snagged 7 int's (#2 tkl'r) and earned 1st Tm MAC honors. He was a big reason why Kent St rose to #31. LY they had 3 st's back incl Laihart. I was a little surprised they slipped to #50 (60.5%) but had a solid 10-16 ratio and keep in mind their rush D was #4 in the NCAA so teams had to pass more often. This year they lose 2nd Tm MAC Laihart (#2 tkl'r, 2 int, 5 pbu), SS Dan Hartman (11 st, #6 tkl'r, 2 int, 3 pbu) and CB Kirk Belgrave (2 st, 19 tkl). This season they only return 2 st's and lose their star, so figure to be weaker.

SPECIAL TEAMS—Perhaps the asst coach with the biggest impact on any position in the country in '09 was Zane Vance. Vance correctly pointed out that KSU had 3 losses in '06, 4 in '07 and 3 in '08 due to poor ST play and posted it on the lockers. Vance brought a new attitude to the ST. Players were battling to get on this unit and were excited to be a part of it. In the previous 4 yrs Kent St finished #107, #117, #82 and #117 in my ST rankings. In '09 with a frosh K and soph P they moved all the way up to #44. Freddy Cortez hit 13-19 FG's (L46) but had just 2 TB's on 51 KO's. Kent St allowed just 15.0 per KR (#1 FBS) and Matt Rinehart helped the net improve from 33.7 to 35.8 and was 1st Tm MAC again. The unit ret'd intact but surprisingly slid to #54 in '10. P Rinehart earned 1st Tm MAC and the tm had a solid 37.8 net. Cortez hit 11-17 FG's (L45) and limited opp's to 17.5 KR despite just 2 TB's. The return game was avg. TY all the key players return, but they do lose cch Vance yet I feel they could have their top finish yet in my ST rankings.

COACHES—Kent St hasn't had a winning season S/'01 and this year they turn to Darrell Hazell. Hazell coached WR's at Ohio St ('04-'10) and Rutgers ('01-'03) and earned the title of asst HC at both schools (L6Y at OSU). The OC will be Brian Rock who was also a WR cch the L3Y at Purdue ('08-'10). He was also a longtime asst at W Mich ('92-'05) and from 2000-'04 he served as their OC. The DC is Jon Heacock who spent 9 seasons as the Youngstown St HC ('01-'09) replacing Jim Tressel.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Kent St had THREE alumni selected for the 2008 NFL Pro Bowl in Joshua Cribbs, Antonio Gates and James Harrison! KSU, however, has had just two winning seasons since 1977 and one came in QB Cribbs' first year as a starter in 2001. Former HC Doug Martin led the tm for 7 years but surprisingly had just one non-losing season (6-6 '06). That season I had them as one of my Most Improved Teams in the country coming off a 1-10 season. At one point KSU was 5-2 and had the MAC East in its destiny but QB Edelman was not 100% the last four and they lost 4 of their last 5. KSU had a near miss in '09 at 5-7 and had 14 ret starters. Last year they beat Murray St 41-10 then had expected losses to BC and Penn St. They led Miami 14-3 but a blocked punt set up a td and they would lose by 6. After beating Akron by 11, they led Toledo 21-7 at the half but blew the lead again and lost by 13. Kent St dominated both BG and Ball St winning by a combined 63-20 outgaining the two by 396 yds. They lost to Temple then had 4 TO's by 3 diff QB's against Army. They went into WM and lost by 35 despite a 431-426 yd edge. In Martin's final game they played Ohio, a team that just needed a win to get to the MAC Title game and KSU sent Martin out a winner with a 28-6 victory. They bring in new HC Darrell Hazell who inherits 14 returning starters and he said he was surprised how good the talent level was that he inherited. They have my #3 rated O-line in the MAC and #1 D-line! Martin did not have much luck on his side in his 7 years and Hazell has an underrated team that could get to their first bowl since 1972!

BUFFALO BULLS

WR Alex Neutz

QUARTERBACKS - In 2009 Buffalo had to replace their career passing leader Drew Willy (8,748) who threw for 3,304 (65%, 25-6) in '08. His backups were a pair of true frosh in Zach Maynard (PS#253) and Jerry Davis (PS#106). Maynard was the clear-cut starter in '09 (2694, 58%, 18-15) and his mobility added to the offense (#3 rusher). He was susp in the 1Q vs Ohio allowing Davis to start (hit a 76 yard TD pass). Davis went 8-15 (145 yds) in 5 gms. LY Maynard transferred to Cal and Davis beat out rFr Alex Dennison in the fall. Davis looked good at times but struggled with int's. He was the first UB QB to throw 3+ td's in 3 of his first 5 gms. He finished with 1,753 (47.7%) with a 16-16 ratio (6 int's were ret'd for td's). HC Jeff Quinn was orig going to RS Alex Zordich but he got PT vs NIU and started the next 4. Zordich brought mobility to the position as he added some QB runs to the offense. Zordich threw for just 428 (41.5%, 1-6) and was inj'd vs Ball St allowing Davis to start the last 2, having his best game vs EM (222, 62.5%, 2-0). This year added to the mix are Rudy Johnson (rFr, PS#129), who is the most mobile and was impressive on the scout team and Cory Jorgensen (6'2" 215 Sr). Buffalo's QB's completed just 45.1% (17-23 ratio) LY and should see significant improvement as they are more exp'd. Davis looks much more confident in the offense this year.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 James Starks led UB with 1,333 (4.9) and 17 td's. He missed all of '09 with yet still was a #6DC. He rushed for 123 yds in the Packers WC Playoff win and 52 yds (4.7) as a st'r in SB XLV, both gaining him name recognition across the country. Former HC Gill always produced top RB's, even when he was down to his 4th string, like Nduka (PS#157), who had just 1 career rush att prior to '09, led with 172 (7.8) vs CM then became the first UB RB to top 100 in each of his first 2 car sts (131 vs GW). Nduka had 172 (9.6) vs WM but was inj'd and had 598 (6.2). Brandon Thermilus rushed for 560 (4.5) but battled an ankle injury. They took the RS off true frosh Jeffvon Gill and he rushed for 252 (6.3). LY those 3 ret'd but rFr Brandon Oliver, who has power and has been labeled an electric runner, won the job. Oliver, in 10 gms, led with 298 but just 2.9 ypc. Gill was #2 with 273 (4.3) and Nduka, who had a shoulder injury, had just 235 (3.5). The team had just 3 rushing td's on the season and 2 were by QB Zordich. Gill's power RB's were not the perfect fit for the spread. This year they lose Nduka

(2 st), Thermilus (106, 3.9) but add in Quinn recruit rFr James Potts (PS#164) along with Josh Fuller (5'8" 194 Jr). The Bulls had their weakest rushing totals in 4 yrs at 113 ypg (3.1, zero 100 yd rushers) and can only improve.

RECEIVERS - LY the Bulls had to replace their #1 career rec in 1st Tm MAC Naaman Roosevelt (954, 13.6 in '09), 2nd Tm MAC WR Brett Hamlin (898, 14.0) and 1st Tm MAC TE Jesse Rack (432, 14.4). The leading returnee was Terrell Jackson (PS#194) who had 250 (10.0). Gill liked the explosiveness and hands of true frosh Alex Neutz and Fred Lee but both RS in '09. Dropped passes plagued the unit LY (4 dropped td's vs Ohio) and in fact cost the WR coach his job. 6'5" Marcus Rivers is the team's fastest WR and led with 690 (13.8) even after falling into the doghouse late in the year. Neutz had 414 (15.9) thanks to 112 vs EM and was Off MVP. Jackson was #3 (397, 9.2). This year they only lose TE Michael Marr (9 st, 4 rec). This is a much more exp'd unit and should show dramatic improvement.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '06 BU had their lowest rush total (90 ypg, 2.8) since joining IA ('99). With exp'd units they improved to 130 (3.7) in '07 and 133 (3.8) in '08. They had to replace 3 st's in '09 but with QB Maynard rushing for 300 ('08 QB Willy -115), UB improved to 164 ypg rush (4.5) with just 20 sks. LY they had to replace 3 OL (comb 23 sts) but ret'd 4 st's incl 2nd Tm MAC LG Peter Bittner (38 straight sts) and LT Jordan Jerrold (25 sts 3Y). Matt Ostrowski (11 st '09) broke his leg after 3 so they basically had 3 st's back and moved to zone blocking from Gill's smash mouth style. The Bulls dropped to 113 ypg (3.1) and allowed 27 sks. This year they lose Bittner (12 st, 4Y st'r, 3rd Tm MAC), RT Jerrold (7 st, 4Y st'r) and RG Kenny Scott (2 st, 4 gm). UB gets Ostrowski back plus are in the 2nd year of the new schemes and should have a much improved unit.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 UB had to replace 3 DL (comb 35 sts). DE Steven Means was beat out by rFr Jerry Housey. Housey missed the last 5 (knee). Means' 2 sks in Wk 6 were actually the first sks by a DL in '09. Surprisingly the less exp'd unit improved to allowing 132 ypg rush (4.1) while the D had 22 sks. LY they had to replace 3 DL (comb 23 sts, 9 ft). They ret'd 4th Tm MAC NT Anel Montanez and Housey (5 st) while switching to a 3-4. Housey missed 4 while bkp DE Terry Peden missed the final 10. Buffalo allowed 159 ypg rush but trimmed their ypc to 3.8 with the DL having 5.5 of the tm's 16 sks. This year they lose Montanez (12 st, 37 tkl, 6 ft), DE Housey (8 st, 32 tkl, 1.5 ft) and Peden but do return DL sack leader Means. This group is less exp'd than '10 but is now in the 2nd year of the 3-4.

LINEBACKERS - Buffalo had a small, in exp'd LB corps in '08 but in '09 had all 3 st's back (#1, #5, #8 tkl's). Temple's HC Golden said that Justin Winters may be the best LB in the conf but after 125 tackles in '08, his numbers slipped to 79 (miss 2). LY they had to replace 1 st'r then lost Scott Pettigrew (11 st, 4 tkl '09) prior to the season. The lone returning starter was Winters with Raphael Akobundu having 13 st in '08 (2 st '09). rFr Khalil Mack already had an NFL-type body at 6'3" 241 and was the #3 tkl'r while leading in tfl with 14.5. This year they lose Winters (12 st, #2 tkl'r, 4 ft) and Akobundu (12 st, #4 tkl'r, 2.5 ft). They return Mack along with 4 LB's who split 10 sts (comb 70 tkl) and they also get the return of Pettigrew. I'll call this year's LB's a little deeper and Jr Jaleel Verser (6'6" 242) should emerge.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In 2007 true frosh FS Davonte Shannon became UB's inaugural 1st Tm MAC player and led all FBS frosh with 123 tkl's as the Bulls were #2 in my PDR. In '08 everyone ret'd but UB dropped to #98. Everyone ret'd again in '09 and this time UB had their best finish ever at #46 (#54 in '05). LY they had to replace 2nd Tm MAC FS Mike Newton but had a trio of returnees (comb 71 car sts). Domic Cook was the team's top cover corner in '09 while Shannon set the school record for total and solo tkl's (258) topping Craig Guest ('93-'96). NFL scouts had a lot of interest in the 6'2" Shannon. Surprisingly UB dropped to #63. This year they lose 4x 1st Tm MAC FS Shannon (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 4 int, 2 pbu), 1st Tm MAC SS Cook (12 st, 58 tkl, 6 int, 6 pbu), CB Josh Thomas (12 st, 58 tkl, 1 int, 8 pbu, #5DC DAL) and CB Sherrod Lotl (8 st, 30 tkl, 2 int, 5 pbu). They add Cincy transfer Romel Dismuke but despite moving in former LB Josh Copeland (5 car sts), this group has just 9 career starts and is not only less exp'd, but less talented.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Heading into LY the Bulls ST units had only finished #111, #109, #98, #117, #119, #118, #94, #109 and #117. LY they had almost everyone back. Terrell Jackson had just 12 PR's and his 16.7 avg was almost good enough to set the school record (Drew Haddad, 17.8 in '98). Jackson is also the leader for most career KR's but is only #6 in yds (18.5). AJ Principe hit 7-11 (L49) and John Rachuna had 2 long att's (5 TB on 39 KO). His 52 yd FG vs Miami was the 2nd longest kick in UB history (Gerald Carlson 54 in '96) and the first 50+ FG here since Dallas Pelz in '03. P Peter Fardon avg just 35.6 in '09 (32.6 tm net) and was avg 34.1 when Quinn handed the job to Jacob Schum (38.5) and the team's net finished 33.2. The Bulls only finished #112. This year they lose their K's Principe and Rachuna and you would think this unit could only improve, but looking at the past 8 yrs numbers, they may be in the bottom 20 again.

COACHES - HC Jeff Quinn came from Cincinnati where he was the OC/OL coach for 3 seasons and served as the interim HC in the Sugar Bowl when Brian Kelly departed. Quinn also served with Kelly at C Mich (also interim HC in bowl) and Grand Valley St. The new OC is Alex Wood who was the Miami, OH WR cch LY, the Arkansas pass gm coor ('06 & '07), the Arizona (NFL) OC for 1 season ('04) as well as the James Madison HC for 4Y ('95-'98). DC William Inge is in his second season after spending 2Y as Cincy's ILB cch and 2Y as SDSU's LB coach.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Buffalo joined the MAC and IA ball in 1999 and their best season in their first 8 yrs was 3-8 back in 2001. In 2007 they came close at 5-7 including 5-3 in the MAC and were actually +70.1 ypg (3rd in MAC). In '08 a lot of things broke in their favor. They got a 35 yd Hail Mary pass to beat Temple, a game they led for just 1:49. They trailed Army 24-10 but forced OT and won. UB beat Akron in 4OT and trailed BG 27-7 in the 4Q but won in 2OT. In the MAC Title the Bulls were outgained 503-301 but got 2 long FR td's (28 pt swing) and won the MAC Championship. UB was actually -2.1 ypg in MAC play (8th best) and they benefitted from +19 in TO's. That of course made them the classic Turnovers=Turnaround team in '09. While they actually improved statistically to +51.4 ypg in MAC play, the Bulls did not catch the same breaks and dropped to 5-7 (-7 in TO's). Turner Gill left for Kansas and Jeff Quinn took over switching to the spread offense. The season didn't open up bad as they beat Rhode Island 31-0 but the next week were dominated at Baylor 34-6. They took on the eventual CUSA Champ UCF and had a 326-288 yd edge, were tied 10-10 in the 4Q but lost by 14. The Bulls had a misleading final vs Conn where they were only outgained by 31 yds then had a 441-176 yd edge over BG but needed a missed FG at the end to win by 2. Surprisingly UB was non-competitive after that losing their final 7 including a home loss to EM and a road loss to 0-11 Akron. UB finished in a 3 way tie for either 5th or last place in the East depending on how you look at it but their -71.1 ypg was by far the best of the trio. After going a combined 13-13 in '08 and '09 they were just 2-10 last year. UB has just 11 ret st's but Quinn has them pointed in the right direction. The Bulls have 3 BCS conf teams on the schedule and might be a dog in their first 8 FBS games. They should finish the year with a couple of home wins and I will call for them to double LY's 2 win total and to continue to improve.

BOWLING GREEN FALCONS

QUARTERBACKS - QB Tyler Sheehan took over in '06 and became BG's #2 career pass leader with 10,117 (163 short of #1) and as a senior threw for 4,051 (65%, 27-7). BG shifted to more of a West Coast offense and coming into LY the unit had 13 career pass att's ret, all by soph Aaron Pankratz. As I projected, rFr Matt Schilz (PS#188) won the job and had a good first year throwing for 2,223 (60.7%) but with just an 8-14 ratio. Clawson said the numbers would have been much better with a stronger O-line and had Schilz not been inj'd vs Marshall (miss 2 gm, not 100% after). Pankratz started 2 and threw for 520 (45.5%, 4-5). They managed to RS Trent Hurley (6'4" 215, PS#157). This yr they lose Pankratz but the unit is much more exp'd, has a better O-line in front of them and should put up vastly improved numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - In 2008 BG's leading rusher had just 400 (4.5) and Willie Geter missed 4 games rushing for 301 but with a team high 6.7 ypc. In '09 the diminutive (5'7") Geter led with 705 (4.0) and was the #4 rec. Last year Geter ret'd and Clawson said with a healthy O-line he probably would have topped 1,000 (718, 3.6, #4 rec). Geter played the last part of the season nursing a torn MCL. BG moved rFr WR Jordan Hoppood (PS#202) to RB and he was #2 with 167 (2.2). No other RB had more than 5 carries. This year they lose Geter (#8 all-time rusher). Not listed in the PSL are FB's Zach Akenberger (5'8" 197 Sr) and Sheldon Hall (6'2" 206 So). This group has very little exp but should have improved production after the team rushed for just 63 ypg (2.1) LY.

RECEIVERS - In '09 BG had to replace 4 of their top 6 rec's but Freddie Barnes set an NCAA record for rec in a season (155) and was a Biletniokoff finalist. His impressive bowl performance (17-219) featured 3 td's and he finished with 1,770 (11.4). Last year they had to replace 3 of their top 5 rec's with the leading returnee being Adrian Hodges (417, 9.1). Despite the inexp, Clawson said that they would not have a guy that would catch 155 passes (like Barnes) but the overall strength and depth of the unit was improved. Kamar Jordan became the go-to guy and was #3 on BG's all-time list for single season rec yds (Barnes '09 and Cole Magner 1,138 in '03) with 1,109 (11.6). Tyrone Priory, who had 9 st from '06-'08 (inj '09), was #2 with 502 (14.3). TE Alex Bayer had 3 rec for 88 yds vs WM incl a 38 yd catch and run where he knocked over a couple of would-be tkl'rs and finished

#3 (298, 13.5) despite just 5 sts. This year they lose Pronty (8 st), Calvin Wiley (10 st, 201, 8.0) and TE Nick Rieke (10 st, 6 rec) but have everyone else back making this the deepest group that Clawson has fielded in his 3 yrs.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08, BG's OL (36 car sts) opened holes for 134 ypg rush (4.0, 21 sks). In '09 they only had to replace 2 st'rs but had to learn a new system. Even with 3 ret st'rs and BG getting to a bowl, the numbers dropped to 87 ypg rush (3.1, 29 sks). Last year they had to replace 3 st'rs and had 52 career sts back. The numbers actually dropped again to 63 ypg (2.1) with their 35 sks the most since 2000. C Ben Bojicic missed 4 (inj) and true frosh Dominic Flewellyn, who was supposed to RS, started 8. Due to injuries and lack of depth, DL Jordan Roussos moved to OL and started 6 while DT Nick Torresso also moved and started 7. BG also lost LT Blac Walker after 5 st to a career ending knee injury. This year they lose OT Tyler Donahue (12 st, 2Y st'r), Torresso and Walker. With 4 returning st'rs and the addition of PS#95JC Scott Hodges, true frosh Christian Piazza (Fork Union) and PS#161JC Dominique Wharton who were all IFS, this should be one of the most improved O-lines in the country.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2009 this unit was wiped out as all 4 starters departed (8 car sts ret). Their top sack man on the DL was Kevin Alvarado who had just 2.5. As you would expect, the numbers were poor as they allowed 194 ypg and their 5.4 ypc rush allowed was their worst in over 5 years. Eight different DL started including 2 true frosh (5 st comb). Last year they had to replace 3 DL (comb 20 sts, 52 tkl, 4 tfl). Clawson said a focal point of recruiting was the D-line as it lacked playmakers and size. BG still allowed 208 ypg and 5.3 ypc and had just 10 DL sacks (17 tm). There were some positive signs mid season as after they allowed 253 ypg (5.8) in the first 6 they only allowed 129 ypg (3.8) the next 4. This year they lose DE Angelo Magnone (12 st, #7 tkl'r, 5 tfl), DE Darius Smith (11 st, #7 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl) and Lewis Parks (16 tkl, 1 tfl). DT Chris Jones (290 lbs) led in sacks with 6 and they once again return 2 starters but should be a much improved unit.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 BG had to replace their #2 and #4 tkl'rs and LY all 3 st'rs were gone (#1, #2, #3 tkl'rs). Calvin Marshall filled the hybrid role of LB/S (ROV) and Dwayne Woods emerged as a star. After 6 games he led the FBS with 73 tkl's. He was twice MAC Def POW and Clawson felt he was one of the best LB's in the MAC. BG's D slipped to allowing 33.6 ppg but as with the points allowed we saw improvement as they allowed 38.8 ppg the first 6 games but only 28.3 pp the final 6. This year they lose Marshall (12 st, #5 tkl, 5 tfl) and BUCK Champ Fells (11 st, #3 tkl, 10 tfl). BG does return Woods, who was the #1 tkl'r by far (134), their #11 tkl'r true frosh Boo Boo Gates and #13 tkl'r rFr Paul Swan. They also move WHIP Keith Morgan (10 st, #4 tkl'r) to ROV so 2 st'rs are back to the 3 man unit. Despite losing 2 st'rs, with their top guy back and the unit being more exp'd, BG looks much stronger.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - BG was just #88 in my PDR in '07 and I wrote in '08 that I expected a significant climb and they did not disappoint (#26). In '09 they had to replace 1st and 2nd Tm MAC DB's and their star, PJ Mahone, was susp for 6. Not coincidentally the team was 2-4 without Mahone (5-2 with him). The less exp'd unit still finished #42. Last year they had to replace 2.5 st'rs. Robert Lorenzi had an 82 yd IR td vs Buffalo but was dismissed after 7 sts. BG slipped to #89 (63%, 25-14). This year they must fill Morgan's spot and replace CB Lorenzi (17 tkl, 2 int, 7 pbu) but have back 5 who started overall including FS Jovan Leacock who was the #2 tkl'r starting 11 as a JC transfer. This is a more experienced group and has a stronger front 7 in front of them.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Former HC Urban Meyer had been a Notre Dame ST coach and in his 2 yrs at BG finished #22 and #12 in my ST ranking (7 blk punts '02). BG kept the tradition going for the next 2 yrs (#46, #34) but then dropped to #93, #119, #89 and #82 in Gregg Brandon's last 4 yrs. In '09 BG had to replace their top KR, PR and K and despite blocking 2 punts each vs Buffalo and Toledo (keys to both wins), they dropped to #97. LY BG had to replace all of their top players. They got a late addition in Michigan transfer Bryan Wright (PS#30, did KO UM 2 yr). He had 11 TB's on 50 KO and handled all 3 duties at the start. He avg 40.5 punting (36.0 net) but hit just 4.9 FG's (L27). Wright was replaced on FG's by Kyle Burkhardt but he hit just 1-4. This year they lose 4 yr LS Neal Dahman, Wright and their main KR. They return Eugene Cooper who was the first player in BG history to have 2 PR td's in the same season and Boo Boo Gates for KR (24.4). Provided Clawson can uncover a kicker, they should improve upon last year's #94 finish.

COACHES - Dave Clawson was the HC at Richmond ('04-'07). The Spiders were 11-3 in '07 and had a school record 8,817 yds in '05 and '06 comb'd. He was also the HC at Fordham ('99-'03). He is a 2-time IAA National COY. Clawson was much maligned as the OC at Tenn in '08, but proved to be a good fit here as he took the Falcons to a bowl in his first year. His OC is Warren Ruggiero who was the K-St QB coach in '08 and spent 6 comb'd seasons as an OC at Elon and Hofstra. DC Mike Elko is also in his 3rd season here (DC Hofstra '06-'08).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Urban Meyer took over BG in 2001 and guided them to 8-3 and 9-3 finishes. They were ranked as high as #20 in '02. In 2003 under new HC Gregg Brandon they got as high as #15 and finished first in their division in the MAC in 2003, 2005 and 2007. In Brandon's last year ('08), BG went 6-6 but tied for 2nd in the East and did beat both #25 Pitt and Wyoming on the road. Dave Clawson inherited a senior/soph team in 2009. They had the most favorable schedule of the East teams (faced bottom 3 of West) and the team was +38 ypg in MAC play in '08 with 3 net close losses. In '09 BG surprisingly opened 1-4 but things went their way in the 2H of the year and finished 7-5 getting to the Humanitarian Bowl where they lost to Idaho on a 2 pt conv with :04 left. From 2001-'09 the Falcons had a winning conf record 7 times (41-16), went .500 once (4-4 in '08) and only had one losing conference record (3-5 in '06). Last year BG had just 8 ret st'rs as they had to replace 22 seniors (16 had started). This time BG did not catch the breaks and actually suffered their first 10 loss season in school history. Their high water mark was a win over Marshall, 44-28 and they also picked up a road win at CM, 17-14. Those were the only 2 wins. BG had to replace QB Tyler Sheehan who hit 65% with a 27-7 ratio and QB Schilz and Pankratz combined to hit 58% with a 12-19 ratio. BG was -105.1 ypg in MAC play (2nd worst) but did almost beat MAC Champ Miami, losing by 3. BG trailed big at the half in many games and rallied to make it respectable in the 2H. They did have 3 net close losses giving them an 81% chance of improvement (pg 299) and the Falcons had 4 games decided on the game's FINAL play going 0-4. Clawson said they were missing a class and a half so they are a much deeper and veteran squad this year. BG will finally be up to 84 scholarship players as last year they had less than 44 sch'l players on the bus for some MAC road gms. This team is a year away from contention and of the 84 sch'l, 58 are underclassmen and of the 14 Sr's on sch'l, 7 were orig walk-ons. They must face the top 3 teams out of the MAC West and do not get to face Akron so they have the toughest schedule of any MAC team. Clawson is doing a fine job and while this year's team is much stronger than 2010, they face a tough schedule and may be a dog in all 8 MAC games.

In only previous meeting BG lost a heartbreaker in the '09 Humanitarian Bowl 43-42 despite 27-19 FD & 538-452 yd edges. BG is 6-4 in road openers (8 gms vs BCS tms incl W's at MO, #16 PU, Minn & #25 Pitt).

First meeting. Bears went 4-7 LY including a 62-3 loss vs MD. MSU is 0-8 vs FBS opp's with the avg score 44-8. The Falcons are 9-1 in home openers w/ the avg score 45-20.

Falcons won 45-16 in the schools last & only meeting in '08. BG led 14-10 late 2Q before scoring 31 unanswered points. BG forced 5 TO's which resulted in 4 TD's & a FG.

BG is just 2-10 S/'98 vs Miami but both of those wins were in Oxford incl LTH. The gm was tied 14-14 at HT but the Falcons had 6 sks holding MU to 112 2H yds (46 on last drive).

3rd meeting (all in WV). BG is 0-2 losing 62-14 in '88 and 24-17 in their last meeting in '91. Falcons are 2-8 since '04 vs current BCS schools on the road/neutral site.

BG is 3-7 vs WM S/'95 incl 2 str losses by 33 ppg. In LY's ssn finale BG was down 27-0 in the 2Q getting outgained 237-0. Into 2011, the Falcons are 11-4 in their L15 MAC road gms (1-3 LY).

Rivals are 26 miles apart. HT is 11-2. 76th gm, played every yr S'48. LY BG was down 26-7 at HT in their only 2H score was a 71-yd PR TD. BG never punted after HT (SOD at T25, int, missed FG & int at T14).

HT is 7-1 S'96 (4 str wins). LY BG trailed 28-14 into the 4Q & after a 69/13pl TD drive on the final play got w/in one but because of a non-existent run gm (36,1.0) elected to go for the win (2ptng, pass inc).

BG is 31-5 S'74 but lost LY (72/73 last 2 gm series losing streak). LTH BG was down 35-23 & KSU had the ball w/under 5 min but BG got a TD, held KSU to 3&out & went 74/14pl for the GW TD w/03.

HT is 12-4. In the last gm ('08) BG lost 16-13. They led 13-10 late 3Q but NIU kicked a GW 30 yd FG w/12 left (4:39 TOP). Into 2011, BG is 3-9 L3Y in MAC HG's (0-4 LY, 1st time lost all MAC HG's S/'67).

Bonus: The last time BG started a ssn 3-0 was in '03, finishing 11-3 & ranked #23.

Ohio: This will mark the 63rd meeting and the last time BG dropped 3 str was from 1979-'81.

The home team is 1-4 S/'06. LY the Falcons trailed 28-3 being outgained 239-89 at halftime.

HC Clawson was on the UB staff in 1991-'92. BG's only loss at UB was in '00 (series 1st gm), since then have won 3 straight. LTH BG came back from 13 down in the 4Q getting the GW TD w/39 left.

AKRON ZIPS

QB Patrick Nicely

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '09 Akron had a returning starter at QB but he was susp for the year after 2. Matt Rodgers (PS#168) (clear-cut #2) had very few reps with the #1's and threw 4 int's vs Indiana in his 1st start. They still wanted to RS true frosh Patrick Nicely so their backup was a walk-on rfr. Rodgers was OFY (ACL) vs Ohio throwing for just 405 (57%) with a 1-6 ratio. Nicely came in showing a lot of confidence and threw for 1,349 (54%, 6-6). They put an ad in the school paper looking for an exp'd HS QB for the #3 spot and student coach Tim Zetts rejoined the team (member '05 squad). Former HC JD Brookhart said that Nicely can make any throw you need him to make and he became the first frosh to start at QB here since Charlie Frye in '01. Nicely and Rodgers both took all of their HS and college snaps out of the shotgun and LY HC Rob Ianello moved them under C where they were uncomfortable most of the year. They combined for 381 (40%) the first 3 incl 6-24 vs UK. Nicely started all 12 and threw for 1,753 (49.4%, 10-13). Rodgers played in 3 (95 yds), missed the final 5 (conc), but got the majority of the work vs Ohio when Nicely went out with injury. Rodgers retired (conc) and while Nicely returns I expect Clayton Moore (PS#49, orig Ole Miss), who threw for 2,395 (60%) with 23 td's LY at JC to win the job. I look for improved numbers in the 2nd year of taking snaps from under center.

RUNNING BACKS - Akron joined IA ball in 1987 and did not have a 1,000 yard rusher until 2000. The Zips have produced 4 since ('00, '02, '05 & '08). In '09 they had to replace their top 2 RB's while their top returnee Alex Allen had a comb 572 (4.3) from '07-'08. Senior Joe Tuzze (5 st FB '06-'07) was the #2 ret. rusher in '08 with 67 (4.8). Allen had hip surgery and L'ville transfer Dale Martin (PS#22) tore his Achilles in the spring. Both were limited in the fall. Allen lost 20 lbs (never really 100%). The leading rusher turned out to be Tuzze who missed 3 (started 4) and had 244 (lowest #1 rusher here in over 50 yrs). They took the RS off Broderick Alexander (3 st) and he became the first frosh to start at RB here since 1973 rushing for 48 vs NI and finished #2 with 198 (3.4). Allen was #3 with 188 (3.2) while Martin had just 167 (6.7). LY they lost Tuzze but had 3 of the top 4 RB's back. Allen was the feature back and rushed for 877 (4.7) while 5'6" Nate Burney added 467 (4.3). They lose their top 6 rushers TY but return Alexander, who inj'd his Achilles in Aug of '10 and RS. No TB on this year's team had a carry in '10 (FB Austin Bailey had 5 sts and 2 rushes for 4 yds). Alexander is battling 4 frosh incl Jawon Chisholm who had a big spring.

RECEIVERS - Akron's record for rec's in a season has been broken or tied 5 times in the last 9 years. In '08 they had to replace Jabari Arthur (all-time leading rec) but added Deryn Bowser (PS#34JC) who led with 785 (12.3). In '09 the top 4 WR's were back, but Bowser who had 21 rec the first 6 broke his fibula. LY they had to replace 4 of their top 5 rec's with the leading returnee being Jeremy LaFrance (PS#236JC, #2 with 520, 12.1). Due to lack of depth, SS Jalil Carter was moved to WR in the spring and he was #2 with 412 (13.7). As expected, LaFrance led with 534 (12.4) and Antoine Russell was #3 with 221 (17.0). Gary Pride (PS#201) had 182 (8.3) and was also the #3 rusher (44). Frosh DE Richard Hall moved to TE in fall camp as the TE position was up for grabs and he finished #5 with 149 (9.3). This year they lose their top 2 in LaFrance (8 st) and Carter (8 st) as well as Pride (9 st) and TE Kyle Weber (1 st, 0 rec). Despite losing 3 of the top 4, this unit is only a little less exp'd than the 2010 version and is now in the 2nd year of the offense. Not listed below are WR Mile Greschi (5'9" 170 Jr) and TE Jon Root (6'6" 228 So). They also add former Penn St recruit AJ Price and move in former QB Dylan Potts.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2008 with 4 returning starters, Akron improved to 165 ypg rush (4.6) with just 17 sks. In '09 they had to replace a 1st Tm MAC LT but had 4 ret st's (85 car st's, #27 FBS). The Zips' OL surprisingly slipped to 118 ypg rush (3.6) with 26 sks. LY they had to replace 2 st's but returned 84 career sts. All 5 st's were 300+ lbs and both OL Mike Ward and Corey Woods each finished their careers with 48 consecutive sts. The Zips were actually a little weaker with just 113 ypg (3.5) and 33 sks allowed, although 22 were in the first 6 gms. This year those long time st's depart in LT Woods (4th Tm MAC) and C Ward (3rd Tm MAC). While they are equal to LY in terms of 3 returning st's, their career starts drop to 49 but UA could improve upon '10's weaker than expected numbers. Recruits will play right away as in '10 they had just 7 healthy OL most of the year and lacked depth again in the spring this sn.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 they only had to replace one starter but Akron had 5 DL's injured in the first 3 and had a 4th stringer start at NG. The Zips allowed 187 ypg (4.5) with just 11 sks. In '09 Akron ret'd 2 starters and improved some to 172 ypg rush (4.3) but the D again had just 11 sks. Last year they switched off a 3-4 to a 4-3 but had the 4 players back who combined for all 36 DL starts in '09. The Zips only improved slightly to 164 ypg rush (4.3) and the DL had 11.5 of the team's 17 sks. This year they lose DT Almondo Sewell (11 st, 43 tkl, 4.5 tfl) and 3rd Tm MAC DE Shawn Lemon (12 st, 39 tkl, 7 sk). DT James Harvey had 10 sts in '09 but lost his spot LY so they have 3 back who have been full-time starters but those 3 combined for just 4 sks LY. While this unit is a little less exp'd than '10, they do add Mich St trans Oren Wilson (PS#134), who had 26 sts for the Spartans in 3 years and John Griggs who orig signed at Iowa and had 8 sks at JUCO in '10.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 the Zips had to replace 2 st's (#1, #4 tkl's) and their #6 tkl'r moved to FS so they had just 1 starter back to their 4 man LB corps but still improved to allowing 28.8 ppg. LY they switched to a 4-3 and appeared to have 3 st's back (incl #1 and #2 tkl'r) but Sean Fobbs (12 st '09, #7 tkl'r) DNP. They allowed almost a td more than in '09 (35.1). This year UA loses LB Mike Thomas (12 st, #2 tkl'r, 3 tfl) but returns their top guy, Brian Wagner (#1 tkl'r '09 and '10), Matt Little (#6 tkl'r, 12 st) and move in S Sheldon Miller (5 sts, 28 tkl). They are about as exp'd as LY but the defense can only improve.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '08, Akron had a very inexp'd secondary and dropped to #112 in my PDR. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's and CB Miguel Graham set a school record with 6 pbu vs Kent St. The more exp'd unit moved up to #69. LY they had to replace 3 st's and as you would expect, the less exp'd unit dropped, this time to #117 (63.3%, 29-8). This year the Zips lose CB Diamond Weaver (3 st, 8 tkl) and SS Kevin Davis (5 st, 34 tkl) while S Miller moves to LB. The Zips do have 3 st's back and 5 overall who started in 2010 and figure to make a good-sized jump in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - From 2004-2008 UA finished #72, #96, #115, #48 and #91 in my ST rankings. In '09 UA hit just 7-17 FG's, had 3 TB's on 48 KO's and had a 31.9 net punting. The only bright spot was KR Dashan Miller (25.7) who had to be replaced LY. UA had a FG blocked and ret'd for a td by Syr and the next week missed a FG on the final play then had an xp blk'd in OT vs GW. Igor Iveljic hit 9-14 FG's (L48) but missed 4 xp's. Branko Rogovic had 5 TB's on 40 KO's. Zack Campbell improved the punting to 37.8 (34.7 net) but the return game was below average. This year they lose Rogovic and Iveljic. LY I summed up the ST's by saying there was only one way to go (after #109 in '09) so I am a little hesitant to say the same thing even after a #10 finish.

COACHES - JD Brookhart led the Zips to winning seasons in his first 2 years ('04-'05) including a bowl in 2005, but 4 straight losing years followed and he was let go. Rob Ianello became just the 4th HC here since the Zips started IA ball in 1987. Ianello was the asst HC for offense at Notre Dame in 2009 while serving as WR coach/Recruiting Coord there since 2005. His OC is John Latina, who was Notre Dame's OL coach and Assistant HC for Offense from '05-'08. He also coached Ole Miss' OL under David Cutcliffe from '99-'04. The new DC is Kevin Cosgrove, who spent the previous 2 years at Minnesota, serving as their co-DC and prior to that was the DC at both Nebraska ('04-'07) and Wisconsin ('95-'03).

PHIL'S FORECAST

AKRON had a dream season in 2005 as they opened 4-5 and appeared out of the chase but won their last 3, had some key teams lose and got to the MAC Title game. They got a td pass with :10 left to upset NIU and amazingly became MAC Champs, their first ever conf title. Akron caught some breaks in many games during the Brookhart era and a new term "Akroned" was born (meaning a team controlled the game vs the Zips but suffered a tough loss at the end). Even with those breaks, UA has now had 5 straight losing seasons since that MAC Title. After years of 5, 4, 5 and 3 wins, the bottom fell out in Rob Ianello's first season as the Zips went 1-11. I pegged them last in the MAC East as they had a new HC and had to learn new schemes. They only had 12 returning st's and I said it would be difficult to top '09's 3 win total. The Zips were hammered by Syr 29-3 in the opener (outgained 431-166). They then blew a 31-17 lead vs Gardner-Webb incl missing a 34 yd FG on the last play and lost by 1 in OT (xp blk'd). They were then non-competitive playing by 29 ppg over the next 7. UA scored a TD w/1:36 left to take Ball St to OT but eventually lost 37-30 in 2OT. The next week vs eventual MAC Champ Miami, they fumbled at the MU13 at the end, down by 5. It looked like they were heading for a winless season at 0-11 (only winless team in FBS at time) but knocked off Buffalo 22-14. UA was -148.3 ypg in MAC play (league worst) and surprisingly only had 5 sts lost to injury all year. They did have 3 net close losses. This year the Zips have 14 ret st's and will be stronger but do lose 22 lettermen (3rd most MAC). They should top LY's win total but have a lot of ground to make up on the rest of the MAC and this will be another rebuilding year.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 SUN BELT FORECAST

1. TROY - Troy has won or shared the SBC Title for 5 straight years and their 13 returning starters are tied for 2nd most over the last six years. Troy is 32-5 the last 5 years in SBC play and their +93.6 ypg in SBC play is 68.1 ypg better than the #2 team in that 5 year span. A check of my position ratings on the next page shows Troy with the #1 DL, LB and DB's in the league plus the #1 QB's. The SBC Title may be decided Oct 25th when Troy visits FIU on a Tuesday night but 6 of my 9 sets of power ratings call them the most talented team in the league and they are my pick for a 6th straight SBC Title.

2. FIU - I felt FIU was the best team in the Sun Belt conf last year and they had the best ypg in SBC play at +67.1. It would seem like a no-brainer to pick the Panthers for the Title this year as their 15 returning starters ties for 2nd most in the league (Troy has 13). Last year they beat Troy on the road with a dominating 668-411 yd edge and this year get them at home. FIU must be considered a preseason favorite for the SBC and will top last year's 7 win total.

3. ULM - Last year ULM had just 9 returning starters and was in the first year of a coaching change where the coach has to learn the players and the players have to learn the new system. They did catch some breaks and nearly got to bowl eligibility finishing 4-4 in the SBC (+16.8 ypg) and 5-7 overall. This year they have 17 starters back and are in the 2nd year of the new coach and get a favorable schedule with most of the key games at home. Their 13 lettermen lost are 2nd fewest in the league and they are a dark horse contender for the SBC Title.

4. MIDDLE TENNESSEE - MT was the clear favorite for the SBC Title last year but went from +12 in turnovers to -19 and played without QB Dasher for 4 games. They clearly underachieved and needed to win their final 3 just to make a bowl game. This year they have just 10 returning starters (fewest in SBC) including just 3 back on defense. Surprisingly MT was -33.9 ypg in SBC play (2nd worst) but after underachieving last season, the Blue Raiders and their 50 returning lettermen could be the SBC's overachievers this season.

4. ARKANSAS ST - The Red Wolves were much better than their 4-8 record as they had 4 net close losses (see pg 299). While they were 4-4 in SBC play (tied for 4th) they were +34.0 ypg (3rd best). First year HC's usually have the normal adjustment period but Freeze was on the staff last year as the OC. They host both FIU and Troy which gives them a shot at contending for the Title. My biggest question mark on the team is the O-line as the offensive skill players are fine and the defensive front 7 is solid as well. Freeze steps into a good situation and the Red Wolves could make my Most Improved List (pg 19).

6. NORTH TEXAS - Last year I put NT on my Most Improved List and they were decimated by injuries, having to use 4 different QB's and having 37 starts lost to injury. After 2 games then-HC Dodge said they had 7 starters out for the year. NT was just 3-9 but they were 3-5 in SBC play and only -26.5 ypg. My main set of power ratings calls for NT to be 5-3 in the SBC and with Dan McCarney as their new HC, they clearly have that potential. I'm a bit gun shy due to the fact that they were one of the rare teams on my Most Improved List not to get to a bowl. The fact that they are in the first year of a coaching change has me picking them down here, but they could easily finish in the upper half of the Sun Belt. NT is also opening a new stadium and with a modern turf which should cut down on injuries and help out with more enthusiastic crowds.

7. FLORIDA ATLANTIC - FAU must replace its QB, top 3 WR's and 6 of their top 7 tacklers. While they have to play 5 road games to start the season they do benefit from the opening of a new stadium and should have better crowd support than in the past. They also have crafty HC Schnellenberger who gets the most out of the talent on hand. Based purely on experienced talent, I would probably peg FAU for 9th place, but with an OL that goes from 0 ret st's LY to 5 this year, the Owls have a shot at topping last year's 3 SBC wins.

8. WKU - This should be one of the most improved teams in the country. Their SBC schedule has them hosting my top 2 SBC teams (Troy & FIU), meaning most of their winnable games are on the road. Coaches see a large improvement from their 1st to their 2nd year as players are now fully acclimated to the change and WKU could escape the basement for the first time since joining the Sun Belt.

8. LOUISIANA - Coach Hudspeth comes from Mississippi St where Dan Mullen accomplished more in his first 2 years than I thought he would. Generally when a new coach takes over, the players have to learn new schemes and the coaches have to learn the players' strengths and weaknesses. UL returns just 13 starters. This team has not won less than 3 SBC games in 6 years but with 36% of their lettermen lost (most in SBC) and the coaching change, it may happen this year.

SUN BELT NOTES - North Texas dominated the first 4 years of Sun Belt play winning all 4 conference titles going 25-1 but they are just 9-35 since! Troy has the best record in the SBC over the last 3 years (20-3), 5 years (32-5) and 10 years (40-11, joined in 2004). MTSt is #2 over the last 5 years at 25-12 but their ypg in that span is only 5th best behind Troy, Arkansas St, FAU and ULM. There were several SBC records broken or nearly broken last year. Middle Tennessee's Alan Gendreau hit a 55 yd FG last year, the 2nd longest in SBC history (NTexas' Jason Ball, 57 yds in 2001). MT QB Dwight Dasher became the first SBC player to pass for 4,000 yds and rush for 2,000 in a career. Finally Troy's Jerrel Jernigan became the 3rd player in SBC history to surpass 5,000 all-purp yds (Tyrell Fenroy, UL, Patrick Cobbs, NT) and also broke the SBC career receptions and yds marks. The Sun Belt went just 4-32 vs other conf last year and were 0-26 vs BCS conf teams. Troy leads the league in preseason 1st team choices with 6 while FIU has 5. Arkansas St has 4 while ULM and WKU follow with 3 each. The league has two 1,500 yard rushers returning while 7 of the top 9 tacklers depart. The SBC was 2-1 in the bowls LY all against MAC teams.

TROY TROJANS

OL James Brown

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Troy had a 4-man battle for the QB job with 3 soph's (comb 19 gm exp) and a transfer from Richmond, Levi Brown. They were replacing Omar Haugabook (2975, 61%, 18-15, #2 rush). Soph Jamie Hampton (PS#111) was the most mobile and fit into then-OC Neal Brown's style. Hampton threw for 1,046 (62%, 9-8) in 5 but was inj. Brown took over and threw for 2,030 (62%, 15-3, SBC Newc Yr). He set a school record vs NT with 40 comp and did not have an int in his first 116 att's. HC Blakeney took the RS off of true frosh Dantavious Parker who played in 4 (3 att). With Brown being a senior, Troy opted to RS Hampton in '09. Parker saw plenty of action in the Wildcat (154 rush) and threw 19 passes. Brown set a school rec for passing yards in a season and became the first player in SBC history to top 4,000 (4254, 23-9). He had a streak of 256 passes without an int. They had to replace Brown (#7DC BUF) in '10 and r/r Corey Robinson (PS#113) beat out Hampton for the starting spot. Robinson had an 11-3 ratio in the first 5 but then had just an 8-11 ratio in the next 5 with Troy losing 3 of those. He earned bowl MVP honors after finishing strong, throwing for 3,726 (63.6%, 28-15) but only had 102 gross yds rushing (-100 net). Hampton got inj'd after 5 but is back and the other bkps are 3 true frosh (Barnes and Edenfield both IFS). Robinson returns for his soph season and figures to be one of the SBC's best.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 Dujuan Harris was the #3 rusher (372, 4.5). In '08 he became just the 5th 1,000 yard rusher in school history (1077, 5.1) and had 234 vs UL, just missing the school record (Eddie Brundidge 244 in '84). In '09 Harris was expected to be the top RB of the SBC (Doak Walker watch list) but he seemed less focused and less aggressive. He was an expectant father during the year and only finished #2 with 583 (3.9). True frosh Shawn Southward (SBC FPOY) only started 2 but led with 602 and a more impressive 5.5 ypc. Both ret'd LY and Southward (623, 5.4) and Harris (603, 6.2) split duties along with soph Chris Anderson (PS#83) who had 388 (4.1). TY they lose Harris but add Miss St transfer Montrell Conner (PS#31), Auburn transfer Justin Albert (PS#164), TJ Mitchell (5'7" 184 Jr), Brian Exley (6'0" 205 rFr), Darrell Reynolds (5'7" 198 rFr), Derek Holley (5'9" 190 So), Jarrod Lee (6'0" 223 rFr) and Tyler Kelly (5'11" 210 Jr). They could match LY's numbers where the top 3 RB's combined for 1,614 (5.3).

RECEIVERS - In '08 Troy lost their top 2. Jerrel Jernigan was #3 in '07 (337, 11.2) as a true frosh. Despite missing 1.5 gm Jernigan led in '08 with 868 (11.3) and finished as the single season record holder with 77 rec. Jernigan was banged up (shoulder) early and was also double teamed often in '09. He still had the 2nd highest yds in school history with 1,101 (15.5) and added 897 KR yds (23.0). Tebrius Gill (PS#216JC) was #1 after 4 and finished #2 with 581 (12.4). Their top 3 ret'd LY and Jernigan set school and SBC career rec records (3128, Johnny Quinn NT 2718) and was #1 with 822 (9.8) while adding 322 rush (7.2). Gill's numbers dropped with a less exp'd QB to 578 (11.1) but Reeves improved to 515 (17.2). Jason Bruce, who had 311 (13.0) in '09, was #2 with 613 (13.0). This year they lose 1st Tm SBC Jernigan (11 st, #3DC NYG), Bruce (12 st), Gill (8 st), Austin Silvey (3 st, 115 yd), HB Jonathan Chandler (6 rec) and TE Donnie Crosby (7 st, 3 rec). Not in the PSL are Jaquon Robinson (5'10" 186 Jr), Brett Thiesen (5'11" 175 rFr), Cameron Peterson (6'0" 175 Fr), Hakeem Haynie (6'1" 187 rFr) and TE Harrison Fields (6'2" 220 rFr). Blakeney should uncover some solid talent (see PSL) but with the loss of their top 3 rec incl their most explosive player, you have to call this unit weaker in '11.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '07 Troy had to replace 4 st's including 1st & 2nd Tm SBC OL's. They actually put up Troy's best totals in IA ball with 183 ypg rush (4.7) while allowing 18 sks. The entire 2 deep ret'd in '08 and while the ypg dropped to 168 the ypc increased to 4.9 and the sks decreased to 13. In '09 they had to replace 2 st's and 3 bkps and slipped again to 149 ypg (4.4, 24 sks). LY they had to replace 2 st's (57 car sts back). Troy improved to 157 ypg (4.3, 24 sks). This year they lose 1st Tm SBC C Tyler Clark (13 st, 3.5Y st/r), RG Tyler Graves (13 st) and RT Nathan Newland (10 st). They do return a pair of 2Y starters and have 54 career starts back but are not quite as exp'd as the 2010 version.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Troy's D-line has produced a #2 NFL DC in Osi Umenyiora ('02) and a #1 DC in DeMarcus Ware ('04). Troy had a star studded D-line in '09 incl Brandon Lang who had 17.5 tfl in '08. Both he and DE Cameron Sheffield earned 1st Tm SBC in '08 and they also added in 3 VHT's. It was surprising to me that the unit allowed 138 ypg rush (4.2) with the sack total dropping to 33. LY they had to replace all 4 st's incl a #5DC. The top returnee was LSU transfer Sidell Corley (PS#14) but he had just 11 tkl in '09 and suffered an Achilles inj and only started 2 in '10. As you would expect, the number regressed to 165 ypg (4.4) but surprisingly the D-line accounted for 30.5 of the tm's 40 sks. This year they lose 2nd Tm SBC DE Mario Addison (12 st, 47 tkl, 10.5 sk) and NT Riley Flowers (4 st, 17 tkl, 2 tfl). Adding depth are Tommy Stephens (6'4" 240 rFr), Scotty Long (6'0" 240 rFr) and Aaron Williams (6'3" 257 So). They do return 1st Tm SBC DE Jonathan Masquai (13.5 sk) and 3 of their top 4 DT's. This is a much more exp'd group and will be one of the SBC's best.

LINEBACKERS - LY Troy had to replace the "Killer Bees" who each earned 1st Tm SBC honors in Boris Lee and Bear Woods (#1, #2 tkl/r) as well as their #1 tkl/r. The top returnees were Daniel Sheffield (#8 tkl/r) and Xavier Lamb (#12). Lamb became the leader of the unit and was the #1 tkl/r and earned 2nd Tm SBC. Donnell Golden started 7 but then led the team after 9 games. This year they lose Sheffield (13 st, #2 tkl/r, 5.5 tfl) and Golden (35 tkl) but ret 4 with starting exp incl their top guy and 2 who finished as st's. That makes this unit more exp'd and they do not have to replace a couple of 1st Tm SBC members like they did in '10.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - Troy usually gets a lot of int's and ranks high in my PDR. They finished #49 in '07 and despite losing both CB's moved up to #10 (18-21 ratio) in '08. The Trojans had zero ret st's in '09 and plummeted to #105 (29-10). LY they had to replace 2 st's but did return Bryan Willis (13 st) who earned my 2nd Tm Frosh AA. Troy also added PS#33JC Jimmie Anderson. They lost S Barry Valcin (11 st '09) to injury in Aug so Willis was the only ret st'r. The unit was still more veteran than the '09 version and moved up to #65 (23-14). Not listed in the PSL are Brandon Kent (5'7" 172 Jr, 12 tkl), Darius Parham (5'10" 160 rFr), Matthew Burney (5'9" 152 So), Hafeez Baoku (5'11" 185 So), Bradley Payne (6'0" 175 rFr) and Keaton Icard (5'11" 186 So). This year they lose SS Willard Ross (12 st, #4 tkl/r), FS Bryant McKissic (1 st, 12 tkl), SS Caleb Massey (29 tkl), SS Sam Sellers (20 tkl) and CB Chris Blanton (6 tkl). With Valcin's return, they have 6 who have started 6+ in a season and they will have to battle a pair of newcomers. The Trojans figure to move back towards the top of my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Troy usually does well on ST under HC Blakeney and in '08 they finished #17 (#63 in '07). In '09 they lost their star RM over the summer. Michael Taylor (PS#18) took over for an inj'd K early and had 16 TB on 83 KO and hit 11-14 FG's (L46). P Will Goggans had a 36.5 net in '08 and 37.5 in '09. WR Jernigan was the top KR (897, 23.0). Troy always had an excellent PR game with team avg's of 12.0, 11.1, 16.8 and 11.2 but plummeted to 3.5 in '09 and that dropped them to #72. LY they had everyone back and plugged in Jernigan for PR's where he excelled (13.3) and improved on KR (25.2). Goggans improved his avg to 42.2 (37.6 net). Taylor had just 9 TB on 85 KO but hit 17-22 FG (L50 in bowl). Not listed in the PSL are K's Cody Johnson (6'1" 185 rFr) and Eric Leurinda (6'1" 180 Fr). They do have Goggans and Taylor back TY but lose their star RM (Jernigan) so it may be tough to top 2010's #65 ST finish.

COACHES - In Larry Blakeney's 20 yrs here he has guided Troy from Div II to IAA and finally to IA ('01). Troy has won or shared 5 straight Sun Belt Titles and has a conf record of 32-5 in that span. The OC for a 2nd yr is Kenny Edenfield (inside rec cch here '08-'09). DC Jeremy Rowell played QB at Troy from '91-'95 and begins his 15th yr on the coaching staff and 6th as DC. Blakeney is 4th among active coaches in NCAA wins at their current school (161).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Troy went from Div II to IAA to IA in 13 years and joined the Sun Belt in 2004. The Trojans went 4-8 in '02 and 4-7 in '05 but have had just 3 losing seasons over the last 19 despite the increased schedule strength. Since the last losing season, Troy has had just 10, 13, 14, 11 and 8 ret st's but won 8, 8, 8, 9 and 8 gms in the past 5 yrs and won at least a share of the SBC Title in all FIVE. Troy is 32-5 in SBC play and +93.6 ypg over that span which is 68.1 ypg better than the #2 team. Troy's 2010 season had its ups and downs. Despite a 475-329 yd edge, they actually trailed BG 24-17 in the 3Q. Versus a powerful Okla ST team they led 27-20 at the half but had two 2H drives end on fumbles inside the OSU25 and lost by 3. They led UAB 23-0 in the 2Q but UAB drove 99 yds and got a 44 yard Hail Mary pass with no time left to pull out the 1 pt win. Ark ST got a td pass with :50 left to take a 1 pt lead but Troy got a td and 2 pt conv with :22 left to win by 7. In what appeared to be the showdown for the SBC Title, they dominated MT 42-13 in Dwight Dasher's first game back after susp. They needed a td with 4:43 left to beat Louisiana by 7. They wanted revenge vs ULM which dealt them their last SBC loss (14 straight wins) but stunningly ULM beat them again with a 428-285 yd edge. NT was SOD on its last drive and Troy held on for a 6 pt win. Troy was dominated by FIU allowing 448 yds rushing. They caught South Carolina in a flat spot but were still throttled by 45. They were tied with WKU in the 4Q but won by 14 and did have a 491-267 yd edge. Troy dominated FAU on the road benefiting from +3 in TO's, then dominated Ohio in the bowl to keep the streak of winning at least 8 alive. While Troy benefitted from 2 net close wins, they were +55.5 ypg in SBC play which was the 2nd best. My main set of power ratings calls for a 10-2 season (other 8 anywhere from 6 to 10 wins) despite 7 road games including Clemson and Arkansas. Their road trip to FIU on national TV on Tues night Oct 25th probably will determine the SBC Title. The Trojans are my choice for a 6th straight Sun Belt Title.

First meeting. Troy has lost 8 straight road openers vs BCS teams by an avg score of 39-19. LY they led OSU at HT 27-20 but lost by 3. Troy is 1-9 vs the ACC (win vs FSU, 1947).
North Texas: Troy has won 6 str S/O's (avg score 35-17) & all 4 at home, avg win by 18 ppg.
WKU: Troy's never lost to WKU going 8-0-1 (1st gm 76, 10-10 tie). Troy is 17-2 L5Y in SBC AG's.
Troy is 0-3 vs Arkansas with every gm decided by 20+. The Trojans are 1-12 vs the SEC w/the avg score 38-19 (win was in '01 at Miss St 21-9). Into 2011, Troy has dropped 20 str non-conf AG's.
Troy has won 4 str in this series by a lopsided score. "When you are playing your rival, it should energize you" Blakeney after LY "We always put a priority on MT". LY Troy had leads of 21-0 & 35-7.
HT has won 3 str. LY Troy led 23-0 w/a 316-138 yd edge w/6:35.2Q. After all'g a TD Troy pinned UAB at its 1 w/1:09 left. UAB got a 44 yd "Hail Mary" to cap a 99 yd drive as time exp!
Troy is 4-1 in trips to Lafayette S/94 including a win the LTH. The Trojans were up 24-0 but trailed into the 4Q. Troy had 3 str scoring drives & a ST TD to secure the comeback & a perfect SBC ssr.
HT is 7-0 S/O. LY Troy had a 13 gm SBC winning streak snapped vs ULM. The gm was tied 14-14 mid-2Q but Troy was held to just 103 yds the rest of the way. TU has been held to SBC lows in yds vs ULM L2Y.
Troy is 3-0 at FIU w/wins by 13, 18 & 9. LTH TU trailed 10-7 2Q but took a 42-20 lead into the 4Q. FIU gained 37% (112) of their yds in the 4Q & scored a TD on the last play.
Arkansas St: Last time here Troy trailed 10-0 but led 20-10 at halftime. Troy down 4 went 25/5pl for a TD with 7:53 left & after holding ASU to a 3&out ran out the final 5:52.
First meeting & 1st time Troy is playing a service academy.
Troy had IND status ('02 & '03) after the jump from FCS.
LY Troy never trailed & held a DD 4Q lead but after all'g a TD was int'd (held NT on 4&14 at NT37 w/1:31).
Trojans are 7-1 incl 3 str wins by 25 ppg. LY Troy led 37-0 one play into 4Q. FAU gained 36% (135) of yds in 4Q.
LTH Troy only led 21-20 at HT but outgained WKU 305-92 in the 2H & outscored them 19-0.
Troy has won 4 straight. The first 2 of those wins were by 27 ppg but the last 2 by were 5 ppg.

FIU GOLDEN PANTHERS

DeTourek Williams

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Paul McCall started all 12 in '08 throwing for 2,332 (53%, 15-9) while Wayne Younger (11 st '07) played in 6 (249, 55%, 1-0). McCall was the clear-cut starter in '09 but missed some time with injuries throwing for 2,343 (56%, 14-8) while Younger threw for 257 (38%, 0-4). Younger ret'd LY but I projected Miss St transfer Wesley Carroll (PS#92) as the st'r. Carroll had 9 sts in '07 (All-SEC Frosh Tm) and started the first 4 in '08 for the Bulldogs. In the 2 years there he threw for 1,952 (51%, 12-14) with 246 rush. He set an MSU record with 137 passes without an int, one away from tying the NCAA frosh record. Cristobal called the QB race even in spring and summer and in the opener he pulled Carroll for Younger for 5 of the last 7 series. Carroll then took control and would throw for 2,623 (61.6%, 16-14). This year Carroll returns along with rFr Jake Medlock (PS#167) who impressed Cristobal LY. They also add in Missouri transfer VHT Blaine Dalton (PS#30). Not listed below is Solomon Smith (6'0" 194 So). I like the depth and Carroll is the clear-cut starter and could be the SBC's best.

RUNNING BACKS - The leading rusher for FIU had 537 (5.5) in '05, just 445 (4.7) in '06, 581 (4.1) in '07 and 481 (3.4) in '08. In '09, they had to replace their top 2 and the leading returnee was Darriett Perry (PS#151) who burned his RS the last 2 gms in '08 as a true rushing for 173 (5.6). His 86.5 ypg were double that of the top man. Perry was banged up early in '09 and later missed the final 2 finishing with just 301 (2.9). Daunte Owens led with a paltry 376 (4.0). LY they had to replace 2 of their top 3 and they used an RB-by-committee partly due to injuries. Perry led with 839 (4.9). Syracuse transfer Jeremiah Harden (PS#125) had 327 (3.9). Darian Mallory, who had 103 (3.1) as a true, was #2 with 679 (5.6) and was the #4 rec (178, 8.1). True frosh Kedrick Rhodes (5'10" 190 So, PS#133) had 100 (7.1) vs FAU but missed 4 (inj) and finished with 293 (7.3). This year the unit returns intact and not listed below are Torrence Seymour (6'0" 200 Sr), Brandon Bennett (5'9" 205 rFr, PS#338) and Robert Boswell (5'8" 173 rFr, PS#222). This is the deepest and strongest RB corps that Cristobal has fielded.

RECEIVERS - In 2007, the Panthers had to replace their top 2 rec (comb 1,122 yds). True frosh Jason Frierson led the inexp'd group in receptions (21, 9.0) while another true Greg Ellingson was #1 with 304 yds (16.0). In '08 the unit got the addition of true frosh T.Y. Hilton (4.2 spd). Hilton easily set the school record with 1,013 yds (24.7) along with his return exploits. Ellingson improved to 574 (16.4) and true frosh Junior Mertile had 245 (9.4). In '09 Hilton was not 100% and played just ST in some gms. His numbers dropped to 632 (11.1). Ellingson had 528 (15.5) and Frierson was #3 with 368 (12.3). Cristobal said true frosh Wayne Times was off to a faster start than Hilton but he finished with 234 (12.3). Mertile was inj'd (0 rec). LY Hilton had 0 td's in the first 4 but had 8 total in the next 5 and led with 848 (14.4) and was the #5 rusher (282, 9.4). Ellingson was #2 with 612 (14.2) and Times was #3 (341, 12.2). TE Jonathan Faucher had 9 rec (11.1). Not listed below are TE's Zach Schaubaut (6'2" 220 Jr) and Junior Delpe (6'4" 246 So). TY they lose Ellingson (12 st), and Frierson (2 st, 8 rec) but return Hilton who is already the school's all-time leader in tll yds. Despite being a little less exp'd, I look for improved numbers in 2011.

OFFENSIVE LINE - FIU did not get a lot of push up front from 2006-'09. In fact, in '09 with 5 st's back they only improved to 104 ypg rush (3.0) and allowed 34 sks and that was the 2nd best mark of the 4Y. LY they had to replace a pair of 4 yr st's as well as a 3rd st'r and 2 bkps (comb 7 sts). They did have 55 career sts ret and coaches raved about the improved depth and competition at OL which had previously been the weak link. Every spot was up for grabs except for C Brad Serini. LG David Istanch (6' st '09) had just 1 st in 6 gm due to the competition. FIU's OL made better than expected strides to 188 ypg rush (4.7) and just 20 sks. This year they lose 1st Tm SBC Serini (13 st, 4Y st'r) and 3rd Tm SBC LG Cedric Mack (12 st). Despite the loss of a pair of st's, they have 3 st's back which is one more than in '10 and have 50 car sts ret so they could be just as strong.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08, FIU had 2 st's back and the unit improved to 156 ypg rush allowed (3.9) which was 2nd best in their brief school history. In '09 they had to replace 3 st's and true frosh Tourek Williams was the #2 DL tkl'r. As you would expect, the much less exp'd unit allowed 233 ypg rush (5.4) with just 20 sks. LY they had to replace 3 st's again and had just 11 career sts ret ('09 had 46). I mentioned even though less exp'd, they could still show improvement over '09's poor numbers and that they did, allowing just 169 ypg (4.6) while increasing the sks to 33. DE Williams added 17 lbs and earned 2nd Tm SBC. This year they lose 1st Tm SBC DE Jarvis Wilson (12 st, #8 tkl'r, 9.5 sk, 5.5 tll) but return 8 with starting exp (44 car sts). A lot was expected from true frosh Gregory Hickmon who is 270 lbs, explosive and smart (had 2 tll and a FF vs Rutgers) but he played like a true frosh at times (8 tkl). Despite the loss of their top guy, this is a much more exp'd unit and DT Isame Faciane and DE Gregory Hickmon are much stronger as soph's. It will be interesting to see who emerges as Wilson had 0.5 sk in 36 gms heading into last season.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Panthers had to replace 2nd Tm SBC SLB Scott Bryant (12 st, #1 tkl'r) and the #8 and #9 tkl's (comb 10 sts). Much was expected of Larvez Mars (PS#91) but he was inj'd in Aug and RS. This year they lose 1st Tm SBC LB Toronto Smith (11 st, #2 tkl'r, 4 sk, 6.5 tll), STAR Anthony Gaitor (#7DC TB, 1st Tm SBC, #5 tkl'r) and Aaron Davis (21 tkl). They return their #3 and #12 tkl's and get a healthy Larvez "Pooh Bear" Mars as well as the addition of 2 JUCO's. Despite being less experienced this looks like a solid unit.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - FIU was #18 in my PDR in '04 and dead last at #119 in '05. They improved to #75, fell to #103 and in '08 with 3 st's back, surprisingly moved up to #38. In '09 with 2 st's back they plummeted back to #95. LY they had to replace 2 st's again. FS Ashlyn Parker missed almost all of '08 and '09 and they were hoping for him to return healthy. I was surprised he was able to start all 13 (#4 tkl'r). The Panthers moved up to #27 (54.5%, 19-15). This year they lose Parker (13 st, #4 tkl'r, 2 int), S Marquis Rolle (11 tkl) and S Kreg Brown (21 tkl, 2 int, 4 pbu). Not listed below are Cain Elliot (6'2" 215 So) and Antwoine Bell (5'11" 186 Jr). They return 3 st's but do not add a player like Parker and might not finish as high in my PDR.

SPECIALTEAMS - FIU was #105 in my ST rankings in '05, #118 in '06 and #97 in '07. In '08 they had an exciting true frosh in T.Y. Hilton and the unit moved up to #31. In '09 P Carlos Munera was granted a 6th yr and had an outstanding tm net of 37.4. The unit was #34. LY they had to replace their K and P but did return a 100% Hilton (banged up in '09). It surprised me that FIU finished #93. Hilton avg a pedestrian 6.3 on PPR's but an outstanding 28.7 on KR (2 td's). True frosh P Josh Brisk (PS#84) had 3 punts blk'd and the team net was 31.0 (#119). Soph K Jack Griffin (PS#57) hit 17-20 (L50) incl a bowl winning 34 yd'r. Dylan Lynch had 8 TB on 66 KO. With everyone back including Hilton, I'll call this one of the most improved ST units in the country.

COACHES - In 2007 Mario Cristobal became the first Cuban-American HC in FBS history. He was an All-Big East OT at Miami and was the TE coach there from '04-'05 and the OL cch in '06. Cristobal was just 36 yrs old when he became HC and 4 seasons after taking over an 0-12 program he earned SBC COY and a bowl win. OC Scott Satterfield (2nd yr) was the QB coach/Pass gm coor at Toledo in '09 and prior to that spent 11 seasons at his alma mater App St, where he was the starting QB ('93-'95). The Panthers now have their 3rd DC in 3 seasons. The new DC is Todd Orlando who spent 12 seasons at Conn (L5 as DC).

PHIL'S FORECAST

FIU is the youngest program in the FBS as they just started playing football in '02. The '06 season was FIU's first ever year with graduation losses (28 left lost). They plummeted from 5-6 in '05 to 0-12 in '06 and Don Strock resigned with 3 gms left. Surprisingly, FIU had the #28 defense in the IA allowing just 301 ypg and was #1 in the IA in tll. Despite their winless record, they were a few plays away from opening 5-1 but had 18 players susp'd (9 st's) after a fight with Miami, FI and the shorthanded team limped to a winless season. In '07 the nation's longest losing streak climb to 23, but FIU won their season finale (1-11). That '07 squad was -14 in TO's and had poor ypg's in both off and def so signs pointed upwards in '08. FIU had an OT loss to FAU and a 4 pt loss to ULM and finished 5-7 tying them for their most wins in a season. In '09 they had 15 ret st's but T.Y. Hilton was banged up most of the year and they dropped to just 3-9 and were -126.8 ypg in SBC play. LY they had just 11 ret st's and opened with 4 gms vs BCS teams played 7 on the rd in a 9 gm span that took them more than 13,000 miles. They opened with a 371-172 yd edge at home vs Rutgers but lost by 5. They led A&M 20-6 in the 4Q but came up short. Versus MD they had a 472-419 yd edge but lost by 14. At Pitt, they only trailed 23-17 in the 4Q but lost by 27. Dropping down to SBC play, they kept alive WKU's losing streak but only beat them by 7. They beat NT on the road (led 27-3 at half) but suffered their 5th straight loss to crosstown rival FAU. FIU needed 2 OT's to get past ULM 42-35 then dominated Troy (668-411 yd) on the road. 52-35 as they rushed for a school record 448 yds. They defeated Louisiana despite being outgained 390-317. The next week a slant pass to Hilton went 42 yds for a td with 1:42 left and they beat Ark St by 7. With a shot at the outright Title for the SBC, they gave up a td with 7:26 left to Middle Tenn then fumbled at the MT27 with 2:38 left and had to settle for a co-Title. In what was basically a home game for Toledo, FIU beat the Rockets 34-32 on a final play FG in the Little Caesars Bowl for their first winning season in school history at 7-6. FIU was a league best +67.1 ypg in SBC play. This year they have 15 ret st's making them a more veteran unit. They get the SBC's key game (vs Troy) at home and should be a favorite for the 2011 SBC Title. I will call for them to set another school record and top last year's 7 win total.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - Todd Berry is known for playing 2 QB's all season during his 28 years of coaching. The exception was in 2004 when he was the OC here and played SBC POY Steven Jyles all season to preserve Kinsmon Lancaster's RS. Jyles departed in 2005 as the career passing leader and Lancaster started from '05-'08. Trey Revell (PS#191) started 1 game in each of '07 and '08. In those 2 years he threw for 364 (49%, 4-3, 214 rush) in 14 gms. Revell was the clear-cut starter in '09 and his bkp was rFr Cody Wells (PS#285). Revell threw for 1,739 (58%, 12-12, #2 rusher) while Wells started 2 (Revell inj) throwing for 762 (56%, 6-7). True frosh Kolton Browning (PS#179) did make the travel squad. Browning had an impressive spring LY and took the job from Revell who actually moved to TE despite being on the Unitas Preseason Watch List. Browning topped 200 yds passing in 8 consec gms, tying Stan Humphries school record (1987). The left handed QB is a bull-like rusher and was #1 in gross rush yards (648). He already has 2 of the top 6 total offensive totals in ULM SBC history (350 vs ASU, 409 vs FIU). Browning broke a bone in his foot and wore a boot between games the last 5 weeks. Wildcat QB Zach Rhodes played in 8 and tore his ACL vs Troy while Wells played in 12 throwing for 67 (55.6%, 0-2). Browning threw for 2,552 (61.9%, 18-12) earning HM SBC. This year they only lose Rhodes (and Revell) and not listed below is Ian McCoig (6'2" 207 rFr). Browning belongs in the upper half of the SBC QB's.

RUNNING BACKS - No ULM RB had led their conf in rushing since 1993 (Irving Spikes, IAA). Calvin Dawson ended that drought leading the SBC in rushing in both '06 (1210, 5.7) and '07 (1414, 5.0). In '07, Frank Goodin (PS#207) rushed for 596 (5.1) earning HM SBC in '07 as a rFr. He became the feature back in '08 and started 11 and led with 783 (4.3). Goodin stayed healthy in '09 and in 12 sts rushed for 1,126 (5.1). Goodin had a shot at becoming ULM's #1 career rusher in '10 (needed just 874) but only started 8 and while he led, it was with just 438 (3.3). RFr Jyruss Edwards moved from DB in the spring and was #2 among RB's with 375 (4.5) while starting four. True frosh Centarius Donald (PS#226) had 66 (3.1). Rodney Lovett who had 461 (4.1) in '08-'09 had just 3 att's. This year they lose Goodin and Lovett. They add in Ark transfer Mitchell Bailey (224 lbs) and return Donald (211 lbs) for more power at the position. Not in the PSL are Todd Mue (5'6" 174 So) and Monterrell Washington (5'10" 200 So). Despite the loss of their #3 career rusher, part of the problems last year stemmed from issues on the O-line and the numbers can only improve in 2011.

RECEIVERS - Last year ULM had to replace 1st and 3rd Tm SBC WR's who had 784 (19.6) and 542 (14.3). The leading returnees were Luther Ambrose (PS#103) who had 455 (13.4) and TE Alvin Jordan who had 250 (10.4). Ambrose was arguably the 2nd fastest man in college football (behind Florida RB Demps) with a 10.12 (#3) in the 100M in the NCAA Track Championship and led with 752 (11.6) and was 2nd Tm SBC. RFr Tavarrese Maye was #2 with 505 (11.7) while Anthony McCall had 479 (14.5) and soph Brent Leonard added 377 (11.4). This year they lose TE Jordan (6 st, 10 rec) but have everyone else back making them much more experienced. Ambrose should be a threat to top 1,000 yards.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In 2007, ULM had one of the most experienced OL's in the country (128 car sts). LT Kyle Cunningham and C Adam Hill ended up starting every game in their 4 yrs (46). ULM improved to a school best (FBS) 209 ypg and 4.5 ypc with just 18 sks. In '08 they had just 1 st'r back and as expected slipped to 153 ypg rush (4.3) and 31 sks (8.9%). In 2009 they had to replace a 4 yr st'r and 2 of the returning starters lost their job's so they basically had just 2 st'r's back. They still improved to 184 ypg rush (4.5) and trimmed the sacks to 16 (4.9%). LY they had to replace 3 st'r's (35 car sts ret) and had to shift the blocking schemes with a new staff. I expected a drop and ULM slipped to 120 ypg rush (3.1) with 34 sks (8.5%), their weakest rush numbers since '03. This year they lose OG Andrew Stout (11 gm) but return all 5 st'r's plus 6 who started at least 6. When asked about what can be done about the slumping run game HC Berry replied "get in the weight room" and he focused on recruiting OL's this year. This is a more exp'd O-line (94 career sts ret) and is now in the 2nd year of Berry's systems so I look for solidly improved numbers.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In 2008, ULM had to replace 3 DL st'r's and even though they brought in a pair of 300 lbs JUCO's who combined to start 11, the D allowed 213 ypg rush and a ghastly 5.7 ypc (tm just 13 sks). ULM moved to a 3-3-5 in '09 and had to replace 2 st'r's but had 5 DL (comb 38 sts) back including 1st Tm SBC DE Aaron Morgan. As you would expect, the unit greatly improved to allowing 110 ypg (3.3) with 27 sks. LY they had to replace two time 1st Tm SBC DE Morgan (9 sk, 7 tfl) and a 3rd Tm SBC NT. DE Troy Evans (12 st '09) started just 2 so the unit basically returned 0 st'r's and as expected, the numbers dropped to 159 ypg (4.4) with 24 sks. This year they lose NT Quantez Hunter (4 st, 21 tkl, 1 sk), NT Bryan Glenn (4 st, 11 tkl, 1 sk) and DT Aaron Moore (5 tkl, 1 sk) while Keavon Milton (11 sts, 24 tkls) moves to TE. They return 1 st'r in their top DE Ken Dorsey (2nd Tm SBC). He is short (6'2") but explosive and had 5 sk and 7 tfl. Evans is also back so I will count 2 starters returning and call for improvement.

LINEBACKERS - In 2009 ULM switched to a 3-3-5 D and I list the HAWK in the LB write-up. Last year ULM had to replace 3 st'r's (#1, #2, #4 tkl'r) incl SBC co-DPOY Cardia Jackson who became the SBC's career tackle leader with 381. Their top returnee was Theo Smith (#6 tkl'r). As expected, ULM slipped to allowing 32.4 ppg, their most since '03. This year they lose HAWK Alex Ibe (12 st, #4 tkl'r, 2.5 tfl), Smith (12 st, #7 tkl'r, 3 sk), Troy Giddens (1 st, 12 tkl) and Zach Rhodes (5 tkl). This unit is more experienced as they move 3rd Tm SBC Darius Prewell (12 st SS, #3 tkl'r) to HAWK and return their top 2 tacklers. I also like the replacements at OLB.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - ULM had to replace 3 st'r's in both '07 and '08 and finished #68 and #78 in my PDR. In '09 they had 3 st'r's returning and FS Greg James set SBC and school records with 17 career int's. Not surprisingly ULM had their highest finish yet in my PDR at #40. LY they had to replace 2 starters incl 1st Tm SBC FS James. Nate Brown had a 15 game starting streak end with an injury early (3 st, 9 gm, 29 tkl). ULM finished a solid #42. This year they lose 3rd Tm SBC CB Robert Nelson (11 st, 55 tkl, 9 pd) and SS Prewell moves to HAWK but have 6 of the top 8 back and add Memphis transfer Rob'Donovan Lewis. Last year this unit also lost 2 starters but don't underestimate this secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS - ULM's highest ever finish in my ST rankings is #80. They came close in '07 (#87) and '08 (#89) but despite having all of their top players back in '09 slipped to #113. LY they had to replace their P and I speculated that they could only improve and they did but just to #103. RFr Jyruss Edwards avg 24.3 on KPs. Radi Jabour who hit 6-12 FG (L48) in '08 improved to 12-20 (L48) in '09 and 8-10 (L42) LY despite not attempting a FG in 6 gms. He had 4 TB on 50 KO. Jabour is in 3rd place all-time in kick scoring at ULM (166 pts). Aaron Munoz surprisingly took the P job after moving from QB to CB in the spring and was the team's secret weapon as he had 3 passes and 2 runs on fake punts, converting 3. Munoz avg just 38.6 (35.0 net). This year the unit returns intact and should achieve their best finish yet in my ST rankings.

COACHES - Charlie Weatherbie was let go after 7 yrs here finishing with a 31-51 record and achieving two 6-6 marks in his last 3 yrs. Todd Berry was previously the HC at Army ('00-'03, 5-36 record) and Ill St ('96-'99, 24-24). Berry also has years of exp as an OC (UNLV '07-'09, ULM '04-'05) and is just one of 9 FBS HC's that also coach a position (QB cch). His OC for a second season is Steve Farmer who was OC at Illinois St in '09 and spent 5 yrs as an asst here at ULM (last 2 as OC). Troy Reffett is now in his 3rd yr as DC coming here after 5 years as a secondary coach (DC in '08) at New Mexico.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Two times, Charlie Weatherbie came within one game of achieving a winning record. 2009 was his 7th year and ULM made my Most Improved List coming off a 4-8 season. ULM did not catch a lot of breaks but still finished 6-6 (bowl eligible) and were +42.1 ypg in SBC play with the 2nd best D in the league allowing just 347 ypg. Last year they had a new HC in Todd Berry and I expected a losing season. Berry held back scholarships and only signed 19 players his 1st class. He also pulled the names off the jersey's until they earned a bowl bid. ULM caught some breaks early on. After losing to Ark and Ark St on the road, they trailed SEL 20-14 in the 4Q but pulled out a 1 point win. They trailed FAU 17-12 but recovered a fumble and drove 55 yds for a td and 2 pt conv with 2:43 left to win by 3. WKU appeared to end its long losing streak leading ULM 24-7 in the 4Q but once again ULM rallied scoring 28 straight to amazingly stand 3-3. After getting pummeled by Middle Tenn, they stunningly upset Troy at home, their 3rd straight win at home vs Troy. The next week they took FIU to 2OT before losing by 7 then lost to LSU 51-0. Versus a banged up NT squad, they trailed 27-21 at half but rallied for a 12 pt win. In the season finale, they actually had a shot at a 6 win season but had their xp blocked with 4:55 left and Louisiana held on. Berry played many young players and in some weeks 10 of the 22 starters were Fr or Soph's. ULM was +16.8 ypg in SBC play and this year have 17 ret st'r's which is the most in the league. This year's team probably won't have as good of fortune as in '10 but is clearly more talented and in Berry's 2nd season. They play two of the SBC's weakest teams on the road meaning most of the crucial games are at home. If they manage to stay healthy through grueling road games at Florida St, TCU and Iowa they could be a dark horse contender for the SBC Title. They are a prime candidate for my Most Improved List (pg 19).

MIDDLE TENNESSEE BLUE RAIDERS

LB Darin Davis

QUARTERBACKS - As a true frosh Dwight Dasher started 7 (1 at RB) throwing for 1,148 (56%) with a 9-3 ratio (led with 530 rush). He was beat out by Joe Craddock in '08 and Craddock's 2,677 (65%, 15-7) was the 2nd highest single season mark here. In '09 Dasher completed over 60% just 5 times (5 times hit 50% or lower) but broke Clint Marks' school record for total off with 3,943 yds (#6 FBS) and was the 1st ever MT QB 1,000+ rusher. His 23 td passes broke Mickey Corwin's '84 record (21). Dasher was susp for the first 4 in '10. Logan Kilgore (PS#100JC) and Jeff Murphy split the duties early with the 2 combining for 935 (61%, 3-6) and 65 rush yds. Dasher ret'd but was a turnover machine with 24 int and 14 fumbles, finishing dead last in the country in TO margin. He threw for just 1,550 (57.8%, 6-18, only 543 rush). Dasher still became the first SBC player to pass for 4,000 and rush for 2,000 in a career. He finished 2nd in MT history in total offense (Wes Counts 8181, 1998-'01). While they do lose a 3 year starter, I feel this unit can actually be improved after a combined 9-24 ratio in 2010.

RUNNING BACKS - In '07 Phillip Tanner (1 st) was #3 with 299 (4.7). In '08 Rick Stockstill commented on how he loved Tanner's passion, effort and the conviction he runs with and if not for a young O-line he would have topped 1,000 (714, 3.8). Tanner was the clear-cut starter in '09 and Stockstill was very high on all of his true frosh signees. DD Kyles is as fast as any MT player when he has the ball in his hands. Tanner was lost in Wk 2. Kyles did not practice as hard as expected but a few weeks later ended up and had 3 consec 100 yd efforts (incl 177 vs UL) and ended up with 857 (6.2). True frosh Benjamin Cunningham was the #2 RB with 173 (3.8). Last year all 3 ret'd. Tanner led with 928 (5.8). Kyles, who had half as many carries was #3 (414, 5.4) and Cunningham finished #4 (355, 4.6). RFR William Pratcher (5'7" 198 So, PS#288) added 56 (2.8). Not listed below are Pratcher, Marquise Branton (5'10" 232 Sr, PS#285), Tony Rowland (5'7" 187 rFr) and Kennedy McGruder (5'11" 217 Jr). This year they lose their top RB in Tanner but VHT Drayton Allen-Calhoun (PS#35DB) is an LSU transfer that may be ruled eligible (summer) and should at least match Tanner's output.

RECEIVERS - In '08, MT had an extremely young rec corps. True frosh Malcolm Beyah was #2 with 550 (16.7) and Sancho McDonald (PS#114QB), who moved to WR mid-Aug, had 308 (11.8). In '09 they had to replace their top WR and then Beyah was inj'd (8 rec). JUCO Garrett Andrews had 530 (15.1) and ex-walk-on TE Shane Blissard had 283 (14.9). LY they had to replace their #1 and #3 rec's. Beyah ret'd and led but with just 388 (13.4) while Andrews was #2 (377, 11.1) and soph Tavares Jefferson (104, 9.5 in '09) finished 5th with 247 (13.0). McDonald was #3 with 321 (15.3) and Tyler Mason was #4 (263, 15.5). This year they lose Andrews (13 st) and Wes Caldwell (9 rec). Adding depth are Vincent Van Horne (5'11" 181 Sr), Andrew Banks (5'9" 155 Sr, PS#381), Jonathan Moore (5'11" 178 So), Reggie Whatley (5'7" 172 rFr), Byron McLeod (6'2" 230 Sr), Patrick Hubbard (5'6" 153 rFr), William Carter (5'8" 160 Jr) and Marcus Thurmond (6'0" 168 Jr, PS#156). This is their most exp'd rec corps in 3 yrs and should have a large increase in numbers with better passing QB's.

OFFENSIVE LINE - The O-line paved the way for 5.3, 5.5 and 4.7 ypc rushing from 2000-'02 but did not top 3.6 in the next 6 yrs. In '08 they opened holes for only 107 ypg rush (3.1) but all'd just 15 sks (3.6%). In '09 their QB rushing totals went from 310 in '08 to 1,176. Couple that with all 5 st's back (99 car sts) and as expected they improved to 186 (4.7) but with 19 sks (4.4%). Last year they had to replace a 4 yr st'r and 2 OL's who comb'd for 11 sts but still had 93 car sts ret and added Tenn transfer Preston Bailey (PS#41). Despite Dasher's rushing numbers dropping to 543 (missed 4 gm), MT's O-line produced similar numbers (181, 4.5, 23 sk). Alex Stuart (8 st '09) missed the year (knee). This year they lose 2nd Tm SBC OT Mark Fisher (12 st, 4Y st'r), G Evon Lettsome (2 st) and C Chris Hawkins (2 st). They have 4 st's returning plus return Stuart and 3 others that earned starts. Despite the loss of their mobile QB, this unit (104 car sts) looks like the SBC's best.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 MT had to replace 2 st's but improved from allowing 154 ypg rush (4.1) to 137 (3.5) while the D had 38 sks, their highest yet in FBS. LY they had to replace a 3rd Tm SBC DT and co-SBC Def POY DE. Five frosh DL were signed in '09 (1 ply'd) and they were dubbed "The Greenhorns" (Stockstill said best scout tm D he's had). As expected, the numbers slipped some to 188 ypg (4.1) with 34 sks. This year they lose all 4 st's. Gone are SBC DPOY DE Jamari Lattimore (12 st, 68 tkl, 11.5 sk), 1st Tm SBC DT Dwight Smith (13 st, 44 tkl, 8.5 tfl), DE Emmanuel Perez (13 st, 48 tkl, 7 tfl), DT Gary Tucker (10 st, 29 tkl, 4.5 tfl) and DE Jarrett Crittenton (4 st, 30 tkl, 4 sk, 6.5 tfl). This unit has a combined total of 0 car sts (3 car sk) and the rush D #'s figure to drop again.

LINEBACKERS - Their LB coach in '09 was very high on the 4 true frosh signees of Craig Allen, Roderic Blunt, Justin Jones and Stephen Roberts, 3 of whom RS. LY they had to replace their #1 and #2 tkl's (both 2nd Tm SBC). Stockstill said the new st's were faster and more athletic and I thought they would be down a few notches and MT went from allowing 23.7 ppg to 28.1. This year they lose MLB Antwan Davis (10 st, #6 tkl'r, 2 tfl) but return their #2, #4 and #12 tkl's with those 4 freshmen of '09 combining for 102 tkl LY. This is a more exp'd group and another year older.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - MT usually does well in my PDR. After a #114 finish in '04, they were #57, #67, #46 and #65. In '09 they had 3 st's back and I wrote that MT would contend for the top secondary honors in the SBC. MT finished an SBC best #29 (54.8%, 16-19). MT did break school rec's for tfl and sk which assisted the coverage. LY they had to replace their top cover corner. They returned 1st Tm SBC FS Jeremy Kellem and 2nd Tm SBC SS Kevin Brown. MT dropped significantly to #73 (57.5%, 19-11). This year they lose SS Brown (13 st, #3 tkl'r, 4 pbu), 1st Tm SBC FS Kellem (13 st, #1 tkl'r, 6 pbu) and 1st Tm SBC CB Rod Issac (12 st, 54 tkl, 3 int, 6 pbu, #5DC JAX). Florida St transfer Jajuan Harley (PS#35) was impressive in the spring but must sit out '11. While they must replace their top 3 DB's, one CB spot should be filled by CB Kenneth Gilstrap who won the 55M SBC track title and this unit could improve in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Stockstill's first 2 ST finishes were #62 and #84. It surprised me that in '08 the unit ret'd intact yet dropped to #114. In '09 K Alan Gendreau (PS#19) hit 18-22 (L48, Groza semi) but MT only rose to #95. LY they had to replace their P and top PR, KR and LS but FS Jeremy Kellem ret'd with his 4 career blk'd punts. Howard Schnellenberger commented that DT's Gary Tucker and SaCoby Carter helped MT block 3 punts (#2 FBS 8 blk '09). MT used a pooch punter and Josh Davis was the SBC STPOW vs Memphis with a school record 59.8 avg on 4 punts. Davis avg 42.7 and Toulson 39.2 (comb 27 I20) with a team net of 36.5. Gendreau had 5 TB on 56 KO and hit 10-12 FG's including a 55 ydr (2nd best to Kelly Potter 57 yd in 1982). Eric Russell was the top KR (26.3) and PR (6.8). MT finished #39 and with all of the key players back, they could crack the Top 25.

COACHES - Rick Stockstill has been a coach under Lou Holtz, Steve Spurrier, Danny Ford, Ken Hatfield, Tommy West and Tommy Bowden. He was the OC at ECar in '03 and the recruiting coor at SCar from '04-'05. The former Fla St QB has recruited 19 NFL signees over the last 11 yrs. In his first year here ('06) he led MT to its first ever DI bowl and was the SBC COY. For the 2nd straight season they will change both coord's! New OC Willie Simmons is in his 5th season here and will continue to cch RB's. DC Steve Ellis has been the CB cch and ST coor here for 2 yrs and was at Nicholls St for 6 seasons (3 as DC).

PHIL'S FORECAST

MT has generally been rated near the top of the Sun Belt each year in the preseason. After an 8-3 overall record in the SBC's inaugural year of 2001, they would have 6 losing seasons in the next 7 yrs. When Stockstill took over in '06 he had just 70 scholarship players but got them to their first ever bowl (7-6). By 2009 they had a full allotment of scholarship players and only had to replace 11 lettermen. Dwight Dasher had an outstanding year and MT rolled to a 10-3 record with Dasher winning the MVP of the bowl vs S Miss. Last year MT was a consensus favorite to win the SBC as Dasher was back and they got the other top SBC team, Troy, at home. MT did get 2 votes in the AP poll (#43), their first ever appearance. Stockstill turned down job offers from ECar and Memphis and they appeared headed for a big season. MT caught a lot of publicity in the summer when Dasher was susp'd for the first 4. MT lost to Minny in the opener then down to their 3rd string QB gave Memphis their only win of the season. They appeared back in the role of Sun Belt favorites as they waxed Louisiana 34-14. They got Dasher back for Troy but he had a couple of poor efforts and they lost 42-13 then the following game lost 42-14 to GT to slip to 2-4. They whipped ULM 38-10 but were -6 in TO's vs Ark St and lost by 27. They trailed almost the entire game vs N Texas and lost then needed to win out just to make a bowl. They had a couple of close calls. They were outgained by WKU 396-208 but blk'd a WKU 34 yd FG with 2:29 left and won by 1. They got 49 and 52 yd IR's to set up td's vs FAU and won by 24. Versus FIU, they trailed 14-0. They got a td with 7:26 left for the lead then FIU fumbled at the MT27 with 2:38 left. In the bowl, Dasher threw 4 int's and they lost by 14 vs a team with an interim HC. MT had benefited from +12 in turnovers in '09 and had their record drop to 6-7 last year. They were -19 in TO's which bodes well for this year. MT was -33.9 ypg which was 2nd worst in the league and replaces both coord's for a 2nd st yr. They have just 10 ret st's (lowest in SBC) but only lose 17 lett (3rd fewest). They should overachieve this year after underachieving in '10 and how quickly the defense (3 sts back) matures will determine whether they can be a SBC contender.

First meeting: MT is 0-3 vs the Big 10 (avg score 36-14). The Blue Raiders are 3-9 in season openers & 1-4 under Stockstill. MT has dropped 6 straight road openers by 14 ppg.

LY in the only meeting MT trailed just 14-7 at HT but committed 6 TO's that resulted in 28 pts (ironically lost by 28). Blue Raiders are 2-7 in home openers. MT is 1-3 hosting BCS tms (beat MD in '08).

Bonus: Rick Stockstill was a Florida St QB from '77-'81 playing under the legendary Bobby Bowden.

FIU: HT is 5-1 in series. LY's 1 pt victory capped a 3 gm winning streak that put MT in a bowl.

In the SBC's biggest rivalry, MT has dropped 5 str vs Troy by an avg score 34-13. LTH on national TV MT trailed 24-0 as their 1st 10 poss all ended in punts. These schools play for the Palladium Trophy.

These schools are 200 miles apart & MT has won 2 of 3. LY Memphis scored all 24 pts off of 4 TO's. MT trailed just 24-17 late 3Q but had 3 punts & a SOD their L4 drives (32 yds ttl).

MT is 11-3 vs WKU. LY MT trailed 26-13 late 3Q when WKU fun into EZ from the MT1 & it was ret 100 yds for a TD. MT got their 1st lead & GW TD w/4:31 sealing it w/a blk'd 34 yd FG.

North Texas: Last time in Denton Middle Tennessee was outgained but had a +5 TO ratio resulting in 10 pts (North Texas also fumbled at MT5, int in EZ & int at MT5).

MT has won 3 str vs FAU. LTH MT trailed 20-13 in the 4Q getting the GWTD on a 74 yd run by QB Dasher (stopped FAU on 4&4 at MT23). Into 2011, MT is 6-2 on the SBC road.

This series is tied 5-5 in SBC play but MT has won B2B meetings. LY QB Kilgore had a career high 207 pass yds. MT led just 20-14 at HT but handcuffed UL in the 2H allowing just 135 yds.

Just one prior meeting which was the LTH in '02. MT lost 26-3. Blue Raiders are 3-29 vs the SEC w/the avg score 38-10 (all 3 wins vs Vanderbilt). Into 2011, MT is 5-34 on the road vs BCS conf tms.

Last & only time that MT lost in Monroe was '99 (1st meeting), since they have won 4 str trips by 14 ppg. LTH MT trailed 10-7 mid-2Q but scored 31 SBC pts of the next 34 pts to cap '09's 7 SBC wins.

LY MT had 7 TO's (FBS era high). MT trailed just 23-17 at HT but opened the 2H w/5 str drives ending in TO's.

LY MT went 65/7pl for the GW TD w/7:26 left & forced a fum at their 26 running out the L2:38.

MT has won 3 straight in Denton by 24 ppg.

LY's loss snapped a 4 gm series win streak.

ARKANSAS STATE RED WOLVES

C Tom Castilaw

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '06 rFr Corey Leonard (PS#90) took over the starting job in Wk 5 and held it for 3 seasons leaving as the school's all-time leader in total offense. Twice in '09 he was benched and rFr Ryan Aplin threw for 889 (65%, 3-6) and was the #2 rusher (253, 4.0). Aplin missed the spring of 2010 (shoulder) so rFr Phillip Butterfield (PS#50) got almost all the snaps and became a contender. Aplin set a single game school record with 438 yds pass vs Louisiana (Nick Noce 418 vs Memphis '04) and then later set a single game school record for comp hitting 33-44-275 vs Indiana (Johnny Covington '95). He also set the school single season records for passing yds (Cleo Lemon 2,721 in '98), pass tds and total offense (Leonard '08) throwing for 2,939 (61.5%, 21-11) while again finishing as the #2 rusher (477, 3.5). Butterfield had just 26 pass att but new HC Freeze says he will get 1st team snaps and is a legit contender to unseat Aplin. Adding depth are Wil Nicks (6'1" 195 Fr) and Clay Hart (6'0" 175 rFr). Since the offense is the same and both QB's return, ASU could have the best pass offense in the SBC.

RUNNING BACKS - Reggie Arnold topped 1,000 yds in each of his first 3 seasons but in '09 he only led with 723 (4.3). He departed as the #2 career rusher (3,933) coming up just 14 yds short of Richie Wolt (1950-53). Derek Lawson had 695 (7.2) as a rFr in '08 and 244 (4.4) in '09. LY he had the team's only 100 yard effort (106) and led with 500 (4.8). QB Aplin was the #2 rusher. Jermaine Robertson (5'11" 230 Sr), who had 97 (5.1) his first 2 yrs, had 348 (5.0) including 92 vs Navy. True frosh Sirgorey Thornton (PS#220) had the best ypc of the RB's (6.8) and rushed for 258 and added 13 rec's (6.6). This year everyone returns and they add in rFr Frankie Jackson (PS#138) and true frosh Artez Brown (PS#85). Not listed below are Sherodrick Smith (5'10" 180 rFr), Mayborn Peters (5'8" 187 rFr), Ryan Byrd (6'1" 180 rFr), Shaquille Spearman (5'8" 165 rFr) and LaRod Jones (5'7" 185 So). This unit is more exp'd and should be more productive in the 2nd year of the new offense.

RECEIVERS - Last year the Red Wolves had to replace 6 of their top 7 rec's and the leading returnee was Taylor Stockemer (#3, 347, 21.7). Dwayne Frampton (PS#72JC) is only 5'9" and lacks blazing speed but nearly set the school record for rec's in a season (Robert Kilow 72 in '00) with 69 (738, 10.7). Frampton had a school record 12 rec vs Indiana. Soph Allen Muse was #2 with 635 (15.1). Stockemer was #3 with 560 (16.5). This year all 3 return as does 265 lb TE Kedric Murry (PS#79, 9 rec) who is also a solid blocker. The only losses are Anthony Robinson (7 st, #4, 348, 9.9), Lucious Henderson (6 rec) and TE Jeff Blake (6 st, 3 rec). They also add in Josh Jarboe (PS#23) who was at both Oklahoma and Troy! Adding depth are TE's Steven Reid (6'4" 240 So), Kenneth Rains (6'4" 250 rFr) and Spencer Brooks (6'4" 235 rFr). This group is much more exp'd and is the SBC's top receiving corps.

OFFENSIVE LINE - Steve Roberts pulled some magic on the O-line twice. In '05 the tm had just 1 ret st'r yet put up the best stats of the decade with 193 ypg rush (4.8, 31 sk). In '08 Roberts had to replace 4 st'r's but topped '05's totals with 203 ypg rush (5.0) with 29 sks (9.4%). In '09 they ret'd 2 st'r's but lost one in Wk 1 and the other after 4 sts. That left the remaining OL with just 9 career sts. This time the inexp'd O-line performed as expected avg just 135 ypg (3.8) with 31 sks (9.4%). LY they got LG Dominic Padra (10 st '08) back and 9 others who started in the injury plagued '09 season. Hugh Freeze installed an up tempo offense. The numbers improved but not as much as expected (149 ypg, 4.3, 23 sk). Against Louisiana, they had just 19 rush att's and passed 20 straight times. This year the losses are heavy. Gone are 1st Tm SBC RT Derek Newton (12 st, 2Y st'r, #7DC HOU), LT Kiano Prater (11 st, 2Y st'r), 2nd Tm SBC RG Sifa Eto (11 st, 2Y st'r), Padra (8 st, 2Y st'r), LG Drew Hilton (4 st, 2Y st'r) and LG Alfred Louis (1 st). That's 112 career sts gone and just 28 ret. LY's unit didn't live up to my expectations and this year they add in 5 JUCO's, 4 of which may start.

DEFENSIVE LINE - Over the last 8 yrs, DL coach Kevin Peoples had 7 All-SBC players (1st, 2nd or HM) that were honored 11 times in his tenure (2 in NFL in '10). He left LY for Ark. With an exp'd front in '09 they showed improvement in the def rush numbers, trimming them to 122 ypg (3.5), the best since 1994. LY they had to replace a #3DC and 2 other st'r's but ret'd 2nd Tm SBC DT Bryan Hall. With a less exp'd unit, the numbers ballooned to 206 ypg (4.5), their worst since 2000. Hall was the SBC Def Preseason POY and earned 1st Tm SBC with 8.5 sk and NG Dorvus Woods was 2nd Tm SBC despite having just 8 sts (9 tfl). TY they lose their top guy in Hall (12 st, #7 tkl'r) but have 8 back who earned sts last year and should get a bigger impact from Texas transfer Derek Johnson (PS#51) who arrived in Aug at 357 lbs and needed the year to get into shape (320 spg). Despite the loss of Hall, they are more exp'd and after LY's weak numbers, I'll call this a large improvement in '11.

LINERBACKERS - In '08 and '09 ASU had to replace their top tkl'r but in '09 had 5 of their top 6 back. LY they ret'd their #1 tkl'r in Demario Davis and only had to replace their #10 tackler (10 st). They were expected to get the return of Daruis Glover (12 st '08) but he broke his wrist and had 0 tkl. Surprisingly with an exp'd LB corps and Davis earning 1st Tm SBC, the team allowed 7.5 ppg and 95 ypg move. TY they only lose 2nd Tm SBC Javon McKinnon (8 st, #1 tkl'r) and Glover. They return their #4, #5 and #6 tkl'r's and 2 bkps (comb 3 st, 50 tkl) and after LY's poor numbers, I'll call this an improved group.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - ASU had its 2 highest finishes in my PDR under Roberts in '06 (#68) and in '07 (#60) with 4 senior st'r's as SS Tyrell Johnson was SBC DPOY. In '08 they had to replace all 4 st'r's and shockingly they only allowed a 14-15 ratio vs a tough slate of opp QB's and finished #14! In '09 they lost their FS in the opener so they had just 2 st'r's back. They were more exp'd but could not match '08 (#89, 19-8). LY they had to replace 2 st'r's and a pair of bkps (comb 7 sts, 69 tkl's). While they had to replace both CB's, PS#93JC Darron Edwards led the SBC in pbu (10) and they finished #94 (57.3%, 24-11). TY they lose 1st Tm SBC FS MD Jennings (12 st, #2 tkl'r), CB Walter Moody (9 st, 9 tkl) and CB Marquette Williams (4 st, 12 tkl). They return Edwards as well as 3rd Tm SBC SS Kelcie McCray (#3 tkl'r). This unit is equal to LY in terms of exp but could improve upon their lowest finish in my PDR in 5 yrs.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Steve Roberts coached this unit himself and finished #85, #105, #50, #64, #103, #64 and #78. In '09 they had his best finish at #40. LY K Josh Arauco departed as the SBC all-time leader in FG made (58) and pts by a K (288). The also had to replace their P, top KR and PR. The diminutive Roderick Hall (5'7" 165) was a late JC signee in August and became one of the SBC's top RM with 936 yds (23.1 KR, 8.2 PR). Dean Gerিকে had 11 punts (42.9) but Neely Sullivn who is also a backup QB took over and avg 40.7 with a 37.2 m net. True frosh Bobby Zalud (PS#28) hit 6-13 FG's (L39) missing all 3 from 40+ and true frosh Brian Davis (PS#77) hit 6-8 FG's (L41). They finished #78 and TY lose 4 yr LS Adam Gaston but with everyone else back, they are much more exp'd and should make a solid climb in my rankings. K's Matthew Baltensperger (5'10" 185 So) and Carter Callahan (5'11" 170 So) add ST depth.

COACHES - Steve Roberts coached here for 9 seasons and won SBC COY in '05. While Roberts never topped the 6 win plateau (had 6 wins 4 times), no HC here has since ASU's move up to 1A in 1992. After a disappointing 4-8 season in '09 he was forced to replace his OC after 8 seasons and hired Hugh Freeze. After putting up record breaking numbers, Freeze was promoted to HC when Robert's was let go after another 4-8 season. Freeze's prior collegiate exp includes being the HC at Lambuth (NAIA '08-'09) and the assistant and interim HC at Ole Miss ('06-'07). Freeze will handle the OC duties himself. The new DC has over 31 yrs of college exp in Dave Wommack. He has been a DC at 6 other schools and most recently with Ga Tech ('08-'09), Ark ('01-'04), Southern Miss ('94-'00) and UNLV ('92-'93).

PHIL'S FORECAST

Since 1995, ASU has had 7 seasons of 5+ wins and Steve Roberts was at the helm for 6 of them. 2005 was Roberts best year as they won a share of the Sun Belt crown and played in the New Orleans Bowl but did finish just 6-6. In fact, in Roberts' 9 yrs, they did not have a winning season despite reaching 3 wins 4 times. Roberts did have an outstanding 33-12 record at ASU Stadium (22-9 vs SBC). LY ASU was coming off a 4-8 season and had just 11 ret st'r's. They also had 5 road games in the first 7 including at eventual National Champ Auburn. As expected they lost their opener and the next week trailed Louisiana 31-7 but did have the ball twice trailing by 7 at the end but lost. After beating ULM 34-20 they took a 28-27 lead vs Troy on a td with :50 left, but Troy got a td with :22 left, dealing them a loss. They trailed L'ville 31-7 at the half before losing by 10. The next week they beat a banged up NT squad 24-19 then went into Big Ten country and came up 2 pts short vs the Hoosiers. They did trail FAU 16-9 in the 4Q but won by 21 thanks to turnovers. On a blackout night at home, ASU forced 7 MT TO's and rolled to a 51-24 win putting them at 4-5 with a great shot at 6 wins. Coming off that big win, Roberts had one of his worst losses of his career vs WKU, giving up a td on the last play. A bad snap on a punt with :54 left set WKU up at the ASU 22 to force OT. The next week they only trailed 21-13 in the 4Q but lost to Navy by 16 clinching a losing season. Taking on eventual league co-champ FIU in the finale, they led 24-20 and 24-23 but gave up a 42 yd td pass and 2 pt conv with 1:42 left to drop to 4-8. ASU had 4 net close losses (pg 299) but had just 5 sts lost to injury. New HC Hugh Freeze joined the team as OC last year and the Red Wolves' 30.0 ppg was their best since 1986. He inherits 13 ret st'r's with almost all of the key skill players back. The only question on offense is a rebuild O-line (1 ret st'r). They have the 2nd best defensive front 7 in the SBC (behind Troy). Home games vs league powers Troy and FIU could make them a surprise contender. One of my 9 sets of power ratings calls for 10 wins with 6 projecting a winning season. Since Freeze was here LY they will not go through all the growing pains of a 1st year HC usually experiences.

ASU is 0-2 vs UI (L/gm in '02). RedWolves are 1-18 in road openers S'92 (1st yr at FBS level, win was at Texas A&M in '08). ASU is 3-77 vs current BCS tms incl 0-6 vs the Big 10.

ASU lost the L/gm in '08 but were coming off B2B wins. ASU trailed 13-0 rallying to lead 17-16 at HT but were shutout in the 2H w/just 124 yds. Red Wolves have won 6 str home openers, avg score 49-12.

ASU has been outscored 147-14 vs VT (3 gms all in Blacksburg, L/gm in '02). RedWolves have dropped 21 str (S'90) vs ranked foes by an avg score 47-10! Into 2011, ASU has lost 8 str non-conf AG's.

ASU is 9-12-2 vs UCA but 5-0-1 L/6 & their last series loss was in 1937. L/gm was in '97 as the Red Wolves escaped 36-35. Bears went 7-4 LY (41-14 loss at Tulsa) & in '09 beat WKU 28-7.

This will be the RedWolves 3rd trip to Bowling Green as the 1st was a tie in '47 (series began) & the 2nd the LTH. ASU trailed 20-10 into the 4Q but held WKU to just 6 Q4 yds in the comeback.

ASU is 6-3 vs ULM but lost the LTH. RedWolves trailed 16-0 at HT being outgained 188-95 but limited ULM to 5 FD's & 87 yds in the 2H. ASU was SOD w/13 left after a FD at the ULM20 down 6.

The HT has won 4 str in this series & is 5-1 overall. LY ASU was up 24-23 in the 4Q but allowed a 80/11pl GW drive (42 yd TD pass on 3&9 w/1:42). ASU was SOD on their 40.

Middle Tenn: Arkansas St never won in Murfreesboro (0-6) & every game there in SBC play has been decided by at least 17 pts. Into 2011 ASU is 4-24 in road games.

ASU had won 7 str HC gms until LY. ASU's 6 gm series winning streak over NT is the longest vs FBS schools (7 str vs N AL). LY ASU led 21-3 early 2Q and NT settled for 3 FG's under 40 yds.

ASU has never beaten FAU in B2B seasons. LTH QB Ryan Aplin made his 1st career start (168, 74%, 1-0) & had 82 RY. Into 2011, Red Wolves have gone just 3-12 on the SBC road.

LY was misleading as ASU trailed 31-7 after 3Q's gaining 37% (167) of their yds in the 4Q. Red Wolves have dropped 3 str but each by 7 pts or less. Into 2011, ASU is 17-5 L6Y in SBC HG's.

LTH ASU trailed 24-0 early 2Q & 38-7 into the 4Q (just 131 yds) as they had a ssn low 220 yds.

Troy: ASU won 6 of the 1st 7 gms but since have dropped 4 str by 16 ppg. LY the Red Wolves rallied from a 4Q TD deficit taking a 1 pt lead w/50 left only to allow a 67/5pl GW drive (17 yd TD pass) w/22 left.

NORTH TEXAS MEAN GREEN

#56 C JJ Johnson

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '09 NT returned starting QB Riley Dodge (PS#6) a rare VHT for the program. Dodge suffered a nerve injury in his shoulder which limited his passing and he threw for 1,975 (68%, 9-15) and was the #2 rusher with 463 (4.5). On the road in the season finale at ASU the top 2 QB's were in'd and the #3 QB was left home with mono so they were forced to take the RS off true frosh 6'4" Derek Thompson (PS#159) who hit 3-3 passes. In '10 Dodge was forced to move to WR due to his shoulder and Thompson battled Nathan Tune. Tune had 2 sts and threw for 646 (65%, 5-2) in '09. LY Tune won the job but was OFY in Wk 2 after throwing for 525 (59.1%, 4-3). Thompson st'd vs Army but was also lost for the year in the 2Q. They reluctantly pulled Dodge back to QB (arm not 100%). Chase Baine (PS#310) moved back from WR as well. Teammates nicknamed him 'Chase Tebow' because of the plays he makes in practice scrambling and he did receive scholarship offers from Air Force and Navy (option tms). Baine played in 3 (2 st) throwing for 257 (49.1%, 1-1) Dodge threw for 1,212 (60.2%, 11-4) and was the #2 rusher with 253 (3.2) playing with a brace on his broken left wrist. This year they lose Tune and Dodge. Thompson is the clear #1 out of spring and backing him up is McCartney recruit PS#151JC Brent Osborn. Adding depth is John Dodson (6'0" 195 So). This unit can only remain healthier after losing 3 QB's to injury LY and should put up improved numbers.

RUNNING BACKS - In '08 Cam Montgomery (PS#90JC) led with 928 (5.5). True frosh Lance Dunbar rushed for 178 (4.6) with 2 sts but was OFY with knee injury. Both RB's ret'd in '09 and Montgomery had 149 vs Ball St but was in'd and far from 100% after that finishing with just 265 (4.0). Dunbar bulked up to 203 lbs without losing his speed. He had 187 vs Louisiana and 238 vs FAU finishing with 1,378 and an outstanding 6.9 ypc (also #4 rec). In 8 sts, he avg 148 ypg (15 td's). James Hamilton (PS#104) was #3 among RB's with 47 (4.3). LY Dunbar moved into 2nd place in the school record books in total td's (37) passing Ron Shanklin ('67-'69). He rushed for a powerful 1,553 yds (5.7) incl 270 in the ssn finale vs K-State. Dunbar is just the 2nd NT back to top 1,000 in consecutive seasons. Hamilton rushed for 214 (8.2) but was lost after 5 gms. Brandin Byrd (PS#287) had 169 (5.0). The great news this year is that all 3 return and adding depth are Shelton Gandy (5'8" 190 So), Weston Squier (5'8" 161 Sr) and Jeremy Brown (5'7" 165 Jr). This is the SBC's best set of RB's.

RECEIVERS - In '09 the Mean Green had to replace their top 3 rec's (comb 1842, 10.1). JC Jamaal Dickey had with 701 (9.9) while true frosh Darius Carey was #2 (509, 8.9). JC Michael Outlaw was #3 (473, 11.5). LY the unit ret'd intact and added in Okla transfer Tyler Stradford (PS#124). Stradford suffered an off field injury and missed 3 and was not 100% for others but had the best deep speed of the team and was #4 with 268 (11.2). Jackson dropped to #2 with 446 (13.5) while Carey moved to #1 with 524 (13.8). RB Dunbar was #3 while Outlaw was in'd and RS. This year they lose Jackson (9 st), Alex Lott (3 st, 164, 10.9), BJ Lewis (3 st, 6 rec) and TE Draylen Ross (7 st). Not listed in the PSL below are WR Derrick Teegarden (6'0" 177 rFr) and TE Tanner Smith (6'3" 245 So). With Outlaw and Stradford healthy and their #1 guy back as well, they should improve upon the 1,238 (13.0) the top 3 WR's comb'd for in 2010.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '09 I didn't exactly go out on a limb calling the unit the best OL in Dodge's tenure. They ret'd all 5 st's (103 car sts, 25 in '08, 39 in '07) and went from avg 119 ypg (3.7) in '07 and 127 (4.1) in '08 to the expected 185 ypg (5.3) with just 12 sk (2.9%). LY they had a less mobile QB and had to replace 1 st'r. They then lost starting C JJ Johnson after 1 st and his replacement Nick Leppo after 2 st (ACL). LG Kelvin Drake also battled a knee injury (9 sts). With more of an emphasis on the run, the rush totals improved to 202 ypg but the ypc dropped to 5.0 and the sks allowed ballooned to 30 (9.5%). This year they lose 1st Tm SBC LT Victor Gill (12 st, 3Y st'r), 1st Tm SBC RG Esteban Santiago (12 st, 4Y st'r) and LG Drake (3Y st'r). They do get C Johnson back but go from 3 ret st's to 2 and the career sts drop to 59.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In Darrell Dickey's final season ('06) he ran a 3-4 D and NT allowed just 149 ypg (3.9). In Dodge's first year they moved back to the 4-3 and only had to replace 1 st'r plus fill the extra spot but surprisingly yielded 230 ypg and a ghastly 5.7 ypc (only 14 sks). They made improvement each of the last 3 yrs. Last season they had 5 back with starting exp making it the most veteran and strongest def front of the Dodge era and they trimmed it to 185 ypg rush (4.7) with 19 sks (#3 in SBC in rush D). This year they lose 2nd Tm SBC Shavod Atkinson (12 st, 53 tkl, 3 sk), 3rd Tm SBC DT Kelvin Jackson (12 st, 43 tkl, 5.5 tfl) and DE Demario Dixon (1 st, 13 tkl). Even though they have a little less exp than '10, they could equal last year's numbers.

LINEBACKERS - In '09 the unit ret'd 5 of the top 6 and added 2nd Tm SBC S Kylie Hill giving the 3 man unit 5 who started 5+ in '08. Tobe Nwigwe (111 tkl '08) was lost after 6 sts but still finished #3 (62 tkl). AJ Penson (12 st '08) started the last 6 at MLB. Craig Robertson was the #2 tkl in '08 rose to #1. LY they had to replace Nwigwe and their #9 tkl'r but returned their #1, #6 and #11 tkl's. Robertson had a great year recording 133 tkl (10.5 tfl) with the #2 tkl'r, Jeremy Phillips having just 69. As expected NT improved from allowing 35.6 ppg to 29.7. This year they lose 1st Tm SBC Robertson (12 st, #3 career tkl'r) and MLB AJ Penson (11 st, #4 tkl'r). This unit ret's its #2 and #3 tkl's as Zachery Orr, despite not starting, had 60 tkl's. With the loss of their star, however, this unit figures to be down a few notches.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - From 2005-'08 NT finished just #113, #105, #111 and #118 in my PDR. In '09 the group had 4 ret st's (only 1 in '08). Dodge said, "They're so much more athletic, and I called for tremendous strides. NT moved up to #79. LY they had to replace one st'r and brought in 5 JUCO's with CB Steven Ford being the best of the newcomers but he broke his leg after starting the opener. S DaWaylon Cook (12 st '09) was lost after 2 sts and S Ira Smith (12 st '09) had just 7 sts. NT slipped a little to #93 (57%, 20-8). This year they lose Smith (17 tkl, 1 sk) and Robbie Gordon (4 tkl). Seven return with starting exp including Cook and Ford and I look for NT to make a big jump up in my PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In Darrell Dickey's final 4 yrs NT finished #5, #66, #85 and #49 in my ST rankings. In Todd Dodge's 4 yrs they finished just #118, #120, #100 and #61. LY soph Trent Deans won the starting K job (2-3 FG) but then true frosh Zach Olen (PS#26) took over and hit a 53 yd FG (just snuck over the crossbar). He connected on 13-15 and earned 1st Tm SBC. True frosh Breelan Chancellor was a dynamic KR and not only got NT's first KR td since 1998 (143 gms) but had 2 on the season (28.0). Will Atterberry improved from 39.0 (31.1 net) in '09 to 41.8 but broke his arm missing the final 5. Atterberry was also the holder on FG's and xp's. Deans avg 39.7 (tm net 34.8). This year the unit returns intact and should have their best ST finish in 5 years.

COACHES - Darrell Dickey had an amazing 9 year career at NT which included 4 SBC COY Titles but after B2B losing seasons, Todd Dodge took over in '07. Dodge who had been a HS cch for 13Y led NT to just 6 wins in 3.5 yrs and was replaced after a 1-6 start LY. The new HC is Dan McCartney who led Iowa St from 1995-'06 and was most recently the asst HC at Florida ('08-'10). Mike Canales was the interim HC the final 5 LY and the offense avg'd 33.8 ppg under his tutelage compared to 16.9 over the first 7 and he was retained as the OC. He was previously the OC at USF ('07-'09) and Arizona ('04-'06). DC Clint Bowen spent LY at the WKU DC. He was at Kansas for 12 seasons prior incl the last 4 as their DC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

NT has a massive enrollment of over 36,000, making it one of the largest universities in Texas. NT was the dominant team in the Sun Belt with 26 straight conf wins heading into '05 (avg win by 16 ppg) making 4 straight bowls. NT had B2B losing years and then surprisingly got rid of HC Darrell Dickey who had done a tremendous job. Todd Dodge came in and converted the offense away from the power running game to a pass oriented attack and was 5-31 in his first 3 yrs. LY all signs were pointing upward for NT as they had 16 ret st's, were coming off a season where they were -14 in TO's, their def ypg was 11.6 and they had an amazing 6 net close losses (pg 299). Despite their 1-7 SBC record in '09 they were only -17.5 ypg (5th best). They actually made my Most Improved List meaning I thought they had a shot at a bowl but NT then became one of the most injury riddled teams in college football. After 2 games Dodge said that they had lost 7 st's to season ending injuries. NT went thru 4 different starting QB's with 2 being OFY. NT actually outgained Clemson (39 yds) and Rice (69 yds) before beating FAU on the road to open 1-3. After outgaining Louisiana, their game tying xp was blk'd (.31) giving them a 28-27 loss. They were down to their 4th string QB vs Ark St but only lost by 5. After being blown out by FIU, Dodge was fired with no shot at a winning season and the interim HC was OC Mike Canales. NT rebounded to beat WKU 33-6 on the road and then only lost by 6 to Troy. They upset MT on the road with the powerful running game accounting for 279 yds. At ULM they led 27-21 at the half but lost as RB Dunbar suffered an ankle injury (3 yds 2H). In the final game at Fouts Field, they led 20-7 in the 1Q vs bowl-bound K-State but came up 8 pts short. Dan McCartney steps into a solid situation as LY's squad was much better than its final record of 3-9 as NT was just -26.5 ypg in SBC play. They also had 37 sts lost to injury and 2 net close losses and my main set of power ratings calls for bowl eligibility and 5 SBC wins. This year they open the brand new Mean Green Stadium which will have the fans more excited and the new turf should cut down on injuries while McCartney was a great hire at HC.

FLORIDA ATLANTIC OWLS

OT Samuel McRoy

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - While FAU only played its first football game in 2001, Rusty Smith's 10,112 yds are worthy of being the career passing record and he departed after the '09 season. In his final season he threw for 274 ypg (57%, 14-5) but was lost in game 7. Jeff Van Camp started the final 5 throwing for 1,372 (59%) with a 12-2 ratio. Smith was the first FAU player to make an HFL roster (TEN) but did have an unfortunate game in a start vs NCU (3 int). In '10 Van Camp was plagued by an inj'd and inexp'd O-line and often had little time to throw but still, after 6 weeks, was #1 in the SBC in pass eff. He put up good numbers throwing for 2,459 (57.3%, 17-13) but now departs. 6'7" David Kooi (PS#128) hit 3-6 in '09 as a rFr and in 4 games was 0-2 passing as a soph. 6'6" soph Graham Wilbert (PS#140) played in 3 (1-5-41). Those two will battle rFr's Nick Bracewell (PS#78) and Steven Curtis (PS#147). Kooi is faster with a stronger arm but Wilbert is the more accurate passer with a better command of the huddle. Wilbert had better stats in the spring but was injured in the spring game giving Kooi a chance to shine. I like the talent and it is possible the stats could improve with a stronger O-line but this unit is much less exp'd and loses a capable QB.

RUNNING BACKS - Alfred Morris was a bkp FB in '08 but moved to TB when expected starter, Jeff Blanchard, was lost to an ACL. In '09 Morris had 131 in the spring game and Schnellenger said that he was the most complete RB they've had here and those words proved prophetic. Morris had 95 vs Neb (4th best mark vs NU in '09) and was by far the team's MVP rushing for 1,392 (5.3). FB Willie Rose added 307 (5.0) and was the #6 rec (302, 10.4). RFr Xavier Stinson (PS#46) added 94 (3.1). Last year they lost their solid blocking FB Rose and had an inexp'd O-line. Willie Morris had 153 vs ULM and 143 vs UL, his numbers dropped to 928 (4.1). Willie Floyd, who has had an off-injured career, was #2 (256, 6.4) and Stinson who moved to FB had 95 (3.3) with 100 rec yds (8.3). This year they lose Blanchard (0 st, 56 yd) while Floyd (5'9" 180 Sr) is applying for a 6th year. Not listed below are Floyd, Mike Barasch (5'9" 200 Jr), Frank Thompson (5'11" 200 Jr), Julius Cartwright (5'11" 223 Jr), Mason Hamilton (6'0" 192 So) and Patrick Leonardo (6'0" 200 rFr). Morris became the #2 career rusher here and is 715 shy of Charles Pierre ('05-'08). I look for Morris to top even his '09 numbers as he may be the best RB in the SBC.

RECEIVERS - The Owls usually field solid receiving corps. After having a veteran group in '09, they had to replace 5 of their top 6 rec's LY with the top returnees being Lester Jean (501, 13.2), Avery Holley (224, 10.2) and TE Darian Williams (214, 15.3). They did get back outstanding TE Rob Houser (519, 16.2 '08) who missed '09. Jean moved into #2 career rec with 146 and led with 988 (15.4) while Houser was #2 with 629 (16.1) and Holley added 293 (11.7). RFr DeAndre Richardson had 114 (9.5) and Darian Williams added 110 (12.2). Not listed in the PSL below are WR's Jordan McClure (5'10" 195 Jr), Greg Jones (5'11" 170 Fr) and Ryan Hume (6'1" 180 rFr). This year they lose their top 3 in 1st Tm SBC Jean (12 st), 2nd Tm SBC Houser (12 st, #3DC ARZ) and Holley (7 st) making them even less exp'd than last year.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '08 FAU had to replace a 2nd Tm SBC LG but had 101 career sts and they set "school records" with 139 ypg rush (4.3) while allowing just 16 sks (3.5%) despite not having a mobile QB (Smith -82 yds rush). In '09 they had to replace 3 multi-year sts but re'd 3 that started 8+ in '08 (52 car st back). They were Schnellenger's biggest OL yet as they avg'd 312 lbs and all 5 started all 12. The rush ypg numbers improved again to 152 (4.2) with 21 sks (4.7%). LY they had the least exp'd O-line in the country (0 car sts) and naturally it was my biggest concern on the team. They were a lot smaller (avg 282 lb) and on top of the inexp, the unit was hit hard by injuries with projected starting C Jordan Sessa OFY. Nine different players started with just 1 (LG Andy Czuprynski) starting all 12. As you would expect, the numbers plummeted to 94 ypg rush (2.8) with 36 sks, their worst numbers since '02 (2nd ssn). Adding depth this year are Anthony Morris (6'2" 260 Fr), Ryan Moran (6'1" 289 rFr), Matt Garcia (6'4" 295 Jr), Nicardo Henry (6'3" 300 Jr) and TJ Dupois (6'3" 290 So). This year they lose Ryan Houston (2 st, 8 gm) and Ed Wertepny (10 gm). All 5 sts return (59 car st) and this will be one of the most improved O-lines in the country.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '08 FAU basically had one returning starter but he earned 1st Tm SBC. While the team had just 13 sks, they allowed only 4.4 ypc (179 ypg rush) which was actually their best number in 4 yrs. In '09 they had to replace 3 sts. As you would expect with the LB's also wiped out by graduation, FAU's rush D yielded 221 ypg and 6.1 ypc, both worst in school history. The D had just 12 sks. Last year they only had to replace 1 starter so I figured the line would be much improved. FAU trimmed the ypc to 4.6 (204 ypg, 20 sks). The top DL from '09, Kevin Cyrille was limited early and saw his numbers drop from 11.5 tfl to 6.5 as FAU used 8 DL in their rotation. This year they lose DT Dino Cox (11 st, 29 tkl, 5 tfl) and DE Daniel Joseph (5 st, 24 tkl, 3.5 tfl). Cyrille should return to '09's form, they have good size inside with Jarvis Givens (305 lbs) and Jimmy Jean (290 lbs) as they switch to a 3-4 and should be stronger than the '10 version.

LINERACKERS - In '09 LB was my biggest concern on the D as they had to replace their #1, #4 and #5 tkl's and the leading returnee was #9. David Hinds became the Owls' first true frosh starter on D since '05 when he replaced a banged up Michael Lockley late in the year. Lockley still finished as the #2 tkl'r, LY they had to replace their #3 tkl'r but had 5 of the top 6 back and FAU went from allowing 33.8 ppg to 29.3. This year they lose 1st Tm SBC MLB Lockley (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 6.5 tfl) and 3rd Tm SBC SLB Malik Eugene (12 st, #2 tkl'r, 7 tfl). They do return their #7 and #8 tkl'r along with David Hinds who has 48 tkl's in 2 yrs and RB Stinson looks to become a 2-way player and worked his way up to the #2 MLB in the spring. With the loss of their top 2 guys, this group is less exp'd and add another LB spot to fill the new 3-4 scheme.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - From 2005-'08 the Owls finished #51, #53, #80 and #87 in my pass D rankings. They had to replace a pair of 1st Tm SBC sts in '09 and the unit dropped down to #115 (67%, 17-5). LY they had all 4 sts back. The Owls rose back up to their accustomed level finishing #67 (60.6%, 16-11). This year they lose 3 sts in 2nd Tm SBC CB Tavious Polo (10 st, #6 tkl'r, 2 int, 4 pbu), 2nd Tm SBC

CB Tarvoris Hill (11 st, #4 tkl'r tkl, 2 int, 5 pbu) and S Ed Alexander (11 st, #5 tkl'r, 1 int, 4 pbu). They return 2nd Tm SBC FS Marcus Bartels (#3 tkl'r) but this is clearly a less exp'd unit despite 6 DB's returning with starting exp.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Owls were #33 in my ST rankings in '04 but plummeted to #117, #104, #105, #108 and #114 the next 5 yrs. LY I called for them to have their best ST finish in 6 yrs and that they did, with all the key players back, managing to move up to #89. P Mickey Groody, who avg 40.6 (34.4 tm net) as a soph, was greatly improved to avg 45.7 (38.8 tm net). He even had a punt vs FIU that travelled 73 yds in the air and earned 1st Tm SBC. Ross Gornall hit 8-12 FG (L42) in '09 and had 8 TB on 61 KO. He improved to 14 TB on 46 KO and hit 8-13 (L41). The return game was average. Even with the loss of their K and their top KR, if Groody comes close to 2010's numbers, they should have their best finish since '04.

COACHES - Howard Schnellenger enters his 13th yr with the program and 11th on the football field. He of course, owns a IA National Title ('83) at Miami, FL when he took a struggling tm and built them into a perennial national powerhouse. He was the HC at Miami from '79-'83 and at L'ville from '85-'94, helping that program become an annual bowl contender. Schnellenger is a perfect 6-0 as a HC in bowl games including 2-0 here. Darryl Jackson started here in '07 as a WR cch and now coaches the QB's and is in his third season as OC. Kurt Van Valkenburgh has been on the staff as an asst since 1998 coaching LB's and ST's and is now in his second season as DC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Florida Atlantic did not play its first true football game until 2001. Howard Schnellenger did a remarkable job in 2003 guiding the team to an 11-3 (9-2 reg ssn) finish, beating a pair of ranked IAA teams and SBC member MT all on the road. They were the youngest startup program to make the IAA playoffs falling one game short of the title game (finished #4). In '04 FAU moved to IA and had 19 sts' back. They opened with five consecutive road wins including 3 upsets (Hawaii, NT and MT) with 2 of those squads going on to bowls and finished 9-3. The '05 season was the first year they had to replace a senior class (just 6 ret sts). I pegged FAU 7th in the SBC and they finished 2-9 (T-7th). Over the next 5 yrs, Schnellenger had just 2 winning seasons. In '07 the Owls were surprisingly picked for 6th (cch) in the SBC but I pegged them 2nd. FAU upset Troy and amazingly in their 4th year of IA ball, won the conf title and spanked Memphis in the bowl. After another bowl win in '08 (7-6), they have struggled the last 2 yrs going a comb 9-15. Last year FAU had just 11 ret sts' with their O-line losing all 5 sts'. Due to delays on their new stadium they had just 4 HG's and played 3 BCS tms away from home. FAU caught a break early when they trailed 28-12 to UAB but got a td with 2:20 left for the lead then blocked a GW 28 yd FG at the end. They had to play Mich St in Detroit (home gm) losing by 13. They lost to NT by 4 and then were waxed by USF 31-3. ULM got a 5 yd td with 2:43 left to pull out a 20-17 win. FAU led 16-9 in the 4Q vs Ark St but had a potential td overturned and missed a FG and then gave up 3 straight TO's in 2:11 that led to 3 td's and lost by 21. FAU won their next 3 including beating US Belt co-champ FIU 21-9 and had a bowl within their reach. After an expected loss to a desperate Texas team, they lost to MT by 24 then failed to show up vs Troy getting drummed 44-7. Their four wins were the fewest since '05. FAU was -91.9 ypg in SBC play (by far the worst) despite a 3-5 conf record and they amazingly had just 7 sts lost to injury. They qualify for my offensive ypp system (17.98, pg 299). Since they are moving into a new stadium by their first 5 games are on the road! Based purely on experience and talent, I would pick this team for just 1 or 2 wins but with the new stadium and having a coach like Schnellenger, they will win more games than most expect.

WKU HILLTOPPERS

RB Bobby Rainey

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In 2009 Brandon Smith, who had played in 12 gms (120 yds) in 3 yrs, beat out rfr Kawaun Jakes (PS#129) for the starting job. Jakes played in each of the first 3 and then when Smith was injured, took over. He started 8 and threw for 1,516 (61%, 9-9) and was the #2 rusher (366, 3.0). LY Jakes was injured in a pickup basketball game and missed the last 2 weeks of spring which did not make HC Willie Taggart happy. Taggart's recruit, Matt Pelesasa (JUCO) was #1 out of spring but he missed time in August (inj) and Jakes reclaimed the job. Pelesasa played in 4 (0 pass, 1 rush). After Jakes had the best game of his career vs UL (18-22-262) he threw for just 103 ypg (43.1%, 2-2) over the final 5. He was without #1 WR Marcus Vasquez (inj L/3.5 gm) while TE Jack Doyle also missed the last 5. Jakes threw for 1,680 (51.2%, 10-6) and was the #2 rusher with 200 (2.1). This year Pelesasa departs but Jakes is back and he beat out Taggart recruit rfr Brandon Doughty (PS#95) in the spring. Doughty made every road trip in 2010 and is a solid passer, even drawing a scholarship offer from Miss SI, but hit just 6-23 in the spring game. They also add in 6'7" James Mauro (PS#139). I look for improved play out of this position.

RUNNING BACKS - Bobby Rainey was leading the team in rushing in 2008 (incl 248 all-purp yards vs Kentucky) but was injured and finished with just 259 (6.2). The leading RB had just 388 (4.2). In 2009 Rainey took charge down the stretch with 134 vs ULM, 144 vs FAU and finished with 939 (6.5) while earning 2nd Tm SBC honors. Rainey had a phenomenal season LY and was 1st Tm SBC. He finished #3 in the NCAA with 1,649 (4.8 with 15 td's) and was also the #3 rec with 230 (7.9). Antonio Andrews (PS#137) was Kentucky's 2009 Mr. Football and orig committed at Air Force. Andrews arrived late August and played in just 9 (174, 5.4). Braxton Miller moved in from LB and while listed as the backup, did not have any carries. Rainey became the first WKU RB to top 150 in B2B weeks in 11 yrs. He also became just the 3rd WKU RB to top 100 in 9 different gms (Antwan Floyd 1994, Jon Frazier '02) incl vs MT when he had career highs with 45 carries and 248 yds. This year they only lose FB Rod Johnson (9 st, 42 td yds). Not in the PSL are Avery Hibbitt (5'9" 182 Sr), Tevin Bryant (5'9" 222 rfr), Keshawn Simpson (6'0" 235 So, PS#328) and FB Kadeem Jones (5'11" 267 So, PS#364). As long as Rainey stays healthy, he is one of the top RB's in the country and they add in PS#71 true frosh Quartterio Morgan.

RECEIVERS - Last year WKU had to replace their all-time leader in receptions Jake Gaebler, who led in '09 with 494 (11.5). TE Jack Doyle was #2 with 365 (9.9) and Marcus Vasquez was #3 with 176 (9.3). Doyle and Vasquez ret'd but Vasquez missed the final 3.5 with a broken collarbone and Doyle missed the last 5. Vasquez was leading with 332 (11.1) but finished #2. True frosh Willie McNeal emerged with 360 (13.8) and Doyle was #4 with 224 (11.2). This year they lose Seth Tamme (1 rec), Donald Campbell (4 rec) and converted QB Quinterance Cooper (4 st, 6 rec). Vasquez missed the spring and McNeal is OFY after a knee injury in the spring. They move in Ex-QB Courtney Dalcourt, who is a solid addition and they could top '10's numbers with 2 of the top 3 WR back and a more productive TE position that returns all 3 players that made starts LY and a KY transfer.

OFFENSIVE LINE - With a mobile QB and 3 st's back in '09, WKU improved by 29 ypg to 173 ypg rush (4.7) but allowed 39 sks (12.5%). Last year they had to replace a 3 yr st'r but ret'd 4 st's. While the rush totals only improved slightly to 175 ypg (4.2), they trimmed the sks to 28 (9.5%). This year they lose HM SBC LG Mychal Patterson (11 st, 2Y st'r) and RT Preston King (10 st, 3Y st'r). LY they ret'd 6 of their top 10 and this year have 8 of the top 10 back (1 less ret st'r). The 2010 unit had 57 career starts and this year's has 71 and should be stronger in the 2nd year under the new staff.

DEFENSIVE LINE - In '09 the top 5 DL departed and the 3 st's (18 career tkl) at the beginning of the season were 2 rfr and a true soph. Making matters worse, rfr Jamarcus Allen was lost after 4 sts. As you would expect, they allowed a poor 245 ypg rush (5.6) while the D had just 10 sks, their worst numbers in over 55 yrs. LY the entire 2 deep ret'd and they trimmed the ypg allowed to 177 (5.0) although the D had just 12 sks. This year the unit returns intact again making them another year bigger, stronger and more exp'd with DL having 96 car sts of exp.

LINEBACKERS - Last year the Hilltoppers had to replace 2 starters (#3, #10 tkl'r) and 2 bkps (comb 4 sts, 30 tkl). They returned Thomas Majors, who might have landed at Tenn if not for academics. He had led the team in '09 with 101 tkl and they also ret'd #7 tkl'r Chris Bullard. The tm allowed 33.2 ppg after allowing 39.6 in '09. They also held 6 tms to 17 FD's or less and 3 tms to 283 yds or less. This year they lose 1st Tm SBC MLB Majors (12 st, #1 tkl'r, 14.5 tfl), HM SBC WLB Orlando Misalefua (10 st, #3 tkl'r, 6.5 tfl) and SLB Bullard (7 st, #4 tkl'r). This is a lightly exp'd group with the leading returnee being soph Xavius Boyd (7 st, #13 tkl'r). The rest of the unit comb for just 28 tkl last year and looks weaker with the loss of their top 3 LB's. They do add CJ Odom (orig Miami, FI) and Tenerio Davis who was PS#128 in '07 so they do have talent.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - In '09 WKU only had 1 st'r returning and finished dead last in my PDR (68%, 27-6 ratio). Only 2 of the team's 6 int's in '09 were by DB's. LY 3 st's ret'd but CB Jamal Forrest (11 st '09) only started the last 3 (7 gm) while FS Mark Santoro (12 st '09) was banged up and also only started the last 3. The 3rd returnee, Orlando Misalefua, was moved to LB. In the first 3 gms they allowed 296 ypg pass and 8 td's and Taggart inserted true frosh CB's Tyree Robinson and Arius Wright. They allowed just 172 ypg and 8 td's in the last 9 games! WKU moved up to #82 (62.3%, 16-8). Their new DB coach Alonzo Hampton was the DC at Ark-Pine Bluff and inherits 7 of the top 8 (lose Santoro) with all 7 having 6 plus career sts. This is one of the top secondaries in the Sun Belt.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Had WKU been eligible in my ST rankings in '07, they would have finished #45. In '08 I figured with a tougher schedule they would drop some and they did, down to #72. In '09 they only had to replace their K and aided by KR Bobby Rainey (23.9) moved up to #62. LY they had to replace their P (36.6 net) and top PR. Rfr Hendrix Brakefield avg 40.5 (33.3 net). Casey Tinius who hit a solid 14-19 FG's (L47) as a soph, slumped. He hit 4 of his first 10 FG's and was replaced for 1 game by Monte Merrick (2-2, L46). Tinius finished 6-15 (L47, 8 misses 40+). True frosh Willie McNeal took over the KR's (22.0) and had a 90 yd KR td vs Indiana ending a 73 game drought without a KR td ('03 Jeremy Chandler). Donald Campbell took over PR's (7.7). WKU had not blocked a punt in 2 years but Bar'ee Boyd blocked 2 vs MT while earning SBC ST POW. This year they only lose McNeal (OFY) and should make a solid rise from last year's #107 ranking.

COACHES - David Elson didn't survive moving up to the FBS (2-22) and was fired after a 39-44 seven year record ('03-'09). HC Willie Taggart was a QB here from '95-'98 when he was an AA and was a 2nd time finalist for the Walter Payton Award. He is just 1 of 4 Hilltoppers to have their jersey retired. After graduating he stayed and coached the next 7 seasons and was the asst HC the last 4 ('03-'06). Prior to returning to his alma mater he schooled Toby Gerhart as the RB cch ('07-'09) at Stanford. He was his own OC in '10 but this year brings in Zach Azannani as OC who was Florida's WR coach in '10 and WR coach at CMich ('07-'09). DC Clint Bowen departs and the new DC is Lance Guidry who spent the L2Y as the Miami, Oh DB cch and received acclaim nationally after his pre-game speech as the interim HC in Miami's bowl win.

PHIL'S FORECAST

WKU had an outstanding streak of 12 straight winning yrs heading into '08. They made the IAA playoffs 5 times this past decade. In '07 they made the step from IAA (FCS) to a transitional FBS team and while they played six FBS tms, they were a respectable 1-2 vs SBC tms. WKU took care of business vs its non-FBS foes winning all 6 and finished 7-5. They put up great stats due to blowout wins of 87-0 vs WV Tech, 56-7 vs Ind St, 50-14 vs NC Central and 52-12 vs Morehead St. They did also surprisingly outgain Troy (416-363). In '08 they had just 2 FCS teams on their schedule and 5 matchups vs SBC opp's. WKU had 13 st's back and had a much tougher schedule. I called for an end to WKU's streak of winning seasons and they dropped to just 2-10. Their 2 wins came vs ECU and Murray St by a combined 87-22 (lost by avg of 30-12 vs FBS). In '09 they entered their first year of full eligibility in the SBC and FBS. They lost 21 scholarship Sr's while returning just 12 scholarship Sr's and 17 Jr's. The team plummeted to 0-12 (-122.5 ypg in SBC play) and after an 0-9 start, Elson was told he wouldn't be returning. They nearly won each of their last 3 but lost by 3, 6 and 4. They had the nation's longest losing streak heading into 2010 but Willie Taggart had 17 ret st's. WKU still played 25 frosh in '10 (4th highest FBS). They opened up vs 4 BCS schls so naturally were 0-4 but outgained USF 314-283. They were SOD at the FIU18 at the end in the 7 pt road loss in their SBC opener. WKU appeared to end their losing streak as they led 24-7 late 3Q vs ULM but lost 35-30. The next week was a stunner as they ended their 26 game losing streak on the road, thrashing Louisiana 54-21. A lot of folks were slapping them on the back after that win and then they lost to NT at home 33-6 and the next week gave up a 26 yd FG with :18 left vs FAU and lost by 1. WKU went into Ark St and was outgained 448-378. ASU was punting with :54 left and fumbled the snap at their own 22 and WKU was able to force OT and win. RB Rainey rushed for 248 vs MT and they had a 396-208 yd edge (led 26-13) but a 99 yd FR td led the MT comeback win. They were tied with Troy 14-14 in the 4Q but lost by 14. WKU was -20.3 ypg (6th best), by far their best mark in the SBC play but still finished in the basement at 2-6. WKU did have 3 net close losses and a def ypg of 11.5. They do host the top 2 teams in the SBC so most of their winnable games are on the road. Still they have a great shot of at least doubling LY's win total.

LY WKU led 7-0 just 1:13 into the gm on a Rainey 59 yd TD run but UK scored the next 35 pts (WKU never got closer than 21 pts). WKU is 2-8 in ssn openers incl 5 str losses by 39 ppg (all vs BCS).

Only prior gm was in '09, WKU lost 38-22. WKU is 13-2 in home openers but lost B2B vs BCS schools. WKU was ranked #85 in rush def LY (177 ypg, 5.0) a huge jump from #118 in '09 (245 ypg, 5.6).

WKU has won 12 str (L/loss in '95). Lgm was a 56-7 win in '07 as WKU had 32-15 FD & 510-279 yd edges. Sycamores went 6-5 LY which marked ISU's 1st winning ssn S'96 (also play Penn St on 9/3).

LSU: Into 2011, the Hilltoppers are 0-13 vs the SEC losing by an avg score of 41-7.

North Texas: Into 2011, WKU is 3-9 on the road vs SBC teams since 2007 (2-2 LY).

HT has dropped both SBC gms. LY WKU led 21-7 into the 4Q but needed a 7 yd TD pass on the final play to force OT (drive set up after bad ASU snap on punt). In OT WKU went for 2 & the gamble paid off.

WKU has dropped 3 str. LTH WKU all'd a series high 62 pts (60 meetings). It was tied 3-3 into the 2Q but WKU allowed 31 unanswered prior to HT & the rout was on (WKU outgained 646-250).

WKU has dropped all 3 meetings vs the Owls but only by a combined 11 pts. Last gm at FAU WKU cut the deficit to 6 & elected to KO deep but couldn't stop FAU from running out the L/4:59.

LY WKU snapped a 26 gm losing streak w/their 1st win over UL in 4 tries. It also marked Taggart's 1st W as a HC. WKU led 27-7 at HT & never took their "foot off the pedal" in the 2H on way to a ssn high 409 yds.

WKU has dropped all 3 S's last win in '54. LTH WKU led 12-7 at HT & 18-14 mid-4Q but all'd a 58/11 pl TD drive w/5:09. Next poss WKU had a 1&l at the 4 but after 2 pen missed a 32 yd FG w/1:22.

WKU has dropped 4 str vs FIU after opening the series 2-0. LY WKU trailed 21-0 but pulled w/in 7 w/5:47. After forcing a short punt WKU got a FD at the FIU24 but fired inc on 48 & w/3:3 left.

First meeting. Into '11, since moving up to FBS ('07) WKU is 3-12 on the road vs non-SBC members (0-12 vs FBS).

LTH WKU led 49-42 late 3Q (2 TD lead two separate times) but all'd 26 unanswered the final 15:50.

LY was tied 14-14 into the 4Q. WKU was pinned deep & forced to punt and on the next play all'd a 47 yd TD pass.

Troy tackled on another TD after a punt. Into '11, WKU is 0-12 vs SBC tms at home since the move to FBS.

LOUISIANA RAGIN' CAJUNS

QB Chris Masson

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2011

QUARTERBACKS - In '08 Michael Desormeaux guided the team to 529 total ypg in the first 6 but was inj'd vs NT. Brad McGuire had only 30 att (8 gm) & Chris Masson hit 6 of 9 for 72. Desormeaux still topped 1,000 rushing (1035, 7.2) for a 2nd straight year and threw for 1,876 (63%, 13-11) but departed. In '09 the group was lightly exp'd. McGuire was more mobile and had the stronger arm but Masson was the more polished passer. Masson won a tight battle in Aug and brought the pass back to the attack throwing for 2,406 (60%, 10-8). His 222 comp were 2 short of the school record (Jon Van Cleave '01). McGuire was brought in mostly to run (197, 3.7) and vs WKU had 7 FD's on 11 rushes. Blaine Gautier (PS#161, lefty) guided a 1d vs Troy (17 att). Last year McGuire moved to FB then inj'd his foot and was thought OFY with surgery but instead wore a boot for over 5 wks. In his first game back (Ohio), Masson was inj'd in the 1st series and McGuire threw for 384 (school 5th best single gm). McGuire became the first QB other than Masson to start since '08 (20 gms) when he opened vs Miss but then inj'd his thumb (OFY). Gautier started the next 2 and was the leading rusher in both (198) hitting 34-65-440 but had 3 int's vs FIU. Masson ret'd for the finale vs ULM and for the year threw for 1,842 (52.9%, 11-6, 24 rush). Not listed below are Brady Thomas (6'3" 190 Jr, 2nd string gms 10 & 11) and Blake Hollingsworth (6'2" 205 rFr, PS#197). Terrance Broadway (6'1" 205 So, PS#30) is a VHT transfer from Houston and hit 30-42 for 424 yds in 4 gms there LY. He played in the spring and is seeking a hardship waiver to be eligible this year. The QB's will work more from under C this year. I look for improved numbers from this deep, exp'd unit and McGuire was the #1FB post spring.

RUNNING BACKS - Prior to 2005, the Ragin' Cajuns had NEVER produced a 1,000 yard RB (QB Brian Mitchell was the only player to top 1,000 rush in '89). Tyrell Fenroy took over as a true frosh and became just the 8th RB in NCAA history to top 1,000 in 4 straight yrs. In '09 Undera Sails had 432 (4.5) in 6 sts but was lost to injury. Yobes Walker had 94 vs WKU then in his first career start vs FAU, had 105 (5.0). It was the most yards rushing in a game by a rFr RB here since 1991 (Steve Mocek, 116). The backfield lacked speed in the 2H of the year. Walker finished with 412 (3.6) and they moved WR Marlin Miller in midseason (184, 5.0). LY UL had to replace Sails. Julian Shankle began as the starter but only had 64 (3.0) in 8 gms. Kevs Streeter took over and rushed for 153 (7.7) but was lost after 3 att's vs NT (2nd straight yr lost top rusher to inj). A RB did not top 50 in a game the rest of the ssn. Aaron Spikes finished #1 with 339 (3.3) and QB Gautier was #2. Spikes was also the #2 rec (398, 17.3!). I expected true frosh Robert Walker (PS#129, GS) to have a bigger impact but he had just 162 (3.2). QB Brad McGuire worked some at FB (116, 2.1). This year UL loses FB Matt Desormeaux (11 st, 48 tft yds) and Streeter (3 st). They should be a much more productive unit (RB's just 3 rush td's in '10) and they add some solid true frosh and moved in McGuire in the spring.

RECEIVERS - UL had a run-oriented team and from '05-'08 and the best season by a WR was just 656 (14.3) in '08. In '09 TE Ladarius Green led with 533 (16.7) while TE Luke Aubrey had 456 (11.1) as Green missed 3 sts. The top WR was Marlin Miller (325, 8.8). Last year they had to replace Aubrey then Green missed 2. Green was one of the 8 John Mackey semi's (794, 18.0) and is also an excellent blocker. RB Aaron Spikes was #2. The top WR was Vernon Wolfe who had 295 (15.5). It would have been Javone Lawson who had 271 (14.3) after 6 but was lost to a broken collarbone. Richie Falgout played in 9 (162, 9.0). This year they lose Marlin Miller (7 st, 147), Falgout (0 st) and Wolfe (5 st). Not listed in the PSL are WR's Deon Fowler (5'9" 175 rFr) and Billy Christian (5'11" 180 So). Green should again be one of the top TE's in the country and I look for more production out of the WR's.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '07 OL coach Ron Hudson shook up the line elevating 3 soph and 2 frosh to the 1st team. The unit also suffered numerous injuries but still opened holes for 252 ypg rush while their 5.6 ypc was the best in their IA history (1st yr '74). The mobility of QB Michael Desormeaux helped. They had 4 st's back in '08 and improved to a school record 264 ypg (5.9) with 21 sks (7.3%) with just 1 start lost to injury. In '09 all 5 st's ret'd (112 car sts). Surprisingly their rushing numbers dropped drastically to 137 ypg (3.6) but with just 13 sks (3.2%). The QB rush total went from 1,035 to just 413. LY they had to replace three 1st Tm SBC st's (two 3 yr and one 4 yr st'r). They did have 7 of the top 10 back (65 car sts) but as expected, their numbers dropped again to 101 ypg (2.9) and they allowed 39 sks (5th most FBS, SBC high). This year they lose 2nd Tm SBC C Ian Burks (11 st, 4Y st'r), RT Jonathan Decoster (10 st, 4Y st'r), LT Colin Windsor (11st), C Evan Ruiz (1 st) and OT Nasser Jamal (3 gm). While they have 3 back who had 7+ sts, I count it as 2 st's returning (27 car sts). Despite being less exp'd, this unit can only improve.

DEFENSIVE LINE - With an inexp'd D-line in '08 the Ragin' Cajuns allowed 213 ypg rush (5.3). In '09 with 3 st's ret, they improved to 182 ypg (4.6). In 2010 they again had 3 st's back. Despite the loss of their top guy (#5DC), they improved to 163 ypg (4.4) but the D had just 17 sks. This year they lose DT Jordan Topp (10 st, 19 tkl, 2 tfl), DT Sharrick Moore (8 tkl, 1 tfl) and DT Jermaine Rogers (6 tkl, 1 tfl). Not only do they return 6 who started, but they add LSU transfer Cordian Hagans (PS#136) and not listed in the PSL below are Blake Commie (PS#335JC, IFS) and Blake Fuseller (5'11" 253 rFr). I look for a bigger impact out of Bernard Smith (orig signed at WV) who had 31 tkl (2 sk) LY despite not starting. This looks like Louisiana's best D-line since 2006.

LINEBACKERS - Last year UL had to replace their #1 and #3 tkl'rs. They ret'd 3rd Tm SBC Grant Fleming (#2 tkl'r) and Daylon McCoy, who missed 3 in '09 and dropped to #5 (#1 tkl'r in '08). Surprisingly the D went from allowing 30.3 ppg to 37.0. Fleming missed 4 (broken hand). This year they lose McCoy (10 st, #1 tkl'r, 7 tfl), Fleming (8 st, #5 tkl'r) and Terrell Richardson (5 st, 12 tkl). They do return their #2 and #11 tkl'rs and add Ark transfer Jelani Smith (PS#115) and SS Lance Kelley (5 st). This group should stay healthier and improve.

DEFENSIVE BACKS - The Ragin' Cajuns have produced 6 NFL DB's since 2000, but only once in that span did they finish higher than #80 in my PDR (#77 '08). Last year they had to replace 3 players (comb 14 sts). They did add N'western transfer rFr Cooper Gerami. FS Maurice Rolle (5 st '09) was lost after 4 sts (inj), SS LeMarcus Gibson played in 6 and SS Lance Kelley in 7 before both were lost to inj's. UL finished #98 (62.7%, 26-14). This year the Cajuns lose 1st Tm SBC CB Orkays Auriene (12 st, 39 tkl, 3 int, 8 pbu), DB Rolle (4 st, 16 tkl) and CB Julian Jones (8 tkl) while Kelley moves to LB. Even with the loss of their top DB, they have 6 back who started and get those injured players back. HC Hudspeth feels the unit is "the strongest part of our defense." UL has a shot at their top PDR finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Last year UL ret'd almost all of their top players but slipped down to #114 (#73 '09). UL did have 2 crucial blk'd xp vs NT and ULM for the wins. Tyler Albrecht hit a solid 8-11 FG's (L49) in '09 and has a powerful leg. Albrecht hit just 1 of 6 FG's LY (3 low kicks blk'd) but soph Brett Baer (PS#48) hit all 7 of his FG att's (L42) but does have just 1 TB on 92 KO in 2 yrs. Spencer Ortega avg 40.6 (37.6 net in '09) but just 40.1 (35.6 net) LY. The return game was below avg (KR's #120!). Harry Peoples figures to be the top PR (30.5 KR, 19.7 PR at JC in '10). This year they lose their P but do strong legged Carlos Alvarez who had 88.9% TB on KO (65 & 68 yd FG practice) in HS. They could move up in my rankings.

COACHES - In his 9 seasons as HC, Rickey Bustle led the Ragin' Cajuns to 6 wins 4 times but also just 3 wins 3 times including LY. The new HC is Mark Hudspeth who was the pass gm coor at Miss St in '09 and '10. Prior to that he spent 7 yrs as a DII HC at North Alabama finishing with a record of 66-21. The OC Jay Johnson was the QB coach at C Mich ('10), L'ville ('08-'09) and S Miss ('03-'07, 3Y OC). The DC is Greg Stewart who was on the Jacksonville St staff for 18 yrs including 11 as the DC.

PHIL'S FORECAST

Prior to Rickey Bustle taking over, UL had gone through 6 straight losing seasons. In '04, UL was a hard luck 4-7. Despite losing 5 SBC games, they were +19.8 ypg in conf play. In '05 I called for UL to have its first winning season since 1995 and they were arguably the best team in the SBC. The Cajuns were 5-2 (+68.2 ypg) vs the SBC and finished 6-5. Hurricane Katrina affected the team early (130 miles from New Orleans). Bustle would guide the team to a 6-6 record in 3 of the next 4 seasons including '08 when they made my Most Improved List and became bowl eligible. In his last 6 yrs, Bustle was 23-21 in Sun Belt play and had upsets of Kan St and Houston. In '09 they did benefit from 3 net close wins (pg 299) and were -38.1 ypg in conf play. UL had a brutal non-conf schedule last year so I said matching '09's six win total would be tough. Seventeen players who started the season missed at least 1 game as Louisiana had 48 sts lost to injury (4th highest). They also had a def ypg of 10.8. UL opened the season with an expected 55-7 loss to Georgia but then led Ark St 31-7 and held on for a 31-24 net. After losing to preseason SBC fav MT at home, they beat NT on the road (blk'd an xp at the end to win by 1). They then had a Fri night HG vs powerful Okla St and led 21-17 at half but wore down in the 2H and lost by 26. The Cajuns played 5 time SBC champ Troy on the road, had 4 TO's in the 2H and a fumble that they had overturned by an inadvertent whistle to lose by 7. The next week, WKU (which had lost 26 st) pounded them in The Swamp 54-21. They only lost at Ohio by 7 then lost to Ole Miss by 22 cementing a losing season. At FAU, they trailed 24-14 but got a late 1d and their 2 pt con failed (lost by 1). FIU beat them by 21 and in the season finale, UL rallied for Bustle and beat ULM by 1 blocking an xp with 4:55 left. 5,215 attended new HC Hudspeth's first spring game! They should catch more breaks this year but new HC's must learn the players strengths and weaknesses and players must learn new schemes. That has me calling for a 2nd straight losing season.

UL has lost all 4 trips to Stillwater by an avg score 40-8. LTH (03) UL was blasted 56-3. Ragin' Cajuns are 1-25 vs ranked schools (only W in '96 vs #25 Texas A&M). UL has lost 20 str road openers.

This will be UL's 1st trip to Kent. Last & only meeting was in '08. UL won 44-27. UL is 10-10 vs MAC tms but 2-7 on the road. Into 2011, Ragin' Cajuns have lost 6 str vs non-conf opp's by 31 ppg.

HC Hudspeth was on the NSU staff from '94-'95. UL is 2-0 & in the L/gm ('01) got the 20-0 shutout w/a 289-57 yd edge. Colonels went 4-7 LY incl losses to SDSU (47-0) & Western Mich (49-14).

UL has dropped B2B gms vs FIU after opening the series 6-0. LTH UL allowed a 69/13pl gm-tying TD drive w/10 left (3 yd TD pass on 4&g). After an FIU FG in OT UL's attempt was blocked.

UL is 1-5 vs FAU. LY Louisiana trailed 24-14 early 4Q but got a FG & then a TD w/1:45 left. The Ragin' Cajuns elected to go for a 2pt conv & the win but the pass was inc (FAU recovered the onside).

UL is 1-7 since 1994 vs Troy incl 5 str losses by 20 ppg. LY in the 4Q UL was up 21-17 but fumbled at the T5. Later with the game tied 24-24 Troy went 53/7pl for the GW TD.

The home team is just 2-5 the LY. UL led 28-14 into the 4Q. UL up 7 allowed a 91/1pl TD drive w/31 left but b'kd the XP! Into 2011, Ragin' Cajuns are just 8-12 LSY in SBC HG's (1-4 L/5).

Ragin' Cajuns have won their only other trip to WKU in '09. UL led 30-14 late 4Q before allowing a TD (+2pt) to cut the led to 8 w/5:11 left. UL then ran out clock w/3 FD's after a deep KO.

UL is 3-1 their L/4 trips to Murrefreesboro but lost LTH. UL had a 17-14 HT lead outgoing MT 253-190 but in the 2H gained just 40 yds as their deepest drive was to their 45 (all'd 20 unanswered).

UL won 3 str. LY UL up 10 in the 4Q all'd a FG & TD (xpng). UL was int'd w/1:52 left at ULM1 but ULM fired 4 str inc.

UL is 15-5 S'89 vs ASU (4 losses in Jonesboro). LTH UL led 21-3 & limited ASU to 101 yards after.

3Q's but all'd B2B TD drives & needed a int at their 24 w/2:52 to end the ASU comeback.

First meeting. Into 2011, UL is 0-60 all-time on the road vs current BCS schools. This will mark just the 2nd all-time trip to the state of AZ. Ragin' Cajuns lost to the Sun Devils in '01, 63-27 being outgained 543-366.

WHAT EXACTLY IS A PS NUMBER??

One very important part of my College Football Preview Magazine is an individual player's "PS#". You will see them on almost every page and I find them vital in my analysis of a team. If you have purchased my magazine before, I am sure you are very familiar with what each player's PS# stands for. This article is for those of you picking up my magazine for the first time and are asking the question listed at the top of the page.

A simple definition for a PS# is my ranking of the players at their positions coming out of high school. I personally do not scout high school games or rate each player. Covering college football as I do takes 52 weeks of the year as it is. I compile my PS#s based on the many different recruiting services across the country. I not only use all of the biggest and best, but use regional reports as well. On the bottom left of this page, I list the top recruiting services from which I compile information.

When we receive a recruiting magazine, we translate each player's ranking into a point system from 1-100. Jessica, Loree and Brandon then log each and every player into the computer and give them a point total from each source. This is a very time-consuming process. This year's 2011 Freshmen List has roughly 20,000 players on it!!! Many players are listed by just one or two sources. The higher ranked recruits are mentioned by almost every source. The more they are mentioned and the higher they are rated in each publication, the more total points they accrue. After months of entering all of this information, I sort the list by each position and by total points. Naturally, the QB with the most total points then becomes PS#1QB for that year. If a player is PS#99QB, that means he ranks 99th in total points of all QB's coming out of high school that year.

Some positions simply do not have as many players as others. For example, this year's PS#100TE totaled just 227 points in my system, while this year's PS#100OL has 556 points!! The reason is simple. There are FIVE offensive linemen and just one TE on the field. Naturally, there are 5 times as many OL's to choose from as TE's, making it much more competitive. A player with 227 points on the offensive line is rated as a PS#354OL this year. The PS# is not their overall rank in the freshmen class, but their overall rank AT THAT POSITION in the freshmen class.

I also track JUCO's. A JUCO is a player who went to a Junior College (JC) after high school and played football there. They use up a year of their college eligibility for every year they play and most come in as juniors. They are older, seasoned players, and usually can make an immediate impact.

So what is the big deal about where they are ranked out of high school? I equate it to where a player ranks in the NFL draft. Obviously, there are some outstanding players in the NFL who were low-round draft picks or even signed as undrafted free agents. However, the majority of the all-stars in the NFL are higher round draft picks and 1st round picks usually make an impact much quicker.

Colleges are much the same. There are plenty of players without a high PS# who end up making it big. For example, Adam Archuleta was an unheralded walk-on at Arizona State who arrived as a slender 180 lb freshman. He left the Sun Devils' program as one of the most feared defenders in the Pac-10. He increased his weight to a chiseled 215 lbs, while bench pressing over 225 lbs 31 times with 4.36 speed, going as the 1st DB in the 1st round of 2001's NFL Draft. Some kids enter college at 17 or 18, undersized and not yet matured, but then grow into big, strong, fast players and make all-conference teams. Just like the NFL, there are a good number of these types of stories. For example, 2000 MVP Kurt Warner was not drafted and played in NFL Europe and the Arena Football League. Other notable UFA's are QB Tony Romo (Dallas), RB Earnest Graham (Tampa Bay), RB Ryan Grant (Green Bay) and TE Antonio Gates (SD). Also, just like the NFL, there are MORE cases of those players who come in highly ranked out of high school, becoming stars and making an immediate impact.

DB Eric Berry

PS#1 in 2007 at Tennessee 1st Rd DC (#5 pick) going to Kansas City last year. He finished his rookie year with 92 tds and 4 int's.

Here are some examples of the previously mentioned highly ranked high school players that made an immediate impact in the NFL: In 2006, Percy Harvin was a PS#1WR. In 2009 he was the #1DC (22nd pick) of Minnesota and was named the NFL Rookie of the Year with 790 yds (13.2). In 2005, Jonathan Stewart was a PS#1RB. He came out early as the #1DC (13th pick) of Carolina and finished the 2008 NFL season with 836 yards (4.5) and 10 td's. In 2004, Adrian Peterson was a PS#1RB and had an amazing season of 1,341 yards. LaVar Arrington was PS#1LB in 1997 and ended up the #2 overall pick in the draft. Peyton Manning was PS#2QB in 1994 and started as a true frosh, TE Tony Gonzalez was PS#1TE, Orlando Pace was PS#1OL and started as a true frosh and like Manning, was the first overall pick in the NFL draft. In 1995, the top 2 RB's were PS#1 and PS#2 (Kevin Faulk and Ahman Green) while Randy Moss was PS#1WR. These are just some examples but as you can see, the stronger the PS#, the better chance the player has of making a big impact in college.

Many times after players graduate, the talent behind them is unknown because they have not played a lot of college ball. You would expect a 1st or 2nd round draft pick in the NFL to be able to step into an open starting spot quickly and the higher-rated players can usually do just that in college as well. That is the value of a PS#.

On each individual right hand team page we list the Top Newcomers which includes both freshmen and JUCO's. These are ranked by each player's combined frosh rating (not by PS#s) so therefore the top player listed earned the highest ranking in the comb frosh rating (which does take into account total points).

Before I wrap this article up, I would like to go over a couple of commonly used abbreviations that are in this magazine. Now you know just what a PS# is. Naturally, the PS stands for Phil Steele, or my rating for the players out of high school. I also use HT often. HT is a Highly Touted athlete. In the past this has been a player who ranks in the Top 100 at his position out of high school. With 50 states that comes out to be about 2 players per state at each position. A VHT (Very Highly Touted) is a player rated among the Top 20 out of HS. I have changed the HT and VHT guidelines in the past couple of years. At K, the ratings drop to Top 10 for VHT and Top 35 for HT. At TE it is Top 15 for VHT and Top 75 for HT. QB is Top 30 for VHT and Top 100 for HT. WR and RB have two spots on most teams, therefore, the HT number is up to #150 and the VHT is up to #50. Most teams play 3 or 4 LB's so that number moves to #200 for HT classification and #60 for VHT. The DL's and DB's generally have 4 players on the field. The HT classification is now up to #250 at those positions, while a VHT is among the Top 60 out of HS at their unit as a whole. The offensive line, which has 5 spots, is also up to #250 as an HT and up to #100 for a VHT. Many recruiting publications do not distinguish between OL and DL for their lineman. As a general rule, we put them into the OL category so that position has, by far, the largest amount of players.

Also new this year on every Top Newcomers list is the number of VHT's and HT's that each team brings in this year. For example, USC signed the most number of VHT's (20) and HT's (11) combined with 31 while Texas (23) and Alabama (22) led the way in VHT signings. This is also a nice quick way to compare how your favorite team did in the recruiting wars vs other conf foes. For example, TCU signed 6 VHT players while the rest of the MWC only brought in 5 other VHT players combined! To check out how your team did on our overall recruiting ranking see pg 297.

A quick note about the players in my write-ups. Sometimes on the offensive line I will mention that a player was a top-notch wrestler in high school. To me, a top wrestler has very good body control and athleticism which makes for a quality lineman. I also list when a player is from Canada. I do this because not all of the recruiting services cover Canada so those players are generally rated lower in the PS#s than their U.S. counterparts. Many times the top player out of Canada is an NFL prospect but only has a PS# around 150 or 200. Therefore, they are often more talented than their PS# would give them credit for.

On page 295 are all of this year's top freshmen and JUCO's. By the end of the year, many will have played and some will already be stars. If you like this type of information, you will love my 2006-2011 Complete Freshmen Recruiting Report. It is just $15 and lists all of the top recruits for all of the different positions over the last 6 years.

RECRUITING SOURCES

I do not scout the high schools personally, but I rely on some great sources to complete my top frosh lists. I subscribe to each of these sources. The colleges themselves use these services' information. Should you want to get the latest on college recruits, I recommend the following sources:

CONFERENCE BY CONFERENCE 2011 RECRUITING RATINGS

Here are my 2011 recruiting rankings for each conference. They take into account the strength of the Top 5 signees, the Top 10 signees and the average signing grade per player for the overall class. This list is not about the quantity of the freshmen signed but the overall quality of the class. Sometimes a team with a small class of just 15 players may rate higher than one with 30. Here are some interesting notes on this year's signing ratings. Alabama signed my #1 class for the second time in three years and there are 5 SEC schools in the Top 10 for a 3rd straight year. Despite a 5-7 season Texas signed my #2 class for a second consecutive year and it is their 13th straight Top 10 class! Florida St HC Jimbo Fisher brought in the Seminoles' first Top 5 class since 2005 and despite being on probation, USC continued their recruiting dominance as they signed the top class in the Pac-12 for the 10th straight season! Obviously, recruiting rankings are a good tool to predict a team's future success, but are clearly just a part of a team's success. A good example of this is Virginia Tech, which has won 3 ACC Titles the last 4 years despite finishing no higher than 5th in the conference or #25 nationally since 2007 in recruiting rankings. The rankings for Air Force, Army and Navy are not complete because the service academies do not release official signee lists until summer (and even then most recruits head to prep schools). I hope your favorite team did well in the recruiting wars.

FOR BETTER OR FOR WORSE

Close Wins, Close Losses

By Phil Steele

Give me a computer full of NCAA football statistics and an entire offseason and I'm always going to try and uncover something new. A few years ago I was thinking, What happens if a team was fortunate and won a lot of close games? I figured that those teams would probably not be as fortunate the next year. On the flip side, I was thinking that if a team suffered a lot of close losses the previous year, they would be undervalued. A few years back we did the research from the previous six years and logged in all of the teams that had close wins and close losses (games decided by a td or less) the previous year. I then ranked the category by NET close wins and losses.

For example: In 2007 Hawaii benefited from 5 close wins with 0 close losses. Therefore, they had a total of 5 NET close wins. Also, Tennessee had 4 close wins and 1 close loss for 3 NET close wins. Minnesota, had one close win and 6 close losses for a total of 5 net close losses. I have now run the records for each of the past 9 years to see how the teams did and I'm pleased to report the trends came up just as expected.

While I use a touchdown or less as the standard for a close win and loss, if there is a late misleading score, I will either include or exclude it accordingly.

Looking back over the past nine years, there have been a total of 227 teams that had a NET of 2 close losses or more the previous year and of those 227, just 51 had a worse record the next year, giving this idea a 78% grade. The last 4 years there were 21 teams with 4 or more net close losses the previous year and 17 (81%) had a better record. Last year Maryland (4 net close losses) went from 2-10 to 9-4!! In '09 SMU (5 net close losses in '08) went from 1-11 to 8-5!! Memphis went from 2-10 to 7-6 in '07 and in '08 Minnesota went from 1-11 to a bowl (7-6). Illinois went from 2-10 in '06 to the Rose Bowl in '07! A couple of examples from 2006 were Arkansas which went from 4-7 in '05 to 10-4, San Jose St (3-8 to 9-4) and BYU (6-6 to 11-2). In 2004 Penn St had 2 net close losses and improved from 4-7 to 11-1. California had 2 net close losses in 2001 and went from 1-10 to 7-5 in '02.

Listed below is a chart analyzing data from the last nine years. The chart lists the total amount of teams that had 2 or more net close losses, how many improved the next year, how many had the same record and how many actually had a worse record. As you can see, the success rate is 78%.

	Total Last 9 Years	Weaker Next Year	Same Next Year	Stronger Next Year	% BETTER or Same Next Yr
Previous Year 4+ Net Close Losses	42	33	3	6	85.7%
Previous Year 3 Net Close Losses	75	54	7	14	81.3%

Arkansas St 1	5	4	Louisville 1	4	3
Georgia 0	4	4	Southern Miss 1	4	3
Akron 0	3	3	Iowa 2	5	3
Bowling Green 1	4	3

These are the teams that had 2 net close losses: Ball St, California, Colorado, Duke, Illinois, Nebraska, North Texas, Penn St, Pittsburgh, San Diego St, South Carolina, UAB, Virginia, Western Michigan, Wyoming.

Now let's take a look at how teams performed the season after having multiple close wins. Teams that had 3 or more net close wins the previous year did see their record either stay the same or get weaker 103 of 131 times (79%) while teams with just 2 net close wins, still had a weaker or the same record 177 of 245 times (72%).

	Total Last 9 Years	Weaker Next Year	Same Next Year	Stronger Next Year	% WEAKER or Same Next Yr
Previous Year 6 or 7 Net Close Wins	4	4	0	0	100%
Previous Year 4 or 5 Net Close Wins	41	32	4	5	87.8%

3 or More Net Close Wins	131	92	11	28	78.6%
2 or More Net Close Wins	245	157	20	68	72.2%

Over the last 5 years, 27 teams were coming off a season of 4 or more net close wins and 21 had a weaker record (3 were same). In last years article there were 33 teams that had 2 or more net close wins with 24 having a worse record (1 same). By eliminating the 6 teams that were coming off a non-winning season 21 had a worse record (1 the same) and only 5 improved. In 2009, Cincinnati benefitted from 4 net close wins and after a 12-1 season plummeted to 4-8 in 2010. In '08 Hawaii led the chart with 5 net close wins and went from 12-1 to 7-7. This year there are 14 teams that benefitted from 3 or more net close wins last year and I list them in the chart below. By looking at the chart above you'll see that in the last 9 years only 4 teams were coming off 6+ net close wins and both Auburn and Miami, Oh fall into that category this season.

Here are the teams that had the good fortune of 3 or more net close wins last year:

2010 Wins	2010 Losses	NET CLOSE WINS	2010 Wins	2010 Losses	NET CLOSE WINS
By TD or ↓	By TD or ↓		By TD or ↓	By TD or ↓
Auburn 7	0	7	Tulane 3	0	3

These are the teams that had 2 net close wins: BYU, Connecticut, East Carolina, Fresno St, Hawaii, Navy, Nevada, Northwestern, Ohio St, Rice, Stanford, TCU, Troy, Tulsa.

Much like a stock broker, my job is to find value. The same is true in the magazine business and I am very proud of our #1 Most Accurate Title over the last 13 years. I would attribute that Title to the fact that I work on nothing but football 365 days a year and I am always looking to uncover any system or trend that would give me an edge. Here are two more methods for uncovering those underrated teams.

YPP Factor

Eight years ago I did an article on ypp and every year there are some solid charts for you to review. First of all, let's explain what ypp is exactly. A ypp is simply yards per point. An offense is more efficient when their ypp is a lower number. If a team had an offensive ypp of 10.0, that would mean for every 200 yards they gained, they scored 20 points. Meanwhile, if they had an offensive ypp of 20.0, then for every 200 yards they gained, they only scored 10 points. On the other side of the ball, defenses want to have a higher ypp. Inverting the same thought, if a team allowed 200 yards and had a 20.0 ypp, that means they would allow just 10 points for every 200 yards the opposition traveled, whereas a 10.0 ypp would be 20 points for every 200 yards allowed. When I started this research in 1990, the average ypp for a team was 15.44 and the median was 15.49. It surprises me how much the median has dropped inside this decade.

Last year the avg was just 13.7 and the median was 13.9. I found teams that have a high offensive ypp (move the ball but do not score) the previous year generally have a stronger record the next season. Let's look at teams that had an unusually high ypp the previous year (an inefficient offense). If you look at the chart above you will see that 27 teams have had a ypp greater than 22.3 since 1990 and ALL 27 have had a stronger or identical record the next year. Wyoming who was the last team over 22.3 (23.35 in '08) went from 4-8 to a bowl. Last year Miami, Oh was atop the chart at 22.04 and went from 1-11 to 10-4!! As you can see, the chart goes to 17.5 which still has a solid success record, as teams will either have the same or a stronger record 81.6% of the time.

17.5	294	215	25	54	81.6%

The teams that fall into this category this year are:

Buffalo 21.01, Colorado St 20.29, Memphis 19.77, San Jose St 19.60, New Mexico St 18.93, Florida Atlantic 17.98.

If you look at the chart above you will see that 27 teams have had a ypp greater than 22.3 since 1990 and ALL 27 have had a stronger or identical record the next year. Wyoming who was the last team over 22.3 (23.35 in '08) went from 4-8 to a bowl. Last year Miami, Oh was atop the chart at 22.04 and went from 1-11 to 10-4!! As you can see, the chart goes to 17.5 which still has a solid success record, as teams will either have the same or a stronger record 81.6% of the time.

Teams that had an extremely low ypp the previous year usually have a weaker record the next season. The statistics are not as dominant as the high ypp, probably because there are some teams that benefit from turnovers on a yearly basis, keeping their ypp low. Still, according to the chart to the right, on the individual team pages for those numbers. Looking at the history of offensive ypp, these teams should have a weaker record this season.

This year's teams that fall into the top category are:

Wisconsin 10.74, Maryland 10.95, Kansas St 11.27, Oregon 11.29, UCF 11.40, TCU 11.46, LSU 11.49, Boise St 11.56, Ohio St 11.57, Northern Illinois 11.60, Stanford 11.72.

Now let's take a look at the teams under the defensive ypp that were fortunate and not so fortunate last year. As the chart to the right shows, if a team allows a defensive ypp of 13.29 or lower (meaning they gave up a lot of points but not a lot of yds), their record improves or is the same the next year 68.8% of the time. Teams that allowed a lot of yards but not a lot of points sound like a bend but don't break D, but generally, as shown below, teams whose defensive ypp was 17.35 or greater the previous year have a weaker or the same record the following year 64.6% of the time. Back in 2007 just 5 fit the 20.35 and higher standard and ALL 5 had the same or weaker record (4 weaker).

Of the 285 teams listed in ypp & close wins/losses the last 4 years an outstanding 72% had their record get stronger or weaker, as was forecast by the ypp chart. Over the last 6 years 264 of the 342 teams have had their record get stronger or weaker (or stay the same) as was forecast by the ypp chart for a 77.1% success rate!

2011 NFL DRAFT A DAY FOR VHT'S!!!

By Phil Steele

early May, after the 2011 NFL Draft was complete, I went back & looked at the PS#s of all the top picks. What I found was that 2011 was yet another very deep draft for VHT's!! For 2011, 21 draftees in the 1st Round were VHT's with 12 being in the Top 15. In 2010, 21 of the top 30 players were VHT's, with 13 of the top 16 draftees (81.3%) being VHT's!! In 2008 & in 2009, 14 of the top 23 players were VHT's. In

The NFL Draft is always a big day for the top graduating seniors, some high-quality juniors as well as a few sophomores in college football. It is the chance to move on to the NFL & make a living playing the sport they have participated in for most of their lives. For first round draft picks it means millions of dollars & sudden wealth. Colleges benefit by having former players being drafted highly as it allows them to use it to attract future recruiting classes. While lower round draft picks do not make millions, everyone has the potential to make a substantial income & that is why a big final year in college is very important.

Being a first round draft pick does not guarantee success. The NFL has lots of stories of first round "busts" over the years, players who never lived up to their potential due to injuries or just poor performance. Every franchise has had some #1 pick who never panned out or who never even started an NFL game. However, the majority of 1st round picks do make it big & have an impact on their team & the NFL. The 2 top picks in the 2010 draft are a prime example of this. Sam Bradford played every snap for the Rams in 2010 winning the Offensive Rookie of the Year award with the team earning more wins (7) than what they had from 2007-09 combined (6). The following pick, Ndamukong Suh, won the Defensive Rookie of the Year award as his 10 sacks were the most by any DT in the NFL & twice as much as what the #3 rookie had earned (OAK Lamarr Houston).

How does a player get to be a first round draft pick? A good starting point in determining a player's grade coming out of college is how that player performs on the field. In most cases, you must be among the most productive players in the college game. However, productivity is not the only criteria. Hawaii's Timmy Chang is the all-time career passing leader in college football with 16,190 yards but he went undrafted. The top three reception leaders of all-time in FBS ball are Taylor Stubblefield (316), Josh Davis (306) & RB Taurean Henderson (303) & not one of the 3 was drafted. Central Michigan QB Dan LeFevour scored 910 points in his career. Drafted in the 6th round of 2010, he was waived by the Bears on their final roster cuts & is currently the scout team QB for the Bengals.

NFL scouts concentrate primarily on players' size, speed & strength ratings. A player could have a great senior year, but if his performance in the 40 yard dash is disappointing, he could drop a round or two in the draft. If a player shows up at the NFL Combine out of shape, he'll probably cost himself a large chunk of money in his contract, as he will be drafted lower than expected (Alabama DT Terrence Cody). It's all about how many reps a player can do at 225 pounds in the bench press & other measurable physical characteristics.

Even after all the number crunching, there are plenty of stories about players who were very late round DC's or not even drafted who went on to have great success in the NFL. Texans RB Arian Foster was a UFA in 2009 but seized his opportunities in 2010 as he led the NFL with 1,616 yards rushing. Titans KR/PR Marc Mariani was a 2005 walk on at Montana who in 2010 earned a Pro Bowl berth thanks to a 25.5 KR/12.2 PR average. These stories are great, but the majority of the stars in the NFL are the players who were graded high enough to be upper round draft picks.

Colleges do not have a draft of high school players, but every school is given an allotment of scholarships & has to recruit players from around the country to fill their needs. Most high school athletes will take the big name schools scholarship offers over the smaller ones. If you are lucky enough to have Florida, Ohio St or USC offer you one of their precious 15 to 25 scholarships, you usually jump at it. Many non-BCS schools do not even bother to recruit most of the top athletes coming out, as they really have little chance to land them (unless it's a local prospect).

Since there is no draft, how do you rate players out of high school? I rely on some great recruiting sources & have a computer rating system that ranked over 20,000 high school & junior college players this season. I then assign every player a PS# which shows how highly rated each player is out of high school or JC. I have an entire page devoted to how I determine a PS# (see page 294).

I have come up with my own terminology for the players' ratings out of high school on that page. An HT (Highly Touted) is a player who is rated highly at his position. Out of the 20,000 or so kids who are on my list coming out of high school, the top 1,660 fall into the HT category (about 7.5%). A VHT (Very Highly Touted) is similar to a first round draft pick. There are only 535 of these players each year (2.4%), with varying amounts at each position. That comes out to just 10.7 players per state, so we are talking about the crème de la crème of recruits.

Brian Orakpo (PS#45DL) originally went to Texas to play basketball & weighed 210 lbs. The former Longhorn DE (4.6 spd) now benches 515 lbs & can squat 600 lbs. He won the Lombardi, Nagurski & Hendricks Awards & was drafted 13th by the Redskins. Orakpo would go on to lead NFL rookies with 11 sacks in 2009. When a player moves into a college program, he benefits from vastly upgraded weight rooms & nutritional programs. Players will show much greater gains in size, speed & strength in their 3 to 5 years in college than they do once an NFL team drafts them. The recruiting ratings are not an exact science. However, much like the NFL, you will find that the most sought after kids out of high school usually turn out to be the stars of the college game. There are many cases of VHT players stepping in & starting in their true freshman seasons.

This year, I once again look at the end product of the college game. In 2007, 21 of the top 27 players were VHT's (78%). The 2006 draft featured VHT's in 17 of the top 23 picks (74%). There are around 3,000 players who are signed to a scholarship by FBS schools each year. Since there are just 535 players who meet my criteria for a VHT, that means that roughly 18% of all signees are classified as a VHT. In the last 12 years 94 of the 144 top 12 picks in the draft have been VHT's!! That means 65% of the top spots were VHT's & that proves the significance of the rating. Here is a list of this year's Top 32 NFL Draft selections & how they were rated out of high school. As you can see, the 2011 NFL Draft was another VHT day.

2011's NFL DRAFT TOP SELECTIONS

It will be interesting to see if VHT's dominate the 2012 NFL Draft as well. Over the last 11 years I have provided my list of top players for the upcoming NFL Draft. In 2008, two of my 32 projections came out early & were taken in the 2007 Supplemental Draft (OT Jared Gaither & CB Paul Oliver). Of the remaining top 15, 8 were 1st RD DC's & 3 were 2nd RD DC's.

For 2009, 11 of the top 12 were drafted in the 1st (8) or 2nd (3) rounds, 17 players were selected in the 1st or 2nd round and 24 of 32 were drafted overall with 7 players returning (1 UFA). Of the 32 players I listed, 75% of them were either a 1st or 2nd round pick or opted to return for 2009.

In 2010 there were seven 1st RD DC's & four 2nd RD DC's in the top 11 picks. Overall 21 players were taken in the 1st (14) or 2nd (7) RD's with another 2 players (Mark Herzlich & Marvin Austin) returning for 2011.

My 2011 projection had 25 of 32 players being either a 1st RD DC (14), 2nd RD DC (6) or returning. Injuries & off field issues played a big role this year in where my prospects landed. Marvin Austin (off field), Ryan Mallett (off field), Ras-I Dowling (hamstring/ankle), Da'Quan Bowers (knee), Bruce Carter (torn ACL), Greg Romeus (back) & Marcus Cannon (illness) were solid value picks. Bowers could have been a top 5 pick & Cannon is likely to medical red-shirt his 2nd round talent in 2011 for NE. Obviously draft positions often will be affected by a player's 2011 performance. Below are my top players for the 2012 Draft:

TOP ELIGIBLE PLAYERS FOR THE 2012 NFL DRAFT

2010 SPECIAL TEAMS RATINGS

In the text of the team write-ups, I have ranked each special teams unit. I devised a formula which takes into account net punting, kick returns, punt returns & kick return defense. The total opportunities each team had was also factored into the equation. For an example, in 2006, Utah St punted EIGHTY ONE times and returned only 14 punts all year. Their net punting average was weighed 5.78 times as much as their punt return average ranking due to the difference in attempts. I also have a net td/blk's category. A negative number means a team allowed more blocks & td's than they garnered. A positive number means that they blk'd more kicks and scored more td's than they allowed. If a team blocked a punt AND returned the same punt for a td, I only give credit for one td/blk. However, if a team fumbled a punt snap and the other team recovered I counted that as a blocked punt. I do not count blocked FG's in the category as a missed FG has the same result and is not a game-changing play. The only time I count a blocked FG is if it was returned for a td.

A few years ago I added a formula to grade the kickers taking into account 6 categories. The first was overall accuracy and that % was multiplied times 5 (everything graded on a scale of 1-5). Then I took the amount of FG's made and divided it into the largest amount of FG's made in the NCAA and that percentage was multiplied by 5. Each counted for 30% of the overall grade. Then I factor FG's from 40-49 yds (both # of kicks and %) and did the same and they counted for 30% of the grade each. I then factor FG's of 50+ yds and they counted for 10% of the grade. This factored in kickers with stronger legs. Speaking of kickers, my KR Defense grade includes a formula for TB's on kickoffs. It grades a TB as a 12.5 yard return (avg KO goes to the 7.5) and an OOB KO as a 30 yard return and adds them to the actual KR defense numbers so my numbers will differ from the schools in that column as mine factor in both adjustments. The NCAA moved to a 1" tee in 2006, so there were fewer TB's. In 2007 they moved the KO's back another 5 yards, making dangerous KR's a bigger factor in games.

In past years I have listed a special teams rating, a kicker rating and a couple years ago added a combined special teams ratings. To get a team's final ST grade we take 2/3 of the K rating and add that to the ST rating. This year I just list them by the combined rating but for you long-time readers looking for the individual ratings, they are in the chart listed below.

As you check out your favorite team, I want to give you a reference as to what the #60 team of 120 teams did in 2010 NCAA ratings. Net Punting (36.4), Kick Return Offense (22.0), Punt Return Offense (8.2) and Kick Return Defense (21.4).

PHIL STEELE'S DRAFT GUIDE

On Page 1 of the magazine, I thanked you for purchasing my Phil Steele's College Football Preview & you do have my heartfelt thanks for that!! I could have also noted the additional bonus you receive in my 2011-12 Draft Guide, as it is basically included in the magazine! Let me explain:

In the front of the magazine I list my Top QB's, RB's, WR's, etc. for each season with a heavy emphasis on who I think will be taken in next year's draft. On this page are 160 of 2010's AA Team. Even with the CBA lockout, the NFL draft guide had a solid year. Overall 99 players were drafted, 27 are opting for another year of College Football & 34 players went undrafted. When the NFL finally reopens its doors we will have an updated page on philsteele.com for FREE to enjoy!!!

Of the 14 different positions on this page (ILB & OLB are separated) 9 of them had 2 or less UFA's after the 2011 draft. QB's, OT's, DT, ILB's & CB's combined for 60 players that were drafted or returning in 2011 with just 5 UFA's for a 92.3% rate.

Over the past 8 years on this page of "Tops" there have been 1,370 players listed. As of this writing including the 34 UFA's in 2011 there have been a total of 93 players (6.8%) that were not drafted, not signed as a FA or not returning. We expect that number to drop as 174 players had signed as UFA's in the 7 previous versions of this page. That brings the total to 1,103 of 1,370 (84.4%) players listed that have been either drafted or returned to school for another year.

2010 PASS EFFICIENCY DEFENSE RANKINGS

Here are my rankings for pass efficiency defense. Taken into account are total yards, td's, int's and completion % just like the NCAA does. THE KEY DIFFERENCE between the NCAA pass D rankings and mine is that I factor in the strength of opposing pass attacks. For example, Utah St finished #60 last year in the final NCAA defensive pass efficiency rankings. I had them 38 spots better as they finished ranked #22 in my rankings. The Aggies faced 4 pass offenses ranked in the top 12 including Hawaii (#1), Oklahoma (#3), Boise St (#6) and San Diego St (#12) and they allowed a respectable 57% completions. On the flip side the NCAA ranked Temple as the #14 pass defense as they allowed only 178 ypg and a 9-9 ratio through the air. The Owls finished #58 in my rankings as their schedule included 4 teams that finished in the bottom 20 in the NCAA including Army (#120), Connecticut (#110), Akron (#108) and Ohio (#102) and only faced 1 team in the top 30 (Cent Mich #17).

Let me show you a couple of overrated and underrated secondaries on the NCAA pass D chart from the past few years. Army was 3-9 in 2007 but ranked #16 in the NCAA pass D rankings. One of the main reasons is they only allowed 190 ypg passing. Another reason is that teams ran the ball at will on them, as they were #117 in rush D. When teams did pass they allowed 64.6% completions and a 12-7 ratio. Another reason they allowed just 190 ypg was their opponents. Air Force and Navy were last and second to last in pass offense as both ran the option. Rhode Island also runs an option offense and had the #110 pass offense of FCS teams (out of 116). They also faced the #76 pass offense of Ark St, #73 Temple, #100 Akron, #84 Wake Forest, #89 Tulane and #98 of Georgia Tech. They only faced 3 other teams that ranked in the top 70 in pass offense all season. Those three teams hit a combined 90 of 126 (71.4%) and 349 ypg! Does this sound like the #16 pass defense in the country? My pass D rankings had Army at #100!!!

Florida St finished 9-4 in 2008, but their #26 finish in the NCAA pass efficiency D rankings was definitely misleading. Florida St's opponents only completed 51% for 162 ypg, but the Seminoles faced the #113 set of opposing QB's and still allowed a 15-9 ratio. They faced NONE of the top FBS pass offenses (#58 Clemson was the high), played 2 FCS teams (#60 and #99 in FCS rankings) and faced the #116 ranked pass offense of Georgia Tech and #111 Virginia Tech. FSU's pass D was obviously overrated in the NCAA rankings as they finished #60 in my rankings.

Oklahoma finished 12-2 in 2008 and went to the BCS Title game, but finished #46 in the NCAA pass D rankings. They allowed 252 ypg passing but that came against the 7th toughest slate of opposing QB's. The Sooners faced 8 of the top 17 QB's in the NCAA's pass efficiency rankings. The Big 12 was loaded at QB as OU faced Heisman runner-up Colt McCoy (#3, 3859 yds), Zac Robinson (#5, 3064), Graham Harrell (#8, 5111), Chase Daniel twice (#10, 4335), Joe Ganz (#14, 3568), Todd Reesing (#17, 3888) as well as #1DC Josh Freeman (#34, 2945), all in conference play. They also faced the '07 Heisman winner Tim Tebow (#4, 2746) in the Title game. The Sooners only allowed 55.4 % comp with a 22-19 ratio against a star-studded class of QB's. Clearly, the Sooners were better than the #46 pass defense in the country and my PDR ranked them #11.

Vanderbilt was 2-10 in 2009 but ranked #33 in the NCAA pass D rankings. One of the main reasons for the high ranking is that they only allowed 165 ypg passing. It was however more of a reflection of their opponents' poor passing attacks than Vanderbilt's defense. Georgia Tech and Army were #116 and #120 in pass offense as both run the option. Vanderbilt matched up against the #113 pass offense of Mississippi St, #114 Kentucky, #97 LSU and #84 Rice. They also faced Western Carolina who had the #91 pass offense of FCS teams! Overall, Vanderbilt did not face one pass offense that ranked in the Top 40 and my ratings had them at #77!

Listed below are the raw numbers for the 2010 season as well as my final grade, taking into account the strength of the opponent faced. This year I added where each team was ranked in the NCAA and there are 7 teams that have a difference of 30+ positions. If you would like to get my PDR updated weekly, go to PhilSteele.com on Friday and get my current pass D rankings which take into account the strength of opponent faced, FREE.

PHIL STEELE'S 2011 PLUS/MINUS POWER RATINGS

If you have read the other parts of the magazine, I am sure you are familiar with the fact that I have NINE different sets of power ratings that I create each preseason to give me 9 different ways of analyzing a team. The last few years I have provided you with one of those sets here. It is the one that will most closely resemble the Top 25 polls as it is based on last year's scores with adjustments made for this year. Let me take a minute of your time to give you a little history of my fascination and dependency on power ratings when analyzing a team in the preseason and during the season. I am in my late 40's and I started following college football with great intensity at about 10 years old. At that time (being a numbers guy) I devised my own set of power ratings which was based mostly on where the preseason magazines I was reading ranked the teams. I even awarded points at that time for how many pictured players each team had in the magazines. I updated those ratings during the season based on the final scores of the games.

One of the reasons for this particular article is that a few years later after compiling my ratings (and no longer counting pictures), I stumbled upon the GamePlan magazine. In the front of the magazine was a set of power ratings for each team!! I now had two sets of power ratings on each team and I updated them both during the year giving me two different ways of looking at the strength of a team. This year I thought for all of you who like to use a set of power ratings that I would provide you with one of my 9 sets. Is this the main set of ratings I use? No, that would be my Power Poll rankings which are a combination of the 9 sets. This is a solid set of numbers and what I have noticed is it most closely resembles what the general perception of each team is heading into 2011.

Let me tell you about some of my other power ratings. One of my main sets is the talent rating. For this, I rank each position on every team from 4 for the weakest to 10 for the strongest in the country. They are ranked to the decimal. For example, I will rate a QB position at 7.87 if I feel they are a hair weaker than a 7.89 team. I add all of the positions up, add in special teams and coaching and that set is ready. The second set to look at is the Power Plays numbers. I take a look at last year's final numbers, which not only take into account the score of the game, but the strength of each team's offensive rush and pass and also the defensive rush and pass. When doing my power ratings I always award what I call a Plus/Minus for each position. If a team had an All-American VHT QB last year and is going to an inexperienced one who is not a VHT, then they would rate a minus 6. If a team had no experience at a position and suffered through injuries last year with poor production but now has everyone back, including the injured players who are more experienced while adding new talent to the mix, they would rate a plus 6. Everything else falls in between. To make my Power Plays numbers for THIS year I looked at last year's and applied the Plus/Minus for each position to them to develop the computer projection. I mentioned that I rank each position from 4 to 10, which gives me a fresh set of numbers based just on this year and I have a formula which takes the talent of each position (example: pass offense would be QB plus WR plus O-line) and converts it to a Power Plays number. I compare the two Power Plays numbers derived from two different methods then put my own thoughts into refining the figures and come up with an opening number for the next season. I could write a book (or a magazine for that matter) on how I devise each of the 9 sets but that gives you some idea of how I do two sets of my power ratings.

As for the ratings listed below, these are my Plus/Minus ratings. I first take last year's final Plus/Minus ratings, which are calculated mostly by the score of each game last year and the strength of opponents played. Losing to Alabama by 5 would move a team up in the ratings (Alabama would have been expected to win big), while beating Akron by 15 in 2011 would probably have moved the same team down. I then take my aforementioned Plus/Minus ratings and add them to the totals. Some teams are weaker than last year and drop in the rankings, while the ones that are improved move up. As mentioned this is just ONE set of power ratings. A note here is that on page 315 I rank the teams based on the Power Poll, which is all 9 ratings combined, so that page does indeed differ with this one as far as rankings. The Plus/Minus ratings are a good set of ratings but I personally put more weight into the Power Poll. Below I list my current 2011 Plus/Minus ratings for the upcoming season. I hope you find them useful.

#1 THIRTEEN STRAIGHT YEARS!!

by Brandon Partner

Oklahoma's 47 game win streak, Florida State's fourteen straight Top 5 finishes, Joe Paterno's 400+ career FBS wins; there are many college football records that may never be broken and when it comes to preseason publications one magazine is in the midst of a seemingly unbreakable streak.

Phil Steele's College Football Preview magazine is not only the most informative on the market today but for 13 straight yrs it has held on to the title as the #1 ranked college football magazine as determined by an independent website uncorrupted by subjective opinion.

Stassen.com features a two-pronged survey developed by Chris Stassen. First, he rates preseason football publications using several different variables including prediction accuracy, information quality, information quantity, recapping information and price blending them into a complex mathematical formula.

Each magazine is then graded on a scale of 1-80 with 80 being a perfect score. Like clockwork, Phil Steele's blows the competition away every year in this mathematical review. Last year was no exception, with an overall score of 78. The next closest competitor scored a 59 which was an incredible 19 points away!

Then after the season is complete, Stassen grades each publication on the accuracy of their predictions which ultimately determines "the most accurate" title. If you check the records on the next page you will see that once again Phil is the #1 most accurate over the past 13 years and it is by a good sized margin!

The survey began in '93, two yrs before Phil's first publication and Phil didn't even know about Stassen's site until he stumbled across the survey on the internet in '97. Not that the slow start has deterred the decade plus run of dominance in the standings.

In that first year, Phil finished sixth among the competition which was heavily influenced by his below average performance in prediction accuracy. While most would have been content with that solid finish, Phil was bothered by the results because he knew that his preseason Top 25 identified more bowl-bound teams than his competition did. But the drawback in this scenario was that Stassen's assessment was based on final conference standings.

Phil's ratings, on the other hand, were geared toward how many the teams would finish according to their overall regular season records. For example from that first year, Phil forecasted that Cincinnati would finish with a stronger overall record than East Carolina. The Bearcats finished 7-4 that year and East Carolina went just 5-6. While Phil's predictions were correct, the Stassen ratings took into account their conference record and East Carolina was 4-2 in CUSA play while Cincinnati finished 2-4 which ultimately hurt Phil in the ratings.

Again, while most people of Phil's stature may have called Stassen on the phone and told him to rethink his formula, Phil respected the integrity of the ratings and decided to tweak his publication in accordance with the Stassen competition. This not only meant adjusting his forecasts to the Stassen style but also adding teams to better satisfy the yardstick of information quality.

For example, in 1995, his first annual had write-ups on 88 teams. By 1998, his list of teams included all programs in Division IA with the smaller schools initially getting a summary paragraph. By 2002, he was up to 117 teams and expanded the content to two full pages on every Div 1A team. Now, there are 2 full pages on all 120 FBS teams and the amount of information jam-packed in those pages almost feels like 120 different media guides with one for each team.

After adjusting his ratings Phil finished fifth in 1998 and the margin separating the top 5 was slim. However that fifth place finish served as extra motivation for Phil in the future and he and his college football "Bible" have never looked back.

Since 1998, Phil is tops in overall score and before I get into how each point total is calculated, keep in mind the lower the number the better the score, similar to golf.

In the past 13 years Phil's overall score is 1,809. The closest magazine to him, is Athlon at 1,836 which is nearly four touchdowns away! To put that in perspective, only 1% of teams in the last two years have defeated their opponents by an average of 27 points or more!

Now, let's break down the point system for a clearer picture. Stassen tabulates each publication's forecasting accuracy by comparing the predicted finish with the actual finish of each team in each conference. In cases where two or more teams shared a placement by finishing with identical conference records, the score for that team is derived from the most favorable to the predictions of the tied positions.

To better illustrate, take a look at the final standings in the Mountain West last season. Naturally TCU took home the MWC title for the second year in a row and capped off their perfect season by defeating Big Ten Co-Champ Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day. Had you picked up a copy of Phil's preview nearly seven months prior, you would have read that the Horned Frogs were not only Phil's pick to win the MWC but they also were his choice as the best non-BCS team in the country and he had TCU slated for an undefeated season and a BCS bowl.

The official breakdown, in the end, went like this: TCU (8-0), Utah (7-1), BYU (5-3), Air Force (5-3), San Diego St (5-3), Colorado St (2-6), UNLV (2-6), Wyoming (1-7) and New Mexico (1-7).

While no one is perfect, in this instance Phil flirted with perfection for the entire conference! He correctly had the Horned Frogs taking home the conference title as well as Utah finishing in second. He also correctly tabbed BYU, Air Force and San Diego State finishing in the 3, 4 and 5 positions and New Mexico finishing in last.

THE MOST ACCURATE PRESEASON MAGAZINE THE LAST 13 YEARS!

The Stassen site is so complete that it keeps tabulations of how the magazines have fared in each of the past seasons and also has charts based on the past 3 and 5 years. It even has an all-time chart which rates just the 5 magazines that have been around from 1993-2009. Steele's magazine did not get placed on the all-time list because it was not around until 1995. It did however come up #1 overall in the past 13 years (1998-2010) in the category of Prediction Accuracy. The accompanying table shows the complete results.

In the end, Phil called eight of the MWC's 9 teams within a half point of their actual finish! He closed the division with only 3 total points matched only by Lindy's. The rest of the competition? No one better than 5 points, and as bad as 9.

To get a total score for each magazine, Stassen tabulates all of the conferences and then creates the overall standings based on accuracy. There have been many years in which the difference between the top and bottom tiers are minimal. Last year was one of the oddest years since the inception of the survey with Blue Ribbon; traditionally a magazine with a lot of content but the least accurate finishing with one of the best seasons ever for any magazine, and Phil, despite having his best score since he took home the season title in 2004, finishing in the middle of the pack.

Still, as the above chart shows, over the course of time only one magazine consistently stands apart from the pack when it comes to accuracy and that is Mr. Steele's.

Prediction accuracy is just one aspect that makes Phil's magazine the best of the bunch. Living in today's information age everyone wants team schedules, stats depthcharts, and previous results immediately right at their fingertips. Look no further. Phil's magazine has everything you need to become an expert on all 120 FBS schools!

While many of the magazines on the newsstands have 500-1,000 word write-ups on the major schools, Phil's jam-packed guide delivers with more than 2,000 words on every single school and that does not even count his pages with the schedules, stats and results!

When I hosted and produced sports radio shows in the past, there was only one magazine that was at the side of each and every producer and host not only during the summer months but throughout the entire season....Phil Steele's College Football Preview.

It's nearly impossible for anyone not named Phil Steele to have a legitimate grasp on all the teams across the country so when a caller would call into a show asking about a random team or player; time and time again Phil's magazine came through making everyone seem more like an expert than what they really were. Trust me, while it is tough to admit that "dirty little secret" in the radio business anyone who has hosted a radio show knows that Phil's magazine has helped numerous times with random college football questions.

Need some examples? How about a team's overall record from the past 10 years or the results of a team's last 5 bowl games? Phil has it covered. What about the number of rush yards a team had in any individual game from a year ago? Steele comes through yet again. What about a mini-bio on each and every player in the projected starting line-up? You guessed it, Phil Steele to the rescue.

Accuracy and information are not the only variables that makes Phil's magazine cutting edge. Before cell phones and texting even became a fixture in our every day lives, Phil was "Mr.. Abbreviation" before it was even cool to be. How else could you get so much information onto a single page?

By now everyone knows what OMG and LOL stand for but what about KD? Knockdowns. How about TFL? Tackles For Loss. VHT? Well, that's a Very Highly Touted recruit. All of these can be found in Steele's magazine that comes with a handy reference table with more than 150 abbreviations. While the casual fan of college football may find these acronyms somewhat hard to digest, the end result is having the most complete publication and reference source for anyone who loves college football.

When it came time to decide what I really wanted to do with myself after college, I wanted to pursue a career in my greatest passion and there was no better person I could think of to learn this business from than Phil Steele.

Leaving a radio job that I loved and moving to a city away from my family and friends was the hardest decision of my life. But there is not a day that goes by where I do not thank my lucky stars for getting a chance to be a part of greatness and one of those seemingly unbeatable sports streaks. I look forward to writing or reading an updated version of this article in 5, 10 or maybe even 20 years from now and there is no doubt in my mind that Phil will still have the tag of "most accurate" college football magazine.

While some records were meant to be broken, others live forever!

DRAFT DAY PARTY HANGOVER

Draft day is an exciting day for many college football players, as they find out which professional team they have a shot at playing for in the future. Many players who will be 1st or 2nd round draft picks have draft parties to celebrate their high selection and the upcoming riches they will receive by signing an NFL contract. Networks often broadcast from high profile draftees' living rooms showing them celebrating when and where they get drafted. College football teams also enjoy draft day, as having players selected to the NFL gives coaches a future recruiting edge. They can then tell incoming high school recruits how many different players they have sent on to NFL careers. The more successful programs will always land the top-notch athletes who seek a pro career.

While there is a lot of happiness on draft day, it can be a precursor for trouble for many college programs. My staff and I went back and researched how teams did after having a large amount of players selected in the draft. We found almost 7 out of every 10 teams that rank among the top in the NCAA in players drafted struggle the next year and have a weaker record. I call it the Draft Day Party Hangover Effect.

Let me explain how I came up with this theory. I have taken the last 14 drafts and analyzed not only the amount of players selected, but also the rounds in which they were selected. Let's face it, there are only 32 players in all of college football who end up being a 1st round draft pick in a season. Replacing a player with that ability is often very difficult. For the system I created, 7 points are awarded if a player was picked in the 1st round. A 2nd round pick garnered 5 points, a 3rd round pick four, 4th round three and a 5th round two. In the NFL there's not much difference between a 6th or 7th round pick and a high quality undrafted free agent signee so I award 1 point to a 6th or 7th round pick. I do not lend a high level of merit to being picked in the last 2 rounds. Using this point system I went back and plugged in the last 14 years' draftees and found some interesting results. I limited my research to those teams that totaled 12 or more points, which makes them among the best in the NCAA.

I do eliminate a team from my list that totalled 12 or more points if that is less than the previous year's total. Let's face it, some programs turn out lots of draft picks every year and 12 is a low total for some teams. For example, in 2006 Oklahoma "earned" 25 points but did not make the list because in 2005 they had earned 41 points. The 2006 squad was in much better shape than the draft-ravaged 2005 squad and would have been a National Title contender if not for the officiating in the Oregon game. This year Florida goes from 45 points lost in the 2010 draft to 15 in 2011 and I will be keeping a close eye on them this season.

In the past 14 years I have gone thru year-by-year and recapped how the teams that earned 12 or more points have fared. The results have been VERY consistent. In the 14 years there have been 254 teams that have earned 12 or more points while having more points than what they earned the previous year. Of those 254 teams, 168 or 66.1% had a WEAKER record the next season and 24 had the same record (9.4%). Only 62 (24.4%) managed to improve their record. That means basically 7 out of every 10 teams that earn 12 points or more in the draft will have a weaker record the next year. The best year for this system of NFL Draft Hangover was 1998 when 18 of the 21 teams had a weaker record the next year. I will give you a couple of examples and then fine-tune the system even further to reveal systems that have hit 86.5% over the past 14 years!!!

I will now review these results for you year-by-year. Here are some examples of the teams that earned 12 points and how they have done from one year to the next. In 2001, Kansas St (18 pts) went from 11-3 to 6-6 and Washington (12 pts) from 11-1 to 8-4. In 2002, Stanford (14 pts) went from 9-3 down to 2-9 and BYU (14 pts) went from 12-2 in '01 to a losing record of 5-7 in '02. Oregon went from 11-1 (BCS bowl) to 7-6 after earning 21 draft points. In 2003, Notre Dame (16 pts) went from 10-3 to 5-7 and Illinois (13 pts) went from 5-7 to 1-11. In 2004, Mississippi (12 pts) went from 10-3 to 4-7, Washington (17 pts) went from 6-6 to 1-10 and Maryland (14 pts) went from 10-3 to 5-6. In 2005, Utah earned 14 pts and went from 12-0 down to 7-5. In 2006, NC State had 26 pts (3 #1 DC's) and dropped from 7-5 to 3-9. A great example in 2007 was when Notre Dame (21 pts) went from 10-3 to 3-9. In 2008, the 5 best examples were: Ariz St (13 pts), Auburn (18 pts), Kansas (14 pts), Purdue (14 pts) and Virginia (15 pts) as they combined for a 48-17 (74%) record in '07 but fell to a combined 27-34 (44%) in 2008 with 4 of the 5 having losing records! In 2009, Maryland returned from a successful 8-5 season highlighted by an upset win over Nevada in the Humanitarian Bowl, only to drop to 2-10. In 2010, Texas was coming off a 13-1 season but after 6 players were drafted in the 4th round or higher they dropped to 5-7 for their 1st losing season in the Mack Brown era. As you can see, losing a lot of quality players to the NFL does have an impact on teams the following year and as mentioned, 75.6% of teams that earned 12 or more points had weaker or the same record the next year.

In 2006's magazine I went through the records of teams in the chart and noticed that of the TOP 7 I had listed, ALL 7 had a weaker record in 2006! The 2006 results verified my theory that the more points a team earns (which means the bigger the draft losses), the higher chance they would have of a weaker record the next year. If you go back over the last 14 years, there have been 64 teams that have accumulated 24 or more points. Of those 64 teams, 52 had a weaker record the next year (2 had the same record). That means 54 of the 64 teams (84.4%) failed to improve their record the next year after earning 24 or more draft points. Here are some notable losers from this segment of draft casualties. In 2001, Wisconsin (29 pts) went from 9-4 to 5-7. In 2000, Michigan St (24 pts) went from 10-2 to 5-6. West Virginia was 8-4 in 1998 but after earning 26 points dropped to 4-7 in 1999. In 1997, Colorado (24 pts) went from 10-2 to 5-6. Miami (Fla), Wisconsin and LSU are the teams that have 24 or more points for 2011.

In 2004, Ohio St set an NFL record for the number of players drafted in a 7 round draft and, in the process, earned 51 draft points in my system.

The Buckeyes went from 11-2 to just 8-4. My next question is, how do the biggest draft losers fare the next season? In the past 14 years there have only been 16 teams that have earned 35 or more points. Fourteen of 16 had a weaker record the next season with the '06 Ohio St Buckeyes and '08 USC Trojans being the only teams to have a better record. The biggest fall from this group was '03 Penn St, which went from 9-4 to just 3-9. Last year Florida had 45 points and went from 13-1 to 8-5. In 2010, I did make one tweak however. Oklahoma had 35 points but TE Jermaine Gresham a #1 pick (7 pts) did not play a single down. I decided to omit his draft points for that year. After reviewing what happened at North Carolina in 2010, I decided to do the same on this year's 2011 chart with DE Robert Quinn, DT Marvin Austin and WR Greg Little who would have accounted for 17 points combined.

Over the last 14 years teams that earned more points than the previous year and accumulated....

12 or more points - Weaker or same record 192 of 254 (75.6%)

24 or more points - Weaker or same record 54 of 64 (84.4%)

35 or more points - Weaker record occurred 14 of 16 (87.5%)

With that in mind, as of 2011 there were 23 teams that earned 12 points or more from their losses in the NFL draft. There are 5 teams on that list for this year that have LESS points than last year with Alabama (29), USC (23), Iowa (17), Florida (15) and Texas (14).

One thing I pointed out in past years is that the National Champ does have a good shot at appearing on these lists. In the past 14 years there have been 15 National Champs (LSU and USC were co-champs in '03) with 12 of the 15 having earned 12 or more points in the draft the previous year. The exceptions were 2006 Florida (7 pts), 2008 Florida (11 pts) and 2010 Auburn (7 pts). The two teams that overcame the biggest draft losses and still managed to win a title were the 2001 Miami Hurricanes, who had 34, and the 1998 Tennessee Volunteers (32). Seven of the 15 actually earned 20 or more points in the draft loss category.

According to past history, in reviewing the 18 teams in the box below, only 4 or 5 will manage to improve their record this year. However, the National Champ is very likely to be one of the 18 teams on the Draft Day Hangover List.

CHUCK BEDNARIK AWARD COLLEGE DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

The College Defensive Player of the Year Award is named in honor of Chuck Bednarik, College and Pro Football Hall of Famer.

Voters for the Maxwell College Awards are NCAA Head College Football Coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club & sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country.

The Maxwell Football Club (originally called the Maxwell Football Club of Philadelphia) was established in 1935 to promote safety in the game of American football. Named in honor of the late Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, legendary college player, official, and sports columnist, the club was founded by his friend Bert Bell, then owner of the Philadelphia Eagles professional football team and later commissioner of the National Football League.

Phil Steele is proud to be a participant on the voting committee for the Chuck Bednarik Award.

FOOTBALL 365 DAYS OF THE YEAR!

NCAA EXPERIENCE CHART

For 7 years I had listed an experience chart which broke down the number of Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen each team had in the two deep and rated the teams experience level with a formula I devised. In 2009 I made the experience chart FIVE TIMES better. I am just listing the Senior starters, and the seniors in the two deep and the points accumulated by using the old system. In the chart listed below I have now included 4 other factors. The 2nd factor listed is the % of lettermen returning. I devised a point system for this and go into it in depth on page 319. The next part that was added was the % of offensive yards returning. I took the total yards passing, rushing and receiving for each team and added them up and then got the stats for just the players returning and the yards returning % listed below is that figure. I did the same with the total tackles from last year and the % of tackles returning. This gives us an idea of the defense's experience. The final factor is the career starts returning for the offensive line. These players are not included in the stats but are a vital part of any offense. I then devised a formula that factors all 5 into the total points equation and then turned the point total into a number from 100 to 0. A 100 would be a team with 25 seniors (NCAA scholarship limit) in the two deep and every yard and tackle returning and 120+ career OL starts. A 0 would be a team with no experience and 0 seniors in the two deep. Just like in years past the first number is where each team ranks in the NCAA.

TURNOVERS = TURNAROUND

BY PHIL STEELE

Turnovers can have a huge impact on games and on a team's season. They can also lead to many misleading final scores. During the season I list all of the previous week's misleading final scores on PhilSteele.com on my Monday Daily Blog. By reading about them each week you can uncover some underrated and overrated teams throughout the season.

Here are a couple of examples from last year. Iowa St benefitted in B2B weeks from a combined +8 in TO's beating Northern Iowa and Texas Tech by a combined 79-38. The next week they were even in TO's vs Utah and were pummeled at home losing 68-27.

West Virginia outgained Conn 414-278 and had a 24-16 FD edge but were -4 in TO's and lost 16-13. The next week they hammered Cincinnati 37-10 as a small favorite.

In 2009, Iowa St benefitted from +8 in TO's vs Nebraska and pulled out a 9-7 win. Nebraska turned it over 4 times inside the 5 yard line and lost despite a 362-239 yard edge. The next 2 weeks Iowa St was overrated and they lost by a combined 69-18 vs Texas A&M and Oklahoma St despite only being a slight underdog in each.

In 2008, Ole Miss should have beaten Vanderbilt as they had a 385-202 yard edge but they were done in by being -4 in turnovers. The next week Ole Miss went into the Swamp and dealt the Florida Gators their only loss of the season in a huge upset (+2 in TO).

In 2007, Nebraska was mauled by Kansas 76-39 (-5 in turnovers). The next week they were even in TO's and despite being a home dog to Kansas St they rolled to a 73-31 win.

In 2006, Arkansas was -5 turnovers vs USC which led to a 50-14 loss. I picked Arkansas, which had finished 4-7 the previous year, #13 in my magazine and took some flak for that prediction. Arkansas recovered from that disappointing performance, WON the SEC West and finished #12 in the final regular season poll.

In '06 Virginia Tech lost to Boston College 22-3 and their season appeared shot but in reality they only allowed 264 yds to BC but were done in by -4 in TO's. Not only did they destroy Southern Miss the next week 36-6, but they were an underdog at home vs #10 Clemson and beat them 24-7 the following week. They won their last 6 games of the year and whipped the eventual ACC champ Wake Forest 27-6 (Wake had just beaten FSU 30-0 the previous week thanks in part to +4 TO's).

I could list many more examples, but as you can see, turnovers can determine the outcome of a gm. On my website, PhilSteele.com, I have many more examples listed. TO's can not only make a difference in a game but can make the difference between a winning and losing season.

One of the best examples was in 1999 when big turnaround seasons were had by Air Force, Arizona, Tulane and UCLA, which all finished with positive double digit turnover margins in 1998. Those 4 were a combined 46-4 for the '98 season!!! In 1999, those 4 were just 19-26!! Wow, turnovers can indeed equal turnaround. The NCAA's largest single season turnaround happened in 1999 when Hawaii went from 0-12 to 9-4. The Warriors made this article that year as they were -10 turnovers in 1998 but finished +1 in 1999.

More recently Minnesota made this article in B2B seasons. In 2007 they were my #1 "Going Down" team coming off a 6-7 season being +18 in turnovers. They finished 1-11 and in 2008 were listed as a "Going UP" team with -15 turnovers. They did rebound and after just one win the previous year finished with a 7-5 reg season and earned a bowl bid.

Last year 11 teams were in the "Going Down" box and only 4 managed to very slightly improve their records. The teams with the biggest drop offs were Rutgers which went from 9-4 to 4-8 and ended a streak of 5 straight bowls and Middle Tenn which went from 10-3 to 6-7. Ohio St was a team that improved by just 1 game (11-2 to 12-1) but that made me look at how BCS teams have done after being in the "Going Down" box back to back years. In the last decade BCS teams have improved 10 times had a worse record 10 times and the same record 5 times. Ohio St makes the list for a 3rd straight season which is only the 4th team to achieve that since 1990 (AF '07-'09, USC '02-'05, Florida St '97-'00).

In 2009, 17 teams were in the "Going Down" box and only 4 managed to slightly improve their records including Virginia Tech which went from 10-4 to 10-3. The teams with the biggest dropoffs were Rice which went from 10-3 to 2-10 and Oklahoma (12-2 to 8-5).

In 2008, Kansas went from 12-1 in '07 to 8-5 in '08 and LSU went from 12-2 to 8-5. Buffalo won the MAC Title thanks mostly to being +19 in turnovers. They were actually outgained by an avg of 408-370 during the season! Then in 2009 they had 13 returning starters and this time outgained foes 405-343. That means they went from -38 ypg to +62 ypg (100 ypg better) but their record dropped to 5-7 as their TO margin was -7.

In 2007, eleven teams made this article in the "Going Down" box. Of those 11 only ONE (Boston College) managed to improve its record and that was from 10-3 to 11-3. The biggest drop-off was Minnesota which went from a bowl game to just 1-11. Two others went from bowls to losing seasons.

Teams that benefitted from double-digit turnovers the previous year rarely get a repeat of that good fortune. In the last 18 years, 263 teams have had plus double-digit turnovers. Of those 263, 169 have had weaker records the following year (64.2%). Only 62 teams (23.5%) have improved their record and the other 32 had the same record. Teams with a positive double-digit TO ratio had the same or weaker records 76.4% of the time since 1996. Also new for this season is limiting the teams to those that were +11 or more in turnovers. Every team now plays 12 games and most play an FCS team which should increase their TO total so I have raised the number. Listed below are last year's most fortunate teams:

GOING DOWN?

Virginia Tech	+19	Stanford	+13
Tulsa	+17	Alabama	+12
Army	+16	Connecticut	+12
Ohio St	+15	Oklahoma St	+12
Maryland	+15	Hawaii	+12
Wisconsin	+14	Northern Illinois	+11
Oklahoma	+14	Missouri	+11
Iowa	+13	Toledo	+11
Oregon	+13	Miami, OH	+11

Let's take a look at some teams who had terrible luck (lots of turnovers) in one year then drastically improved the next year without those turnovers. Unlike the above changes I kept the "Going Up" category at -10 or more because TO's even to an FCS team can cost you a game (VT -3 TO's in loss to James Madison).

Last year Miami, Oh was at the top of the "Going Up" box as they were -24 in Turnovers in 2009. They simply became the FIRST TEAM IN NCAA HISTORY to go from double digit LOSSES to Double Digit WINS! (1-11 to 10-4)!!! Of the 12 teams that made the box last year only two failed to improved their records including New Mexico St which went from 3-10 to 2-10 (1 less FCS foe). The 12 teams in the box were a combined 50-98 33.8% in 2009 but improved to a combined 78-76 51% in 2010!!

In 2009, a record high 17 teams made the "Going Up" box which meant they had suffered negative double digit turnovers in 2008 and were poised to receive better fortune. Of the 17 teams, 13 (or 76.5%!) had a better record than 2008, 1 had the same record and only 3 of the 17 (17.6%) had a weaker record. There were SIX teams on that list that went from a losing season to a bowl game! Those 6 teams were SMU, Idaho, Ohio, Wyoming, Texas A&M and UCLA!!

In 2008, 13 teams made the "Going Up" box. Of the 13, 9 had an improved record, 3 had a weaker record and 1 had the same record. Ole Miss went from 3-9 to Cotton Bowl champs, Minnesota went from 1-11 to 7-6 and a bowl. Both Northern Illinois and Nebraska improved by 4 wins with the Huskies going from 2-10 to a bowl and Nebraska from a losing record to a New Years Day bowl win!

In 2007, 11 teams made the "Going Up" Box on this page. I even had a picture of Illinois, the #2 team listed on the page, showing that I felt they would make a dramatic change and they went from 2-10 in 2006 to the ROSE BOWL in 2007!!! Of the 11 teams, two had a weaker record including New Mexico St which lost their QB for a few games and went from 4-8 to 4-9. Three of the 11 had the same record and 6 improved their record.

As I previously stated, if a team received bad breaks the year before, they will usually be headed for better fortune the following year. In the past 17 years, there have been 220 teams that have finished the season minus double-digits in turnovers. Of those 220 teams, 152 (69%) have had better records the next year! Teams with a negative double-digit TO ratio had the same or stronger records 81% of the time since 1996. I have kept the "Going Up" box for teams with -10 or more TO's. Which teams are headed for better fortunes and better seasons?

GOING UP?

Middle Tennessee	-19	Fresno St	-11
Cincinnati	-15	UCLA	-11
Memphis	-13	Eastern Michigan	-11
New Mexico	-12	Duke	-11
Texas	-12	Central Michigan	-11
SMU	-12	Michigan	-10

I finally wrap-up the magazine in early May. My next month is spent going over each individual game for the upcoming year. I look at all the history between the teams, read the last 2 years of past histories for the matchups and then analyze the matchup to see if there are any mismatches (big, strong O-line vs small, weak DL, etc.). At this point my staff is hard at work on the FCS magazine which have one full page on all 126 schools. In 2009, we revamped the NFL magazine with 6 full pages on each NFL team in full color (see page 325). It came out even better than I expected with more NFL information at your fingertips than any other magazine and in '09 I predicted 7 of the 8 NFL Division champs, the best in the country! There was only one magazine in the country that had New Orleans even winning its DIVISION and that was mine. All others had either Atlanta or Carolina! In June and July, I go through the NFL for the upcoming year and do hundreds of radio shows. Before you know it, it's August and time to start watching the games. I pride myself in being the Most Accurate Preseason Magazine over the last 13 years and there is a lot of information on these pages.

To help you out a little bit, I will give you a few guidelines on the best ways to use this magazine. I will go over some of the abbreviations and things that you normally do not see in other magazines.

First of all, let's take a look at the player rankings in the front of the magazine. As mentioned on page 303, I feel that you are also getting a quality NFL draft guide with my individual position ratings. These ratings do not always match the conference rankings of the players. This year I will go over a couple of things that stand out. I have turned the top player rankings in the magazine into a pure NFL ranking. I have eliminated all true and redshirt frosh as well as true sophomores from the list. If you check out my All-American teams you will see RB Marcus Lattimore of South Carolina who starred as a true frosh. He is on my All-American list but not listed under my Top 64 RB's because he is not eligible for the 2012 draft. You will also notice that sometimes I have a player rated 1st Team All-Conference and yet in the front of the magazine he is listed behind a player whom I list 3rd Team. My All-Conference lists are how I think the players will perform this year in college football. The lists in the front are where I think they are in terms of NFL draft possibilities. A clear example from 2008 was Texas Tech QB Graham Harrell who was 4th in the Heisman voting throwing for 5,111 yards (71%) with a 45-9 ratio. Harrell was a super college QB and had a tremendous 2008 season but was not drafted! In 2006 Troy Smith of Ohio St took home the Heisman Trophy and 1st Tm AA honors but was not selected in the draft until the 5th round and was the 8th QB taken overall. During the season I got a lot of flak from Ohio St fans about how I had him rated the 10th best QB. I actually may have had him a little overrated at #10 as 3 of the QB's I had listed before him were coming back in 2007! Deep teams like USC actually have 5 or 6 NFL prospects on my list at a position like RB but do not rate highly on the All-Pac-12 Team. The reason is that they split the carries with so much talent in the backfield, and they are not likely to produce a 1,000 yard back unless someone steps to the forefront this fall and takes over as the feature back.

Sometimes my overall rankings do not coincide with my conference predictions. This is not sloppiness on my part but rather being meticulous. This year I have Pitt tied for first in the Big East with USF and list Pitt 1st because if they beat USF at home they will have the tie-breaker and represent the Big East in a BCS bowl game. However, I have USF rated higher than Pitt in my preseason Top 40. Pitt has to face Iowa on the road as well as host Notre Dame and Utah in their non-conf slate. While USF also plays Notre Dame, they host Ball St, Florida A&M, UTEP and Miami, FL (beat the Canes on the road LY) at home in non-conference play. If Pitt plays in a BCS bowl they will have a tougher bowl foe than USF does. Bottom line is I think they will tie for the Big East but USF will finish with a win or two more overall and therefore finish higher in the final polls. My conference predictions are based on what each team's record will be in conference play and where they will finish in the final standings. As I mention in the Top 40, my Power Poll Ranking (pg 315) is the overall strength of each team. Sometimes teams will be ranked a lot higher or lower in my Top 40 than the Power Poll ranking. This is due to scheduling.

On each conference page I list unit rankings and I feel they are the best set of unit rankings you will find. Each conference was done by me so they will be more consistent than the other magazines. One area that may raise some questions is the coach's ranking. I take into account years at the program as it is usually a two to three year process for new head coaches to get up to 100% speed at their new school. A new head coach has to learn the strengths and weaknesses of all the players and the players have to learn new schemes on both offense and defense and many times that is a slow process. Listen to any 2nd year HC talk about the upcoming year and he will say they are light years ahead of where they were the year before. Also a new HC sometimes does not mix with the previous coaches recruits and we see a large number of players quitting or transferring over the spring and summer. I have most first year HC's ranked lower than you would normally think due to this process and then bring them up in the rankings the next 2 years. In their 3rd year over half the team is their own recruits and that is when I rank them completely according to their coaching productivity.

Baylor

On the right hand pages for each team I have listed several interesting notes about each series. I have very little space on the two lines provided, so if a specific stat is given that was produced by a player or a team and the year is NOT mentioned, then it is about last year's game.

As you can tell by going through the magazine there is very little advertising and as I wrapped this article up I found out I needed one more page in the magazine. One of the pages I wanted to add was an article on starters lost during the year. Remember when Oklahoma won the National Title in 2000? Not a single OU starter lost a single start due to injury! My research has shown that teams that benefited from very few injuries, in this case 6 or less, usually have a weaker season the next year. I go into great detail with a lot of numbers backing up my research at PhilSteele.com.

The bottom line is, teams that have suffered a lot of injuries the previous year will generally have a better year the next season. A lot of backups were forced to play during the injury-riddled year, hence gaining valuable experience and the team figures to not be so injury-prone the next year. In a study over the last 7 years, my research shows that if a team had 32 or more starts lost to injury the prior season, they improved or had the same record the next year on 56 out of 67 occasions for an 83.5% success rate. Last year only 1 team that made this category did not improve and that was San Jose St which went from 35 starts lost to injury to 59 in '10! How about teams that are really banged up? Well from 2001-2005 12 teams went through seasons of having 40 or more combined starts lost and ALL 12 had the same or better record the next season. It surprises me that 17 teams met that criteria in 2006-'07 but only 7 had a stronger record the next year and 9 had a weaker record.

In 2008, Utah was at the top of the chart with 51 starts lost to injury and they went from 9-4 to 13-0 and #2 in the country! Last year was another solid year as 9 teams had 35 or more starts lost to injury in '09 and 8 of the 9 improved or had the same record (88%). For space purposes I will just list those with the highest amount of starts lost in 2010 due to injuries or suspension. For a complete list check out PhilSteele.com.

MOST STARTS LOST TO INJURY

- | | |
|-----------------------|---------------------|
| 1 North Carolina (89) | 6. BYU (40) |
| 2 San Jose St (59) | 7. UTEP (39) |
| 3 UCLA (58) | 8. SMU (38) |
| 4 Louisiana (48) | 9. North Texas (37) |
| 5 Navy (45) | |

Now let's look at the teams that had great fortune with very few injuries. With teams playing a 12 game schedule, I went for the magic number of 6 lost, figuring that is less than one half of one starter lost to injury during the year. Over the past 7 years only 17 of the 56 teams (30.3%) that had this good fortune managed to improve their record the next year. Last year there were NINE teams on this list and ALL NINE had a weaker record with SIX of them bowl teams from 2009 that finished with a losing record in 2010!!!

LEAST STARTS LOST TO INJURY

- | | |
|-------------------|-------------------|
| 1 Texas Tech (3) | 3 Oklahoma St (5) |
| 2 Baylor (4) | 3 Arizona (5) |
| 2 Temple (4) | 3 Akron (5) |
| 3 Arkansas St (5) | 8 Oregon (6) |

In 2008, Illinois (2 sts lost) went from the Rose Bowl to a losing season and Purdue (4 sts lost) went from 8-5 to 4-8. Last year 5 teams went from 8 or more wins in '09 to losing seasons in 2010. You can get the remainder of the teams on PhilSteele.com right now.

PhilSteele.com will have a page updated weekly dedicated to starts lost again this year. We will track each team's starts lost for the 2011 season so you can see which teams are really banged up and those that have remained very healthy. We even include start charts for each of the teams and also update them weekly!

Finally, I told you about most of my "Football Only" months but my most relaxing months are over the summer as those are the months I get to talk to my readers. We will have a list of all the radio shows I will be doing on PhilSteele.com and if you can't talk to me on the radio then you can email me your football questions from the website. I also answer all questions that are posted on my PhilSteele Fan Site on Facebook. I really do appreciate each and every person who buys my magazine and I hope to get the chance to talk with you in the next couple of months!

THE POWER POLL TOP 120

Once again, I would like to thank EVERYONE who has sent in their questionnaires over the last few years for taking the time to let me know your feelings about my magazine. Again, I am overwhelmed by the kind comments from those of you who appreciate all the hard work that goes into this magazine each year.

As I clearly point out in the front of the magazine, MY College Top 40 is based solely on where I think each team will finish and NOT how I rate the teams talent-wise. I stress each year that my Surprise Teams are often teams that have decent talent but a GREAT schedule. An example from this year is Ohio which is just #90 in my Power Poll but #34 in my Top 40 as they face my #120 schedule and should have double digit wins. Auburn is #33 in my Power Poll but is unranked as they face the 9th toughest schedule.

To come up with the order for this article I could have continued on from teams I list in my Top 40 article and extended the list to #120 using that method. However, the weakest teams listed in my Top 40 may be those that faced the toughest schedules, so I did not feel that would be a fair representation. Therefore, I decided to give you my Power Poll Top 120. Let me explain why I call it the Power Poll and how it was derived.

A few years back, before computers became part of the BCS rankings system, there was without a doubt some flaws in the polls. Teams rated #2 or #3 in the country really were not that talented and were maybe the 5th or 6th best. One internet site decided to produce a poll of some of the top analysts and experts each week and invited me to join. I myself work 365 days a year.

During magazine time (March, April, May) and throughout the football season (August through January) there are many 15-18 hour days put in and all of them are spent solely working on FOOTBALL. When they invited me to join the poll, I wanted to give them the best set of power ratings in the country to help make the poll as accurate as possible. The dilemma I had was which set? As I mention throughout the magazine, I now have NINE sets of power ratings that are based on different factors. For example, one is based on the individual talent level and performance of each position on each team and those are added up for the rating. Another is based on my Power Plays numbers which include rushing and passing offenses, defenses and special teams. Another is a continually updated power rating based on the score of the games and the strength of opponent.

What I decided to do was combine all nine into one rating which gives me a very solid overall ranking for each team. The rating takes into account EVERY factor, using it as my main set of power ratings. These numbers will differ from my "Plus or Minus" ratings on page 305 as THAT set is just ONE of the NINE used to compile this main number. As mentioned earlier, these numbers will differ from my Top 40 because the Power Poll is concerned ONLY with the strength of the team and does not factor in who they will play for the upcoming season or how many games they should win in 2011. Keep in mind, this is basically MY COMPUTER'S Top 120. Without further adieu and at YOUR REQUEST, here is my 2011 Preseason Power Poll:

JIM THORPE AWARD

The Jim Thorpe Award is one of college football's most sought after and prestigious awards. It is named after history's greatest all-around athlete, a man who excelled as a running back, passer and kicker on offense, but also as an awesome defensive back. Recognized in the Pro Football Hall of Fame simply as "The Legend", Thorpe also played professional baseball and won Olympic gold medals in the decathlon and pentathlon.

The candidates for the award are selected by a "screening committee" of Jim Thorpe Association members who follow several players throughout the season, watching games and researching information sources to grade Thorpe Award candidates on the basis of performance on the field, athletic ability and character. The committee then narrows the field three finalists and the names of these finalists are submitted to a national panel of about 50 sports writers, sportscasters, coaches and former players who vote to determine the winner.

Each week during the football season, Phil Steele overlooks the candidates issued by the school, the conference and distinguished committee members. After including his own personal input, the winner is announced every Thursday at jimthorpeassoc.org and PhilSteele.com.

DAVEY O'BRIEN
NATIONAL QUARTERBACK AWARD

O'BRIEN QUARTERBACK AWARD

MISSION

To honor the nation's best college quarterback of the year and inspire student-athletes to triumph both on and off the field

WHAT WE DO

- What began in 1977 as the Davey O'Brien Memorial Trophy, awarded to the best player in the Southwest Conference, was expanded in scope and limited to the quarterback position in 1981, becoming the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award® (The O'Brien).
- The O'Brien is awarded to the nation's best collegiate quarterback, evaluating each candidate on the criteria of quarterback skills/athletic ability, academics, reputation as a team player, character, leadership and sportsmanship.

WHO WE ARE

- The O'Brien Award honors the legacy of Davey O'Brien, the first player ever to win the Heisman, Maxwell and Walter Camp trophies in the same year, while leading TCU to one of their two National Championships.
- The Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award is overseen by the Davey O'Brien Foundation, which is headquartered in Fort Worth, Texas, and provides scholarships and university grants to help high school and college athletes transform leadership on the field into leadership in life.
- The O'Brien finalists exemplify Davey O'Brien's enduring character while exhibiting teamwork, sportsmanship, leadership and character in both the athletic and academic arenas.

VOTING PROCESS

- Throughout the season, quarterbacks are voted upon by a Selection Committee comprised of prestigious journalists and previous winners.
- The watch list is refined into semi-finalists and finalists before The O'Brien winner is announced on The Home Depot College Football Awards Show on ESPN in December.
- 2007 marked the inaugural year for the inclusion of the Fan Vote. Fans will have the ability to vote for their favorite quarterback throughout the season, and unlike any other award in college football, their vote will count as 5% of the final tally.

WHICH TEAM PLAYS THE TOUGHEST SCHEDULE?

The question arises each year, "who plays the toughest schedule?" At the beginning of the season, the NCAA usually releases a rating of each team's schedule based on their opponents' win/loss record from the previous season. This is a good method but it does have its obvious flaws.

The first flaw is basing the ratings on opp's records from the PREVIOUS season. Let's look at a couple of examples. At the start of 2007 I had Illinois rated as one of the top teams in the Big Ten and they went on to knock off #1 Ohio St and play in the ROSE BOWL. My ratings had them as an above avg opponent at the start of the year and they finished the regular season #13 (AP). Using 2006's record as the criteria for determining the strength of an opp's schedule however, you would count them as a 2-10 team! In 2008 I had teams like Ole Miss and Minnesota on my MIT List (pg 19) meaning I thought they were bowl caliber but using the previous year's record you would have counted them as 3-9 and 1-11 teams (both made bowls, Ole Miss finished #14). On the flip side of the coin Notre Dame was in an obvious rebuilding year in '07 yet was still counted as a 10-3 team if you based strength of schedule on 2006's record, and they were far from a January bowl team in 2007 at just 3-9!

The second flaw is basing it on pure overall records. If a team plays a FCS (IAA) school that was 11-1 in 2007, that counts as a MUCH tougher game in the NCAA ratings than facing a team like Alabama who was 7-6 in '07 but #1 at the end of '08 reg ssn! My ratings had Bama ranked as a much tougher team than any FCS foe. To give you an example from 2002, my ratings foresaw that teams playing Kansas St were facing a Top 10 team based on my preseason ratings. The NCAA strength of schedule ranking rated a game against Kan St as just a game vs a 6-6 opp (2001 record). Kansas St finished #7 AP for 2002 and walloped their opp's by an avg of 45-12, not exactly numbers from a typical middle-of-the-road opponent. On the flip side let's look at 2009's Ball St team. They were in an obvious rebuilding year and my power ratings had them only winning 2 or 3 games. My methods gave teams credit for a weak foe when facing Ball St but basing it on the previous year's record, teams were given credit for playing a 12-2 team which is what they finished in 2008! That is a MAJOR flaw!

Let me delve a little further into 2003's ratings. Coming into the season, I rated Notre Dame as the team that would face the NCAA's toughest schedule. When the season was over, they did indeed face THE TOUGHEST schedule. The NCAA rankings at the start of the year only had ND's schedule ranked as the 49th toughest. The Irish faced 10 bowl eligible teams. Their opp's in 2003 finished a combined 97-55. Once again, my strength of schedule is based on THIS YEAR'S strength of opponents NOT on opponent records from the previous year. Basing it on their opp's final records of 2002, it looked like a mediocre slate. They ended up facing teams that were ranked #1, #6, #9, #11 and #18 in the final AP poll, plus 4 other bowl teams. Hardly a mediocre schedule as they faced 9 teams with winning records, the 2nd highest total in the FBS that year!

I have many more examples from years past on my website PhilSteele.com for those of you who want a little more in-depth history on strength of schedule. These examples clearly show that basing schedule strength on last year's opponents record is inaccurate.

One chart that I find very helpful is comparing this year's schedule with last year's and I will delve into that more in a bit but to the right is my list of who ended up playing the toughest schedules in 2010. The 2010 bowl eligible teams are in boldface. Boise St took on the #91 toughest schedule, TCU #100 and Wisconsin #87 and 2 of the 3 made it to a BCS bowl. Northern Illinois took on the #119 slate and went 11-3. Of the teams that faced the 17 toughest est schedules, 7 finished with losing records (incl '09 bowl teams Ore St, UCLA, Minny and Call), 2 were 6-6 while 5 made it to bowls with more than 7 regular season wins!

Now let's turn our attention to 2011. This year I again decided to see what the NCAA method would come up with for toughest opp's faced and compared it to my chart, which I always list in the magazine. Let's first look at the NCAA rankings. To the right is a chart of all 120 teams and the combined 2011 opponents' records from last year. It is ranked in order of highest % of opponent wins (or toughest schedule) to lowest % of opponent wins (or easiest schedule).

On the next page are my rankings for the nation's toughest schedules this year. These rankings take two major factors into account. The first is my 9 sets of Power Ratings. This ensures that an FCS team is rated much lower than Texas or Georgia, two teams that finished with losing records last year!

The second factor is the amount of home and away games played. As an example, this year some teams will have as many as 8 home games, while others play as many as 8 on the road.

Listed on page 318 are this year's toughest schedules rated from the most difficult to the easiest. The toughest schedule this year according to my rankings belongs to Colorado while the easiest belongs to Ohio.

Let's pick out some teams to show you the flaws of just using last year's overall opp records. Based on 2010's opponent records Toledo plays the 31st toughest schedule while UCLA takes on an easy #91 slate. UCLA's "cupcake" #91 schedule features Houston, Texas, Stanford, USC and Ariz St (10 BCS tms total). Toledo's much "tougher" slate has just ONE AQ and also one FCS team. Put UCLA vs the #31 Toledo schedule and they are thinking double digit wins. Toledo will be lucky to be favored in 8 or 9 games this year vs their #31 schedule but would be favored in ONE games vs UCLA's #91 schedule. Do you really think Tim Beckman would trade schedules? For the record my SOS has UCLA's schedule at #28 and Toledo's at #81.

Here are the teams with the biggest discrepancy in the two methods of determining toughest schedule and you can check out each team's schedules to see which method you think is better. I list the difference in rankings between the two in (). Most UNDERRATED schedules (teams that face a tougher slate than the NCAA's % rankings): 1. UCLA (63) 2. Stanford (56) 3. Utah (53) 4.

Look for a Blog on PhilSteele.com in June where I will compare and contrast some other teams to point out more obvious flaws.

Vanderbilt (39) 5. Maryland (33) 5. Florida St (33) 7. Auburn (30) 7. Rice (30) 9. Georgia Tech (24) 10. Tennessee (23).

Here are the most OVERRATED schedules (teams that face an easier slate than the NCAA's % rankings): 1. Toledo (50) 2. Army (47) 3. Rutgers (45) 4. Penn St (42) 5. Bowling Green (39) 6. New Mexico (38) 7. CM (32) 8. UNLV (25) 9. Nebraska (31) 10. SMU (29).

Naturally teams would much rather face a team from a non-BCS conference like Nevada that went 13-1 last year (but does lose Kaepernick) than say a team like Texas that went 5-7 but will rank this year. Some teams that really will throw off the SOS if you based it on last year's records are Miami, Oh (10-4 LY) and on the other side of the coin Cincinnati (4-8). I guarantee you when these two meet this year at Miami, Cincy will be a large favorite and LY they beat the RedHawks 45-3. Based only on LY's record Miami, Oh is a vastly superior squad.

In 2004 on these pages, I looked at Iowa St's schedule and forecasted a turnaround season. Of their 11 foes, only 1 ranked in my Top 25 at the start of the year. While teams like Northern Illinois, Kansas and Nebraska all had great seasons in '03, they were far from powers in '04. Based on '03's records, Iowa St faced the 8th toughest schedule in the country!!!! My ratings had their schedule

Colorado St
SS Ivory Herd

In 1998 (in this article) I pointed out that Tulane had a similarly soft schedule and they simply went UNDEFEATED! In 1999, I asked, "Who will be this year's Tulane?" I answered myself by saying Marshall. The Herd then thundered their way to another UNDEFEATED season!!! In '03, I noted the strongest teams playing the easiest schedules. I said TCU, facing the #96 schedule, was one of my surprise teams and they flirted with an undefeated season. In 2004, I listed both Utah and Boise St as non-BCS teams with talent, an easy schedule and a shot to run the table and both finished the regular season unbeaten!!! In '05 Ark St played the #119 schedule and made it to a bowl after going 3-8 the previous year! In '06 Boise St faced the 11th easiest schedule and went undefeated while winning a BCS bowl. In '07 Hawaii faced the 2nd easiest schedule. I called for them to get to a BCS bowl and they played in the Sugar Bowl! In '08 Ball St faced the #120 slate and went 12-0. Tulsa had my projected #120 schedule in '08 and flirted with an unbeaten season. In '09 Boise had my #117 schedule in the magazine and went 14-0 and finished #4. LY UCF faced my #116 sked and won the CUSA Title.

In 2004 I added a new feature to this article and took a look at the teams who have much easier, or much tougher schedules than the previous year. I listed the 10 teams who took on the most improved (softer) schedules in 2004 than 2003. Out of the 10 teams, NINE had better records in '04 than '03 or 90%!!!! Overall the 10 teams had a combined record in '03 of 51-75 40% and improved to 69-50 58% in '04, including Auburn, which went from 8-5 to a perfect 13-0 and Iowa St which went from 2-10 to a bowl!!! In '05, of the 10 teams in the "Going Up" box, EIGHT improved their records. Four went from a losing season to a bowl. In '06 of the 10 teams in this box, 8 ended with better records including Wake Forest and Arkansas, who both went from losing seasons to January Bowls!!! Hawaii, Purdue and A&M went from losing years to playing in a bowl. In '07 I listed 12 teams in the box and 9 had the same or better record than in '06 with teams like Virginia, Indiana and Memphis going from a losing season to a bowl. In '08 8 of the 10 teams improved their records including Utah which went 13-0 and #2 AP and ND, Arizona and NC who all went from losing records to bowls. In '09 of the 10 teams in my Going Up box, SMU had the biggest improvement (1-11 to 8-5). Last year the 12 teams in the "Going Up" box included Oregon (played in Nat'l Title gm), two tms that went from mediocre bowls to a BCS bowl (Arkansas, Virginia Tech), UCF which won the CUSA Title, Maryland which went from 2-10 to 9-4 and Mich St which went from 6-7 to Big Ten Co-Champs. Two teams that did not improve were hit with unexpected losses in USC (probation) and Purdue (injuries). In the 7 years of the Going Up Box 56 out of the 74 teams 76% have the same or a better record the next year!!

Here are 19 teams with easier schedules that should have better success in 2011 and the number in the parentheses is the difference (easier) from LY's schedule:

GOING UP???

- | | |
|------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. Colorado St (53) | 11. Houston (34) |
| 2. Cincinnati (51) | 12. North Carolina (32) |
| 3. Washington St (44) | 13. Eastern Mich (32) |
| 4. Pittsburgh (43) | 14. California (31) |
| 5. South Carolina (41) | 15. Southern Miss (28) |
| 6. Wyoming (41) | 16. Arizona St (27) |
| 7. Memphis (41) | 17. Air Force (26) |
| 8. Utah St (41) | 18. UCLA (24) |
| 9. BYU (40) | 19. Penn St (21) |
| 10. San Jose St (39) | |

In 2004, I took a look at the 10 teams that faced a tougher schedule and said their records may drop because of it. Those ten teams combined for a 72-55 57% mark in '03 but the same 10 were just 44-67 39.6% in '04!!!! 90% of the teams saw their record get weaker and the only team that did not was Vanderbilt, which went from 2-10 to 2-9 (played one less game)!! The most notable drops that made the list were Kan St and MD who were coming off 11 and 10 win seasons and both had losing seasons!! In '05 only ONE of 10 teams in the "Going Down" box managed to have a better record. In '06 8 of the 10 teams in the "Going Down?" box had weaker records (Iowa St, Virg both bowl to losing record). In '08 eight of the ten teams I listed had a weaker record with Ark, Ohio, Virginia, Purdue and NM all going from a bowl to a losing year. In '09 only 7 teams made the box and only ONE improved their record. Last year I had 8 teams listed in the Going Down Box and SEVEN had a weaker record including Iowa St, Oregon St and Idaho which all went from a bowl to a losing record! That means over 7 years 83% of the teams in the Going Down box have had the same or a weaker record the next year.

Here are the teams with harder schedules that may see some dropoff in 2011 and the number in the parentheses is the difference (harder) from last year's schedule:

GOING DOWN???

- | | |
|------------------------|---------------------|
| 1. Utah (51) | 7. Ohio St (38) |
| 2. Tulsa (47) | 8. Baylor (36) |
| 3. Marshall (44) | 9. Ball St (35) |
| 4. Boston College (41) | 10. Louisville (35) |
| 5. Boise St (40) | 11. Indiana (31) |
| 6. UTEP (38) | |

The computer shows me that there are some other teams that one or more of my sets of Power Ratings call for them to have undefeated seasons. Naturally, if a team is projected at the top of my Power Ratings, it has a greater chance of going unbeaten. In 2002, three sets of my ratings called for Ohio St to go unbeaten and the Buckeyes were the surprise team of the country. In 2003, 11 teams were rated in two or more sets of my Power Ratings with a perfect record. LY TCU was on that list. Basically any team that has finished unbeaten in the past 9 years has made this list. Check out my June 15 blog on PhilSteele.com for my complete list for this year (and there are some surprises on it!)

Keep in mind that good health, a positive turnover ratio and a little luck are needed to go unbeaten. I hope your favorite team has a favorable schedule.

at #60. When the dust cleared, Iowa St faced only five bowl teams and came within a missed FG of winning the then weak Big 12 North, hardly the 8th toughest schedule in the land.

As a comparison, I also said that based on 2003's record, Kentucky had the 105th toughest schedule or 14th easiest in '04, with their opp's just 63-76 (45%). I looked at their schedule and saw FIVE Top 25 tms. I said that Kentucky clearly played a much tougher schedule than Iowa St, yet based strictly on 04's records, Iowa St played the 8th toughest and Kentucky the 15th easiest. UK's foes finished the year at 72-56 (#20), hardly an easy schedule.

If you go to PhilSteele.com you will find out that teams that play a top 20 schedule normally do not fare well.

In 1996, Army & Wyoming faced the two easiest schedules and were a combined 20-2 during the regular season.

LETTERMEN RETURNING/LOST SYSTEM

BY PHIL STEELE

For the last couple of years I have put an experience chart in the magazine which counts the number of Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors each team has and adds them up with a point system. Last year I went back and looked at percentages of lettermen returning and lost. Using percentages is more reliable than the amount of returning or lost lettermen because schools give out letters in different manners. Some schools hand out a lot of letters and others far fewer. Getting a letter at Syracuse under Paul Pasqualoni was tough, as he handed out just 38 total letters in 2004 and 40 in 2003. This year the low's went to Nevada with 46 while North Carolina St and Florida Atlantic with 48 each and Nebraska in 2001 handed out 82 letters or over double what Syracuse was giving out. It was also the most given out by any school in the previous 6 years. In 2007, Ohio broke all records with an amazing 91 letters given out while Hawaii had 90! Last year Ohio was at the top again with 81 and Michigan had 80.

The first category I looked at was teams with a high percentage of lettermen returning. I tossed the numbers into an Excel spreadsheet. Common sense would say teams that had a high percentage of lettermen returning should be much stronger the next year and have a better record. In the last 10 years a total of 104 teams have had 79% or more lettermen returning. That comes out to 10.4 per year. Of those 104, 77 have had the same or better record the next year or 74%. In 2009 Middle Tenn was the most productive from this category going from 5-7 to 10-3.

I was looking for a higher percentage so I started to eliminate some groups. Naturally, when I limited the group of teams that had 79% of their lettermen returning to those that also had at least 16 starters returning, the percentage went up. Out of the now smaller group of 57 teams, 46 or 81% had the same or better record and 71.9% with 41 of the 57 having an improved record. In 2008, I mentioned in this article that Florida, which was coming off a 9-4 season, made the group and I called for them to win the National Title and they delivered. Overall those are, once again, nice numbers but I wanted an even higher percentage so I narrowed the group further.

I devised a rather simple formula to cut the group. I multiplied the returning lettermen by 100 which means 87% returning lettermen would count for 87 pts, 67% for 67 points, etc. I then multiplied the returning st's by 5. A team with 19 returning starters earned 95 points, a team with just 9 returning starters only earned 45 points. A final factor I added in was QB experience. If a team had a returning starting QB they got an additional 25 points. I ran these numbers through the computer and found some magic numbers. Since 2001 there have been 77 teams that accumulated 185.1 points or more of experience from the previous year. Of those 77, 62 (83.1%) had a stronger or equal record to the previous year. By tightening it a little further I found that 88.1% of teams that had 190.1 points or more (37 out of 42) had a stronger or the same record the next year! Last year I had listed North Carolina in the box above but of course they were wiped out by the NCAA suspensions over the summer and did not end up hitting that magical 185.1 barrier (only 178.0).

Toledo
LB Dan Molls

Let me give you a couple of examples. In 2006, I called Arkansas the Most Improved Team in the country. They had 80% lettermen returning (19 starters). The Hogs, who were 4-7 in 2005, vaulted to 10-1 and a #5 ranking before a disappointing finish left them at "only" 10-4 (#15) for the season. They were the SEC West Champs and went from 4-7 to a New Year's Day Bowl. Wake Forest was just 4-7 in 2005 but had 83% lettermen returning (19 starters). Wake had low expectations and then lost their starting QB and RB to injuries. They still managed to improve to an amazing 11-2 when they not only got to play in the ACC Title game but also WON THEIR FIRST ACC TITLE SINCE 1970 (37 years!). They had been picked last in the preseason ACC poll! In 2004, Mike Price inherited a team with 17 ret starters (195.2 exp pts) and UTEP went from 2-11 to an 8-3 reg season and the Houston Bowl. In 2001, Colorado made my Most Improved List AND Surprise Team List and after a 3-8 2000 season they went 10-2, won the Big 12 Title and came within inches of playing in the National Title game. In 2006, Boise St was coming off a 9-4 season but with 195.7 exp points they went undefeated and knocked off Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl! Also in 2006 Ohio had 193.1 exp pts and went from 4-7 to a 9-3 reg season and played in the MAC Title game. In 2008, the most successful member on the 190+ group was Northern Illinois which went from 2-10 to the Independence Bowl. In 2009 a couple of members of the +185.1 club were Central Michigan, which went from 8-5 to 12-2 and MAC Champs and Washington, which was 0-12 in '08 but knocked off USC and just missed out on a bowl at 5-7. The last two years 7 teams have made the 190.1 exp pts box and 6 improved their record.

Only 1 team has 185.1 (but less than 190.1) experience points returning this year and an 83.1% chance of improving their record and that is ULM. Last year Western Kentucky and South Carolina made the article in this spot and both improved. There are 5 teams this year that have 190.1 or more experience points returning which means they have an 89.5% shot at an improved record this year and I list those 5 teams in the box below:

190.1+ Exp Pts
Ret Lettermen,
Ret Starters
QB Experience
89.5% chance improve

- Toledo
- SMU
- Vanderbilt
- Tulsa
- Texas A&M

Now, let's look at the opposite end of the spectrum, teams that have a low percentage of lettermen returning. If you look at teams that had 60% or less lettermen returning, there are 88 in the last 10 years. As you would expect, 56 of those had a weaker or the same record the next year or 64%.

In 2008, I noted that of the teams with 60.5% or less returning lettermen, 11 or less returning starters AND did not return their starting QB almost always regressed. Teams in that category had a worse record the next year, 70% of the time, and the same or weaker record, 78.7%. It has happened 34 times in the last 10 years and only 7 teams managed to improve their record with two of those being the 2006 Temple team, which went from 0-11 to 1-11 and the 2006 Ole Miss team, which went from 3-8 to 4-8. That means that only 4 of the 34 had less losses than the previous year or just 12.5%. The biggest four dropoffs have happened over the past seven years. In 2004, Kansas St had been a dynasty under Bill Snyder but could not overcome the "60.5%, 11, 0 QB Plan" and went from a very successful 11-4 season to just 4-7, a huge drop of 7 wins! The next year Florida Atlantic had just 50.8% returning lettermen, 8 ret starters and a new QB. They went from 9-3 in 2004 to just 2-9 in 2005, another 7 game drop. In 2006, Miami, OH had just 58.9% returning lettermen, 7 returning starters and an inexperienced QB. They not only had a great streak of ELEVEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS snapped but dropped from 7-4 to just 2-10! In 2007, Notre Dame was one of 3 teams on this list (Florida and Baylor also had weaker records) and the Irish plummeted from a Sugar Bowl berth in 2006 to 3-9 the following season! In 2009 the system suffered a rare loss as Navy beat it. Last year Oklahoma St became another rare team that beat this system.

This year four teams fall into the final category of 60.5% or less lettermen returning, 11 or less returning starters and an inexperienced QB. These teams only have a 12.5% chance of improving their record. They are Auburn, Navy, Memphis and Iowa.

Now let's look at the experience points system I devised. Since 2001 there have been 86 teams that have accumulated 114.5 or less points on the chart. Of those 86 teams, 70 have had a weaker or the same record the next year or 81.3%! The last three years 17 teams made the list with only 3 improving their record. Teams that have 118.55 or less points returning have the same or weaker record 94 out of 120 times (78.3%) In 2008, Michigan (116.2) suffered its first losing season in 40 years. In 2009 Ball St (117.3) crashed from 12-2 to 2-10. Last year Ole Miss went from 9-4 to 4-8 and Bowling Green went from 7-6 to 2-10. In the box below I list the five teams that are in the 114.5 category that are most likely headed down this year. There are no teams in the 78.8% category this season.

Teams with 114.5 or less pts in experience chart
81% chance of weaker or same record

- Auburn
- Iowa
- TCU
- Navy
- Louisville

SPRING GAME NOTES...

For years you have checked out the back pages of my magazine to get all the latest news from the spring games. Unfortunately there are only so many pages in my magazine and in the past I could only allot 3 pages for the spring notes. My website PhilSteele.com has UNLIMITED PAGES that I can devote to spring ball. Instead of trying to write just a paragraph for half the teams, we will write a full summary of what happened in the spring for all 120 FBS teams! We will even include boxscores. Just go to PhilSteele.com today and get all the latest spring game information and more. My goal is to make it like having 120 different media guides all in one location and in one format. You will be able to access school records, career leaders, all of this year's information and more. While you could go to each school's website and try to find the info on each team, I will have it all in the same format and all at one website. (Did I mention PhilSteele.com?)

Last 14 Years Matchups on Every FBS Game This Year... Only at PhilSteele.com

PhilSteele.com is loaded with information but the chart above is my favorite type of info on the site and it is exclusively at PhilSteele.com. When you click on this year's schedule for each team you can click on any opponent and the past matchups chart will pop up. I used the Alabama/Auburn matchup above as an example as it is one of the top rivalry games. The chart not only gives you the score of each of the past 14 years but it gives you the complete box score and much more. You will notice the matchup above is from the Alabama team page. Therefore green numbers are good for Alabama and red numbers are bad. At a glance you can see that Alabama had a streak of 6 straight losses from '02-'07 but has won 2 of the last 3 since. A check of the last column quickly shows you 5 green numbers in the last 10 years. This highlights the fact that the Tide, despite their 7 losses, outgained the Tigers in those games and many by wide margins. If you look at the ranked columns to the left you see that at least one of the teams has been ranked #2 or higher in 4 of the last 7 years and surprisingly neither was ranked in either '03 or '98. The "Upset" column lets you quickly see how many upsets there have been in the series (3) the last 14 years and the final column shows you who had the yardage edge. This is available RIGHT NOW for EVERY FBS game being played this year! Go to PhilSteele.com and become an expert on every matchup for 2011!

BILETNIKOFF AWARD

The Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation, Inc., the creator and sponsor of the Biletnikoff Award, has recognized the outstanding college football receiver position in Division I college football since 1994. In addition, the TQC Foundation's charitable mission is the provision of college scholarships to young men and women who have overcome significant physical, emotional and environmental challenges to achieve at the highest level of excellence. The national selection committee, which chooses the Biletnikoff Award recipient, is comprised of over 50 journalists, commentators and former receivers.

Phil Steele is proud to be a participant on the voting committee for the Biletnikoff Award.

MAXWELL AWARD

FEW HONORS FOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYERS CAN RIVAL ONE WHICH BEARS THE MAXWELL NAME!

The Maxwell Award for College Player of the Year is presented each year by the Maxwell Football Club, a group dedicated to helping young people realize their fullest potential as leaders through football at all levels!

The award is named for Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, a college football player, coach and sportswriter. Maxwell was only 37 when he died of complications stemming from an automobile accident. To honor his memory and his many contributions to football, the Robert W. Maxwell Memorial Football Club was founded in 1935 to present awards in his name and to promote football safety.

THE MAXWELL AWARD 2010 COLLEGE PLAYER OF THE YEAR: CAM NEWTON, AUBURN

Phil Steele is proud to be a participant on the voting committee for the Maxwell Award.

My Power Plays Projections take into account the strength of opponent faced. Each week during the season it projects a box score for each upcoming game with yards rushing, passing and points, etc. I thought it would be fun to plug in the Power Plays numbers vs their opponents' ratings and project the entire season. The chart to the left is projected statistics for the 2011 season.

WE VALUE YOUR OPINION HAS MOVED

I want to make my College Football Preview the very best magazine available and I really value YOUR opinion of it. In all of my magazines I used to have a questionnaire about the publication. This has helped me to improve each of them on a yearly basis and almost every addition is because YOU, the reader, asked for it. This is the 17th edition of my College Football Preview Magazine and I really do want YOUR opinion on everything that you like or dislike about this year's edition. This year I have moved the survey online. Please go to PhilSteele.com to fill your survey out.

2010 AWARD FINALISTS:

MICHAEL EGNEW, MISSOURI &
LANCE KENDRICKS, WISCONSIN

The prestigious John Mackey Award, presented by the Nassau County Sports Commission, is awarded annually to the most outstanding Tight End in FBS college football. The NCSC presides over the award, managing the watch list, supervising the voting by the distinguished selection committee and honoring the recipient at its annual award dinner. In addition to demonstrating outstanding athletic prowess on the field, the recipient must demonstrate positive sportsmanship-like behavior, be in good academic standing and strive to embody the leadership abilities of John Mackey both on and off the field.

Throughout his career Mackey vigorously supported many organizations and served on the Board of Advisors to the Leukemia Society of America, the Syracuse University Business School and the Board of Directors for the Syracuse University Alumni Association. He has also been Chairman of the Board of Advisors of the Community for Education Foundation and its "Overcoming Obstacles" program.

The Nassau County Sports Commission is an organization where every dollar raised is another child, senior citizen or differently-abled athlete experiencing the thrill of sports and competition. Contributions to the NCSC will enrich the quality of life for Nassau County residents, enhance the economy and aid in the development of events, programs and facilities.

The non-governmental, non-profit NCSC is dedicated to "improving lives through sports" and operates the "Let's Do It!" children's sports programs. Since its inception in 1992, the NCSC has quietly accomplished many of its original mission objectives, establishing exceptional participatory and educational youth sports programs, partnering with County government to enhance sports facilities and attract sporting events and organizations to the heart of Long Island, Nassau County. The Commission has quietly built an impressive track record of success in providing sports programming and attracting sporting events and businesses to Nassau County.

The Commission has set ambitious goals for the future. These goals involve the advancement of youth, amateur and professional sports from the grassroots to the elite level; the development and dissemination of brochures, such as "How Sports Can Combat Childhood Obesity" for elementary school students and the "Perils of Performance Enhancing Drugs" for middle and high school students; the organization of more conferences, workshops and clinics; the implementation of new initiatives; bringing new sports events and businesses to the County; and most importantly, the expansion of our youth programs to serve a broader spectrum of the community and a greater number of children.

PHILSTEELE.COM

Every week at PhilSteele.com I will give you my Forecasts of all the games involving Top 25 teams. As usual, it includes my computer's projected box score for each game. This Top 25 Matchup was posted on September 29th, 2010. The Number in Red represents the ACTUAL numbers.

Actual Sample From Sept 29 on PhilSteele.com

#8 OKLAHOMA VS #21 TEXAS

	RUSHING	PASSING	POINTS	TO'S	ST
#21 Texas	105/107	230/220	21/20	3.3	-
#8 Oklahoma	120/124	220/236	27/28	2.3	✓✓

LAST 14 YEAR MATCHUPS (click here for Last 14 yr results)

This game has lost a little bit of its luster with Texas getting shocked 34-12 at home to UCLA last week as they turned it over 5 times. It was the Longhorns worst home loss under Mack Brown. The Sooners outside of the Florida St game have failed to put teams away this year and last week led Cincinnati 24-9 3Q before giving up a couple of scores in the 4Q and had to hang on for a 31-29 victory. Last year's game despite the injury to QB Bradford early in the game was controlled by the Sooners and this year they are much more experienced on offense. They are led by QB Jones who is avg 305 ypg (65%) with a 9-3 ratio while his top target WR Broyles leads the NCAA with 41 rec (11.8). RB Murray has 436 yds (4.2) but Oklahoma's defense is allowing a surprising 421 ypg. While both teams have yet to play up to their potential this year on a consistent basis, I expect both to play their best games of the year. In the end I will go with the Sooners who clearly have more firepower on offense and HC Stoops needs this game more (just 1-4 L/5 against Texas).

PHIL'S FORECAST : OKLAHOMA 27 TEXAS 17

WHO WILL WIN THE HEISMAN?

Since 1935, the best college football player of the season receives the Heisman Trophy, the most talked about award in college football. Every week, sports shows list which prospective candidates are rising & falling on the list to win the Trophy. Phil Steele is proud to be a member of the Heisman voting committee.

Predicting who will win the Heisman is a tough task, even with a couple of weeks left in the regular season and there is always plenty of debate. With just a few weeks left in 2002's race, Carson Palmer was not even in the top 5 but he still ended up winning. Naturally, it is even tougher predicting the winner four months prior to the season.

In 1998 I listed Ricky Williams (Texas) as my Heisman Trophy favorite. Things did not look good for Ricky when Texas was humiliated by UCLA and Kansas St in B2B weeks and he had just average games in both. At the time it looked like his Heisman chances were GONE. When the smoke cleared Ricky broke the NCAA career rushing record and was the recipient of the coveted trophy.

In 1999 I listed Ron Dayne of Wisconsin as my Heisman favorite. Much like Ricky, Ron's chances of winning the Heisman appeared to go out the window after Michigan shut him down and then he fumbled late in the Badgers' upset loss to Cincinnati. When the season was over, Wisconsin was in the Rose Bowl and Dayne had broken Williams' career rushing mark and won the Heisman.

In 2000 I had the only preseason publication in the country which called for Chris Weinke to win the Heisman and he was not even on many folks' lists at the start of the year. This long shot simply delivered my THIRD straight winner, despite the big odds. Michael Vick was by far the preseason favorite in 2000 but came up short.

In '01 I missed with Chris Simms but did have Heisman winner Eric Crouch listed as #3 coming into the year. It would have been tough to pick who was going to win the Heisman that year, even on the morning of the presentation, as the voting was one of the closest ever.

In 2002 NO ONE pegged Carson Palmer to win the Heisman prior to the year and he was about a 100-1 long shot over the summer but I did have him #7 on my list of Preseason Heisman Favorites.

In 2003 Jason White was posted at 30-1 odds to win the Heisman with 20 players listed ahead of him so another darkhorse won the award. In 2004 White finished 3rd in the voting but one of the favorites, Matt Leinart, took home the trophy.

In 2005 Leinart was my pick but he didn't become the 2nd two-time winner with his teammate Reggie Bush beating him out. Had the vote taken place AFTER the bowls, Vince Young most likely would have won it.

In 2006 the QB of the #1 team in the country led from start to finish in the Heisman race as Troy Smith took home the award in a landslide. In '07 Tim Tebow became the first soph to win it while in '08 Sam Bradford became the 2nd straight soph. In 2009 RB Mark Ingram became Alabama's first ever Heisman Trophy winner despite the preseason favorites being Tebow, Bradford and Colt McCoy. Stanford RB Toby Gerhart finished a very close 2nd!

Last year Cam Newton surprised everyone as a 1st year starter one year removed from JC. I had him as a possibility last year but nobody could have foreseen him having a better year than Terrelle Pryor, Mark Ingram, Case Keenum or Landry Jones.

MY FAVORITES

1. Trent Richardson, Alabama

Two years ago Mark Ingram became Bama's first ever Heisman winner splitting carries with Richardson and some speculated Richardson was the better back. He waited patiently and probably has an even better OL in front of him and should get the bulk of the carries for the team I have rated #1.

2. Landry Jones, Oklahoma

Jones threw for 4,718 yds (65.6%) with 38 td's in his 2nd year as a starter. He has the best set of rec's in the county to throw to and will OU be #1 in the AP the majority of the season. The Heisman vote is before the title game so he is a frontrunner.

3. Andrew Luck, Stanford

A lot of people including myself were surprised that Luck turned down being a sure #1 pick in the NFL Draft to return. Undeclared QB's for #1 teams are always at the top but Nov 12th (Oregon) may be a key date for his Heisman chances.

4. Kellen Moore, Boise St

Moore will become the FBS career leader in wins and led the nation in pass eff LY. Colt McCoy set that win record two yrs ago but did not win the Heisman. Boise has a shot at the title game and Georgia and TCU will be key games.

5. LaMichael James, Oregon

Last year James was #2 in the Heisman voting and will be the focal point of the Ducks' potent offense. A big game in the opener vs LSU would put him right in the front of the pack.

6. Case Keenum, Houston

Last year it was a no brainer that Keenum would set the all time FBS pass record but then he was injured and RS. He is back for a 6th year and if he stays healthy will set the record. UH has a shot at a double digit win season. Keenum could lead the FBS in passing.

7. Justin Blackmon, Okla St

Blackmon led the nation in receiving in '10 and has a shot to repeat that feat TY. I was surprised when he turned down the NFL and the Cowboys offense will be among the most potent in the country.

8. Taylor Martinez, Nebraska

At midseason Martinez was one of the frontrunners for the Heisman but then he got banged up in the 2H of the year. I have Nebraska winning the Big Ten and if they run the table and he plays the entire year like he did early in '10, he will be in the mix.

9. Logan Thomas, Virginia Tech

Cam Newton was a 6'6" QB with mobility and a solid arm and he won the Heisman in his 1st year as a starter, guiding Auburn to an undefeated season as they played a schedule tailor made for an unbeaten year. Can lightning strike two years in a row?

10. Matt Barkley, USC

Barkley was having a big year last season but got banged up and tailed off in the 2H of the year missing a few games. USC is one of my underrated teams this year and he should put up some big numbers.

Stanford
QB Andrew Luck

CONTENDERS

This list is heavy on experienced QB's and RB's who could put up big stats for National Title contenders, which has been the formula for 8 of the last 10 Heisman Trophy winners.

Ryan Broyles, Oklahoma
Darron Thomas, Oregon
Marcus Lattimore, South Carolina
EJ Manuel, Florida State
Aaron Murray, Georgia
Alshon Jeffery, South Carolina
Denard Robinson, Michigan
Brandon Weeden, Oklahoma St
Jeff Fuller, Texas A&M
Montel Harris, Boston College

POSSIBILITIES

Here are some quality players who will put up big stats but aren't likely to be playing for a National Title contender or may play for a Title contender but could split votes with other prime players:

Michael Floyd, Notre Dame
Mark Barron, Alabama
Jared Crick, Nebraska
Stephen Garcia, South Carolina
Luke Kuechly, Boston College
BJ Daniels, USF
Robert Griffin, Baylor
Zach Collaros, Cincinnati
Ryan Lindley, San Diego St
Nick Foles, Arizona
Dan Persa, Northwestern
Danny O'Brien, Maryland
Quinton Coples, North Carolina
Jacory Harris, Miami, FI
John Brantley, Florida
Manti Te'o, Notre Dame
Kirk Cousins, Michigan State
Greg Childs, Arkansas
Travis Lewis, Oklahoma
Vontaze Burfict, Arizona State
Tank Carder, TCU
Ray Graham, Pittsburgh
Chris Polk, Washington
Isaiah Pead, Cincinnati
Edwin Baker, Michigan State
Tino Sunseri, Pittsburgh
Doug Martin, Boise State
Knile Davis, Arkansas
Montee Ball, Wisconsin
Cyrus Gray, Texas A&M
Geno Smith, West Virginia

Alabama
RB Trent Richardson
